Pickrell, H. C. Pickrell is a son and one of the heirs to the Pickrell estate.

The clause to which Pickrell refers, as filed in the clerk's office, contains a blank line indicating a missing word.

In the Plaintiff's Request Upon Defendant For Admission Fact, filed Aug. 11, 1967 at 8:10 a.m., question No. 2 asks if it is true that the deed contains the following clause:

"It is agreed and understood that this property is to be for public school purpose only and should same be used for purpose, then the title is to revert back to J. Pickrell." The same clause is repeated with the word "other" placed where the blank line appears in the first phrasing. Basically, this is the foundation of the petition for the property to be returned to the original owner, now deceased, and thus to his estate. According to the petition, the Fieldton School property came under the jurisdiction of Littlefield School Board in September of 1953, that "the Lamb County Board has consolidated Littlefield Independent School District and the Fieldton School District" under the government of the Littlefield district. Question No. 1 in the Plain-tiff's Request for Admission establishes that the original deed conveyed "therein des-cribes lands to the Fieldton Independent School District,

Lamb County To Choose New Director

Lamb County cotton producers and businessmen will elect a businessman director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. for the coming two-year period Thursday, Aug. 31 at 8 p.m. in the County Courthouse at Littlefield, according to a joint announcement from J. D. Smith, current PCG producer director and PCG President, and Joe Montgomery, 1966-67 businessman director from Lamb County. The 23-county cotton producer organization has two directors from each county, one businessman and the other a cotton producer. Businessmen directors are elected on oddnumbered years and producer directors on even years, each for a two-vear term.

Both farmers and businessmen participate in the election of all directors.

The PCG staff will direct a discussion of the current cotton situation and possible changes in the 1968 government cotton program.

"There is going to be a need for increased cotton production in the U. S. in 1968, and the manner in which this increase is brought about under the terms of the present law is going to have a direct and significant effect on all cotton producers," Smith said, "so this discussion should prove highly interesting and worthwhile to Lamb County peo-

Smith and Montgomery emphasized that directors to PCG are the men who set the producer organization's policy on legislative, research, pro-motion, financial and other activities which help to determine the state of the area's cotton economy. "So we hope all interested persons will make the necessary effort to attend and take part in our county election meeting," they said,

A new city manager has been named to succeed Richard Bean who recently left here to accept similar position at San Marcos.

Terry A. Scarborough, 30, who has been serving as city manager at Hearne, accepted the post after an 11 a, m, called meeting Monday of Littlefield City Council when he was formally chosen among several applicants for the position.

Mayor J. E. Chisholm says Scarborough not only presents excellent qualifications for the position but is a man people will "enjoy working with."

Scarborough is due to begin duties Aug. 28, the mayor said and stated he believes the city is fortunate in getting a "very capable man." The new manager, whose home town is Gulfport, Miss., where he was graduated from high school, is a 1960 graduate of Texas Tech.

After graduation he was with the city of Houston and with the Parks Dept. there. From Houston, he went to Abilene where he was in charge of the Parks and Recreation Dept. From Abilene, Scarborough moved to Hearne as city manager. Scarborough is married and has two children, a girl in the second grade and a boy age 4. He and his wife are members

A member of The Leader-

News' staff brought to the office a picture from the Dimmitt newspaper showing a tobacco plant in cultivation in a Dimmitt garden. Its leaves appeared to be similar to the two unidentified plants here in Littlefield but were possibly broader.

As to Mrs. Wallace's theory of the plant's possible South American origin, both the Staffords and Mrs. Wallace are curious as to how it may have found its way here should that identity prove correct.

Should anyone else have suggestions as to the plant's identity, The Leader-News would be interested in hearing them.

A' Fishing

By Amy Turner

A' FISHING we will go.

Once again it is time for the family to make the annual trek to The Publisher's favorite fishing hole.

By the time you read this, we shall have returned, no doubt having had our fill of

However, due to the evils of newspaper deadlines, this was necessarily written prior to our departure and the thing uppermost in my mind at this time is fishing. I suspect that this is uppermost in the minds of each member of the family, but I have a feeling the thoughts vary somewhat. The Publisher, who can hardly wait, is probably already feeling the fish tugging

The Son is already counting his marks. You see, each year he buys a new cap and places one mark on the cap for each fish caught - the more fish, the more marks, the more successful his holiday.

The younger daughter hasn't said too much except to complain that The Son, just because he is a boy, gets all the attention when it comes to things of this sort and, anything he can do, she can do better and don't ever forget it The older daughter has some pretty definite opinions on fishing, all of which could be summed up in one word -- ughi She can't understand how it is humanly possible to clean a fish. But, then, she turns pale when I cut up a chicken.

As for me, I happen to like fishing, It's not that I care whether I catch anything or not, but it's the best excuse 1 know for doing nothing.

I've heard it said that a fisherman needs a lot of patience. Personally, I think he just needs to be a little bit lazy.

ONE AREA of this great sport has, I think, been overlooked.

The Publisher takes several fishing magazines and the articles are all very informative but I have yet to see an article directed to the wives of fisherman. This is indeed a grave oversight, which I now propose to correct. I certainly feel it is my duty to give the ladies some tips from personal experience.

First, you dare not ask the husband if he is sure the boat won't sink. Second, you don't hang on to the boat for dear life while he is expertly maneuvering around the lake.

Third, never ask to slow down because the seat bottoms aren't padded and the waves are rough.

Also, while you are trying desperately to look efficient in securing the boat to a limb so you can catch all those lovely threeinch fish, don't ask how to tie a square

YOU ARE READY, now, to start catching

Never ask why worms are so wiggly when you try to put them on a hook.

And do not ask your husband how to get all those little "bows" out of his new reel. The hardest rule of all to observe is to never jump up and squeal "I got one;" when catching the first fish.

Always hold the rod so as not to slap the husband in the face with the fish more than three times.

Always watch so as not to hook your husband's shirt when casting the bait out

THE LAST IMPORTANT rule is: Do not squeeze the fish when removing the book. This usually results in the fish jumping out of your hand and down your husband's shirt. And remember, when he finally gives up, don't let it hurt your feelings when he starts mumbling sweetly, *#$#.

I think that *#$# might be interpreted to mean:

'It's a good thing you're a good mother, for you'll never make a good fisherman

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

The Important Present

THE THE PARTY OF T

IT SEEMS that most of us have some difficulty fully realizing the value of the present time.

Some take from the present and its opportunities by a foolish attachment to the past. Others make the present almost meaningless by anxious interest in the future.

Pascal said, "Let any man examine his thoughts and he will find them ever occupied with the past or the future. We scarcely think at all of the present; or if we do, it is only to borrow the light which it gives for regulating the future. The present is never our object; the past and the present we use as means; the future only is our Thus, we never live, we only hope to

The important present is the only time of which we can be sure, and it is therefore the time for learning, working, being happy, doing good and improving ourselves. It is the time for living.

DISREGARDING the importance of the present is a much too prevalent practice. Whatever the cause, failure to fully understand the value of today is a great loss. We must fight against the regrets of misspent yesterdays and the anxieties about an uncertain tomorrow. These are two of the enemies of life.

We should try to see the present as Emerson did when he said, "This time, like all time, is a very good one, if we but know what to do with it."

It may be that we do not always know how to make the best use of the present time, but we can learn how to do so when we are fully convinced of its value.

WE SHOULD NOT always bewaiting to live, but remember that each day as it comes is made for living.

We must know and fully realize that letting the present means to us what it can and should mean is the very best way to make our dreams and anticipations come true.

THE SIMPLE ADMISSION that time is life will help us to fully know and appreciate the important present.

The important present is always more important than the dead past and the uncertain future.

European Trip

Lamb County Leader Littlefield, Texas

Aug. 18

Dear Sir. Thought some of my friends in Littlefield might be interested in knowing of my trip:

Mrs. Bennie James and son, Steve recently returned from a tour of England, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Ireland.

The tour was sponsored by Texas Garden clubs. Many private and public gardens were visited, as well as gardens of palaces and catles. Stayed in Dromoland Castle

I am the daughter of H. N. Bennett of Littlefield and live at Shallowater although my address is Anton. Have always been a subscriber to the Littlefield paper.

Thank You

Mrs. Bennie James

intrusion, one would have to live here a long time to know where to look to find

NO ONE but a self-styled recluse who chooses to retreat from the world, and who would be lonely sitting in his own grandma's lap, could possibly feel unwanted here. Anyone with an ounce of response becomes a part of this city within a week after he moves here.

In fact, all you have to do is stick your head out in plain sight and before you can pull it back you've signed up for 14 organizations and started three new hobbies.

It's wonderful -- absolutely, postively wonderful.

AND THE MOST amazing and delightful thing is the way people here just "up and do" whatever they want to, whether its raising Kormorner pigeons or white mice or suddenly deciding to do a painting of Palo Duro Canyon when maybe they've never even seen a tube of oils in their lives.

I honestly believe if someone decided to experiment to try and breed miniature hippopotamuses, nobody here would bat an eyelash. The general comment would be, "Isn't it nice that he has an interest?"

IN THE THREE MONTHS I have live here, already I'm more interested in more things than I have ever been in my life -- and the same is true with Mom.

We actually have started DOING things we really want to do -- and even the wildest ideas I've expressed about rock and wood sculpture have been encouraged by remarks like, "Oh yes, you must do that. And I'm just dying to see how it comes out!" Naturally, I run immediately and start hunting rocks and wood like crazy.

MOM HAS TAKEN UP painting and also shares my love of rocks and wood. In the past, we have halfheartedly collected rocks, but now we're burning out a set of tires a week scouting in the good God-given fresh

And I am going to start raising something. I don't know what, but if it turns out to be water buffalo from India, I know the people here will be genuinely intrested in the out-come -- and they won't think I'm some kind of nut.

AND, BYTHEWAY, I should have included our little dog Doc in all this dissertation. He's found a new world too.

We take him out to the farm home of our good friends, Bub and Lucille Stewart at Rocky Ford, and for the first time in his life he runs free -- as far and as long as his tiny little legs will let him.

He chases lizards and butterflies and you can see the joyous laughter bubbling up from his happy little heart.

IF WE SHOULD be blessed to spend the rest of our days here, one thing I know -- our lives constantly will be filled with new interests and exciting friends.

if we should leave tomorrow, our lives already would have been enriched enough to keep us happier -- and busier -- the rest of our days,

Dial 385-4481 For Classifieds

Dear editar:

I have been interested in a debate in Congress I've been reading about in three different newspapers I found out here last week, dragged in by my neighbor's dog and only chewed up around the edges.

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher

on his Johnsongrass farm sets out to teach

Congress a few words, his letter this week

As I understand it, a lot of Congressmen are worried over whether the proposed 10 per cent surtax to be added on top of whatever income tax you're already paying will be temporary or permanent.

This is the type of debate that makes Congressmen entertaining. Obviously they're just going on for the fun of it.

It seems to me that all Congressmen should have known long ago that all temporary taxes are permanent. It's only women's permanent waves that are temportry.

Congressmen ought to get out of Washington more and brush up on the English language as it is used nowadays, fore the TV set is paid for.

They ought to learn for example that eternal love in Hollywood means a couple of years or so, that a letter from some ourfit telling you "you may already have won $25,000" means the odds are 10 million to I that you haven't, that a weather forecast calling for a 20 per cent chance of rain means an 80 per cent chance of continued drouth, that a giant quart is a two-pint bottle not quite filled to the top, that whiter than white in your laundry is the same as saying a surface is flatter than flat or a ball is rounder than round, that the United Nations means the disunited nations, that a dollar is 52 cents, that to be a financial success these days means you're just barely earning a living provided the transmission doesn't fall out of your car before it's time to trade it in or the picture tube doesn't blow out be-

I could go on, but Congressmen, who're always referring to each other as "dis-tinguished," ought to be the first to know that words don't always mean what they say.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Jones Reviews FHA Program

Since the signing of the Bank-head-Jones Farm Tenant Act by President Franklin Roose-velt on July 22, 1937, more than 8,920 farm operators in Texas have either changed their status from tenants to farm owners or have been able to enlarge and develop their family farms to more efficient units, according to Truman J. Jones, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration.

In observing the 30th anniver-sary of the farm ownership loan program, Jones said that in the 30-year periodhis agency had advanced some $121,840, Refreshments of cake, ice had advanced some $121,840, cream, and Cokes were served 216 million to farmers in Texas and that currently there were more than 3,618 active borrowers in the program.

Jones said the Bankhead-Jones Act established the con-cept of advancing to tenant farmers supervised long-term, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Green low-interest credit up to 100 and family were recent quests percent of the value of a farm, in the home of his brother, allowing them to purchase and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green develop family-size farms. DATES CHANGED

Wildcats Scrimmage Morton Saturday

Littlefield's Wildcat football team, . . without the services of its two top quarterbacks... take on Morton's Indians Saturday afternoon at Morton in a pre-season scrimmage.

Coach Raymond Birchfield announced at Booster Club meeting Tuesday night that the date had been changed from Friday to Saturday afternoon.

The new mentor told an audience of 44 both his quarterbacks, Roy Burk and Mike Grisom, had been injured Monday and he was highly doubtful either would see any action Saturday 'In fact, Birchfield statedneither would see any more contact until they were "good and ready" for it, hoping that would be by Sept. 8 when the Wildcats open the season schedule at Plainview.

The scrimmage will be held on Morton's practice field, starting at 5:30 p.m. Club president Ken Johnson urged all members and fans to be on hand to give support for the 'Cats.

Burk, who is stated as the starting field general thus far. has an injured foot. Physicians have not yet been able to determine the exact cause of pain, but feel he will recover fairly soon.

The injury to Grissom, returning first team halfback and Answer: No.

The Plaintiff's Interrogations To Defendant asks questions of much the same content, with the addition of inquiring about the capacity of LittlefieldSchool System and how many students are attending there now.

Defendant's answer: "Answer unknown but the present enrollment is 2,007."

The Interrogation also asks, "What purpose does the Defendant feel that the Fieldton School house building may be put which prupose may not be served as conveniently or more con-veniently by existing facilities at Littlefield?"

Answer: . . "the storage of school equipment and supplies" and to hold school for transient people and for other uses that might avail themselves to the Littlefield Independent School District.

Regarding use of the school property by the Mission church. the defendants answer, " . . . no such permission was evergiven to the knowledge of the defendants."

As to how long the Mission has been conducting services there, the Board replied,

". . . we do not have the information asked . . . and, therefore, are unable to answer the same."

other quarterback Birchfield has for the scrimmage is Travis Danford, offensive end and defensive secondary man. The sophomore reportedly played some at quarterback in junior high a couple of years ago.

Birchfield tried Danford at said "He surprised us. Though he hasn't much polish, he did us a pretty good job."

Another disheartening announcement was also made at the meeting. It was told that tackle Bryon Nobles, only Wildcat able to tip the scales above the 200 mark, had turned in his uniform Monday afternoon. No reason was given on why the 203-pound lineman who played on the B team last year had quit. He was a pretty sure starter, both offensively and defensively. Birchfield pirked up the spirits of the meeting somewhat, when he announced Jimmy Hudson had returned from vacation and promptly demonstrated in workouts he wanted a place on the starting lineup. Of the 188-pounder, Birchfield said "He's going to help us."

The coach said the players. other than those on the injury list, were in pretty good shape. "We need this warm weather to hold out a little longer. They (the players) thought they were in good shape until Friday, and learned better." Friday was the first hot day the players had been subjected to. while playing in full uniform this

BIG WILDCAT -- New decorations in the Littlefield High School gymnasium are a pair of Wildcat heads 12 feet tall. They were painted near the basketball goals by Efton Graham. He was commissioned by the graduating Class of 1967 to do the paintings. Members of the Wildcat Booster Club saw the impressive designs Tuesday night.

WILDCATS MEAN BUSINESS when they go on defense, as shown by this picture taken during practice Friday afternoon. Defense is expected mainly because that is where most of the returning starters from last year's championship club come from.

Batson Tops In Tourney

Glenn Batson put together consistant rounds of 74, 72, and 74 to win the Championship Flight of the annual Littlefield Country Club Men's Golf Tournament last week by three strokes.

Topping the First and Second Flights were J. R. Chamber-lain and Wiley Mudgett, res-respectively, neither was hard pressed for their titles.

Batson, who trailed by a stroke after the first day, fought off Renard McCary, who fin-ished with a 203. Doyle Patton, first round leader, wound up in a two-way tie with Smiley Monroe for third place, each carding 224.

Rounding out the top six places of the Championship Flight were C. E. Nickels, 227, and Neil Duffy, 228.

Jim Graves finished second behind Chamberlain in the First Flight finals with a 240, with 'David Keithly's 241 pushing him.

Though Sterrell Harmon finished eight strokes behind Mudgett, he was still able to cop the second place prize in the Second Flight. Harmon had a 251, just above third-place Charles Duval, 253.

Mudgett had a hot day in the final round Sunday, carding a 75 to go with his 88 and 80 games. Chamberlain's threegame scores were 81, 79 and
