REVENUE FROM WATER WORKS OPERATING CITY

Taxes Are Being Used to Pay Interest and Provide Sinking Fund

Littlefield's tax rate will be reduced from $1.50 to not over $1.25, according to an announcement authorized Wednesday by Mayor T. S. Sales and Commissioners Homer Hall and Pat Boone.

The board of equalization has about completed its work, and the city commission expects to make a definite announcement in the very near future as to the tax rate.

Littlefield has not enjoyed a tax rate of less than $1.50 in a number of years, it is stated.

The city's outstanding warrant and bonded indebtedness is approximately $300,000, and the rate will be set only sufficiently high to pay interest and continue to build up a sinking fund as required by law.

The revenue from water and sewerage services has been paying the city's current expenses in the past year and, in addition, debts totaling $2,600 have been paid.

The same program of meeting the city's current obligations is to be carried out in the coming year.

Under the city commission's program of operating the city not one cent of tax money goes to meet current expenses; such money is used in the paying of interest and the maintaining of the sinking fund at the required standard.

The city is operated on a "pay as you go" program, all expenses being met when due and obligations not incurred until the money is available.

The current operating expenses of the city include such items as street lighting, the paying of the city clerk's salary, the maintaining of the city hall and fire department, street cleaning, maintenance of streets, policing of the city, water pumping expense, and the maintenance of the city's wells.

Littlefield enjoys a lower water rate than many surrounding towns. The rate is $2 minimum, which permits the use of up to 3,000 gallons per month without additional charge, and 15 cents per 1,000 gallons over 3,000 gallons.

The city in May pumped 3,653,740 gallons of water.

G. G. HAZEL CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

Promises to Give Taxpayers Economical and Efficient Service

G.G. Hazel, prominent Lamb county attorney, has authorized the Lamb County Leader to publish his official announcement as a candidate for county judge of this county.

Mr. Hazel's announcement follows: To the Voters of Lamb County:

Having received frequent solicitations to announce as a candidate for county judge of Lamb county, I have finally reached the decision that I would yield to such suggestions and offer my services to the people of the county in the capacity of county judge, letting the people say by their votes whether they desire such services of me.

In making this announcement, I realize full well the great importance and responsibility of the place which I seek. The county judge has a double duty. In the first place, he must preside over the county court and, in doing so properly, it is his duty, and his alone, to interpret the law and announce same to his juries and to apply the law to the facts as developed in cases tried before him as judge and without a jury. In brief, as prescribed in the words of the Statutes of Texas, he is required to be "well informed in the law of this

Outlook For Agriculture Better

The outlook for agriculture has improved, according to a letter issued by Whaley-Eaton Service, Washington.

The section of the letter dealing with agriculture reads as follows: "Government experts have now reached the definite conclusion that the deflation, so far as agriculture is concerned, has been taken 100 per cent.

"This means that farms, in general, have cut their production and living costs to the point where they can get along at present prices, and even make a little something. This has been accomplished, however, by the farmers virtually withdrawing from the buying market, purchasing only absolute necessities. In other words, they have dropped their standard of living far down.

"The only direction in which agriculture can move now is upward."

The Lamb County Leader is indebted to W. H. Badger, manager of the Yellow House Land Co., for the foregoing extract from the Whaley-Eaton letter. He forwarded the information from Austin to his brother, R. T. Badger, who made it available to the Leader.

Time to Reline the Brakes

When big business becomes alarmed at the constantly mounting cost of government, isn't it very evident that the situation is serious?

Read this letter which has been sent out by Marshall Field & Company, Chicago:

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY Chicago

Office of the President

TO OUR WHOLESALE CUSTOMERS:

We are joining in the ranks of those who are placing themselves on record as seriously concerned with the mounting expenditures of Government.

We are told that last year, Federal, State, and local taxation absorbed 22c out of every dollar of the country's net income. This year those taxes bid fair to take almost twice as much, because of a greatly reduced income.

At this time, we are most concerned with Federal taxation. The Federal income will be greatly reduced, but the Federal expenditures are showing no such trend. On the contrary the following tabulation from the Treasury department's latest report shows that the 1932 appropriations are 63 per cent larger than were the expenditures in 1927—and 1927 was a year of profitable business activity.

'Cyclone' Davis Hits Town In Sand Storm and Gives the 'Info' on 'Pol-e-tics'

"Cyclone" Davis hit town Saturday in a sand storm.

And when "Cyclone" hit the platform, the "West Texas rain" just about worked havoc with the vocal organs of the veteran campaigner.

But what's a little sand to a man 78 years young who has weathered the sea of many a political storm. And, moreover, if Texans send "Cyclone" to Congress it's a safe bet that a West Texas sand storm will seem like roses in bloom in sheltered places compared to the sand he'll raise down in Washington.

"Cyclone" admits that he sort of shook things up the last time he occupied a seat in Congress. And from all accounts he hasn't any notion of taking a bath in one of those perfumes scented, all dolled up "swimmin' holes" that he told the folks about last Saturday.

Legionnaires of Fifth Division To Meet In Sweetwater

Division Commander A. Garland Adair has called a convention of Legionnaires of the Fifth Division to be held at Sweetwater Saturday and Sunday, June 25 and 26.

The speakers will include Commander V. Earl Earp, Lt. Gov. Edgar E. Witt, Department Membership Chm. Allen C. Ater, and other prominent Legionnaires.

Amendments to the Department Constitution and By-Laws adopted at El Paso, delegate to the Division convention the authority to elect the Division commander, and this feature of the business session should command a full representation of the posts so that all may have a voice in the matter, says a letter from George E. Hughes, assistant department adjutant, in announcing the meeting.

"If I go to Washington I pledge myself to do as well as those who are now in office and believe I can do better than most of them have done."

"Take the Government out of private business."

Argonne. The Fifth was carrying its share of the load, and Corporal Hammons didn't have much rest back there with his ammunition dump.

On Oct. 24 a German artilleryman located the Fifth's dump and dropped a shell into it. The resulting explosion was terrific. A soldier was blown to pieces and the corporal was knocked unconscious.

Before the fire could reach the rest of the shells in the dump, Corporal Hammons regained his senses, directed removal of the inflammable material and put the fire under control.

For extraordinary heroism in action with the enemy near Septarges, France, Oct. 24, 1918. When an enemy shell struck some pyrotechnics stored in the ammunition dump of his organization, Corporal Hammons directed and assisted in the removal of inflammable material and in placing the fire under control.

Corporal Hammons was born in Springtown. When he was a boy he moved with his family to the South Plains, settling in Floydada.

He went overseas with the Fifth, was in action on a number of fronts, including the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne, and went into Germany as a member of the Army of Occupation.

After the war he moved to Post, where he lived, with the exception of one year spent in school at Waco, until 1928. That year he moved to Levelland and later to Littlefield, where he now resides.

Virginian Would Like To Live In This Section

The Leader was this week in receipt of a letter from G. E. Compher of Lovettsville, Va., who is very much interested in this section, but who says that the only way he will ever be able to live in Littlefield will be to trade some of the property he owns elsewhere for property here.

He says that in 1905 he "crossed the plains by wagon at three different places, once by the Yellow House and Dickens City," and that at that time there was nothing to be seen but grass and cattle.

Mr. Compher renewed his subscription to the Leader.

Cost Her $4.25 To Reduce 65 Pounds

"Worth It," Miss Bates Says.

If you're young and fat read what Miss Bates of Beech, Iowa, has to say about Kruschen Salts—if you are middle age or old Kruschen shows you the way to lose fat the SAFE way.

"I took one bottle of Kruschen Salts a month for five months. It amounted to $4.25 and I reduced 65 lbs. but it was worth it. Imagine just 22 years old and weighing what I did. I could not enjoy myself as other girls did. I could not get the clothes I wanted. I think it is wonderful the results Kruschen Salts give."

To lose fat the safe, sane way—take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—eat less fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—a jar that costs but a small sum lasts 4 weeks. Get it at any drugstore in the world—but be sure for your health's sake to ask for and get Kruschen Salts. It's the little daily dose that does it.

PEP PARAGRAPHS

Friday evening, June 17, this community received the greatest shock in the history of Pep. When the sad news was circulated that Mr. J. R. Burt, or better known, perhaps to all his friends as Uncle Joe, was suddenly called to eternal rest. Uncle Joe was a faithful servant in the Pep Cash Grocery, which is owned by his brother, Mr. M. A. Burt, and always had a friendly smile and good word for everyone entering the store, or that he met otherwise, and numbered his friends by his acquaintances. Only a few moments before his death he was apparently as healthy as ever, and feeling fine, and was joking in his usual friendly way; in fact, he made the remark to several during the day that he felt better than he had in a long time, and ate a hearty supper that evening. He evidently went to his room back of the store and laid down on the bed for a rest, or perhaps he had taken one of his dizzy spells that he was subject to in the last 60 days or so, where he was found lying on the bed, only a few moments after life had left him. Dr. Duke of Littlefield was called immediately, and an inquest was held before Justice of the Peace A. G. Jungman. The decision was death by natural cause. After Dr. Duke gave a thorough examination he pronounced death by apoplexy.
 Uncle Joe was a member of the Catholic church. Funeral services were held in Sacred Heart church at Littlefield by Rev. Charles J. Dvorak, pastor of Littlefield and Pep. He was laid to rest in the Littlefield cemetery Saturday evening. Pryor Hammons was in charge.
 In Remembrance of Uncle Joe.
 By J. A. Petree.
 We loved him, yes, we loved him;
 But angels loved him more;
 And he has gone to join them
 On yonder's shining shore.
 A golden gate stood open,
 A gentle voice said come,
 And he has calmly joined them,
 On yonder's shining throne.

Pep Resident Dies Suddenly; Funeral Services Held Here

J. R. (Joe) Burt, aged 66, of Pep community, brother of M. A. Burt, well known merchant of this section, died very suddenly Friday night about 8 o'clock. He had made his home with his brother, M. A. Burt, at Pep, and assisted him in his general merchandise store. He had gone home for supper, and as was customary, returned to the store to relieve his brother and allow him to leave for his evening meal. Before Mr. M. A. Burt returned customers on entering the store, found his brother sitting on a couch dead.
 Deceased had enjoyed good health all his life until about three months ago, when he started taking dizzy spells, and was advised by his physician that he had low blood pressure. It is believed that he had taken a dizzy spell Friday night and had sat down on the couch, where he was found.
 Deceased was born and reared in Bastrop, Texas, where he lived until about thirty years of age. He was connected with his brother, John Burt, in the contracting business for a number of years at Columbus, and at Guero, Texas, previous to coming to the South Plains in November, 1926.

Littlefield Party Get Good "Catch" At Aransas Pass

J. T. Bellomy, C. C. Tremain, Barney Wilson and W. T. Jones, Jr., returned Saturday from a week's fishing trip to Aransas Pass on the Gulf and Paint Rock, Texas.
 According to Mr. Bellomy, fishing was only good for about a half day while they were at the Gulf, as the wind was too high for the balance of the time.
 Mr. Bellomy also tells a good fish yarn. This is what he says: "Tremain and Jones went out on the water by themselves Thursday, and they swear that the waves were fifty feet high, that the boat jumped from one wave to another, leaving the water clear, and that they were glad when the pilot suggested that they go to shore."
 The party also report that Barney Wilson caught a fish weighing 50 lbs., and also got plenty trout and mackerel and that the party got plenty of trout and mackerel fish.
 at Paint Rock and had an enjoyable fish with Mr. Carl Arnold's father, leaving for home late Thursday night getting into Littlefield Saturday morning.
 Commenting on the district they drove through, Mr. Bellomy said that they did not see any country that looked as good as this section, that a good deal of the portion they traveled through needed moisture badly.

Citizens of U. S. Will Start At Once To Pay New Taxes

The citizens of this country Tuesday started digging into their pockets for an additional $1,118,500,000 in new taxes, to aid the government balance its budget.
 The 1932 revenue act, signed June 6 by President Hoover, and designated to raise a total of $3,261,500,000 to meet the government's expenses in the 1933 fiscal year, puts most of the new levies in force on June 21.
 Nearly every citizen, from five and ten cent store girl clerks to the multimillionaire, will start contributing to the increased levies.
 They apply to a long list of articles and products, ranging from candy, chewing gum and electric light bulbs to automobiles and conveyances of property. The wealthy will be the hardest hit because they purchase more of the articles taxed and because of increased levies on income in the higher brackets.
Manufacturers Pay.
 The largest part of the new duties will be upon articles not taxed since war days. The manufacturers will pay the tax but in a number of cases will pass the cost along to the ultimate purchaser.
 The new income taxes are as high as those paid in 1921 with the normal rates at 4 per cent and 8 per cent and the exemptions cut to $2,500 for a married person and $1,000 for a single person.
 The bill eliminates the earned income credit which has been allowed for several years. The surtax rates start at 1 per cent in excess of $6,000 and increase to 55 per cent on incomes of more than $1,000,000.
 The higher rates are expected to raise an additional $178,000,000 while increased corporation taxes are counted on to bring in $41,000,000.
 Miscellaneous and stamp taxes will add $197,500,000 to the nation's tax Christian life.
 Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the Sacred Heart Church, Littlefield, with Rev. Chas. J. Dvorak, pastor of that church, officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery four miles west of Littlefield, Hammons Undertaking having charge of burial arrangements.
 Surviving the deceased are, besides his brother, M. A. Burt, two other brothers, C. P. of Houston, and John Burt of Columbus, Texas, and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Mayfield of Dallas, and Mrs. Jennie Callahan of Maynard, Texas.

bill while increased postal revenue will bring in $160,000,000. Administration changes and limitation on security losses account for the remainder of the $1,118,500,000.
 Part of the levies did not become effective on June 21, including the increase in first class postage from two to three cents, which begins July 6, the second class postal rates on July 1, the tax on boats July 1, the increased income and corporation taxes, which are effective from last January 1, and the estate and gift taxes which were effective June 6 after 5 p. m.
 Luxuries and articles and products not directly necessary to living bear the brunt of the new taxes beginning Tuesday. Those levied on the manufacturers of the articles are listed under the heading of manufacturers excise taxes.
 In addition, there are levies on miscellaneous articles including telephone messages costing more than 50 cents. Admissions to places of entertainment will also be taxed, along with new rates on issues of bonds or capital stock, transfers of stock, transfers of bonds and conveyances of property.
 Every check calling for payment of money will bear a tax of two cents. The increased rates were made necessary by a sharp decline in the government's income due to a falling off in all forms of present taxes.

The business has been moved to Mr. Hendricks' office, 429 Phelps avenue. Mr. Hendricks has been in Littlefield a month, coming here from Lubbock, where he had lived for several years. He, however, was a former resident of Littlefield, and also at one time the owner of the telephone system here. The Hopping Bros. agency is one of the older insurance concerns in Littlefield, and offered a complete insurance service. In acquiring and operating this business Mr. Hendricks will render the same extensive and efficient service as was available through the Hopping brothers, and will appreciate a continuance of the excellent volume of business enjoyed by the Hopping brothers, and all new business extended him. Earl, J. W. (Jake) and Sid Hopping were interested in the Hopping Agency, while Earl has been in charge. About a month ago Mr. Hendricks purchased the Street & Street agency

KANSAS GIRLS ARE DEFEATED BY LOCALS 19-3 THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The S. K. S. L. girls arrived in Littlefield Thursday morning after playing the strong Texon Oilers on Wednesday. With baseball weather prevailing and the locals in top form for the affair the visitors were given a decisive drubbing. The first four innings gave evidence of a baseball game being waged, but when the fifth inning rolled around things happened that removed all hopes from the minds of the fans that the girls team could make things interesting for the most of men's clubs. Carl Weaver, local pitcher, opened up on the firing line for the Littlefield nine, while Arnold, the opposing twirler, put up a very poor exhibition of pitching. Reynolds, who relieved him, fared very little better, as a consequence nineteen basehits accounted for a like number of tallies. Bray, shortstop and pitcher for the visitors, showed up well and performed in big league fashion, pulling some sensational plays all through the game. The game was well attended and the Littlefield band furnished the music for the occasion.

Clint Griffin and Party Catch Fish Weighing 35 Lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Griffin, Ruth and Evelyn, returned Monday from a week's visit with Mrs. Griffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cannon at Rule, Texas, and Mrs. Griffin's sister, Mrs. L. T. Sadler and Mr. Sadler at Weinert. While away the Griffin family accompanied a fishing party, who together numbered twenty-one, on a trip to Ludas. While fishing on a fork of the Brazos river one of the party Saturday night caught a 35-pound yellow cat fish on a trot line. So as to make this a real "fish story" Mr. Griffin brought the proof along with him, and landed at the Leader office with the large head attached to the front of the car. Mr. Griffin says that there was another group of friends from Stamford nearby fishing, with whom they divided the fish, and he says their share of the monster weighed 14 lbs. when dressed. As the story goes, the fish was mighty good and they ate it all before coming home... only saving the head.

UNIQUE

A NEW, LOW-PRICED, HIGH QUALITY GASOLINE ANNOUNCED FOR THE FIRST TIME BY PHILLIPS " " " "

The Phillips Petroleum Company introduces UNIQUE gasoline—a brand new gasoline of regular U.S. Motor specifications. It meets all requirements of U.S. Motor Grade.

UNIQUE gasoline is colored light green for identification purposes only.

The Phillips Petroleum Company has discontinued the sale of its third grade gasoline, formerly known as PHIL BLUE gasoline.

UNIQUE gasoline should not be confused with Phillips '66' High Test premium quality gasoline. This quality gasoline will ALWAYS be for sale at Phillips '66' stations.

UNIQUE gasoline, of better quality than the discontinued PHIL BLUE gasoline, sells for the same price.

Look for the light green gasoline at Phillips '66' stations. That's Phillips new UNIQUE gasoline.

REFINED BY PHILLIPS TO MEET U.S. MOTOR SPECIFICATIONS

WARNING!

The Phillips Petroleum Company is now marketing three grades of gasoline, each of which is colored to protect motorists against substitutions, which cannot be accomplished without the purchaser detecting the attempt.

Phillips three grades of gasoline are identified as follows: UNIQUE GASOLINE — Phillips new U. S. Motor Grade gasoline — is colored light green.

PHILLIPS '66' HIGH TEST premium quality gasoline is white. PHILLIPS '66' ETHYL gasoline is colored red.

have an obligation and a duty to do our share. Let's renew our faith in ourselves and in our institutions; let's strengthen our courage and drive fear from our hearts. If we do this it will not be very long until our economic problems will be on the way to successful solution, and we will again have entered upon an era of great prosperity."

The company of which Mr. Denning is the head is the holding company of the Lone Star and Community Natural Gas companies, which serve around 300 cities and towns of Texas and Southern Oklahoma, mostly in West Texas. He has lately made a powerful plea to his fellow employes of the Lone Star Gas system, in behalf of "The Tenth Man."

We most heartily agree with Mr. Denning in his efforts to give employment to "The Tenth Man," but we also do not hesitate to urge that what this country needs more than anything else is more good old common horse sense in our state and national government. How can any country prosper with state and national government so top heavy that the people do not know what next is going to happen... what new taxation will be forced on them. The time has arrived when there should and must be an end to such procedure. Then, and then only, will the people of this country go forward without fear and prosperity will return.

G. G. HAZEL—

The county judge's second function is to preside over the Commissioners' Court, that body which handles the finances of the county, which responsibility is so vital to the interests of the people at this time. In such place it is the duty of the county judge to keep up with and in a way to oversee the expenditure of all money spent for the county and to see that no money is expended save such as is absolutely necessary for the efficient conduct of the affairs of the county. It is his duty to see that no money is paid out by the county for the services of any officer or employee unless such services have actually been rendered and to cut expenditures at every place and in every way reasonably possible.

If elected as your county judge, I promise my best efforts to see that Lamb county has a county court conducted with all of the dignity, courtesy and speed with which a court of justice should be conducted, with a heart-felt determination to see that every litigant therein receives full justice and to save the county the useless expense of unnecessary delay in the conduct of the court's business.

Furthermore, if elected, I pledge myself and my utmost ability to see that the county is given an economical administration of its affairs in line with the duties of county judge as above set out in connection with his work with the commissioners' court. Also, I should welcome any constructive and reasonable suggestions from the people of the county aiming in that direction. And, incidentally, I would promise that it would be one of my particular aims to see that certain property in this county belonging to those who are able to pay taxes and heretofore tax-free should bear its proportionate part of the taxes while I remained in office as county judge, thereby lessening the load upon the tax-burdened home owners of the county.

For the benefit of those who do not know me, I will state that I am an attorney, having received my legal education in the Law department of the University of Texas, and having been practicing law for the past fourteen years, about eleven of which were spent at Eastland, Texas, and the past 2 1/2 years in Lamb county. I should appreciate any investigation of my record and any consideration and any assistance rendered me in the present campaign, in full confidence that if elected I would be able to render the county a real service. Did I not have such confidence in my ability to thus serve the county efficiently, I should not have reached this decision to submit my name to the voters as a candidate; and it is with a sincere desire to serve the people, in the event they wish to employ me as their servant, that I ask the due consideration at the hands of the voters of the county.

Respectfully,
G. G. Hazel.

"CYCLONE" DAVIS—

For the information of folks who don't follow "pol-e-tics" very closely "Cyclone" is a candidate for congressman-at-large, place No. 2.

"Place No. 2," whatever that is, wouldn't appear to mean a gosh-ding thing to "Cyclone." He could be a whole Congress all by his lonesome, and then have time to play a few games of checkers every day.

Andy Bills, prominent attorney hereabouts, and otherwise known as Judge E. A. Bills, introduced the speaker. That was just plain formality; everybody knew who was going to tell them all about "Mel-lon's reign of terror," borrowing from "Cyclone's" remarks, and a lot of other things that are said not to be in apple pie order down in Washington.

"Cyclone" Goes to Bat.

"Cyclone" went to bat with the statement that "we are in the midst of a world calamity created by a greedy bunch of men," and then proceeded to take the hide off a whole constellation of stars down in politicaldom in Washington.

Declaring that "civilization begins and ends with the plow," "Cyclone" told his audience that the "farmer" is in the worst shape ever; that all the money of the country is pouring into the hands of a few in the north and east; that the present Congress "has not done anything that will put money down among the common people;" that Wall Street is in the saddle; that Congress has "been doing what Wall Street told them to do; that many small banks have been killed by forcing them to overload with foreign securities; and that the Federal Reserve Bank had made an immense loan for the creating of a fishing fleet at the same time that farmers were told that "we are not making those kind of loans (loans to the farmer) just now."

What else "Cyclone" said should be reported, but what's an editor of a small city newspaper to do when he's supposed to be in 16 places at the same time.

But we'll place a bet that "Cyclone" didn't fail to raise all the blinds and let the folks hereabouts have a good look at Washington, as he sees goings on down in that town.

Mrs. Jim Etter is a niece of Mr. Davis, and while the veteran campaigner was in Littlefield he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Etter.

TIME TO RELINE—

That basic truth has persistently been disregarded by our national law-makers. Instead of reducing expenses, they have increased them—in five years 63%.

Have you anything comparable in your business? We very much doubt it.

We believe everyone should impress upon his Senators and Congressmen the vital necessity for a changed attitude on this fundamental question! It is our right to do so, and we believe it is the most important single action which any of us can take at this time.

We are acquainting our Representatives in Washington with our feelings. We think it would be very wise of you to do the same thing, expressing your ideas plainly, with all possible emphasis on the single point that Federal expenses must be decreased considerably and higher taxation avoided, if there is to be any renewal of confidence throughout the country. As we all know, the present lack of confidence is perhaps the one outstanding obstacle standing in the path of a return to better times.

We do not ask you to copy this letter. We think your individual letters will carry greater weight if they are written by you, individually.

Yours very truly,
Marshall Field & Company,
John McKinlay, President.

June 11, 1932.
Now read this editorial which was published in the June issue of West Texas Today, official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce:

Government Then and Now—

A picture of government in 1932, by Charles E. Coombes:

"Instead of a government of the people, for the people and by the people, we have a government of the bureaus, for the bureaus and by the bureaus. This has been brought about by the demands we have made upon our government for service. We need to think the people should support the government. Now we think the government should support the people. . . .

"The Interstate Commerce Commission now employs about 2,000 persons. In one year its hearings equaled the total number of words in the Encyclopedia Britannica. One of its investigations, undertaken at the direction of Congress, cost $20,000,000, and in addition the railroads had to pay more than $200,000,000 to secure the information it needed in that particular investigation. . . .

"The government undertakes now to tell the housekeeper how to keep house, the storekeeper how to keep store, and the farmer how to farm. Intricate information is given about bed sheets, window shades, the knot-ty problems of jammed doors, vending machines for hot dogs, the habits of frogs. It would seem useless to have any information concerning frogs, since we have all assumed their habits and are jumping from bank to bank. . . .

"The modern idea is to regulate everything and everybody in professional and business life, and to furnish every medium of service which the individual would furnish himself, and to tax him for such services as might be provided. . . .

"The government at its inception sought to encourage individual effort and to protect the citizen in the enjoyment of his property. Now the government is invading the rights of the private citizen by entering into the field of business and professions in competition with him. . . .

"Some of the state organizations that have been formed in the last few months have announced they will oppose all members of the House and Senate who do not subscribe to their tenets. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is not a political organization. It will take no part in the election of members of the House or Senate. . . .

"We, the people of West Texas, do not blame the legislature for the increase in governmental expense. We assume the responsibility for the demands that have been made upon you in the creation of commissions and bureaus. Feeling this responsibility, we are organized in our efforts to aid you in reconstruction and in the reduction of governmental expense and taxation. Each member of this organization is at your beck and call. . . .

"There can be no stability in business until the government has been stabilized. There are three ways in which a budget is to be prepared. It is to be prepared by the legislature, or by the executive, or by the judiciary. . . .

"The financial general government is like the individual citizen. It is now, by its expenditures, creating a debt. . . .

"The people are to do away with the government and return to the government of the people and by the people. . . .

The above are the Coombes' address group conference. Texas legislators Sweetwater Texas Chamber of Commerce his views are planks in the Texas Chamber of
