Fires Of Freedom To Burn Brightly Here December 7

"SHIVERS ASK FREEDOM FIRES FOR LEGION"

Governor Allan Shivers has called on all Texans to join with the 777 American Legion Posts in Texas to dramatize Democracy's strength in the lighting of hundreds of "Fires of Freedom" on December 7, proclaimed by him as "Operation Democracy" Day.

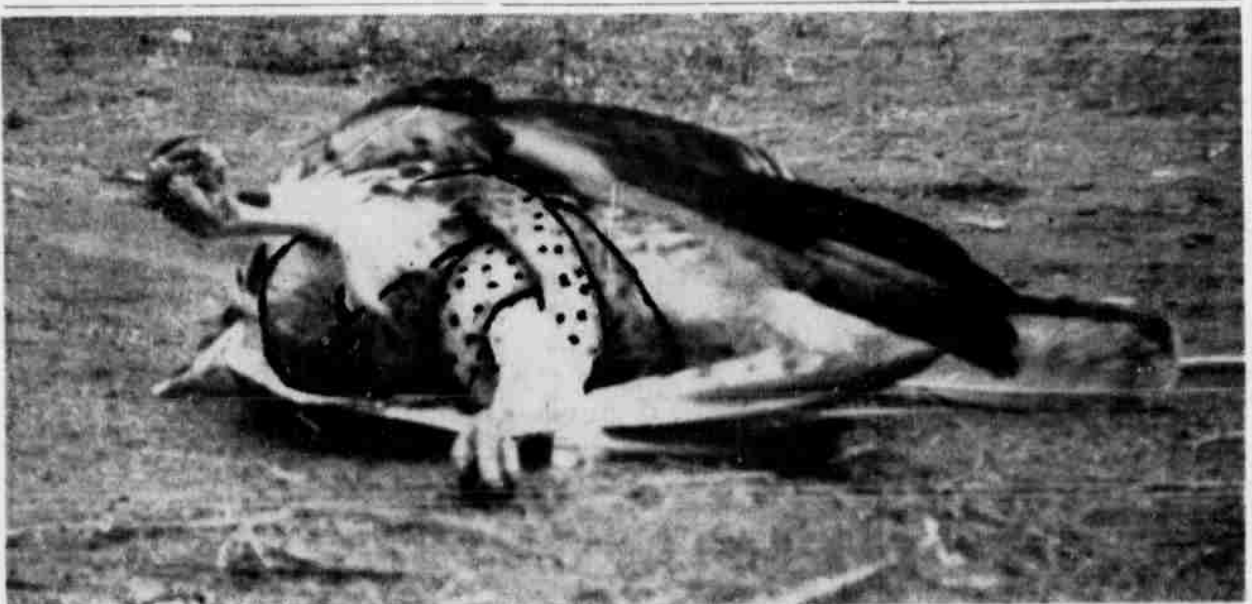

"Fires of Freedom" will blaze December 7 in the American Legion's second annual "Operation Democracy" day proclaimed by Governor Allan Shivers, center above, with the American Legion's state commander Bill Elkins left and State Secretary John Ben Shepperd, the Legion's state Americanism chairman, right.

Governor Shivers will address the state-wide luncheons of business men honoring community and state officials via a broadcast over Station WOAL, San Antonio, at 12:30 p. m., on December 7. The Governor's speech will be wire recorded and relayed for display over four other Texas Quality Network stations in Corpus Christi, Westlaco, Houston and Dallas that night at 10:15 o'clock.

The jovial old fellow arrived in Littlefield shortly before 5 o'clock in his colorful red and white costume and went immediately to the post office to mount the Littlefield fire truck for his parade down Phelps avenue. The truck was used in lieu of his reindeers and sleigh, which Old Santa is saving for his Christmas eve return trip to the Littlefield area.

This dramatic picture of a hawk being crushed slowly to death in the coils of a bull snake was taken by C. R. Cox, widely-known Littlefield sportsman and hunter, while on a visit to the home of his brother near Cheyenne, Okla.

Religion and Public Morals

Meeting in Atlanta, Ga., the other day, managing editors of Associated Press newspapers over the country were asked two questions by the Atlanta Journal.

First, the Journal asked the newsmen if they had noted an increase in religious interest in their home areas during the past year.

Secondly, to those editors answering in the affirmative, it asked if they had noted an accompanying improvement in public morals.

Most of the editors answering the first query said they had noted increased interest in religion during the last 12 months. But, strangely, most of them answered the second question in the negative. They have not noted, they said, any improvement in public morals. In fact some insisted that morals have worsened, even in the face of added interest in religion.

Frankly, we do not know how to account for this contradiction, unless it is due to the fact that the people who need most to interest themselves in religion are not doing so, says the Lubbock Avalanche. Yet we are willing to risk a guess, which is this:

If there has been an increase in religious interest over the past year, there will be an improvement in public morals as a result.

Perhaps the improvement in morals will come more slowly than it should.

Perhaps it will be difficult to recognize.

But some improvement, we'll wager, already has come—and more will come as time goes on—if more and more people are showing more interest in religious matters as most of the nation's top newsmen testify.

It just has to be that way, because religion, properly accepted, always beneficially affects human behavior.

Better Hunting In Sight

Texas sportsmen should have a keener appreciation of the work of the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission by the time quail season closes in mid-January. Not only should they find hunting better this season, but a new plan of conservation, which has just been inaugurated, should pay off still better in the years to come.

As part of the new program, the commission has established game management studies in four widely separated areas of the state, the Amarillo Globe-News reports. The different areas were selected obviously because of the widely varying conditions of climate, food sources, protection, and other elements entering into propagation.

These areas, made possible through taxes on sporting goods and ammunition and from the commission's special fund, have long been needed. Heretofore, all such studies had to be made on privately owned land, not always safe from hunter and animal depredations.

A major objective of the studies will be to determine how maximum numbers of game animals and birds can be worked into land use without reducing the economic returns from the land. Practical methods of game habitat improvement which can be applied to private land will be developed and made available to land-owners, tenants, sportsmen's organizations and others interested.

In the long range view, the commission hopes to work out better conservation practices, and better practices, and better relationships between hunters and land-owners. Such cooperation, along with the increased production of game from the protected areas, will lead to better hunting and to greater mutual benefit.

Blood Bank Kinks

Texas and the nation needs to smooth out a few kinks in its system of collecting and distributing blood into and from blood banks. This advice came today from an expert, Dr. William C. Levin, of Galveston.

Dr. Levin is president-elect of the Texas Association of Blood Banks, meeting in Dallas today.

These kinks would cause chaos in event of a civilian or military disaster, he prophesied. It was only luck that there was enough blood available after the Texas City explosions and fires, he said.

in a speech. Here's his suggested program:

1. More cooperation between collecting and distributing agencies.
2. Standardization of techniques and equipment.
3. Creation of plans for quick transportation of blood.
4. Training more people.
5. Stockpiling equipment.
6. Establishing blood transfusion services in small communities near metropolitan centers.

Palo Duro State Park to Have It's Second Showing of Christmas Lighting

CANYON, Texas — (Special to The Lamb County Leader)—The lights will go on again this year at Palo Duro state park when Christmas Tree Canyon will have its second annual showing. Last year a score or more of live cedar trees were decorated with Christmas lights and several Christmas scenes were prepared. The interior of El Coronado lodge was especially decorated for the Christmas season. The event attracted large crowds and many asked that it be made an annual Christmas attraction.

Business firms or organizations are invited by park officials to have a part in the event again this year. Park employees will aid in setting up any Christmas scene or in lighting any tree that groups care to sponsor. The Christmas decorations which last year extended from the entrance gate to Mesa Mecca below El Coronado lodge may be extended to other areas of the Canyon if cooperative participants desire.

An added attraction this year will be a trio of buffaloes and two real old Texas Longhorn steers which will have their own special Christmas season decorations in the form of a tableau depicting the Christmas of a lone cowboy in the Palo Duro during the late "Seventies."

Window Prizes Offered At Olton

Thirty dollars in prizes will be offered by the Olton chamber of commerce for the top Christmas decorations in businesses in the town, Earl Smith, secretary, has announced.

The chamber voted to sponsor the contest, to commence on Dec. 15 and run through January 1, at their regular meeting last week. First prize will be $15, second $10 and third $5.

An attempt to get Christmas lights up in the town by Dec. 1 is being made by the chamber, Smith said.

In other business at the meeting, the chamber voted to pay Olton boy scouts $10 per month for taking care of city park grounds just east of Olton Memorial hospital.

Louis Schreier, head of the welfare committee, reported that several needy families have been aided recently by the chamber's welfare group.

Royal Family Costs People of Belgium

BRUSSELS — (AP)—Twenty-year-old Prince Baudouin, Belgium's Prince Royal, chief of state, is to get 30 million Belgian francs a year ($600,000) from the nation. Part is to be used for maintenance of estates put at his disposal by the Belgian government, such as the royal palace of Brussels.

King Leopold III to get six million francs ($120,000) while former Prince Regent Charles and Queen Mother Elizabeth both get four million ($80,000). A residential estate is also to be given to Prince Charles. It is called Arfenteu near the famous battlefield of Waterloo about ten miles from Brussels.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Harkey returned Sunday from about a week's trip to South Texas. They visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Harkey at Mason and went hunting. Mr. Harkey reports that they didn't get any game, but that they did get some of Mason's good pecans and sorghum syrup, which made up for the deer. Mr. and Mrs. Newt Harkey and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Harkey spent two nights at Bucannon Lake.

Olton Schools Cease Classes For Transients

Early morning classes for children of transient workers were discontinued this week in the Olton schools.

Beginning Monday no one under 16 years of age could work without violating the child labor statute which made the early classes necessary.

Supt. J. T. Jones said that progress with the cotton harvest and the need to lessen the expense burden on the school was felt to justify discontinuance of the classes.

An average of some 65 students had been attending the early morning sessions daily, Jones said.

Sudan Girls Beat Levelland Team In Gym Opener

The Levelland Girls' Invitational basketball tourney got underway there Thursday with the dedication of the new $165,000 gymnasium. Dr. J. Wm. Davis, chairman of the Tech athletic council made the dedicatory address.

Sudan edged Levelland, 36-31, in an overtime in the top contest. Laquita Williams led the Sudan cagers with 22 points and Hatty Clarkson of Levelland had 18. Half-time score was 15-14, Levelland.

The Three-Way sextet drubbed Abernathy, 23-17, with Wyonna Tyson leading the way with 25 points. Bobby McLane was high for Abernathy with 12. Wanda Arrant paced New Deal to a 23-11 win over Ropesville with 19 points.

Record Cotton Crop In 1951 Seen In County

The biggest cotton crop in the history of the county will be the response of Lamb County farmers to the government's plea for a 16 million bale national crop in 1951.

Dave Eaton, county agricultural agent, said Wednesday probably 300,000 acres of cotton would be planted in the county next year.

The previous high was in 1949, when 290,000 acres were planted in cotton in Lamb county with a yield of 189,000 bales.

This year, under government acreage restrictions, only 97,000 acres were utilized by the farmers for cotton. The yield, for which figures are not yet complete, will be between 60,000 and 65,000 bales, Mr. Eaton said.

Only in three years in the county's history has the cotton acreage exceeded 200,000 acres.

With all acreage controls off for 1951, it was expected that favorable weather next year might result in a production as high as 250,000 bales in the county—an all-time record.

Prices for the 1950 crop still were holding up well at all markets this week. Some cotton was sold in the county for 41 1/2 cents this week and middling grade cotton was holding firm around 40 cents. Approximately 45,000 bales have been ginned in the county to date, Mr. Eaton said, with the harvest about two-thirds complete.

About 90 per cent of the grain now has been harvested, he said. The only acreage remaining unharvested being that badly blown.

Suffers From Wounds on Face and Leg
 Pvt. Sherman L. Jones, son of Mrs. Eunice Jones, escaped from the Communists in Korea by crawling from a Korean prison train on October 21 last, wrote his mother recently that he was now in a hospital in Korea and feeling better, but expected to be sent soon to the Brooks General hospital at San Antonio.
 He also stated that he hoped to go to PX soon and get his mother a scarf, which he would send to her.
 Mrs. Jones also received a letter from her son's commanding officer, in Tokyo, stating that he was admitted to the hospital October 28 with a fragment shell wound on the left side of his face and on the right foot; that he was recovering nicely and to rest assured he would be well taken care of.
 Pvt. Jones was reported missing July 27, and his mother received no further word until after his escape from the Korean train.

INDIANAPOLIS — (AP)—Last season, while wearing the uniform of the New Haven team, goal tender Emile Francis came to Indianapolis and shut out the Capitals on his first visit to Indiana. This season, Francis is doing the netminding for Cincinnati in the American Hockey League and the first time the Mohawks came to town he again notched a shutout. Both scores were 1-0.

School Holidays To Start Dec. 20

The Christmas holidays in the Littlefield schools will start Wednesday, December 20, at 12 o'clock noon, Principal Troy Armes announced Wednesday.

Classes will be resumed at the regular time the morning of Tuesday, January 2, he said.

Included in the Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, students who spent Thanksgiving holidays in Littlefield were: Mary Ruth Fox, Margie Renfro, John Street and Doretta Wilson, who arrived Tuesday, returning to Abilene Sunday.

Choir Here Monday Night — The famed Wayland College International Choir is pictured in costume above. The choir will appear in a concert here Monday night at the First Baptist church, the program starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Directed by Prof. Shelby Collier, the choir is composed of students selected for their music-ship, voice quality, and interest in choral singing. It has given many performances in Texas and has won more invitations than it can fill. In keeping with the Wayland International program the personnel includes students from many states and nations.

A varied program of both religious and secular music is included in the repertoire of the choir and among the talented voices are excellent soloists and well-trained small ensemble groups. Programs include traditional a capella music in formal dress and music of many nations in colorful, national costumes.

Among the vocalist and instrumental artists to be here will be Takushi Nakahiro, a young man of Japanese ancestry from Hawaii; Lynn Whitten, accomplished pianist and organist with wide experience as an accompanist, who was with Collier at the University of Guadalajara, Mexico, and sings tenor in the choir; Velma Umphres, alto, familiar with operatic as well as sacred music; Margaret Wade, lyric soprano, who will present the music of old Mexico and Bill Sweeney, baritone, who offers Russian folk music dressed in authentic Russian garb.

Director Collier received his Bachelor of Music degree from Southern Methodist University and did further study at the College of Music in Cincinnati and the Southwestern Seminary. Collier came to Wayland College after serving at the First Baptist church, Austin, Texas, for five years as Minister of Music and Education and has held similar positions in Paris, Texas, and in New Orleans. During the summer of 1949 he taught and studied at the University of Guadalajara, Mexico.

The repertoire from which the group will make their selections for presentation here will be as follows:

Heavenly Light; Send Out Thy Spirit; Jesus Our Lord, We Ador Thee; Come, Soothing Death; Beautiful Savious; Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring; Madame Jeanette; Fireflies; There Is a Balm in Gilead; Soonah Will Be Done; Oh, What a Beautiful City; Pood Wayfaring Stranger and Of Man River.

Dies, Svet Latviju, (Latvian National Anthem); Berniba; Kad Dzives Vilnos, Svaids; Mazins Bizu Neradzēju, (Latvian Folk Music); No More at Evening, (Russian Folk Music); One Fine Day; Tryggare Kan Inken Vora; La Burrita; Adios Mariquita Linda; La Barca de Oro; Carmen Carmela; La Valentino; Rondalla; En Un Bosque De La China; Estrellita, (Mexican Folk Music); Anu O Waiialeale, (Hawaiian Drum Music); Au 'a Ia; Kaulilua Ike Chants); Habanera (from Carmen); A Chinese Folk Song.

"Avoid letting manure accumulate in lots and sheds during the winter. When spread it should go onto fields where animals will not be pastured."

The foundation added that no one drug is suitable for use against all parasites of sheep. It recommended that sheep raisers get veterinary assistance in planning control measures and in selection of anti-parasitic chemicals.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS

Q—My uncle, a World War II veteran, died in 1947, leaving my aunt a $10,000 GI insurance policy paid in a lump sum. The policy also listed two contingent beneficiaries. My aunt died in 1949, before receiving the special NSLI dividend. To whom will the dividend be paid?

A—The dividend will be paid to your aunt's estate, and not to the contingent beneficiaries. When your uncle died, your aunt was vested with the right to all benefits of the policy, including the dividend—thus precluding the possibility of the dividend going to the contingent beneficiaries.

Q—I was in the Army for only two months, when I was discharged for a service-connected disability. Am I eligible for VA hospital care?

A—Yes. Apply at the nearest VA regional office.

Q—I am an ex-WAVE, in need of hospitalization for a nonservice-connected ailment. There are no beds available for me at the VA hospital near my home, and my physician says I am in no condition to travel long distances to another VA hospital. What can I do?

A—Contact your VA regional office. VA may authorize treatment for women war veterans in a private hospital without regard to service connection, if beds are not available in a VA hospital.

Q—Should a claim for disability compensation ever be filed by a veteran with a dishonorable discharge?

A—A veteran always has the privilege of filing a claim. In this case, to show entitlement, he would have to prove he was insane at the time he committed the act for which he was discharged dishonorably.

Sheep Raising Pointers Given Morning Classes

AUSTIN — (Special)—With the farm-sized sheep flock making a "comeback" in many parts of the nation because of a rising demand for wool, authorities here reminded farmers that sheep require more careful management than most farm animals. If the owners expect to make a profit.

An American Foundation for Animal Health bulletin points out that parasites are one of the most serious obstacles to profitable sheep raising. Correct nutrition also is highly important in maintaining an efficient flock.

The foundation offered farmers these four pointers:

"Have all sheep treated against parasites in the fall and in the spring. Newly purchased animals should be treated before allowing them to mingle with the herd.

"Practice pasture rotation; this helps hold down heavy parasitic infestation.

"Pay special attention to the feeding of ewes during the winter. The ration should include the hunter. The active help of hunting clubs and other groups is being solicited.

Should Cooperate
It is essential that wings from cocks and hens be placed in separate envelopes but any number of wings from birds of the same sex may be placed together. Only one wing from each bird should be saved. Date and county of collection are also necessary. If official envelopes are not at hand, any kind of paper sack will suffice if properly labeled.

One further bit of information is requested. In order to compare quail populations in different parts of the state, a place on the wing envelopes will be shown for recording the number of coveys found per day of hunting. The executive secretary states that this will also add to the picture of the state quail situation.

Students at Texas Tech Are Busy Teaching Others

LUBBOCK — (Special)—Twenty-five agricultural education students from Texas Technological college are doing classroom instruction in 13 public schools for a six-week period.

Tech students are teaching now in the following towns: Levelland, Idalou, Cooper, Brownfield, Bronte, Ballenger, Tullia, Throckmorton, Tahoka, Ralls, Lubbock, Plainview and New Deal.

While the gated spillway section was under construction Army engineers re-routed the Neches river via a diversion channel. The spillway is 336 feet long, contains six control

High School Bandsmen Will Play In Texas Tech Music Clinic Band

The Littlefield high school band will go to Lubbock for the eighth annual Texas Tech band clinic, December 15 and 16, Director Don Hayes said Wednesday.

A number of the Littlefield players selected from the entire band personnel will be included in the clinic band, composed of outstanding players for the bands of this area, Mr. Hayes said.

The Littlefield band also will play as a unit.

Several of the selections were played as a concert Wednesday at a special assembly at 11 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Dan Goldsmith, 3024 Curron Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Coogla Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin. Here is Mr. Goldsmith's statement:

"Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous — and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy in the world, my nerves are steady as ever and I really do get a good night's rest. HADACOL is wonderful — I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL Is So Different
Thousands are benefiting from HADACOL... whose systems lack Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ — to every part of the body.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take — you get your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

Springlake W. M. S. Conducts Mission Study Class

The W. M. S. of First Baptist church of Springlake met in an all day meeting Monday, November 27, to conduct a mission study class under the leadership of Mrs. C. T. Jordan, mission study chairman. The meeting opened by singing the WMU song, "Jesus Calls Us." Mrs. Ernest Baker read the Second Chapter of Psalms, then Mrs. Jordan discussed the book, "A Century In Nigeria" in a very interesting way using posters, maps and pictures which added to the story in a becoming way. She was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. Leslie Watson and Mrs. Ernest Baker, each discussing a chapter on the life of a missionary. Lunch was served at noon.

Canadian Hero Honored In Stone

TORONTO — (AP) — Undisturbed by the roar of today's automobiles four great figures of Canadian history stare stonily down on the bustling north-south traffic artery of Queen's Park crescent.

Nine-foot stone sculptures of Champlain, Wolfe, Simcoe and Brock stand perched on the limestone walls of the new University of Toronto archives building. Inside, history books record their part in the moulding of Canada.

The figures, one of the biggest single sculpture commissions ever undertaken in Canada, are the work of Josephine Jones of suburban York Mills. They took 11 months to create, not counting long months of research to provide authentic likenesses and dress.

Samuel de Champlain founded Quebec, James Wolfe conquered Quebec for the English, John Graves Simcoe was governor of the young colony and Gen. Isaac Brock, was a hero of the war of 1812.

 and Dyer shredding the Lion line and skirting the ends to roll up a 52 to 0 score before Hobgood finally broke the jinx that had settled itself on the New Deal team from almost the very first play.
 The victory gave the Bobcats the bi-district title and the chance to meet the winners of the Meadows-Slaton contest Friday night in their pursuit of state B honors.
 The series of costly fumbles that plagued the New Deal team the entire afternoon started early after the opening kickoff. Dimmitt punted and New Deal fumbled on their own 10-yard line. The Lions held and took over on downs. Gene Easley then returned a New Deal punt 35 yards to the Lion 10, but there again the drive bogged down and New Deal took over.
Lion Breaks All Bad
 The Lions' string of bad breaks was only starting, however, for on the fourth down Worley's punt was blocked and Dimmitt recovered on the Lion 1-yard line, from which point Dyer plunged over and then ran for the extra point to give Dimmitt a 7 to 0 lead.
 Two more fumbles in the same period and 35-yard runs by Hogges and Easley brought two more touchdowns for Dimmitt before the quarter ended with the score 20 to 0.
 A Lion fumble in the second period on the New Deal 22 resulted in a fourth Dimmitt touchdown when Easley skirted end to the 2-yard line and then crashed center to score, making the count 26-0 at the half.

 Another fumble and then a pass interception and a pass interference ruling gave the Bobcats two more touchdowns in the third period, which ended 33 to 0.
Wild Scoring Final Frame
 In a wild scoring final frame the Bobcats rolled over three touchdowns, one resulting from a Lion fumble which Easley seized in the air and ambled across the goal.
 In all, the Lions lost the ball seven times on fumbles deep in their own territory and each bobble resulted in rolling up the Dimmitt score.
 In first downs the victors had a 12 to 3 edge and gained 223 yards rushing against a net of 132 for New Deal, 80 of which was accounted for in Hobgood's long run.
 New Deal had three of its seven attempted passes intercepted and completed none. Dimmitt completed two of seven for a total of 18 yards.
 At the end of the game trophies for district and bi-district championships were presented the captains of the two teams. The Dimmitt band and the New Deal pep squad entertained the crowd between halves.

Santa Claus

Santa Pleased By Turnout
 "Ho, ho, ho!" he chortled. "It's fine to see so many little boys and girls. You tell them all to be good boys and girls and that I'll see them all Christmas eve, even though they won't get to see me."
 Santa said he'd try to get back to Littlefield again before Christmas and let the boys and girls tell him what they wanted for gifts.
 But just in case he shouldn't get back, he said for the children to look in the Littlefield stores and tell their mothers or fathers what they liked best.
 The parents, he said, would get word to him.
 Or, better yet, he said, they could write to him in care of the Lamb County Leader and have their letters published where he would be sure to see them.

CHRISTMAS STREET LIGHTS TURNED ON IN LITTLEFIELD

Decorative strings of vari-colored lights strung across the downtown streets of Littlefield were turned on Friday night to give the city a cheery Christmas atmosphere.
 The strings of lights were suspended across Phelps avenue and on Third, Fourth and Fifth streets off Phelps, between similar strings of silvered garlands.
 The whole created an effect delightful to the eye and conveying a feeling the few short weeks between now and Christmas left very little time, indeed, until the holidays.

American Legion— Salvation Army—can Legion Posts in Texas have a common target—complacency and "let George do it" attitude.

Commander Crowley of the local Legion Post of the American Legion announced today that Russell E. Tidd will be general chairman of the American Legion committees for "Operation Democracy," Thursday, December 7.

Overall chairman of the second annual movement to make Democracy live in every town and village in Texas is John Ben Shepperd of Gladewater, Commander Crowley said. Appointed by Department Commander Bill Elkins of Killeen as chairman of the American Legion's state Americanism committee, Secretary of State Shepperd is a past national president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Becoming alarmed on a trip to Europe in 1949 over the spread of communism and the belief that Democracy was decaying through lack of interest in our institutions, Shepperd conceived the idea of letting his fellow citizens of Gladewater demonstrate to the world that aggressive action in a Democracy beats communism. Gladewater justified his faith by going all out during a week-long program that later became famous as the "Gladewater Plan." The essence of that successful plan was concentrated in a one-day statewide "Operation Democracy," December 7, 1949 by the American Legion's posts with millions of Texans joining in the celebration.

All citizens and all organizations of Littlefield are invited again to pitch in to make the second anniversary of "Operation Democracy" a golden one, the American Legion Commander said. The program as it did last year calls for all churches, schools and civic organizations to take part in a series of programs designed to bring home to every citizen of Littlefield the benefits and responsibilities of Democracy, Commander Crowley said.

Proclamations by Governor Shivers and mayors of Texas cities have been issued urging every community in Texas to show our enemies that Democracy is not just a philosophy but a living faith, he said.

In speaking of the Korea contribution Lt. Hall said many of the Salvation Army installations there had been smashed in the fighting.

"Many Salvation Army buildings have been destroyed in Korea, and a number of our officers have been killed and captured," Lt. Hall said.

"We are dedicating, with other corps, the first day's kettle proceeds to a fund to help the Koreans meet the emergency that has been created by the destruction of war."

"It is more than fitting that a part of our Christmas effort should go to our friends in Korea who stood alongside our United Nations soldiers in their fight to preserve Christian and democratic traditions against the inroads of the Red invaders."

 the 1950-51 season from scratch, without a single regular left in school from last year's squad and only six lettermen present.

Edwards and Gray led the scoring for the Wildcats against the Roughneck five, with 16 and eight points, respectively.

The Littlefield girls defeated the Sundown sextet 25 to 22 and the boys B team won by a 25-17 score to give Littlefield the edge in the three games played Thursday night.

Streety of Littlefield and Oden of Sundown vied for high-point honors in the "B" game. Each tallied six. Carpenter's 10 points, and King's eight sparked the Sundown "A" squad to its victory, but the winners were outdone by Littlefield's Edwards.

In the girls game Owen and Clement were the big guns in Littlefield's win. Owen scored 13 points, and Clement was a close second with 11. Both Seabolt and Vanzandt had 11 points for the losers.

Miss Marilyn Winston, student of Texas State Women's College, Denton, spent Thanksgiving holidays in Littlefield with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Winston.

Where Nation Is Headed To Be Topic of Sermon at Missionary Baptist Church

The public is invited to hear this special message.
