L. H. Hauter Of FSA To Go To Nation's Capitol April 1

L. H. Hauter, regional director of the Farm Security Administration, will go to Washington April 1 on an assignment to serve as a member of the Administrator's staff, according to word received here by T. Euel Liner, county FSA supervisor.

Mr. Liner learned that Wilson Cowen, former member of the regional FSA staff, with headquarters at Amarillo, Texas, will return from Washington on an assignment as acting regional director.

In Washington Mr. Hauter will devote special attention to the land use phases of the Farm Security Administration's program. In the invitation for Mr. Hauter to join his staff, Administrator Dr. Will W. Alexander said: "Because of your long experience in this field and because of the competent leadership you have demonstrated in the handling of the Farm Security Administration's program in a seriously affected area it is felt your services in this position would be of national significance."

Mr. Hauter has been director of region 12 since it was created in January, 1936. He was formerly in charge of land utilization projects in six Western states with headquarters at Berkeley, California. Between 1918 and 1934 he was a member of the staff of the New Mexico State College at Las Cruces, serving as head of the Department of Agricultural Economics and assistant director of extension.

Under Mr. Hauter's guidance, Mr. Liner said, this region is among the top ranking regions in the United States. Although confronted with drought, dust and land use problems, the loan and collection record of this agency is among the best in the country, according to Washington reports. The Farm Ten-

Collections Of Funds For Farm Security Increase

Collections of funds advanced to low-income farm families in region 12 of the Farm Security Administration for the first seven months of the current fiscal year exceeded collections for the last fiscal year by $92,551.79, according to T. Euel Liner, county FSA supervisor.

Between July 1, 1939 and February 29, 1940, FSA collections totaled $2,283,781.55. This was an increase over a similar period last year of $1,186,792.89. Between July 1, 1939, and February 29, 1940, FSA collections for Lamb county alone totaled $45,966. This was an increase over a similar period last year of $26,099.

Mr. Liner attributes the increased collections largely to the planned economy program of the Farm Security Administration for all farmers who borrow from this federal agency.

"This agency," said Mr. Liner, "is helping low-income farm families become self-supporting by giving them a little financial aid and guidance in sound farming practices."

"Farm families who borrow from FSA," he continued, "are assisted in planning their farm and home operations, keeping accurate records, and getting the best possible use out of the money they borrow."

Mr. Liner said diversification, a live-at-home program, conservation practices and following approved methods of seeding, feeding and production are some of the basic factors in the success of the thousands who are becoming rehabilitated.

Although the repayment record established by thousands of farmers in Texas, New Mexico, Kansas and Colorado is an important yard stick in measuring progress of rehabilitation, it is not the only index of progress according to FSA officials. The increased net worth of these rural people, higher living standards and better health are of equal importance in the records for the past seven months.

Marguerite Brannen Initiated Into Ko Shari Club At Tech

Miss Marguerite Brannen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brannen, was initiated into the Ko Shari club of Texas Technological college Lubbock, at an annual meeting held in Santa Fe, New Mexico, last week end.

Fifty members and pledges of the Ko Shari club made the trip to Santa Fe in two chartered buses. Miss Dorothy Rylander, sponsor, accompanied the girls.

Friday the group visited El Rito de los Frijoles, the canyon home of ancient Indian cliff dwellers, which is about 25 miles from the capital city. It is now a national park, made famous through archaeological excavations and restorations. It is the setting of Adolf Bandelier's book, "Delightmakers." Supper was served in an Inn at the camp.

Saturday's itinerary included the historic Governor's Palace, the Art Museum, the Laboratory of Anthropology, a drive out Artist Row, shopping excursions and a visit to the Indian school. Homes of famous writers and artists also were visited. Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock a tea was held in the patio of the hotel and Saturday night a formal dinner-dance was attended in the New Mexican room of La Fonda.

High mass in the historic St. Francis Cathedral was attended Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. After the services an Easter breakfast was served at La Fonda hotel, headquarters.

The formal initiation of the pledges was started at the Arrowhead camp at the Glorieta Pass, and final rites were atop the mountains in an ancient kiva, which is under excavation by Dr. W. C. Holden, dean of historical and anthropological research at the college.

The group returned to Lubbock late Monday.

FASHION for today BY PATRICIA DOW

With all the detailing on the bodice, so that it's particularly good for bridge parties and luncheons, this charming dress (8656) is subtly designed to make you look much slimmer as well as very elegant.

The narrow yoke effect ends in a soft bow, and the stitched detailing gives correct fit over the bust. You'll like the way the front of the skirt is cut high in order to flatten your diaphragm, and the smooth, slim effect made possible by the side belts, fastened in the back.

Not too dressy for general wear, yet sufficiently soft for afternoons, this is the most useful type of dress you can make right now—and supremely becoming to those of you who have size to consider.

Make it of flat crepe, thin wool or rayon jersey, in navy, black, dark green or brown. Detailed sew chart comes with your pattern.

Pattern No. 8656 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52.

Pattern 8557—This practical pinafore apron (8557) has been so extraordinarily popular that we repeat it now, in case you missed it when we showed it before. Easy to see why this design has been so successful! It slips on over the head, has a competent bib top so that it protects the bodice as well as the skirt of your dress. And it can't slip off the shoulders, either.

Pattern No. 8557 is designed for sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48.

Senate Passes Huge Farm Aid Bill Friday; Secretary Morgenthau Says Funds Not Available

The United States Senate passed the big $923,000,000 farm appropriation bill—$203,000,000 above the budget estimates—Friday in the face of a warning from Secretary Morgenthau that it should not expect the increase to be paid from the treasury's cash balance.

That balance, Morgenthau wrote Senator Byrd (D-Va.), will be "about as low as it can be permitted to go," at the close of the present fiscal year, without dipping to it for unbudgeted agricultural expenditures.

CHAPTER I

It was the smoothest formal the city ever gave. I mean it really insisted Norma Poole. "I'd like to be it from me to doubt it," murmured Janet.

"Did I tell you about the favor?" inquired Norma eagerly. Janet nodded. "Yes, you told me." She might have added that she had the sorority dance discussed and she was weary of the subject, but Norma meant to be kind and all it was not her fault that the Phillips had not been able to away to an exclusive finishing school along with the other girls in the crowd.

"Want to dance, Norma?" asked Allen. "Or are you afraid?" Norma was wearing Ted Hughes' pin, and she adored being asked about it. "Certainly not!" cried, displaying all her dimples. "I and I are terribly broadminded."

plans for her debut party in the fall.

"All alone, Janet?" asked Ted Hughes, dropping down beside her. "Yes," said Janet with a little grimace.

"I was sorry you couldn't come to the June prom," he said. "You're the only girl in the crowd who didn't show up. We missed you."

"I missed being there," Janet carefully made her face expressionless. "Was he?" she asked. She did not glance toward Gordon Key who was dancing with Priscilla Leigh.

Until nine months before it had not mattered that Janet Phillips did not have a car of her own and themselves departed for finishing schools the preceding September. Janet had counted the days until their return for the summer. Yet it was now only the third week in June and she had definitely discovered that she no longer belonged.

It was no one's fault. Nobody again with the notable exception of Priscilla, wanted Janet to feel left out. Her path had diverged too sharply from the others. She was studying interior decorating in the Normal at home. When she finished her course she was going to work, and she seemed no longer to have a lot in common with her friends.

"I'm for another slice of cake," said Ted when the radio paused for cut even once, or you're dropped." "Whatever made you enroll?" protested Priscilla. "It's dumb enough to go to a poky local college when everybody's away and there's nothing else to do."

Janet shrugged her shoulders. "The Normal has no social standing, Priscilla. You probably can't comprehend it, but people go there because they want to learn. It fits you for a paying job," Janet pointed out. "At least when I get my diploma in August I'm promised a place at Tracy's."

There was another awkward pause. "You're going into the store?" faltered Ted in a second feeble effort to retrieve the conversation.

"The store where your mother works?" Priscilla added with disagreeable emphasis.

"Yes," said Janet, her lips tightening.

Gordon Key was his widowed mother's adored and only child. They were impoverished gentlefolk. By the exercise of every economy and subterfuge Dora Key managed, however, to keep up a front.

"I'm afraid your mother thinks I'm committing social suicide," Janet said to Gordon with a laugh that was like a gauntlet flung down between them.

He flushed. "The matter has certain bred-in-the-bone prejudices."

Priscilla laughed. "You sound as if you inherited them."

"I don't believe any woman can buck the world without coarsening herself," he admitted doggedly.

He's quoting his mother, thought Janet.

It was then she became aware of the man standing in the doorway. She did not know how long he had been there, or how much he had overheard. He had a lean, controlled face and eyes which were not easily read. His heavy black eyebrows nearly met above his nose, which was a little hooked as if it had been broken. His skin was swarthy and he was tall and unusually broad across the shoulders, but his waist and hips were narrow. He had a small white scar at the side of his mouth, and was dark enough to be an Italian, but his eyes were Irish blue.

"You asked me to look you up if I came down this way," he said to Priscilla.

"Tony Ryan!" Priscilla gave a little squeal of delight and ran across the room. She took both his hands in hers and drew him over the threshold.

"It's Tony Ryan, everybody!" exclaimed Priscilla as if she expected the news to overcome them.

"What are we supposed to do?" Janet asked Ted. "Fall down and roll over, and kiss his hand?"

Ted did not answer. He and the others were crowding in a body about the great Tony Ryan who at eighteen had been lightweight champion of America, and at twenty-two had realized that the big money in the sporting world is in the promotion end, and who at twenty-seven was said to be ready to retire with something over a half million dollars.

"You said if you ever came off down here, you'd look me up," cried Priscilla deliriously, "but I simply didn't believe you'd come. I mean I couldn't imagine that anything so perfectly gorgeous might happen."

"Why shouldn't I drop into Bay City and look the old town over?" he demanded lazily.

"After all," he went on softly,

"my mother used to take washing for the best families in Bay City. When I delivered clothes at back doors I promised myself I wouldn't be poor, white trash from the wrong side of the branch forever," he said. "Funny, isn't it? As a ragged little tyke in a shanty in Shanty Town I made up my mind that some day I'd walk in at the front door of a house like this and be treated as visiting royalty."

The corners of his wide mouth curled, the mockery in his Irish eyes deepened. As if he were sneering at them, thought Janet.

"Darling," cried Priscilla, giving him a languishing glance, "it's too romantic, from rags to riches practically overnight!"

Tony Ryan grinned. "All in the good old American tradition." Janet turned away abruptly. A great many things she had been taught to believe apparently were not true. She had not known, for instance, how decisive money is in the adult world. For lack of it she was being penalized, but a Tony Ryan could stride roughshod into society because he had the admission price.

"Going so soon, Janet?" asked Priscilla carelessly.

"Yes," said Janet. "I'm using Jim's car and I must pick him up." (Continued On Page 6)

"I don't believe I care to dance."

a well-to-do father and a large house in which to entertain her friends. Nor until recently had it made any social difference because her mother worked in a department store. Before her marriage Anne Phillips had been a Radcliffe. The Radcliffes were one of the town's old aristocratic families. Janet's grandfather had been governor of the state at one time. When it had become necessary at her husband's death for Mrs. Phillips to go out and make a living for her three children, her friends applauded her courage.

Bay City was a conservative southern town of twenty thousand inhabitants. Everyone of any social pretensions lived on the right side of the town branch and went first to the old frame grade school on Lucas Avenue and later to the new brick High at Dawes and State.

As a matter of course Janet grew up right along with the daughters of her mother's old friends. She had not realized a break was inevitable when she and her girl friends graduated from High school.

The boys in the crowd had been going off to colleges and universities for several years, but the group remained intact until the girls station identification. He led the way to the tea table toward which Gordon was moving with Priscilla. Janet's cheeks burned.

"Hullo, Janet," he murmured. "How are you?"

"I was never better," said Janet with her most brilliant smile.

Priscilla laughed unpleasantly. "Excuse it, darling, if I seem to have monopolized your boy friend this afternoon."

"I don't mind," said Janet.

The irritating point was that when she said things like that, nobody believed her. The crowd was convinced that Gordon was breaking Janet's heart.

"Run on and dance with Janet, Gordon," said Priscilla. "Didn't you always say she could dance rings around the rest of us?"

Janet had had a surfeit of that sort of innuendo since her friends came home. Someone was forever pairing her off with Gordon because that was how it used to be. She and Gordon had never been formally engaged, but for several years it had been understood in the crowd that she was exclusively Gordon's girl.

"Sorry," said Janet, and to save her life she could not keep the acid out of her voice, "I don't believe I care to dance just now."

Priscilla gave a trill of malicious laughter. "Don't tell me love's young dream has curdled!"

Gordon looked miserable and guilty and confused. "I didn't realize I was neglecting you, Janet," he stammered.

"It's quite all right," said Janet stiffly. "It may seem incredible, but there are compensations for being neglected."

Priscilla giggled. "That sounds like the well-known sour grapes, darling."

Janet could see herself in the mirror above the gate, a tall, slender, black-haired girl in a crisp blue linen dress with a white leather belt and glass buttons down the front.

"My teeth are on edge," she told Priscilla, "but believe it or not, it has nothing to do with sour grapes."

Priscilla shrugged her shoulders in a cynical manner and Gordon looked more conscience-stricken than ever.

"I guess you'll carry off the swimming cup as usual tomorrow, Janet," he said.

Janet shook her head. "You forget I have classes in the morning."

"But it's the club opening."

"Country clubs may come and go," said Janet lightly, "but summer school is something you don't

NAGGING BACKACHE

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action. Don't Neglect It!

Modern life with its ceaseless hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking, exposure, contagion, which keeps doctors busy, hospitals crowded. The after-effects are disturbing to the kidneys and oftentimes people suffer without knowing that disordered kidney action may cause the trouble.

After colds, fever and similar ills there is an increase of body impurities the kidneys must filter from the blood. If the kidneys are overtaxed and fail to remove excess acid and other harmful waste, there is poisoning of the whole system.

Symptoms of disturbed kidney function may be nagging backache, persistent headache, dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of strength and energy. Other signs of kidney or bladder disturbance sometimes are burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. They have been winning new friends for more than forty years. Be sure to get Doan's, sold at all drug stores.

THE REASON DOAN'S ARE FAMOUS
All over the country grateful people tell others: "Doan's have helped me; I recommend them to you." That is why we say, "Ask your neighbor!"

LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS

Floydada Attorney—

the farm, but have been practicing law in West Texas for the past 25 years, with the exception of the time that I served in the army during the World War. I have enjoyed the usual and average practice of a West Texas country lawyer.

I believe that the people are entitled to know the ideas and position of any man who offers himself for any public office, because a public official is only a public servant and should be guided by the wishes and the desires of those who elect him, and with this idea in view, I wish to state my position on a few of the many vital questions that are issues at this time.

Favors Payment Of Pensions

The pension voted by the people of Texas for the old should be paid to all of those eligible under the law and likewise the blind and cripple children, the insane and tubercular should be adequately cared for. I believe the enormous amount of money necessary to make these payments should be gotten by levying a tax upon crude oil, sulphur and other natural resources. It is my position that the oil and other minerals of this State belong to the People of Texas, and that they should receive the benefits derived therefrom instead of some oil corporation who hoards its money in the vault of Wall Street. I prefer the natural resource tax over the sales tax, as the sales tax is a direct tax on the meat and bread and other necessities of life for the laboring man, the farmer and the common folk and leaves untaxed the large corporations, the money changers and others who are really able to pay.

I believe that the permanent school fund that is apportioned by the State to the scholastics of this State should be based upon the number of scholastics enrolled in school, rather than upon the number of scholastics as enumerated by the census taker. Millions of dollars in taxes paid for school purposes by the citizens of West Texas are used to educate the Negroes and Mexicans of East and South Texas, which is unfair and unjust to the fine boys and girls of West Texas.

I believe the truck road limit should be raised to fourteen thousand pounds, with such regulations and limitations as to the width of tires, road tread, etc., as may be recommended by the State Highway Engineer.

I would favor any legislation that would improve the condition and standings of our public schools and institutions of higher learning for better training the boys and girls for the average vocations of life.

Longer Terms For County Officers

Malcom Watson Takes Miss Reagan's Place As Area Supervisor

Malcom Watson of Dallas, previously with the Department of Public Welfare in Dallas, has been transferred to Lubbock, and will be Area Supervisor of the Department of Public Welfare for the 33rd Area, succeeding Miss Virginia E. Reagan, who has been transferred to Area 4 at Lufkin.

I would favor a law permitting the election of county officials and others for a term of four years, as it would be economical to the tax payer and not require an expensive election every two years and would permit the public servants of the people to give their time and energy in the efficient service of their respective positions.

I believe that the state should be redistricted as provided by our Constitution for the Members of the Legislature, since the population in West Texas has increased, and we are not properly represented according to population.

I believe that the Public Warehouse Law should be amended, so that it will have teeth in it and protect the farmer, wool grower and others who store their commodities. Millions of dollars have been taken from the pockets of the thorny handed farmers and ranchmen by corporations and individuals as unscrupulous warehousemen, who do not comply with the law.

I believe that every working man, whether a ditch digger, farmer or banker is a business man and I would favor any law that would give every industry, both large and small, together with labor a just and fair deal looking forward to the progress and development of all industries of our great state, using every means to economize and reduce the heavy tax burden and institute a plan, pay as you go, for the state government in keeping with the progressive ideas of our state.

In making this request to be elected your public servant, I am not trying to out promise the promiser, because, I realize that there are 126 other members of the House of Representatives that will have to be consulted, but I do have the interest of the people of West Texas and our great state at heart and will do anything that I believe will be for the best interest of the majority.

I am taking the race for the Legislature upon my own initiative without the advice or assistance of any class or interest. I have not asked for campaign donations from any firm, corporation or individual and I will not accept the same because a public servant should not be obligated to anyone.

I believe that a plain and simple Democracy still lives and breathe the essence of a free government in Texas. In appreciation of your sufferage, I shall give you my time, thought and energy for a fair and economical deal in Texas Democracy in keeping with what I believe to be the best interest of the majority of the people.

Yours sincerely,
L. G. Mathews

To Lay Hardwood Floors
There will be hardwood floors throughout the store, Mr. Ware said, and the walls will be re-decorated and indirect lighting and a larger cooling system will be installed.

"The making of these improvements will not interfere with the shopping by our customers," Mr. Ware added.

"The arrangement of the ready-to-wear department, piece goods, men's furnishings and juvenile departments will enable the clerks to serve our customers with much more ease and accuracy than in the past," he said.

Mr. Ware is beginning his 11th year as a merchant in Littlefield.

Darryl F. Zanuck Brings Steinbeck's 'The Grapes Of Wrath' To Palace Theatre

Long before literary critic had panned out "Bravos" in appreciation of John Steinbeck's masterpiece, "The Grapes of Wrath," Darryl F. Zanuck had completed his plans for the production of this most discussed novel in modern literature.

Zanuck, production chief of the Century-Fox studios, paid $100,000 for the movie rights to Steinbeck's best-seller. By paying $100,000, the highest ever paid for a novel, Zanuck indicated his unshakable belief that "The Grapes of Wrath" provides the most brilliant and most human moving drama of a generation.

A roar of applause went up from parts of the country when Zanuck's plans were first announced. Thousands of letters poured into the Century-Fox studios. Every writer wanted to see the novel come alive on the screen, as it had lived in the book, vital, human beings—life-battered with a rugged sense of humor. With the part of Tom Joad set on Henry Fonda, Jane Darwell took over the part of that unconquerable woman of the soil, Ma Joad. Lanky John Carradine became Casey, the preacher. Grampa took form in Charley Grapewin, Dorris Bowdon won the role coveted by every young Hollywood actress, that of Rosasharn. Russell Simpson became Pa Joad. O. Z. Whitehead became Al; John Qualen, Muley; Eddie Quillan, Connie; Zeffie Tilbury, Granma; Frank Darien, Uncle John; Frank Sully, Noah; Darryl Hickman, Winfield, and Shirley Mills, Ruthie.

In preparing the players for their parts in "The Grapes of Wrath," which comes to the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, continuing through Sunday and Monday, Director Ford stressed the realism and warm humor of the story. When the cameras began to grind he banned all make-up, insisted that the players wear old clothes such as had been worn by the "Okies" and instructed Cinematographer Gregg Toland to adopt candid camera technique for the first time in the movies.

SPORTS PARADE

By JIMMIE PARKER

We're still looking . . . Paychek says he's to be next champ . . . Lamb County Interscholastic League Meet . . .

The Littlefield Baseball club is still casting their eyes around and pushing their ears out trying to locate a good place to establish a place to make a baseball field. The boys are still anxious to start training as soon as possible and are raring to pull weeds and make a fit place to play some good, hard, fast semi-pro baseball here again this year.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of such a location get in touch with manager Durwood Howell or this reporter as soon as possible. Baseball is the nation's number one sport and please, don't let it lose its place in Littlefield! It not only provides the players with a pleasing recreation, but it also provides a pleasing relaxation for the working people who spend hours each week at their various jobs. So let's all get our heads together and see what we can do about arranging for a place to make a diamond.

Johnny Paychek, of Des Moines, Iowa, is giving himself more than an even chance of defeating the seemingly invincible Joe Louis in the Garden Friday night. We don't like to disappoint people in their pipe-dreams, but . . . Anyway it really will be a swell fight for about a minute and half. After that DARKNESS . . . for another ambitious challenger.

The Lamb County Interscholastic League track and field meet will be held at Seely Field, Friday and Saturday afternoons, March 29 and 30.

From advance information that we have received, Olton high school, will certainly bear watching in this years percentage columns. The Hedges twins, Willis and Willard, do just about everything from skipping rope to what have you, and how they can do it!

The flame-haired streak, Maxie McKnight, of Littlefield is a good bet to cop many a point in anybody's track meet.

More Than 200 Head Livestock Sold At Edwards Auction

Approximately 200 head of livestock was sold Monday at the weekly auction sale at the C. M. Edwards Barn, two and one half miles west of Littlefield, north of the Clovis highway.

Top prices were paid for stock by buyers from all parts of the country.

During the past few weeks, much of the stock bought at these sales have been shipped to points in east Texas and to other states, Mr. Edwards said.

More stock is needed at these sales, Mr. Edwards continued, and he assures those people who bring livestock, the very best prices to be paid anywhere in this section. Large crowds always attend these sales.

J. O. Garlington Stores Celebrate First Anniversary

Celebrating the firm's first anniversary in Lubbock, J. O. Garlington, formerly of this city, and his associates, Jimmy Whiteside and Cloyce Knowles, entertained the employees of Garlington Food Stores in a party at the Cotton Club Tuesday night.

Games and dancing were on the schedule of the evening's entertainment.

Interscholastic League Warm Up Big Hit

Notice was served that records in the different divisions of the Interscholastic League meet are in serious danger. Several performances of the boys in the invitation track met held in Seely Stadium last week were commendable enough to make record holders jittery for the forth coming meet Friday and Saturday at the same field.

Most outstanding feat, and certainly the best from a spectator standpoint, was the 10.1 second "dead heat" turned in by the Hedges twins, Willard and Willis, in the centry. The "touchdown twins," who sparked Olton's Mustangs to the bi-district championship last fall, accounted for a majority of their schools total, sending the Olton colors to the front.

Littlefield, paced by an "iron man" performance by crimson thatched Maxie McKnight, was a very close second, having been edged out, 25 to 24. McKnight scored 18 points of that total with triumphs in the big jump, broad jump and 120-yard high hurdles and a second in the 220-yard dash.

The summary:
120-yard high hurdles—McKnight, Littlefield, first; Jackson, Olton, second. Time, 15.9.

Church Now Has Surprise Choir

The Littlefield Presbyterian
Church now has a surprise choir.
Surprises were worn for the first time at the Easter morning service.
They are of a white material trimmed with black.
Rev. Donald Harris, Pastor, occupied the pulpit at both services.
Special music was enjoyed, including two special Easter Anthems.

AMHERST METHODIST CHURCH
Last Sunday was a red letter day in the history of this church, so one of the oldest members stated.
We baptized five babies and another that was to be here had to be taken to the hospital. There were 11 rededications of youth and adults. Six additions on profession of faith, one of these was a mother of one of the babies baptized. Five received by letter. And we had eight others who were not able to be here to unite with the church.
Three of these were on profession of faith and four by letter.

We did not have the time to preach an Easter sermon with these other factors to deal with but we shall preach on that subject next Sunday morning. We hope that those and the baby that were not able to be present last Sunday may be able to attend next Sunday. There was a new spirit and life in the services Sunday but no high pressure measures were used. It was about 1 p. m. when we closed but not a person complained of a long service.

We feel that if we had the folks and the same environment any Sunday we could have this repeated.
On the night of April 1st the District Superintendent will be with us for the second quarterly conference. Please have reports written and ready.

Do not forget the District conference at Tulia April 9-10. The Women's Annual conference meets at Plainview this week Tuesday,
Wednesday and Thursday.

Sunday night we shall use, "Third of Christ on the Cross" for text.
The pastor was at Littlefield Monday with the Lamb county debating teams, acting as a judge.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD
Rev. G. W. Pitts, Pastor
Good crowds are attending the revival at the Assembly of God Church, and many people are being baptized in a definite way. The song service is enjoyed by all. We are still looking forward to even greater results next week. Evangelist J. B.
Smith is doing some wonderful preaching.
You will find welcome waiting for you each evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Construction Starts On Two Residences, Garage Apartments

The deal was consummated last week whereby H. A. Collins purchased three lots on West Second Street, adjoining the high school property, from Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Spinks, and construction got underway Wednesday in the improvement of this property.

The deal was handled through Griffin and Chesher Land Company. Two frame and stucco residences, and two garage apartments are being constructed on this property.

Mr. Collins has sold his farm near Fieldton, and plans to move here and make his home in Littlefield.

Two houses are just now being completed for Mr. Collins on West First Street, east of the High School. These houses, which will be used as rent houses, are one six and one four room.

Addition To Cassel Home Is Underway

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Cassel are improving their property.

The bedrooms at the rear of the Cassel home is being enlarged, and a kitchen is being added.

Mrs. Cassel reports the frame work is up and partitions in. She says it will be about a month before completed. Joe Wells has the contract for the brick work.

HOME ABOUT COMPLETE

The home being erected for J. H. Lucas in Enochs is about complete. Ed. Drager is in charge of the carpenter work and Tommy Lowe the paperhanging and painting.

For The Medium-Income Budget

One of the most interesting projects confronting the builder and architect today is the designing of sound architecturally attractive homes which the family of moderate income can purchase without too great a strain on the budget. This home goes far toward meeting these requirements. An efficient use has been made of all available space, and a noteworthy living room-dinette arrangement has been evolved to solve the dining-room problem. A mortgage of $4,400 such as the one insured on this property by the Federal Housing Administration, may be paid off over a period of 25 years by monthly payments of approximately $26, exclusive of taxes and hazard insurance.

Building To Be Located At Intersection Highway 51 And Highway 7

Plans and blue prints have been completed for a new $5,000 modern service station for the Magnolia Petroleum company, J. W. Pritchard, local wholesale distributor, reports this week.

Work will probably start on construction as soon as the detour route of highway 51 is surveyed intersecting highway 7, Mr. Pritchard said. The station will be built on the property owned by the Magnolia Petroleum company, at the intersection of highway 51 and highway 7.

Cotton Allotments Probably Remain Same For Section

"There will probably be no definite action taken in adjusting the 1940 cotton allotments for this county," V. F. Jones, Lamb county agent reported, after attending a meeting with the State Cotton Allotment Board at College Station last week. Mr. Jones was accompanied to College Station by W. H. Cunningham and members of the county committee, C. W. Smiley, J. W. Hunter, and H. L. Hinson.

Representatives from 14 counties on the South Plains conferred with the state board on this subject, and the state committee assured the group that they would extend any possible assistance they might give in getting the allotments changed. Mr. Jones stated that there would probably not be a delegation go to Washington with this problem, as was planned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Foust and sons visited Mrs. Foust's mother, Mrs. J. H. Hobbs, at Sweetwater Sunday. Mrs. Foust stayed with her mother, who is critically ill.

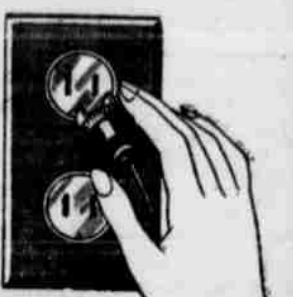

J. C. Elms, who is confined at the Littlefield Hospital and receiving treatment for pneumonia, was reported Wednesday to be improving. His brothers, W. G. Elms and B. M. Elms, both of Eric, Oklahoma, arrived Monday night for a short visit here.

Health And Safety Week

Observance of Texas Health, Clean-up and Safety Week will be marked by scores of community celebrations throughout the state the week of March 31 to April 7, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The Texas State Health Department, the Texas Fire Insurance Commission, and the Texas Department of Public Safety are co-sponsors of the week.

The annual observance of this Health, Clean-up and Safety Week gives each locality an opportunity to take precautions against the spread of disease, disabling sickness, and property loss through fire and accidents on the highways. Success of the week is dependent on the cooperation of each individual citizen who taken collectively make up local observances of the week.

In the interest of better public and personal health, it is suggested that Texans ask themselves:

- 1. Is my family immunized against diphtheria, smallpox, typhoid?
2. Is my home protected against disease-carrying flies by screens in good condition, removal of fly-breeding spots, proper garbage disposal?

3. Is my home free from mosquito-breeding places?

4. Is my water supply bacteriologically safe and pure?

5. Do I have safe sewerage disposal, either through connection to city sewers, use of approved septic tanks, or sanitary toilet?

6. Is my plumbing in good repair and without leakage which may spread disease?

7. Have I checked my home for hazards which contribute to accidents and removed these hazards? Is it safe from fire?

8. Is the area adjacent to my home free from potential harbors of rats, flies, and mosquitoes? Is it free from ragweed and will it be kept that way as an aid to hay fever sufferers? Are standing pools of water drained, filled, or oiled as an aid to mosquito control?

9. Has my family had an annual physical examination by our family physician as a check against potential illness?

The SNOOPER SAYS ...

How's this for a great time saver—Love at first sight?

The biggest reason I prefer winter to summer is that my freckles do not predominate on my face during the cold winter months!

Art takes a toehold on Hollywood—Most of the fads—that sweep America originate among the great and near-great of Hollywood. The young women who emote and cavort on the screen take much of the credit for putting most American girls into slacks, for the vogue of the tinted finger-nail and for the numerous other fashion follies that did not come out of Paris.

Perhaps the newest and trickiest stunt promoted by the cinema crowd is the ornamental toe-nail—not just painted red and blue, but toes emblazoned with a great variety of imaginative pictures of this, that and the other object of one's interest and, or affection.

Perhaps in time the wearers may go so far as to have pictures of their boy friends on their big toe-nails—or will we?

I've always liked everything about the Santa Fe railway system, but the freight train whistles, any hour of the day or night, but from now on, the local depot agent is scratched completely from my list!

Last Wednesday afternoon, March 20, Abe W. Dawood-Bey, recent ambassador to Japan and enroute to take his diplomatic portfolio in Greece, was interviewed in Lubbock in his compartment of the Santa Fe train from Clovis. He had to pass through Littlefield to get to Lubbock from Clovis, and why a Leader reporter didn't know he was on this train, so we could have at least seen him through the window, we can't understand. Yes, this is just a weekly paper, but the way I feel about this is that I've missed the thrill that would have been once in a lifetime! And I'm blaming Clay Pumphrey because I don't know who else to blame right now. I can imagine his replying that he has other things to think about at train time—besides the Lamb County Leader.

The ambassador to Japan from Egypt is being transferred from Tokyo to Athens in an ambassadorial capacity, he told reporters in Lubbock. He was to sail directly from New Orleans for Athens.

He found the South Plains particularly interesting because he had heard of the enormous cotton-growing reputation of the section. And, contrary to what one would expect of a native Egyptian, where the finest cotton of the world is grown, he highly complimented the cotton grown in this territory.

After viewing the many, many hand made articles displayed by the Home Demonstration club women recently at the Cotton exhibit, this thought came to me—using flour and sugar sacks to make dainty articles isn't exactly new, for most of us grew up in them!

Berlin police ordered confiscation recently of all astrological calendars and "yearbooks" for 1940 which presume to forecast events. Authorities held that German present responsibilities are too serious to allow "foolish superstitions" to destroy their tranquility of spirit.

The stars are said to portend disturbing occurrences, certain foreign astrological calendars making especially lurid predictions. How would you feel if you could not consult your astrology books every morning before tackling a day's work?

Other bouquets to the women... The Dallas County Young Democrats recently broke a precedent when they elected a woman president, Miss Marie Cutcheon, an attorney.

State Highway Patrolman John Nunn recently said there are three women Texas rangers, who do real police work in such large cities as Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, and San Antonio. These women, working under cover, help control wayward girls. They find narcotic peddlers and report them. They also work with communications and gather valuable information for highway patrolmen.

In America coffee is the most popular beverage. In Littlefield it is too. In England, Russia, and Japan tea is the most popular beverage.

Coffee was first mentioned by Rhazes, Arabian doctor, in 900 A. D. First it was used as food, then it became a wine, a medicine, a religious brew, a fashionable confection, the "penny university's sonic cup" and finally the great breakfast beverage of stimulating freshness.

Central South American countries grow the finest coffee. It is a big industry down there, employing thousands of persons.

Will Send Roosevelt Delegation To Dem. National Convention

Plans are underway for an organized campaign in Texas to send a Roosevelt-instructed delegation to the Democratic national convention were announced recently by Mayor Tom Miller of Austin.

The mayor said formation of precinct organizations would be started immediately, several radio talks over statewide hookups were contemplated and a mass meeting of Texas Roosevelt supporters probably would be held early next month.

In addition to Chairman Miller, leaders in the Austin third term organization include former Governor James E. Ferguson, Edward Clark, secretary of state under former Governor James V. Allred, O. P. Lockhart, member of the state Democratic executive committee, Everet Looney, assistant attorney general under Allred, T. H. McGregor, former state senator, Harry Acreman, executive secretary of the state federation of labor, Joe Steadham, legislative representative of the railroad labor brotherhoods, and Charles E. Green, newspaper editor.

Miller said members of the group "like and respect" Mr. Garner but feel that 80 per cent of the people of Texas are for re-election of President Roosevelt "and we want to give them a chance to demonstrate that in the precinct, county and state conventions in May."

Some days ago the Texas Democratic executive committee overwhelmingly endorsed Mr. Garner's candidacy for president.

Clark, secretary of the Roosevelt organization here, said Roosevelt Democrats had been willing for Texas to send an uninstructed delegation to Chicago but that since the Garner forces brought about state executive committee endorsement of the vice president's candidacy, "we accept the challenge and will take the question to the voters of Texas."

Ferguson, who said that his wife, former Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, may seek a third term as governor, declared that "John Garner's my friend; but I would not be disloyal to the president, nor will the people of Texas be disloyal to him, so long as a possibility exists that we may draft him to carry on."

Mayor Miller emphasized that the campaign would be statewide in scope and services of any "draft Roosevelt" Democrat anywhere in Texas would be welcomed. All the charter members are Austin residents, he explained, because the organization meeting this week was held there.

Increased yields, according to A. Miller, agronomist of the U. S. A. and M. Extension Service, because of higher germination, has been found that the treatment is most effective in unfavorable seasons.

The chemical also reduces loss from seed-borne diseases, such as sore shin, or damping off, bacterial rot, and angular leaf spot.

Directions for treating seed construction of an inexpensive reel mixing machine can be obtained from county agricultural agent Miller said.

Treatment Will Increase Yield Of Cottonseed

Chemical treatment of cottonseed might bring Texas farmers an extra 320,000 bales of cotton in 1940.

In four year tests conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, treatment increased the yield by an average of 25 per cent at College Station; 12 per cent at Temple; 9 per cent in the Brazos Bottom; and 4 per cent at Lubbock, or an average of 12 1/2 per cent.

This average, if applied to the entire Texas crop, would raise the state yield of 162 pounds per acre (for the past two years) by 20 pounds.

The treatment used by the experiment station was an organic mercury dust, known as 2 per cent cerasan, at the rate of three ounces to the bushel. A new improved ce-

Three Boys Build Steamburner

JAMESBURG, N. J.—Two of the three local boys who built a steam automobile shown with the car here recently. They are Kim Oman (left) and Frank Baumgartner. All the boys are 18 and are proud of the car on which they worked all Winter. The power plant includes two house radiators and pressure is built up to 25 pounds with a wood fire in the hood. The firebox is an oven from a discarded gas stove. A small steam engine develops the power. The transmission came from a truck and the car has four speeds. Local residents were astonished when they first saw the car "scorching" along with a stream of smoke behind.

Former Local Girl Weds In San Angelo Easter Sunday

Miss Ann Marie Harless, former Littlefield girl, but who has been living in San Angelo for the past several years, became the bride of C. E. (Buba) Brown at 9 o'clock Sunday morning in a beautiful ring ceremony, performed by Rev. L. U. Spellman at the First Methodist church, San Angelo.

Given in marriage by her father, Charles L. Harless, the bride wore a costume suit of heavenly blue. The dress, a silk sheer, was designed with a pin tucked bodice and a full skirt. The coat, in the same color, was of sheer wool, fitting at the waist with a flared skirt. Her hat was of a pill-box shape made from the material of the dress, and finished with a blue veil. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Attending her as maid of honor was Miss Rosemary Thompson of Brownwood. She wore a salmon pink jersey dress and a flower hat to harmonize. Her corsage was of shades of pink. Bridesmaid was Miss Nell Logan, who wore a sand-colored crepe frock with a flower hat of blue. Her corsage was of corn flowers.

Bobby Brown served the bridegroom as best man, and Dan Collie of Winters was groomsman. C. L. Harless, Jr., and "Cotton" Wigginton served as ushers.

Easter lilies and palms decorated the altar. As pre-nuptial music Miss Dorothy Meadows sang "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Robert Crowther, who played the wedding marches for the entrance of the bridal party and the recessional.

The couple left immediately for a wedding trip to Carlsbad, N. M., and Alpine. On their return they will be at home at 1102 Austin St., San Angelo.

Both Mrs. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harless, and Mr. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, are graduates of San Angelo High school, and ex-students of John Tarleton college, Stephenville.

Mr. Brown is connected with the San Angelo National Bank, and Miss Harless is to continue her work as secretary to Dr. K. B. Round.

Kirk Family Has Egg Hunt Sunday

Kirk and two sons of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk of Feildton, and Rev. and Mrs. Ellis Todd and daughter of the Janes community, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirk.

Mrs. Cordie Harbour, Mrs. P. S. Harbour and Mrs. Mai Baxter, all of Odessa, returned to their homes Wednesday after spending a couple of days as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Harkey.

The condition of T. I. Kimmell, who is confined in the Payne-Shotwell Hospital as a result of an automobile accident about a month ago, is quite satisfactory, according to Dr. I. T. Shotwell.

Youngest Art Model At Lubbock Studio

Monya Hauk, 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Hauk of Littlefield, is one of the youngest to pose for art classes at the Happy Hour Art Studio, 19th and Lubbock. Starting three weeks ago, Monya has been having three lessons a week, from 9 to 12 in the morning and from 2 to 5 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Wellmaker, the operator of the art studio, speaks in very complimentary terms of the child's cooperation at the studio. She stated that Monya is the youngest child they have ever used; that her conduct and patience are remarkable, and that a child ten years of age was the youngest she had used as a model.

Monya is a very attractive child, with her beautiful blue green eyes and blonde curly hair so strongly contrasted to Mrs. Wellmaker's dark hair. When Mrs. Hauk had occasion to visit the Wellmaker Mirror and Works at Lubbock, that she had the privilege of having her most advanced art student paint the child's portrait. Miss Alfreda Turner is making a picture of Monya, after which Removal of these wastes is not only good housekeeping, but also the spread of diseases, particularly those affecting infants.

Trucks Collect Debris
The City of Littlefield sends trucks each week through the alleys.

Lamb Ranks Third In Cotton Ginnings

Lubbock county takes first place in cotton ginning among counties of this area for the 1939-40 season, but only by a margin of less than 400 bales over Lynn county. Lamb ranked third, with Hockley fourth, and Dawson fifth.

Lubbock ginned 60,456 bales compared with 60,059 bales by Lynn, with Lamb's total for the season at 46,757 bales.

In the state, Lubbock ranked third, Lynn, fifth; Lamb, 14th, Hockley, 20th and Dawson 21st.

Total ginnings were 394,648 bales for last season, compared to 426,472 bales for the preliminary final report for the 1938 crop. Net decrease was 31,844 bales or 7.4 per cent.

Five counties, Castro, Lamb, Lynn, Parmer and Terry, showed increases over the 1938 season. Parmer's ginnings were more than double those of the previous year while Terry county showed the

PROCLAMATION

Texas Health, Cleanup and Safety Week
March 31—April 7

WHEREAS, Spring invariably brings with it an accumulation of winter debris of various kinds and other unsanitary conditions not conducive to the best of health among our citizens and do not add to the credit of the town. There is a growing unsightliness of street, alleys and lawns not tending to impress ourselves nor visitors with the beauty and desirability of the city.

Accumulated waste creates more or less of a dangerous fire hazard that may well be avoided by a little cooperation on the part of patriotic citizens, and the disposal of such accumulation makes us all feel better, improves the general appearance of our city and adds much to the civic righteousness of the citizenry.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HOMER HALL, Mayor of the City of Littlefield, do herewith proclaim March 31 to April 7 as Health, Cleanup and Safety Week, and in keeping with the proclamation issued by W. Lee O'Daniel, Governor of Texas, urge upon all citizens to cooperatively labor in this direction for the improvement of Littlefield.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I here affix my name and seal of office this 27th day of March 1940 A. D.

Census Taking Different From Horse-Buggy Days

Four enumerators will Monday in Littlefield, taking the Sixteenth Decennial census of the United States, following a school of instruction held at the Ritz theatre Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. There will be 16 enumerators in Lamb county.

That Littlefield and Lamb county have made rapid strides in development during the past 20 years is made evident in the fact that 20 years ago Mrs. T. M. Keenan, an aunt of Roy Wade, took the fourteenth Decennial census of the United States in Lamb county without assistance, while 16 will go to work in the county this year.

Applications for the free cotton classing and market news services for organized cotton improvement groups during 1940 may be filed any time after the cotton is planted.

In 1939, 286 Texas cotton groups, made up of 15,544 farmers with 628,557 acres planted to quality varieties, took advantage of the service, according to M. C. Jaynes, specialist in cotton work with the Texas A. and M. Extension Service.

Deadlines for applications are August 1 for Texas counties lying east of the 100th meridian (roughly a line running south from Harde-man to Dimmitt county) and August 15 for counties west of this line. Last year the deadline was September 1.

The earlier deadline was set in order to enable the U. S. Marketing Service, which handles the services set up under the Smith-Doxey Act, to make advance plans for sampling and classification.

Instructions and forms for applications may be obtained by writing to any Texas office of the Agricultural Marketing Service, as follows: Box 1369, Dallas; Box 1140, Austin; or Room 509, U. S. Court House Building, El Paso. Applications, as in the past, will clear through county agricultural agents.

Those who have been appointed to take the census in the farming districts have use of their cars, while Mrs. Keenan traversed the same territory with the use of a horse and buggy. Today good graded roads replace the cow trails she was obliged to follow in many cases.

Ten years ago, Mrs. J. E. Brannen was the only person appointed to take the census in Littlefield, with nine other people appointed to districts in Lamb county.

Deadline Set For Report On Ginnings

The amount of cotton lint produced on the farm for 1939 has been sent in to the Lamb County Agricultural Conservation office and the office there has tabulated practically all of such cotton. Notices have been sent to farmers to send in their total ginnings to check with what the gins have sent in. All of these reports must be in the office at Amherst by April 1st according to C. L. Baker, secretary of Lamb county A. C. A. Such information is very important as the normal yield for such farms will be derived from this information in the future.
