

Twirp Week' Asked Students

Most Favor Special Event

The Skatt Staff was busy this week asking if the students would like to have the annual Twirp Week or Turnaround Week when the girls ask the boys for dates and foot the bill for entertainment.

The specific question asked the students was "Do you want to have Twirp Week and what activities would you like to have?" The answers varied and are as follows:

Frank Sitton, Sr. - I really don't care, I have to fight the girls off any way.

Jerry McCain, Jr - In my case, it wouldn't make any difference.

Bill Blackwell - No, because no one would co-operate, and no one really has time to mess with it.

Annette Dutton, Soph - "I'm willing if the guys are."

Teena Smith, Sr - "Yes, (on weekends) Have a dance. We need a little excitement around here."

Linda Williams - "Yes, (on weekends) Have a dance. We need something to liven things up a little."

Jim Nelson, Sr. - Just as soon to, as eat a bug.

Yogi Stanford, Sr. - What difference does it make? Most girls around here don't know what's going on anyway.

Keith King - Sr - Whether we have a Twirp Week or not makes little difference to me since I wouldn't get asked anyway. But I would like to take this time to make a few statements about it. You'll all get as much out of it as you put into it. The attitude of some of the Senior girls seems strange when we see the way they acted the first semester. It doesn't take a high school diploma to figure out why.

Dickey Montgomery, Soph - I would like to have Twirp Week if everyone would take part in it, and I think we could have a lot of fun.

Robert Reams - Sr - Well, I am all for it, but I think we should have more activities than we did last year, something like a Twirp dance, or something.

Dean Chisholm - Sr - I think we should have Twirp week, and I think the girls should give a dance at the end of the week.

Dwight Allen, Sr - "Now I like Twirp Week, Yes, the girls should give a dance."

Students Get College Advice

Five college representatives spoke to Juniors and Seniors last Thursday morning. In addition to offering constructive advice for those planning to attend college they explained and highlighted the advantages in training of the colleges represented.

Miss Frede Lincke, Dean of Women at Wayland Baptist College, Mr. Bozeman of Draughon's Business College, Nathan Tubb, Registrar and Dean of Admissions at South Plains College, and Mrs. Merriman of Merriman College, spoke to students desiring to know more about their particular college. Dr. Floyd Boze, Registrar and Dean of Admissions at Texas Tech stressed the growing percentage of drop-out because of numerous and unavoidable reasons. Dr. Boze also explained the adjustments involved and the problems facing those upon entering.

It was recommended that if at all possible, college Freshmen should not work during their first year in college. Seniors planning to enter college soon were urged to complete their filing of applications in the near future.

Tracksters Take Ninth

The Wildcats showed an improvement since their last meet. The Wildcats were ninth in the total scoring of the meet. The next meet will be Saturday at Levelland. Only AAA schools will be participating in the meet.

How does it feel to be secretly married? Who was seen looking at a road map to Oklahoma and on the way to Spade? What was that first word? We didn't catch it. How do you know she'd take bubble baths? Randy, what was in the box that was blue? Does it fit? People should be careful about what they say, at least those with party lines. It's a long way around Cres- (see Claw on Page 4)

Floating Periods Told In Yearbook

School Practices of the Littlefield School were included in the first edition of "Best Practices Yearbook" 1962. The book contains reports of best school practices in fifty six school systems in the State of Texas. The Yearbook was edited by Berlie J. Fallon, executive secretary of West Texas School Study Council, an organization composed of twenty three school systems in this area. The book is dedicated to all who share in the job of providing enriched educational opportunity for the boys and girls of Texas. "The Floating Period Schedule in High School" a practice which was initiated in the Littlefield High School in Sept. 1961, is explained by James Pirkey, Principal of High School. Mrs. E. E. Carter, teacher in Junior High School, is accredited with an article on "A Practice of Grouping Seventh Grade Students in Reading." The need of and the methods for teaching cleanliness and good health practices were presented by Mrs. Lou Driskill and Mrs. Mary Davis, second grade teachers. The subject of their report was "Plans for Teaching of Cleanliness and Good Health Habits in the First and Second Grades."

On behalf of the Student Council, I'd like to thank all of you who had a part in last week's bake sale. I think Dan Staggs did a great job as auctioneer, and that's not just because he's my boss. The average per cake was higher this year than it was last year. This was due partly to our auctioneer, partly to the steady couples, and partly to a group of boys who it turned out had more nerve than money. The juniors and seniors certainly enjoyed "College Day" Thursday. All colleges represented had interesting programs. Tech seemed to have the edge on the others, but the business colleges, South Plains, and Wayland presented convincing arguments for their schools. The problem of your education is a very serious one. I personally have been giving this question considerable thought since my days in Junior High. After much consideration I decided that the best place for my education would be the Oshgosh Academy of Colorado. (See King on Page 4)

Band Prepares For District Contests

Wildcat Band members worked from 6:30 until 9:30 p.m. Monday night under Everett Maxwell, band director at Abernathy High and our own director, Don Hayes. This clinic was used to help the band work on rough spots in the music in preparation for interscholastic league contest, March 31. Dr. Cary of Enid, Okla., was originally scheduled to clinic the band but could not make it. Several tape recordings were made of the session for future use by "Prof" Hayes and the band. Philosopher Claims

Tourist Business Is Fine Until All Other States Get In On It

Editor's note: The Sandhills philosopher on his Johnson farm takes a backward look at the tourist business, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I read the other day that a philosopher said Texas isn't getting all the tourist dollars it ought to and more effort ought to be spent getting more people to visit us, that not only is it worth seeing but tourists give a lot of money around here when they come through.

This made sense, but then the other day I read where another philosopher was making the same plea, and the article went on to list the amount of revenue several other states report they get from tourist dollars.

Now I'm no mathematician, but if Texas pulls a hundred thousand visitors from Oklahoma, and then that state pulls a hundred thousand from Texas, it looks to me like the net gain will stay about what it was before the tourists left home, although filling station people in both states won't agree.

If all 50 states are going to increase their wealth by increasing their tourist business, each one pulling visitors from all the others, it looks to me like it'll wind up with about the same total revenue every state had to start with.

For example, if Oregon pulls a million tourists from Texas, and Texas pulls a million from Oregon, or New York gets a million from California and vice versa, or any other combination you want to name, won't this be about like everybody in Littlefield trying to make money by taking in each other's laundry?

Understand, I don't blame the states for trying to pick up some tourist money, every state lawyer heard of needs more revenue and the tourist business is here to stay, come summer and the people will strike out, but I hope no state is looking to me to help them out. Frankly, I ain't going.

I intend to stay right here on this Johnson grass farm and see it on television.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Legislation To Be Explained To

Grain Growers

Farmers and grain dealers throughout the High Plains area will have an opportunity to hear legislation currently before Congress, analyzed by national leaders, Monday, March 26. The information and education session is being jointly announced and sponsored by the Texas Association of Wheat Growers and the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. The meeting will be at the Herring Hotel, Amarillo, beginning at 9 a.m. through 12 noon.

Dr. John A. Schnitzler, Economic Analyst on Secretary Freeman's Staff, Washington, D. C., will evaluate and discuss the "Food and Agriculture Act of 1962" which is generally referred to as the Administration's bill, calling for continued price supports, acreage adjustment and gradual stock reduction together with reduced Treasury outlay.

The "Cropland Retirement Act of 1962" which is commonly referred to as the "Soil Bank Act," calling for diversion of whose farms from production and a rental payment for voluntary participation will be analyzed by a nationally known speaker now being selected.

The "Projected Economic Outlook and Need for Effective Farm Policy" will be discussed by the head of the Department of Agricultural Economics at Texas Technological College, Dr. J. Wayland Bennett.

The presidents of the two sponsoring organizations, Frank Moore of Plainview, and Kenneth Kendrick of Stratford, stress that there will be ample time for discussion of comments and questions from the floor. They urge that anyone seeking further information about current farm programs take full advantage of the opportunity to receive first-hand information from these nationally known experts who will be at the meeting.

Directors of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association will hold their regular annual meeting and election of an Executive Committee at 1:30 p.m. also on Monday, March 26, at the Herring Hotel, Amarillo.

"Di-Syston—First Step in the Most Complete and Economical Cotton Protection We've Ever Had"

"We get the most complete and economical protection we've ever had by using Di-Syston for early season protection followed by Guthion during mid and late season," reports Mr. S. L. House, Jr. Mr. House grows some 350 acres of cotton on his own farm and aids in the management of the vast Gaillard Plantations.

Di-Syston controls thrips, aphids and mites up to seven weeks. Protection is continuous, beginning with the tender two leaf stage. When planted with the seed, Di-Syston is absorbed by the roots and works from inside the entire plant, even protecting terminal growth from sucking pests. You don't have to put machinery in the field when plants are small.

Di-Syston is unaffected by the weather—it kills when it's rainy, when it's windy, when it's hot or cold. It can't be weathered off because it's inside the plant. Di-Syston doesn't harm beneficial insects because it kills only the pests that suck the plant juices. When your young plants get such a good start, you get a higher yield—a more uniform stand of straight growing cotton and earlier maturity.

For a strong, healthy start for your cotton this year, order Di-Syston from your Farm Supply Dealer, today! It works!

Through attending a teachers college, she was molded into a teacher for which she was very grateful. She came to Littlefield because of a desire to migrate westward. Her advice to the students of LHS is to "Enroll in as many courses as he possibly can while he is in high school in order to meet the challenge of tomorrow."

Her most humorous experience in teaching was while in the fifth grade when she received an answer for the two principal political parties in the U. S. was "Democrats and Hy-pocrits."

Her most embarrassing moment was upon preparing a special company dinner she used machine oil instead of lemon extract in a cake. (The bottles and colors were identical.)

Her pet peeve is for some privileged pupils to frown upon other underprivileged pupils.

She lives at 621 East 15th Street. Her husband Kenneth Houk is a merchant and has rental property. She has two children Charlotte 18 and Dwayne 16.

In the summer she does canning, sewing and traveling. This summer she anticipates a trip to Seattle, Washington, to attend the World's Fair.

The school has been in existence for twenty seven years and offers degrees in five or six unnecessary fields. It's graduate school is rather limited since it has yet to graduate anyone.

I have tentatively set my program for a rather liberal Liberal Arts program. This program was especially designed by the Bursar and the President of the college to be presented to the Exes at the annual Homecoming festivities, or any other time they could get a crowd together. It takes many subjects and fields into account, lasts seven years, including summers, and it reads like this:

All in all this plan offers exactly what I want. After serious thought I turned down two courses for various reasons. The first of these was offered especially to those who have literary backgrounds similar to my own. It was:

The Correct Interpretations of the Works of James Weldon Johnson and Other Famous American Authors.
T. Th. S. 3:00 Hazel Hall and the other class I skipped was:

Campusology - Miss LaTresh M.T.W.Th. F. S. S. 10:30 p.m. Alka Hall I was allowed to skip this class because of the high grades I made in this category on the entrance exams.

Dear Mr. Sigafos:
L. K. and S. S. object with hurt pride to your implication that our excellent representation of Janis and Judy was due to the fact that we resemble them. Actually, it was due to our great talent, and industrious work. We would appreciate a retraction of your statement and the praise that

Joyce Zybur - Sr - Yes, any kind of activities that can be planned, dates, games, dances, etc.,

Robert Reams - Sr - What boy isn't interested in Twirp Week? Any and all activities would be great.

Roxene Fine - Soph - No, because I believe the boy should ask for the dates instead of the girl.

Terry Gronwald - Jr - Yes, Bill Vorheis - Soph - Don't make a hound dog henry to me.
Wynona Grote - Sr - It makes no difference to me; have a taffy pulling party.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex. — Capital newsmen quizzed candidates for lieutenant governor at a Delta Chi dinner and wide variety in the answers.

At a prior meeting of the professional journalism society quizzed the gubernatorial candidates.

Big news of the session was unanimous opposition to legalizing pari-mutuel betting on horse races. Texas voters will have an opportunity to express their own views on this subject at the May 5 primaries.

Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of Antonio got this issue listed on both the Democratic and public primary ballots by presenting both political party headquarters with petitions signed by more than 200,000 persons. Petition asked the legislature to give the people opportunity to vote on pari-mutuel betting.

Further questions to the candidates at the newsmen's dinner revealed diverse opinions on legalizing pari-mutuel betting on horse races. Four favored repeal; two opposed it.

Senator Preston Smith and Bill were the opponents.

Candidates present at the dinner were Senators Preston Smith, Jarrard Secrest, Crawford Martin and Robert Baker, dental election.

All poll — tax payers who show up at the May 5 primaries will answer the big question: Do they want to keep the poll tax as a voting requirement?

Their answers on primary tickets of both parties should be a representative decision on the long-battled subject.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Angelina County Attorney Dan Brazil asked Attorney General Will Wilson whether a precinct chairman who is elected in a May primary can take office immediately.

He was told that even though a man becomes precinct chairman without a run-off, he must wait until the Saturday after his county run-off election before he assumes his new duties.

Attorney general also ruled that the "banking escheat" law calls for bankers to advertise for missing depositors in May of this year.

He also interpreted the criminal code to read that a justice of the peace cannot collect a $4 trial fee if the case at hand is dismissed.

EGG STANDARDS UPGRADED — Benefits of the crackdown on egg grade violation in 1958 were reaped by Texas housewives. Number of below-quality or inedible eggs reported for the last quarter of 1961 was only 1.2 per cent.

Agriculture Commissioner John White said this incidence is "the lowest in history for Texas and probably as low a level as ever attained by any state."

When the Egg Law became effective in 1958, violations were uncovered at the rate of 16 per cent. State Department of Agriculture spent $39,902 in fiscal 1961 to see that the law was enforced.

At a meeting of the Texas Egg Advisory board, White commended the state's egg industry for its cooperation in the egg "clean-up."

Board includes G. F. Siebel of Burton, Marvin Gilbreath of Weimar; Jack Dubose of Gonzales; T. D. Craddock of Hamilton; Tom Booth of San Antonio; D. W. Reneau of Seguin and F. Z. Beanblossom of Texas A & M.

A HALF - MILLION MILES TO SCHOOL — Texas Education Agency clocked school bus mileage in the state's 1,483 districts. They found that 8,240 bus drivers drive almost a half million miles daily to take 420,000 children to school.

Some West Texas school buses travel as far as 229 miles a day.

INDIAN RAID ON CAPITOL — Dressed as Ani-Waya, Latonka, Tonkawa, Neep, Caddo, Kiva, Sotso, Po-Hebeto-Quasho and Oglewanagi Indians, some 50 school children raided the Capitol.

Whooping it up for the Brenham Indian Festival to be held April 14, the youngsters danced and chanted to the beat of a giant drum for 30 minutes around the Capitol rotunda. There they invaded Gov. Price Daniel's re-

Preston Smith Has Plans For Betterment Of Texas

A "man with a plan" for Texas is how friends of Senator Preston Smith describe the Lubbock businessman.

Senator Smith has been working for Texas for many years as a public servant. The veteran legislator has served six years in the Texas House of Representatives and is in his sixth year as a State Senator.

He now seeks his highest goal that of Lieutenant Governor of Texas, his native state.

The veteran West Texas lawmaker campaigned for the office of lieutenant governor in 1950. He placed third in a field of 12 candidates and led the ticket in 68 counties.

This "man with a plan" has drafted a program of progress as the platform for his campaign for Texas' second highest office.

His plans call for simplification of the general sales tax; correcting the auto insurance merit plan; economical government without waste; correction of the inequities in Texas' women's rights; better schools; safe, efficient highways and farm — to — market roads; vigorous water and soil conservation projects; providing hunters and fishermen with an improved game and fish program; and better recreational facilities for our parks and lakes.

He is for small loan regulation and adequate care of the aged, the needy and the blind.

Preston Smith is as sincere a man as ever ran for public office. He is confident that there is more than one way to put a business in the black. Also that there are many ways to provide necessary government services without raising taxes.

"I firmly believe that a strong program of progress designed to bring new industry, new tourists, new businesses, and new investments to Texas, will enable our state to grow soundly, without increasing tax rates," Senator Smith has stated.

"If I am elected Lieutenant Governor," he added, "I will work hard to help build a program of progress whereby Texas can attract new industry, new tourists, and new income that will mean better jobs, and more jobs for all Texans."

Backers of the Candidate contend that his own career as a successful businessman for more than 25 years is evidence per se that he knows whereof he speaks.

Preston Smith was born in Williamson County, worked on his daddy's farm in Gaines County, and gained his early education in Dawson County. He is a graduate of Texas Tech in Lubbock, where he has been in the theater business and an active civic worker since 1936.

He and his wife, Ima, have two children, Mickey, 20, and Jan, 16.

- ★ To simplify the general sales tax.
- ★ To correct the auto insurance merit plan.
- ★ To help Texas grow and prosper.

why?

Week after week carefully tabulated figures published in "Automotive Market Reports" show that Chevrolet trucks are worth more in resale value.

If you were a professional used truck buyer, why would you pay more for one make than another?

There may be several reasons, but among them would be:

1. A greater demand for the product
2. A more desirable product for resale

So if used Chevrolet trucks consistently bring higher prices at auctions all over the country, it means that their quality features pay off for you not only as long as you own them but also when you are ready to trade them—double-wall cabs, doors and side panels, roof insulation, select wood floors, reliable and economical engines, real rugged tailgates, a suspension system that helps prolong truck life.

See your Chevrolet dealer for a quality '62 Chevrolet Jobmaster truck.

"Automotive Market Reports" is a weekly authoritative wholesale publication which reports the average prices paid for used trucks and cars by professional buyers at auctions all over the U.S.

See your Chevrolet dealer for trucks that keep working and working and working and working!
