Littlefield To Host Lamesa Friday

Triangular Bonfire To Blaze For Lamesa Contest

Spirits of students will be blazing to favor pitch as the three upper classes gather and fire a tremendous triple-topped bonfire Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. in anticipation of the upcoming Lamesa-Littlefield football game Friday night.

Tradition was broken this year, in that the bonfire was not staged at homecoming time, but was saved purposely for this "Beat Lamesa" occasion, states Gary Bradley, Student Body President.

The top three classes are building a triangular based bonfire, somewhat connected at the bottom but having three crowns at the top. Competition is keen to build the biggest bonfire ever.

A mystery person was designated Tuesday who will be able to present a crisp five dollar bill to the 100th person that says "Beat Lamesa" to him, Or maybe it's a she.

Students expect to combine with fans for one of the largest turnouts in many a year at Littlefield's stadium.

Pancake Supper Set For Friday

The Junior High School Cafeteria is the setting for an "all-you-can-eat" pancake supper previous to the Littlefield-Lamesa football contest Friday night. Serving begins at 5:15 p.m. and concludes at 6:45 p.m. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50¢ for children.

The supper is sponsored by the Lions Club and is their chief money-raising effort for its various community and charity activities.

Continuation Of Series On Amendments

This is the fourth in a series of articles concerning the amendments to the Texas Constitution that will be on the November 8th ballot. Again, we want to thank our State Representative Bill Clayton and the League of Women Voters of Texas for the help they have given us in the preparation of these articles. The recommendations are those of the Littlefield Publishing Company and not necessarily those of the people who helped us prepare the articles.

AMENDMENT No. 10--
H. J. R. No. 65

This is a proposed amendment to Section 3-b, Article VII of the Texas Constitution. The amendment provides that no taxes voted in any independent school district or junior college district, whether for maintenance or payment of principal and interest on all bonded indebtedness outstanding against a district or annexed territory, not any bonds, voted but unissued, shall be abrogated or invalidated by any change in boundaries.

BACKGROUND Ad valorem taxes levied by independent school districts and junior college districts consist of maintenance taxes to support the operation of schools and bond taxes to cover payment of interest on outstanding bonds and allow establishment of sinking fund for their retirement. Qualified property taxpayers voters of a district must approve a maximum rate of combined maintenance and bond taxation proposed by the governing board before taxes may be levied. Under judicial interpretation of Article VII, Section 3 of the property in a newly annexed portion of a district cannot be subjected to taxation without a new election in the district as changed. This restriction is a substantial barrier to the expansion of independent school districts and junior college districts. The amendment would eliminate the necessity of holding a tax rate election after annexation or consolidation in the district as changed. In short, it would allow effective annexation or consolidation without the necessity of calling an election in the new district to approve the tax rate. (See AMENDMENTS on Page 9)

PANCAKE SUPPER TICKETS--R.E. Hardman and Jim Mills (left) are shown purchasing tickets for the Lions Club Pancake Supper to be held Friday evening from 5:15 to 6:45 p.m. at the Junior High Cafeteria. Selling the tickets is Harold Clement (Center), who is a member of the advance ticket sales committee. The Pancake Supper is the chief fund raising source of the Lions Club and enjoys the patronage of hundreds, especially football fans. Tickets are 50 cents and a dollar.

Sheriff's Posse To Host "Little Britches Rodeo"

The Junior Department of the Sheriff's Posse of Lamb County, also known as the Pee-Wees, will be the participants Friday and Saturday night at the Offield Sports Arena on the Tahoka Highway as their parents host the annual "Little Britches Rodeo", announces Barton Spencer, president of the Posse.

This time the parents will be rooting and watching, he added. Last weekend the parents, however, gained a lot of experience as they entered their first national tournament at Dallas. Although the ladies did not compete, the following attended and pitted their skills against national leaders: Lee and Alice Elms, Bill and Mary Ellen Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Alton White, Bobby Brown, and Barton Spencer.

Entries from District I of which Lamb County is a member fared better as they came home with three first places, two second places, and one fifth.

1967 Voluntary Feed Grain Program Announced

The 1967 program will be basically the same as in previous years, the changes being a higher loan rate, higher total price support, and elimination of voluntary diversion for payment except on small farms which may earn diversion payments higher than in 1966.

"The 1967 feed grain program has these objectives: Improved farm income; livestock prices at a level fair to producers and consumers; full development of our export potential; and maintenance of adequate but not excessive reserves."

Major provisions of the 1967 program:

1. Acreage. The program encourages farmers to divert 15-18 million acres as compared with 30 million acres of corn and grain sorghum land diverted in 1966.

2. Price support. For corn, the price-support loan is increased from $1 to $1.05, national average, and the payment stays at 30 cents a bushel on the projected yield of acres planted, up to 50 percent of the base acreage. For grain sorghum the loan is increased from $1.52 to $1.61 per hundredweight (national average), and the payment stays at 53 cents, computed as for corn. Loans are again available on all corn and grain sorghum produced on participating farms.

3. Minimum diversion. As in 1966, a farmer will divert 20 percent of his corn and grain sorghum base to qualify for price support payment and loans.

4. Diversion payment for small farms. Program provisions are exactly the same as for 1966; however, payments will be higher. Farms with feed grain bases of 25 acres or less will again be eligible for land diversion payments equal to 20 percent of support (loans plus price support payments) for the qualifying diversion (20 percent of base acreage) and 50 percent of (See VOLUNTARY on Page 12)

Cotton Quota Referendum Dates Set

The upcoming referendum on marketing quotas for the 1967 crop of upland cotton will be conducted by mail during the period December 5 through 9, 1966, Lamar Aten, local ASCS head announced this week. This is the first time that growers have voted on marketing quotas by mail. It is hoped that this more convenient method will encourage a larger vote.

Growers eligible to cast ballots in the referendum are all those who engaged in the production of the 1966 crop of upland cotton. Ballots will be sent to all growers who are on record in the ASCS county office.

The quotas will become effective and the broad upland cotton diversion program will be available next year if at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas. This upland program would provide price-support and diversion payments as well as loans. If more than a third of the growers who vote disapprove quotas, price support at 50 percent of party will be available to growers who keep their 1967-crop and upland cotton acreage within their farm allotments.

Ties Highlight Football Contest

Six contestants again vied for first place in last week's football contest with C. F. Carrico of Amherst coming out on top for first place.

Don Hevern, also of Amherst, was right behind him for second place, and Arthur Duggan guessed next best on the tiebreakers for third place.

As the season wears along, more ties are occurring and the probable scores are vital in judging. One contestant lost his opportunity for a win this week because he didn't fill in the probable score.

Contestants are invited to pit their skills against Troy Armes in this week's contest. Entries are due by 5 p.m. Friday.

Contract For 6 Miles New Road Awarded

A contract for 6.465 miles of new road to be named 2901 located 2 miles north of Earth and Springlake has been awarded to a Lubbock firm, the State Highway Commission of Austin announced last week.

The new roads runs straight across between the present U.S. 385 and Farm to Market Road 1055. A short section of 1055 which needs a lake fill will also be remedied under the bid.

Kerr Construction Co. of Lubbock submitted the low bid of $182,344.34 on the project. Grading, structures, and base and surfacing is expected to take 130 working days.

Rhea E. Bradley, Resident Engineer at Littlefield, will be in active charge of the project while it is under construction.

Absentee Voting Deadline Friday

With 66 absentee ballots already cast, those who may be absent from the polls on Nov. 8th are reminded that 5 p.m. Friday is the deadline for absentee voting. Voting takes place at the County Clerk's office and forms are available there.

The old question of what happens when an unstopable force meets an immovable object may be resolved Friday night at Wildcat Stadium when the Cats host the Lamesa Tornados.

In many respects both teams resemble both immovable objects and unstopable forces. Littlefield has been churning out bigger and healthier scores each week and thus proved to be unstopable so far in its bid for the District 3A title. When it came time to dig in to hold the line and keep the winning score, the defensive line also has proved to be quite immovable.

Lamesa has a similar record. Coach Kirk's lads can be sure the Tors won't be coasting Friday night, since too much is at stake. Brownfield and Sweetwater still lie down the road for Lamesa after Littlefield, so from their point of view, they need this one.

A preview of what they will shoot against the Cats indicates they are in top shape. To promote the immovable object image they will send in Steve Paxton, linebacker, who has achieved honors as All District and All Plains star, Dell James, who last week completed 13 unassisted tackles against Lakeview, will be trying to bottle up plays along with Russel Dennis, an outside linebacker who likes to intercept passes. Last week he snatched one and ran it back for 95 yards. He's also a wingback on offense.

Two good quarterbacks, Bob Wiggins and Gene Everheart will alternate at that post. The backfield boasts speedy Louis Jenkins and Joe Harper. Opening holes will be Larry Paulk, who weighs in at 205.

The Cats know there is only one thing to do and that's to fight fire with fire. Nobody's going to be sleeping for this one. The Tors come in, having won the last two years over Littlefield, 9-6 last year, and 14-7 the year previous, but like Sweetwater, this trend can also be broken.

It just so happens that the Cats want this title a little harder than the Tors do, and they're ready to demonstrate it on the field. They rather enjoy being rated the underdog by others to the tune of 7-10 points because they've been tabbed that before, and found it quite sweet to emerge the winner.

1967 Wildcat Schedule Is Announced

The Littlefield Wildcat 1967 football schedule has been released by head coach George Kirk after a meeting of the school officials of the district Monday. The Cats will open district play with Dunbar High School of Lubbock, a new member of District 3-AAA.

The district next season will be boosted to 8 members with only 3 non-district games on the schedule. The Cats open play with AAAA Plainview Bulldogs at Plainview on Sept. 8th. The Cats will host Muleshoe on September 15th, followed by an open date.

The final non-district game will be with Tulia here on September the 29th. The following weekend the Wildcats will play Dunbar in Lubbock on either a Thursday or Saturday night depending on when a playing field in Lubbock will be available. Six other district games follow: Brownfield here on Oct. 13th; Sweetwater here on Oct. 20th; Snyder here on Oct. 27th; Lamesa there on November 3rd; Levelland here on November 10th; and Lakeview there on November the 17th.

Round Town In Littlefield

Tomorrow night will bring the moment of truth for Littlefield Wildcats. The Tornados from Lamesa into town and all the eyes in district 3-AAA will be on Littlefield. Not only are Lam and Littlefield tied for the lead but they are the top two and number one teams, respectively, in football in all of West Texas.

Can get all sorts of pre-views on this game as to the time but most folks agree it will be a terrific football game. Lamesa has played a tighter schedule than the Cats, but the only team to beat the Tors was the Lubbock team that Littlefield tied with the greatest of ease. So right now, it's "pay money and take your choice" but we predict it will be a well worth seeing.

The so called home field advantage will amount to little if the stands are not filled with cat rooters. Let's fill the stands and then some before 7:30 tomorrow.

Kip Cutshall New Lions Prexy

KIP CUTSHALL

Kip Cutshall assumed the presidency of the local Lions Club Wednesday at noon, due to the vacancy created by the departure of the former president, Rev. Jack Ellzey, to Lamesa.

Gene Pratt moves up to the position of first vice-president and James Lee moves to the position of second vice-president.

The most immediate project of the Lions Club to be completed is the Pancake Supper set for Friday evening at the Junior High School Cafeteria. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50¢ for children. Serving time is 5:15 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. preceding the Lamesa-Littlefield football game.

Fund Drive For Salvation Army Underway

As a prelude to the larger drive, for the Salvation Army, the Advance Gifts Division workers met Wednesday morning at a breakfast meeting at the Crescent House Restaurant under the leadership of Pat Boone, Jr., Advance Gifts Chairman.

The larger group of workers met Thursday morning at 10 a.m. at the Crescent House Restaurant where Lt. Col. Paul Thornburg, Dallas Divisional Commander, provided inspiration, encouragement and advice for the conduct of the drive.

The amount being sought is sizeable, totalling $12,795.25.

Mrs. Oscar Wilemon leads the corps of women workers while Mr. James Lee is General Chairman of the Drive.

Littlefield to learn whether or not the community made a mistake in letting the United Fund go by the boards. Individual fund drives are now in the making for the various organizations that used to be represented in the Fund.

Many people are being called on now and will be called on later to work in these individual fund drives.

We hope they all succeed but when it's all over, we rather imagine some of the workers will consider resurrecting the United Fund.

MOTHER OF A FIGHTING WILDCAT -- Shown above with one of the signs appearing in the yards of the members of the Littlefield Wildcat football team, is Mrs. Landum Grissom. She is the mother of Mike Grissom, quarterback of the Littlefield Wildcats. These signs were made with the help of the Vocational Industrial Arts, the Art Department, Cheerleaders, and Student Council of Littlefield High School. After Friday night we hope the signs read, "Home of a District Winning Wildcat".

TEXAS IS ON THE MOVE!

In virtually every field of endeavor, our state has made dramatic progress the past four years under the strong leadership of Governor John Connally. His administration's bold, yet sensible programs have helped provide new opportunity and a better way of life for all our people.

IMPROVED EDUCATION—Since 1963, state investment in higher education has doubled, and faculty salaries have increased 40%. State support of local public schools have increased 44% in four years, including a $100 million teacher pay raise enacted in 1965. Technical and vocational training programs have been vastly increased; junior college enrollment doubled during the current bi-ennium. Special literacy programs for migrant workers and their children have been expanded. A college student loan fund of $85 million has been established. And a special Governor's Committee on Public Education currently is studying all facets of elementary and secondary education.

WATER RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT—Long range planning and development have been given top priority. $100 million in bonds have been issued for development of needed storage facilities; authorization has been granted to expand this program to $200 million for the next two years.

CONCERN FOR THE AGED AND NEEDY—Since 1963, assistance to our elderly has been increased 27%. The Governor's Committee on Aging is continually working for the benefit of our senior citizens.

OUTDOOR RECREATION—More than $2 million has been invested in improving ten of our most attractive state parks during the past two years to provide additional recreational facilities.

INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION—A record 855 new industrial plants have been established the past three years, moving Texas into second place in the nation in industrial expansion. Last year, more than 23,000 new jobs were created in manufacturing alone—the best year ever for the Texas labor force.

INCREASED TOURISM—More than 12 million tourists visited Texas last year, adding more than $900 million to the state's economy, and creating 140,000 new jobs. The state's tourist advertising program has been sharply expanded.

MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION—New emphasis on prevention of mental illness and mental retardation has been achieved through establishment of new community centers, replacing the former practice of "warehousing" patients. Investment for research into causes of mental disorders has doubled the past four years.

BETTER HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION—Texas has more farm-to-market roads than any other state—more than 35,134 miles. We lead the nation in construction of interstate highways, at a cost 40% below the nation's average.

COMBAT AIR AND WATER POLLUTION—New legislation for public health, "The Clear Air Act of Texas," provides state action to combat air pollution. Similar vigorous action has been initiated to control pollution of Texas streams, bays and estuaries.

NEW CULTURAL GROWTH—The Fine Arts Commission was established in 1963 to nurture the cultural enrichment of Texans. The state's cultural heritage will be preserved and portrayed in the state's pavilion at HemisFair '68 in San Antonio.

BUSINESSLIKE ADMINISTRATION—With unprecedented teamwork, our state government has operated responsibly and efficiently. The Legislature has finished its work on time in each session. Following a pay-as-you-go policy, we have maintained a healthy surplus in the general revenue fund without curtailing essential services.

HEALTHY, GROWING ECONOMY—Business activity rose 11% last year. As Texas continues one of the brightest growth areas. Employment and income are at an all-time high, unemployment at an all-time low. Despite increased responsibilities, our state government costs only $168.78 a year per citizen—the fourth lowest in the nation. No broad-based tax has been enacted the past four years. Texas still has no personal income or payroll tax, no corporate income tax, and is one of few remaining states with a limited sales tax of 2%.

Wildcat Opponents Friday Night

THE LAMESA TORNADOES COME TO LITTLEFIELD FRIDAY—Tied with the Wildcats for first place in the District. These two powerful teams boast of an undefeated district record with one non-district loss. The Tornados are rated third in the State in Class AAA defense, allowing only 25 points to be scored in 7 games.

Peace Corps To Test On Nov. 12

Lamb County residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 9 a.m. on Saturday November 12, at the Post Office at Littlefield.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. If test scores indicate a limited language-learning ability, for example, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking country. The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive—an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form, not the placement test, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525.

The placement test takes about an hour and a half.

Funk, Batman Team Up For Wrestling Bout

What is billed as a 4 1/2 man tag team bout, Dory Funk and the Batman team against Alex Perez, Jerry London and Jack Cain at the Littlefield Sports Arena Saturday night. Who the half man is will have to be decided by the fans. Two other matches will precede this main event.

Perez outlasted the Batman last week to take his match in two out of three falls. The fans contested the decision, however, since the referee was incapacitated at the moment when Batman had his second pin.

Howard Rose of Midland, Chairman of West Texas Chamber of Commerce State Affairs Committee, announced today that the WTCC supports all 16 of the Constitutional Amendments which will be voted upon by Texas voters November 8.

Special emphasis was called to Amendment 7, concerning the abolishment of the poll tax, and Amendment 11, which will provide additional money for the State's portion of various water projects.

John Ben Shepperd, president of WTCC, asked West Texans to give positive consideration to all the amendments and urge all of them to vote November 8.

"Amendment 7 should be favored," said Mr. Rose, "because it will provide for an annual system of registration which

AMENDMENT

Metropolitan areas with growing and spreading populations need to have natural areas of independent school districts. This amendment would eliminate the need for an election after a boundary change. The desirability of joining a school district properly include the desirability of the outstanding business and to approve the desirability of the receiving district. This amendment is now in Dallas County and is made so for the entire

AMENDMENT No. 11--
S. J. R. No. 19
This proposed amendment to Article IX of the Texas Constitution permits the Water Development Bond issue an additional $200 million in general revenue authorized by a two-thirds vote of the elected members of each house of the legislature. In addition, the proposed amendment expands the uses to which the water development fund may be put.

RECOMMENDATION: We recommend you vote FOR this amendment.

BACKGROUND: In 1962, the voters approved a statewide hospital district amendment. As a result of this amendment, specific constitutional authorization need no longer be secured for the creation of a hospital district. The history since 1949 has been one of change from the traditional county hospital system, in which finances are limited due to other demands placed upon counties, to the hospital district with its authorization to tax at the rate of 75¢ on the $100 valuation. During this period, however, little consideration was given to the question of how to dissolve a hospital district. No election to abolish a hospital district can be called. To remedy this type of situation, the amendment to Section 9, Article IX has been proposed. It would provide constitutional authorization to dissolve a hospital district.

FOR: If the voters may vote to create, they should be able to vote to dissolve. This would provide a means of consolidating several districts into one larger and more efficient district. It would provide relief from tax imposed by special districts in areas where this revenue source is unduly burdensome.

AGAINST: Opponents of hospital districts would be provided with an opportunity to harass the district and, thus, confuse the voters and also make it harder to recruit and retain qualified personnel. The problem of protecting the bondholders upon dissolution demands more careful study.

state can ill afford additional demands on the general revenue funds.

RECOMMENDATION: We recommend you vote FOR this amendment.

AMENDMENT No. 12 --
H. J. R. No. 48
This proposed amendment to Section 9, Article IX of the Texas Constitution, authorizes the legislature to provide for the dissolution of hospital districts if a process is provided by statute for satisfying the prerequisites to dissolution. First, there must be a statutory process for determining the desire of a majority of the voters to dissolve. Second, the statute must provide a means for disposing of or transferring the assets of the district. Third, there must be statutory authority for satisfying the debts and bond obligations of the district in order to protect the collective rights of the citizens in district assets and property. In order to regulate the frequency of dissolution elections, no elections may be held more than once each year. In addition, the amendment states that the legislature shall be statute, prior to disposal or transfer of the assets, provide for due compensation unless the assets are transferred to another governmental agency.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS INC.

Now is the time for producers on the Plains thinking about a supply planting seed for 1967. Ray still have most of the seed from which to choose. The advice of Dr. Leagonomist at the South research and Extension north of Lubbock. Ray special care in the seed handling of planting this year's crop will be more important because of freeze and the high of verticillium wilt, leaf spot and bacterial

Fourth, the seed should be properly treated and stored under dry conditions to prevent heating and loss of germination. Ray points out that verticillium wilt does about the same damage to seed as an early freeze. If seed from wilt infested cotton is acid delinted and treated, this disease will not be carried over to the next year's crop, he said. However, this does not hold true for seed from fields infested with angular leaf spot or bacterial blight, Ray warns. These diseases can be carried in planting seed regardless of delinting and chemical seed treatment, and seed from cotton infected by either leaf spot or blight should never be saved for planting.

It is difficult to estimate what the supply of planting seed may be in 1967. There will be some farmers whose crop this year is not suitable for saving seed for one or all of the above reasons. And seed breeders themselves will in some instances be required to cut a high percentage of their certified seed as they are processed in order to maintain quality standards. The unknown quality, though, is the amount of planting seed in the farmer's barn. It is wide knowledge that not too many farmers saved planting seed from the 1965 crop, but most are thought to have had a large seed supply at the beginning of the 1965 season, and some of this is probably still on hand.

"It is clear to all of us that rapidly rising textile imports are a serious threat to the raw cotton industry of the U.S.," These are the words of Donald A. Johnson, executive vice-president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., who recently returned from a meeting of the Textile Imports and Cotton Exports Subcommittee of the National Cotton Advisory Committee. Imports of manufactured cotton products into the U.S. during the first eight months of 1966 were equivalent to 675,500 bales — just slightly less than the full year 1965 total of 751,000 bales — and if the upward trend continues, the total for 1966 could well exceed 1.1 million bales. Cotton imports have more than doubled in the past five years, and imports of all textile products, including man-made and woolsens, are up 50 per cent just in the past year. These and other facts reviewed by the Subcommittee were responsible for its recommendation to the U. S. Department of Agriculture that the Long Term Cotton Textile Arrangement (LTA) be renewed and made more effective wherever possible. In addition, the Subcommittee requested that the USDA begin now to make a thorough study of other ways and means by which the rise in cotton textile imports might be curbed. It was felt that an alternative would be needed in the event a renewal of the LTA was not accomplished or if it proved ineffective. The LTA was negotiated with foreign countries by the Kennedy administration in 1962. It expires in 1967. Discussions leading to its extension were recently recessed in Geneva to give the various countries an opportunity to enter into bilateral agreements. The discussions are expected to be resumed late in November. The "arrangement" is a rather loose agreement between the various countries, designed to promote orderly cotton textile imports to the U.S. It has not the means to control imports, but only to exercise some restraint. Under the LTA, cotton textile imports to the U. S. have gone from 428,000 bale equivalents in 1961 to 970,000 bale equivalents in the Arrangement's fourth year, which ended September 30, 1966. For this reason many have questioned the effectiveness of the LTA, but most observers agree that without the LTA imports of manufactured cotton products would have been much greater.

Texas Tech Launches ICASALS Program

History for the South Plains, in fact, for all of the Plains, and many portions of the world was truly made on Monday, October 31, some 40 miles from Littlefield as national and international dignitaries convened at Texas Technological College in Lubbock to launch an International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies, henceforth to be known as ICASALS.

The eventual effect of the proposed studies and research will indeed reach into the homes of everyone as well as the farms and farming procedures. To define the effects simply, one might say that Texas Tech is launching studies that in certain senses are a matter of life and death for people with an ebbing water supply. The proposed research and studies will begin to tackle problems now that will have to be faced within fifty years, seeking solutions now that will have to be faced within fifty years, seeking solutions now so that drastic changes do not have to take place on the Plains along economic lines.

Elected Queen

WHITHARRAL—Miss Charlotte Caldwell was named football queen at the homecoming game Friday night. Misses Judy Wade and Claudia Wade were members of the court. Leroy Bradley, co-captain and Walter Caldwell, captain of the team, crowned the queen, presented her with a dozen red roses and escorted her to the royal chair. Miss Sharon Throckmorton presented Stan Sadler, defensive captain, with a gift as he was named Football Hero by the pep squad.

Following the game with Bula, that ended with a 30-0 score for Whitharral, players and ex-students were honored at a reception at the Lions Club Building by members of the Parent-Teachers Association.

tile products, including man-made and woolsens, are up 50 per cent just in the past year. These and other facts reviewed by the Subcommittee were responsible for its recommendation to the U. S. Department of Agriculture that the Long Term Cotton Textile Arrangement (LTA) be renewed and made more effective wherever possible.

In addition, the Subcommittee requested that the USDA begin now to make a thorough study of other ways and means by which the rise in cotton textile imports might be curbed. It was felt that an alternative would be needed in the event a renewal of the LTA was not accomplished or if it proved ineffective.

The LTA was negotiated with foreign countries by the Kennedy administration in 1962. It expires in 1967. Discussions leading to its extension were recently recessed in Geneva to give the various countries an opportunity to enter into bilateral agreements. The discussions are expected to be resumed late in November.

The "arrangement" is a rather loose agreement between the various countries, designed to promote orderly cotton textile imports to the U.S. It has not the means to control imports, but only to exercise some restraint.

Under the LTA, cotton textile imports to the U. S. have gone from 428,000 bale equivalents in 1961 to 970,000 bale equivalents in the Arrangement's fourth year, which ended September 30, 1966. For this reason many have questioned the effectiveness of the LTA, but most observers agree that without the LTA imports of manufactured cotton products would have been much greater.

Johnson and the others on the subcommittee also feel the LTA could be even more effective if the State Department could be induced to use the restrictive mechanism which is available to the U. S. under the arrangement. The State Department may, if it sees fit, promptly cut off further imports of particular categories of textiles when these imports from a given country exceed the negotiated base under the LTA.

The State Department, however, has been reluctant to use this mechanism in the past and that reluctance is likely to continue.

Also essential to making the LTA more effective, Johnson maintains, is the securing of bilateral agreements between the U. S. and some additional countries. He cites Mexico and Brazil and two of the countries with which the U. S. now has no bilateral agreements. These are two of the three countries which have shown the largest percentage increase of exports to the U. S. during the past year, principally in the category of yarns. The combined exports to the U. S. from Mexico and Brazil jumped from 8,000 bales in 1965 to 73,000 bales in the first 11 months of 1966.

show how the United States had previously been working at the problem of using water to its best advantage, but stated that today's problem was focused on the question of how many times we can re-use our waters, not how far we can stretch the usable waters.

Sr. Ing. Emilio Portes Gil, Honorary President of an Institution in Mexico concerned with Arid Zones, showed the plight of Mexico which has 52.1% of arid and semi-arid lands. Raising livestock and experimenting with 14 vegetables are the key uses to which these lands have been put so far, he stated. He also alluded to Egypt's experiment of using giant machinery in the Sahara to remove the sand and expose black soil which is being cultivated.

Dr. S. Dillon Ripley, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, pointed to the factor of overgrazing of grasslands as causing much arid land to become unuseful and mentioned the possible use of satellites to make crude measurements which could be helpful to stop erosion patterns.

Of significance to irrigation farmers on the Plains, Dr. Ripley stated flatly that giant irrigation systems of the past lasted only for a century or two, but that smaller schemes were of much longer duration. Nor, he concluded, does ever-increasing irrigation offer the final solution.

Dr. John W. Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare of Washington, D.C., emphasized that education of people and nations was probably more important than any phase of technology which saves water or puts it to better use. He stressed that basic literacy was the ticket of admission to the modern world. Modern men must be literate, he concluded, in order to operate properly any systems of solving water problems that technological science might produce.

Dr. Gardner's speech was one of several that began to show the vast scope of studies that would have to be undertaken in the studies of Arid and Semi-Arid lands.

William T. Pecora, Director of U.S. Geological Survey, felt that geology, a relatively new science, would indeed be able to solve the problems confronting mankind in preserving his environment in a usable fashion.

Luna B. Leopold, Research Hydrologist added another interesting observation to the entire set of essays by stating that the problem was not so much a problem of water as it was of people. By this he meant the attitudes that people take to the problem as well as the dollar values they attach to water were not necessarily the most important values. He pointed to small demonstration projects on even city and county levels as being the best start toward solving the problems, rather than using vast areas.

Governor John Connally highlighted the gathering at noon which showed an impressive awareness of the need for all of Texas to become involved in the study of survival, since 65% of Texas land was arid or semi-arid. He pointed out that 6 million acres of land were unused right now in Texas that were usable if the salt cedar tree and playa lake problems can be solved. He encouraged those present to vote for Amendment No. 11 coming up in the November 8 election which will appropriate another $200,000 for water development.

AMHERST CHEERLEADERS — The five young ladies above will be yelling their heads off as they lead the cheers for the Amherst Bulldogs as they give Wilson a tassel Friday night.

support of any additional acres diverted, up to the total base. Producers who have bases of more than 25 acres and who divert 25 acres and plant no feed grains will be eligible for diversion payment on 5 acres at 20 percent of support and 20 acres at 30 percent of support.

5. Additional diversion for payment on other farms. Except on small farms, there will be no diversion payments. The Department seriously considered recommendations for a provision for additional diversion available to all farmers at a reduced rate. However, in view of the need for increased production and the possibility of encouraging the diversion of too much acreage, and in the interest of program simplicity the payment for additional diversion was dropped from the program.

6. Projected yields. Yields will be calculated on an up-to-date basis as provided for in the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965. For corn, the national average projected yield will be 75 bushels per acre as compared to the 72 bushels per acre projected for 1966.

7. Conserving base provisions. Conserving base and acreage substitution features continue as in 1966.

8. Soybean substitution. Soybeans will continue to be eligible for planting on permitted acreage without loss of corn sorghum price-support payments.

9. Barley. As announced earlier, barley is not included in the 1967 program.

The program signup period will begin in early 1967. Wheat and cotton program signups will be held concurrently with those for the feed grain program.

"The success of the voluntary feed grain program has brought feed grain supplies into line with demand," Secretary Freeman said.

"As of October 1 this year, the carryover was approximately 47 million tons which is generally considered to be a desirable level. However, increased domestic use and soaring exports in the vital dollar markets of the world indicate a high total utilization. A possible 30-million-ton carryover is in prospect for next October 1. Since a further drawdown in stocks is not desirable, production should aim to provide supplies for the 1967-68 marketing year adequate for domestic use and a continued high level of export sales, even with unfavorable weather during the 1967 growing season.
