The Nominating Committee met Tuesday night, and selected the same officers to be put on the ballot for next year. Present officers of the Co-operative are: President, Ben Gann, Vice-President, I. Primary Students End Whole Days

Littlefield primary students started school on a full day schedule at the beginning of the semester. Primary students were on a half day school schedule during the fall semester. However, completion of the new addition which cost approximately $55,000 to the primary building brings ample space for full day attendance. The eight new rooms will also take care of the Littlefield students to the standards proposed in the Gilmer-Aiken proposed plan of 34 students per room which averages a daily attendance of 25 students. Margaret Teel, principal of primary school, has 20 teachers on staff. Parents and the public are cordially invited to inspect the new rooms. The new rooms are as modern as possible under the financial limitations of the building. Natural lighting is excellent for all of the rooms.

The Year Much Rain

1949 may not prove to be the wettest in history for Lamb county. Statistics are that it could be the flying start that it has had. The additional .06 of moisture all Tuesday, the total to date is .22 inches. This puts January .84 inches up on January 1948 .15 ahead of January 1947, and the month is just half gone. The year still has a long way to go, but fair slice has been made toward the '48 total 15.42 inches. The '47 total of only 13.75 inches more moisture fell in January 1947 than did in January 1948. January 1949 has already almost equaled the combined total of the other months and indications are that it haven't seen the last of it yet.

VOL. XXVI. LITTLEFIELD, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 1949 NO. 44

January 31 Deadline For Paying Poll Tax

January 31 is deadline for paying poll taxes. And this year more than ever everybody eligible to vote should pay his or her poll tax.

True, there is no Lamb County or general election scheduled, but there will be at least two very important special elections called this year, and possibly more. One will be on the issue of whether or not the people of Texas will pay a poll tax. This will be a state-wide election. The bill in this regard has been introduced, and has to go through the House and Senate, but is expected to come up at a special election.

The revamping of the Constitution is another very important issue expected to be voted on by the people of the State.

In an interview with Judge Otha Dent Saturday he stated that Governor Jester was supporting the revamping of the Constitution, and he was sure this issue would come up this year.

Judge Dent is one of the 200 in the State, who have been selected to serve on the revamping committee.

A third election to come up this year also will be a City Election, which is also an important event, at which every eligible citizen should be equipped to cast his or her vote.

Another special issue that might come up this year is whether or not the State will impose a sales tax. If such a special election were to be called, certainly everyone eligible should be in a position to vote for or against it as their wishes dictate as free American citizens.

Another important feature is the fact that the number of poll taxes paid in a County is one of the factors taken into consideration by the law makers when making allocations in the Legislature bills affecting the various counties.

ONLY 11 MORE DAYS TO PAY YOUR POLL TAX — PAY YOUR POLL TAX NOW.

IMPORTANT CONTRACTS MADE AT MEETING OF CITY COMMISSION

At a called meeting of the City Commission Tuesday morning at the office of the Secretary, W. G. Street, a contract was made with the Southwestern Public Service Company to sell them certain electrical equipment owned by the City, including one electrical substation, consisting of 3-75 KVA Transformers and lighting arresters, cutouts and other property connected therewith, and approximately 2.7 miles of distribution pole lines and their appurtenances for approximately $10,000 cash.

The Southwestern Public Service Company agreed to supply electricity to the City at a flat rate of 1c per Kilowatt hour, and 1 1-4c for all over that. This new contract will mean a considerable saving to the City.

Promises To Be Biggest And Best Display Ever Held

Prof. Baumgardner Of Texas Tech To Judge Show

General rules, regulations and plans for the Littlefield F.F.A. and 4-H Stock Show to be held the Saturday before the Lubbock Meat Show in March were released by general superintendent Elwin Matthews through the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the show, Tuesday.

The show is to be strictly a fat stock show since the annual Fair handles all breeding stock and is corresponds with other big fat stock shows in the state, Matthews said.

Better facilities than have been available before, lend credit to the promise that this will be the biggest and best fat stock show ever held in Lamb County.

Bidders will be contracted early, according to Matthews, for the auction sale to be held after the judging. He said indications are that a great number of buyers will attend this year.

Designated weighing points or a point will be announced later by the committee.

Entry blanks are available at either the county agents office or the Vocational Agriculture teacher's office.

Baumgardner To Judge
Professor John Henry Baumgardner, of the Animal Husbandry department at Texas Technological college has been secured to judge the show this year, Matthews said.

To be eligible to enter an animal in the show the boy must be enrolled in and active in an F. F. A. chapter in the Littlefield F. F. A. district or a 4-H club in Lamb county. All animals must be fitted for the show and must be ready to show when class is called. When there is not more than three entries in a class the class will not show but in case of hogs will be entered as Miscellaneous.

Animal must be the boys Project and must have been owned by him for at least 60 days to meet the ownership rules.

Classes of stock will be published later, however they are available now on the entry blanks.

Further Support Received On River Dam Project

Further support on the proposed Canadian river dam project which would complete Highway 51 in this section of Texas was received last week from Amarillo where it was stated that a survey report on the project had been mailed to Governor Beauford Jester.

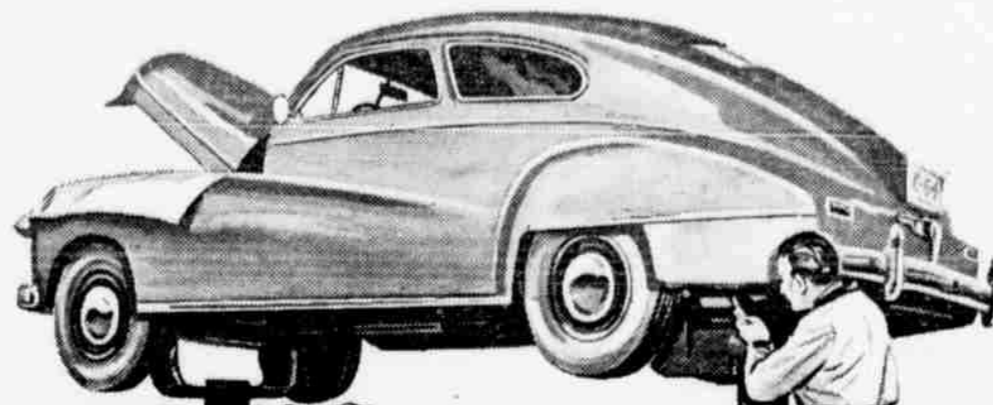

The report which was prepared by Bu:l C. Blanton, had been approved at a meeting of mem:rs of the executive committee of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce and the natural resources committee. The report has for its purpose supplanting of data that will justify indefinite delay of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers unfavorable report to Congress on building of a Canadian river dam.

Mayor L. W. Hagy of Amarillo sent a covering letter to Gov. Jester. The mayor described the corps' unfavorable report as not adequately representing the municipal, industrial and irrigation water values of the proposed dam to the Panhandle area. The Blanton report uses population and industrial curves to chart the growth of the region providing there is sufficient water.

Resolutions from both Lubbock and Amarillo, signed by their respective mayors, accompanied the report.

Married Christmas Eve
Mrs. and Mrs. King were married Christmas Eve in Florida.

Mrs. Gerlach At Register
Mrs. Fred Gerlach presided over the bride's book, which was of white paper, engraved in gold lettering, and by a large white satin rosette ribbon, from which hung white streamers decorated with silver...

Mrs. Wilemon Bride By Proxy
Mrs. Wilemon, acting as the bride proxy, was beautiful, and carried her part perfectly in a white satin chiffon gown with the most gorgeous train, trimmed in seeded pearls, by the bride's mother, Mrs. G. Shaw, on her wedding day.

Carried Ivory Fan
The bride by proxy carried a white fan, attached to which was a spray of pink rosebuds, and hangings which were white satin ribbons trimmed with pearls.

Laid With Hand Made Cloth
The tea table was laid with hand linen cloth of drawn work and ivory, made in China, with a full orchid tree on an oblong reflecting the centerpiece. Under the tree was a miniature bride room, and extending from the piece to each corner of the were white satin streamers, tied with satin and maline bows.

Mrs. Storey Pours
W. D. T. Storey poured hot from a silver service, and also at the table were Mrs. Clyde and Mrs. Catherine Rumbach. The buffet was a Ming Tree, with moss, over a reflector, two little Spanish serenaders the tree.

the bookcases at the left and of the archway between the living and the dining room were arrangements expressive of the m. At the left was a large photo of the bride, with a background of flowers, and at the right were snapshots of the bride and since their recent marriage. The buds, a gift of Mrs. Marye were prettily arranged in vases,

...belonging to the bride's mother, and which have been in the possession of the family for more than 65 years.

Climaxing the thrilling decorations of the beautiful Stone home were a special arrangement expressive of the family life of Mr. and Mrs. King in Jacksonville, Florida.

Mrs. King, in letters to her family, joyfully often says "we are going home to the King's Castle."

Happily preparing for the shower honoring Mrs. King, the hostesses hit the idea of weaving Mrs. King's often used expression into the decorations, and it largely fell to the lot of Mrs. Maud Street, an aunt of the bride, to work out the "King's Castle" arrangements.

Cleverly cast in a Florida garden scene was the King's Castle, pure white, and surrounding the castle were pathways and shrubbery; and the entire scene was softly illuminated by an arrangement of lighting.

Radio Makes Recordings

Carrying the shower into the home of Mr. and Mrs. King, who live hundreds of miles away, were the radio and the photographic art. Jimmie Derrell, a technician connected with KVOW, made extensive recordings in which each hostess participated by each telling of a portion of the decorations describing the gifts, etc, and extending greetings to the bride and groom, and wishing them oceans of happiness down through the year.

John Nail of John Nail's Studio, personally, gave of his talent in order that the bride and groom might have visual knowledge of what took place in Littlefield in their honor.

Numerous scenes and groupings were made by Mr. Nail, and these pictures will be lasting testimony to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

As one special feature of the pleasant occasion was the singing of "God Bless This Home" by Mrs. Shaw, accompanied at the piano by Miss Carla Lou Stone. Mrs. Shaw's number was dedicated to the folks in "King's Castle."

The honoree was the recipient of a large array of beautiful gifts, including a complete chest of service for eight, in Rose Point Sterling, a service for eight of Rose Point Crystal, other gifts of lovely silverware, bedding, linen, etc.

St. Clair, president of the Levelled Jaycees, was present with three other Levelled Jaycees. St. Clair urged members on raising funds for the National War Memorial building erected at Tulsa, Oklahoma. He has been asked that every club raise a $100 bond and $1 per member. Slaton Masonic Hall Roof Damaged In Recent Snow

Due to the heavy snow the roof over the Masonic Hall at Slaton was badly damaged. The portion over the Chapter room of the Slaton Eastern Star Chapter fell in Wednesday of last week, and, therefore a banquet planned by the Masons honoring Eastern Star members, had to be called off.

The dinner was first set for Tuesday night, and postponed until Friday.

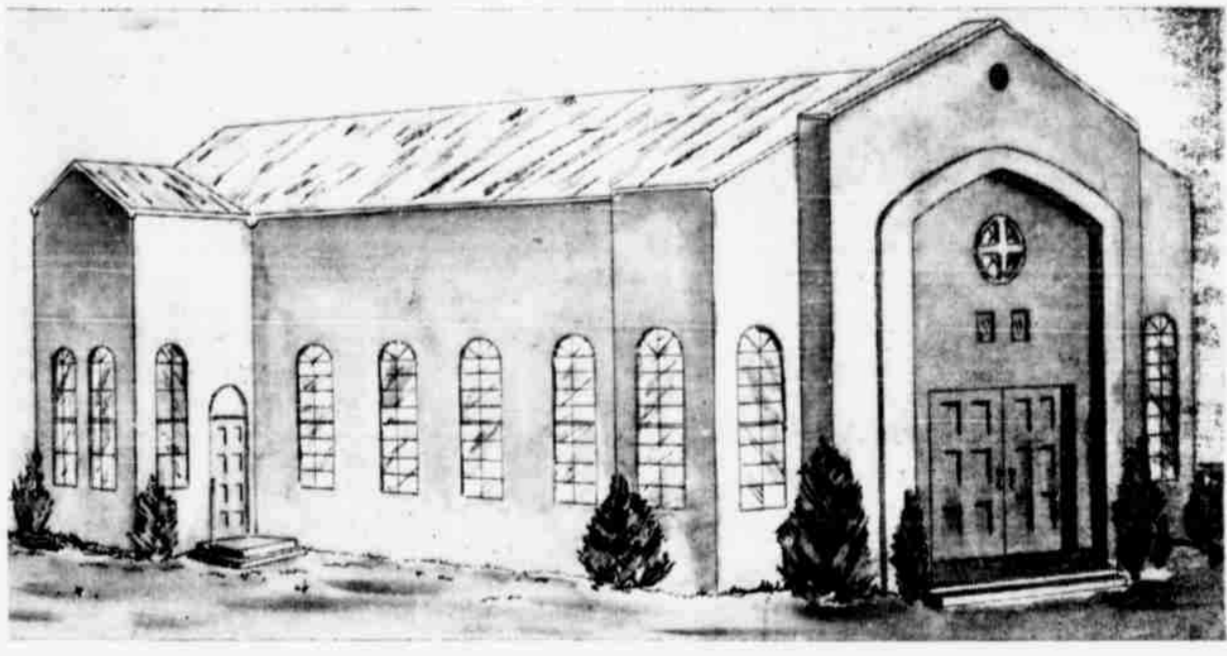

Mrs. J. D. Dodgen, Deputy Grand Matron, of Littlefield, also planned to make her official visit to the Slaton Chapter on the same night.

The Slaton Chapter notified Mrs. Dodgen that it would be about six months before the roof could be repaired, and the building put back in condition to hold such meetings.

A number of the Chapters in this area were invited as guests of the occasion, in addition to the Littlefield Chapter.

Construction Started On Springlake Church

Presented here is an exterior view of the new Springlake Baptist church, which is under construction.

This is a new congregation, having been organized July 27 of last year. The Springlake congregation has been worshipping in temporary quarters, consisting of two army barracks, but hopes to occupy the new church by early in May.

The barracks have been sold to the Staked Plains Baptist Association, and will be used as Latin-American missions at Hale Center and one other point, Olton or Plainview.

The major materials for the new church are on the ground with the exception of the brick and tile and delivery of those materials have been promised for this month.

The present structure will have a main floor area of 44x90 feet and an annex 20x32 feet, and will be one story. Plans provide for the erection at a later date of a west wing to be used as an educational building.

The present building will include an auditorium with a seating capacity of 500; class rooms to serve a Sunday school of 12 classes, and dining room and kitchen.

Rev. C. T. Jordan is the pastor of the new church.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER SAYS IT'S SOME OTHER GROUP'S TURN TO LOWER PRICES TO AVOID BUST

Editor's Note: The Bull Lake Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake may be misinterpreting things in his letter this week, but we're publishing it for what it's worth.

The weather predictions have been so inaccurate lately I been wonderin if they're predictin weather by public opinion polls instead of regular forecasts and was outside lookin at the thermometer to find out for myself how cold it was when a newspaper whipped around the corner and hit me in the face and since I had to pull it off to see my way back in the house I carried it on in and sat down by the fire and read where a Republican Senator has informed farmers they've got to cut their prices or face a economic bust.

Accordin to the paper, Senator Aiken of Vermont told farm leaders "they must accept lower prices for wheat, corn, cotton and livestock in the immediate future or face a depression." He said housewives and consumers are sore about $1-a-pound meat and butter and other high-priced groceries.

Of course now I ain't no Senator, but I have thought and thought and I can't see no advantage in a farmer goin busted just to keep the rest of the country prosperous, and I can't see no profound thought in so cuttin my income to avoid a depression. I guess I'm backward, but all the depressions I ever experienced personally came on exactly at the same time my income started droppin. I may not be able to see the picture from a Washington Senator's standpoint, but as long as my income held up times was good but invariably when it dropped times got bad, and this happened so often over the years I began to suspect there must be a connection between the two.

I'll admit groceries is high, but have you bought a tractor lately or a trace chain or a pair of work pants or had a busted water pipe fixed? I a n't seen a newspaper article yet with a statement from some Senator where tractor manufacturers has got to lower their prices or face a depression, on account of farmers gettin tired of $1500 tractors costin $2400.

In the meantime, I will appreciate you gettin in touch with that Vermont Senator and see if he can't pick out some other group to lower their prices to head off a depression this time instead of farmers. Every other time, farmers lowered their prices and instead of headin off a depression it just brought one on. Ain't there some other group to try this experiment: out on this time?

Yours faithfully, J. A.

OIL CONSERVATION CHIEF SIGHTS PERMANENT AGRICULTURE GOAL

H. H. Bennett, Chief of the Soil Conservation Service, said in his 15th annual report that the progress in land conservation in the United States has been so narrowed that the goal of a permanent agriculture is in sight "if we but speed up our efforts."

Contributing to the progress of the Service's work he reviewed during the past 15 years in his report to Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan was still another record year of conservation work. That was 21 1/2 million acres on which soil conservation measures were applied to meet needs of the land, or about 7 per cent more than in the previous record year of 1947.

The report pointed out that during the past 15 years of the life of the Soil Conservation Service, more conservation work was done per acre than during the preceding year. "Moreover," the soil conservation work of observed, "increased experience and efficiency of the soil conservation districts and cooperating farmers, collectively have made it possible for the Service to increase the work load each year without sacrificing quality or thoroughness of the conservation work done."

The 1948 accomplishments with a 17 per cent less per acre than the year before brought to 571,163 the number of active conservation plans in the districts since August, 1947, covering 157,751,642 acres. The 1948 year's 109,673 plans covered 484,947 acres. The 21,576,654 acres treated in the last fiscal year brought the total acreage treated in the Service since the first ones were organized to 82,824,431. The figures do not include other work done during demonstration phases of Service activities, mainly on private lands.

The report showed there were 2,033 conservation districts in the 48 states, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands as of June 30, comprising 14,003,200 acres, and including about three-fourths of all the farms and two-thirds of the farmland in the country.

Chief Bennett also reported a considerable spread of soil conservation work in other countries, with 49 now carrying on some work patterned after that of the Soil Conservation Service, with 378 scientists or officials in 67 countries having come to the United States since 1942 to study soil conservation methods.

"A prosperous and lasting agriculture utterly depends on an adequate supply of productive land, properly protected and so protected that it will remain permanently productive," the report emphasized. "Without this foundation, there can be no real basis for a continuously successful agriculture anywhere. And, too, without this foundation there can be no assurance of economic stability and social progress; there can be no assurance of adequate nutrition, prosperity, happiness, or peace anywhere on earth. The solution of our land problem can be stated simply: Use each acre of land under adequate safeguards from erosion and other overrushing forces for the type of production to which it is best suited nature."

By sharply increasing present conservation operations on the land, he said, the United States can overcome soil erosion within 20 to 30 years. To this end, he advanced seven recommendations for getting the con-

- servations job done on time:
1. Set up a timetable for the establishment of those basic measures needed for the conservation of our soil and water resources, according to capacity of the land and availability and need of water.
 2. Adjust research in conservation to specific problems encountered in field work and intensify research on those problems.
 3. Encourage and promote a comprehensive program of conservation education through all available educational agencies and institutions.
 4. Complete land capability surveys of the country and analyze the information to provide land facts needed for future farm planning and action.
 5. Recognize and use land capabilities in making production adjustments and in developing other agricultural programs.
 6. Encourage continued organization tion of soil conservation districts, in order to develop conservation programs with local leadership and direction.

7. Improve the conservation credit structure.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Who's A Foreigner?

While I'm waiting for a haircut the other day, Slim Hartman lets slip with a crack about those "foreigners" who live by the depot.

"Now wait a minute, Slim," snaps Doc Sherman. "Don't forget we're all 'foreigners' more or less. Some of our families have simply been here longer than others. But even if they came over on the Mayflower, they were foreigners to the Indians."

Slim gets a little red and you could see that Doc had him. "And the reason they came here," he goes on, "was to find freedom to do and think as they wanted to so long as they didn't tramp on the rights of the other fellow."

From where I sit, America became the great land it is today through our being tolerant of different people and different tastes—whether it's a taste for square dancing or waltzing, radio or movies, goat's milk or a temperate glass of sparkling beer.

THE NEW FUTURAMICS

FUTURAMIC—the most glamorous word in motor cars now applies to two great lines of Oldsmobiles. Not only the newly styled Futuramic "98"—but also a brand new Futuramic "76" with a new '49 Fisher Body that's lower, wider and offers greater visibility. And this year, Oldsmobile has struck a new balance of power with two great engines for these Futuramic cars. The new "Big Six" Engine in the "76" is more powerful than ever. And the new "98" is powered by the revolutionary "Rocket" Engine. It's a high-compression, valve-in-head eight—an engineering marvel that steps up horsepower to 135, yet actually cuts down on gas costs. Words can't describe it. You've got to drive it yourself for Oldsmobile's "NEW THRILL!"

LON CAMPBELL OLIVER FARM EQUIPMENT COMPANY EXTEND BUILDING BACK 60 FEET

Another Littlefield concern is carrying out considerable improvements. The Lon Campbell Oliver Farm Equipment Company is extending their building on East Fourth Street back 60 feet, making an addition of 36 ft. x 60 feet, which will afford much more space for the repair department, and also allow considerable more room for display of the implements.

This addition will be of stucco construction, with cement floor.

Mr. Shelly, Contractor of near Muleshoe, is in charge of the work. Construction got underway January 3, and it was expected to be completed within 30 days, but the bad weather has delayed completion. However, it is hoped to be finished soon after February 1.

Connected with the Lon Campbell Oliver Farm Equipment Company is Wade Bolton, who has been with the Implement Company since 1940.

Three Year Volunteers Have Choices For Duty

Three year volunteers in the U. S. Army have a better chance for assignment to the overseas command of their choice than short-term enlistees. "Because of the short time remaining in short-term enlistments after basic and specialized training, it would not be practical to send men trained in certain fields overseas," Sgt. Cutshall of the Littlefield Recruiting Office explained.

Among the choices offered three-year volunteers are Europe, the Far East and the United States.

Young men interested seeing either of these areas are urged to contact Sgt. Cutshall for complete details and information concerning Army life overseas. Sgt. Cutshall's office is located in the new recruiting office next door to the Chamber of Commerce Bldg, at 116 W. 5th St.

TO BE PRESENTED

"Cowboy Courting," the story of a lonesome cowboy who attempts to obtain a mail-order bride, will be presented by North Texas State College's newly organized Television Club over WBAP-TV Feb. 3.

Initial production of the group was "New Mexican Rain," given Dec. 23.

WORK'S DONE FASTER

Electrically

ON THE farm and on the ranch work is done faster when electric service is effectively used.

Today more farms and ranches have electricity than ever before, and those who already have dependable electric service are finding more uses for it than ever before.

These progressive men are finding that electric lighting in the work areas, electric refrigeration, electric power tools for repairs and maintenance, electric milkers, brooders, incubators, choppers, and loaders all mean that more work can be done in a shorter period of time... at less cost.

When the time saved is compared with the low operating cost of modern electrical farm and ranch aids, the answer is obvious. That's why so many are using so much electric service. Check with your nearest county agent, REA or Public Service representative to see where electricity can help you.

 The Golden Text is: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth" (Psalms 86:15).
 Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name" (Psalms 86:11).
 The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The understanding of Truth gives full faith in Truth, and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings" (page 286).

Two New Sergeants Assume Duties At New Army Recruiting Location

T Sgt. G. F. Cutshall assumed charge of the Littlefield office of the U. S. Army recruiting service this week. He relieved Sgt. Waldrop, who was transferred to Fort Bliss in El Paso, after serving here in Littlefield for a long period.

Sgt. Cutshall came to Littlefield from the Lubbock recruiting station where he had served three months. He was formerly a member of the 1st Cavalry Division. He has been in the army 22 and one half years. Cutshall said he is interested in contacting any former cavalry men in this area just to talk over old times.

Sgt. H. M. Riddle also came to Littlefield from Lubbock to act as assistant to Cutshall. He is relieving Sgt. Hays who moved to Dallas with the Organized Reserve. Riddle has been in the army five years and served with the 16th Mountain Division during the war.

Regarding the most asked question of what is the Selectee's reserve obligation after 21 months of active duty, Cutshall explained:

"After 21 months active duty, which includes training period, men are required to serve subsequently for five years in a reserve component."

"This reserve period may, however, be shortened or dissolved under either of two plans," Sgt. Cutshall added.

First plan is to enlist for a period of 3 years in an organized unit of the Reserve component (the Organized Reserve or the National Guard) which will require regular attendance at drill or classes. Second plan is to dissolve the reserve obligation by remaining in the Regular Army on active duty for an additional year. Under the second plan the total active duty time would be 33 months.

"These and similar reserve obligations also apply to men enlisting in the Army or Air Force for a period of less than three years," Sgt. Cutshall added.

Questions regarding the Selective Service Program are invited, however the Sgt. warned that after receiving notice to report for pre-induction physical one's opportunity to volunteer has passed.

The two new sergeants are located at the new recruiting office next door to the Chamber of Commerce at 116 West 6th Street.

FORTY NEW HOUSES BUILT IN ANTON

Forty new homes were built in Anton during the year of 1948, according to the building permits.

Total building permits for the City during the year was $194,450.00 which includes figures for seven new business buildings.

But these figures tell only part of the story, for there were 75 new consumers added to the City water system during the year. Which gives a fair indication of the growth enjoyed.

Take the Electric Service increase of consumers for example: On Jan. 1, 1948 there were 249 electric meters in the town. On Jan. 1, 1949 there were 295, the increase here was 46.

These figures are basis for an estimation of a population of 1182.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—in its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Fat Stock Show In Fort Worth January 28-February 6

FORT WORTH, Jan. 17—Holiday-minded residents of at least 16 Texas communities virtually will "close up shop" to attend the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth in large delegations Jan. 28 through Feb. 6.

Almost all plan to cheer a hometown "Cowgirl Sashheart" who will ride in the grand entry at one of the 19 rodeo performances.

Special days include: Jan. 28, Sonora and 8th Air Force Day; Jan. 29, 4-H Club, FFA, Social Conservation District, Stamford and Ennis Day; Jan. 30, Palo Pinto County; Jan. 31, South Carolina and Georgia; Feb. 1, Graham and Deatur; Feb. 2, Nocona and Bowie; Feb. 3, Waco; Feb. 4, Hamilton, Seymour, Eastland and Fort Worth Public Schools; Feb. 5, Jack County and Sherman; Feb. 6, Electric and Weatherford.

Prize horses have been entered from 14 states, assuring one of the most representative horse shows in the 53-year history of the exposition. Included are about 300 quarter horses, largest number ever entered, and a record 51 cutting horses, which will compete at each rodeo performance.

Some 250 show horses will prance before the judges' eyes, including gaited and walking horses and hunters and jumpers; 90 Palominos, and 85 Shetland ponies. The Shetland ponies are a new addition to the show.

Horse show premiums exceed $20,000.

Visitors again will view choice poultry, turkeys and rabbits, not exhibited at the exposition since 1942. Turkeys and rabbits will be judged Jan. 29 through Feb. 1 and poultry from Feb. 3 to 6. Deadline for entries is Jan. 17.

Here's how YOU can win the Gold Bars of an Army Officer

TWO NEW WAYS TO JOIN THE RANKS OF AMERICA'S YOUNG LEADERS

DIRECT COMMISSION

A commission as second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps with a 2-year initial tour of active duty is ready for you if you meet these requirements: one year of honorable service in any of the Armed Forces between 7 December 1941 and 30 June 1947; have completed two years at an accredited college or university; U. S. citizenship; AGCT score of 110 or better; not more than 32 years old; physically fit. Once commissioned, you'll be assigned to a 3-month officers' training school, and, on successful completion, you'll be free to compete for a Regular Army Commission if you meet the competitive tour age requirements. Go to your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station for complete details at once.

OCS FOR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

If you've graduated from high school or can pass an equivalent examination, are between 19 and 28 years old, are a U. S. citizen, and have necessary physical qualifications, apply now for enlistment for Army OCS. After your application is approved, you'll be enlisted as a Sergeant and given basic training if you have not had it already, then sent direct to Officer Candidate School, subject to quotas, of course. Upon graduation, you'll be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Reserve, and placed on two years of active duty. Top OCS graduates are commissioned in the Regular Army—all others may compete for a Regular Army Commission. Get all the facts about applying for OCS entrance at your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station without delay!
