edly and dumped what oldtimers said was "the worst they had seen" on the area, in less than 24 hours.

Estimations of the moisture contained in the snow ranged from 1.37 to over two inches. Farmers, especially those on dryland places, are expected to profit greatly from the snow.

"Dryland farms that were covered by the snowfall are in the best shape that I've seen," said County Agent Bill Kimbrough. This will also help those on irrigated farms because it will slow up their watering until late," he continued.

Kimbrough went on to say that the snowfall was not as heavy to the north and west of the city as in other places.

A Lamb County Electric Co-op spokesman said that several lines were put out of commission by the storm and one pole was broken, but he estimated the damage overall as "not extensive."

Service, according to the source was back to capacity by 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Area school children took a holiday Tuesday as school officials decided that traveling was too hazardous. Schools at Olton, Spade, Littlefield, and Whithart were excused while classes at Sudan and Amherst were conducted as usual.

Levelland experienced its heaviest snowfall on record with 19 inches fall, eight coming in a four-hour period early Monday. Lubbock's 14 inches were the most ever recorded in a day by the weather bureau there.

The sun, which came out late Tuesday morning, turned Littlefield streets into rushing streams of snow.

A group of Littlefield businessmen, along with city employees, rushed equipment to Littlefield school early Tuesday to clear the layers of snow.

George Marvin Williams

Area Student Victim

By David H. Penn

"I saw the blinking red lights but I don't think Jimmy saw them. We hollered, but it was too late."

Too late... one boy was killed and four others injured, two of them seriously.

What started out as a pleasure ride turned into a nightmare for Amherst, and especially for five families of that community.

An automobile in which five Amherst High School students were riding was struck by a freight train at the depot crossing in Littlefield Tuesday night. Time of the accident was set at 8:38 p.m.

George Marvin Williams, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wart Williams, died about an hour later in the emergency room of Medical Arts Clinic-Hospital where he had been taken after the accident.

Damages Reach $1700 In Three Wrecks

Seven Cars Pileup

Seven vehicles became involved in three separate accidents but at almost the same spot Monday afternoon.

The results were hospitalization of one of the drivers, a total of approximately $1700 in damages and four tickets for a variety of traffic violations.

Dense smoke and snowy roads one half mile south of town, on Highway 84 cut the visibility to zero and to some extent was blamed for the accidents. All the vehicles involved were traveling southeast.

About 2:15 Jesse Frank Ford, Jr. Hereford, entered the smoke screen and came upon a pickup driving a slow rate of speed. Ford applied his brakes, skidded sideways and stopped broadside on the highway.

Jesse Marvin Morris, Lubbock driving a dump truck entered the smoke area and upon seeing the Ford vehicle, applied his brakes, but the right front fender of the truck hit the right rear of Ford's car. The truck bounced off and ended up broadside on the highway.

Robert Murdock, Littlefield, also driving a truck entered the smoke. He came upon the Morris truck broadside in the road, applied his brakes and skidded into the truck. Murdock's truck came to rest in a hard ditch, but he drove it a short way on down the highway.

The two vehicles on the highway were removed to the ditch to avoid further accidents. About 10 minutes later, Kenneth Peter-

School To Have Class Saturday

In order to make up the lost day of school this week, superintendent Glenn Reeves has announced that the school will be conducted Saturday from 8:30 to 12:30. A full day's schedule will be executed with time of each subject shortened.

Buses will run 15 minutes early... no dinner will be served at noon.

This is the first day of school missed by Littlefield schools since 1956, and the Saturday make-up will keep the schools on schedule for closing this spring.

Reeves also expressed his thanks and appreciation to the townspeople for clearing snow around the school, to the persons who helped get the children home Monday and others who helped get the buses out of snow banks.

Crayton Fined, Gets Jail Term

Jury session of County Court began Monday with the hearing of one case. The jury, with B. W. Neumann as foreman, found Fonda Crayton guilty of transporting liquor and vodka.

Crayton was fined $1000 and given 120 days in jail. The jury deliberated for two hours before returning the guilty verdict. The offense was committed on January 13, 1961.

Warning Issued To Area Hunters

Due to the increased migration of coyotes into this area, George White has contracted the services of a federal man to exterminate the coyotes on his ranch 14 miles southwest of Littlefield.

The coyotes will be killed with cyanide bombs. The coyote sniffs the lure and the bomb fires into his face with the deadly gas, killing it instantly.

Although White has "no trespassing" signs posted around his ranch, he is fearful that someone will trip one of the guns accidentally and be killed. He therefore warns everyone to please heed the signs in the interest of avoiding personal injury or death.

Winner Named In Ad Contest

Mrs. E. C. Bellar, Rt. 1, Sudan, was the winner of this week's Ad Rime contest.

Mrs. Bellar found the hidden slogan, "Directory firms want all customers to become friends" and her winning Ad Rime was "Homey friendly local stores: Offer bargains by the score."

Mrs. Bellar's Ad Rime receives the $10 weekly prize and goes into the file along with other previous winners. She is now eligible to compete in the grand prize of $50 to be given at the end of the contest.

Auto Tag Sales 'Above Average'

AMHERST - Alma Lora Mueller and Joe Don Parrott, Sudan, exchanged wedding vows in the home of her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Chatwell, Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

The twilight, double ring ceremony was read by Doyle Chapin, pastor of the Sudan Church of Christ, before an improvised altar decorated with pink carnations and white snowflakes.

Mrs. Parrott, a senior at Sudan High School is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Mueller, Sudan. The groom, who is serving in the air force, is the son of Mrs. C. L. Purmer, Sudan, and Mr. Earl C. Parrott, Littlefield.

The bride chose a gown of white nylon lace fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves, fitted bodice and a gathered street length skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white ribbon. A single strand of cultured pearls and pearlized pumps completed her costume.

The groom's sister and brother, Earlene Parrott and Glen Parrott, Sudan, served as maid of honor and best man.

James Newman sang "Whither Thou Goest" accompanied by Fay Scott who played Lohengrin Bridal Chorus, also.

The groom will have a month's leave before overseas duty. After a short trip to Ruidoso, they are in Sudan where the bride will complete school.

A reception followed the ceremony with Mrs. Wesley Pizar, Mrs. B. Hughes and Miss Loretta Burnett assisting with hospitalities.

Witness Hear Leaders Talk

Jehovah's Witnesses' 26-congregation meet at Levelland was concluded Sunday when the District Overseer, R. L. Anderson, spoke on the subject, "Is God Interested in the Affairs of Men?"

"Men may put forth many reasons," Anderson said, "to argue that God is not interested in the affairs of men, but the fulfilled Bible prophecies abound with catastrophes through which God provided rescue for those who believed and obeyed Him."

Anderson in speaking to the 805 persons assembled said, "It is self-evident when God warns by prophecy, as in our day, of a wickedness from the earth, the course of wisdom is to heed that warning and be among those who benefit from God's present-day interest in men."

The Texas-New Mexico Oklahoma circuit assembly carried the theme "Be Taught by Jehovah."

R. H. Smith, Overseer of Texas Circuit No. 9, in his closing talk, "Be Swift to Hear—Slow About Speaking," said, "To be swift to hear Jehovah's counsel from His Word the Bible is the only sure way for erring man to safely direct his steps in the future."

The presiding minister of the Littlefield Congregation, Loyd Lowery, said, "For practical purposes all the circuits in the United States are being reduced in size from 16 to 18 congregations, making a total of 34 new circuits. This arrangement will aid in the better teaching and training for Jehovah's Witnesses. This will enable the circuit overseer to his weekly visits to each congregation about every four months instead of the heretofore six month visits."

Town & Country

appetizer and they really get down to business by the time the Olton show comes off.
Olton's show is this Friday and Saturday, and I imagine they'll have a big one as usual.

I've only seen three Lamb County shows and I can honestly say that this year's was the biggest and the best. All of the show officials are to be congratulated on the improved facilities and the fine show in general.
Death Trap 84 keeps Lamb County at the top of the South Plains accident and death record. A report from Lubbock this past week shows that we're on top of the heap with three deaths to lead in that department for the 20 county South Plains area.
Lamb ranks third in amount of accidents with 12, second in third in property damage with $9,625.

These statistics are for the first month of the year. We can only hope that "death trap 84" will soon be eliminated with the proposed four-lane highway.

This "1&-1" (Yankee Morancz called me during the big snow and asked if I had left the country yet! I've been expecting him to let one of our dusters run him out of the south, now he's expecting the many snows (they love them up north) to run us bonafide rebels out of the south. Old Wad knows how to get the snow cleaned up, though.

Jack Wattenbarger brought by an interesting little article this week, written from "Facts for Farmers."

ADJUSTMENT TO EQUAL THE RUSSIANS. "We have heard much in recent months of what we should do to be equal to Russia. Here is what we would have to do to be equal:

We would need to reduce steel production by 60 per cent, petroleum production by 66 per cent, the production of electric motors by 95 per cent, and our hydroelectric plants by 66 per cent. We would also need to reduce natural gas consumption by 90 per cent.
In addition, we would need to destroy 14 out of 15 miles of pavement, 2 out of 3 miles of mainline railroad track, 8 out of 10 ship and 19 out of 20 cars and trucks but this is not all. We would need to destroy 40 million TV sets, jerk out 9 out of 10 telephones, destroy 7 out of 10 houses, reduce living standards by 75 per cent, and put 60 million people back on the farm."

Then there was the Texan who wrote a check . . . and the bank bounced!

HUMILITY - a haughty lawyer once asked a sterling old farmer, "Why don't you hold up your head in the world as I do? I bow my head neither before God nor man." "Squire", replied the farmer, "see that field of grain? Only those heads that are empty stand upright. Those that are well filled are the ones that bow low." - Capper's Weekly.

NOTE TO RHEA BRADLEY five or six reports have come in about how fast and well the Lamb County Highway Dept. got the snow cleared from the Lubbock highway. I don't know why anyone would go to Lubbock, but since they did, they appreciated getting back to Lamb County's highway, which was cleared of snow.

Love was taken to a Lubbock hospital early Wednesday morning with possible cerebral injury. Attendants at Littlefield Hospital said he was in critical condition. A specialist was scheduled to examine him early Wednesday morning.

Cox and Brown were both listed in satisfactory condition at Littlefield Hospital Wednesday morning.

"We were just riding around and left Amherst about 8:15 to drive out and see if Charles Collins wanted to go with us. He didn't want to go and we left his house about 8:30 and came to Littlefield", Brown said.

"I was riding up front with Jimmy Nix, who was driving, and in the back were Williams on the left, Cox in the middle and Love on the right", he continued. "I saw the blinking lights but I don't think the driver did."

After I looked and saw the train, I don't remember what happened after that," Brown concluded. He said he feels OK but a little sore.

Cox said, "I saw the blinking red lights but I don't think Jimmy saw them. We hollered, but it was too late. I remember seeing the train and the next thing I remember was when a cop asked me if I was in the wreck."

"We weren't going very fast but when Nix finally saw the train he gunned the car in an attempt to get across the tracks." He concluded. He said he felt fine but was sore.

The car was struck at the left rear wheel and knocked about 75 yards from the point of impact coming to rest facing in the opposite direction of travel. The left side of the car was demolished by the impact.

Cecil Tefferiteller, train engineer from Slaton, and W. V. Brake, brakeman also of Slaton, told investigating officers they saw the car but couldn't do anything about it. The train was traveling 59 miles per hour according to the speed tape in the engine.

The auto was going south across the tracks and the train was westbound.
Funeral services for the Williams youth have been set for 2:30 this afternoon in the Amherst School auditorium with Payne Funeral Home in charge.

He is survived by his parents, one sister, Wyletta of the home, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dutton of Amherst. School officials said Williams was very active in school activities and in church work. He had been in FFA work for four

Official Memorandum

by
PRICE DANIEL
Governor of Texas

AUSTIN, TEXAS

GREETINGS:

The Future Farmers of America Organization is playing an outstanding role in assuring the future progress and prosperity of our State and Nation.

Despite the great abundance of agricultural products today, it is vital to our well-being that we train skilled farmers and ranchers to provide a plentiful supply of food products in years to come.

The FFA is composed of boys who are studying vocational agriculture in the public schools in preparation for careers in farming, ranching and related fields. In studying the science of agriculture, these students are contributing to the welfare of all citizens.

Texas now has 900 active FFA chapters with over 36,000 active members and more than a quarter of a million former members. During the past 32 years the Texas Association, FFA, has performed valuable services to our State by developing leadership, encouraging cooperation, promoting good citizenship, teaching sound methods of farming, and inspiring patriotism among its members.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of February 18-25, 1961, as FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA WEEK in Texas, and urge all citizens to give recognition and encouragement to these young men who are preparing for careers in agriculture.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 1st day of Jan., 1961.

Seeks Cost-Depletion Income Tax Allowance

Farmer Files Water Test Case

A Floyd County farmer has filed a law suit against the Federal Government which, if he wins, could pave the way for millions of dollars in tax savings for High Plains farmers.

The suit seeks a cost-depletion income-tax allowance on underground water used for irrigation farming.

It would establish his right to an income-tax deduction based on the fact that irrigation results in using up the underground water. This is referred to by tax people as a cost-depletion income-tax allowance.

Actually, this is a test case sponsored by the High Plains Under-Underground Water Conservation District which since 1954, has been seeking a cost-depletion allowance for area landowners.

The suit was filed in U. S. District Court here Tuesday by attorneys, George W. McCleskey, Lubbock, J. Chrys Dougherty, Austin, and Edwin L. Kahn, Washington D. C. on behalf of Marvin and Mildred Shurbet, Rt. 1, Petersburg, Texas.

As explained by attorneys, the suit will prove that ground water under the High Plains of Texas is a natural deposit and is being exhausted just as oil, gas, gold or any other natural deposit, and should come under The Federal law allowing an income-tax deduction for depletion of other resources.

Plaintiffs contend that property owners who can establish an actual cost of underground water beneath their land and who are using the water from storage to produce income should be entitled to deduct the cost of such water as it is exhausted.

If Shurbet and the Water District win, the ruling growing out of the suit would benefit everyone with a similar set of circumstances. The deduction allowance being sought by Shurbet will be for the tax year 1959 and will amount to only about $300.00. The size of the farm, the amount paid for water, the amount of the underground water in storage—all these and many other factors could be involved and the $300 figure certainly would not hold true in each case.

But, using the 1300 as an average, solely for the sake of figuring, that would be a total of $36,000.00 annually which would be pumped back into the area economy. Many farmers might have a greater deduction coming, many

In 47 counties of the Panhandle and southern High Plains there are in round numbers, some 20,000 50,000 wells to irrigate 5,000,000 acres of land.

The High Plains Water District is convinced that success in this law suit will result in better water conservation practices. They believe tax calculations make a taxpayer conscious of the real value of his water and therefore anxious to use it to the best advantage.

The depletion allowance which is being claimed in this suit is based upon cost of the underground water and not upon any percentage calculation such as is usually true in the oil industry.

The suit will contend that "when a landowner depletes his water supply he has exhausted a portion of his capital investment, and to the extent that such a capital asset has been depleted in the production of income he should clearly come within the principles of law applicable to allowance of deduction for depletion."

Section 611 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended in 1954, states "in the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber there shall be allowed as a deduction in computing taxable income a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements according to the peculiar conditions in each case, such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate."

California Is Testing Ground

Union's Aim: Organizing Nation's Farm Laborers

By John Petty
Press Feature Writer

"I don't give a damn what happens to farmers, I'm only interested in organizing the farm workers."

Making this statement was Norman Smith, the unionist selected by the AFL-CIO in mid 1959 to head a drive in the lush California farming region to organize farm laborers and, thus, make another inroad for unionism into the American economy.

California, in 1961, will be the testing grounds for the union's organizing drive, the editor of the Farm-Quarterly, Grant Cannon, says in an article in the current issue of that magazine.

"Workers will be organized," says Cannon, "and work gangs will be recruited to go through picket lines. Claims and counter-claims will be made.

"If the union is successful, bargains will be made which will set the pattern for agriculture-labor relations for a decade.

"As California goes, so may go the rest of the nation." The California which Cannon describes in his article, is the richest agriculture region in the nation. Over 200 cash crops are grown in the area, and the majority are highly dependent upon hand laborers to care for and harvest the crops.

In the two years that the union has been actively "setting up shop" in the region, a series of strikes have come off that have at times seriously hampered harvest and caused some loss of crops.

After Braceros
One of the prime objectives of the union, if it ever gets a strong foothold in the agriculture picture, is to do away with the Mexican National (bracero) program.

Smith, the union representative, has been quoted as saying that he felt that there were plenty of qualified workers in the United States who could and would do the work now done by the braceros if they were offered a decent wage.

The California growers are fighting the organizational moves of the union through their own organizations such as the Farm Bureau, Coun. of California Growers and Associated Farmers of California.

These organizations point out that the union, as such, does not represent the laborers.

To counter this charge, Norman Smith has pulled workers off harvesting jobs to strengthen his claim to right for bargaining with the farmers.

Smith contends that if the farm laborers organized, it will be advantageous to the family farmer.

"Today, the family farmer is working, either for wages or a small return from his capital investment. When he is working for wages, he has to compete with the braceros and the underpaid migrant workers. If we can force the farmers to give (these two groups) a raise, we automatically give the family farmer a raise."

The union plans, once its mission is accomplished in California, to move into other agricultural states such as Arizona, Oregon, Texas and New Jersey.

Money for the foundations for the unionist movement in California is coming from the main offices of the AFL-CIO. Walter Ruther, in commenting on the situation, compared it to throwing a pebble into a pond.

Educational Opportunity In The FFA

By J. W. Edgar

State Commissioner of Education
When Texas Future Farmers observe national FFA Week Feb. 18-25, educators of the state will share their pride in accomplishment.

The FFA has become an important part of the educational scene. Vocational agriculture in the public secondary schools of our Nation, though national in scope, is tailored to specific community needs. With farms and ranches of the nation as their laboratories, students in this rapidly changing segment of our economy have earned the respect of our entire citizenry, rural and urban.

Traditionally, Future Farmers learn by doing. Their study of agriculture is based upon both biological and physical sciences as they are applied to practical agriculture. Their study is enriched through ownership of livestock and crops. The American system of free enterprise is alive and meaningful as these students buy their seed and animals, invest time and money, sell the completed product and compute their profits.

Profits made by FFA members contribute much to the economy of Texas. The nearly one hundred thousand head of livestock owned by forty thousand Texas Future Farmers last year earned for these young FFA owners nearly three million dollars. They produced nearly one million units of poultry, and earned a profit of nearly a million dollars on more than forty thousand acres of crops.

Because of the rapid movement to mechanized agriculture, many vocational agriculture departments are equipped with new farm mechanics installations in order to allow Future Farmers to acquire the new skills they need.

Of even greater importance is the development of leadership abilities through experiences in the FA. Through their own organization these young men compete with one another in public speaking, conducting meetings, and in

New '61 Chevy with Jet-smooth

Impala 4-Door Sedan—Jet-smooth traveler that rivals the luxury cars

The '61 Chevy loves to go because it goes so well. Purrs along pavements like a happy tabby. Takes rough roads in stride and all roads in style.

Just why does a Jet-smooth Chevy treat riders as royally as the high-priced luxury cars? It all came about through a delightful blend of Full Coil suspension, precision-balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning, and a superb Body by Fisher insulated to hush away road sounds. All this adds up to less sway, less bounce, less dip, less dive, less tilt, less noise, less ... well you name it.

Now combine this Jet-smooth ride with conveniences to pamper you and roominess to relax in. Add a full measure of quiet good looks. Voila, you've got Chevy's formula.

And the proof is in the riding. When you sample a Jet-smooth Chevy at your Chevrolet dealer's we think you'll find it just to your taste.

number of Texas farms has decreased in the past ten years and farm payrolls have fallen to a low level. "It is important to Texas - and to the nation - that some decisive action be taken to check the decline of our farm income and to assure a fiscally sound domestic farm program. "One proposal which will come before Congress this spring can greatly benefit those who farm the rich land of West Texas and the Panhandle. The proposal: Increase the established amount of raw sugar which U. S. refineries can purchase from our nation's farmers. Adoption of this proposal will be a first step in putting brakes on declining farm income and it will put slings under Cuba's long lead in raw sugar production. "The sugar beet program proposed by farmers and growers in this important farmland region is sound. We know you can grow high quality sugar beets. The job now is to assure that you - and all U. S. sugar beet growers - be given the opportunity to compete for a larger share of the domestic market. "This is a fact: The nation must increase domestic sugar production. Any increase in production will benefit the sugar beet growers - and the Texas economy. "The Sugar Act is scheduled for reconsideration by Congress this spring. In these congressional deliberations Texas will have the opportunity to lead in securing for our nation's farmers a larger share of raw sugar production. This, of course, provides for the further opportunity to stabilize sugar beet production. This in turn, will allow sugar refineries to build additional plant facilities to serve Texas. This will payrolls. "This is important to Texas farmers. "This is important to the Texas economy. "The program advocated by the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association, other farm groups and individual farmers will, if passed by Congress, assure the development of this farm resource and turn opportunity into fact. "Sound and profitable work has been accomplished by the farmers in behalf of this program. Now the work for its establishment must be carried on from Congress. I am deeply interested in working with Sugar Beet growers - and all other groups and individuals interested in Texas's progress and development, in seeking and passing legislation which will best serve the economic and social well being of our state and nation." There are today 34,000 blind children and youths in the United States according to the American Foundation for the Blind.

PENN POINT

BY D. H. P.

I didn't write a column for Sunday's paper, as a few of you kind folks have reminded me. The reason I didn't was because I was a little afraid that anything I might have said would have sounded like the words of an extreme radical. I was torn between two major world problems - one the UN riot caused by the announced death of Lumumba and the other the trend in the U. S. toward complete dependence on the federal government.

The UN riot just proved one thing to us. It can happen in the United States of America. A group can incite to riot and cause a body such as the UN to close its doors. This should also prove the organization of the Communist Party in the U.S. No other party in the world can ask for and receive riots throughout the world at exactly the same instant. No longer can we sit on our comfortable seats and say that Communists cannot destroy our way of life.

To date, Communism has entered every field of our federal and state governments. Many of them are known as "fellow travelers" and were hired or placed even with this fact known about them. Still, we the people of the United States, allowed this to happen right under our noses and most of us passed it off as something that wouldn't hurt because of the control placed over these people. They have done their job well, the job they set out to do - overthrow the U.S. without firing a single shot or without the loss of any blood.

Right now the Communists are protesting to the Supreme Court concerning the constitutionality of the Subversive Act of 1950. This act made it mandatory that all members of the Communist Party register with the government and that all pieces of mail sent by the party must be stamped "Communist." Chances are that the Supreme Court, if they act as they have in the past, will throw out as unconstitutional this 1950 Subversive Act. In the past the Supreme Court has turned Communists loose almost as fast as J. Edgar Hoover and his FBI have been able to catch them. The Court claims that they have just as much right to be a Communist as you and I have to be Baptists, Methodists, etc. And yet they know and have required that Communists register as un-Americans so they can be watched more closely. We have sat back and watched as China went behind the " Bamboo Curtain", as Hungary tried to gain its freedom and lost and nothing. I'll bet you haven't written a congressman or senator in the past ten to twelve years and there are several hundred "Communist bloc technicians and experts" in Cuba. "Also (in Cuba) are at least 200 Red Chinese, including a delegation of about 100. Though they are supposedly agricultural experts, these Chinese are untrained."

"It's no secret that some Russian and Czech military technicians have arrived in Cuba to give Castro's soldiers and officers training on tanks, antitank and anti aircraft artillery, and some other weapons. And still you and I have done them is to become a Communist

'I'd Stimulate The Economy But They Won't Let Me'

Editor's Note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass the farm is misinterpreting the economists, his letter this week in- dicates. Dear editor: The trouble with a lot of bus-to get rid of me, that an economic adviser told a group of bus- iness men the other day "Amer- ica's economy is geared to a general expansion of prosper- ity." He said if everybody stopped buying, the economy would col- lapse. We've got to keep using all these things business pro- ducing, or we'll be in trouble, he said. In this connection, I notice Washington is concerned over the present economic state and is tak- ing steps to inject a little stim- ulation. For example, I was reading last night in a copy of a news- paper a man in town handed to me earlier in the day, I imagine. Therefore, taking both the eco- nomy, and if my subscrip-

Visit To Office Will Speed Up S-S Payments

If you are retiring in the near future, you can speed the deliv- ery of your first check by bring- ing your monthly payment. The 1960 withholding tax statement (Form W-2) is the best evidence for your claim, should you bring copies of the previous years' tax returns and evidence to show that tax re- turns were filed with Internal Revenue Service. A cancelled check, money order stub, or bank receipt is sufficient evidence to show that the return was filed. If married, and your wife is also applying for monthly bene- fits, evidence of her age will be required. Mr. Hutton stated that if you have any doubt as to the validity of your claim, call on your first visit to the office. As stated John G. HUT- son, district manager of the Lub- bock Social Security Office. Almost everyone who applies for monthly benefits must prove his age. A birth certificate record- ed at birth is the best evidence, but if not available, there are many other types of evidence which will prove age, such as baptismal certificate, an insur- ance policy, family Bible etc. Evidence of recent earnings may also be needed to establish

Methodists Host Baptist Sweetheart Banquet

Young people of the church were treated to a sweetheart banquet in the fellowship hall of the Methodist church. The banquet was held for the young people of the church and the Methodist youth presented the banquet. The tables were decorated throughout with the colors of red and white. The banquet was served buffet style and by candlelight. The tables were covered in white with red streamers and red and white candles. The programs were miniature red hearts centered on white squares. Lee Leonard was master of ceremonies. Rev. Bill Hindman gave the invocation and Martha Behind Miss Bailey as she read was a lighted altar centered with a cross and an open Bible. Rev. Bill Hindman, speaker of the evening spoke to the group on the subject of "Preparation for Home making." The benediction was then given by Rev. Albert Cooper. After the banquet the group was led in several games by Mrs. Bill Hindman. Those attending were Jeff Wiley, Babe Tomlinson, Oscar Lee Kathryn Hughes, Marcus Ramage, Phil Hughes, Charles Ramage, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Hindman, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caldwell, Barbara Brown, Martha Sue McQuatters, Lee Leonard, Sylvia Bailey, Wanda Moorehead, also Dot Walters, Rev. and Mrs. Albert Cooper, Barbara Gee, Mrs. Olan Crump, Mrs. Jap Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Neel, Ada Anderson, Garland Cooper, Ernest Young, Frances Crump, Johnny Leonard, Duane Nelson, Evonne Stubblefield, Kathy Bailey, and Mrs. Joe Bailey.

GOVERNOR'S PROPOSAL—The Governor's proposal to increase the state income tax from 10 percent to 12 percent is to fill the natural beneficiary tax out in court. Introduced in the Legislature by a two per cent estate transfer. George Hin-

RAISE PROPOSAL AXED—County school superintendents are a touchy subject with the Legislature. County Superintendent George Corse has come back this session to work for a bill to abolish the county superintendent's office in counties with few or no pupils in county schools. Under this year's plan, abolition would be on a local option vote. Supporters say it could save the state $1,500,000 to $2,000,000.

IN THIS SAME ATMOSPHERE—A bill by Rep. R. A. Bartram of New Braunfels. However it would raise the salaries of assistant county superintendents. Money-hurting House members killed the bill.

OLD RULES RE-ADOPTED—Teacher pay raise advocates were disappointed when both House and Senate adopted the same rules of procedures as they used last session. These rules prohibit passage of any new spending measure until it is passed.

LAST SESSION PASSAGE—The general appropriations bill was virtually the last act before adjournment. Teacher raises and other new spending proposals died without ever coming to a vote.

ALSO RUNNING—Among other measures in the legislative churn are bills that would: exempt from state license fees farm trailers that farmers borrow from cottages and grain elevators, provide procedure for acquittal, and ensure of the blot of a criminal record, of persons found to have been convicted of crimes for which they were innocent, set up statewide, rather than countywide, minimum age for receiving a drivers license and regulation by the State Health Department of persons engaged in the exterminating business; allocate $1,800,000 more for assistance to the needy aged and blind; raise the minimum age for receiving a drivers license from 14 to 16.
