DENNIS JONES SERIOUSLY INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE MISHAP FRIDAY

Condition Showing Improvement, Dr. C. E. Payne Announces

Has Brain Concussion,
Two Fractured Ribs
And Back Injury

Dennis Jones, 41, owner and operator of Dennis Jones Tire Store and Service Station, and a member of the Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board, was seriously injured about 9 o'clock Friday night, when the pickup he was driving, proceeding south on Westside Avenue near the school building, was in collision with a truck said to be travelling east.

Sheriff Sam Hutson, who lives near the scene of the accident, phoned Hammons Funeral Home, whose ambulance carried Mr. Jones to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital, where he remained for sometime in a semi-conscious condition.

He was considered in a very serious condition on arrival at the hospital and was put under an oxygen tent, where he remained for sometime.

His injuries consist of a fractured skull, serious concussion, two fractured ribs, some congestion of his left lung, and back injury.

However, in an interview with Dr. C. E. Payne Wednesday he stated that Mr. Jones, though not yet out of danger, was some better;
that his concussion was not so severe as it had been, and that his back injury was also showing improvement. He also stated that Mr.
Jones was now conscious most of the time.

Mr. Jones and R. W. Lewis, manager of the local branch of the West Texas Gas Company, and also a member of the rationing Board, had had dinner together, and left the Lewis residence to attend a meeting of the Board. The accident happened about a half block from the Lewis home, when Jones was thrown from the pickup, and was believed to have been caught between the car and curbing of the street. Lewis escaped with minor bruises.

Mrs. Jones and son, Eddie Ray, were out-of-town at the time visiting relatives at Tishomingo, Okla.
They were notified and arrived home
the next morning.

Mrs. W. C. Clayton Suffers Eye Injury

Mrs. W. C. Clayton, Spring Lake, burned her left eye Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock with Creosote Dip, with which she was spraying the poultry house. The cap blew off the spray, burning her face and neck also.

Mrs. Clayton was confined in the Payne-Shotwell Hospital from Saturday until Tuesday noon, and the doctors say that there is a possibility that her eye is injured permanently.

High Ranking Pupils Are Awarded Medals

In spite of the changes of faculty members and war restlessness, an unusually large number of students in the local high school were able to do outstanding work the past year.

A large number were given special recognition for their outstanding work during the school year just completed. These students were recognized by the local school board for their excellent school citizenship, for superior scholarship and other achievements.

Letris Lane, Waymon Taylor, D.
H. Brewster, were awarded medals as the three top ranking pupils of the graduation class. Bonnie Ophelia Murrell received the $25 college tuition scholarship presented by the local Woman's Study Club which is awarded each year to the most "all around" student in the graduation class.

Marcella Roberts, also a member of the graduating class, received a War Savings Stamps award offered by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moore for outstanding work as a student and student assistant during the past year in the local high school. Mar-cella, a 1943 graduate, was the student in charge of the school library.

Another graduate recognized was John Luther Swanson for his school citizenship and musical composition,
"I Love America."

Other students from the various classes who were mentioned for notable achievement were:

Junior Class: Earnestine Short,
Dorothy Dean Moore, and Roberta Sullivan.

Sophomore Class: Maxine Spann, Hubert Gohlke, Buster Owen, and Jim Brotherton.

Freshman Class: George Faye Beckner, La Rue Clark, Rueben Sullivan and Dal Brandon.

These awards are particularly significant since they point out the ability of one large number of students to continue their educational achievements successfully in spite of the difficulties coming to the schools because of the war.

John Estle Willingham was mentioned as the outstanding FFA boy taking advanced agriculture.

These awards were officially made by P. F. Williams, principal of the Littlefield High School.

action about March of last year in the Crete section, and from whom he had heard nothing since before Easter of 1942.

When Will The War End?

Hovering on the lips of the entire world is the query, "When will the war be over?"

Space does not permit a symposium of opinions but the most reasoned analysis of the question can be boiled down to the following: Only a few venture to foresee a German collapse in 1943. The most widely held belief is that Italy will have to give up soon. Hitler and the rest of his satellites will be completely crushed in 1944, or early in 1945, and Japan's unconditional surrender will come late in 1945 or in 1946.

The reasoning behind these predictions does not vary much. Generally speaking, it is felt by the experts that for the first time in this war the initiative no longer rests in Axis hands. The Nazis have suffered terrific losses in both men and material in Russia, while the Reds, despite their own large losses, are in many ways considerably better off than they were last spring. Their receipts of American supplies have greatly improved and their own industrial output, especially the production of their own factories in the Ural is attaining record levels. At best a Nazi offensive on that front can but hope to hold the Russians at bay until winter. And in winter the Soviet armies are at their very best.

Italy is suffering a severe case of invasion jitters. The preliminary phase of the conquest of Italy obviously calls for aerial softening up, which already is well under way. Actual invasion, most observers believe, may prove a simple task. Moreover, many keen observers predict that the Italian underground has already paved the way for an Allied invasion.

Supporting this line of reasoning is the Allied air superiority which is being felt by the Axis even now and the definite knowledge that the Luftwaffe is growing gradually weaker, while our air force has yet to reach its peak.

Yet all agree that the Allies face a long, weary road to get at Germany proper. U-boats are still destroying a part of our war production. But in face of many known difficulties, there is the enormous Russian bulwark facing the Axis in the East, while an endless stream of fresh young manpower emanating from the West, must, within a year at most, achieve a man and material superiority Hitler cannot hope to cope with.

By and large these seasoned analysis by men experienced in military or political strategy coincide with estimates also heard from less expert observers. It is for this reason that one can at least predict with confidence that final victory is not too far distant. But in the last analysis anybody's guess as to when the war will actually end is about equally good.

Don't Listen To Germany!

The most remarkable political propaganda of the war thus far is the effort Germany is making to nullify possible retributions for the crimes she has committed ever since the day in 1933 when Hitler came into power.

One might assume that after all these years of being taken in by it, the world would recognize every last propaganda trick in the Junker bag. Yet the same old tricks seem to work because the Germans, while raising, or lowering, propaganda to an unsurpassed level of unscrupulousness, yet base it on one elemental principle which they have tried out in their long career of deceit. This principle is:

The greater the lie, the more easily will it be believed.

Through this cunning they were able to score many victories, but not the decisive ones. Military victory has escaped them, and they know it. But they still hope to escape the consequences of defeat by confusing their enemies. They now say: "You cannot 'exterminate' the German people . . . we have achieved great 'cultural unity' and to dismember the Reich would only lead to another war. . . Why not then find a great German liberal to lead us back to normalcy?" So, at least, speak the Pan-Germanists who would seek a peace as favorable as possible to Germany.

The Nazis would thus, if our peace conferees are to believe them again, achieve two aims:

1. Protect them from the vengeance of the peoples they have so grievously wronged.

2. Salvage Germany by keeping her frontiers intact and giving her time to again prepare for 'the day.'

We can't find a single reason for giving these pleas any consideration. The only way to insure world peace after this war is by breaking up Germany into many pieces and never permitting her to again achieve political 'culture' or economic unity.

I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to what light I have. I must stand with anybody that stands right, stand with him while he is right and part with him when he goes wrong.—Abraham Lincoln.

We have no idea whether or not this war will be followed by another depression, but we think it's a good idea to plan your affairs that way.

With the billions of cigarets sold yearly, it's strange how some fellows are always "just out."

Solving our problems by running from them isn't a new idea. Look at our divorce record.

HE'S GOT SOMETHING TO ANSWER FOR

Spring Lake News

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Dean visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace of Spring Lake Sunday.

Her brother, Carlton Poling, recently sent them a Jap Skull from the Solomon Islands. This skull has the names of 21 boys on it, including Doyle Dean, John Dirickson and Otis Baker from Lamb County.

They also received a belt worn by the Japs, also a grass skirt worn by the natives.

Margie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Feagley, had the misfortune of getting scratched by a cat, which they suspected of having Hydrophobia. Its head has been sent to Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Drake of Spring Lake had a letter from their son, Waldo, who said he had arrived in North Africa, but said he sure didn't like it there, as the wind and dirt blowed so much. He said they were living in tents with no place to hang anything. He also said he had ham and eggs for the first breakfast he had after landing that didn't come out of a can either. Cpl. Waldo Drake also reported that he and his group had been to the beach swimming. He reported a good trip going over.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake also received a letter from their nephew, S-Sgt. J. W. Bartee, who is now at Laredo, Texas. He is instructor now, and likes his work fine.

A group of Red Cross Workers met in the home of Mrs. R. L. Drake Friday afternoon, June 11, and made kits for our soldier boys. Those present were: Mesdames N. G. Bairrett, M. O. Carter, W. T. Clayton, Huckabee and daughter, Laverne, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clayton and family visited in the home of Mrs. Clayton's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of near Olton, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jones and son, and Miss Ruby Jones were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Drake Sunday.

general manager. O. B. Smith has been moved up from assistant plant superintendent to plant superintendent. He succeeds the late W. D. Johnston, who died March 28 after serving twenty years in this capacity.

Everett M. McCracken, Jr., was transferred from sales assistant to the newly created position of personnel director. He will be in charge of all personnel activities of the company, including the seventeen southwestern wholesale houses of Wm. Cameron & Co., Inc., Wholesale, which is the building products distributing division of this organization.

Ronald R. Hay becomes time-study, methods, incentives, and cost supervisor in the Ideal factory in addition to his regular duties as factory inspector. His duties in this new assignment will be to establish equitable time rates, set up comparison data, estimate standard costs, investigate production methods, and generally apply himself to the field of factory cost reduction. He succeeds W. H. Waggoner, who has joined the Coast Guard.

The newly organized Personnel Department will be under the supervision of the Plant Superintendent. The time-study and cost supervisor, formerly responsible to the Production Manager, has been transferred to the Plant Superintendent's department.

Mr. Smith, 37 years old, has devoted his entire professional career to building construction and woodwork manufacturing. He was born February 27, 1906, in Waco and has lived here his entire life except for several months spent in the factory of the Wichita Millwork Company at Wichita, Kans. He attended Waco Public Schools and followed his high school with a business administration course at Four-C College in Waco. He then took a correspondence course in "Building Construction" and later completed courses in "Detailing" and in "Millwork Estimating" from the Millwork Cost Bureau.

While still in grade school, Mr. Smith built the foundation of his vocational career. He gained experience in practically every department of his father's establishment, the O. B. Smith Planing Mill. Even before he was old enough to attend school, he often worked at the job of "tailing" behind a rip saw and a circular saw. Later on he graduated to a cut-off saw, standing on a box to reach his work. By the time he had finished high school, he had thoroughly mastered all the fundamentals of millwork design and production under the capable instruction of his father. Incidentally, his father was superintendent of the Ideal Company factory for several months in 1905 and 1906, the name of this division then being the Waco Planing Mill.

When his father died in 1933, Mr. Smith, with his brother, continued operation of the planing mill until the fall of 1940, when he sold his interest to his brother. He came with Ideal Company December 18, 1940, as a detailer and biller. Several months later he was made assistant plant superintendent and served in that capacity until his promotion to plant superintendent.

Mr. Smith was married in 1927 to Miss Dora Virginia McNally. His hobby has long been music, and he formerly played a flute in the Baylor Symphony Orchestra. His favorite sports are golf and bowling, and he is also an enthusiastic hobbyist in his home metal workshop.

Mr. McCracken is 24 years old, married, and has one daughter three years old. He was born in New York City October 5, 1918, while his father was in the army during the last World War. He moved to Waco with his parents when he was one year old. He finished Waco High School in 1935 and attended Baylor University for the next three years.

Mr. McCracken was first employed by Ideal Company in July, 1936. For the next two years, while attending Baylor University, he worked in the shipping department after school hours and during summer vacations. He began full-time work with the company in June, 1938. He was transferred from the factory to the office in November, 1938, and assigned the responsibility for keeping stock records. A year later he was transferred to the sales department offices. In March, 1941, he was made assistant to Coleman Dever, assistant sales manager. A year later he was made sales assistant in the Wholesale Division and was assigned responsibility for less-than-carload sales of Ideal Products.

A Jap The Yanks Got...

Have you seen the Jap skull on display at the Payne-Shotwell Hospital? It'll be there for the duration, and after the war it will be made into a reading lamp for C. Poling, who is now a first class painter of the Construction Battalion in Guadalcanal.

Mr. Poling is the brother of Mrs. George Wallace of Spring Lake, and he sent the skull along with several more articles to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and sons. They received the package Wednesday, June 9.

Written in black ink all over the head bone are names of boys in the battalion, fifteen of whom are West Texas boys and four are local boys: Otis Baker and John Dickerson, Littlefield; Doyle Dean, Amherst, and Tulon White, Muleshoe.

In the same box on display is a long Jab belt, and the following inscription is written on it: "Honorable Jap try to save face, lose pants, no need belt. Merile H. Stevenson."

The Jap, according to the boys, was killed on Guadalcanal in November, 1942.

Canada Develops Training Table For Her Air Men

THE ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE has raised cooking to a new plane and what was once considered an art reserved for mothers and chefs has become a highly developed science.

The revolution in mass-feeding was achieved recently when the Royal Canadian Air Force adapted the modern science of nutrition to the development of a fighting and flying force, and recognized the importance of diet and eating habits to its efficiency. To accomplish this, the Royal Canadian Air Force has made marked changes in military feeding methods. Medical men were invited to recommend a basic ration, then dietitians were put in charge of airforce kitchens across Canada as messing officers.

This was the first time in the annals of modern warfare that women had looked after the cooking arrangements for a fighting force. The job of preparing varied diets within the basic ration was handed over to them, and a test kitchen was created to assist them in evolving the tastiest and most nutritious recipes. Nutrition laboratories were set up to test the meals served at the different stations.

Dietitians were drawn from restaurants, hotels and hospitals to supervise the feeding problems of the Royal Canadian Air Force. They plan the menus and instruct the cooks in the best methods of preparing and conserving food.

A survey of the food habits at representative Air Force stations showed 83 percent of the personnel didn't drink all the grapefruit juice in their ration. Others didn't drink enough milk or eat cheese, yet these were the very foods that were needed as a source of calcium, and many of the vitamins essential for sound teeth and bone structure.

A color movie, called "Training Table" was created by the Royal Canadian Air Force medical branch to educate personnel in proper eating habits. The film explains how proteins repair the body as mechanics repair damaged aircraft, and how pilots who finish a flight in bright weather with tired and watery eyes often suffer from a lack of riboflavin.

The new test kitchen has three jobs to do. It must develop suitable and accurate recipes for cooking large quantities, from the basic ration. It experiments with methods of food preparation. Thirdly, it tests food products from the standpoint of suitability to service conditions, particularly new types

That's no dessert spoon being wielded by the young lady—and it's no quart size pot she's cooking in. This young lady has learned how to prepare food in large quantities for Canada's air force, working with equipment like this. Quantity recipes are carefully developed and tested in the kitchens at the R.C.A.F. School of Cookery.

To prepare and serve the best and most nutritious food possible is the aim of R.C.A.F. dietitians, and to assist them in their work, laboratories are established throughout Canada. Here (above left) a member of the R.C.A.F. Women's Division is working in one of the nutrition laboratories.

Science has come to the aid of cooks in R.C.A.F. kitchens and through laboratory tests, proper cooking methods are determined. (Above right) A member of the Women's Division is seen working in the laboratory testing raw vegetables to determine the vitamin count. Analyses like these have determined, for instance, that cabbage can lose as much as 90% of its Vitamin C if cooked too long and in too much water.

such as dehydrated foods, special rations and ration containers.

Once these test kitchen methods are determined they are taught to cooks in training and Messing Officers, who will in turn put them into effect in stations across the country.

The aim of the Royal Canadian Air Force is to provide the best in food, "that men may fly," and through scientific methods and intensive training they have rapidly reached their objective. Today the Air Force can rightfully claim to be one of the best fed services.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store. Adv.

Mrs. Ealen Gage, who has been manager of the Walters Drug Store at Amherst for about a year, was released from her position in that city on the store being sold to J. E. and R. L. Brown, and is now assisting at the local Walters Drug. Mrs. Gage will later return to California.

SELL USED METALS TO LOCAL SCRAP DEALERS

Farmers and other residents of Lamb County are urged by Jess Elms, County Chairman of the Salvage Committee, to gather up all their scrap metals and bring them to the local scrap dealers, who will buy this material and ship it to the Government. In case farmers and others have not the facilities for bringing the heavy scrap to town, the Government will send trucks and pick it up, Mr. Elms said.

DON'T LOSE SIGHT OF THIS FACT

Deliberately or Unthinkingly, those who fail to dispose of Scrap Iron are depriving our men in uniform . . . our Nation . . . of the tools with which to drive back enemies who would destroy and enslave us.

With South Plains Men In U. S. Service

M. C. Hall, AM-3-C, who has been stationed at the Naval Air Station, Alameda, Calif., in changing his address, in a letter to the Leader this week, ended his letter with the expression, "Your paper is a swell treat every week." We thank you for this compliment, Mr. Hall.

A new large contingent of selectees arrived at Fort Knox, Ky., for 3 months of rigorous basic training in the Armored Force Replacement Training Center.

Among the new trainees was Pvt. Maynard B. Miller, son of Herman J. Miller of Littlefield, Route 1.

Topping off 13 weeks of orientation, specialized study and physical hardening will be a full week on the Battle Training course, where the men undergo maneuvers with live ammunition. Bullets whizzing 30 inches above the ground, exploding land mines and hand-to-hand combat are among features of the course.

First six weeks are devoted to organization of the Army and the Armored Force, insignia of rank, military courtesy and discipline, care of clothing and equipment, and other fundamental subjects.

Technicians from Armored Divisions all over the country have been enrolled at Fort Knox, Ky., in the Armored Force School for a special course in tank mechanics.

The new students reported upon orders from Maj. Gen. Alvan C. Gillem, Jr., acting commanding general of the Armored Force. New students include Cpl. William W. Eudy of Littlefield.

The Armored Force School, headed by Brig. Gen. J. A. Holly, trains the thousands of technicians who perform the specialist tasks in the Army's mobile, hard-hitting armored divisions. It rolls off its human assembly lines each year many times more students than are graduated from the largest civilian universities or colleges.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ross of Oklahoma Avenue, Littlefield, have received word from their son, Lieut. George O. Ross, that he has been moved to Corpus Christi from the Instrument Flight Instructor's school in Atlanta, Ga.

Lieut. Ross received his degree from Texas Technologist's School in June, 1942, and was inducted into the Army the following month. He is enlisted in the Marine Air Corps.

In a recent letter from the school in Atlanta, he said, "I'm kinda tired today for I've worked harder than any day since coming down here. Got up at 4:30 this morning to start on a cross-country to Greensboro, North Carolina, and back. Six hours under the hood is a pretty good day's work for you can't relax like you could if you were going."

"This cross-country works on instruments, is pretty ticklish business. I took off this morning without seeing the airport, flew the 400 miles to Greensboro and let down to the airport without even seeing outside the cockpit once. Rested a while there and then repeated the process in reverse to get back here. Two years ago I wouldn't have thought it possible, but I did it."

Pvt. Alva Witcher, who has been stationed at Sheppard Field, has been moved to Camp Selbert, Ala., recently. He is the son of Mrs. B. J. Witcher of Littlefield, and enlisted with the Army February 15, 1943.

Mrs. Norman Witcher and son, Norman, Jr., left Tuesday, June 15, for Boca Raton, Fla., where they will visit Pfc. Norman Witcher, Sr. Pfc. Witcher is another son of Mrs. B. J. Witcher of Littlefield.

FARMERS URGED TO SECURE REPAIR PARTS THROUGH THEIR LOCAL EQUIPMENT DEALER

The J. I. Case Company, Amarillo, in a letter to the local Case dealer, Ferguson Implement Company, advised that owing to manpower shortage they were discontinuing the retail parts service to farmers, stating that they only have time to fill wholesale orders to the dealers, and asked the local dealer to urge on farmers to cooperate in this emergency.

In their letter to the Ferguson Implement Company, the Case Company at Amarillo said:

"It is beyond the human capacity of Mr. Keener and Mr. Hallquist to handle your repair orders, and also wait on farmers who call on us direct for repair needs. When your needs are not handled promptly and correctly a large number of farmers are delayed. We recently placed the following sign at our Repair Parts Department:

"To Our Farmer Friends:

"Most of our experienced Parts men have left—because of the War Requirements. No experienced replacements are available.

"This manpower shortage enables us to supply your repair needs by furnishing parts to our Dealers on their wholesale orders. But we cannot fill your orders here.

"Please obtain your repairs from your dealer—thus cooperate in this Emergency Service Deal.

"We Thank You."

The company further stated to Mr. Ferguson—"With your cooperation—explain to your farmer customers—urge them to come to you for their repair needs as far in advance as possible . . . place your orders clearly and adequately . . . costly production delays will be prevented, and the continuing, untiring efforts of Mr. Keener and Mr. Hallquist will render adequate service to our War Food Needs."

FOR YOUR FARM MACHINERY, REPAIR PARTS AND TIRES—

Give your Wholesaler a Break. The J. I. Case Wholesale, Amarillo, have discontinued the retail parts service to farmers, due to shortage of help. This office has advised the local dealer—Ferguson Implement Company, that due to a shortage of experienced help on account of the war, they only have time to fill the dealers' orders, and cannot fill orders for repairs sent in by the many individual farmers using Case machinery. They, therefore, ask the farmers to please cooperate in this emergency and obtain your repairs from your local dealer.

In a letter from the J. I. Case Wholesale to the local dealer, this company sent the following message:

"TO OUR FARMER FRIENDS—

"Most of our experienced Parts men have left because of the war requirements. No experienced replacements are available. This manpower shortage enables us to supply your repair parts needs by furnishing parts to our dealers on their wholesale orders, but we cannot fill your orders here.

BRING US YOUR LEMONS

Often people own things that they regard as "lemons" or "white elephants," both terms for articles that don't suit their purpose, or that they paid too much for, or that they do not believe that they can dispose of without financial loss.

Perhaps what you have doesn't suit you, but it might be that somebody else wants it . . . and wants it badly.

Tell us about your "lemons" or "white elephants" . . . we have helped others out of their difficulties . . . perhaps we can help you.

About a year ago, I first used ALKA-SELTZER. I find that it eases my Aching Head, takes the kinks out of Tired, Aching Muscles and brings relief when I have Acid Indigestion.

The family says I am a lot easier to live with since I have known about Alka-Seltzer.

Pvt. Virdow Cook, son of J. H. Cook of near Sudan, arrived home Saturday on a three day furlough.

Pvt. Cook left here Sunday afternoon for Vernon, Texas, where they visited his other brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cook. He went from there to Fort Sill, Okla., where he is stationed.

J. H. Cook and son returned home Tuesday.

Tech. Sgt. Henry Crosby Slate arrived Tuesday of last week on furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Slate at Sudan.

He enlisted September, 1939, in the Air Force, and has seen over three years of foreign duty. He was stationed at Hickam Field, Hawaii, until Dec. 7, 1941. Since that time he has been a member of a bombing squadron in the Southwest Pacific. His parents had not seen him since his enlistment nearly four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Glover received an interesting letter from friends of their son, John Kenneth Glover, Pharmacist Mate, Third Class, of the Navy, stationed in Honolulu, T. H., last week, as follows:

"June 1, 1943

"Dear Mr. and Mrs. Glover,
"I always feel like dropping a line to the parents whose sons have been in my home. Being a mother myself, I know it is anxious times for all, with young boys so far away from home for the first time. John called with a boy named Robert Gokey, his own age, whom I had gotten once when I called at the U.S.O. for some boys, and so Robert called again last week and brought your son with him. Both boys seemed in good spirits, and your son, John, looked fine, seemed happy with his work, and was wearing a stripe so he has done very well for such a young boy. I have had as Glover is stationed in a hospital and has been in the Service over a year, and left the United States in January last.

Pvt. Maynard T. McKinnon, Jr., of the Air Corps, stationed at Bryan, Texas, who has been in the service since October last, left Sunday after spending since the Tuesday previous with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McKinnon. Pvt. McKinnon was on a 15 day furlough.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Jackson received a telegram recently from their son, Pfc. Albert G. Jackson, who is permanently stationed in the Marine School in Memphis, Tenn., to the effect that he was expecting to come home one day last week for a few days' furlough. Pfc. Jackson has been in the Marines since September, 1942. In March, 1942, he attended the Federal Marine School in San Antonio.

Pfc. Dale Mixon, son of Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, who has been stationed at Kessler Field, Biloxi, Miss., was transferred to San Antonio last week. His mother reports that Dale said he was thrilled to death to be back in Texas. He hopes to go to Officers Training School.

Warren Rutledge of the U. S. Navy, stationed at Sabine Pass, who has been home on a 15 day pass, left Sunday to return to his post.

The Leader is receipt of the following letter from Cleo Weschke, H. A. 2-C, stationed at the Naval Hospital, San Diego, as follows:

"In the June 10th issue of the Leader you stated that I was going to school for 3 months in boot camp. I am in the Hospital Corps but I have practically finished my schooling. I graduate the 25th of June from school and I'm not in boot camp. I thought that perhaps I should correct you.

"I read the Leader thoroughly each time I receive it and enjoy it immensely. It really is good to get your home town paper and read about everyone, and it keeps a fellow's morale up, too.

"Respectfully,

James Garrett, in the service since December 21, last, who left the United States about May 12, and is in a Naval Construction Unit, writes his wife, which letter was received Friday, stating that he had reached his destination; that he was fine and the Country was pretty; that lemons oranges and coconuts were growing, and that they were still having winter weather.

Garrett was three months in training at Williamsburg, Va., and had 11 days furlough in April when he visited here.

Mrs. Arthur Mueller received a letter from her brother, Woodrow W. Holland, who is stationed on one of the islands near Australia, to the effect that he had been promoted from Lieutenant to Captain.

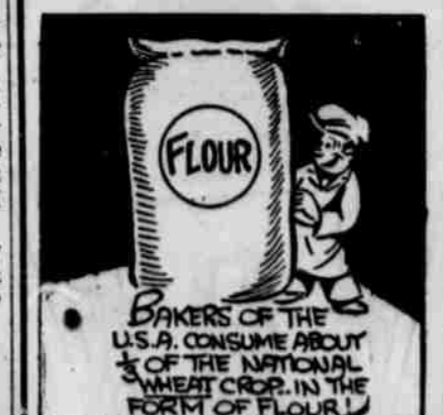

Capt. Holland, while in training at Quantico, Va., visited his sister, Mrs. Mueller, here. He received his degree in forestry at the State University, Corvallis, Ore. He spent from August until December 17 in the Guadalcanal area with the Marines.

Mrs. Mueller's mother, Mrs. J. E. Holland, at Eugene, Ore., formerly of Fieldton, received a letter from a family living on the same island as her son, saying that Woodrow had visited in their home, and that they had enjoyed very much his visits.

Word has been received by Alvin R. Allison that his brother, Sgt. J. R. Allison, had been returned to the States as a casualty from the Attu Island battle with the Japs.

Sgt. Allison was with the American forces who landed at Holtz Bay, driving the Japs into the mountains. Snow, ice and fog made the landing, and subsequent fighting, doubly difficult, he said, and the Japs used every means to prevent the Americans from taking the island.

After Sgt. Allison's company landed, they started their drive toward the mountains. Machinegun nests were everywhere, he said.

"We started up a hill," Allison said, "and I got pretty near the top. You'd make a rush, then belly down in the snow and shoot. You could hear the Japs yelling. There was fog, and it was plain hell, the way they were throwing stuff at us.

"The Japs had a trick of picking up American nicknames. We had a man named Pvt. Early (Pop) Poffenberger. They learned his nickname, and a Jap shouted, 'Hey, Pop, come on over here.' Pop did. But not the way the Jap figured. Pop dropped down on the Jap and killed him with the butt of his rifle.

Sgt. Allison was reared at Littlefield, and was graduated from the Littlefield High School. He has been in the Army two and a half years, and has a wife and small son living at Planada, Calif.

A rifle bullet pierced Allison's cheeks that day, as he advanced with his company up the hill at Holtz Bay. Now, he is in a hospital in the Pacific Northwest, and for him, the war is over for a while.

High, steep cliffs of rock, drilled out by compressed air drills and blasted with explosives, may provide bomb and weather-proof shelters for American warplanes and commercial aircraft of the future.

Such giant caverns, holding hundreds of planes at one time, ammunition supplies, garages, would also provide a safe haven for thousands of people in the event of an air raid. In one of the rooms as many as 200,000 persons could congregate and be adequately provided for.

"PAY-AS-YOU-GO" PLAN GOES INTO EFFECT JULY 1

The new income tax system, known as "pay-as-you-go" and the Current Tax Payment Act will go into effect in July.

The first step, according to communications from Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, is the payment out by every wage earning taxpayer of a short and simple form, known as the "employees certificate." Technically, it is designated "Form W-4," of the Internal Revenue bureau of the Treasury Department.

It is emphasized that every wage earner is required to fill out one of these forms. He is subject to penalties if he fails, or refuses to fill one out. Likewise, if he fails to fill one out, he is going to be taxed for every cent he earns, and won't get the exemptions to which he is entitled.

These forms now are being distributed. They are being mailed to employers who now are on the "current tax" roll. Some already have been received.

When the employer receives or fills out his supply he will distribute it to his employees. Each employee will fill out a form and return it to the employer. Tax deductions will start on the first payday after July 1.

Generally speaking, however, there will be deductions from the pay envelope of every single wage earner who earns more than $100 per week and every married man without children who receives more than $100 per week.

It must be borne in mind that all these people must fill out a certificate, regardless whether they owe any taxes. Those who do not fill out the required form will be subject to severe penalties.

The deductions thus made, together with the money paid prior to March 15, and last June 15 as installments on income taxes, will be credited upon 1943 income taxes.

It means that, under the new law, most people will have paid a good deal more money in income taxes during 1943 than they would have paid under the old law.

However—and officials emphasize this—these deductions will not mean that your 1943 income tax bill will be paid when next January 1 comes around. Unless you happen to be one of a very small group of persons, you still will owe the government a balance—in many cases, a rather substantial balance.

Therefore, before March 15, 1944, you will be required to make a final report on your 1943 income.

You then will be given credit for all the money you have paid during 1943—including the March 15 and new measure not been enacted, the tax payments this year for a married person would have been $21 and for a single person $154.

Comparisons for other wage groups include:

$35 per week—married persons without dependents will pay $114.40 instead of the $85 levied under the old measure; single persons will pay $239 instead of $218.

$45 per week—married persons will pay $218.40 instead of $176; single persons will pay $343.20 instead of $309.

$55 per week—married persons will pay $322.40 instead of $267;

Dr. McCallister also stated that he expected to make arrangements whereby another chiropractor would occupy the offices in the old Post-office building vacated by him.

Dr. McCallister has enjoyed a nice practice here; and in an interview Tuesday stated that he regretted very much leaving Littlefield, but that an opportunity had been extended him, which he could not afford to overlook.

He also asked the Leader to thank his many patients and friends here for their cooperation.

Electricity Saves Lives!

A steady beam of light guides the ELECTRIC knife in the surgeon's hand. The medical preparations and supplies on hand were packed and sterilized by ELECTRICITY—always on the job!

Yes, Neighbor,
YOU...

... quiet, self-effacing you, are a living part and parcel of the biggest, toughest, bloodiest war in all the hard pages of history.

For here is a war EVERYBODY is in. The man behind the plow. The young boys and girls. The oldster with the cane. The housewife with the market basket. The white-collar worker. The blue-collar worker. The girl in the schoolroom.

We're ALL in it—lock, stock, body and soul.

If America loses, you lose. If America goes down (and it can without the wholehearted co-operation of all of us in the war effort), you go down, too. And every decent thing goes down with you . . . that home, that hearth, that patch of ground, that blessed freedom.

The only way to save these things is to win the war.

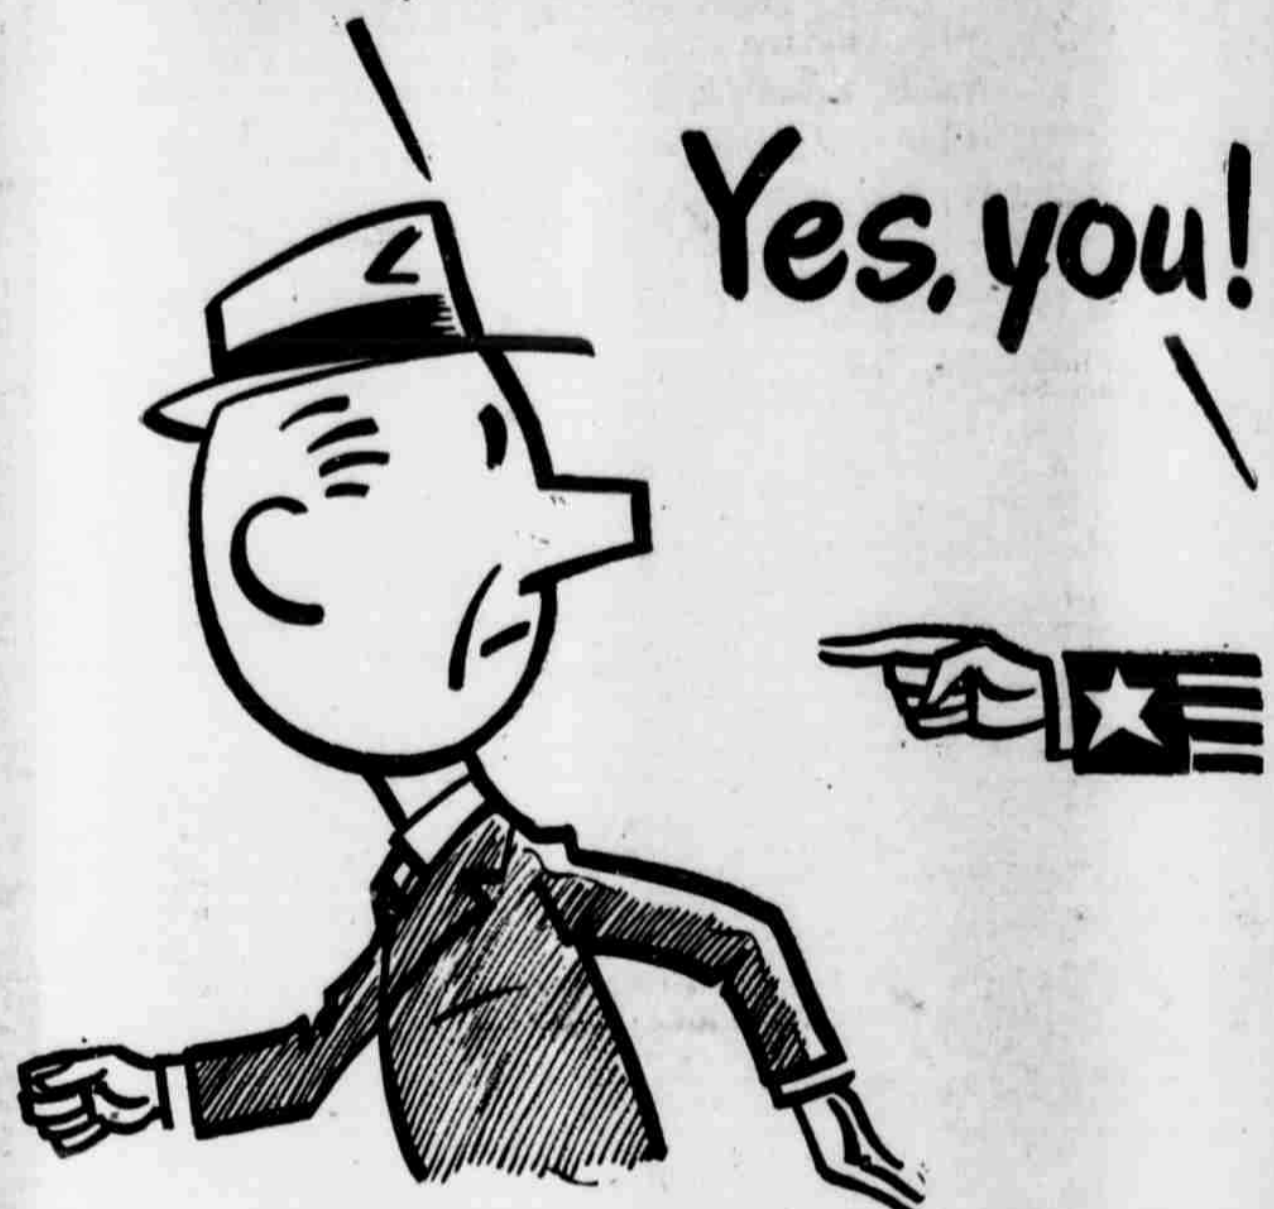

And the only way to win is to out-build, out-gun, out-plane, and out-fight the enemy—to make him sick at the sound of a propeller, the sight of a tank, the roar of a bomb.

That's where you come in.

For, brother and sister, building these things takes money. Lots of it! And your Government needs that money right now! Not for keeps. They don't want you to give it away. They just want you to lend it to them.

Invest every dime, quarter, half-dollar, and dollar you can lay your hands on in U. S. Stamps and Bonds. Not just spare money but money you can't spare. Dig deep. Deny yourself. THIS IS WAR!

Who, me?

Yes, you!

Have You Ever Thought.....

That when you buy War Bonds and Stamps that you are saving for the future . . . saving to purchase later one or several of the things that you want.

FOR THE FINANCIAL SECURITY OF YOUR FAMILY
... FOR YOUR OWN FINANCIAL SECURITY ... BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS.

CLUBS - WOMEN'S INTEREST - SOCIAL EVENTS

Of Parties Honor Bride-Elect
Lieut. Sherrill E. Edwards

Bride-elect, Miss Betty Ann Hilliard, was the honoree at a series of social affairs given the past week.

Miss Hilliard Bride Of Lieut. Edwards In Church Ceremony

Miss Betty Ann Hilliard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hilliard, of Littlefield, became the bride of Lieut. Sherrill E. Edwards of Fort Sill, Okla., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Edwards of Amarillo, at 9:30 p. m. Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church of this city.

Vows were exchanged in a double ring ceremony, with Rev. A. B. Haynes, local pastor, officiating. Baskets of white gladioli and lily fernery decorated the altar, which was offset by a white candelabra of a military scheme, composed of seven red, white and blue tapers with a white victory V above.

Mrs. Paul Timmons presided at the pipe organ during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were played, and the choir sang "I Love You Truly," and "Indian Love Call." "Kiss Me Again" was played during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a frock of white organza with Spanish train, and a finger tip veil of bridal illusion. She carried a white prayer book, beneath white gardenias, with extending streamers of white satin ribbon.

For something old, she wore a gold locket belonging to the mother of the bridegroom, and for something borrowed, she carried a handkerchief, the property of the matron of honor.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Hope Emerson, of Washington, D. C., who wore a rose lace formal dress of Spanish design and carried an arm bouquet of peach gladioli; and Miss Dorothy Newgent of Littlefield, who wore a frock of pale yellow organdie, also featuring a Spanish pattern. She also carried a bouquet of peach gladioli.

The groom was attended by Lieut. Russel Cook of the Cavalry Division, Fort Sill. Both he and his attendant wore the distinguished white uniform of a Cavalry officer.

The bride's mother was becomingly attired in a tailored dress of white silk shantung, with white accessories, and wore a corsage of red rose buds.

The groom's mother wore a black silk crepe dress, with black accessories. Her corsage was also of red rose buds.

Warren Rutledge of the U. S. Navy was usher for the ceremony. He wore the white Navy uniform. Reared in Littlefield, Miss Hilliard is a young lady with an unusually charming personality, which has gained for her large circles of friends, both in her home and college life.

She was graduated from the Littlefield High School with the 1937 class, and was a student of Tech College, Lubbock, two years, following which she attended George Washington University, Washington, D. C., two years.

Miss Hilliard has been connected with Howard Hughes, Houston, for the past year, and has also been attending Feather and Feather School of Fine and Applied Arts, Houston.

Lieut. Edwards is connected with a Cavalry unit of the Service, stationed at Fort Sill. He has been in the Service 2 1/2 years; and has just completed three months officers training at Fort Sill. Previous to entering the Armed Forces he was with the National Broadcasting Company at Chicago.

He is a graduate of Amarillo Senior High School, and attended the University of Illinois. He is a member of Theta Chi Theta fraternity.

for High School, and attended the University of Illinois. He is a member of Theta Chi Theta fraternity.

Reception Held
Following Ceremony

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard, following the ceremony. The table was laid with lovely white linen madeira cloth, and centered with a basket of gladioli. Mrs. A. B. Haynes presided over the serving by Mrs. G. M. Shaw.

The wedding cake was cut by the groom, who used an Army knife, a souvenir of World War I, and a gift from the bride's mother to the groom.

The knife was brought from France by Mrs. Hilliard's brother, Milford Richmond, of Long Beach, Calif., who presented it to his sister. It had been used by French soldiers who had indicated the killing of two high ranking enemy officers by two knoches cut in the knife.

Following the reception, the happy couple left on a short trip, following which they are at home at Fort Sill.

Entertain At Dinner Party

Saturday evening, preceding the wedding, members of the bridal party were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hilliard at a dinner party at the beautiful Hilliard home on East Seventh Street.

The dinner table was laid with white linen cloth, with an arrangement of shasti daisies as a centerpiece.

Hilliard and daughter, Miss Liniol Hilliard, of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Manson of Muleshoe, formerly of Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard.

W. R. Geistman Leaves
On Fishing Trip

W. R. Geistman of two miles west of Littlefield is leaving this week on a three weeks' fishing trip to Corpus Christi. He will also visit several points enroute to the coast city.

Mr. Geistman reports that his brother, who lives at Corpus Christi, owns several farms in that vicinity, and that he has fenced off the Ozco Creek, which is included in his land holdings, and put into the creek black bass, ducks and geese; and that he expects to have a fine time fishing as the guest of his brother.

Red Cross Makes
Appeal For Workers

Dear Friends: We are again making an appeal for workers at the surgical dressing room. Work began Monday, 14th, and through the week we had 31 workers, 16 of these country ladies and nine of these were supervisors. Two days the supervisors worked all day alone.

I understand we are all busy, most of us are working overtime and short-handed, but we must not forget this work is for our service men. They are dying for us. It takes a good worker several hours to make enough surgical dressings for one operation.

I wonder how our boys over there feel when they read in the home town paper that the people at home are not turning out to make the dressings he may need to dress his wounds when he is wounded in battle. I had a letter from a soldier last week that said, "Sometimes I feel as if it doesn't matter who wins this war when I see people running around everywhere and going wild over a good time until I think of my folks at home. I am fighting for them." It is a shame when the service man feels the folks at home are not backing him up.

It doesn't matter if your floors are not swept, or everything isn't did up just right at home, or if you miss a social hour, those things can wait. Our boys are needing us, our fighting men are expecting us to do our part. Are you going to let them down?

With Amherst Men In the Armed Forces

Mrs. Winnie L. Cole of Amherst received the following letter from her son, Cordell Cole, who is stationed in New York City:

June 6, 1943

"Dear Mother and Sister,

"How are you by this time? Fine I hope. It seems long since I heard from you all. I got letters from Viola and Marjorie yesterday, but I want to hear from you direct. I am having a nice time. I got a pass and went to New York City this week, and it surely is a swell city. I rode on a bus into town and rode across the George Washington Bridge over the Hudson River. Then I got on a sub-way train they run underneath the street. I went to 'Times Square' and all around over town in a skyview cab. I went up on top of the Empire State Building and out on the open terrace where you can get an airplane view of the whole city. We could see the Statue of Liberty at a distance. Brooklyn Navy Yard and Brooklyn Bridge, Manhattan Bridge and the Normandy still laying between two piers.

"I also saw the Little Church around the corner. You remember Cousin Ivan Lawler and Ester were married there. I never did expect to see N. Y., but I surely enjoyed the trip. I wish you all could see this part of the country. Did you get my other letter? We are leaving the barracks now, and the chow is good. Tell all the other girls that I didn't have much time to write them separate letters so you, Hattie, can let them read this, and I would be glad to hear from all of them. I had better close now, so write soon telling me all the news.

"Good luck and love to all,

"CORDELL COLE."

The steel will be used to make armor plates to protect him from bullets and he can come home again. You don't want production figures.
