A THOUGHT FOR MEMORIAL DAY--Have We Kept Faith? By A. B. CHAPIN

WE ARE URGED VOTE ROAD TAX SURE SATURDAY

Saturday the citizens of every precinct in Lamb county will be called to vote a 15 cent special road tax. The measure is a good one, and has been almost unanimously approved throughout the county. With the improvement that Lamb county is enjoying, good roads become more important, and since the regular budget of the county is quite inadequate for the roads, the only way to improve these roads will be by taxation. There would be but one alternative, and that would be an increased valuation of property, which would also mean an increase in taxes to be paid. It is said the Board of Commissioners is unanimous in their support of the measure, and the following from S. D. Hay, commissioner of precinct four, received this week in the Leader, expresses Mr. Hay's earnest desire that the measure be carried by unanimous vote.

May 25, 1925. Mitchell: I sincerely hope that the people will vote favorably for the road tax on Saturday, May 30. We simply must have more road money. There are culverts to build, lake fills to be made, and roads to grade in my precinct that should be done right now. A real road will render some of our present roads impassable. It is my sincere desire to at least keep the school truck route roads passable at all times. I cannot do it nor can any other with nothing but the present bridge tax.

Special road tax will not hurt (15c on a $100.00 valuation) as the county valuation is comparatively low and will be voted county wide by commissioner's precinct. Each precinct will be assured special road tax money. If the tax fails to carry then the Board of Commissioners will have to resort to county valuation. I am opposed to this method and so is the rest of the county, for when we raise the tax we also raise the tax money paid out of the county to the state. So I hope that the people will vote favorably for this tax.

Very truly,
S. D. HAY,
County Commissioner.

GRADUATES IN GRAMMAR SCHOOLS FOR THE YEAR 1925

Graduation exercises of the Littlefield Grammar School were held last evening, there being 53 graduates in the graduation class. The program of the evening was in charge of Miss Mona Horton and Miss Ardlow. Hon. E. A. Bills was the speaker of the evening, giving an interesting address to the graduates on the subject of "Time." Bills stressed the idea that time is just as important as it was in the past, that it could not be hindered, but if taken advantage of by passing by meant everything success in life. He urged the pupils the necessity of utilizing their time to advantage, of preparing ahead of time, getting ready for the emergency that might be expected.

Mr. Rowe, Jr., delivered the prayer. Witty Davenport the prayer. Lena Reed read the class prayer. Modena Siens made the prophecy.

They have installed new equipment and are prepared to meet any demands of the custom-

TEXAS WILL RAISE $225,000 AS QUOTA FOR AN ENDOWMENT

Next week every citizen of Texas will be asked to do his part toward the establishment of a national $5,000,000 endowment fund for disabled veterans and war orphans, sponsored by The American Legion. The quota for Texas is $225,000. An intensive campaign to raise Texas' share of the fund will be conducted throughout the state, June 1 to 6. The week has been set aside as "American Legion Endowment Week" in a proclamation by Governor M. A. Ferguson. Sunday, May 31, was named as "Endowment Sunday" in the proclamation of ministers of the state were urged to point out the need of the fund to their congregations that day.

"Advices reaching state headquarters of the Legion here indicate the endowment movement is meeting spontaneous response everywhere," said Commander McGee. "Already contributions are being made in many places and some communities are well on their way to their local quotas. Texas is going to make a record of achievement in this movement for the men who sacrificed their health for the country and the kiddies who gave their fathers, a record comparable only with its splendid response to every war-time endeavor. The state always has been among the leaders in every great patriotic and altruistic work and I am confident the endowment fund will not find it faltering."

Organization for next week's intensive campaign has been completed under the direction of a state endowment fund committee comprised of a number of the state's leading citizens. John J. Scott, president of the First National Bank of Houston, is chairman for South Texas, and J. L. Lancaster, of Dallas, president of the Texas and Pacific railway, is chairman for north Texas.

SALES REPORTED

Demand for Chevrolet Cars Greater Than the Supply.

The Bell-Gillette Chevrolet Co., report the demand for their cars greater than they can secure them from the factory. Recent sales are to M. A. Webb, touring; A. E. White, coach; W. J. Burris, coach; Neal Burris, Sudan, touring; T. E. Butler, Sudan, touring; Bruce Smith, Amherst, touring.

They say talk is cheap, by W. J. Bryan's real estate is worth more than a million dollars.

BUSINESS BRINGS MONEY

The greater the amount of business that can be centered in this community, the more money there will be in circulation. And upon each one of us rests a certain share of the responsibility for making this community a greater business center.

Every loyal citizen wants to see his town and community grow and prosper. Every loyal citizen will give a part of his time, free of charge to his community. The community is entitled to it. And is not this town and community entitled to the money that is being sent away each week for commodities that are kept in stock by the home merchant. Is it not the duty of every loyal citizen to keep his money at home, where it will help build up our schools, churches and public utilities.

A town and community is just what its citizens make of it. We can not build up Littlefield and the Littlefield country if we send the money away from home that should be spent with the home merchant.

Try the home merchant first—he has what you want or will get it for you.

MEMORIAL DAY

Saturday, May 30, is Memorial day; the day we recall the precious blood that has been poured out by the best and truest youth the world has ever known, the brave boys who went ahead to death, our imperishable heroes.

Do not profane that day! Do not forget its significance! The blood of American boys is upon the altar that day, and we should tread lightly, and give the day to recollection and to high resolve. Let it be so. And may the Eternal and Infinite God preserve these United States.

TAG YOUR DOG!

Wow! The chances are the City Marshal is going to get in some good practice with his .45 during the coming weeks.

The city dog tax becomes effective today. Whether masculine or feminine, your bow wow must wear a neat little collar with a tag attached, according to the decree of the City Fathers. Elsewhere in this newspaper will be found the ordinance covering this demand.

The town has some valuable dogs and they will be protected by their owners, but there is a drove of them that are useless and should be sent to dog heaven, also, it is hydrophobia time, and no citizens wants to take a chance on that route into great beyond.

Dr. Tanner has been appointed by the City Commission to administer the vaccine. If you own a canine, better protect it immediately!

YELLOW HOUSE CO. RECENT SALES ARE 2,478 ACRES LAND

That the prospects for a large immigration to this section this fall are good, is the information coming from an official of the Yellow House Land Co., this week. It is stated that all over their sales territory the company is now receiving numerous calls for advertising matter regarding Littlefield and surrounding country, while their various subagents state the prospects for land sales this fall are far better than they were last year. It is understood that this company is laying plans for a much larger campaign and bigger volume of business, beginning about the first of August, than was conducted last year. Recent sales reported are as follows:

MORE RAIN SUNDAY

Extra Precipitation Fine For Planting And Growing Crops.

A heavy rain falling in the vicinity of Littlefield Sunday night means added confidence to the farmers, who are now well assured for the crop season.

The rain began about 10:00 o'clock p. m., coming in a heavy downpour for about 30 minutes. A few miles north of here there was reported some hail with slight damage to young crops, but at this season of the year, there is plenty of time for replanting, if necessary.

Until the next morning water was standing in the roadways, and at the time of going to press there is still much water in the road ditches. Parties returning from Lubbock Sunday night report rain as far east as the Hub City, and very heavy travel through muddy roads across the corner of Hockley county.

INSTALL A FAN

Lee Theatre Spends $750 for Comfort Of Its Patrons.

The Lee Theatre is this week installing a big Ventura suction fan, of the disc-fan type, with screw propeller blades, capable of sucking out 16,850 cubic feet of air per minute.

The machine weighs 750 pounds, is motor driven, and the fans so arranged that there is absolutely no back flow of the air. According to Manager McClure the entire atmosphere of the picture house can be changed every two minutes, while at all times there will be a constant in-play of fresh air for the auditors.

Be proud of your home town.

HOLD UP HI LINE

Width of State Highway Temporarily Hinders Operation.

C. A. Reynolds, foreman of construction for the Public Utilities Co., is here this week with a crew of men for building the electric hi-line from Lubbock to Clovis.

The work, however, is being temporarily held up on account of the width of State Highway No. 7, which is 60 feet wide, whereas the state specifications call for 80 feet. It is not the desire of the company to construct their line, and then at some future date be required to move it over 20 feet.

Poles have already been distributed along the highway, work of construction has been started in Sudan, and Monday two carloads of poles were unloaded in Littlefield.

THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER WAS PROF. HILL OF W. T. T. C.

Commencement exercises of the Littlefield public schools were held Saturday night in the high school auditorium, at which time diplomas were presented to 15 members of the senior class.

The address was given by Prof. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas Teachers College, at Canyon, and was chock full of wholesome instruction and sound advice to the out-going student body. The attendance was large, and many of those present declared that Prof. Hill's address was the best of its kind ever listened to in Littlefield.

The presentation of diplomas was made by Arthur P. Duggan, president of the local school board. Those receiving certificates of graduation were, Wilma Barber, Embert Mueller, Ira Smith Jr., Mary Reid, Alberta Hodges, Francis Sanders, Willow Street, Willie Hay, Ozella Webb, Lois Farquhar, Harold Neis, Ardreen Boyd, Maire Scheuer, Kathryn Greer and Homer Snowden.

This week most of the teachers are leaving for their respective selected places of vacation, a large number of them returning to teach here again this fall.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.—Prov. 28:6.

Not he who has little, but he who wishes for more, is poor.—Seneca.

A FINE OUTLOOK

Reports from all sections of the country are to the effect that growing crops and fruit have been retarded somewhat by backward weather, and that the planting of other crops has been seriously delayed. But so far no reports of a deplorable loss in any section have been received, and as far as the community around Littlefield is concerned, at the present time, there seems to be no cause for complaint about the weather and conditions generally. Since the recent heavy rains, that have put a fine season in the ground for planting purposes, many of the nervous new settlers have had their pulses calmed, some of the lugubrious loquacious ones have quietly folded up their pessimistic pessimisms, and nearly everybody is getting onto the job in dead earnest.

As a matter of fact, if all the good reports coming in over the South Plains country, especially during the past three weeks, were taken in their entirety, they would really give the people of this country considerable cause for rejoicing. With the crops season of this section now fairly well assured, there is every indication that Littlefield may again repeat her unprecedented development of last year.

Already the building campaign has started, more than $200,000 worth of new bricks being on the program now, some of which have already been started. Real estate men declare the outlook for business in their line is just as good for this fall as it was for last fall. One company alone, reports 375 live prospects on the list, just waiting until they get their crops at home firmly established, or business negotiations of various forms concluded before making a trip of investigation to this immediate section.

It has often been noticed that more than half the hard times of any section of country exists in a mental state only. The psychological effect is without argument. Invariably the man who talks hard times, has hard times, while the opposite is also true. The fellow who is not satisfied, but who works to make things better, and the merchants who want more business and go after it through the right kind of publicity are the ones who win out. Just now the optimists seem to have the floor with everything in their favor.

AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE

There are any number of us ex-soldiers who still do not maintain a very high regard for Germany, even though the war has been over for some time; yet regardless of our feelings, we must recognize the efficiency that generation produces in many ways, some of which might well be copied with profit in the United States.

In our frequent rounds of Littlefield we find that men may differ about the weather, they may not agree on which make of auto is the best and some of them are at great variance in their religious beliefs, but there is on think about which most of them agree, and that is the fact that this country is handicapped by entirely too much politics.

Germany may not have selected the kind of man for president we would prefer, but she certainly set the United States a good example in the way she went about it. Hindenburg was nominated four weeks before the election, and took his seat two weeks after the election. Over here we start talking presidential candidates and state governors three years before the election; we nominate in June and then drift through an entire summer and most of the fall neglecting business for a political campaign that is almost five months long. We elect a man in November and four more months elapse before he gets on the job.

Figure it up and you will see that we spend at least one year out of every four electing a president and governor. We've often thought Germany has by far the better system—and she doesn't have her business men trembling over the approach of "presidential year, and a thousand and one other correlative questions appertaining to it. In fact, the U. S. with all her efficiency, still has room for improvement along some other lines as well as those political.

It is our belief that if this question was put to a vote throughout the entire country, instead of being left to the politicians it would be seen that America, too, would favor a short political campaign and more time in which to talk business instead of politics, and, at the same time about three-fourths of the activities of the politicians could be turned into channels that would be more profitable to the nation.

KEEP THEM BUSY

The schools are now closing throughout the country, and the summer vacation season will again find our boys and girls enjoying the well-earned rest to which they are entitled. No one begrudges them a vacation, and everyone wants them to get the most out of it. But those who have their welfare most at heart are those who realize that vacation time should not mean a time of complete idleness. Give the boy and girl something to do through the summer months—it will be for their own good, even though it may be difficult to make them see it that way.

The streets of Littlefield are no place for boys and girls to spend all their leisure time. Indeed, some of them are using these streets entirely too much now for their future permanent good. Find something for them to do around the house, just enough to keep their minds occupied a liberal part of the time, and the vacation will be worth more to them both now and in the years to come.

American youth has shown an inclination to "take things easy" in recent times, with the result that soon or later this country may find her list of drones as large as that which now menaces the future of England. Keep the boys and girls doing just enough during vacation to prevent their forgetting the curse of idleness.

LEST WE FORGET

Saturday is the day the American people have dedicated to those who have given their lives for their country. In countless assemblies, on Saturday and Sunday millions of our people will be paying tribute to the valor and the self-sacrificing devotion which has inspired succeeding generations of Americans. There will be pride for the high quality of our national citizenship; there will be humility at the graves of them who were tested with fire and found true; there will be sorrow that any had to pay with their lives for the measure of freedom and security which we have today.

But this is not enough. It is not enough that we be proud of our country, humble at the shrines of her noblest sons, and saddened by thought of their sacrifice and suffering.

This is of the past. And it is in the present and in the future that we must live. Unless we shall turn the lessons and experiences of yesterday to guide today and tomorrow, they who have died will have died in vain. Let us, then, on the day of Memorial, reconsecrate ourselves to more earnest effort that they who come after us shall have the chance to live their lives in full contentment and security. Let us rededicate ourselves to carry on to the goal of universal peace and justice. Let us find at the graves of those who have gone, that renewal of courage and that exaltation of spirit which may enable us to live for the ideals for which they died.

This is the least and yet the most that we can do—that we build our memorial in our own lives.

ENFORCE THE ORDINANCE

No law is of any value unless enforced, neither is a city ordinance. Littlefield has on her records an ordinance covering the sanitation of the city, but from indications it is not being enforced. Considerable complaint has resulted as a consequence.

At this time of the year especially, this ordinance should be adhered to strictly, yet it is not. Go down any street in the business section of town and the accumulated trash is obnoxious. Go through any alley and it is worse still. Flies breed and swarm in much of it. Any number of out toilets are in a disreputable condition and should immediately be cleaned in behalf of the health of the citizens as well as the decency of the town.

Containers should be placed on the principal streets to receive trash swept from business houses, loose bits of paper, banana peels, etc., from pedestrians, and when filled, carted away to the official dumping ground. It is to the interest of the entire city that the sanitation ordinance be promptly and fully enforced.

MORE SIDEWALKS NEEDED

The Leader has frequently suggested the value of an 8-foot concrete sidewalk on both sides of Main street, from the depot to the city park. Really we believe there is nothing that would add more to the attractiveness of the city and at the same time furnish greater convenience to the pedestrian public.

Also, a concrete walk from the school center to the business district would be an excellent and much needed improvement, especially beneficial to the public this fall. We have made some investigations, and find that such a walk may be constructed for about $100 per block, and it would seem that this price could be easily met by the property owners along the way, as the walk on their frontage would increase the value of their property much more than its cost.

CITY IMPROVEMENT

The many forward steps of civic improvement now going on in Littlefield are certainly commendable and indicative of the esprit-de corps that invariably exists here.

With a 3-story bank building just now nearing completion, contract let for another $100,000 school building and about $75,000 other brick business houses either in process of construction or about to be; with several residence buildings now under the saw and hammer, with the contract let for a $75,000 water system, with every street in town now under the process of grading and improvement, with money in sight for a big community building in the city park, and a dozen others items of more or less magnitude, Littlefield has all the earmarks of becoming a strictly up-to-date municipality.

THE PARDONING CRAZE

During recent weeks the newspapers of Texas have had much to say about the large number of pardons issued by the Texas governor. Last week state papers contained items stating that the first convict pardoned by Mrs. Ferguson has been arrested for burglary. Eventually most of these criminals will probably find their ways back to jails and penitentiaries, but it would seem that there were enough criminals now turned loose upon society without emptying the state prisons.

Careful Talk

"What is the cause of all the excitement down at the zoo?"
"I can't tell you. The editor of this paper would never publish it. It would be free advertising."
"What do you mean—free advertising?"
"Well, one of the camels got loose and the keeper had to walk a mile to get it."

BLONDE BESS OPINES

"Since working in this real estate office I've learned one thing:—people, satisfied with their lot—usually build a house on it."

IT IS SAID

—That the chautauqua program this year was the best yet.

—That Littlefield's millionaires are organizing a golf club.

—That Littlefield is to have a poultry show and community fair this fall.

—That nearly everyone in this part of the county is in favor of hard-facing Highway No. 7.

—That only one business man in town refused to sign up for closing during the ball game here last Friday.

—That the farmers around here have put in thousands of acres of cotton and feed, much of which is already coming up and now looking fine.

—That Lubbock county has employed a fingerprint specialist, but what Lamb county needs is a footprint expert.

—That a New Mexico woman last week shot her husband "in the pantry" because he was late to dinner. Littlefield husbands should take warning.

—That Littlefield has a veritable Ponzi when it comes to originating financing and putting over big business matters. Modesty forbids mentioning his name.

—That there are a few fellows hanging around this town who think they are pretty good citizens just because they can keep the cops from getting hold of them or getting any evidence against them.

ED PURDY'S PHILOS

"Save while you are young and when you are old you will have money enough to do all of the things you will no longer enjoy."

LITTLE LEADERS

Sad but true, an over production of road-hogs never brings down the price of pork.

The thing the average Littlefield man hates worse than a homely girl is a "pretty" man.

The easier it is for some folks to get married the harder it is for some of them to stay that way.

When Ford's airplane factory gets going good anyone can guess who will have the right-of-way.

Next to pictures of a traffic cop, the recent pictures of Hindenburg look meaner than anything we ever saw.

Another favorite remark we often hear around Littlefield is: "I don't think he's good enough for her." Think it over.

Federal officials say America now averages five and four-tenths to a family. We suppose the four-tenths represents father.

A girl drops her maiden name as soon as she is married, and a few weeks later most of them drop the idea that she married the finest thing that ever came down the pike.

We have observed that there are some children in Littlefield who find it quite difficult to have respect for a father who can't earn money faster than they can spend it.

Every married man in Littlefield knows he can make a hit with a neighbor by telling her she bakes the best cake in the world, and he also knows better than to let his wife find out that he said so.

PERSONAL POINTERS

Dr. Simpson says that there is one thing everyone can wear and never worry about its being out of style, and that's a smile.

"Some fellows love to brag about what they've got," asserts E. C. Cundiff, "but I notice they never do their bragging to the tax assessor."

Ira Smith is of the opinion that in a short time those of us who jump straight up in the air to dodge one of Henry's flivvers will be in danger of pumping our head against one of Henry's fliers.

"Marriage," says Clayborne Harvey, "is often the miracle that turns the first prize beauty into a third prize cook," and he wasn't speaking specifically either.

W. H. Badger says Littlefield has been so happy during the past year with its growing pains that he has just got to get away for a couple of weeks to see what the town looks like when he comes back. Vocationitis, the disease that expands the imagination centers while it all but paralyzes the muscle tissues of the body, has evidently seized him.

Natural Feeling

A New York man who has just finished a 30-day fast, says that he feels like a boy again. Yes, anybody can remember when he was a boy and felt just that hungry about three times a day.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

LAMESA WON TWO GAMES FROM THE LITTLEFIELD LADS

Lamesa crossed bats with the Littlefield last Friday and Saturday, winning both matches by comfortable majorities.

In the first game up to the fifth inning, inclusive, Littlefield had the game won, when Pitcher Thompson "went to pieces" and Lamesa began piling in the scores, until at the end the board showed 10-14 in favor of the visitors. Following is the box score for the first game:

The game Saturday resulted in a score of 7-3 in favor of Lamesa. Herbert Mueller was in the pitcher's box and did excellent work.

It is announced that Littlefield will play Clovis, at Clovis next Sunday. Plans are also in the air for forming a circuit between teams of Lamesa, Plainview, Littlefield and Lubbock, playing two games each week per team, probably on Tuesdays and Sundays, during the season.

A CORRECTION

In the last issue of the Littlefield High School News was carried an article entitled, "Dedication to the Business Men of Littlefield," wherein the staff expressed their appreciation to the business men of the town for their loyal advertising patronage during the school year just closed.

Through some unexplainable oversight one entire page of names was omitted, as follows: Littlefield Motor Co., NuGrape Bottling Co., W. H. Harris, M. D., Glen Allen, Hamilton & Inmon, Shaw, Arnett Tolbert Co., J. T. Harris, W. A. Turner, Beck & Patterson Tin Shop, Burton Tin Shop, Littlefield Oil Co., Beisel Bros., Littlefield Bottling Works, Barnes Mercantile, Jones Bros., City Tailor Shop.

We sincerely regret the oversight of the printers and herewith offer this explanation and apology, as the above named firms have been loyal supporters of the high school paper.

REMODELING AND ADDITIONS MADE TO LOCAL DEPOT

In keeping with the progressive spirit of the town, the Santa Fe system is making preparations for a general renewing and enlarging of the local depot, according to local Agent J. M. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes states that this week work began on a 50 foot extension of the depot, which will be used for freight house, also a high loading and machinery unloading platform the full length of the freight room and across one end. When this is completed the present freight house will be used exclusively for express and baggage accommodations.

It is also understood that the interior of the depot is to be remodeled, some changes made in the office rooms, the waiting room and a negro waiting room to be added. While the whole structure will be repainted inside and out.

SENATOR BURKETT ENCOURAGED THE HIWAY COMMITTEE

Indications are very favorable for the hard-surfacing of Highway No. 7, according to reports returned by committees from Maudsloe, Sudan, Amherst, Littlefield and Anton, meeting with Hon. Joe Burkett, member of the State Highway Commission, at Lubbock last week.

Littlefield was represented by Messrs. A. P. Duggan and Rev. H. J. Jordan, who state that the project was very favorably received by Mr. Burkett.

It is understood that special road improvement districts will be created in the counties of Parmley, Bailey and Hockley, through which sections the road now traverses, Lamb county probably being thrown into an improvement district as a whole. Thus the road will be hard surfaced from the New Mexico line east to the Lubbock county line, where it will meet the same kind of road running northwest out of Lubbock.

Mr. Burkett stated there was no doubt but the Commission would meet the counties with dollar for dollar for the improvement project.

WATCH FOR LICE ON YOUR BABY CHICKENS

A number of farmers have been losing their baby chicks from lice. It does not take many lice on one chick to cause it to droop around a few days then finally succumb and die. As has been written in these columns a number of times, the best known lice remedy is Sodium Fluoride. This can be produced at the drug stores in powdered form.

It may be applied either in the powdered form or put into water and used as a dip. To powder the chickens take them and pinch a little of the dust into their feathers. On small chicks the lice are apt to be on the heads, while on the old fowls the greatest infestation is around the vent. A couple of applications about ten days apart will generally suffice to rid the birds of the lice.

In dipping, the powder is put into water at the rate of one ounce or three level tablespoonfull, per gallon of water. The birds are immersed in this solution, care being taken to see that their heads are well wet. Select a warm sunny day to dip the fowls and no ill results should occur.

 ENACTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LITTLEFIELD:
 That there is hereby levied an annual tax on all dogs owned or kept within the City of Littlefield, Texas, in an annual tax of $1.50 for each dog and $2.50 for each dog; said tax to be paid each year on or before the first day of the City Marshal or his deputy, the City Clerk, by the owner

 Sec. 3. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any owner or keeper of any dog or bitch to permit such dog or bitch to run or be at large upon the streets, alleys or public grounds of the City of Littlefield; and any dog on the streets, alleys or public grounds of said City shall be considered to be at large when not under the direct control of its master by means of rope, chain or other device sufficient to control the action of such dog; and the payment of the tax above levied shall not be construed as a license to permit such dog on which said tax is paid to be or run at large.

 Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the City Marshal, or any deputy, any member of the Police force, or pound master, to take up and take charge of any and all dogs found at large in violation of the preceding section, and to impound same in a suitable place for a period of forty eight hours; and immediately upon the impounding of any dog notice of such impounding shall be posted in front of the city hall, or office of the city clerk, giving description of such dog, owner's name if known, tag number if taxed, and the date of impounding; and upon the payment of the tax above levied and an additional impounding fee of $1.00 before the expiration of forty eight hours, or before such dog is destroyed as hereinafter provided, such officer shall deliver said dog to the owner or keeper thereof; provided that if the tax has already been paid upon such dog, same shall be delivered upon the payment of said impounding fee; provided further that if said dog be not redeemed at or before the expiration of said forty eight hour period after impounding, then it shall be the duty of such officer to destroy such dog and deposit the body thereof in some place designated for that purpose.
 Sec. 5. It shall hereafter be the duty of every owner or keeper of any dog or dogs, bitch or bitches, of any kind, to have same vaccinated to prevent hydrophobia and the spread thereof, on or before the first day of June each year, or as soon thereafter as possible, the vaccinating to be done by some person competent and qualified to administer vaccine; provided that upon the payment of the dog tax hereinabove levied, the said city of Littlefield shall furnish the vaccine and have said vaccinating done free of all costs to the owner or keeper of such dog, provided the vaccine be administered by the person designated and appointed by the city to perform such services; and said city shall keep on hand a supply of vaccine and shall appoint a competent veterinarian to administer same; provided further that the city of Littlefield shall not pay and be liable for any costs of vaccine or vaccination if the vaccine be administered by any person other than the one designated by the city, and not in any event unless the tax be paid before the vaccination be done; and in the event any dog be vaccinated by any person other than the one so designated by said city, then the owner or keeper of such dog shall make affidavit that such dog has been properly vaccinated, stating in said affidavit the date of vaccination and the name of the person administering the vaccine, and shall furnish a certificate of such person that such dog has been vaccinated and the date thereof, which affidavit and certificate shall be kept by the City Clerk for his files; and provided further that upon the vaccinating of any dog by the city veterinarian or person designated by said city to do such work, said veterinarian or person shall file with the city clerk a certificate to that effect, and it shall be the duty of the city clerk to keep an accurate record of all dogs vaccinated.

 Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the City Marshal, his deputy, or other police officer of the city, to kill and exterminate instantly any and all dogs at large when said dogs are, or appear to be, affected with hydrophobia or other infectious contagious or dangerous disease, and it shall not be necessary to impound such dog or dogs before the killing and extermination thereof.
 Sec. 7. Any person or persons violating any provision of this ordinance shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than one dollar nor more than two hundred dollars.
 Sec. 8. FLOYDADA TO CELEBRATE

Planning Biggest Event of Year to Be Held July 3 and 4.

McDermott Post American Legion, of Floydada is making extensive arrangements for their Third Annual Celebration and free barbecue to be held here July 3rd and 4th, and which they expect to be even more successful than the events held for the past two years. Committees have been named to handle consecious and amusements, and the barbecue will be the largest they have ever attempted.

McDermott Post is one of the strongest in West Texas, with a membership of seventy-five, and domiciled in their own home, which they built during 1924, and which is one of the few exclusive Legion homes on the Plains. With the favorable conditions now existing in the Plains country it is expected that the July celebration will be well attended.

ANOTHER GOOD "CROP"

It appears that we are not only indebted to the rural sections of the nation for the things we eat but also for those who are coming on to eat them.

In spite of that fact that the population of the cities is increasing, Uncle Sam has just issued a bulletin showing that the birthrate in the farming districts and small towns is 52 per cent greater.

The figures state that at the time of the last census there were children in the cities for every 100 wives between the ages of 15 and 45, while in the smaller towns there were 157 children, and in the purely farming sections, 195 children. This reference to towns mean places of from 250 to 2,500 population.

In the country there are 109 men to every 100 women, and in the towns 95 men for every 100 women. These are interesting figures, but far more so to those who live on the farms in the towns, for it proves that they are, after all, the ones to whom the country must look for its future citizens.

So far as we know, no one has made any definite survey of the 'baby crop' in Littlefield and environs, but it is our belief, if the facts were known, this vicinity would furnish statistics ahead of its quota. This is indeed a fertile country, and no better place in the world to raise children.

Whitharral Items

Rev. Phipps of Littlefield, filled his regular appointment here Sunday afternoon.

Wilson Fullbright and family attended church and Sunday school at Littlefield Sunday morning.

W. H. Badger, of Littlefield, has agreed to donate a 5-acre block of land just east of the school lot, for a gin. Deep interest is being shown by the farmers around Whitharral. A large acreage is being planted in cotton, some farmers are planting day and night. Quite a lot of first planting is up to a good stand.

All of our voters are planning to go to the bond election to be held at the Petit school house on May 28th. Whitharral is anxious to get a good school building as the enrollment for 1925-26 is too large to be accommodated by the present building.

School closed May 8th with a nice dinner, also ice cream and music in the afternoon. Good teachers from all over the surrounding country are putting in applications for a position in our school next term.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Fullbright entertained their friends Saturday evening with a pound supper. Music was furnished by Messrs. Lowhorns, Fullbright and Langford. Everyone reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lowhon were the guests of relatives in Littlefield Saturday night.

Rev. Pete Manis and family of near Littlefield were the guests of J. K. LaLue and family Sunday.

Grandpa and Grandma Mankins have come from Wilbarger county to live in Whitharral.

We are very sorry to state that C. B. Edgar, our enterprising groceryman lost fifteen dollars in cash out of his store last week.

"CINDERELLA IN FLOWERLAND" WAS BIG ATTRACTION

The operetta "Cinderella" in Flowerland" was presented Thursday night last by the teachers and pupils of the Primary Department of the Littlefield Schools. The High School Auditorium was decorated for the event and the largest crowd ever gathered in the place was present to enjoy the childrens contribution to the gayety of graduation week. It is known that more than 1000 people were in the house and nearly 500 were turned away.

Miss Nannie Thelma Wardlow directed this presentation. For the past year Miss aWrdlow has been director of public school music and how well she has succeeded is attested by the operetta, a different thing to present, yet as successful that many have requested a repetition of this little fairy story done in verse and gesture. It was fair superior to anything of this kind ever presented in our city.

The story followed closely the familiar one of "Cinderella." A chorus of fifty children with wands, paddles and boot invited all to Fairyland. The blossoms, tyerhity, hollyhock, narcissus, violet, sweet pea, buttercup, daffodil, miguanette, sweet brier, pansy, hily bell, poppy and Meadow Daisy appeared first in seed coats, later blossoming into their respective flowers. Daisy was just a common meadow flower, scorned by all the rest. But at the appearance of Godmother Nature to Daisy, Daisy's real self was discovered. Louella Whitaker had the role of Daisy, and in song and recitation was very pleasing. Mother Nature, with her wand transformed Daisy into the Princess Marguerite, and at the ball given by Prince Sunshine played by Morris Silvers, little Daisy outshone all the rest. Like Cinderella she overstayed her time limit, and departing left behind her one tiny golden shoe. Prince Sunshine, attended by his Sunbeams seeks everywhere for the owner, and at last in the meadow he meets the Blossom who have been telling Daisy about the wonderful beauty who attended the ball, and disappeared so suddenly. The shoe is in his possession, and his Herald, Robin Red tries to fit the shoe to the foot of the various blossoms. Though everyone's surprise it fits Daisy, who is crowned Princess.

In the cast there were 150 children, and the choruses of Fairies, Raindrops, Sunbeams and Butterflies, were all dressed in beautiful and suggestive costumes. Bonnie Bee, the messenger of Mother Nature was a decided hit, with his continuous "buzz" as of a very busy helper. This presentation deserves great praise, and all who assisted in any way, mothers, teachers and friends are to be complimented on the splendid showing made in this operetta.

Poultry Hints

Keep a good, strong padlock on the hen-coop door.

Six roosters with each 100 hens should give good fertility and hatchability with Leghorns.

Ground where last year's chicks died isn't good ground for this year's chicks. Move the coops and brooders.

The Orpington is an English general-purpose breed that is winning quite a place in America. Orpingtons have white skin and produce brown eggs—an unusual combination.

A. A. Holberg, assistant poultryman at the Minnesota college farm, saves himself work in cleaning dropping boards by keeping them covered with a layer of fine sand. He says it keeps the boards more sanitary, too.

Feeding the chicks too soon causes diarrhea. The egg yolk enters the chick's body shortly before the chick hatches. The chick should have time to use up this yolk before it is given any other feed.
