

Littlefield Grows From One Teacher to 65 Faculty System

Littlefield Schools public schools Education with school about the state and faculty, patrons, and other schools of which four state an justly feel proud. The first school was opened in the fall of 1901, and since that time the school system has grown to a complete system of 14 schools, and most of the school buildings have been built for the day, where practically all schools of the South Plains area will be represented. Certainly, no more fitting time could be found, than to search through historical records, and point out the tremendous growth of our own school system, which dates back to April 10, 1913, when Commissioner's Court officially created Littlefield Common School District No. 4. On March 6, 1914, the District voted a tax levy of 50 cents to be used if needed. Later in the same year, Commissioner's Court, set the tax levy at 20 cents on the $100 valuation for support of the school. At the same time a $15,000 bond issue was voted to build a Grammar School building. There were not many qualified voters in the school district, but they were school conscious, and school-minded. A total of 32 votes were cast. Each of the 32 votes favored the bonds. Common School District continued active and growing until the year 1920. On June 9 of that year, following passage of a bill by both houses of the legislature, the Common District became an Independent School District, and it was on that date that Gov. W. P. Hobby affixed his signature to the bill which created our present School District. The boundaries of this District, were the same as were those of Common District No. 4. The following year, the boundaries of the District were enlarged, and took in what is now the Spade Independent School District, and 24 sections of the present Anton School District. This acquisition made the District one of the largest (in area) in the state, comprising approximately 360 square miles—30 miles in length, and 12 miles in width. This is not an attempt to write a history of the school, bit by bit, or year by year; to do so, would require many columns, if not pages of space, but is rather only an outline, to point out its growth in its 38 year history. That growth could not be more clearly emphasized and outlined in pointing to the initial $15,000 building, and compare it with the school plant of today, which comprises four main, and several auxiliary buildings, and an investment approaching a million dollars. Or, to look at it from another angle. At the opening of the school only one teacher was employed.

One Teacher Employed
He was J. P. Hatchett, who came here from New Mexico. The next year he was given an assistant. With the passing of another year, growth had continued, and a staff of four teachers was employed. In comparison, the opening of the 1949-50 term, saw 65 teachers on the pay rolls of the local school, and that year the schools enrolled a total of 2,970 students.

587 Ride Buses
Of that number, 587 were daily riders of the fleet of 14 buses, representing an initial investment of about $50,000.

New High School
A new and modern high school building is now under construction, and will probably be ready at the opening of the 1951-52 school term. With fixtures, it will represent an investment of approximately one-half million dollars.

The first trustees of the first school district were Arthur P. Duggan, Sr., B. F. Smith, and John Kling, and to them can be given much credit, for laying the foundation.

INFLATIONARY SPIRAL REACHES COUNTY COURT; FINE TOTALS MOUNT IN TWO-DAY SESSION

The inflationary spiral without fanfare or publicity has arrived also at the Lamb County Court House, if the cash turnover of last Saturday and Monday are an indication. Cash receipts in the fines department of the County Court were almost $3,000 in two days.

Saturday, a total of approximately $800 was collected in previously levied fines, and on the following Monday, liquor and D. W. T. violations, added additional levies, to produce cash fines totaling more than $2100.

Contributing to the inflated day's business were the following: Johnnie Jordan paid $705.50 for liquor violation.

Alfred (Jaybird) Johnson, colored, paid $833.25 for similar offenses or offenses.

Frances V. Johnson, colored, paid $77.75. Driving while intoxicated was listed as the reason.

Al Thornton, colored, was fined $177.75 for liquor law violation.

C. J. Howell, Amarillo, was fined $77.75 on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

H. A. Chisholm paid $102.75. Driving while intoxicated was the charge.

Wm. H. Thompson, Causey, N. M., paid $102.75 on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

E. C. Calvin Wiseman of Sudan, paid $102.75 on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Public Service Breaks Grounds for Huge New Addition in County

Quarter Million Dollars Paid for Ground By Power Firm; Utility To Be Lamb County's Biggest Taxpayer

In the presence of a crowd of probably 100 interested spectators from all over this area, as the crowd applauded and half a dozen cameras flashed, J. E. Cunningham, of Amarillo, president of Southwestern Public Service Company, Wednesday at 2 P.M., with spade in hand, turned a shovelful of earth, to officially launch the start of construction on what is ultimately planned to be the biggest electric generating plant in the company's entire system. The plant, originally planned three years ago to generate 50,000 kilowatts, and cost $6,000,000, is now raised before the start to $16,000,000 and 150,000 kilowatts.

Biggest County Taxpayer

The plant will occupy a tract of land, consisting of 354 acres, of the vast Halseff ranch lands, purchased by the company a few months ago, for a consideration of $263,870.30.

The land fronts on the Amherst-Earth paved highway, four miles south of Earth, nine and one-half miles north of Amherst, and approximately the same distance from Sudan. The tract and new plant is within the boundaries of the Sudan Independent School District, and will automatically become the biggest individual taxpayer in that school district, and the same undoubtedly will hold true for Lamb county tax rolls.

Work Already Underway

Actually, the ground-breaking ceremony was only a formality. Work has been going ahead for the past several weeks. Much of the land is already enclosed in a high, woven wire fence, a big steam shovel is tearing into the ground, preparing foundations, a well with pump attached is ready with an unlimited supply of water, and three huge electric transformers are in place, only a stone's throw from the building operations, to supply needed electric power. But that isn't all—hundreds of tons of steel, frames, boilers, and a score of other items have already been unloaded, are arriving daily, and are waiting to be put in place, as building operations progress.

A crew of probably 15 or 20 men is now working, but according to Frank Harrison, vice-president of Missouri Valley Construction Company, which has the contract to build the plant, somewhere between 150 and 200 workers will be employed on the building of the project by mid-summer or early fall, divided among boiler-makers, carpenters, electricians, brick-layers, steel structural workers, truck men, and other workers, a pay roll that will run into several thousand dollars daily.

Two Local Drug Stores Burglarized Sunday Night; Some Cash Is Taken

Stokes Drug and Reece Drug stores were robbed in identical fashion here Sunday night, or early Monday morning. Small sums of money were taken from both stores, and both safes were badly broken and smashed, when an attempt was made to break in each. As far as could be disclosed by the owners of the stores, no merchandise was missing.

Thirty-two dollars was taken from the two cash registers at Stokes, and around $20.00 was taken from Reece Drug cash register. The back door of the Stokes Drug was pried back with a pinch bar, releasing the lock on the door. Entrance to the Reece Drug was made through a rear door.

Finger prints were taken, but no arrests had been made late Wednesday afternoon.

History Repeats Itself With Aid of Steam Shovel

A story recalled by a few old-timers, pioneers here on the South Plains, is occasionally, today, retold. It seems, according to the story, that a Swedish farmer, wearied of the cold winters of the Northern state in which he lived with his family, and probably also, by the meagre returns for the long hours he was forced to toil on that same northern farm, decided to make a change. He heeded the old Greeley advice—and decided to go west—southwest.

So he sold his farm, loaded his farming equipment, livestock and family on wagons, and set out to later arrive here on the Plains.

He bought a farm, or rather a tract of prairie land, and proceeded to build a house, and fence some of his land. Spring came, and on a bright morning, he hitched the team to a plow, something almost unheard of in this country of that day, where cattle, and cattle alone was king, and started turning sod.

In the process he raised considerable of dust, and a rancher several miles away, seeing the dust, decided to investigate. Mounting his horse, he rode toward the dust haze, and came upon the farmer, and his plow, turning, probably for the first time, South Plains sod.

"My friend", he halted upon coming up to the plowing farmer, "what are you all aimin' or trying to do here" with that contraption hitched behind those horses."

"Well", the farmer replied, "I aim to plow up some of this grass, and plant myself some crops."

"So, replied the rancher, "I take it, you're a stranger in these here parts, and have probably moved down here from Minnesota or the Dakotas, maybe, and maybe don't know this here land like some of us who have lived here a spell, and I don't want to be a-giving no man of advice, which hasn't been asked, but I'm goin' to be a friend, and tell you anyway—you're plowin' up the best d—ned crop that land has ever, or will ever grow—grass."

How wrong that advice was proven over the succeeding years, by thousands of farmers who have since settled these Plains, to push the cattle further west and back of these great South Plains (Continued on Back Page)

In conjunction with State Education week, the three Littlefield schools entered exhibits in various business places in the downtown section this week.

The primary school, comprising the first four grades have a colorful exhibit at Dunlap's Department store, consisting of a Dutch windmill around a dyke, with tulips around the edge of the scene. All of the children in the four grades had a part in creating the scene. The first grade students made the tulips, the second grade the windmills, the third grade the dykes and the fourth grade did the art work of coloring.

The photos placed above the scene were recently made. The exterior scenes were taken last week and included a majority of the student body.

1,500 Car Tags Are Issued

According to Clarence Davis, County Assessor and Collector, about 1500 license tags of all types have been issued in the County. Since there are about 8000 vehicles, including automobiles, trucks and motorcycles, in Lamb County that will require licenses, Mr. Davis asked the Leader to urge on automobile owners to buy their tags now and not wait until near the deadline, as no doubt there will be waiting in line for tags as the zero hour approaches.

'51 CHRYSLER WINS SPEED TITLE AT 100 MPH

Tom McCahill, featured automotive writer for "Mechanix Illustrated" (center), receives trophy emblematic of the 1951 official unmodified stock-car record from Bill France, President of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing. The record of 100.13 miles per hour was made at Daytona Beach, Fla., in a Chrysler New Yorker four-door sedan, powered by the new 180-horsepower V-8 FirePower engine. McCahill entered the trials on the spur of the moment with a car that had been driven only 400 miles and that had been given no special tune-up. W. Brewster Shaw, Jr., Chrysler dealer in Daytona Beach, shown standing at the right, loaned him the vehicle, taking it off the showroom floor.

Trapper Finds Excited Wolves Easy to Snare

Sudbury, Ont.—(A)—A trapper out about wolves with credits a theory he has on in snaring them.

During the last year caught 22 in the Tyson south of this northern nickel-mining center—the year and the other deer season ended last.

The way Tyson figured one wolf is caught in a snare, the other members of the pack so upset that they run and are quickly snared.

That is why he places as 40 snares in one area instead of spreading through the bush, as others do.

"I got five in one snare and three in one December," he said, "could be in the snow went crazy when the first caught."

To remove human snares, he boils them with gloves are set. When taking into the bush, he rides behind his dog team.

"That's one time I along on snowshoes. The scent will remain even now for days. You can there is a blizzard or if ing a great deal, for the obliterates the scent. But have to work a little hard."

Tyson, a stocky, blue man, hates wolves as the forest. But some happened last December fell slightly friendly for the first time.

Magazine Writer in 1951 Chrysler Sedan Wins Stock Car Event

Driving a 1951 Chrysler New Yorker four-door sedan, powered by the new 189-horsepower V-8 Fire Power engine, Tom McCahill, featured automotive writer of "Mechanix Illustrated," won the National Stock Car Speed Trial Championship at Daytona Beach, Fla. He averaged 100.13 miles per hour over a measured mile course on the beach, electrically timed. Conditions of the trial called for a two-way run. McCahill was clocked at 103.75 miles per hour in one direction and just under 97 on the return lap, in which he was buffeted by a very strong wind and hampered by wet sand. His average time is the official 1951 record for unmodified stock cars. It is only .09 miles per hour short of the all-time record made over the same course last year under much more favorable conditions.

The most remarkable feature of McCahill's record-breaking performance was that he entered the trial on the spur of the moment and used a car that had run only 400 miles since it came off the assembly line. He has achieved an international reputation as a test-driver in the course of his literary work on automotive subjects, but was attending the event merely as a spectator in his capacity as a writer for "Mechanix Illustrated." Bill France, President of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing, casually suggested that he have a go at the trial.

W. Brewster Shaw, Jr., of San Juan Motor Company, local Chrysler dealership, offered to let McCahill use a car that just had been received from the factory. Unlike the other cars that had been carefully groomed and tuned for the event, with ample mileage to insure top performance, McCahill's mount had to go in "stone cold." There was no time for either putting on mileage or special tuning. In fact, the dealer's mechanics had not received full instructions for servicing engine, which is the first V-8 that Chrysler ever has built. And McCahill, of course, had been given no opportunity to become familiar with the vehicle, while other drivers had been behind the wheel of their entries for several thousand miles in the tune-up program. But despite all these handicaps, plus bad weather and a beach roughened by recent hurricanes, he topped the performance of some 100 other competitors, including such star professional drivers as John Littlejohn, 1950 champion; Frank Mundy, "Cannonball" Barker, Johnny Mantz, Tim Flock and Mike Klapak.

PIG PROJECT

Des Moines, Iowa—(AP)—The Graettinger High School Future Farmers of America chapter has set up a pig-raising project.

The chapter borrowed $2,500 from a Graettinger bank with a dozen local citizens signing the note.

Dale L. Schnirring, faculty advisor for the chapter, says it is hoped to pay off the note in two years.

The chapter has 49 members. Each boy cooperating in the project will be given a gilt this spring by the chapter. In order to pay back the loan, the FF9 will be given first and third choice of the first litter produced. The boy receives all remaining pigs and full ownership of the sow. With some exceptions, all pigs of the first litter are to be sold at a cooperative boar and gilt sale.

Goal Reached in City's Red Cross Fund Campaign

Total of $3986 Is Contributed

Fieldton, Hart Camp And Sudan Make Their Various Goals

Littlefield Red Cross drive went over the top Saturday with a total of $3,986—several dollars more than the goal set.

The drive opened with a band Thursday morning, when C. S. Duncan, of Littlefield Fund Raising, led the band.

The drive opened with a bangful of workers really went to work. Fieldton community was the first to go over in the county with their quota of $125. They raised a total of $128.

Other communities that have completed their quota are Hart Camp, and Sudan.

All other communities and towns have reported to Secretary Mrs. Lyle Brandon, with the exception of Pleasant Valley.

Spade workers had a luncheon at Wofford Cafe Tuesday noon, organized and spent the afternoon in raising funds. Their quota is $425.

Those assisting C. S. Duncan in making the local drive were C. A. Miller, J. E. Chisholm, Jr., W. D. Walker, J. D. Hagler, Dan Berg, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Chapman, J. B. McShan, Mrs. D. C. Lindley, Joe Hutchinson, Troy Armes, Mrs. J. H. Barnett, Mrs. J. C. Nichols, Mrs. Lloyd Crume, Mrs. Lyle Brandon, Mrs. W. D. T. Storey, Mrs. I. T. Shotwell, Jr. and Mrs. James Shotwell.

County drive chairman is Rev. J. Henry Cox of Amherst, and J. E. Chisholm Jr., is Lamb County Chairman.

New Payroll For County

And when completed next year, it means that approximately 40 employees will be required to operate the plant, seven days each week, bringing a new pay roll into Lamb county of upwards of $200,000 per year.

The men with their families will probably live in the surrounding towns, Earth, Amherst, Sudan and Littlefield, as present plans do not call for construction of housing at the site of the huge power plant.

H. L. Allen, vice-president, has already announced the appointment of J. B. Bottoms of Amarillo as resident engineer, who will supervise all construction operations.

Investment Almost Tripled

When this project was first planned, about three years ago, it was designed as a plant capable of delivering 50,000 kilowatts, and its cost estimated at around $6,000,000. This will be the size and capacity of the new plant when it is opened and put into operation, about June 1 of next year.

But even before the plans were complete, company officials found that they had underestimated the needs, the demand of the area they serve; that even more capacity must be provided, and orders were placed more than a year ago for a second unit at the new plant, which will increase the capacity from 50,000 to 150,000 kilowatts, and require an investment of not $6,000,000, but $16,000,000. The additional 100,000 kilowatts will not be available, however, until one year later, about June 1, 1952.

General Electric Company has the contract and is now producing both sets of generating equipment.

When the new 100,000 unit generator at this new plant goes into operation June 1 of next year, the generating capacity of the entire system will be raised from 354,450 kilowatts to 454,450, to serve an area containing 45,000 square miles. The Lamb county generating plant will be the 11th to be placed into operation, all tied together, and feeding current to 115,000 volt transmission lines. Present operating plants are located at Amarillo, Lubbock, Clovis, Carlsbad, N. M., Abilene, Guyton, Okla., Borger, Moore county, and Roswell, New Mexico. A significant comparison is the fact that only eight years ago, in 1943, the company's total generating capacity totaled only 112,000 kilowatts.

Center of Service Area

The choice of the Lamb county location was made after a careful study of many factors. The first and most important was and is an abundant and continuing water supply, as steam generators are employed, and thousands of gallons daily are a requirement. The water repeatedly tested, was found to be ideal as to mineral content. Another factor was that the plant must be located where an abundant natural gas supply was available, as 500,000 cubic feet of gas datation of our present school system.

Original Enrollees

Interesting also is the record of enrollment in that first Littlefield school. Some of those original enrollees still make their homes in Littlefield. They are: Mrs. Roy Wade, Mrs. Bob Smith, and Mrs. Frank James. Others listed include: Bertie Smith, Carl Smith, Gladys Smith, Vivian Courtney, Ruth Courtney, Morris White, Ada Moulton, Dean Moulton, Helen Kling, Minnie Kling, Alta Hilburn, Dave Hilburn, Fay Parsons, Miles Westfall, Myrtle Powers, Hattie Hargroves, Luther Hargroves, Alice Duggan, and Carrie Isom.

J. P. Hatchett First Principal Willie Armstrong, in reality was the first teacher of a school in Littlefield, but he served only a period of a few weeks, while Common District No. 4 was being organized. J. P. Hatchett was the first principal, and he was followed in turn by E. B. Brown, O. T. Bryant, Pearl Farris and Herb Sheppard.

10 Superintendents Serve

Ten superintendents have served the Littlefield School District since its organization, and legalization. Beginning with Superintendent Shaw, in the year 1922, this list includes in the order named: W. D. T. Storey, Robert L. Speight, B. M. Harrison, A. B. Sanders, F. A. Hemphill, Purris Williams, Mrs. Pat Boone, Fred Miller and Joe Hutchinson, present superintendent.

During years of their superintendency, both the Anton and Spade Independent School Districts were organized, and parts of the 360 mile area, embracing the Littlefield District, became a part of those two districts.

Springlake, Sudan, Amherst, Fieldton, Olton, Hart Camp and Spade, also now have their own Independent School Districts, each and every one many times larger than the original Littlefield school and larger even than was the Littlefield School when it was first designated an Independent District.

Today, the Littlefield School District is supported by a levy of $150 on each one hundred dollar valuation, compared with the original 20 cent levy first voted by early day taxpayers.

The Leader is indebted to D. C. Lindley, present principal of Littlefield Central School, for much of the data used in this story. Mr. Lindley, who has been connected with the local school history, as part of the requirement for obtaining his Master Degree. We might add, that one of his chief sources of information for that compilation were obtained by a review of the files of the Lamb County Leader, which had faithfully recorded the history of the schools, week after week, and year after year.

As we stated in the opening paragraph—this is Texas Education week. We hope and believe it will result in a re-union, bringing patrons, faculty, students, all of us closer together, to work for even better schools for and through the years ahead.

boilers, each hour of the 24. This will be consumed in firing the gas supply is available here, as the plant is located less than one mile from the El Paso Natural Gas pipeline.

In addition to the water rights which the company bought with its land, a contract was effected to provide rights to the use of water on 10,000 additional Halsell acres, if the same should be needed.

The decision of the company to build here should be a source of gratification to irrigation farmers of this section. It can only mean that after exhaustive tests and surveys, the company is convinced that the supply of underground water in the area is almost unlimited—is certain for many years to come.

A delicious luncheon, featuring barbecued half-chickens, accompanied with other viands, and followed with coffee and dessert, was served in an informal atmosphere, in the banquet rooms.

President Cunningham Speaks

Speaking after luncheon, President Cunningham, also gave a resume of how a $16,000,000 plant expansion is financed. "Fifty-four per cent of the investment will be supplied by big insurance companies through the sale of bonds; 10 per cent will be supplied by insurance companies, in debenture or unsecured bonds; another 10 per cent will be supplied by the sale of preferred stock, and the remaining 26 per cent, supplied by 11,000 common stock holders, no one of whom holds more than one and one-half per cent of the total outstanding stock."

Expressing his thanks to those who heard his remarks, for their attendance, he closed his short talk by saying, "Looking into the future we can see that this is the electrical center of this vast area which we serve."

Hardy Shelby Presides

Hardy Shelby, resident district manager, presided at the luncheon, but eschewed formal introduction of his guests. Immediately following the luncheon, all proceeded to the site of the new plant, south of Earth, and watched, as President Carpenter turned the first shovel of earth, to officially launch start of building operations.

In addition to the three hosts listed above, guests at the luncheon included: T. H. Ferguson, Sudan, Chas. Annett, editor of SWPC magazine, Amarillo, Herb Winburn, Earth, John A. Price, Littlefield, Roy Neal and Lester Hammons, Earth, Leo Duffy, Springlake, Allen Hodges, Littlefield, Ed Weber and Bob Lilly, Amarillo, Mart Pool and Winfred Holbrook, Plainview, Reed Markham, Sudan, Lon Campbell, as acting mayor of Littlefield in the absence of Mayor Art Chesher, Frank Harrison and H. C. Henderson, Amarillo, plant contractors, Mary La Grange, Amherst, Max Houk, Sudan, E. T. Brown and M. W. Messer, Earth, Morley B. Drake, Littlefield, Earl Lewis, Plainview, E. G. Alexander, Littlefield and Preston Hawks, Sudan.

Invocation was pronounced by Reed Markham of Sudan, and Morley Drake, seated alongside Vice-President Allen, rose to remark upon many years of satisfactory relations with the company, and bespoke many more years of the same, in relations between Southwestern Public Service and all of Lamb County.

Inflationary

In addition to fines levied and paid, all D.W.I. cases had drivers' license revoked for a six month period by Judge Dent.

The Judge stated that business might have been even better last Monday, if he had not been forced continue two cases, due to inability to locate material witnesses.

A third case was dismissed due to lack of evidence. Alonzo Colbert, colored, won the dismissal of a charge against him alleging violation of the liquor laws.

One case was dismissed because complaining witness had left the court's jurisdiction.

Business is expected to slump a bit for the next few days, the Judge admitted. Reason—the docket of the court is practically clear of major cases.

Home Court Is Coveted Advantage In Basketball

Chicago—(AP)—The home court in basketball often has been considered a coveted advantage. The home team uses the court for practice and is familiar with the lighting, baskets, floor, etc. The home crowd gives the team a psychological advantage with vocal support. The visitors have to travel and are sometimes tired. Many other reasons also have been advanced to corroborate this theory.

In Big Ten conference games so far this season this advantage has not always held true. In fact, after 37 conference games, the home team has won 21 games, and the visitors have won 16. That's a percentage of 568. Normally the percentage approximates .750 or .800.

History Repeats

Plains, one of the veritable garden spots of the world—to grow and profitably raise and market, crops to the value of hundreds of millions of dollars—yes billions of dollars.

That land which the northern farmer bought in that day for 50 cents, maybe one dollar per acre, today probably has at least one several thousand gallon per minute irrigation well on each labor, and is a good marketable farm, worth $150, maybe $250 per acre.

There would be little point in recounting this story, were it not for the fact, that yesterday, maybe only a few miles from where the farmer from the North "aimed to put in his first crop" fifty years ago, a spade full of earth was turned, in soil of the same kind, to start the construction of a six million dollar electric power plant to furnish electric power to the these South Plains during those years—to change these Plains, from a great cattle grazing country, to the greatest cotton and grain sorghum producing center in the entire world.

Maybe, today, history would repeat itself, and some old-timer of this modern day, would shake his head, and opine that maybe, the great Utility Company was in reality, again plowing up the best crop that land would ever produce.

But progress will not be stayed, and again the old-timer would be wrong.

The building of this huge new power plant on these South Plains, can mean only one thing—continued growth, expansion and progress. A few years hence will prove it, as this new power plant, sends its feeder lines, to the increasing number of farms irrigation wells, oil fields, and, maybe, who knows, industries, which today are only kept out, through lack of ready-available water supplies.

That the South Plains development, is actually only in its infancy, is the belief of many well-informed minds who have watched it grow, and certainly that is the view of Southwestern Public Service officials—already mapping extensions.

And as the big steam shovel bites into the earth today, at the site of the new multi-million dollar power plant south of Earth, just as the first plow of the Swedish farm bit into the sod, back in that early day, as related in the story in the opening paragraph, history could repeat itself.

Yes, the casual heighbor could again ride up, and say "my friend, you may now be plowing up the best crop that land will ever grow," land today, producing cotton and grain in abundance, and in saying it, be absolutely honest and sincere, at the same time ill-informed.

Ten, twenty, twenty-five years ahead, again can see some wonderful changes—and maybe Southwestern Public Service has a vision of that same land, divided not into labors, and sections, but cut up into small tracts—10, 20, 30 acres each, devoted not to cotton and to sorghums, but producing vegetables and fruits in abundance—a vision of land supporting fifty or one hundred families which today supports only one, two or three.

Maybe that company, also visualizes vast deposits of oil, lying far beneath the stratas that now produce water in abundance—and are now providing the necessary power to bring that oil to the surface.

Believe what you like—Southwestern public service is betting an initial six million dollar investment, that they are not "plowing up the best crop that land will ever grow." And that in itself is good news and a good omen of better things to come, right here at home in Lamb County.

You and Your Congress

THE TOUGH JOB of trying to smooth out the bumps in the economic stabilization program is beginning to loom large on the schedule of Congress.

A joint Senate-House "watchdog" committee already has started a review of the entire Defense Production Act. Congress as a whole is awaiting the forthcoming report by President Truman for renewal of those sections of the law which expire June 30.

MEMBERS of Congress find themselves in this difficult position last summer that passed what they still believe was a good, but compromise, economic stabilization program, one extremely controversial section—dealing with farm parity—has been a sore spot. On the administrative side, the Economic Stabilization Agency has been in hot water constantly.

Now labor has walked out of the various stabilization agencies because of general dissatisfaction, especially with the actions of Charles E. Wilson, who is in charge of the overall defense program.

Without the cooperation of labor representatives, stabilization efforts could be seriously impaired. The impression that has been reached apparently won't be solved quickly. It may require direct action by President Truman.

TO DATE, Capitol Hill has been watching the goings on "downstairs" with some-degree interest.

Now, however, the members are beginning to wonder whether the farm section of the law provided the vehicle for labor's dissatisfaction. Congress said in effect, that food prices could not be frozen at a level which would result in the farmer receiving less than his time-honored "parity" price.

As the Economic Stabilization Agency began to make preparations some months ago to freeze prices and wages, labor leaders said that the price freeze should come first. They complained that the cost of food was skyrocketing.

Of course, even that controversy was only the starting point of a growing coolness between labor and Administration leaders. The final breaking point was the failure of the economic stabilizers to relax the general wage freeze to the extent labor thought necessary. Mr. Wilson caught the brunt of that criticism.

WHILE the rocks was an outward manifestation of the basic problem, Congress was becoming equally concerned with the broader inflation picture.

It was disturbed by the fact that Eric Johnston, head of the Economic Stabilization Agency, has said that the general price situation probably will not be brought under full control until summer.

These two big questions will have to be answered: Is the basic stabilization law inadequate? Or is it not being administered effectively?

The answers will have to come when the Banking Committees of the Senate and House start working against the June 30 deadline. These sections of the labor disputes and credit controls expire at that time. Provisions for priorities and allocations, requisitioning, grand expansion of productive capacity expire on June 30, 1951.

SINCE direct price and wage controls haven't been so effective, Congress may be forced to a series of indirect inflation controls which it might have approved in the first place. That is, more strict regulations on all kinds of credit could have been imposed and much higher taxes could have been levied quickly.

IT MAY BE that the whole economic stabilization crisis stems from the fact that the nation is not in an all-out war. There is a growing feeling in Washington that the months ahead may be devoted primarily to diplomatic peace efforts.

Only full mobilization brings full cooperation in a defense program.

eliminate many of the possible causes and then after scratching them off the list, start in on some of the less obvious causes. Sometimes the doctor who specializes in skin diseases is able to locate the cause more quickly because of his specific knowledge. Sometimes the doctor who specializes in female disorders may be able to trace the source more quickly in women patients; the same may be true in children or old people. That doctors who have gathered their medical knowledge with special reference to the differences in children and the elderly may detect the cause more quickly; since some origins of itchiness lie within the system of nerves in the body, a doctor with minute knowledge of the nerves may be consulted to trace the cause. Allergy specialists often have a medical interest in itchiness.

Finding the cause of a constant, annoying itch may be very simple or it may be one of the most complex problems that can confront the doctor. Your family doctor is the best bet when it is your trouble; if he can't locate the source or treat it to give you relief, he can usually tell you what kind of specialist is most likely to be required.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER SAYS HE AND HIS BONY COWS OUT THERE HAVE ANOTHER WINTER MADE

Editor's Note: The Bull Lake Philosopher of his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake is slightly nervous this week, for a change.

Dear editor:

While it may be sold again by the time this gets to your desk and you get around to reading it, this afternoon the weather was balmy and springlike, with a gentle breeze making everything just right, and I don't mind saying I've never enjoyed walking over my pasture so much.

I'm proud to say, me and my cows have got another winter made. I'm down to the last half of bale of Johnson grass hay, but today I noticed a green grass sprig coming up, and thirty minutes later there was a cow standing there waiting for it to get an eighth of an inch taller. Just the hope of green grass to come can carry my cows a few days longer, and by then there ought to be enough grass to hold 'em.

There are some people who provide enough feed for their cattle to where the cows hardly know winter from summer, but out here winter is always an adventure and it's a toss-up which will win, the cows or the weather. Spring don't mean near as much to a man or a cow if the barn is still half-full of feed on the first of March.

In some places, the on-coming of spring means the renewal of plans for more fighting, with the roads thawed out and the guns unlimbered, the bombs uncrated and the planes rolled out, but here spring is a time for tuning up tractors, for getting the earth turned, for watchin' calves gettin' frisky, for smellin' the fresh air, for thawin' out your bones, and, for me, stretchin' out in the sun and restin' my mind from a winter's hard thinking.

I have never been able to understand the mind of a man who gets more kick out of organinin' a slaughter and conquerin' somebody than he does out of out-smartin' a crop of insects and come out with crop of cotton or corn or wheat, it seems to me, is ten times more fun than gettin' the

Health Talks

BY STATE MEDICAL ASSN.

When you itch in one spot, it usually isn't so difficult to find out what's making you itch, but when the itching is general all over the body, sometimes one place and sometimes another and sometimes all places at once, it not only is more aggravating to you, it's also more aggravating to your doctor because it's harder to locate the cause.

Persistent itching is a robber of comfort and since anything that makes you uncomfortable may interfere with your health and well-being, itching may be considered a signal of distress.

Itches that awaken you from sleep and demand scratching are probably the most nerve-racking of the brand. Other forms of itching may keep you from falling asleep, since some itches start up after undressing, but there is a distinction between the ones that keep you from falling asleep and the ones that break into your sleep.

The timing of the beginning of the itch may give some clue as to its cause. If you itch when you get cold or itch when you get hot or itch at any abrupt change of temperature, that's an important piece of evidence in pinning down the robber.

The manner in which you scratch the itchy areas may also have some bearing on the source of the itch, particularly whether you can stop scratching when you set your mind to it or whether no matter how much you say you won't scratch, you still have to.

Different brands of itchiness frequently arouse different types of scratching. The most common type is dragging the nails over the itchy spot, leaving parallel lines of different depths, depending upon the intensity of the scratch. These lines themselves may create more desire to scratch and lead to that vicious circle that the more you itch, the more you scratch, the more you itch.

Lice, mites, the itches that may accompany pregnancy, tumors, liver diseases, kidney diseases and cancer will generally create the unwhipped dragging of the nails over the itchy area. Not only might it lead to more itching but it may also lead to infection, so-called secondary infection.

Those suffering from nervous disorders frequently use the nails to scratch, too, but theirs is more of a digging with one nail than the dragging of several nails across the annoying area. Neuro-dermatitis, which is considered one of the very worst of the itches as far as the necessity to scratch is concerned, may be distinguished by the high shine on the fingernails because with that affliction you're most likely to rub the backs of the nails over and over and over the itchy areas and the rubbing gives a manicured look to the nails.

Hives and wheals frequently itch but they usually call for a brand of scratching that doesn't involve the fingernails; you might pinch them, hoping for relief, or push them back into the skin, or knead them like a wad of dough.

The external and internal causes of itching would make a long list. The family doctor can usually

Services Held In New Church of Christ Building

For the first time in two months, church and Sunday School classes were conducted in the newly constructed Littlefield Drive Church of Christ, Sunday morning. Prior to this, services have been held in the high school auditorium.

The newly erected and remodeled church edifice is not entirely completed. Considerable work is to be done on the interior of the building in the Sunday School class rooms, and also the laying of much of the brick on the exterior, as well as the weather stripping of the windows.

When completed the new church building will be one of the most beautiful buildings in the city. Harrell Collier is minister of the church.

Recent photograph of a Texas primary highway

Damaged highways, such as the Texas highway shown in this picture, are a hazard to the safe operation of automobiles, farm trucks and other motor vehicles.

It costs three times as much to build roads that will withstand the loads of big trucks now being operated over them than it does for the smaller trucks and automobiles.

Latest records show $115,282,344 was spent on Texas highways for the year ending August 31, 1950.

A bill sponsored by the big truck operators is before the Texas Legislature. This bill proposes

- (1) to increase the load limit from the present 48,000 pounds to 72,000 pounds, and
- (2) to increase the maximum truck length from 45 feet to 50 feet.

Recent official highway tests at La Plata, Md., sponsored by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, the highway departments of eleven states and the District of Columbia, effectively demonstrated that as trucks increased in size and loads, roads cracked up and "died" more quickly.

We need to safeguard our highways for Civilian and Military use. "Increased heavy loading might seriously disrupt the effectiveness of essential routes in the event of an all-out war," according to T. J. Kauer, director of the Ohio Highway Department and Chairman of the La Plata road test committee.

The big truckers want the taxpayers to continue providing expensive highways for them to use as "rights-of-way" for their own, selfish, personal gain.

THIS IS A TUG-OF-WAR BETWEEN THE BIG TRUCKERS AND THE TAXPAYERS OF TEXAS!

Automobiles and small trucks do not require extra strong, extra costly highways. The truth is, that the big truckers are putting the "pinch" on the pocketbooks of the Texas taxpayers.
