Alldison Is Named Outstanding Conservation Farmer Of Lamb County

Alldison of the Pleasant community in Lamb county was named the Outstanding Conservation Farmer of 1955 by the Lamb County Soil Conservation Board.

His name was entered in the "Worth Press" annual program for recognition of individuals who are outstanding in the soil conservation practices.

He had been living in New Lamb in 1946 and chose the 240 acre Pleasant Valley farm as a more prosperous farm according to the county supervisors.

Believer in conservation Alldison began work on his farm in 1947, giving it an acre of water. He, at one time in the past four years covered every acre of his land with alfalfa. At the time, 80 acres provide Angus cattle and also alfalfa for the dehydrated.

Used a rotation of one-ton followed by vetch, small grain, one-third and one third sorghums interplanted with peas and silage production, part of the land in blue grass grazing.

Irrigation is left on the protect it from wind and erosion. Fertilizers are legumes and grasses. Conservation service technicians assisted Alldison to do his part of land leveling in the 48.

He has his irrigation system installed 2,872 feet ground concrete pipe to ditch loss, and evaporator built a reservoir to a larger head of water labor costs. He also has 50 acres of permanent that can be watered good or row.

Quantity of water used is determined by of the crop and the ring capacity of the soil. can use it most efficiently, no erosion occurs from irrigation or rainfall. Nations derive their living land, and produce their and can vegetables from a garden.

Alldison is president Pleasant Valley Farm B.U. a director of the Pleasant 4-H and FFA Stock he has also helped the Conservation Service set up a contest for farm-outh in the community. Original member of the Pleasant District for county.

For the years he has lived south Plains, Alldison has on two different occasions foreign youths studying cultural methods here.

Board Calls Mass Meeting To Discuss Integration Problem

The Littlefield school board has called a mass meeting of white citizens of the community to take place Thursday evening in the high school auditorium. The meeting will begin at 7:30. All school board members plan to be present and to listen to all opinions on the subject of integration and answer any questions which may be put to them.

Superintendent Ralph Schilling says that if the crowd is too large for the auditorium, the overflow will be directed to other rooms which will be connected with the auditorium by the two-way public address system.

Royce, Doyce, and Allen Turner of Pleasant Valley are shown with their champion Duroc barrow which they showed at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth.

Turner Boys Show Champion Duroc Barrow At Ft. Worth

The Turner twins, Royce and Doyce, with their brother Allen, made an unusual showing at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show held at the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth last week.

In the barrow division, medium weight Durocs the boys placed first, second and third, and showed the champion Duroc in the show got fifth and eleventh. In the breeding stock division they placed eleventh and fourteenth in quills, and sixth in pon of three gilt.

The boys placed eighth, thirteenth and fourteenth in the Heavy Angus steer division; twentieth and eighteenth in the heavy Hereford division, and Royce showed the best steer in the open division with a heavy Hereford steer.

In the Polled Hereford division the boys placed 16th, 17th, and 19th and 12th in the open pair of breeding heifers.

The champion Duroc sold for 31c per pound and all other barrows brought 19c. All steers sold at $300.00 and the heifers sold at $250 and $245.

The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner of Pleasant Valley, and are active 4-H club workers. They have received many honors in 4-H club work in Lamb county. Their father also has been honored with the alumni award in 4-H club work.

Mickey Ratliff To Be Delegate To Boy Scout Council Meet

Mickey Ratliff will leave Friday morning for Austin to attend the State ceremonies of National Boy Scout Week.

Ratliff was chosen as official council delegate to represent the South Plains Council of Boy Scouts of America. He will be accompanied by Johnny Stockdale of Morton and the district executive Don Reece of Lubbock.

The three will attend the Explorer Governor's Ball Friday night and on Saturday will participate in the Parade on Congress Avenue.

They will attend the "Report of the State" session followed by Fellowship Luncheon.

Ratliff is serving as president of the District Explorer Council and is a Brotherhood Member of the Order of the Arrow Lodge. He is a junior in Littlefield High School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ratliff, who reside at 123 East 12th Street.

Community Center Board Meets Tuesday Night

A meeting of the Community Center Board was held Tuesday night to elect the new officers for 1956. Board members met at 7 p.m., at a downtown restaurant.

Jesse Everett presided until the new president, Jack Christian of the Rotary club, was elected president of the Board. Rev. Arthur K. Hunt of the Ministerial Association will serve as vice president, and Hubert Henry of the Lions club as secretary-treasurer. The outgoing officers were Boyd Roberts, president; Mrs. Wm. N. Orr, vice president. The work of secretary-treasurer has been done by the Chamber of Commerce previously.

Moisture Measured At 1.03 Inches; Most Farmers Want More

Vic Bullman, weatherman at the Western Cottonoil Company reports that Littlefield received one and three hundredths inches of moisture from the recent snow. Winds are estimated to have been 40 mph from the North at their highest. Seven degrees above zero was the lowest reading during the storm. It is said to be the worst storm in 50 years.

A lot of people deserve a lot of praise for the unselfish work they did to help their neighbors during the time when roads were impassable. We don't know who most of them are so we won't attempt to list them. In fact, just about everybody stopped to help every driver he saw stuck in the snow.

One group we do want to mention is the city employees. The police, with the help of the maintenance driver, Elvie Witcher, got through to a lot of marooned people who had to have help. Some of them were outside the city too, but they needed the help so they got it.

In between emergency calls Witcher did his best to keep the streets open. With only one maintainer, he couldn't keep ahead of the snow, even though he had help from City Manager Guy McCraw, who drove the maintainer while Witcher slept. We think they deserve a pat on the back for doing everything they could to alleviate suffering and keep at least our main thoroughfares open.

The druggists deserved a hand too. They kept delivering everywhere they could possibly get to, even during the worst of the storm. We hear they got so good at it that some of them delivered doctors along with the medicine.

The school board has asked the people of the school district to come to the auditorium this evening to discuss with them what is to be done about integrating our white and colored schools.

This is a difficult decision for seven men to have to make alone. They want to do what the citizens of the district think should be done. So we ought to give them a hand by turning out for that meeting and hearing what everyone has to say and letting them know how we stand on it.

False Alarm Friday Night Brings Officers, Ambulances, Wreckers

What is believed to be the trick of some unthinking prankster brought ambulances from Littlefield and Levelland, and wreckers and officers from Levelland to Whittarral Friday night.

The report of an explosion one mile north of Whittarral brought the drivers and their vehicles over snow banked highways in freezing weather to answer the alarm.

Salvation Army Needs Blankets And Clothing

Lt. Roland Chambless of the Salvation Army reported that the response to the appeal that the army made to Littlefield residents over radio station KVOW for blankets and quilts for underprivileged families was fine.

Lt. Chambless said, "If those people who gave bed clothing for the families could have gone with me to the home where there were 14 hungry and cold children, they would know how grateful we are for their contributions."

The army went to the homes of the donors and picked up the blankets and took them to nine families. Most of the pickup and delivering was done on foot since snow drifts blocked any automobile transportation.

Rev. Arthur K. Hunt, Pastor of the First Christian Church, has been named chairman of the Red Cross drive for funds in Littlefield. The drive begins March 1. Clovis Poteet is chairman for Lamb County.

Girl Scouts Will Have Bake Sale To Raise Funds

All of the Girl Scouts and Brownies will hold a bake sale at three downtown stores Saturday in an effort to add to the depleted funds for the scouts. There will be no Girl Scout drive this year.

The organization of the county will join the South Plains Girl Scout Council and it is hoped that the bake sale will add enough funds to tide the county group over until that time.

Furr's, Piggy-Wiggly, and Pioneer Super Market will be the locations for the sales. Pies, cakes and other pastries will be sold.

In event of severe weather the sale will be held on Tuesday of next week.

Spade FFA Members Attend Ft. Worth Show

The following members of the Spade FFA Chapter accompanied by Mr. Byars, Mr. Williams and their adviser, Mr. Byrd, attended the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show last Saturday, in Fort Worth: Johnnie Richardson, Eugene Williams, Joe Don Mote, Don Hardeman, Marilyn Neel, Tommy Park, Rene Elkins, Ronald Rhodes, Darold Hardin, Dennis Vaughn, Charles Patterson, Robert Tomlinson, Tommy Bush, Phelix Sipes, Earrest Young, Bobby Nelson and Kenneth Hutchins.

Merchants Furnish Prizes For Bureau Drive

Merchants from all over Lamb County are furnishing the prizes for the annual membership drive of the Lamb County Farm Bureau, 12 Electric Sunbeam Fry Pans and 12 $40.00 Noona Boots or Stetson Hats will be given away to workers from each community.

H. L. King, District Director of the Texas Farm Bureau will be the guest speaker for the barbecue.

Last year a deep freeze was given to Joe Thompson from Amherst, by a drawing. Mrs. E. J. Stone received an orchid for selling 30 memberships, more than any other woman in Lamb County.

Drive chairmen are: Mrs. E. J. Stone, Sudan; W. O. Stephens, Friendship; George Wuerlein, Pleasant Valley; Jarvis Angeley, Earth; Kenneth Ray, Olton; Billy Wayne Clayton, Springlake; Lonnie Neimast, Hart Camp; Ted Hutchins, Spade; Jack Yarbrough, Littlefield; Joe Thompson, Amherst; Vic Diersing, Pop. Goals for each community will be set at the barbecue.

All drive chairmen attended a training meeting in Lubbock on the 7th, meeting with all other drive chairmen from all over the state. They will meet in the Springlake Community Center on the 9th for another meeting to start action on the drive.

Herman Neuschwander, membership chairman for the county will be on hand in the Farm Bureau office the night of the 15th for a telephone report from all over the county to compile the results of the one day County wide drive.

Bryson allegedly drilled an irrigation well on his property last summer which failed to meet the spacing requirements set up by the 13 county organization under provisions of the state statutes. The defendant's well was located approximately 74 yards from one belonging to Bryan Hulce, who had been granted a permit for drilling and operation of a well in that location.

the High Plains district, said, "We feel sure that they will appeal the ruling, and actually hope that they do. We want to know for sure that we are right, and we think this is a good test for both sides."

Bryson's attorney, R. H. Munsterman, said in Levelland Tuesday night that the decision definitely would be appealed.

"The question to us is not whether the state law has value or if the district organization is something that is needed," Munsterman added. "It is the action taken by the board which we are attacking, and we definitely feel that they (the board members) acted arbitrarily and capriciously."

The attorney said personalities were not an issue in the case, but that he felt "more horse sense should have been used" in making the decision which allowed Hulce to drill and operate his well while denying those rights to Bryson. He maintained that both men had applications for drilling of irrigation wells pending with the board for approximately three weeks before that decision was made.

"We want to do nothing to destroy the district," Munsterman said, "and have no quarrel with its value. But, the rules that have been set up were meant to be administered with more common sense than we feel that was used in this case to the detriment of Mr. Bryson."

McFarland said that Hulce's request for drilling a well was filed prior to that of Bryson, and Bryson was informed that his proposed location was too close to the other well to meet requirements set up by representatives of the 13 counties in the district. As for the appeal, McFarland said he was glad Bryson planned to carry the test case to the state's highest court. "Had the decision gone against us, we would have appealed it. That is the only way for the matter to be definitely settled."

He indicated that the district had several other similar issues pending on the outcome of the current suit.

Although the $10,000 bill is the largest in U. S. circulation, there are $100,000 gold certificates used for business between the Federal Reserve System and the Treasury Department.

Mrs. J. E. McGee

Services for Mrs. J. E. McGee were held at the First Methodist church at 2 p.m., Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Harry Vanderpool, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Bill Pearce, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church in Levelland and former associate pastor of the Methodist church here.

Mrs. McGee who had been ill in health for the past two years passed away at her home at 823 West Third in Littlefield at 8:25 Monday morning. She had resided in Littlefield for the past 13 years.

Emma Lessie Guinn was born to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Guinn, in Young county on June 20, 1907. She was married to J. E. McGee in 1934.

Her mother preceded her in death in June 1943. Mrs. McGee joined the Methodist church as a girl. She was an ardent church worker. Just this year she was one of the ladies honored at the anniversary tea as a charter member of the Women's Society of Christian Service. She had been honored as a life member.

Mrs. McGee attended North Texas State College in Denton and taught school for two years at Red Top, Texas. She was an accomplished musician and served as organist for church services wherever she attended church.

Since she has been ill she had achieved a life-long ambition to paint. She painted several oil paintings after she was confined to bed and exhibited them at the Downtown Art Exhibit in Littlefield in November.

Survivors are her husband; one daughter, Trudy, and a son, Jimmy, of the home.

Other survivors are her father, George W. Guinn of Littlefield; three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Petty of Littlefield, Mrs. C. C. Allen of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. B. C. By MAXINE CLARIDA
Has this been a week??? Two of them. Were you ever shut in for days with two teen-age boys. Boys that are ripping and raring to get out. And they did just that. They raided an old trunk in the garage and found three pair of their dad's hunting boots. They went all over our side of town. Shoveling snow, helping cars out, getting groceries for the neighbors and just having fun. And when Wednesday morning came and they had to go back to school you would have thought the world had come to an end.

The whole crew showed up down here Saturday morning, and we got the paper out with no mis-haps which we thought was a record. We have all managed to show up every day. But one thing for sure we found that we weren't as young as we used to be when we were wading that knee-deep snow over to the highway Saturday morning. Felt like we had run the 100 yard dash when we got to Betty's. But luckily Doug showed up and we got the car down town after being pushed out a couple of times.

Roy Wade has the best sense of humor. Last Friday night he and Ruth started to the hospital with their daughter, Madeline, now Mrs. Billy Derrick, who was expecting her first child. They only got a few blocks and couldn't go any farther. Roy walked to the police station and got the police to go and get Madeline and Ruth. The police car got there and succeeded in getting them to the hospital around one a.m. Saturday morning. The fine boy arrived at 9 a.m., that morning. Roy said he had read about such things in papers as getting stuck and walking for help, etc. but now he could verify that it actually happened. Incidentally, he doesn't mind being a grandpa, just hates to live with a grandma.

Another little sidelight of the storm was that the wife of our Church of Christ minister, Mrs. Jack King, was brought to work in a police car. She said that was the first time she had ever been picked up by the police. Hope you enjoyed this snow as much as we did. Can't keep from thinking that the inconvenience to us is rewarded in moisture to this dry, dry country.

Mr. Blake, pastor of the Sudan Church of Christ, was guest speaker at the Rotary Ann dinner held Thursday evening in the Methodist annex. The event is an annual affair when Rotarians entertain their wives.

Mr. Blake spoke to the fifty-three present on the subject, "Citizenship in Our Community."

Toastmaster for the evening was Marvin Tollett. Introducing the speaker was Edgar Chance. Appearing on the dinner program was Mrs. Walter White, who sang three vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. Orvell Wallace.

The dinner menu consisted of fruit cocktail, congealed salad, chicken and noodles, green beans, hot rolls, cherry tarts.

The dinner tables were decorated with yellow flower arrangements received gratis from the Stuart Floral. Accenting the floral arrangements were yellow candles. Copies of the Rotary Magazine were placed on the tables to complete the arrangements.

Spade residents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud White have returned home after attending the funeral of her father, G. H. Pollard at Chickasha, Okla. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lackey of Littlefield.

Pollard died Monday, January 30 at 12:30 a. m., and funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m., at the Chickasha Chapel.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bud White of Spade, and Mrs. Albert Goodman of Corcoran, Calif and two sons, Melvin Pollard of Fresno, Calif., and George Pollard of Los Angeles, Calif. All were present except Melvin and George. He also has ten grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

"I See By The News"

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Johnson of Lubbock are the parents of a 6 pound, 10 ounce boy, born Sunday in the Methodist hospital. The boy has been named Bradford Lee. Mrs. Johnson is the former Miss Sammie Jane Batton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Batton, former Littlefield residents. She is also a sister of Mrs. Tom Hilburn.

J. E. Doty, Route 1, is recovering from a broken hip sustained in a fall at his home last week.

Mrs. Louise Frerich of Pep sustained a fractured hip about three weeks ago and is improving in the Medical Arts hospital.

Mrs. George A. Staggers who received a broken wrist in a fall last week is said to be doing fine in the Medical Arts hospital.

80% Of Vehicle Inspections Must Be Done In Ten Weeks

Lamb county's 18 official inspection stations reports that they have put 1956 inspection stickers on only 2594 cars since the "season" opened September 15. Since there are 12,937 cars and trucks registered in the county, this means that 10,343 vehicles must be inspected in the ten weeks remaining before the April 15 deadline.

Each of the mechanic-inspectors attended a school again this year, conducted by the Department of Public Safety. They had to pass a written examination on the new rules before they were placed on the Approved Inspector list for 1956.

Rules were tightened up this year and inspectors were reminded that they were subject to personal fines up to $200 for improper inspection of a vehicle. And it could cost his firm as much as $1500.

In 1955 he could pass your vehicle if any of the lens were cracked or broken. He can't in 1956.

In 1955 he could pass your vehicle if any of the reflectors were cracked or faded. He can't in 1956.

In 1955 he could pass your vehicle if your license tag was obscured. He can't in 1956.

In 1955 he could pass your vehicle if your master cylinder or lines or wheel cylinders were leaking provided your vehicle could stop properly in the required distance. He can't in 1956.

In 1955 he didn't have to check your pedal reserve on your brakes. In 1956 he can't pass your vehicle unless you have at least a two-inch pedal reserve for hydraulic brakes and at least a one inch pedal reserve for power brakes. Amherst News

By MRS. LESTER LA GRANGE
Activity in and around Amherst the past several days has been greatly curtailed due to weather and road conditions. Most of it has weather implications.

An interesting sight was the number of birds which came for grain and bread crumbs scattered after a space on our patio had been cleared of snow. A lovely blue bird Robin, juncos, a wren, starlings, sparrows, and one of two unknown species appeared. It was interesting to observe, too, how a bird would fly away immediately when another species appeared for food.

Several from Amherst had hub caps stolen from their cars as they attended the basketball game at Spade last week.

Mrs. Horace Post received word during the weekend that her sister Mrs. Carrie Lee Bishop of Kingsville is confined to the hospital there and that surgery would probably be necessary. Mr. Bishop is dean of women at the A & I College at Kingsville.

Rev. and Mrs. Jim Tomlinson and little son, Terry, of Southland, spent several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oby Blanchard. They were here for a short visit and were snowbound several days.

Martha Rankin is home and will not attend Wayland college this semester. She was not well for some time before the Christmas holidays, and it was thought best for her to withdraw from school for the time being.

Dr. James Lynn McCrory of Santa Fe, N. M., visited briefly with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Daniel as he was enroute to Levelland Wednesday for the funeral of his brother, John McCrory.

BRANTLEYS VISIT RIO GRANDE VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Manry Brantley returned home Wednesday of last week after a vacation trip which took them as far south as the Rio Grande Valley and Brownsville.

His niece, Mrs. Jack Cummings, and 14 months old daughter, Cheryl, who had resided in Port Arthur, returned home with them and will spend the next few weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schovajsa.

Her husband has gone to Venezuela where he will be employed the next 18 months or two years with the Gulf Oil Company. She and Cheryl will fly to South America. They will reside near Caracas, Venezuela.

Dick Brantley was home from Colorado City for the weekend with his parents.

Donnie Gonzales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gonzales, did not preach his first sermon at Sunday night services at the Baptist church due to the weather conditions. It was postponed until next Sunday night, February 12.

IRA HOLLAND IS ILL
Ira Holland is improving at the South Plains hospital. He was stricken with a sudden illness Friday night. It was fortunate he resided near a doctor and the hospital so that he could be moved to the hospital, during the severe weather.

ROY McCRORYS VISIT HERE
Capt. and Mrs. Roy McCrory, Johnny, Janice and Jennifer of Killeen, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Daniel several days after attending the funeral of his brother, John McCrory, in Levelland and Lubbock, Thursday.

They reside in Killeen as Capt. of Springlake is the tractor this week. Since so many families are marooned and can only get out by means of the tractor to come to town for groceries.

The Name, Christian

The word, Christian, is found three times in the new Testament. It is the name by which the disciples of Christ honor him.

Disciples Are Christians

Acts 11:26: "... the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch."

How Disciples Are Made

Matthew 28:19-20: "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you."

Agrippa Almost Persuaded

Acts 26:28: "And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldst fain make me a Christian."

Glorify God In This Name

1 Peter 4:16: "But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this name."

(All quotations are from the American Standard Version)
Church of Christ West Ninth Street Littlefield, Texas

McCrory is stationed at Fort Hood. They returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. A. D. Lynch entertained with a party for her daughter, Dobra, on her fifth birthday last Friday afternoon.

Although the weather was too severe for many of those invited to attend, there were the usual enjoyable refreshments, including a birthday cake and much merriment from the indoor games.

Mr. and Mrs. Straw Coffey returned from Dallas Thursday. She underwent surgery at Baylor hospital and continues to improve at her home on Earth highway.

"It is easier to kill yourself through overeating than by overworking," says a physician. It's also more fun.

Add half a teaspoon of almond extract to a package of thawed frozen sliced peaches; serve over packaged vanilla pudding or a baked custard.

They Torqued it up for the BEST TAKE-OFF YET

First thing you need in a car, of course, is power to spark performance.

And you get that in a 1956 Buick in plenty - from big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines that hit new highs in horsepower and compression.

But the power under the hood must be carried to the rear driving wheels in the form of twisting force on the drive shaft.

That's torque - the end-product of your transmission. And the higher the torque build-up - the greater the "torque multiplication" in starting and accelerating - the better the getaway and response.

So if you want to feel take-off that leaves your breath behind you, come try a '56 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

For in this airplane-principled transmission, Buick engineers raised the ceiling on torque to give you the best getaway yet.

They did it with something they call "double regeneration" - a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity.

And when you use the full torque of a Buick beauty like the one pictured above, you're using the highest torque multiplication to be had in any standard-production American automobile today.

Come see for yourself what that means in new thrills and new safety.

You'll find brilliant new getaway response in the first inch of pedal travel - plus greater gas mileage to boot.

You'll find an electrifying new safety-surge of full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

And you'll find this spectacular performance blended into the smoothest-traveling, the sweetest-riding, the highest-powered and the easiest-handling Buicks yet built. Drop in on us this week - today, if you can - and judge things firsthand.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century - optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Do We Want To Freeze Our Standard Of Living At Its Present Level?

Many of the things which men have done to make a living in the past have changed drastically or disappeared completely in the path of progress. Sometimes even mighty industries have collapsed, causing painful adjustments by large numbers of people. The classic examples of this are the wagon makers and livery stable operators and blacksmiths. Their industries were depressed for years before the last of them gave up to the necessity for change.

But who thinks that the American people, even those in the livery stable business, would have been better off now if we had passed laws to subsidize them and prevent those changes from taking place in their natural manner? It is changes like these which have raised our standard of living so tremendously.

The passenger train business—once a huge, prosperous industry—has been mostly a losing proposition for a couple of decades because of progress in other forms of transportation. We note that the president of the Southern Pacific remarked recently concerning his company's practice of selling airline tickets, "If the train is going to be outrun, why shouldn't we go along? There simply have to be casualties in any form of progress."

The Dark Ages lasted so long partly because of their resistance to change. Even after the Renaissance and Reformation freed men's minds so that inventions could take place, the guilds of artisans who produced shoes, textiles, utensils, etc. in one and two man shops resisted the Industrial Revolution bitterly. That resistance is still going on in parts of Europe and Asia and is one of the principal reasons why the standard of living there is so much lower than ours.

How much cheaper their bread could be if it were mass produced in large bakeries. And how much better the fewer bakers would live. The same thing applies to their shoes and wine and many other items which make up their standard of living and which are still produced in small quantities with small tools.

The Industrial Revolution came late to the American farm. But it is here now and it has tremendously raised our productivity per man hour. It has more than doubled in 25 years. The law of supply and demand working through a free market tends to lower farm prices to a point at which all this increased production will be purchased by consumers. But this is a below-cost price for many producers.

If left alone, the free enterprise system would thus cause the producers with the highest costs to sell their land to more efficient producers and find themselves a better way to make a living. This would make them better off and would make it possible for those more efficient farmers to make a better living, even at a lower profit margin per unit.

We are making it harder on ourselves by resisting this natural process. First, we do not want to share with our customers the lower costs of power farming. Second, we do not want to reduce our numbers to what is actually needed now to produce enough food and fiber.

We are trying to set prices at a point high enough to enable all farmers to make a profit. By doing so we are creating surpluses which tend to depress prices to a point where no farmer can make a profit. Progress demands that only the most efficient make a profit and as a result only the most efficient will stay in business, and they will produce more for Americans but at a lower cost which will enable Americans to consume more per capita than ever before.

Under free enterprise the family size farm will probably continue to be the optimum farm unit, but each family will farm three or four times as many acres as a family could handle a generation ago. That means there will be less than half as many families on the farm, but they will work less and live much better. Their profit margin will be lower, but their volume will give them higher net incomes, just as it has done in manufacturing and retailing.

And what of the people who are forced off the farm? They too will live much better because they will change to making the myriad other things which Americans want and can afford to buy because we have not stopped progress.

Of course we can delay this process, if we have enough political power to pass the necessary laws, but our children and ourselves will live better if we let progress proceed naturally.

Lipstick Logic . . .

LOUISE C. ALLEN
Folks who love to talk about the good old days had a ball last weekend. The deep snow put us back a couple of generations as far as conveniences go.

For without chains even the back wheels of the most powerful car will spin on ice. And in these days of paved roads and high speeds, how many people keep chains (if they own any) in the trunk of the car? If the lady next door got her car stuck, today's man of the house—in loafers and slacks—had to be as gallant as his forefather was in high boots and chaps.

And when the snow got a foot- and a half deep, paths had to be shoveled from the house—to the garage instead of to the cowlot and the woodpile. But it took as much energy to heave the shovel as it did for the pioneers.

Housewives who run to the grocery store every time they need salt or a stick of butter, last week went back to the horsepen days of making do. At our house, for instance, when the snow banked highest, we used up the bread supply. Luckily, we had a yeast cake, so for the first time in months the family got homemade bread—a roma and all.

The best thing about being snowed in for several days was the time it gave us to stop and just be. We "had time" to telephone the friend who had been ill for two months; to write some notes; to take hot bread next door. With all the busy-ness cut out, for a few days at least, we went back to the slower, kinder era when a frost-bitten ear was news, and when everyone in the block knew what everyone else was about.

Gleanings . . .

From Nearby Newspapers

A NUMBER OF EYES
Thursday in the Journal our good friend and co-worker, Fay Shaw, made a pretty sound suggestion: That the fire department have a telephone number for reporting fires that would be easier to memorize and use in an emergency than the present one.

I think the idea has a lot of merit. In fact, I wonder if it could not be carried one step further.

Why would it not be feasible, and a good idea, to have the telephone company have a short emergency number for fires all over the nation—say something like 444?

The telephone company has short numbers that are identical all over the nation for its information and long distance services. Why not one for fire alarms?

It may be that the telephone company has some good reason why this suggestion is not sound. But, on the other hand, maybe no one has particularly urged it.

Certainly in times of emergency, people would like to have the fire department hooked up to a short number that anyone could remember. —Arlington Journal.

"A large percent of our juvenile problems are caused from boys owning their own cars," said County Juvenile Officer Bob Robbins in his office Tuesday. —Anton News.

Our weather luck and high standing as a successful purveyor of weather information depends on what happens in the next few weeks. If the storms that keep whipping in from the west can make that hump in the back of the Rocky Mountains right away instead of sliding off to the east we've got it made. It will be hard for the weather to break away from a pattern that has been the rule for nigh on to five years. However, it must happen sooner or later. We are taking a tremendous reputation that it will happen. There and now we issue a storm warning. Get some chunks handy to thaw out the water tanks, dig out those long handles, grind up feed to the rafters of the self-feeder. Might be handy to have some gunny sacks ready to wrap your feet up before you get out into it. These hard cold days sure are tough when you're not used to them. —Floyd County Hesperian, Feb. 1.

We are now ready to admit that the two traffic signals on Main Street contribute little to safety or orderly traffic. In fact, they are hazards to safe driving under existing conditions. —Ralls Banner.

When the Herald went to 10 cents on single copy prices with the first issue in January, we heard the complaint that we just went up because of the oil boom. This is strictly an inaccuracy. The day of the 5¢ weekly news-paper is long gone. There are very few of these left in the Panhandle and not too many where they still get 7 cents, either. Most newspapers in the Herald's class went to 10¢ several years ago and we should have done so. Last time the Herald subscription price was raised was in 1946, and the cost of production, cost of newsprint, metal, ink, utilities, taxes, etc., has advanced considerably since that time. —Ochiltree County Herald.

The Sandhills Philosopher—

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has a new idea this week, with which he'll get about as far as he ever does.

Dear Editor:
One of my neighbors had his son-in-law from the city visiting with him last week and when I asked him if it wasn't an odd time to be taking a vacation, in the middle of the winter, he said he wasn't taking a vacation, the plant where he works has temporarily shut down and he's drawing unemployment compensation from the government.

This put me to thinking. This unemployment compensation is a fine thing, it's stabilizing, a man has to eat whether he's working or not and grocery stores still like to get cash, but what I want to know is why hasn't Congress extended the idea to farmers?

You take weather like we had last week, when it was too cold and wet to do any farm work, right then would have been a good time to be drawing farmer's unemployment compensation. Regardless of what the Secretary of Agriculture's secretary writes to the magazines, farmers are necessary. Producing food may not be as important as producing automobiles and television sets and bobby pins, but it's pretty close, there aren't many people who can really enjoy a television program when they're starving to death, and when a farmer gets layed off on account of the weather, it ought to be in the same category as being layed off for re-tooling to bring out a new model automobile or a new television set.

Of course, there'd have to be some rules, drawing unemployment compensation while you went fishing for a few days might be all right, but stretching it out for several weeks would be frowned on, although laying off when farm prices, because of the surplus, drop so low you're about as well off sitting in the shade as plowing

Opportunity For Youths

A wonderful opportunity for youngsters exists in the Army Reserve.

The Army's all-important mission is to uphold the interests of the United States whether we be in a shooting war, a cold war, or in peace. During times of peace the main job is to deter aggression. That can be done by maintaining a reserve that is both numerically strong and technically trained.

There exists a chance that any young man will be required to serve in Uncle Sam's Army. There are very few alive today, regardless of age, who have not served in war or in preparedness for same.

It has now become a patriotic duty of every young man to prepare himself to defend his country. Some young men do this by enlisting in some branch of the armed forces. Some defer military service so that they may complete their education, by joining an ROTC unit. Others keep in with the latest developments, and in trim, by joining the national guard.

Now comes a wonderful opportunity for young men to continue their education and at the same time serve their country in the Reserve forces.

Actually it is a matter of self preservation. Undiscovered in World War II that untrained men were the first casualties. They had not learned to defend themselves. So, from a selfish standpoint, it behooves every young man to keep himself in fighting trim—to familiarize himself with wartime procedures, to know the latest in weapons and warfare techniques.

Now, thanks to the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 a young man of high school age can enlist in the reserves, begin his training, train only one night a week, go to camp for two weeks in the summer, and receive credit against his military obligation for the time spent in Reserve training. After graduation from high school he serves six months active duty receiving his basic training, following which he is ready to enter college without further interruption.

It should be considered legitimate and bonafide.

In fact, as I understand it, in industry for example when a plant produces too much, it shuts down and lays off the people until consumption catches up, and a similar situation seems to exist with farming right now, and if we had this farmer's unemployment compensation in effect, I imagine a good many farms could be shut down for a while until production caught up with demand and the weather got prettier. If you think this idea has merit, let's get to work on it. If you don't think it has any merit, let's get to work on it. My part, I've got my mail in good shape and am ready to check to start arriving. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SARGENT
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — An Austin district court has cleared the way for liquidation of the assets of US Trust and Guaranty Co. This means that creditors may get back at least a part of their investments from this defunct concern.

Judge Charles O. Betts ordered the company and two subsidiaries, US Automotive Service and Arkansas Fire and Marine Insurance Co. into permanent receivership. What exact percentage creditors will recover is not yet known. Rep. Bert McDaniel of Waco, US Trust attorney, filed a petition for certified draft holders asking that they be given priority. If the petition is granted, said an Insurance Commission attorney, they will get all their money back.

Some 3,600 draft holders put in an estimated $3,800,000.

State testimony on US Trust operations cited many examples of unorthodox bookkeeping, annual statements bolstered by borrowing, blown-up real estate values, and minutes of board meetings never held.

Judge Betts released personal assets of six company directors from an injunction banning disposal. But he made it clear they were not dismissed as defendants or freed from liability as directors.

Refund of attorney's fees by members of the Texas Legislature is helping to increase the assets of the defunct US Trust and Guaranty Co. Two state senators started the ball rolling by announcing they were sending to the liquidator all legal fees received from US Trust—to be divided by creditors. Senators William Shireman of Corpus Christi and Carlos Ashley of Llano said they had not been given an opportunity to earn their retainers. Shireman receive $3,000; Ashley, $10,000. Both were paid in cash.

A four-pronged investigation is under way by committees from both the House and the Senate to: (1) check functions of the Insurance Commission, (2) study circumstances surrounding operation and collapse of US Trust and Guaranty Co., (3) determine if remedial legislation is needed, and (4) investigate lobbying practices.

A. B. Shoemaker, US Trust president who shot himself through the head Jan. 7, was moved from a private hospital in Waco to the Veterans Administration Hospital in McKinney. Family spokesmen said they were no longer able to pay heavy hospital bills. Doctors would not comment on whether they thought Shoemaker, apparently the only person who knows, or over knew, the ins and outs of US Trust, would ever recover sufficiently to testify.

Insurance Commissioner Garfield A. Smith, hospitalized with a stomach ailment two weeks ago, has resigned. His doctor recommended indefinite rest. Smith said he felt he had been made the "whipping boy" in the current controversy. Critics of the administration had sought to strike at the governor through him, he said.

Gov. Allan Shivers and Com. Chas. J. Boyd Saunders refuted "scandal" charges in luncheon speeches last week. "Whenever there is a violation of the law and the commission takes action against a company, there seems to be a 'scandal,'" said Saunders. He predicted results of the "solvent call" due by May 31 will reveal only about 5 per cent of Texas 1,400 companies to be unsound.

Taking a similar tack, the governor said that in the past six years only 15 out of 23,000 state employees had been fired, suspended or indicted for dishonesty. It is unfair, he contended, to smear the honest majority, because of the actions of a few.

Every day brings with it evidence of the commission's new "get tough" policy. Hearing was set for April 3 to consider revising credit insurance rates. These have come in for sharp criticism recently as providing a legal means of greatly increasing charges on small loans.

Blunt warnings were issued to persons violating the new securities law, "although bona fide personal investments are not subject to registration," said a letter to insurance company executives. "Securities owned by officers, directors or salesmen cannot be sold unless registered."

Land, Insurance Trials Set
Trials involving two statewide issues, insurance and veterans lands are scheduled for Austin district courts.

H. R. Sheffield, Brady land dealer, is to be tried March 5 on nine indictments charging felony theft in connection with the veterans land program.

Paul and Leslie Lowry and D. H. O'Neil of Beaumont will come to trial April 2 on charges of committing perjury in sworn statements to the Insurance Commission. They were connected with three companies placed in receivership in late 1955.

Short Shorts
February 22 has been designated by Governor Shivers as U. S. Army Reserve Day in Texas. The date, Washington's birthday, also is National Guard Day in Texas and the final day of National Defense Week. Public Schools Week has been proclaimed by Governor Shivers as March 5-10. License to operate Girlstown USA has been revoked by the State Department of Public Welfare. But enforcement awaits a study by an advisory board. In question is responsibility of management. Girlstown is a home for wayward girls at Whitesee, Texas. Screening of applicants for its $15,000-a-year directorship is under way by the Texas Commission on Higher Education. Final selection will be made on Feb. 20. Building material and labor costs were 24 per cent lower in 1956 than in 1955. $3, although Texans spent 13 per cent more on construction in 1955 the actual volume of building done was 9 per cent smaller than five years ago. An improved law to protect fresh water reservoirs from pollution has been suggested by the Texas Water Resources Committee. A bill will be submitted to the Texas Legislature in 1957 specifying that any person or firm found guilty of polluting fresh water shall be fined $100 a day for or given 30 days in jail, with each the repeal of 13 anti-labor laws in by a separate offense. J. Earl Butler, chairman of the Veterans Land Board announces acceptance of bids on 14 tracts of land reclaimed by the state under the veterans' loan program. Dr. Frank P. Bartram is the new director of the division of dental health at the State Health Department. He has held a similar position with the Oklahoma Health Department where he worked for 18 years. Texas' draft call for March is for 774 men, a substantial increase over 283 for February, and 283 for January. Cities with the highest percentage of employment, according to latest Texas Employment Commission reports are, in this order: Dallas, Houston, Baytown area, Austin, Wichita Falls, San Antonio, Ft. Worth, El Paso, Longview, Lubbock, Amarillo, San Angelo, Waco, Corpus Christi, Abilene, Pennington, Galveston, and Texarkana. C. E. Williams To Instruct Adult Group

Citizens committees in communities throughout west Texas will hold local conferences during February, March and April to discuss community problems and progress. Twenty-three persons have been designated contact personnel for the local conferences, sponsored by the West Texas Council on Adult Education and the Texas Tech Adult Education program.

Other round tables will be established in communities where citizens express an interest, according to Wendell Williams, executive assistant in the Tech Adult Education program.

Conferences will be held on such subjects as "Youth and Related Family Concerns," "Aging in Our Society," "Schools for Tomorrow," "West Texas Heritage," and "International Relations."

Techniques used in the White House Conference on Education will be employed in the meetings.

The local meetings will be followed by regional conferences in each of the discussion areas mentioned, Williams said. Delegates to the regional conferences then will report to local meetings.

The West Texas Council and Tech Adult Education Program will supply each of the local conference with general questions to help the different communities cover approximately the same material and facilitate the sharing and exchange of ideas at the regional meetings.

At the local conferences, citizens and representatives of community groups will discuss the questions and other factors of interest from the standpoint of their particular communities.

Contact persons for local conferences include:

Mrs. Ruby Cochran, Amarillo; Mrs. Harry Tubbs, Post; Miss Jo Baile, Panhandle; Mrs. Buster Reed, Lamesa; Charles Matthews, Plainview; Mrs. Malcolm Brannon, Sparrow; Mrs. Sweetwater, Sam Hawkes, Crosbyton; Fred Cunningham, Hereford; C. E. Williams, Littlefield; Mrs. Lou Rainey, Levelland; Nathan Ivey, Odessa.

Dr. Robert Hoey, Brownfield; Dr. W. A. Hunt, Big Spring; Otis Spears, Tahoka; Mrs. Alma Holmstrom, Floydada; Lee Varley, Slator; Mrs. Roger Yumclut, Dial; Mrs. F. B. Kingon, Midland; Weldon Skinner, O'Donnell; T. A. Roach, Andrews; Mrs. Car. Stensland, Lubbock.

C. H. Smith Suffers Fatal Heart Attack

Charles H. Smith was fatally stricken with a heart attack at midnight Saturday at his home in the Circle community near Olton. Smith, who was home with his wife, had for several years been in ill health. Mrs. Smith telephoned her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Smith of Olton and reported the death. It was after 4 p. m., before anyone was able to get to the Smith home.
National Guardsmen from Plainview went to pick up the body and were also supposed to get the body of a Latin American infant in Olton and return both bodies to the nearest funeral home which is in Plainview.
However the guardsmen were stranded in the snow after picking up the bodies and no word was heard from them until late Sunday night.
The funeral services for Smith are pending. Survivors are his wife; three sons, Wayne, W. M., and Fred, all of Olton; a daughter, Mrs. J. E. Hucklebee, Olton; and six grandchildren.

Chas. E. Mansell Goes To Korea

Specialist Third Class Charles E. Mansell, 24, whose wife, Karl, lives in Mulshoe, was recently transferred from Okinawa to Korea for duty with the 24th Infantry Division.
Mansell was reassigned when his former unit, the 75th Regimental Combat Team on Okinawa, was deactivated.
He is now a supply clerk in the division's 35th Regiment. Specialist Mansell, a former student at Long Beach (Calif.) City College, entered the Army in April 1953 and arrived in the Far East last November.

erimmune serum at the discretion of the physician.

7. Smallpox (Variola) — Isolate until patient is free of all crusts with minimum isolation period of 4 weeks. Contacts should be isolated for a minimum of 20 days unless vaccinated.

8. Tuberculosis — Isolation should continue as long as a positive sputum is reported.

9. Typhoid Fever — Patients with typhoid fever must have rigorous isolation for a minimum of 1 week after temperature has been normal and following 2 consecutive negative stool cultures of feces and preferably of urine. These cultures should be taken 24 hours apart. Contacts should begin active immunization immediately and food handlers isolated for a minimum of 2 weeks and released only after 2 successive stool cultures are negative.

10. Epidemic Meningitis — Isolation should be continued for a minimum of 7 days following the beginning of treatment but continued longer at the discretion of the physician. It is possible however, that acute cases of epidemic meningitis are not responsible for spreading the disease and is possible that carriers play the major roll in the propagation of this disease. At the discretion of the physician it may be well to use some oral form of antibiotic therapy on contacts.

11. Mumps (Epidemic parotitis) — Isolation should be continued for 2 weeks from the beginning of symptoms or 1 week after the swelling has disappeared.

12. Poliomyelitis — Isolation should continue for a minimum of 2 weeks and preferably 3 weeks following the onset of fever. Child contacts, food handlers, and those working with children should be isolated for a minimum of 10 and preferably 14 days.

13. Ringworm of the Scalp — Children with this affection should be kept from school until active treatment has begun and may be allowed to remain in school while continuing treatment and upon obtaining a weekly certificate from the attending physician that the patient is under treatment. During this time a cap must be worn at all times.

14. Ringworm of the Skin — Exclude from school until lesions are healed. If the lesions are those of the feet only, exclude from showers and gymnasiums.

15. Scabies — Exclude from school until healed.

16. Impetigo — Exclude from school until all lesions are healed.

School Board Adopts Code For Control Of Disease

The Littlefield Independent School Board recently asked the School Community Health Council to draw up and present a uniform set of rules and regulations for the control of communicable childhood diseases.

The council, composed of laymen and professional men of the community, under the chairmanship of Dr. Wm. Orr, compiled the following rules, and revised existing rules to meet present needs.

The rules and regulations are stated below:

1. Children Pox — Isolate patient 10 days or until crusts are gone.
2. Diphtheria — Isolate patient for minimum of 2 weeks after the beginning of convalescence and continue isolation until 2 negative throat cultures 24 hours apart are obtained. No isolation of contacts is necessary if immunized; suggest booster dose to any child contacts.
3. German Measles (Rubella) — Isolate until rash is clear. This usually probably be until the 5th day after onset.
4. Measles (Rubella) — Has been shown by clinical study that isolation is not necessary after 48 hours after the temperature becomes normal; however, it would be wise to isolate all patients for a minimum of 5 days after temperature returns to normal.
5. Scarlet Fever (Scarlatina) and Strep Throat — Isolation of scarlet fever and proven cases of strep throat should be for 3 weeks or as approved by the attending physician, be administered some oral form of antibiotic therapy.

His Favorite Investment!

"It's the wisest motor car investment I ever made!"
"I've owned a great many makes through the years, but Cadillac wins my vote as the finest investment of them all."
"In my book, it is the best dollar investment on the highway today!"

... and its dependability is truly extraordinary.

And, finally, there is the economy that comes from Cadillac's great value. In resale markets all across the land, the Cadillac car traditionally returns a higher percentage of its original cost than any other automobile built in America.

And consider what generous dividends Cadillac owners receive from their investments.

... Cadillac's superlative beauty and luxury ... Cadillac's magnificent performance and comfort ... and Cadillac's wonderful reputation among the world's motorists.

We suggest that you pay us a visit soon and investigate the latest and finest Cadillac investment of them all.

We have the car ... and the keys ... and the facts — and we'll be happy to give you all three at any time. Why not make it today?
