

Littlefield In District 2-AA Muddle

Olton, Lockney Say They Will Not Play 2-AA; Floydada Out

Littlefield high school—winner of this year's District 5-AA championship and strong contender for the bi-district crown—this week found itself in a District 2-AA muddle with only two others teams to play next year. And indications are that other 2-AA schools are a little leary of playing the touchdown-gathering Wildcats.

Last week Littlefield was transferred from District 6-AA of District 2-AA by the Texas Interscholastic League. The reason given by the TIL was to eliminate long travel distances, particularly in the 200 mile stretch between Littlefield and Kermit.

Nearly News

It seems that Mickey Stephens of the Lamb county Farm Bureau takes unfair advantage of the fish when she goes fishing. After the State Farm Bureau convention last week in Galveston she went lake fishing. Going out to a fishing area, the propeller of her motor boat struck a catfish, stunning it. She turned the boat around and netted the fish, a good four-pounder. Incidentally, it was not the only fish she "caught."

Southwestern Public Service continues to surprise us with its many services. We moved into our new home which had an electric range already set in. Betty was a little lost at how to operate ours but SW Public Service sent over a lady to show her how. It's just another free service of the company and we thought it was mighty considerate.

Some years ago the younger set, now grown, went "real crazy" over a revolving chandelier which—when the juke box was turned on—cast colorful, bubbly lights on the walls out at the Starr Drive-In. "Those were the good old days," they've said often. But unlike most "good old days," they may be back. O. B. Graham, who's going to reopen the restaurant on the Lubbock highway, has promised to see what he could do to put the revolving chandelier in action again.

102,000 Bales Have Been Ginned

The Littlefield office of the Texas Employment Commission yesterday said an estimated 102,000 bales of cotton has been ginned in Lamb county to date. The county crop estimate is 150,000 bales.

The office reported that stripping operations in the county are spotty and that warm weather has opened green buds in some fields.

County FB Delegates Spearhead Resolution Against Acreage Abuse

Lamb and Hockley county delegates to the State Farm Bureau convention in Galveston last week spearheaded a resolution through which is aimed at halting abuses of cotton acreage requirement.

Delegates from the county talked for more than 90 minutes, pointing out that cotton producers in certain areas of the state are acquiring land in low production areas that have cotton acreage history and are transferring this acreage to irrigated land.

They added that the practice "defeats the purpose of our farm program," and called upon the Department of Agriculture to take necessary steps to correct the situation.

TELEPHONE RESOLUTION

Another resolution of particular importance to Lamb county residents was acted on by the state convention. The convention recommended that legislation be enacted to empower county commissioners courts in Texas to authorize regulation of telephone rates and service, including extended services, in rural areas "in a manner similar to that now vested in city governments to regulate telephone rates within the city limits."

Olton is now involved in a city-rural rate controversy. It was further recommended that a basis of rate structure formula should be developed that will give a uniform application of rates for rural telephone throughout the state.

At the Lamb county Farm Bureau convention a month ago, it was recommended that the state set up a Public Utilities commission to regulate rates as is done in the majority of states.

Attending the convention from Lamb county were President Jack Yarbrough, who was a member of the resolutions committee; Mickey Stephens, manager, Johnnie Gallini, Littlefield, Jack Hurt, Spade, Frank Allison, Littlefield, J. E. Johnson, Littlefield, W. E. Diersing, Pep, and Ed Hutchins, Spade.

From the 10 names submitted, four men will be elected for three-year terms as directors of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce.

Sen. Andy Rogers Addresses County Teachers At Olton

State Senator Andy Rogers was principal speaker at the Monday meeting in Olton of the Lamb county Teachers' association. In his topic, "Texas Looks Ahead," Rogers told the group how the state government has helped the teachers with the recent raise and that the Texas penal system is among the best. He added that eleemosynary institutions in Texas will probably benefit at the next session of the legislature.

Invocation for the dinner meeting of 200 county educators was given by J. A. Williams, Olton high school principal. The welcome address was made by Olton Superintendent Carl Macon.

County superintendent-elect Jerry Lumsden made the response. Special music was presented by the Littlefield high school sextette, the "Valtonettes." C. P. Martin of Mrs. W. D. Chapman.

Building Fund Offering Sunday At Baptist Church

The First Baptist church of Littlefield Sunday will have a special Thanksgiving offering for its building fund. Goal is $25,000, according to Dr. Lee Hemphill, pastor. Dr. Hemphill reported that during the past three years the church has carried on all phases of work, including missions and benevolences, and has been able to place in the building fund, $45,730.32 in 1952, $64,055.91 in 1953, and $61,909.07 in 1954.

He said the insurance loan has been paid down to $94,638.83 and there is a balance of $1,335 in the building fund. He said it is planned to pay about half the loan off through offerings this month, December and January. Goals are $25,000 for November, $5,000 for December and $10,000 for January.

BEFUL WITH THAT HATCHET! Jane Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hall, who live miles out of Littlefield on the Bula highway, prepares a coup d' grace on a turkey which she minus feathers Thanksgiving Day. Confidentially, she didn't carry the blow thru, because the gobbler has become a pet. The Halls have some 65 birds and the Toms will average 20 pounds with the hens averaging about 15. Change Springlake School Question Springlake school situation is being handled this week with the drums being delivered to the construction of new buildings on the present school ground.

Members of the school board reported that they had been served with papers to stop construction and that they would proceed with the building program.

Attorney for the group which is protesting erection of the new buildings on the present site reported that "there are no new demands." He explained that the board of legal action to prevent the board from building on the county court at Austin.

The state board ruled that Springlake school board was its rights in deciding that buildings should be constructed on the present location.

S. R. Duncan Construction of Lubbock, which has been awarded the building contract, and a construction and performance bond at the school secretary's office.

Hams To Take Starr Drive-In

Mrs. O. B. Graham would the Graham Restaurant over to Mrs. Myrtle Leavelle and today will open Graham at the location previously occupied by the Starr Drive In. The couple had operated the Amherst restaurant for about five years and it was well known about the county as a good place to eat. They plan to remodel the new business after the first year.

Tables will be open from 6 to 10:30 p.m. seven days a week and will feature steaks, hamburgers and Sunday dinners. Ed Graham will be the associated father and mother in the enterprise.

1955 Cotton Acreage Cut Seen For Lamb County

Lamb county will probably receive a cut in cotton acreage allotments for 1955 based on a state acreage allotment which was announced recently.

But what the county cut will be is anyone's guess. The Amherst office of the ASC this week said it had received the county's acreage allotment but that figures could not be released until an okay was received from Washington.

A spokesman explained that the acreage allotment figures must be released before Dec. 14, the date cotton farmers vote on a national referendum to determine whether marketing quotas will be in effect on the 1955 crop.

According to County Agent Dave Eaton the state cotton acreage allotment in 1955 will be 7,612,779 acres, compared to 8,719,178 this year. As of July 1, 1954, there were 7,990,000 acres planted in the state.

In nearby Deaf Smith county last week, it was reported that that county was cut 6,723 acres in 1955 from 15,000 acres. The ASC manager there was quoted as saying that the 1955 allotment within that county would be based on a "historical basis," meaning farmers would be allotted acreage on the basis of cotton planted in 1952-53-54. That county will suffer more than Lamb on this basis because it has only recently started planting cotton.

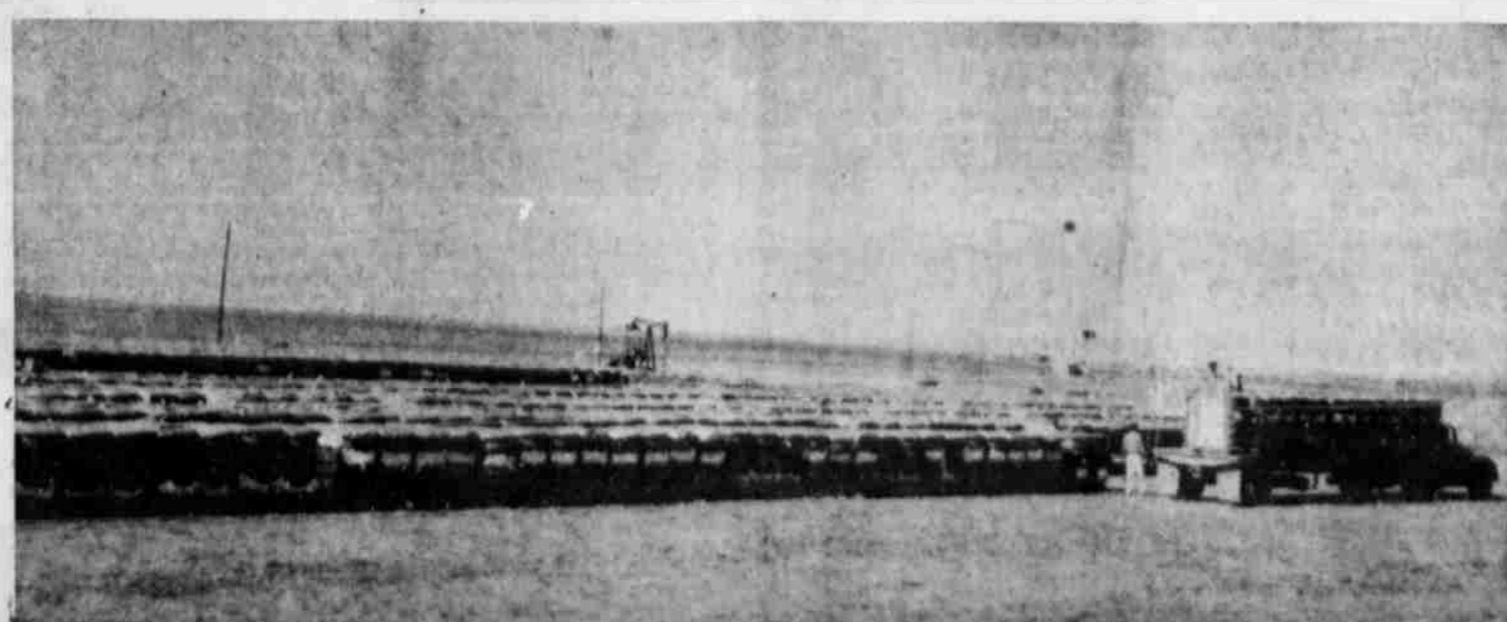

Dec. 2 Deadline Set For Amherst Band Fund Drive
AMHERST — The deadline for completion of the Amherst band fund campaign has been set for Dec. 2, according to Mrs. Doyle Tapley, member of the band committee.

A $2000 goal has been set on the campaign and funds will be used to purchase the basic instruments necessary to form a high school band. Heretofore, the Amherst schools have had no band.

A number of Amherst civic organizations have made the band fund their project and contributed toward the fund, Mrs. Tapley said, but the remainder of the funds will depend on personal contributions.

She said the committee extended the deadline, originally set Nov. 4, to Dec. 2 in order to reach the goal adding that "If the goal is not met by Dec. 2, we will assume that the community feels there is no need for a band in the local high school." She said members of the school board and music department of the school have investigated the prices on the instruments and are waiting for a "go-ahead" signal from the community.

Contributions may be given to members of the Loins club band fund committee, Ray Blessing, Buster Molder, T. L. Batson, A. T. Hedgpeth and C. A. Duffy Jr., or members of the band committee, Mrs. Tapley, Mrs. George Harmon, Batson and Duffy jr

THE 1955 BUICK

New thriller in Style - Power - Performance

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

A BRIGHT NEW FRESHNESS greets your eyes and tells you: Buick's done it again.

You see it in the bold distinction of that gleaming Wide-Screen Grille. You see it in the rakish sweep of the rear-end contours. You see it in the whole fore-and-aft newness of fleet-lined grace that marks Buick the beauty thrill of 1955.

New horsepower - up to 236

You learn more when you get the power story. Up to new peaks go the horsepower of every Buick V8 engine—a wallowing 188 hp in the low-price SPECIAL—a mighty 236 hp in the CENTURY, SUPER and ROADMASTER.

And it's new, more responsive, far-abled power you can literally feel as you go.

But even bigger Buick news for 1955 is something more than style and power. It's what the "variable pitch propeller" now has done for Dynaflow Drive.

Up goes performance—and gas mileage too

When you find it necessary to push the pedal to the floor board, you do more than call on the greatest high-compression V8 power in Buick history.

You do what a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway.

You do in oil what he does in air—you cut down take-off time by using "variable pitch propellers."

In this case, the propeller blades are inside the Dynaflow unit. But they're engineered to swivel or change their "pitch" just like plane propellers—and with the same result: one pitch for getaway, another pitch for gas-saving fuel efficiency.

And what you get in the way of instantaneous safety-surge with absolute smoothness, you can only believe when you feel it.

This you have to try

Of course, we want you to come and see the trend-setting new Buicks—look into the betterments in gasoline mileage that add new thrift to these spectacular cars.

But this year, "seeing" is only the beginning. So—while you join the crowds viewing the new Buicks this week end, make a date to get behind the wheel as soon as you possibly can. We promise you the thrill of the year.

Housekeeping Is An Art, Aunt Anne McClanahan

Billie Watson, who think of house-keeping as a series of deadly lessons, Aunt Anne McClanahan, for eleven years has been a housekeeper for the Sacred Heart Catholic church, as she is to the Sacred Heart church, as she is proud of her profession of keeping a house and being a one of the Arts.

At this attitude she departed for North Dakota, with her son, and three children. Just three grandchildren, a difficult job fit completely as the adult "child" of the parish have done.

She scoffed at the idea of using the easy-to-mix and out-of-a-box foods, saying "That's not the best. When you make it yourself, you use the best."

"Knowing how to put the food on the table and how to serve it is what makes the meal appetizing and tempting," she said. "That's my hobby. I never let anyone help me prepare my table."

Ehe stressed the use of the right centerpiece for the meal. "Chrysanthemums, for instance, cover up too much of the table. They're too heavy, and a high centerpiece makes it necessary for you to rise to see across to the party you're talking to."

She frequently uses vellow snapdragons in her Thanksgiving centerpieces. For Christmas she usually tried to have an arrangement of red carnations and foliage, flanked by red candles. A reindeer always completed the decorations.

"Putting extra work into the table arrangement and decorations and into the preparation of the food is always worthwhile and it's appreciated," she added.

"The children of the parish flock to the rectory after catechism classes, which explains why the feather cake she baked last Saturday wasn't around for the Sunday meal."

"I love children," Aunt Anne exclaimed. "My grandchildren are Mary Ann, Thomas Michael and Freddy."

Midget Wrestlers Headline Saturday Sports Arena Card

Champion of the midget wrestlers, Sky Low Low of Montreal, Quebec, pays a call at the Littlefield Sports arena Saturday night, meeting one of his toughest challengers, Pee Wee James of Boston in a non-title match. Wrestling is sponsored by the Littlefield Lions club.

The battle of the midgets is scheduled as a special attraction on Promoter John Ussery's weekly card, but also shares "double main event" honors with the big boys, Juan Hernandez vs. Ali Bey.

Each match is scheduled for two best falls of three or one hour. Hernandez, formerly known in these parts as Polo Cordova, from Mexico City and Chicago, definitely will have his hands full when he ties into the heavy-set Ali Bey of Ankara, Turkey.

Base-footed and shave-headed Ali Bey is one of the roughest men to beat now in the Southwest States. One of his favorite holds, which generally wins a submission, is his "stomach strangle," in which he applies a forward bearing, digs his head into the midriff of his opponent and hangs on until the latter submits. It is not unlike a "sleeper hold" in that it leaves the victim in a stupor.

Hernandez, fast on his feet and with a great amount of reserve strength, may be able to elude the stomach strangle, but he still has to contend with the rough stuff that Ali Bey uses.

As a starter on the three-match Saturday night card at Littlefield, Juan James of Lufkin will also use his own strategy. This match is for one fall or 20 minutes.

Sky Low Low is nationally known as the "meanest, nastiest wicked of all midget wrestlers." He is 22 years old, stands 42 inches tall, weighs 85 pounds. His opponent this week, Pee Wee James, weighs 100 pounds, is 43 inches tall, and will be the "pet" of the fans.

SPADE HARDWARE STORE, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hardman will observe formal opening Saturday with grand prizes being given away to persons registering. Coffee and soft drinks will be served all day. Prizes will include a Fry-Rite deep fryer, a man's thermos kit and a 11-piece thermos kit. Hardman stressed that it is not necessary to present to win. Names of winners will be announced at 7:30 p. m., Saturday.

Predicting This Week's Games

By JIMMY HINE

The District Champions, the Littlefield Wildcats of 6-AA are idle this week in preparation for their Turkey-day bi-district play-off game. The winner, site and time of the game will be decided after Friday night's games in District 5-AA. The officials of both Littlefield high school and the winner of District 5-AA will meet either Saturday or Sunday and lay plans for the all-important game.

Right now we would like to join with the many other Wildcat fans and say congratulations to the team and coaches on proving that the age of miracles is not a thing of the past. Lots of luck in the playoffs to a swell group.

The following statistics are based on Friday night's victory over Brownfield.

Player	Times Carried	Yards Gained	Yards Lost	Totals	Pct.
Dan Howard	7	30	5	25	7.3
Milton Vaughn	18	262	10	252	74
Kippy Cutshall	4	26	0	26	6.5
John Clayton	8	38	0	38	4.2

Below is a list of the tackles that were made by the Wildcats: Bill Kennemer 12, Milton Vaughn 8, Paul Yarbrough 7, Glen Richards 5, Wayne Wicker 5, John Clayton 7, Dan Howard 6, Boddy Rogers 7, Bob Orr 1, James Lee 4, Kenneth Griffin 3, Bobby Murdoch 10, Max Morris 8, and Kippy Cutshall 6.

Games This Week
Olton entertains the Mulshoe team and a battle between the stubborn Mules and Wild Mustangs would be an engagement worth keeping. Both teams are out of their district race since Floydada has already clinched it. Olton should take this one if they can stay as high as they were in last week's victory over Lockney. Let's take Olton 20-7.

The mighty Wolverines of Springlake, losers of only one conference game, journey to Sudan where the Hornets will find tough going. What a game Springlake played against Amherst last week winning in the final minutes 7-0. Springlake will find no trouble in defeating Sudan 30-6.

Amherst heads north for their weekly date and the Bobcats of Dimmitt are a two-touchdown favorite since they have already defeated Springlake Hating 19 say this to Coach Lamar Kelly's boys, but Dimmitt 20, Amherst 14.

The Bulldogs of Anton entertain the Whitharral club in what should prove to be a great contest: since both teams have just about the same record. Sticking my neck out—Anton 20, Whitharral 14. Know something? I predicted every game correctly last week.

TWO OF HOWARD HORNE'S companions on Midway Island during World War II is shown in a more calm mood. Since the Leader published a story on gooney birds recently we've had several requests for a picture. So here it is. Howard says you spend the first month on Midway laughing at the gooney birds and after that they laugh at you. He should know, he was on the island about 13 months.

Jones Attends Tech Exes Meet

Truman Jones, president of the Littlefield Area Texas Tech Exes Association, attended a meeting of the exes council at Texas Tech Friday night. Approximately 40 chairmen of the various chapters of Tech exes attended the meeting.

The group was shown architectural drawings of some building projects slated for the future, including the men's gymnasium which will contain two swimming pools, the women's gym with one pool, and an infirmary.

New officers for the group were elected for the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Jones also attended homecoming activities Saturday, which included a parade, a barbecue luncheon, the football game between Texas Tech and Tulsa university and departmental class and club reunions.

Fieldton School To Close Tomorrow

The Fieldton school for the children of transient laborers will close tomorrow, according to Superintendent Ralph Schilling. Mrs. Cecil Plate has been instructing the school for the past seven weeks.

Schilling said top enrollment during the seven weeks of school was 70. A full schedule of classes was held from 8 a.m. until noon Monday through Friday.

Attending Homecoming activities at Texas Tech Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Bradley.

Springlake introduced the speaker. During the business session, presided over by James L. Hine of Littlefield, the group heard a report by Mrs. Fred Gordon, secretary-treasurer. Benediction was given by Don Williams of Olton.

Mrs. Mabel Laughlin of Springlake, vice-president, was in charge of the program, held in the Olton school cafeteria. The decoration theme was Thanksgiving and tables were decorated with horns of plenty.

Preceding the meeting the county administrators met to discuss problems pertinent to the administrative field. Littlefield Superintendent Ralph Schilling is president of the group and Glenn Reeves, LHS principal, is secretary.

FB Delegates

High Plains region. The item reads:

"The board of directors of the underground water district should be given the authority to make rules and regulations to prevent waste of irrigation water within the district. We further recommend that the board of directors be given the power to allocate the production of underground irrigation water, subject to a referendum vote of the people within the district."

90 PER CENT PARITY
The Texas Farm Bureau took a definite stand on the National Farm program, seeking 90 per cent parity on most products in the following resolution to American Farm Bureau Federation:

"We reaffirm the need for a farm program that permits freedom of action by the farmer on his farm with a minimum of cost to the government, at the same time protecting the interest of the farmer and the nation. We must have acreage control to keep production in line with demand.

In past and present programs the basis of control has been on the commodity. We feel a more workable control program can be set on the basis of a farm's total tillable acreage. The per cent of retired acres to be determined by the over-all over-production of all farm commodities. Good soil conservation practice must be carried out on retired acres to maintain soil fertility in order to preserve the future of America, such practices to be encouraged by Soil Conservation payments.

"We recommend a price support level of 90 per cent of parity for basic and non basic commodities as long as supplies are in line with demand. We will diligently try to set up a crop allotment program that will effectively bring supplies in line with demand.

"In order for the tillable acreage retirement plan to be effective if supplies are not in line with demand, support prices must be variable in order to encourage the shifting of production from crops in surplus supply to crops in short supply.

"We favor 90 per cent of parity for non-basic commodities as long as supplies are in line with demand. If supplies are not in line with demand we favor a price support level that will decrease 1 per cent in support level for each 2 per cent increase above normal supply.

"We favor 90 per cent of parity for basic commodities as long as supplies are in line with demand. If after 1957, supplies of basic commodities are still in excess of demand, we favor a price support level for all commodities that will reduce the support price of a commodity in surplus 1 per cent for each 2 per cent increase above normal supply."

The Same Treatment

A lot of people hesitate to criticize adversely anything which has anything to do with war veterans. As a result a lot of packets go on in the name of veterans, and at least one of them went on right here in Littlefield this week.

With dozens of real and deserving charitable organizations needing funds desperately to relieve human suffering, it is a citizen's blood run cold to see fakers come through town and bleed it of much of its charity funds in the name of disabled veterans.

A man able to run up and down the streets selling bits of ribbon could do something useful, but useful labor doesn't get off so well as does preying on the ordinary citizen's pocket to do something for our disabled veterans.

Actually we are doing a great deal through our government for our disabled veterans—all that money can do in the name of disabled veterans but for the salesmen's own enrichment should get the same treatment from police that other embezzlers and "con men" get.

These racketeers who roam our streets selling bits of ribbon in the name of disabled veterans but for the salesmen's own enrichment should get the same treatment from police that other embezzlers and "con men" get.

You Can Save $4,600,000,000 A Year

Could your family use an additional $120 a year?

That's the sum, according to a reliable estimate, that could be saved the average family of four if manufacturing services operations in which the government is engaged are turned over to private enterprise. The total savings to taxpayers would be $4,600,000,000 a year.

Socialism depletes everybody's pocketbooks—just as it deprives everybody's freedom and opportunity.

SOME OF THE CAMPAIGN WORKERS who attended a "kick-off" drive for the Salvation Army campaign last week are shown at breakfast at Engman's Town House restaurant. The Salvation Army is seeking $3,000 in contributions to assist with its charitable enterprises.

Social Security Agent To Be At TEC Office, Nov. 24

A representative of the Social Security office at Lubbock will be in the Littlefield office of the Texas Employment Commission, Wednesday, Nov. 24 to answer questions on social security.

Hours will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

It was pointed out that a person who operates a farm, ranch or any other agricultural enterprise is covered by social security beginning January 1, 1955, if his net earnings from the farming operation can be figured at $400 or more per year. A simplified method of reporting is provided for low income farmers who may not keep detailed reports.

Farmers coming under social security for the first time will need to get a social security card. You can get a card from your nearest social security office. Almost every post office has application forms. There is no charge. If you had a card and lost it, ask for a duplicate so your previous earnings can be properly credited to your account.

It is highly important that you show your social security account number on your reports. Your number identifies your account. Your benefits are figured from this account.

You do not report or pay any social security tax on your 1954 earnings. Early in 1956 you make a social security report of your earnings and pay a tax on them. This report is part of your income tax return.

The amount you report is your net earnings or profit, after you subtract your farming expenses from your total receipts. If your total receipts are $1,800 or less you have the choice between reporting your actual net earnings or of reporting half your total receipts. You can report either way.

If your total receipts are over $1,800 you must figure your net earnings. If the net earnings are less than $900 you can report the actual amount or $900.

Should your average reportings to age 65 be $900 per year, you will be entitled to a benefit of $42.50 per month for life. And your wife at age 65 will receive $21.30, or a joint total of $765.50 per year. So long as your net earnings are not over $1,200 per year, you can get the payments and keep farming, too.

Randy Nail, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nail, was ill this week with tonsillitis.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
 BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
 What We Owe God
 Lesson for November 21, 1954

AT THANKSGIVING time some people thank God for the wrong things, or they may even not thank him at all. They may sit back looking at the festival turkey, and instead of being grateful to God are being rather proud of themselves. But even thankful hearts may sometimes be a shade wrong. On the one hand, some very big-minded Christians will tell you that it isn't the material blessings that count, it is the spiritual blessings for which we ought to be thankful. Well (as we shall see), if it were not for the material blessings there could be no spiritual blessings. On the other hand, as some people seem to look at it, what we are thankful for is "prosperity"—so that if we lost money last year, or barely scraped through, we don't really have anything to be thankful for. Such persons should be reminded that the Psalms of gratitude—and they are many—were not written by wealthy men for the most part but by rather poor ones on our standard. The 104th Psalm is a case in point.

The Gift of Existence
 The first point that strikes the reader of this Psalm is that the poet is thinking much more about the world than about himself. He feels himself to be a part of the great world which God has made, so that he feels personally happy over blessings which he shares with all creation. How many persons, on the contrary, are never grateful to God unless for something done for themselves alone! This Psalmist not only feels himself akin to all other men but to animals as well, yet even inanimate things like clouds and wind, "messengers" of God, as he himself is. This Psalmist is singing with joy to God in gratitude for existence, not his own single sole existence but that of all creation. He knows that without the other creatures of God he himself could not be. Another Psalmist thinks of God as creating him "in the heart of the earth." He too was aware that we are related to this earth's crust, the very make-up of the soil determines the physical make-up of our bodies. This great Psalmist rejoices not merely that "God made ME" but—what is much more important, God in wisdom made ALL things.

The Gift of Subsistence
 Our Psalmist goes further. He sings not only of God's Creation but of his Providence. Nothing could be without God, but also nothing could continue to be without him. He thinks of this in two ways. One is easy to understand—that is, God provides for each of his creatures whatever is necessary for that creature to live, and gives to each creature the impelling desire to keep itself alive. God feeds the lions; but he does not come down in a fiery cloud with lion-manna in his hand. Not at all; the lion goes after his prey. But while other men cover their heads in terror at the lion's roar, not so this poet; he rejoices that lions, like men, "seek their food from God." The other way in which God sustains his creatures—clouds, grass, goats, lions and poets—is more profound and not all can even think about it. But this poet's inspired mind penetrated deeply into the reality of things. He perceives that God's very being, and will, sustain and "keep in being" everything that is. God does not toss off a universe into space and let it spin as it will. He undergirds it at every point at every instant.

What We Owe God
 People "exchange gifts" at Christmas time; but no one can exchange gifts with the Almighty. None may give him existence, not all creation can sustain his being, life—in beginning and continuance—flows from him to us, not from us to him. We can never repay the Creator of all. And yet we do owe God something—everything indeed, but something in particular. We surely owe him a thankful heart; not mere words of thanks, but a thankful heart, rejoicing in all the wonders of God. We also owe God at least the careful and wise use of his creation. Waste, such as erosion which we could prevent, or letting stock run down—all waste of natural strength, time or resources—this is a sin against the God who gives us all things.

E. C. Rodgers Furniture Grand Opening Set

Demonstrations And Prizes Features Opening Tomorrow And Saturday

Littlefield's largest furniture store—the E. C. Rodgers Furniture Co., 217 Phelps av.—will observe its formal grand opening tomorrow and Saturday at a new location.

The firm moved several weeks ago from 205 Phelps into the building formerly occupied by Piggy Wiggly Co. The move gave the store more than double the amount of space occupied in the previous location.

The store will open at 9 a. m. Friday morning and for the first time there will be valuations. The first 50 ladies on Friday will receive free Philco cook books. Also to be given to "early comers" will be a set of Shetland all-purpose electric polishers with attachments, valued at $29.95.

Prizes for which everyone who registers at the store to be eligible are valued at several hundred dollars. First prize is a handsome 21" Philco model TV set, valued at $129.95; second will be a modern wrought iron dinette set, with four chairs and valued at $99.95; third prize is a Shetland all-purpose electric polisher with attachments, valued at $29.95.

Prize will be a Cannon touch-sheet set valued at $21.95; fourth prize will be a TV light set, valued at $15.95. A kitchen set, valued at $12.95 will be given as a prize. Names of grand winners will be announced at 8 p. m. Saturday, pointed out by Earl Rodgers, that it will not be necessary to be present at that time but that everyone must register at the door either tomorrow or Saturday. Everyone who attends the opening will be given a souvenir.

The new location of the store features fluorescent lighting and air conditioning. Walls have been renovated and are painted a soft green. Within the next few days, the company plans to install a large sign on the building facade. Rodgers said it is planned to add new lines of merchandise in the near future in addition to his present plentiful stock of Philco items.

Rodgers and his wife have lived in Littlefield for 11 years, coming here in October 1943 from Tulla, where they had operated a bakery. They have two children, a boy, 12, and a girl, 9.

They live at 118 E. 11th st. and are members of the Presbyterian church.

Rodgers takes an active part in Littlefield civic affairs. He is a member of the school board, the Lion's club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and is president of the Band Booster's club.

Other members of the firm are Larry Parker, service manager; O. D. Bigham, salesman; and Bob Inman, assistant salesman. Parker, who is married and has three children, has worked for the firm for

Earth Farmer's Union No. 118 Adopts 14 Agriculture Resolutions

Earth Farmer's Union Local 118, Nov. 9 adopted the following resolutions which had been submitted by its resolutions committee on Oct. 18, according to President A. K. Shelby.

(1) "That the federal government should adopt policies and programs that will prevent farm income from falling below a level equivalent to 100 per cent of the parity price on family farm production of all farm products.

(2) "That it opposes any type of variable, flexible, or sliding scale price supports that brings lower support levels in response to more abundant farm production.

(3) "That it is in favor of increasing United States consumption—for instance:

a. School lunch program should be expanded until it is available to every school that wants the program.

b. A food allotment or food stamp program should be enacted that will allow low income people to buy enough food to provide an adequate diet for health.

c. Direct distribution to private and public welfare institutions should be expanded.

d. Special food programs be enacted so that no children or older people will suffer malnutrition.

No Income Tax

(4) "That Farmer's Cooperative shall not pay income taxes on the savings of their members.

(5) "That the agricultural soil conservation program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture be maintained at levels equivalent to general public or social interest in preserving and improving the productive ability of farm land.

(6) "That all proposals to give away public assets such as public owned grazing and forest lands, public parks and public power development, to selfish interests in whatever guise they may be advanced, be opposed.

(7) "That it urges a revision of freight rates to correct discrimination against Western and Southern development. No freight rates be increased except on the basis of proved efficient operation and increased costs of operation.

(8) "That it is convinced that the nation should establish conditions such that all the working people of the nation will be able to earn a fair share of national income. When the income of non-farm people drops, the markets for farm products dry up; just as the demand for manufactured products falls when farm income drops. Therefore, we shall continue to support the enactment of public policies that will strengthen and protect collective bargaining and the right of workers to organize. We recommend that the minimum wage law be expanded to cover all employees and that the minimum wage be raised to a figure consistent with current productivity and living costs. We shall support expansion of laws regulating safety, sanitation and other working conditions to all places of work. Raise Exemption (9) "That it believes that the federal law legislation should be revised to raise personal exemptions to $750 per capita.

(10) "That the present policy refunding the state tax on the line used in farm machinery can be revised so that the gas tax can be refunded at the time delivery instead of signing the title certificates and sending them to the state comptroller for payment.

(11) "That the Earth Farmer's Union recommend that the accept 14 per cent test on grain in elevator storage and 13 per cent test in flat storage grain sorghums.

Expands Telephones (12) "That the rural telephone program needs to be expanded more rapidly. Increased loan authorizations and appropriations administrative funds should be made by Congress to assure minimum delay in reaching farmers this essential service. The use of stock deposits now required applicants for rural telephone operative membership should be discontinued.

(13) "That it is resolved to urge the government to make an effort to dispose of all surplus commodities by selling trading them on world markets.

(14) "Whereas, we believe the Secretary of Agriculture, T. Benson, is not working for the best interest of Agriculture, we ask that he be replaced."

A Personal Column

First Year Report On Wife; Lots Of Shoes For Hillbilly

By DON PERRY

Dear Bachelor Friends:

For nearly 30 years you advised me to take a hillbilly for a wife if and when I should get married. I break this sad news to you: I have now observed my first wedding anniversary and this is the report on my hillbilly wife:

Your dear friends cautioned me that it would be economical to marry a hillbilly gal, I can remember your words distinctly: "All you have to do is keep her bare-foot."

I now report that it is impossible for me to do this. Surely no one in the right senses would suspect that a hillbilly gal would own over 40 pairs of shoes—large size, too, which give those toes that walked many a country mile in the raw a little breathing space. But my spouse has them and now comes the sad tale. We have moved into a house which is a little shy of closet space. Either I have to leave the shoes go, for there's not room for both of us. I ask you good bachelor friends what to do.

My second problem is this. You cautioned me to show her from the start who is boss. Well, I loaned her a pair of my pants and she won't give them back. What do I do? You also told me to give in to her on little arguments and not budge an inch on big ones. I now report that I can't even budge unless she gives an okay. Again, what do I do?

Now we know that wives should be good to their husbands. Men give up so much when they get married that wives should do everything possible to make them contented.

A man is a wonderful thing to have around the house. There is nothing like a man when it comes to making a woman happy. Can expect so little in return. They are grateful for any kindness shown to them. Please tell me how in blazes you can get it without reverting to bachelorhood. And I don't want any more d—lies.

If we could walk out into our front yards tomorrow morning and cut ourselves a cube of air out of the "nothing" that surrounds our homes—if we could capture that air in an old-fashioned matchbox and bring it in—what would we have?

We can't see it, taste it, feel it, or hear it. Yet we know it's there. We know it is made up of gases, some beneficial, some impure. We know the samples wouldn't be the same here in the Southwest as in the North. We're told they'll even differ from town to town in our own state, from dooryard to dooryard in our own block.

We've been informed that those gases are made up of molecules, and the molecules of one or more atoms.

But with all this general information, we are still a little vague about what we've got in our matchbox of atmosphere. And until it is examined scientifically, we'll be no wiser—no matter how attentively we look, taste, listen or feel.

The ideas in our heads are a lot like the atmosphere that surrounds our homes. They float noiselessly across our consciousness, for the most part unnoticed. They are changing constantly. Some contain a higher percentage from the mental atmosphere, so to speak, broken into its parts and examined with scientific interest. Once we find what went into its formation, then we can judge its true value. And from such testing, progress comes.

So what? Oh, it's just an idea—one we capture in a matchbox of insomnia last night. We put it in the deep freeze of the subconscious until we could get out the little home microscope and examine it in the bright morning light.

... Guest rooms should be simple and uncluttered. A man just doesn't appreciate fussy frills and bows.

Philco

The new Philco line includes 21 and 24-inch table models, consoles, and radio-phonograph-TV combinations.

Philco Recommends All-Channel Tuning to Sour UHF

Philco has incorporated in its 1955 models an entirely new all-channel tuning system including a single dial for all VHF and UHF channels presently allocated by the Federal Communications Commission.

"Philco has long recognized the need for a more economical approach to conversion of VHF sets to receive the many new UHF stations," said Frederick D. Ogilby, vice-president and general manager for television. "This aspect of UHF television service, which has been studied recently by the Federal Communications Commission and a committee of the United States Congress, is now relatively simplified by the new Philco all-channel tuning system. Our engineers have designed a new UHF tuner which can be literally 'plugged in,' in a matter of minutes, to convert the VHF set to UHF reception.

"This new Philco invention will greatly help the UHF broadcasters getting started in a new market," Mr. Ogilby said. "It is our opinion that the Federal Communications Commission and the Radio-Electronics-television Manufacturers Association should recommend that all television manufacturers start immediately to adapt UHF to their receivers in this manner to help further the interest of UHF broadcasting in more cities.

"Without the addition of any controls, the owner now may have a complete UHF-VHF receiver. For the dealer, this feature offers special attraction. The same tuner fits into all models of the television line so the dealer will only have to stock one UHF tuner. It takes the guesswork out of how many UHF or VHF sets will be required for any territory.

"When a new station comes on the air, it will be an easy matter for all dealers to get into business overnight with their regular VHF inventory. A dealer handling Philco sets this year will not have to save double inventory in UHF and VHF receivers. All he needs in one inventory, plus tuners. When UHF comes to a VHF community, all the owner will have to do is purchase a tuner." Philco Introduces "Tuner" Controls. All controls for the new Philco TV sets are in full view for easy handling and are time are concerned with appearance, in a radio set, an auxiliary mounted horizontally on most than with the ease they are operated by motion of the finger tip and volume control station selector are of type.

UHF channel number selected on an illuminated screen when the UHF selector is in operation. Three New Chassis Give Brighter Picture. Three completely new chassis—LV-30, LV-31, Custom-100—mark innovation to Philco's new line. The new power plants are transformer-phenomenon cycle circuits, are designed to guard against surge with airplane stations, amateur radio with a neighbor's television. Mr. Ogilby said. "Each chassis provides for sensitivity and power for known television sets. The Custom-100 is a new standard for the obstacles of distance and noise in television. Cabinet finishes include any, blond mahogany, walnut and maroon.

Texas Farm Income Nearly Same As In '53

AUSTIN. — Texas farmers received approximately as much cash income from products in the first nine months of 1954 as they did in the same period last year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

The difference in the 1953 and 1954 totals was less than a half of one per cent.

Cotton income was up 32 per cent, followed closely by cottonseed (21 per cent), sheep and lambs (14 per cent) and corn (12 per cent). However, grain sorghams income dropped 25 per cent, and other declines were registered by dairy products and eggs (each 20 per cent) and fruit and vegetables (18 per cent).

The outlook for principal cash crops is brighter, the Bureau reports. Pessimistic views are confined to crops of local importance in scattered areas.

September rail car shipments of Texas livestock were up 17 per cent over August and 117 per cent over September, 1953, indicating heavy marketing because of the prolonged drought.

However, range and pasture prospects picked up sharply in October and cattle marketing was curtailed sharply during the first part of that month, causing advances in prices at several markets, the bureau said.

Shivers' Hat
 Parents of children in Austin's Pease school will have a chance Nov. 19 to bid on the Panama hat worn by Governor Allan Shivers during the gubernatorial campaign.

Shivers donated the hat, a tie, and some aprons, for the school's annual harvest festival.

Final Election Returns
 Final reports from the Texas Election Bureau show that Governor Shivers rolled to a 521,373 to 62,007 victory over Republican opponent Tod R. Crockett.

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson received 491,228 votes to Republican Carlos Watson's 85,079.

Mystery Blasts
 Central Texas residents read of another "mystery blast" last week. This time it was at Granger. But as in the previous seven cases no cause could be found.

First blast of the series came in September in Austin. Cause of the blasts has been attributed to everything from jet planes breaking the sound barrier to small boys playing with dynamite.

Inductions vs. Separations
 More Texans left the service last month than entered. Separations numbered 5,365 while inductions totaled 4,691, including six Texas doctors.

Narcotics Big Business
 Black market narcotics have been called "big business" in Texas by the Department of Public Safety.

TDPs report 20 big bootleg dealers and hundreds of peddlers as operating in the state. "We believe that most of the Texas narcotics come across the Rio Grande and through coastal ports," said Chief W. E. Naylor of the department's narcotic section.

Drink To Death
 Records in the Texas Department of Public Safety reveal that drinking drivers were involved in 40 per cent of all fatal accidents last year.

New Head For State Home
 James A. Lands of Austin has been named acting superintendent of the Waco State Home for Dependent and Neglected Children.

Announcing the appointment was John H. Winters, executive director of the State Department of Public Welfare, who had removed former superintendent Ben S. Peek on grounds that the home's children could be better served by a change.

Mental Care
 An 11-point improvement program has been outlined by the State Hospital board, for the care of mentally retarded children and adults.

Improvements, in general, will follow recommendations made to the board by the Texas Research League.

In its report, the League listed 5,865 mentally retarded persons as presently in need of state facilities ... over half of whom are not in these special schools.

Also recommended by the League was a 5,000 bed increase over the present 3,000 bed system.

Housing Act Aids Building
 Passage of the 1954 Housing Act resulted in a flood of new applications for loans and has thrown the Southwest Texas FHA office four weeks behind in its work.

In speaking to Austin realtors, Director C. T. Macleod of the FHA's San Antonio headquarters, stated that he hoped the law could be cleared by Jan. 1.

More than 1,600 applications, seeking new or additional construction, have poured in, he said. The law permits maximum loans ranging from $20,000 to $25,000 for house construction.

New Insurance Rating
 Policy holders of the new defunct Texas Mutual Insurance company of Beaumont will not be responsible for paying company debts, the State Supreme Court has ruled.

Upholding of an identical bar earlier decision by the Court ended attempts by the state to obtain an assessment on company policy holders.

Income Tax Forms
 Federal income tax forms for taxpayers in the Internal Revenue Service's southwest region office will be easier to read and decipher this year.

For instance, the well-known

Form 1040, formerly of one-sheet size is now bank-check size. Other forms will have color added as does the instruction booklet, printed in eye-pleasing tints.

CONGRATULATIONS WILDCATS!

ON WINNING THE District 6-AA Championship

This Week's "Player of the Week"

(Five dollars will be given to Mrs. T. A. Barley for this week's winning letter.)

Dear Sir:

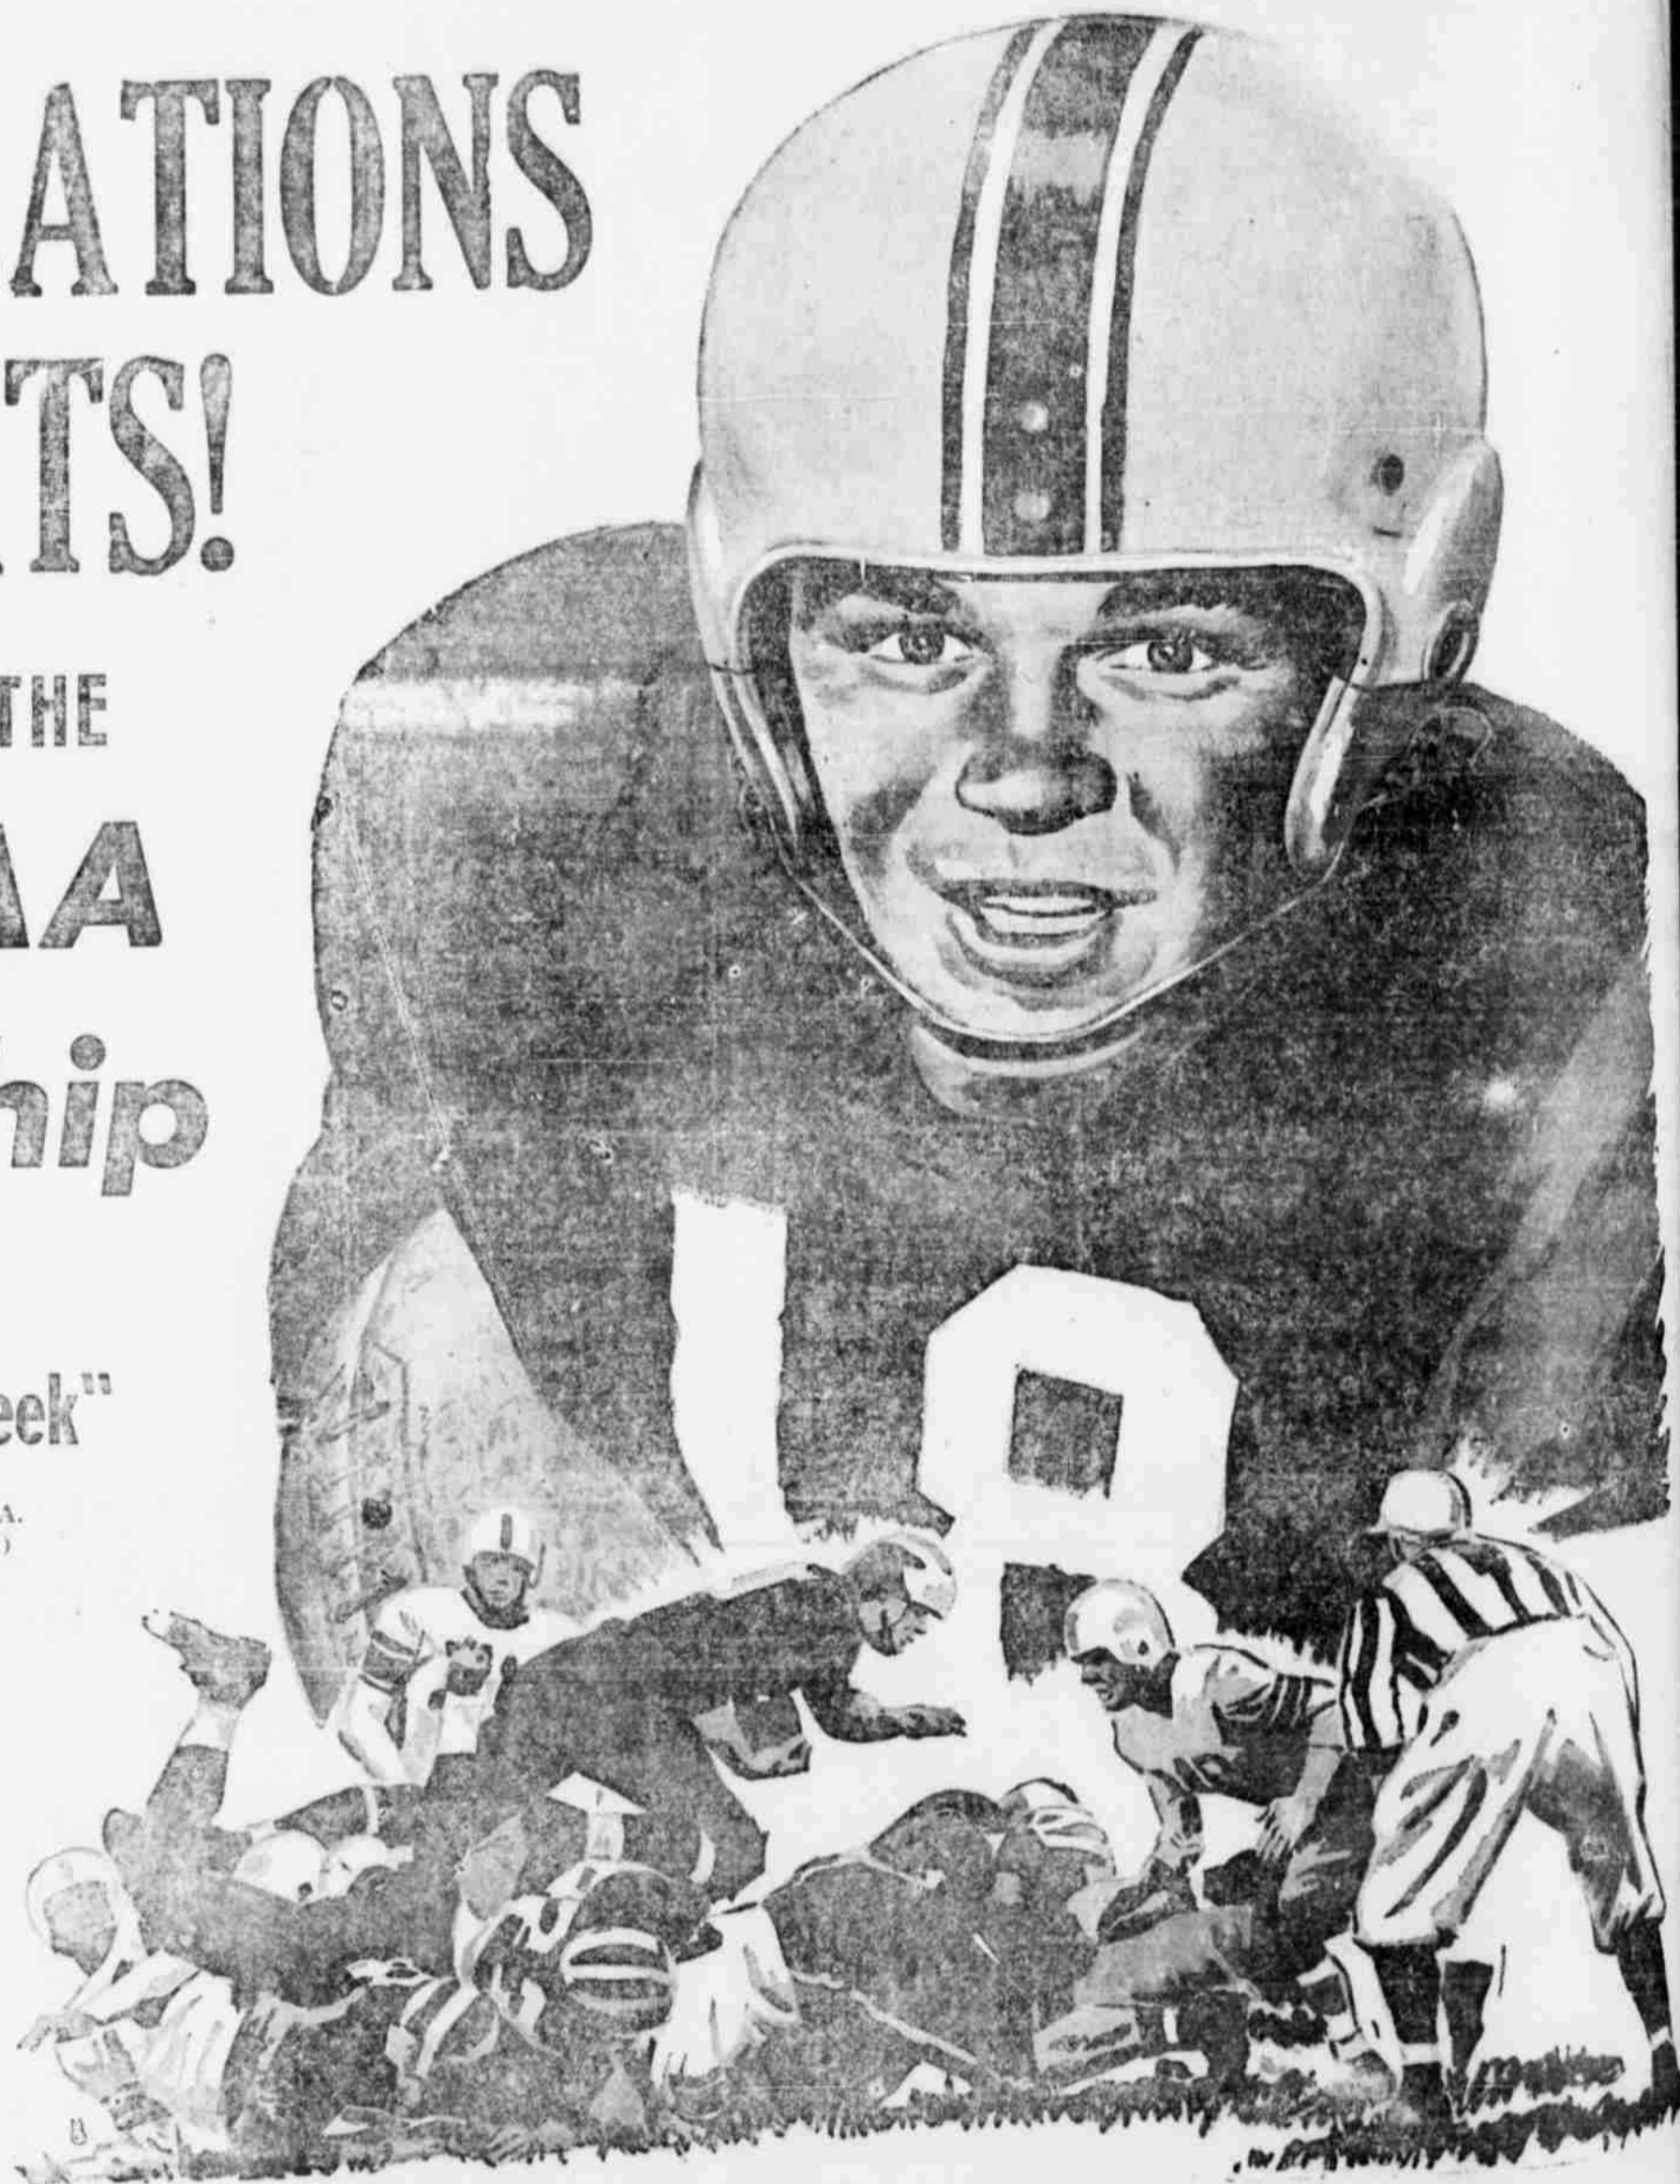

The player of the week should be big "Bill Kennemer." He played a bang up, good ball game.

He always seemed to be at the right place at the right time and took advantage of every chance to help his teammates and stop the opponents.

The Wildcats surely played a good game and were wonderful but Bill was exceptionally good.

Sincerely,

Mrs. T. A. Barley.

Words Failed Her—But Not Charlie

Seeking help in entering a national jingle contest, Miss Marjorie Bader turned to Charlie McCarthy, who has never been at a loss for words (as long as Edgar Bergen's around, of course). A representative of a coffee trade association in Washington, D. C., Miss Bader naturally was most interested in winning one of the sterling silver coffee services she, Bergen and Charlie are admiring. The contest, in which over 1,100 sterling silver prizes will be awarded for the best last lines to a jingle, is being conducted by the salad and cooking oil manufacturer that sponsors Bergen and McCarthy Sunday nights on a major radio network.

The Christian's Inheritance

By Tommy Williams, Minister

"Blessed be the God and father of our Lord Jesus Christ which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserve in heaven for you who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time." (1 Peter 1:3-5).

This passage tells much in a few words about the Christian's greatest hope — his eternal inheritance.

1. It describes the nature of that inheritance: It cannot decay as earthly things do. It is "incorruptible." It is free from all impurities — "undefiled," compare Revelations 21:27. It is eternal.

in duration — "fadeth not away." This can be said of no other treasure that a person may possess.

2. The passage tells of the assurance Christians have of this hope — "the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." Because he was raised from the dead, we know that he has power over death and that we, too, can be raised and live eternally.

3. Finally, the passage answers the question, "For whom is this inheritance reserved?" It is for those kept by God's power through faith. Believing in God, we can "commit the keeping of our souls to him in well doing" (1 Peter 4:19).

Nothing else can be nearly so important to us.

Overseas Parcel Mailing About Same As 1953

Overseas mailing to service men approximates that of last year, Littlefield Postmaster C. A. Joplin said Monday. He pointed out that Monday was the last day for mailing packages overseas but that parcels may be mailed until Nov. 25.

He said packages can still be mailed, however, overseas packages mailed before Nov. 15 receive special handling by military forces which have set up facilities to take care of Christmas mail.

Packages here are going to such places as Germany, Japan, Korea and Okinawa in the main but other remote spots come in for their share.

CLOTHES FOR SMALL TRY Keep in mind two little words when you buy children's clothes, "easy upkeep." Rule 1: Read labels for washability guarantee; make head-bluing a habit for keeping clothes bright. And plenty of hot soapy water. Rule 2: Choose simply-made clothes for simplified ironing and, for extra smooth ironing of starchables, add the blue wax ironing aid to hot starch.

KEEP WOOL SOCKS FROM SHRINKING

You won't have to buy wool socks two sizes too large since proper washing will prevent shrinkage. Squeeze them gently through lukewarm soapsuds, without twisting, wringing or rubbing. If the feet need extra attention, work soapsuds directly into them with the fingertips. Then fold the socks

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

A trade-mark identifies merchandise as being the product of a particular manufacturer or distributor. While a trade-mark is most often a word, it may also be an emblem, symbol, or other device. The intended function of a trade-mark is to distinguish the goods of the proprietor from the goods of others in the market place. The expressions "trade-mark" and "brand name" are synonymous.

A trade-mark, which is actually marked upon goods or merchandise, is to be distinguished from a trade name, which is a name under which business is conducted. "American Tobacco Company" is a trade name. "Lucky Strike" is a trade mark. A trade name may also be marked upon merchandise and used as a trade mark, and may then be registered as a trade-mark, but a word used only as a trade name may not be protected under the trade-mark laws. Trade names are protectable only under the law of unfair competition.

A person or company becomes the owner of common law rights in a trade-mark through adoption and use of the mark on goods. The law affords protection to the owner by prohibiting others in the field from appropriating the mark for one so similar as to be likely to cause confusion for use on goods of the same general type.

A distinctive and different trade-mark may be among the greatest and most valuable assets of a company. To show a distinctive mark, it may be necessary to conduct a search of marks already in use.

When a word or symbol has been selected, it must then be used in connection with the goods before it becomes a valid trademark. A valid trademark may lose its legal protection because of improper use by its owner or by the public.

The Federal and most State governments including Texas have by legislation, provided for the registration of trademarks by their owners. While a trademark need not be registered to receive protection, in the courts such registration does afford substantial benefits to trademark users.

Return From Dallas Market

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Little and Mrs. Otis Smith of Littlefield, and Mrs. Core Thompson of Hereford returned last Thursday from the Dallas fashion market where they had spent a week. Mrs. Smith said fashions being shown indicate that pastawhite colors for spring will include corals, half blue, beige and orange. She also said the separates and co-ordinates are being stressed in coming fashions.
