It's Time For ... EYE CARE

Dr. Newton K. Wesley BIFOCALS

"Must I -- and can I -- wear bifocals?" This is a question you hear mostly from people as they reach forty years of age. Some do not have this concern until they are fifty, and possibly more. But on the average, a person should expect to experience visual problems with "near" and "fer" sight sometime during their early forties.

Once you lose the ability to focus on near objects, it is no longer possible to get a single lens prescription that will furnish both near and far vision, and bifocals are usually the only answer.

Two lenses, ground for different power, are put together in one frame, making near and far vision possible. The National Eye Research Foundation also recommends bifocal contact lenses for those who can wear them.

The bifocal contact lens, or the regular bifocal glasses may be the answer to the person having near and far vision trouble.

After you become used to them you will find a marvelous new world has opened up for you and you will begin to see things you haven't seen for quite some time.

Don't fret, Time marches on, and you have to march with itt

John King Touring Mexico

John King, son of Mrs. J. B. King, Sudan, former teacher in the Sudan schools now teaching in Kermit High School, is leaving Wednesday morning for a six weeks' tour of Mexico. He will stay in Mexico City while studying. Included in the tour are trips to the ancient Toltec city and the pyramids of the sun and the moon; Cuernavaca and Cortez' palace; Taxco, site of the world's leading silver producing mines. He will return to the states on August 24 when he will leave for Kermit on August 25 to begin teaching for the coming year. He has been visiting his mother in Sudan and relatives in Lubbock for the past week awaiting his trip to Mexico, He made a similar trip in 1956 which included study at the oldest university on the North American continent, the University of Mexico founded in 1535 by Cortez.

In Mexico City he will visit the National Cathedral found-minds C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. The employer - employee tax rate in 1962 is 6 1/4 per cent, an increase over the 6 percent levy of last year. Half of this amount, or 3 1/8 per cent can be deducted from the wages paid to farm employees.

Either of two tests apply, as previously, to determine those wages subject to the tax. The first test is $150 in wages paid to an individual in a calendar year. The second test is having hired the same employee 20 days on a time basis, regardless of the amount of wages paid. So, when either of these situations apply, the tax is applicable and must be reported for the workers involved.

Federal regulations require that tax on agricultural labor be paid to the government whenever the amount due equals $100, Bates explains. In other words, when a farm employer has paid out $1,600 in eligible wages, he should deposit the Social Security tax due on that amount in any commercial bank qualified as a depository for federal taxes. The money is sent by the bank to the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas and a receipt showing amount paid is returned to the employ-

Farm employers then attach these receipts to their 1962 income tax return as evidence

There will be no enrollment fee but prospective students are asked to send either a letter or an advance registration to the company in charge of the school they expect to attend. The registration should be made at least a week in advance of the school Reeves said.

Additional information is available from the sponsors and local county agents can also provide registration blanks. Out-of-state cotton ginners are welcome to attend but should send in advance registrations, Reeves explained.
