ACTIVE WORKERS ACHIEVING BIG SUCCESS IN CIRCULATION DRIVE

"ALIBI" ARTIST IS BOUND TO LOSE IN LEADER SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

Extra efforts, not excuses, are necessary to win big awards; overconfidence is most serious handicap; work accomplished now will have bearing on winners—which prize for you?

Second Vote Period Ends Saturday Night; Entire Campaign Ends Just One Week Later.

"I haven't a chance in the world," said one candidate in the office last night. "Why, I'm over two hundred thousand votes behind right now." To which the candidate's friend who was along, replied, "well I wish there were only two or three five year subscriptions between me and a prize automobile." And there's a sermon in those few words, too, if you only get it.

Are YOU one of those "alibi" artists who would rather provide a make-shift alibi than really try? There are many, many subscriptions to be had between now and the close of the campaign. Why, candidates who have entered in the outside districts are getting subscriptions right here in Littlefield now,—right here where the Littlefield candidates should be getting them all. Candidates, are you simply picking up

J. T. BELLOMY PRESENTS FIRE DEPARTMENT WITH $50 CHECK IN APPRECIATION OF THEIR WORK

Backfire from a tractor operating the feed grinder at the J. T. Bellomy Feed & Grist Mill is believed to have caused the fire, which broke out Saturday afternoon about four o'clock and caused damage of about $3500 to the buildings and the loss of about $600 worth of feed, including ground and mill feed and heads.

Joe Blackwell was feeding the mill when the flames burst forth, exploding the gasoline tank, and throwing fire in all directions.

The feed grinding building was completely destroyed; considerable damage was done to the office, and also to the grist mill. Fifteen hundred empty sacks were burned, and a quantity of feed.

Insurance of about $2000 was carried on the buildings damaged, while the feed was covered with $300 insurance.

J. T. Bellomy stated the grist mill would be repaired, and running by Saturday of this week.

Mr. Bellomy stated the damaged buildings would be rebuilt and repaired at once.

In his spirit of appreciation and gratitude for the splendid work rendered by the fire department, Mr. Bellomy presented the fire department with a check for $50. He also requested the Leader to thank each and every member of the fire department, who so vigorously and efficiently worked in putting out the fire and preventing the spreading of same to nearby buildings.

MAY FETE TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY NIGHT

Preparations are almost complete for the May Fete to be given at the high school auditorium Friday night, May 4 at 8 o'clock. The combined efforts of the Junior Study Club and the Parent-Teachers' organizations should make of the May Fete this year even more of a success than formerly.

At 8 o'clock Friday night the royal procession will march to the stage where the queen will be crowned. Mr. Floyd Hemphill will announce this party. Voting has not been completed for the queens so it is impossible to say just which one of the four charming candidates will be queen. After the queen has been crowned by the mayor, the royal

EXTENSIVE PLANS ARE BEING MADE FOR THIS EVENT

Merchants To Offer Extra Special Low Prices On Monday

Extensive preparations have been made for Littlefield's Dollar Day, Monday, May 7.

This is a great monthly event, and one which is looked forward to with much interest and pleasure by the people of Littlefield and territory.

A large number of residents of the Littlefield section were in Littlefield for last Dollar Day, and it is expected that the number participating in the next Dollar Day, Monday, May 7, will show a big increase over the attendance of a month ago.

Dollar Day in Littlefield is arranged by the Littlefield merchants as a special event in which to give extra value, and for that reason Dollar Day is a time at which the dollar buys more.

The Littlefield merchants have made special plans for Dollar Day, Monday, May 7, and will offer a great variety of special bargains.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO BUY IN LITTLEFIELD ANYTIME—BUT ESPECIALLY DOLLAR DAY, MONDAY, MAY 7.

LAST RITES FOR LITTLEFIELD GIRL HELD APRIL 26

Many Attend Funeral For Kathryn Jones

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist Church at 3 p. m. Thursday last for Frances Kathryn Jones, 13 years of age, who died in a Lubbock hospital about 11:30 p. m. the previous day after an illness of 18 days. Death resulted from spinal meningitis which developed from sinus and mastoid trouble. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones.

As an expression of the high regard in which the child was held, and in recognition and sympathy at the great bereavement of the family, all business houses in Littlefield were closed, during the time of the funeral services.

Loved in life by her school mates, her friends of the school room attended the funeral in a body as an expression of the great loss they had

LAND APPRAISERS AT WORK IN LAMB COUNTY; INCREASES BEING GRANTED

Land appraisers, numbering in all ten, representing the Federal Land Bank of Houston, were re-examining land in Lamb county Tuesday of this week.

Some increases in loan commitments have also been reported as a result of the visit here of government officials recently.

Investigation as to land values by government officials was the result of a trip to Washington by a special committee from Lamb county in the interest of higher land values for the purpose of securing loans.

W. F. Fry Will Give Bible Lectures

Lectures will be given at various churches in Lamb county. Dr. W. F. Fry, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be with the First Baptist church for one week.

County Marketing Council Organized

At the call of W. H. Cunningham, acting as temporary county chairman, a number of farmers met in the city hall in Littlefield April 26, to discuss plans and means of working more in cooperation with the director from this district and with the newly formed Northwest Texas Cotton Growers' Association.

The meeting was called to order by Jess Elms, director, who requested H. L. Gantz to present plans for a closer working unit of farmers in each county composing territory embraced by the newly formed association.

After due deliberation with reference to setting up in Lamb county a county marketing council to be used as a medium of contact with the general office of the association, and to cooperate with our director in all matters concerning the cooperative marketing of cotton, it was moved

BOY SCOUT TROOP SPONSORED BY ROTARY CLUB ORGANIZED

At a recent meeting of the Rotary Club of this city, it was voted to sponsor the reorganization of Boy Scout Troop 26 which had been discontinued. A troop committee was selected to recommend a Scoutmaster and assistant Scoutmaster.

W. T. Hanes, principal of grammar school and E. B. Hobbs, teacher of history in grammar school were recommended for scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster respectively.

These men immediately went to work. A meeting was called of Troop 26 and eight men reported. These old members voted to reorganize the troop and begin as if a new troop were being formed.

The officials then stated that all boys who were no further than tenderfoot rank would be expected to pass the tenderfoot tests again. It was also ruled that no new members would be taken until the eight old ones convinced the scoutmasters that they were really sincere in wishing to reorganize this troop by quickly and efficiently going to work as Scouts. These boys did their work so quickly and efficiently that a list of appli-

SHOULD ENCOURAGE BUILDING

It seems to be generally understood that the greatest measure of unemployment is in what are known as the "building trades." Building, except on public projects, is almost at a standstill. In the big cities there was an orgy of over-building up to 1930, but in the nation as a whole we are told by competent authorities there is still a great deal of building and repair work to be done.

In normal times the United States used to spend about four thousand million dollars a year on building, constructing every year enough buildings to house a population as large as the city of Los Angeles, with dwellings, public buildings, stores, factories, hospitals, schools, libraries and the rest to meet the needs of a million population.

With the cessation of that annual building program, carpenters, masons, plasterers, painters, electricians, plumbers, paper-hangers and all of the trades which collaborate to construct a new building began to feel the pinch of unemployment. The furniture and furnishing industries felt it next, and so on down the line. And the sources from which money ordinarily comes for building purposes found themselves with "frozen" loans and no money to lend even to those who wanted to build or repair.

We think there are probably enough office buildings, stores and semi-public buildings of that sort; probably enough factories, also. But all of those need modernizing and repairing, and while there are dwellings enough of a sort, to house everybody in America, many of them ought to be abandoned and replaced with new ones, and practically all of them ought to be repaired, many to the point of virtual reconstruction.

For those reasons we agree with a good deal of interest further details of the government's plan to encourage long-term installment loans for repairing and modernizing dwellings. We understand this does not contemplate direct loans from public funds, but rather some sort of a guarantee to lenders against loss when all the conditions of the loan meet the approval of government experts. We do not know how far it is proposed to go to extend the same security and encouragement to lend for new dwelling construction, but the government would do well to try to simplify the present system of building loans and cut down the cost to the home-builder of the money he has to borrow for that purpose. One of the great reasons why building has slowed up is that mortgage loans under the present system are hard to collect, and therefore the borrower is required to pay altogether too high a profit to somebody when he tries to finance a home.

COMPULSORY CROP CONTROL

We shall watch with a great deal of interest the experiment in compulsory curtailment of crops, under heavy penalties, provided for in the Bankhead cotton control act, which is now the law of the land. Under this law each cotton grower will be given an allotment of the number of bales he may market. If he grows or offers a market any more than his allotment he will pay a penalty tax high enough to take whatever profits he might have made from the sale of his quota.

The theory of limiting production is, of course, to get a higher price for the producer for what he does raise. That is what lies back of the wheat, corn-hog and tobacco control measures, which, however, are voluntary agreements on the part of the growers. No man needs to join up unless he wishes to, and he gets his compensation for limit production out of a processing tax paid by the handlers. In practice, we have wondered whether this method would ever be successful, human nature being what it is.

We think the principle behind the Bankhead law is, in some respects, preferable to the bonus system under the other crop-control laws. In the long run it is better for any human being to get his profit as a direct result of his own labors rather than as a bonus. If the cotton plan works, the price of cotton will go high enough so a bonus will not be needed, and the process tax need not be levied. That is all to the good. Anything which eliminates any form of taxation is always good. And, except for the first compulsion, it leaves the cotton farmer with more of his personal independence. What he does and earns does not depend upon what his neighbors do.

In a perfect world everybody would cooperate voluntarily and completely in every program for the common good. But that presupposes complete agreement as to what is really for the benefit of everybody, and the utter absence of greed and desire to take any unfair advantage. When mankind has reached a stage when everybody agrees on what is right and makes no effort to overreach his neighbors we won't need any crop control laws nor any other kind of laws. Unfortunately, we haven't got to that stage yet; and we shall be much interested to see by what means and at what cost the Bankhead law is enforced.

Our Trip to the Valley

BY J. T. BELLAMY

We left Tahoka Thursday, March 29 at 10 a. m. Mr. and Mrs. Tremain, my wife and myself. And I want to say right now, any time you go out with Mr. and Mrs. Tremain and don't have a good time, there is something worse the matter with you than an ingrowing toe nail. They are wonderful pals.

We were headed for Del Rio, the fisherman's parade, making the trip through on time, and enjoying a nice visit with our old townsman and good friend, George Long, who is now nicely located in Eldorado, and he really seemed glad as well as surprised to see us.

The first disappointment we had, was when we arrived at Del Rio; and the game warden very courteously informed us, that March and April was the closed season on bass and croppie, but that the cat and perch fishing was good, and that they really tasted good, which we found to be true.

We stayed in Del Rio almost a week, seeing the sights fishing and having a good time, until the following Thursday, when in spite of all the fish, mutton, fresh vegetables, all home grown, our better halves made up our minds to start to the Rio Grande Valley. By this time there were five of us in the party. A. C. Tremain having made the trip down there to drive for me, as I had had the misfortune of being chewed up pretty badly by a large cat fish. (Sam Jones.) Any way we had a pleasant trip to the valley.

As we entered the valley I was amused at my wife and Mrs. Tremain. I noticed them looking back behind the seat, (you see they had neither of them ever been in the valley before, and didn't know that we were entering at the time when the orange trees were in bloom.) So I made inquiry as to what they were looking for, and Mrs. Tremain said for me to stop just a minute please, as she had a little bottle of perfume in her toilet case, and she was sure the stopper had jolted out, and she hated so much to lose all of it; so I stopped the car and as she opened the case she discovered that it was the orange blossoms she was smelling and not the perfume at all.

You will find in visiting the valley at most any time of the year, a regular flower garden. Roses and all kinds of yard flowers and wild flowers, and at this particular time when the citrus trees and the olandiers and honeysuckles are in full bloom, the fragrance of the valley is some thing beyond description.

Hold everything, Morley, I feel a verse coming on. (Morley) let her go.

When it's orange blossom time in the valley,

And the air is filled with fragrance everywhere;

And the rose and the lily seem to whisper,
 Come, come it must be better here than there.

When it's orange blossom time in the valley,
 With a feeling that you cannot understand;

It is then that you get a glimpse of heaven.

In the valley of the dear old Rio Grande.

We remained in the valley long enough to see most of the towns of importance down to Brownsville, visiting several fruit and vegetable farms also. We drove down to Port Isabel, and for a few moments stood on the very southern most part of Texas, but having forgotten our rubber boots we had to retreat.

We left Brownsville Saturday afternoon for Corpus Christi, remained there one night only. Leaving next day for Galveston where we spent two days fishing and boat riding. And did we catch them. I will refer you to Carl Tremain for the fish stories.

We left Galveston early Tuesday morning for home, parting company at Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Tremain and A. C., coming home by way of Waco and Temple; wife and I coming by way of Huntsville, Dallas, Wichita Falls. We arrived home Thursday, having driven a distance of 2362 miles and enjoying every mile of it, but glad to get back to Littlefield.

Red Cross Needs More Clothing

According to Mrs. J. L. Carroll in charge of the Red Cross office, city hall, Littlefield, a splendid response was demonstrated by the citizens of this city in their call recently for used clothing for the needy, and on the behalf of this worthy institution, Mrs. Carroll thanks the good citizens for their assistance in this manner.

Mrs. Carroll states they received the following: 22 dresses; four sweaters, 16 hats and tams, four blouses, three skirts, nine pair shoes, seven pair trousers, eight pair hose, one boy's coat and vest, three felt hats, and five straw hats.

Mrs. Carroll points out, however, that she continues to receive many calls for clothing, especially for children of school age, whose parents state they will have to discontinue school unless they are supplied with suitable clothing, and asks that all those who have used clothing which they are willing to contribute, please phone the Red Cross office, or bring the articles to her in the city hall.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and gratitude to the friends and neighbors for their help and words of consolation during the illness and death of our darling daughter and sister.

Especially do we thank the doctors and nurses for their faithful and untiring efforts.

We also wish to thank those who sent such beautiful floral offerings. May God bless each and every one of you.

The Dollar Bride

by Mary Imlay Taylor

FOURTH INSTALLMENT

Roddy Gordon, who has gone to make his fortune, returns to confront his parents and his sister Nancy with the fact that he has stolen fifteen thousand dollars from the bank where he works to make the loveliest woman in the county. He will soon be found out and he can return it. "But I love her," declares Roddy to his angry father. "I'd steal for her, I'd die for her. A pretty story!" shouts his mother. "You've broken your mother's heart, you've disgraced your father and your sister—your young sister. Look at her, a girl in the prime of life—with a thief for a husband!"

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Nancy, you don't quite hate me do you?"

"I don't hate you," she answered faintly. "—oh, don't ask me, Roddy."

"I did not; he was silent for a moment, looking at her, and then he smiled."

"I'm going to get that money for you, Nancy. Fortunately, I have it in the bank, in such shape I can get the whole of it, today. But it's eight o'clock, the banks aren't open, won't be for an hour. Will you wait with me? I've only got five minutes. Come to breakfast with me, for the first time."

"She raised her eyes involuntarily to his and her heart seemed to stop. How his face had changed! She would never have known it. She smiled. If he loved her like that it was terrible to treat him so; to come to his life and wreck it—for—her sake! Every noble instinct in her rebelled against it, and yet she was Roddy's and her mother and father. Suddenly she covered her face with her hands and groaned.

"Oh, Richard!"

"He was startled; he felt a change in her and his flush deepened. Some almost like hope quickened in her heart, but he did not speak.

"Neither did she, they had no time. Mammy Polk came to the door.

"Breakfast a' ready, Mist' Richard!"

"She was a tall, old black woman, and erect in her striped purple dress and her long apron.

"Mammy Polk, we've got company for breakfast," said Richard quickly.

"Gordon is going to eat breakfast with me."

"Mammy Polk courtesied.

"Now, Miss Nancy? We've got coffee and coffee; de doctah, he don't wuffin mornin'. Can't I drop you a bit ob bacon, Miss Nancy?"

"No, no! I like waffles, Mammy Polk. I'll take anything you have."

"Mammy Polk smiled. "I reckon I like de waffles," she said proudly.

"Mammy's famous for them," said Richard. "Come, Nancy, let's go out to breakfast."

He bent over her, his face aglow, offering his arm. Nancy took it and tried not to look at him. Together they walked into the dining room, following the tall figure of Mammy Polk.

Richard led her to a chair opposite his own. Nancy sat down weakly, hardly daring to lift her eyes, she was afraid the old negro woman would see the traces of tears.

"Try to eat something, Nancy, you'll be ill if you don't," she heard Richard's voice.

"Indeed I can't eat, Richard!"

She felt his eyes on her and tried to hide her own, toying with her fork. Her lips trembled. Was he wondering why she wanted that awful money?

"Don't ask too much, Richard!" she cried, agonizingly.

He shot a look across at her, and his own color died away slowly.

"I wish you'd try to eat—see these waffles," he offered Mammy Polk's best.

Nancy took one and sat looking at it, her lips still trembling.

"I don't want to cry into a waffle," she said in a choked voice. "don't watch me, please don't."

"I can't—there's someone at the door now to see me," Richard rose. "I'll send him off in a jiffy—why, it's Page Roemer!"

Nancy sprang up, her face white. "Oh, Richard, don't let him come in here!" she gasped.

Richard, who had started for the door, turned and looked at her, his heart in his eyes. For a full minute they stood thus, looking at each other, and Nancy's pitiful little secret told itself. Richard knew it. He seemed to hesitate, to be thinking hard, and his strange eyes deepened and darkened wonderfully.

"I shan't bring him in here, Nancy," he said quietly, and went into the next room.

Nancy sank down again into her chair at the table. Every nerve in her body throbbled and quivered, she heard Page Roemer's voice, then Richard's, then the movements of the two men out there in the hall. Richard was sending him away and she felt like death. If Page came into the room, if he dreamed what she had done—her face burned with shame. Horror seized her, she clung to the arms of the old mahogany chair in which she sat. It seemed to her that she had lost all power of thought and action. Then she heard the front door shut and Richard coming back alone. She did not look up, she could not. He came in slowly and stopped beside her.

"Nancy," his voice was kind, but there was emotion in it as deep as hers. "I'm going out now—to the bank. Stay here, please, with Mammy Polk, I'll bring it straight back—the sum you need."

She tried to answer him but she could not. She had risen and was standing weakly, and he made her sit down again. His touch was gentle and his face, close to hers, flushed and paled almost like a woman's. Their eyes met, and, for the first time, he kissed her.

"Nancy!"

She was trembling violently and she could not raise her eyes. He held her close, pressed to his heart, and she felt his breath soft and warm on her cheek.

"I'll make you love me!" he said again. "If I thought I couldn't—I wouldn't dare—but I will, Nancy, I will!"

Her head sank lower and there was a little silence more eloquent than words. Then she gasped. "Please don't—not now, Richard! I—I can't bear any more."

"I know—forgive me!" He was up and half way to the door, then he turned back, his heart in his eyes, hot with wrath. He was thinking of Page Roemer. But something in her attitude, in the appealing profile, the air of grief and helplessness, went to his heart. He did not speak; he opened the door and went out.

To Nancy the shutting of that door snapped the tension. She sank lower in her chair, her eyes fixed on a space of sunshine outside the window where she could see the soft green turf, and here and there the yellow flame of a crocus.

Those yellow crocuses out there leaped up like tongues of flame, she watched them, fascinated. If she could only get out of that window and run away—she caught her breath at the thought. It would be so easy! Could she? But there was Roddy to go to jail, and her father! She remembered and shuddered, hiding her eyes.

She heard Mammy Polk's voice, but the words were blurred, the old woman was babbling about Richard. Nancy's ears were strained, listening for his step coming back; she heard, instead, the clock strike, a single blue-like bell, half past nine.

Mammy Polk set a dish down and turned quickly.

"Clare! goodness, dere's Mist' Richard coming back now!" she exclaimed.

Nancy sank lower in her chair; a deep blush mounted. Then she rose slowly to her feet, gripped the edge of the table and stood, swaying a little, her face turned toward the door, waiting for this man who was so soon to be—her husband!

Richard had brought the money, all of it, and he had asked no questions, not even when he saw the haste that invaded her like a tempest, the secret haste that she wanted to hide from him and could not.

"Richard, I've got to go home!" she cried, trembling. "I—I must go alone, too. Don't ask me why!"

And he had not asked. Suddenly his voice and his eyes were kind, as if he knew. The passion seemed to have died out of them, but there was tenderness.

"I'd come if I could help—could I, Nancy?"

She shook her head, speechless, poised for flight, and he was generous. He let her go unquestioned and undelayed.

Fear winged her feet; she almost ran down the long street; she was possessed with a horror of being too late, of having done it all in vain! Her imagination, a vivid, restless thing at best, pictured Roddy's arrest just as she entered—or, worse still, he'd be on his way to New York with the detectives.

She turned the corner, had a glimpse of the old house and garden, quiet under the fine old trees, and drew a breath of relief. When she opened the gate she saw Roddy walking up and down inside the lilac hedge. He paced restlessly, but with a dragging, dejected gait. He wanted to escape it all, but there was no escape—except by the road. He had promised Nancy not to go until she came back. And then it might be too late.

Nancy was thankful that he was alone. She could tell him so much more easily than she could tell her parents. They were her real problems.

"Roddy," she breathed in catchy gasps, "I ran all the way—here's the money—go to New York and pay it all back!"

Roddy, utterly amazed, stood staring blankly as she thrust the bulky package into his hands. She had never looked smaller or more childlike; her pale face a little drawn, tears of excitement misting her blue eyes, only her lips touched with red, moist and trembling. She must have gone mad, he thought soberly.

"Take it, take it, Rod! It's all right—bonds and securities as good as gold, you can cash them, take them and go—quick, quick, before it's too late!"

He took the bundle, glanced at its contents and stared at her with his mouth open.

"Where in mischief did you get it, Nancy?"

"I—I got it—!" she stopped, leaning against a tree, breathless. She was so pale that her blue eyes looked dark. "It doesn't matter—I borrowed it, you can have it, Roddy."

He was turning the papers over, bonds and securities and cash. His amazement deepened as he counted and assured himself that all were genuine. Fifteen thousand dollars—the whole sum—from the gods! How in the name of heaven—? He stared at his sister, the red glinting in his wine-brown eyes.

"What have you been doing? Where in the world did you get this, Nancy?" he demanded hoarsely.

"I didn't steal it!" she said in a low voice.

He turned on her. "Don't rub that in!" he cried almost fiercely. There seemed to be no gratitude, no response in him. He stared at her as if he thought her a thief, she had hurt him cruelly.

Her face crimsoned under his eyes. "It's mine!" she repeated with stiff lips. "Don't stand there, don't stare at me, go back to New York. Oh, Roddy, go before it's too late!"

A light broke over his perturbed face. Relief or something akin to it.

"Oh, Lord, I'm thankful!" he breathed, folding the envelope up and staring at her. "I'm going—but—Nancy, where on earth did you get it? I must know that!"

Her eyes darkened suddenly, she choked back a sob.

"I'll never tell—unless you trust me and go—right away."

Roddy stared, his jaw, dropping, he turned white and then red. "Nancy Virginia, did you tell—to get it?"

Nancy, who felt his shamed misery, threw her arms about him.

"I didn't—I vow I didn't, Rod! I just borrowed it."

"Borrowed it—on no security? Lord, Nancy, how can we pay it back?"

Anger welled up again in Nancy. She had suffered and he took it this way—without thought of her!

"We'll do it somehow, Rod! Can't you trust me—I won't tell. I won't truly! Oh, Rod, do you want to go to jail? Can't you wake up, 'ake it and go—go!"

Their eyes met. She was clinging to his arm, pushing him away, urging him to go, and they were very close together.

"I did it for father," she said feebly. "It was killing him. Now go—go. There's a train, you can just catch it!"

He hesitated, in an agony of shame—he wanted to fling the borrowed money back, to say he'd face jail first, but his courage ebbed as the temptation pressed against his heart, he held the package gingerly, but he knew the money was there—the money to save him!

GULF WINS MORE "HILL TESTS" THAN 32 GASOLINES COMBINED

Will your car have more power on any one gasoline? HERE'S YOUR ANSWER...

Gulf tested a total of 33 gasolines on famous American hills—12 hills in localities from Massachusetts to Georgia—and here is what they found...

The power of different gasolines varies widely! And of all 33 gasolines, Gulf is uniformly best. 7 out of 12 times, it propelled a car and load up mountain grades farther than any other gasoline tested!

It won more hill tests than 32 other gasolines combined! Prove it! Drive into a Gulf station, fill up, and test the power of That Good Gulf for yourself!

HOW 33 GASOLINES RANKED (IN ALL TESTS TO DATE)

All gasolines tested, except a few "third grade" brands, sold for approximately the same price on That Good Gulf. Each brand is denoted by a letter.

AMHERST

"The state of Texas is now out of debt, and we, the people of this state are proud of it, and are proud to belong to this grand old state, for so many states are still in debt," said Arthur P. Duggan, state senator, in his talk on state government to about 40 council members and visitors in Amherst, April 24. Judge Simon D. Hay was also a speaker on county government. Mrs. Hay was a visitor.

The training school was for the secretaries and reporters of all the home demonstration club in Lamb county. There were about fifteen secretaries and reporters present.

The second year wardrobe demonstrators are to have a dress and slip made by their foundation pattern, also their foundation pattern on exhibit at the county dress contest in June. All dresses entered must be made by the exhibitor and are to be made by foundation patterns. All dresses must be entered by 10 o'clock and are to be modeled at 2 p. m.

The 4-H girls will not make dresses at the dress contest, but will have darning and buttonhole work on display, and will receive prizes for their work.

The county encampment will be held in the Fair building at Amherst, in June. The first evening will be recreation evening. The morning of the second day will be spent in a treasure hunt and baseball. The afternoon of the second day Miss Bernice Westbrook, Lamb county home demonstration agent will have an interesting demonstration given by someone from Texas Tech, Lubbock. All clubs will be responsible for two games. All club members are asked to come and take this short mother's vacation.

The pageant will be given in Amherst, soon. Admission will be 10 and 15 cents. Mrs. J. T. Braham, council secretary, was elected to be cashier. Costumes will be worn by all the characters according to the time they represent. The time is

LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS

LITTLEFIELD TERRITORY MAKING RAPID PROGRESS AS BROOMCORN SECTION

With enough broomcorn seed already sold to plant 3000 acres in the Littlefield section, the movement to encourage a major broomcorn district is taking commendable strides toward the desired results.

Although planting will be heavier during the first half of May, the majority of the seed supply has been removed with reports that several hundred acres were planted as early as April 15, which means first harvesting will begin the middle of July.

In keeping pace with the increased acreage, two new machine-run threshers and two hydraulic balers have been purchased and will be brought into the district to take care of the heavy harvest expected.

Rumors of the Littlefield broomcorn area are reaching the ears of major dealers and buyers in Lindsay, Okla., and other leading broomcorn centers, and a not a few are expected to come into the district this year to buy broomcorn. In addition, negotiations are under way for the acquisition of warehouse facilities here for a centralization point and the establishment of a broomcorn market.

Broomcorn prices continue to be high, with top figures reaching $2.50 a ton for choice broomcorn. It is reported that many broom manufacturers are now out of broomcorn, and some are shutting down until the next crop comes on.

Farmers in the vicinity of Littlefield are favoring the growth of the Black Spanish standard, although some dwarf is being raised. The Morton area is almost a solid dwarf acreage.

ed a very educational and instructive meeting. Mr. Fisher and Mrs. Patterson will leave Thursday, May 3, with eight track boys for Denton State Class meet.

The Junior Class play was presented Friday night before a large crowd. Monday morning a blind man from the Institute for Blind at Austin gave a 45-minute program in the school gymnasium telling how blind children are taught to read and play musical instruments.

MOORE, Miss Eula—Littlefield	828.00
LACKEY, Miss Rosie—Morton	239.00
WISEMAN, Miss Mary Eleanor—Littlefield	10.00

IMPORTANT TO CANDIDATES!

The last count of votes by the Campaign Department will be made next Tuesday night, May 8th. The names of all non-active candidates will be dropped from the list.

If you are in the race to win a prize you must get your sales reported in by 6:00 o'clock Saturday night, May 5th, and get your name well in the list of workers. This race is now a race for "live-wires" only.

EXTENSIONS COUNT BIG!

Extensions or second payments now count big in vote value! A subscription (renewal) secured for one year during the "first period" vote offer and now extended for four years will earn 188,000 votes. This the difference between the 12,000 votes given on the one year subscription and the 200,000 given during the "first period" for a five year subscription.

A one year (renewal) subscription secured during the "first period" and now extended for a second year will earn 18,000 votes, or the difference between 30,000 votes and 12,000 votes.

IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND HOW TO FIGURE THESE EXTENSIONS, THEN BE SURE TO ASK ABOUT THEM AT THE OFFICE. NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS COUNT DOUBLE THE ABOVE NUMBER OF VOTES.

Remember this,—it is not necessary for the same candidate to get the extension subscription. No matter who took the first subscription if YOU get the extension, then you get the big votes on same.

EXTENSIONS AND LONG TERM SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BRING THE BIG VOTES NOW, and votes are the only thing that count in winning the many prizes to be awarded on Saturday, May 12th.

Large Number From Littlefield Attend Lubbock Meeting

About one hundred farmers of the Littlefield section attended the meeting of the Northwest Texas Cotton Growers' Association in the gymnasium at Texas Tech, Lubbock, Tuesday, when problems of marketing the cotton crop were discussed by E. F. Creekmore, vice president and general manager of the American Cotton Cooperative Association; C. O. Moser, vice president and public relations director of the same organization; S. C. Evans, Houston, president of the bank for cooperatives of the Farm Credit Administration and Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of the host institution.

Request for an expression of those present on the attitude of farmers of this section toward formation of a regional group brought out an overwhelming majority for the new program.

Jess T. Elms, director of the association, were among those who represented Littlefield at the meeting.

"Eskimo," M-G-M Drama Filmed In Arctic Regions With Native Cast, Coming Here

The most adventurous of all film expeditions to the Arctic was undertaken by a company from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios headed by Col. W. S. Van Dyke, to record in photography and sound that great epic of the north, "Eskimo."

The picture, which will be shown at the Palace Theater Saturday midnight, Sunday afternoon and Monday night, presents not only a stirring and engrossing panorama of the life with its dangers and hardships of the natives living in the icy regions but also is the first photoplay to treat of the Eskimo's strange code of morals which permits the loaning of one's wife to one's friend and the exchanging of wives freely.

It is this extraordinary "matrimonial code" which provides the story's powerful theme. Mala, the principal character of "Eskimo," has two wives, and while he does not mind lending his wife to his brother Eskimos, he deeply resents the lecherous desires of a white captain of a whaling ship, an antagonism which ultimately culminates in a murder.

A few statistics on the preparations and accomplishments of the trip made to film this remarkable picture are enough to stagger the imagination. The journey covered more than 13,000 miles from Hollywood to Point Barrow and return. The company boarded the whaling schooner "Nanuk" at Nome, proceeded to Point Barrow, northernmost point inhabited by man where the boat was frozen in for the winter, and later returned with the breaking up of the ice in the spring.

They carried more than thirty-five members in the company, not including guides and Eskimos picked up at Point Barrow. Dog sleds were used for land work and living quarters were in the ship or ashore in igloo camps.

They took with them some fifty tons of food, sleds, dog harnesses, furs, medical stores and trade goods for paying off the Eskimos.

Among breath-taking spectacles obtained by the expedition are scenes of caribou herds on stampede; walrus hunts with natives risking their lives in small boats; whaling expeditions; the terrific roaring and crashing of millions of tons of ice, and other thrills of the Far North.

Duggan For Congress Club Organized

A "Duggan for Congress Club" was organized Wednesday evening of last week at Hart's Camp, composed of about 35 people of the community.

H. G. Moore, superintendent of Hart's Camp school, was elected president, and W. C. Squires, president of the school board was elected corresponding secretary.

The plans of the club are to devise projects, through which Senator Duggan's legislative activities may become known and recognized for their worth.

The people of Hart's Camp community feel that this section of West Texas needs to have a man like Senator Duggan in Washington to represent the peculiar needs of this section.

Legion Auxiliary Members To Attend District Meeting

A district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the Legion Hall, Lubbock, Tuesday, May 8, when all units of the auxiliary in the 18th district, of which Littlefield is included, will be invited.

The national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Harry Beiser of Philadelphia, Pa., will be present, and be the main speaker for the occasion.

The purpose of the meeting is to perfect an organization for the new 19th district.

A number of the local unit are planning to attend the meeting.

The First National Is A Safe Place To Deposit Your Funds

WHY DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY IN THE POST OFFICE?

Isn't it in your own interests, the interests of your city, your community, and your county that you deposit your money in the home bank?

Every dollar which is taken out of circulation in this city and section retards the progress of us all. Money deposited in the home bank is reloaned to those who need funds to carry on their various projects. Without plenty of money for loan purposes the wheels of progress are retarded; you cannot be as prosperous, and neither can your neighbor.

From every standpoint there is no more logical place to deposit money than in a bank, especially when you know that there is ABSOLUTELY NO DANGER OF LOSS.

There are two outstanding reasons why the FIRST NATIONAL BANK, LITTLEFIELD, is a safe place for your funds. One is that the First National is a highly sound bank with ample assets for the protection of all deposits; the other is that the First National is participating in the benefits of the Federal Insurance Co., a government agency set up to insure bank deposits.

As a participating bank in the functions of the Federal Insurance Co., all deposits up to $2500 in the Littlefield bank are fully insured. This guarantees depositors against loss.

With the First National Bank in such an excellent financial condition, and with deposits insured, this bank offers a 100 per cent safe place for the depositing of funds.

You are invited to visit the First National Bank and look over the financial statement, and also to discuss the financial condition of the bank with any officer of this institution. (Adv.)

Did Anybody Ask? To the Grave, or Garage? No Suicide Necessary. Deadly Gas Guards Gold

Uncle Sam nearly succeeded in taking his hundred and eleven warships through the Panama canal from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean in 24 hours. All commercial traffic was barred, soldiers guarded the locks, standing as solemn as penguins on either side. It was beautifully done, credit to all concerned.

But—did anybody in Washington ask himself what would have happened if 25 or 30 enemy bombing planes had appeared, floating over the canal, while our valuable warships were passing through? What would have happened to those ships, to the canal, to the locks, to the comical little soldiers, with their guns and bayonets, standing along the edge of the water?

In California, a dog, technically and effectually killed in the laboratory of Doctor Robert Cornish ten days ago, shows signs of life, blinking its eyes in the light and twitching muscles when a fly lights on its nose.

This experiment may become important to human beings. Thousands die because of some little stoppage, that might have been prevented or corrected, just as an automobile stops sometimes because of an obstruction in the pipe feeding gas to the carburetor.

Under such conditions, the men have been taken to the graveyard. Doctor Cornish may find a way to overcome such temporary, unnecessary "deaths."

This applies especially to the human heart, that supplies life while it pumps, and brings death when it stops. In millions of cases, undoubtedly, a temporary stoppage might have been overcome and life indefinitely prolonged.

Mr. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, tells Nebraska farmers plans are necessary to "prevent the suicide of society." It is as well to have public officials view conditions solemnly, but they are not quite as bad as that. This country has more of everything than it needs, more than enough for everybody. Its problem is not plague, famine or war, killing millions, but too much wheat, too much cotton, too many little fat pinkish pigs born every minute. A nation or individual with too much of everything, but unfortunately just too stupid to arrange adequate distribution, need not necessarily commit suicide.

In September Uncle Sam will have finished building a new, huge "burglar-proof" vault big enough to hold all his gold, besides piles of silver and other valuables. The vault doors, of the toughest metal, 30 inches thick, are not the only protection. If a burglar succeeded in getting half-way through the metal door, he would release a cloud of deadly gas in which he would die in horrible agony.

The American College of Physicians heard Doctor Meakins of Montreal promise that within 50 years any man willing to "use his intelligence and will power" may live 100 years. Fifty years ago the average human being was through with life at forty. Today's average is beyond sixty. Doctor Meakins' promise of "a century of vital, energetic life for every member of the human race" is encouraging. The wise would want to be guaranteed to the "vital, energetic" part. Nothing sadder than to live merely for the sake of living.

"Four see from Indiana prison. Three serving terms for murder among cell breakers."

That is not news. The system of justice that catches criminals and lets them go, can't build a jail to hold them, is now generally accepted as a farce.

We build zoological garden cages that hold elephants, rhinoceroses, lions, tigers, bears. They don't escape. But that is easily explained. Rhinoceroses and elephants don't know how to bribe keepers. The "beastie Billinger" did not escape with the aid of a toy pistol. It is charged that he was aided in his dash for liberty by the use of hard cash. No heroism about that.

At Blackwell, Okla., Rev. Dr. Pool, sixty, retired Methodist minister, returned to the pulpit to preach a revival sermon. Raising his eyes he asked, "What is heaven like?" fell and died of a heart attack. His question, doubtless, was answered within the minutes.

Many would like to know the answer. Human beings have answered that question in ten thousand ways, each answer reflecting some human idea of happiness.

The senate judiciary committee approves the birth control bill, which declares, in substance, that it is no crime for a woman not to have a baby, if she does not want one, and no crime to tell her how to avoid it.

Some object to birth control on religious grounds, declaring that it opposes the will of God. Others object to it on grounds of utility. Caruso was the nineteenth child. Many of the world's greatest men and women have been members of big families, and never would have been born, under birth control, probably.

Local Committee
 Correcting Errors
 In Agreements

For the past two weeks, the local Cotton Reduction Committee, including J. C. Hilbun, chairman, and J. O. Garlington and W. W. Allen, have been working hard on the cotton reduction program for 1934-35. Their time is being employed, according to Mr. Garlington, in the correcting any errors found in the applications from the farmers with the thought in mind that Lamb county contracted 38,000 more acres than the government is willing to accept, and approximately 10 per cent greater yield per acre than the authorities will agree to accept. This committee expects to complete the work in about a week's time, and asks that all farmers see the committee and check their contracts for errors.

After all errors are corrected on the tabulation sheets on which they are working, the contracts will be corrected to show amount government is willing to accept and returned to the local committee, and submitted to the producers for their O. K. and signature or rejection, as they prefer. Mr. Garlington said: "In view of the recent passage of the Bankhead bill, with penalties attached, it is not likely there will be many cancellations, if any. The Bankhead bill provides for a penalty of 50 per cent of its value on every bale of cotton sold above the allotment, which will likely be approximately 80 per cent of the average production over the five year period of 1928-32."

Anton Preparing For West Texas
 C. of C. Meeting

The city of Anton is planning a 100 percent representation at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, as is indicated by the following letter from Paul Whitfield, secretary of the Anton Chamber of Commerce, just received by the editor of this newspaper: "Anton is getting ready for the coming 16th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, of which we are all a part, and is planning to participate 100 percent, and we sincerely hope that your local chamber and citizenship is making the same plans. There are several very worthwhile projects being sponsored by the regional chamber and several others will be sponsored for the ensuing year and it behooves every town and community in West Texas to be awake to the possibilities of reaching many objectives through thoroughly organized effort. And after all the W. T. C. C. is merely an outlet and an organization for the development and planning of our plans and needs. "If your local chamber has any special project or wishes to sponsor any resolutions at the coming convention I will be very happy to hear of them and to work with you to any good end."

PERIOD FOR MAKING APPLICATIONS FOR EMERGENCY CROP LOANS EXTENDED

The period, during which applications for emergency crop loans may be accepted has been extended through May 15, according to announcement today by Charles W. Sherrill, regional manager of the Southwestern Emergency Crop Loan office of Dallas, serving the states of Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona. Emergency crop loans are available to farmers for crop production purposes who cannot obtain such a loan elsewhere. The maximum amount available to any one farmer is $250 and the minimum is $10 according to the regulations. Cooperating with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the Production Credit Association is given by all borrowers receiving aid from the emergency crop loan office.

Applications received through April 26 were 32,000. Last year the Dallas office completed 65,000 loans to farmers in the three states. The average loan for 1934 amounts to $73. A higher average was reported last year. The collections reported by the Dallas office of 1933 loans amounts to more than 85 per cent of a total of more than $,050,040.50 loaned.

With a smaller number of loans closed and a lower average amount applied for in the applications received to date, there is evidence that emergency crop loans are being made on a sounder basis and that farm conditions are improving in the region served by the Dallas office, Mr. Sherrill pointed out. "The Dallas regional office has enabled thousands of borrowers without resources sufficient to obtain credit elsewhere to become bank customers. No loan is denied a worthy farmer who needs financial aid and cannot get it from any other source for lack of adequate security."

"The Dallas emergency crop loan office holds the record for economical operation and has been commended for its sympathetic understanding of agricultural financing.

"We have endeavored to be constructive and fundamentally sound in the administration of emergency crop loans."

Annual state meet of the Interscholastic League, to be held at the University of Texas May 3, 4 and 5. Visitors are welcome but accommodations cannot be furnished them without charge.

The tentative program for the state meet has been announced by Roy Bedichek, chief of the University Bureau of Public School Interests. DETAILS OF THE FINAL COUNT

In order to maintain the strictest secrecy as to the number of subscriptions and the amount of collections turned in by each candidate during the final days of the campaign, the race will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box. The last count of votes by the campaign department will be made late Tuesday night and will appear in next Thursday's issue of the Lamb County Leader.

A sealed and soldered ballot box will be placed in The First National Bank next Thursday morning, where candidates can deposit their final reports and subscription collections. Candidates will make out their reports and place same in a sealed envelope together with the cash to cover same and deposit the envelope in the sealed ballot box. By so doing no one, not even the campaign manager, nor the publisher, can possibly know the voting strength of the different candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism, and insures fairness to the minutest detail. Sealed and soldered ballot box will be placed in The First National Bank Thursday morning and will remain there until the campaign ends.

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

The campaign will close at 7:00 p. m. Saturday, May 12th, and all reports from both city and country candidates MUST be in the ballot box at that time.

The votes will be counted immediately after the close of the campaign by a committee of judges, to be selected by the Leader, and full results of the campaign will be announced on a bulletin in the Leader office immediately after the vote count is completed.

All subscriptions deposited in the sealed ballot box must be accompanied by cash, money order, or certified check to cover. Personal checks up to $15 are acceptable, providing no two checks are made out by the same party. This rule is made in fairness to all contestants.

WORK AND WIN

There is no time now for day dreaming. For the few remaining days of the campaign are passing swiftly by. There is no time to lose—every hour must be made to count by the candidate who hopes to carry off a real reward. No candidate should feel that he or she has a "stranglehold" on the prize he or she is working for, until he or she has rolled up a score that will win it. Saturday night, May 12th, will tell the tale.

Campaign Ends Sat. May 12

those subscriptions that come to you, or are you going out after them and really trying to help yourself. If a candidate ever expects to do anything for himself, or herself in this campaign, it is reasonable to expect that he or she will put in some hard licks between now and the closing hour of the present vote offer, next Saturday night at 6 o'clock. As close as the race now stands, a few subscriptions may prove the deciding factors. Over-confidence is the biggest handicap under which any candidate can work. This unwelcome handicap causes more regrets than anything else in a campaign of this kind. The only way to be sure of winning is to spend every possible minute scouring for subscriptions and votes. Persistence is the only winning quality. Today, no one has anything won in the Leader Subscription Campaign. It is truly anybody's race up to this time. If any worker in the campaign has any idea in his or her and seconded that the farmers assembled go into the matter of setting up a county marketing council. In this matter, Mr. Gantz acted as chairman and proceeded with the details of organization whereupon the following officers and directors were elected: J. W. James, chairman; C. A. Parks, vice-chairman; R. L. Byers, secretary, all of Littlefield. Directors elected were: D. A. Lumpkin of Sudan; R. N. Carpenter, S. A. Landrum, I. C. Gregg, Ben Gann, J. J. Cook and W. H. Cunningham of Littlefield; O. D. Brown and J. H. Leidigh of Anton. Much interest was manifested in the meeting and a fine spirit of cooperation was demonstrated. Concluding the business session, the meeting adjourned at the call of the president.

party will sit and view the May Fete. This year Father Time, a part taken by Pat Boone, Jr., will introduce the twelve months of the year. Each month will have a special drill or number. For January, you will see the "Dance of the Snowflakes." In February there will be the "Heart Drill." March will bring two drills, "The Dutch Drill" and the "Lamb and the Lions." Of course, April will bring "April Showers." In May you will see the "Wishing Well." What could be more appropriate than a "Tom Thumb Wedding" in June. July will bring the "School of the Soldiers." In August we have "Vacation Days." In September, the time when we think of going back to school, we will have "Education Drill." October will bring a number called "The Creepy Little Scarecrows." In November we will see the "Indian Braves." The Manger Scene will be presented for December.

electric Singer, cabinet machine as an award. A blue ribbon for first place was also awarded to the local team. One will fully appreciate the significance of this work when it is recalled that some 180 Texas high schools competed in this contest. In the Class A group there were something like 60 to 80 schools. Littlefield competed against all other schools in the state with 300 or more enrolled in high school. Miss Carrie Lee Collins, instructor and coach of the above mentioned team has taught in the local schools for the last four years. Miss Collins holds a B. S. degree from C. I. A. and an M. S. degree from Iowa State College. The results of this contest indicate the type of work being done in the home economics department. Mary Edith Robinson represented the local home economics club in the state home economics club meeting on April 25th. The girls report that the people of Austin saw to it that they were properly entertained while in the city. A banquet at which about 900 girls were in attendance was held the night of April 26. Trips through the city were arranged as a part of the free entertainment.

Last Rites—

sustained at her passing away. Boys of her class, the seventh grade, acted as pallbearers and girls of her class carried the great number of floral tributes. The funeral was one of the largest attended which has been held in Littlefield, the entire auditorium of the church being occupied by those who attended as an expression of their regret at the passing of the child and their sympathy at the great bereavement of the family. The service was conducted by the Rev. Joe F. Grizzle, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member, assisted by the Rev. Luther Jenkins, pastor of the Muleshoe Baptist Church, and a former pastor of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones. Hammons Funeral Home was in charge.

Both pastors brought a message of comfort to the bereaved family, and spoke of the high esteem in which the child was held, her christian life and the deep bereavement of the family and the entire community at her passing.

Besides her parents, she leaves to mourn her loss two brothers, Jarold and Joyde.

A choir, led by Lloyd Robinson, with Mrs. J. H. Lucas at the piano, assisted in the service. The Misses Mason rendered a duet, "I Know He Cares."

Many out-of-town relatives and friends were in attendance at the funeral.

Mrs. Mable Worly, Portales; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Snowden and family, Tahola; Mrs. Myrtle Shockley and family, Anton; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jones and family, Anton; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grace, Anton; Mrs. L. L. Hendrix, Goree; Mrs. Sam Hampton and daughter, Goree; E. J. Jones, Goree; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Higgins, Seymour; and J. J. Higgins, Seymour.

Interment was in the Littlefield cemetery.

near future. The building purchased by Garland & White Auto Supply has a frontage of 52 feet on Phelps Avenue and extends 115 feet along Third street to XIT Drive.

Garland & White Auto Supply and John H. Arnett Motor Co., have been in business in Littlefield for many years. Garland & White is owned by B. D. Garland and Jack White. John H. Arnett is owner of the John H. Arnett Motor Co.

Garland & White have a complete automobile service station, have an automobile repair shop, and are wholesale and retail dealers in automobile accessories. Special lines include Goodyear tires and Exide batteries.

Mr. Garland said that the present business on Highway No. 7, at the east end of the pavement, will continue to be owned and operated by his concern, but that the main business headquarters of the firm will be at the Phelps Avenue location.

New Buildings Contemplated Two business buildings are under construction on Phelps Avenue, and others are contemplated, it is said. The buildings under construction are being built by the Chesher interests for The Vogue and for Burleson & Company.

Farm Meeting—

J. C. Hilbun, chairman, explained to the large number of farmers present the object of the meeting, and suggested that they get together and elect their committees, suggesting that for the purpose of more efficiently carrying out the program relative to the correction of the cotton reduction contracts as to acreage and yield, the Littlefield district be divided into four districts.

J. O. Garlington and W. W. Allen, other members of the local committee also addressed the gathering.

The following committees were appointed:

For the southeast district: Roy Hudson, George Ross, C. L. Beavers, P. Z. Jones and Roy Byers.

For the southwest district: J. H. Burton, Howard Landrum, W. A. Locke and F. B. Halliburton.

For the community: S. A.

that the rest of us have put out in the meantime. One of his pictures will play to more Chinamen than the next biggest stars will play to Americans. The Zulus know Charley better than Arkansas knows Garbo.

And talking about public favorites, Guess who popped in on us out here awhile back. Not a soul but "Whoa, Whoa, McIntire."

We have had the theatre owners of the Country out here in a convention trying their best to get the movie producers to make some decent pictures for Tucson, Tacoma, Winston Salem, and Muskogee, and not just try to make one for New York.

Well they was an awful nice bunch headed by an old country boy from Columbus, Mississippi, that knew what it was all about. These are the fellows that have to stand at the door and hear the cussing as the folks pass out, and after all as they are the ones that pay us our salaries they did deserve some consideration. Well the movie producers give us a awful good time. We did not give so terrible many good pictures but we fed em good, and at a big dinner one night at one of our big hotels, why who bobbed up with his and my good friend Will Hayes and his wife, but Whoa Whoa. He was in the only personally owned dress suit, and he did look great. I was the evening's pest, the Toastmaster. Is there nothing can be done to eliminate em? Even depression couldn't stamp em out. And when I introduced Whoa Whoa, say he got the very biggest reception of the entire night, and that meant topping Marlene Dietrich, and all the stars we have out here.

McIntire's charming wife was with him of course, and they all wanted to see and console her, and the sweetest thing of the evening was the sweetest faced elderly lady 82 years old, the McIntire's aunt from Galopolis, Ohio, who they have with em on this trip. Say she looked better at $1 than some of our stars with their make up off.

On account of Whoa Whoa's being in dress suit we missed his spats, but he had em on under his socks, and we missed his little bull dog, but he filled his dress suit pockets with enough grub from the banquet to feed the sea bound for a month.

Members Of County School Board Attend C. of C. Meeting

A larger representation than usual of Littlefield business men were present Tuesday at the regular luncheon meeting of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, when Dr. Ira E.

Landrum, H. J. Arend, and D. O. Baugh.

For the northwest district: R. N. Carpenter, J. H. Allred, Pat Hart and C. H. Henderson.

For the northeast district: J. J. Harlan, J. J. Yates, J. W. Wills, L. A. Ratliff and W. H. Roberts.

These various committees started functioning Monday morning, cooperating with the local committee. It is the purpose that each committee will handle the cotton reduction contracts for that particular section for which it was appointed, in an effort to correct any errors as to acreage and yield.

OWN YOUR FARM?

—If not, it isn't a hard proposition to own one right here in one of the richest agricultural districts in the world. Good neighbors, poultry and dairy facilities, production potentialities, are plenty to warrant you a good investment when you purchase a farm and build a home of your own liking.

—We are selling agricultural tracts from $25.00 to $55.00 per acre and combination grass and farm tracts as low as $12.00 to $18.00 per acre. We are also making it possible for every progressive farmer to own his home on very liberal terms.

—A REAL OPPORTUNITY—

Is offered in this good land located in the center of development, at the low price and liberal terms given.

Woods, president, presided.

Joe Hale, secretary-manager of the booster group, opened the meeting, and called on L. D. Rochelle, county superintendent of schools, to make a report. Mr. Rochelle, among other things, said that Lamb county, as far as he knew, was the only county in which all the schools planned on having nine months terms this year.

Other visitors present were A. W. Ormand of Sudan and G. E. Bohner of Olton, members of the county school board.

Mr. Hale reported that Miss Melba Pierson is the Chamber of Commerce candidate for queen in the May Fete, and stated that voting boxes are in the local drug stores.

The Bankhead bill was discussed by J. O. Garlington, one of the members of the local committee. Mr. Garlington also explained the purpose of the farm meeting Saturday afternoon, at which the Littlefield district was divided into sub-districts, and committees appointed in each community to assist in the adjusting and reducing of the acreage relative to that section. Mr. Garlington reported that the local committee, which is composed of J. C. Hilbun, W. W. Allen and Mr. Garlington, was working with the district committee on the correction and adjustment of contracts.

F. O. Boles reported there were three students preparing speeches on "My Home Town," any one of which would represent Littlefield in good fashion. He said eliminations would be made about Friday or Monday.

Littlefield Gets Edge Of Hail And Rain Siege

Littlefield received the minor remnants of a heavy hail storm Tuesday night and one of the heaviest rainfalls in this area, that flooded the streets and "slicked up" lateral roads leading into town. The rainfall was not extensive in the eastern part of town, having reached a bare mile and a quarter in that direction, but blanketed the northern and western portion of Lamb county. Hail was small and spontaneous in its fall but fell to the extent of heavy damage in some sections of the county.

According to reports from various communities, the following conditions are authentic, indicating precipitation Tuesday: about five inches; Kress, 6 inches; Amber, Sudan, torrential rains but no official tabulation.

Many highways west of Littlefield were impassable temporarily soon dried to the extent of being usable by Wednesday noon.

Hail was not damaging in this vicinity with the exception of destroying some fruits and gardens. Sections reported heavy damage.

A farmer in the Leader Wednesday morning estimated size of mailstones falling at his place being about the size of hen eggs breaking some windows. A heavy rain, and some hail fell here Wednesday night.

FARM TALKIE MOVIE WILL BE SHOWN HERE UNDER AUSPICES OF LOCAL FIRM

Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co., has arranged for the showing at the Palace Theater, Littlefield, Thursday, May 10, at 2 p. m. of a program of new talkie pictures including "Tom, Dick and Harry Co." This interesting and entertaining movie was produced by the Keystone Steel & Wire Company of Peoria, Ill., and has been managed by many observers as the most interesting farm picture they have ever seen. In fact the popularity and demand for this program has become so great that the Keystone people have already found it necessary to double their facilities for showing it.

The feature picture "Tom, Dick and Harry Co." reveals the experience of two young men in building a run down farm into a profitable one, and is so skillfully handled that at times it seems that even the pigs are trained for their part. Some of the actors are well known farmers, interviewed on their own farms in various parts of the country. There is plenty of good clean fun and romance throughout the picture.

The program also includes "Ups and Downs," a thrilling race track comedy full of humor and laughs, and a trip through the company's modern steel and wire mills. This shows steel in the making—big open hearth furnaces containing 145 tons of boiling, bubbling metal. Shows it being tapped off into huge ladles—molded into big 5000 pound ingots then rolled down until they come out like a white hot serpent 450 feet long—then finally made into wire, fence, nails, barb wire and other products. These farm pictures are all regular full sized talkies—over 6000 feet of sound and picture on films. There will be no charge for admission. Children should be accompanied by adults.

TRUCKS SLIGHTLY DAMAGED

In going to the J. T. Bellomy fire Saturday afternoon the fire truck collided with the Texas Utilities light truck, and both were slightly damaged.

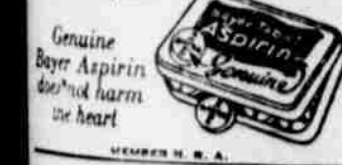

Don't Buy Drugs Blindfolded

Doctors throughout the world agree there is no greater folly than to buy and take unknown drugs. Ask your own doctor.

So when you go into a store for real Bayer Aspirin, see that you get it.

Remember that doctors endorse Genuine Bayer Aspirin as SAFE relief for headache, colds, sore throat, pains of rheumatism and neuritis, etc.

Just remember this. Demand and get Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

Panhandle Wholesale Agency Now Managed By J. P. Hawthorne

The Panhandle Oil Company agency, wholesalers of gasoline and oils produced by refineries of that name, transferred management Monday morning, when Mr. Thomas, who has managed the concern since its establishment in Littlefield about six months ago, resigned to J. P. Hawthorn of Graham, Texas.

Mr. Hawthorne has been connected with the Panhandle Oil Refining Co., for about nine years in various capacities, but has never been located in this particular area. In discussing the change the first of the week, the new manager stated that plans of the agency would, at a later date, be converted into wholesale and retail establishment, thereby creating a greater local outlet for its products. Mr. Hawthorn and family will make their home in Littlefield.

Bridge Tournament Held At Home Of Mr. and Mrs. Barnett

In order to raise some funds for the library, the library committee decided to have a series of bridge tournaments. The first of these series was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnett Thursday afternoon.

Those playing were Mesdames Crews, H. C. Hewitt, Perry, Johnston, Wright, Isbell, Street, Howard, Arnett, Cooper, Gardington, Batton, Boone, Little, Rowe, and Barnett. High score prize was won by Mrs. Batton and traveling prize went to Mrs. Hewitt. These prizes were donated by Cuenod's Dry Goods.

In the evening five tables were at play and Mrs. Sam Batton won high score for the ladies, and Mrs. Dewitt Reid for the men.

These prizes were donated by Walters Drug Store.

Those enjoying the games were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cooper, J. O. Gardington, L. C. Hewitt, Sam Batton, Crews, E. S. Rowe, Bill Pass, J. H. Barnett and Mesdames J. G. Little, Dewitt Reid, T. Wade Potter and Bertram Badger. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games.

Wildcats Have First Scrimmage Friday Afternoon

The Wildcats had their first real scrimmage Friday afternoon when "Leland Stanford" defeated "U. S. C." by a score of 6 to 0.

Friday's scrimmage climaxed the fourth week of practice. Much pep and enthusiasm was in evidence, and that old spirit of fighting Wildcats pervaded the atmosphere.

After Friday's tussle first and second teams were picked. These squads will have several weeks of practice after which fans will be given another chance of seeing the Cats in a full length game.

F. F. A. CLUB MAKES PLAN FOR NEXT YEAR

Officers for the coming year were elected at last club meeting. Those named were:

- President—Billy Dorman.
- Vice-president—Julian Claunch.
- Secretary—Charles Taylor.
- Treasurer—Mitchell Slison.
- Reporter—Milford Glazener.
- Parliamentarian—Ray Wright.
- Watch Dog—Paul Chisholm.

Since the work of the Future Farmers is a year round affair it was necessary to make plans to that effect.

Eighteen acres of land has been rented by the club. This land will be planted in cotton, truck and sudan. This is for the purpose of raising funds for expenses of summer encampment and other trips.

CLUB PLANS ARE COMPLETED

The West Texas Club completed plans for the year at their last meeting by electing officers for the next weeks. David McGavock was elected president; Truett Mayfield, vice president; Dorothy Stripe, secretary; Forrest Robeson, reporter; Iris Busey, and Edna Belle Gillette, as program committee, and Jerry Spray as song leader. Those elected will take office at the next club meeting.

JUNIORS PRESENT PROGRAM

A clever program was presented by the junior class in last assembly. A machine was shown which was capable of grinding out the desires of anyone present. The powers of the machine were demonstrated by the class president, Emory Glass.

Another feature of the program was "A Lighthouse Murder."

Those taking part were: Vellie Dalton, the lighthouse keeper; C. L. Yeager, the murderer; Tom Paul Davis, the wife; Straus Atkinson, the doctor; Cotton Eagan, and Dan Hemphill, the pallbearers.

Another number on the program was a reading "Business Is Business," by Ellarene Vause.

BALL PARK POSTED

According to Coach "Brack" Barkstale the fence around the ball park has been repaired and the park will be posted. Watchmen will be on the look out for trespassers, and any offender will be required to pay a visit to the city hall. The reason for the strict guarding of the park is so that the athletic equipment used in football training may be kept intact.

THAT OLD GANG OF MINE

The love that I have for you, dear friends, Will be here when I'm gone; I'll always be happy to know dears, That you've traveled up and on. I'll never forget the Littlefield gang, No matter where I roam; I'll always hold it in memories, And think of it as home. 'Tis true someday we'll be parted, I dread for the day to draw near; When we'll part for maybe always, Or maybe just a year.

TEXAS WILD FLOWERS ADORN TEACHERS' DESKS

Bouquets of Texas bluebonnets and Mexican paint brush adorned every teacher's desk in the building Monday morning. The flowers were presented by Miss Carrie Lee Collins who brought them with her on her return from Austin. The flowers grew near Lampasas and were given to Miss Collier by a former college classmate. Many of the student here had never seen their state flower before.

RALLS PASTOR ADDRESSES STUDENT BODY

Uel D. Crosby, pastor of First Methodist Church of Ralls, addressed the student body in assembly last week. The general theme of Rev. Crosby's address was "Ambition." He stressed the need of inner urge in the life of every young person. The talk was both timely and inspirational.

PERSONALS

Students are glad that Gene Willis is able to be in school again. Miss Lillian Hopping visited her parents in Lubbock Saturday. Ruth Wells is absent due to illness.

METHODIST CHURCH
J. W. Hendrix, Pastor
Church school 9:45 a. m.
Public worship 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.
Young people's evening worship 7:30 p. m.

Mid-week and choir rehearsal Wednesday evening.
Woman's Missionary Society, Monday 3 p. m.
Meeting of the official board every first Monday, 8 p. m.

At each hour of public worship the pastor will deliver a sermon. At the morning hour the subject will be "Givin' Ourselves Away." Isn't it true that most of us have given ourselves away? Most of us have consented to be slaves—some have not. What is the difference? Let us discuss this together Sunday morning. Then in the evening the subject will be, "Havin' the Dont's." Some claim this as being religious indeed,—just "havin' the dont's." In what particular is religion different?

11 a. m. subject "Givin' Ourselves Away."
8 p. m. subject: "Havin' the Dont's."
You will enjoy the good music by the choir.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Joe F. Grizzle, Pastor

We are expecting another good day next Sunday and offer the public an invitation to enjoy the days worship with us. Our program for the day will be: Sunday School from 9:45 to 10:15. General assembly will be conducted by the Senior department. Miss Lillian Hopping, superintendent. Promptly at 11 o'clock you will worship in song with Mr. L. W. Jordan directing and Mrs. J. H. Lucas at the piano, you are invited to take part in the song worship. The pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Huckaby, pastor of the Morton Baptist Church. We want you to hear this young man, he is one of the Plains finest young pastors and is doing a wonderful work with the Morton church. The B. T. S. will meet at 7:15. The pastor will bring the evening message discussing the work of Southern Baptists.

May we again say come worship with us. It is the solemn duty of every Baptist in the town and territory to be in their place in both church and Sunday School. We shall expect you, and to those who are not attending church or Sunday School elsewhere, we offer you an invitation to worship and study with us. Come look us over you might like us, who knows?

Wheat Yield To Run High This Year

Frank Triplett, manager of the Texas Wheat Growers' Association, has placed an estimate of 20,000,000 bushels on the 1934 Panhandle wheat crop.

The big wheat acreage in Swisher, Hale, Castro, Floyd, Crosby and Farmer counties gives promise of a yield of from 15 to 35 bushels an acre, with harvest time a little over two months away.

Lady Says CARDUI Eased Pain In Side

Cardui helped an Oklahoma lady, as described below, and many others have benefited in a similar way. "I had a hurting in my side every few weeks," writes Mrs. Bill Stewart, of Dewar, Okla. "I had heard of Cardui and started taking it. It stopped my hurting and built up my strength. I took 11 bottles and I sure felt better." Try Cardui for pains, cramps, nervousness due to a run-down condition. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

IN MEMORY

Dedicated to Kathryn Jones
The golden gates were open wide,
Another soul has gone inside;
To dwell among the angels fair,
And live in lasting splendor there.
No sickness, sorrow nor distress,
Can interfere with happiness, she lives in heaven up above;
Where all is joy, and light, and love,
From earthly burdens she is free,
Sorrows and cares shall never be
She's living in a better land;
Since she has joined the angel band,
So let us live that we may know,
The glory love divine can show,
And meet our loved ones gone before,
To be with them forever more.

With The Lights In Your Home

—Comfort is one of the most important things in your home. One of the greatest aids to home comfort is good lighting. The hours when light is needed in the home are relaxation hours. After work, after dinner, are the restful hours that demand good lighting.

—Reading or sewing in light that is not adequate causes eye-strain and bodily fatigue. Headaches and nervous attacks often result from the strain that is put on eyes in poor light.

—Be sure in the few short hours each night when you use light that it is good light, comfortable to the eyes. Do not gamble with health and comfortable living.

—Make sure your home is comfortably lighted. A few simple changes that improve lighting conditions often restore new home brightness to rooms dull and less inviting.

sweet pickles.

ASPARAGUS SALAD
Place lettuce leaf on salad plate.
Put 6 or 8 asparagus tips through green bell pepper ring on lettuce leaf.
Place one teaspoonful of India relish at end of tips. Marinate with French Dressing.

FRENCH DRESSING
1 cup salad oil.
1-4 cup vinegar or lemon juice.
1 teaspoon salt.
Dash of McIlhenny tobacco.
2 teaspoons sugar.
1 teaspoon paprika.
1 teaspoon prepared mustard.

Combine all dry ingredients with mustard, add oil slowly, at first a teaspoon at a time, then as is common to thicken, add more. Use all of salad oil, then add vinegar or lemon juice, heating all the time.
Then add 1 tablespoon of tomato catsup and 2 teaspoons of Lea and Perrins Sauce and 1 tablespoon of onion juice. This dressing is delicious for Vegetable Salad.

K. C. BAKING POWDER BISCUITS
3 cups of Belle of Vernon flour

(12 ounces.)
3 level teaspoons K. C. Baking Powder.
3 level tablespoons shortening.
About 1 1-4 cups milk or water.

MY FAVORITE GINGERBREAD

1-2 cup sugar, 1-2 cup butter and lard mixed, 1 egg, 1 cup molasses, 2 1-2 cups sifted flour, 1 1-2 teaspoons soda, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 2 teaspoons ginger, 1 teaspoon cloves, 1-2 teaspoon salt, and 1 cup hot water.
Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs, molasses, then dry ingredients which have been sifted together. Add hot water and heat until smooth. The batter is soft, but it makes a fine cake. Bake in greased shallow pan 35 minutes in moderate oven (225 degrees to 250 degrees F.) Make 15 generous portions of good old-fashioned gingerbread. Glaze ginge-bread with this glaze; 1 1-2 cups powdered sugar, 1-4 teaspoon vanilla and enough boiling water to make a thin icing, about 4 tablepoons. Ice just as soon as gingerbread is removed from oven.

SWISS STEAK

1 1-2 lbs. of Round Steak, cut 1 1-2 inches in thickness, season with salt and pepper, then pound into steak, 1-2 cup of Belle of Vernon flour, brown steak on both sides in frying pan in 3 tablepoons of fat, then add 3 or 4 onions cut in slices,
2 green bell peppers cut in rings, 2 cups of grated carrots, 3-4 cup of catsup, 1-4 cup of Lea and Perrins Sauce, a dash of McIlhenny tabasco, add more salt and pepper, cover and cook slowly 1 1-2 hours.

water, cover and cook 1 hour. About 1-2 hour before chicken is done, add
1 cup whole milk or cream, 1 tbsp.
butter.

MACARONI SALAD
1-2 package of Macaroni. Cook macaroni until tender, then blanch and chill thoroughly. Add 1-2 cup of minced sweet pickles, 1-2 cup of minced ripe olives, 1-2 cup of pimentes, 1 onion grated, 1 cup of mayonnaise. Salt to taste. Serve on lettuce and garnish with quarters of red ripe tomatoes and ripe olives. Let stand in refrigerator for at least 1
1-2 hours before serving.

MUSHROOM SAUCE
HEAVENLY PIE

2 ripe bananas
1 cup granulated sugar
1-2 tsp. salt
2 egg whites
1 T lemon juice
1-2 pint of cream
1-4 tsp. vanilla
Currant jelly
1-4 cup of chopped nuts
Mash bananas through a potato ricer and add the sugar, lemon juice and unbeaten egg whites. Beat all altogether with a large egg beater until stiff and frothy like egg whites.
Fill baked pie shell with this mixture and bake at 375 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove, chill thoroughly and top with whipped cream. Dot the surface with currant jelly and sprinkle with chopped nuts.

ENGLISH TRIFLE
Place cake in individual dish, pour over cake—about 5 tablepoons of Sherry flavoring or grape juice. Let stand ten minutes—cover cake with custard on top with whipped cream slightly sweetened with sugar. A good way to use left over stale cake and a delicious dessert.

CUSTARD FOR TRIFLE
2 whole eggs
1-3 cup of sugar
2 tablepoons Carnation flour
2 cups of milk, scalded
Pinch of salt
Beat eggs and sugar, flour and salt mixed to eggs. Pour scalded milk to egg mixture, return to ranke, cook on "low heat" until thick, watch and stir often—cool and use for Banana Tarts. Custard serves six.

CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM
1 1-2 square unsweetened chocolate
1 cup of sweetened condensed milk
1 cup water
1-2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup whipping cream
Melt chocolate in the top of a double boiler—add sweetened condensed milk and stir over boiling water for 5 minutes until mixture thickens. Add water and mix well.
Chill thoroughly—add vanilla. Then whip cream to a custard-like consistency and pour into chilled mixture. Pour into freezing tray, place in freezing unit. After mixture has frozen to a stiff mush (1 to 2 hours) remove and scrape from bottom and side of pan. Beat for 2 minutes, smooth out and replace in freezing unit for 1 hour, or until frozen, 2 to 4 hours total freezing time. Serves six.

HAIL

THE ENEMY OF CROPS

Growing crops are subject to many dangers, but most of them may be overcome by intelligent farming. The danger of Hailstorms and the damage Hail will do to growing crops cannot be prevented. Every locality is subject to Hail, and some parts of our county are visited often and disastrously.

You won't have as much acreage in cultivation this year and each acre planted should receive every safeguard possible.

Dependable Hail Insurance is your one protection. It is the only real safeguard against this important hazard.

Call on us and we will be glad to tell you more about Hail Insurance.

NOTING FOR QUEEN OF MAY FETE TO CLOSE THURSDAY NIGHT, MAY 3

Noting for the queen of the May will be closed Thursday night, May 3. The residents of Littlefield especially the members of the organization that are sponsoring candidates are urged to support them. Voting boxes have been placed in the drug stores and in the cafe. The Senior Study Club is running the contest. Mrs. Nell Keithley, who has resided in Littlefield a number of years. She is a member of the Littlefield high school and since has been employed in the insurance office of her father. The Rotary Club is sponsoring Mrs. Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Willis. She is a freshman in high school and has won popularity as a dancer, appearing in special performances at the local theatre. The Chamber of Commerce is running Melba Dawn Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pearson, although a freshman, she has proved that she has something more than charm because she won first place in the county meet in declamation.

Betty Ann Hilliard is the candidate from the American Legion. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hilliard. The freshman class seems to have an abundance of popular girls this year, for Betty Ann is a freshman also. She too, has attained a measure of fame for she won a first place in the South Plains Music Festival at Lubbock this year.

All the candidates are attractive girls and would make lovely queens of the May, because each is gifted with charm and poise.

ALL FORMS OF ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE FURNISHED GUESTS

WALTER E. YAGGY JOE HADDON

San Angelo is getting ready far in advance for the entertainment of the throngs expected to attend the sixteenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in this city, May 14-16.

Detailed preparations of local arrangements are in the hands of a dozen sub-committees of the general arrangements committee from the Board of City Development headed by Wm. Hemphill, Jr. The committees were all organized early in April, and each was assigned definite duties and responsibilities. Entertainment features are being arranged by the entertainment committee of which W. E. Blanton is chairman; the dance committee headed by C. E. Hoyt; ladies entertainment committee, Mrs. Scott Snodgrass, chairman; the luncheon committee, D. J. Hostetter, chairman; visiting bands committee, Joe Haddon, chairman; and boat racing contest committee, George Bailey, chairman.

A pre-convention attraction is being arranged for Sunday afternoon, May 13. Motor boat racing on Lake Nasworthy will be the principal event. Motor boat clubs from Tulsa, Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, and other cities have already entered the contest.

STATE SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT FINDS LOCAL SCHOOL EFFICIENT ORGANIZATION

The local school authorities are in receipt of the report and recommendation of the district deputy state superintendent for this section of the state. Superintendent G. D. Holbrook visited the local schools on April 5. After a close examination of the type of work being done and of the organization of the whole system, Mr. Holbrook made some very definite statements in regard to the system.

The items mentioned in his report are as follows: The buildings were found to be in a fair state of repair and well cared for throughout.

The organization of the system on 3-4-4 grade basis evidences efficient organization and administration throughout. Suggestion was made that the high school course of study include the subject of biology and chemistry every year instead of alternating them. Also Latin should be dropped from the course due to lack of interest in that subject on the part of the pupils.

Favorable comment was made on the willingness of the teachers to work hard with their heavy sections in the high school. An extra teacher for the high school was suggested for the coming year. It was urged that there be two new teachers placed in the grammar school and one extra teacher in the primary building. This has already been corrected by the addition of three new teachers.

A constructive criticism was made in the suggestion that the teachers require more pupil correction on paper in the future. The type of work found on exhibit was very satisfactory.

The school board was advised to provide ample appropriation for the upkeep of the library and equipment. Special attention called to the grade libraries. Also that commendation should be accorded Littlefield school board for the new science equipment and lockers purchased for the high school. The entire system evidences efficient work being done.
