Itinerant Negro ... to a narrow ... Lubbock Metho ... Wednesday morn ... being savagely at ... an axe in his room ... section of Little ... night.

Attendants at the Lubbock Hospital said Clark underwent brain surgery Sunday. With his head crushed by the axe, Clark had been unconscious since the incident. His condition was listed as critical.

Investigated the attack, the accused and victim, along with two other intercomers Henry Johnson and Twister Jones, were living in a room in the Flats section. They had been in Littlefield about three weeks.

reed said he returned to the room between 10 and midnight Saturday night. Clark was asleep. The accused, in admitting the attack in the presence of Deputy Sheriffs V. L. Smith and Elson McNeese and Wilkinson, acted on what he called a "voice" and secured an axe with a three-foot handle. Grefphenreed said the "voice" would tell him to hit the elderly colored man, and then another "voice" would tell him not to strike Clark.

he struck Clark on the top of his head. A robbery motive was discounted by the officers after it was discovered that Clark's billfold, containing $64.00, was not missing. Sheriff Dick Dyer and Texas Ranger Razz Renfro conducted the investigation that led to the arrest of the accused. Dyer and Renfro spent several hours questioning Grefphenreed and other suspects. The accused at first denied having anything to do with the attack, but later gave his statement to Wilkinson.

Coming in for its share of the blame for the late start was the fact that the city's Christmas trimmings were not put up until Dec. 5th. Several merchants felt the job should have been done at least a week earlier.

SERVICES HELD TUESDAY

Earth Man Dies In Auto Mishap

Funeral services for a 23-year-old Earth resident who died early Sunday morning in a grinding collision near Texico, N.M., were conducted Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Earth Baptist Church.

Last rites were read for Jesse A. (Pap) Parrish, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Parrish of Earth, Parrish, a young farmer, was born and reared in Earth.

Parrish died when the car in which he was riding overturned after it collided with an auto driven by Jack R. Bates, 41, of Dumas, Parrish was thrown to the highway after the impact.

The young Earth farmer, along with two other persons injured in the accident, was rushed to Clovis Memorial Hospital. He was pronounced dead on arrival.

Parrish was a passenger in a 1950 auto driven by O. C. Martin, 20, of Earth, which was headed west on U.S. Highway 60 about two miles west of Texico, John R. Williams, 17, Earth, also riding with Martin, was injured in the accident, but was in good condition after the mishap.

One occupant in the Bates car,

Jim Cole of Sudan, was also injured. He, too, was listed in good condition after the accident. A third person in the Bates car, Hanford Brewer of Muleshoe, was uninjured. Martin and Bates, the two drivers, escaped injury.

New Mexico highway patrolmen said Bates passed a west-bound pickup truck and was pulling back into the right lane of the four-lane divided highway when Martin's car passed the pick-up truck and started around the Bates car.

Officers said Martin pulled into the shoulder dividing the highway to pass Bates' car. Martin apparently saw a row of yards posts ahead of him and abruptly swerved back into the inside west-bound lane in front of Bates' car. Martin's car skidded around broadside to the highway, then was struck in the right side by Bates' vehicle. Both cars overturned.

The dead man was a member of the Earth Baptist Church. Services were conducted by the Rev. Cecil Meadows, pastor of the (Continued on Page 6)

Local Man Beaten, Left By Roadside

A Littlefield man was found beaten unconscious and stranded along the side of Farm Road 304 in Hart Camp Sunday morning.

Everett Wallace, 45-50, a night cook at Truck Terminal cafe here, was discovered by two Lubbock men who passed the scene at 8 a.m. Sunday.

Officers who investigated the incident said the man was taken to Olton Memorial Hospital, where it was believed Wallace had a broken jaw.

Officers said Wallace told them he did not know what happened. They reported later, however, that a transient worker had been arrested and charged with fighting in connection with the affray.

It was believed Wallace lay unconscious approximately two hours before he was found.

POLICE BEAT IS QUIET

City police enjoyed another quiet Sunday.

Only two arrests were made, and those were two local white men who were jailed on drinking in public charges. The men were fined and released.

HERE'S A TIP: LOOK AROUND

If you're planning on shooting firecrackers within the city limits around Christmas time, here's a tip: Better look both ways.

Police chief J. L. Walraven says he's going to have his force out in full during the holidays and persons found shooting or selling fireworks in Littlefield are in for a flock of trouble.

The city has an ordinance against the "use or selling" of fireworks and violators are subject to fine.

RAIN!

Littlefield and most other cities in this area received rain Wednesday as a slow drizzle covered the South Plains.

Littlefield itself got 25 of an inch through 1 p.m. Wednesday. It was the first moisture here since October 17.

Listing the factors over which farmers can have some control, the report said fertilizer uses, early planting, insect control and time of watering in Lamb County were some of the chief reasons that the county's farmers met with success this year.

Here is what the report said in regard to each of the reasons: "Generally speaking, fertilizer application should be applied in the fall of the year, unless it is a side-dressing operation, to insure decomposition of field trash from a previous crop. Nitrogen available for plant use will be more abundant if all crop residue is decomposed before planting. Any farmer interested in using fertilizer should not guess at the amount to be used, but should have soil samples taken from areas designated for given crops. Commercial fertilizer use can definitely help farm operations but should be used under proper conditions and practices. "Early planting is very important (Continued on Page 6)

Cat Cagers Play Olton Friday Night

11 Gridders Report For Cage Season

By J. D. TRULY
The Littlefield Wildcats will be sporting a new team when they play Olton at Olton Friday night at 8:00. With the football season finally over, the Wildcat cagers will have some new faces.

Coach Bullard currently has 11 boys out for practice that have been playing on the football team. The boys are Miles Stephens a junior; Buddy Jones, junior; James Pressley sophomore; James Goldston, sophomore; Bill

The only three boys remaining from the team that has been representing Littlefield in early season games are Gaston Shaw, Charlie Duval, and Otis Ashley.

The new Wildcat team opened practice last Sunday and has been working hard every evening. The cage team will be a young and inexperienced bunch of boys, but Coach Bullard says "the boys have a lot of hustle and a will to play and win. We may not win too many games this year, but we won't lose any as badly as we have in the earlier games this season."

The varsity game Friday will be preceded by a freshman team game with the Littlefield Frosh playing the Olton Frosh.

Cats Pace Amarillo News' AAA All-Regional Eleven

Littlefield's Wildcats led the balloting in a Class AAA All-Regional eleven compiled by the Amarillo Daily News-Globe early this week.

Four of Coach Gene Mayfield's gridders were named to the first team and five others were placed on the second team.

Given special honor were Cat Tackle Joe Hoover and Fullback Max Morris. Hoover was named the team's outstanding lineman and Morris tied for outstanding back honors with Phillips' great quarterback Tommy Newman.

Mayfield's eleven surprised all the experts in winning the district 1-AAA championship after being picked for fourth place when the season started. The Wildcats ran up an 8-0-2 regular season record, then went to the state semi-finals before losing to Garland. Littlefield's final record was 10-1-2, with 291 points scored against the opposition's 163.

Although the Wildcats were the leaders in placing men on the first two teams, Phillips' outstanding quarterback, Newman, drew more individual first place votes. Next in line in individual votes was Littlefield's powerful fullback, Morris.

While Littlefield landed four players on the first team, Phillips, Levelland and Dumas placed two each and Hereford had one.

Dumas' two first team selections were Kent Vick, a guard, and Jim Tiner, halfback, Levelland placed Raymond Kaufman, a tackle, and Troy Spears, center, while Phillips' two members were Newman and Ralph Smith, end. Hereford's lone man was end Danny Ellison.

The four Littlefield selections included Morris, Mike Greer, halfback; Wallace Lee, guard and Hoover.

The first team line averages 179 pounds and the backs 162.

As for the backfield scoring honors, Tiner and Newman each tallied 96 points this year, while Morris marked up 81 and Greer, 67. In all, the first unit scored 340 points on 56 touchdowns. The first two ends scored 61 points between them with Ellison getting eight TDs and Smith, two.

The five Littlefield players on the second team include Leslie Bevel, end; Lawrence Hudson, tackle; Davis Williams, guard; Roger Lowe, center and Buddy Jones, halfback.

Phillips landed two players on the second team, Royce Phares, guard, and Ted Jolly, end. Levelland placed three men on the second unit, Jesse Sudderth, halfback, who missed the first team by one vote, Thomas Cowan, fullback, and Johnny Cowan, tackle. KAT'S KORNER

By GAY DOUGLAS

Hi, hey, hello, again! Well, folks, we lost the game, but I don't think we lost anything but the last half. And even if they had beat us all the way I still would have been just as proud of them. I get a lump in my throat and cold chills all over when I think of what a wonderful team we have this year.

The Seniors this year certainly have something to remember their Senior year by, something very wonderful.

Tomorrow is the last day before the Christmas holidays and there is a lot on schedule. The band and chorus are going to present their annual Christmas concert. The program will consist of traditional Christmas music and some other numbers that are not so well known.

The Student Council has done its good deed for the week. The Santa Fe Railroad has offered to donate a bell to District 1-AAA to be passed around to the new district winner each year with the name of the district winner engraved on it each time.

The date for the Football Banquet has definitely been set for January 26, so girls you better start getting your formal pretty soon. That day isn't very far off.

Yesterday the Speech Class presented their second one-act play of the year. It is entitled "Shock of His Life" by Donald Payton.

The characters were the same as in the Junior play "Just Ducky" as they were written by the same person. The characters this time are: Wilbur Maxwell — Michael Greer; Connie Maxwell — Sue Jones; Betty Lou Maxwell — Bettye Wyatt; Mr. Maxwell — Gerald Zybura; Mrs. Maxwell — Teddy Jo Bitner; Hercules Nelson — Sam McCormick.

The play is about a misunderstanding that comes from Wilbur's spelling. He spells "coughing" as "coffin" and writes a message from the butcher saying that all his heart is about sold out and Dr. Brown's message says he will stop at 7:30 to give his report on the medical examination that Mr.

Maxwell had that day. "Heart about gone, 7:30, Dr. Brown. Call over by 7:45." You can imagine the head of the house as he reads that and chokes.

The Seniors are now cause they have finished study of Macbeth rough but they lived it. The Wildcat Band has quite a name for itself. It has the unusual of having traveled more any other high school year. The trip to San Antonio over the 2500 and there are a few more schedule yet. That's a and most of them were on the "Golden Dargone". It's time for the bell to ring here I come. See you next week.

The Cook Is In The Kitchen Making Christmas Gifts

What is Christmas really "about"? Christmas is "giving", and the very best is giving yourself. A lot of you goes into gifts like those pictured. Both the Christmas confections and the whimsical containers, constructed with crepe paper, seals, ribbon and cotton, are very easy to make.

With semi-sweet chocolate morsels as a beginning, one can make Christmas sweetmeats in very little time. The simple recipe for the fudge is printed on packages of semi-sweet chocolate morsels at this season. The recipe for Semi-Sweet Nut Brittle is included. It has a delicate chocolate flavor, while retaining the characteristic brittle texture. Make both the candies and containers for original Christmas gifts.

Semi-Sweet Nut Brittle
COMBINE and bring to boil: 2 cups sugar; 1 cup light corn syrup; 1/2 cup water; 1 teaspoon salt. Cover and boil 2 minutes. Uncover and cook, without stirring, to 300° F.—hard crack stage. Remove from heat. STIR in quickly: 1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels; 2 tablespoons butter; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 1/2 cups salted nuts, coarsely chopped. Spread thinly on greased cookie sheet 15 x 12 inches. Let stand till cool. Break in irregular pieces. YIELD: Approximately 2 pounds.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christian of Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Delma Harralson of Loraine.

Lipstick Logic

Now take the Christmas Shopper... Well, take her or leave her... But whether she's doing it in August or December, she's an interesting study in feminine psychology.

If she's thrifty, methodical and hates crowds, she shops on the installment plan. She noted what she got last year, who thought what was "cute", and who had to borrow a sweater at the Christmas dinner. Then she has the entire year before her in which to find just the right thing for each person on her Christmas list.

If she likes sales, on the other hand, she uses Christmas buying as an excuse to let herself go. She stocks up on "bargains" of all descriptions, decides later who gets what.

As for ourselves, we like to plunge right into the Christmas swim. We enjoy the decorated stores, the gay crowds, the family groups around cosmetic counters or in menswear.

This year, we tried a new tack. We sat down first and read the gift catalogs that flooded the mails. What a strange thing that does to the Christmas urge!

"Now, let's see... Something for Ruth... A purse lighter? No, she already has three... Perfume? I wouldn't know what brand... A sewing basket? A luggage rack?" So off we go to inspect one especially inviting item, but if we get home with it instead of three other things, entirely unrelated, it's the surprise of the day.

Catalog shopping is a whale of fun. It's easy on the feet, keeps prices in the dry light of home surroundings, and furnishes an outlet for the buying urge at a safe distance from town or the postoffice.

Only "X" more shopping days till Christmas? So what? On Christmas Eve, it's still fun!

Blackhawks Win 1-AAA Tournament At Hereford

Phillips, a high ranking West Texas AAA power, dumped the host team, the Hereford White-faces 69-53 Saturday night to take the championship of the first-annual District 1-AAA pre-season basketball tournament.

The Blackhawks were leading by a 33-27 score at halftime, but the White-faces were never able to overtake them and Phillips increased their lead in each quarter.

Benefield paced Phillips to its championship win with 20 points. Morrison led Hereford with 15.

Plainview, a guest team, won third place by nipping Canyon (another guest team), 46-42, in an overtime. Plainview held a five point, 28-23 lead over Canyon at halftime, but the Class AA Eagles rallied in the last half to pull up at 42-42 at the end of regulation time. However, Plainview held the Eagles scoreless, while picking up four points itself in the three-minute overtime. Neblett scored 15 for Canyon and Taegel 23 for Plainview.

Dumas took the consolation trophy with a 66-50 triumph over Levelland. Dumas' Cleveland came up with the night's outstanding individual performance — pouring in 25 points. Levelland's leading scorer was Burl Bailey, who tallied 12.

Latin Man Charged In Olton Holdup

A 30-year-old Latin-American Tuesday was being held in the county jail here in lieu of $1500 bond after being charged with the armed robbery of an Olton farmer.

Accused in a hold-up of Ray Slatten is Ray Costello, alias James Roy, of Olton.

Costello was picked up in Olton at 10:20 p.m. Saturday by Olton Deputy Sheriff V. L. Smith.

The accused allegedly forced Slatten at gunpoint to drive to an Olton bank, where Slatten withdrew $230 to give to Costello. Both men entered the bank, according to officers.

Costello reportedly used a .22 cal. rifle. He wore no mask and did not try to conceal his identity, officers said.

Costello, who has been a resident for several years, was once employed on the Slatten farm, according to officers.

ant as it gives us the possibility of increasing the length of growing season. The season is often cut short in the fall, so any practice used which can give a few extra days in the spring will definitely be a benefit. Proven practices in connection with early planting, such as litter left on or applied to the ground surface or very near the surface for soil warming affects and moisture conservation and increased rate of seed planting can better assure a good stand at the first planting.

"Insect control in this area is becoming more and more important each year, due to decrease in cash crop acres. Cotton insects can be controlled under two programs: early season or late season. Probably the most beneficial stage for insect control would be the early season program to insure a more complete fruit setting. This program is also relatively cheap as 3 applications can be made for approximately $1.10 per acre, insecticide costs and insure some 30 days free from cotton insects. Late season control will also be necessary some years, depending upon build-up of cotton insects.

"Time of watering is also very important in cotton production. Pre-irrigation is one of the most important parts of the watering program as it insures an available store house of moisture for plant use at critical times. Post-irrigation should also be watched very carefully as plant use is extremely high during fruiting and development."

The Whitharral Panthers played a tight defensive ball game Tuesday night to slip past the Olton Mustangs, 35-31. The victory was a mild upset as Olton was expected to handle the Panthers easily.

Whitharral was ahead at the end of the first period and held on to their lead for the remainder of the ball game. The two teams played on fairly even terms in the second and third periods, but when Dale Gage left the game on fouls for Whitharral, the Mustangs closed the gap by scoring 15 points.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

"I DON'T understand the Bible," you say. "There is much that I don't understand," I replied, "but we can both keep busy trying to live in accordance with such parts as we do understand."

Mark Twain said, "I don't worry about the parts of the Bible which I do not understand; but I am concerned about the parts which I do understand, and don't follow."

We can begin the plain teachings—the Ten Commandments—the Golden Rule. These are plain, but we shall need a lifetime learning to live by the spirit as well as the letter of the law.

The Bible teaches kindness, mercy and gratitude. Let us be kind, merciful and grateful.

The Bible teaches repentance for the wrongs we have done. We can ask forgiveness and try to make restitution.

When we are living up to all of the Bible we understand, it will be time to concern ourselves with other parts of it.

Littlefield Prepares For Christmas Season

"UP ON THE HOUSE-TOP" of the D. W. Holladay home at 900 Duncan Avenue prance cut-outs of "eight tiny reindeer and Joely Ole' St. Nick." Each year Mr. and Mrs. Holladay decorate their house for Christmas with these hand-made figures of snowmen, carolers, a star of the East and Greetings. Brightly colored lights complete the decor. (Staff Photo)

"LOOKS GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT," declares first grader Mike Grissom of the gingerbread house made by his mother, Mrs. L. C. Grissom. Five-year-old Jo Anne eyes the candied lime slices which composes the shingles of the roof and two-year-old Bob reaches for a candy cane beam. Mrs. Grissom made the house which is entirely edible, in about six-and-a-half hours. Gingerbread figures of Hansel, Gretel and the witch complete the fairyland setting. (Staff Photo)

mother and Mrs. Zora (Sug) Blessing, assistant den mother. The boys, members of Den 5, Pack 241, are making an assortment of gifts including wiener roasters, pencil holders and wall plaques edged in glitter centered with a photo of the cub. (Staff Photo)

MARGARET NELL AND KELLY SUZANNE both agree their mommy is pretty clever when it comes to making a table centerpiece for Christmas. Even brother Sam, 6, gives his masculine seal of approval. Margaret and Kelly are the four-year-old twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Fain. The festive centerpiece is made of styrofoam balls sprayed red with toothpicks rolled in glue and dipped in red glitter. (Staff Photo)

PERHAPS THE MOST FUN OF ALL COMES with the gift wrapping. Mrs. Kenneth Jackson likes to add a personal touch to her gifts like cotton bearded Santa Claus stickers on the kiddies packages and bows, frills and lace for the feminine recipients with the pretty shades of brown in glazed paper for the masculine gifts. (Staff Photo)

DOWN MEMORY LANE

From the files of the Lamb County Leader, Dec. 18, 1924.

Arrangments have been made for the formal dedicatory services of the new high school building to be held Friday afternoon, December 19th. The regular classes will be held up to the noon hour, at which time one of the very important events of the day will take place, that of the noon day luncheon. Patrons of the school are all invited to come, bring their baskets laden with good things to eat and enjoy the hour with the pupils and teachers.

Messrs. E. A. Bills, A. P. Duggan, John W. Bialock, Arthur Mueller, Herman Stagers, Clayborne Harvey, and Jess Mitchell went to Abernathy Monday night, as representatives of the local Chamber of Commerce, and upon invitation to attend the annual banquet meeting of the Abernathy Chamber of Commerce.

That definite steps toward the securing of a waterworks system for Littlefield have been taken, is the substance of a statement made this week to a Leader representative by City Manager Max L. McClure.

Mr. McClure advises that the City Commissioners have closed a contract with the J. Edgar Honnold Bonding Co., of Oklahoma City to furnish the proper proceedings for the city water system.

Lee Theatre advertised that Gloria Swanson would be featured in the movie, "Her Gilded Cage" starting December 24th.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa: I am going to let you know what I want. I want a train, a gun, some candy and nuts. That's all. Yours truly, Norman Emfinger.

Sand Hills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill's Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is making plans for the new year, in his own fashion, his letter this week implies.

Dear editor:

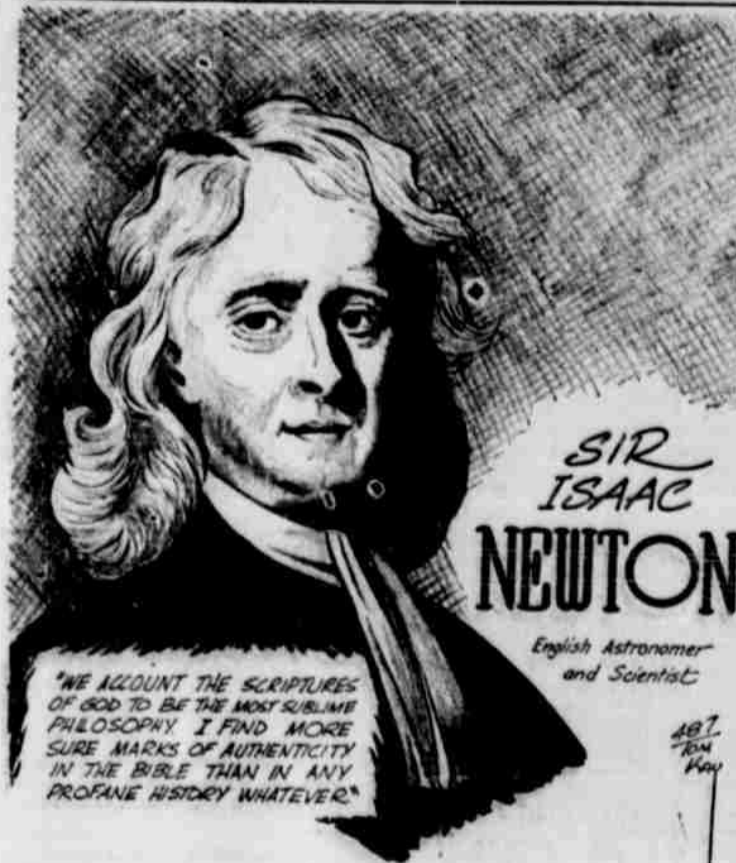

With 1956 about played out and 1957 looming around the corner whether we're ready for it or not, I was out here on my farm yesterday afternoon reviewing the past year and estimating what the new one will bring.

The trouble with reviewing the past year is that it generally prompts a man to draw up some resolutions and decide to do better, which constitutes getting your goal a little high. I always figure if a man will resolve not to do any worse next year than he did last, and will live up to it, he's doing pretty good. Understand, this doesn't apply to everybody, just us average people, and has no reference at all to Russia. If Russia doesn't do any worse next year than it did this year, it'll still be going down hill as far as world peace is concerned.

I know I could for example resolve to fix my fences out here, but I know from experience I'd wind up at the end of next year not only with sagging fences but a husted resolution to boot, and one is bad enough without adding on the other, although if you want to know the truth of the matter, the condition of my fences is

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — Christmas has come to the Capitol, and all the traditions are being observed.

A mammoth 40-foot tree with hundreds of lights centers the rotunda. State employees, from the youngest clerk to the top man, gather 'round the huge tree once each year to sing Christmas carols.

For the first time, Gov. Allan Shivers and his family will spend Christmas in the Mansion. In the past they've gone to Sharyard, their Rio Grande Valley home. But this year they're staying here to get ready for moving . . . to make room for Gov.-Elect Price Daniel who takes office on Jan. 16.

Sen. Daniel is working against time to get legislative and inauguration plans settled before the first of the year. Then he must go to Washington to serve two more weeks as senator.

But between being senator and getting ready to be governor, the Daniels hope to sandwich in a simple family holiday at their Liberty ranch house.

"BETTER GOVERNMENT" BILLS — An extensive legislative program designed to prevent recurrence of state scandals has been unveiled.

Sixteen "better government" bills were formulated in the attorney general's department under sponsorship of the Texas Press Association. TPA's legislative committee approved the measures and has called on Texas newspapers to work for their passage.

Bills are aimed primarily at secrecy in public affairs. They would outlaw closed meetings of governmental bodies, force publication of official transactions and impose penalties for suppression of public records. Insurance companies would be required to publish financial statements at least twice a year. Names of veterans applying for land under the veterans Land program would be publicized.

Others cities using Trinity water are protesting.

Testimony before the Water Board is expected to be complex and lengthy.

WATERFALL DEFICIENT AREAS of the state are nearing the Committee members also endorsed creation of a special Travis County grand jury for state affairs.

DANIEL BACKS WATER PLAN

my business and as long as me and my cows are satisfied and my neighbors haven't sued, what concern is it of anybody else?

And maybe I could farm better next year than I did this year, but better farming is what has just about wrecked the market for most products, and while I have thought all along it was fine for See, Benson to pay us for not farming certain acres, where he's slipping up is in not paying us a just half-farm the rest. You take the average farmer with say a hundred acres. You pay him not to farm 25 acres and he'll break his back trying to make the other 75 acres produce as much as the whole 100. Payments for non-farming are all right, but without payments for half-farming the rest, the program may not make much dent in the surplus. If Mr. Benson wants a committee on the best way to half-farm, I'll be glad to serve.

In regard to the new year, all I've got to say is, let her rip. Yours faithfully, J. A. program. But he said he wants to study further before making a tax recommendation.

According to committee members, the $100,000,000 revolving fund would not require a special tax. It would be used to extend credit to local governments for water conservation projects.

However, the committee did suggest taxes to buy water storage space in federal reservoirs. Proposed levies would increase fishing licenses 50 cents and place a five per cent excise on pleasure boats and motors.

CITIES FIGHT OVER WATER — Texas' largest cities have squandered off in a water rights battle that promises to surpass all others.

Southern Canal Company has asked the State Water Board for a permit to withdraw 200 million gallons daily from the Trinity River for industrial use in the Houston area. Houston has indicated it is backing the company's plan.

Trinity River Authority, together with Fort Worth, Dallas and end of the year with substantially less-than-normal rainfall.

State Board of Water Engineers reports 11-month deficiencies ranging from 12 to 19 inches. Storage in major lakes continues at about 43 per cent of capacity.

DROUGHT AID EXTENDED — U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has extended from Dec. 31 until March 15 the emergency program to help livestock owners in drought areas buy feed.

Gov. Shivers commended this decision and asked that USDA extend grazing privileges under the soil bank program. He requested railroads to continue reduced freight rates for hay shipments to drought areas.

Cameron and Willacy Counties have been added to bring the total drought-hit counties in Texas to 28 out of 254.

SECOND WOMAN GOVERNOR — To Mrs. Neveille Colson of Navasota went the distinction of being Texas' first woman governor since Mrs. Mariah Ferguson.

Mrs. Colson's senate colleagues had named her interim president pro tempore, and office second in line to the governorship. Gov. Shivers and Lt. Gov. Ramsey gallantly left the state so Mrs. Colson could have the traditional "governor for a day" honors.

She proclaimed State Highway Day in recognition of one of her primary legislative interests.

SHEPHERD OFFERS AID — Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard will go to Tennessee next month to help defend persons charged with interfering with school integration.

Sheppard, whose term of office ends Jan. 1, will act as a private citizen.

A federal court order has enjoined persons from interfering with Clinton school integration by "thought, deed or word." Sheppard said he thought this "too broad."

SHORT SNORTS — There'll be a several months delay, Land Commissioner Earl Rudder has told some 13,000 veterans applying to purchase land. Money from the additional $100,000,000 bond program voted in November will not be available until sometime between April and June . . . USDA has upped its forecast of Texas' 1956 cotton crop to 3,610,000 bales — a 10,000-bale increase over the November estimate . . . Texas farmer is becoming a big operator, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. From 1949-54 the number of farms decreased 12 per cent, but total area under cultivation jumped by a half million acres. Result: fewer farms, but more in the $25,000 a year bracket . . . Austin school authorities may ask the legislature to establish a special school for the teenage boys who serve the lawmakers as pages. In the past, pages have missed a semester of work . . . Newly elected prosecuting attorneys came to Austin for a short course in state codes and procedures. Sponsors were the University of Texas School of Law and the Attorney General's Department. A course for incoming sheriffs and deputies was held simultaneously by the Department of Public Safety.

Naturalized citizens of the United States are entitled to all privileges except that of becoming president.

"To me ELECTRIC COOKING is the only way to prepare meals for my family."

...EASY AS 1-2-3-4!"

SAYS

MRS. JOHN H. MUTERSBOUGH
4020 GABLES • AMARILLO, TEXAS

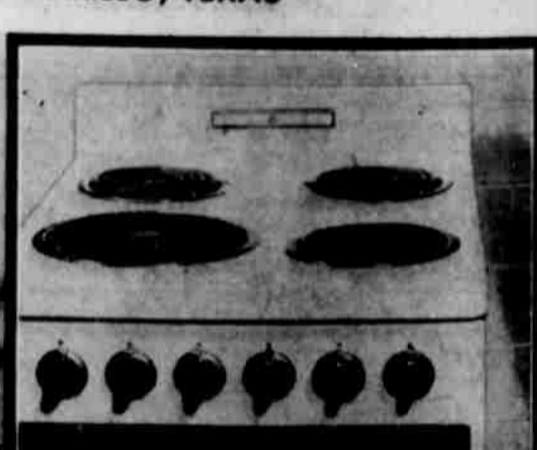

"ONE for the money"

"Money's a big item for any modern family. Making the dollars stretch and putting nutritious meals on the table are a challenge to any young housewife. Cooking electrically assures a careful planner that she loses nothing in the cooking process. Meals look good, and the family stays within its budget."

"TWO for the show"

"Showing off her kitchen is a point of pride for any homemaker. What is more eye appealing than a beautiful electric range supplemented with the other electric necessities that make a kitchen attractive and convenient." Mrs. Mutersbough's kitchen bears out her statement with the attractive apartment-size electric range she uses.

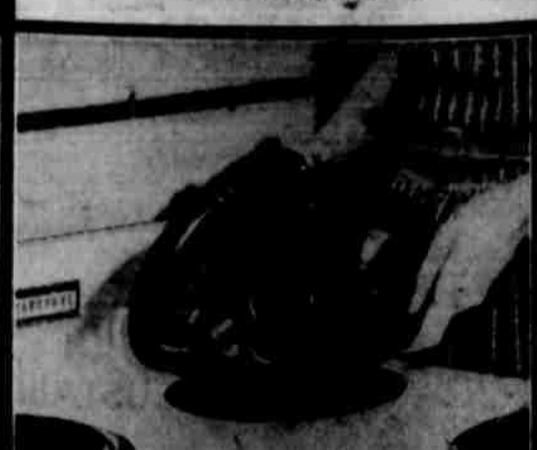

"THREE to get ready"

"Ready-made meals come out of modern electric ranges. Ready for a hungry family to feast its eyes on — and to eat, too! And getting ready to cook electrically is a simple process. It's so easy to cook over an even Reddy heat that can be so readily controlled."

"FOUR to GO!!!"

"You can go out as often as you like with the time you save with an electric range. Takes no time at all to clean. Just lift the element, take out the drip pan and wash it like you would a saucer. Your family will enjoy the meals and your fresh appearance, too."

John B. White, Superintendent was guest speaker at the Wednesday night services at the Main of the Lubbock Childrens Home, St. Church of Christ in Olton on December 12.

"The Lubbock Childrens Home means home, love, and security to fifty-four little children who now live there," White said.

The children are housed in three cottages with a married couple (house mother and house father) living in each cottage.

"This arrangement creates a situation closely resembling a normal home situation. The fathers work out, but are home after work hours," White added.

A fourth cottage has recently been completed, and it will be home to eighteen more children soon.

Letters To The Editor

4806 Detroit Avenue
Lubbock, Texas
Dec. 15, 1956

Mr. Sam Williams
Lamb County Leader
Littlefield, Texas

Dear Mr. Williams:
I read with deep regret about the defeat of the water and sewer program in Littlefield. I have always felt that the water program was sadly lacking there and had hoped fully anticipated that it would be corrected currently.

However, in the democratic process, the citizens usually plan their own future. I am reminded of the commendable work and planning done by Mayor Art Chesher and others a few years ago in the Canadian water project. Perhaps others with a similar vision could yet save the future of your section of this area. I was terribly shaken when those of short and selfish vision destroyed the planning of that time. Lets hope that things work out well before the wells run dry.
Sincerely yours,
Sherman Taylor

A Christmas Shopping Hint How To Match The Right Toy To Your Youngster

How do you choose the right toy for the youngster on your Christmas shopping list? You won't have too much trouble, say the editors of Changing Times, The Kiplinger Magazine, if you match the gifts to the child's stage of development.

The child under two will be pleased with a rattle, simple blocks, or cuddling toys. Simple push-pull toys, kiddy cars, or picture books are good for this age when feeling, hugging, patting and shaking things are characteristic. As the child begins to creep, walk and climb, he likes to push, pull, carry, pound and build.

The child from 2 to 4 walks, talks, throws, digs, pedals, plays imaginative games and likes variety. One of these toys should be right for him: blocks, wheeled or teeter-totter, simple house-keeping equipment and doll accessories paints or crayons, simple jigsaw puzzles and picture books.

When the child is between the ages of 4 and 6, he can use all his muscles and has an active imagination. For boys of this age all types of mechanical toys such as bulldozers, steam shovels, wind-up cars and planes are good. For girls, play house equipment and doll accessories. For both: costumes or phonograph records.

A youngster from 6 to 8 can do more complicated things like play scoring games, perform stunts, work with tools and follow complex directions. For girls of this age, jump ropes, paper dolls, equipment for playing school or house are suitable. For boys, electric trains, tools, bikes or sports equipment are welcome.

The child from 8 to 10 is now perfecting his skills and selecting hobbies. His interests are almost unlimited. For girls, handicrafts such as a real sewing set are good, for boys, hobby equipment, such as stamp albums or photo supplies. For both, games of skill, skates, magic sets, books and records.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

IS THAT CHRISTMAS GIFT TAXABLE?

Although it may come as a surprise to some people, the federal government levies a tax which applies to gifts made by one person to another. However, the government has no desire to tax ordinary birthday and Christmas gifts. The law therefore excludes from taxable gifts the first $3,000 given to each individual in each calendar year.

The law also excludes from taxable gifts, gifts to the church, community chest, and similar charitable organizations, and allows each giver an exemption of $30,000—before the tax applies.

The tax applies whether the gift is of money or of property. If it is of property, the tax is computed on the fair market value of the property at the date of the gift.

The purpose of many gifts is to remove the property from the taxable estate of the giver at the time of his death. This may or may not be accomplished. The federal law provides that transfers made within three years before date of death shall be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death and shall be taxable in the estate of the one who dies.

It may be advisable to "look a gift horse in the mouth" for the gift may cost the one who receives the gift in income taxes as well as the giver in gift taxes.

For income tax purposes the cost basis of property received by gift is the cost to the giver regardless of the fact that the giver may have paid a gift tax on the gift. The other rule is that in case of property received by inheritance, the cost basis is the fair market value at the date of the decedent's death.

An example will show the application of the rules. Suppose a farmer acquired his land in the early days at a cost of $10,000. This property is now worth $50,000. The farmer wishes to retire and to escape estate taxes, so he gives the farm to his daughter.

Although he may pay federal gift taxes totaling several thousand dollars, when the daughter decides to sell the farm for its $50,000 value, she still has to pay income tax on $40,000 profit (difference between the sales price and her father's cost of $10,000.)

On the other hand, if the farmer had not given the farm to the daughter, but had left it to her under his will, he would have saved the gift tax. The daughter would have taken the property at a cost basis of $50,000, so upon the sale she would not have had to pay any income tax.

Of course, there would have been some estate taxes and administration expenses in the father's estate, but that would have been much less than the taxes which resulted from the gift. However, depending upon individual and particular circumstances, there may be occasions when a gift is advisable. Your lawyer can advise you on this matter.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

DRAKE'S COFFEE BREAKS
Just Slightly Stimulating
By MORLEY B. DRAKE

"Nothing succeeds like success."

Truer words never were written or spoken.

Take the case of a Hampton, Va., student at the University of Wisconsin, who parlayed $5,000 into $30,000 while earning a degree he pointed for when he enrolled four years ago.

The student, David Falk, came to the University of Wisconsin with $5,000 and ambitions for a degree in dairy husbandry. His dad had given him the money to handle as he saw fit, providing that it covered expenses for the four-year stretch.

Young Falk plunged. He paid the full amount as a down payment on a men's rooming house near the campus. It prospered and provided Falk's living quarters.

From then on he made a series of real estate deals.

During these transactions and management of properties, Falk studied, took part in student government and activities of his fraternity and went out for crew. And he married a pretty sociology student from Milwaukee, Arlene Plotkin.

Now 21 and in his senior year, the dairy husbandry major is liquidating his holdings and finds that he has approximately $30,000 to buy the kind of farm he wants.

Falk's story reminds us of the Horatio Alger books we read as a boy. These books taught boys that economic and social success come to the virtuous, however humble his beginnings.

While we absorbed countless numbers of those books, the good advice implied therein did not make a sufficiently strong impression on us. We were careless in our expenditures for years. But finally awakened to the foolishness of our program.

Many who read about young Falk will make the deduction that Falk couldn't help succeeding with $5,000 cash in his possession. That is not true. He could have squandered the money, then went begging to his father for funds.

Our point is this: Every boy and girl, every man and woman should save some portion of all money they acquire, to the end that they will have money when they most need it, or when they wish some kind of investment.

We particularly suggest for boys and girls that they save something of the few dollars they earn or which come to them through an allowance from their parents. In this way they will acquire the habit of saving . . . and there is no better habit under the canopy of heaven.

And having acquired a few dollars, boys and girls, men and women, should not be afraid to "stick their neck out." By that we mean they should make some kind of an investment. Folks who acquire investments find that they continue to save money as a result of habit.

Money saved and investments acquired bring independence.

The great American writer Emerson said:

"Can any thing be so elegant as to have few wants, and to serve them one's self?"

Whether you are active in church affairs, or never enter a church you commend, no doubt, the action of America's churches in fighting the epidemic of speeding on the highways. They are a telling force in the fight against reckless driving, which is not merely dangerous, it is a sin.

Pope Pius XII, evangelist Billy Graham, presiding bishop Henry Knox Sherrill of the Episcopal church and other Protestant leaders have endorsed the move.

"There is no place where religion is more practical than in the driver's seat of an automobile in modern traffic," said Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council. "There, of all places, common sense should be his brother's keeper."

Some observers have pointed out that the Fifth Commandment—"Thou shalt not kill"—is not restricted to deliberate murder but may be violated by the carelessness which results in "accident" highway deaths.

The program of the churches in behalf of safe driving is very extensive.

The crusade is still too young to have much effect on the high way carnage that will accompany the approaching holiday season. But its long-range effect on the toll of traffic fatalities could be considerable.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Stone were Mr. Stone's relatives, a sister Mrs. Leonard Herms and son Timmy of Seattle, Washington; a brother, Floyd Stone and his mother, Mrs. A. D. Palmer of Loraine.
