He completed the tabulation of 303 in the high school, 1,000 in the grammar school, and 1,281 in the primary department, an increase of 189 over opening day last year. In 1928 there were 303 in the high school, 1,000 in the grammar school, and 1,281 in the primary department, an increase of 189 over opening day last year. In 1928 there were 303 in the high school, 1,000 in the grammar school, and 1,281 in the primary department, an increase of 189 over opening day last year.

Upon the school, Prof. Harlan stated that everything was in shape. There is a fine corps of teachers employed, the pupils are showing interest in the school and he is looking forward to the best year of the four years he has been superintendent of the Littlefield.

He stated all buildings are in shape, and it looks now like necessary to add one more building to each of the three buildings. Work on the new building was added this week, and the total of 26 now used for purposes, more than 700 of enrollment being brought in this year.

OIL REPORTED IN SLAUGHTER WELL IN COCHRAN CO'Y

That oil has been discovered in probable paying quantities in a test well being drilled in Cochran county and located about 40 miles southwest of Littlefield, is the persistent rumor coming to Littlefield during the past week by various parties who have visited the well and talked with some of the workmen.

The well is located on the Slaughter lands, about five miles southeast of Lehman, in the southwest corner of League 130, and being drilled under contract with the Marlin Oil Co. The drill is now down approximately 5,000 feet, going in black lime formation. It has been stated that the well is gassing around 500,000 cubic feet and that the oil is standing in the hole about 2,700 feet. Control heads have been placed and every precaution possible is being taken against danger from fire.

Several Littlefield citizens are owners of land in that vicinity, and, in consequence of the present showings, are much interested in future developments. It is reported that hundreds of people have already visited the well and that leasing in that section has already become active.

This well is located seven miles east of a well drilled about two years ago by J. C. Whicker, of this city, and his associates, and because of the favorable conditions in the Slaughter well interest is being revived also in the Whicker well, which was drilled to a depth of 1,400, with oil showings at 1133 level.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE OF TEXAS READY FOR WORK

Austin, Texas, Sept. 10.—Copies of the revised constitution and rules of the Texas Interscholastic League may be secured from the University of Texas League Bureau according to Roy Bedichek chief of the Bureau.

September 15 has been set as the date of publication for the first issue of the Texas Interscholastic League, official newspaper of the Texas Interscholastic League, for 1929-30, according to Roy Bedichek chief of the University of Texas League Bureau. Lists of district managers for the various events and other important announcements will be published in the first issue.

Selected material on the subject of highway financing will be available after September 15 for members of the Texas Interscholastic League who are interested in debating, according to Roy Bedichek, chief of the University of Texas League Bureau. A bulletin containing selected arguments both for and against the League subject for debate, Resolved, that the Sterling Plan for Financing a State Highway System Should Be Adopted, will be off the press September 15. Indications are now that it will prove to be one of the most popular subjects ever chosen by the League for debate.

Lumpkins Brings First Bale of Lamb County Cotton Into Sudan Gin

D. C. Lumpkins, residing on the Pete Boesen farm two miles southwest of Sudan, has the honor of bringing to market the first bale of cotton ginned in Lamb county this season, bringing it to Sudan last Saturday, which was about three weeks earlier than the first bale ginned last year.

The citizens of Sudan gave a premium of $85.00 for this first bale, and the premium was further augmented by another of $25.00 given by the Lamb County Farm Bureau, according to J. W. Hammock, Lamb county representative. Lumpkins is a member of the bureau. It was ginned by E. Lam, of the Whiteside gin at Sudan.

It is stated that Lumpkins now has several more bales open on his 400 acres devoted to cotton this year, with indications of a yield of about one-third bale per acre.

FINK FROM DALLAS IS OPENING STORE IN LFD.

Wm. Fink, assisted by Mrs. Anna Fink, is manager of the new Fink store being opened in Littlefield this week in the new Romback building on East side of Main street. This concern has a large establishment in Dallas, where they have been catering to the buying public for the past 23 years.

The stock here will be a general line of dry goods for both men and women, of which they are importing a large quantity for fall and winter business. They will open to the public Saturday.

Mr. Fink has already found himself quite an enthusiast regarding Littlefield and this vicinity, and declares this little city has finer prospects ahead of it than any other town of West Texas to his knowledge.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend and enjoy the day, bringing with them well filled baskets for the big dinner to be spread at the noon hour.

ROAD COMMITTEE VISITS COMMISSIONERS COURT

The Road committee of the Chamber of Commerce paid a visit last Monday to the Commissioners court in an effort to get a road north through the sand hills.

The Court advised that they were working out a plan to build a good wide road north from Littlefield, beginning at the depot crossing.

This will open a wide trade territory and will give a more direct and better road to Dimmit, Hereford, Amarillo and points farther north.

A regular meeting of the Great Plains Poultry Association will be held Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Palace theatre. There is about $25,000 worth of building construction now going on in Olton.

MULESHOE

Hail did slight damage here last week, but the rain was of great value to growing crops.

First picking of tomatoes in this section was very satisfactory, and future prospects for increased acreage are flattering. Tomatoes are proving a good marketing crop for shipment in this section.

Dr. L. H. Lewis, dentist of Meridian has opened offices here.

Contract for second story to the Elite hotel has been let here.

Many new settlers and prospective buyers are now arriving in Muleshoe.

LEVELLAND

There are flattering prospects for the Hockley County fair to be held here September 24-25. Many fine exhibits will be shown.

At the close of the Baptist revival here last week 52 candidates were baptised and there were 119 additions to the church.

Refreshing rains visited here last Thursday, with some hail a few miles north.

$50 PREMIUM WAS GIVEN FOR FIRST BALE COTTON HERE

The first bale of cotton of the 1929 season was brought into Littlefield last Saturday by J. M. Hale, from his farm about 20 miles southwest of Littlefield.

This cotton was ginned at the Lowmore & Irvin gin, and a premium amounting to $50.40 was given the grower. This year the first bale arrived here 11 days earlier than the first bale of last year.

Later in the same day E. C. Brown brought in the second bale which was ginned at the Davanay gin, after which it was sold on the streets at auction, bringing 21 cents per pound.

HAIL DAMAGE TO COTTON OFFSET BY FEED BENEFIT

Persistent rain in Littlefield territory has brought some solicitation regarding final crop conditions some declaring the rain has been highly beneficial to feed crops, especially the late ones, while others think it forebodes some damage to the growing cotton crop.

Hail last week did scattered damage to both feed and cotton located south and east of Littlefield. Some, who at first thought they had suffered a 50 per cent loss, after a passage of a few days allowing the plants to straighten up again, have reduced their estimates considerably, while the majority suffering loss estimate it from 10 per cent down to very slight. However, the hail loss was very spotted, and it is generally conceded that the benefit to growing grain and feed will more than offset the damage to cotton. Those who have ground ready for wheat are highly elated and will be running the drills as soon as the fields dry off sufficient to get into.

CROW-BRIDGES

Marvin Bridges, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bridges, and Miss Coez Crow were married Wednesday of last week at Clovis, New Mexico, in the presence of a few relatives.

Following the ceremony, they left for a visit with friends at Hamlin and Winters, after which they will go to Borger, to make their future home.

Ft. Worth Cats to Risk Honors in Game to Play Locals Here Sept. 25

Jimmie Walkup and his Barnstorming team of Cats from Fort Worth will play ball in Littlefield the 25th of this month, with the local team, definite arrangements having been made last Monday, by telegraph, by Manager Arthur Mueller of the Littlefield team. The Cats will receive a guarantee of $200, with a privilege of 60 per cent of the gate receipts. Last year they played here on a guarantee of $250 and a 60 per cent privilege.

The Fort Worth club will consist of practically the same lineup as they used during the season just closed: Eddie Moore, Joe Bobowitz, Andy Harrington and Jimmie Walkup are some of the team who were here last year. Stebbins, Cox, Baker and Urban are some of the new faces in the lineup this year, and there will be several others with them on this trip.

The Fort Worth Cats at present are fifth place in the Texas league, but have threatened to win the last half more than once during the past two months. Securing new material from the West Texas league has put new strength into the club and they have been winning the majority of games.

Littlefield fans will have the opportunity to see a real class "A" game, playing the best West Texas has to offer, when the two teams play here September 25.

BUREAU GIN BUILDING 100 BALE WARE HOUSE

The Littlefield Farm Bureau gin this week laid the foundation for a 100 bale storage house 40x40 feet square which will be ready for use by the time ginning season opens, according to Manager J. T. Elms.

Mr. Elms states that the new warehouse will be of considerable value to cotton raisers permitting them to store several bales of their products and then ginning all together, thus enabling them to save their own seed without mixing with general gin run seed. It will also be of value to the gin in permitting them to store incoming cotton during rush season, thus saving the farmers much time in waiting their turn of ginning.

HUBBERS IN LINE AGAIN FOR SUNDAY GAME PLAYED HERE

The weather man played havoc with the ball game here with the Hubbers for last Sunday which was postponed until next Sunday the 15th, and will be played in Littlefield at 3:30 p. m.

The manager states that he will bring a better lineup than he carried to Amarillo tournament last month, and that the Littlefield team had better get on their toes to win.

With the returning of several West Texas League players to Lubbock the visitors will be a hard club to beat. Chisholm was not sure who would be in the box for next Sunday's game, but stated that he would have a couple of new men who could deliver the goods.

For the locals "Newty" Moore big right hander will do the chunking for the Cats. Moore has had two weeks of rest and will be in the best of condition. He was right at Artesia and is due to duplicate his pitching feat in the local park next Sunday.

Notwithstanding the rains of last week the Methodist revival meeting closed last Sunday night with good results. During the meeting there were about 40 professions of faith, according to Rev. Geo. Turrentine, the pastor, and the church generally was greatly inspired to more ardent spiritual activities.

The pastor has organized a training class for the reception of children as members into the church and for others interested in such work. It will meet each Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

The recently re-organized Epworth League, following the election of new officers, has instituted a membership contest which gives indications of much interest. It meets Sunday evening at seven o'clock.

At the morning service next Sunday Rev. Turrentine will preach on the subject: "Gains and Losses of the Christian Life." In the evening his theme will be "The New Birth."

Cundiff at once. The sale is to be held Thursday, September 26, beginning at 1:00 p. m.

Lunch was served on the ground by the Sudan Kiwanis club and gin men of that city. Short talks were made after lunch by Capt. Nusbaum, E. A. Miller, and H. L. Gantz.

Ludicrous, isn't it, to think of a man with his

Yet, consider the impressive similarity be-the services of fireman and independent

They strike infrequently; so does illness. Yet every city and itself on paying for adequate fire protection, on keep-pay for similar health protection? What salary do the druggist who is ready and waiting from morning until the night to fill the emergency prescription?

As firemen are not busy all day fighting fires, so the druggist is constantly engaged in filling prescriptions. That is why will do other things in addition to medicines. Unless he does, stay in business and be ready to care for your pre-

Every independent community druggist, who is forced to go

Five America's finest medium-priced automobile and learn what a difference there is

Where is the impressive superiority of today's Oakland All-American Six more clearly revealed than in its remarkable performance.

Oakland's engine has, among other features, the large piston displacement necessary in developing high power at the moderate engine speed essential for long life—the Harmonic Balancer to neutralize residual vibration in the crankshaft—rubber "biscuit" mountings to insulate it from the frame and make it incomparably smooth and free from vibration.

Drive this car—and learn what a difference these features make. We will prove to your complete satisfaction that today's Oakland is America's finest medium-priced automobile.

Why Oakland is unrivaled in performance at its price

The following facts were obtained from a comparison of the Oakland All-American Six with 20
other medium-priced automobiles. All told, 878 individual comparisons were made. Of these Oakland proved to be distinctly superior in 431 or 51.27 per cent.
The 20 cars combined were at least equal to Oakland on 352 or 40.34 per cent. And 13 of the 20 were higher priced than Oakland!

PISTON DISPLACEMENT
Oakland's 228-cubic-inch piston displacement is greater than 12 of the 20 cars in its price field. Of the 8 remaining cars, 7 are much higher priced than Oakland.

G-M-R CYLINDER HEAD
Only Oakland and one other car in the field use the G-M-R cylinder head. Sixteen have no type of non-detomating cylinder head whatsoever, although 11 of the 16 are more expensive to buy than Oakland.

Artesia striking out ten men in the first six innings, with not an Artesia batter reaching first base.

Artesia's only score came in the eighth inning on Jackson's double over Scallings in center-field, followed by Maxwell's sacrifice and Gifford's single to right. This tied the score. Littlefield having scored in the fifth on Mc-Williams double followed by Mick Ratliff's triple.

The Texans won the game in the tenth inning when Mick Ratliff singled to center, sacrificed to second by Scallings and scored when Ballard rattled the boards in left field for a double. Just to make the game safe they scored again on Rocky Kile's error and Hanks ground ball.

Gifford Artesia South-paw pitched a good game but his efforts were far overshadowed by Moore who struck out 14 during the game. A remarkable feature of the game was the fact that two of the Littlefield men were credited with all of the put-outs but one; Ballard making it. What few balls the Artesia men did hit were on the ground.

The game Sunday was featured by sterling work in the field by both teams. Not an error was made in the nine innings. Extra base hits also a feature of the first game. Kile got a home run over the fence by inches and there were besides this two triples and six doubles. Roswell won Sunday by playing heads up baseball, taking advantage of the breaks. Fly Thornton featured with a great run to take in a long fly ball in left field foul territory, and was accorded great applause by the crowd that filled the stands.

Vocational Agriculture

By R. A. BOX, Instructor
Fifty-one students in Vocational Agriculture are now enrolled in Littlefield High school. Two courses are being offered this year, Vocational Agriculture I in which 35 are enrolled and Vocational Agriculture III in which 16 are enrolled. This course is bidding for honors as one of the most popular for boys that is being offered in high school. Each of these boys will have charge of either a field crop or a livestock project, through which he will get actual practice and training for the type of farming that he expects to enter when he finishes school.

The vocational agriculture teacher at Littlefield is finding that everybody concerned is helping to put over a good program in agriculture in the high school this year. The parents of the boys are willingly giving them use of land, equipment, and are buying good livestock for them to grow in their project work. There should be a number of outstanding projects completed this year.

The agriculture class intends to enter a number of exhibits in the county fair at Amherst. There will be a vocational division in which project work may be shown. Grain sorghums, mainly, will be shown by the boys here. There will also be classes for dairy heifers and swine.

August Clark, vocational agriculture student, has made arrangements for a poultry project this year. He has ordered baby chicks, from which he will grow capons. By agreement with his mother, who is helping him to finance the project, he will receive all cockerels, and she will get the pullets.

The agriculture teacher has been working with the county agent for the past few days helping to prepare a county exhibit at the Amarillo and Lubbock fairs.

Gene Tunney has never been much of a popular hero, in spite of the fact that he is reputed to have whipped Jack Dempsey twice. Now it is said that Gene is writing a book, and this will probably prove a knock-out for what little popularity he still retains.

LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE

Many are the tales told of the little red schoolhouses and many a man who has made a success of his life has pointed back to the little red school house as his temple of learning. Tradition has been threaded around the little one-room school houses that make a rich part of our nation's history. Those little school houses have played a great and most important part in the development of our country.

Today the larger and better equipped centralized schools are serving a large area and the little red school houses are giving way to the newer system. The day has about passed when one teacher is expected to teach all of the six or eight lower grades of the school system, build the fires and act as janitor. In the centralized school the teachers are given classes and can devote their entire attention to the particular subjects and pupils of that class.

It's bound to bring a feeling of regret to the average Littlefield man's heart to realize that the little red school house is passing out of the picture. And yet he must surely see that it is for the betterment of the generation that demands an education in keeping with the times. The march of progress can't be halted—and in this case we don't believe we would be justified in halting it even if we could.

It is the love of other people's money that is the root of all evil.

STOLEN CARS

Littlefield motorists visiting a city, or traveling in any strange territory and having occasion to park their cars would do well to see that the doors are securely locked.

Police statistics for the country as a whole show that 90 percent of all cars stolen in 1928 were recovered, but they do not show that a vast number of them were partially or totally wrecked when returned to their owners. So many cars are left on city streets unlocked that the auto thief is not going to waste time on the ones that are. He works fast, and the chances are 99 times out of 100 that if he tries the door of a car and finds it locked he hurriedly leaves it and tries the door of another. And the one with the unlocked door is the one he takes.

It requires but a few seconds to lock your car. It may take a lot of money to put it in shape when it is returned to you after a thief or a joyrider has had it for a few hours.

Our sympathy goes out to the barber who has to cut hair at the shop all day and then go home and mow the yard in the evening.

A BIG DIFFERENCE

If there is anywhere around Littlefield a radio fan who imagines that the nightly advertising he hears over his set is going to become a serious competitor of the press, here is a chance for him to change his mind.

Roger W. Babson, statistician, recently had an ad published in five cities that brought him 222 replies for every reply he received from a half-hour broadcast over the Columbia circuit network, which cost him the same amount of money. The broadcast brought in 16 inquiries and two orders and the ad brought 4,000 inquiries.

That seems to set aside any reason for radio ever ousting the newspaper as an advertisement medium.

But there is a little more to the argument in favor of the newspaper, if you want it. The replies he received from the radio broadcast cost him $166.66 apiece while those he received from printers' ink cost him but 75c each. Now draw your own conclusions.

Maybe some day someone will invent a large road map that a human being can fold up exactly like it was in the first place.

LIGHTER TASKS

Makers of washing machines report the heaviest demand now in their history, and electric power figures recently given out reveal that rural residents are using from four to 12 times the current they did five years ago.

A recent survey showed that slightly more than one-tenth of the farmers of the U. S. have electricity, and a larger percentage have gasoline engines. But the most interesting part of the report is that the burdens of the farm woman are being lightened in common with those of the head of the family.

That means that the day of household drudgery and hard manual labor are passing in the home as they are in the fields and barns of the nation. City conveniences are no longer confined to the city. The genius of man has picked them up and carried them to the smaller towns and the farms. And the carrying process is just commencing to get a good start.

A fair sized moth can eat a 1929 bathing suit at one gulp, and then without any very great danger of choking.

LITTLE LEADERS

Advice to Littlefield motorists—Never park with your back wheels resting on a pedestrian.

It often happens that when a Littlefield boy needs a friend he makes a mistake and takes a wife.

One of our faithful Littlefield writers writes in to ask if a bull becomes more excited at red than at any other color. Our only answer is—you try it.

A Littlefield girl can wear a golf skirt when she can't play golf, and a bathing suit when she doesn't know how to swim, but when she puts on a wedding gown she means business.

What has become of the old-fashioned Littlefield girl who would rather know how to make biscuits than how to make whoopee?

Some Littlefield men fool themselves in numerous ways but the one who tries to make himself believe that a five cent cigar smokes as well as a dime one never succeeds.

The world hasn't grown any better since Littlefield women quit discussing recipes for pickles and took up the subject of brakes and clutch pedals.

A FAMILY GATHERING

The R. T. Kelley ranch in Lipscomb county was the scene for a happy family gathering on last Sunday. The sisters were all present with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley, the first time in many years. A bountiful feast had been prepared and a most enjoyable day was had.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley, Higgins; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Simpson and Stanton, Ruth, Donald and Vera, of Stanton, Mrs. E. H. Williams and children, Doris and Carl, of Littlefield; Mrs. Raymond Winsett and children, Dorothy and Kelley, of Galveston; Mr. and Mrs. Val McLanahan and children, Lyman, Leona, and Verna; Mr. and Mrs. Adon Bell and little daughter, Billie, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilkinson and daughter, Oriene; Ralph Taliaferro and the host and hostess and sons, R. T. and J. W.—Ochiltree County Herald.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The Missionary society met at the church Monday afternoon. An interesting program from the August Missionary Voice, led by Mrs. Thaxton and assisted by Mrs. Gillette and Mrs. Cogdill, was enjoyed. The bulletin was led by Mrs. Geo. Turrentine.

The society decided on the new book, "What Next in Home Missions," for the next study course.

Those present were Mrs. G. S. Glenn, George E. Turrentine, W. C. Thaxton, B. L. Cogdill, D. G. Hobbs, A. G. Hemphill John Keithley, J. R. Wales Alice Smythe, and W. W. Gillette.

A & M COLLEGE TO BEGIN ENROLLMENT ON SEPT. 16

A feature of the advance enrollment this year is found in the large number of students transferring from other colleges, especially junior colleges, Dean Friley pointed out.

CENTER BOX SOCIAL
The box supper and social at union center church last Friday night was well attended and enjoyed by all.
The opening number, a double duet and quartet was sung by Charlie Melton, Glen Young, Zed Robinson and Bessie Brown, after which was staged a 3-act play, directed by Mrs. L. F. Fitzgerald. The name of the play was "For the Love of Mike, had six characters as follows: Miss Odesa Martin, Modene Fitzgerald, Donzella Martin, Ruby Martin, Pauline Young Bill Lann.
Zed Robinson entertained the crowd between acts with his Hawaiian guitar. After the play the boxes were sold by Mr. Robinson to the highest bidder. The purpose of the box supper was to raise the money to pay our singing teacher, who had recently closed a school there which we were all well pleased with. The boxes sold well and we raised sufficient funds to pay Mr. Robinson for teaching the school.

GET ROYAL ARCH WORK
Mallory Etter, Pryor Hammons and C. O. Robbins were the first Littlefield citizens to be initiated into the mysteries of the Royal Arch degrees of the Masonic lodge, the chapter having been chartered here only about a month ago. There are several other candidates in waiting for this work.
The degree team employed was entirely of home talent, and notwithstanding it was their first demonstration, it was carried on with a high degree of perfection, several visiting Masons declaring their work was much superior to that of many degree teams of years experience.
Following the degree work there was a social hour and a dutch lunch was served.

HARLEY SADLER'S PERSONALITY SHINES THROUGH HIS SUCCESSES AS A SHOWMAN

"Veni, Vidi, Vici!" In the language of Napoleon, Harley Sadler came, saw and conquered Littlefield. It was his first trip here, altho he has had his eye on this growing burg for several years just waiting until it got large enough to afford him a comfortable and remunerative audience, for it is one of Harley's policies to render his service to the largest number of folks possible not only from a financial standpoint, but from the basis of also giving pleasure to the largest number of people possible.

Harley has been pulling stunts before the footlights ever since he was a lad 11 years old—all the time growing bigger and better in his work. He is an admixture of both actor and business man, blonde in complexion, slightly below medium in physical build, he has a disposition that is always cheerful and congenial and lending the impression of sincerity and genuineness. Wherever he goes with his shows, he not only tries to give satisfaction from the platform, but also seldom fails to leave some municipal benefit behind. He is both a Rotarian and a Kiwanian and always finds favor with fellow members of these organizations. For the past five years he has been exclusive owner of his own show, which grows each year, both in its size and popularity.

"The greatest kick that I get in life is knowing that I am pleasing the public and making life a little happier for everyone," said Mr. Sadler, "comedy is my forte, but I have always wanted to have a part in a play with dramatic moments," he continued. "I am happy in the fact that I believe I have the goodwill of every city in which I have played and I know our return to one has never failed to meet with a generous welcome. I had rather have the goodwill of the people in the sixty West Texas towns we play, than to be rich. Why if I had a chance to go to Broadway tomorrow, I would turn it down to keep on making the engagements with the tent show."

Perhaps one reason that the Harley Sadler shows receive such a crowd is that the shows are clean morally. The owner believes that clean comedy is appreciated much more than sex stuff or bedroom farces.

In addition to being a showman, Sadler is a typical West Texas booster and investor. He knows a good business proposition when he sees it. There are several towns in this section of the state, Littlefield included, where he is a tax payer because of lots purchased there while showing, and he has a few farms lying around that give further evidence of his faith in this part of the country. Of course, like every other business man Sadler likes to make a financial success of his shows, but while showing he likes to also feel that he is contributing something toward the welfare and total happiness of the race, and he does.

A new television instrument, so simple that it may be attached to an ordinary radio receiving set, is said to have been perfected in Germany.

WHY Leave Your Cream Profit in the Skimmilk?

PROFIT is the last thing to be made in producing cream or anything else—and if your cream separator isn't skimming clean you are losing a big part of your profit.

The worst of it is you can't see whether your separator is skimming clean or not. But there is an easy way to tell.

Ask us to bring out a new De Laval Separator and run the skim-milk from your old machine through it. If there is any butter-fat left in the skim-milk the new De Laval will surely get it. Have the cream recovered weighed and tested and you can tell exactly if you need a new De Laval—and if you do, trade in your old machine as partial payment.

Liberal trade allowances made on old separators.

The new De Laval is the best separator ever made. It has the wonderful "floating" bowl and other improvements. It is guaranteed to skim cleaner. It also is easier to run and handle and lasts longer. For 48 years De Laval Separators have led the world.

We also carry—
A full line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Gas, Oil and Coal Stoves, Farming Implements and Builders' Supplies.
