ALL COMPETE IN STATE MEET AT HUNTSVILLE

District Speaking Contest Held at Tech College Saturday

Ray Theford, residing four miles west of Littlefield and a student of vocational agriculture at the field high school, was the winner of a speaking contest on agricultural subjects conducted at Texas Agricultural College Saturday.

The contest was sponsored by the Farmers of America, an association of vocational agricultural boys in schools of the United States. Theford was accompanied to the contest by R. A. Box, teacher of vocational agriculture in the Littlefield school.

Littlefield youth will enter a contest in Huntsville the last in July and the winner there competes with those from other schools at Kansas City next November. Theford's topic was "George Washington, A Master Farmer."

Winton Beams of Plainview was second in the contest. W. C. Osbyton, Ralls and Olton also entered, following elimination contests in the schools.

Each college furnished a place for the contest and provided judges.

Local Agriculture Projects At Littlefield High School

The boys of the vocational agriculture class of the Littlefield high school are feeding hogs while five boys have five brood sows as projects, R. A. Box, teacher, reports.

The boys with litters have about 100 pigs, the average litter having about eight pigs in it. Later on the boys will take up pig project.

R. A. Box says he anticipates six or seven boys feeding calves for their projects. This work will start in June and the boys hope to have calves finished in time for the annual Lubbock Fat Calf and Cow show next March.

There are 35 boys in the class; take about two years of work.

MAYOR POINTS TO GREAT NEED OF TAX MONEY

Says That City of Littlefield Has Bonds, Bond Interest To Pay

The finances of the City of Littlefield were discussed by Mayor T. S. Sales at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

The mayor pointed out that the water works was on a paying basis, and that the revenue from that department had defrayed the city's current operating expenses, but that the payment of taxes was important at this time in that the city had maturing bonds and bond interest to meet.

The payment of taxes, the mayor explained, would enable the city to pay bonds and bond interest and to continue to pay the current expenses of operating the city out of the revenue from the water works.

The City of Littlefield is operating on a "pay-as-you-go" program, and the method is working out in a very satisfactory manner, the mayor explained.

Unless taxes are paid, a special campaign will be necessary in order to bring to the attention of property owners the importance to the city of payment of taxes at this time.

DALLAS FIRM LEASES SITE; WORK UNDERWAY

Rock Crusher Is Moved On Property; To Use Many Trucks

Rock from the quarry just south of Bull Lake, nine miles due west from the Littlefield city hall, will be used in the finishing of the surfacing of State Highway No. 7 in Lubbock county, extending from Shallowater to Lubbock.

A contract has been signed by the contractors, Cooke & Braden, with Gifford, Hill & Co. of Dallas, who have the land leased from the Yellow House Land Co., for the taking out of about 9,000 yards. A crusher with a capacity of 250 yards per day has been moved onto the lease and is being set up.

The rock is found on the bluff, which is over a mile long, several hundred yards south of the Potash lake. Between 15 and 25 feet of the face of the ledge is exposed, and it is planned to build a temporary road along the ledge so that the broken rock can be hauled to the crusher at the foot of the bluff.

L. P. Lively is superintendent in charge of the work. F. M. Smith is foreman of the crusher. The Montgomery Transfer and Storage Co. of Lubbock was given the contract for hauling the crushed rock from the

COUNTIES OF SOUTH PLAINS FAVOR GARNER

No meeting of the Lamb county Democratic convention was held at schedule date for the purpose of electing a delegate to cast the county's vote for president, at the state convention.

It is likely, however, according to members of the county committee, that some arrangements will be made to send a delegate to the state convention.

In meeting held by various other counties in this section, it is evident that the entire South Plains will go solid for John N. Garner as a presidential favorite. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York was second choice of the South Plains committees that have held meetings.

LITTLEFIELD TO PLAY AMHERST TEAM SUNDAY

The Lubbock Hubbers handed the Littlefield baseball team their first defeat of the season Sunday afternoon at Lubbock in a ten-inning game which ended 4 to 3. The locals have scored two consecutive victories over the Earth team this season.

The Lubbock team, with short crew, were forced to borrow a catcher, Miller, from the Littlefield reserves. Miller was successful in securing a single and accounted for one of the Lubbock runs.

Weaver was on the mound for the locals and allowed only nine hits. Ratliff, Littlefield shortstop, led the locals with three hits, and catcher Hanks, outfielders Thornton, Etter and Thaxton, accounted for two safeties each.

According to C. C. Tremain, manager of the team, Littlefield will meet Amherst Sunday.

According to Max E. Touchon, who operates a truck line from Littlefield to Lubbock daily, the largest shipment of poultry to be shipped from Littlefield in the past three years, was loaded on his truck Saturday, February 27, bound for Lubbock.

The load consisted of 1034 head, and weighed 5,170 pounds. This poultry was supplied by the Littlefield Poultry & Egg Co. and the Porcher Produce.

Mr. Touchon has been serving this territory for the past three years, and through his courtesy and efficient service is making new customers daily. Mr. Touchon has the reputation of being on the job early and late to render his patrons the best service possible.

arillo, today announced as candidate to succeed himself in the office, subject to the Democratic primary in July.

Judge Martin, a veteran jurist of West Texas and a former member of the Criminal Appeals Commission in Austin, issued the following statement on his candidacy:

"I am a candidate at the forthcoming Democratic primary to succeed myself to the position of associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial district, to which I was recently appointed.

"I feel that my first duty is to do the work of this court, for which the state is paying me, and I shall have to depend largely upon my friends. I have lived in the West all my life, with the exception of about three and one-half years which I spent at Austin as one of the judges of the Commission of Criminal Appeals. I have practiced law on the South Plains, with the exception of the above period, for about 26 years, and I refer the voters to any trial or appellate judge in Texas before whom I have practiced during this time.

I am deeply grateful for the expressions of confidence and offers of support that have come to me from over the entire district. I shall greatly appreciate your support and influence at the forthcoming Democratic primary."

Receive Seed Free From Certified Seed Association

According to R. A. Box, Vocational Agricultural teacher, a sufficient amount of grain sorghum seed, including milo, hegari and kafir, to plant about 150 acres for 20 vocational boys of the Littlefield High school has been given the boys by the State Certified Sorghum Seed Growers Association, through its headquarters here.

About sixty 4-H boys of the grammar grades will also receive seed to plant about 200 acres.

Mr. Box also said that P. W. Walker, well known grain man here, is dust treating all of this seed free before planting, stating that this is a great money-saver.

Mr. Box is leader of the 4-H boys, working with D. A. Adam, county agent.

Coach Read and Mr. Fisher took two of our star track men, Paul Hyde and Lester Fowler, to the state Class B Track meet at Denton, Texas, last week. Paul Hyde competed in the mile run. He ran a good race, but failed to place against the many good track men competing in that race. Lester Fowler came back wearing a first place medal which he won in the half mile run. Lester is an unusually good track man for his training and experience. Coach Read reports that if he stays in training the other three years he has in high school he can easily break the state record on the half mile run, and enlarge his record as a track man. Mr. Fisher stated that it was a "grand and glorious feeling" to sit in the grandstand and hear the onlookers praise a track man from Spade for his almost unbelievable stride and his good judgment in running a race. Lester was last man around in the first lap, but led the second lap by a large margin and ended the race in good shape. Both the boys reported a dandy good time with plenty of boat riding, wild dewberries, cold swims, free shows and plays.

Mrs. Fisher and children returned Sunday from a visit with relatives at her home town.

Don't be bothered with those pests. Catch those mice with Sure-Catch mouse traps. For further information concerning these traps, come to the High School auditorium Friday night at 8:30 and hear what the inventor has to say about them. A whole evening of fun for a small sum.

The "gang" was: Pauline Dennis, Wilma Webb, Sue Hubert, Onie and Lylia Sheperd, "Gene" Yeager, Parker Burford, Neel White, Oline Hill, Opal Webb, Azalea Stanfield, "Don" Love, truck driver, Mrs. Cude, sponsor, and Mrs. Webb and Mr. Heibert, chaperones.

We could not begin to tell you what we know about the cavern. Go see for yourself. It is wonderful.

The Senior Baccalaureate sermon will be May 29th at eleven o'clock at the Baptist church. W. O. Wilson, pastor of that church, will preach the sermon.

CUFFS AND COMPLIMENTS

Mrs. Raymond Renfro says that the editor's dog is so ugly that he (the dog) is pretty.

SACRIFICE AND SAVE HOME

That is the right thing for every one of us to do.

What Do You Think? But no matter what your views are, we urge that you read the eight reasons why you should sacrifice and save your home, as given in a pamphlet which has been issued by the Temple Trust Co.

1. The most important thing a family can do right now is to make any sacrifice necessary to save the home it has already started on.

2. If the members of the family throw up their hands and quit the home they have already started on, the chances are about nine to one the whole family will not again get in the notion to start on another home.

Hence, the importance of sticking to the one now owned.

3. It's one of the saddest and most disastrous things that can happen to a family to pack up and leave a home and turn to tenants. It hurts the father. It hurts the mother. It injures the children and saps their ambition to get on and up in the world.

4. Some people are saying, "I can buy another home for what I owe on this one." But we have observed that they don't do it! When they give up their homes, most of them literally turn to drifters, to the everlasting hurt of themselves, their families and their state.

5. Anybody who will advise a family to turn to "quitters" is an enemy to that family's best interests, and is an enemy to his community's welfare.

6. For thirty years we have seen home builders and home promoters, having helped in the purchase of over 7,000 homes. EVERY FAMILY THAT STUCK TO THE HOME and finally paid for it became at least reasonably prosperous and sent its children out into the world with something the tenant farmer and town renter can't give to the sons and daughters!

7. All lasting prosperity, both in town and in the country, is built on home ownership. Normal conditions will come back just as soon as everybody again realizes the value of real estate and so soon as all home owners determine to make whatever sacrifice necessary to save the home and pay for it.

8. Home ownership is the bed rock foundation for prosperity today and always has been in Texas, in America, and in every other country in the world.

KEEP YOUR REAL ESTATE AND PAY FOR IT.

Their regular monthly meeting was held at the Amherst Home Demonstration Club house Tuesday, April 26.

"Personality" was the subject for discussion and the following women appeared on the program: "Personality," Mrs. Loyd Crosby, Amherst club; "Why We Need to Give More Time to Personal Appearance," Mrs. Bill Day, Spade; "How Mental Attitudes Affect the Face and Body," Mrs. C. M. Owens, Olton; "How to Care for the Hair," Mrs. Ida Yandell, Rocky Ford; "How to Care for the Body Externally," Mrs. Adrian Jones, Blue Bonnet; "How to Care for the Body Internally," Mrs. C. M. Crawford, Blue Bonnet; "Effect of Personal Appearance on Our Families," Miss Maye Moore, Hart's Camp.

Some 50 women representing 15 clubs were present for the meeting. In order to find out how effective these schools are the home demonstration agent asked club women to give their reaction, some of which follow:

"If I had to miss club or training school I would miss the club meeting."—Mrs. H. C. Dennington, the Friendship club.

"I do not know how we could have our second meeting without the training school."—Mrs. W. E. Logan, Blue Bonnet Club.

"Our meeting without the agent is much more interesting since we get the help at training school."—Mrs. W. C. Squires, Hart's Camp.

Mrs. H. C. Dennington of the Friendship club, witnessed a demonstration cutting and curing and canning of meats at her home by the county farm agent on the 15th of December. Since then she has conducted eight demonstrations for the neighbors and friends. A beef demonstration in Bailey county; one pork, five hives in Lamb county, and one beef in Haskell county.

Mrs. Dennington has made this remark:

"I shall never put up meat by the old method since seeing Mr. Adam give the demonstration."

In spite of the snow and rain both days of the demonstration, three neighbor men stayed until the work was completed. These men have butchered and cured and canned seven hogs and two hives by the extension method.

OUR 4-H PANTRY

Mrs. I. V. Fent, Sand Hill Club.

Our slogan this summer has been "Four good months to provide for the eight lean ones." Now as we look at our harvest we see that we've certainly had a great one. The pantry shelves are loaded with oodles to eat, even though there has been a depression. We feel the depression and know that it is true, but at least we are eating of it. That means that our family is not doing without the foods that are so necessary for our physical well-being.

Our home agent, Miss Mashburn, helped us to make a food budget whereby we could serve balanced meals throughout the period when gardens are not productive. We decided that an eight month budget would be more beneficial than a six month budget. The simple reason is we had rather have plenty than not enough if garden time comes late.

It would be simple to have plenty of about six vegetables for your pantry, but would it be so simple than to have your family tire of them? That is one reason we provided and canned the following varieties: succulent vegetables, 119 containers, consisting of 15 varieties; leafy vegetables, 215 containers of 10 varieties; tomatoes, 100 quarts; sea foods (26 cans); fruit and fruit juices, 97 containers consisting of 11 varieties; pickles, relishes, catsup, etc., 94 containers of 15 varieties; preserves, jellies, jams, etc., 83 containers of 18 varieties; blackeye and cream peas, 63 containers; starchy vegetables, 64 containers of corn, parsnips and sweet potatoes.

The emergency shelf has a total of 87 containers of the following: pork and beans, chicken gumbo, chicken a la king, hominy, wheat, sandwich spread, pudding, seasoned pumpkin, green tomato mince meat, tomato puree, chicken and beef soup, 25 quarts in the form of scrapple, liver paste, head cheese, sausage, and pork roast. A grand total of 964 containers or 847 quarts made up of 89 varieties.

The canned products are surrounded in their pantry with pumpkin, squash, citron, peanuts, pop corn, pinto beans, blackeye and cream peas, Irish potatoes, onions, sweet potatoes, and apples.

Beef products of roast, meat loaf, chili and steak have been added as well as sufficient supply of American cheese for our family.

We feel as though our 4-H pantry game is one of the most worth while on the farm, first from a health standpoint, second financially, because we are saving at least $325.00. And in dollars and cents I can't figure what it will mean in the ease in planning and preparing meals.

I am sure that our pantry demonstration has helped others for they grow interested when they see the attractive products and want the recipes. Some have come to see how the canned products are arranged according to the food value, while others have come to see how a model pantry was built.

But to us last of all to gaze into the loaded shelves and things surrounding them, gives us a feeling of security and thankfulness that can't be measured.

4-H PANTRY WORK

By Mrs. Charley Harmon, Amherst Club.

When our club chairman asked me to be the 4-H Pantry Demonstrator, I had always canned as much fruit and vegetables as I could secure, but had never worked on a budget basis taking adequate diet into consideration. After thinking it over I told her I would try.

I have an 18-quart pressure cooker and a sealer that I have used for four years. In filling my 4-H Pantry budget for an eight month period of time I have received many benefits. I know as the days come and go I have enough food stored and canned for every occasion. Even when company rushes in at the last minute, I run to my emergency shelf and get food that can be prepared in a very few minutes for an excellent meal. Besides this, the all-important question of food is settled for a full eight months period.

I have had much pleasure in filling each container of vegetables, fruits, pickles, relishes, preserves, jellies, and other things. There is nothing prettier to me than a pretty pack of canned products with a good quality.

My pantry consists of 350 quarts of vegetables, 125 quarts fruit, 70 quarts pickles and relishes, 86 quarts jelly and preserves. I have an adequate supply of cured and canned meats. I have pinto, navy, butter, and soup beans, crowder, black eye, and calico peas. In addition to this there are onions, pop corn, and peanuts.

The total value of my pantry is $238.17 with a cost of $15.00 for supplies. What woman isn't happy when her family has sufficient food for almost a year?

State Food & Drug Inspector Visits Littlefield Monday

W. L. Cude, State Food & Drug Inspector, accompanied by W. P. McDaniel, City Marshal, made an inspection of all Littlefield grocery and drug stores, bakeries and cafes Monday.

With the exception of a few minor irregularities, which have since been adjusted, Mr. McDaniel states they found these establishments in good condition.

These inspections are made semi-annually, according to Mr. McDaniel.

Only three presidents—Washington, Jackson and Garfield—have been honored with statues in National Statuary Hall.

Mr. Brown promises that, if he is elected, that he will give unstintingly of his time in the service of his precinct and county and will at all times endeavor to keep down the expenses of the county.

"I want to serve my precinct as commissioner and will appreciate very much the vote and influence of everyone," Mr. Brown said.

Charles Quails, ace of the West Texas Golf association, Littlefield drew a bye in the league tournament last Sunday due to the withdrawal of the Tahoka club from the league.

Slaton, leaders in the league during the early bouts, vacated their position for the Lubbock Country club Sunday afternoon. Lubbock won over Slaton 17 to 6. The Lubbock Meadowbrook Golf club defeated Post on the same day 12 to 10.

quarry to the job.

Large Fleet of Trucks.
 Between 15 and 20 trucks are to be used. Each truck is to have a five yard capacity bed and three trips a day is the minimum day's work.

An 80 h.p. gasoline motor is to be used for crushing the rock. A set of screens has been installed to secure the proper crush.

The property on which the quarry is located is owned by the Yellow House Land Co., and some time ago was leased to the Dallas firm for development.

Stone from this place has been used by Littlefield for street paving. Three labors of land, or 531 acres, comprise the lease. Not all of the area is underlaid with rock.

"We do not know how much rock there is, but we think we have an almost inexhaustible supply," R. T. Badger, of the land company, said.

"I do not know how deep the vein is, but we can see a good deal of it from the top. There seems to be no limit to the supply.

"Tests have been made by the state university and the highway department, as well as others. All reports we have indicate the quality of this rock is far above usual demands for this work. Our company does not have anything to do with the work now as we have leased to Gifford & Hill."

ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON

Dr. T. B. Duke had charge of the program at last Thursday's luncheon of the Littlefield Rotary club. Several numbers were rendered by "Red" Norman's orchestra, and readings were given by Misa Sue Brannen. Those who made up the orchestra, in addition to Mr. Norman, were Emil Timian, Troy Howton and Max Stansell, and Mrs. H. F. Moody at the piano. R. T. Badger, president of the club, gave a brief talk on the recent Rotary convention at Mineral Wells. J. S. Hilliard, who also attended the Mineral Wells meeting, will give a complete report on the convention at this Thursday's luncheon.

AN APPRECIATION

To Mayor T. S. Sales and Commissioners Pat Boone and Homer Hall: We experienced a feeling of much joy and gratitude when we first noticed that the city was having the drainage system remedied by the building of a concrete dip at the intersection of LFD Drive, South Twichell and East Fourth streets, as the stagnation of water at this corner and the incidental stream of water which was caused to stand in front of the Leader office after a rain, has heretofore caused us, as well as our customers, much inconvenience. We, therefore, wish to extend our utmost thanks and appreciation to each of the members of the City Commission for remedying this condition, and also voice the appreciation of our customers and other citizens who have occasion to visit the Leader office during or after a rain.

NOTICE TO THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE LITTLEFIELD INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT, AND PATRONS:

We, the undersigned members of the School Board have done all in our power to carry out the wishes of the patrons of this School District but we have failed; we have met with organized opposition on the part of the other members of the Board on each and every proposition; they oppose each move that will tend to reduce the running expenses of the school as it should be reduced in order to meet the present conditions.

We offer this as a solution: That we, the seven members of the School Board, resign Saturday morning, so that the taxpayers may have the opportunity of electing a Board that can work in harmony.

This is notice of our resignation in case the other four resign, this resignation to take place not later than Saturday morning, May 14th.

We earnestly beg the other members of the Board to join us in this move so that the will of the majority of the taxpayers and patrons of the school can be carried out, and that peace and harmony might prevail.

This is a fight between taxpayers and tax eaters that have already eaten the vitals of the taxpayers of this District.

The assertion has been made that "the vote for the new members on the Board does not reflect the sentiment of the citizenship." We challenge the other members of the Board to accept our proposition and let the voters say WHO they want and WHAT they want. We further recommend that no teachers be elected by the present Board and that the newly elected Board be permitted to elect whomever they choose and to conduct the school according to their own views.

Signed,
 J. E. Brannen,
 J. M. Blossing,
 W. E. Jeffries.
