'Successful' Year Seen For Schools

100 Enrollment Gain Is Likely

Successful operation of Littlefield schools depends solely on the teachers, Superintendent Glenn Reeves told the 85 staff members of the schools at their first meeting here Wednesday.

"It's up to you — not the administrators — whether we have a good school or not," he told the teachers. "It can't be determined in the school offices or in the school board meetings; you and you alone are the ones who determine what kind of job we do of teaching Littlefield boys and girls."

The meeting was the first general assembly of the new school year, and was followed by meetings in the various buildings with the principals and their staffs.

"We are looking forward to one of the most successful school years in our history," superintendent told the teachers. "You are trained in the field of classroom work, and that is where the success of our work is determined. I feel certain we will have a great year."

Reeves told the faculty he expects a "slight increase" in the number of pupils attending Littlefield schools this year. "Our opening day enrollment next Monday should be around 1,900," Reeves said. "Our average daily attendance last year was about 1,800, so we should have an increase of around 100 pupils."

Reeves said "everything is in readiness for the opening day — Labor Day — and that a full day's schedule will be carried on "from the very first day of school." Primary school opens at 8:50, while all other schools start at 8:45 each morning.

All 12 school busses will operate on their regular schedule Monday, and the school cafeteria will serve lunch as usual.

Naming this week of James Poe as a sixth grade teacher completes the staff for the 1960-61 school year. The board of education had added an extra sixth grade teacher to the faculty at its August meeting early this month. Nineteen new teachers are on this year's roster for the first time.

Poe, who is pastor of the Littlefield Nazarene Church, is to receive his degree from Wayland Baptist College at Brownfield next summer. He attended Bethany College in Oklahoma for three and half years, and will have a three-

Budget Pegged At $418,287.16

City of Littlefield will operate on a budget of $418,287.16 during the fiscal year, Oct. 1, 1960 to Sept. 30, 1961 which is some $2,900 higher than last year's budget of $416,014.34.

The budget is based on a tax rate of $2 per $100 assessed valuation, the same rate as that used during the 1959 - 60 fiscal year, J. W. Harrison, city manager, explained in his budget message to the mayor and councilmen.

The final budget which has been approved by the council and is now at the printer's for binding, contains 68 pages. The budget provides "for normal operations in the general fund departments with very little capital expenditure," Harrison explained in his budget message.

He said this is "due primarily to the heavy expenditure in the 1959 - 60 budget year for paving. The water and sewer departments are provided with normal operating budgets plus much needed capital equipment."

The city manager told the councilmen and mayor that the budget "provides for machine budgetary accounting to be installed, for the two - inch water mains in Dugan addition to be replaced with four and six - inch mains, and for sewerage facilities extended to the colored section."

The budget estimates real estate valuations at $5,569,480 and personal valuation at $861,619 with the city of Littlefield for a total valuation of $6,431,099. Total taxes are estimated at $128,621.98.

The printed budget shows net taxes for general fund proposes of $28,048.16. The budget sees gross receipts and occupational taxes of $18,400 and licenses and permits at $1,950. Fines and forfeits should bring in $30,200, and the budget says, and rentals and refunds will add another $9,000 to receipts. Service charges are estimated at $48,000. Sales and miscellaneous receipts are put at $1,125, and an estimated general fund balance adds another $3,500 to the assets side of the ledger for a grand total $208,223.16.

Interest and sinking fund valorem taxes are expected to bring in $28,264.34. Water and sewer fund revenues are estimated at $160,800 and a water and sewer fund balance of $21,000 is expected which brings the total to $181,800 for a grand total of all revenues of $418,287.16.

On the spending side of the ledger the budget sees nine general items which are broken down as follows:

Administration cost, $6,415. Board of city development, $2,500. Fire department, $15,855. Parks and recreation, $3,300. Police department, $48,944. Refuse collection, $46,913. Street department, $58,840. Tax, $10,130 and general contingencies, $10,296.16.

Interest and sinking funds costs will total $28,264.34. Water and sewer maintenance and construction will cost $132,536.77 and utility billing will come to $40,955 with contingencies set at $8,308.23. This makes a grand expenditure total of $418,287.50.

Building Permits Above $800,000

With one - third of the year yet to go, building permits in Littlefield stood only $177,749 short of the $1 million mark on September 1 after August permissions to build added $79,950 to the year's total.

City records show that 1960 building permits up to September 1 had reached the $822,251 mark for this year when permits for 10 new residences were issued during August.

The building boom snapped back last month after a sharp drop in activities during July when only two permits were issued, one for a $10,000 residence and another for an $8,000 home.

The peak, as is always the case, was reached in June when permits for 12 new homes totaled $101,200. Builders explained that June is usually the top month of the year since weather is more conducive for construction at the start of summer.

Permits issued during August included:

- Bill Weige, frame and brick residence at 1304 Locust to cost $13,300. Contractor, Waldon Putman.
- Wayne Goodrum, frame house at 1313 West 13th to cost $10,400. Contractor, Weldon Putman.

Rains Both Benefit, Hurt County's Crops

Rain, accompanied by some hail in the Earth area, was viewed by agricultural experts here as both a blessing and a curse.

Around Earth a one - inch rain early this week "didn't do any good," while any rain which fell in the dryland sections was seen as an aid to crops.

Spotted rains, some of them measuring up to two inches, fell throughout most of Lamb county Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Sudan got a two - inch fall, and Bula had what was described as a "hard, blowing rain" that amounted to more than one inch.

The area hit by hail was the same general region struck by hail two weeks ago, the territory around Earth. The hail further damaged the boles which had been blighted by the earlier hail.

Assistant County Agent Herb Helbig said the area immediately around Littlefield "still could use a good one to two - inch rain without doing damage to crops." He had just completed a survey of growing conditions all over the county.

He added that all "dry land farms needed rain two weeks ago, but I believe a rain even this late would help."

Paving Project Nears Finish; Topping Starts

Littlefield's 87 - block paving program, started early in the summer, is now in its final phase with the start of topping process which began on the west side of town Monday.

During the weekend, Pioneer Pavers, Inc. Lubbock, moved in heavy paving machines and work was started on Sunset Drive, a 22 - block project. The Sunset portion is the longest of any of the projects, J. W. Harrison, city manager said.

Gutters and curbs were run early in the summer and grading was started. The work was delayed however, by heavy July rains which turned some of the blocks undergoing improvements into quagmires and necessitated much re-grading work.

The gravel base was applied to most streets in early August and has been allowed to pack down during the dry weather.

The entire project is expected to be completed within two to three weeks. Much of Sunset's topping was applied Monday and Tuesday.

Total cost of the 87 - block project is $177,756 with property owners assessed $3.95 per property foot, to repay the city.

Contractors are being paid with city warrants. A total of $115,000 was issued in July and $64,316.25 had been approved in June as various portions of the work were completed. The bonds were issued through the Security State Bank, Littlefield.

Harrison says Pioneer Pavers plan to continue the work (Continued On Page Five)

Anton Bulldogs Prepare For New District Battles

ANTON — The best word to describe the pack of Bulldogs from Anton this season is new — almost everything is different.

The team is working their first season under a new coach, Dave Smith, and they're doing it in a new conference, Class B.

And with only three starters returning from last year's squad, the team will take on a new look also.

The starters — Jan Crews, Hugh Barnett and Robert Pierce — will form the core of Smith's 1960 squad along with nine returning lettermen.

To fill some of the gaps left by graduation, the new mentor has had to switch and move his men to different positions in an effort to find the best material for the best slot.

Pierce an end last season, has been changed to center while Carl Taylor, a 1959 letterman at tackle, has been converted to fullback.

Another letterman tackle, Ray Batson will be running from a halfback position this year. And seatback Mike Fowler has found a new position on the line at end.

Completing the list of '59 lettermen returning are James Grace, halfback; Alvin Swanson, guard; Charles Buchanan, guard; Bobby Buchanan, tackle; Mac Parker, end; and Noven Roberts, end.

Rounding out the roster of 23 prospects out for the team are Frankie Karvas, Tony Cundiff, Melvin Ball, Wayne Jones, David Webb, Norman Overstreet, J. D. Harrel, Phillip Weed, Wayne Smith, Ronny Bramlett and Jimmie Parker. All are trying for their first letter.

Weight, thus far, has proved no hindrance to Smith with two of his top linemen, Barnett and Bobby Buchanan, tipping the scales at 225 and 222 respectively. If more beef is needed, Smith has it in four other linemen who all weigh in above 175 pounds.

The new coach is pleased with the way his charges have developed over the pre-season training days.

"We looked better than I expected," Smith said after a recent scrimmage with Cooper. "The defense looked especially good."

"And there wasn't a single fumble on handoffs — the ball handling was surprisingly good."

The Bulldogs encounter their first scheduled opponent of the season Friday night when they travel to Kress.

A big hurdle looms in the way of the Bulldogs on Sept. 16 when they tangle with Sundown, the powerhouse in Class A.

Other teams in 4B that will test the Bulldogs are Amherst, Meadow, Whitarral, Whiteface and Ropesville.

Homecoming for Anton has been planned for Oct. 14 in conjunction with the Whitarral game.

Dove Season Opens Today

Area hunters are readying their weapons in anticipation of the opening today at noon of dove season.

The birds in this area are reported to be the most plentiful in years, so plentiful, in fact, that some farmers are complaining because of damage to their crops.

The open season in the northern sector of the state, which includes Lamb County will run from today through Oct. 30.

1960 ANTON BULLDOGS

...from the sidelines john petty

An era is being ushered into the South Plains today. Football fans across the state — and particularly in this area — will be looking toward Lubbock today as Tech's Red Raiders gather their armor in preparation for their first battle in the Southwest Conference.

Big time football has arrived. What does this mean to Tech and to the entire South Plains? For one thing, we will no longer have to travel for hundreds of miles to see nationally known gridirrs play — they will come to us.

Top high school players will be able to stay on the Plains and play in a league that will bring them recognition.

As J. T. King, Tech assistant coach, said recently, "... if we (Tech) can get the West Texas boys we want, we won't have to look at a boy outside the area. Overall, Tech has a better future than any school in the SWC."

What will the Techsians have to offer during their first try at the SWC title?

Naturally, the big drawing card will be All-American center E. J. Holub.

A mountain of muscle that moves with the destructive power of a steam roller against the opposition, Holub may well be the greatest player to come from the school's ranks.

And he couldn't have come at a better time.

To watch "The Beast" play is worth the price of a ticket alone. On defense, he smells the ball, and heads for it like a guided missile. And the analogy doesn't stop there — when he hits, it is for keeps. Few ball carriers can survive a savage Holub tackle.

As for the offense, the 6-4 215 pounder can be second to none in blocking agility and shrewdness.

In all, the Raiders will have 21 returning lettermen, tops in the league. Among them are Carl Gattin, last season's leading rusher, Geln Amerson, total offensive leader in '59 and B. A. Turner, Dickie Polson and Dan Gurley, speedy seatbacks who need only an instant to break all the way.

In the forward wall, stalwarts like Fred Weaver, Jere Don Johnson, Don Waygood, (three year letterman) Bobby Cline and Mike Seay will carry the fight.

From last year's freshman team, come players like Coolidge Hunt, all-state fullback in 1958, and John Lovelace, outstanding quarterback from Farwell.

Coach Hank Brown of Sudan 6-4, 212 pound ace was playing against his teams.

"He beat us several times," Brown recalled. "I'll tell you this, every coach in our district (G-A) was glad to see him leave."

But, regardless of the experience and talent, Tech is picked to finish last this year.

"No team does good in their first year in a league."

"The other teams are just too strong."

He goes on to say that he will need another two or three year crop of freshmen such as those last year to get a good team, depth wise.

Come Sept. 17 at 7:30 p. m. in Jones Stadium, we will be able to see for ourselves what the Raiders have this year. That is their opening contest against West Texas State.

All articles in the Bulletin were written by persons with wide experience in their respective fields including school nurses, environmental engineers, teachers and a physician.

There are many hints that will come in handy for parents as well as school personnel.

A common problem is estimating the ideal weight for a child. The solution suggested in the September Bulletin says multiply the child's age in years by seven, and add one-half pound for each month past that year.

This will hold true from ages six through 12.

For example, boys and girls who are eight years and eight months old will average close to 50 pounds. Eight times seven is 56 — add a half-pound for each of eight months and it totals 60 pounds.

Of course there is no set rule that a child has to weight 60 pounds at that age because build and current rate of growth must be considered.

All information which pertains to the health or growth of a student should be kept in a permanent record all through school.

Items such as immunization, sickness, sight or hearing observations, as well as teacher observations should be included.

The importance of teacher observation of children for physical disorders and handicaps should be a routine procedure, because in addition to catching a physical disorder before it becomes serious, the teacher is often able to uncover emotional difficulties at home.

How school environment affects the learning activity of school children as well as their health is discussed in a key article.

Lighting, campus grounds, toilet facilities, heating, cafeteria cleanliness — all are carefully scrutinized by highly trained inspectors.

Indeed, school health is more than a few shots in elementary school — it is the consideration of the whole child all the way through school. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education Division, State Health Department.)

Grid Action Dots Area

Football will begin its advance onto the South Plains Friday night with a host of non-conference grid-ops on tap in the AA bracket and below.

Last season's 2-AA champion Otton Mustangs begin the defense of their crown as they play host to Petersburg. The Mustangs will be running under the colors of their new coach, Walter (Jo-Jo) Bryan.

Other new mentors will be taking their changes into grid action for the first time when Amherst's Bulldogs under Lawrence Co. travel to New Deal for a tilt with the Lions, and the Bulldogs from Anton, guided by Dave Smith, travel to Kress for their 1960 baptism.

Other action around the area will see Jody Mahan and his Springlake Wolverines enter training the Bovina Mustangs while Bula will journey to Southland for both team's season initiation.

The Hornets from Sudan open their slate under Hank Brown when they go to Morton for a battle with the Indians.

Hart's new tutor, John Blocker will turn his herd of Longhorns loose against New Home in a game only recently added to his schedule.

Muleshoe and Clovis, two of Littlefield's upcoming foes, open their seasons Friday when they'll dock horns in Muleshoe's Benny Douglas Stadium.

While limited contact takes place this Friday, the following weekend, Sept. 9, will see a full slate of games around the area with all conferences in action.

About Your Health

Three Top Cotton Textile Men To Speak At PCG Convention

LUBBOCK — Three nationally prominent speakers, representing the American cotton textile industry, U. S. Congress, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be here Friday for the fourth annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Now in its fifth year, the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. will hold its annual meeting at Fair Park Coliseum in Lubbock, starting at 10:30 a. m. Prior to the meeting, at 9:30 a. m. PCG county directors will meet to elect officers for the 1960-61 year.

Those on this year's program include J. Craig Smith, president of Avondale Mills, Sylvauga, Ala., and president of the National Cotton Council of America; Harlan Hagen, representative of the 14th California district, who is a member of the House agriculture committee; and Ralph H. Raper, director, cotton division, Commodity Stabilization Service of the USDA, Washington, D. C.

W. O. Fortenberry, president of the PCG, announced that a free barbecue lunch will be served at noon, and that free door prizes will be awarded throughout the day. Also as a special feature this year, the PCG, in thanks for the cooperation and help of Plains growers, are awarding a grand prize to some lucky grower and wife of a free trip to the Texas State Ginner's Association annual meeting in Dallas next April.

Fortenberry added: "This next year will probably see some major developments in our cotton program and these nationally known speakers, each of whom is a recognized leader in his respective field, will provide us with much needed information that we can utilize in drafting the PCG position for the coming season."

Smith, a native of Birmingham, Ala., has long been active in the cotton textile industry. He is a director and past president of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, chairman of the Alabama Cotton Improvement contest and a past president of the Alabama Textile Manufacturers Ass., in addition to having been a delegate member to the National Cotton Council since 1953, a NCC board member since 1951 and a past chairman of the sales promotion committee of the NCC.

Cong. Hagen is serving his fourth term as representative of the 14th California district, comprised of Kern, Kings and Tulare counties — all large cotton producing areas — in the southern San Joaquin Valley of California. An attorney by profession, Hagen is a Democrat. A recognized spokesman in congress on western farm matters, Hagen supports various development projects, expanded use of natural resources by the public, broadened social security benefits.

Raper, a native of North Carolina, has been in government service since 1935 and on the staff of the cotton division in Washington since 1941.

Lamb county cotton growers Monday re-elected Ross Lumsden and V. O. Busby as their delegates to the Lubbock meeting.

The session was held at the district courtroom when George W. Pfeifferberger, president of PCG was the principal speaker.

Rites For Allison-Pool Wedding Read In Muleshoe Church Ceremony

The First Methodist Church of Muleshoe was the setting for the wedding of Miss Nan Allison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allison of the Pleasant Valley Community, to Charles Walton (Buddy) Pool, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Pool, Muleshoe, August 28. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. M. Horace Brooks, pastor of the church.

The church was decorated with a sunburst alter arrangement of pink gladioli and American Beauty Roses, flanked by candelabras of pink tapers. The chancel rail was entwined with ivy and greenery. Pews were marked with pink bows laced with ivy.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Ms. Sam Danron, organist, who accompanied Miss Chris McFarland of Dumas who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of lustrous tulle and a boat neckline and long sleeves tapering to petal points over the hands. Sprays of Alencon Lace enhanced the figurine bodice, highlighted by clusters of seed pearls and cascading down the side of the magnificent skirt to meet an inverted pleat held by a flat bow and sweeping to a court train.

A crown of pearlized orange blossoms and miniature lilies held a fingertip veil of silk illusion.

The bridal bouquet was an orchid surrounded by Lily-of-the-Valley and Stephanotis, looped with pearl strands.

For something old Mrs. Pool wore a sterling comb with rhinestones sets that was worn by her grandmother, Ms. Sam McKinstry at her own wedding. Something new was her dress, something borrowed and blue was a garter that is traditionally worn by her Chi Omega Sorority sister. She also wore a pearl diamond drop presented to her by the groom.

Miss Sylvia Pool of Muleshoe, sister of the groom, was Maid of Honor. She wore a petal pink taffeta dress, with a fitted bodice, boat neckline, and a full street length skirt. Large puffed sleeves featured tapered bows. She wore a matching head band of petal flowers and carried a bouquet of American Beauty Roses in a cascade form.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Draper, Tahoka; Miss LaVon Copley, Muleshoe; Miss Deborah Huckabee, cousin of the bride, Hagerman, M. N., and Mrs. Kenneth Powell, Muleshoe. They wore identical dresses of shocking pink, styled like that of the Maid of Honor. They carried cascade bouquets of pink roses.

Roger Pool, brother of the bridegroom, Muleshoe, served as Best Man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Powell, Muleshoe, Carroll Pool, cousin of the groom, Canyon; Bob Black, Muleshoe; and Bob Bryant, Muleshoe. Ushers were Winston Allison, Muleshoe; Gene Tunnell, Earth; Dutch Wilkinson, Lamesa; and Arthur Splawn, Canyon.

Miss Veta Sue Allison, cousin of the bride, wore a pale pink taffeta dress and Mack Allison, brother of the bride, lighted candles. The flower girl was Beth Osborn, Lovington, N. M., cousin of the bride. She wore a pale pink floor-length dress styled similar to that of the bride. She carried a simulated basket with pink elf roses. Jack Allison, cousin of the bride, Muleshoe, was ring bearer. The white satin pillow he carried was made by Mrs. Pool's great aunts, Mrs. J. West and Mrs. J. D. McKinstry. Guests were registered by Mrs. Gene Tunnell, Earth, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Allison chose for her daughter's wedding a beige lace dress with beige and amber accessories. Mrs. Pool wore a beige silk shantung dress with brown accessories. Both wore red rose corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents on the Plainview Highway. The table was covered with a white brocaded cloth, on which was a five-point candelabra with pink tapers and red roses, garlanded with ivy. Miss Polly Etter of O'Donnell, and Miss Carolyn Jarrell of Childress, presided at the serving table. Mrs. Sam McKinstry, the bride's grandmother, played ground music for the reception. In the house party were Miss Caroly Allison, Miss Becky O'S.

Fresh Peach Jam Offers Variety Of Tasty Ideas

Frozen peach jam offers an easy and tasty way to make use of the abundant peach crop of this year, according to Lady Claire Phillips, County Home Demonstration Agent.

It is a convenient food to have in the freezer, not only for making sandwiches or for use on toast, but also as a topping on ice cream, puddings, and other desserts. This jam has fresh flavor because the peaches are not cooked.

Ingredients for about nine 6-ounce glasses are: 3 cups crushed peaches (takes about 2 1/2 pounds); 5 cups of sugar; 1 package powdered pectin; 1 cup water. To prepare the fruit, wash and drain the fully ripe peaches, remove pits and skins, and crush.

To make the jam, first measure 3 cups of crushed peaches into a large mixing bowl. Add sugar, mix well, and let stand for 2 minutes, stirring occasionally. Dissolve the pectin in the water, bring to a boil and boil for one minute. Add pectin solution to the fruit and sugar mixture, and stir for two minutes.

Ladle the jam into jelly glasses or into suitable freezer containers, leaving 1/2 inch space at the top. Cover the containers and let stand for 24 to 40 hours or until the jam has set. Then cover jam with 1/4 inch layer of hot paraffin. Uncooked peach jam can be stored in the refrigerator for a few months or in the freezer for

Grocers Here Take Part In Warehouse Opening

The completion of a huge warehouse and offices in Amarillo for the Panhandle Associated Grocers marks a big step in the local independent grocers competitive outlook with chain stores.

The new establishment was open to the public this past Sunday, and local Affiliated Grocers of Littlefield are participating in the week's grand opening with special buys and a registration set - up of over $3,500 in prizes.

To date there are 135 independent grocers members of the affiliation. The affiliation has been organized and operating in the Panhandle of Texas for the past fourteen years.

The 138,400 square foot plant signifies the most efficient grocery buying and warehousing operation available to independent grocer members according to local Affiliated members.

It's probable that few consumers realize, in dealing with an Affiliated Food Store, that the store actually is one of a group amounting to the area's largest food distributing operation, but one still conducted on an individual personalized independent basis.

The 195 members stretch from Santa Rosa, N. M. to Wellington, Texas, east and west and from Hooker, Okla. to Littlefield north and south.

Registration blanks for the $3,500 are displayed in the advertisements of Krentz Bros. Food and Pioneer Super Market in this issue of the Lamb County Leader.

Boys Set Fire To Former City Man's Church

Dr. Luther Kirk, a native of Littlefield and now pastor of San Jacinto Methodist Church in Amarillo, is supervising the entire redecoration of his church sanctuary because of a recent fire started by two 10-year-old boys.

The youngsters, who set fire to another church and burglarized several service stations in Amarillo, were apprehended recently and confessed the felonies to police.

The fire in Dr. Kirk's church was started, according to the boys, when they lighted candles and threw them in a cabinet containing papers.

The church library also was destroyed along with several windows and other fixtures.

Dr. Kirk and the pastor of the other church damaged by the blaze have recommended to police that the boys be placed in a church children's home.

Ronald Neumann, sophomore student at South Plains Junior College, Levelland, is now taking applications for students who wish to take private piano lessons.

The lessons will begin on Saturday, Sept. 10, at 8:30 a. m. in the Neumann residence at 808 N. Sunset.

He has been the church organist in home church for about 5 years. He has also taught piano for 2 years in Granite, Okla., before coming to West Texas.

Both children and adults are welcome to take lessons from Mr. Neumann. For an appointment, please call 385-5083.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

The death of an intestate person (one who has made no will) may give rise to many problems regarding distribution of his separate estate. In the preceding column we investigated the manner of dividing the community estate upon the death of a husband or wife. Now we shall see that where separate property is involved, a completely different set of rules applies in determining heirship and apportioning the estate among the right full claimants.

It may be well to recall that the separate estate of a husband or wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly proved.

Now, here is a general idea as to how your separate property will be divided if you do not make a will with contrary provisions prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and if, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of previously deceased children, the children and their descendants immediately obtain a full (fee) title in two - thirds of the real estate involved. The surviving spouse receives a life interest in the remaining one - third of the real property, which passes on to the children and their descendants upon the death of the spouse.

The rule for distributing personal property - cash, stocks, bonds, furniture, or any other items not constituting real estate - is different. Here the surviving spouse gets full ownership of one-third, and the children and their descendants inherit the balance.

Now suppose your husband or wife survives, but there are no surviving children or their descendants. In this case the surviving spouse inherits all of the personal property involved.

With regard to real estate, the survivors obtain full title to one-half, and their other half is divided between your mother and father, if both survive you. If only one of them survives, he or she receives only half of this portion, and the other half (or one - fourth of the entire real estate) will be divided among your brothers and sisters (and their descendants) who survive. If there are no surviving brothers and sisters and their descendants, then the one surviving parent inherits the full one - half.

Where no parent survives, but there are brothers and sisters and descendants, the full one - half is divided among these survivors.

And, if there are no parents or brothers and sisters (and their descendants) surviving, then the surviving husband or wife inherits all of the real estate.

This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform - not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.

It's the same way in a family. A husband isn't going to agree with his wife on all issues. He is not going to like everything she does. He is going to be aware of her faults. He is going to see her mistakes. Sometimes he may even be in the mood to walk out. But he isn't going to run after the wife of someone else on these occasions, using the excuse, "I live with the best woman regardless of whose wife she may be."

So long as our party expresses our political views on the fundamentals, we "brass collars" believe we must stick by her even though we don't always have our way.

IT'S THE SAME way with church life. There may come a time in the life of an individual when he feels constrained to leave his denomination for another. Perhaps he discovers, after he is more mature and more capable of independent thinking, that the church which he joined as a child, does not provide the best avenue of worship for him. So he joins another. Such a person should never be criticized for his decision.

But it's quite something else to join another church every time one's feelings are trumped, every time a pastor is not to one's liking.

IF THE Democrats win in November, it will be in spite of an unnoisy marriage of those who would keep America safe for the privileged few and a conglomeration of clergymen representing everything from the ignorant and bigoted to crazy Hamletians who have never had anything in common with Democracy. It was this same union that mislead the masses in 1928 as appeals were made to all that is base in individuals.

Every time the ministry has forsaken its holy calling for secularism, it has gotten its foot in its mouth and the church has suffered. Heaven only knows how much unsanity among congregations will be created by pastors more interested in politics than the Great Commission, how many friendships will be broken, how many families will forsake churchgoing - all because of an attempt to mix church and state - the very charge they would lay at the doors of those they hate.

A GREAT fallacy is abroad concerning the philosophy of so-called "brass collar" Democrats or Republicans. The "independents" (or mongers) describe us as people who in reality oppose our particular party but feel that we must grit our teeth and take it regardless. They picture us as people who are in bondage, who nod our noses when we vote.

Nothing could be farther from the truth - unless it is the halo the independents wear as with sanctimony and self-righteousness they tell us they are either Democrat nor Republican but always vote "for the man."

THE TRUTH IS - there is nothing to compel us to be "brass collar" Democrats or Republicans. If and when the time comes that our particular party is completely unacceptable, then were are at liberty to abandon that party. It's just that were are sufficiently realistic to know that we can't always have our way, that we must give and take when we are working in an organization composed of so many diverse elements, that we must expect to find things in our party of which we disapprove.

It's the same way in a family. A husband isn't going to agree with his wife on all issues. He is not going to like everything she does. He is going to be aware of her faults. He is going to see her mistakes. Sometimes he may even be in the mood to walk out. But he isn't going to run after the wife of someone else on these occasions, using the excuse, "I live with the best woman regardless of whose wife she may be."

So he joins another. Such a person should never be criticized for his decision.

But it's quite something else to join another church every time one's feelings are trumped, every time a pastor is not to one's liking.

SO IT IS with community life. For example, we can't want a half brick without seeing something wrong with Tulsa. When we react on the attitude of some Tulsa merchants, when we consider what kind of a town we would have if they were typical, we almost want to move to Acland.

When we see some of our civic deficiencies, when we are made aware of the selfishness that exists in some citizens, we want to leave.

run across a townplanned northwest three - score miles or so to Clovis, N. M. The man in the drug store said that the population is 24,000 for that thriving east New Mexico city. But the man in the filling station obviously more civic-minded than was the factual druggist said, "well, it's just under 30,000." And he added: "If they counted all the vast part of the population lying beyond the city limits, it would be 35,000 to 40,000 people."

And so it goes. If New York could include Chicago in its count it would be the world's largest city instead of Tokyo.

more than 2,250,000 children in Texas schools this year. Just their driving habits by J. O. Musick, manager of the Texas Department of Transportation.

"Don't turn your youngster loose behind a ton of steel and bolts unless you can depend on him to obey traffic laws, exercise reasonable judgment and in his possession a valid driver's license," Musick cautioned.

While parents are cautioning children about traffic problems, they owe it to the children to examine their own driving habits.

"One of the best safety devices we know of if a child who watches the speedometer while his parents drive," Musick declared. "Whenever you have a child in the car with you, drive as if you were teaching him to drive -- because you are," he said.

NEVER leave an infant at home alone regardless of the weather. "Far too often we hear of cases where a mother doesn't want to take a small child out in rainy weather and thinks it will only take five minutes to run over to school and back," Musick said. The result too often is that mother gets tied up in a traffic jam at school and gets home 15 or 20 minutes later to find the home ablaze.

School is a thrilling experience of learning for children. "Let's help children learn the thrill of finding out that adults care for them -- and are willing to protect them through safety," he said.

pleased to find Clovis had made such a nice growth during the last three years. It was in 1957 that we were last in Clovis, and its growth since that time has been considerable.

Like the man in the restaurant who said, "we are beginning just now to become metropolitan-minded. Until a year or so ago, everyone, including the folk who live here, thought of Clovis as just a country town. Now we are thinking in terms of a city."

There were scads of new homes, houses that had moved a long way from the old adobe type homes that formerly were the architectural style for Clovis.

One sign at a new addition said: "Live graciously the MOD-ERN way." The emphasis on "modern" implied something, I guess.

THE shops, too, have a scrubbed look, but there still is a wary eye out for the tourist, it is obvious, since several shops seem to cater to the souvenir hunter, something to send back home to Aunt Minnie in North Fork, Tenn.

Parking along the main street had been turned into the proper system, parallel. Have a friend who judges a town by the method of parking used on the main drag. If the town is still using the 45-degree angle system, he puts it down as "sub-city." Which, of course, may or may not be an accurate way to judge a city's growth.

And the dressing that went with it was 90 percent sage and 10 percent half-cooked onions.

Next time I'll play the missus hunch. "Here," said I, "is a pretty place; let's eat here."

But the missus drug her feet. "I don't feel like the food will be good here," she said; "there's just something about it that looks off color to me."

I pointed to the beautiful atmosphere of the place and to the dozens of people apparently enjoying their victuals. She shrugged and walked into the place.

Between the sage-onion burps and the way home she reminded me that she had had a "feeling" about the food there, a woman's intuition. For anyone who has been married as long as I have to go against a woman's intuition -- well, I should have had indigestion.

CLOVIS should make a city I know an attorney who got his if for no other reason than geography. It's approximately 100 miles from both Lubbock and Amarillo, and the biggest city to the west, Albuquerque, is a good 200 miles off. Roswell, the next biggest city in that area, lies more than 100 miles to the southwest.

He thought a minute and then he said, "Yes, Clovis will make a real city. Unfortunately, I'm too old to stick around to see it grow into one. But by 1975 it will be a different story. I believe it must have been Clovis that Horace Greeley was talking about when he said 'go west, young man.'" your local police or fire department, should it be necessary? Does she know how to lift and hold your baby? In lifting baby, proper support must be given the back and neck. A baby also has an instinctive fear of falling and a firm grip is necessary for security and safety. Does your baby sitter know how to feed baby? There will be times when you'll have to be away during baby's feeding schedule. Your baby sitter should know how to warm the formula, how to test it so it is not too hot, how to hold and feed baby and how to burp it. Does she know how to bathe your baby? Though bathing is something you'd rather do yourself, there will be times when you'll want your baby sitter to assume this responsibility. She should be able to prepare the bath and know how to place and handle baby in it. Is your baby sitter able to diaper your baby? Every baby sitter should be able to diaper a baby and do it well. Patience, care and a proper diapering technique are necessary. The joke about pinning the baby isn't really funny. "Your baby sitter will, of course, rate high in the above 10 point test," says Dr. Osborne, "if she is a graduate of a baby sitter training course."

Competitive examinations will be given state-wide on October 4, 5, and 6 to fill 118 vacancies as patrolmen in the Texas Department of Public Safety. Interested young men who are between the ages of 21 and 35 must have their applications filed with the Department in Austin on or before September 23, 1960. Major Hutchison advised that applicants who successfully com-

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—Summer weeds are being mowed down on the school yards over Texas this week. Classrooms are being aired, and teachers are mapping lesson plans.

Some teenagers—probably thousands—are ignoring all these tax-paid preparations being made for their benefit. Deliberately or unknowingly, they are getting ready to make one of the worst mistakes of their lives... not finishing high school.

Gov. Price Daniel has issued a special plea to youngsters to "go back to school and remain there until graduation."

To drop out of school, the governor reminded, is to cheat yourself out of a probably $50,000 in future income. This is the average difference between what a high school graduate and an eighth grade student will earn in a life time.

At the peak of his earning power, the average high school graduate will earn 27 per cent more than the average eighth grade graduate, said the governor.

Public concern is based on statistics showing that between the 1955-56 school year and graduation of the 1958-59 class, more than one-third of Texas high school students dropped out.

Governor Daniel reminded that in an age of swift technical advancement, it is harder and harder for an unskilled worker to find a job. He called on public and private organizations to join in encouraging young people to stay in school. Both the individual and the community enjoy a better life, he said, where more people have good educations.

SMALL WORLD PROBLEMS—In deciding what kind of materials to use in building Texas roads and bridges, the State Highway Commission found it self plunged headlong into the whirlpool of international relations.

This summer the Commission issued an order that only American-made materials should be used in Texas road and bridge building. Texas industrialists, particularly steel officials, cheered.

In 1958 a constitutional amendment was approved giving the legislature authority to set up such a program. It would cost approximately $10,000,000 in state money, which would be matched with almost twice as much in federal funds.

These and related problems will be discussed at a statewide meeting of the Committee on Aging in Austin Sept. 7. Lending importance to the study are statistics showing the rapid increase in the number of older persons. During the past 60 years Texas population has tripled but the population over 65 has multiplied by ten.

BALLOTS UP TO COUNTIES—It's up to county election board to decide the order in which parties will be listed on the general election ballots.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled that counties do not have to list the parties in the same order which the secretary of state lists them on a sample ballot. Secretary of state sends this out to the certified nominees for state office.

Republican officials have been urging that county officials draw lots to decide whether Republicans or Democrats shall get the preferred first column on the left.

INTEGRATION OPINION ASKED—Dr. J. W. Edgar, State Commissioner of Education, has asked the attorney general for an opinion on whether the Houston public school system can continue to receive state aid if it follows a federal court order to integrate a grade a year, beginning in the first grade. State law denies aid without voter approval. Houston voters turned down integration.

TETANUS SHOTS URGED—State Health Department officials are urging Texans to have tetanus shots and keep their immunity up to date by getting periodic boosters. Lockjaw, which the shots prevent, has not disappeared. Fifty-two persons, 24 of them infants, died of lockjaw in Texas last year.

HIGHWAY FUNDS ANNOUNCED—State Highway Commission has announced plans to spend $188,550,000 on the interstate highway program. An estimated $160,000,000 will be spent on 548 miles of controlled access highway and $27,638,000 on buying right of way.

TEXAS DAIRY PRINCESS CHOSEN—An 18-year-old dairy farm girl from Sandia, Miss Louise Knolle, is Dairy Princess of Texas for 1961. She replaces Marilyn Carpenter of San Antonio, 1960 winner.

Miss Knolle was selected from three finalists in the Fifth Annual Leadership Awards Program of the American Dairy Association of Texas. They competed in Austin for the state honor.

She will represent Texas in the 1961 American Dairy Princess contest.

Farmers and ranchers cannot afford to be dull and lazy during late summer and early fall. Extension range specialists say that winter is not very far away, and now is the time to make preparations for carrying the livestock until next spring.

Captain Alan Johnson of the Texas Department of Public Safety, recommended that Texans have their vehicles inspected early in the new inspection period which extends from September 1 to April 15, 1961. Vehicles not displaying the new sticker after April 15 will be operating in violation of the law.

"In the vast majority of cases," Johnson said, "this program has become a very minor inconvenience and expense to the motor vehicle owner — provided he moves early to comply with the law."

"The more than 4,500 authorized inspection stations over the State are capable of handling the inspection of Texas vehicles with out delay if owners will not wait until just a few days before the deadline."

"With hard summer driving coming to an end, fall is an excellent time to have vehicles safety checked in preparation for the winter months."

Johnson called attention to the fact that since the beginning of the inspection program vehicles having a defect that was a causative factor in fatal accidents decreased from 11 per cent to 5 per cent last year.

Bishop, Anton, went fishing last week.

Donald Kidd returned home Sunday from two weeks army reserve training at Ft. Polk, La.

Net income for a typical Southwestern sheep ranch was $10,812 per ranch in 1959. This figure compares to $8,181 for Northern Plains sheep ranches and $8,319 for Southwestern cattle operations.

Low Gets High Cadet Honor At Arlington

ARLINGTON — Roger C. Lowe, Distinguished Military Student of Littlefield is among 10 ROTC cadets to be notified this week that they have been designated as
