U. S. Highway 84 Appraisal To Be Completed This Week

Appraiser To Report Monday

A rough draft of an appraisal of U. S. Highway 84 right-of-way will be presented to county commissioners Monday, Appraiser Homer Robbins said Tuesday.

"I'll be able to give the court an overall figure on the right-of-way costs by then," Robbins said Tuesday afternoon after meeting briefly with County Judge Pat Boone Jr.

The appraiser said he had completed work from the west county line to the west side of Littlefield, and from the east county line to the east side of town.

The rest of the appraisal involves the proposed bypass route along Littlefield's south edge and Robbins will complete that work this week.

Robbins said the appraisal will be presented to the county at a meeting tentatively set for 2 p. m. Monday.

An estimate of the right-of-way costs is being sought in a proposed project to widen the highway to four lanes in Lamb County.

The Lubbock appraiser was employed by the county in December, but the press of other work and his being involved in court proceedings has kept him from completing the Lamb County work until now, Robbins explained.

Once the appraisal is presented to the county, the way will be cleared for supporters of the widening project to present the commissioners' court with petitions requesting that one or more bond elections be called.

Three petitions are expected, calling for separate road district bond elections in the Sudan, Amherst and Littlefield districts.

This course of action was agreed upon last fall by the project's backers. A rash of U. S. 84 traffic accidents which involved three deaths in a 36-day period last fall spurred the action.

Under the State Highway Commission's policy, the state now pays one-half the costs of right-of-way in such projects. It takes care of all the construction costs.

A regular meeting of the county commissioners is scheduled today, but the court is not expected to take any action on the project until after the appraisal is presented.

Routine business will fill the agenda for today's meeting, including discussion of a proposal by the Chamber of Commerce to turn the county fairgrounds over to the 4-H and FFA organizations of the county.

DEADPAN—A Shriner clown, looking just as straight-faced as he could, surprised these two boys by handing them a piece of rubber instead of candy during the Shrine parade last Saturday. The taller boy seems to be saying "aw-w-w" while the smaller looks like he's doing some razzing. The clown later gave them some candy. For more pictures of the Shrine parade, see Page 1, Section 2. WHERE THERE'S MOISTURE, THERE'S COTTON PLANTING—Area farmers are beginning to crank up the four-rowers on irrigated land. With soil temperatures up to 68 degrees and good moisture from pre-planting irrigation, planting is getting under way early on some irrigated farms. Dry land farmers are waiting for a good cotton-planting rain and of course the boys on irrigated land would like to get their planting up before it comes. (STAFF PHOTO)

Sudan Nine Added 4 Rosters Set In PONY Play

Rosters were completed early this week for three Littlefield PONY League teams and for a team from Sudan as the league was expanded. Addition of the Sudan team to the league means that eight teams will be gunning for the championship when the season gets under way May 25. The three Littlefield teams are Roden Drug, Ware and Keeling and Dairy Queen.

Two Cats State Meet Qualifiers

Two Littlefield Wildcat trackmen will seek state championships May 8-9 at Austin after winning slim victories at the Region I-AAA meet at Odessa last weekend. They are James Pressley, winner of the regional broad jump, and James Goldston, who won the 100-yard dash.

Goldston had to come from behind in the last 10 yards to beat Andrews' Joe Brown in the 880. It was sweet revenge for Goldston, who lost to Brown earlier this year, and the Wildcat's time was his best of the season, 2:02.5. Goldston and Pressley thus became the high school's only qualifiers in the state meet this year. Both will compete this weekend in the Red Raider Relays at Lubbock.

The Cats' 440 and mile relay teams both finished fourth in the regional meet. Pressley, Goldston and Gus Gallini were members of both teams, with Bill Jeffries taking part in the mile relay and Bobby Heffington in the 440.

Others in the league are Whitehall, Olton, Earth and Amherst. Rosters for the teams are expected to be announced next week. Charles Duval, president of the league, said the eight teams will play the season in halves, with the top four teams in a play-off after the first half, and the top four in another play-off after the second half.

The winners of the two halves will then meet for the championship, unless one team wins both halves. Duval said the league is still accepting boys 13 and 14 who want to play PONY League ball. Interested boys should contact Players' Agent Jack Christian at his office at the Texas Company on Highway 84.

Here are the rosters of Roden Drug, Ware-Keeling, Dairy Queen and Sudan:

WARE AND KEELING — R. L. Hutson, Tony Estrada, Robert Conley, Paul Keeling, Shelley Duval, Joe McCain, Robert Moore, Jerry McCain, Don Stephenson, Willie Conley, Radisson Smith.

Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone in 1876, lived to be 75 years old.

1960 WILDCAT CAPTAINS—Named to lead the Wildcats next year as tri-captains are, from left, James Blackwell, De Pierce and Bo Roberts. Blackwell and Roberts, who are guards, will be seniors next year, while Pierce, a quarterback, will be a junior. The three were elected in a meeting of the football squad Monday. (STAFF PHOTO)

First Cotton Planting Starts; Rain Big Need

The first few instances of cotton planting were reported in Lamb County early this week, but most farmers, especially those on dry land are waiting for more favorable conditions, County Agent Bill Kimbrough reported Tuesday. Recognized as the best planting dates in the area are May 5-20, Kimbrough said.

The driest start for a cotton season in years is keeping observers from predicting another year like 1958. The county's farmers produced something like 175,000 bales last year — an average of almost a bale to the acre on the entire county acreage, both dryland and irrigated.

More than 200,000 acres in allotments will be available to county farmers this year — about 184,000 for regular allotments and about 18,000 more for farmers who chose Plan B. Early planting this year will be done almost entirely on irrigated land, Kimbrough says, unless a good rain comes along soon. "It's a serious situation," Kimbrough said, referring to the need for rain for dry land farmers.

LHS To Elect Cheerleaders, Council Members

Littlefield High School students will elect Student Council members and cheerleaders Friday, following a week of active campaigning by 18 candidates. A candidates' rally is scheduled today at 11 a. m. in the school.

Candidates and the posts they are seeking include Bill Mote and Steve Sullins, president; Margo Williams, vice president; Frances Rogers and Donna Joyner, secretary; Freddie Gerlach, Alice Hill and Lena Naylor, treasurer; Neil Fields and Joyce Vaughn, publicity director; Gay Hall and Jane Hall, social director.

Seeking five spots as cheerleaders are Janice Duncan, Sandra Martin, Dixie Neimast, Carolyn Hampton, Stacy Hart and Judy Merrifield. Also to be voted upon is a proposal to have summer delivery of the Wildcat annual. Later delivery would enable the annual staff to include more of the year's activities.

LHS Judgers Going To State

Two Littlefield High School FFA judging teams will go to state contests at Texas A&M Saturday after placing in the area's top 10 per cent in contests at Texas Tech last weekend. The two teams are in poultry and dairy products judging. They will leave Littlefield today at noon. Members of the poultry judging team are Travis Spencer, Jerry Watts, and Douglas Owen. On the dairy products team are Thad Minyard, J. E. Brown, Bill Roper and Bobby Heffington. Sponsors are James Pirkey and W. W. Hall.

PRETTY HOSTESSES—Serving punch at a "Cordiality Hour" that preceded the annual Littlefield High School junior-senior banquet Saturday night were, from left, Darlene Chisholm, Sandra McNeese and Anita Horne. All three are juniors. Seniors were treated to a banquet after the cordiality period, and later to a party at Littlefield Country Club. The banquet and party are annual events, but the cordiality period, attended by students and faculty, was the first held in connection with the event. (STAFF PHOTO)

TOWN AND COUNTRY BY WENDELL TOOLEY

If you think April was a busy month take a look at May! All of the closing school events, graduation exercises, last of school picnics, Mother's Day, National Cotton Week, National Hospital Week, National Music Week, Family Week, Be Kind To Animals Week, Memorial Day Holiday on the last Saturday of the month, National Correct Posture Week, and here's a good one...the next to last week is National Pickle Week.

Littlefield's official straw hat and short shirt day will be May 8th. Nothing like being sure that it doesn't come a good cold north on straw hat day!

This year has seen the largest number of rabbits in history. Community after community has held rabbit drives and with them have come more rattle snakes than usual. They captured rattlesnakes by the tons up in Oklahoma last week and if you'll notice, you'll see a lot more stories than usual of persons being bitten this Spring.

And here's another very important week. Next week is National Soil Stewardship Week. Our area churches will have special services in regard to stewardship of the soil. There will be a breakfast on Wednesday morning here in Littlefield for our Lamb County preachers, followed by a tour of some area farms. Also during this week an award will go to the best soil conservationist of Lamb County.

This special week is sparked by the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, and sponsored throughout the nation by local Soil Conservation Districts for the fifth consecutive year.

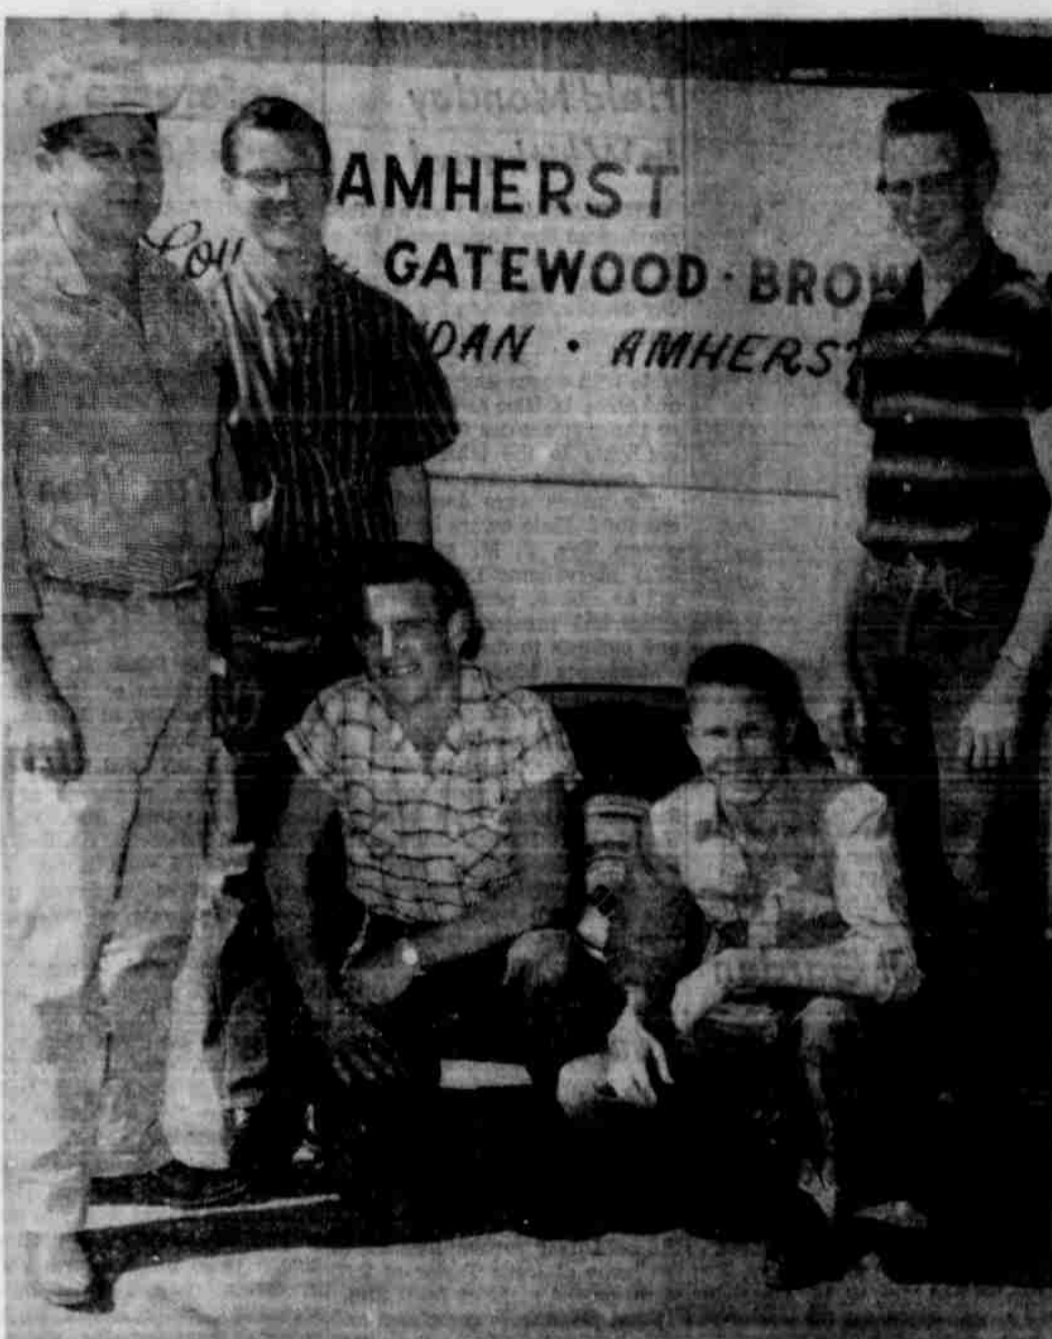

In urging full recognition of the spiritual values associated with our God-given land and water resources, now, in the springtime of the year, it is proper that we direct our thoughts to the origins of the good earth and the source of our fruitful agriculture.

Two cannibals were sitting around chatting amiably after a hearty meal. "That was some meal," commented the first, liking his lips. "Yes, my wife makes a wonderful soup," replied the host. "But, I'm sure going to miss her!"

As usual, the girls were talking about marriage. "I'll have trouble finding the kind of man I want to marry," commented Denise. "He'll have to be smart enough to earn a lot of money but stupid enough to give it to me".

The more I think about that four tons of Oklahoma rattlesnakes the more I think that's one of the many reasons why we have so many "Okies" here in Littlefield.

I enjoyed a trip out to Walter Gray's farm Tuesday morning with the soil conservation boys. Walter already had some cotton planted and after circling his farm I decided he was more a grass farmer than cotton. He reports good results with raising various kinds of grass seeds and besides being profitable it improved the looks of his farm and he doesn't worry about wind erosion.

FARMERS:

Here are some facts about Saw Delinting Cottonseed --

Green seed can be safely delinted. Cottonseed can be safely stored and used for a period of several years. The method of treating does a thorough job on the hull spot and other seed borne diseases. Heat is used in this process whereby seed could be damaged. Delinting is a quicker emergence. Delinting gives uniform planting and even stand. Delinting gives faster yields. Delinting prevents sticks, stems or lint to clog up the planter. Delinting prevents moisture required for germination. Delinting can get all this done for only 1¢ per pound (10¢ per ton). There is absolutely no chance of damaging your seed using this process.

McSow Service Stations

Americans take the competitive, free enter-system for granted. It would be a good thing if all spend a little time in a country where gov-owns or runs everything, where competition is stent, and the consumer can like it or lump it.

an article appearing in Ethyl News. Thomas L.

there are only a handful of service stations—

Buildings are mostly dilapidated. The pumps are on pumping—the attendants are just there to rubles.

attendants, the Russian has no choice but to

According to Petroleum Week, in the exploration of oil, the problems are getting tougher and incentives are being reduced. The cost of finding oil continues to be a major factor to the explorers. Recent developments in exploration techniques have, for the most part, increased the cost of lowering them.

The head of Citizens Public Expenditure Survey says that taxes take a larger share of the earnings of American people than any other item in the family budget. The average $4500 a year man and his wife and two children works seven days out of working days a month to pay his taxes, direct and indirect. By comparison, he works only four and a half days to earn enough for the family food.

of peace. Its primary purpose was and is to prevent a war. Behind its shield, Western Europe has recovered vigor and progressed to new heights of economic growth and well-being. The operations of NATO, with its apparatus and the habits of consultation, have brought the West together in closer fraternal association than this, much more may develop in the future."

"WHAT'S THE USE—Senators resisted, 16-to-15, to take up Sen. A.
M. Aikin's bill to improve schools and raise teacher pay.

Those who opposed said passing the bill before tax money is found wouldn't bring a "crying dime" to the teachers.
Hopeful teachers could take some comfort from the fact that some who voted against considering the bill said they would favor it when money is on hand.

LOAN SHARK CURB PASSED—Texans will probably have an opportunity to vote in November, 1960, on whether to adopt a new approach for regulating lending practices.

Both House and Senate have approved a proposed constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to regulate the amount of interest that could be charged.
Present 10 per cent ceiling on interest, set in the Constitution, would be abolished.

A constitutional amendment must be approved by the voters at a general election after it has been passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor.

Backers of the change say it will pave the way for driving loan sharks out of Texas. Such a measure has been sought for a number of years and has the backing of Texas Legislative Council.

MORE COLLEGES OKAYED—
Texas is on the way to having a new medical school and three new state-supported four-year colleges.
Senate, in a burst of educational zeal, passed bills to (1) elevate Arlington State College between Fort Worth and Dallas to a senior college, (2) make Tarleton State College at Stephenville a four-year college, (3) make Midwestern University at Wichita Falls a four-year state-supported college and (4) establish a new University of Texas medical branch at San Antonio.

All except the Midwestern bill already had been passed by the OPEN MEETINGS APPROVED—Meeting of state, city, county and district boards and their records will be required to be open to the public under a bill given final Senate approval.

Measure that passed was a Smith's "open meetings" bill and Sen. George Parkhouse's "open records" bill.

Senate Jurisprudence Committee had amended Smith's original proposal to say that closed meetings could be held "for the discussion of appointments or mat-

adversely affect the public security or the financial interests of the state or its political subdivisions.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—Most people in or connected with the 58th Legislature are comforting themselves with the knowledge that air conditioning was installed in House and Senate chambers last year.

It may be pretty hot, they say, before a majority of both houses come to agreement on new taxes.
House members systematically cut to pieces the big omnibus tax bill (HB 727). As originally proposed, it would have raised over $300,000,000, mostly from scores of new selective sales taxes on items ranging from face paint to house paint. After members got through cutting out the things that brought the loudest howls, it was down to less than one-fourth its starting size.

It was then given preliminary approval (second reading) by the narrowest of votes, 74-to-72, counting Speaker Waggoner Carr's
"yes" vote. Carr stepped down from the speaker's rostrum to plead with members to pass the bill, even though it had been stripped to practically nothing, so as to "get something to the Senate." Senate cannot consider a tax bill until it has been passed by the House. But for the Senate, getting the shattered fragments of HB 727 is like getting four wheels and some broken glass with the invitation to make an automobile.

TASH AHEAD—In the days that remain until May 12, or in special sessions thereafter, the Legislature faces these decisions:

1. Appropriations — House had passed a bill calling for $322,000,000 in general revenue; Senate, a bill for $302,000,000. Difference must be adjusted in conference committee, which neither presiding officer seemed in a hurry to appoint. This could mean some sort of agreement that there would be no final decision on the appropriations bill until a tax program emerges.

2. Taxes — Either house's spending bill, with the deficit added in, would require something a round $200,000,000 in new tax money. This much, it seems certain, must be found, somewhere.

3. School Improvement — Back-ers of the Hale-Aikin Committee program will push for adoption of at least part of that program. It would add some $100,000,000 a year to state expenses.

"ABANDONED" — In a vote that surprised many, the House killed the abandoned property bill, 80-to-67.

Proposed measure would have allowed the state to take over dormant bank accounts and property held by insurance companies, utilities and oil and gas companies if it had gone unclaimed seven years.

Some felt that Gov. Price daniel, who had fought strenuously for the bill, might regard its defeat as third term fodder. He said at one time its passage meant more to him than anything since the tidelands.

Afterward, the governor said "the fight has just begun." He was critical of Speaker Carr for having allowed the measure to come to a vote when he did.

"COW BILLS" — PASS—Senate has given final approval to three bills affecting ranchers and dairymen.
A milk bill, sponsored by Sen.
Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, would prohibit bringing in milk from other states unless it could be established that the milk was produced under the health and sanitation standards placed on Texas producers.

Sen Ray Roberts of McKinney pushed through a bill that would provide a penalty for allowing cattle to roam on state and national highways and relieve motorists of liability for hitting stock.

A bill tightening licensing regulations of veterinarians also was passed by the Senate. Sen.
Rogers of Childress, sponsor, noted that there is no present law

Scientists In Race To Go All Directions At I Time

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is taking a non-progressive attitude toward science this week, but we doubt it'll have any effect on science.

Dear editor:
Sooner or later I knew it would happen.

According to an article I read last night in a newspaper I picked up after it fell out of my neighbor's mail box after I tilted it a little, the United States and Russia are now in a race to see which one can penetrate the earth's surface first.

As I understand it, the earth's surface or crust is about eight-teen miles thick on the average, and what's underneath nobody knows for sure. However, there are spots in the ocean where the crust is only two or three miles thick, and since man can drill a hole four miles deep, scientists are now figuring on lowering their drilling instruments down to the bottom of the ocean floor near Puerto Rico and from there trying to penetrate the crust.

At the same time, Russia is in the same race, although nobody knows where she's trying.
Consequently, the way it looks to me from my vantage point out here on my Johnson grass farm the world is now in a race to see how far out and how far down it can go at the same time.

This is known as going in all directions at the same time. I know the feeling, it's sort of like spinning your tractor wheels trying to go forward while slipping sideways down a hill. It's like gunning your motor while standing still in a traffic jam.

And you can't criticize the scientists. Everybody's doing it. It's the same thing as working fifty hours to buy a power lawnmower to save an hour's pushing with the old style model once a week.
Although you can still turn a cow in and graze it off with no lawnmower at all.

Measure that passed was a

Senate Jurisprudence Committee had amended Smith's original
proposal to say that closed meetings could be held "for the discussion of appointments or matters which, if made public, might adversely affect the public security or the financial interests of the state or its political subdivisions.

THIS WEEK In Washington

With CLINTON DAVIDSON

A recent Supreme Court decision placing companies that issue a relatively new form of annuity insurance under the Securities and Exchange Commission affords added protection to those who invest in order to provide income in their later years.

The decision applies only to Variable Annuities, so called because the income from such annuities varies with changes in the purchasing power of the dollar. They protect the holder against inflation that would reduce the buying power of his income from the annuity.

Through a regular annuity, you can purchase a fixed income for life. For example, a man aged 65 can pay $10,000 to a life insurance company and receive $783.30 a year for as long as he lives. The payment remains the same regardless of the purchasing power of the dollar.

Under the Variable Annuity plan the dollar amount of the annuity fluctuates up and down in accordance with the market value of the stocks in which the annuity company has invested its reserve funds. When stock prices rise the annuity increases, and when they decline the annuity does also.

Decision Ends Dispute

The S.E.C. claimed that variable annuity is not life insurance but is essentially a security and that companies issuing the new form of annuity should be regulated by it under powers granted it by Congress.

The companies issuing variable annuities claim that these are life insurance contracts and therefore should be regulated by the state laws that govern life insurance. State laws covering life insurance vary from state to state.

The life insurance field is one in which I worked full time from 1912 to 1938. During the last several years of that period I wrote more life insurance each year than anyone else in the world. Based upon this experience, I believe the decision to place the companies which issue variable annuities under S.E.C. regulation will be helpful to all those who purchase such annuities.

Regulatory Agencies

Two divisions of the S.E.C. will supervise the companies effected by the court decision. They must register with the Corporate Finance Division, and they will be regulated by the Division of Corporate Regulation.

Mr. Harry Heller, Assistant Director of the Corporate Finance Division, has been with the S.E.C. for more than 20 years and is well qualified to see that complete information regarding the issuing companies is available to all purchasers of variable annuities.

My experience indicates that the purchasers of variable annuities will be much better informed than the average purchaser of a life insurance policy.

Mr. Lawrence Green, Assistant Director of the Division of Corporate Regulation, has also had more than 20 years experience with the S. E. C. and has made an outstanding record in regulating investment trusts, often called "Mutual Funds."

Largely because of the record of these men, I was pleased when the Supreme Court decided that companies issuing variable annuities must be registered with, and regulated by, the S. E. C.

Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman and Bill Russell of the champion Boston Celtics received $200 each for being voted on the National Basketball Assn. All-Star team.

Jim Bailey of Strawberry Plains, Tenn., won 10 games for Nashville last season. He is the younger brother of Cincinnati catcher Ed Bailey.

About Your Health

Promotional activities include of these sanitation courses to the person to person contact, radio and television announcements, newspaper articles, talks before public health committees of the local restaurant association if any, and other community groups. There is no denying the value

They used to call them "Food-handlers Schools". Today the title more nearly described its purpose: "A Short Course in Food Preparation and Services."

The courses are presented by Public Health Education Division instructors in any city in Texas on request of local authorities.

Managers, supervisors and all other employees of eating establishments are the primary objectives of the course. However the same principles apply to all public and private foodhandlers—whether housewife or canner.

The course is presented in four sessions of two hours each. Depending on local working conditions, the daily sessions may be scheduled for morning, afternoon or evening. Discussions deal with causative agents of communicable diseases: virus, bacteria, protozoa and worms; the source of these organisms (sick people, people who are carriers, and sick animals; the mode of transmission from the source of susceptible persons; and the ports of entry.

DISCUSSIONS BRING OUT THAT ARE AT LEAST 3% DIFET CM CABLE DISEASES ENG IN TH United States today, of which 30 or so can be transmitted through insanitary food production, processing, distribution, preparation and service.

Emphasis is placed on the fact that if people are properly vaccinated, and thereafter practice sanitary refrigeration, the majority of these diseases could be greatly reduced or stamped out.

Wayland Man To Speak At First Baptist Church

Dr. J. Ivyloy Bishop, associate professor of religious education and acting chairman of the division of Bible and religion at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, Texas, will be guest speaker Sunday at 11 o'clock at the First Baptist Church here.

Dr. Bishop, who has taught at Wayland since 1955, holds the Doctor of Religious Education degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Ft. Worth. For 13 years he was national Royal Ambassador secretary for the Southern Baptist Convention, pioneering much of the Baptist work with boys and founding and editing the national magazine, "Ambassador Life."

Dr. Bishop's work involves training workers for various phases of service in Baptist churches, principally directing and teaching courses required of education directors, youth workers and church secretaries. Many Wayland ministerial students, however, elect these special courses for directed training under his leadership.

One of Wayland's most popular speakers, he is frequently invited to speak to both student and adult groups, especially Royal Ambassador and Brotherhood camps and assemblies. Dr. Bishop is the author of three books: "Guide to Counselors of Royal Ambassador Chapters," a textbook for R. A. leaders; "The March of the Master's Men," Intermediate Vacation Bible School textbook; and in collaboration with Mrs. Bishop, former secretary of Young Women's Auxiliary for Texas Baptists, "Appointment for Andy," a Foreign Missions study course book.

In addition to his teaching duties, Dr. Bishop has served as interim pastor of several area churches, the last two being at Dimmitt and Arnett-Benson in Lubbock.

Dr. Bishop is a native of Alabama and a graduate of Howard College, Birmingham. He also holds the Th. M. from Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

GI Insurance Cost Savings Being Offered

Savings of up to two-thirds in the cost of their GI insurance are being offered by mail to all veterans whose insurance policy number is preceded by the letters "RS", the Veterans Administration said today.

All of these veterans, who for the most part fall in the Korean and post-Korean conflict period, now have a chance to exchange their present 5-year term policies for 5-year term policies at lower premium cost, due to the improved mortality tables resulting from modern medical advance.

The new policy, however, must eventually be converted to a permanent plan of insurance since it cannot be renewed by the insured past age 50.

To save confusion, VA also pointed out, if you don't get a letter with the application form, don't worry. That will mean you do not have "RS" type insurance and are not eligible for this exchange.

A word of caution, even if you return the enclosed application continue to pay your premiums at the old rate until the VA notifies you the new type policy is in effect. Any overpayment will be credited to your account.

Kansas was colonized by both free and slave state settlers which almost led to a civil war in that state.

WE, THE MEMBERS OF "VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS —POST 4854 - LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS"

Feel that in light of recent events and the ensuing notoriety, that a rather one sided or incomplete picture has been painted of our situation and activities. It is our intention with this note to explain and clarify some of our projects that have been undertaken in recent years.

It has been our practice in contributing to various individuals and groups, to ascertain that there was an immediate financial problem or that it was beneficial to the building of a better community for us and our children to live in. It has never been done for publicity, and is now being printed solely, to enlighten non-members.

We have accessible for anyone who needs them, 12 hospital beds, 12 wheel chairs, and 12 pairs of crutches, all of which are in use-excluding one wheel chair. These have been used by several hundred Lamb County and adjoining County residents in the past few years, returned and reused.

When the Little League was in the "building," we were asked to build one of the dugouts for the players. We complied and built it in short order. Many of our families are without children, some of our members are not even married, still we thought and still think it is a good thing.

Note: Individual names may be had upon request.

These were made through various intra-club-fund raising programs and were without outside solicitation. We have done this cheerfully and would like to do more.

Our financial help to worthy causes has been extremely curtailed the past year due to an unprecedented amount of hinderances, confusion and a discouraged membership.

It is our goal to support and further civic developments, aid needy person or persons and provide and maintain a respectable environment for social gatherings of ex-servicemen the area over.
