Dryland Farmers To Get Tax 'Breaks' As County and School Tax Appraisers Begin Evaluation Of Farm Lands In Area

Dryland farmers in Littlefield Independent School District will get a break on school and county taxes this year, learned at a meeting of the School Board Monday.

The board authorized school tax assessor-collector Sid [Name] to follow the method of evaluation now used by tax appraisers of farm property, which is designed to equalize the appraisal of dryland as well as irrigated farm

The new method of appraising is based on different grades and each with different appraisals. The project is being carried out to try to narrow the difference in base value between dryland and irrigated farms.

Similar savings in county taxes also will be affected by dryland appraisals, although county assessor-collector Herbert Dunn Tuesday morning he could not tell how much the savings would amount to, pending completion of further appraisals.

Hopping and Dunn revealed that each year appraisals of dryland have been separating and irrigated value by an increasing amount, and that the appraisal boards were anxious to get out a plan that would bring them nearer together and proportion as to actual value for tax purposes.

A team of appraisers is working in the county at this time to appraise much of the farm land in the county tax rolls. The school tax office will use a similar system to reevaluate land for school tax rolls.

SEEK RE-ELECTION
O. Hampton and Huston [Name] incumbents, announced last week that they will both seek re-election to the school board. The election will be held at the high school library April 14th filing deadline March 23. Other candidates had been named at press time.

In other action, the board reduced the rental prices of the cafeteria or gymnasium at $15. The auditorium rental at $20, announced that no rental will be charged for the junior gym, providing one of the times was used. Coach Gene McCann will be in charge of arrangements for use of the junior high gym.

Mrs. Bernie Reeves, of 812 West Seventh Street was hospitalized Monday morning in Methodist Clinic after having been overcome by gas fumes from a leaking gas pipe in her home. She was released from the hospital Tuesday morning, after attending determined her condition was not serious.

Nearly News

Well, now Sam is a two-state TV star WKY-TV used to get him on one of their panels at every opportunity. (Don't know why except that he's kinda cute in a country sort of way.)

But after he came to Texas he had to go to work for a living and no glamour—until Tuesday morning, when Troy Armes called and wanted he and Betty to appear on KDUB-TV at 8:30 that evening. Even if he hadn't wanted to, Sam wouldn't have turned down a banker. He doesn't like to get them in a turning down mood.

He asked Troy what he had to do and Troy was pretty vague about it. Said the name of the program was "Guess What?" Nobody he could find seemed to know much about it either, but someone told him they thought it was a program where other folks guessed at who he was or what he did or something.

Well, it turned out to be Charades and they had a couple of old hands at the game who were assigned to team up with Sam and Betty for Littlefield and another pair of experts to team up with a couple from Levelland. The Littlefield team won so they get to appear again next Tuesday evening against the Ralls team.

And guess what? Sam has always hated charades.

Today, Thursday, is the final day in which patrons can visit Lamb County Schools during Public School Week.

Open house in most schools in the county will end this afternoon with all schools in the county dismissing tomorrow so that teachers can attend a district meeting in Lubbock of the Texas State Teachers Association.

In the first two days of Public School Week, about 350 patrons had registered to visit Littlefield schools, and principals of all school here announced that they expected a large number of visitors Wednesday and Thursday.

Members of the School Board of Trustees were honored with certificates of recognition at a public program in the High School auditorium Tuesday night, which also featured a concert of the band and choral school groups.

The Weather

Blowing sand has started off the day each morning of the Sunday-Wednesday period, with clearing skies and pleasant temperatures holding the weather spotlight for the most part. Temperatures ranged from a low of 32 on Monday night to a high of 77 Tuesday afternoon. No precipitation has been recorded, and prospects for any moisture are meager. The outlook for the next three days calls for fair skies and mild temperatures with some blowing sand, although you never can tell.

Mrs. J. W. NEWTON (Staff Photo)

Although the family has only been in Littlefield about four months, Mrs. J. W. Newton, wife of the Assembly of God pastor, has "quickly adapted herself to the congregation" and "made herself one of us." Members of the church family say "she is an asset to the church and fits into any department, children like her and so do the adults."

Her husband's life work and the activities of the congregation "and made herself one of us." Members of the church family say "she is an as-know exactly what she would be doing, but now she makes allowances for interruptions and is always ready and willing to accompany her husband on visits among the congregation, or to adapt her own plans to any need that arises.

Mrs. Newton was the former Erma Lee Embry, a native of Lone Wolf, Okla., and the eldest child of an Assembly of God pastor. It is for this reason that a member of the congregation who has known her since girlhood says "she has never known a worldly life" but has always participated in church activities.

She attended a rural school out from Lone Wolf and married before completing her education.

Rev. and Mrs. Newton and their children lived two and a half years at Granite, Okla., before coming to Littlefield. The congregation there had gone through a drought period and when it became necessary the Newtons worked in the cotton fields right along with their people, saying, "When one works, we all work."

The congregation is engaged in a program of expansion at present. They have only recently moved the parsonage from the location where the church now stands to a new one at 925 College Avenue. They have purchased enough ground there to build a new church at College Avenue and Hall Avenue and plans to start work on the church itself some time this summer. There is still concrete work to be done on the parsonage grounds and house and when this is completed they will start on the church structure itself. The Newtons are pleased to be so comfortably settled to the church and fits into any department, children like her and so do the adults."

housed. The house was completely redecorated by the Missionary Women's Council to suit the needs of the Newton's family.

A favorite recreation for the Newton family is singing around the piano to the accompaniment of fourteen year old Nancy, who is a Freshman student in Littlefield high school. Nancy has studied piano since she was nine years old and plays the accordion too. Dennis, who will be ten years old very soon, also loves music. He plays the mandolin and is learning to play a guitar. Both parents enjoy singing and are instilling the love of music into their children. Mrs. Newton plays "mainly by chord" and says she is "the audience for the family."

Each Thursday night is Musical Night in the congregation. Those who enjoy singing, and particularly the young people of the congregation, meet in the home of some member, for an evening of fun and music. It was at such a meeting, held in the Newton home, that the Newtons were greatly surprised by their congregation with a housewarming after moving to their present location. Mrs. Newton pointed out a beautiful painting done for them by one of their members and told of the many beautiful gifts received.

In addition to music, other hobbies of the family include watching their guppies and caring for their parakeets. Mrs. Newton particularly loves flowers and hopes the outside work on their home will be completed in time for some flowers to be planted this spring.

The Women's Missionary Council meets each Thursday at 2:30 p. m. in the church. At present they are working with other churches of the denomination in supplying a four year supply of clothing for a Guatemalan Missionary. Rev. Quinton Shorten, of Lubbock Rev. Shorten is at present on a year's furlough and was a recent speaker at the church and showed film on the work of the church in Guatemala.

The church is also helping to feed, clothe and supply the household needs of a Spanish-speaking family. Mrs. J. W. Newton, in a recently established in Littlefield, has only recently been installed on March 10.

Another activity of the church is the young women's union, called Christ's Army, which meets each evening at 6:30 p. m. in the church. Nancy is serving as president.

A visit with Mrs. Newton is one with a warm and friendly hospitality and friendliness. Although the work of the church has first place in her life it is evident that Mrs. Newton loves her job of Homemaking everywhere. She "crochets" and uses this means to quietness, yet with all the quietness of her work she has a place in the world. A lot of time is spent in sewing for her own family, making gift showers and in preparing to teach a class of young people on Sunday morning.

No finer tribute could be given to Mrs. Newton than the one her husband has publicly given saying to his congregation, "I thank God every day for your good, conscientious wife."

Birthday Party Fetes Kathy

Mrs. Bill Jones, daughter, Kathy, celebrated her birthday, with a party at home south of town.

Each guest received a bunny containing a card. A doll cake and served to Kathy, by Susan Seiffert of Lubbock, and Gail Burris of Paula, Pat, and Emma Lynn Hicks and Jennie Seiffert.

Mothers present were Wayne Seiffert of Lubbock, Tom Burris of Snyder, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Jack Miller.

How To Make A Glamor Petticoat

By Dorothy Roe, Associated Press Woman's Editor

Petticoat fever is a reliable sign of spring.

The new silhouettes call for new petticoats differently shaped than last year's styles. And in case you can't find a ready-made petticoat in just the style or color you want take a tip from experts at your local sewing center and make your own in matching or contrasting taffeta and net with can-can ruffles for a flirtatious touch.

You'll need about 2 1/8 yards of 40-inch rayon taffeta plus 3 yards of 7-inch net flounce, 4 yards of 4 1/2-inch net flounce and 2 yards of 3 1/2-inch net flounce. This net flounce is available in various widths already ruffled and banded. However if you're interested in an unusual shade it's easy to make it your self using the ruffler attachment on your sewing machine to ruffle and stitch in one operation. Mercerized thread is most satisfactory for taffeta.

To make a pattern use a piece of paper about 40 inches square. Setting a compass on one corner of the paper draw a quarter circle. For a 24-inch waist draw your circle with a radius of 8 1/2 inches. Add a half inch radius for each two inches of waist measurement. For example on 8 3/4 inch radius will fit a 26-inch waist and so on.

For length measure two inches less than your skirt length. If your normal skirt length is 30 inches measure along the straight edges of the paper 28 inches from waistline marking measure 24 inches from the waistline at intervals marking each an L corner the points at the bottom with an even curve. Cut out pattern.

Fold fabric crosswise. Pin pattern to fabric matching the straight edges to fold and selvages. Cut out. Your petticoat is in the form of a half circle with one seam.

To make waistband cut a strip 5 inches wide and 2 inches longer than your waist measurement trim of your selvages and seam together, leaving seam open 8 inches from the top. Press seam open and edge stitch along both sides of the 8-inch opening. Clip seam 1/4 inch at the opening, turn under 1/4 inch along opening and top stitch. Turn up a narrow hem at the bottom of the petticoat and finish with two lines of stitching. Fold waistband strip in half lengthwise and stitch along top edge 7/8 inch down from the fold. Then fold again, so the folded edge stops 1/2 inch above the two raw edges. Stitch across both ends through all thicknesses, trim seams turn to right side and press.

Pin the double row edge of the waistband to the right side of the skirt waist edge with row edges up. Baste and stitch. Clip along the curved edge, turn the waist band up and slip stitch loose fold of waistband to line of machine stitching.

Now pin the ruffles to the underside of the skirt. The first ruffle is pinned six inches from the hem. Still using the 7-inch ruffling, pin the next row two inches above the last row. Using the 4 1/2-inch flounce, pin two rows two inches apart. The 2 1/2-inch flounce is pinned 1 1/2 inches above the last row. Stitch together the ends of the ruffles, using two rows of stitching, and trim close to stitching lines. Then stitch on the ruffles and press.

Because of the graduated rows of ruffles, you'll find your your petticoat flares crisply, adding body to lightweight fabrics. A good wardrobe trick is to make several, in various colors to make a festive outfit of the simplest cotton dress.

Lions Club District Meet To Be In Lubbock April 24-26

Members of Lions Club throughout West Texas will converge on Lubbock April 24-26 as the annual convention of the clubs in District 21-1 is staged.

Hotels in Lubbock are already making preparations to house one of the largest groups of out-of-town convention-goers to meet in the city this year. Letters have been mailed to all Lions clubs urging that members make their reservation early in order to get their choice of rooms.

A new financial plan has been set up for this year's sessions which will enable delegates and their wives to register for all business meetings for $1.50 and $1.00 respectively. For all of the luncheons and entertainment features the men and their wives will use a "pay as you go" plan.

Under the new program, delegates will purchase separate tickets for the various special events they wish to attend, instead of having to obtain a "hospitality book" at the time they register.

District Governor Jim Ed Waller, Plainview, and members of the District Cabinet believe this method will prove much more satisfactory for the visiting delegates and the three Lubbock clubs.

The first announced candidate for District Governor is (Dub) Nelson of Childress made known his candidacy at the year's convention in Amarillo.

A full program of meetings, luncheons, banquets and a queen's contest is being planned to fit the taste of club members in the area. Also at the convention is expected to be the largest in recent years.

Local Homemaking Students Aiming For Top Honors

Two members of the Patsy Lively Chapter of FHA in Littlefield high school are striving for top honors at state level in FHA work. Sherry Pace, and Nancy Sue Knight are organizing their report of progress toward a State Degree in FHA.

In Littlefield high school only two other girls have won this honor. They are Wanda Webb and Doris Byrd, who received the emblem of the torch in a ceremony recognizing the winners of state degrees at the Convention in Fort Worth in April 1954. This year the recognition ceremony will be a part of the State FHA Convention to be held in Galveston on April 21, 22, and 23.

To be eligible to work toward a State Degree an FHA member must have earned in previous years the Junior Degree and Chapter Degree, which are based on declaration of goals and evidence of satisfactory progress toward those goals in improving one's self as a Chapter member, a home member and a school and community member. These reports of progress are evaluated by the Homemaking teacher.

In November, 1954, Nancy Sue and Sherry sent to a state committee a formal declaration of intention to work toward a State Degree in FHA. This declaration included three goals and reasons for choosing each goal. These goals were set up so that the girls would have opportunity to plan and carry out activities in home, school and community that would help them develop into a well-rounded girl. In addition to these three goals, requirements for six standards have to be met which cover a wide variety of progress and development beginning with the first year as a member of FHA through all the high school years.

Nancy Sue and Sherry are preparing their reports of progress, which must be made according to exacting form and will be sent by March 20 to an evaluation committee composed of homemaking teachers in this area. The applications are approved or rejected by this committee.

These records of goals set up and evidences of progress toward these goals present an inspiring picture of development of a good

House and Garden Meet In Flower-Fenced Patio

A patio without flowers around it is never complete.

Today's patio is any place where house and garden meet and mingle. The modern idea is that garden shall contribute charm to the house, and be intimately associated with everyday living. They will be enjoyed most when near to the center of social activity, rather than hidden behind walls or hedges.

Every home can and should have a patio. A paved area close to a door is preferable, where you can take a sun bath. Flowers like sun-baths too. Those who prefer shade can have a garden umbrella. A patio without flowers around it will never seem complete, and around them should be fragrant flowers. Most fragrant of all is the sweet tuberosa, nasturtium, etc. This is the old-fashioned kind, which is far more fragrant than the improved varieties as it is so often the case.

The illustration shows a patio planting which can be made easily even by an inexperienced gardener. From the seeds of annual flowers, all subjects are easily grown from seed, even direct in where they are to grow. The planting is arranged with low growing plants in the foreground, taller ones behind. The plan shows a raised garden bed, harmony of color, with complementary, such as "Sweet Blue Bird".

er, where each will enhance the beauty of its neighbors.

Annual flowers grown from seeds blossom from early summer until frost comes, if the faded flowers are kept picked off, and reasonable care is taken of the plants. With them can be planted both bulbs and perennials, to give a continuous display of bloom from the time the ground thaws out until the autumn freeze-up. Annuals never outgrow their place, no matter how small the area. They are always in scale, making both house and grounds seem larger than they would, were larger and taller plants set out, soon to become overgrown, for their locations.

Remember that annual flowers need sunshine. Avoid planting a garden where the tops and roots of trees, hedges, or shrubbery shade the flowers, and compete with them for nourishment and moisture in the soil.

A location on the north side of the house is not likely to be favorable for the garden illustrated unless it is placed beyond the line to which the shadow of the roof extends in midsummer at 10 a. m. The location should also be free of shade from trees and other buildings for at least six hours a day.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kerchner, L.H.D.

Having made all other efforts to reduce costs, if a company still cannot meet competition and is faced with closing down, should labor accept a reduction in wages? Is it better for employees to receive $15.00 per day or demand $16.00 and be unemployed?

Several groups of workers in the textile industry, the automobile industry, and in meat packing, have voluntarily accepted minor wage reductions in the hope that resulting lower prices will stimulate demand for the products of their work, thus continuing their jobs.

In some instances labor leaders oppose these cuts and refuse to allow their members to accept them. In such cases workers were forced to continue striking and to be the unwilling victims of absentee leaders who preferred to see their members unemployed rather than accept slightly decreased wages. There are rumors that government has connived with this policy.

Such interference with the freedom of men to work when jobs are offered to them is intolerable, not only for them, but for the public and the stockholders as well. The men need their wages, the public needs the goods. Stockholders have risked their savings in what might be a modest, profitable venture but is now a loss because some men ambitious for power insist on controlling the activities of other men.

A flexible scale of wages and prices is needed to lower the cost of some goods and raise that of others in order that balance between the different groups of workers and consumers may be constantly maintained. This clears the market places and makes possible continuous prosperity to the very great advantage of labor, stockholders and public alike. It induces men and money to leave industries making things people no longer want and are unwilling to pay for and flow into industries making things people do want and are glad to pay for. This results in maximum production and rapidly rising scale of living.

FLUFFED FRANKS

Don't let a food budget get you down. Some of the tastiest dishes can be the most economical, too. Instead of serving "hot dogs" the next time your food allowance is running low, use the same frankfurters as a basis for this nourishing dish.

(Six Servings)

- 5 medium-size potatoes
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 cup margarine
- 1/2 cup hot milk
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 6 frankfurters
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard

Margarine pats
Cook washed, peeled potatoes with salt in 1 cup boiling water until they can be pierced easily with a fork. Drain and mash. Add margarine, hot milk, and pepper. Beat until smooth and fluffy. Split frankfurters lengthwise, cutting almost but not quite through, so they can be flattened. Spread cut surfaces lightly with prepared mustard. Pile mashed potatoes into each frankfurter, leaving tops rough. Place filled frankfurters on baking sheet or shallow pan. Set under broiler or into moderately hot oven (425° F.) until potatoes are lightly browned and frankfurters heated through, about 12 to 15 minutes. When brown, press one or two margarine pats into top of potato on each serving.

For other tasty and nutritious kitchen-tested recipes, write the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 78, Memphis, Tenn., for your free copy of "Make It With Margarine," an attractive new booklet in colors.

VIENNESE POTATO SOUP

There is nothing so tempting as a steaming bowl of hot soup for lunch on a cold winter day. Here is a new idea for soup that combines appetite-appeal and nutrition value in equal parts. Men will go for this rich Viennese potato soup, for it's made with meat and potatoes.

- (Six Servings)
- 1/2 cup margarine
 - 1/2 cup chopped onion
 - 1 pound lean ground beef
 - 1 tablespoon paprika
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 - 3/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 4 cups diced peeled potatoes (4 to 1 potatoes)
 - 2 1/2 quarts water
 - 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, if desired

In large, deep sauce pan melt margarine. Add onion and fry gently until pale yellow. Add ground beef and stir to separate meat. Cook gently 5 minutes, stirring several times. Texans In Washington

By Tex Easley
AP Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Texans and New Mexico have buried the hatchet they've used for decades at each other's waterway projects, harmony when they held a conference table to discuss solution of two Pecos river problems.

Over heads up in New Mexico above Carlsbad, there's a great loss of water that flows across out over the flat, so they propose a channel project. Across the line in Texas, farmers get irrigation water from the Bluff Reservoir on the river being hurt by pollution from salt springs below Carlsbad. An estimated 2 1/2 million dollars is needed to take care of both problems.

Seated around the table in the Senate Public Works Committee room were the Texas Commissioner of the Pecos River Compact Commission J. C. Wilson of Pecos, and his legal adviser, Emil Rassman of Midland; the New Mexico Commissioner, John Bliss, several members of Congressional delegations from both states, and Interior Department officials who handled federal reclamation work.

Sen. Anderson (D-NM) presided. From the beginning there was agreement the work should be done. The question was "who will pay for it?"

The conference ended in agreement to work for passage of legislation authorizing federal financing of a major part. It was not all of the cost.

When the meeting was over, Anderson made his way through the milling throng and approached Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex) and the Freshman West Texas Democrat Congressman, J. T. Rutherford, Odessa.

Anderson told Rutherford: "I want you to know I appreciate your attitude. There's no good reason why we can't work together here, and get things done for our states, instead of bickering and quarreling."

He then cited the cooperative attitude Daniel had taken in working with the New Mexico congressional delegation since the Texan entered the Senate two years ago. He and Daniel then recalled their team work on legislation last year which was mutually satisfactory to water users in both states.

Texas' senior senator, Lyndon B. Johnson, who has worked closely with Anderson, was at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., having a kidney stone removed.

East Texas' Rep. John Dowdy's office was the scene of a get acquainted session for Texas congressmen and their secretaries.

Mrs. Dowdy is on her husband's staff—a full time working secretary. She knew that a lot of the new Texas secretaries had not met one another or many of the older Texas secretaries and their bosses. So on a mid-week afternoon she held an open house with coffee and cookies in the shape of a map of Texas.

Receptions keep weary congressmen on the go at this time of the year. Two honoring first term members were held simultaneously the other day, one for all newcomers, the other staged by the Texas State Society for the five new men from the Lone Star State. The Texans were loyal—they skipped the one for the newcomers over the country at large.

Incidentally Rep. J. T. Rutherford of Odessa painfully acknowledges that high society doings demand strict observance as to dress customs.

Frozen Soups Get Warm Welcome

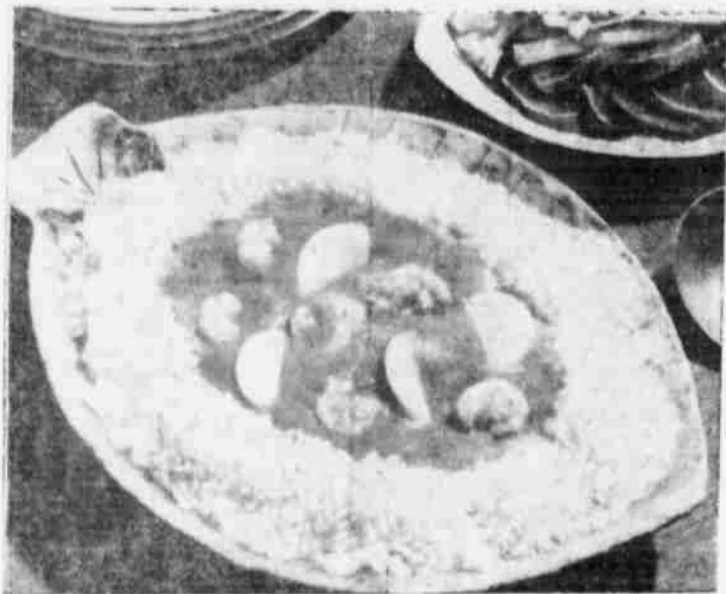

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor
LENTEN AND OTHER meals will benefit from some of the frozen soups now on the market. We have tried four of them, fish chowder, cream potato, oyster stew and cream of shrimp, and there is no new food product we are more enthusiastic about.

Although all four of these soups are delicious as is, we have found that they can be varied beautifully. In addition the oyster stew and the cream of shrimp varieties make out-of-this-world sauces for main dishes.

Our favorite way with the fish chowder is to prepare it according to the directions on the can, and just before serving to stir in dried crushed dill leaf. We mean dill leaf, not dill seed, and it can be added by pinches to suit your taste. With this flavor change the frozen chowder rivals the divine fish soup served at a well known Finnish restaurant in New York.

The cream of potato soup also benefits from dried crushed dill leaf. Another way to vary the flavor of and give color to the potato soup is to add minced parsley and finely grated raw carrot (separately or together) to it. The soup is also a wonderful vehicle for using up leftover cooked vegetables. If you keep a bottle of capers in your refrigerator for salad garnishing, you'll find a table spoon or so of the capers do well in the cream of potato soup. And you can make a wondrously pretty coral-colored soup from the cream of potato by adding canned pimento; a recipe for this version follows.

The oyster stew has a lovely delicate flavor just as it comes from the can with the addition of milk or light cream. But it also makes a fine main dish this way. Put the 10-ounce can of frozen condensed oyster stew in a saucepan and stir over low heat until melted. Then fish out the oysters with a slotted spoon and reserve. (You are going to thicken the liquid part of the stew and you don't want to toughen the oysters over the heat the sauce will need.) Now stir a couple of table spoons of flour together with a couple of table spoons of cold water until no lumps are left. Add the flour paste to the hot soup and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly. Add the reserved oysters and a cup or more flaked cooked fish fillets and reheat gently without boiling. Use a multi-colored white-meated fish—perch or flounder are fine—so the delicate taste of the original oyster stew won't be overpowered. Spoon the fish and oysters over crisp hot toast and sprinkle with paprika. Or press a hard-cooked egg through a small strainer over the fish for a garnish.

And finally the superb cream of shrimp. We used this soup recently as the base for a curry sauce for hard cooked eggs served over rice. As a luncheon dish this combination made a great hit with our guests. Three of us lapped it up! We are giving you this recipe with a very modest amount of curry—add more if you like your curry hot. With this dish we had a tossed green salad with a honey-fruit dressing. We don't as a rule like green salads with sweet dressings but because we did not offer the usual chutney it was welcome with the curry. For dessert we had a filled and frosted cake. All in all a good company lunch. If you serve this curry dish during Lent, fruit and cheese may be substituted for the cake.

SLICED EGGS WITH CURRY-SHRIMP SAUCE

Ingredients: 1 can (10-oz.) frozen condensed cream of potato soup, water, 2 table spoons of chopped pimento, minced chives or green onions. Makes 3 servings.

PVT. BILLY MULLER entered the Army January 27, 1955 and has just completed three weeks of basic training at Ft. Bliss. He is the husband of Mrs. Mary Jo Muller, the former Mary Jo Porcher, of Littlefield. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Muller of Star Route 2, Littlefield.

STEPHENVILLE GUEST
Mrs. J. M. Reagan, of Stephenville, was a week end guest in the home of her cousin, Mrs. W. G. Street.

Mrs. Reagan attended the Conservation Luncheon held Saturday by the Woman's Club.

The high cost of disease in farm animals is dramatically pointed up by the widespread incidence of mastitis in dairy cows. Mastitis sharply reduces milk production, and in many instances is fatal to the animal. The disease can be controlled, say dairy husbandry authorities, by preventive measures which means accurate diagnosis, adequate sanitary and herd management practices and close cooperation between the dairyman and his veterinarian. Also vital to a control program, they add, is proper treatment with the weapons provided by medical science, such as Targot, a mastitis ointment made from a combination of several antibiotics.

LEONA BENDER, popular radio star of KTSA says, "Every woman knows light Karo is best for cooking... and on the table."

it's Karo for me, the best-tasting waffle syrup of 'em all!

Yes, indeed... biscuits go like hot cakes when you pour on plenty of delicious Karo waffle syrup. There's nothing like it for good eating. Satisfyin' flavor. So rich it stands right on top of biscuits (keeps 'em light and fluffy). Keep Karo on your table morning, noon and night... it tops anything!

Ask your grocer for Karo waffle syrup, in pints and quarts.

Living in Health

ASIS is the name of a disease. It is caused by small round worms, parasitic Ascaris. A Christian missionary who operated a hospital in Korea writes: "Among the ber of people suffering from this debilitating parasite 80 to 90% in one year, in the colony, is something to be proud of."

Dr. Foreman says that many of the attributes of the Devil may be more accurately credited to the lowly round worm that comfort inside of most men. This is just one single example of something many men do not realize: that spiritual health, mental health and physical health all go together.

LYMAN'S

Is Positive

It is true that the New Testament warns against spiritual sins as much as against physical sins. But it is also true that there are plain teachings on virtues and vices of the half. Drunkenness, sexual sins of various kinds, are always listed out as spiritual dangers. Lust is the pure in heart. It is true. But those who are pure in body are not pure in heart. Further, purity is not a matter of degree. A virgin who had touched a drop of liquor is not yet not be pure. Repression is as the Bible knows and psychology on its own has also covered, — sheer repression. Nothing to balance it, may be a bad thing. A driver was talking about how he eliminated the distance on a certain route every week, and so saved minutes on every trip. But would not answer the question: do you do with those three minutes? So purity of life means that not squandering our energies and wasting our health, drink or otherwise; it means that the energy we save, as God would have it used.

Who's in Charge Here?

The key-question for health—physical, mental, and spiritual, is who is in charge here? Is your body in charge of your mind, or is the other way around? But whose mind is in charge here? Is it the lazy, sleazy, shifty mind, content with ignorance, asking to be amused (for you have a mind), or the mind that is set to higher things (for you have such a mind too). You carry with you all your life the mind of the brute, the mind of the child, you have the right to a mature mind, to be mature. Who is in charge here, the brute, the child, or you? Above all, who is in charge of you? If the true answer to that last question is God, the true answers to the others will be easier.

 his business, and we quickly got through the ordinary gambit, covering the standard of the weather, latest highway acci-

But from there on to the finish, things tapered to the deadly dull. One of Eisen-

HIGHLIGHTS and SIDELIGHTS

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association

Strict secrecy has shrouded Travis County's land fraud indictments.
 An unknown number of them have been made. Names of those indicted will be withheld, pending arrests.

District Attorney Les Proctor said the indictments were sealed "in the interest of law enforcement." He would not estimate how long it might be before the names could be made public.

Proctor also had asked for a special jury to prevent any let-up in the investigation.
 District Judge Charles O. Betts signed an order calling a special grand jury into session on March 10. His order does not limit the jury to land investigations, although that is the actual purpose.

Betts' order will keep the jury in session until the last Saturday in July. The previous grand jury's session expired March 5.

Rumors in Capitol corridors have it that the most outstanding breaks in the land investigation are yet to come.

McLarty Returns
 T. J. McLarty of Denver, Colo., one of several real estate promoters indicted in connection with veterans' land transactions, returned to Texas to post a $26,400 bond and talk to legislative investigators.

He has asked the privilege of having other witnesses and records subpoenaed.

Shepperd Busy

A report from the Attorney General's office reveals that since the beginning of the veterans' land investigation in October of last year, John Ben Shepperd's office has been a beehive of activity.

Shepperd estimates he and his assistants have traveled over 18,000 miles and have put in over 41,000 man-hours of time on the veterans' land investigation.

Shepperd has met with grand juries almost daily.

Thus far, the Bexar and DeWitt Co. grand juries have returned a total of 188 indictments against eight persons involved in veterans' land sales.

In addition, the State has filed three criminal complaints in Travis county.

Ten civil suits have been filed against 25 separate promoters. The total recovery sought by Shepperd in these 10 suits is $1,604,000.

Attorney General Shepperd plans to meet with 13 different grand juries during the month of March. He forecasts that this month will see the returning of "hundreds of criminal indictments against most of the persons involved."

Shepperd has added a complete new division to his department to process veterans' land civil and criminal cases. It is headed by Cecil E. Burney of Corpus Christi, an ex-prosecutor and former president of the State Bar of Texas.

Session Passing

Half of the regular session of the 54th Legislature is gone.

Governor Shivers said he wasn't perturbed at the slow start on important tax, water, appropriations and other legislation. He hadn't expected lawmakers to finish much legislation in the first half of the session.

There still is plenty of time, the Governor believes, to complete the program.

Minor Water Bills

Two minor water bills got an okay in the House.

One gives the State Water Board power to review proposals for federal projects. Veto power for the governor, originally in the bill, was stricken out.

Important water conservation measures, involving millions of dollars, have not reached a vote in either house.

Insurance Bills

Two big insurance bills were hung in committee. Rep. Floyd Bradshaw's omnibus bill would regulate fire and casualty companies of all kinds. Sen. Searey Braewell's would regulate life companies.

Regulations in Bradshaw's bills would:
 Raise minimum capital and surplus requirements (combined) to $200,000 for fire companies; $300,000 for casualty; and $500,000 for companies writing more than one line.

One advocate of his bill said, "Insurance Companies have to be born big."

Governor Shivers, on the other hand, said that just because an insurance company is small doesn't mean it isn't sound.

Braewell's bill would raise minimum capital and surplus requirements of life companies to $200,000 and require that it be kept in cash or bonds, not in real estate.

Rep. Vernon Smith charged that "vicious and false propaganda" by out-of-state insurance companies had impaired confidence in Texas insurance.

SHORT SNORTS:—Rep. Herman Yezak suggests the 150-member House be cut to 100 representatives. . . . A bill by Sen. A. M.
 Alkin Jr., to double drivers' license fees, won a favorable committee report. . . . Also approved was a House bill to increase college tuition fees from $25 to $50 a semester. . . .
 Rep. Joe Chapman has offered a bill to soften the driving-while-intoxicated law. . . .
 Bills to create a state utilities commission for rate regulation were pocketed in subcommittees in both chambers. . . . Political talk has Senators Crawford Martin, Jerrard Serrest and Dorsey Hardeman in the 1956 races for attorney general or lieutenant governor. . . . Agricultural Commissioner John C. White, only Democratic nominee in 1952 to reject Republican cross-filing, is being discussed as a possible choice of Texas liberals for governor.

Scientific collection of meteorites did not begin in earnest until after 1803 when a large shower at Laigle, France, convinced men of learning that the bodies are extra-terrestrial.

The death rate from polio in 1954 was about the same as in 1953, although there was a rise in the number of cases in 1954.

Visiting Norwegians, Swedes and Danes have little difficulty in understanding one another's language.

The origin of meteorites is still controversial. Generally, they are believed to be lumps from an exploded planet or perhaps two that collided.

About 30 miles above the earth, the air

IT'S THE LAW

in Texas

(This legal column is prepared under the supervision of the State Bar of Texas and distributed as a public service.)

One of the most familiar types of contract is the insurance policy, as nearly everyone carries some sort of insurance protection. Yet few people take the trouble to read their policies and lawyers have to answer many questions regarding insurance generally.

Here is a problem frequently presented:
 "I have a hospitalization insurance policy.
 Will the company pay all of my hospital bills if I become ill?"

It may or may not. Insurance is a contract between the insurance company and the policy holder. In the usual contract the policy holder agrees to pay a certain sum of money for the policy of insurance, and the insurance company agrees that should the policy holder incur hospital expenses that the insurance company will make payment to the policy holder of stated sums, as set out in the policy of insurance.

The insurance policy itself must state the complete contract between the parties. The oral statements of agents not in harmony with the policy are not binding on the company. The company is bound to pay only such sums as are specifically set forth in the policy of insurance.

Practically all policies have a section called "exception and exclusions." The policy holder should particularly read this section before purchasing a policy of any kind of insurance. It would be possible for a policy of insurance to have so many exceptions and exclusions as to practically nullify any benefits under the policy.

Another question often asked is "Can I sue the insurance company which issued a liability policy covering the car of someone who runs into and damages my car?"

For all practical purposes you may not sue the insurance company which carries liability on the other fellow's car to protect him from suits in case of his negligence. You must look to the owner or driver of the offer vehicle for your damages. Upon his becoming liable to pay those damages to you, then he in turn looks to the insurance company to make the settlement for him or to reimburse him for the settlement which he has made.

If the case goes to trial before the jury even though you know that the other party carries insurance, it is not wise to discuss the fact that insurance is carried by the other party, then the jury is held that it is the duty of the trial judge to dismiss a verdict.

The reason that you will have to start all over again and try your case from the beginning before the jury at a later date. Your case is not dismissed and you do not lose your rights to be heard on your case because of the word "insurance" coming into the case, but it does mean that the trial they in progress must be dismissed and you must start all over again before a new and different jury.

The theory of the appellate court is that the mere introduction of any evidence or any testimony to the effect that there is an insurance company involved in any way in the case is highly prejudicial to the defendant and his case of action.

The appellate courts further say that it is reversible error, that is such error as will set aside the findings of the jury, if the jury is misled to consider their verdict because whether or not either or both of the parties might or might not have insurance to back them up or protect them.

There's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

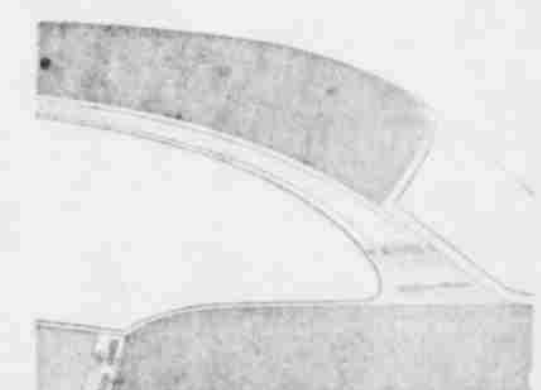

1 Visored headlights

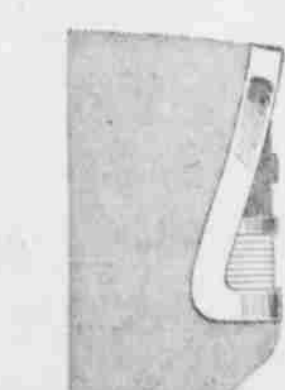

2 Lowered High-Level air intake

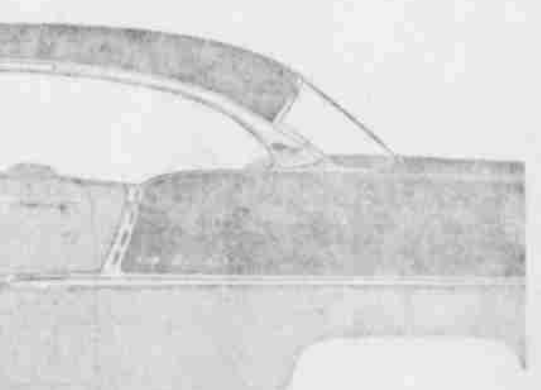

3 Sweep-Sight windshield

4 Distinctive dip in belt line

5 Fender-high taillights

6 Tasteful two-tone color styling

his is beauty with a bonus . . . for Chevrolet styling designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

uly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see that we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-sight windshield . . . a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillights—they add to the impressive length of line . . .
 but they are up there where they can be seen for safety's sake, and as convenient guides in parking. So, too, with the jutting peaks over the headlights.

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration
 . . . they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body—its lowness, the dipped belt line—is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

This is truly functional styling that serves you better every mile, and preserves its value against the distant day when you trade. This is Body by Fisher—another Chevrolet exclusive in the low-price field. Come in and let us demonstrate that this new Chevrolet is just as exciting to drive as to look at!

Baby's First Smile Will Come At One Month

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

AP Newsfeatures

When will your baby smile? At birth the baby's teeth are not hatched up and all his actions are automatic, on a reflex level we call it. But by the time he is a month old his eye nerves are beginning to carry messages. The baby begins to do things on purpose. The first nervous system are those closest to the brain. The baby develops on a head-to-toe pattern.

The very first truly voluntary act of a baby is to smile. He usually does it all about a month of age. For a few days you notice the muscles of his face start to twitch. It is as though he's feeling his way through a confused maze. Then he smiles. It is a message down to the muscles of the face. Then he smiles at the way and looks down at his adorable mouth.

He smiles at you at first. It is the words and looks that you have anything that is good. He smiles because he wants to because he feels good. It is not because you because you want to smile. It's something that comes from inside your baby, that makes him able to express himself in a way.

It is always seemed queer to me, because I like you, that a Mother Nature would have made this the first purposeful thing a baby does.

That the first smile is a heart of goodness. There is a smile that is smiling, so friendly, so warm about it. I say "You're just like you" and what you say. Why you smile back may be very, very good. You are not big and you are not tall, but you are just like him.

And that is the Mother Nature who did it all purpose. Because there is that smile that baby at your feet. He smiles, he is told that he is good. He smiles to you that he is

Dean Favars Wins Award For Essay On Soil Conservation

By DEAN FAVAR
WHAT CONSERVATION OF SOIL AND WATER MEANS TO ME

Soil and water conservation means a lot to me because I live on a farm and I plan to farm. I took an agriculture course in college and when I go back to my farm I want to work with the soil by having better soil is the only way a farmer can survive on his farm.

Erosion does a lot of harm. An example is to be found in Georgia where a gulch which today stretches across two counties and measures from 125 to 200 feet deep and from 100 yards to 2 1/2 miles wide started less than 75 years ago under the cover of a hard 10,000 acre including farms, roads, woods, barns, homes and churches has been lost. A simple terrace in the beginning would have stopped the whole thing.

When a farm is eroded the leaves are many. They are a few. Production and income are lowered, resulting in unimproved and unimproved buildings that are inadequate and not good enough. Also out of date clothing with its consequent loss of self respect and mental suffering, especially for children, when they see others wearing new and stylish clothes.

Erosion and lack of water causes withdrawal from religious and social life and often means poor sanitation or none at all. Lack of sell to these poor farmers on the cheapest foods or if they do sell the more expensive things they sometimes fail to collect for them. Local bankers make fewer loans and lose on some that they do make. The county government collects less taxes and the schools fund becomes less with each succeeding year.

Now let us look what lack of conservation does to the nation. Manufacturers of dry goods have less demand for their products; Implement manufacturers do business and by reason of sales less total profit. They charge more per article in business. The same is said of iron and steel, and practically all other goods.

But conservation of soil and water will protect these standards of living and what water conservation of soil means to me.

Financial worry and fear of the poorhouse, and the kills off more people than all of the (badly) combined.

CHURCHES

A SOURCE OF POWER AND INSPIRATION

The Holy Bible is a rule and guide of faith; a rule book for right living. It is a comfort in times of adversity and tragedy. It is a source of power and inspiration. Within its many books may be found solutions for many of the things in life that perplex and confound us. In short it is a text book for spiritual growth.

However, the Bible is not an easy book to read. To become a source of power and aid it cannot be "Skimmed" over as one often reads a work of fiction. It requires study!

An invaluable aid in getting the most out of your Holy Bible is attendance at church. Moreover, the Bible serves the same purpose to the church goer as a text book serves the student in class. It does more, much more, but this is one of its many uses.

Make use of your Bible and your church. Both will serve you as great bulwarks throughout life

"Son, the money I'll save with this G-E motor will help send you to school!"

"You see, son, our General Electric motor practically takes care of itself. It requires so little attention that I can spend more time on important jobs that will add to my income. And you know that savings for me means better things for you!"

"And it doesn't cost much to maintain this motor because it's made of cast-iron and built to last a generation or more. Vital parts won't rust outside or inside the motor because it is so well protected from dust, dirt, and water. It has an improved bearing lubrication system, too, that keeps the motor in top running condition even after hours of rugged duty. "Now look at that G-E control. It was made to operate outdoors—in any kind of weather. I don't have to worry about our motor burning out because the control was built to protect it against overloads and short circuits. "Son, all these things mean longer life for our motor and savings for us. General Electric knows our irrigation pumping problems and has given us this motor and control team to solve them!"

Acting on a 20-Year-Old Decision!

Let's suppose it was a couple of decades ago when a young lad, with his book strap over his shoulder and his lunch basket under his arm, started slowly down a dusty road that led to a country schoolhouse. But his walk was short that day. For a big, handsome Cadillac—with its smiling driver traveling in the lad's direction—stopped and gave him a "lift."

And as he stood there on the schoolhouse lawn and watched the big car roll off into the distance, he made a decision. He decided that, some day, he would own a Cadillac.

And here you see him, his dream come true—taking the keys to a new 1955 Cadillac!

As a Cadillac dealer, we've been privileged many times to help make such a dream come true. And it never ceases to be a thrill.

But we do feel, in all sincerity, that many motorists —not realizing the Cadillac car is practical as well as wonderful—wait too long to make the move.

The lowest-priced Cadillac, for example, actually costs less than twelve different models of other makes. Its economy of operation is far beyond anything you could logically anticipate from a car of Cadillac's size and luxury. And at the time of resale, a Cadillac traditionally returns a greater share of its owner's investment than any other car in the land.

If, like the gentleman in the picture above, you have been looking forward to a Cadillac of your own—you should give careful consideration to these remarkable Cadillac facts.

It is entirely possible that the time for your Cadillac has come—and, as we said, it is always a pleasure to help make such a dream come true.

Better come in and see us today.

By LOUISE C. ALLEN

We had a rare treat last week—a visit to our grandmother's old home. Most of the childhood treasures had vanished. Once arbor vitae trees lined the front walk, four on each side, where a child could run, arms outstretched, and feel the stiff green fronds brush her palms. Only four of these remain, trimmed high so as to clear the walk, but they whispered hello.

A plain, sensible door had replaced the garlanded one on which we traced the design with our finger tips. In the wide, diagonal hall we looked for the small card table with its embroidered doily and heavy silver tray. The cheerful green-tiled fireplace and oak mantle that formed a triangle across one corner of her sunny sitting room has been walked up and paper over, like the rest of the room.

The misty parlor, where we read Black Beauty and examined the hundreds of small shells embedded in a huge vase is now a well-aired bedroom. The place has been made into a public dining hall, but we saw only the high-ceilinged rooms. Memory filled in the rest: the silver pitcher and goblet on a marble-topped table, the high-backed rocker, roses blooming around the front porch.

She was a genteel little lady, with white hair drawn softly back into a bun. Armed against wind, sand and drought with a sizable watering pot and great will, she planted fruit trees, roses, geraniums and lilacs, and wouldn't let them die. She was a Tennessean, transplanted to West Texas, a true pioneer.

The old house like the gentle woman for whom it was built seemed to say, "True, I have seen better days. But I'm keeping my chin up, come what may!"

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" in total national sales.

Who says you can't have getaway and gas saving too?
(maybe you'd better try Variable Pitch Dynaflow!)

As any automotive engineer will tell you, the goal in automatic transmissions has long been a design that would give top acceleration and top gas mileage—and still be absolutely smooth.

Well, it's easy to step up acceleration, or gas mileage—but tough to do both together—unless a lot of gearshifting takes place, which cuts down on smoothness.

So Buick engineers looked to aviation for the answer—and brother! what a wondrous new magic they came up with!

They took a leaf from today's plane propeller—which switches the pitch of its blades one way for quick take-off—and another way for better gas mileage aloft.

They brought the same principle to Dynaflow Drive®—to the twenty propeller-like blades in the Dynaflow "stator." They engineered these blades to swivel like the blades of the plane propeller—and with the same results.

In cruising and all normal driving, the blades are angled for economy—and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.

But when you have to move instantly—when you need quick getaway, or a sudden burst of safety-surge power to get out of a tight spot—you just press down that gas pedal, and you're off in a split second.

You've never felt anything like it before—because there's never been anything like it before in an automobile.

It's action that's sheer thrill—action that's backed by the highest V8 horsepowers in Buick history—action that's sending Buick sales soaring to record-high levels.

Come in and try it, at the wheel of a Buick SPECIAL, CENTURY, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You have nothing to lose—and the year's most thrilling buy to meet.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional on extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

EDDIE WALLACE, member of the Littlefield FFA chapter, which is directed by W.W. Hall and James Pirkey. With Eddie are three of the swine which are part of his livestock project this year and which he will enter in the county show Saturday. (Staff Photo)

Eddie Wallace Completing Senior Year Of Outstanding FFA Membership

Eddie Wallace, who is president of the Littlefield senior FFA chapter, has been in FFA work for four years under the direction of vocational agriculture teacher W. W. Hall.

Eddie started in FFA work in his freshman year, and had five head of Angus cattle, 20 acres of dryland cotton and 10 acres of hogani as practical projects. He was a member of the livestock team that entered state competition, placing among the high ten teams.

In his second year, Eddie had 100 broilers, 10 acres of irrigated cotton and 19 acres of dryland cotton as projects. He was a member of the livestock team that year, and entered area competition.

The next year found Eddie as district president and also president of the Littlefield chapter. He was carrying 10 acres of irrigated cotton, 10 acres of irrigated corn, 10 acres of irrigated milo, 100 broilers and three fat barrows as projects this year.

Eddie's achievements in FFA work are reflected in the grand champion banner he has won by his Angus bull, a blue ribbon for first place and one junior

4-H Clubs Are Big Business In Texas; Valued At $7,500,000

The estimated value of demonstrations in agriculture, home economics and related fields owned by Texas 4-H club members is $7,500,000. The 122,000 4-H members last year report the state 4-H leaders, conducted a grand total of 239,754 different demonstrations involving practically every phase of agricultural production and homemaking.

The state 4-H leaders in their annual report show that 4,918 local clubs conducted active programs during 1954. Also that 45,418 members received training in farm and home safety; 22,451 in soil and water conservation; 42,640 in citizenship; 13,940 in group recreation; more than 4,200 in music appreciation and 20,800 received training in some phase of judging.

The records also show that 4-H members are farmers and livestock producers. Their corn acreage last year exceeded 11,500 acres and one of their members, Doye Turner of Lamb county, set an all-time corn production record for the state of 201.3 bushels an acre. They planted over 14,000 acres of cotton; 4,700 acres of garden vegetables and carried out grand champion banner won earlier in his work.

tics on 26,614 acres. They owned 573,128 chickens and turkeys; 6,123 dairy animals; 13,461 beef animals; 31,496 swine; 12,112 sheep and almost 5,000 were enrolled in the tractor maintenance program.

They canned and preserved 380,015 quarts of food while an additional 301,208 pounds of food was preserved by freezing. The 36,744 enrolled in clothing work made 93,902 articles and 83,743 garments. More than 38,000 studied meal preparation and 7,411 were enrolled in junior leadership projects.

Demonstrations and activities are a mighty important part of the 4-H program but of even more value is the training members receive in character building. County extension agents and local volunteer leaders are their teachers and their farms, ranches and homes the classroom where they learn to do by doing.
