Pioneer Cattleman Of Hale Center Passes Away Saturday

Last rites were held at Hale Center Monday for William Neely Claxton, Dallas and Hale Center pioneer cattleman, who died Saturday at Dallas.

He was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, April 16, 1854. He was educated at Cornell, coming to Texas at the age of 20 and fired with ambition to become a cattleman, he began his career as dairyman at Sherman. He later moved to Shackelford County where he was partner with Jim Holt on a ranch. In 1886 they divided their herd, and in company with an old friend, Bill Landers, Claxton drove his cattle to the plains, near Bull Lake in Lamb County, where open range was limitless. Later he filed on some land near Hart Camp.

About this time he met and wed Cornelia Ann LeMond, daughter of a late Hale Center pioneer, and sister to Walter LeMond of Littlefield. The pair moved to the strip in the then Indian territory, and when Oklahoma was opened to settlement, Mr. Claxton made the run and got a claim near what is now Blackwell. The pair moved back to Texas and settled near Hale Center, where they continued in cattle business until 1926 when they retired and moved to Dallas.

Claxton is survived by his wife and two sons, Robert L. and Thomas N. Claxton, all of Dallas. Mrs. Robert L. Claxton is a sister to Lowell Short of Littlefield. Mr. and Mrs. Short and children attended the final rites in Hale Center Monday.

Corp. James Edward Wood Lost At Sea In Army Plane

Salvage Campaign Underway In County

People in Littlefield and the entire county are urged to participate in the National Salvage Campaign, Jess Elms, city chairman, stated this week.

At a meeting Friday night of the Lamb County Salvage Committee, plans were made for the drive.

"Salvage is sorely needed by the government, especially iron, steel, rubber and fats. It is, therefore, urgent that people in Lamb County cooperate by taking their scrap to their nearest dealer, Mr. Elms said. Another meeting of the committee will be called for the near future, when detailed plans will be discussed.

The Lamb County Salvage Committee is composed of V. F. Jones, Amherst, County Chairman; Jess Elms, Littlefield; R. C. Roberts, Spade; Drew Watkins, Sudan; Gus Parish, Earth; O. W. Daniel, Spring Lake; and O. C. White, Olton.

Mrs. Lora Z. Wood received official notice Tuesday from the commanding officer of the American Air Force in the Pacific that her son, James Edward Wood, was missing in action against the Japanese in the vicinity of Midway Island, since June 6, 1942.

Mrs. Wood received a telegram in June, reporting that James Edward was missing, but it would probably be sometime before any certain trace could be obtained.

A letter, pictures and several gifts were sent to Mrs. Wood in April from her son, and this was the last word she had received direct from him. At that time he could not tell where he was, but reported that he was alright.

The letter Mrs. Wood received Tuesday is as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Wood: I deeply regret the necessity of informing you that your son, Corporal James E. Wood, has been reported missing in action against the Japanese on June 6, 1942, in vicinity of Midway Island.

"The airplane on which he was a crew member became lost on the return to Midway Island after an attack against a Japanese cruiser. A landing was attempted in the sea after the fuel supply was exhausted and Corp. Wood was not seen again.

"I am enclosing two copies of his last will and testament and sending his personal belongings to you. For any matters pertaining to the settlement of his estate, it will be necessary to write to me at 72nd Bombardment Squadron (H) A.P.O. 951, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, California, and your wishes will be promptly cared for.

"I wish again to express my deepest sympathy for your bereavement because Corp. Wood was one of the most efficient and well-liked of our men.

Application Made For Glider School

As interest in flying and the need for an airport here increases among local citizens, officials of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce are working on plans to have this town designated as a point where a new army training school for glider pilots will be located, W. D. Watkins, president, reported Tuesday.

Applications have gone to Washington, D. C., Mr. Watkins said, and if this town should be made such a grant, the individual who secures the permit for the school will build barracks, etc., and the city will need to furnish the land for the airfield. According to present plans, about 200 pilots would be trained here, he said.

Jury Summoned; Case Likely To Be Called August 17

Other Criminal Cases To Be Called, Including York Embezzlement

The Grand Jury adjourned Tuesday night at Olton returning four indictments.

The body brought indictments against Dr. W. R. Newton and wife, Ruth Newton, on three counts of alleged "assault and intent to murder by shooting Dr. Roy E. Hunt with a pistol, on or about the 21st day of May, 1942."

The Criminal docket for this term of court is set for August 17, and this case will probably be called that week, according to information from the Sheriff's department Wednesday. The Jury has been summoned for August 17.

An indictment was also brought against Cordie Lewis, colored, on a charge of alleged burglary of the H. O. Dennington home in the west section of Littlefield. This case is also likely to come up during the week of August 17.

Lee Posten of Oak Grove, Ind., was indicted, charged with the alleged forgery on John R. Meek, farmer of Earth.

There are also a number of other cases to be called August 17th, including the W. S. York embezzlement case, and Clifton Pettway assault and intent to murder appeal case.

D. G. Hobbs Undergoes Appendix Operation

D. G. Hobbs, local ginner, underwent an operation for ruptured appendix at the Littlefield Hospital Monday night about 9:45 o'clock, and is reported to be getting along fine. He is said to have rested well following the operation, and his condition has been a pleasant surprise to those in attendance.

Mr. Hobbs suffered a heart attack some time ago, and has been in ill health since. For the past few days he has been suffering from his stomach.

When it was known that an operation was necessary, out-of-town members of the family were contacted, and his brothers, R. L. of Muleshoe, and J. E. Hobbs of Plainview came here for the operation. Since the condition of Mr. Hobbs has been satisfactory following the operation, they have returned to their homes.

Hospital attendants estimated that the appendix had ruptured about two hours when he was admitted for surgery.

A Symbol of Courage

The New York Times in a recent issue cited the value of Texas' Alamo as a symbol of courage providing inspiration for many young American soldiers who daily are visiting the "shrine of Texas liberty" in San Antonio. The Times editorial, giving an insight into what soldiers are doing and thinking in Texas, follows:

"Soldiers are tireless tourists, particularly American soldiers. All over the country, these days, they are visiting places that revive for them memories of our history. But nowhere is the soldier on leave more interested in a monument to valor than at the Alamo, in San Antonio. They cluster around the cases that hold mementoes of that gallant fight, and look without words.

"The Alamo means much to them. There Davie Crockett and James Bowie and Col. James Travis and 185 other men died when they knew there was no escape from the forces of Santa Ana. The Alamo is a gray building with bits of the cornice knocked off by shells, an old Spanish mission. There is a lovely garden outside, with a gray wall around it. Little to indicate the slaughter that happened inside, where not a man escaped.

"Men died there because they were not afraid. You look at the walls pitted with bullet holes; at the tiny, cell-like room in which Bowie was bayoneted after he was wounded; and you know that this was the stronghold of a few men who believed in themselves. Somehow, Corregidor comes to mind. Your hat is off anyway. It came off instinctively when you walked into the door, as it does when you go up the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington.

"This is a place where Americans proved that they were strong. It is not far from where thousands of American boys in the Air Force are showing that

Panama Road

While the dream of "rolling down" to Rio de Janeiro on rubber tires probably will not come true until after the current war, it may be only a matter of months until large overland troop and supply movements will be possible between this country and the Panama Canal Zone. Our Congress has appropriated twenty million dollars to help the Central American republics complete their gaps in the Pan-American Highway. Meanwhile, our Army engineers already are at work building a pioneer gravel road that can be used at least for military purposes, before the permanent road is completed.

In the six little countries of Central America through which the road will pass, only 625 miles of gaps remain, compared with about 1,000 miles of completed segments. Some of these gaps provide difficulties in the way of mountains, jungles and rushing streams, but these hurdles will not be beyond the capacity of American engineering. Mexico has both railways and motor roads that will form connections with this highway through Central America.

Opening of this road to Panama will place both passengers and freight beyond the reach of Axis submarines that have been marauding in the Caribbean. Eventually the work of the highway may be supplemented with that of a fleet of sky freighters, but in the meantime it will serve as a route for soldiers and military supplies and probably as an avenue for civilian trade. Its long-range effect will be to make the Central American republics less provincial and to strengthen hemisphere understanding and solidarity.

Anut Of Mrs. Ed. Fowler Passes Away

Funeral services for Miss Delia Wilkinson, 68, a prominent Lubbock resident for many years, and an aunt of Mrs. Ed. Fowler of this city, were conducted Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the First Christian Church, 1601 Avenue J.

Walter Jennings of Plainview, former minister of the First Christian church in Lubbock, was in charge of the services.

Miss Wilkinson died Friday afternoon in West Texas Hospital at 1:20 o'clock.

Affectionately known as "Miss Dehila," she has been active in religious, social and civic life in Lubbock.

Miss Wilkinson was 68 July 21.

She became ill a week previous but, thinking it only a minor ailment possibly due to something she had eaten, she did not call a physician. Later she entered the hospital, in too critical condition to undergo surgery.

Her death, said an attending physician, was due to an abdominal condition complicated by uremic poisoning and pulmonary edema, lung complication.

She had been in semi-conscious condition several days before her death.

Mrs. Fowler had been continuously at her bedside during her illness. Mr. Fowler also attended the services.

Interment took place in Lubbock cemetery.

Besides her niece, Mrs. Ed. Fowler of Littlefield, she was survived by several nephews, Andrew Hoover of Tulsa, Oscar Slaton, Jr., of Lubbock, Lieut. W. D. Hoover of Pensacola, Fla., J. W. Hoover of New Orleans, Hubert Hoover and Glen Hoover of Washington, D. C.

Miss Wilkinson lived at 1201 Seventeenth Street. She came to Lubbock in 1906 from Canyon. Her parents moved here from Callahan county in 1904 and engaged in the cattle business. Their home was located near the present site of Mackenzie State Park.

Miss Wilkinson has been for many years director of the woman's department of the Panhandle-South Plains fair. She was a former president of the local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which bears her father's name, Stephen W. Wilkinson. She was a member of the First Christian Church. She also was affiliated with various other organizations.

Sailorettes New Naval Reserve Unit

Within the next few days Secretary of the Navy Knox is going to let out the secret that he, the admirals and Commander-in-Chief Roosevelt have agreed on Miss McAfee, Wellesley college's 42-year-old president, as head of Uncle Sam's sailorettes.

President Roosevelt Thursday

signed into law a bill creating a feminine naval reserve, designated as women appointed for volunteer emergency service—and promptly dubbed the "WAVES"—to release men for active sea duty.

So now Uncle Sam's military-minded nieces have a choice of volunteering to be a "WAVE" or a "WAAC," the feminine equivalent in the Army.

The new naval service will include 1,000 commissioned officers and about 10,000 enlisted members. The corps will be shore-bound sailors and the law prohibits their being sent outside the country.

Reports from Wellesley grads are that potential "WAVES" have drawn, in "Miss Mac," a ship-shape choice as director.

For one thing, Miss Mac, in addition to being scholarly, witty and human, is very good-looking. Of medium height, she wears her crisp dark hair clipped in loose curls about her head. There's directness in her eyes.

At Northampton, Mass., President Herbert Davis of Smith college announced that the sailorettes' first officers' training unit would be established there early in October. The course will last four months.

come into contact daily with the troubles and personal problems of American service men both at home and abroad.

Too many times, they warn, the folks at home pour forth petty family problems in letters to their boys who are away in camp or fighting at the front. The result in many cases is the demoralization of a brave soldier. The loving mother, sweetheart, uncle or aunt unwittingly may be aiding the enemy.

There are too many cases, Red Cross workers declare, of a soldier, sailor or marine receiving a wire, "Come home, mother seriously ill." Verification of the facts by the Red Cross often reveals that there was no reason for alarm. Mother, it appears, had been suffering from an illness for many years. It was no worse at the time the wire was sent, but she sent it, because she had a motherly desire to see her son.

During the waiting period, while Red Cross workers check the facts in the soldier's home town, the army is confronted with a bewildered, worried boy, who but a moment before was a determined soldier.

Red Cross workers have encountered numerous cases where a lovesick sweetheart wishing to have a visit with her soldier boy friend has forged a wire stating that "Aunt Mary" is ill and not expected to live through the day. Red Cross workers are soon able to wire back the comforting news that no illness exists, but meanwhile, another soldier has spent agonizing hours trying to visualize the actual conditions at home.

Cases of suicide of service men have been reported to the Red Cross which were directly traceable to the thoughtless letter of the "girl friend" at home in which she wrote the service man that she no longer cared for him.

By far the majority of the cases investigated by Red Cross Home Service workers are legitimate. In these instances, the Red Cross mobilizes its forces both in the soldier's camp and in his home town to provide financial assistance, arrange for transportation and aid to his family during an emergency.

It is the minority of letter writers who bring about demoralization among the troops. Many of these writers are unintentionally worrying the service man, a few deliberately. Most of them are merely too prone to seek comfort on small personal problems from a soldier who himself needs the united support of his family at home.

So the next time you write Johnny Doughboy be cheerful, and if you cannot be cheerful, be factual,

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION

By W. W. Reid

Partly because of the increasing hours and days of work that prevent many people in war industries from attending church, and partly because it is felt that religious services are needed to keep up the morale of the workers, a growing number of industrial plants throughout the country are planning special church services for their employees. At the Colt Firearms manufacturing company's plant in Hartford, Conn., two Catholic masses are being sung each Sunday morning, and Protestant and Jewish services will be held in the evenings, workers' club rooms being used as chapels. The Agerstrand Corporation of Muskegon, Mich., opens each workday with a brief religious service at which the president or invited guests speak. Other concerns, large and small, are conducting or planning to install similar religious services.

"Mother" (Mrs. Janet) Roper, for many years head of the missing seamen's bureau of the Seaman's Church Institute, South Street, New York City, recently celebrated the 53rd anniversary of her service with the Institute. She is said to know more seamen than does any other woman in the world. In her years with the bureau, she has helped in the location of more than 6,400 seamen reported missing by relatives or friends—men of many nations and races. Members of the merchant marine gave Mrs. Roper a party and presented her with a full-rigged schooner encased in a thin-necked bottle.

Seventeen young women, missionaries of the Methodist Church, formerly assigned to educational and evangelistic work in Japan but recalled because of the war, are now working among Japanese immigrants and their American-born children under the American flag. Some of them are in the reclamation centers to which the U. S. Army has moved thousands of Japanese from the Pacific coast, some are in churches and schools in California, Washington, Idaho, Arizona, Wyoming, Colorado, and in Hawaii, while still others are working in the placement of Japanese-American students in schools and colleges in the central states. These missionaries hope to return to Japan after the war.

With only 47,000,000 of India's 388,000,000 people able to read and write, as revealed by the 1941 census, the National Christian Council of India has begun a campaign to promote adult literacy, especially among the Christian people. It is reported that less than half of those in the Christian church are literate. Miss Ruth Ure, literacy secretary of the Council, is urging that the churches have a policy that "all adult Christians be made literate within two years of baptism, thus recognizing that reading the Bible is essential to the full spiritual heritage of Christians." The materials and methods for adult literacy campaigns in India are based on the so-called Laubach Method, first used to teach adults in the Philippines by Missionary Frank C. Laubach.

With the Burma Road closed, the road through India not yet developed, and the air the only means of communication between Fukien Province, China, and the outside world, missionary and other hospitals in this area are facing a severe shortage of drugs while their need is rapidly mounting. Harold N. Brewster, superintendent of the Wiley General Hospital (Methodist) in Kutien, China, reported recently that he had only a few ounces of ether and no morphine for work in operating. "Some drugs have jumped more than a hundredfold in price," he says. "We are working with the Red Cross to try to get more drugs. Some have been allocated to us for months but are stuck somewhere along the road. We may get them yet, but the cost will be tremendous. . . . Yet never have the people been so open-minded about accepting modern medicine in place of the old-fashioned Chinese herb drugs."

Rev. Norwood Writes Article in 'The Pastor'

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 3.—Rev. Marvin B. Norwood, Methodist minister of Hereford, Texas, formerly of Littlefield, is the author of an article in the current issue of "The Pastor," professional journal serving 25,000 Methodist ministers throughout the country, published here.

Under the title, "We Used Sunday for Mission Study," Mr. Norwood's article deals with the method he follows in bringing missions to the attention of his church congregation. For the benefit of fellow ministers in the field who might be faced with similar problems he tells of the success of his system, detailing part of the technique he has followed. He tells of the committees formed, their work, and assistance in gaining cooperation; the general theme of the sermon of the day, and brief general outline of order of worship.

Mr. Norwood was admitted to the North Texas Conference in 1920, and transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference in 1924. He has served pastorates at Roscoe, Rotan and Albany. He is assistant secretary and editor of the Northwest Texas Conference Journal.

Maybe we all can't pilot planes, steer ships, fire guns or man tanks on the actual firing lines in this war; but we can do our part at home.

A crisis now exists in the war production program. We are faced with a serious shortage of steel scrap, rubber, and the other materials vital to production.

Due to the fact that the August term of Court will be in full swing for the next five weeks with important cases to be decided, I have to devote my entire attention to Court, and it will, therefore, be impossible for me to campaign to the usual extent during the runoff.

I thank my friends for the wonderful vote they gave me in the primary, lacking a few votes being needed then. I will appreciate your vote in the runoff primary, and anything my friends do for me between now and the runoff will be heartily appreciated, as I would like to be elected and to give you again as Sheriff of Lamb County. I will have ever had in the Sheriff's office.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

H. J. R. No. 1

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49a, requiring all bills passed by the Legislature on and after January 1, 1945, appropriating money for any purpose, to be sent to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for his approval, and fixing the duties of the Comptroller with reference thereto; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by the General Revenue Fund on September 1, 1943; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, immediately after Section 49, a section to be known as Section 49a, to read as follows:

"Section 49a. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of Public Accounts in advance of each Regular Session of the Legislature to prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature upon its convening a statement under oath showing fully the financial condition of the State Treasury at the close of the last fiscal period and an estimate of the probable receipts and disbursements for the then current fiscal year. There shall also be contained in said statement an itemized estimate of the anticipated revenue based on the laws then in effect that will be received by and for the State from all sources showing the fund accounts to be credited during the succeeding biennium and said statement shall contain such other information as may be required by law. Supplemental statements shall be submitted at any Special Session of the Legislature and at such other times as may be necessary to show probable changes.

"From and after January 1, 1945, save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each House, no appropriation in excess of the cash and anticipated revenue of the funds from which such appropriation is to be made shall be valid. From and after January 1, 1945, no bill containing an appropriation shall be considered as passed or be sent to the Governor for consideration until and unless the Comptroller of Public Accounts endorses his certificate thereon showing that the amount appropriated is within the amount estimated to be available in the affected funds. When the Comptroller finds an appropriation bill exceeds the estimated revenue he shall endorse such finding thereon and return to the House in which same originated. Such information shall be immediately made known to both the House of Representatives and the Senate and the necessary steps shall be taken to bring such appropriation to within the revenue, either by providing additional revenue or reducing the appropriation.

"For the purpose of financing the outstanding obligations of the General Revenue Fund of the State and placing its current accounts on a cash basis the Legislature of the State of Texas is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of serial bonds, equal in principal to the total outstanding, valid, and approved obligations owing by said fund on September 1, 1943, provided such bonds shall not draw interest in excess of two (2) per cent per annum and shall mature within twenty (20) years from date."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas, at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1942, being November 3, 1942, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Those opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots, the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, requiring appropriation bills passed by the Legislature to be presented to and certified by the Comptroller of Public Accounts as to available funds for payment thereof, limiting appropriations to the total of such available funds, providing for issuance of bonds to pay off State obligations outstanding September 1, 1943, and fixing the duties of the Legislature and Comptroller of Public Accounts with reference thereto."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Workers Urged to Preserve Social Security Numbers

It's up to the worker himself to determine whether he is interested sufficiently to assist his Government in saving money, time, white paper, and other valuable items used in the issuance of duplicate social security numbers because it is the worker's fault if he loses or misplaces his number and is therefore compelled to request us to issue him a duplicate, according to John D. Palmer, manager of the Lubbock Social Security Board Field Office.

"The ever-increasing number of requests for duplicate account numbers is creating a difficult problem," Palmer said, "which involves loss in money and manpower, and until the worker makes up his mind that he will be more careful in safeguarding his account number, the situation will remain unchanged."

It was pointed out that very often a worker, when wishing to obtain a duplicate account number, fails to specify on the request form that he wants a duplicate instead of an original. "The obtaining of an original number by an individual who already has an account number," explained Palmer, "means that individual has established two old-age and survivors insurance accounts—a situation which results in confusion, difficulty, and the possibility that the worker's future benefits under the Federal insurance system may be jeopardized."

"A worker needs one social security account number which he should use throughout his working lifetime," Palmer continued, "and by all means and under all conditions he should preserve the original number and safeguard it against loss. Such care protects the worker in his future claim for benefits, or his survivors in case of his death, and results in economy in the administration of the program."

A worker is entitled to a duplicate account number card, it was stated, but he should use every care to avoid the necessity of applying for one.

Power Generating Plants Are Needed
By U. S. Army

County USDA War Boards are conducting a search for small power generating plants for the U. S. Army Signal Corps, B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA War Board, has announced.

The plants are needed for operating communications equipment, especially at remote bases where current is not available from established plants, the War Board official said.

Types of power plants (both engine and generator) needed include gasoline, diesel, kerosene or fuel oil driven motors, operating 110- to 220-volt generators, AC only. Equipment of these types can be used in capacities from 500 watts to 25 kilowatts and larger.

The boards are being asked to locate plants not now in use and to advise the state board, Vance said. All negotiations in connection with inspection and approval for purchase will be handled by the Army Signal Corps directly with the owner.

"Dear Mother and Dad,
"I received your letters today and was I glad to get them. I always love to hear from home.

"I came in today and found a note pinned on my bunk asking me to report to the chaplin in chapel No. 4. I went over and he said that he had instructions to take me to the post chaplin who is a Lieuten- ant Colonel.

"When we got over there they told me that I had been selected to represent Chanute Field at the Na- tional Student's Convocation which is to be held at Mimi University at Oxford, Ohio, the first week in Sept. I will be gone a week with all ex- penses paid. I am thrilled at the prospect. I had a letter from Ney- land Hester saying he was going to attend also and will I be glad to see Neyland and talk about our good old days at Tech.

"I don't see how I could possibly enjoy my work any more than I do. I really like this teaching, and since I have my outlines and lectures com- pleted it is easy. I have just finished a faze with a bunch of civilian stu- dents none of whom are less than thirty-five years old and most of them having college degrees, but it was a pleasure to teach them for they were here to learn and really put their best into it. Yesterday I began with a new class of fifty-two. The largest class I have had so to- day they transferred ten of them to another class.

"I have been going to the gym lately and playing basket ball and tennis. It has three basket ball courts and several tennis courts, two boxing rings and every kind of ath- letic equipment.

"I guess I had better close for this time. Don't forget to write often. Love to all,

"Your son,
"ROY McQUATTERS."

Hill who recently leased White's Ranch. The calves averaged 385 pounds, and should add much interest for the Littlefield Stock Show to be held next spring.

The calves will be put on sudan pasture until fall when they will be put in the feed lot and fed until next spring. These projects will in- crease the average project program of each boy to about three pro- jects.

Rationing Restrictions Tighten List Eligibles For New Tires And Tubes

Griffin, chairman of the War Price and Rationing Board, has announced that new restrictions have tightened the list of eligibles for new tires and recapping. "This is an obvious necessity," he said, "and it will help to relieve the rubber tire situation."

The amendment to the tire regulations, Mr. C. O. Griffin said, makes it plain that only those engaged in service essential to the war effort or to health and safety are to be exempt. This will cut off from the list all privately operated vehicles carrying alcoholic beverages, soft drinks and similar beverages, flowers, toys, novelty items, furs, radios, phonographs, musical instruments or other luxury goods, unless the transportation of such things is only incidental to the main service performed by the vehicle.

Also dropped from the eligibility list A are private carriers providing transportation for incidental maintenance services such as the cleaning of office buildings, or for repairing portable household effects, or providing materials or services solely for landscaping or beautification of any construction project or establishment.

"The new amendment to the regulation gives our board the responsibility of sifting applications with this yardstick: Does that truck or vehicle contribute directly to the war effort, or to the public health and safety," Mr. Griffin said. "We know that vehicles working on war projects must be served first. All others will have to wait."

Speeding Tickets Forfeit Eligibility For New Tires

Speeders were given a stern warning today by C. O. Griffin, chairman of the Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board, that speeding tickets issued against them by either state or local police will cause them to forfeit their eligibility for new tires or retreads. "Abuse of tires by speeding must be stopped," Mr. Griffin emphasized.

"We have been advised by Mark McGee, the Texas OPA Director, that carbon copies of all speeding tickets issued on the highways by the Texas Highway Patrol will be forwarded to the local board.

"We are asking city police and county officers in Lamb county to extend the same assistance to us in enforcing the vital wartime necessity for conserving rubber."

Mr. Griffin said the local board had been requested by the state OPA office to regard speeding as an abuse of tires and as reason for voiding a person's eligibility for new tires or retreads. After such an offense, the speeder will have to give the local board conclusive proof that he is observing the 40-mile speed limit imposed by the Office of Defense Transportation, before he again can become eligible. "OPA and ODT inspectors are beginning to take the license numbers of speeders," Mr. Griffin said, "and these numbers will be sent to our board. A lot of city delivery trucks and even big freight line trucks and public buses still are ignoring the 40-mile limit. They may ignore it, but we are not going to. The next time those fellows apply for tires, if we find they've been speeding they will know that we mean business."

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, through the mysteries of Divine Wisdom, our beloved fellow Rotarian, J. C. Elms, was, on the 20th day of July, A. D. 1942, called from our midst to take the long journey from which none may return, and his voice will not again be heard in our earthly councils nor his good deeds again be accomplished by him in our community; and

WHEREAS, J. C. Elms was faithful and active in Rotary work, and at the time of his departure from among us he was vice-president of our club and had devoted many hours to the principles of Rotary International; that he was also an outstanding citizen of our community, active in civic affairs, and at the time of his leaving he was Treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, Treasurer of the Red Cross organization in Lamb County, a member of the Executive Council and District Chairman of the Northwestern District of the South Plains Council of Boy Scouts and for many years had been active in boy scout work, and in spite of the arduous duties incumbent upon him as Cashier of the First National Bank of Littlefield, Texas, he always found time to engage and counsel in community affairs, to assist the youth in life's problems and to lend a helping hand to his fellow man, and he will be missed by all of us.

IT IS THEREFORE fitting that we here and now pause for a brief space of time to express our deep sorrow for our great loss, to speak words of praise for the many traits of our departed fellow Rotarian, to utter words of appreciation for the privilege of having been associated with him in Rotary work and calling him a fellow Rotarian, and to speak words of comfort to his surviving relatives and friends.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Rotary Club of Littlefield, Texas, that we give expressions to and proclaim the following verities and realities:

That we do revere the memory of our beloved fellow Rotarian and companion, J. C. Elms.

That in his passing away we can truly say that a good man has gone to his eternal reward and that we will always remember his worthy deeds accomplished by him among us and that we realize that his life is worthy of emulation by all of us who survive him.

That we extend sympathy to Mrs. J. C. Elms, his surviving wife, and to all others who were near and dear to him, and that we pray that they may be comforted with the knowledge that J. C. lived a manly, useful life, and the world is better for his having lived among us, and that his character and good deeds will continue to live after him.

That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the club, and copies be furnished to Mrs. Elms and others who may desire same, and that a copy be published in the local newspapers.

Respectfully Submitted by Resolutions Committee: C. O. Stone E. A. Bills.

SPEAKING OF BONDS

"Our latest batch of War Bonds is bringing almost immediate action."

James V. Allred Opens Campaign At Abilene; Discusses Two Main Planks

James V. Allred opening his run-off for the senatorship at Abilene issued a statement discussing two main planks of his run-off campaign—these are Allred's farmer-labor planks

A price of at least 25 cents per pound for cotton for the duration of the war, and real, not theoretical, parity prices for other farm and ranch products.

While insisting that the fundamentals of both labor and capital must be preserved in the public interest calls for the same regulation of labor excess as of business management. "No American should have to join a union to work on a defense job or in a war industry. I will introduce and push to passage a bill prohibiting any enforced initiation fee, permit fee or dues in defense industries. In the event a defense worker joins a union he shall be charged not more than one dollar initiation fee and one dollar per month dues on war work for the duration of the war. I will also support legislation to prohibit strikes, slow downs or racketeering of any kind in war production; to prohibit violence or sit-down strikes anywhere, any time; to put teeth into the law prohibiting "kickbacks." Differences between employers and employees should receive an open, fair and honest discussion and be settled around the council table. There is no room in this nation for corporate power that would oppress labor, or for labor that would destroy the property or impair the rights of capital. Each must be placed upon the same basis. The people of this country are not going to tolerate any interference with our war effort on the part of labor, business, or any other group. As your United States senator, I will see to it that the people's will in this respect is carried out.

Jester Opens His Campaign Friday

Corsicana, Texas, August 5.—Opening his run-off battle for the State Railroad Commission, Beauford Jester will discuss the importance of his campaign in a radio speech to a statewide audience from his home town, Corsicana, Friday night. The talk will be carried over a 15 station network.

"Texas oil and transportation are vitally important to our war effort," Mr. Jester said. "Most of the oil that will fly our planes, power our mechanized divisions, and fuel the ships of America and her Allies will come from Texas. There must be no bottlenecks in Texas' oil production and transportation facilities. "The people of Texas need a war veteran and a fully qualified Railroad Commissioner who will see to it that every industry regulated by the commission can and does function at its maximum in our war effort," Mr. Jester declared.
