

Millers Try To Top Red Cross Quota

For more than three hours yesterday, an endless stream of dollars tinkled into glass bottles, and dollar bills piled up in stacks, as assisted men and women at the Clovis Army Air Field collected their pay and dropped their contributions into Red Cross tills, to meet the high and vital quota set for 1945.

Men who fly the giant Superfortresses, ground crew personnel, instructors and administration workers alike, made their voluntary donations while Red Cross workers, standing at the end of long pay lines, replaced bottles as they were filled, and presented the men and women with 1945 Red Cross membership cards.

Officers' and enlisted men's wives served as voluntary Red Cross workers for the one-day drive. As pay lines in each squadron shortened for noon chow, workers reported an unusually heavy response, and are confident that the field's quota of $7,500 would be reached. This is much larger than last year's quota which went over the top by $1,700.

Perhaps no one group is as familiar with the humanitarian benefits of the Red Cross as the soldiers for them, and for their buddies overseas, the Red Cross often means the difference between comfort and suffering, or life and death. Millions of pints of blood for plasma, millions of parcels of food, cigarettes, and first aid materials for Allied prisoners of war, thousands of recreation and recuperation centers—these are only a portion of the services made possible by the Red Cross for the health and comfort of Allied men on the fighting fronts today.

Salvation Army Drive Progressing

Although the drive is going slow due to the shortage of assistance, Adj. Trummell stated this week that with the continued cooperation of the citizens, she was sure the Salvation Army drive goal will be reached.

It will probably take the rest of this week to complete the drive, Adj. Trummell stated. She also requested that anyone who had a contribution to make to this drive, to mail it to the Salvation Army. This means of contributing will be greatly appreciated due to the fact that time is very limited on the part of the workers.

Red Cross Fund Off To a Good Start

Olton Over The Top; Littlefield Drive Just Open

Bringing Or Mailing In Donations Still Main Spring In Drive

"Going good" were the words of Fred Gerlach, chairman, when asked about the Red Cross fund drive for the county.

Although no tabulations were announced as complete, Olton reports "over the top" with their quota of $2,371.75. Judge I. B. Holt is chairman of the drive in that town. This is the only community to date that reports the quota filled.

Littlefield workers were on the march Wednesday, having had their "kickoff" meeting yesterday morning. No report was available on the results of yesterday's drive.

Littlefield was the only community to hold up their drive from the first of the month, in order to let the business men get over the "first of the month hump" before making the rounds.

Mr. Gerlach stressed the need of bringing or mailing in donations instead of waiting to be called upon due to the limited time of the voluntary workers, who will be unable to make repeat calls, and may miss several donors on their rounds.

Information was not available as to whether further canvassing will be carried on after yesterday's drive in Littlefield.

A 12 AAF P-47 THUNDERBOLT BASE IN ITALY—First Lieutenant Claude D. Phillips of Sudan, a P-47 pilot, whose wife, the former Miss Ruelene Chapman, resides at 6027 Worth Street in Dallas, has recently flown his 60th mission over enemy territory.

Flying on his instruments, Lieut. Phillips led an eight plane Thunderbolt mission to dive bomb a vital rail line in the La Spezia sector in Northern Italy.

"The weather was a little rough and we were flying on our instruments most all the way to the target. Once in a while we got a glimpse of land through the clouds, but they were so short we couldn't make out where we were," Lieut. Phillips said.

Under these conditions, the Lieut. led the flight to the target to score rail hits, damaging the line.

Lieut. Phillips has been doing this kind of work since he joined the veteran group in September of '44. Destroying the enemy communication lines, harassing front line troops and destroying equipment—these are the tasks assigned to the fighter group. It has been cited four times by the president.

Phillips is a graduate of Sudan High school and received his wings in February of 1944. Since that time he has flown over Germany, Belgium, France and Italy.

He holds the Air Medal and the Distinguished Service Cross with three clusters.

James H. Bellemy is now "somewhere in the Pacific" on an aircraft carrier. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bellemy of Sudan, the sailor has been in the service since June of 1944. A graduate of Sudan High in 1943, the sailor went on active duty in September of 1944. He was in the Lingayan Gulf engagement on January 10. In a recent letter he said that he's lost 17 pounds during the Philippine engagements.

S-Sgt. Thomas C. Cox, wife, son and daughter of Grimes, Okla., are spending a few days with relatives at Littlefield. S-Sgt. Cox is a brother of C. R. Cox, and Mrs. Ralph Repass and Mrs. LeRoy Bates of this place. He has been in the service 35 months and overseas 32 months. He has a 30 day furlough at home after which he returns to his company.

Pvt. and Mrs. Vaughn Attaway and son, Michel, are here visiting relatives and friends. Pvt. Attaway has finished his training at Camp Hood and was enroute to Fort Ord, Calif. He is in the Infantry. His wife and son will remain in Littlefield. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Attaway of College Heights.

L. P. Lynskey, 22, F 2-C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick L. Lynskey, of seven miles south and four west of Ureshoe, Texas, has been in the army since April of last year. He took boot training at San Diego, following which he was home on leave. Since then he has trained at Alport, Miss., and is now attending Diesel school at New London, Conn.

With the 1277th Engineer Combat Battalion of Seventh Army in France—Corporal James L. Courtney, whose wife, Mrs. James L. Courtney, lives at 4819 1/2 Ross Ave., Dallas, Texas, has been awarded 3 Bronze Stars for battle participation while serving with the 1277th Engineer Combat Battalion in France.

The 1277th Engineer Combat Battalion, commanded by Major Harvey F. Martin, is a redesignation of the 1st Battalion, 5th Engineer Combat Regiment. The 5th Regiment had its origin in Companies C and D, Corps of Engineers, formed in 1861. They received battle honors during the Civil War, Spanish-American War and the Philippine Insurrection. In 1917 Companies C and D of the 2nd Battalion of Engineers were expanded into the 5th Engineer Regiment (Combat). They received battle honors in World War I and following a period of inactivity, the unit was reactivated and redesignated the 5th Engineer Combat Regiment on August 1, 1942. On November 2, 1943, in England, the 5th Engineer Regiment was redesignated and the 1st Battalion was named the 1277th Engineer Combat Battalion.

The men of the 1277th helped move General George S. Patton's Third Army drive from the beaches of Normandy to a junction with General Alexander M. Patch's Seventh Army near Dijon, France. Since then the 1277th has spent most of its time supporting the aggressive French 2nd Armoured Division, and the 79th, 90th, 100th and 103rd American Infantry Divisions. They have also seen service with the 5th American Armored Division.

Corporal Courtney entered the service June 30, 1943, and has been overseas for 9 months. Prior to entering the service he was employed by Texas Mineral and Land Company, Dallas, Texas.

Pvt. Leon Langford of the 820th Engineer Bn., operating in the European area, sent the following to the Leader, which will be of interest to friends and relatives of any member of the engineering unit, as it explains the work of this branch of the service:

"When the average citizen sees aviation" tacked onto an overseas Army Post Office address for an Engineer Unit, he shakes his head and wonders what in "Sam Hill" the Engineers do in connection with aviation. It is quite simple. Someone has to build the air strips and repair the bombed out airdromes from which our fighters and bombers daily blast the enemy ahead of our ground troops. It is not unusual for the tractor operators and grader men to be working within light artillery range of the Wehrmacht. More than once we have built new strips ahead of our artillery and promptly had to vacate a living site because Jerry's civilian espionage told him where we were. Yes, something new has been added to the Air Corps. Specially trained, equipped and composed of men who for the most part spent their civilian life on similar machinery under the blistering suns and torrential rains of every section of our country, these engineers day after day battle mud, dust and adverse weather to put the aircraft into the air, maybe a day sooner than scheduled in fond hopes of getting home just that one day quicker. Yes, the top brass said we were an experiment. They weren't sure how an essentially ground force unit, for the major part classified as non-combatant, would function under Air Corps control. Somehow it just didn't seem possible that bull dozers and motor graders, power crane and road rollers could work side by side with aircraft technicians. But, this is one experiment that worked. And how it worked. From the crack of dawn till the first star pokes its head from behind the veil of night, you can hear the rhythmic throb of the powerful diesel engines as they go about their business of systematically tearing up farm land and forest to make way for the 5,000 foot strips of tarpaper and steel mesh. And when Jerry's artillery and strafe jobs come snapping and snarling to vain attempts to stop work, these hard working men climb off their machines and grab a much needed smoke behind the nearest pile of dirt. This is an alert smoke, however, their rifles are in their hands and an eye is peeled for the ever present threat of paratroopers or infiltrating patrols. Yes, they, too, know what it means to wish that the steel helmet was large enough to get completely under. And they are ready to fight if necessary. They have been trained to fight, they have proved they know how to work. In spite of Jerry's artillery, buzz bombs and airpower, hills have to be moved, swamps filled, forests knocked down, farm land leveled and rolled mesh unwound and staked down so that the air cover can always be where the fighting men need it. And if there is a field that is badly needed anywhere up to 1,000 yards of the fighting front, you can bet your last dollar that right there you will find the equipment and men who proudly wear their castle on their lapels and the wings of the Air Corps on their shoulders. Yes, "Something New Has Been Added!" And it seems to be good.

Receive Letters From Two Sons; Purple Heart From One

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sutton of one mile north and 1/2 mile east of Littlefield recently received letters from both their sons in the European theatre. They also received the Purple Heart Saturday from Sgt. Robert Lee Sutton, 22, who was wounded in his thigh December 22, 1944, and is now in a hospital in England, thought to be in London. He has been in several hospitals in France, and is now being treated in England for a stomach ailment.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton received several letters at once from Sgt. Sutton, who stated that he had just received 17 letters from home, the first he had received since Nov. 28. He has been in service two years last December, and overseas since Oct. 1, and was with the 334th Infantry, 84th Division, 9th Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton received a telegram last week from Cpl. James W. Sutton, 24, stating that he was O.K. He is now in Germany. He has been in service three years in August, and overseas 19 months. He went into France within a few days after D-Day. His last time to be home was in 1942 when he was on an emergency furlough.

These two servicemen have not seen each other in 30 months, although at one time recently they were within 25 miles of each other.

Following are letters just received from these two servicemen:

"Feb. 11, 1945
"Detachment of Patients,
"U.S. Hospital Plant 4110
"APO 316, c-o Postmaster
"New York, N. Y.
"Dear Mother and Dad,

"Just a few lines to let you know I am doing very well and hope all at home are well. My leg is getting well, but the doctor is treating my stomach now. I don't know just what all is wrong but I am now in England hospital and I may get to come back to the good old U.S.A. to a hospital for the doctors to treat me. I can hardly eat so you know by that something is wrong. I have spells with my stomach like I did when I was at home. I sure would like to get just one letter from home and one from James. I have not gotten a letter since Nov. 28, 1944, so you see it would make me feel better to get a letter. The reason I am not getting my mail, it all went to Co. D in the 84th Division, and I have been moving from one hospital to another one. I would like to go back to my Co. D so I could get my mail. I don't know if you all are well or sick, but hope all are well, also James.

"Mother, I sent my Purple Heart home for you all to keep for me, so tell me if you have got it or not. My address has changed now, so maybe I'll get some mail. How is Lester Bryant? Fine I hope. Tell him to write me. I sure am tired of the hospital, but will make it alright. I have been in the hospital since Dec. 12, 1944, and I would like to go to town, but cannot. Tell Harvie Gene to be good for me and James, and some good day we will be at home again. We hope. I was in the 9th Army when I got wounded on Dec. 12, and the 9th Army sure are pushing the Germans back. I am sending a poem I cut out of the paper over here for you all to read.

"Mother, you all do all you can for the Red Cross, for they sure are good to the boys over here. The Red Cross comes in the hospital every day to see we boys, and that makes us all feel good. They also brought us all candy Christmas day. Well, this is about all I know to write as it has been so long since I heard from home. So long for now.
"All my love, your son,
"Sgt. Robert Lee Sutton."

The letter from Cpl. James W. Sutton follows:

"Feb. 12, 1945.

"Dear Mother and Dad,
"Just a few lines to let you know I am O.K. and hope this finds you all O.K. at home.

"Well, Dad, it came a big snow last night and boy was it cold today. Say, have you all heard from Robert in the last few days. I received a letter from him and he was doing fine. He said he might go back to the States. I hope he does.

"I don't know very much to write but I am a homesick boy tonight and have the blues so bad til I don't know what to do, but some day it will be better I hope.

"I was in 25 miles of Robert when we were in France and can't go see him. You asked if I saw a lot of Germans. Yes, more than I want to, so tell all the 4-H boys to get in the Army and help get the job done so we all can come home once more. It has been a long time since I was at home, but a lot of boys have been over here 5 years. It has been 28 months since I was at home, but it seems like five years to me. It is 11:45 so I will make this short and get to bed for I will have to get up at 5 a. m. and that isn't long off. Say, how is Paul making it after his father passed away. It was sure bad that I or Robert could not be there, but can't help it. Mother, I hope that Robert don't give up to the Germans. I told him to fight till he couldn't, and that's all a man can do.

"Mother, I am in Germany now. I don't like it at all, but will have to till it is over. How is Lester making it? Fine, I hope. Did he come over this way or not. Oh, yes, tell Paul I would like to see his big boy. I'll close for now.
"All my love,
"Cpl. James W. Sutton.

Cpl. Roy L. Dolle Is Bomb Handler

From the 12th AAF B-25 Base, comes the report that Cpl. Roy L. Dolle of Littlefield, currently stationed at the 12th Air Force B-25 Bomber base, is a bomb handler in the most efficient medium bombardment group in the Mediterranean theatre.

During the past three months, his unit has set the bombing efficiency record of 85 per cent, referring to the percentage of bombs carried by the Mitchells to the target and actually dropped over the target area.

In addition to its efficiency record, this group also holds theatre claim to the largest tonnage of bombs dropped by mediums on enemy soil since joining the B-25 headquarters nine months ago.

Leaving the United States in April, 1943, this Lone Star serviceman has earned the right to wear three gold overseas stripes on the left sleeve of his uniform. He has been awarded another battle star for his European-African-Middle East theatre ribbon, signifying that he has played an active part in the Rome-Arno campaign since January 1944.

Prior to coming overseas, Corporal Dolle was stationed at Key Field, Miss.

Lum's Chapel H. D. Club Women Meet

The hat sale was one of much interest. After the hats were modeled all members took part in the playing of games, which had been planned, for just that day, Feb. 22.

Refreshments were served to: Mesdames Ott Baisden, Lenard Bryant, Alpha McCarty, J. H. Sandefer, I. K. Holmes, Doss Maner, Hub Spraberry, Emzy Hobbs, Annie Carter, Hershell Barker; a new member, Mrs. M. E. McCarty; a visitor, Mrs. Letha Whittington; hostess, Mrs. Purvis; and co-hostess, Mrs. B. F. Rogers.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Spraberry Thursday, March 8, for an all-day quilting, and a covered dish luncheon. Bring your sacks to exchange.

73rd Seabees See Rugged Duty With Marine Battalion

James Garrett, Petty Officer second class, of the Navy's Seabees, stationed in Pelliu, in the Palau group of islands, who is attached to the 73rd battalion, and overseas nearly two years, sent a clipping taken out of the Seabees newspaper to his wife here, the contents of which will be of interest to the many friends and relatives of the Seabees, which is as follows:

"The Marines know full well of the gallantry, the skill and courage of the Navy's Seabees—men who go ashore with a hammer in one hand and a rifle in the other. This is particularly true when the 73rd Seabees, veterans of 17 months overseas duty, stormed ashore with Marines on 'D' Day to crack Jap defenses on their second island 'X' the first of the (censored) group to be invaded by American forces.

Pre-arranged plans called for the Seabees to go ashore in the 27th wave, which would have been late 'D' Day or early D-Plus One, but instead, they hit the beaches only a few hours after the first wave of attacking Leathernecks, coming in with the 16th wave.

"The main job assigned for the Seventy-Thirders was to do stvedore work, consisting mainly of unloading ammunition. The 73rd did not stop at this one task—they not only unloaded the ammunition, but kept handling it until it reached our big guns. Although Jap mortar shells and sniper bullets were hitting all around, the Seabees never stopped. The name of the popular song of two years ago, 'Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition,' aptly describes the work we did during the first four days of the blitz."

"Had it not been for the help of the 73rd Seabees, our big guns might have had to stop firing," said

Lieut. William B. Gramley, a Marine artillery officer from Mount Vernon, N. Y. "They cannot be praised too highly," he also added. The commander officer of this battery of heavy field artillery, Capt. J. D. McNeil, former assistant district attorney from New Orleans, also complimented the 73rd for their work and co-operation.

"Comdr. K. P. Doane, O-n-C, of the 73rd Battalion, of Forest Hills, N. Y., received a letter of commendation from the commanding general, praising the excellent manner in which members of his command performed various duties during the landing and occupation of this advanced island base."

This is a message in a series of sermons being given by the pastor each Sunday morning on the Book of Revelation. He will give 22 special messages during this series. Hear this message on "The Four Horsemen." The riders have already sprung into the saddles, "Though hid to the eyes of many, they are racing upon the face of the Earth."

Evangelistic Services, 8:15 p. m. Good singing, and special numbers by the quartet. Subject: "When Pay Day Comes for Delinquent Parents," "A weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth." A timely message. How delinquent parents wreck the lives of their children; wreck their own lives, and drag many to destruction. Don't miss hearing this message.
Our motto: "A Going Church for A Coming Lord."

First Baptist Enlarging Auditorium
It has become necessary for the First Baptist Church to enlarge their auditorium space to accommodate the attendance at the Sunday morning services. Plans are being made to open the library room into the main auditorium and to provide a Sunday school class by the use of folding doors. About 50 more people can be seated by this arrangement. Another 50 can be seated by the addition of opera chairs to the present seating space.

Work will begin immediately on the project in order to have the additional room for the revival, which begins Sunday, March 18.

News Of Amherst

P.T.A. Membership Drive Underway at Amherst

Due to the fact that the Amherst Parent-Teacher association was not able to carry on their membership drive that was to have been in October, and postponed on account of school being closed at that time, and since March 31 is the deadline to send in the State dues, we are observing this week for our drive.

Due to the gas rationing we will not be able to call on each parent as we would like to do. But our school superintendent has heartily agreed that we might carry this drive on through the school. We, as an association, feel that each parent should become a member because we do know that every parent must be interested in their children and not only their children, but all children. Our sole purpose of our Parent-Teacher association is for our children, school and community.

We are very fortunate indeed to be able to have a spring district meeting here, which Amherst has been chosen for. And that is another reason for urging every parent to become a member.

We will need every parent to attend and help to entertain our delegates.

So when your child comes home and asks you to become a member of the Parent-Teacher association, please do not turn him down. It is our duty as parents to stand behind such a worthy association. The school room that brings in the most members will receive $2.00, the second prize will be $1.00 and the room that is 100 per cent will be given a party or picnic before school is out. So you will not only be a member, but will also help your child's room to win. I believe if you parents could see the happiness on these children's faces when their teacher tells them their room won the money for having the most parents present, I do believe each of you would endeavor to do your very best to attend each meeting. Our superintendent and teachers are cooperating 100 per cent. Won't you do your part. It is never too far for your children to walk to school, so won't you find time to attend a Parent-Teacher association meeting at least once a month.

The dues are 50 cents per parent. A year book will be given each paid member as long as they last. So get your dues in now.

Mrs. Lester Henricks,
President.
