ARRANGEMENTS ARE PERFECTED FOR THE LAMB COUNTY FAIR

Meeting of the officials of the county fair held at Amherst last evening, arrangements of were perfected.

It was decided that there would be stock exhibits for prizes, but that specimens of different breeds would be acceptable. There will be offered for individual but not for community exhibits. Lee Burkhalter was appointed in charge of the women's department. E. C. Cundiff to manage the men's department.

Messrs. R. S. Thmas, E. C. Cundiff, of Sudan, of Littlefield were appointed to plan for the baseball game to be held after the entertainment. R. Dean, of Sudan was appointed to manage the premium list and the prize list.

The fair will be held at Sudan on the 25th and 26th, and consideration is already being manifested for the event. Every community throughout the entire county is active part toward having the best making it the best exhibit in Lamb county.

LECTURES FOR THE COLLEGE ARE HELD AT FT WORTH

Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Texas Technological College, held last Saturday in Fort Worth. G. Carter, of Fort Worth, re-elected president, R. A. Plainview, vice-president and J. Jones, Spur, treasurer.

Attending the meeting were Messrs. Mose Newman, Mrs. F. N. Drane, Corrie E. Kimbro, Lubbock. The new administrative engineering buildings were approved on completion on the poultry building was rejected as too high. The plans were returned to the architect and A. M. Liedigh, dean of the college of agriculture for revision.

Committees were named by the board. The contract for wiring and installation of motors in the building was awarded to Electric company on a contract. The controversy over the building of Abraham Lincoln administration building was quieted when pro-posed to be painted in blue. Davis is to be installed as school library.

CO. GETS NURSE

Lamb County Commissioners appropriated $400 of the county treasury to secure a county nurse. It was understood that a number of nurses throughout the county had been secured, a part of the appropriation, and appropriations made by the Muleshoe of Commerce and Civic Center in this direction.

Bryan Memorial

Bryan Evans of Minnott, daughter of the late George Bryan, is in New York organizing a national memorial to "Bryan". It is to be erected in Minnott. A cash prize of $1000 has been secured to be used for the best memorial de-

NEW BRICK BUILDING

W. M. Ashforth Putting Up Brick For The Green Cafe.

W. M. Ashforth, of Brownfield, who recently purchased the Green Line building, last week began the construction of a brick building, 25x80 feet on lot located south of the Lee Theatre.

The building has been leased to J. H. Trimble, proprietor of the Green Cafe, and when completed, will be occupied by that popular establishment. Mr. Trimble has placed an order for $6,000 worth of modern fixtures and equipment for his new cafe, which will make it one of the finest found anywhere on the South Plains of Texas.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZED

Amherst Business Men To Protect Themselves Against Crooks.

Amherst organized a Retail Merchants Credit Association last week, electing officers as follows: E. M. Williams, president; E. W. Tullis, vice-president; T. H. Pennington, treasurer; B. F. Payne, H. Slate, G. A. Bench and H. Dillshaw as directors. Mrs. Ethel Montgomery was selected as secretary.

There were 15 charter members in the organization, and others are expected to join.

MULESHOE GETS THEATRE

I. N. Brown and son, of Plainview, have announced their intention of building a modern brick theatre in Muleshoe.

This movie house is to be equipped with two high power machines and every other appliance to make an up-to-date show house.

BURLESON-MASON CO. OPEN A NEW FURNITURE STORE

The Burleson-Mason Company, composed of F. M. Burleson, formerly of Lubbock, and Marshall Mason, of Post City, are this week opening a brand new stock of furniture in the new Shaw-Earnest brick building on Main street.

Both of these gentlemen are experienced business men, and propose to put in here a stock of furniture that will equal anything carried in any of the larger cities of the South Plains country.

This week a deck 25x32 feet, is being constructed in the new building to take care of the overstock, and it alone will be capable of carrying two carloads of furniture. Some of their stock has already arrived and there are two carloads in transit which are expected to be here not later than Friday, and in time for their formal opening next Saturday morning.

Mr. Burleson stated to a Leader representative that his firm is putting in here a stock of goods which will permit a no Littlefield citizen ever having to go to Lubbock, Plainview or Amarillo for anything they may need to furnish their home of office. In addition to the general line they will carry, they will also have a nice line of standard made and national advertised furniture, widely known, well proven and with reputation back of it that will be perfectly satisfying to any purchaser.

BIG CO-OPERATIVE MEETING TO START SUNDAY, AUGUST 30

The big co-operative revival meeting will begin in Littlefield, Sunday, August 30th, all evangelical denominations of the town being interested.

Rev. W. W. Melton, pastor of the 7th and James street church, Waco, will be the evangelist and there will be a special singer in charge of the music. Rev. Melton has the reputation of being one of the strongest Baptist ministers in the state. He has just closed his eleventh successful revival meeting in Texas this year.

A big tent, capable of seating 1000 people will be stretched on Main street, just south of the Lee Theatre. It will be well lighted by electricity and comfortably seated for the accommodation of the audience.

Cottage prayer meetings will begin with the difference churches next week.

BREAKING INTO THE BIG LEAGUE

By A. B. CHAPIN

CANDIDATES GETTING READY FOR BIG DRIVING FINISH IN THE HOME STRETCH RUN OF LEADER CONTEST

With several of the leading candidates closely grouped in their final drive to win the Ford Coupe, and the last big extra vote offer closing Saturday night, it would be hard indeed for any one to make a guess as to who would be the happy winner. In fact a careful count of the votes for the past few days has shown first one candidate then the other in the lead and indications are now that it will be "ANYBODY'S" car up to the last minute.

Now Or Never

These are big days—the most important days of the campaign, for it is during these final days that the candidates will put forth their utmost efforts, with the result that they will secure a total of subscriptions and votes that they did not think possible, and it is this extra effort that will decide the future ownership of the Ford Coupe and the $100.00 in gold. Those candidates who have been going at the work "hammer and tongs" fashion since the campaign started and have reason to feel they are among the leaders will now put a bit more vim into their work, if that is possible, and will add many thousands to their vote totals before the campaign closes. Those candidates who have not accomplished the result of which they were capable, seeing the end so near, will go into the task with a spirit of firm resolution, and some of those who are now well down in the list are likely to find themselves the winner of a valuable prize.

Now for the final efforts of candidates—the effort that will determine their right to the wonderful prizes offered. Every candidate is urged to work and word hard, during these, last all important, decisive days. There is a Ford Coupe worth $622.00, and $100.00 in gold at stake. Your friends are looking to you to justify their support and faith in you. You promised yourself and them that you would win and you "must win."

When you drive around the streets of Littlefield in your own new Ford Coupe won by the utilizing of your spare time, you will find yourself the center of an admiring group, all anxious to hear the story of your success, but if you should lose through your failure to do your very best right up to the end, you will find it difficult to get anyone to stop and listen to your "excuses."

Last Extra Votes

With each $15.00 turned in up to this Saturday night, a special bonus of 25,000 extra votes will be given, this is the last chance to get extra votes, only the regular vote will be given the last week of the campaign.

Relative standing of candidates on all votes turned in up to Wednesday morning:

- Miss Alyne Arnett, 185,000 votes.
- Miss Thelma Barnes, 179,000 votes.
- Miss Lorena Barber, 176,000 votes.
- Miss Tempa Champ, 54,000 votes.
- Miss Salome Cox, 81,000 votes.
- Miss Freddie Horn, 61,000 votes.
- Miss Willie Ramsey, 188,000 votes.
- Miss Ethel Stedum, 101,000 votes.
- Miss Mary Smith, 19,000 votes.

BUILDING AT ANTON

Contract Let For $60,000 School Building, Saturday.

The contract for construction of a $60,000 school building at Anton was let last Saturday, work to begin at once, and the building is to be finished by the first of January.

Superintendent C. L. Vaughn is in Anton now making preparations for the beginning of the fall school term, and it is stated the present accommodations are inadequate for the accommodation of the pupils who will be enrolled at the beginning of the term.

SUDAN TO BUILD

Contract Let For $125,000 School Building to Robble & Tibble.

Contract was let last week to Robble & Tibble for the construction of a $125,000 school building at Sudan, the building to be ready for occupancy and service before the first of the coming year. Contracts for furnishings will be let later.

The rapid development of Sudan school district during the past year has made it imperative that more and school district during the past year care of the growing population.

TATUM TO CELEBRATE

Tatum, New Mexico, is to have a fair and general celebration time September 3rd and 4th.

There will be a free barbecue, rodeo, platform dance at night, and a good time generally assured the visitors.

Friend—Does the baby take after his father?
Proud Mother—Oh, yes indeed; why he is—he is simply crazy about his bottle.

CIVIC LEAGUE TO BE ORGANIZED AT SCHOOL, WEDNESDAY

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Civic League in Littlefield will be held at the school house next Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. All ladies of the town interested in the betterment and beautifying of Littlefield are urged to be present. The committee in charge of the organization is composed of Mrs. L. W. Jordan, Miss Birdie Lee Burkhalter, Mrs. T. Wade Potter, Mrs. B. L. Cogdill and Mrs. W. G. Street.

That the Civic League in Littlefield is a very desirable and almost necessary organization there is no doubt. Never a week passes by but there are matters of importance that might well be looked after by an organization of this kind. There are several matters of vital importance now that deserve the attention of the ladies of this town, who can handle such better than the men.

One of the committee in commenting upon the organization declared there was no reason why there should not be a Civic League organized here that would rival both in membership and activity the local Chamber of Commerce. Every woman of the town who is interested in the advancement of their home city should be present at the meeting next Wednesday.

W. M. U. MEETING

Begin Prayer Meetings Preparatory For Revival Meeting

The W. M. U. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Lorraine. Twenty women were present. A very profitable lesson from "Talks On Soul Winning," by Mullins, was taught by Rev. W. B. Phipps.

Since the revival meeting will begin Sunday, August 30, the women have decided to have cottage prayer meetings at 3 o'clock every day next week, except Saturday. At each of "On Soul Winning" will be taught, and at the end of the week an examination on the book will be given. Later seals will be awarded to those who satisfactorily finish the course. Every member of the W. M. U. is earnestly requested to attend these meetings. They will be held at the homes of the following women: Monday—Mrs. F. A. Butler; Tuesday—Mrs. J. M. Stokes; Wednesday—Mrs. W. O. Gray; Thursday—Mrs. N. A. Vaughtor; Friday—Mrs. Wm. Lowmore.

LITTLEFIELD TAX RATE FAVORABLE UNDER COMPARISON

That the Littlefield city tax rate compares very favorable with many other cities of West Texas, is the statement of E. C. Cundiff, who is making assessments for the city. The statement was occasioned by enquiries coming to his office regarding the municipal taxes for this year.

Mr. Cundiff also states that the tax roll for the year 1925 will not be paid until early in 1926, and that this one tax roll will have to take care of the city's running expenses for the year of 1925 and 1926, as the next one will not be collectable until early in 1927.

The Littlefield tax rate is $1.50 on the $100, and the assessment this year is to meet the running expenses of the city for two years time, or since first incorporation. It also takes care of the interest and sinking fund on the $75,000 waterworks bond issue. This rate became necessary due to the fact that the city was not incorporated until during the fall of 1924 and taxes could not be collected until the following year, the running expense of the city was going on all the time, and the water works bonds began drawing interest in April, of this year, when they were duly executed. When it is understood that the rate of taxation this year virtually covers two years of time, it will be readily seen that the rate is really only about 75 cents on the one hundred dollar valuation. Following is the tax rate of some of the leading cities of West Texas as furnished by the Bureau of Extension, State University:

City	Rate
Childress	1.80
Ft. Worth	1.67
San Antonio	1.72
Waxahachie	1.52
Ballinger	1.20
Big Springs	1.33
Crockett	1.50
Electra	1.75
Floydada	1.45
Haskell	1.50
Jacksonville	1.50
Lockhart	1.34
Lubbock	1.25
Nacogdoches	1.50
Plainview	1.90
Quanah	1.50
Sweetwater	1.90
Rulia	1.50

ATTEND LABOR DAY

Local Carpenters Will Join Others In Lubbock Celebration.

The members of the Littlefield Carpenters Union will participate in the big Labor Day celebration and parade to be held at Lubbock, Monday, September 7th, according to Secretary H. W. Teeters.

It is understood that the local band will also accompany the home delegation and furnish music for the occasion.

That night, plans will be made for the organization of a South Plains Association which will make arrangements for annual celebrations on Labor Day.

There are some people who cannot tell the difference between conscience and conceit.

As the Editor Sees It

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Ornament and perfume rejoice the heart; so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.—Prov. 27:9.

Good counsels observed are claims of grace.—Thomas Fuller.

The "transient bell ringer" is the pest who, at the most inopportune time of the day puts a lot of energy into ringing the door bell, or pounding the paint from off the door, perhaps right in the midst of preparing lunch, washing the baby, or some other kind of housework.

You drop things right where they are and rush to answer the summons, expecting some neighbor friend or a "legitimate" caller, but instead you find some agent or peddler whose only mission is to sell you something at a time when your thoughts are farthest from buying.

Certainly you almost had to shut the door in his face to get rid of him, or did you take the easiest way out of the situation and buy what he or she had to sell, merchandise you knew nothing about, except the claims he made for it?

As a matter of good taste and sound judgment why should you buy from a peddler at all? Every business house in Littlefield is a bona fide institution, doing business in Littlefield, paying taxes to the city, and helping to support and maintain the community in numerous other ways. Each is genuinely a community asset. All are representative of residents of Littlefield and employers here for employees Littlefield people.

Many thousands of dollars are put into local circulation by them annually. Their investments represent thousands more. Your welfare is their welfare; your interest their interest. And it is in realization of this fact that last week the Leader job department was called upon by the local Chamber of Commerce to print 500 of the following cards:

KEEP OUT

We Patronize Home Institutions
These cards are being distributed this week into every home in Littlefield and the householder is asked to fasten them permanently in the window of their front door where the peddler or agent will see them the first thing when he starts to knock. The card acts as a trespass warning, and prosecution may be made upon its violation. At any rate, it will go a long way toward getting rid of the professional "bell ringer."

A PRETTY PASS

Things are coming to a pretty pass when crime conditions get so serious that prominent citizens from the various states of the Union find it necessary to organize to stamp out murder and banditry. Yet an organization for that purpose, with E. H. Gray, head of the steel corporation at the helm, is now in process of formation.

We live in peace and contentment here in Littlefield, seldom is it here as any serious criminal outbreak in this vicinity, and it is hard for us to believe that the United States is today taking its place at the top of the crime list of all nations. But there they are, not one or two but dozens of them, chronicled on the first page of our daily papers every day. The climax came a few days ago with a daylight holdup in a big Chicago hotel in which the clerk and two or five bandits met death. But the very same day, and practically every day since other crimes of a most revolting nature were reported from other parts of the country.

Murder has become common in the U. S. within the past few years. It is impossible to pick up a daily paper any more without finding accounts of holdups and murders. Men are shot down on the least provocation and bandit gangs pick off the leaders of opposing gangs at will. This year will record more legal hangings and electrocutions than in any one previous year—and yet the number of cold-blooded murders is not decreasing. It seems strange a nation like this has to put up with such a record, or that it is necessary to form a committee of private citizens to get behind our laws and see that they are enforced.

Add to this the further fact that here in our own State of Texas criminals, of more or less degree, are being pardoned by officials and courts and frequently having sentences commuted and suspended, to again be turned loose upon the moral law-abiding public, which in most instances seems to be passively helpless, and the condition really assumes a serious aspect.

AUTO PRICES TUMBLING

We've never boasted of our powers as a prophet, and neither do we lay any claim to be able to peer farther into the future than the average Littlefield citizen. But when a few months ago we ventured the assertion that the auto manufacturers of this country would slash their prices before fall season rolled around—well, it looks like we made a pretty good guess.

They are coming down in price now, and have been for several weeks. Not all cutting at once—that would look too much like a frame-up. But gradually they are falling in line, each giving his own individual reason for the reduction. But the public knows a lot more about the business of auto-making now than it did a half-dozen years ago, and one thing it has learned above all others is that, without a single exception, they are all too costly. You can buy a lot of steel and leather and nickel-plating and labor for a thousand dollars. And when plants that can turn out hundreds and thousands of cars daily can mould and bend and cut and assemble that material several thousand times more cheaply than if it turned out but a car or two a day, they can take a profit of a few dollars on each car and still make money. The public know, too, that while auto production has been as high this year as last, more of this year's machines have been shipped abroad than ever before.

The American car buyer has grown particular. He is placing more value on his dollar now than he once did. As a result he is driving down the prices of autos, and without causing any of the makers to starve to death, either.

GET THE RECORD STRAIGHT

Recent information received by Littlefield citizens is to the effect that some neighboring town has been misinformed regarding the standing of the Littlefield public schools, and, in consequence, two or three families have transferred their children to another school district.

The facts in the case are, according to Superintendent R. L. Speight, that the Littlefield schools are an accredited institution, having now 14 points of affiliation and with but one point necessary, (which will be made this year) for complete affiliation, while the town that has been putting out the derogatory information is not even a classified school, neither that school nor its faculty being recognized in the State High School directory.

Littlefield has always been proud of her schools, and rightly so, for they represent as good a system as may be found in any town in West Texas. More than $250,000 has been invested in buildings and equipment for the benefit of the pupils of this district, 32 teachers, of high competency and experience are employed as tutors, 30 trucks are in service to convey the pupils to and from the school buildings. And when the pupils graduate from the Littlefield schools they go forth with diplomas and credits that readily admit them into any college of the state.

TIME HAVE CHANGED

The west has harvested her wheat crop and for the first time in years she hasn't had to send out a nation wide appeal for harvest hands. This doesn't mean that her crop was very much smaller, nor that there is a greater amount of idle labor than in previous years. It simply means that those who are willing to work in the grain fields of the west during harvest season can now get there without difficulty, and at less expense than when they had to depend on the railroad instead of the flivver.

This condition is good for the grower and good for the man who really wants employment. He can go a longer distance to secure this kind of work than he could have hoped to go a few years ago, and he doesn't have to spend all he earns in the harvest field for a ticket back home.

The same rule will apply to the picking of this fall's cotton crop. Hundreds back in east and central Texas, who have been the victims of crop failure in those sections, will jump into their autos and come out here for cotton picking. In all probabilities there will be more hands than required.

At any rate we shall never, in all probabilities, again hear the old time cry for help from states that furnish the world with its bread. The auto seems to have solved another problem for the "bounding west."

BETTER MAIL SERVICE

That Littlefield is entitled to better mail service, there would seem to be no room for controversy. Very frequently the fate of an important deal or visit hangs on quick replies by mail.

In as much as the line cars are now running in opposite directions at the same time to that of the railroad, arrangements could probably be made for mail to be brought out from the either division point to Littlefield, thus furnishing service both ways twice a day.

With the settling of this country it is also to the interest of Littlefield to see that her rural routes are added to and extended. This is a matter that should not be overlooked, and one that should receive the attention of the Chamber of Commerce immediately. Prompt action in this wise will bring the desired results.

SOME THINGS ABOUT LITTLEFIELD YOU MIGHT BE GLAD TO UNDERSTAND —That know one here ever grows a mustache on the forehead.

—That the citizens here find it extremely difficult to put on their shoes without stooping.

—That some of the old-timers still have trouble eating grapefruit without squirting the juice in their eyes.

—That out of the people in this section prefer to eat their breakfast in the morning rather than at any other time of the day.

—That up-to-date no new settler has ever moved out here who was born before his parents died. Surely they were all very fortunate.

—That real estate agents are willing to admit that it is impossible for the buffalo of these western plains to build its nest for its young in the tops of the trees, even in the mighty oak.

ED PURDY'S PHILOS

"I'm not saying that Pete Dexter is a fool—but if he isn't then he's a darned good warden—the way he keeps thought locked up in his brain cells."

Another reliable manner of arousing the neighborhood is to try to get 10,000 miles out of the windmill with one application of the oil can.

PAVEMENT PICK-UPS..

"It has always been my observation, comments H. W. Teeters, "that the harder a man works the harder it is to work him."

Rev. Silas Dixon declares that when a man has a boil on the back of his neck he knows about how badly a woman feels when her nose is shiny and she can't find her powder rag.

Bob Thompson asserts that he can remember when girls used to exercise to improve their complexion, but he knows some now who are afraid to sneeze for fear they'll blow it off.

According to Campbell Duggan, "a man doesn't wear any more underneath than most of the girls do, but what he wears on the outside is harder to see through."

H. J. Jordan wants to know what has become of the old-fashioned preacher who thought he had to yell at the top of his voice in order to put the fear of God into the hearts of his congregation.

"The main objection to a childless marriage," says M. J. Fox, "is that it leaves the husband to get all the wife's nerves are on edge." For must shoddings when the wife's nerves are on edge." For must be exempt, he has 15 children.

Mayor Crockett is planning a valuable addition to the Littlefield Service Station. He says girls are getting to use so much powder that filling stations for their vanity cases will soon be needed, and he will probably put in one.

SEEN AROUND TOWN

—Bald headed man on the street with comb sticking out of his pocket.

—A woman step into an auto, and she actually had on hose supporters. But perhaps we shouldn't have been looking.

—A lad standing shivering on the edge of Blair's swimming pool Saturday night, yet insisting he was having a good time.

—A man paying 15 cents for an ice cream soda, but when the foam had settled it was only two-thirds full. He had a kick coming!

—Heard a man cussing t'other day because he hit another one of those brick bats lying on Main street. Thank heavens they are all gone now!

—Man standing in front of soda fountain place observed if people didn't stay up so late the night before it wouldn't take so much coke to pep 'em up for business the next morning.

LITTLE LEADERS

Maybe the reason some Littlefield men talk in their sleep is because that is their only opportunity.

Nature knows her business. If she made canteloupes as big as watermelons they would cost too much.

A friend is an acquaintance who never borrowed money from you and who never loaned you any.

There may be a few darned needles left in the world, but we can find girls around Littlefield who don't know it.

A New York taxicab knocked a man down and another one ran over him and killed him. Some teamwork!

Our idea of a good sport is the Littlefield man who goes fishing and then stops on the way back home to buy enough meat for supper.

Uncle Sam says the life of a paper dollar is only seven or eight months, but we have never had any of them to die on our hands.

The world isn't as bad as some Littlefield folks make it out to be, yet it is a fact that the world is certain to impose on the man with a good disposition.

When a Littlefield girl tells a young man that she dreamed of him the night before he should take the hint and begin saving for the furniture.

Why is it that some men around Littlefield have to wait until their wives get wrinkles in their faces and corns on their hands before they realize just how helpful a wife really is?

PUTTING MONEY INTO A HOME IS BETTER THAN PUTTING IT IN A BANK

—Money is of no value only as for its buying power, and there is no investment possible where greater returns are realized in both pleasure and profit than putting your money into a home. Every home in this country increases in value, and adds to the increased value of your other property. Besides, there is nothing that brings to a man and his family a greater sense of joy and feeling of dependence than the owning of the home in which he lives.

—We have assisted in the building of hundreds of happy prosperous homes in this community, and we will gladly operate with you toward the realization of your dreams. —Whatever building plans you may have, we have the lumber and builders' material for carrying them out—and no better quality of material will be found anywhere on the South Plains than that we carry.

—We have hundreds of plans for beautiful homes that are at your service. They represent different costs and many styles of architecture.

FARMS SOLD ENOCHS LAND & FARMERS ARRIVING

10 farms have been sold out of Enochs land, according to John Blalock, agent, and with but a few more they will all be on their feet. Year and making improvements, families have now to possess their land, and fine crops prospects, says Blalock.

A new store building was built at Enochs, and as soon as it will be occupied by a general store. A cafe is being put up and sleeping quarters for the accommodation of prospectively arriving families. W.

R. Hickman is the latest arrival in that section, having shipped in an immigrant car last Friday. There will be several other families to arrive this fall after they have harvested their crops where they now live.

Mr. Blalock states that the Hockley County Commissioners have graded three 80-foot highways into the Enochs properties. The new brick school building at Enochs is now completed and ready for school which will begin about the middle of next month.

Numerous inquiries are being received every day regarding this land, according to Blalock, prospects are constantly arriving and sales are being consummated every week.

REMODELING HIS CAFE

W. A. Vallia Redecorating Place For Big Fall Business.

The Chili King Cafe is closed this week "for repairs," according to the sign on the front door, but it is really for fixing up, redecorating and getting ready for the big fall business that has begun to loom upon the commercial horizon. When the cafe opens again next week it will be like a new place entirely.

Vallia, who is one of Littlefield's most patriotic citizens, will devote the entire proceeds of his first day's business upon reopening to the benefit of the children's playground equipment, near the Presbyterian church.

Killjoy—"Huh—that's nothing. Clem Glover went from here to the state penitentiary on a half pint of hooch."

J. D. Manning, a farmer residing northeast of Littlefield, left Wednesday for a trip to south and east Texas. Before starting he had a big banner printed: "Littlefield—The Versatile Farm Lands of the South Plains—Most Rapid Growing Section of Texas," and put on the back of his auto. He is quite a booster for his home country, and says he is going to give it all the publicity he can while on his trip.

WEDDED BLISS

Why do married men instinctively duck when the telephone rings? There'll be a half dozen men sitting around a desk, smoking, joking, happy, having the time of their life, when all at once the phone rings. The front legs of the chairs hit the floor, the grins disappear, a strained, anxious look comes into the face of each man there, while the man who owns the office reaches out carefully and slowly and lifts the receiver off the hook. Everyone holds his breath as the man who holds the receiver says "Hello" in a low tone of voice.

But almost instantaneously a grin breaks out over his face you can hear the exhalation of a half dozen men and almost feel them relax as the spokesman yells, "O! hello, Jim, how in the world are you? Sure come right on up. Absolutely, you bet."

But sometimes the worst fears are realized and you hear Tom say, "Yes right away. I did, but I had a few letters to get out. Yes. Yes. Yes. Sure will. Nobody, All right. Yes,

I will. In just a few minutes." And hangs up the receiver sadly. And everyone gets up at once and they all file silently toward the elevator.

Let's see, what do they call it? Oh, yes, wedded bliss.—Collingsworth Standard.

Second Subdivision

FAMOUS SPADE RANCH LANDS

Ellwood Farms

In Lamb County on the South Plains of Texas

Fifty thousand acres being surveyed into 160 acre farms, 20,000 acres of which are now available for immediate sale and settlement.

All fine Cat-Claw land, lies rich and level in a well proven agricultural section, where climate is ideal, water pure and abundant, rainfall sufficient and diversified crops assured annually.

The first subdivision of this well known ranch, consisting of 45,000 acres, was thrown open for settlement October 6th, last year, and by the first of the following January was practically all sold out. This second subdivision is the same kind of land, just as favorably located, and will be sold as quickly.

RESERVATIONS NOW BEING MADE

This land is being sold at the very reasonable price of $35.00 per acre; $5.00 per acre cash payment, balance due in fifteen years—fourteen years at $1.00 per acre, and last payment of $15.00 per acre due the fifteenth year—six per cent interest on deferred payments.

In this proven new agricultural country that is now attracting such wide attention, a man with small means can easily buy and pay for a home. After the first payment is made, the annual crops harvested from off the land insure all future obligations. There is no reason for anyone being a tenant to some landlord when a home of their own may be secured so easily.

FARM CONVENTION AT PLAINVIEW WILL BE WELL ATTENDED

The State Farm Bureau is offering an attractive banner to the county with the largest delegation at Plainview Thursday and Friday of this week, August 20-21, to the District Convention of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation. Both persons and mileage will be figured in making the awards thus giving the remote counties an equal showing with the nearby ones. The number of miles from the county seat of the respective counties to Plainview will be multiplied by the number of delegates registered from each county and the county obtaining the highest score in this manner will be given the attendance banner.

The program for the West Texas District Convention of the Texas Farm Bureau which will be held in Plainview Thursday and Friday August 20 and 21, is declared by L. R. Campbell, Secretary of the Federation to be one of the strongest agricultural programs ever prepared for a Texas audience. Consuming two full days and mixed with entertainment features the program has a variety of addresses which will be delivered by some of the leading citizens of Texas.

Clarence Ousley, Mrs. Phebe K. Warner, John B. Burns, John T. Orr and others equally as prominent will be in Plainview for the program.

The complete program for the Farm meet is as follows:

Thursday, 10 a. m.—W. D. Farris, Chairman.

America, by the Convention, led by Matt Cram.

Invocation, Rev. J. Pat Horton, Pastor First Baptist Church Plainview.

HAS FINE GARDENS

L. S. Dewett Demonstrates Beauty and Growth of Vegetation.

If anyone has any doubt as to the beauty and growth of vegetation on the South Plains they should visit the home of L. S. Dewett, as the editor of this newspaper and several other citizens did last week.

Mr. Dewett owns a nice home in the east part of town, and has two lots devoted entirely to garden growth as fine as we ever looked upon. Nearly everything described in the garden's seed catalog is there and growing luxuriantly. We saw a big plot of tomato vines with the red luscious fruit bending them to the ground. There were ripe, red strawberries, cabbage, as big as may be found anywhere, peppers just coming to blossom, and all kinds of small truck.

The front of the two lots is devoted to flower garden and it is a veritable mass of beauty and fragrance. There were roses, geraniums, callas, flos, nasturtiums, and probably a half dozen other varieties. In some pots beneath a weeping willow tree we saw several little pecan trees that had been started from the nuts, there a pine apple tree growing from the top of a pine apple that had been cut off and planted just as an experiment, and there were a half dozen grape fruit sprouts growing from the seed thrown out after breakfast. It is all a vivid demonstration of the prodigious vegetation growth possible in this section of the state.

Mr. Dewett also owns five nice farms west of town on which he has about 400 acres of fine growing crops.

His hobby is health, beauty, and he lives up to it.

AGED MATRON EXPIRES
Burial of Mrs. Hollabaugh in Local Cemetery Following Brief Illness.

Mrs. Willie Lee Hollabaugh, mother of Mrs. V. A. Vallis, died Tuesday, August 11th, after an illness of four days, tho she had been a sufferer from Brights disease for several years.
She was nearly 58 years of age at the time of her death. She was born and reared in Middle Tennessee, was married there and continued to live in that state for several years afterward, three of her children being born there.
She was a steadfast Christian and faithful member of the Independent Holiness Church. Funeral services were conducted from the local Methodist church, Rev. S. S. Dixon pastor, officiating, and interment made in the local cemetery.
The deceased is survived by her husband and six children.

AMARILLO TRI-STATE EXPOSITION WILL BE WIDELY PATRONIZED
With a dozen counties of the Panhandle already volunteering exhibits at the Amarillo Tri-State Exposition, and more known to be coming, officers of that institution are now being assured of what they have heretofore predicted for the 1925 dates of September 26th to October 1st, inclusive.
Agricultural exhibits and livestock showings are now practically assured the best ever attempted in this section of the Southwest, attention to the attractions and amusements is now being asked by U. N. Oliver, president.
"Fair time is also fun time," he says, "and while development of this section and its resources is the prime object. Father and mother, as well as Jack and Jill, wish entertainment mingled with the more serious side of life. In the 1925 showing exhibitation as well as studious absorption is sought, and for this purpose it is believed, the best, the most elevating as well as amusing, has been secured."

For the height of excitement there will be the races. Horses, motorcycles, and automobiles figure in these events. For the first mentioned three days have been set aside, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.
Purses amounting to $3200.00 have been set aside, which added to those offered on the same circuit by Hutchinson, Topeka, Wichita Falls and Dallas will bring the best horses from the best known trainers and owners.
Saturday and Monday the automobile and motorcycle races will be run.
A purse of $3,000.00 has been hung up for these events, and four time trial races and two automobile races, sanctioned by the "Three A" Association, will be run.

On the midway will be shown the great Clarence A. Wortham Shows, these stretch from the entrance to the grandstand and to the agricultural hall. As a guarantee against rain and mud, side walks will be laid so that they will be accessible to all, conveniently.

Before the grandstand there will be a number of features between the races—free to all entering these gates Among these will be the Chicago
Cadents, and 18 piece band; Dave Darden's all professional band; the Clifton Girls, an aerobic and dancing feature; the Mounters, chair and table artists fresh from overseas; and Perezoff & Co., "Knockabouts jugsglers in Tom Toolery," from and vouched for by San Francisco.

To cap each day will be the fireworks at night. This is a mammoth attraction staged by the World Amusement Company at Chicago.
Of special interest will be the Old Fiddlers Contest, which coupled with the Harmonica, and choral societies and drum corps events will be staged in the tent pavillion on Wednesday.
It is said the fiddlers are coming in hordes to portray their music of other days.

Approximately 20 bands have already signified their intention of entering that event. Prizes amounting to $1250.00 are divided as follows:
5 year bands, $400.00; second $200;
4 year bands $2000.00, second $100; 2 year $150.00, second, $75.00; and one year bands $75.00.

In this announcement space does not permit to go into detail but with this arrangement, added to the many clown features, which must not be told to be enjoyed, something doing every minutes is guaranteed those seeking amusement of the best variety.
One can step from the serious study of the latest ideas of farming, stock raising and improvements in general, almost directly and daily into an atmosphere of Coney Island, and the music world.

Present indications are that thousands from many states will take full advantage of the opportunity.

H. L. SMITH DEMONSTRATES BIG POSSIBILITIES OF FRUIT GROWING AMONG FARMERS OF THIS VICINITY

If any new comer ever had any doubts regarding the quality of fruit that can be produced in the Littlefield section, those doubts would have speedily vanished if they could have beheld the fine sample of pears and peaches brought to the Leader office last Wednesday by H. L. Smith, who resides on a choice farm about a mile east of town.

Of course H. L. had some apologies to offer when he brought them, for he is naturally of a rather retiring disposition and easily embarrassed. He explained to us that the fruit was not up to par this year on account of the fact that an early hail did it some damage, and the further fact that he was "too darned lazy" to get out and take care of it as he should. But when we measured one of the peaches and found it 8 3-4 inches in circumference, and then measured some of the pears and found them a good eight inches around, we were inclined to believe Smith was a member of the famous Anxanias Club and we were getting strung all the way through. But Mrs. Smith to be an excellent lady and noted for her veracity, and when we called her over the phone and got her verification of the story we were well satisfied to print it.

Mr. Smith has a small orchard on his farm—all he needs for himself and wife—but it is about as fine as anything we ever saw in the Hood River or Yakama district of Oregon and Washington. Four Bartlett pear trees are laden almost to the breaking point. There are a dozen peach trees, the J. H. Hale variety, known as the "million dollar" peach, and they were laden with luscious ripening fruit—not a single peach on the tree that would go into an ordinary tea cup, and some of them twice that large—and yet Smith insists on us believing the fruit is not half as large this year as it was last year.

Mr. Smith also has a fine grapevine yard that yielded him all the grapes his wife needed for jelly and jam, while it is rumored that H. L. himself got all he needed for his cellar, which is padlocked and guarded night and day by a bull dog with short tail and long teeth.

There is also a nice strawberry patch on Smith's place that yielded this spring all himself and neighbors could smother under cream, and he tells us he has another patch coming on for fall supply. We didn't get to talk very long over the phone to Mrs. Smith, because about the first sentence she gave us to understand she was busy getting up some 200 quarts of their fruit and didn't have any time to be answering fool questions from any newspaper hound.

But what Mr. Smith has done here with fruit, (and not half tried) can be duplicated by any citizen in town and country, and it ought to be. Every home-owner in Littlefield should have a dozen or more choice fruit trees growing in their back yard, and every farmer should have a choice selection of various fruit trees growing on his farm. There are other farmers of this section who, like Mr. Smith, have demonstrated beyond the shadow of controversy that fruit of all kinds does well in this section. It not only grows prolific, big, luscious and beautiful, but the altitude of this section puts a crispness and flavor into it that never gets into the fruit grown in lower level sections of the state. There are very few insects out here to bother the trees or vines, and, if a man is situated so he can put a little water to the trees from his windmill, just once in a while, there is no reason why a good crop can not produced every year.

It is an old saying, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away," but a few bushels of fruit raised on every farm furnishes a delightful menu of healthful food for the family and keeps the farmer away from the grocery store about half his time—and more money to put in his bank account.

25 CENTS FEE LEGALLY SET FOR ADJUSTING AUTO HEADLIGHTS IN TEXAS, IS NOW OFFICIAL CHARGE

Beginning September 1st all automobile headlights must comply with the new state headlight law in this respect. The Littlefield Motor Co., and the Bell-Gillette Chevrolet Co., have been appointed by the Lamb County Commissioners Court as official headlight testing stations for Littlefield. These concerns are now getting ready to serve all motors who may apply at their places of business for headlight adjustment.

The legal charge for headlight adjustment is 25 cents, according to the new law. This, however, does not cover any work that may be necessary on the car in order that the adjustment may be made effective. Extra work above adjustment will be subject to any extra charge. In commenting upon the new law, Reed Grandberry, state headlight engineer says:

Upon payment of the 25 cent fee the test station should perform the following service; inspect the equipment, focus the headlamps and, if necessary tilt the headlamps.

"Between stations, there would be no difference in the focusing of a pair of headlamps or the tilting of the headlamps," Grandberry said. "All test stations have been instructed by this department as to condition of equipment and there should be no difference between stations as to approval of equipment.

This department cannot and does not attempt to guide the individual motorist in his bargaining with a test station regarding repairs on his headlight equipment not required by the law. The same is true in the purchasing of headlight devices. This department knows that the devices on the approved list vary in cost from about 60 cents to several dollars, and it cannot force or suggest that the motorist should be at liberty to purchase what he pleases, just as long as the equipment is approved.

"This department will protect Texas motorist at all costs and at the same time will stand behind the test stations when the test stations operate in accordance with the law. Any one having a complaint to make about the operation of a test station should take up the matter with the commissioners' court of his county or with the department, and if the complaint is well founded, action will be taken immediately.

Mr. Grandberry is attached to the State Highway Commission, and may be reached at Austin care this commission.

JOHN SINGER, INVENTOR OF SEWING MACHINE, A FORMER TEXAN

It is a fact probably known to few people that the financing of the sewing machine invention was done by an early day resident of Texas. The story is told in the musty file of a Texas newspaper which reposes in the archives of the library of the University of Texas. The article was written by G. D. Kingsbury in 1867. It says:

"John V. Singer, a muscular old sea captain who had 'followed the sea' for twenty-five years, landed at Brazos Santiago about 1847 and settled on Padre Island. He got title to a strip of land, made butter, raised stock and jacked up wrecks on the coast. Always he visited at Brazos Santiago and Brownsville, being known everywhere as the brother to Singer, the sewing machine man. During one of these visits to Brownsville he told me about his brother's invention.

John V. Singer left home when quite young to go to sea. Several years later he met in New York City his younger brother whom he hadn't seen since that time when he left home. The younger brother told him of his invention of the sewing machine and expressed his belief that it would be one of the greatest mechanical improvements of the age. Young Singer, however, did not have the money to get a patent and finance the deal. John V. Singer said: 'I shared in his faith, and he shared my purse.' He lent his brother $500 to finance the deal.

"John V. Singer then went to Texas, and it was many years later that he heard first of his brother's success in a letter from him in which he said: 'Should you desire to adventure in some enterprise draw on me for $150,000 and do what you desire.' Evidently John V. Singer accepted the offer, for he made definite plans to build a steamship to run between Brazos and New Orleans in opposition to Harris and Morgan's ships, a plan that was frustrated by the civil war."

AN EDUCATIONAL TEST

A professor in a western university is reported to have told his students that he would consider them educated in the best sense of the word if they could honestly answer "yes" to each of the following questions:

Has your education given you sympathy for all good causes?

Has it made you a protecting brother to the weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and keep them?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman straight in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Are you good for anything yourself?

Can you be happy alone, with only your thoughts for company? Can you look into a man by the wayside and see the puddle besides him? And he wasn't far from when you think the matter over.

Don't be disappointed by der houses.

DANDRUFF CAUSES THE HAIR TO FALL AND THE HEAD TO ITCH

Dandruff is a germ disease and a scaly form of Tetter or Eczema. It creeps into the scalp, causing it to fall out and the hair to hold. Get rid of dandruff before it starts. Wash the scalp well with hot water and a soft towel and use Tetter-Balm (Don't Scratch), then wash your hair with Hooper's Tetter-Balm. Hooper's Tetter-Balm is guaranteed for all scalp and hair troubles. Two sizes, 75c and $1.50. Sold only by

Concrete Streets in TEXAS

San Benito, Texas, has solved its street paving problems.

In the Spring of 1922, the city laid a short block of concrete—only 1380 square yards—which caused the taxpayers quickly to realize the economy of this type of pavement. In October of the same year 38,000 additional square yards was contracted for on the city's main thoroughfares. Since then 85,000 square yards have been laid in the business and residential sections.

Experience has proved to San Benito that her concrete pavements cost little to maintain. Built according to present-day high standards, concrete streets meet permanently all the requirements of modern traffic.

What San Benito has learned about the value of concrete pavement may help your town.

Our booklet R-4 tells many interesting things about concrete streets. We have a free copy awaiting your request.

A DIFFERENT PROGRAM OF INTEREST BEING PREPARED FOR NEXT TRADES DAY AT LITTLEFIELD ON SEPT. 7th

B YCLAYBORNE HARVEY,
Secretary Chamber of Commerce.
Since the recent rains, Littlefield and her surrounding territory is at the top of her stride. Good crops are assured, and, as one farmer remarked this week to the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "I don't see anything to keep us from it," and it is the honest opinion of every one in the country that there will be nothing to keep us "from it." Without a doubt, this is going to be a "golden autumn."
The first fall Trades Day of Littlefield will be held, as has been the custom, on the first Monday in September, which will be September 7th. It is the intention of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce to have somewhat of a different program than has been the custom heretofore. It has been thought that a stock show would be about the most appropriate program that could be carried out, since at this special time of the year, grass being as good as it is and the stock are in such good shape, that it would be possible to put over an excellent exhibition as well as encourage the farmers in the Littlefield trade territory to strive for the best types and breeds of live stock. There will be premiums offered for all kinds of live stock raised on this great South

METHODIST MISSIONARIES
Social Committee Shows Results of Practical Christianity.

The Methodist Missionary Society met Monday afternoon with Mrs. O. F. Greer, 20 members being present, and one new member, Mrs. Cook, being received into the society.

Report submitted by the social service committee showed a great deal of visiting among the sick and strangers.

The devotional service was led by Mrs. Reid, and followed by interesting talks from Mrs. Silas Dixon, Mrs. J. T. Elms and Mrs. C. J. Duggan.

A social hour was then enjoyed, during which delicious refreshments, consisting of cantaloupe a la mode, was served.

The next meeting will be held at the church having Bible study. All members are urged to remember the regular bake sale Saturday, August 21st.

LOT SALES THIS WEEK
Littlefield Lots Growing in Demand According to Realtor.

C. J. Duggan, local realtor, reports Littlefield lot sales during the past week, as follows:

C. O. Crow, of Ft. Cobb, Okla., four lots in Southmoor addition, also, lots 3, 4 and 5 in block 67 of the original townsite. He expects to move here about January 1st and begin improvements on all of them.

Mrs. Rosa Price, of Winters, one acre block in Southmoor. She will improve it shortly.

Arthur K. Kleypas, Lott, Texas, one acre block in Southmoor.

B. E. Hanna, Shackelford county, four acre tract in Broad Acres on which he will begin improvements the first of next month.

Dr. B. B. Liles, lots 6 and 7, in block 67, original townsite.

Our idea of efficiency is one of those fellows who is still living off his wife's parents.

Plains. The merchants generally donate about $100 in cash prizes to be given away as premiums at the Trades days for various athletic stunts, but it has been suggested that all of the cash prizes that are given this time will have something to do with live stock. However there will be horse races, as has usually been held, and there will be some god premiums offered.

The purpose of these Trades days that are held in Littlefield every first Monday is to stimulate trade and to make the farmer feel that the business men of the town are working for his interests and greatly desire to solicit his good will and friendship. All of the many entertainments, games and prizes that are given are for the purpose of making the Littlefield farmers feel that this is their town and that the merchants living and doing business here want to cooperate and help the farmer in any way possible. Not only do the Littlefield merchants feel that way but all of the population of the town and the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, as well.

Let every one in this country come to the next Littlefield Trades day and have a good time. It means money to you and a chance to meet your neighbors and talk about things that are interest to all.

SWIMMING PARTY
Miss Baker Entertained Number of Friends Last Friday.

Last Friday evening Miss Ora Mae Baker entertained a number of friends at a swimming party to the local bathing pool. After the party they went to the Green Cafe, where a sumptuous supper was served, a la Trimble style—then to the home of C. D. Smith for a few hours of dancing. Those composing the party were: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. Hilburn Smith, Miss Ora Mae Baker, Ray Jones, Miss Beulah Williams, Bob Ross, Miss Viola Collins, Clyde Arnold, Miss Gertrude Kerr, Miss Maxine Janes, Mrs. Jack Ward.

QUICK RETURNS

If you desire quick, safe returns on invested capital, just buy a good, fresh dairy cow. You may purchase her at five o'clock in the afternoon, milk her immediately and have her pure, rich, fresh milk for supper that very night. No other farm investment yields such quick returns. You may plant spring wheat in April and you must wait wour long months until the harvest. Even then the returns may be exceedingly low. It is much the same with all other products that grow in or on the soil. But the cow, the high producing dairy cow, that gentle, noble animal, that foster mother of the human race, can always be relied upon to do her part. The feed she eats today, she pays for before the sun goes down. For safe returns on capital invested, she is excelled by no other class of livestock, and for constant, continued, quick returns she has had no equal.—Hoard's Dairyman.

As I grow older, I simplify both my science and my religion. Books mean less to me, prayers mean less; patiens, pills and drugs less, but peace, friendship, love and a life of usefulness mean more, infinitely more.—Silas Hubbard, M. D.

Money Spent For INSURANCE Is An Investment
—Whether for Life or Fire Insurance, money expended in this wise should never be charged on the debit side of the ledger—for it is, invariably a good business investment.
—For the comparatively small amount insurance costs, no man can afford to be without it. Both property and life should always be kept well insured.
—We have known instances where fire has reduced a man to poverty, and within a very short time afterward he died, leaving his family penniless. Insurance would have averted such a calamity.
—We represent leading strong companies of America. Better drop into our office immediately and talk the matter over with us.

A CLEAN RACE FOR Your Money!
—With plenty of rain and with crops growing fine, we feel like it is now time to dress up, and the only best way is to buy you a good suit of Master Tailored Clothes. They are better, wear longer and cost you from three to ten dollars less per suit than others of similar grades. We have the latest in the new pastel shades.
—Boys' Suits while they last, at $5.00 per suit—nothing better for summer wear, and they are at least 50 per cent below market prices. Better hurry!
—Shoes for both Ladies, Misses, Men and Young Men, good to look at and better to wear and more pleasing to the pocket book. They are Star Brand and are better because of the fact that they are manufactured from solid leather.
—Worth Hats, Caps and Boys' Caps—the latest in design and Workmanship. They, like Star Brand Shoes are the best in their line.
—Groceries—well they almost make you swallow your tongue, every bite tastes for more and when you once get a taste you return for more of the same kind.
—Gold Plume Coffee guaranteed to the bottom of the can, makes you love everybody and you are naturally in a good humor all the time, try a can and just see how much more your neighbors think of you. It is wonderful satisfaction or your money back for the empty can.
—Light Crust Flour that drives away the blues and makes you feel like a millionaire. This is the last word in Flour and satisfied the most fastidious. It pleases the most exacting. There are cause they can not get this kind anywhere else. Try a sack and be from us who do all their other trading elsewhere. Why? Because in the Littlefield trade territory who buy Light Crust Flour convinced. We refund the money and eat the sack if not as represented by us.
—Come around—get in the habit and we will bet a dollar and thirty five cents that you become a regular customer, we will give you a fair start and good clean race for your money, yours for more business.

Whitharral Items

Crops are looking better. The late feed is fine. Cotton is coming out fine since the rains began. Mr. Wolf, east of the state leads in early corn. His corn is taller than a man's head and has ears as large as his arm. We have pinto beans, blackeyed peas, and watermelons galore.

Robert and Graydon Armstrong left Sunday morning for Hollis, Okla., where they will visit relatives for awhile.

C. B. Edgar went to Lubbock Thursday after a load of groceries. Rev. J. B. Watson accepted the call as pastor of the Baptist church here.

Rev. Watson, W. D. Armstrong and Mr. Kenny were elected messengers to the Baptist Association, which meets at Levelland the first week of September. Mrs. W. D. Armstrong, Mrs. J. B. Watson, and Mrs. Edd Langford were elected alternate messengers.

Messrs. Ray, Willie and Jeff Smith left Friday to visit near Mangum, Okla., for awhile.

Messrs. J. L. and Monroe Woodruff are breaking quite a lot of land south and southwest of Whitharral. Mr. Howard of Oklahoma is putting in his farm 2 1/2 miles east of Whitharral, evidently we are to have quite a few new people around Whitharral next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walcott entertained with a nice fruit supper Saturday night. The boys and men brought fruit and the ladies brought cakes. Everybody had a good time.

Mrs. C. B. Edgar, who has been quite sick since Friday, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crownover, Mrs. C. B. Edgar, and Mrs. Pearl Yardly were Levelland visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Newsome and little daughter will leave this week for Grady, Texas, to visit relatives.

Mrs. Edd Langford attended the teachers examinations at Levelland Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. John Rogers entertained quite a crowd of young ladies Sunday at luncheon. Misses Lorraine Viola, Violet and Minnie Joe Vickery, Irene Armstrong and Zada LaRue were among the crowd.

We believe that Mr. Crownover's watermelon patch causes quite a lot of people to stop at Whitharral. (Tell us where it is.—Editor.)

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Robinson of Hollis, Okla., are visiting Mr. Robinson's daughter, Mrs. C. B. Edgar and family of Whitharral.

Baileyboro Buzzings

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cox and children and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. French left Tuesday for Whitney and Rio Vista, Texas, where they will visit relatives and friends until the first of September.

Jay Stone, who has been attending Draughon's Business College in Abilene, for the past several months, spent Monday night with his father, Mr. J. W. Stone, who is teaching school here.

M. G. Bass, of Crosbyton was in this community Tuesday attending to business matters.

A number of folks from this community attended the old Settlers' Reunion at Rogers, New Mexico, Friday and witnessed the baseball game between Rogers and Roswell.

Mrs. J. U. Young spent Friday evening with Mrs. W. B. Wallis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Duncan were Lubbock visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brannen were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wallis.

Several of the Baileyboro folks were present for the Sacred Harp Singing at Sudan Sunday.

Gladys and Cecil Harvey entertained a large number of the young folks in their home, Sunday.

Prayer meeting was held in the Baptist church here Sunday night and will be continued every Sunday night. G. L. Blackshear and G. W. Hale went over into New Mexico Monday for a load of late peaches.

BULA BREVITIES

R. H. Mitchell and family moved to Amherst, where they will put in a cafe.

Chas. Thompson was in Bula Monday with a car load of prospectors.

Rev. Oakes is holding a revival meeting at Circleback which will continue until the coming Sunday night.

Among the people of Bula who attended church at Circleback Sunday night were: Misses Kate Nel, Irma Mitchell, Winnie Thorn, Mary Lee and Bula Maude Oakes, Irene and Ruby Brown, Messrs. Earnest Lacker, Henley Oakes, Lowell Watson, Rufus Brown and Guy Mitchell.

The crops in the surrounding country are looking splendid after the fine rain that fell last week.

Mr. Nordyke, of O'Donnell, who is visiting his son, A. J. Nordyke and family, has been very sick the past week. The doctor of Littlefield reports that he is recovering, but slowly.

Mr. Walder and family of Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Lynch of Amherst were in Bula Thursday looking for a location. 260 acres were sold to Mr. Walden and they will make their future home here.

TREAT WINTER WHEAT SEED TO PREVENT LOSS FROM SMUT

As the season for planting wheat is drawing near it is well worth while for the farmer who is contemplating the sowing of a crop this fall to consider the treatment of his seed for the prevention of smut.

For the benefit of our readers we give the following article taken from the Farm and Ranch. Read it over carefully and remember it; or, better still, clip out and save for future reference. The article follows:

This year plan to use the dry or dust method of testing your winter wheat seed. It is cheap, very easy to use and very effective.

The material used to treat the seed is powdered copper carbonate. It is a light green powder and very fine and contains about fifty per cent copper. It is so fine that in mixing with the seed it sticks to the seed even though no moisture is present. In fact, it is quite insoluble in water and does not draw moisture from the air and cause damage to seed after treatment.

In treating seed with the copper carbonate two or three ounces are used for each bushel of seed. This is mixed dry for several minutes in any tight mixing device. Seed can then be sacked up and saved until needed to plant. This will save time, as all seed needed can be treated at once and in a very short time.

At planting time the dry treated seed is best as there is no swelling of seed to allow for, seed can be planted in dry soil, and also the efficiency of the treatment in keeping down smut is better than other treatments. Plan now for a supply of copper carbonate to use and also make or secure the use of some mixing device. For further information get in touch with your county agent or Extension Service A. & M. College, College Station, Texas.

LITTLEFIELD ALL SET FOR SERIES IN TOURNAMENT

Littlefield baseball team played a series of games last week with teams from Post and Olney, winning two of them, the scores being as follows: Wednesday, with Post, the score being 3-2 in favor of the visiting team; Thursday with Post, the score being 1-0 favorable to Post; Friday with Olney, the score being 2-3 in favor of Littlefield; a Saturday with Olney, the score being 3-4 for Littlefield; Sunday with Post again, the score being 4-1 in favor of the visiting team. The Saturday game was of 10 innings.

It is noticeable that Olney, who had defeated Lubbock, Shamrock and Amarillo, lost both games here. All the games of the past week were real demonstrations of baseball. Thompson pitched the Wednesday game, allowing only two hits; Eoff pitched the entire 10 innings of the Friday game; Price pitched five and Mueller five of the Thursday game, Price allowing five hits and Mueller one; Mueller beat Olney in the Saturday game, allowing but four hits. Sunday Thompson pitched four innings and Mueller five; but it was a case of two much pitcher on the part of Post which won for them the game.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the big tournament with Tahoka will be staged in connection with the rodeo put on by the local fire department. Burleson and Hudspeth from Lamesa have been added to the local squad, also Williams, from Post, and it is the intention of the Littlefield lads to give Tahoka the game of their life.

This tournament and rodeo bids fair to be of wide interest. It has been well advertised in all the surrounding towns and doubtless big crowds will attend from miles around. One feature of the tournament will be the "indoor ball game" played out of doors at night.

School Children Dimes Build A Memorial to Wm. J. Bryan

God-Daughter of Great Commoner Organizes National Committee. $1,000 Prize Already Offered for Best Design. Favor Florida Site To Avoid All Controversy.

A nation wide movement for the erection of extraordinary memorial to William Jennings Bryan, at Clewiston, Florida, has been announced by Miss Dionessa Bryan Evans, god-daughter of the late Commoner. Miss Evans, whose home it at 3636 Grafield Avenue, Minneapolis, arrived at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, to establish a permanent organization for the project.

There is to be a committee composed of conspicuous leaders of thought, industry and finance from all sections of the country. This incorporated committee will have general charge of the enterprise.

There is to be a contest for the most appropriate design for the memorial, and already Miss Evans has secured a donation of $1,000 from D. G. Dahlberg of Chicago, to be awarded for this purpose. The funds for the erection of the monument are to be supplied by the children of the public and Sunday schools of the country in dime contributions. Charles F. Daly, President of the Liberty National Bank in New York, has promised the services of that institution as custodian of these funds.

Miss Evans proposes that the memorial be built in Clewiston, Florida, on the southwest shore of Lake Okechobee. Miss Evans explains that she selected Clewiston as the place for the monument of her late god-father, first, because it is in the Commoner's adopted state and second, because it is a beauty spot he favored.

"The proposal has met with such enthusiastic approval as almost to sweep me off my feet," Miss Evans said. "It is true that when I proposed Washington, D. C., as the place for the memorial, I found a number of objections. Critics suggested that any effort to secure a site at the national capital would produce a suggestion of political significance. The monument is so great and broad in its conception and in its meaning, that I thought it would be folly to assume any hazards of political controversy. Moreover, the fear of partisan objection brought forth the additional fear of sectarian discussion.

"It was logical, therefore, to remove the undertaking from all political, partisan, sectarian or other criticism. No one could possibly object to the selection of Florida, the state of the great Commoner's adoption, as the site for the first memorial to be erected to his memory; and thus Florida was chosen.

"My vision of this memorial is clear of any thought of sect, or school, or party," Miss Evans said. "It is an expression of his love of that faith in others."

Briefly, besides the general committee which will handle the establishment of the Memorial, there will be a committee which will award the prize of a thousand dollars to the artist submitting the design which best incorporates the idea of Bryan and Faith.

There will be a separate contest and prize for the finest epitaph expressing that splendid faith by which Bryan lived, and there will be committees to promote the contribution of dimes by school children.

The announcement of the personnel of these committees will be made as soon as Miss Evans has applied for the incorporation of the general committee in New York.

The invitation for designs for the memorial will include the title "Bryan—and Faith." Miss Evans' vision of the granite structure includes a heroic effigy of Bryan, bible in hand, surrounded by a group of school children.

In continuance Miss Evans said: "It is my uppermost desire in this undertaking to exclude all controversy. A memorial linked to the story of a fight must always be associated with the memory of a controversial subject."

"A monument to him as a tribute to his supreme faith in religion and to his crusade for the inculcation of that faith in school children can never take on any different meaning. Moreover, there can never be any dispute about religious faith as a spiritual element commanding the veneration.

"There can never be any dispute about the supremacy above all other elements in the soul of William Jennings Bryan of his faith in religion.

"William Jennings Bryan—faith—school children—that is the ship-boloth for our memorial. We want no complications with isms of any kind, with any sect or party."

Miss Evans is the daughter of D. H. Evans, of Tracy, Minn., an internationally known political economist, who was a life-long friend of Mr. Bryan and a Bryan delegate to every Democratic National Convention, from 1896 to and including 1920. William Jennings Bryan attended the christening of Miss Evans, who has adopted her father's work. She received degrees from the University of Minnesota, Syracuse University and Columbia.

FRUIT CROPS WILL BE SMALLER THAN LAST YEAR

Only fair crops of apples, peaches and pears are now expected in the United States this year, Department of Agriculture crop officials declared today. Frosts in late May reduced prospects in many scattered sections particularly in some of the central States, Virginia, Michigan, and portions of New York.

The condition of apples on July 1 was nearly 10 per cent below the usual average on that date. The northwestern States expect more apples than were picked last year, but for the country as a whole the crop seems likely to be lighter, although much depends on the rainfall during the next few months.

Peach production shows a large increase in California where most of the crop is canned or dried, but practically all other important States the crop is expected to be substantially smaller than last year. Even in Georgia, where many young trees are coming into bearing, the crop is expected to be less than 7,000,000 bushels compared with 8,333,000 bushels last year.

The pear crop also is reported only fair this year, California alone among the important producing States expecting materially larger crop than in the preceding season.

The Indications.

Guest—"Quite some boy you have there, Bill. What do you think he will do when he grows up?"

Bill—"I think he is going to be a lion-tamer. Here Teddy, show the gentleman how you can eat animal cookies."

WHY MISLEAD THEM?

When our present tariff system was framed, between forty and fifty of the principal agricultural organizations of the country were represented at the hearings before the ways and means committee. They succeeded in carrying all their points with the result that practically everything the farmer buys for use on his farm was placed on the free list, and everything the farmer raises for sale was put on the protected list.

In spite of all the political talk to the contrary, it is safe to say that the general opinion of the informed farmer is that our present tariff laws are as nearly perfect from the point of view of the farmer as it is possible to make them.

To open the flood gates of Europe and the Orient and abolish the tariff on wheat and other cereals, wool, butter, eggs, cheese, citrus fruits, sugar and a hundred other things that the farmer raises which are now protected, would be a calamity for the farmer just as he is beginning to get on his feet.

A blow at the tariff protection to American industry is a blow at the factory worker, which in turn is a blow at the farmer, because American workmen comprise the biggest market for American farm products.

The sooner the public, the laboring man and the farmer realize these homely facts, the sooner will the iff question be taken out of and considered purely as a business problem, to be changed as varying conditions warrant consideration of rate schools Texas Commercial News.

GINNERS AT LUBBOCK CONVENTION

Members of the Ginner's Association met in Lubbock for an all day convention Wednesday of last week. Parrish, pioneer of the ginner, one of the representative men of Lubbock, made the address at the opening of the convention to which response was given by R. R. Gilliland of Quanah, member of the association, White, of Tyler, and C. B. White, secretary of the State Ginner's Association, made interesting remarks in which many phases of the business were discussed. A table discussion of the ginner in this territory was conducted, as a result of which valuable suggestions were made by practical ginner, and the problems with which the ginner are constantly confronted were given special attention. Counties of which Lubbock is the hub, are included in the convention, and practically every county in those counties was represented. The visitors were given a special luncheon at the hotel which was served at the auditorium. This proved an enjoyable feature of the program. The next meeting place for the association has not been named. However, a hearty welcome to return to Lubbock next August for their meeting was extended the ginner and it is believed that because of this city's central location and ability to take care of the convention it will be held here permanently. Chas. A. Malone of Plainview was elected president of the association, succeeding Rufus Hardberger of Lubbock. Lon M. Davis of Floydada was elected vice president, and Ray Grisham of Lubbock was re-elected secretary.—Lubbock Avalanche.

AUXILIARY MEETING
Ladies Meet For Sewing and Visiting Next Week.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, met with Mrs. A. P. Duggan Tuesday afternoon, it was a social meeting and 17 members were present.

Tuesday of next week, at 10 o'clock they will again meet with Mrs. A. P. Duggan for an all day meeting. Each member is asked to bring something for lunch, and also something to sew on, for the bazaar which the Presbyterian ladies are to have about Christmas time. After 3 o'clock, the ladies will have a visiting hour and visit the sick and new comers about the town.

ARE YOU THE ONE WHO "JUST BELONGS" OR WILL YOU BE OF REAL SERVICE?

The men who "just belong" sit back And think how much they aid, To keep the Chamber on the track Because their dues are paid. Well, that's virtue, I admit— A mighty virtue, too— Put if they want to make a hit, There's something else to do.

To pay your part is first of all, But not the first and last; A dozen other duties call When that is done and past. To pay your money cheerfully Is not of man the test. A man may pay and still may be Delinquent in the rest.

Don't be a man who "just belongs," Who just gets on and rides, Who joins the fellows in their songs And nothing else besides. For men MUST WORK as well as play, Must give of service, too, You'll have to help whenever you may— SUCCESS IS UP TO YOU!

A RESOLVE WORTH MAKING
There are some fine resolves, ones that are worth making, as, for instance, the one below:
"I will not allow," says Rev. Roy L. Smith, "bitterness to rob me of my faith in men; suspicion to steal away my friends; envy to spoil my enjoyment of what I can afford; gossip to tempt me into mud slinging; any mob to do my thinking for me; criticism to frighten me from the performance of duty; intolerance to blind me to the fact that other men are also sincere."—Terrell Daily Tribune.

Messrs. Charles Madden and Q. Quickle, of Lawton are here this week looking after farm interests. They are accompanied by Joe Reed and Dewey Quickle, of Lawton, who are prospecting for locations. They are both well pleased with this section.

J. R. Coon, of Loraine was here this week on a prospecting tour, and renewed his subscription to the Leader while in town. He spoke in high terms of praise regarding crop conditions and the development of this section.

V. P. Harrel and family, and Miss May Harrel, of Gonzales, are this week the guests of Mr. Harrel's sister, Mrs. Arthur P. Duggan and family. They will go from here to Orswell, New Mexico. Mr. Harrel was one of the early settlers of his country; but had not been here for twenty years. He said the change that had come over the country was hardly believable.

F. E. Barnes, of Sipe Springs, is here this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. W. Teeters, and family. He has been reading the Leader for the past year, and was very much inclined to believe the wonderful stories of development contained in it were about three fourths fable, and might well be classed with some of the Arabian Night or Sinbad the Sailor stories, so he dropped around to apologize to the editor for his incredulity, and exclaimed in the language of the ancient Queen of Sheba, "Behold the half has not been told me."

Found A Cow's Nest
