

Anton Wins Second; Wildcats Place Third In Annual Crosbyton Relays

Cunningham Sets New Mile Record

By JIMMIE CHAPMAN
The Littlefield Wildcats placed third out of thirty-four entries in the second annual Crosbyton Relays at Crosbyton Saturday by gaining two first places and one fourth place to end up with a total of 11 points.

Plainview the only Class AAA school entered in the meet barely edged out Class B Anton for first place totaling 24 1/2 points. Anton ended up with a total of 14 points. Plainview had to come from behind and win in the final event to beat the Class B school.

Sobby Cunningham turned in one of the spectacular runs of the day when he set a new meet record in the mile run. He ran the mile in the time of 4:37.0 to knock 20 seconds off of the old record set by David Sager of Amherst last year.

Max Morris also won a first place for Littlefield when he threw the discus 143 ft., 6 in. Joe Hoover also placed fourth in the shot put to pick up the other lone point for the Wildcats.

Others from the area placing first were Jimmy Williams of Sudan, who barely edged out David Sager from Amherst in the 440-yard dash. The Springlake 440-yard relay composed of Donald Sandel, Ronald Sadel, Max Neal, and Jimmy Heering won first in that event. William Detwiler in the 120-yard high hurdles tied the record set by Bill Kelley of New Deal in the time of 25.4, and his team mate Anton Ryals set a new record in the pole vault with 10' 8".

Total points for the teams entered were Plainview with 24 1/2 points, Anton had 14.

Following were Littlefield 11; Olton 10 1/2; Matador 10; Spur, Hake Center, Sudan and Farwell with 9 each; Jayton and Springlake with 8 each; Lorenzo 7; Hails 6; Sundown 5; Plains, Amherst, Post, and Cotton Center with 4 each; Whittace 2 1/2; Slaton and Happy with 2 each; Friendship with 1 1/2; and Lockney with 1. Childress, Guadalupe, Hart, Muleshoe, O'Donnell, Floydada, West Crosbyton, Ropesville, Union of Brownfield, and Comstock didn't score.

Race Against Time

EXPLANATION
 Some May Ask . . . Why The Votes The Answer Is This:

If the winners were determined merely by the ones who secured the greatest number of subscriptions, then each one would have to work the full four weeks to see who could secure the greatest number, but the Opportunity Coupons at the left count for each candidate only during the first two weeks, while it still gives us the opportunity to have two weeks to find the right representative in each territory, so that each part of the territory will be worked. This is the most attractive offer ever made in this community and if you do not thoroughly understand the plan, come in at once or phone 26 or 27, Littlefield, and have it explained without obligating you in any way.

Advisory Board

It is the sincere desire of these newspapers to conduct this drive from start to finish in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of participants and absolute honesty in all dealings is guaranteed. However, not all wisdom lies with one man or institution; for that reason an Advisory Board has been selected whose function shall be to decide any question of sufficient moment that might arise during the campaign, and from which a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the votes the last night of the campaign.

Extension's Agricultural Chemist Reports

The test tubes and complicated equipment found in agricultural chemical laboratories are constantly being used to help farmers and ranchmen put science to work in their operations. The result, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist, has been more and better food, clothing, and shelter for the nation's population.

Thornton is a strong believer that the formulation of any system of agricultural planning or any systematic developments of agriculture rests in the soil. He has worked during past years with other extension specialists, research workers, county agents and many others interested in educational meetings and demonstrations which open the way to greater farm prosperity and a higher level of rural living through the use of fertilizers and sound soil improvement practices.

During the past year Thornton participated in statewide and regional conferences for fertilizer makers and dealers. He visited 30 different counties to hold conferences or to participate in group meetings. He also participated in 52 meetings, 17 were district in scope, and contacted 147 county agents in furthering work in agricultural chemistry demonstrations. Total attendance at the 52 meetings was 2,350.

Thornton spends much of his time supervising the soil testing laboratory which is operated by the Extension Service at College Station. On the basis of soil samples submitted to this laboratory the soil type and location in the State, the specialist makes recommendations to farmers and ranchmen on fertilizer usage and cropping practices. Last year the laboratory tested 10,111 soil samples.

On the basis of present and past results, he says, the laboratory has proved its value to agricultural progress in Texas. It cites three examples of the value of soil testing. A pasture demonstrator had been using 400 pounds each of ammonium sulfate and superphosphate an acre. A soil test showed the 400 pounds of sulphate would meet the fertilizer requirements. The result, an increase of 150 pounds of forage an acre; an increase of $7.80 cents an acre in net profit and a drop in fertilizer cost for ton of forage increase from $3.40 to $1.90.

A sweet potato grower who had been using 200 pounds an acre of 10-20-20 for fertilizer to get an increase of 110 bushels of potatoes an acre found that by following the recommendation from the soil testing laboratory, 1,000 pounds an acre of 4-8-12, his increase jumped to 271 bushels an acre. His profit went from $201 to $522.36 figuring the potatoes at $1.20 a bushel. The fertilizer cost for each bushel increase also dropped from 8 to 7 1/2 cents a bushel.

A central Texas cotton farmer who found his cotton yield going down submitted soil samples to the laboratory and the tests showed that 200 pounds of 10-20-0 fertilizer an acre was needed at planting time and a side dressing of 125 pounds ammonium nitrate at first bloom. These recommendations were followed and production jumped 3 1/2 bales an acre against three-fourths of a bale on the check plot. The fertilizer cost for the additional lint cotton amounted to only 1 1/2 cents a pound.

The crust is flakier if the top is brushed lightly with cold water just before the pies go into the oven.

Lord's Supper

Lesson for March 18, 1956

CHRISTIANS are divided about many things; but they are all one in the Lord's Supper. "What?" some one will ask. "Don't some churches refuse to let members of other churches but their own partake of the Communion with them? Don't different churches have different explanations of what this sacrament means? Don't various denominations observe it in various ways? How can you say all Christians are united in the Lord's Supper?"

Dr. Foreman

We Think Him

It is true, there are seemingly endless variations in the way the Lord's Supper is observed. Even the name is not always the same, some preferring to call it the Eucharist, others Holy Communion. There are also theologians' debates about it. But plain Christians do unite here even when they may not be quite aware of it. For there are three facts that are always true of this sacred observance, however or wherever it is held. First of all, in the Lord's Supper we think of Christ. It is possible to go even to a Christian church and not hear very much about Jesus Christ on that particular day. (Jesus' own teaching was not always about himself.) But it is not possible to go into a church where the Lord's Supper is being taken by the people, without being reminded directly of Christ. Every Christian has heard the words many times—"my body," "my blood," "in remembrance of me." Here are bread and wine, but every worshiper knows that these are not simple ordinary refreshment. They are symbols and signs of Christ, his actual suffering and death on the cross. Whatever the church may be, its members always think of Christ when they take Communion.

We Find Him

There is something more than thinking about Jesus and his sacrifice, when we take Communion. In this sacrament we find Him. It is quite true, different churches have different official explanations about how we find Christ here. But from "High Church" to "Low," in "Liberal" and "Conservative," in Catholic and Protestant congregations alike, if you could ask the people as they come out of doors again, "What did that service mean to you?" It might be that some would hardly know what to say, for it is always possible to go through the motions without really thinking what one is doing. But those who had entered wholeheartedly into the service, who had come "in love and charity" and in faith, would all tell you about the same thing: "Christ came very near to me." If Christ seems just as far away after the Lord's Supper as before, then there has been something wrong about us. That is why the Roman Catholic church will not admit any one to communion if he has not been to Confession first. That is why in many Protestant churches the people are warned to abstain from Communion if they harbor malice or ugly feeling toward their neighbors.

We Share Him

If it is true that in the Lord's Supper we find the Lord himself, it should be true—and happily it is so—that afterwards life should go on at a higher level than before. The Lord's Supper is less like a doorway leading from one room to another just like it, than it is like a gateway across a boundary from one country to another. Christ comes to us in the Sacrament, but not as a fleeting guest. If we are serious as we take the bread and wine and think about all this in the quiet of prayer, we will so enter into the spirit of Christ himself that we shall re-dedicate ourselves in his service. It is a kind of parody on Christian ideas to think of Christ's sacrifice as alone and by itself. His cross must be followed by other crosses. His outpoured life must be shared by others who are willing to pour their lives out in turn. And it is this, again, which unites all the Christians who in their many varied fashions have taken this Lord's Supper with devoted hearts. For there is a family resemblance among all real Christians, whatever their church-label may be. And the resemblance goes back to the same Christ, who has shared himself with every Christian everywhere and always who has taken this Bread and Cup.

Dr. R. L. Dodson To Be Baptist Speaker Sunday

Dr. Robert L. Dodson, chairman of the Division of Bible and Religion at Wayland College, who will be guest speaker at both services for the First Baptist church of Littlefield, on Sunday March 18, has recently returned from a study tour of the Holy Land and attendance at the Baptist World Alliance in London.

Since his return he has been invited to give an illustrated lecture on his Holy Land experiences and observations by many groups.

Dr. Dodson who has been in his Wayland post since 1948 was given this trip by his friends, members of the Valley View church which he pastors on a part-time basis, and members of his family who knew that it would increase his knowledge and understanding in a field in which he is already widely recognized.

Dr. Dodson and Mrs. Dodson, who is an assistant professor of English at Wayland, went to Plainview in 1948 from Kansas City, Mo., where he had been teaching in Central Baptist Seminary while completing his requirements for the doctor of theology degree. He holds the BA from Baylor University and the ThM from Southwestern Seminary, Ft. Worth.

Dr. Dodson is adviser to the Ministerial Alliance, an organization of some 150 Wayland College ministerial students, and has served as president of the Southwest Bible Teachers Association and as president of the Association of Baptist College Teachers of Religion.
