Amherst Stricken With Acute Housing Shortage

School Superintendent W. D. Kay of Amherst, and the Amherst Independent Schools, admits that his school is having at least some of the troubles that other schools throughout the state are experiencing this year, but that his school has an added problem that further complicates the situation in the most centrally located city of Lamb county. That problem, is an acute and serious housing shortage, with not a vacancy in town, he says, and none in prospect.
That reference is to rental units, but even for sale purposes, desirable houses are few and far between.
As a result, some of the Amherst teaching staff, may be forced to seek homes in the rural areas, or even come to Littlefield—the latter being more than a possibility, because the superintendent expressed an interest in rental houses which might be vacant in Littlefield.
Truth is that there have been very few vacant rental houses for some time past, nor is the situation likely to change, unless some concerted action is taken to build new houses and offer them for rent.

Faculty members already contracted are seeking houses right now, and there are several unfilled vacancies, so the shortage is likely to intensify, and not diminish.

Rowland Issues Statement To Precinct Voters

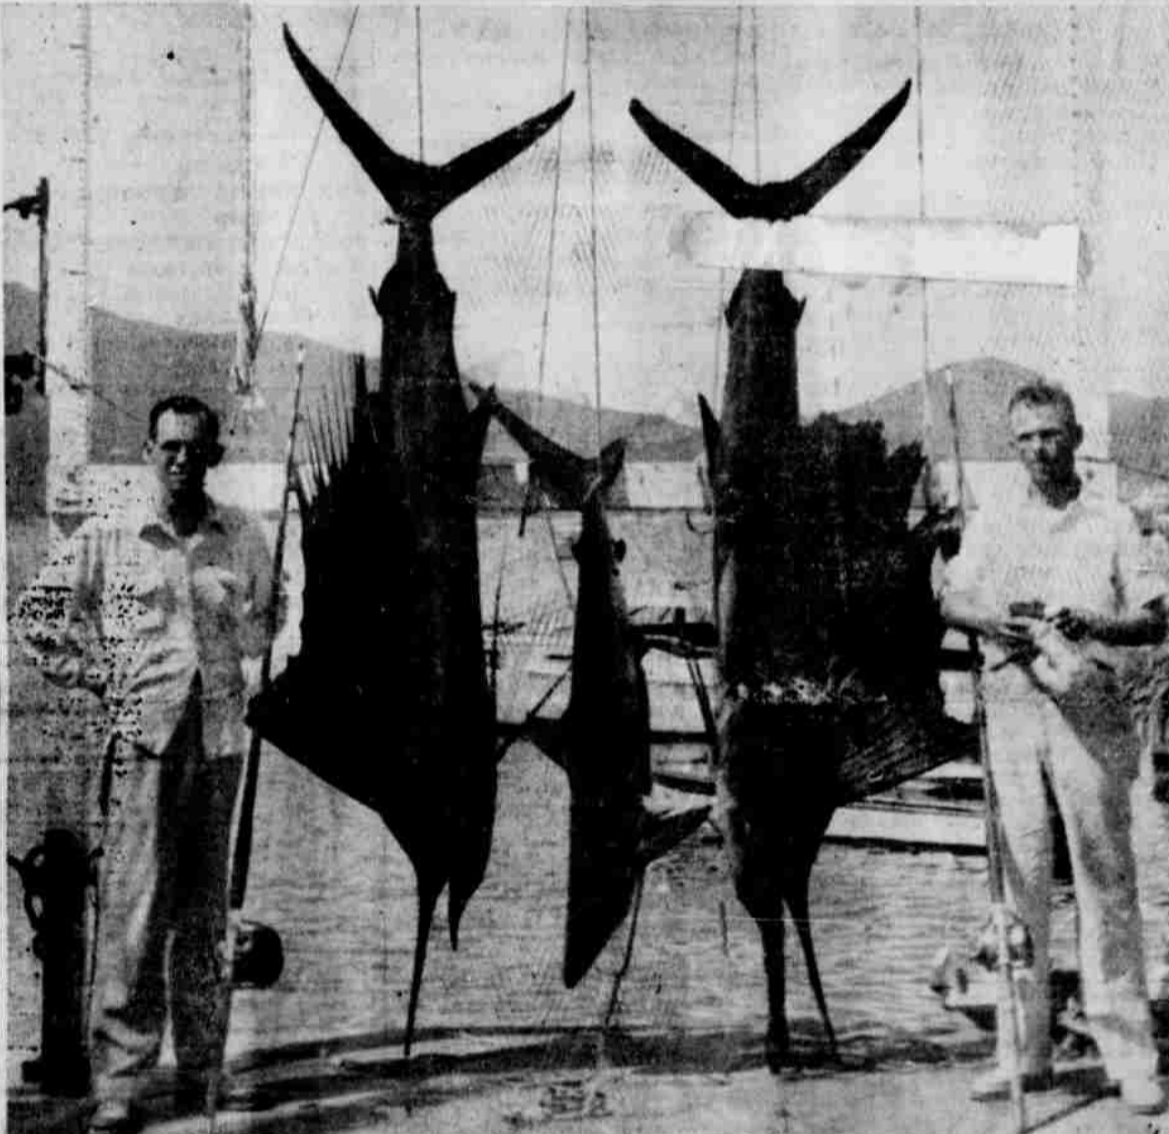

W. F. (Bill) Rowland, candidate for commissioner of Precinct No. 4, has issued his formal statement to the voters. Mr. Rowland's statement follows:
"There are five of us in this race. The ballot will be plainly printed. I caution you to be sure to put a black pencil mark through the names of all four of my opponents."

Construction On Assembly Of God Church At Amherst Underway

In addition to the church of Amherst went under construction this week, and is to be completed through to completion, expectation that the first service will be conducted in this new assembly of God church home, on July 27.
The church building is of frame construction, with floor space of 2,500 sq. ft. It is being constructed on a lot in mind, that as the church and membership grows, this building can be utilized as a parsonage, when a new and larger permanent church building is constructed on adjoining lots.

Mrs. Horace May, recently ordained in this denomination, will be the resident pastor, and the church starts with a membership of approximately 20. Rev. May said that this church is a branch of the true Assembly of God faith, and not related to another branch of the same named denomination, which formerly held services in Amherst.

Mrs. May's husband, is in charge of the construction of the new church building.
The family recently moved to Amherst from Clovis, N.M. They have three children, Johnny age 11, Edna, age 9, and Jimmie age 8. The family is temporarily living near the Amherst school buildings. The children will enroll in Amherst schools at the opening of the fall term.

These two big fellers represent the complete day's haul for Jim Tom Brittain and his cousin, Gene L. Crossman. Jim Tom, right, is holding a nine-foot sail-fish. Gene, left, has a shark. The two fishermen did their casting off the coast of Acapulco, where they spent a crowded week of their lengthy vacation in Mexico, returning only this week.

For their deep-sea fishing venture the two young men used a small cabin boat.
The big sailfish was landed in about 25 minutes. Jim Tom spent only one day fishing. He said, "All I wanted to do was catch one fish."

JIM Tom believes that there are still more fish in the sea than have ever been caught—even like the one he hooked. He absolutely guarantees that anybody can catch one just like his—or BIGGER—that goes to Acapulco and wets a hook in the right place!

Connie Hopping Wins Title Of Miss Lubbock In Beauty Contest

Miss Connie Hopping, 19 year old daughter of Mrs. Jim McGuire, won the title of "Miss Lubbock," in a contest held Thursday night at Lindsey Theatre in Lubbock, and will automatically enter the Miss Texas pageant to be held in Galveston in two weeks.
Miss Hopping, a Littlefield girl, and graduate of the local high school, is a senior student at Texas Tech, where she is a home economics major.
To win the coveted prize and a chance to enter the Miss Texas pageant in Galveston two weeks from now, the new Miss Lubbock competed in beauty and talent with five other young women. Her runner-up was Miss June Osborne, another Texas Tech student.
She won with her smile, her 5-foot 6 1/2 inches of feminine charm—and her pleasing rendition of a medley featuring "You'll Nev-

SENATORIAL RACE IS PROMINENT IN BALLOT BATTLE

Five In Contest For Precinct 4 Commissioner

The one thing that may bring out a comparatively heavy vote in next week's Democratic Primary election, Saturday, is the fact that there is serious competition for the office of commissioner in each of the four districts, with a total of 12 candidates actively campaigning for election, five of them in Precinct 4, which precinct includes both Sudan and Amherst.
Two other contests for major offices, aside from Justices of the Peace, are also asking for voter nod—Dick Dyer and Charles McClain, both newcomers to the Lamb county ballot, are seeking the office of sheriff, while incumbent Joel Thomson is opposed by a former holder of the office of county clerk, Stanley Doss, who held the office prior to his service in the fighting forces during World War II.
Hot Senatorial Race
But the contested election of a State Senator, is probably of even greater import, to the voters of Lamb county, which is a component part of this 30th Senatorial District. Harold LaFont, is getting active opposition from A. J. Rogers, of Childress, for this office.
LaFont, almost as well known in Lamb county, as he is in Hale, his home county, will undoubtedly receive a heavy vote in this county.

NEW YORK—When Monte Irvin, slugging left-fielder of the New York Giants, returns to action sometime in August he will wear a specially-made pair of spiked shoes.

The right shoe (shown upright) carries a steel brace which moves forward and backward on a hinge. The brace also serves as a support for the right ankle Irvin fractured during a Denver exhibition game in mid-April.

The instep of both shoes, made by Spalding, have solid shanks instead of the normal split shank. This is to give both feet even motion and is made for stability rather than flexibility.

The shoes were fitted for Irvin in the hospital and are size 8½ EE.

JOHN C. WHITE

Seeks Re-election To Office

The first definite step towards putting the Texas Department of Agriculture on a self-supporting basis was claimed this week by Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

White, who is asking a second term in the top agriculture job in Texas, said his department is requesting less aid from the state general revenue fund in 1954, despite plans to increase his office's scope of activities. If White's budget is approved by the Texas Legislature next year, the expansion program will be financed by fees collected by the department, he explained.

West Texas counties, was brought about by the agency's move to reduce its personnel and otherwise curtail its operations to conform to the funds allocated by Congress.

Gholson received information that personnel in Region 10, which includes the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, must be reduced from the present total of 1040 persons to 240. The national office, in effecting this reduction in the region, ordered the closing of district offices in Lubbock, Shreveport, Fort Worth, Tulsa and Houston, and the combining of the regional office in Dallas with the Dallas district office. District offices remaining will be in Dallas, San Antonio, Little Rock, Oklahoma City and New Orleans.

The section of the state presently included in the Lubbock district will be placed under the Dallas office, according to tentative plans.

Gholson said separation notices for all employees of the Lubbock district office would be issued today. The employees, all of whom are under Civil Service, must be given 30-day notices. This office was authorized a strength of 80 persons. Instructions regarding details of the closing of the office have not been received, but likely will be here by the end of the week.

Raising The Bars Against Red Propaganda

The U.S. State Department should be applauded for its action at long last in ordering the Soviet embassy at Washington to cease publishing and distributing its propaganda booklets in the United States. At the same time the department announces the suspension of its sole remaining publication in Russia, the slick paper, illustrated magazine called Amerika.

The tenuous hold exerted by that publication upon the Russian people has been offset many times over by the virtually complete run of this country given the Russian publications in the English language. The most important of them has been the twice-monthly U.S.S.R. Information Bulletin, widely circulated to American editors, libraries, school and college administrators, and institutions. Its purpose is to present Soviet life in its most attractive colors and to stress the propaganda line of peace and progress.

From time to time the embassy also has sent out brochures reprinting important speeches by Soviet leaders, such as the rabble-rousing address delivered by L. P. Beria on the occasion of the 34th anniversary of the October Revolution, which breathed vituperation and hate upon the "American imperialists" and scorn and derision upon the American way of life.

In return for the freedom to dump such uncensored frothings into the pouches of U.S. postmen, we have had the doubtful privilege of distributing in Russia a limited number of copies of our Russian-language magazine after its content had been submitted to Soviet officials for censorship.

As a result of "progressive restriction" and obstacles, the State Department now notes, "the number of copies which can be presumed to reach the Soviet public has become so small as not to justify the effort of the government of the United States to supply Soviet readers with a true picture of American life and thus to promote understanding between the two peoples."

The whole arrangement has been an indignity which we long since should have struck down but for the fact that even the restricted circulation of a censored publication was able to carry an American message to the Russian people. Even second-hand copies sold on the black market for many times the news-stand price.

Now that the severance has been complete, it should be extended to the publications of the satellite governments unless full and equal privileges are extended to the United States, which is not likely. It is regrettable that the blackout of information between the free world and the Soviet empire must be densened instead of lifted, but we earn nothing except disgust when we trade unlimited privilege for a trickle of toleration.

While The House Burns

The local fire department at Loudoun, a French town near Poitiers, went on strike the other day in a relatively trivial dispute with the prefect. The firemen wanted to hold a contest to determine which brigade in the department could pump a stream of water the farthest. The prefect called the competition off because of the scarcity of water. The water scarcity was due to a heat wave. While the strike was in progress a house caught fire, and the firemen stood around and watched it burn to the ground.

The situation is an example in miniature of a strike against the public interest. The community, dependent upon the fire department for protection, had no concern with the strike but an uninvolved home owner was the sufferer.

The current steel strike in the United States is a gigantic parallel. While the steelworkers remain on strike, largely because of the issue of whether the mills are to be union shop, the national community suffers basic losses in steel production which can not be restored. The house is burning and the firemen are watching it burn.

Annual County Field Day Set For Early Fall

Littlefield Chamber of Commerce along with Chambers from six other counties over the South Plains are sponsoring a field day, to be held Thursday, July 31, at Brownfield.

A demonstration of new farm implements, as well as new farming methods and discussion of insecticides will be stressed on the program. Several from here are expected to attend.

Absentee Ballot Demand Vigorous

During the past few weeks the absentee ballot demand has proven vigorous and brisk in Lamb county, despite the fact that there are not too many contests for county offices this year, and the demand for ballots evidently generated by the fact that more people are vitally interested in national political decisions this year.

A total of 112 ballots have been sent out since July 17th, and of this number, 26 have been completed and returned to be counted.

How many of the remaining 86 will be voted, is strictly a matter of guess and speculation. In order to be counted they must be returned, marked in time to be received not later than July 23—three days before the primary on Saturday, July 26.

G. M. Shaw To Go To Brownfield As Store Manager

G. M. Shaw, formerly of Littlefield, but recently of Kerrville, Texas, arrived in Littlefield Sunday night, and is spending this week on business at the Ware's Department Store.

Mrs. Shaw at present is visiting their daughter, Miss Myrtle Marion Shaw, at Jacksonville, Fla. As soon as she returns Mr. and Mrs. Shaw plan on moving to Brownfield to make their home.

SHIVERS AGIN AUTO INSPECTION LAW; "SHALL CHANGE IT OR REPEAL IT" He Says

By Ben Kaplan, Press Staff Writer

Governor Allan Shivers today said that the new auto inspection law should either be modified or repealed.

The Governor told the Press before he left Austin for Houston to make a campaign appearance that he had some ideas for changing the controversial law.

His ideas is to take the red tape and confusion out of the law. "The law was intended to bring about real safety and not inconvenience," said Governor Shivers.

"We need to stop killings on the highways. Texas has become the number one State in the United States for murder on the highways.

"The Legislature passed this inspection law by a vote of 117 to 12 in the House of Representatives and 19 to 9 in the State Senate, with the thought that it would save more than 200 Texas lives each year. If the law fails to do this and instead causes confusion and inconvenience, it ought to be changed or repealed."

The Governor said that he would recommend to the next session of the Legislature that it re-study and examine this law in view of the experience and either modify or repeal it.

(Several months ago, when it became apparent that the new law was causing inconvenience and confusion, Governor Shivers ordered it suspended until it can be reviewed by the Legislature.)

Memories are all the more precious when you can give credit to your glowing remarks by photographs of the real thing. It is important to have an interesting picture to prove you have met "the hand in the world."

When you will pose for other pictures, you meet at vacation spots you want a new vacation picture when he goes back to work. Here are some tricks to remember:

1. If you want to take your picture at noon, be sure you begin the time of day when the sun is likely to be cast behind you because the sun is directly overhead. Mid-morning or afternoon, on the other hand, offer better lighting.

2. If you're inclined to squint, tilt your face the sun, try tilting your head up at an angle so your eyes and facial contours are not distorted by the sun doesn't directly into your eyes. Or the person who photographs you will want to try the side or back-lighting technique, using a supplementary attachment on his camera to fill in the front shadows on your face.

3. When it comes to your figure, the rule in posing is worth remembering: Hips and shoulders should be at an angle to the camera—they'll look slimmer. Legs should be trimmer and more graceful if they're kept close together and slightly bent. Legs should be at an angle to the camera, too. Girls can take a graceful pose by placing one leg a little in front of the other, and putting a heel on the hip. A seat cushion sometimes helps con-

Something for your album—Choose a good background, pose at an angle if you

The Jim McGuires Return From A Delightful Trip To Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McGuire accompanied by their sons, Dickie Hopping and Farris L. McGuire returned home Thursday night from a delightful trip to Alaska.

The men in the party left here June 22, and made the trip by car, while Mrs. McGuire took a plane from Lubbock, on July 3, joining the party at Anchorage the next day.

Headquarters were at Anchorage, from where short trips were made nearly every day. The group had the pleasure of visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Matthews, and family and John T. Street, all former Littlefield folks, who are now living at Seward, Alaska, where Mr. Matthews is manager of an orphanage there, and where John Street is employed there. The two boys spent four days with John T. and thoroughly enjoyed digging for clams, and fishing for trout and salmon.

Mrs. McGuire said the climate in Alaska, where they visited is ideal—there is no night there, the sun goes down around 9:30 p.m., when there is about four hours of twilight, before the sun comes up early—early in the morning.

She said the flowers are beautiful—the color is deep and very bright—blue bonnets grow in abundance, and have large hardy stems measuring about three feet. She said the roses and iris and poppies are now blooming in abundance. She also said strawberries grow everywhere, low bush and high bush blue berries, gooseberries and other small berries.

Mrs. McGuire also mentioned the lovely birds, and said she was surprised to find mocking birds in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. McGuire are now making plans to spend the entire summer in Alaska, next year.

According to information reaching M/Sgt. Gerald F. Cutshall, local recruiter for the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force, twelve area youths have passed their pre-induction examination at the Amarillo main recruiting and induction station last week and are now eligible for induction into the Army in the very near future.

Those that passed the examination are: Lawrence E. Dempsey, Route 1, Anton; Donald E. Conoley, Muleshoe; Herbert O. Walker, 814 E. 3rd St., Littlefield; Ted L. D. Barrett, Route 1, Olton; Vernon L. Daniel E. Gilbert, Morton, one of these youths, has applied for enlistment in the U.S. Air Force through Sgt. Cutshall's office and is on the Air Force's waiting list to be enlisted as an airman July 22.

According to Sgt. Cutshall, there are only four air force vacancies left within the entire Amarillo recruiting area for the remainder of July. Anyone interested in becoming an airman is urged to contact Sgt. Cutshall immediately.

The new location of the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting station is in the basement of the local post office building. Telephone 110 MX.

JUDGE JOE S. MOSS

The Law Can Be In Simple Language

Any document signed by a Lamb county citizen may someday have to be interpreted by the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo. In over 41 years the court has existed, it has decided over six thousand civil cases. It is to the interest of the people of Lamb county that qualified men of the people sit on that high court. Judge Joe S. Moss of Garza county believes that legal papers and proceedings should be in the language of the people, rather than in legal fine print. Judge Moss will help simplify and speed up the machinery of the law. Ask the people who know him. Vote for Moss. A Civil Judge for a Civil Court.

reeling at 9 p.m. Thursday. First, all six lovelies were introduced: Miss Hopping, Miss Osborne, Miss Marcia Rogers, Miss Kay Day, Miss Bryannette Bethany and Miss Robbie Nell Cliff.

Following the talent show, the six contestants re-appeared to walk individually across the stage in bathing suits. As the last one disappeared behind the curtain, they and the audience out front waited anxiously for the judges' decision.

Miss Osborne's choice as second place winner was announced first, and Master of Ceremonies Ken Johnson presented her with a bouquet of roses. Then the other four entrants came on stage to flank the revolving stage at the center of the platform.

The organ music swelled the spotlight turned expectantly to the sign saying "Miss Lubbock of 1952." The announcer hesitated as the stage turned—and there she was, the girl who will carry Lubbock's hopes into the Miss Texas contests at Galveston July 31-Aug. 2.

As the curtain fell and the winner stepped backstage she murmured "this is the happiest moment of my life." It was an even happier moment a second later as her mother made her presence known.

For the record books, the new Miss Lubbock is graced by a size 36 bust, a 24-inch waist and 37-inch hips. Her hobbies are cooking and sewing.

"I like to try out new recipes and make clothes," she says. She designed the evening gown she wore in the beauty pageant, describing it as a soft Nile green over pink net and taffeta, with small pink roses accented by rhinestone dewdrops on the leaves and rose petals. She named the gown "Moonlight Roses."

As a senior in home economics at Tech, Miss Hopping hopes to teach and model after graduation. She has no immediate plans for marriage.

Featured in Yearbook

No newcomer to the beauty spotlight, she was one of eight beauties featured in the Tech yearbook during her freshman year. As a sophomore she was the number one beauty at the college and, last year, she was chosen one of the 25 beauties on the campus of the University of Texas while she was attending school there temporarily.

A former Tech band sweetheart, she also was a nominee for Sun Princess at the college one year and was runner-up in the contest for Rose of Delta Sigma Pi. She is a member of the Ko Shari social club, the Book Reviewers and the Home Economics Club. While at Texas University, she was a member of the Spooks organization, members of which are chosen for their personality and sense of humor.

As the winner of the Miss Lubbock contest, Miss Hopping will compete for the title of Miss Texas at Galveston. The winner of that event will go to Atlantic City later in the year to vie with the most beautiful and talented young women of the nation for the title of Miss America.

and leave my name for the election judge to read to the tally keepers. "I have been a resident and property owner of this precinct for the past twenty-eight and half years. I am well known. I have electioneered with but very few voters. I do not mean by this action that I do not want your vote. I will appreciate your vote more than you may realize.

"In any and all of my undertakings I do my utmost to win, and if I am elected your commissioner I will do my utmost to make you as good or a better commissioner than you have had in the past.

"I have handled funds for the three different companies with whom I have been connected for the past 38 years and through this experience I feel that I am qualified to handle the funds of the precinct.

"I have also had experience in road building, having been raised on the farm and helped work roads to pay my poll tax.

"In my campaign I have handed out but few cards, and it is my opinion these cards are to be handed out only to strangers as an approach to make your acquaintance and my being already acquainted with you is my reason for not handing out more cards. I have had dealings with most of the voters in some manner or other, and all of these dealings speak for themselves as to qualifications, fairness and impartiality. If I am elected I will not be partial to any voter nor to any portion of the precinct.

"In closing, I wish to state if you see fit to vote for me, I assure you that if I am elected I will make you a hand."

few years have been trying times, and as you well know, money will not go as far as it once did. The present dollar will not buy as much service, materials or machinery as it would, even three or four years ago, or prior to our Korean crisis.

"Taking all these things into consideration, I have done the best I could with what I have had to do with.

"You have over 100 miles of roads to be maintained in Precinct No. 3 and in addition a number of bridges and lake dumps. Over half of your bridges and more than fifty per cent of your lake dumps have been rebuilt during my tenure of office.

"There is no outstanding indebtedness against your precinct, and some Thirty Thousand Dollars worth of new Machinery and equipment have been purchased and paid for in order to better serve and maintain the roads of your precinct.

"There has been constructed 17 miles of paved farm-to-market roads within the precinct, built and maintained by the state, and an additional 17½ miles of paved farm-to-market roads have been accepted by the State for maintenance, leaving only four miles of farm-to-market roads to be maintained by the Precinct.

"At the present time right-of-way is being secured for 5 more miles of farm-to-market road in Precinct 3, which I hope to have completed by the first of September this year. Even though your taxes have doubled and doubled again on the other levels of Government, your taxes have not increased on the County Level. And I will continue endeavoring to hold your tax assessments to the lowest amount possible, and see that you receive, one hundred percent of value, for each tax dollar spent. The records of the county is 'an open book' and I would appreciate your investigation, examination and constructive criticism of the operations of Precinct 3. If you favor a fair, honest and economical administration of the affairs of Precinct 3, and the County, I will appreciate your consideration. With the experience that I have had, and with your continued cooperation, I feel that together we can still improve the affairs of our precinct and our County.

"And assuring you, that no person will appreciate your support and vote on July 26, more than yours,

Sincerely, Roy Gilbert

A private poll of a group of 18 prominent citizens on this contest called together for an entirely different matter, one night this week, revealed that 17 favored LaFont, only one opposed, which probably is an indice of local sentiment.

Renderers Good Service

LaFont has served this legislative district and this county well, as a member of the legislature, and his efforts were highly important to this section in the recent legislative fight over underground water control.

But it was as district attorney for this district, when he prosecuted the perpetrators of the crime which snuffed out the lives of a local doctor, Roy Hunt and his wife, several years ago, that his name became an integral part of that sensational murder case, and the convictions obtained in court, are due in large measure to his diligence and personal efforts, in bringing the guilty to justice.

In the race for 96th district state representative are Karl L. Lovelady and Jess M. Osborn, both of Bailey county. District Attorney Joe Sharp of Plainview is unopposed, however.

Commission Races Contested

are contested. In precinct 1, R. W. (Bob) Ball, George C. Brown and Don Bryant are listed on the ballot. T. V. Murrell and Sam Cearley are in precinct 2 and Roy Gilbert and Walter Martin are in the race in precinct 3.

For justice of the peace in precinct 4, Fred V. Dillard and G. S. Glenn are the runners, while J. M. Shuttlesworth and T. M. Cox are the aspirants for that office in precinct 5. Ewell Roberts and Robert Wilson are in the precinct 4 contest's race and Raymond Cantrell is unopposed for that position in precinct 5.

In other county-wide elections, Judge Otha F. Dent is unopposed for re-election, as is Curtis R. Wilkinson for county attorney, Mrs. Bill Pass for county treasurer, and Mrs. Treva Quigley for district clerk of Lamb county. Herbert Dunn also unopposed for tax-collector and assessor.

T. Wade Potter is listed on the ballot for county Democratic chairman, while the precinct candidates include G. T. Sides, 1; Guy Kelley, 2; H. L. Woody, 3; Otto Jones, 4; Clyde Robertson, 5; and Murrell Autry, 8.
