Scurry County Times Editor Reviews Record Of Tigers

Plans to run a special train from Snyder for Friday's game have been cancelled.

By J. C. Smyth
Scurry County Times

SNYDER, Dec. 2.—A75-girl pep squad, a 35-piece band, 25 football Tigers and 100 half-rabid fans are making plans to board a special train Friday morning—bound for Littlefield, where champions of District 5 and 6, Class B, will mix it up for bi-district honors, beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

Snyder has been interested in her Tigers all season, and has supported them at home, under Tiger Stadium's new lights, and abroad, where the inexperienced squad had its toughest going. Now, with visions of 1930, 1931 and 1932, when the local gridsters won district honors and went on twice to cabbage regional laurels, championship fires are burning in prosperity frenzy again. So it is that filling the special train is expected to be completed by mid-week.

While the Tiger record is not so impressive on paper, it probably represents one of the greatest uphill battles waged in Class B football in West Texas this season. Four lettermen were on the squad in the fall, but an old injury tagged one of them, and he has played only a few minutes. Captain Johnny Boman, star end, has been out much of the season, including the last three games, because of injuries, and Tate, the other regular end, as well as one regular back, was also out in the team's worst display of the season—a 20-7 loss to Post.

In its ten games, the eleven has tallied 87 points to opponents' 81, and in conference games the same proportion has prevailed, 47 to 43 points, in a district whose teams were

W. H. Badger, manager of the Yellow House Land company, arrived in Littlefield from Austin Monday morning, where he will remain for the next two weeks attending to business at the local office.

Mr. Badger is always very enthusiastic in regard to prospects on the South Plains, and in an interview Wednesday said:

"This section is in wonderful shape. An indication of this is shown by the large number of 1937 car sales already made. Conditions are especially good here, and I believe will get better everywhere. The large deposits in the bank here and at Levelland is another indication of the good condition of the country. I believe we have bright times ahead of us. The whole South Plains is in pretty good shape; conditions are good, and our people ought to be

WILDCATS WILL BATTLE SNYDER IN GAME HERE

These Outstanding Teams Seeking Honor Of Regional Tilt

By A. B. Sanders
Supt. Littlefield Schools

The Littlefield Wildcats, district champions of district five, will meet Snyder High school Tigers, champions of district six, on Sealy Field Friday afternoon at 2:30 to determine a bi-district champion to bid for the honor of regional competition.

Coach Bill Sanders made a tour down to Roscoe to get the detail on the type of play and the strong points of the opposition. The strong points were a bit numerous and the coach alleges he returned with plenty to work on the rest of this week. It appears that the local boys will have their hands full again this week.

The Snyder team is a bit heavier than the local boys and are credited with one of the strongest offenses that the district has known for some years. The defense is hard and strong. This connected with a constant threat from their passing halfback will serve to keep the boys always on the job.

Three Times Regional Champs
Snyder has won regional championships during the last five years and according to Supt. Wedgeworth, they are headed for another. The Snyder aggregation has come out winner over such towns as Colorado City, Rotan, Spur, Roscoe, and Lamesa was only able to beat them

MACHINERY AND UNEMPLOYMENT

It was only three or four years ago that the whole country was talking about something called "technocracy." That was a new economic philosophy based upon the theory that the causes of all of our unemployment and other troubles was that machines were replacing man power in industry, and that if that tendency kept on it would not be long before there would be no work for anybody to do.

The technocracy idea was an echo of the outcry which has been raised whenever a new invention has been brought out to do work which was formerly done by hand. When the first cotton spinning machinery was invented, the first power looms set up, there was a tremendous outcry about the bread being taken out of the mouths of the working class. That was more than 150 years ago, and it is only necessary to look back into history to realize how foolish the opposition to those early machines was. For, instead of making less work, they made more work. Producing cotton cloth more cheaply and more speedily than it had ever been made by hand, the machine production multiplied the demand and the market for cotton cloth, so that within a few years ten persons were employed on the spinning and weaving machines for every one who had been employed at hand labor in the same industry.

To a generation which knows nothing of industrial history the revival of this outcry against the machines seemed convincing. The evidence of the contrary, however, is right in front of the eyes of anybody who will look for it. The best example is in the automobile industry. More automobiles have been made and sold in the past year than in any one of the previous five years. Very much more of the work of building automobiles is done by machinery than at any time in the past. It is no uncommon thing for an automobile manufacturer to scrap $10,000,000 worth of heavy machinery to replace it with new and more efficient equipment. But has the machine thrown automobile workers out of their jobs? Quite the opposite is true. In one great factory alone, which formerly employed 60,000 workers to produce a million and a half of automobiles in a year, last year 90,000 workers were employed to produce a smaller number of cars. There was no reduction in wages; on the contrary, wages went up. Yet the price of the car came down.

Precisely the same experience has followed the introduction of modern machinery in every line of industry. There are temporary readjustments and shifts of employment, but in the long run the enlarged market created by offering better goods at lower prices results in the employment of more people than could find jobs before the new machines were put in.

The people in Snyder tell us that they are expecting to run a special train to Littlefield and bring a big group of folks from there. The train will carry 200 as a minimum and will be as much above that as required to take care of the needs.

This is the first time in the history of the district that a team from the north half has gone out of the district. Lamesa, Slaton and Brownfield have more or less had a corner on the honor until this year. Ralls and Littlefield have made more bids for the district championship than any other teams in the north half, but this is the first time to gain a championship.

The winner of the game Friday will play the winner of the Midland-McCamey game to be played at the same time, Shorty Hayhurst, who coached a district championship at Brownfield in 1932, is coaching the McCamey team now. He is known as a good coach and coaches a hard hitting team. The winner of this game will still have a considerable hurdle between them and the regional championship.

Tickets are on sale at the drug stores at a 20 per cent reduction if bought by 8 p. m. Thursday. Be sure to get your ticket and see the Wildcats bid for the bi-district championship in football for the first time in the history of the local school.

Mayor L. R. Crockett Outlines Good Work Performed By Army

In order that the public may know something of the workings of the local Salvation Army and some of the benefits we have received through them, I am making the following brief statement.

On account of the usual demands upon our local government during the past economic disturbance, we found it to be rather difficult to take care of even the most strenuous cases of suffering and needy, as we did not have an organization set up for the primary purpose of attending to such work. As it would have been a difficult task to find enough people that could or would give sufficient time to the work and it would have required considerable training with most of us in order to carry on the work in an efficient manner, we thought it best to call on an already trained organization for the work and by working through our local advisory board of business men and women of our town with the advice of Captains Churchhill and Trummel, we have been able to carry on the work through the Salvation Army in, I believe, a very efficient degree of service and economy.

We are now or soon will enter upon a campaign or drive for funds for the next fiscal year, so I am asking that every citizen give the matter serious consideration so that when the committee calls on you that you may have made your decision, as to your share of the responsibility that undoubtedly is ours and perhaps you will have had time to think of any questions that you would care to ask the solicitors, also being mindful of the various other organizations in our town, we realize that one should have time to estimate the total expenditures in order that we may make them fit as nearly as possible into our budget plan.

"Ladies In Love" To Be Featured At Ritz Theatre

With the most exciting and brilliant star combination ever to appear in one picture, "Ladies in Love," new Twentieth Century-Fox production, opens at the Ritz Theatre Saturday midnight, continuing through Sunday and Monday. A bitter-sweet romance of four lonesome, lovely girls, and their adventures in search of love.

A quartette of Hollywood's most famous feminine personalities, Janet Gaynor, Loretta Young, Constance Bennett and Simone Simon, appears in the film, with the cast featuring Don Ameche, Paul Lukas, Tyrone Power, Jr., and Alan Mowbray.

Of the four lovely ladies, one gambles for love and loses, one gambles and wins, one asks for love and gets it, love asks for the fourth—too late.

Janet, Loretta and Constance, modern young ladies all, have pooled their resources and taken a small apartment, where they eagerly plan for the romances they intend to have.

Janet is employed by Don Ameche, a young doctor, to feed his laboratory rabbits. Loretta is in the chorus of a reigning musical hit, and Constance is a model, with dreams of becoming a luxurious lady.

Loretta falls in love with Tyrone Power, Jr., a wealthy young man, and is heart-broken when she hears that he is soon to be married. Janet is in love with her doctor, but when the opportunity comes, incredibly, for a job as valet to Allan Mowbray, a famous magician, she leaves the young physician. Constance is having a mad round of pleasure with Paul Lukas, a mining engineer on vacation from South America. Constance and Lukas have a creed—no good-byes, no tears when it is ended.

STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE HEAD AWARDS LITTLEFIELD THANKSGIVING DAY GAME ON 20-YARD PENETRATIONS

Roy B. Henderson of Austin, head of the Interscholastic League for Texas, awarded Littlefield the Thanksgiving Day game on 20-yard penetrations. The Wildcats crossed Slaton's 20-yard line twice and Slaton crossed Littlefield's 20-yard line once.

Coach Bill Sanders' Littlefield "Wildcats" were held to a scoreless tie by the Slaton "Tigers" on the Seely Field, Thursday evening before the largest crowd ever to attend a football game in Littlefield. A special train from Slaton brought several hundred fans to boost their team. The "Wildcats" were also supported by hundreds of fans.

Between halves the Slaton 60-piece high school band and pep squad formed a huge "L" and "S" standing for "Littlefield" and "Slaton." The Littlefield pep squad formed a large "S" and gave 15 cheers for the Slaton Tigers.

The "Wildcats" were cheered on by the Littlefield high school band, led by Morgan L. field. On the opening kick-off the Tigers were held on their 28 yard line. They punted down the field to the Wildcats safety, Lee, who returned the kick 12 yards. After gaining several yards on power plays the Wildcats decided to take to the air. Neely flipped a spot pass to Moore, who ran with the ball for a 14 yard gain. The Wildcats were well on their way for a touchdown when they fumbled on the 22 yard line and a Tiger covered it in a flash of red and black.

The Tigers tried a reverse play and were carried for a 6 yard loss by Neely, who crashed through their line. When the Wildcats got possession of the ball they tried laterals and passes, but neither were effective. The first period came to a close with the two teams struggling for advantage in neutral territory.

The second period opened with Slaton in possession of the ball. On a tricky fake reverse play, Williams, the Tigers star fullback ran the ball 16 yards. Gaining confidence the Tigers tried a pass but it was blocked by a plunging Wildcat. Slaton kicked over the goal line and the Wildcats took the ball on the 20 yard line. Moore, with excellent interference was able to carry the ball 14 yards on a right end run. The Wildcats punted to Slaton who lost several yards on the first play. They tried one of their famous reverse plays but it met with disaster when J. Walker dived over their line and downed the man with the ball.

When the Wildcats gained possession of the pigskin they tried a which was intercepted by Moss, Slaton Tiger. On Slaton's second play, Wilson and New hurried themselves through the line and were rushing the Slaton fullback who immediately lateraled to Garland who in turn gained 12 yards. The Tigers lost the ball on downs and here the first half ended. Opening the third period, Littlefield kicked to Slaton. Slaton pushed the ball down the field but were finally stopped on their own 38 yard line. They punted to Lee who returned the ball 11 yards and here the Wildcats took to the air. Neely threw a long pass which was received by Moore on the 44 yard line. Again the Wildcats passed but it fell in Slaton's willing hands. The play went on in the center of the field, neither team gaining an advantage.

In the first few minutes of the last quarter the Wildcat coach sent Henson in for Lee. Neely heaved a long pass to Henson, who leaped into the air to get it. On the next play Henson, with good sidestepping ran the ball 14 yards. The Slaton boys were pushed back deep in their own territory when Diamond intercepted a pass. The Tigers punted out of danger. Slaton again took the ball on their 33 yard line, Garland took the ball and ran 36 yards and almost got away with a clear field. However the referee caught the Tigers clipping and called the play back, penalizing them 15 yards.

The last few minutes of play went on with the gridsters sawing in the middle of the field. The Slaton Tigers were the favorites before the game, but when the last whistle blew the fans knew that the Tigers had met their match. The Wildcats made 8 first downs to the Tigers 7. Out of 17 passes the Wildcats completed 5. Slaton completed 2 out of 10. Littlefield made two 20-yard line penetrations and Slaton one. Both teams played excellent football with the linesmen doing good work.

Post Wins In Homecoming Tilt

TAHOKA, Nov. 25. (Special)—Before a large Tahoka High school homecoming day crowd, the Post High school Antelopes defeated Coach Prentice Walker's fighting Tahoka Bulldogs, 12 to 0, here this afternoon.

Post's scores came in the second period. Otherwise, Tahoka outplayed and outfought the heavier Antelopes, registering practically as many first downs and gaining virtually as much yardage. One Tahoka touchdown, result of a 28-yard gain, was called back.

As a feature of the game, Miss Doris Laverne Lawler was crowned football queen of Tahoka High for the season.

More Trade With Canada As Result Recent Agreement

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.—Exports of farm products to Canada during the first nine months of the United States-Canada trade agreement (January-September '36) amounted to $36,000,000 in value compared with $30,000,000 during the corresponding period of 1935, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics reported today.

The increase was mainly in items on which duty reductions were obtained in the Canadian market. Exports of these products to Canada were valued at $13,689,000 compared with $10,033,000 during the corresponding period last year. Increased shipments of fresh, dried, and canned fruits, fresh vegetables, cereal products, prepared meats, lard, nuts, fruit juices, field and garden seeds, and nursery stock were reported.

Exports of farm products on which no duty reductions were obtained amounted in value to $22,385,000 compared with $19,937,000 during the corresponding period last year. United States imports of Canadian farm products during the nine months amounted in value to $66,320,000 compared with $44,137,000 during the corresponding period of 1935.

The value of imports from Canada of farm products on which no duty reductions were granted in the agreement amounted during this period to $52,571,000 compared with $37,407,000 the year before. The increase took place almost entirely during July, August, and September, and is accounted for by increased purchases of Canadian wheat to supplement American supplies reduced by the drought.

As to farm products on which the United States granted duty reductions, the imports from Canada amounted to $13,749,000 compared with $6,730,000 the year before. Outstanding increases under the duty-reduced items were in live cattle weighing 700 pounds or more per head, Cheddar cheese, maple sugar, turnips and rutabagas, seed potatoes, and cereal breakfast foods.

NEWS BRIEFS

An old time fiddlers contest will be held in Anton high school auditorium December 4. Many fiddlers from points in New Mexico and over Texas are expected.

Ed M. Hart reports the sale of the Anton Drug Store to Ted Williams of Dalhart, who took over the management December 1.

Rev. A. V. Bradley of Roaring Springs has been called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Anton. It is not known whether he will accept the call or not. Rev. Bradley has been serving as pastor of the Roaring Springs church for several years, and is considered a very able pastor.

A subscription was taken up last week by Mayor R. C. Rose of Morton to raise funds for a city park. Actual work has gotten underway and trees, grass and flowers with pretty walks and spots to rest will make a beautiful park and a fine addition to the town.

Morton's newest business enterprise, a skating rink, opened for business Saturday, November 21. A good patronage has been enjoyed since the opening.

The building is a large tin structure, 44x100, and has a good floor.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the two room residence and all its contents of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Simpkins, Sunday night, November 22, which is located half way between Enochs and Bula.

Mr. Simpkins also lost $35 in currency, which he had left in the dresser drawer. Both Mr. and Mrs. Simpkins were absent at the time, and no insurance was carried. A cash purse was made up for the unfortunate family.

Morton is becoming headquarters for tractor and farm implement agencies, and as this territory develops agriculturally, this city will maintain large stocks and agencies.

The past week Mr. T. A. Wartes, took over the J. I. Case Implement agency for Morton and Cochran county. He is located in the McCasland building west of the post office.

CHRYSLER LINE FOR 1937 LISTS MANY OUTSTANDING FEATURES

Radical changes in exterior appearance, increased roominess in interior dimensions and the addition of a number of important new engineering advancements feature the Chrysler line for 1937. In introducing this new line, Chrysler announces its entrance into the low-priced field with a car that it expects to increase the volume of its production to double the 1936 figure.

The new low-priced car, which has been named the Royal, is large, handsome and high-powered. The company makes it plain that the Royal is not built to sell at a price but as even finer in performance, beauty, comfort, roadability, safety and economy than its predecessors.

The great demand for Chryslers in 1936 and the anticipation of a much greater demand in 1937, plus increased plant space, new machinery and greater manufacturing efficiency have made it possible to bring a car embodying all of Chrysler's fine features and with a full measure of the high quality that is traditional with the Chrysler name into a price range lower than any previously occupied by a Chrysler six. Interior dimensions have been so generously increased that the Royal has a roominess previously associated with much more expensive cars.

The line comprises four cars, with a total of 20 body styles. They are the Chrysler Royal with 93 horsepower and 199 inches overall length; the Chrysler Imperial, with 110 horsepower and 204 inches overall length; the Chrysler Custom Imperial with 130 horsepower and 223 inches overall length; and the Chrysler Airflow, with 130 horsepower and 213 inches overall length.

The Royal is made in 10 body styles, covering the requirements of every possible prospect. They are: Business coupe, rumble seat coupe, convertible coupe, two-door brougham, two-door touring brougham, four-door sedan, four-door touring sedan, convertible sedan, seven-passenger sedan and limousine.

Six body styles are offered in the Imperial; namely, business coupe, rumble seat coupe, convertible coupe, two-door touring brougham, four-door touring sedan, and convertible sedan. The Custom comes in seven-passenger sedan and sedan-limousine models.

The Airflow is offered in six-passenger sedan and coupe body styles.

Heading the list of 1937 features in the Royal is an amazing new Gold Seal engine, which produces 93 horsepower with 228.1 cubic inches piston displacement. This tremendous power, which gives the car a safety reserve at all normal driving speeds, is delivered with a smoothness, efficiency and economy never before possible in an engine of comparable size.

The high compression ratio of 6.5 to 1, the highest ever attained in an engine of this bore, is one of the principal factors in producing horsepower with economy. Valves have been newly designed and increased in size to give greater volumetric efficiency. In the exhaust valves a new material, Austenitic steel, is used. This is a non-magnetic steel with greater strength and hardness at the high operating temperatures of exhaust valves than the usual valve metal. It resists burning, acidity and corrosion and thus contributes to long wear and efficient operation while reducing the necessity for grinding and replacement. Valve tappets have self-locking screws which do not require locking nuts and are easier to adjust to proper valve clearance. There has been a change in the piston design for greater efficiency. "U"-type pistons are used because they have greater strength than the "T"-type and add measurably to oil economy.

Connecting rod bearings are symmetrical instead of offset, thus distributing the bearing load and making possible smoother performance and longer engine life. Main bearings have been improved by increasing the length of the intermediate bearings. The change in specifications has increased the length of the engine block.

The new engine is lighter in weight than its predecessor. Tests under a variety of driving conditions reveal a gasoline mileage higher than that of the 1936 Chrysler car of comparable size. The Gold Seal engine produces its high efficiency with any ordinary type of gasoline.

Chrysler body engineers have made a notable contribution to the new Royal. The width of the front seat cushion has been increased from 44 to 47 inches, giving ample room for three persons. The width of the rear seat cushion has been increased 2 1-2 inches and now measures 48 1-2 inches. The body measures 3 1-4 inches wider at the cowl than formerly and the windshield is 43 1-4 inches wide, improving vision for greater safety. The shaft tunnel has been eliminated from the rear compartment through the use of the Hypoid rear axle. This has been accomplished without sacrificing the comfort of Chrysler's "chair-height" seats or any of the room in the compartment. The compartment floor is 2 3-8 inches longer and 5 inches wider. The body is 53 inches wide at the center pillars and 54 3-4 inches at the rear pillars. Elbow room in the rear seat is 57 1-2 inches.

settlement Administration for its "farm tenant security project." The Scharff's are being helped to buy a farm in Grayson county with annual installments no greater than they were paying as rent on the same farm. In addition, the farm is to be terraced and fenced, a new house to be built with modern conveniences, surrounded by trees and shrubs. This is made possible by three percent interest and forty years in which to pay. Extension of this plan to a large percent of tenant farmers would be provided under the Bankhead Jones Farm Tenancy Bill, scheduled for action at the coming session of Congress.

sum, Mr. Graber!"

"Costs money to employ the best operatives in town." he returned the stock excuse. "Good day." Smilingly Garber ushered her out. As he closed the door his face changed and he waddled back to his chair glowering. "You got nerve! What do you think that humidor is, a grab bag?"

"Mighty good cigar, Otto. What's her game, anyhow?"

"Game? She ain't got a game. Afraid her husband'll get killed, ain't that plenty? What you gotta do is keep him from gettin' killed and find out who the guy is." He shot Colwell a look. "What makes you think she's got a game? You're hired to trail Mac and that's enough."

"All right. So you're off to hunt for two weeks?"

"Yeah, right now. I better hike. You handle Mrs. McDonald careful. See? I'd have you report to Vael while I'm gone, but what good is that dumb cluck? A swell partner for a man to have!" the detective agency chief complained.

"Swell looker, ain't she?" he asked in sudden appreciation, and nudged Colwell. "Well, I gotta beat it. Ewing, Pennsylvania. See that in the News about me? It said 'sportsman and aviation—uh, bug.' Well, I am a pilot, ain't I? Yeah, that's right—you read it. Well, so long Dan, see you in two weeks. I'll bring you back a ring-tail baboon or something."

"And say," he called after Colwell. "I'm lookin' this humidor, see? Don't you snitch none of my fifty cent smokes while I'm gone!"

Leaving the office, Dan pressed an elevator button and stood waiting. "Swell plan Graber's got," he muttered to himself. He pursed his lips for a whistle that did not come.

"Mrs. McDonald's a sly one! I'll need to watch my P's and Q's. This thing has got to be handled with gloves. But—" He hummed briefly. "There's a chance for big results."

Fifteen minutes later he entered the Waverly bar, a part of the notorious Waverly Club, a night excitement place in an adjoining hall. The bar was a long, ornate room done in the modern manner of silver and black and straight lines. Tables scattered about were for the most part occupied by sporty looking men at lunch. The meal, he noticed passing a menu, was a dollar and a quarter. He was on expenses but there might not be time to consume a whole lunch. Colwell went to the end of the bar and ordered beer.

McDonald was not here yet. Dan knew the fellow by sight, a small man of forty with pince-nez glasses and white, bent hands. He had watched McDonald extract more than one rascal from the toils of the law, waving his bony hands and throwing his timorous, persuasive voice around the courtroom. McDonald was the kind always skating on thin ice, barely evading disbarment proceedings and contempt citations. He might be mixed up in anything—and was.

The foaming beer was set before him. Dan sipped some of it, then turned to a battery of telephone booths. He entered the first, closed the folding door, and made sure he could see the expanse of the barroom before he dropped a nickle in the slot. "Central 6576."

He got a quick connection. "Hello, give me Irita."

He waited a moment. "Irita? Dan. Well, we're started, eh? It's risky business but Graber doesn't seem to suspect. That Mrs. McDonald took him ten yards in one down. But he was surprised to hear Lefty has ideas of a big grab! Anyhow, Otto's off to Pennsylvania hunting, and I don't mean rabbits. He's greedy! Every time he thinks of that boy dust he begins to dream he can bank. Oh! Here comes McDonald—I'm signing off. We'll make 'em walk the plank before we're through. Call you again. Be careful Irita."

He lingered in the phone booth until Arthur McDonald located himself at a table. Dan returned to his beer, saw the lawyer order lunch, so himself ordered it with a hint to the waiter to make haste.

The meal over, McDonald tripped to the cashier in that quick, womanish way of his, paid his check, and chatted with a friend at a nearby table. He surveyed the whole barroom as he dooned his hat and light coat, then departed. Colwell let him get a head start. As he paid his own check he saw through the big glass window two men come along the walk and accost McDonald. Dan stalled inside with a friendly remark to the cashier. McDonald, he noticed, did not appear to relish the compan-

The shorter man wore a loud striped suit and derby. He looked like a pug. The other, taller, was a clean featured man of thirty-five, but he had an expression of cruelty on his face. He was dressed in an ordinary dark suit that emphasized the burl shoulders and thick arms of him. When he turned his back Colwell thought he saw the coat skirt reveal the butt of a gun underneath.

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The attendance was off last Sunday in Sunday school, due to sickness and death in the community, however the attendance at the preaching service was up to normal in both the morning and evening services.

Plans are being made for the teachers and officers of the Sunday school to meet at the church Sunday evening at five o'clock to lunch together and have a fellowship hour looking forward to building a better Sunday school. This service will merge into the B. T. U. starting at 6:30.

Mr. Coley Arender, Mr. and Mrs. Ray and daughter, Phonita, attended the State B. T. U. Convention at Abilene last week.

This week is being observed as a week of prayer for Foreign Missions by the ladies of the church in memory of the life given in China by Miss Lottie Moon. Miss Moon served fifty years in China as the first woman missionary and the Boxer Rebellion in China was during her life time. This disturbance caused many of the native Chinese Christians to be put to death or starve and Miss Moon loved her adopted people so well that she starved herself to death that she might stay and suffer with them. How she magnified the spirit of her Master. Southern Baptists take a Foreign Mission offering every year at Christmas time which supports 125 foreign missionaries and is observed and called the Lottie Moon Foreign Mission offering in memory of her sacrificial life in China.

The pastor appreciates the interest shown by the membership in the discussion of Modern Evil. Next Sunday evening the "Curse of Crime" will be the theme of the evening hour and God's Word will be the authority for the message. The subject for the morning hour will be, "The Kingdom of God" and the public in general is invited if you are not attending services elsewhere. Men will do well to take time to worship since they are all going to take time to die and stand face to face with God.—Willis J. Ray, pastor.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Monday night the first of a series of lectures on the fundamental doctrines of the Christian religion was delivered by the pastor. He treated the subject of the Bible, showing that it is the word of God written by inspiration of the Holy Ghost by the holy writers to make us wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. We were pleased to see the number who attended. The next lecture will be given tonight at 8 o'clock in the school room. Any and all visitors are heartily welcome. There are no obligations incurred by attending. We simply desire to explain the doctrines as we believe them.

The choir met Tuesday night, we are glad to note that at least six new members have joined the choir. It is hoped that the choir may be able to regularly study pieces to beautify the services throughout the year and not only on festival occasions.

Last Sunday we had a fine attendance in both services. On Sunday night the pastor will speak on Is. 61, 4-8. "What Christ's Message Does to Those Who Receive It." Come and receive your blessing. In Bible class at 7:30 the subject of "Life Everlasting" will be considered. What happens to the soul of man when he dies.

Last Thursday night a social evening was held at the church. Approximately seventy people were served without counting the children. Bunco was played in the basement of the church, and others enjoyed dominos in the school room. This was sponsored by the Ladies Aid.—Walter J. Luecke, pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

We had another fine day Sunday with fine crowds and interest in all services. Our Bible school attendance was just a little below normal; however, we had a full house for the preaching service and worship. Our attendance in Young Folks class and Ladies' Bible class on Monday is growing. Last Monday we had 20 ladies in the class. We are expecting this number to increase to around 35 or more. In this class we are studying the Hebrew letter.

Be with us next Sunday. Bible study begins promptly at 9:45. Morning hour of worship begins at 10:45. Young Folks' class at 6:45 p. m. and evening service at 7:15 p. m. Ladies' Bible class meets Monday at 3 p. m. and mid-week service on Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. You will always find a hearty welcome here. Come let us reason together, saith the Lord! (Isiah 1:18).

—J. D. Rothwell, Minister.

Home Demonstration Notes

VEGETABLES IN THE DIET

The McQuatters family will have plenty of leafy, green, and yellow vegetables for the table this winter, because Vera, 15 year old daughter, who is garden demonstrator for the Littlefield Senior 4-H club has canned 180 containers of these vegetables.

This group of vegetables includes all varieties of greens, snap beans, English peas, asparagus, carrots, yellow squash, and pumpkin. Some one of these should be included in the diet every day as they furnish minerals and vitamins needed and are basic in reaction.

All together Vera has canned 581 containers of fruits and vegetables.

CONVENIENT STORAGE FOR CANNED FOOD

"I believe I could come down in my cellar and get most anything I want in the dark," says Mrs. Fred Duffey, Home Food Supply Demonstrator for the Yellow House Home Demonstration Club.

Mr. Duffey has built her 48 feet of 1"x12" shelves, which she has divided into sections and labeled for different groups of foods. The labels are exactly the width of the shelves and are tacked firmly on so that they will be permanent. Mr. and Mrs. Duffey supplied 24 feet of this shelf space last year and added 24 this year. If they can add 24 feet next year she will have shelf space to accommodate her entire canning budget, and there will be no more moving and lifting boxes of canned foods to find the jar she wants.

Mrs. Smith escaped by getting out of a window.

The Smith family have been here about five months. Mr. Smith is driving a truck for Everett Arns.

Methodist Children Are Studying American Negro

The Primary and Junior Departments of the Methodist church have been having, during the month of November, a very interesting mission study on the American Negro. The lessons on the "Handicapped Winners" have been enlightening and inspirational. The children have been deeply touched by the courage and endurance of many of the negro people. LITTLEFIELD TO BE DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS

Plans Discussed At Tuesday's C. Of C. Luncheon Meeting

Members of the Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday noon for their regular monthly meeting, with Manic Hall, president, presiding, and a good attendance present despite the rainy weather.

Christmas decoration of Phelps Avenue for the Yuletide season was the first subject discussed. It was reported by Joe Hale, secretary, that $100 had already been promised by the business establishments for decorating the main street, and that he believed if necessary that $200 could be collected towards a fund for this purpose.

Various methods of decorating Phelps Avenue were discussed. It was also suggested that business establishments each install a small evergreen tree in front of their premises, and that large trees be placed at each intersection, and one at the City Hall. The running of lights and decorations across the street from one business house to another was also discussed.

A. B. Sanders and Sam Batton, Decoration Committee, were instructed to proceed with obtaining the trees, installation of same, and other decorations. Jim Etter was asked to truck the trees from New Mexico.

Mr. Hall suggested that Jim Etter bring an additional number of trees to Littlefield and dispose of them to help disburse expense of transportation.

Mr. Hall asked for a financial report as to the Fall Fair recently held here, and it was reported that $150.00, guaranteed to the Fire Department of Littlefield in regard to the Circus, was the only deficit item.

Mr. Hall reported that some complaints had been received by him in regard to persons who had been awarded premiums at the recent fair not receiving same, and it was requested that the Leader state some checks in payment of premiums were in the hands of Joe Hale, secretary of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce and that if, through any oversight, that any check should not already have been written for premiums outstanding, Mr. Hale would arrange for same. Anyone, therefore, who have not already received his or her check should get in touch with Mr. Hale, who will secure same.

Supt. A. B. Sanders reported on the football game between the Snyder Tigers and the Littlefield Wildcats Friday afternoon. He stated that tickets were sold at Stokes-Alexander and Madden's Drug store, and fans would be allowed a discount on tickets if bought before Friday.

Joe Hale reported he had collected a premium on the first bale of cotton to be brought to Littlefield, to be presented to C. E. Pendergrass of near Whitharral, and had written Mr. Pendergrass advising him of this fact.

The matter of holding luncheon meetings weekly instead of monthly was also discussed.

A visitor at the luncheon was L. T. Grant, assistant Scout Executive, of Lubbock.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church who prepared the turkey dinner at the meeting Tuesday are to be commended on the delicious repast served.

Final plans were mapped out by members of the local advisory board of the Salvation Army at a meeting in Dr. Ira Woods office last night for the drive to raise funds to defray expenses of the local unit for the next year. The drive will open Friday morning.

At the request of the board, the local Junior Study club has consented to sponsor the drive.

Last year only the business men of the city were solicited for contributions to the local unit; however, since the amount raised was not sufficient to carry on the work in Littlefield, the residential section will be included in this year's drive, it was announced.

Practically all the money collected locally has been used to purchase food, clothing, medicine, and other necessities for people in the Littlefield section.

The committee appointed by the Junior Study club to sponsor the drive are: Marjorie Sanders, Pauline Courtney and Mrs. F. S. Fowler.

Members of the local advisory board attending last night's meeting were:

Funeral arrangements had not been completed last night, but it is likely that burial will be made in Oklahoma City. The Burleson Funeral Home of this city have charge of the arrangements.

GRAIN SORGHUMS AND MILLET MUST NOT BE GRAZED OR HARVESTED

In a letter received from A. L. Smith, Secretary of the State Agricultural Conservation Committee, by Donald Turner, County Agent, farmers are reminded that grain sorghums, sweet sorghums and millet planted on diverted acres must not be grazed or harvested in any manner. Sudan may be grazed but if it is grazed it must be so shown on the farm map.

Cards showing the acreage of each crop as checked by the supervisor have been mailed to practically all farmers who are complying. Where it is evident that an error has been made in measuring the land it is important that the county agent be notified so that the error may be corrected before the report of performance is sent to the State Board.

Preparations are being made in the county office to forward compliance forms to College Station.

A list of all county and local committeemen with the corresponding serial numbers of their report of compliance has been forwarded to the State Board. Any committeeman who has failed to qualify for a grant automatically becomes ineligible to serve.

SPORTSMAN FLIES HIGH

By Lawrence A. Keating

FIRST INSTALLMENT

Dan Colwell sat in his cubby-hole office with chair tilted back, feet on the cigarette-marred oak desk, perusing the morning's News. A second time he read the item in the Around Town column which stated that Otto Graber, president of the Graber-Vael Detective Agency, was leaving today for Ewing, Pennsylvania, on a two-week hunting trip. "Sportsman," the columnist described him, "and aviation enthusiast. Mr. Graber pilots his own monoplane."

Dan squinted thoughtfully at the north wall as if to peer through it into the office of his superior. So Otto was going away . . . hunting? Very convenient, he reflected, and very wise of Otto.

The president's secretary paused in the doorway. "Mr. Graber wants you. There's a Mrs. McDonald with him. Probably expects you to frame her husband with some chorus cutie for a divorce. Poor papa!"

He twisted around with a grin but the girl was gone into the quarters of the other partner, taciturn Horace Vael Colwell squinted a last time at the newspaper piece about Graber, lifted his feet from the desk, and rose. He hesitated a moment, conscious of a sense of expectancy that speeded his pulse. A good deal depended on the next few minutes. Dan had waited for this day through months of sordid divorce build-ups and jewel guarding assignments at the lavish balls of the Four Hundred. But this was not to be another dreary evidence hunt for the Court of Domestic Relations—nor any other court in the County Building.

Colwell went down the brief corridor and knocked on the door that bore Otto Graber's name and the warning Private. He twisted the knob and entered. "You want me, Chief?"

Graber's stocky, Teutonic form was hunched well back in his chair, his powerful, pudgy hands laced over his stomach. He unclipped his fingers to scratch in his blond stubble of hair as he swung to Dan. "Right." With sudden remembrance of courtesy Otto hoisted himself out of the chair. He gestured to his visitor, and following the movement Colwell saw a young woman in a trim dark suit with a flaring white bow at her throat, a fox scarf draped carelessly over narrow shoulders, a saucy little monkey hat.

"Mrs. McDonald, Mr. Colwell. Wife of Arthur McDonald, the lawyer, Dan."

He bowed and smiled. She was a stunning woman of twenty-five or so, a woman he would turn to watch if he passed her on the street. Her complexion was creamy, her mouth small and red and luscious as those Bing cherries that come in spring from California. Under a fringe of dark hair Colwell found wide brown eyes that were steady and warm, interesting eyes that held his until with a slight sensation of giddiness, he broke the spell.

She turned to Graber who had quickly sat down again. "You're sure this man is the very best obtainable?"

"Sit down, Dan. Ain't you the best private operative in town?"

"Certainly." He drew up a chair and lowered his solid five foot eleven frame noiselessly as a cat.

Graber laughed: it sounded a little forced. He flung a hand in the direction of two suitcases strapped and ready on the floor, with a stiff leather gun case lying across them. "See that item about me in the paper? I'm off to Pennsylvania, hunting. So you're to report to Mrs. McDonald here direct—phone. I know the case and it's real special. She'll tell you as much as she wants. Now go ahead, Mrs. McDonald. Colwell's your man."

Dan reached to open humidifier on his employer's desk and ignoring Graber's quick scowl, selected a perfect. He pulled the wrapper off and passed the cigar back and forth under his nostrils inhaling its pungent odor. Fifty cent cigars were beyond the modest pay of a private ly. "I—this is no divorce case, you know. My husband and I are very happy. But he's in danger. Someone wants to kill him. He doesn't know it—at least I don't think so." She sank back with an appealing

She stepped close so that he caught the fragrance of her and felt that she sought to hold him again with those brown pools of her eyes. Her hand crept mouse-like up his forearm. "No! No! I mean, when anything occurs, you are to telephone me at the number on this card. Do you understand? Follow Arthur—that's what you must do. Let me know, who is after him!"

"Well," she said abruptly, her eyes falling, "that seems to cover it. You won't let him out of your sight, Mr. Colwell?"

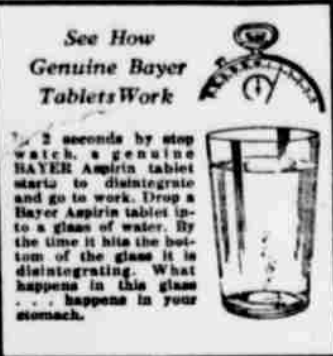

"Not a minute." He found the card blank except for the number penned on it. He tucked it into a vest pocket. "Suppose I call you once or twice daily, according to developments? And where do you think I might find Mr. McDonald to start?"

She consulted a jeweled wrist watch. "He often lunches at the Waverly Club on Reed Street. It's about time now. And you'll phone me full details? Good-bye, Mr. Graber." She offered her small hand to Otto. "I hope you have a lovely hunting trip. I hope you shoot lots of—caribou, is it And I'm depending on your handsome detective, for you charged me a disgraceful agency sleuth.

Mrs. McDonald sat on the edge of her chair, small hands clutching her gloves, her face very serious and worried. "I—just can't bring myself to repeat all the story, Mr. Colwell," she said in a rich contralto. "It's about my husband, you see. He's—Arthur has a certain prominence, as you doubtless know. He practices criminal law."

Colwell reflected as he inhaled cigar smoke that she might, without being inaccurate, have termed Arthur McDonald a shyster. "Oh your husband is well known," he nodded.

"Well, many of his cases—There are such rough, greedy men in the world, aren't there?" the stunning young woman went on embarrassed.

look at Graber. "I just can't talk about it. Must I?" she begged.

Dan knew the woman was acting, though she accomplished it with charm that would make any man ashamed to push her for more details. She was that steady-type of personality who could speak straight out easily enough, if she cared to. But Graber came to the rescue as she desired. "Don't bother, Mrs. McDonald. Don't excite yourself. Colwell here asks no questions, just does what he's told."

"You wish me to shadow your husband, is that it?"

"Yes! Would you? And—protect him? Learn who is after him and, of course, keep the rascal from doing harm? And maybe turn him over to the police?"

"Pardon me," Otto Graber interposed quickly, "you don't want that, I'm sure. I mean, not right off. This is darned unusual, see?" he explained to Dan, and twisted the black cigar from one corner of his wide mouth to the other. Graber leaned "She's stirred up," he said in a low voice. "Just do what she wants and forget it, see?"

Dan rose as Mrs. McDonald rose.

TWO ENGINES AVAILABLE IN FORD'S NEW LINE OF TRUCKS

Choice of power to fit individual transportation requirements and smart new lines feature the Ford Motor company's 1937 trucks and commercial cars announced recently.

Two engines are available in the new line of trucks and commercial cars, a new 60 horsepower V-8 engine for house to house delivery and other light duty and an improved 85 horsepower V-8 engine for operations requiring greater power.

The new 60 horsepower engine is the same in quality and design and is made with the same precision as the improved 85 horsepower engine. Its bore is 2.6 inches and its stroke 3.2 inches.

Optional axle ratios and transmissions are provided for applying power in the most effective manner. A range of body types, wheelbases, tire sizes and special equipment completes the selective program.

The truck chassis is offered in two wheelbases, 137 1-2 and 157 inches. Panel, stake and hydraulic dump bodies are supplied on the 131 1-2 inch chassis. Only the 85 horsepower engine is used in the dump truck. This chassis is also supplied with cab for tractor service and for mounting special bodies. The 157 inch chassis is offered with stake body and with or without cab for mounting special bodies.

A new stake body is introduced on the 112-inch commercial car chassis. It is designed to meet the growing demand for a smaller capacity low priced unit. With the removal of the stakes the unit becomes a platform type.

Other bodies available on the 112-inch chassis are the pick-up, panel delivery, sedan delivery and station wagon. The 112-inch panel and the sedan delivery have all-steel tops. A special enclosure with safety glass is available on the station wagon, in addition to the regular curtain equipment. The 112-inch chassis is also offered with or without cab.

Increased Yields From Contouring

"The saving of water by terracing and contour farming is common sense farming," says G. L. Taylor, of Stratford, Texas.

Mr. Taylor has 2,160 acres of land under agreement with the Soil Conservation Service at Dalhart, Texas. One thousand, two hundred acres were planted on the contour to grain sorghum last spring. Not a drop of the 8.77 inches of effective rainfall this year ran off the land, and because of this, Taylor is harvesting one of the best crops in Dallam County.

Taylor realizes that contour farming takes more time and costs more, but he says "I know that increased yields more than pay for the additional time necessary for contour farming."

Duggan No. 1 Is Believed To Be A Sure Producer

A producer is a certainty for the Cascade-Honolulu Oil Co., Duggan No. 1, 17 miles southeast of Morton, and 9 miles southwest of Whiteface.

Oil tests recently show that after running 2 1-2 inch tubing to check the flow of oil so that it will make a flowing well, it is now estimated that it will make 165 to 300 barrels on the allowable. Of course, this means somewhere around 400 to 500 barrels it was estimated.

Complete storage is on the ground and preparations are being made for the completion of the well within the next week.

RAPID GROWTH
SEEN IN SCOUT
ENROLLMENT

Cub Program Interests
Younger Boys

The Boy Scout enrollment in the South Plains Council has shown a remarkable growth in the ten months of 1936 that has passed, showing an increase of 498 Scouts, 60 Cubs, and 150 leaders.

The enrollment has passed the 1936 objectives set up by the Executive Board at the Annual Meeting held in January last year. The unusual increase has been attributed to an attractive Scouting program that has been provided for the Scouts over the entire twenty counties that the South Plains Council has under its jurisdiction.

Plans are going ahead at the present for 1937, as each troop, town, district and the Council prepares their objectives. For the close of 1937 the Council has set their goal in Scouts at 1404, Cubs 250 and Scouters at 400.

Interest has been shown in senior Scouting. One Sea Scout Ship has been organized. Plans are under way for the organization of several explorer Patrols and by the end of 1937 quite a number of Senior Scouts may be active in their various towns.

Recovers Several Thousand Feet Of
Pipe From Test Well

PONCA CITY, Okla., Nov. 17.—Recovery of several thousand feet of pipe from a test oil well at a depth of more than two miles, thus establishing a world's record for such operations, was announced here today by Continental Oil company officials, who explained that this extraordinary feat was performed at Conoco's Herbert No. 1 well at Abbeville Prospect, Louisiana.

Drill pipe three inches in diameter was employed in the Herbert well. With one exception this well is the deepest ever driven, descending to a depth of 11,732 feet below the earth's surface. Recovery of the pipe, however, only proved feasible to a depth of 10,907 feet. The deepest well in the world, a dry hole located in Upton County, West Texas, was drilled to 12,786 feet.

Town Of Whiteface
Is Growing Rapidly

As another evidence of the continued growth and development of the county as a whole we note the growth of Whiteface, our neighboring town to the east. With the completion of their new school unit, it now boasts a fully accredited high school, well housed and equipped. Very recently, there has been added a light plant, a new Conoco Service Station, another cafe and an up-to-date variety store.

According to real estate records, the sale of lots in the town has been making a rapid turnover lately and it is said that the value of town property has doubled in value within the past two months.

Farmers have made excellent crops in that part of the county and business men of the town are evidently preparing for a big boost of trade in the near future.—Cochran County News.

EMPLOYERS OF EIGHT
PERSONS TO PAY
UNEMPLOYMENT TAX

A tax on employers of one per cent of their 1936 payrolls, the first levy for the jobless compensation fund, will become due in January. Nine-tenths of that will go to the state for unemployment benefits starting January 1, 1936, and the other one-tenth to the federal government.

R. D. Anderson, chairman and executive director said that since both the federal and state governments were interested in collecting the tax from each employer of eight or more persons, they could work in close co-operation in an effort to make certain that no one escaped the levy. Printed applications for the U. S. social security act have been received by W. D. T. Storey, postmaster at Littlefield, and distributed.

An epidemic of typhoid fever at Levelland, which has resulted in illness to nine persons, has apparently been brought under control. It was believed to have been caused through the milk supply.

Laxative Combination
folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets—Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

Winter be blowed!...

OIL-PLATE YOUR ENGINE

This is exactly true: Oil-Plating supplies lubrication in LESS THAN NO TIME AT ALL!

Faster than "instantly"... faster than the fastest-flowing Winter oil might even begin to flow, Oil-Plating is ready to lubricate.

That's because a genuine Plating of Conoco Germ Processed oil is always left firmly bonded to every working part. Like any other real Plating, this Oil-Plating cannot run off. After hours or days of standing in the cold, Oil-Plating is still perfectly ready-to-go.

Now these days you read on every side, how poorly-oiled starting causes most engine wear, and how fast a Winter oil ought to flow. But you cannot have even a doubt of sure starting-lubrication, when it is always UP IN ADVANCE. That's Oil-Plating... a plain, straight, economic reason for changing to your correct free-flowing Winter grade of Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented. Costs no more than changing by hunch.
