LOCAL GRIDSTERS WIN 6-2 OVER BROWNFIELD

WILDCATS PLAY LUBBOCK HERE FRIDAY AT 2:30

Coach Ironing Out Kinks Discovered in Brownfield Game

Coach L. T. Barksdale and his Littlefield "wildcats" journeyed over to Brownfield Friday and took the first game of the season by a score of 6 to 2. The game was slow with both teams showing their inexperience. During the first quarter the Brownfield "cubs" gained a lead of 2 points on a safety and immediately began a passing attack that threatened several times to be effective. They attempted 13 passes and completed four for good gains.

During the second quarter Brantly of Littlefield intercepted one of the passes and ran sixty five yards for a counter. McKnight failed in an attempt to plunge over for the extra point.

Brownfield has a hard hitting team with O. D. Thomas doing effective work in the line. W. Chamblis and Parker are the outstanding backs of the team.

The Littlefield boys gained much ground on the effective punting of McKnight. The club seemed strong on defense with Hall, Brantley and Irvin doing outstanding work in the line. The backfield was rather effective in breaking up passes through the entire game.

The aggressiveness of Brownfield is shown in the fact that they made seven first downs to their opponents one.

The local boys learned a great deal in the game with Brownfield last Friday. They are working hard this week for the game with the Lubbock Cowhands this coming Friday. The boys are working out the weaknesses that showed up in the club. The offense in the main objective for this week.

The boys are calculated to have a fighting chance with the opponents who two weeks ago defeated Olton 13 to 6 and who last week were defeated by Ralls 6 to 0.

The game is called at 2:30 sharp. This time was set in order that the game will be over by four o'clock and the trucks not be held up.

The admission to the game will be as follows: Adults, 25c, grade children, 15c and high school folks 15c.

Come out and see the boys in their first home game of the season.

Federal Re-employment Agents to Furnish Labor Lists

Work in the grading and drainage of Highway No. 7 from the Lubbock-Hockley county line west to as far as Farwell, with the exception of that portion which has already been completed, is expected to be underway within 15 days, according to Guy R. Johnston, division engineer for the State Highway department, who was in Littlefield Tuesday.

The contract for the work in Lamb and Hockley counties was awarded to Huddleston & Work, Crosbyton, and for the work in Bailey and Palmer counties to Hannah & Hall, Waco.

The entire project will be carried out with Federal funds, as part of the program to relieve unemployment, and all labor will be registered with the Federal re-employment administrator for each county, and the contractors are required to select the men they need from these lists, except in cases where Federal employment agent is unable to supply skilled labor required.

LOCAL YOUTH FACES CHARGE OF BURGLARY

Declared to Have Carried Out Wild West Antics

Oliver Shackelford, 18, Littlefield youth, was charged with burglary in a complaint filed in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court, Lubbock, Wednesday morning.

The youth waived examining trial and Peace Justice Connell set bond at $1,000 to await grand jury action. Shackelford was charged with breaking and entering a drug store in Lubbock.

The young man blamed alcohol which he said he drank in Littlefield for a series of wild west antics which he is declared to have carried out Saturday night and Sunday, commencing with the theft of an automobile in this city.

The automobile, declared to have been stolen by Shackelford was the property of Guy Nickels of Bula, and was returned to this city by Sheriff Len Irvin of Lamb County, following a trip to Lubbock early Sunday morning.

Sheriff Irvin said that Shackelford would be brought to Lamb County for trial after the Lubbock officers have disposed of the youth on a charge which they have placed against him.

In the few hours that Shackelford was the subject of police search and investigation, he was fired upon a

ENFORCING THE LAW

(An Editorial)

Officers of the law, except in special cases, are not entitled to be applauded for enforcing the law; it is their duty.

But they are entitled to the appreciation of those they serve and to all the co-operation in their work which can be extended them.

Littlefield and Lamb County have officers of which any city and county should be exceedingly proud.

With the advent of the fall season in this city and county the officers have undertaken an enlarged program, without suggestion from any source, in order that this city and county may not have an influx of these people which are not wanted in any section of the country that has the proper respect for law and order.

Immediately on the approving of the sale of beer by voters of Littlefield, the sheriff's department, headed by Sheriff Len Irvin; the Littlefield officers; Constable Sam Hutson; Justice of the Peace B. L. Cogdill, in fact everybody charged with the duty of maintaining law and order, took immediate and special steps to frustrate any attempts which might be made to sell bootleg liquor.

The efforts of the officers have been exceedingly successful. Their work is appreciated and they have received the commendation and appreciation of the citizens of Littlefield and Lamb county.

The foregoing remarks have been written purely in order that all citizens may know what the officers are doing and as a part of this newspaper's contribution to good citizenship in Littlefield and Lamb county.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK, BOYS! THE PEOPLE OF LITTLEFIELD AND LAMB COUNTY ARE WITH YOU.

MORE ABOUT RACKETS

(An Editorial)

Texas editors, in loyalty to the cities and communities which they serve, are sounding a warning against that particular group of men and women who spend their lives in sharp shooting, smooth talking honest folk out of their money.

The Lamb County Leader has repeatedly warned the people of Littlefield and section against smooth talkers and their rackets; in fact, we had something to say along that line in last week's issue.

The editor of the Sudan News also issued a warning in last week's issue of his newspaper against gyp artists. Here's what he said:

"Along with the bumper crop and the $1,500,000 cotton money for Lamb county will come grafters, schemers, and tricky salesmen, who will use every means possible to high power people into buying something they don't want.

"Beware of these salesmen who have a long tale to tell you about their wares, or a new kind of advertising which will increase your business ten fold. They are drifters who follow good times and are not interested in building Sudan or any other town.

"This is a profession with these people and they have it down so pat that they can sell you something you don't want, unless you are on your guard.

"Every form of advertising imaginable is included in these schemes which are absolutely worthless to merchants, and if they were any good, are too expensive.

You have a local job printing plant which pays taxes to help maintain the city, school, county, state and national governments. It helps build the town and furnishes employment for local people. This firm can print any job for you, whether it is a small individual job or a large co-operative job for the entire town. The cost of the advertising will usually be about half of what the high powered salesman wants.

"Local business houses pay taxes here and are helping to build a better Sudan. Any kind of merchandise can be bought in Sudan from these stores and Sudan firms stand back of their sales."

A New Industry

Texas, greatest grower of sheep in the United States and possessor of the largest herds, is interested in a new outlet for sheepskins, which are dyed in solid colors to make one of the most attractive interior decoration novelties known and which are coming rapidly into vogue among decorators and householders over the country.

Miss Aline Harper, Dallas, is one of the leaders in the movement and says she is finding a ready market for the attractive skins.

"Texas dyed sheepskins," said Miss Harper, "constitute a distinct novelty to which persons in all walks of life are taking. After a 12-month sheepskin has been combed, dyed and fluffed, it is one of the most beautiful objects imaginable and lends itself to decoration of homes, offices, hotels, cafes, resorts, tearooms and other public places. We are developing a considerable demand for these rugs in Texas cities and elsewhere. The novelty has caught on and is bound to spread to the creation of a new and profitable outlet for Texas sheepskins in the form of rugs, carpets, ornamental drapes and interior decorations of various sorts. Lambskins dyed in colors to match dining or sitting room furniture are being used to cover chairs, couches, settees and footstools."

EIGHT YEARS AGO IN LITTLEFIELD

(Excerpts from Lamb Co. Leader)

The largest group of people ever assembled at a school opening in Littlefield gathered at the high school auditorium, which was filled to overflowing, Monday morning, to attend the opening exercises.

The total enrollment for the schools Monday reached 1,004, which far exceeded the expectations.

The senior class for this year will be the largest in the history of the Littlefield schools, with the enrollment of the high school reaching the 250 mark Monday.

At a called meeting of the City Commissioners held Tuesday morning it was stated by R. E. McCaskill of the Texas Utilities Company that work on the installation of Littlefield's "white way", together with the other street lights of the city would begin immediately.

That the First National Bank of Littlefield will open for business next Saturday in the Yellow House building is the statement of Cashier E. L. Maxey. The directors of the new institution are: W. O. Stevens, Jess Mitchell, W. L. Elwood, J. T. Elms, E. A. Bills, Chas. L. Harless, and Albert Neunschwander.

John H. Arnett of Lubbock this week closed a deal for the local Ford agency, heretofore owned by Messrs

Ira Smith and C. E. Barfoot, and run under the firm name of "Littlefield Motor Company." The stock was invoiced this week, and the new management will assume control next Monday.

W. S. Mitchell and W. B. Hodges, of Winters, old time acquaintances of J. T. Elms, were in Littlefield this week, and purchased 534 acres of land each.

M. D. Strong, formerly of Wellington, arrived here last week and will be associated with C. D. Duggan in the firm, which will be known as the Strong-Duggan Insurance Agency, to be located in the present office occupied by Mr. Duggan, in connection with his work.

The Cuend's Dry Goods Co., of McGregor, are this week receiving goods for a new general merchandise store to be opened in the B. C. Hopping bldg. adjoining the Burleson-Mason Company's Furniture store. Two big carloads of goods arrived here Wednesday, and Paul C. Cuend, general manager, is now in the eastern markets making other purchases of late models, types and styles for the new store. T. S. Sales of McGregor will have charge of the local concern. Associated with him will be Mrs. Sales, Mrs. C. L. Leache, J. Clark and L. Pettaway. The new concern plans to have its formal opening next Saturday, October 3rd.

OUR PART

The Flag Goes Up—
This company has subscribed to the National Recovery Act, and accepts the moral and financial responsibilities that are involved.

The Price of Electricity Comes Down—
Beginning September 1st, 1933, the 3 per cent Federal tax on domestic and commercial electric bills will no longer be paid by our customers. Hereafter the tax will be paid by the company.

This is a Reduction in Your Cost of Electricity—
... But it decreases our earnings from commercial and domestic use by 3 per cent... The National Recovery Act also subjects this company to additional operating expenses... under the code for the industry which now governs this company, we have arranged personnel and working schedules which result in increased payrolls.

These conditions create new, difficult and costly problems for us, but we approach them willingly, glad to contribute what we can to help the nation to better times.

YOUR PART

Use More Electricity—
Everyone knows that living expenses have increased. Food, clothing, shelter and the other living necessities are higher today. The purchasing power of the dollar is less than it was a few months ago.

The cost of electric service to our customers is not only down, BUT IT HAS BEEN REDUCED FASTER than any other commodity. The use of electricity in the modern home makes housekeeping a pleasure, effects economy and gives more time for recreation.

We visited the Valley Gin Friday and were just in time to see the first bale of the season ginned. This bale was brought in by G. M. Hines, who resides three miles south of the Valley Gin. It was picked Qualla cotton, was classed as middling, and weighed in excess of 500 pounds.

The Valley Gin is owned by R. E. McCaskill.

Bob is a busy man. He is operating a gin, a store, and an automobile service station.

About one mile east and one mile south of Pep there are two roads leading into that community.

We stopped our gasoline consumer and inquired which was the best road. We received the information and also learned the condition of the cotton crop. Our informant told us that all the cotton in that section will produce at least one-half a bale to the acre. Some the acreage will produce much better than one-half a bale.

The good crop is being produced in spite of the fact that the Pep section received very little rain.

We learned of one farm, and there may be others, which will produce one bale to the acre. This farmer planted his cotton extra shallow just before a rain, with the result that the crop came up quickly.

Pete Blakney, formerly of Plainview and Olton, is the new owner of the gin at Pep. With the purchase by

Can there be any stronger recommendation for a car than this

America can't be fooled when it comes to spotting the best "buy" in any field. America knows too much about motor cars for that. So when one certain car wins almost as many buyers as the next two put together, you know the answer: IT MUST BE BETTER. And that's what the new Chevrolet Six most certainly is.

Chevrolet is better looking—Chevrolet has better bodies—built not just of steel alone, but of steel reinforced by a sturdy hardwood frame. Chevrolet has a better engine—six cylinders for economy, cushion balancing for killing vibration! And Chevrolet gives better value—a long line-up of modern features which no other low-priced car can match.

Now is the time to start thinking about a new car for winter! And when you do so, think of the way Chevrolet is leading in sales. Could you ask for any stronger recommendation for a low-priced car than that?

THREE MEETINGS OF FARMERS SET FOR SATURDAY

FARM CODE PREPARED AT DES MOINES MEETING

Three Farmers Holiday association meetings will be held in Lamb county Saturday afternoon.

The schedule of meetings is as follows:

Sudan—2:30 p. m., speaker, Judge Gough; Littlefield—3:30 p. m., speaker, Judge Gough; Olton—3 p. m., speaker, Mr. Mason.

A large delegation from Lamb county will go to Lubbock for a Farmers Holiday association meeting at the Court House Friday night.

This meeting is in response to a special invitation extended Mr. Mason by the Lubbock county members of the association.

Farmers Seek Blue Eagle DES MOINES, Ia., Agriculture, as represented by the National Farmers Holiday association is out for the blue eagle and an NRA code. And unless the association gets what it demands it threatens to declare a nation-wide holiday on the marketing of their products.

The farmers' demands, outlined when some 1,200 representatives from about 18 different states attending a meeting of the holiday association were embodied in a draft of a code which calls for:

A guarantee of the cost of production of agricultural products; a maximum work day of 10 hours; setting of minimum wages by the American Federation of Labor; collective bargaining; barring of child labor; non-interference with normal supply and demand; and the licensing of buyers of farm commodities.

A resolution for the appointment of a committee to present these terms to President Roosevelt, was adopted. "If he fails to comply we will withhold all farm products from the market," the resolution said.

Aid in Preparing Code The Texas Farmers Holiday association had an important part in the preparation of the proposed national code.

A suggested code, prepared at the convention of Texas Farmers Holiday association, which was held recently at Spade, was presented at the Des Moines meeting.

A committee, consisting of Judge L. Gough of Amarillo, president of the Texas State association, as chairman, and R. S. Norman, Plainview, C. W. Smiley, Littlefield, and W. S. Strain, Hart's Camp, attended the Des Moines meeting and presented the code prepared by the Texas association.

Mr. Norman went on to Washington from the Des Moines meeting to present the national code to the NRA officials.

In addition, there are numerous allotments to counties under the federal relief act, which will probably push the sum total up to nearly three million dollars.

A summary of the projects shows the following mileage:

Paving now under contract, 19 miles, cost $143,717; grading and drainage, 75 miles for approximately $83,000.

Jobs scheduled for late in September and early October: 74 miles grading and drainage, $74,000; eight miles of surfacing, $60,000.

Hale county has been allotted $80,000 to take care of the building of a cutoff on Columbia street through Plainview to avoid the business section on No. 9. This cutoff is to go straight north from the intersection with No. 9 south of town, to the Harvest Queen mills where the highway will again be joined.

Hockley county has been given $40,000 for work on No. 24 and also No. 7.

Terry county's allotment probably will be used on the grading work on No. 137 from Brownfield to the Gaines county line.

NEW COURSE IS OFFERED IN LITTLEFIELD SCHOOLS

The State Department of Education should teach Health and physical education. This program is well organized and systematic and is to be given to every child in the school in this subject. In this it is required that every pupil shall receive systematic physical activity at regular intervals. It is essential to the success of the individual in the struggle for existence that the administration of the school have seen fit to organize just a program throughout the entire school system as will conform to the requirements of the state and also to the pupils in arriving at a program of health.

The same program. This period must be two fifths instruction and three fifths practical exercises that are calculated to develop the muscles of the body. Games of all kinds are used for this purpose. The things that the pupils want to do are done in these periods. The teacher is in charge and supervises the activity. It is especially required that each and every pupil shall participate in this program of exercise. Nothing short of a statement from a physician to the effect that a boy or girl is unable to take this work will excuse the individual from the activity.

This work fits in very well with the new ideas of the new deal. The problem seems to be what will America do in her newly acquired leisure. This instruction will provide an opportunity to learn recreative games that one may keep fit during later life.

NEW METHODS IN HANDLING COTTON

Those who have contended that the handling and marketing of cotton should come in for re-vamping, will at least see a change under the plan of the NRA. Whether this change will be to their liking is to be found out. But definite plans for changes in handling from the time the cotton gets to the ginner until it reaches the spinner are in the making.

Among other things a ginner is going to be required to identify a bale of cotton that he handles and this identification is going to follow the bale from that day on until it reaches the hand of the manufacturer. English mills, in particular, and presumably American mills, too, for years have been making strong representations to the American Department of Agriculture about the way American cotton has reached them. Because many of the practices followed by American farmers, ginners and processors would not be remedied to fit their needs, these English mills have spent a great deal of effort in finding a source of cotton production which they could control to give them the kind of cotton they wanted in the condition they felt they were entitled to have it.

It is said the Department of Agriculture and the National Recovery Administration, co-operating, are planning several radical departures which will be enforced under the new laws. They expect some mighty kicking on the part of some of the ginners and growers, but they expect a two or three year program to get such good results that eventually all are going to come around to the ideas they are incorporating into the regulations for the ginners and other handlers.—Floyd County Hesperian.

TEXAS A. & M. GIVES INFORMATION RELATIVE TO WHEAT ACREAGE CUT

A number of important Texas wheat counties are applying to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration for the privilege of letting each individual farmer figure his farm wheat allotment by multiplying the county five-year average yield by his own three-year average acreage. Extension Service officials at Texas A and M College report.

The advantage of using this plan is mainly that it greatly simplifies the figuring of farm allotments. It also helps unfortunate farmers who have lost a number of crops by hail or drought or wind, its sponsors declare. The only ones who might be discriminated against in the use of this plan would be those whose yields have been above average, but most of these farmers are said to be for it.

This exception to the standard county plan may be granted by the Administration only if the county wheat allotment committee can show in a convincing brief that local conditions warrant, the Extension Service says. Specifically, the brief must prove four points: (1) that there is a uniform system of farming within the county; (2) that there is a prevailing uniform soil type, particularly as to moisture holding capacity and fertility, as indicated in state or federal soil surveys; (3) that there are no large variations in individual farm wheat yields, and that percentage of dockage and damage from all physical causes applies uniformly throughout the county; and (4) that the adoption of this plan will not work a hardship on any substantial minority group of producers, nor that it will cause a shifting of allotments materially different from those determined by the standard county plan.

It is an interesting story of how it came about that wheat farmers are teaming up with local newspapers to check the accuracy of yield and production figures submitted by applicants for Government wheat contracts. As told by members of the Extension Service staff at Texas A and M College a county tax assessor in Montana contributed the idea that Administration officials have incorporated in the wheat plan to save farmers a large amount of costly verification of statements.

A number of years ago a man in Montana ran for the office of county assessor on the platform that he would hire no deputies. He won without disclosing his plan. At assessment time he simply asked each property holder to mail him his renditions. These he published in the local newspaper. About 150 letters charging falsification were received and these cases were investigated after first giving the accused a chance to rectify by mail. Approximately half the charges were found to be prompted by spite. The plan has worked admirably in that county ever since, with complaints growing fewer each year, says M. L. Wilson, United States Wheat Administrator, who is from Montana and responsible for incorporating this feature in the wheat plan.

In the case of wheat, the county allotment committee is to have production figures given by each applicant for a contract printed in the local newspaper after all applications have been sent in by community committees. This will be paid advertising, cost of which will be included in the county budget and deducted pro-rata from each member's second check. In this printing will appear the applicant's name, address, location, and his acres and production for each of the three base years. Any complaints will be investigated and adjusted by the county allotment committee.

The same procedure will be followed after contracts are ready for signing. Names, addresses, locations and allotted bushels to each contracting signer will be published.

Grammar School Football Team Is Organized

That Littlefield High School will have strong football teams in future years is no longer doubted by the close followers of the game who saw the contest between the Littlefield grammar school team and the strong Freshman team from Amherst High School Thursday afternoon.

The Grammar school team was organized September 11. Although the boys, coached by Earl Hobbs, have only been practicing 7 days, they passed, punted, tackled, blocked and ran end-runs in a manner complimentary to many Class B high schools.

Twenty-five boys are reporting for practice each day. The game resulted in a scoreless tie, and another game is to be played between these two teams next week at Amherst.

Wheat Growers Favorable to Government Plan

Texas wheat growers in the major wheat counties are said to be very favorable toward the Government's plan to pay premiums on the 54 per cent of the crop which goes into domestic consumption, county agents report to Extension Service headquarters at Texas A and M College. The educational campaign to acquaint wheat growers with the plan is now in full swing in more than 100 counties, in charge of county agents assisted by volunteer committees of farmers.

Texas has been allotted slightly more than 20,000,000 bushels on which the Agricultural Adjustment Administration offers to pay premiums of 20 cents per bushel less administration expense, the Extension Service says. There is no quota which must be reached in this campaign, it is pointed out. The Government wants every grower to be acquainted with the plan and to be given an opportunity to cooperate with the Government in adjusting supply to demand.

The idea of the wheat plan in a nutshell, county agents are explaining to the producers, is to pay the grower a parity price for the part of the crop that is domestically consumed and is so doing to keep next year's production from increasing by reducing the acreage 15 per cent on the farms that are signed up in contracts. The Government cannot make the entire wheat crop exchange for what it used to before the War, but it can do this on the part used by people in the United States, it is explained. If producers will cooperate with the Government in signing contracts the Administration believes it can assure growers a good price for 54 per cent of their annual production indefinitely.

Should Texas wheat growers all sign contracts in this campaign, Extension Service officials say it would bring between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 to Texas farmers during the next 10 months. More than two-thirds of the premiums will be paid this fall, and the remainder soon after June 1 next, according to Administration announcements.

COTTON IS KING

Gins of Littlefield and Territory Launch Into Active Season

Littlefield and the Great Territory surrounding have up-to-date, well equipped gins, all of whom invite your business. We will appreciate it very much if you will help us give the best of service by bringing cotton during our operating hours, which have been made necessary in compliance with the NRA.

Gins of Littlefield and Territory Co-operate in Recovery Program By Working Under Ginners' NRA Code

We will operate our plants this season under the Cotton Ginners' Code of the government and will do everything possible to co-operate with the President's program which has been put into effect to bring about better conditions and eventually better prices to the farmer for his cotton.

Here are some of the regulations under which we are operating this season:

GINNING PRICE—We feel that the price for ginning snapped cotton this year will be 35 cents, since the scale is set by the Code at a 35-40 cent minimum and maximum. We want to keep the price as low as is consistent with the President's plan for fair profits. This price was set by the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington and the State Committee.

CLEANING, PREPARATION—Charges to growers for ginning services shall conform to the following schedule says the NRA:

1. For ginning picked cotton 30c per 100 pounds.
2. Cleaning and preparing snapped and-or bollies: 10 cents per 100 pounds or 35 cents.
3. Cleaning and preparing sledged cotton: 15 cents per 100 pounds or 40 cents.

WRAPPING, TIEING, WEIGHING, TAGGING, STENCILING, HANDLING—Charges to growers for the services, of wrapping, tieing, weighing, stenciling, and handling shall be 25 cents per bale over and above the actual average cost of bagging and ties.

STORAGE AND INSURANCE OF SEED—Under the Code we must charge 25 cents per ton for each month or fraction thereof for the storage of cottonseed, said charge to include fire insurance.

In the purchase of cottonseed from the producer, ginners shall pay 85 per cent of the carlot price for cottonseed on date of purchase; PROVIDED, that in no case shall the difference between the carlot price and the producer price exceed $3.00 per ton when the average grade of the seed of current ginings is 100 or higher, nor $4.00 per ton when the average grade of the seed of current ginning is below 100.

TRADE PRACTICES—1. The payment or allowance of rebates, refunds, bonuses of any kind, whether in form of money or otherwise, or extending to customers special services or privileges not extended to all customers under like terms and conditions, with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition, is an unfair trade practice and is prohibited.

2. The extending of unsecured credit for services is prohibited.

3. The purchase of cotton in the seed is prohibited, provided, however, that ginners shall be allowed to purchase remnants of seed cotton at the close of each grower's season..

We Join Hands With Our Patrons and March Under the NRA. Let's all Help. We give you this information so that you may better understand our position and can better co-operate with us this year.

Government to Buy Foodstuffs To Reduce Surplus

A $75,000 program, which provides aid to both the farmer and the unemployed has been directed by President Roosevelt to help bridge the gap between surplus supplies and consumption.

Following the President's order, the Agricultural Adjustment and Federal Relief administrations are to purchase quantities of foodstuffs and staples for distribution to destitute on relief rolls.

Through his action much of the surplus of important foodstuffs available will be placed in the hands of the destitute unemployed who are suffering on the short shrift of public employment relief," said the White House announcement which President Roosevelt discussed with newspapermen.

The plan, as outlined personally by the chief executive, "will add to and replace items of relief already provided."

Under consideration for handling in a manner similar to the 100,000,000 pounds of cured pork recently distributed by the relief administration were such products as beef, mutton and poultry products and products of cotton and cotton seed. Officially estimated $75,000,000 would be expended on such purchases but this figure was not final.

"The president said he considered the program arranged between the Agricultural Adjustment administration and the Federal Emergency Relief administration one of the most direct blows at the economic paradox which has choked farms with an abundance of farm products while many of the unemployed have gone hungry," the White House statement said.

Ford Offering One Thousand Dollars To Prize Winners

The Ford dealers of Oklahoma and Texas are offering one thousand dollars in prizes for a fifteen word statement describing "The Feel of the Ford at the Wheel."

Simple rule contest blanks are available only at local Ford dealers. Anyone is eligible by taking a 20 mile drive at the wheel of a new Ford V-8 car accompanied by the dealer; then writing their impressions of "The Feel of the Ford at the Wheel" in a fifteen word statement.

The one thousand dollars prize money will be awarded in twenty-three units: $500, first prize; $250, second prize; $100, third prize; ten prizes of $10 each and ten prizes on $5 each.

An interesting phase of the contest is the fact that the winner of the first prize will be receiving better than thirty three dollars a word for the statement, which is better than the price paid to big name authors for their stories.

All entries must be postmarked not later than October 31st midnight. The entries will be judged by executives of the Ford dealers' advertising agents, and winners announced by November 15th, if it is possible to complete judging the incoming by that time.

Merchant Praises Leader Advertising

Good results obtained through Leader advertising are reported by DeWitt Reid, owner of The Vogue.

"We had the best day's business last Saturday that we have had since we opened our store last March," said Mr. Reid.

Much of the credit for the excellent volume of business is directly traceable to Leader advertising, according to the local store owner.

The Vogue carried a half page advertisement in last week's issue of the Leader, announcing "A Start of the Season Sale."

Immediately the Leader was circulated the volume of business at The Vogue commenced to increase.

Hike in Price of Cotton Expected

A plan is underway by the Roosevelt administration by which it hopes to raise farm prices through a virtual guarantee that cotton still on the farm would bring 10 cents—or more—per pound.

Through Reconstruction Corporation funds, the farmers who still hold their cotton will be loaned 10 cents a pound, if necessary, the plan being a companion piece to the 1934-35 cotton control program which was announced today by Secretary Wallace.

Loans Are Limited

The secretary said he understood the loans would be limited to those farmers who agreed to join in the campaign to reduce cotton acreage in the south next year to 25,000,000 acres.

Oscar Johnston, finance administrator of the farm administration, said loans of 10 cents a pound would be made, in all probability, on all cotton of the 1933 crop held by the farmers—should he desire it.

Make Adjustments

The 10 cents, Johnston said, would be farm price and not exchange prices which are 40 points or more higher than the price to the average grower. He said some adjustment would be made to take care of freight rates, etc., but these would be worked out later. Prices on the New York exchange are around 9 1-2 cents for middling cotton at present.

Its essentials are the acreage reduction; benefit payments ranging from $3 to $11 an acre for the land taken out of production and a guarantee of a price around parity for a portion of the crop based on the average production of the land during the last five years.

In the event that money is loaned and the price goes down, the government loses. Should it rise above 10 cents, the farmer may sell at any time he desires, pay the loan and pocket the balance—if there is a balance.

Ask RFC To Finance Purchase of Cotton

The removal of 9,000,000 bales of cotton from the domestic market, one-third of which would be sold to Soviet Russia, was proposed recently to the farm adjustment administration by a committee of southerners.

After representatives from nine southern states had discussed the cotton plan with farm administrators, a committee consisting of Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.), and Oscar Johnston, financial advisor to the agricultural administration, was appointed to ask Chairman Jones of the Reconstruction Corporation if it would finance the purchase of 6,000,000 bales for removal from the American market.

The Soviet government already had offered to purchase 3,000,000 bales. A representative of Amtorg, the Soviet trading company in the United States, told the conferees that Russia also was in the market for large purchases of cottonseed oil and fats provided satisfactory financing could be arranged.

Procedures Unknown

Whether the delegation would ask the R. F. C. to purchase the 6,000,000 bales at fixed price probably 15c cents a pound, or at the market value remained to be determined. Approximately $30,000,000 would be required at the present market price.

Bankhead, a member of the cotton committee the government named to confer with farm adjustment officials, told newspapermen his group had abandoned for the time being its fight against the 4.2 cents a pound processing tax on the staple. He emphasized he was not speaking for the general conference of southerners which advocated abolition of the tax.

Changes Suggested To Racing Bill

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson sent to the Legislature Friday a special message suggesting amendments to and reenactment of the law that legalizes wagering on horse races and supervises race meets.

Doubt has been expressed by some as to the constitutionality of the bill, because of the manner of its enactment, and also a question had been raised whether its life would be longer than the appropriation bill, which expires at the end of two years. It became effective September 1.

Representative T. H. McGregor of Austin said the proposed amendments to the revision of the law would add $1,000,000 to Texas revenue this fall. The new draft would provide for payment of a fee of from $100 to $2,000 per meet for promoters, according to the city in which or near which the meet was held.

THE GREATEST GIFT

Ferguson Forum: The people of the United States had better watch their step. If they turn down the liberties bought with the blood of patriots they will ultimately see conditions that will make them pray for the rocks and the mountains to fall upon them. Liberty, not wealth is the greatest gift to humanity.

The principles of liberty and justice have not changed since the fathers established this government. In fact they can no more change than the laws of physics. The complexities of life in no sense alter the principles of liberty; they merely multiply the needs of their application.

Mr. Poultryman, Lamb County, Texas.

Dear Mr. Owner:

Just a line to let you know how we feel.

It seems during these hot summer months that you have forgotten us entirely. There was not much left to eat around the place after you sold off your feed, and we were left to rustle for ourselves. It sure has been a hard fight this summer—so hot and dry. We are wondering if you are going to treat us this way next year.

I know you have not been receiving the usual returns, but all we want is just a chance this winter. IF YOU WILL ONLY BUY US SOME ECONOMY MINERALIZED EGG MASH, and give us lots of home grains, so we can grow some new clothes for the winter, we will GUARANTEE you in return eggs that will bring you a REAL PROFIT. All we want is just a chance to SHOW YOU.

What would you have done if it had not been for us these summer months when you did not have any money. You know we bought you your groceries and supplies?

We are wondering if you are going to forget us when your cotton check comes.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Hen

While on this good will tour of the schools these men checked such things as equipment and materials needed to comply with the state requirement for all schools receiving money in any form from the rural aid law.

Gives Talk at High School
Rev. Dixon of Amherst, who is spokesman for the Board made an interesting talk to the high school pupils on "Steadfast Purposes."

The Board took time to make some visits in the grades to observe the type of instruction being given in these grades. Each and every member of the Board expressed favorable reaction to what they saw in the actual work of the schools. One member stated that he believed the teachers in the Littlefield system, equal, if not superior to any school that he had had the pleasure of visiting.

Traffic Law Stressed
This Board stressed the traffic law in Texas that is calculated to protect the children who are being hauled on buses. They urged that any person being guilty of passing a school bus while it is loading or unloading children, be turned over to the authorities and let the law take its course.

Mr. Rochelle gave a talk on this law, and recommended that A. B. Sanders, superintendent of the Littlefield schools, suggest to the Littlefield P. T. A. that they sponsor the placing of caution signs on both sides of the highways leading into Littlefield, advising the public of the penalty to be enforced for violation of the law.
