WE THINK

What Do You Think?

BY M. B. D.

IT'S SO HOT

We think some one should invent a sweat blotter, then when we sit in a breeze, we wouldn't sneeze, just thank God for the inventor of the blotter.

WE READ SOMEWHERE OR OTHER THE OTHER DAY ABOUT SOMEBODY INVENTING A MACHINE TO RELIEVE AND CURE HAY FEVER.

Blessings on thee. Thou should be knighted and all thy children's children should have special recognition.

NOW HERE'S A BRIGHT IDEA—

There are nudist colonies for no good reason under the shining sun, so far as we know.

How much more important it should be to establish hay fever colonies where all the victims could gather together and sneeze and cry and talk over the general situation.

BRIGHTER DAYS ARE HERE—

All indications point to an enlarged growth and development for Lamb county.

Chief of the new projects is the cotton oil mill which is under construction in Littlefield.

The oil mill is giving Littlefield and Lamb county immense favorable publicity. We have visited several cities since construction of the mill was started, and everywhere this city and county are receiving congratulations on the new industry.

Other business buildings are under construction, or contemplated, and residential construction is active. A large number of new residences are planned for Littlefield.

There is a shortage of housing in Littlefield and possibly in other towns of the county. A housing shortage and residences under construction and contemplated are the very best kind of evidence that economic conditions have improved. People do not seek out new places to live when times are bad; they live in their present homes and set aside any dreams they may have had of a new home.

Why the Typhoid Scare?

(AN EDITORIAL)

Littlefield's water supply is believed to be absolutely pure.

If it were not pure there would be a city full of sick people, because in July there was a total of 8,600,000 gallons used, as compared with 5,831,000 gallons in July, 1935. The consumption this month is expected to total approximately 10,000,000 gallons.

The total for July of this year exceeded all previous records, and the present month promises to break another record.

City Secretary W. G. Street is authority for the statement that there has not been a case of typhoid originate in Littlefield in five years.

There has been several cases of typhoid treated at the Littlefield hospital in recent weeks, but they have all developed from 12 to 20 miles out in the country.

Littlefield doctors joined with Mr. Street in stating that there has not been a case of typhoid develop in Littlefield this year.

City officials are very zealous in guarding the purity of Littlefield's water supply.

As a safety first step City Secretary Street is having laboratory tests made of Littlefield's water supply.

If there was any danger of typhoid germs in Littlefield's water supply, city officials would be the first to issue a warning.

We ask: Why the typhoid scare?

EIGHT MILLION GALLONS WATER USED IN JULY

City Secretary Predicts 10,000,000 Gallons Consumed In August

Littlefield residents are consuming considerable more water this summer than last, according to an analysis made by City Secretary W. G. Street Tuesday.

More water was consumed by Littlefield during the month of July than any month in the history of this city. A total of 8,600,000 gallons were used in July of this year as compared with 5,831,000 gallons in July 1935; in June, 1935, 4,608,000 gallons were consumed as against 6,470,000 gallons in June, 1936. From July 20 to August 14, a total of 8,222,000 gallons were used, and at this rate of consumption, Mr. Street stated he believed the total for the current month would run around 10,000,000 gallons.

The average for 1935 was five million gallons per month, but according to the City Secretary, the records will show a considerable average increase for 1936.

CITY SECRETARY REPORTS NO LITTLEFIELD RESIDENTS SUFFERING FROM TYPHOID

In an interview with W. G. Street, city secretary, Tuesday, Mr. Street stated that he had checked with all city physicians in an endeavor to ascertain if there were any typhoid cases in the city, and all Littlefield doctors assured him that they did not have a single case of typhoid where the victim was a citizen of this city.

In this connection Mr. Street said: "While there have been about three cases of typhoid treated at the local hospital, yet they have all come from 12 or 15 to some 20 miles out in the country, and did not originate

School Board To Arrive Thursday With New Buses

According to Mrs. Ed Seely, she received a card from Mr. Seely Wednesday, which was written Sunday from Richmond, Ind., stating that the body company promised to have the school bus trucks ready, so that the Littlefield delegation would be able to start for home Sunday afternoon, in which event it is estimated that they should arrive some time today (Thursday).

Thursday Hottest Day of Month When 109 Is Recorded

The thermometer soared to 109 last Thursday, the second time this summer, that this high temperature was recorded, the low for that day being 73, according to the readings recorded at the West Texas Gas establishment.

Other temperatures for the past week were: Friday, low 70, high 102; Saturday 87 and 98; Sunday 68 and 100; Monday 70 and 97; Tuesday 70 and 97, and Wednesday 67 and 94.

in Littlefield." "There hasn't been a Littlefield resident had the typhoid fever for five years.

"The city has the water tested every short while, and the minute anything shows up detrimental to the citizens we will publish it. If there is anything for the people to get alarmed about we will let them know. If we had a city laboratory, we would test the water daily, but since we do not, it is necessary that we send it away for these tests."

Santa Fe Not To Run Special Train To Centennial

After considerable investigation and effort on the part of H. C. Pumphrey, local Santa Fe Agent, to run a special train to the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial on September 16, Littlefield Day at the celebration, the plan has been abandoned, as Mr. Pumphrey states it would not be possible to book a large enough number to make the trip.

In order to run a train, Mr. Pumphrey stated, he would have to sell 150 tickets at $7.13 each for round trip, and that being the regular week end rate on the Santa Fe, it would not be possible to sell that number of tickets. The plan, therefore, has been abandoned.

FARMER FACES MURDER CHARGE IN RUSS CASE

A. M. Johnston Being Held In Connection With 4 Year Slaying

A. M. Johnston, 47 year old farmer, was arrested at his home near Sudan, and lodged in an unannounced jail Tuesday afternoon, charged with the four year old murder of A. E. (Ace) Russ. Sheriff F. A. Loyd and State Rangers Lay and Ingram arrested the accused man.

Johnston's home is about a half mile from that of Russ. Russ, 60 year old farmer was shot the night of July 11, 1932, and died the following afternoon. Mrs. Russ, who signed the complaint which was filed with Justice of the Peace L. S. Kennedy, told officers immediately after the shooting:

"I heard a noise at the back door, and when I looked through a window saw a man prowling outside, I aroused my husband and asked him to fasten the door.

"When he reached the door the prowler fired at him and fled. The man did not try to enter the house."

Mrs. Russ said that so far as she knew her husband had no enemies. At the time of the shooting, robbery was advanced as a possible motive, as Russ usually paid bills in cash and generally was believed to have kept a large sum of money in his home.

Johnston, who is married, has been living near Sudan for about 13 years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Badger are planning on spending the week end at Santa Fe, N. M.

HOW THE "TAKE" IS SPLIT

Some interesting figures have just been compiled by the Department of Commerce which show an increase in 1935 of $2,425,000,000 in the wages paid to workers by American business concerns, above the wage payments of 1934. At the same time, these figures indicate the amount paid to the executive management of business enterprises increased by about $75,000,000. The net figure of about 27 billion dollars for wages and 850 millions for management tallies with previous statistics which show that the wage-workers get about 97 per cent out of each payroll dollar and the big executives three cents.

A study by the National Association of Manufacturers indicates that the total of goods made and sold last year was about 50 billion dollars, out of which labor and management were paid about 28 billions, or 56 per cent of the intake, while about 9 1-2 billions, or 19 per cent of the selling price of all goods, was taken by Federal, state and local governments for taxes. Less than a quarter of the income from sales was left to pay for raw materials, plant maintenance and depreciation and the other costs which every business must carry, to say nothing of reserves against a rainy day and dividends to stockholder.

All of this is interesting in view of the criticism that the salaries paid to the management of the big corporations are too high. If by paying a good manager three cents a business is enabled to pay a worker 97 cents, that would seem to be the workers' advantage, especially when they get nearly 55 cents and the big bosses less than two cents out of every dollar's worth of goods sold.

Johnny bent over Pod Fortune

Johnny jerked on his boots and buckled his gun belt around his hips.
Then he went up to the rear where Chang slept and pounded on the

"Hey Chang," he called softly.
"It's me—Johnny Clehoe."
Presently Chang opened the door and blinked sleepily at Johnny.
"Wassa malla?" he creaked.
Johnny told him about Pod and what he was to do, then when Chang scurried quickly for the kitchen, Johnny went to the corral on the run and saddled up. A mo-through the darkness along the trail to Carillion.

While McMurdo dressed, Johnny related the paramount incidents of the night and the old Scotchman's frown deepened as he listened.

"'Tis a sneakin' crafty mon he law is but a farce."

"We've got law," was Johnny's pregnant answer, patting the gun at his hip.
"Ay, lad—tr-rue ye are. But 'tis a

"Mebbe," said Johnny briefly.
"But it's the only law Spelle's kind Johnny shook his head. "I'm hang-

LITTLEFIELD P&E WINS SECOND HALF; MEET WATSON TONIGHT

GASSERS KICK GROCERS OUT OF RUNNING

Teams Tangle In Twin Bill Tonight To Open Three Game Playoff

A warm friendship must exist between West Texas Gassers and the Littlefield P&E. Together they teamed to keep the Benfro Grocers from meeting Pop Watson's Producers in the playoff for the league flag.

More than once, the Gassers smoothed over the P&E's unsteady climb to the second half title by beating the Grocers and Tuesday night, the Gassers finished their job of dropping the Grocers from first place and putting the P&E in as the second half champs.

P&E vs. Pop

So tonight, the Littlefield P&E will tangle with Pop Watson's Producers in the first two games of a three way playoff for the 1936 City softball crown. The first game will commence some time after dark.

However, the Littlefield P&E-CCC game that was tabbed by the camp officials as un-ethical because the P&E's played an eligible man is still up before the administrative body, which hasn't got around to a meeting to determine the stability of the CCC protests. But the game tonight is as is: the P&E's against Pop.

Pop's Team Scattered

Early in the week, Pop Watson wasn't too sure that the Producers would have their full strength. The Producers are fairly well scattered, and Pop announced that he might have to pick up a player or two to fill out his line-up. Just who the Cream-king will pitch against the Poultrymen is a mystery? The phenomenal Scott will, more than likely, be on the mound both games for the P&E's.

The final games of the league chase, played Monday and Tuesday, saw the P&E's breeze through the Campers and the Gassers trip the Grocers Tuesday night, 10 to 7.

AROUND THESE PARTS

By Bob Cannon

Plans for the South Plains softball tournament are hitting on all fours, and with the sudden spurt of entries last week, the local tourney should be one of the biggest in West Texas. In fact, according to Harold B. White, State commissioner, the Littlefield tournament is the biggest in West Texas. The only worry now is the ticket sale. . . . but city moguls are starting out today to canvass the softball fans for season tickets. . . . Then Wednesday, the big opening day, the Rainbow girls will be out to entice the others to attend the opening games.

The bigger the opening night crowd, the bigger the tournament. . . . With all of the speaking and welcoming that is to take place, the interest should be broiling by Wednesday. . . . Just what teams will battle the first night isn't known just yet, but the Avalanche-Journal will carry all details in Sunday's edition.

During the last couple of weeks or more, the fans have shown about as much interest in the final games of the local league chase as the Louis-Sharkey caused in the big fight centers. . . . Early in the season, big crowds packed the field every night. . . . But the interest got cold when the games got tighter. . . . Funny, but it's true. . . . During the first half, crowds thronged the park and two teams run away with the league. . . . But this half, the fans stayed away when the outcome was in doubt up until the last night. . . . The cause, apparently, has been the 5 cents charge connected with admission. . . . If they won't pay a nickel, the customers may wonder how the officials are going to pay for the tournament. . . . But we set out to make the venture pay for itself, and its going to do just that. . . . But we need your support the first night. . . . So buy a season ticket or get a tag when the girls come around Wednesday. . . .

Question number 2: The district tournament commissioners decided that players who competed in the baseball tournaments in this section would be eligible to play in the softball meet. . . . It seems that five teams would have been on the chopping block.

A circular from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram came to our desk yesterday. . . . It advertizes the Fort Worth district tournaments where both men and women will compete. . . . The Fort Worth tourney starts the same day as the Littlefield meet and lasts until the following Saturday. . . . It wouldn't be a bad idea to get a few circulars out over this territory to help our gate. . . . And speaking once more of the gate, be sure and don't miss the opening game. . . . Judge Crake will toss the first pitch, and Joe Hale will be the catcher. . . . We need your support.

Over at Amherst the Reds are having fine crowds for their baseball tournament. . . . And the fans are getting a big kick out of the way the tournament is going. . . . Although Berl Huffman's Tip-Toppers lost their first game, they are scheduled to be back Friday for more. . . . But we predict here now and for-ever that Enochs plays the Reds in the final game. . . . Any bets wanted?

Our ad department. . . . Wanted: A half dozen good hands to assist directors during the tournament. . . . There will be money involved in your services. . . . Don't forget to get a season ticket or buy a first night duet from one of the young ladies that will solicit you Wednesday.

AMHERST REDS PLAY SUDAN TODAY IN TOURNAMENT

Sudan Has Won 2 Games; Reds Defeat Tip-Top Cafe Handily

Amherst, Aug. 20.—Amherst's mighty Reds made their second bid for an undefeated tournament record here today when they met the fast climbing Sudan team in the second feature attraction of the week.

Just how long Sudan will last under the curves of Lefty Gaut Hambricht probably won't be known as John Bradley will likely toss for the Reds. The Reds blasted Sudan something pathetically in the Lubbock tournament, eliminating them from the tournament. But the Sudan club has a different hurler and even a different brand of baseball to pit against the host club. They have two games under their belt, which have been impressive to the commentators thus far.

Big Crowds Turn Out The first three days of the Amherst invitation baseball tournament have proven that crowds will pour into the gates even on week days in this part of the country, and as for the tournament, the fans have seen plenty of fast moving baseball and some that hasn't been so hot.

On Sunday, the Enochs team made a strong bid for the first money when they set the Anton club back with a 4 to 3 victory. But Tuesday, the up and coming Sudan aggregation, behind the fine hurling of Mynard, stopped their onrush with a 14 inning 5 to 4 victory. It was the Sudan entry's second victory, having defeated Dodd City Sunday in an exciting game, 7 to 5.

Tip-Top Goes Down The Tip-Top Cafe team from Lubbock were easy picking for Fefty Gaut Hambricht, Monday, when the big lefty held them down to a one blow and struck out 19 men while his mates rapped Demp Webster for a 9 to 1 verdict. Guy Aldridge, Red first sacker, and John Bradley, outfielder, hit for the circuit.

Make Business Tour From Lubbock To Clovis Tuesday

Charles A. Guy, publisher, and O. A. Woody, circulation manager of the Avalanche-Journal, made a business tour from Lubbock to Clovis Tuesday, in the interest of these publications.

During the day they visited Clovis, Muleshoe, Amherst, Sudan and Littlefield.

While in this city they paid the Leader a pleasant visit, Mr. Guy expressing his very favorable views in regard to the crop prospects in this section.

Mr. Guy said he had talked with Don Turner, County Agent, and he stated that it was only the early feed that was being hurt by the dry weather. Mr. Turner also said, according to Mr. Guy, that "taking everything into consideration the county is in better shape today than it was a year ago; we need rain for some of the feed crops within the next few days, but the cotton can go on quite a while longer, and also some of the feed."

Sudan Church of Christ Conducting Revival Meeting

The revival meeting conducted by the Church of Christ in Sudan, with Evangelist W. R. Yowell, of Lawton, Oklahoma doing the preaching is increasing in attendance from night to night. Mr. Yowell is well known in religious circles among the Church of Christ having preached in many sections of Texas as well as the South. He has attended three colleges and is a graduate of two and has traveled in Europe, Asia, Africa and on the continent, and just recently returned from Canada where a meeting was conducted.

The Church of Christ in Sudan extend to one and all an invitation to meet with them and hear this young man speak on Bible subjects when stripped of all its isms. Mr. Yowell is a fearless contender for the truth, preaching the gospel in the Spirit of Christ yet without fear or favor. He speaks as the "Oracles of God" and consents only to "Sound Words." If you are interested in your salvation and enjoy plain preaching you will enjoy this meeting.

FOURTEEN TEAMS PLAY IN TOURNAMENT

Littlefield Meet Is One Of Big Tourney's, White, Commissioner, Says

Drawing for places in the South Plains District Softball tournament, scheduled here August 26 to 29, will be held Friday night in the office of the district commissioner, Collier Parris, at the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal office. The meeting time is 8 o'clock.

Managers from 14 teams will be on hand for the bracketing and the discussion of the tournament plans. The teams and their managers are: Sudan, Eldon Nichols; Plainview, Ward Bonroy; Post Centennial, Jim Hundley; Texas Spurs, Dr. Bob Alexander; Kinney (Spur), Bill Kinney; Wildcats (Littlefield), Jim Etter; All Stars (Littlefield), Rev. Walter Luecke; Olton, I. N. Holt; TUCO (Abernathy), Jack Heckler; Levelland, Hadley Bailey; Lubbock, Ira Owen; Dickens, M. Dobbs; Grassland, J. Mabrey; and Tulia, who will send a representative.

Tournament Looks Impressive

The Littlefield tournament, according to Harold B. White, is one of the big-six tournaments in the state elimination. Tournaments having more entries than Littlefield are Wichita Falls, 24; Pampa, 28; Fort Worth, 28; and Dallas, 20. The Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, and Littlefield tournaments are slated to start at the same time.

In a letter from White early in the week, the State commissioner announced that he was attempting to be here for one of the night performances, possibly Friday night, August 28. The appearance of the state commissioner here will be an added attraction to the tournament. White, through co-operation with Ed Prel, sports editor of the Star-Telegram and president of the Texas Amateur Softball association, has been one of the big factors in the promotion of softball in this state.

Plans Shaping Into Form

At a meeting of the league officials and tournament directors last night, plans for the district meet were pushed. A big program for the sale of tickets was launched by the members of the organization. A personal store-to-store and house-to-house canvass will be made this week and next for the sale of season tickets. Ewing Thaxton, secretary of the league, will have charge of the ticket sale.

Work started in earnest on the playing field this week. New bases, improvements on the backstop, wire fencing, and an officials box were to be made.

Bleachers to be secured from Lubbock will be ready by the opening day. Texas Utilities linemen will re-set the arrangements of the lights on the field.

May Have Day Games

Due to present conditions that may be remedied at the meeting Friday night at Lubbock, at least one day game looms as certain. However, there is a possibility that officials may be able to work out a plan whereas the three games per day may be taken care of at night.

A score board to be donated by merchants here, will be erected in centerfield for the tournament. The board when completed will be at least three feet from the surface of the ground and will be approximately fifteen feet in length and six feet high.

A press box and officials desk will be placed behind the home-plate backstop.

Bainer To Play Pep Sunday Next

Bainer's baseball team will play Pep Sunday, August 23. A. H. Furlow is manager of the Bainer boys.

This game promises to be one of unusual interest, as Bainer has won ten games out of 11 played this season.

MISS GARLINGTON WRITES HER PARENTS INTERESTING LETTER WHILE ON EUROPEAN TOUR

Believing that a recent letter written by Miss Evelyn Garlington to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Garlington, Littlefield, from Rome, Italy, while on a tour of Europe, would be of interest to Miss Garlington's friends, as well as to the other readers of this newspaper, it is published below:

Rome, Italy,
July 17, 1936.

Dear Folks:
"If I don't hear from you in the next few days I am simply going to leave out Littlefield on my return tour and head straight for the North Pole. That is my last warning! I know this won't reach you in time to write me in Europe but you can at least have a letter for me at New York when I get back."

"The last several days have been long and arduous. We left Paris on the 12th for Lucerne. We rode all day among the foothills of the Alps—beautiful chalets, quaint villages and the snow capped mountains in the background. We arrived at Lucerne at 5 in the afternoon. It has only one main street and it extends up and down the lake for a great distance. Our hotel was a picture of charm. The floors, in fact all continental floors, were inlaid with an intricate design, similar to those Dad used to build in Midland. My room had a tiny balcony with red furniture—hanging almost over the lake. Hand woven rugs, walnut furniture and pongee curtains that were dyed beautifully. On the bed was a foot comforter of down also covered with pongee."

"The Swiss were the best hosts we have encountered. They spoke excellent English and were always eager to fulfill your every desire without demanding a tip at every step of the way."

"Lucerne is famous for Thurgwalden's Lion and its covered bridges. It is also the center of the watch making industries. I saw beautiful watches for only eight and ten dollars."

"We spent all of the 13th crossing the Alps to Interlaken. Of course it rained on us all day just as it had ever since we docked at Le Havre. In spite of it all the beauty of the Alps was breath-taking. You could put the Rockies, the Alleghenies and Canadian Wilds together and still not have the splendor of the Alps. We went over the Furka and the Grimsel passes. Also stopped a few minutes in Altdorf, home of William Tell. When we arrived at Interlaken the rain was coming down in sheets. Undaunted, we trudged out to see as much of the village as possible—the clock and the shops of wood carving. I saw everything from whole suits of furniture to tiny trinkets all covered with the most exquisite hand carving. When we left the next morning it was still raining so of course we could not see the Jungfrau. That is the big disappointment

Get Rid of Poisons Produced by Constipation

A cleansing laxative—purely vegetable Black-Draught—is the first thought of thousands of men and women who have found that by restoring the downward movement of the bowels many disagreeable symptoms of constipation promptly can be relieved. . . . Mr. J. P. Mahaffey, of Clinton, S. C., writes: "I have found that Black-Draught is very effective in the cleansing of the system. When affected by the dull headache, the drowsiness and lassitude caused by constipation, I take Black-Draught."

"We arrived at Milano about four o'clock on the 14th. We went immediately to see Da Vinci's 'Last Supper.' It covers the entire altar wall of an old church now deserted. It has been painted right on the plastered wall and is so badly faded that many of the character's features are rather indistinguishable. We then went over to the Milan Cathedral which is supposed to be the most perfect example of Gothic architecture in the world. Its beauty certainly surpassed that of any of the churches we had seen previously. The arched Gothic roof, 155 ft. high was carved with the most exquisite lacy designs. The windows were multi designed depicting the various scenes of the Bible. The exterior was pretty well covered with iron frame work because the church was being cleaned."

"We left Milano early on the morning of the 15th. We changed trains at Genova, Genoa, and got a fleeting glimpse of the harbor with the Rex at anchor. We peeped at the leaning tower at Pisa as the train raced by. It was only a block from the tracks and towered high over all the surrounding buildings. For some reason we took the wrong train at Genoa and went inland to Firengi-Florenie, then down to Rome."

"The 16th was our big day in Rome. The first place we saw was the monument of Victor Emanuel II built some fifty years ago. It is a huge building of white marble with golden statues on either end and one also in the center front. Then to the Trevi Fountain elaborate with bronze and marble statues. It is said that if one drinks from these waters he will return to Rome some day. I stopped after the first gallon."

"The Pantheon, an old decaying building, was built by Agrippa 27 years B. C. It was to commemorate the twelve pagan gods, all of whose statues have since been removed. It is now called the Westminster of Rome. Raphael and his 'would-be' wife are buried there. During the middle ages it was turned into a church. About two years ago an organ was installed. We were fortunate to hear it being played that morning. The dome of Pantheon was the original model after which Michel Angelo designed that of St. Peter's."

"We passed the pyramid of Cains Cestius which is his tomb and was erected at his request. It was completely restored in 1633. We passed the square of the Papulo which is formed by 2 semi circles. In the middle of the square is the Egyptian obelisk which was brought her by order of Augustus. There are thirteen or 14 of these obelisks in Rome. The first ever brought to Europe is here and also the largest in the world is here."

"We then drove on to Vatican City, which is cut off by a tall wall several feet thick and mammoth iron gates. We went through the entire Vatican library which contains tomes and relics a thousand years old. It was founded about 1450. We saw the copy of 'Divine Comedy' given to (oh, my memory is gone) I think it was given to Petrarch. Anyhow I couldn't read it. The edges of the manuscript were covered with drawings depicting the various scenes. The walls and ceilings of the library are entirely covered with standing."

"We visited the Art Museum and saw pictures too innumerable to mention of Taphaels and beautiful sculptures of Michel Angelo's. The Transfiguration was the most outstanding."

"The Sistine Chapel was the climax of the morning. It was built in 1473 upon the order of Sixtus IV. It is 135 feet long and 43 wide. The ceiling was entirely painted by Michel Angelo. When he first received his command to decorate the chapel, he refused because he was not a painter. However, he finally consented provided the Pope would allow him to study 6 months in Florence. He was on his back 4 years painting the ceiling which depicts the creation of man. He spent 4 years longer painting the altar wall which is his conception of the judgment day. Down in the right hand corner he has painted a famous priest of his day who objected to Michel Angelo's nude figures. For revenge the Priest was placed down with the condemned and was given donkey ears. Clever!"

"One of his masterpieces that I remember was the Plety. It was executed when he was only 24. It is the Virgin seated at the foot of the cross holding the dead body of Christ."

"We next went to the Coliseum which was disappointing in that all my childish illusions were shattered. Of beauty it has none because all of the marble and statuary has been removed to build various churches and palaces. It just resembles a large adobe arena now. It was begun by the Emperor Vespasian and finished by his son. It has three galleries so designed that the occupants of the top can see as well as those at close range."

"The Romans used to decide about the life of the defeated by turning the right thumb down towards the ground when they wished him to be killed. I guess that's where we got the gesture."

"St. Paul's church was built by the early Monks and seemed to have been an early burial place of Paul. It has been rebuilt in recent years but the original bronze doors and some of the wall mosaics of Byzantine times have been restored. Its portico is upheld by marble columns with mosaic ornaments of gold and bronze."

"The Church of the Holy Staircase is only a small chapel and is composed of 3 stair cases. The one in the middle has 28 steps and the poor hard-worked 'faithful' go up on bended knees because it is said to be the same ascent made by Jesus. Some of these Catholics swear that the original blood stains are still there that were made when He carried the cross to be crucified. Maybe so. In every church and wayside chapel are bones of the Saints. There are enough to string around the world. Some of them surely must be goat bones."

"The church of St. Peter's Chains contains the chains worn by Peter in a golden case. Here he was supposed to be buried originally and then moved to his present place at the big Saint Peter's church. Near the door of the sacristy is the celebrated statue of Moses, the most famous work of Michel Angelo. It is called the most perfect piece of sculpturing in the world. The veins in his hand almost pulse with life. You can see the breeze fluttering his robes. The life likeness of it is simply awe-inspiring. It is said when Michel Angelo finished it that he struck the lips and commanded Moses to talk, saying himself that it was his masterpiece."

"The old Forum is just a mass of ruins and debris. Nero's home is only a block away and looks very like some of the old Indian ruins of New Mexico."

"On the way to Catacombs we passed the Baths of Caracalla, said to be the largest Roman baths ever built. 1600 people could bathe at the same time. Don't you know they had fun. It had three divisions, the Tepidarium (for tepid baths), the Frigidarium (for swimming) and the Calidarium (hall for perspiring) very complete!"

"We also passed the Quo Vadis chapel which is supposed to be the exact spot where Christ appeared to Peter, or was it Paul? Anyway the apparition was so real that it made foot print on the rocks and these have been encased in gold and preserved at Saint Sebastian's chapel on down the road."

"There are 13 Catacombs in Rome, part of which were used by Jews. We visited the largest which is Saint Sebastian's. We took little candles and proceeded to follow a Franciscan monk into all sort of little tunnels with skeletons popping up at the weirdest places. It was hard to keep up with every one, too. Imagine my fright. Really, I didn't enjoy it at all—with the mosquitoes, the close clinging damp and the remains of those Christians always ready to jump out at me."

"Tomorrow morning we will go out to Saint Peter's for the musical service and then tomorrow afternoon we will head for Naples. There will be no churches there to see or dates to remember! My brain has been greatly over-taxed these past two weeks. I do hope you are saving everything I send you because I would hate to write all this out again struggling so hard to remember the details."

Love,
Evelyn.

FOR HOME OR BUSINESS

Pattern 8732: This frock has a way of 'fitting into the picture,' whether at home or in the office. One must admit that it looks business-like in its clean cut well-defined proportions. And still it's obvious that there's the dash and modishness required in youthful styles. Therefore we class 8732 as a heavy odds favorite to please all style-conscious, activity minded women.

With notched lapel-type collar and three button yoke opening, one sees instantly the utility of this frock. Short sleeves with turn back cuffs, the narrow belt, affords use of your own preference. Skirt lines are good. Center panels front and back ending with popular action pleats. Two useful pockets at either side give balance and smartness to the frock.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE to Patricia Dow, Lamb County Leader Pattern Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

STOKES-ALEXANDER DRUG BUILDING BEING EXTENDED BACK 30 FEET; ADDITION TO BE COMPLETED SEPT. 1

Considerable improvements are underway at the Stokes-Alexander building. The structure is being extended back 30 feet, which will give additional space to the drug establishment.

Ground was broken Monday, the foundation laid Tuesday, and the brick work will start today.

Henry Teeters is the contractor in charge; Mr. Nickels is doing the concrete work, and Briggs & Pruett the painting.

The additional space 30x25 feet will be used by the Stokes-Alexander Drug Store and will be divided between the main store and the storage room to the rear.

This new addition to the building will afford the drug store considerable more display space for their merchandise which will add to the appearance and the convenience of the establishment.

The plans also include the re-decorating of the original establishment, re-arrangement of all the stock, adding new fixtures, and purchasing a larger supply of merchandise.

It is expected that the addition to the building will be completed by September 1.

Henry Teeters and Bert Barber Make Home Ecos. Equipment

Spade school, which opened for the fall term Monday, is adding for the first time a Home Economics Department.

Mr. Teeters is building these fixtures, which would indeed be a credit to any school, with the assistance of Bert Barber.

Lee Chandler and son, Marvin are doing the varnishing and finishing.

CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH

J. W. Hendrix, Pastor

The pastor desires here to offer thanks to all those of the congregation who have wrote during his absence. It is a genuine pleasure to return and find this large number thus interested and to find the organization so well intact. We feel we can begin to work toward our Fall task.

Church school meets at 9:45 a. m. with J. E. Chisholm, Sr. in charge. All are to be saved, little, big, old and young.

Public worship—11 a. m. and 5:15 p. m.

Young People meet at 7:30 p. m., and also furnish the evening choir.

The subject of morning worship is, "WHAT ABOUT MY PEOPLE?"

This is the second of a series of sermons from the text—Ro. 10:1. It is also given out that the pastor will preach for the colored people in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The subject of the evening sermon is "THAT PORE FISH." The one in mind is the one which swallowed Jonah, that one which had such a load on his stomach—swallowed a Jew.

Both morning and evening choirs appear and render their services to these services.

LITTLEFIELD MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Jno. R. Denning, Pastor.

Due to the fact that the pastor is away in meetings, there will be no night services on the Open Lot on week nights until his return. This does not apply however, to Sunday nights.

Next Sunday morning the Down Town Bible Class will meet at ten o'clock in the Ritz Theatre Building.

At eleven o'clock, Rev. D. R. Kinard, of Big Spring, will bring the morning sermon. Rev. Kinard will also preach on the Open Air location Sunday night at the usual hour.

All members are urged to be in attendance, and the general public invited to hear this young preacher.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Sunday School 9:45, Mr. Lon Smith, Supt.

Preaching at 11:00 by the pastor using as his text "Going Somewhere."

B. T. U. 7:45, Mr. W. E. Heathman, Director.

Preaching at 8:15 on the subject "Building Babel."

Our attendance was off last Sunday and only 173 were recorded in Sunday School. The First Baptist Sudan had 200 last Sunday and are working for 250 next Sunday. Surely we aren't going to let them lead us this way. You can help us reach the 200 mark next Sunday. Remember the Lord's Day to keep it holy—it pays big dividends.

There were 71 in B. T. U. last Sunday evening and we are expecting 80 this coming Sunday. If you are not in training for the Lord don't you feel the need of it. Try putting the Lord's work first next Sunday and see if you don't find time to be in B. T. U.

The Lord blessed our services by giving us seven additions to the church. One young lady trusted Christ as her personal Saviour and came as a candidate for baptism.

The Intermediate department lead the entire church both in Sunday School and B. T. U. last Sunday. There were 47 intermediates in S. S. and the department Supt. Norman Renfro is to be complimented on the good work he is doing. We hope other departmental superintendents will go afield to build their departments and will give the intermediates some competition. Twenty two intermediates were in B. T. U. Sunday evening.

Dates will soon be announced for our fall revival, also a Training Camp for Sunday School workers and a B. T. U. Revival. It is hoped that every member of the church will lend his support in the program of the church and not wait to be enlisted. Lifters are more profitable than loafers. We need to be busy about the Master's business and men are needed. We are counting on you and need your presence and support.

If you are out of town visiting on Sunday, go to church—if you have visitors on Sunday, bring them to church. We had visitors in our services last Sunday from Meridian, Belton and Fieldton.

A welcome awaits you at the First Baptist Church.

Willis J. Ray, Pastor.

Speakin' of Vacations

By Rev. J. W. Hendrix

It seems to us that the selection of a vacation is a thing of very great importance. To most of us a vacation is an outstanding event of the year. A vacation is mostly a change of living, a shift from the usual and most of us are able to have but one such outing, and in that to make fizzle might even prove tragic. A complete rest is next to impossible; some even question that an outing should have that as its goal.

During these years out West we have located what to us is a vacation. Most generally we hie away to the mountains, for two reasons: They are usually cool, one sleeps well in their remote canyons; again there is no end of things of interest. The excellent effect of the soul it revives tired nerves, restores frayed spirits.

On this occasion we left here and made our first stop at Lamy, the closest railway station at Santa Fe where we were joined by wife's sister, Myrtle Rush. Then we spent the first night in Santa Fe, next day on to Taos, out to Raton, on to Colorado Springs and out to Manitou. This is the most interesting mountain resort. We spent exactly three weeks in an apartment in Denver, and out from there we visited a number of places of interest. Denver is a great big interesting city in itself. It offers so many things of interest.

While on the trip we enjoyed many unusual privileges. We attended the Rocky Mountain Assembly, Palmer Lake. We attended Hiff School of Religion, attended some of the big churches of the city; attended the State conventions of both political parties—Republican and Democrats. We heard leading men, even J. M. Hamilton, the national chairman of the Republican campaign committee. We heard the City Symphony Orchestra and on a trip we heard the pipe organ recital in the big auditorium of the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Yes, we went up to Estes Park for one week end to attend the Conference of Race Relations. On the program were a number of most illustrious men. For example, we heard Newton D. Baker, a one time member of Woodrow Wilson's Cabinet. He is an elegant, eloquent gentleman. At the noon hour we hear Bishop Mead of Kansas City.

But the best drive we made was up to the South St. Vrain canyon and over the mountains, down into this noted resort—Estes Park. Two things, however, reduced the pleasure to some extent, the price of eats and the hot weather. Also, the cities and even the mountains were crowded with tourists, many of whom were from the drouth area. It was rather discouraging to talk to many of these tourists, coming, as they did, from such a wide section and to hear such stories of devastation.

We are not kidding any one when we say we are glad to be back among our friends.

New Early Strain Of Milo Being Grown Successfully

An extra early strain of Milo, originating from selections from three different experimental stations in Texas and Kansas, was purelined, the seed of which was offered for sale for the first time as State Certified seed last year.

According to reliable information there were only 8 acres of this seed grown in Texas last year, which was planted by W. H. Cunningham, 2 miles southwest of Littlefield.

Mr. Cunningham stated that they found it made good grain through the dry spell last year, where other grain planted at the same time, failed. He also said it matured from 20 to 30 days earlier than any other variety.

Mr. Cunningham has planted 35 acres to this milo at his farm 2 miles southwest of town, and suggests that all farmers interested drive out and see this early milo.

Another 20 acres has been planted on wheat stubble on the Jones farm 2 miles northeast of town for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not it will mature after the wheat is cut off.

Mr. Cunningham states that this seed matures so quickly that with a favorable season in this section the farmers should be able to get as much as two crops of this Milo.

This Milo is being tried out in various sections of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, at the present time.

Outlook for Feed Crop

By Donald Turner, Co. Agent.

The outlook for a feed crop in Lamb County this year has caused considerable interest in the most economical means and methods of storing feed for future use. Abundant rain at this time would make tons of surplus feed in Lamb County. If dry weather continues farmers will be faced with the problem of saving every stalk of feed possible.

For a cheap storage place which is wind proof, fire proof, convenient, and one which may be constructed in a short time we know of none better than the trench silo. Feed in the form of silage has about twice the feeding value as does dry bundles, according to Donald Turner, County Agent.

A silo makes it possible to have the equivalent of green feed when it is too dry or too cold to have green pasture. The trench silo is more than a container in which to store surplus feed for use when the drouthy years come. It can be filled during adverse weather, conditions eliminating the hazards of curing the feed and also the losses from grain shattering when handled in the ordinary way. Another outstanding advantage of the trench silo is the elimination of all insect and sand damage to the stored feed.

In several localities in Lamb county last year where feed failed to head on account of dry weather, silos were filled with this feed, which proved to have considerable more feed value than the dry bundle feed.

See the county agent for further information regarding trench silos.

Old Age Pension Checks Being Mailed This Week

According to Orville S. Carpenter, Texas old age pensions director, 10,000 additional checks will be sent out this week, and a concerted effort was being made to add to the rolls by Sept. 1 every eligible aged person who is in distress.

With enlargement of the rolls to approximately 70,000 by the end of the week, Texas would be leading the nation in the percentage of persons over 65 years old receiving pensions, the director said. He stated Texas would be paying 23 per cent compared to 22 per cent in Illinois, 20 per cent in Ohio and 8.6 per cent in New York.
