

Red Wooing Talks Hang In Air Today

By FORREST EDWARDS
PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communist program to woo back anti-Red Chinese and Korean war prisoners floundered in uncertainty tonight after a Red dispute with the Indian command, which guards the 24,600 POWs.

The Communists called off today's scheduled interviews with 50 Koreans after the Indians refused to let the Reds make loud-speaker broadcasts to the POWs awaiting interviews.

The U. N. Command said late in the afternoon it had been told officially the Reds would interview more Koreans Tuesday, but an Indian spokesman said later he believed the Reds would not hold the explanations.

He said the Communists still were insisting on making the broadcasts. The Indians said previous Red broadcasts had been too exciting to the POWs and said they do not have the manpower to control any threatening situations that might arise.

Although there were no interviews Monday, tension ran high in the neutral zone stockades after Indian guard troops shot down a charging Chinese prisoner, and 21 Chinese and Koreans asked to go home in one of the largest single day's switches to the Red fold.

The prisoner was killed while the Indians were investigating reports of a murder of a POW in Chinese Compound 28 on Oct. 3. The Indian command said the Chinese POWs had been warned not to rush toward the guards.

The slaying drew an angry outburst from Dr. Karl Hong Ke, a South Korean government spokesman, who termed it "one of those expressions of outrageous conduct of pro-Communists."

Meanwhile, U.S. and Red negotiators meeting nearby got no closer to a deal.

The other three, he said, are confirmed Communists who are dominating the little group of Americans who stayed behind.

The source, who declined use of his name, said the three Communist Americans and their Red captors had drummed terror of going home into the 19 by telling them they are now "outside American law" and can be executed as traitors.

He painted a bleak, gray picture of the neutral zone camp where the 22 Americans are held with 1 Briton and 332 South Koreans—

A handful of deceived, bewildered and frightened men, afraid to remain behind but more fearful of going home because they believe home means death.

Takes Over Nov. 30

Elmer Boatler, standing, shows Postmaster Nat Shick his official appointment as acting postmaster. Shick is scheduled to retire on Nov. 30, after 20 years of service, and Boatler's appointment is effective on that date.

Boatler Is Named Acting Postmaster

Elmer C. Boatler, who has been in postal service here more than three decades, was notified Monday of his appointment as acting postmaster.

He will succeed Nat Shick, whose retirement becomes effective on Nov. 30, 1953. Shick also received notification to turn over the duties of postmaster to Boatler on that date.

"I'm mighty happy that the department has announced the appointment of Elmer Boatler," said Shick. "He is thoroughly grounded in operation and administration of the post office. During all my tenure I have always consulted with him and have relied heavily upon his advice. I know all the people who have cooperated so wonderfully with us for the past 20 years will continue to do so under the new postmaster."

Boatler is a native of this area and has handled about every position in the post office here. He was born just over in Borden County, the son of a pioneer couple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Boatler, near the Tom Good ranch headquarters. Because of limited school facilities, the elder Mr. Boatler moved the family here Aug. 19, 1915.

Following his graduation from high school here, Elmer attended the University of Texas for two years. His first association with the post office was on Oct. 16, 1922 when he became substitute carrier. J. W. Ward was postmaster then and the force, including the postmaster and sub-carrier, numbered 10.

Besides stepping in when the carriers were sick or on vacation, he served as part-time janitor, special delivery messenger and parcel post deliveryman (on foot). By Oct. 15, 1923, he was promoted slightly to substitute clerk, which meant he was moved inside. His appointment as regular clerk came on July 1, 1929. Then on May 1, 1930, when Mr. C. C. Holmes, who had been the first assistant postmaster for the

Benson Puts SCS Plan Into Effect Immediately

Says Eisenhower Approves Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary Benson today ordered that his controversial reorganization plan for the Agriculture Department be put into immediate effect.

Benson told a news conference that President Eisenhower approved of his action.

The plan will abolish seven regional offices of the Soil Conservation Service and place greater responsibility on state conservation offices for carrying out conservation programs.

Outlined as a proposal on Oct. 13, the plan had stirred bitter opposition.

Some congressmen had requested that Benson delay putting the plan into operation until after Congress had a chance to look it over.

Only last week, Rep. Bender (R-Ohio) announced that a House government operations subcommittee would conduct hearings this month on the plan.

Bender asked that Benson delay the plan until after the hearings.

Benson was asked at his news conference whether he had satisfied the Republican members of Congress who had suggested that he hold up on the plan.

Talmadge Sees Dire Results If Segregation Out

By JACK BELL
HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Gov. Herman E. Talmadge of Georgia declared today that a Supreme Court decision to end racial segregation in Southern schools would be "nothing less than a major step toward national suicide."

Talmadge, chairman of the Southern Governors' Conference, said any such "political decision" by the high court would involve "the most foolhardy sociological calamity in our national history."

"Nothing could injure our national strength more than a blatantly unconstitutional and wholly unrealistic ruling by the Supreme Court outlawing state control over education," he said in an address prepared for the opening session of the Southern governors' annual meeting.

"Every person of reason knows, and the court should take judicial notice of the fact, that we are making unprecedented progress in the South and, let alone, we can work out our own problems within the proper sphere of state authority."

Thirteen governors of states below the Mason and Dixon Line were on hand for a meeting with the Southern Regional Education Board prior to an afternoon round-table discussion of state school system problems.

The Supreme Court has scheduled December hearings on racial segregation cases which have aroused most of the Dixie governors. There have been moves in South Carolina toward setting up a private school system if the court holds that Negroes must be admitted to white schools.

The governors get a first-hand report on another problem when Secretary of Agriculture Benson speaks to them tonight at their annual state dinner.

Almost without exception, the Democratic governors said declining farm prices are making trouble for the Eisenhower administration in their states.

Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland, sole Republican present in this gathering of the Dixie clan, said he has "great faith" in Benson and believes it was a "tremendous mistake" for Sen. Young (R-SD) to call for the secretary's resignation.

Lovesick Youth Kills Girl's Father, Wounds 2 Of Family

CHATHAM, N. J. (AP)—A lovesick youth, ordered from his sweetheart's home, shot to death the girl's father and wounded her mother and her brother yesterday, police said.

"It will be either us or your parents," police quoted young Fred West III as telling his girl friend just before the shootings.

Police said West was angered over objections by the parents of Lola Ann Bevilacqua, 17, to his courting her.

The father, Charles Bevilacqua, 47, had refused to let the couple go out yesterday. Police said West returned later but was refused admittance. He came back a third time and went with Lola to her upstairs bedroom and locked the door.

Police said the father shouted to the girl, "Are you all right?" She said she was.

Police gave this account of what followed:

West showed a .32-caliber automatic pistol to the girl and said: "Will you marry me now? If not, it will be us or your parents."

Mr. and Mrs. Bevilacqua went upstairs. The mother went into her son Jerry's room to tell him what happened. The father, meanwhile, tried to open the door of his daughter's room with another key.

Young West fired a shot through the door. The shot wounded Bevilacqua. The youth opened the door and fired another shot at the father.

Cold Front Due To Hit In Panhandle

By The Associated Press
November's first cold front bore down on Texas Monday from the Pacific Northwest.

A weatherman said it should hit the Panhandle after midnight. He said he doubted it would cause much rain.

Crisp weather continued in the state. Morning temperatures ranged from 38 at Junction to 61 at Brownsville.

Ragged clouds hung over the coast and Lower Rio Grande Valley, but the rest of Texas was clear. The Weather Bureau said the only rain for 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. was .01 inch at Galveston and Brownsville.

A storm center north of the Great Lakes brought light rain to Minnesota and Wisconsin Monday. A cloud blanket covered a large part of western United States.

Light rains also fell in the Pacific Northwest and northern Rocky Mountain regions, the result of a second eastward moving storm center just north of Montana.

Skies also were cloudy in New England, after light snowfall Sunday on the northern tip of Maine.

Considerable ground fog was reported Monday in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio.

Early morning temperatures were mostly seasonable, ranging from 28 at Elkins, W.Va., to 33 at Houlton, Maine, 37 at Seattle, 61 at Los Angeles, 54 at Denver and 44 at Washington.

19 Reluctant GIs Afraid To Leave Reds

PANMUNJOM (AP)—A reliable source said tonight that only chains of fear are holding back 19 of the 22 American war prisoners who have refused to return home.

The other three, he said, are confirmed Communists who are dominating the little group of Americans who stayed behind.

The source, who declined use of his name, said the three Communist Americans and their Red captors had drummed terror of going home into the 19 by telling them they are now "outside American law" and can be executed as traitors.

A-Spy Called In Radar Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate investigations subcommittee announced today it has subpoenaed the convicted atomic spy, David Greenglass, for questioning Nov. 6 in its investigation of alleged espionage at Ft. Monmouth, N.J.

Greenglass is serving a 15-year sentence at the U. S. Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa. He testified for the prosecution at the trial of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg which sent the two to the electric chair last summer. Mrs. Rosenberg was his sister.

Francis P. Carr Jr., executive director of the subcommittee, released a prepared statement in announcing the action. Greenglass will testify behind closed doors at the subcommittee's New York City headquarters in the Foley Square Federal Building.

The statement said Greenglass was called "in order that he may give direct testimony concerning his knowledge of the espionage activities of Julius Rosenberg and others associated with the Army Signal Corps."

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) is investigating reports of security leaks of radar secrets from the Signal Corps laboratories at Ft. Monmouth.

Subcommittee investigators who questioned Greenglass in prison have reported he is willing to give valuable testimony concerning the alleged security leaks.

Carr's statement said a formal request for permission to question Greenglass at the Nov. 6 hearing has been filed with Atty. Gen. Brownell. McCarthy said recently the Justice Department had agreed to the questioning of Greenglass.

Six Die In Head-On Crash At Ropesville Early This Morning

LUBBOCK (AP)—Two cars smashed head-on about 20 miles southwest of here early today, killing all six occupants.

Three men and an unidentified woman were in one car. Two women were in the other.

Patrolmen said the cars were welded together by the collision about one mile northeast of Ropesville.

The men were identified as James Hedgecock, 19, of Roswell, N. M.; Jimmie Davenport, 20, El Cajon, Calif.; and Carl Parsley, Prague, Okla. All died at once.

The woman with them, about 20 and believed to be the wife of one, died two hours after the wreck.

The women in the other car were identified as Florence Barton, 31, and Nina Page, 54, both of Carlsbad, N. M.

The two women were driving southwest, the others' northeast when their cars met squarely on a slight curve at about 6:30 a. m.

The car in which the men were riding carried a Camp Roberts, Calif., sticker.

Mortgage Foreclosed
WASHINGTON (AP)—The government cancelled today its contract with Westmoreland Manganese Corp. of Batesville, Ark., and foreclosed its mortgage on the company's incomplete facilities.

Dean Charges Reds Aren't Negotiating

Meany Says Unity Possible With CIO But Rules Out Lewis

WASHINGTON (U) — President George Meany of the AFL said today there is "a definite possibility" of unity with the CIO but not with John L. Lewis because, "Good Lord, he's the fellow who split the AFL."

"He's the fellow who tried to split the CIO after he got tired of that," Meany said in a copy-righted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report. "He's the fellow who came back to the AFL in 1947 who tried to split it again."

Of course, he says every once in a while that there can be no unity without the miners. That's the baloney. We can have a lot of unity without the miners. I'm not saying that the miners wouldn't go in. There won't be any decision made not to let them in."

As for AFL-CIO merger, Meany said it is a definite possibility but not a probability. Without specifically mentioning Lewis, one of the founders of the CIO, Meany said that organization "was set up because there were several men in this country who felt that they needed a political arm among the workers of the nation."

If AFL-CIO unity does come from talks now in the preliminary stages, he added, then the possibility of bringing in such independent groups as Lewis' United Mine Workers and the railroad brotherhoods can be explored.

Hot Tempers, Fever Blamed In Deaths

WASHINGTON (U) — Mercurial tempers and a raging fever were blamed today for the violent deaths of Col. Randolph Leigh, wealthy author and promoter of oratory, and his French wife.

Leigh, 62, and his wife, Marcelle, 43, lived on a 45-acre estate near suburban McLean, Va. He was found hanged in his study yesterday and Mrs. Leigh's body, blasted in the chest with a shotgun charge, lay nearby.

Authorities ruled suicide in Leigh's death and said Mrs. Leigh would be listed as homicide.

Discount Is Still Allowed Here Today

Viola Robinson, county tax collector, today cleared confusion which had resulted from different reports regarding deadline for receiving three per cent discount on payment of taxes.

County, city and independent school district Saturday had announced different dates for expiration of the three per cent discount.

Law provides that the three per cent discount may be allowed up until 60 days prior to Jan. 1, Mrs. Robinson said. That would be today.

A two per cent discount will be given for payment of taxes during the period Nov. 3 to Dec. 2, inclusive. And one per cent discount is available for those paying taxes during the Dec. 3-Jan. 1 period.

Halloween Causes Only One Complaint

Police received only one report over the weekend concerning Halloween pranks. It came early Sunday morning, long past the hours of celebration.

Mrs. Willard Neal, 1107 East 12th, reported that several boys came on her porch about 3 a.m. Sunday and put soap on the door and windows. They were driving a Oldsmobile, she said.

Wife Says Men Abducted Her

HOBBES, N.M. (U) — Police questioned today an attractive wife who told them of being abducted with her daughter, 4, and being forcibly taken to Texas.

Officers refused to identify the woman, who is 22, beyond saying she lives in Hobbs.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Joseph Walton said two men were held. The FBI said only that information on the case "has been received and inquiries are being made."

Deputy Sheriff J. C. Fort said the woman told him this story:

Returning from a Halloween party Saturday night with her daughter, she was stopped by two men in a car who asked her if she wanted a ride home. She refused.

One grabbed her child and put her in the car. She got in after the child, the men drove off.

They told her they were taking her to a night club near the Texas line and would later drive her home.

Instead, they drove to Seminole, Tex., where they forced her to hide in the back seat while they registered at a motel.

In the motel, she made a disturbance and one of the men hit her on the neck with the side of his hand. When she regained consciousness, she was stripped of the waist and the men were gone, but her child was there.

She saw her abductors sitting by their car. They jumped in and drove off.

She put on a T-shirt belonging to one of the men and hitchhiked home where she told her husband. He called police.

Walton said there was no evidence that the woman had been criminally attacked.

County Dads Spend Most Of Morning On Routine Bills

Howard County commissioners spent most of their morning session approving routine bills before swinging into a discussion of water softeners and workmen's compensation insurance.

The commissioners court received two proposals for equipping the new courthouse with water softening units. Continental Products Corp. of Odessa submitted the low bid.

Judge R. H. Weaver was to discuss with the court the advisability of providing workmen's compensation for county employes. No action was due to be taken this morning.

Colorado City Lake Level Gains A Foot

Lake Colorado City, the Texas Electric Service Company reservoir on Morgan Creek, caught approximately one foot of water of strength of heavy showers on the upper reaches of Wildhorse Creek.

Elevation Monday was 2,957.10, only .15 of a foot short of the lake level before start of the inflow. Virtually all the additional water came from northeast Howard County where rains up to three inches drained into Wildhorse and blocked the Snyder highway. Wildhorse drains into Morgan Creek.

There was no word of increase at Lake J. B. Thomas, the CRM-WD basin on the Colorado, or of further gain at Moss or Powell Creek Lakes (Moss gained four feet, Powell two).

Five Cases Are Filed In County, Justice Courts

Three charges of driving while intoxicated, one charge of unlawfully carrying arms and a charge of aggravated assault have been filed in county and justice courts as a result of Highway Patrol, sheriff's office and police department activities during the weekend.

Glenn Grantham waived examining trial this morning on charges of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Justice Cecil Nabors set bond at $750.

Joe Jabors entered a plea of not guilty in county court to charges of aggravated assault. He was charged with assaulting J. C. Gilbert early Sunday. Gilbert suffered severe cuts and bruises about the face and 15 stitches were required to close the wounds, police said.

Police arrested Jabors after Gilbert was reported beaten. Two other men were arrested, questioned and released from custody.

Gilbert said a man attacked him after an automobile ran into the back of Gilbert's car while he was stopped to pick up his daughter and another girl who had come to the midnight show Saturday.

Robert Bryant Buege was fined $100 and costs and assessed a three-day jail term after pleading guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated. He was arrested by Highway Patrol officers.

Jerry Stanley Malatek also was charged with driving while intoxicated. County Court docket showed no disposition of the case, but sheriff's records indicate he was fined $100 and costs.

Bill Sims pleaded guilty to charges of unlawfully carrying arms, but the case was continued by County Judge R. H. Weaver after some testimony was heard. James L. Foster, a taxi driver, testified that a passenger in his cab stuck an instrument against his stomach. Judge Weaver said he would continue the case until County Attorney Harman Hooser was available to conduct the prosecution. Hooser was engaged in district court this morning.

City Praised By Breckenridge C-C

The Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce is on record praising the people of Big Spring and the local football team for hospitality and sportsmanship here Friday night.

This record takes the form of a letter, which was received by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce today. It was addressed to Director Jimmie Greene and read as follows:

"The Chamber of Commerce, the Breckenridge football team, and all the people who went to, listened to, and heard about the football game Friday evening, wish to congratulate the people of Big Spring for being wonderful hosts, and good sports. The game was fine, and each and every boy on your team was a good sport.

"The people, the school and all connected with the game, made the people of Breckenridge happy by being so hospitable. Many, many thanks, and we hope to reciprocate next year when we have the pleasure of being host to Big Spring."

The letter was signed by D. T. Bowles, president of the Breckenridge Chamber.

State Park Road Here To Be Paved

Notice has been received here that all roads in the Big Spring State Park are to be paved.

J. C. Roberts, district engineer for the highway department, called this morning with the news. Roberts said money has been made available for the paving project and that the go-ahead signal has been received.

Jimmie Greene, manager of the local Chamber, stated that the paving program will be effected with the cooperation of the State Parks Board. Frank Quinn, chairman of the parks board, has been backing the paving project for some time.

Roberts told Greene that Dewitt Greer, state highway engineer, personally gave authority for the project.

Automobile Reported Stolen On Saturday

Selso Vela reported to police that his automobile, a 1939 Plymouth, was stolen Saturday night while parked near the Rio Theatre in Northwest Big Spring.

Vela, who lives at 306 N. Bell, said the car is green-grey and has license number HB 1852. It is a coupe.

T. J. Higgins Jr., 110 Nolan, also reported that the battery was taken from his motorcycle sometime Saturday night.

City Observes A Quiet Halloween

Big Spring observed one of the quietest Halloweens ever.

Virtually no property damage and few other disturbances resulted from the observance. Both city and county authorities said they were "encouraged" by the manner in which young goblins and spooks conducted themselves.

Police received one report of a window-soaping job, along with a couple of prowler complaints attributed to trick-or-treat gangs.

The sheriff's department said some brush and a few rocks were piled in the street in the northwest part of town. Juvenile Officer A. E. Long said he had received no complaints of vandalism.

Famous Radio Drama Back On Air Over KTXC

Philip H. Lord's famous radio drama "Counterspy" can now be heard every Monday night at 7:30 p.m. over KTXC 1400 on your dial. "Counterspy" tells the thrilling story of our country's fight against the forces which threaten our communities.

"Counterspy" is brought to you every Monday night by Stacy-Reinhart Sewing Machine Center at 705 Main, agents in Big Spring for the world-famous "Vigorelli" sewing machine that lets you sew with your eyes closed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stacy came to Big Spring seven years ago with their daughter Madge and son-in-law, Antone Reinhart, to start their business. Besides handling the famous "Vigorelli", they stock the Universal sewing machine and a wide selection of used machines. Stacy-Reinhart are proud to bring to the public the new "Vigorelli" machine, and also bring to the listening audience of Big Spring the famous radio drama "Counterspy" — heard every Monday night at 7:30 p.m. over KTXC-1400 on your dial. Britain Unscrambles Its Socialistic Omelet

By RELMAN MORIN
LONDON, Nov. 2 (U) — Who says you can't unscramble an egg? Two years ago this month, British voters expelled the Socialist government, halted six years of nationalizing industry, and returned Winston Churchill and the Conservative party to power.

The unscrambling process soon began, with the removal of some of the many controls.

Within six months, one of the economic barometers registered a change for the better. Dollar reserves began rising; they are still going up. Conditions, generally, began to improve.

Today, the change in the face of Britain is almost miraculous. People look healthier, happier, better-dressed, more comfortable and more confident than at any time since the war. They say they feel good. The October air sparkles with optimism.

Whether it is justified by the over-all outlook may be open to question. Some British economists and business leaders question it.

Also, Socialists argue that the Conservatives can hardly claim all the credit for the gains of these two years. They contend that Britain was approaching an even keel, economically, in 1950, only to be set back again by the outbreak of war in Korea.

The man on the street pays little heed to either of these two points.

Because of what he can see and touch, he feels good. Virtually all food has been rationed, and the shops are well stocked. True, the cost of living has risen—which may worry his wife—but the things he wants at least are available once more.

So he has a choice, to buy, or not to buy. The decision is with him, not with a ration book, or a hedge of government regulations.

For these and other reasons, that heighed direct talks with the Russians "on the highest level" to explore the path of peace. It appeared to him that this was one of several signs that Britain had regained some of her old prewar prestige and importance in the direction of world affairs.

More recently, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles flew to London to talk over pending problems with Churchill and his aides.

That heightened the feeling that Britain is no mere silent partner in the Western alliance.

In Washington, London and elsewhere today, you hear a good bit about "Anglo-American differences." They are of fairly recent development—at least on the surface. In summarizing them, a British official told me:

"We feel we have been harnessed to the chariot wheels of American foreign policy."

The disagreements pivot on such questions as seating India in the conference to effect a political settlement for Korea, on the next moves with respect to the Russians, on the relation of rearming Germany to the European Defense Community, and so on.

To some observers, the divergences look very serious.

Others, however, regard them as a healthy development. In their view, it is far better to have a strong Britain openly disputing with the United States than a weak ally disagreeing but silent.

Nowhere, however, if there any belief that a complete break between the two countries is likely, or even possible.

Along with the generally optimistic atmosphere in Britain is the feeling that the danger of war with Russia has greatly diminished. People don't talk about it. Newspapers seldom refer to it.

Barbara Hill Marries In New Mexico

Barbara Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill, 804 Lanchester, became the bride of Bobby Duncan of Creston, Ind., Saturday morning at the First Methodist Church in Lovington, N. M.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duncan of Creston.

The Rev. Ray W. Ross, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a pink wool flannel suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Present for the ceremony were the bride's parents.

Mrs. Duncan is a graduate of Big Spring High School and the bridegroom graduated from Lowell High School in Lowell, Ind.

The couple will reside in Big Spring, where the bridegroom is stationed at Webb Air Force Base.

Park Hill P-TA

Park Hill P-TA will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the school auditorium. The Big Spring High School Dramatics Club will present a play, "Scattered Showers", sponsored by the Periman Basin Medical Auxiliary. An executive meeting will be at 7 p.m.

Tito Held Willing To Bargain With West On Trieste Zone

By ALEX SINGLETON
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (U)—Persons close to the Yugoslav foreign office are circulating reports that President Marshal Tito is willing to bargain with the West on Trieste. They say he might offer close military cooperation, possibly joining the Atlantic Pact, in return for concessions on the disputed territory.

Yugoslav demands were uncertain. But as a minimum, it was said, Tito probably would expect outright annexation of Trieste's Zone A, which contains the important port city of Trieste. Yugoslavia already has military control of Zone B—the territory surrounding the port. Zone A is held by Britain and the United States, who have announced their intention of turning that area over to Italy. Strong Yugoslav opposition has caused the two Western allies to postpone this move.

Meanwhile, Yugoslavia awaited an invitation to a proposed five-nation conference among the United States, France, Britain, Italy and Yugoslavia, which has been suggested by the Big Three as a method for solving the thorny Trieste quarrel.

In public, Yugoslav officials have vowed never to yield in their demands for all Trieste. Privately, however, they have indicated they might settle for Zone B, providing they had a direct approach into the port city of Trieste and independent jurisdiction over part of the waterfront.

Child Dies In Crash

MONROE, La. (U)—Ginger Bufkin, 15-month-old Kilgore child, was killed when two cars crashed head-on 10 miles west of Monroe yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bufkin were injured seriously. Another child, Douglas Bufkin, 5, was injured less seriously. Bufkin, who worked in South Carolina, was en route to Kilgore.

Western GOP Governors Back Benson, See Possible Storms

By SANKY TRIMBLE
ALBUQUERQUE (U)—Western governors generally say they back the administration's farm policy but concede it may lead to political storms ahead.

"Certainly it will hurt politically," said Utah's J. Bracken Lee, "but I'd rather lose being right than win being wrong." The chief executives—Republicans all—spoke up informally on the growing controversy over farm prices and Secretary of Agriculture Benson as they opened a two-day session. On the program, they are scheduled to talk about mining, highway financing, higher education and water and listen to a major address by Secretary of Interior McKay.

Lee led a group of governors recommending that President Eisenhower and Benson stand pat on their efforts to find a solution to the farm crisis. "What hurts most," said Lee, "is weakening within the Republican party itself over this issue. Certainly there is a party rift. But we stand to lose more by giving in to a loud minority than by standing firm on our principles."

Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington said the attack on Secretary Benson "is a lot of Democratic wishful thinking."

"It takes time to go from right to wrong. What do they expect of a man in such a short time? He's trying to find not the answer, but a step that will lead to stabilizing the situation without upsetting the entire economic picture."

Langer Against Any Attempt To Oust Secretary Benson

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (U)—Republican Sen. Langer said today he is "wholeheartedly opposed" to any move to drop Secretary of Agriculture Benson from the Cabinet, as demanded by his North Dakota Senate colleague and others.

Langer said in an interview he plans to call upon Benson to present a petition from 500 North Dakota farmers asking for government action to bolster sagging cattle prices. When he does so, the senator added, he will urge Benson not to yield to suggestions that he resign.

Eisenhower has warmly defended Benson, and has given no indication he wants a new agriculture secretary. Benson, under increasing criticism from many Democrats and some Republicans in Congress, today gave no advance word of what he planned to discuss.

Adenauer Is Boosted By Election Win

HAMBURG, Germany (U)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's "Hamburg bloc" uprooted the Socialists today from their stronghold here in Hamburg state elections which also steered the federal government's hand for pushing through its pro-Western policies.

Complete official returns from yesterday's voting gave the bloc—Christian Democrats, Free Democrats, the German party and the Refugee party—42 of the state Parliament's 120 seats. The voters also ousted the Socialist state governor, Minister President Max Brauer, in favor of an Adenauer man who will have the power to appoint the state's three representatives to the upper house of the federal Parliament.

Those appointments will give Adenauer's coalition the two-thirds majority it needs in the Bundestag, the federal upper house, to get parliamentary approval of plans to rearm Western Germany and ally her closely with West Europe's defense setup. The coalition already controls a two-thirds majority in the lower house, the Bundestag.

Compared to the Sept. 6 general election which returned Adenauer to power, the Chancellor's coalition forces dropped about 83,000 votes while the Socialists gained about 52,000.

Last Entrant Came To Tavern Too Late

NEW YORK (U)—Two policemen, suspicious of two youths, arrested the pair yesterday and found one carrying $61.25.

The pair, after questioning, reportedly admitted looting a bar and grill after climbing in through a transom.

All four went back to the tavern, where they spotted through the window another visitor at the bar's register.

The officers ordered the man out of the tavern. As he complied meekly, he angrily exclaimed: "This place has been robbed! There's not a nickel left."

The youths—Harold Keen, 21, and Richard Van Buskirk, 18—and the man, Robert Lawrence, 26, were charged with burglary.

Triplets Give Young Couple Five Children

DETROIT (U)—Married in 1950, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parman, each 26, boasted a family of five children today.

Triplets—two daughters and a son—were born to them yesterday, just 10 months after Mrs. Parman gave birth to her second son. Another son, Bobby, is 2.

"I guess I'm Deaconess Hospital's best customer," Parman, assistant manager of a supermarket commented as he handed out cigars three at a time.

Snyder-To-Wink Pipeline Federal Tax Write-Off Set

WASHINGTON (U)—Federal tax benefits will be shown on a 144 million dollar pipeline between Beaumont and Newark, N.J. The Office of Defense Mobilization approved yesterday the application by American Pipe Line Corp.

On a $137,197,000 portion of the oil line, ODM authorized the company to write off a fourth in five years. In depreciation for federal tax purposes. The company can apply the rapid writeoff to 40 per cent of a $6,900,000 portion.

Other defense expansion projects certified, and the percentage of cash to which the rapid writeoff may be applied, include: Phillips Petroleum Co., for petroleum refining at Sweeny, Tex., $4,061,200 at 65 per cent, $1,208,700 at 45 per cent, and $154,100 at 15 per cent. Pasotex Pipeline Co., $4,257,700 for petroleum pipeline from Snyder to Wink, 75 per cent.

Young Hunter Dies Despite Pal's Vigil

ROCHESTER, Minn. (U)—A young squirrel hunter, wounded in the head, died last night despite a cold, 20-hour vigil by a companion who said he held a fingertip in the wound thinking he would keep the boy from bleeding to death.

The boy, Martin Larson, 12, Utica, Minn., was wounded when a .22-caliber rifle discharged while he and John Kieselhorst, 14, St. Paul, were hunting in heavy woods near Utica about 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

Sheriff George Fort said Kieselhorst told him he fell and the gun accidentally went off, a bullet striking Martin in the forehead, over the left eye.

New Implements Of War Cause Problem For Chiefs Of Staff

WASHINGTON - The Joint Chiefs of Staff, all able men and patriots, are in an exceedingly unenviable position. As they proceed with their much-advertised "new look" at defense planning and defense spending, they find themselves painfully squeezed between an irresistible force and an immovable object.

marines surfacing many miles beyond the carrier's protective screen? These are not the only questions which need asking. For example: Cannot supersonic missiles carried in atomic submarines take over at least part of the role of the enormously expensive strategic air force?

Regulus, the Navy's atomic-powered submarine, will shortly be operational, and the keel of a second such submarine has been laid. These atomic subs are genuinely revolutionary weapons. They can stay submerged almost indefinitely. They can travel under water at speeds greater than all but the fastest surface ships.

The Weapon System Evaluation Board has never passed on the value of the Navy's super carriers, simply because to do so would touch off a tremendous inter-service row. Indeed, the board now refuses to pass on any "controversial" weapons whatsoever, for fear of rows. This is a measure of the power of resistance to change within the services.

The heart of American naval power now centers in the great aircraft carriers. Present plans call for the creation of twelve to fourteen carrier task forces. Each task force, with its outlying screen of protective vessels, represents a tremendous investment. Yet the marriage of Nautilus and Regulus may in the future render this whole great investment of exceedingly doubtful value.

Under the circumstances, it is not surprising that the new Joint Chiefs' famous "new look" is beginning to look more and more like a decision to carry on about as before. This is perhaps inevitable, while the new chiefs, and their newly appointed civilian superiors are coming to grips with the tremendous problems which confront them. But in the long run, carrying on as before may prove a dangerous expedient in the age of the revolution in warfare.

Surface ships. Nor is this all. The Soviets, no doubt, will also soon celebrate the marriage between their own Nautilus and their own Regulus. What chance will a big carrier have against an atomic missile which need not score a direct hit, which cannot be intercepted by piloted aircraft, and which can be fired from atomic-powered sub-

Japanese Rearming Accepted Passively By Americans As Cold War Necessity

WASHINGTON (AP)—In another day, say eight years ago when the Japanese surrendered, the story would have been in headlines and national fury would have descended on Washington officialdom.

ism became more intense and as each new step was taken the American public was hardly surprised. Each step was pretty much taken for granted.

There are other bases on the Russian perimeter, and military alliances with countries on the edge of the Iron Curtain from the eastern Mediterranean to the North Atlantic.

Not now. When the story about Japan's rearming appeared the other day it got some attention. There was no excitement. Most people probably thought it natural and inevitable.

So while the diplomats of Russia and the West dicker about conferences, split hairs in exchanges of notes, and damn each other in the United Nations, work on the wall continues.

Suppose events someday take a turn in which Germany and Japan become intensely militaristic again and break with the United States. What then? That problem will have to be handled if it arises. The problem now is Russia.

Strangely, remembering their prewar power drive, the Japanese showed reluctance about rearming. They were stripped to the bone in the surrender. Their only armed force now is 110,000 police.

This country wants Japan to build up quickly a military force of 350,000. A "self-defense" force, it was called, against Communist attack. The wording was carefully chosen, since the Japanese constitution adopted after the war bans major rearmament.

"I'd hate to have my vision back," he said. "It wouldn't be worthwhile. I'd miss so much of what I have now."

This Day In Texas

It may seem of no historical significance that on this day in 1857 the county courthouse at Sherman was torn down, for the self-same citizens who erected the log structure did it, as they had every right to do.

Hayes had found a mighty big place. Today his Fanny Farmer Candy Co. has 7 factories, 3,500 employees and 371 retail shops in some 200 American cities. Hayes also heads a chain of 10 candy stores in Canada.

Bricker Plan Would Indicate No Confidence In Ike, Dulles

WASHINGTON - Shortly after the Congress returns, and the time is now drawing close, the Eisenhower Administration faces a critical test. A determined effort will be made in the Senate to put over the Bricker Amendment to the Constitution which in the view of the Administration would seriously cripple the capacity to carry out foreign policy.

adoption of the amendment at the earliest possible moment. He said that he was distributing hundreds of copies of the Dulles speech wherever he spoke. When he resigned at Notre Dame, Manion was made a special advisor to the Americanism committee of the American Legion and he added that he had spoken for the Bricker Amendment to American Legion posts in virtually every state in the Union.

Even if the amendment, curbing the right of the Executive Branch of the Government to make treaties with foreign powers, is never ratified by the states, it would be taken by the world as a vote of no confidence in the President and his Secretary of State, Assistant Secretary of State Thurston B. Morton said in a speech in Cleveland the other day in an attack on the amendment.

"This is the hottest question since the Civil War," the witness said. "If the American people know that the Constitution is in danger, they are going to be heard from, and they are beginning to learn about it."

Cadets Celebrate Graduation At Dance

Graduation activities for Cadet Class 53-G got under way Sunday night with a dance at the Cadet Club at Webb Air Force Base.

Cadets from The Netherlands, France, Norway and Belgium are included in the class of 101 who were commissioned this afternoon.

Cadet Group Commander David Ford was guest of honor. Planning the event was A-C Kent Thornton, club officer for the Cadet Corps. Assisting with the decorations were Air Cadet Chick Waxman, Ed Triggs, Frank Gettlinger, Carl Virven, John Halton, Netherlands Air Cadet Jerry Van Harten and French Air Cadet Sebastien Tiseire. Sandy Swartz also assisted.

Decorations included guidons of the flights making up the Cadet Corps. The buffet table was centered with an arrangement of white hydrangeas and red carnations.

The Skyliners, part of the 350th Air Force Band, provided the music. Other guests included Col. Fred M. Dean, Webb Air Force Base commanding officer; Col. Henry S. Tyler, wing executive officer, and Mrs. Tyler; Col. William Jones, commander, 3560th Pilot Training Group, and Mrs. Jones; Maj. Charles B. Calvin, director of academics, and Mrs. Calvin; Maj. William M. Kerr, commander, 3561st Flying Training Squadron, and Mrs. Kerr; Maj. Jack Terrian, commander, 3560th Student Squadron.

Gift Aprons

By CAROL CURTIS
A cobbler apron with big pockets will make a fine Christmas gift particularly if done in a pastel cotton and trimmed with the accompanying lily-of-the-valley transfer. This transfer is in color so that all you need do is to iron the lily sprays onto the pockets before pockets are sewn up. Sprays are in pale green-blue for the flowers with deeper green for leaves and stems; no embroidery is needed. The colors are laundable. Pattern comes in three sizes—small, medium and large. Please state size needed.

Dieting Helped With Right Mental Outlook

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Dolores Dorn was born in Chicago and as long as she can remember she dreamed of becoming a movie star. She took advantage of every opportunity which was offered to practice dramatics and dancing. She did so well she was able to get a job as a chorus girl in a nightclub and saved her money to pay for more dramatic training.

"How does it feel to have your dream come true?" I asked Dolores as we lunched at Warner Bros. last week.

"I always felt it would happen some day, but I was prepared for it to be a lot harder," Dolores confided.

"Just how did you get your break?"

"I was having a soda in a drug store when a talent scout from Warner Bros. invited me to come to the studio, and they offered me a test which brought a contract."

Dolores added: "And I signed it on my lucky day, Friday the thirteenth."

Dolores had ordered cottage cheese salad with fresh fruit and when the waitress asked about dessert, Miss Dorn declined.

"You know, I had a terrible sweet tooth but I hope by staying away from sweets long enough I will lose my taste for them. It's awfully hard to break an old habit, but having a contract makes it easier."

"When I first came out here I had a weight problem," Dolores continued. "I worried a lot and when I felt sorry for myself I'd eat something sweet like candy or a big slice of cake. I have read that this is quite common—it's called "emotional compensation."

"Never underestimate the mental side of being over weight," I commented.

"That's true," Dolores agreed. "Understanding this was a big help to me. Instead of going on a rigid diet and being miserable every calorie of it, I think it helps to find the cause of your emotional disturbance and try to overcome it."

"At one time I wouldn't have had the will power to go without deserts, but now," Dolores confessed, "I think about my figure more than I do the taste of food."

"But one thing, she added, "that helps is to use this new sugar substitute which comes in liquid form and doesn't have any calories. I can make sherbet with skim milk, eggs and use this for sweetening and still stay on my diet."

THIS IS GOOD EATING

DUTCH PRUNE SQUARES

Ingredients: One 14-ounce package cookie mix, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1/4 cup warm water, 2 eggs separated, 2 1/2 cup chopped drained cooked prunes (12 large), 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon.

Method: Put cookie mix into sugar, water and egg yolks; set aside. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry; without washing beater, beat cookie mixture just until smooth; stir in prunes. Fold in beaten egg whites. Turn into greased baking pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches); mix 1 tablespoon sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle over top. Bake in moderate (350F) oven

30 to 35 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out with no batter sticking to it. Place pan on cake rack until partly cooled. Cut in squares in pan; remove with spatula; serve warm. Top with whipped cream or a pudding sauce if desired. Makes a delightful dessert to serve with the menu below.

Newson's FOOD CENTERS
SERVING BIG SPRING

Mary Margaret McBRIDE SAYS

My mother made the best cole slaw I ever ate, and I'm inclined to think that the President of the United States makes the second best I might ever eat.

I put it in that awkward way because, truth to tell, I never have tasted cole slaw made by Dwight D. Eisenhower himself. But often when I am in a hurry, because it's quicker than mother's, I sometimes use his recipe that I cut out of the paper.

Mama's boiled dressing takes time and a good deal of care in the blending for fear of curdling, and the President just mixes some sour cream, vinegar and seasoning together and as soon as he finishes chopping his cabbage, he's got a dish. Good, too.

I've taken part in many discussions about the respective cooking abilities of men and women. I always argue on the feminine side because to this day I think that my mother was the best cook who ever lived.

Yet I have to confess that if you like fancy meals, men can beat women all hollow. Immediately some male is going to yell, "What's the woman talking about? Men hate folderol and always stick to good steak and potatoes with no frills." All right, add scrambled eggs and an intricate salad dressing and you just about do have the average repertoire of the man who claims to cook. But I'm not talking about him.

The masters whom I extol have exotic names, like Escoffier, Brillat-Savarin—and Herman Smith. Of the three, I have to admit that Herman is the only master who has ever cooked for me. I remember the first time he did it, in the little town of South Salem, N. Y. He lived in a white house, 230 years old, filled with rare old pine furniture made by Shakers. I had never tasted such food.

The soup had cream, curry and apple in it. Don't ask me how they were combined to produce the exquisite result, for I never found out. Then came roast veal with a sauce of cream, mushrooms, rosemary, marjoram and, of all things, soy. The baked potatoes had been taken out of their shells and mixed with parsley, onion, butter, almonds and cream again—Herman was a butter and cream cook—and put back. The salad was broccoli with Herman's own mayonnaise. We finished off with a hot blueberry cobbler, served with a great dish of black walnuts, maple sugar, a dusting of cinnamon—and whipped cream.

Herman wasn't famous then, except to people who had eaten his food. But he became so later when he wrote two books about Stina the family cook of his Michigan boyhood and the dishes she made or taught him to make.

President Eisenhower may not be quite as versatile a cook as some of those I've mentioned, but his culinary range is not narrow, either. Competent consumers tell me he makes a grand vegetable soup and I'm sure he fries fish well because not long ago in Colorado he borrowed some corn meal from the wife of a ranch hand for his trout. There are people in the world who have eaten trout all their lives and never known the secret of conmealing them before you fry them.

Now, if I can just find out for sure that our Chief Executive uses flour and not egg-batter on his fried chicken, I'll be inclined to give him a real place on my roster of immortals in the kitchen.

Bovines All Alone At Top Of League

The Big Spring-Lamesa and Breckenridge-Sweetwater games will share attention in District I-AAA this weekend.

The Steers, fresh from a significant 6-0 victory over Breckenridge, go to Lamesa. Year in and year out, the Longhorns are always found the Tornados tough to handle. This is due to no exception.

Sweetwater, on the rebound after losing its opening game to Plainview, could knock Breckenridge completely out of the running or itself be eliminated from the race.

Plainview visits Vernon in another game and the Lions can act as spoilers in that one, since they have already lost two games.

Big Spring is the only unbeaten team in the conference now and is halfway through its conference schedule. The Steers face all their remaining district foes on the road.

Big Spring, which has now blanketed two conference foes, still boasts the best defensive record, having limited six opponents to 59 points. Breckenridge is still the highest scoring team with 166 points.

Bill Dendy of Breckenridge was kept away from the Big Spring goal remains the conference's leading scorer with 53 points.

UNDEFEATED, UNTIED RANKS NOW INCLUDE ONLY 35 GRID TEAMS

NEW YORK (AP)—Thirty-five college football eleven, including four major schools, remained unbeaten and untied today as the grid season moved into its final few weeks.

Notre Dame, Maryland, West Virginia and Baylor were the major teams who maintained their unblemished records in Saturday's competition.

Little Peru State Teachers of Nebraska tops the list with eight straight victories. Nine other colleges have won seven in a row this year.

In all, 11 teams lost their perfect standing over the weekend.

BS Among Seven Pace Setters

Forty-two conference games this week will bring the top divisions of Texas schoolboy football to the brink of deciding district championships.

The final month comes with undisputed leaders in two districts of Class AAAA and five in Class AAA.

Odesa tops Class AAAA Dist. 1 with prospects of breezing through to a title. The most formidable opposition is something of a surprise, San Angelo, which had gone several years without a victory, has taken three, lost two and tied two this season, the most notable triumph being a 19-6 decision over defending state champion Lubbock last week.

San Angelo is yet to be met by Odesa along with Pecos and Midland. The Bobcats wouldn't appear quite up to halting the Odesa powerhouse, being most erratic, but the day they play Odesa might be when they are "on" their game.

Bowie (El Paso), Jefferson (El Paso) and Austin (El Paso) are tied for the Dist. 2 lead. Bowie plays Austin Friday.

Paschal (Fort Worth) leads Dist. 3, but Poly (Fort Worth) has only a tie against its record. Paschal and Poly clash this week.

Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) and Crozier Tech (Dallas) are tied for the Dist. 4 lead. Waco and Highland Park (Dallas) for the Dist. 5 top rung. Breckenridge (San Antonio) and Ray (Corpus Christi) for the Dist. 6 lead, Lamar (Houston) and San Jacinto (Houston) for the Dist. 7 lead and Beaumont, Port Arthur and Baytown for the Dist. 8 lead.

In Class AAA, the undisputed district leaders are Big Spring in 1, Gainesville in 3, Texarkana in 4, Port Neches in 6 and Edinburg in 8. Brownwood and Cleburne are tied for the lead in Dist. 2, Palestine and Temple for the lead in Dist. 3, and Edinburg and Harlandale (San Antonio) and Harlandale in Dist. 7, Palestine and Temple play this week as do Edison and Harlandale.

The past week found all of the undefeated teams maintaining their records in the two classes.

Woodrow Wilson and Waco have been unbeaten, untied records in Class AAAA while Lamar is undefeated but has been tied. Edinburg and Edison are undefeated and untied in Class AAA and Kilgore is undefeated but has been tied.

The week's schedule by districts (all games conference unless indicated otherwise):

CLASS AAAA table with columns for Day, Game, and Location.

CLASS AAA table with columns for Day, Game, and Location.

Friday: Texas City at Aldine, South Park (Beaumont) at Galena Park, Port Neches at Conroe.

Friday: Edison (San Antonio) vs Harlandale (San Antonio); Friday: Alamo Heights (San Antonio) at New Braunfels, Bursak (San Antonio) at Kerrville, Victoria at Seguin.

Friday: Kingsville at McAllen, Pharr-San Juan-Alamo at Harlingen, Edinburg at Brownsville, San Saba at Allen.

RAMS DECISION LIONS, 37-24

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The National Football League season has reached the halfway mark with the Cleveland Browns safely entrenched as leader of the Eastern Conference and the Los Angeles Rams holding down the top spot in the Western Division but by no

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Opinion was divided on what the outcome of the Big Spring-Breckenridge game would have been, had it been played on a dry field. The scouts in the press box were in common agreement, though. They seemed to think the wet weather definitely aided the Buckaroos, that Breck's line could not have contained the Big Spring power under normal circumstances.

Coach Carl Coleman was happy to play the game Friday night, though.

He didn't like the idea of the wet field any more than any one else but he knew his boys were keyed up, were ready to get at the state champions as quickly as possible. He wasn't sure a 15-hour rest would have done them any good.

Coleman was thankful Joe Kerbel, Breckenridge's fine coach, didn't approach him, asking to set the game back to Saturday. Carl would have to have considered such a proposal, true, but Joe apparently never gave serious thought about making such a suggestion.

One thing that helped Kerbel make up his mind, no doubt, was the fact that too many Breck fans who had come up for the game would have had to go on home Friday night, could not have stayed over for the contest.

If memory serves me correctly, the loss was the first in history for Breckenridge in AAA competition.

The Bucks have reigned as state champs the past two seasons. The Texas Interscholastic League reorganized its set-up after the 1950 campaign. Before that, both Big Spring and Breckenridge competed in AA circles.

If anyone here is taking the Steer assignment this week lightly, they can examine the record. It's been a number of years since the Steers have been able to beat Lamesa. Fat years or lean, the Tornados always seem to rise to the heights for the Big Spring game, and outdo themselves.

Coach O. W. Follis, a great mentor, finds he has to do little to get his boys mentally ready for the Steers. Just mention Big Spring to them and they bristle.

One gets the idea that the Tornados had almost rather defeat the Steers than win district. Lamesa fans take a fierce pride in their team, an admirable trait.

Someone mentioned to Coach Coleman that the Steers might be on a down hill pull now, after having vanquished Plainview, Vernon and Breckenridge.

"Far from it," moaned the coach. "They'll all be pointing for us."

How right he is. The Steers can afford no lapses. They'll have to continue to play them one at a time. It's the price for being the top-rated team.

The Dallas News, which caters to teams in East Texas because the bulk of its out-of-city circulation is there, has never had Big Spring rated higher than 11th.

Wonder where they'll put the Steers this week, now that the locals have knocked off their number two team, Breckenridge?

Six-man football is getting to be big business. Foran recently offered Blackwell $150 to move his game with the Buffs to Fort Worth. Blackwell officials weren't having any. They intimated they wouldn't transfer the game for any price.

McHan Is New Total Offense Leader In Southwest Loop

DALLAS (AP)—Lamar McHan of Arkansas needed at least 98 yards against tough Texas A&M to move into the lead in total offense in the Southwest Conference. That was the lead at that time. Don Ellis of the Aggies, didn't add a yard to his total.

McHan paced for 184 yards and rushed for 73 and his 237 yards shot him into the lead by 179 yards because Ellis didn't do very well against Arkansas.

McHan has 937 yards on 184 rushing and passing plays—an average of 5.1 yards each time he has handled the ball.

Ellis is second with 738 yards on 234 plays.

McHan is the first conference player to go over 1,000 yards in all departments this year—he also has run 15 punts back 184 yards. That makes his all-around total 1,123 yards. He has punted 29 times for 1,147 yards.

Ellis still leads in passing, although Francis Davidson of Baylor threw for 152 yards against TCU while Ellis was getting 77 against Arkansas.

great margin. The Browns, only undefeated club in the 12-team circuit, checked up win No. 6 yesterday by drubbing the Washington Redskins, 27-3, with a three-touchdown parade in the last half.

The Rams took undisputed command of the Western Conference with a 37-24 triumph over Detroit's Lions, 1952 champions. The defeat dropped the Lions into a tie for second place with the San Francisco 49ers, who downed the Chicago Bears, 24-14, as their injured quarterback, Y. A. Tittle, returned to action after an absence of three weeks.

The stands show the Rams with a 5-1 record compared to the 4-2 mark of the 49ers and the Lions. Philadelphia's high scoring Eagles moved into the runner-up spot in the Eastern Conference with a 35-7 triumph over the Pittsburgh Steelers. The New York Giants won their second game of the season at the expense of the Chicago Cardinals, 23-30, on a 75-yard pass play in the last seven seconds. Saturday night the Green Bay Packers whipped the Baltimore Colts, 35-24.

The unenviable task of trying to stop the Browns falls to the Steelers in Cleveland. But a Pittsburgh victory wouldn't have any serious effect on the standings for the Eagles, who meet the Giants, trail by 2 1/2 games.

Out on the West Coast the Rams and 49ers renew their feud at Los Angeles, where a record crowd of 93,751 sat in on yesterday's contest.

Yesterday the Rams found themselves on the short end of a 10-0 score at the end of the first period as the result of an intercepted pass by Jack Christensen and Donk Walker's field goal.

The Rams got back into the ball game on a 5-yard buck over the goal line by Skeet Quinlan and a field goal by Ben Agajanian. But the Rams' Jug Girard sprinted 85 yards to set up a 15-yard touchdown pass from Bobby Layne to Leon Hart. That was all of Detroit's scoring until the final minute when Hunch Hoernschmeyer went over from the 1.

Meantime, the Rams scored three times in the third period and once in the final quarter.

Tittle, his broken cheekbone protected by a mask, sparked the 49ers by setting up the first score, made by Joe Arenas, with a 47-yard pass and tossing to Bill Wilson for another touchdown. George Blanks tossed two touchdown passes, one to Bill McCoy and the other to Billy Stone, to keep the Bears in the ball game.

The Browns had a nip and tuck affair with the Redskins before breaking the game wide open in the last half. They left the field at the half on the long end of a 6-3 score as the result of two field goals by Lou Cross, but took advantage of the break to make a runaway of the game. One of their touchdowns came after recovering a fumbled punt, another following a blocked kick and the third on an intercepted pass.

Bobby Thomason's passing wizardry was the Eagles' chief offensive weapon. He completed 22 of 33 passes, three for touchdowns. Jerry Williams and Harold GiancaneIII went overland for the other two Philadelphia tallies.

The winless Cardinals apparently had the Giants whipped with a 20-17 lead and only 30 seconds remaining. Then Arnold Galiffa, ex-Army star, fired a 25-yard pass to Kyle Rote, who raced down the sidelines for the touchdown.

'Athlete Of Year' Award Is Planned

HOUSTON (AP)—The State Junior Chamber of Commerce will present a "Texas Athlete of the Year" award to an outstanding amateur athlete.

Nominations from Jaycee organizations will be accepted until Christmas with final selection made by sportswriter from Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Beaumont, Waco, El Paso, Austin, Lubbock and Harlingen.

Everett E. Baker, state sports chairman for the Jaycees, said women also are eligible for the athletic award.

Pivot Man

A standout in the Lamesa Tornado line is Doyle Farcher, above, ace center. He'll line up against Big Spring Friday night.

Only Four 11's In Elite Group

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Only four major college football teams remained undefeated and untied today as the campaign headed into the home stretch and the crucial games that could make or break many a coach.

Notre Dame, Maryland, Baylor and West Virginia are the only members of the select circle—and at least two of them would be just as happy if the season were over. Baylor still has three rugged Southwest Conference foes to play and West Virginia has a date with a better-than-average South Carolina outfit.

As for Notre Dame and Maryland, there isn't much to say about them except that there doesn't seem to be anyone on this continent to challenge them. Both seem to get stronger as the season progresses.

Joe McArdle, who substituted for Frank Leahy, the ailing master, Saturday emptied the Irish bench in an effort to hold down the score against Navy—the same Tars who were being touted only two weeks ago as the class of the East. The final count was 38-7.

The chances of Notre Dame being beaten, of course, are practically nil no matter what teams the Irish still had on their schedule. But for the record they still meet Penn. North Carolina, Iowa, Southern California and Southern Methodist.

Maryland still has George Washington, Mississippi and Alabama on its schedule. Ol' Miss, which has been beaten only once—by Auburn—stands the best chance against the Terps.

Southern Cal, Yale, Louisiana State and Utah are the latest to fall by the wayside although they all have been tied. Oregon surprised one and all by polishing off Southern Cal, 13-7, while Dartmouth provided the form reversal of the Ivy League season by crushing Yale, which had hopes to walk off with the title. Now the standings are in a state of complete confusion.

Wolves In Bad Physical Shape

COLORADO CITY—Coach Dilard Adair, mentor of the Colorado City Wolves, reported further damage in his injury riddled squad as a result of Friday's clash at Stamford.

"Weldon Ennis, right guard, and end Bill Bridgford were injured—Ennis with a broken rib and Bridgford with torn knee cartilage," said Adair, "and their physician says that they may not play in our two final games."

Hollis Gainey, the Wolves' top scoring back, slightly re-injured an ankle that had kept him from play for two weeks, but will likely play in either or both the Anson and Rotan games. Stamford's Bulldogs managed to halt Gainey, who had not been held scoreless this season.

Coahoma Promoted To Class A In '54

COAHOMA—The Coahoma Bulldogs will be promoted from Class B to Class A by the Texas Interscholastic League circles next September.

That fact was confirmed by Fred Salling, coach of the Bulldogs, this morning.

The team will enter 4-A, which has as other members Denver City, Morton, O'Donnell, Seagraves, Stanton, Sundown and Whiteface. It now is in District 6-B.

The promotion will enable Coahoma and Stanton to renew an old conference rivalry. Stanton graduated to rivalry three years in advance of Coahoma. The two schools continued to play non-conference games, however.

Salling said he would have preferred to enter the higher classification this year. However, football prospects for the 1954 season are good at Coahoma, he added, and indications are the school will be able to hold its own.

Salling and Supt. H. L. Miller will attend a 4-A executive meeting in Seagraves at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, at which time a football schedule for 1954 will be drawn.

Salling said Coahoma High School had five students more than the minimum required for entry into Class A ball, when the last census was taken.

The Bulldogs, meanwhile, will concentrate on the job of winning District 6-B championship honors this week.

They play Loraine in Coahoma at 7:30 p.m. Friday. A victory over Loraine would give the Bulldogs their first football championship in a number of years and qualify them to play the 5-B kingly (probably Grandfalls) later this season.

Maxwell States He Played His Best Golf In Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP)—"It was the best golf I ever played in my life," a jubilant Billy Maxwell told admirers today.

The blond, 24-year-old Texan yesterday won the Mexico amateur championship when he defeated Frank Stranahan of Toledo, 8 and 6 in the final, on the 6,895-yard, par-72 Churubusco course.

Wiffie Smith of Guadalupe, winner of the recent Tam-O-Shanter, won the women's championship by defeating Lus De Lourdes of Mexico City 7 and 6.

Maxwell set a new tournament record with a 64 on the first 18 holes. Wiffie tied the women's mark of 70 set by Leahy Lobo of San Antonio last year. It was the first Mexican title for both, although Maxwell was runner-up in 1951 when Stranahan defeated him.

It is possible all three may play in the first annual Guadalupe Country Club tournament Dec. 9. Stranahan said late yesterday he would enter if a suitable field participated. Miss Smith is managed by the club's pro. Maxwell's entry depends on permission from his commanding officers at Fort Hood, Tex.

Maxwell was red-hot in winning his first Mexican title, out-driving Stranahan and sinking putts with deadly coolness, one for 24 feet.

Shivers Denies GOP Has Toehold In Texas

By The Associated Press
Gov. Shivers says Texas is still "overwhelmingly Democratic" and "will be that way for a long time to come."
The governor spoke up at Hot Springs, Va., where the Southern Governors Conference found the state heads, on a six to three count of hands, believing President Eisenhower's political popularity is slipping.
Shivers was neutral in the poll by an Associated Press reporter. He said he thinks Eisenhower's popularity is "about the same" in Texas. Shivers supported Eisenhower last year and Texas gave like a 123,000 majority.
It might be down a bit, he said, because of low farm prices for which the administration gets some blame.
Gov. Lawrence Wetherby of Kentucky and Charles Johns of Florida were emphatic in contending low farm prices had set the Republicans back sharply in the GOP efforts to penetrate the South.
Wetherby said farmers in his state are "boiling mad" because he said "the Eisenhower administration hasn't done anything but appoint committees" in response to drought relief plans there.
Gov. William Umstead of North Carolina said he thinks Eisenhower has slipped in that state, which the President lost in 1952 by about 94,000 votes.

Gov. Robert Kennon of Louisiana said he believes if the election were today, Eisenhower would carry Louisiana. He lost it by about 45,000 votes last year.
Gov. Johnston Murray of Oklahoma guessed that state would go back into the Democratic column today, after having given Eisenhower a 115,000 margin in 1952.
Gov. William Marland said West Virginia's 34,000 Democratic presidential majority would be greatly increased in an election now.
Gov. Frank Clement said Eisenhower's popularity in Tennessee will turn on the administration's policies toward the Tennessee Valley Authority. Eisenhower has mentioned "creeping socialism" in connection with TVA. Eisenhower won the state by less than 3,000 votes last year.
Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia said he doesn't believe the President has acted fast enough on the farm problem and "he's still pretty much on trial."
Shivers said there is some doubt in his mind that the President would get as many votes now.
Saying the 1952 result involved a pro-Eisenhower and anti-Truman vote, he said it couldn't be interpreted as indicating the Republicans have got a toehold in Texas.
"Texas is an overwhelmingly Democratic state," Shivers said. "There isn't any two-party system in Texas and I would be surprised if any Republican is elected to Congress from the state next year."
Shivers was asked if he had considered running against Senator Lyndon Johnson next year. The governor replied he hasn't any idea of running for anything right now.
"Don't construe that as saying I would not be a candidate for the Senate," the governor warned.
"You've been mentioned for the Presidency," Shivers was told.
"Not seriously," the governor replied.

Riding THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

The University of Texas Press is going to have to hump itself considerably if it ever expects to contribute as many sterling volumes of Texas history to the reading world as the University of Oklahoma Press is doing.
Just recently the latter publisher has produced two handsome volumes without which no library of Texas history is to be considered complete. In their order of importance, which is the reverse order of their publication they are "The XIX Ranch of Texas and the Early Days of the Llano Estacado" by J. Everts Haley at $1.00 and "Fort Worth Outpost on the Trinity" by Oliver Knight at $3.75.
Everts Haley, the cowboy-historian and wit, and director of the Institute of Americanism at Texas Tech, needs no introduction to riders of the Grub Line. He is Texas' (and therefore the world's) best informed student on the history of West Texas from the old Fort Concho area on up through the Panhandle. This volume, studied in conjunction with some of his other literary works including "Charles Goodnight: Cowman and Plainsman" and "George W. Littlefield, Texas" and "Life on the Texas Range" and "Fort Concho and the Texas Frontier" will bring to any reader, who doesn't have the time to delve deep into extensive research as complete a history of the early days in West Texas as will ever be written through the Panhandle. This volume, studied in conjunction with some of his other literary works including "Charles Goodnight: Cowman and Plainsman" and "George W. Littlefield, Texas" and "Life on the Texas Range" and "Fort Concho and the Texas Frontier" will bring to any reader, who doesn't have the time to delve deep into extensive research as complete a history of the early days in West Texas as will ever be written through the Panhandle. pire of grass and hide, the story is laid against a background of the characters and customs of the people of that time and place including the Chicago capitalists and top cowhands who kept looking back over their shoulders for a cloud of dust being thrown up by a posse.
Abner Taylor, XII manager, drew up a set of 23 rules for the government of the outfit and these are included as an appendix to the volume. Among them it was stipulated that: "Private horses of employees must not be kept at any of the camps, nor will they be allowed to be fed grain belonging to the company . . . The abuse of horses, mules or cattle by any employee will not be tolerated; and anyone who strikes his horse or mule over the head, or spurs it in the shoulder, or in any other manner abuses or neglects to care for it while in his charge, shall be dismissed from the company's service . . . Employees are not allowed to run mustang, antelope or any kind of game on the company's horses . . . No employee is permitted to carry on or about his person, or in his saddle bags, any pistol, dirk, dagger, sling shot, knives, Bowie knife or any other similar instruments . . . Employees are strictly forbidden the use of vicious, man, spirituous, or intoxicating liquors, during their service with the company."
Oliver Knight, author of the Fort Worth history, is a native Texan having been born in Brownwood. Later he lived in Longview and Fort Worth. Following his release from active duty with the Army in 1946, he signed on with the Star-Telegram as a reporter, and this volume, "Fort Worth, Outpost on the Trinity" is the outgrowth of a series of articles he was assigned to write on the early history of Cowtown. Regular readers of the Star-Telegram will recall the articles published in 1949.
Being the story of the growth of Fort Worth, it is naturally, in some degree, the story of the growth of all of Texas west of there. It starts with the "Outpost on the Trinity" in 1849 and brings the town right down to the famous Shady Oaks hats of a man by the name of Amon G. Carter who started life by being born in an unchinked log cabin in Wise County. Amon and a norther warrive about the same time. To keep Mrs. Carter and the baby from freezing, a neighboring farmer wrapped them in quilts, placed them in a rocking chair, and he and the new father carried them down the road to a neighbor's home. The cabin was about as new as young Amon. The elder Carter hadn't had time to chink the logs.

The volume is descriptive of the six distinctive phases of Fort Worth's growth beginning with the incoming of the Confederate veterans after the War Between the States, and continuing through the cattle drives and the start of the cattle industry, the coming of the railroads, the building of the packing plants and stock yards, the West Texas oil development, and the phenomenal expansion during World War II and since.
Neither of these volumes should be overlooked by the reader who wants to know more of Texas history and be entertained at the same time.

Safety Pin Taken From Stomach Of 17-Month-Old Baby

ST. LOUIS (U)—Little Michael Larry Doran went home from the hospital today unharmed after an open safety pin he swallowed was removed from his stomach in a three-stage, half-hour operation.
The child, 17-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doran, swallowed the one-inch pin while his mother was changing his diaper Saturday night.
Doctors found the pin had lodged behind the voice box in his throat. They first eased the open pin down the esophagus into his stomach, a distance of about eight inches. Then they tried to close the pin so it could be safely brought up from the stomach, but stiffness of the pin caused the catch to break off.
Finally the broken pin was retrieved from the stomach with a forceps. Doctors said the child, who was under anaesthetic during the operation, could have been seriously injured if the pin had punctured his voice box, esophagus or stomach.

Greek Royal Pair To Be Given Parade

NEW YORK (U)—King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece get a traditional Broadway ticker-tape parade today.
Later King Paul will be awarded an honorary degree of doctor of humane letters at Columbia University.
The royal couple, on a 25-day tour of the United States, visited the Roosevelt estate at Hyde Park, N. Y., yesterday. They placed a wreath of orchids on the grave of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and had luncheon with his widow.
U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold was host to the King and queen at a private dinner last night at the U.N. building in Manhattan.

Texas Sailing Family Arrives Safety In Australian Harbor

SYDNEY (U)—A Texas sailor, John Caldwell, brought his 36-foot ketch, Tropic Sea, safely into Newcastle last night, 17 months after he set sail from California.
His wife, who brought her three small children along on the harrowing Pacific crossing, swore she wouldn't try any such return trip.
"If ever I go back to the United States," said Australian-born Mrs. Caldwell, "it won't be on a ketch." She will visit her parents in Sydney.
Caldwell, of Fort Worth, left the West Coast with Mrs. Caldwell and their sons, John, now 6, and Stephen, now 3, in May, 1952. Roger, now 1, was born during a six-month stopover in Tahiti.
The sailing family had to battle four gales in the 11-day voyage from New Caledonia to Australia. In September, the ketch nearly went down in a tidal wave near the Fiji Islands.
It was Caldwell's second journey across the Pacific by sail. He tried a singlehanded crossing to Australia in 1946, but his tiny craft wrecked in a storm off Fiji. A book about the try, "Desperate Voyage," financed this trip.
Move To New Land
MEXICO CITY (U)—Some 327 farmers from a colonization project near Matamoros, across from Brownsville, were reported moving to new land in the south today. A long drought discouraged the farmers in the border project.
