POSTAL CHANGES POSTAL RATES EFFECTIVE 15TH

Attention is invited to the increase of postage and changes in postage rates and mail of the first and fourth class as provided by act of February 28, 1925, and act of March 1, 1925, and act of March 1, 1925, amending the sections of the Laws and Regulations in effect on the 15th of March, 1925.

It is of the utmost importance that postal employees and mail carriers be familiar with these changes in order that the proper postage may be paid and the mail delivered without delay or confusion, annoyance, and inconvenience to mailers, and upon the postal service without labor and expense.

The changes become effective on April 15, 1925. The rate of postage on all post cards will be 2 cents each, whether printed or written on printed matter. This rate will also apply to each of double or reply post cards.

Postage on the reply half need be affixed thereto until it is detached and mailed for return. This applies to all cards within the size of a card, whether or not they bear the words "Post Card" or "Reply Card." Cards bearing the words "Post Card" or "Reply Card," even though not within the size of a card, will be mailed with 2 cents postage each if printed or the letter rate if wholly handwritten.

There will be change in the rate of postage on Government postal notes on any other mail of the first class.

On and after April 15th, 1925, the third class will embrace the first and second classes up to and including 8 ounces in weight, while the fourth class will include all matter exceeding 8 ounces in weight and not exceeding 70 pounds in the first, second and third zones, and not exceeding 50 pounds when mailed for any of the other zones.

POSTAL RECEIPTS OF LAST QUARTER ARE NEARLY 300 PER CENT

The receipts at the Littlefield post office during the quarter just ended show an increase of nearly over 300 per cent over the corresponding quarter of last year, according to figures presented by Postmaster Wm. J. Wade.

For the quarter ending March 1924, the receipts were $2,113.96
For the quarter ending March 1923, the receipts were 971.51

Increase over 1923-----$1,142.45
Not only does the above make an excellent showing indicative of the rapid growth of Littlefield, but the Postmaster also finds that the quarter of this year show an increase over the last quarter of last year, (Christmas rush quarter) of $152.87.

At this rate it will not be long before Littlefield post office will be due to jump up into a higher classification.

FIRE DESTROYS BAPTIST CHURCH, CAUSE UNKNOWN

Early Monday morning the Baptist church became a complete loss by fire. The cause of the fire is unknown. Insurance of $1500 was carried on the building.

It was about 5:30 o'clock that morning, as some of the early risers looked out of their windows and saw the flames leaping up around the roof peak of the church. Before a dozen men could arrive on the scene of conflagration the fire was breaking out through the roof and winding its lurid flaming tongues out through the cracks of the upper weatherboarding. The chemical engine was soon brought up, but ere this time the flames had gained such headway that its meager fighting force would have been of no avail.

The fire-fighters turned their attention to the little parsonage on the adjoining lot. It was quickly vacated of all its valuable household goods and personal effects. A bucket brigade had been organized by this time, three or four trucks were hauling water and a line of men were in action from the tanks, up the ladders and onto the roof which was being saturated. Three or four times the little parsonage building caught fire, but was quickly extinguished.

In the meantime other fire-fighters were watching surrounding premises, pouring water onto nearby out-building and extinguishing the flying sparks dropping onto the roofs. Fortunately for the whole town there was no wind blowing. If there had been, in either direction it would have meant a veritable holocaust with a dozen or so residences going up in smoke before the onward sweep could have been stopped.

Probably some one has an idea how the fire started, but public generally will never know. Evidences are to the effect that it began in the northwest corner of the gallery. That it had been smouldering for hours there is no doubt, as when a rear window was broken open in an attempt to secure the piano, the pent up smoke rushed out a distance of fifteen feet for relief, indicating plainly that in the tightly closed building the smouldering embers had been slowly but surely eating their way toward the air for several hours. Possibly a cigaret flipped lightly into the corner of the gallery was the cause of the fire.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO MINERAL WELLS ON OR ABOUT MAY 1ST

"All roads lead to Mineral Wells." That will be absolutely a correct statement about May 1. People from all over West Texas will be planning for a pilgrimage either on special trains, day trains, auto caravans and other modes of travel to the city of health giving waters—Mineral Wells.

The City of Mineral Wells, the host town of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention, is especially favorably located in the matter of accessibility to motor traffic. It has three branches of the Bankhead Highway, also the FF Highway and a number of other improved roads leading to it. These will accommodate the thousands that will come by automobile all over the West. In addition to the highways, special train service will be given and there will be nothing lacking in facilities to reach the convention city.

From nearly every town reservations have begun pouring in for the big delegations. Amarillo advises that she will run a special train. San Antonio will be there 500 strong, so will San Angelo. Wichita Falls will come in big number prepared to take the next convention home with them. Lubbock wires in for 350 reservations, and other towns are sending in similar news according to their size.

Camp Site Committee has arranged for four large camping sites and a number of smaller ones. Each camp site is being laid off in a systematic manner with streets traversing grounds north and south and east and west. Camp lots are numbered and located so that each camping party has access to street without interfering with other campers. When a camp lot has been issued party holding same will be protected and can rest assured no one else will camp on said lot.

Water, light, sanitary facilities, fuel for cooking purposes and community kitchens sufficient to meet requirements of each camp will be provided. Natural gas will be furnished where possible otherwise wood for cooking purposes will be furnished. Cook stove will be furnished with kitchen. No cooking utensils will be furnished.

Rates—Camp lots can be rented at 50 cents per day per car, with free access to community kitchen tents, all rentals must be paid in advance for full time of convention. Army sleeping tents will be $3.00 to $5.00 per day, according to size. These tents will accommodate from six to ten people. Army cots will rent for 25 cents per day. Parties expecting to camp while here should reserve tents and cots as early as possible.

TO VOTE BONDS Pep Community Would Erect $35,000 School Building.

An election has been called in the Pep school district, May 9th, for the purpose of voting $35,000 bonds for school building purposes. The community is growing very rapidly and the present school quarters are already largely overtaxed. It is stated by interested parties that the proposed new building will be none too large when the settlement of that section has all arrived.

At a recent school election, the following were elected as trustees for the district: J. F. Albus, J. F. Gerik, Herman Greener, Joe Dusterhaus, V. E. Glumpler, W. T. Jungman and A. G. Jungman.

At the end of a number of games the hostess served a delicious ice course to the following: Mesdames Walden, Parnell, Ellis, Clements, Halle, Lane, Whitaker and Givens. Be proud of your home town.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.—Ps. 94:19.

Of all created comforts, God is the tender; you are the borrower, not the owner.—Rutherford.

JUST AN ILLUSTRATION

Once there was a woman who bought a vacuum rug cleaner. It was rather complicated and she did not understand how to use it. The salesman had other pressing engagements that rendered it impossible for him to show her all the points on the use and care of the machine, but he told her to call him on a certain date and she would return and give her a complete demonstration. She never called nor made any inquiries as to the proper use of the machine and since she knew nothing at all about it naturally it was of no benefit to her. Consequently, she became a knocker, telling all of her neighbors and friends that it was of no use to her and so on. Whereas, if she had called the salesman as he instructed her to do, obtained all the points as to the proper use and care of her cleaner and used it accordingly, she would have undoubtedly been greatly pleased with its merits.

Littlefield now has a Retail Merchants Association, one of the best kind of organizations to ever come to this town. Every business man here should belong to it, and he should USE it. It will be of incalculable value to him if he will. The local secretary will be glad to explain in details all the details of its operation at the request of any member.

A THANKLESS SACRIFICE

A student of the University of Chicago has started on a fasting diet scheduled to last for two years. His object is to determine just how much food is necessary to keep thinking. He is to eat only when hungry and very little then, while every bite of food he eats shall be weighed and analyzed before eating. Meanwhile he is to be given certain mental tests and at the end of the two years the results will be tabulated with the view of finding through them an ideal human ration.

This is probably one of the most thankless tasks a human ever entered upon. In the first place most folks don't want to do any thinking nowadays, and for the minority few who do, it is doubtful if they will appreciate the experiment. Should the test turn out O. K. there is no doubt but every grocer would be against the results, as would all the wholesale manufacturing and jobbing food outfits.

Undoubtedly it would be nice to know just what constitutes an ideal food or an ideal ration, but after finding out, show us the genus homo, male or female, young or old, that would partake of it persistently and consistently. There ain't no such animal. The folks who eat to live simple don't measure up with the folks to live to eat.

ILLUSTRATE THE ADS

Of the 13,308 square inches of advertisement carried in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post, 9,082 inches were devoted to illustrations and 3,626 inches to copy or descriptive matter.

The Saturday Evening Post charges $7,000 for one page in one color, $8,500 for one page in two colors, $12,000 for the fourth cover in two colors, and $17,000 for the center spread in two colors.

Long years of experience have taught the men who buy this space, the greatest advertising experts in the world, how to get their message over. When one is paying over $60 a square inch for advertising space one is naturally inclined to linger long and think carefully on what he puts into that space.

The answer of the experts is above—they devote three times as much space to illustrations as they do to reading matter.

This newspaper receives every week a large double sheet of illustrative cuts adapted to the various lines of business represented in this town, and which is furnished without any extra cost to its advertisers. It is for your convenience and profit. We have it because we want to give you the very best service possible. Take advantage of it!

AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

Some months ago a preacher of this town (not here now) delivered what he called a sermon on dishonest business men, declaring that the majority of them were of that type. The Leader refuted the declaration, citing proof of the facts. At the time we really had some doubts as to the wide extent of our assertions, thinking perhaps there might be a class of people of the wealthier sort to whom the preacher's assertion might apply, but lo, we are now about to conclude we were right entirely.

Dr. Russell Conwell, eminent Baptist minister and president of the Philadelphia University, has made a count of 5,043 American millionaires and declares that only 40 of them are dishonest. He further states that of this number of millionaires 3,780 of them were poor boys starting without a dollar. This may be one reason for the results. However, there are millions of Americans who were poor boys, started without a dollar and haven't a dollar to their credit today. Some one might ask are they honest or dishonest—or just poor managers?

A MODEL COMMUNITY

Keystone is a little town in the State of Nebraska, and boasts of being a model community. Co-operation and religious toleration are receiving a thorough test in a little church in that village where the Catholics and Protestants worship together.

According to report in one end of the church there is a Catholic altar, while in the opposite end there is a pulpit for Protestant services. The seats are arranged like those in a railroad coach so that the backs can face either end of the building, the reversal of the benches changing the church from one denomination to the other, as desired.

The arrangement harks back to the time when Ezra and Nehemiah returned from Babylon and found the Jewish priests of Judea conducting religious services on the dual plan in Jerusalem for the benefit of the Hebrews and the Samaritans. War was the result.

Keystone folks may be idealists, and may have a superabundance of brotherly love and Christian spirit. It is an innovation entirely new and will doubtless be watched with considerable interest by the leaders of both systems of religion.

SPRING IS HERE

Back for a six months' stay in the northern hemisphere, the sun has escorted Spring into this latitude. The rescue of the earth from the death-like grasp of winter each year is an old, old story, but an ever new one in its beauty. The other seasons have each their special loveliness, but spring has youth, freshness, a charm which its elder sisters of the year cannot rival.

Even within the stone-bound streets of the city the hardy, rowdy sparrows become turbulent with warmer blood and their matings on the house tops are done to lyrical shrieks. The parks stimulate the annual resurrection of the broader countryside and reveal to city dwellers some of the beauty with which the fields beyond the city gates are decking themselves. The farmer takes on new life, so the live-stock of his barnyards. The prairies become green and dotted hither and yon with dainty flowers. The adventurous robin flaunts his plumage before the eyes of coming June brides, and all the other birds accustomed to this clime come back to say "How-do." Man responds to the season with lighter heart and quickened footstep. Winter is dead, spring comes and there is rejoicing among all creatures.

PASSING THE BUCK

Every town is a great corporation in which every citizen is a stockholder of more or less degree, and it is only when each citizen realizes that he is an integral part of the community life and welfare that that city approaches nearest to its ideal.

While there are always a few citizens in every town that are the leaders in municipal affairs, yet after all, it is the rank and file of citizens who decide what kind of government that city shall have, what its schools shall be, what shall be its buildings, streets, parks, churches, etc.

The Chamber of Commerce exists for the sole purpose of bettering this city corporate, and if it fails to function properly, it is largely the fault of the citizens, rather than the organization itself. This organization ought to be 100 per cent strong with the citizens of every town, yet there are some folks who fail to understand this fact.

There are some who have no objection to paying their monthly dues to this organization, but they constantly "pass the buck" when it comes to doing anything personally. Money talks alright, but it requires men back of it to make it talk. Loyal interested citizens backing up their money with their personal endeavor can put any city "over the top."

REAL LIVING

In every community there are always a number of people who are not a success at money-making. Perhaps they might be if they devoted their time entirely to that one effort, but they don't. They happen to be real human folks who have an interest in the welfare of others, and they spend much of their time in helping their fellowman. They get more out of life than the fellow who is so selfish he never has time for any community work nor any time to assist his neighbors in their problems of life. When the time comes for them to check out they invariably leave the world better off than when they found it, but the other kind of fellow is merely dead, and no one but his own little flock knows about it.

TIME FOR PAINTING

There is no better time of the year than in the spring to give the building a coat of paint. It may be only a little shack that you are living in temporarily, or it may be a garage or other out-building; but it will not only look better but last longer if painted. While we are in the clean-up spirit, let's also have the paint-up spirit. Paint makes the entire place so much more attractive. Advertisers tell us if we save the surface we save all. Visitors and prospectors also judge a town very much by the appearance of its surface. An orderly, well kept town is always more inviting to prospective settlers than one that is disorderly, unkept and unpainted.

GAS WINS

Governor Ferguson has signed Bill No. 402, authorizing the sale of gasoline and lubricants on Sunday—for use in automobiles. The law becomes effective June 15th.

While the law will act as a lubricant for automobiles on Sunday, it will probably act as an emery wheel on the churches.

THEY SAY—

—At next Trades Day will be a bigger event than ever.

—That a few citizens actually observed Clean-up Day.

—That there is still room for improvements at Good-land.

—That the millinery parade at the churches last Sunday was a great success.

—That Beulah has not yet begun to produce "corn and wine," tho it is a real "promise land."

—That the Burlington System may build into Littlefield in order to get over to Morton Smith's court house.

—That the Baptist church probably burned because someone thoughtlessly flipped a cigaret into one corner of the gallery.

—That there is one business man in Littlefield who won't join the Chamber of Commerce because he thinks there are enough people and business concerns here already.

—That a certain Littlefield mother is not in favor of repairing the chock holes on Main street. "Finest place in the world," she says, "to jolt the colic out of my baby."

STOVE-LEAGUE BARBERING

By Thomas W. Wilkinson

"While us and the rest of the folks is settin here and plannin for the future of our nation we should had ought to get the ladies hair combed out. What I mean is to settle this question. Cause it keeps bobbing up and it should be cut short. For instants there is a short fat lady, I'd say she ought to have it cut so as the ends just touch the wrinkle on her neck and then it should be stuck down with some kind of a hair agrivator, or she could have it permanent wave. Then there is the 99 lbs. and two ounces that has to be death with. While they is not so heavy as some, they feels bigger, so the committee recommends that they get a roof or a shingle bob or whatever it is, and this kind calls for having the neck washed, all of which is of course painful but its worth it. A other kind of bob that has got no name yet is easy to remember, cause it looks like a cross between a feather duster and a floor mop, and you can't hardly keep from shaking it out.

"The tall girls of' and should have the hair cut on the sectional plan, like for instants they can get a little cut off and run around the block to see how they likes it.

"The wife asked me to arrange a date with her favorite barber so as she could get her hair organized, and I called up the barber and sed to him "My wife wants to get a disappointment with you to get her hair fixed this week" and he sed "You mean appointment, don't you," and I sed "No cause she was disappointed the last time you tried to make her hair look like a tumble weed in a storm."

"I sed to the gals, sez I: Men barbers is the best cause they tells the best stories.

A Book Of Gripping Startling Human Achievement

Like a bolt of lightning illuminates the sky, it glared across my mind that someone was behind Furey had been looking me straight in the eye. Now, his gaze shifted from side to side. I jumped back, putting myself outside his range. Then darted a quick glance behind me. I saw the muzzle of a sawed-off 'shot-gun' not ten steps from me. Instantly it was jerked under broad, flat fans of the dense palmettos. I stepped behind Furey, putting his heart between me and the shot-gun. I pressed my old forty-five against his head just behind his right ear."

The coolness of him—the audacious courage of him—the way he thought of Norfleet saved his life in many a seemingly impossible cul-de-sac, and brought the highly organized band of rascals, one by one, to justice. The soul stirring story of this rancher's four-year self-imposed task of running to earth the most desperate gang of crooks in the United States is really told in Norfleet's own words which are powerful in their modesty.

As often been said that Truth is stranger than Fiction—but who have read Sir Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes stories, the episodes of the Mysterious Fu Man Chu, the Episodes of the Ghost, or a dozen other "thrillers" in the category of "mystery" yarns have undoubtedly entertained a doubt as to the accuracy of the old time aphorism. Now comes Frank Norfleet with a chronicle of adventure that makes the "Grey Ghost" stories tame by comparison; a series of dramatic situations that reduce the ordinary "thriller" to commonplace; a history of detective work that causes Sherlock Holmes' attainments to sink into insignificance—and withal, a story of morality and "square shooting" that should prove greatly beneficial to the youth of our Nation.

In the beauty of the whole work is that it is the TRUTH! The unexaggerated account of what one brave man has done in the face of seemingly insurmountable difficulties. The literature has been enriched by this most gripping, gripping compilation of thrills, laughter and pathos, held together by a thread of stupendous human endeavor, tempered by tolerance and compassion. Norfleet is a book that will appeal to men and women of all ages and in every walk of life. Norfleet is a book that will place in the hands of their boys to read, knowing that the truths contained therein and the lessons taught are well worth while. Norfleet has been read and enthusiastically endorsed by leading educators, ministers, publishers, bankers, professors and criminologists.

Physically, the book presents a beautiful appearance. A heavy blue cloth cover, lettered and designed in gold, with more than 250 pages of fine quality egg-shell paper and splendidly illustrated.

Norfleet is destined to run into the hundreds of thousands of copies and will undoubtedly find its way into every home and library where English is read.

LITTLEFIELD FIRE DEPARTMENT IS AN ORGANIZED FACT

Wednesday night a bunch of Littlefield's young business men met at the Smith & Roberts garage for the purpose of organizing a local fire department. C. D. Smith was elected fire chief and Carl Arnold, assistant.

The following were selected as active members of the department: I. S. Pate, Luther Hargrove, Tom Pate, J. C. Wanefield, R. D. York, Jess York. Others who will supply when necessary are: Jimmy Brittain, Josh Coydill, H. V. Snyder, Bob Smith, Carl Smith, Carl Miller, M. A. Dunagin, W. R. Yeague, Homer Thornton, I. M. Parker, I. S. Miller. Other officers will be elected at the next meeting.

The Department expects to meet every Wednesday night for practice work. It is the statement of Fire Chief Smith that the new fighting force will be whipped into form as quickly as possible. Some more fire-fighting apparatus is to be ordered immediately. The City officials will be asked to co-operate with the Department more closely in enforcing some of the ordinances relative to fire hazards.

WATER GLASS BEST TO PRESERVE EGGS

Preserving eggs in water glass has become a general practice, and is meeting with perfect success wherever tried, provided it is properly carried on. Remember that if you put in a poor egg, you are going to take out a poor one.

Eggs to be put in water glass should be fresh, sound and clean. They should be gathered daily and preserved the same day on which they are laid. Infertile eggs are conducive to the best success.

The method of preservation is as follows: Take one quart of water glass, which can be secured at any drug store at about $1 per gallon, and mix with ten quarts of water that has been boiled and then cooled. Stir thoroughly and place in a crockery vessel, never using galvanized or tin vessels. Place in a cool, well-ventilated cellar, and add eggs as you gather them from day to day, always keeping the solution one inch above the eggs, and keeping the crock covered with a lid of some kind to prevent too much evaporation.

Eggs preserved in this manner will keep perfectly for one year. The water glass solution will not injure the hands, so do not be afraid to handle the eggs in the solution. Do not use the solution more than one year.

It is hard to tell a water glass egg from a fresh egg, if the former is properly kept. But by considering the price now and in winter, you can afford to eat three water glass eggs next winter where you could eat only one fresh one, and still have some money left. It will be found hard to boil water glass eggs, but by puncturing the large end with a needle, to allow the air to escape, and allowing the water to come to a boil gradually, you will not experience much trouble. —J. A. Helmreich, Colorado Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Colo.

Locate With Care

Location of the tree may determine its selection as well as soil and climate. If there is small space which may be devoted to the future development of the tree, says the American Tree association of Washington, D. C., it would not be satisfactory to plant one which will attain huge proportions. More than any other determining feature in tree selection is the purpose which the tree is to serve. For a two-cent stamp for postage the association will send tree-planting suggestions. The planter should study trees growing in his immediate neighborhood and pick out the variety which will best serve his needs.

IT'S YOU!

If you want to live in a kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike,
You'll only find what you left behind
For there's nothing really new;
It's a knock at yourself, when you knock
your own town,
It isn't the town—It's YOU.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead,
When everyone works and nobody shirks
You can raise a town from the dead.
And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbors can make one too,
Your town will be what you want to see.
It isn't the town—It's YOU.

C. S. BURNS DIED MONDAY AFTER FEW DAYS OF ILLNESS

C. S. Burns and family were called last week to the bedside of his father, John Burns, living near Taylor, who was seriously ill. They made the trip in an automobile. En route C. S. Burns contracted acute pneumonia and died last Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Mr. Burns accompanied by his family came to Littlefield about two months ago, renting a large farm southwest of town, which he was preparing to put in cultivation. He is survived by his wife, father and mother, and three children, Grace, Maxine and Elmer. He was about 45 years of age at the time of his death.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Forwood Funeral Home, at Taylor, the services being conducted by Rev. Williams, of the First Methodist Church and Rev. E. M. Munroe, of the First Presbyterian Church, that city, and burial made in the cemetery at Taylor.

An article appearing in the Monday issue of the Taylor Democrat says: "Charley Burns was a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in this county, and was reared and educated here, having made his home in and near Taylor all his life, until moving to Littlefield about a year ago. He was married to Miss Tennie Bonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bond, of Taylor, in 1902.

"The Burns family was among the first settlers in the Rice's Crossing community, the grandfather of the deceased having settled there in the early days of the county. Since that time the members of this family have been prominently identified with the affairs of Williamson County. The deceased had an unusually large circle of friends and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all. His untimely death will be a matter of deep regret to the hundreds of our citizens who have known him all his life.

A RESOLUTION

Inasmuch as it has pleased God in his infinite wisdom to call from our midst our loved friend and sister, "Mother Steen," be it resolved that in our entirely inadequate way we extend to the family our heartfelt sympathy.

Our own loss is so great it seems we could almost give up the work she loved so dearly, but let us today, as a fitting memorial to her life, resolve that each and every one of us will work a little harder that the work she started in our little community may carry on and on to eternity.

Our only comfort in this hour is to say with Goethe, "I am fully convinced that the soul is indestructible, and that its activity will continue through eternity. It is like the sun which, to our eyes seems to set in night; but it has in reality only gone to diffuse its light elsewhere.

DALLAS MERCHANT GIVES ADVERTISING POINTERS

Advertise consistently. Advertise regularly. Tell the truth and back up your statements with the goods. Spend a certain per cent of your gross receipts in advertising. Take time to prepare your ads as they should be, being careful that they are written in plain language and not over the heads of those who will read them. Keep your stock moving and your odds and ends cleaned up by advertising. Get close to the home town editor and stay there. Success will crown your efforts and money will roll into your cash drawer. Newspaper advertising is the best of all advertising.

PUBLIC UTILITIES INSTALLING A PAIR OF 75 H. P. ENGINES

"One 75 horsepower engine is now on the ground and another one rolling," said R. E. McCaskill, local manager of the Texas Utilities Co., when inquiry was made this week by a Leader representative regarding the promised improvement in electrical service for Littlefield.

This week a force of workmen are busy enlarging the local light plant, digging pits and setting concrete foundations for the new machinery. The equipment in the future is to be of a double type, thus insuring convertible and perpetual service in case something goes wrong with one set of machinery.

Wednesday the concrete was poured for foundation for the 75 h. p. engine that arrived last Saturday, also the 45 K. V. A. generator that is to produce the city illumination. It is expected that this new unit will be ready for operation by the middle of next week.

Still another 75 h. p. engine and 45 K. V. A. generator is en route from the east, and is expected to arrive by the latter part of this week. Preparations are now being made for its foundation, and it will be seated and ready for service in a short time after arrival.

Littlefield has been waiting several months for this promised service, many residents desiring lights and several business concerns wanting power which could not be furnished with the present inadequate equipment. Mr. McCaskill states that with the new installation the plant will be able to furnish six times the power it has been giving, which will be sufficient for a city of 10,000 population.

YOUR CHILDREN AND THEIR EDUCATION

You were once a boy or a girl, and if you are the right kind of a man or woman now, you are still just a grown up boy or girl.

An education means everything to that boy or girl of yours, but—have YOU INSURED YOUR LIFE to provide them with that opportunity?

Perhaps you are just drifting along, and expect to do that some time. But wouldn't the wise thing be for you to do so now before it is too late?

Think it over, then come to us and make an uncertainty CERTAIN!

LISTEN!

This week and next we are going to sell Boys' Knee Pant Summer Suits for $5.00. Just think of it—a summer suit, some of them costing wholesale as much as $15.00, and we are going to sell them for $5.00.

This is a Spot Cash Sale—no charging at this price. Come early while you can get your fit. EVERYTHING ON OUR CLOTHING RACK WILL BE CUT DOWN 25 PER CENT this week and next, and the Boys' Suits will simply be slaughtered.

We have more suits of clothing than any two dry goods houses in town, and we are going to slaughter prices. We have enjoyed a nice trade and are going to close out these items.

Do not throw this ad into the discard, but come right on and be one of the first. Every suit is a bargain, some nicer than others, but all worth twice the money we are asking for them. We can fit nearly anyone. No alterations.

Especially do we ask the boys to be early. Remember this week and next—and the price nearly one-third and less than one-third on some of them. Do not confuse this offer with trash. This is GOOD merchandise and worth three times what we are asking for it.

—Headquarters are still maintained here for all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries. We have the best Ladies' and Gents' shops in West Texas, and the prices are within the reach of all.

Come while they last, as this price is bound to move this line of clothing. LETS GO—ALL TOGETHER!

DOC AND DAISY—DOUBLE DEAL

Perhaps the newspaper editor never lived but had his "dog days." Generally they come in the fall, but ours came this spring—this week, to be explicit.
 From some cause not known at the time, the big linotype in the Leader shop went on the bum. The thing got like the typewriter of a certain business man in the town who advertises that "credit makes enemies," and nothing would come out of the mill right. Letters got transposed, words were deliberately left out, spelling looked like a primary kid was studying orthography in the high school department, the editor's most choice metaphors got mixed with the operator's similes, spacebands jumped into the line whenever they took a notion, and the slugs ran hot or cold as they pleased.

Along about the middle of the week the boss got hard boiled, and called the chief officiating functionary of this big machine on the carpet to learn what brand of hooch he had been imbuing. He strongly denied the allegation, declaring he was a first rate Methodist, but we knew we were hitting close onto his trail somewhere, and finally, after much accusation, insinuation and profanation the said operator broke down and informed us that he was to be married the coming Saturday.

Deep and sincere was our commiseration for him thereafter. We had that experience ourselves once upon a time. Some folks get over it, others do not. But our sincere sympathy goes out to the young and inexperienced fellow who faces the matrimonial ban for the first time. But this young man has a reputation for sticking to anything he starts, and this, in all probabilities, will be his first, last and only attempt at securing a wife, while his wife, sad to say, is too young to ever realize what she has missed in life by not waiting ten or fifteen years longer.

Doc Jones and Miss Daisy Lowe were happily married last Saturday at Lubbock. We haven't had the cherished privilege of casting our peepers on the bride yet, but we know she is all right or Doc wouldn't have married her—we have just that much confidence in our linotype operator. Incidentally the editor of this newspaper is happy that they are happily married—the linotype is working all right this week and Doc has us going to keep copy on the hook.

Doc used to work on one of these machines at Lovington, New Mexico. He stayed there for nearly four years. We never could understand why until he told us he was going to marry a Lovington girl. How she happened to get into Lovington only the Lord knows, but Doc was loving her by the ton and they just had to get spliced.

Our wife suggested that we make them a wedding gift of a set of spoons as perhaps the most appropriate at this stage of the game—so we did.

Whitharral Items

The box supper given here last Saturday was a big success in every way, $138.85 being realized, which sum will be applied on the purchase of a piano for the school house and to be used for Sunday school and other services. Miss LaRue won the prize box of chocolate given in the "prettiest girl" contest, receiving over $40 worth of votes. Mrs. C. D. Edgar received a prize box of chocolate for the highest selling box, her's bringing $10. Messrs. Ed Langford, C. D. Edgar and W. M. Armstrong are the committee to purchase the piano.

A meeting was held here last Friday night to make arrangements for a new school house. It was attended by the County Judge and County Attorney, of Levelland, Messrs. W. H. Badger, A. P. Duggan and H. C. Glenn, of Littlefield, all of whom took active part in the discussion. Owing to the present district arrangements, it was decided that official action of the County Commissioners would be necessary before the desired amount of bonds could be voted. Whitharral wants not less than $25,000 for building a new school house, and the sentiment seems to be unanimous.

Rev. Silas Dickson, accompanied by the evangelist and singer, who have been assisting in a meeting at Littlefield, filled his regular appointment here Sunday afternoon.

Earl Edgar has been quite sick the past few days.
 Wilson Fullbright, who has been at Petersburg, spent the week-end at home.

Baileyboro Buzzings

Rev. Clyde Coffman conducted the regular first Saturday night services while Rev. Lee Sherman preached at the eleven o'clock hour, Sunday.

The people of this community met at the church house here Sunday evening and organized a singing class with Mr. Sterling as president, Mrs. Ople Willis, secretary, J. D. Bayless, choir master, and Claude Coffman, chaplain. The class will meet every Sunday evening for practice.

A number of the Baileyboro folks attended the ball game at Amherst Sunday, between the team of that place and the Muleshoe team.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wallis, Trixie Henderson, Winifred Young and Charlie Durham ate Sunday dinner with the Blackshear family.

Blanche Wallis, Frank Stevens, Velma Duncan and Lois Aishman were Circleback visitors Sunday afternoon.

The Baileyboro baseball team won over the Sudan team on Baileyboro grounds Wednesday afternoon by a score of 8 to 2.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Blackshear, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Whitmire and Elliot Matlock were participants in the Trades Day program at Littlefield Monday.

The Baileyboro school closed Friday, after a short successful term of only five months. An interesting program was rendered in the morning by the pupils of each of the three teachers, a large basket dinner was served and the baseball games filled the remainder of the day. The result of which gave the first team here the victory over the Causey, New Mexico team by a score of 8 to 10, while the school team lost to the Causey team, the score being 7 to 8, but the same school team from Baileyboro defeated the Sudan school team 9 to 3. The teachers, Mr. J. W. Slone, Mrs. J. L. Taylor and Miss Helen Carles and the patrons of this school are to be thanked for their co-operation during the school year and for the successful closing Friday. The B. T. B's.

THE TELEPHONE SAVES MANY DOLLARS ANNUALLY

In 1922 there were 18,250,000,000 telephone calls in the United States, an average of 53,300,000 local and 1,700,000 long distance calls a day. Estimating local calls at one mile average length, and toll calls at 30 miles this meant about 100,000,000 miles of "travel" per day over the wire route. Statistics show that the minimum cost of automobile operation is 10 cents a mile; for 100,000,000 miles the cost would be ten million dollars. A good walker travels three miles an hour; the telephone saves 33,000,000 hours of walking every day, and all the time besides; at 30 cents an hour this would be $10,000,000.

Every town is a good town to the man who gets appointed on committees and is given a chance to run something.

LIGHT IN THE WINDOW GLEAMS THRU 53 YEARS OF DARKNESS AS MOTHER OF T. W. BARNES FINDS HER SISTER

Romance became real last week when Mrs. Mary E. Barnes, mother of T. W. Barnes, a Littlefield merchant, discovered her sister, Eliza P. Butler, after 53 years of separation.

Mrs. Barnes was in Los Angeles on a visit. She had an idea her sister was somewhere in the "mighty west," so she slipped a little ad in the Los Angeles Illustrated Daily News. The next day, a young man, who proved to be the son-in-law of her sister, drove up to her address and took her to her sister's home. The meeting is described by the News, as follows:

"Isn't this Eliza? Don't you know Mary? I'm your sister!"

Thus was Destiny's clock turned back 53 years when Mrs. Eliza P. Butler, 80, and Mrs. Mary E. Barnes, 64, became as young girls, discussing their childhood days in Oxford, Miss., after being reunited through the Light in the Window department of the Illustrated Daily News.

"The last time the sisters met, Mrs. Butler was wearing her wedding gown and orange blossoms. She had just changed her name from Eliza Quick. Mrs. Barnes was then a little girl 11 years old, was the flower girl at the ceremony and carried a big basket of white roses. 'You must write home often,' was the admonition of her family—the Quicks—as the bride left for the honeymoon over wild western country with pack train. But it was pretty hard to correspond with folks back there. There were times when Mrs. Butler didn't see a mail box for months and eventually she lost track of the family. Fifty three years rolled around and none of the Quicks ever heard of their beautiful daughter who went west.

Mrs. Barnes came to Los Angeles several weeks ago to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Hamilton, of 333 Benton Way. While she sat reading the Illustrated Daily News her eye glanced on the Light of the Window column. "I guess there isn't much sense in me trying to find Eliza, but I'll just take a chance on it," and so she wrote the Keeper of the Light. Yesterday a man stepped to the Hamilton door, requesting to see Mrs. Barnes. I am sure that your sister is my wife's mother," he stated, and Mrs. Barnes, without even waiting to get a pocket handkerchief or a purse jumped into his machine and started for her sister's home.

"At 3314 Foothill boulevard, many miles from Los Angeles, she met her. Not the fresh, beautiful young girl of yesteryear, but a quaint, sweet motherly old woman, who was living in luxurious ease at a huge ranch house."

RETAIL MERCHANTS
 HOLD ANNUAL MEET AT AUSTIN IN MAY

The Retail Merchants Association of Texas will hold its 25th annual meeting in Austin, May 25th, 26th and 27th. An elaborate program is being arranged by the executive officers of both the State Association and the Austin local Association. Prominent speakers from many parts of the country will take an active part in the program, among them are H. C. Balsiger, Kansas City, Mo., Secretary of the National Grocers Association; J. R. Truesdale of St. Louis, Secretary-Treasurer, Credit Service Division of the Retail Credit Men's National Association; J. D. Woodcock of St. Louis, Managing Director, Retail Credit Men's National Association and several other prominent speakers and lecturers are expected but have not yet made definite arrangements.

Among the subjects to be discussed by the merchants at this convention are the following, all of them of great interest to retail dealers.

Present Financial and Crop Outlook; Credit Conditions and Methods; Collection Methods That Bring Results; Prompt Pay Educational Campaign; Trades Days, How to Make Them a Success; Benefits of State and National Associations; How I control by business through records that mean all of the facts I should have for are simple, yet effective, for giving all purposes; Store arrangement which increases sales and reduces labor and expense; Management methods which give me more time for sale planning; Buying methods which are helping to make a success of my business; Window trimming simplified and made effective; How show cars and price tickets have helped my sales; Advertising a retail business; Effective deliveries at the minimum cost; Doing a credit business and keeping losses down to the minimum; How I built up a specialty business; Sales methods for getting new customers; Following up the lost customers; My most aggressive competition and how I meet it; Beating the peddler at his own game; Mail-order competition and how I meet it; Operating a cash and carry department; How I pay my clerks and arrange vacations; Stopping the leaks and hidden losses; Rural credits; Should you credit a customer until his crop is made? If so, why? If not, why not? Is it good business to extend long credits, if secured by mortgage on crops? On horses, cattle, and implements? How do you control accounts with tenant farmer who buys on credit? Realizing that crop failure may make it impossible to collect outstandings, do you refuse further credit? Do you try to liquidate your claim?

Another interesting feature of the convention will be the meeting of the Association Retail Credit Men of Texas who will discuss retail credit methods, systems, retail credit conditions and the collection of accounts from all angles. The Retail Secretaries Association will also play an important part in this convention and discuss the retail credit service, every Retail Merchants Association in Texas maintains a credit information bureau and the secretary is in charge of the bureau and all bureaus closely co-operate and interchange information, therefore the secretaries meeting.

The Retail Merchants Association of Texas is extending a general invitation to all retailers to visit this convention and to get all the benefits they can by taking part in the discussions of the many important subjects.

A grand affair will be the annual banquet which will be held Tuesday evening, May 26 and which will be in charge of Mr. Douglas Malloch an expert banquet entertainer of Chicago.

It is expected that every local Retail Merchants Association in Texas will be represented and as there are 176 associations, all of them in close touch with one another on account of the credit exchange service and many of them have already announced large delegations, this convention is expected to be the best ever held by the Retail Merchants Association of Texas.

RITCHESON PROVES VALUE OF AFRICAN MILLET TO PLAINS

G. B. Ritcheson of Littlefield, has introduced a new forage plant to this part of the Plains, known as African Millet and resemble the Red Top Cane very much, which is well known throughout the South and recognized as being one of the best forage crops that can be planted.

Mr. Ritcheson has given this new plant a thorough test, having grown it for three years, both in a dry climate and on poor land, and finds it far superior to any cane he ever knew. Its advantages over similar crops are that it matures in 90 days under favorable weather conditions and is also very drought, resisting yet its forage is much heavier than other varieties and the grain production is from two to three times greater than other canes.

Mr. Ritcheson tested it on sod land here last year, and he has been told by all that have seen it that they had never seen anything to equal it.

Mr. Ritcheson urges all farmers in this locality to try it out this year, and be convinced if once planted, that Red Top, will lose its place with them as the surest and most profitable crop.

Mr. Ritcheson brought with him some Shrock-Kaffir to try out, and it has proven a wonderful feed crop here.

Horticultural Facts

Grapevines around the home furnish beauty, shelter and fruit.

Grapes do not finish their ripening process properly if picked early.

Keep the grapevines covered with Bordeaux to prevent black rot.

Keep up your garden sprays or you will have rotten, wormy fruit.

White strawberries have been produced and ripened at Johns Hopkins university.

Gooseberries as commonly picked, hard and green, are easily and safely sent long distances.

The apple tree grows most rapidly of all fruit trees. The peach and plum trees, however, fruit first.

Commercial fruit growers everywhere recognize that clean tillage in the first part of the season, followed by a cover crop in the latter part, is the most dependable procedure in growing any kind of a fruiting plant.
