Scout Week Will Be Observed In Amherst With A Banquet Tonight; Church Sunday

Funeral Services Held Monday For Mrs. Nuttall

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist church at Milsap, for Mrs. Ardena Nuttall, age 71, who passed away at South Plains Co-Op Hospital at Amherst Saturday, February 2. She suffered a stroke of paralysis, and was hospitalized only two days before she passed away.

Mrs. Nuttall was born September 18, 1880. She came to Amherst about eight months ago, to make her home with her son Nolan Nuttall and family. She was a pioneer resident of Milsap.

The body was shipped by rail to Weatherford, Sunday afternoon, to the M. L. Payne Funeral Home at Amherst where services were held.

Other survivors and a more complete obituary will be printed in the Sunday issue of the Leader.

GENTLEMEN ON ICE

MONTREAL, (AP)—Players in the National Hockey League this season are playing like little gentlemen. At least the NHL statistics indicate as much. At the one-third mark of play there were 166 minutes less in penalties this season as compared to last. After the first 70 games of the schedule last year there was a total of 1401 minutes in penalties meted out to six teams. For the same number of contests this season there was a total of only 1235 minutes for the same number of clubs.

Amherst Fire Department Enjoy Banquet

The annual fireman's banquet for members of the Amherst fire department was given last Tuesday night, at 7 p.m. held in the American Legion Hall. Hosts for the occasion were the city officials of Amherst.

Members of the Sod House Home Demonstration club prepared and served the delicious chicken supper with all the trimmings. Table decorations were unique and clever miniature fire trucks complete with hose and ladders.

Following the banquet, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McQueen who are moving to Olton, were presented with an all wool blanket by the fire boys. He has served as fire chief for the past year.

Amherst Paving Project Underway

Grading and paving of approximately 15 to 20 blocks of Amherst streets is now in progress and should be completed in the next few weeks. The caliche has been hauled in and the streets have been graded, and work is almost completed for black topping.

Using an entirely-civilian squad, Texas Tech was one of two Border Conference schools to continue football through World War II. New Mexico, now in the Mountain States, was the other.

In observance of Boy Scout Week, February 6-12, Amherst troop 75 will have a banquet tonight (Thursday), in the dining room of the First Baptist church.

Each member will bring a covered dish. The menu will consist of baked ham, potatoes, vegetables, salad, ice cream, cake and pie.

The scouts are in charge of the arrangements of the banquet.

A demonstration by the scouts will be given on first aid.

On Sunday, February 10, the group will attend both Sunday school and church services in a body.

Dr. T. L. Slemmons is scout leader. The scouts include Mike Duffy, Joe Peterman, George Caberra, Senn Slemmons, Eddie Mac Foust, Bill Adams, James Rankin, Glen Vaughn and Hudson Cantrell.

Earth Residence Damaged By Fire

The $17,000 home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hudson of near Earth was badly damaged by fire last Tuesday evening, January 19, about 5:50 o'clock.

The blaze is said to have originated in the kitchen and had gotten a good headway, before Mrs. Hudson discovered the fire when she returned home from Earth.

The Earth fire department was called and due to the fact that the Hudson residence is outside of the city limits the fire truck carried three loads (1500 gallons), of water before the fire was smothered.

Littlefield Fire department sent a truck to assist, but the fire was extinguished on its arrival.

Mrs. Hudson was admitted to the South Plains Co-Op hospital suffering from shock, and possibly flu. She is improved, but plans to remain in the hospital for several days treatment.

Vows Exchanged By Ann Nix and Byron Gunter In Church Ceremony

Mrs. Lee Hemphill and her daughter Rosa Lee, attended the wedding of Mrs. Hemphill's niece Miss Ann Nix daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nix of Seminole and Byron M. Gunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gunter of Enochs, which took place at the First Methodist Church at Seminole, Friday evening, February 1, at 7:30 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's great uncle, Rev. J. Frank Nix, of Lubbock, a retired Baptist minister.

Miss Rosa Lee Hemphill furnished organ music for her cousin's wedding, and accompanied Miss Ruth Carpenter as she sang "Because," Los Camaradas sweet-heart song and "The Lord's Prayer."

Vows were exchanged before an archway of greenery with background of potted palms, flanked by baskets of gladioli and candelabra of either side.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory duchess satin gown with an illusion yoke with a design in seed pearls which encircled the neckline. The full skirt terminated in a chapel-length train. The finger-tip veil was attached to a Dutch cap ornamented with seed pearls. The bride wore her mother's heirloom diamond earrings. She carried white orchids on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Judy Rice of Shallowater attended her niece as matron of honor. Misses Beth Walker of Hobbs, N. M., Anna Margaret Gunter of Enochs, sister of the groom, Nova Barnes of Weatherford and Peggy Davenport of Lakeview served as bridesmaids. They wore azure blue satin, fashioned similar to the bridal gown and wore crownless picture hats and short mitts of identical satin. They wore single strands of pearls and pearl earrings, and carried blue and white flowers.

Betty Oswald of Seminole and Don Nix of Seminole, brother of the bride, carried the candles.

Dick Roark of Sudan was best man. Ushers were Brady Beedy of Lubbock, Bill Cunningham of Farmington, N. M., Paul Woods of Cisco and Ted Schuler of Seminole.

A reception was held in the church parlor. A white imported linen cloth, trimmed in blue, covered the table which bore a single ring wedding cake carrying out the same color theme. Candelabra were placed at either side of baskets of gladioli at the entrance.

After a trip to New Orleans where they will attend Mardi Gras, the couple will be at home in Lubbock. The bride chose for traveling a red gabardine suit with gray and red accessories and a carnation corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gunter are students at Tech. The bride is a member of Las Vivarachas social club and Mr. Gunter is a member of Los Camaradas club. They are both juniors.

Approximately 200 guests were present from Hobbs, Lubbock, Enochs, Denver City, Lovington, and Littlefield.

Region Nine Of Girl Scouts To Observe 40th Anniversary Here

At a meeting of Girl Scout leaders, held Tuesday morning, plans were made for regional nine meeting of Girl Scouts, to be held at the local Scout House, March 11, in observance of the 40th anniversary of Girl Scout Roundup.

It was announced that an outstanding Girl Scout official from the Regional office in Dallas will be present for the meeting, and will lead in discussions on Girl Scout work.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. and will continue to 3:30 in the afternoon. Each member is to bring a box lunch. A birthday cake will be served by the local group. Approximately 50 are expected to attend.

At the meeting held Tuesday morning, Mrs. Mackey Greer was appointed to work with Nelson Naylor, president of Lamb County Council of Girl Scouts, to see that all committees recently appointed to get the Scout House in readiness for the regional meeting, are functioning.

The group also voted to turn one room of the Scout House over to the two P.T.A. organizations to be used for a nursery during P.T.A. meetings.

confusing answers are given when guests attempt to guess spice scents with their eyes closed. Keep a tally of the answers and give a little prize to your spiciest guest. A string of garlic bulbs or a can of cocoa are appropriate gifts for the winner.

All young people enjoy intrigue. Fortunes always will perk up a crowd, so make sure you have a game of fortunes on Valentine's Day. You can play fortune teller yourself with a paperweight "crystal" ball and phony cards or read the palms of the guests. If this seems like a lot of trouble, bury little fortunes in a cake or in a centerpiece. A glass bowl or other container can hold the little papers. Red ribbons can go from each fortune to a plate.

Make the fortunes apply to present company, if possible. Don't write far-fetched little predictions such as "you'll take a journey around the world." Such things as "Is it true that Mary loves you?" or "Johnny has his eyes peeled for a redhead" will put the crowd in

Brownie Troop 13 Have Special Birthday Party

Brownie Troop 13 of Girl Scouts enjoyed a delightful meeting and joint birthday celebration of the members who have birthdays during the months of December, January and February.

The business session was presided over by Kay Bartlett, president, with Jane Rumbach, acting as secretary, in the absence of the regular secretary. Plans for a Valentine party to be held February 13 at the Scout House was made.

A large birthday cake was placed on the table, and as the girls who were having birthdays lit a candle and placed it on the cake—the entire group sang happy birthday.

Those celebrating birthdays were Frances Rogers, Charlotte Robison, Jane Hall, Mary Beth Bridwell, and Sharron Irwin.

Cake and cold drinks were served to the group.

Troop leaders are Mrs. Frank Rogers and Mrs. William Rumbach.

Pastor Teaching Bible Lesson At WSCS Meet

The Woman's Society of Christian service of the First Methodist church met Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Fellowship room of the church for Bible study.

Mrs. W. H. Wommack in charge of arrangements for the study, introduced Rev. Frank Beauchamp, pastor, who gave the first of a series of studies from the book of Acts. The study will be continued each week, until the Book is completed, and Rev. Beauchamp will teach the lesson each week. It was announced.

During a brief business session, Mrs. W. C. Cannon announced that a regular zone meeting will be held at Maple, Friday, February 15, for an all day session. Each member is to take a sack lunch. Coffee or cokes will be served.

Those attending the meeting Monday morning, included Mesdames W. C. Cannon, Dick Edwards, Frank Beauchamp, Ben Joplin, H. W. Johnson, M. H. Wommack, Jack Wingo, M. P. Reid, J. E. McGee, Ben Davis, J. G. Glenn, J. Young, Van Clark, Roy Wade, and W. H. Petty and a guest, Miss Dixie Durfee of Fort Worth, a sister to Mrs. Glenn.

B. & P. WMU Of First Baptist Church Hold First Meeting Tuesday

Members of the Business and Professional Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church at Amherst, held their first meeting last Tuesday night in the church auditorium.

Members of the Lottie Moon circle met with the group and presented a Royal Service program.

The group voted to meet the first Tuesday night of each month.

Charter members include Mrs. Ted Long, Miss Chloe Harris, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Wilson.

a gleeful mood—particularly if there is a Mary and Johnny present, and if you've had the foresight to try to steer them to the little red ribbons which apply to them.

Place indicators can be made out of little gelatin heart molds. These can be used either for dessert or salad, depending on the flavor you use—tomato for salad, strawberry, raspberry or cherry for dessert. The name of the guest can be written in mayonnaise (if salad) or whipped cream (if dessert) across the top of the gelatin heart.

Party foods such as heart-shaped sandwiches and chicken salad or the heartier foods such as spaghetti, frankfurters, beans or chicken a la king will appeal to hungry guests. It is seldom a problem to feed the gang, if you give them enough to eat.

Dart-a-heart is a good game. Take a large heart and pin it up on a bulletin board or over a regular dart board. Make a circle in the center and label it 25—if you like make another and label it fifteen, next five and one nearest the edge can be minus 5. First score of 100 wins.

If you want to give the kids something to wear, make little hearts with a ribbon looped through. Boys can dangle these from their lapels, and girls can hang one little heart from each ear.

Designer 14, Wins Renown In Italy

SHE'S GOT BIG IDEAS—Little Gigliola, 14-year-old Italian dress designer, stands on a chair to drape her model.

By JAMES E. PARLATORE
AP Newsfeatures

ROME—An Italian teen-ager is winning an international reputation as a fashionable dress designer.

In fact the first creation of grey-eyed, 14-year-old Gigliola Fontana was purchased by Queen Narriman of Egypt.

Gigliola—her name means "Lily" in English—is tucked away in boarding school most of the year. But when she isn't doing school work she spends her spare time sketching dress designs which she mails to her mother, Zoe Montana, a famous Italian designer.

The little designer—who stands all of five feet—first began sending her mother fashion ideas about two years ago. At first Mrs. Fontana disregarded them. Then she decided to try one.

"It was a success," Mrs. Fontana said.

"Oh, it was beautiful," Gigliola put in. "It was rose and grey, with a low-cut bodice and a big diamond right in the middle."

"If I tried to carry out all her ideas I would need the Colosseum for an atelier and the fortune of an East Indian maharajah," her mother laughed.

Will she study fashion designing? "She must become a chartered accountant before she enters this business," her mother says. "I want Gigliola to study languages and accountancy so she can become a sound administrator."

Her studies include four languages now.

Mrs. Hector Mackay Gives Devotional At Presbyterian Meeting

Mrs. Hector Mackay gave an interesting devotional at a meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary held in the basement of the First Presbyterian church Monday afternoon, when the group met for a regular monthly business session. She discussed foreign and home missions.

Mrs. E. A. Bills, president of the organization, presided during the business meeting. Announcement was made of the group meetings to be held next week. Group number one will meet in the home of Mrs. J. D. Hagler, at 3:30 o'clock. Group number two is being postponed until Tuesday evening, as the Chamber of Commerce banquet conflicts with the regular meeting time, Monday night. The group will meet in the home of Mrs. O. P. Wilemon.

Attending the meeting Monday afternoon were Mesdames Ira E. Woods, J. B. McShan, Mackey Greer, Mancel Hall, J. E. Hagler, O. P. Wilemon, B. W. Armistead, Loyd Neeley, E. A. Bills, Hector Mackay, A. C. Chesher, E. C. Rodgers and Misses Erna Douglas and Lula Hubbard.

Negro Trio Present Delightful Concert Here Saturday Night

The second of a series of three concerts presented by Lamb County Mutual Concert Association, held Saturday night in the new High school auditorium was well attended, and proved to be a most enjoyable affair despite the fact that one of the most severe sand storms of 1952 was raging at the time.

John Anglin, negro tenor, Martha Flowers, negro soprano and Kelley Wyatt, negro pianist, presented the joint concert.

The next and final concert of the season will be held here Thursday night, March 6, with the Demitasse players presenting three delightful one-act plays comprising a program everyone will enjoy.

Vacationing At St. Petersburg, Fla.

A card was received Monday from Mrs. L. T. Green, stating that she and Mr. Green had arrived at St. Petersburg, Florida and that they are having a wonderful time. She also added that Senator Taft was to make a political speech last Friday, but that it had to be called off, due to a rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Green left here the latter part of January and plan to spend several weeks in Florida.

Pet Coifs for Spring

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

Spring hairdos will take their cues from the barnyard and kennel. The now-popular poodle and pony-tail coifs will see even greater popularity with warmer breezes, hairdressers predict.

But there is a solution for girls who have already said "poof" to their doxy hairdos. They can go from a poodle coif to a pony-tail arrangement in a matter of seconds. It's all done with hair pieces, among which are the "pony-pony," a softly braided hair-tail coif, and the "pony-poodle," a curly pony-tail hair piece, especially designed to complement out-grown poodle hairdos.

These little hair pieces, designed by Joseph Fleischer, a girl over the transition from poodle to pony-tail, are the greatest of ease. Girls who care for when wearing activities such as swimming and tennis, can sport tall hair piece after dark. They are designed of real hair, match your own and attached with a minimum of effort.

Rubber bands up and been the conventional way to anchor the pony tail. But hair pieces such as the "pony-pony" are available for the girl. These are being shown in designs and metals in a number of designs.

PHONY-PONY—A new twist on the pony tail hairdo is this softly braided hair piece for extra glamor. Designed by Joseph Fleischer.

POONY-POODLE—Frothy hairdo designed to complement poodle to the pony coiffure.

Information For Veterans

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I am attending school under the GI Bill, and I have just been awarded disability compensation by the VA. Will my compensation payments reduce the amount of subsistence payments I am getting as a GI Bill trainee?

A. No. Your disability compensation payments have no effect whatsoever on the amount of subsistence allowance you are receiving.

Q. May I obtain a GI business loan to expand a business in which I am already engaged? Or must the business loan be used to enter a new business only?

A. The loan may be used in either way—to expand an existing legitimate business venture, or to start a new enterprise.

Q. I am on active duty in the Navy, and I have a GI term policy in force under waiver of premiums. How do I pick up my insurance again, once I am discharged?

A. You must pay the required premium to the Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D. C., within 120 days after your release from active service. The sooner you pay the premium, the better; that way you guard against any chance of your policy lapsing.

Q. How much military service must a veteran have had, in order to qualify for a non-service-connected pension?

A. He must have served for at least 90 days, part of which was Certified seed, the sorghum seed outlook for the 1952 planting will be about 20 percent less than last year, he said.

In addition to the shortage existing in Texas, Dr. Kramer said, the Arizona sorghum seed output was also down, due to increasing acreage in cotton there last year.

Also states in the Midwest had poor sorghum crops in 1951, which tend to cut down on the amount of seed available by planting time.

However, Dr. Kramer said, there will be some 4,000,000 pounds of newer varieties of certified seed available this year. These new varieties have higher yields per acre and superior combining add varieties.

Death Still Lurks In Devil's Forest

By WILLY M. HORBACH

AP Newsfeatures

VOSENACK, Germany—Seven years after the war, danger and death still shadow the daily life of inhabitants of this little Huertgen forest village in the Eifel mountains, near the Belgian border.

For war at its fiercest passed this way. Ask any American GI or German soldier who survived the battles of the Huertgen forest. And even now hidden mines, dud bombs and other explosives are found by the score in the region.

When the Allied forces crossed the German border near Aachen in the fall of 1944, Germany hurled most of her remaining troops in the West against the attacker. In the hilly woodlands of the Eifel, backed by the armored forest of the Siegfried Line, the German Wehrmacht checked the American advance.

Bloody weeks of hand-to-hand fighting, murderous artillery barrages and air bombardment followed. Every inch of the "Huertgenwald"—soon called the Devil's Forest by battle-tired, desperate and exhausted GIs—was soaked with blood.

In the twilight of these once-beautiful woods 50,000 American and German soldiers lost their lives. And even now farmers, lumberjacks, and members of mine-clearing squads are being killed or crippled by hidden explosives.

Most dangerous of all is the Wild Boar Ridge, northeast of Vossenack. It is still "off limits" and may be entered only by the mine squads. Several thousand mines have been found here in the last few months, most of them made of plastics to evade the searching "feeler" of the mine detector.

Wild Boar Ridge still looks like it had been hit by a string of atomic bombs. No tree, no blade of grass was spared the fury of the murderous battle. Torn tree trunks loom against a grey, cloudy sky, typical for this region, their branches twisted to haunting images of the hands of fallen soldiers.

Reconstruction proved almost impossible. Only one part of the Devil's Forest, the Germeter Ridge, has been cleared and reconverted to farmland for a group of settlers brought there by the government. So extensive is the damage to the Eifel forests that the government plans to build a factory just for the production of tar, the wood for it being taken from the destroyed trees.

More than 123,000 persons inhabited the Huertgen Kreis (county) before the war. In 1945 only 4,000 were left. Only 10 per cent of its buildings remained intact, most others were destroyed completely. Damage to private housing property runs up to 72 million dollars. One third of the farmland was left waste.

within an actual war period or after June 27, 1950, and must have been discharged under other than dishonorable conditions. The 90-day minimum service requirement is waived for those who served less than that period of time and were discharged for a service-connected disability.

Elmer Tarbox, halfback on Texas Tech's team that went to the 1939 Cotton Bowl, has been named to the three-member Board of Aviation for Lubbock.

Ninth among the nation's point-after-touchdown leaders, Texas Tech's Vernon (Punk) Whitaker played defensive guard for the Red Raiders. At Batesville, Miss., High School, he was all-regional end his junior year and all-state honorable mention fullback his senior season.
