United Fund Falls Short Of Goal

Littlefield's United Fund Drive fell short of the $22,340 goal when the office closed at 5 p.m. Tuesday. The drive had reached $19,608 at that time, with several persons not reporting.

Although the office has been closed, contributions can be sent to James Lee, drive treasurer, at the First National Bank in Littlefield or mailed to P. O. Box 569.

A spokesman for the Fund Drive said, "We realize that some persons and firms have not been contacted and we urged those who have not to contact Lee, or Mrs. Betty Teck." It was explained that many of the people who were missed were out-of-town when the workers called on them.

The spokesman continued that the Fund Board sincerely hoped that these persons cared enough about the welfare of the four organizations to make a contribution.

At closing time Tuesday there were still a number of employee groups which have not reported and a few in the general business division. A partial report was received from the branch house division and from the Negro division with no report as yet from the Spanish division.

Littlefield Steam Laundry was added to the list of businesses whose employees gave 100 per cent to the Fund Drive.

District Meet Is Held Here

A stepped-up traffic safety and enforcement program was outlined this week to the Highway Patrolmen in the Littlefield District by Sergeant D. S. Lawson, in charge of the district and Capt. E. L. Posey, in charge of the Lubbock region of the Patrol.

The Lubbock area received the Fleet Safety Award as being the safest area in the state, and the Littlefield District received the award as being the safest district in the area. The awards will be presented at a banquet to be held in Lubbock later this month.

Family Night Is Planned

Littlefield department stores and other businesses will be open for "Christmas Stockin' Family Night" Thursday, December 14.

Contrary to what some previous publicity had stated, family night is not tonight, but a week from tonight.

According to the retail merchants' plan for the event, many merchants will feature special prices for the evening hours.

Old Santa Claus will be back in Littlefield that night to visit with the kiddies again and other features are planned for the customer's convenience in night shopping Littlefield stores.

More information will be revealed about the event in Sunday's County Wide News.

Mahon Will Speak To Rotary Club

Congressman George Mahon of Lubbock will speak at the noon meeting today of the Littlefield Rotary Club, Marshall Howard, Rotary president, announced Tuesday.

Mahon will speak on the world situation and the current problems facing the administration.

Mahon told Howard he would stay at the Community Center after the Rotary meeting to talk with anyone from this area. He further invited persons to come by the Center after 1:15 and until about 2 p.m.

Howard said many of the Rotarians will bring guests.

Wildcats Beat Olton

Littlefield's Wildcat Basketball team pulled out a come-from-behind contest Tuesday night against the Olton Mustangs for the first victory of the young season.

The Wildcats scored 28 points in the last quarter to take the 65 - 52 victory at Olton. The locals trailed the Mustangs 45-37 going into the final period but poured on the steam while holding Olton to seven points.

Grover Pigum was high man for Littlefield with 18 points but was followed closely by teammates Larry Wood and Junior Hodge with 17 points each.

Johnny Schenck poured in 23 points for Olton and Gary Johnson got 15.

Olton had a wide 30 - 18 margin at half-time, but the Wildcats outscored the Mustangs in the third period 19 - 13 and went on ahead in the final 12 minutes of play.

Littlefield also won the B game 36 - 27, with Tim Chambers leading the Cats with 12 points.

Farm Accidents Take Heavy Toll In Area

Farm accidents during the past weeks have been the plague of the Littlefield area, with victims losing fingers and in some cases the use of hands and arms.

With the cooperation of the Medical Arts Hospital and the Littlefield Hospital, a partial list of the victims and the injuries was made available.

Some of the tendons in his arms was torn loose.

County Gets Three DWI's

County Sheriff's deputies arrested three persons on DWI charges, one for drunk and two for disturbance, over the weekend.

Esavel Brisero Salas, 43-year-old San Antonio resident, was arrested for DWI about 4 p.m. Sunday three miles north of Highway 54, on the Fieldton cutoff. Salas pleaded guilty before County Judge Pat Boone, Jr., and was fined $150 and costs and three days in jail.

Leon Peace, 47-year-old Lubbock man, was arrested on DWI charges at 12 a.m. Monday on Houston Street in Littlefield. He pleaded not guilty before Judge Boone and his bond was set at $1,000.

Perceto Perez of Amherst was arrested at 4:20 p.m. Monday and charged with DWI. He was picked up just outside the Littlefield City Limits as he was driving northwest on Highway 84. He pleaded guilty and was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

There were many others injured, it should be stated and many others who barely escaped injury while working on cotton strippers, tractors and in cotton gins.

Lalo Munoz was injured when a tractor ran over him while at work.

Vernon Eagan, manager of the Yellowhouse Gin, lost two fingers and received permanent injury to his left hand and arm when his hand became caught in a chain at the gin and was carried through the cog wheel.

Jose Sanchez was painfully injured when a tractor blade struck him. The brakes on the tractor failed to hold.

Jaycees Set Turkey Shoot

Littlefield's Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Turkey Shoot Saturday morning beginning at 10 according to John Edd Hutchins, Jaycee president.

Hutchins said the Shoot will be held south of the Crescent Park Motel with prizes of hams, turkeys and candy. He added that persons could either bring their own guns or there will be guns furnished at the Shoot.

Willis J. Ward mashed his hand while putting a stripper together. The elevator fell and caught his hand.

Johny Schenck poured in 23 points for Olton and Gary Johnson got 15.

Republicans Hear Hayes Monday

O. W. (Bill) Hayes of Temple, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas, told a Littlefield audience Monday night he believes the Republican party is the last major hurdle for socialism in the United States.

Hayes, speaking off the cuff, said he was proud to be running for the state post, but was proud to be seeking the office as a conservative Republican.

Hayes previously has called for a bi-partisan "Little Hoover Committee" to investigate waste in the state government.

His bid for the office is not the first election experience for the gray-haired businessman.

In 1940, Hayes was elected a member of the New Hampshire state legislature, served on the Ways and Means Committee of that body, and was a Major aid-de-camp to the governor. (See Republican on Page 5)

Vehicle Tags Hit Record

Vehicle registrations reached an all-time high in Lamb County according to records in the office of Herbert Dunn, County Tax Collector - Assessor.

For the first time in history the state's portion of vehicle registration money is more than that which stays in the county. At the close of business last Saturday, the state's portion reached $176,265.94 while the county's share is $175,000.

Dunn explained the county keeps the first $50,000 received in registrations and then shares 50 - 50 with the state until the county's share reaches $175,000 and the state receives the rest.

To date farm trailer registrations total 8,500 which Dunn said was more than he expected. He stated that at the beginning of the season he estimated registrations would run between 7,000 and 9,000.

Chamber Issues Solicitor Warning

Wednesday morning, chamber of commerce manager Gene Garrison cautioned Littlefield merchants to ask for a card of clearance from the chamber of office when they are solicited by magazine and other types of transient salesmen.

Garrison said there is some confusion also as to whether or not sales involve business or charity benefits, and that he would make notation on clearance cards for merchant's benefit.

He said that the United Fund and other charitable agencies took care of various charities and usually transient salesmen involved a straight business proposition, and such sales should be judged by the merchant on the benefits of the sales proposition.

The responsibility of the chamber office in the above cases is to check the solicitor's company and verify that they are reputable and will deliver the goods as stated, Garrison said. He also said it was impossible to judge the integrity of the salesman. The chamber office also keeps a file of information on each solicitor for the merchant's reference.

Solicitation in the residential area is controlled by a city ordinance and clearance for this method of solicitation must come from the city offices. (See Chamber on Page 5)

Council Agenda Is Released

Agenda for Thursday night's City Council meeting was released by J. W. Harrison, City Manager.

Slated for action by the Council is a discussion on the purchase of a heater for the lower floor of fire station, discussion of the dates which the City Hall will be closed for the Christmas and New Year's holidays, and hearing a report on the cost of parking meters.

Also on the agenda the Council will discuss authorizing the City manager to invite bids on six and eight inch sewer tile for the flats addition and bids on street sweeper materials. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. and is open to the public.

One Hurt In Car-Truck Accident

One man was injured early Sunday morning in a flaming car-truck accident on Farm Road 168 between Spade and Hart Camp. Oral B. Gulley of Anton received abrasions, a minor neck injury and lacerations of the forehead and is in satisfactory condition at a Littlefield hospital.

Highway Patrolman Bill Angel investigated the accident which completely destroyed the auto Gulley was driving, and did only minor damage to the semi-trailer.

Angel said the semi-trailer, driven by J. B. Lay of Olton and loaded with cottonseed, had attempted to turn around but the cab became stuck in the west bar ditch with the trailer extending onto the road blocking all the southbound lane and half of the north bound lane.

Gulley, who was driving north, told Angel he did not see the trailer until it was too late to stop and ran under the left side of the trailer near the rear. The force of the impact turned Gulley's auto directly behind the trailer and pinned it there.

The butane - driven auto immediately caught fire and was destroyed. Gulley managed to scoot across the front seat and got out on the rider's side. He was brought to the hospital in a private auto.

The Littlefield Volunteer Fire Department answered the call and put out the fire.

Red Cross Announces Changes

Beginning on January 1, 1962, the offices of American Red Cross and the Lamb County Welfare will be separated, it was announced this week by County officials.

The County Welfare office will remain in the same place on the first floor of the Court-house with Mrs. Lyle Brandon as director. Mrs. Brandon, who has been the executive secretary of the Red Cross will no longer be connected with the organization.

The Red Cross will move to one of the offices in the basement recently vacated by the ASC and Mrs. Norman Frey will become the executive secretary. Mrs. Frey has had three and a half years experience working for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Brandon said, "With more time to devote to County Welfare cases, I hope to make more thorough investigations in order to give better service to those who are really destitute and to prevent those who are not from taking unfair advantage of the program."

City Wreck Injures Two Saturday Night

Two teenage youths were hospitalized with injuries received in a one-car accident at 11 p.m. Saturday. A third youth received medical attention but was not hospitalized.

Len Sanders of Levelland received multiple facial cuts, possible head injuries and a fractured arm. He was reported in satisfactory condition at a local hospital Wednesday morning.

Steven Dale Benton of Route 5 Brownfield, driver of the car, received chest injuries. He was released from the hospital early this week. The third youth, Don Smith of Earth, received a cut on the arm.

City Policeman Charles Tue, who investigated the accident said the Benton auto was going north of Highway 385, at a high rate of speed as it approached the intersection of Highway 84.

The car was going too fast to make the left turn onto 84, ran across the Highway, hit the curb on the north side of the Highway, jumped the curb and struck the rear wheel of a tractor parked in the Luce, Rogers, Nelson parking lot.

From there, the car skidded back across 84, and ran into the north side of the Sumrall Pontiac building.

The car was demolished, Sanders received his injuries as he was thrown through the windshield.

TWO INJURED -- Above is the auto driven by Steven Dale Benton which crashed head-on into the north side of Sumrall Pontiac late Saturday night. Benton and a passenger Len Sanders were hospitalized following the accident. A third person riding in the auto, Don Smith received a cut arm.

REPUBLICAN HOPEFUL -- O. W. (Bill) Hayes, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas, is discussing some of his campaign plans with L. J. Swanson, left, and Art Nafzger, right, Hayes spoke to a Littlefield audience Monday night outlining his program for the election. Nafzger is the county GOP chairman, and Swanson is the district chairman.

PLASTIC CHRISTMAS - Pictured is Mrs. Comer Hall with the Christmas Tree, poodle and wreath she made from plastic bags.

Idea Corner

Mrs. Comer Hall has made a plastic bag Christmas tree which she has lighted with tiny bulbs to make a most attractive centerpiece for Christmas. Directions for making the tree are: Shape rabbit wire into a cone shape about 2 feet high, trim evenly around the bottom. Fold plastic bags lengthwise several times (until 1/2 in. width) then clip across with scissors cutting 1 in. strips completely through the folded bag. Take 15 of the 1 in. strips and pull together evenly, then fold together (by making a figure 8 design) fold 4 times in this manner keeping the strips pulled tightly together. Tie a pipe cleaner firmly through the ring and clip opposite side with scissors (trimming each strand evenly to form a pom-pom.) For further instructions call 385-4696.

With the pipe cleaner used for pom-pom, tie to cone of wire, and cover complete wire with pom-poms. Add lights and trimmings and place on a stand. This takes about 25 large plastic bags.

PATROL

(Continued from Page One) ber, 1960, was low for that month of the year, and we will have to beat that in order to halt the trend toward a higher death toll in 1961.

Capt. Posey said field personnel are being instructed to do everything possible to "bring about the maximum voluntary compliance with traffic law quickly."

"While these measures are being implemented by our department," he stated, "it follows that we must again call upon motorists to join in this all-out drive for a safer 1961 by obeying the laws and rules of safety."

Sunday, December 10, has been designated by Governor Price Daniel as "Safety Sunday" to mark the opening of the annual Statewide Christmas - New Year's traffic safety campaign.

In a special proclamation, the Governor said that "Experience . . . indicates that the solution to the traffic problem lies in the hands of the individual driver," and urged all citizens "to join in a united effort to awaken the conscience of every driver."

The Governor urged pastors of all Texas churches to "re-mind their members of their personal and moral responsibility to drive carefully, obey the traffic laws and to protect the sanctity of human life in our state."

"Safety Sunday" has been observed by a steadily increasing number of Texas churches and church organizations since it was first proclaimed by Governor Daniel in 1958.

Sluder-Hull Are Wed In Amarillo Church

Miss Peggy Charlene Sluder became the bride of Lyman Earl Hull in a ceremony in the St. Paul Methodist Church in Amarillo Saturday afternoon, November 25th.

Miss Sluder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sluder Olton, and Hull is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hull, Hallett, Oklahoma.

Rev. D. A. McBrayer read the double ring ceremony.

Allen Rotary Club and the McAllen Chamber of Commerce in 1958, both headed at that time by McAllen civic and traffic safety leader, L. D. (Hoot) Harris. At his suggestions, the Governor designated the annual safety Sunday before Christmas in each subsequent year.

"Safety Sunday" is an important phase of a year-end campaign designed to hold the 1961 Texas traffic death toll below the tentative estimate of about 2,280 recently announced by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Governor Daniel recently told the Texas Municipal League convention in San Antonio that traffic deaths in the cities have been slowly rising during the past few years while traffic deaths on rural highways have been steadily reduced. He appealed to city officials to put new emphasis on traffic control inside the cities.

Lunchroom Is Scene Of Football Banquet Saturday

The annual banquet, honoring the football boys was given by members of the Pep squad Saturday night, in the school lunch room.

A simulated football field was in the center of the room surrounded by tables to enclose the field. Girls' place cards were miniature megaphones and boys' were goalposts. An aluminum Christmas tree formed a background for the head table with decorations of football player cut-outs in royal blue, the school's color. A revolving disc of several colors changed the color of the tree at intervals. Christmas lights illuminated the setting.

For the program, Coach Norman Lockett gave the invocation. Judy Bowman, pep squad president gave the welcome, and Johnnie Blair responded for the football boys. Ruth McAdams offered a toast, Janie Young sang accompanied by Judy Bryant, at the piano. Coach Lawrence Cook introduced the players, Carol Young and Judy Bryant's vocal duet was accompanied by Jan Jones.

Supt. Lamar Kelly introduced the guest speaker, Mr. John Blaine, Athletic director of Plainview High School. Ronnie Schroeder gave the benediction. The menu, consisting of grape juice, baked ham, green beans, candied sweet potatoes, tossed salad, hot rolls, iced tea, coffee and pineapple upside-down cake, was served to 73 attending.

Young People from the GA and RA organizations of the First Baptist Church had charge of the Wednesday evening service as a part of the week of prayer for foreign missions. The Junior GAs presented the call to prayer. It was led by Vicky Pigg and then each girl placed a gift under a Christmas tree as she called the name of a missionary who had a birthday on Wednesday, November 29. Rev. John Rankin offered prayer.

A play, "Her Lengthened Shadow," depicted scenes from the life of Little Moon, a missionary to China, and the person for whom the foreign mission offering is named.

Christmas Basket Program For Needy Ready

Mrs. Brandon of the Red Cross has asked all churches and other organizations that are interested in helping send baskets to needy families in Littlefield to either come by her office at the court house or call 385-3063, so that arrangements can be made. Although the Red Cross does not contribute baskets for Littlefield's needy, its offices serve as a clearing house for the Salvation Army, Jaycees and any other organizations and individuals who want to help with the baskets. A complete report will come from the Red Cross in Sunday's paper as to the entire need of Littlefield. Mrs. Brandon said around 100 baskets were given to the needy last year. Damon Parker of the Salvation Army reports that his offices are working ahead on baskets for charitable cases in area towns and will also furnish baskets to help Littlefield's needy.

LITTLEFIELD, LAMB COUNTY TEXAS, THURSDAY DECEMBER 7, 1961

NUMBER 30

POLICE CAR -- Littlefield City Police were all smiles this week as they received two cars for Police use. The cars were purchased by the City Council several weeks and received by Garland Motor Company early last week and were turned over to the department Thursday. Above is Chief F. A. Fitzgerald, standing, and Jim Cooper, city patrolman.

that when Charleston, West Virginia, as an example, refused urban renewal aid for water and sewer development, and voted local tax bonds, the federal government bought the bonds on open bid at a lower rate of interest than the federal government has to pay for the money they borrowed.

As you know the White House is sending teams of men all over the country for regional conferences in an attempt to sell this bill before the next session of Congress.

These "road Shows" are a town hall type of fair labeled, Opportunity for our Cities.

It is interesting to note that the major portion of this money is spent in larger cities. This brings to mind a paradox. Over a period of the last several years, the major portion of wealth has been moved toward urban centers. Yet they are not able to take care of their own financial problems. They must go to the federal government. Federal Government money comes from the people; therefore, it follows that we who live in rural areas, and losing proportionately in the nation's wealth, must pay our portion of the economic development of urban centers.

The major cause of these problems was cited as the businessman's disinterested attitude toward governmental affairs.

One thing we must realize is that the people who are supporting and pushing these hand out programs are sincere. They realize that many local communities have many problems. They are of the opinion that the federal government should provide the solution to these problems. Quite frankly, they are actually of the opinion that they can do a better job of spending money taken from local communities than the community can themselves.

The major portion of the discussion, however, was comprised of the second item that is that people of the local communities can build their economy if they are willing to do so. Several examples of where the local communities has done an effective job was cited. In every case, balanced community development began with a business climate survey. As many of you know, we are in the midst of an economic base study for the City of Littlefield.

Now the reason given that local communities can do the job themselves was that the only successful programs of the federal government have come about when local community leaders furnish the initiative and leadership to do the job.

The catch in government programs is that they are done with more economic waste and at a much higher cost than when the local communities does the job, themselves.

Another factor is that it is evident, that the federal government will not nor cannot do the job for everyone. They determine which communities get their services by political expediency.

The conclusion we can safely draw is that if we build the economic base of our community, we must do the job ourselves. We have the man power and the money to build this area if we desire to do so.

There are many ramifications to the program of community development. The main factor is that it takes the cooperation and participation of the entire community.

The Chamber is currently initiating a program in cooperation with the Board of City Development to determine the status of our business climate, and in relation to our population. The next step will be to see if the community as a whole desires to improve it.

The local chamber of commerce is at its peak of efficiency when it furnishes the organizational ability and coordination for a community wide program. Some of our projects this year should verify this:

From Your Chamber Office

Thursday, I attended a Texas Chamber of Commercial Governmental Affairs meeting in Abilene. The program were three men representing the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Fred Husbands, Vice President of Texas Chamber.

To substantiate his claim that the government is going into competition with the private enterprise system, Mr. Evans turned to the depressed area bill which was passed 6 months ago.

At that time there were 80 counties defined as depressed areas. Currently, there are 750 counties listed as depressed areas in spite of the fact that several of them are protesting the label.

Also he was cited the fact that in spite of the increase in defense spending, there has been an even larger increase in non-defense spending by the federal government. Further cited, was the fact

Philosopher Amazed To Find People Asking Help In Finding Place To Loaf

Editor's note: The Sandhills philosopher on his Johnson farm discusses loafing week, a field he is very familiar with.

According to it, a lot of people in big cities are complaining about their set-up, they think there are too many ugly places in cities, too much hurry, and not enough places to loaf. They want the Federal government to do something about it.

To furnish them a place to loaf, a man who hasn't got enough get-up about him to figure out a place on his own to loaf in, is in pretty bad shape. I don't want to brag, but I've never seen a place yet I couldn't loaf in.

But I was just thinking, now I'm an expert in finding a place to loaf, and if Washington can keep a straight face -- which won't be hard, it's had a lot of practice -- and seriously goes about undertaking to teach city people how to find a place to loaf in, I will be glad to head up this department, at a reasonable salary. A specialist is entitled to adequate pay.

It takes years of practice to learn how to loaf, all the parks in the world won't accomplish it if a man hasn't got the inner resources to swing it by himself. I never figured there'd be an opportunity to get paid for this accomplishment, but I'm willing to give it a try. A man should never get sobby about undertaking to teach city people how to find a place to loaf in, I will be glad to head up this department, at a reasonable salary. A specialist is entitled to adequate pay.

Grain Sorghum Varieties Are Tested

In the 1961 season fifty six varieties of grain sorghum were tested under dryland at the High Plains Research Foundation. The highest yielding variety in 1961 was 512 pounds above that of the highest yielding hybrid in 1960. The average yield of all hybrids and varieties included in the test was 462 pounds above the 1960 average.

least significant difference in this test was 621.34 pounds of grain per acre. This means that there must be at least this much difference between the yield of any two hybrids or varieties before one would be considered superior to the other, Dr. Collier said.

The twenty-eight varieties were: Amak R-14; 3723.06; Excel B-52; 3710.91; P.A.G. 625; 3636.21; Excel P-38; 3555.26; Steckley R-108; 3543.25; Frontier 411; 3515.31; Horizon 73; 3490.37; Texas 660; 3471.50; Standking; 3434.27; Cheyenne; 3360.48; Texas 601; 3278.96; Horizon 79; 3274.11; DeKalb C-45; 3258.50; Richardson's 303R; 3252.82; WAC 750; 3251.43; Te 77; 3239.54; Lindsey 788; 3234.84; P.A.G. 430; 3219.21; NK 210; 3215.37; DeKalb C-44b; 3204.79; P. UMBING

Penn Point

By D. H. P.

Saturday afternoon, I ventured to Jones Stadium in Lubbock to watch Texas Tech and West Texas State tangle in the final grid game of the season for both teams. I went as a completely impartial spectator, since neither is my alma mater, but soon had cause to root for the underdog, WTSC. Tech got off to a good start and went ahead 3-0, but almost as quickly as possible, West Texas crashed ahead 14-3, on two fast touchdowns, after recovering Tech fumbles. From this point, the officials, with the aid of the Red Raiders, rallied forces and went on to victory. (Note: Maybe that line should have read the Red Raiders, with the aid of the officials.)

On the only drive that crossed the goal line for Tech, a West Texas player was just about to intercept a pass from the Tech quarterback when the intended receiver pinned the player's arms to his side. The ball hit the West Texas player in the chest. There was no penalty called for offensive interference and Tech then went on to score.

With the score 14-13 and the game about to come to a close, Tech started a drive to the goal. On two occasions Tech player fumbled the ball and both times WTSC recovered only to have the officials rule the ball dead before the fumble. The only way this could have happened was for the official to blow his whistle before the Tech player made contact with a WTSC player. By keeping possession on these two fumbles, Tech was able to get close enough to score and won the game 16-14.

I have seen better officiating at Junior High School football games and certainly the plays mentioned above are strictly judgement plays, but the consistency of the bad calls is questioned in my mind.

Certainly I don't want to take anything away from the Texas Tech players or coaches, but I don't think the victory is one they can gloat about and brag about. The toughness of WTSC was attested at least three times when they held Tech and forced the field goals. This was certainly a "sour" victory for the newest member of the Southwest Conference.

Pistol Pete Pedro, the West Texas flash, is just as good or even a little bit better than all the stories about him. His only problem is not having enough fast men out in front to deblock.

The Lubbock newspaper called the WTSC coach Joe Kerbel, the twelfth player for his team, but personally I think he acted more like a gentleman than many coaches would have in the same situation. Enough said.

Dumas, the town to our north with the fine football team, continued on their winning ways by trouncing Breckenridge 34-8 and went into the state AAAA semifinals. We don't see how anyone can beat the Demons and hope they go on and win the title. Wichita Falls had to come from behind to down San Angelo, but the Wichitans did it quite handily in their 42-5 win. I think I'll stay with Wichita for the AAAA championship.

In an unexpected Broadway performance (at New York's Astor Hotel) the other night Vice President Lyndon Johnson UN, Valerian Zorin stole the show from the guest of honor, our UN Ambassador Adlai Stevenson.

Eight hundred guests had gathered to eat and applaud politely while Mr. Stevenson accepted the "world humanitarian award" of Medico, the benevolent organization that sends colunteer American doctors and nurses where they are most needed in the free world. But for some reason, Vice President Johnson was the speaker of the evening.

To this audience, practically overflowing with the milk of human kindness, Mr. Johnson was bragging about NATO. "Its forces have steadily expanded in numbers and efficiency," said the Vice President. "Any Soviet attack on Europe would be a most hazardous enterprise..."

At this point, Mr. Zorin got up from his place on the dais, collected his wife, the Ukrainian and Bulgarian UN representatives and their wives, and marched out through the length of the ballroom.

Mr. Johnson kept on reading to the bitter end of his text, apparently not realizing he was losing his foil, Mr. Angler Riddle Duke, State Department chief of protocol who, as an experienced master of ceremonies may have been catching up on his sleep, remarked later: "I didn't even know they had left."

And Mr. Stevenson got his crystal bowl.

Ambassador Zorin later complained of being embarrassed (if you can imagine that) and said: "At a dinner of humanitarian function, such a statement was out of place."

But most revealing was the Vice President's comment - which we can only interpret as meaning that no one should take his public remarks seriously: "It's a speech," he said, "a speech."

To make stew for 6-8-10 people, the following ingredients should come from one calf. The stew will be better if from a calf still on its mother's milk. However, the ingredients can be purchased from a slaughter house.

All of the tongue from the calf (the tongue to be boiled for 30 minutes and then scraped good. If you are not fond of tongue, use half of it or throw away as I do.

All of the brains from the calf - All the sweet breads - 1/2 of the heart - 1/3 of the liver from the calf. (If you do not like liver taste forget the liver)

The butcher steak -- the marrow gut
The ox tail soup bone - Salt and pepper.
Hunk of kidney fat about the size of a croquet ball or a small sputnik
Add meat from brisket roast or hamburger or stew meat.
If you do put the liver in, boil it by itself for 30 to 40 minutes before you add it to the stew.
Boil the ox tail soup bone until the meat is fairly done and then take meat from bones, put in stew.
Cut all of the ingredients up to hunks somewhat the size as is placed in chili, not too fine.
Cook slowly 3 or 4 hours and let simmer.
Do not put the brains in until the last 30 - 45 minutes, as it does not take brains long to cook. Sweet breads also cook more quickly than the other ingredients.
Thanks to "Goose" Ramey of Dimmitt.

Public All For Newspaper Ads, Not Annoyed By Direct Mail

83% of those who receive advertising in the mail discard without reading it, Bureau of Advertising study reveals

Four out of ten persons are considerably annoyed when they get advertising in the mail. And among the economic group the figure is five out of ten. Three per cent of those who receive advertising discard it without reading it. Relatively few persons feel that mail advertising is believable—unless it comes from a store where a charge account is maintained, a store which has already gained the customer's acceptance.

These are some of the findings of a four-city survey conducted for the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association and reported in a folder just released by the Bureau. The survey also disclosed customers' attitudes toward stores advertising by mail compared with those advertising in newspapers. On every count newspaper advertisers were favored overwhelmingly. By votes as high as ten to one, the respondents said newspaper advertisers are more likely to carry well-known brands, offer better quality merchandise, give better value for the money, offer "real bargains."

Market Research Service, which conducted the survey, asked people to imagine moving into a new community where they had no knowledge of stores. How would they choose between two equally accessible stores — Store "A" which advertised by mail, and Store "B" which advertised in newspapers? Judging only from the medium used, which store would they prefer to shop? Which store would probably offer quality merchandise . . . value . . . real bargains . . . well-known brands? The charts on this page show the overwhelming preference for the store that advertises in newspapers. Note, too, the tendency for higher income groups to show stronger preference for the newspaper advertiser. (Reprinted from the AMERICAN PRESS)

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS OF THE 1880's — sometimes were devoted to themes other than the Yule season, illustrated and imprinted on this antique from the Hallmark Historical Collection are two of Longfellow's most popular poems.

19th Century Christmas Cards Tell Christmas Story

History of Christmas in America is nowhere more fully illustrated than in the plain and colorful Yule cards exchanged in this country during the last century. The antique cards, many of which are preserved in the Hallmark Historical Collection, tell a frequently nostalgic story of the customs and traditions associated with the Christmas season of our grandfathers' day. Some of the earliest American cards bore designs that would hardly seem in keeping with the Yule season today. One group, for example, by the noted illustrator Frederick Church, had a patriotic motif. They were among the first to be introduced to the American public. The occasion was the great Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia in 1876, a time when patriotism was running high. Like all forms of art and literature, greeting cards reflect the moods and tastes of the period. Christmas greetings had their origin as recently as 1843 and were almost exclusively an English custom until their sudden and widespread popularity in America some 40 years later. The first American Christmas cards were published in Boston by a man named Louis Prang. They cost a penny each and were modest in size and design by modern standards. Prang, who would later be known as "the father of the American Christmas card," was a German refugee who had established a successful business selling visiting cards, business advertisements, and announcements both here and in England. In 1872, he began printing brief Christmas sentiments on small visiting cards and found that they sold well in England. These unique, improvised Yule greetings, some bearing floral designs on black backgrounds, were among the cards introduced to the American public at the centennial. When Prang noted that the idea of sending printed Christmas greetings was well received here, he set aside other interests to concentrate on the new

Yule cards. Within two years, the greetings had been enlarged to postcard-size. Longer texts and pictorial designs appeared and a series of cards with flowers, birds and animals became very popular. Curiously, although scriptural texts were common, few if any Nativity scenes were printed on the 19th Century Cards. Holly and Mistletoe, the traditional Christmas symbols, made an early appearance as did Santa Claus and his reindeer, popularized earlier in the century by the famous Clement Moore poem, "A Visit From Saint Nicholas."

There is abundant evidence of artistic designs still in use today, such as New England snow scenes, church bells, sleighs pulled by teams of horses and firesides with Christmas stockings hung at the mantel. But some of the Christmas card designs were only remotely connected with the Yule season. One example from the Hallmark Collection was published in 1881 by G.D. DeVore of Newark, N. J. It is devoted exclusively to the most popular American poet of his day, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. It consists of three panels. Two illustrate the poems whose verses appear beneath them — and the third was an autographed picture of the old gentleman himself. The bottom of the card bore the simple legend: Christmas Greetings.

One of the most recent developments in modern Christmas card messages, and a very popular one, has been the use of both prose and poetry with a Yule theme by the outstanding writers of the day. Among the contributors to 1961 Hallmark Yule greetings are Boris Pasternak, William Carlos Williams, Archibald MacLeish, Mark Van Doren, and T. S. Eliot. Prang, a superb and dedicated craftsman had perfected a process for lithographic coloring that led to inexpensive mass production. But he was determined that the facilities to mass produce should not debase art. Rather his view was that art and good taste should be brought into the everyday lives of the masses.

He used as many as 20 plates to achieve his artistic results, and beginning in 1880, organized a series of competitions whose generous prizes attracted the best art and design talent in the country. Among the winners were such outstanding names as Rosina Emmett, Alexander Sadler and Elihu Vedder. Vedder's winning design may be seen today at the head of the stairway of the Congressional Library in Washington, D. C. Prang's contests are regarded as the forerunner of such industry-sponsored competitions as the International Hallmark Art Awards. And his decision to seek out the leading artists of the time has its counterpart today. Norman Rockwell illustrations and the paintings of Sir Winston Churchill, among others, may be seen on Hallmark Christmas cards for 1961. As the Christmas cards be-

"Hey, Mac! Can we borrow an axe?"

Come more and more elaborate, some bore a fringe and tassels and these beautiful cards were hung in homes. It was also a common practice to preserve favorite cards in the family album. From such sources, a number of the antiques in the Hallmark Collection have been gathered. Under Prang's leadership there followed a brief period in the history of American greeting cards during which some of the finest art and design was created. One of his best known cards, and an outstanding example of the elaborate detail of these period cards, shows Santa and his reindeer on a snow-covered roof top encircled in a holly wreath. In the background of the card are snowbirds, pealing bells, a distant church spire and all the symbols of the Christmas season.

This great era of Christmas art and design flourished for only a brief span, its decline, beginning in 1895, resulted from the overwhelming competition of cheap prints from Europe, mostly from Germany and still carrying the Santa Claus and holly theme, flooded the market and this virtual monopoly continued until after the first World War.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex. - More than 600 "Texans for Tourists" attended Gov. Price Daniel's conference on Tourism.

They took a long look at sources and resources that can be used to promote national advertising of the state's visitable virtues.

While here, they decided to set up a non-profit organization called the Texas Tourist Council. Tentatively scheduled was an organizational meeting for January 10, "or during the next session of the Legislature."

Texas Tourist Council will seek the reverse effect of another group who tried to exploit the state - the carpet-baggers. It was the influence of the latter that caused the Legislature to prohibit the use of state funds for advertising Texas' attractions 56 years ago.

Governor Daniel said, "Now the march of time has come full circle . . . we find ourselves engaged in a vigorous economic competition which might be called, in a friendly way, another 'war between the states'."

He referred to the battle for tourists -- third largest industry in the nation; the 13th in Texas.

Texas Tourist Council will seek $300,000 a year from the Legislature, for advertising tourist attractions. Texas law now requires that state funds be matched by business and industry. So some system of financial subscription will have to be devised.

BANKERS ASKED FOR IDEAS -- Governor Daniel sent a letter to the Texas Bankers Association asking the bankers to present a proposal for protecting the rights of bank depositors.

He recommended that newspaper ads be published by the banks to locate owners (or heirs) of accounts inactive for more than seven years.

Governor Daniel added that proper notice to the state of an ascertainable property would be "an incidental result of this protection."

He said the subject will be submitted very soon to a special session of the Legislature, and asked the TBA to present its own proposal before December 20.

The reason for the urgency is the known fact that a sizeable number of national banks are transferring these dormant deposits to the profits of the banks without advertising for the last owners," he wrote.

"I believe most Texas bankers will agree that this is a practice which should be stopped for the protection of the good name of the banking profession in Texas, as well as for the protection of the rights of missing owners, and the rights of the State if no owners exist."

WILSON ANNOUNCES -- Attorney General Will Wilson has announced as a candidate for governor.

The 49-year-old Dallas native said he has remained loyal to his party, but is "an independent Democrat who wears no man's collar and is not a captive candidate of any faction or interest group."

SHIVERS IN THE NEWS -- There's considerable talk in Austin about the possibility of Former Gov. Allan Shivers running again.

This surprised some since Shivers backed Jack Cox in 1960, and Cox is the Republican candidate.

Rumor started with Shivers' statement that: "If I get involved in politics at all next year it will be as a candidate."

HEALTH AND WELFARE COORDINATION - Speaker James A. Turman announced appointment of an advisory committee, composed of Representative George Richardson of Fort Worth, Obie Jones of Austin, and Jim Markgrad of Scurry, to help the Texas Legislative Council study coordination of state health and welfare agencies.

Study was requested by the 57th Legislature in view of the fact that 90 per cent of every state dollar expended is for highways, education, public health and welfare.

All but the health and welfare agencies are centrally coordinated.

TEXTBOOK STUDY - Five representatives have been appointed to an interim committee to study contents of textbooks used in public schools. Particular attention will be paid to those relating to American heritage, traditions, philosophy and history.

Representatives W. T. Dungan of McKinney, Bob Bass of DeKalb, John C. Alantiz of San Antonio, Nelson Cowles of Hallsville and Ronald E. Roberts of Hillsboro are to report their findings to the 58th Legislature.

PAROLE OFFICERS NAMED - Some real hope for helping the more than 2,000 present parolees from state training schools at Gatesville, Gainesville and Crockett came from the announcement that four state juvenile parole officers have been employed.

Herbert K. Baldry will serve in Harris County; Jesus Chavez

Bonilla, El Paso; Dallas W. Clark, Bexar; and Elton D. Strother in Tarrant. A Dallas County officer hasn't been selected yet. A state director will probably be named after December 14.

Texas Youth Council Director Dr. James A. Turman has expressed hope that the Legislature soon will appropriate more funds to expand the juvenile "prevention and parole" program throughout the state.

A statewide effort to awaken the conscience of every driver in behalf of safe and legal driving will be undertaken on December 10, "Safety Sunday" will feature the cooperation of church congregations with the Governor's Highway Safety

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:
I would like to drop a thought here and there on the subject of sportsmanship, especially pertinent now that hunting season is in full swing.

I found, as a stranger to this area a little over a year ago, the general opinion of sportsmen in this area is nasty, and at best, luke warm. This, I couldn't understand. This, I couldn't understand. A year ago, where I come from, most of the land is open to the sportsman who merely asks permission.

However, after observing my new man take to the fields here the past year, I am filled at what I have seen; very stolen, or riddled with fire, gates left open, and general disregard for landowner's rights and game laws. Hunting, per se, is an American Heritage handed down from Father to Son these many years as a treasured right. But, so many of our basic rights in America, the spoilers have led all that they could.

Let me put it clearly, as my father taught me: "A fool is a fool with a gun is avoided". In other words, a man or boy with a gun is not necessarily a Sportsman, but a GENTLEMAN with a gun is likely to be a Sportsman. IT IS THE BASIC DIFFERENCE IN A NUT SHELL between a vandal with a gun and a sportsman.

The following is the N. R. A. National Rifleman's Association Hunter's Code of Ethics. I will consider myself an honored guest of the landowner, and conducting myself that I may be welcome in the future.

2. I will obey the rules of safe gun handling, and will courteously but firmly insist that others who hunt with me do the same.

3. I will obey all game laws and regulations, and will insist that my companions do likewise.

4. I will do my best to acquire those marksmanship and hunting skills which assure clean, sportsmanlike kills.

5. I will support conservation efforts which assure good hunting for future generations of America.

6. I will pass along to younger hunters the attitudes and skills essential to a true outdoor sportsman.

If the people who love to hunt would conduct themselves on the land-owners property as they would in his living room, there would be far less bad feelings on both sides. It all goes back to the "Golden Rule." This is the main difference between a gentleman and a bum.

I would like to appeal to the hunters that raise such havoc, and ask them to remember the "Golden Rule" and to also remember that their children and their grandchildren might someday like to hunt, but the way they are going now, there will be no hunting land available by them.

I will close now, with this thought. "The only difference between a hunter who breaks the game laws and the laws of common decency; and a Sportsman, can be corrected with very little effort, and a lot of conscience.

A Church Going Family Is A Happy Family

He could see time passing...

The folks who lived in the day of the hourglass had a psychological advantage. They could see time passing.

And as each fine grain slipped through the neck of the glass, a man's conscience would whisper within him: less time left!

When we look at a clock its hands seem motionless. Is that why millions put off the important decisions that ought to be made right now?

Whatever its cause, procrastination is a disease. It lulls the senses into indolence. It wastes our energy on trivial pursuits, while important tasks remain undone. Especially it attacks the soul, tempting man to believe that there will be plenty of time later to tend to his spiritual needs.

But the cure is simple . . . and immediate. Just set the alarm clock and begin the New Year with worship in your Church. You'll soon be facing every important task with eagerness and courage and faith!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
