Kansas City Youth Admits Entering Gas Stations Here; Denies Robbery of Wholesale

Arrested Friday night by Lubbock police at the bus depot in that city, after he had purchased a ticket for Texas City, a small 18-year-old Kansas City youth has admitted, according to police, to four Littlefield service station robberies, but denies a fifth occurrence here, the robbery of the Texas Company Wholesale.

The young man, according to Lubbock police, has admitted to a string of South Plains burglaries. He is confined in the Lubbock jail.

Questioned By Sheriff Rice

The youth was questioned by Sheriff Hugh Rice of Lamb County Saturday. Sheriff Sam Floyd of Tahoka, Lynn County, also was investigating the case, but the suspect had not been linked with burglaries there, it was said.

Police report that the youth had been released from the reformatory at Buena Vista, Colo., May 20.

Admits Entering Stations

Sheriff Rice reported that the youth admitted to him that he had entered the Water Tower Texaco station, operated by Otis Champion; Elbert Year's Texaco station, on the triangle on highway 84; Dennis Jones service station; and Morris & Son service station. At each station entrance was gained by breaking a glass and raising a window.

Loot in each break-in was as follows: Water Tower Texaco station, a small amount of change; Year's service station, approximately twenty-three dollars in cash; Dennis Jones service station, between twelve and thirteen dollars in cash; Morris & Son, a small amount of cash and some cigarettes.

All the service station robberies took place either late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning.

Texaco Wholesale Robbed

On the same night the Texaco Wholesale, owned and operated by Jack Christian, was robbed of $500, which was taken from the safe.

The Kansas City young man denies all connection with this burglary, Sheriff Rice reports.

Entrance to the wholesale was gained through a window.

Burglaries in Many Towns

City Detective Pat Davidson of the Lubbock police said that the Kansas City youth had admitted burglarizing places in Canyon, Plainview, Abernathy, Littlefield, Post and Snyder, in addition to Lubbock, where six burglaries have been linked with him. Most of the places entered are over the area were service stations. The last burglary, that of Carter Motor Company, 816 Avenue H, Lubbock, occurred about 9:15 p. m. Friday, about an hour before the youth's arrest by Sgt. Gilbert Newton of the Lubbock police department. Approximately fifty dollars in a money sack and a drawer was taken from the motor company.

Other places he is said to have entered in Lubbock include Lawson Service Station, 920 Avenue H; the H. & H. Distributing Company, 1519 Avenue G; Atkins Lumber Company, which is separated by a door from the distributing company; Maxey Lumber Company, 1641 - 19th St., and J. & K. Service Station, Seventh and Avenue H.

ARTHUR P. DUGGAN DELEGATE AT ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Arthur P. Duggan, president-elect of the Littlefield Rotary club, returned here Sunday night after attending the 38th annual convention of Rotary International, which wound up its five-day session at San Francisco, Calif., June 12. Mr. Duggan will give a report on the convention at the next meeting of the Rotary club.

Delegates representing 6,200 Rotary clubs with a membership of 302,000 business and professional executives in 76 different countries, elected S. Kendrick Guernsey, of Jacksonville, Fla., as president of the world-wide service organization for 1947-48.

Officers Elected

Mr. Guernsey is executive vice-president of the Gulf Insurance company of Jacksonville, and since 1933 he has been secretary of the National Boys' and Girls' Week committee. For the state of Florida, he is chairman of the Citizens Committee on Education, a member of the State Highway Commission, and a director of the State Chamber of Commerce. In Jacksonville, he is a director of the Children's Home Society, the Boy Scouts, and the Y.M.C.A. A Rotarian for 27 years, he is a past president of the Rotary club of Jacksonville, and he has served Rotary International as vice-president and as district governor.

Elected to Rotary's 1947-48 board of directors were Tom Benson, of Sussex, England; Lauro Borba, of Recife, Brazil; Daniel de Ingh, of Rotterdam, The Netherlands; Gil J. Puyat, of Manila, the Philippines; Charles Jourdan-Gassin, of Nice, France; Aly Emine Yehia Pasha, of Alexandria, Egypt; and six additional directors from the United States and Canada.

One of the largest conventions held anywhere in recent years, and perhaps the most international, the Rotary convention attracted more than 15,000 Rotarians and members of their families from some fifty different countries.

Mr. Duggan said that one of the outstanding points of the whole convention was the Dallas Rotary Glee club, which received more applause than any other entertainment at the convention.

Celebrities Speak

Principal speaker was Past Rotary President Warren, from England. Among the other famous speakers were Tom Clark, U. S. attorney-general; Columnist Walter Lippmann; California's Governor Earl Warren, and the University of California's President Sprowle.

Most of the speakers pointed out that Rotary, with its emphasis on friendship and its international character can play an important role in bringing about understanding between the nations of the world and help realize the ideal of international peace.

Theme of the convention was "Living Together in Friendship and Understanding," based on the internationality of the Rotary organization. In the formal convention addresses and in informal discussion groups, emphasis was given to the contributions which Rotarians around the world are making to advance the general program of the United Nations. Rotary's 1948 convention will be held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, the week of May 16.

Mr. Duggan, who will take over his duties as president of the Littlefield Rotary club in July, summarized his comments of the Rotary convention by praising the success of the convention. His trip as delegate of the Littlefield Rotary club gave him a chance to visit with his mother, Mrs. Arthur P. Duggan Sr., who also attended the convention.

ANDERS CALLED

Tom Anders' recent serious illness necessitated calling all his children home. Among those who came to Littlefield were C. B. Anders and son, Ira, from Benson, Ariz.; Houston Anders and son, Noble, from Wurtenburg, Ariz.; Mrs. George Mitchell, from Fresno, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bogardt, Portales, N. Escape Injury when Roof Falls

An accident which might easily have been fatal to three workmen occurred on West Third Street Thursday afternoon.

A number of workmen were employed in the remodeling of a house for Garlington-Renfro, and had taken the walls down. The roof was resting on studs, when a puff of wind blew the roof down. Luckily, Jess Williams, Clarence Turner and Roy Pierce, all in the building at the time, fell between two saw horses as the roof came down. Mr. Williams sustained a broken left foot; Mr. Pierce received only a bump on the head, and Mr. Turner escaped uninjured.

Mr. Williams was admitted to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital, where Monday his foot was put in a cast. He has now been dismissed from the hospital.

Attend Firemen's Convention

Earl Johnson and W. A. Scott attended the firemen's convention at Amarillo June 10, 11 and 12, with headquarters at the city hall in that city.

Unused nylon marquisette netting and nylon tricot netting which cost the government $3,000,000 will be offered for sale by the War Assets Administration in a nation-wide sale now in progress and which will close.

Detachable collars for men's shirts were first manufactured in Troy, New York, about 1865.

To Leave On Extensive Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Oliver are selling out their stock of groceries at their store on East Ninth Street, and plan to leave July 1 on a trip through several states.

They will go to Waco, and from there to Muscatine, Iowa, Nashville, Tenn., Decatur, Alabama, and Birmingham and Montgomery, Alabama, and to Atlanta, Ga.

They will also visit Mr. Oliver's mother, who is 94 years of age, at Adison, Alabama, whom he hasn't seen in four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Boone and son, Pat Jr., left Wednesday for their ranch near Elida, N. M., to spend the summer.

June 23. Samples of the netting may be seen at the Customers Service Center of the Grand Prairie regional office of WAA. The surplus netting is being offered at fixed prices of 15 cents a yard for the marquisette and 12 cents a yard for the tricot, respectively.

Miss Brewster And H. L. Rieff Marry At Cotton Center

—Courtesy Avalanche-Journal. MRS. HENRY L. RIEFF

Miss Elouise Fern Brewster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Brewster of Cotton Center, and Henry Lee Rieff, son of G. H. Rieff of Hale Center, were married at 8 o'clock Sunday night, June 8, in the Cotton Center Baptist Church.

Rev. Merle Weathers officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white slipped satin, with yoke of imported lace outlined with seed pearls. The train extended from a bow. She wore a veil of imported lace.

Miss Mary Lou Barrington was maid of honor.

George Barnes was best man.

The bride's attendants were dressed in pastel shades of pink and blue rayon dotted Swiss.

The couple went to New Mexico on a wedding trip.

Return From Three Weeks' Trip To Points In North

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chesher and daughter, Billy June, returned home Monday night from a vacation trip north, and into Canada.

They traveled through Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Virginia and Washington, where they visited Congressman George Mahon, and went on to New York City, where they spent five days.

They also visited West Point, and attended the graduation there June 2, and visited friends, Gobel Bryant of Dallas, and Grayson Tate of Denver City, students at West Point.

Other points Mr. and Mrs. Chesher visited were Boston, Toronto, Canada, and Niagara Falls, N. Y. They boarded a boat at Grand Rapids, Mich., and got off at Milwaukee, Wis., from where they drove to Memphis, Tenn.

The Littlefield party reported an enjoyable trip.

Daniel Webster, outstanding early American statesman, was first elected to Congress in 1812.

Bert Childers was saying, it's funny how so many of our wartime habits stick with us.

Bert likes plenty of butter on his bread, but even now he can't get over spreading it like it was scarce as hen's teeth. And as a war-worker, Bert used to stick to a temperate glass of beer on time off; and he still holds fast to beer and moderation.

Same way with Bert's wife. She not only has no trouble saving used fats, and waste paper. She's learned from wartime necessity to save every single thing that might possibly be used again.

From where I sit, it's mighty good that so many of these common-sense habits like thrift and moderation have stayed with us. Because they belong in America—along with tolerance, and mutual respect for one another's rights. They're habits that have helped to make this country strong and neighborly and free.

Be Not Sick Too Late, Nor Well Too Soon!

That's how Benjamin Franklin expressed it years ago. Today a doctor would probably say: "Get medical attention at the first sign of anything wrong, and take ample time to ensure full recovery." That's sound advice. Any delay when illness strikes may result in serious consequences, so at the very first indication—the first symptom—go to your doctor. He, and he alone, is qualified to perform the diagnosis and prescribe the treatment that may mean the difference between a quick recovery and a long protracted illness.

Ensign Don Eagan
And Pfc. Chapman
Leave On Cruise

Ensign Don Eagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Eagan, and Pfc. Charles Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Chapman, left Annapolis, Md., June 7 in the same convoy on a cruise for several points in Europe.

Ensign Eagan of the Navy is a pilot on a F-8-F fighter plane. He left Annapolis on the Carrier Randolph, to which he was transferred recently. He telephoned his parents from the carrier, stating he was leaving on the cruise.

Pfc. Chapman also called his parents before he left on the Carrier Kearsage.

On this particular cruise the squadron consisted of two carriers, the Randolph and the Kearsage; two battleships, the New Jersey and Wisconsin; four destroyers, the Cone, Stribling, O'Hara and Meredith; and the Fort Mandon, an LSD.

This squadron was taking a group of midshipmen from the academy at Annapolis on the cruise to Europe as part of their course of training.

Pfc. Dollars For The Future . . .

A hog today will bring four times as much a hundredweight as its great-uncle brought in 1940. The dollar today is cheap in terms of the porker it will buy for the packer and the pork it will buy for the public.

The dollar is likewise cheap in terms of almost everything the farmer can or must buy with the money he gets from his hogs or other products.

Your 1947 dollar will pay off exactly as much debt as the dollar would in 1940. So when money is cheap and easy is the best time to pay debts.

Your 1947 dollar will buy exactly as much in Series F or G bonds as it would in May, 1941, when these U. S. Savings Bonds were first issued.

Whether they raise hogs or cattle, cotton or corn, truck or what you will, farmers know that the prices they get for their products are not going to stay up forever, and probably not for long.

Then their dollars will be worth more—and also harder to come by.

Therefore when dollars are cheap is the most profitable time to invest in Savings Bonds. A farmer can buy a $100 E bond for $75, which is about what he'd get for a whopping 300-pound hog at $24-plus a hundred-weight.

Ten years from now, when the farmer's E bonds bought with cheap 1947 dollars mature, he will get back $4 for each $3 he invested. Each dollar will have grown by 33 1/2 cents.

You may translate this hog homily into terms of any farm or ranch product and arrive at the same conclusion: while money is cheap it is not only common sense but uncommon good business to salt down every possible dollar in a riskless investment where in it will grow 33 1/2 per cent in ten years.

PHILOSOPHER OF BULL LAKE WANTS TO BORROW MONEY IF HE CAN GET SAME TERMS ENGLAND IS GETTING

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake has caused a little comment, and we asked him for his picture, which we wish we hadn't done.

Dear Editor:

I read in a copy of the Avalanche-Journal which I got in town Saturday because it was wrapped around the hot tamale I bought where England has negotiated a loan from the United States and the terms was so interesting to me I have been wondering why we can't have some bankin like that here in Lamb County.

As I understand it, the United States is loanin Great Britain four billion dollars and won't no interest start until 1951 and when it does start it will be 2 per cent, with the provision that England can ignore the interest if her exports fall below sixty per cent of what they was immediately before the war started.

Now there's a system of bankin which I admire and I would like to know why Banker Harvey Lee and Banker Don Bell don't get their bank principles up on the international level and really do some business.

If the bank will loan me money without no interest until 1951 and none then if my farm don't produce 60 per cent of what it did before the war, and I figure I can arrange to keep my production down to that figure without no effort at all to speak of, there ain't no tellin how far I could go or how much business the bank could do with me.

I understand the United States is makin this loan because it is worried about England goin under and he same thing would apply in my case. I could meet them terms satisfactorily. But it is my opinion England ain't in no serious danger as long as there is Englishmen left smart enough to negotiate them kind of loans.

If you know of any bank in this area dealin in international loans I will appreciate you lettin me know as soon as possible and I hope I get there before the money'll gone.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

SIDELIGHTS
From Washington
By GEORGE MAHON

Friends of the Army Air Forces for the cause of national defense recently won a victory in the House of Representatives which will be a warning to the world that the United States is not planning to surrender its position as the world's greatest power.

The controversy over U. S. Air Force appropriations when the appropriate committee, the committee upon which I serve, slashed $40,000,000 from the funds recommended for the purchase of new airplanes. The request for the funds had been made of Congress by the Chief of the Army Air Force, the Secretary of War and President. The committee then presented the House to approve the committee I had offered an amendment to restore the airplanes which had been denied, but I was overwhelmingly defeated. When the matter came up in the House of Representatives I took up the fight again, offering the amendment to restore the funds for the airplanes.

The Republican leadership fought the amendment and the question was hotly debated for a part of three days. In the last half hour of the debate, Congressman Andrews of New York, the Republican chairman of the House Committee on Armed Forces, took the floor in support of the amendment and support of my contention that the appropriations committee had misrepresented the facts and figures in regard to army power. This broke the back of opposition and shortly thereafter the amendment was accepted and passed the House. A number of members of Congress from Texas were very aggressive in the successful effort to restore the funds.

I argued that it would be inexcusable for us today, or at any future time, to start down the road to a reduced air force and an inadequate national defense program. It is stated that the defeat of the airplane request would be a straw in the wind which would lead to dangerous international consequences. I stated that the army appropriations bill contained savings in funds to the extent of $475,000,000 and the expenditure of the additional $400,000,000 provided in my amendment for army airplanes would not unduly interfere with the economy program.

Without my amendment there were not sufficient funds in the bill to purchase 561 airplanes. With the amendment the bill provides for 749 airplanes of the latest type, the planes come off the assembly line within 18 months.

Funds were not reduced for the National Guard, the ROTC units in schools and colleges, and Reserve Officer training otherwise. No money was made in funds requested for important work of research and development. The bill reduced War Department civilian personnel by 74,000 employees and officer personnel by 8,000, it being felt that the Army was somewhat top-heavy with officers. The bill provides for an army of 470,000 men during the period from 30, 1947, to July 1, 1948. The funds in the bill exceed $5,000,000.

Here Are High Grade Milking Shorthorns

—Picture by Donald Watkins, Farwell.

Presented here are two milking Shorthorn cows owned by V. M. Peterman, 11 miles north of Littlefield, prominent breeder of milking Shorthorn cattle. The front cow is Oxford's Viola, Q. M. 2178813, who gave 51.1 pounds milk and 2.3 pounds butterfat in 24 hours, and won second place at the Plainview Dairy Show. The other cow is Sunshine's Mable, Q. M. 216835, who gave 1468 pounds of milk and 56.3 pounds of butterfat in April.

Hints From Office Of County Agent

SPRAYING TIME

Fly time is here again and the cattle herds should be given treatment with DDT to control the horn fly. One spraying in an approved solution can be counted on to be effective for two weeks. The second spraying will probably last for three to four weeks.

Put one pound of 50 per cent DDT powder in three gallons of water and spray. This solution will spray 25 head of cattle. Three sprayings will probably last through the fly season. (Where big powder sprays are used, four pounds per hundred gallons of water, use at least half gallon per cow).

Spraying the cattle without spraying the farm will not give perfect control. It is more profitable to kill flies by contact with DDT on the barn than letting the flies contact the DDT on the cows.

Records show that the gain in milk and beef production will increase 15 per cent when a proper control program is carried out. Several farmers are finding their swine covered with lice. This is the time of year that swine lice increase in number, and one dollar's worth of DDT will kill all the lice and lice eggs on 100 hogs.

GARDEN NOTES

Leaf hoppers have started in several gardens throughout the county. These may be controlled with a 1.5 per cent or greater rotenone dust.

Mr. Ira Thompson of Amherst reports good results when he dusted his tomato plants with rotenone.

Grape leaf hoppers may be controlled with two pounds of 50 per cent DDT in 50 gallons of water.

FATHER OF AMHERST MAN PASSES AWAY

Bert Bagley, 57, father of Roy Lenn Bagley, of Amherst, and resident of Ropesville since 1927, passed away Tuesday night, June 10, at a Levelland hospital after a short illness.

Survivors include the wife, two sons, Jewell Lee Bagley of Ropesville and Roy Lenn Bagley of Amherst; one granddaughter; his mother, and several brothers and sisters.

Funeral services for Bagley, employee of the Santa Fe Railway since 1927, were conducted at 3 p.m. Sunday in Ropesville High school auditorium, with the Rev. Clarence Stevens, pastor of the Methodist church of Cooper, officiating.

Masons of Lodge 1228 of Meadow had charge of graveside services in Ropesville cemetery. A Levelland funeral home was in charge of general arrangements.

Mr. Bagley had been secretary-treasurer of the Maintenance Association of the Slaton division of the Santa Fe since the union was organized in 1926, and had been grand division chairman of the union of the Western lines of the railroad, covering four divisions. He was employed at Ropesville, as section foreman.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 22.

The Golden Text is: "Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands" (Hebrews 1:10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded" (Isaiah 45:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God creates and governs the universe, including man. The universe is filled with spiritual ideas, which He evolves, and even they are obedient to the Mind that makes them" (page 295).

Rural Life In U. S.

"Improve Rural Life by Making Home Surroundings More Comfortable, Convenient and Attractive."

That's the slogan of rural youth taking part in the 1947 National 4-H Home Grounds Beautification awards program. The activity is conducted under the direction of the Extension Service on Texas and 41 other states. Its purpose is to encourage 4-H'ers to make and keep home surroundings attractive by correctly planting and caring for lawns, flowers, shrubs and trees; removing unsightly objects from yards, and painting buildings and fences.

As incentives for superior home-landscaping records, merit awards are donated by Mrs. Charles E. Walgreen, Chicago, for the tenth consecutive year. Awards comprise silver medals, gold watches and Chicago 4-H Club Congress trips, on county, state and national levels, respectively.

Last year, county winners were named in Castro, Comal, Fort Bend, Frio, Grimes, Hall, Hardeman, Harris, Howard, Jones, Moore, Nolan, Somervell, Wood, Cameron, Camp and Sabine counties.

The state winner in 1946 was Floyd Thomas Terrell of Plainview.

County extension agents will provide information and suggestions for carrying on this activity and helping 4-H members in reaching its objectives.

His arrival on the campus marks the beginning of an intensive effort to further the campaign this summer, announces Dr. J. W. Assuming his duties as head of the $395,000 campaign, Stokes pointed out that the program is especially geared to the predominantly agricultural plains country. The chief plan for raising funds in a campaign to have part of unharvested crops and the increase of livestock designated for Wayland College. Any type of product, including cotton, feed, sugar beets, potatoes, alfalfa, and all kinds of livestock, may be pledged and donated.

The money received in this campaign will be used for immediate expansion at Wayland, including such projects as a new girls' dormitory, a dining hall, faculty apartments, and extension of the department of agriculture and science, Stokes said.

A native of Plainview, Stokes holds degrees from Wayland College, West Texas State Teachers College, and Baylor University. He will assume his position as head of the Wayland speech department this fall.

Among those graduating at Texas Tech recently was an Anton boy, Madison Newton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Newton. Madison was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree. Like many another American boy, Madison had his college career interrupted by the war. He served as a pilot in Europe and fought the Germans. After that important job was completed, he re-entered college. He started as a pre-medical student, and it is reported he still intends to become a physician.

Baton Rouge, state capital of Louisiana, was incorporated in 1817. It was one of the earliest settlements in the United States.

Appeals Court Is Asked For Rehearing In Hunt Case

The conviction of Dr. W. Newton of Cameron for pistol assault on Dr. Roy E. Hunt, 18 months before the Littlefield physician was slain in his bed, was back before the Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday of last week.

Dan Moody, Austin attorney, argued three propositions which he contended entitle Dr. Newton to a rehearing. The appeals court recently affirmed a two-year prison sentence assessed him at his third trial on the assault to murder charge.

The motion for rehearing was argued just two weeks after the high court listened to an appeal by attorneys for Jim Thomas, former convict who has been convicted three times for the murder of Dr. Hunt on Oct. 22, 1943.

The court is expected to rule this month on the Thomas appeal from a 99-year sentence, which was assessed after nullification of two death penalties in the case.

Dr. Newton's motion for rehearing was based in part on a trial reference to failure of his wife to testify at his trial. Mrs. Ruth Newton also was charged in connection with the assault to murder Dr. Hunt, but never was tried.

Dr. Newton was assessed a seven-year term at a trial in August, 1943, at which Dr. Hunt testified he was called to a roadside meeting by Mrs. Newton and was fired on by Dr. Newton as the Littlefield doctor approached the car occupied by Mrs. Newton.

That sentence was reversed because improper evidence was introduced about Dr. Hunt's revelations to guests in his home that Mrs. Newton had called him three times during the evening preceding the shooting.

A second trial for Dr. Newton resulted in a hung jury.

The chief basis for asking a rehearing on the two-year sentence was that the district attorney and trial judge made comments tending to discredit testimony of a witness who swore Dr. Newton was in Houston on the night of the shooting and the following day.

Moody argued that the district attorney's statement "we'll prove the witness had been drunk at a conference with another prospective witness was effort to impeach a material witness on an immaterial matter. Moody said the judge's comment that "it might affect the witness' testimony" also was prejudicial to Dr. Newton's right.

Third point argued in the rehearing motion was that Dr. Hunt's testimony (read by the court reporter at the retrial because Dr. Hunt then was dead) had not been properly predicated.

The state did not prove that Dr. Hunt had been under oath when testifying, the attorney argued, and did not prove properly that the transcript of his testimony was correct.

Dr. Hunt and his wife were slain in their bed at Littlefield and Thomas, then out on parole from the Texas penitentiary, was arrested in Galveston. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

Return From Youth Fellowship Meeting

Mrs. Ira Woods, young people's advisor of the First Presbyterian Church, Littlefield; Mrs. Warren Rutledge, and Misses Delphine Covington and Catherine Lewis, and Warren Rutledge and Houston Hodges returned Friday from attending the convention of Youth Fellowship of the Presbyterian from the Synod of Texas, which convened June 10, 11 and 12 at the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, San Antonio.

To Establish Gents' Furnishing Store Here

A gents' furnishing store will be established in Littlefield in the near future by Bob Armstrong and James and Kenneth Ware, which they will operate under the firm name of A. & W. Store.

James Ware is attending the State University, Austin. Kenneth Ware will enter Tech College this Fall, and spend a part of his time in Littlefield. Mr. Armstrong will be manager of the store.

It is understood that the business will be established in the building owned by Dr. Max Wood, on Phelps Avenue; that the Eubank Tire & Supply, who now occupy that building, will move to the building now occupied by Onstead Furniture; that the Onstead Furniture will locate in their newly-acquired building, purchased from A. C. Chesher and now occupied by Henry's Pontiac Service, as soon as this concern have their new building completed, and are able to move in. Onstead's, of course, plan extensive remodeling to change this garage building into a modern furniture store.

Plans are underway by Dr. Wood to extend his building back to LFD Drive which, when completed, will be used as business offices.
