The LEOPARD

IS CONSIDERED BY MANY HUNTERS TO BE MORE DANGEROUS THAN THE LION AND TIGER.

HE SPENDS MOST OF HIS TIME IN TREES, BEING AN EXPERT CLIMBER! EVEN MONKEYS LIVE IN FEAR OF HIM.

LEOPARDS, UNLIKE MOST OTHER WILD ANIMALS, DO NOT SHUN THE HAUNTS OF MAN! THEY THRIVE IN THE WELL-SETTLED REGIONS OF ASIA AND AFRICA, PREYING ON THE LIVE STOCK AND DOGS OF THE SETTLERS. OCCASIONALLY A LEOPARD BECOMES A MAN-EATER.

AFRICAN NATIVES DIP THEIR SPEARS IN THE BLOOD OF THE LEOPARD AFTER A SUCCESSFUL HUNT, IN ORDER TO ACQUIRE SOME OF THE ANIMAL'S SKILL, CUNNING AND FEARLESSNESS.

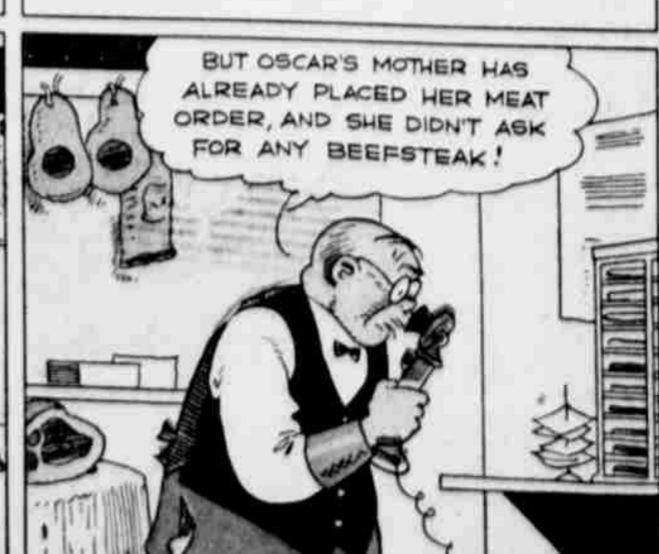

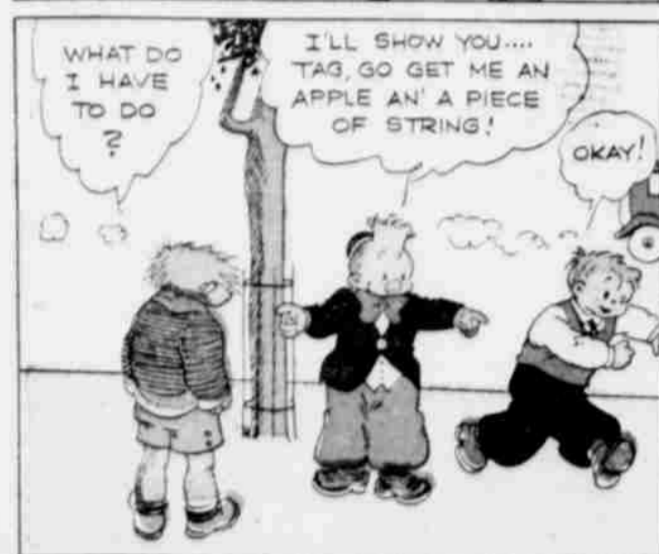

AFTER EATING ITS FILL OF ANTELOPE DINNER, THE LEOPARD DRAGS THE CARCASS UP A TREE, TO KEEP IT AWAY FROM THIEVING HYENAS.

BLACK LEOPARDS BELONG TO THE SAME RACE AS THE SPOTTED VARIETY. A BLACK SPECIMEN MAY HAVE NORMAL-COLORED PARENTS. THE BLACKS ARE MORE FEROCIOUS THAN THEIR ORDINARY RELATIVES.

In addition to giving assurance that the contract would be let for the surfacing of Highway No. 7, the commission pledged its efforts toward early letting of work on Highway No. 28 in 1935. The route goes from Floydada west to Plainview, Olton, Muleshoe and the New Mexico line.

Forms For Making Loans to Arrive In County Soon

A letter was received Saturday by the County Agent's office stating that the necessary forms for making the additional 2c loan on the cotton option contracts would be here within a few days. Those farmers holding option cotton from last year contracts can borrow 2c per pound less expenses which amount to $2.40 per bale. As soon as these forms are received by the County Agent's office farmers will be notified to come in to make this additional loan, stated G. R. Schumann, Assistant County Agent.

LOCALS TO BATTLE RALLS FRIDAY NIGHT

With high hopes of repeating last year's victory over the Littlefield high school football squad, Coach C. B. Hendricks will bring his Ralls Jackrabbits here Friday night for the annual battle of the two teams.

The team will be accompanied by a snappy pep squad of 25 girls in flashy uniforms.

The Jack Rabbits have already defeated Olton, Slaton and Post, this season by decisive scores and have their eyes set on a district crown.

Littlefield scouts who saw Ralls defeat Olton report that they have the Wildcats outweighed 12 pounds to the man. A Mr. Walker, brother to Flashy Walker, former T. C. U. Star is a man to be watched in the back field.

The Jack-Rabbits may be expected to take to the air if necessary. The Wildcats showed themselves to be weak on pass defense against Hereford.

The Wildcats had the best football spirit last week that has been seen in Littlefield for a long time. Although deposed to lose by 3 to 5 touchdowns, they went in fighting and came out the same way. Some bad-breaks cost us from 1 to 2 touchdowns, but we may watch out for those breaks, they will help us win.

LAST RITES ARE HELD FOR W. H. (BILL) WELLS

Passes Away Saturday Following Heart Attack

The Church of Christ, I. F. D. Drive, was not nearly sufficient to accommodate the large attendance Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when funeral services for William Frank (Bill) Wells aged 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Wells, were conducted by G. A. Dunn, Jr. Pastor.

Deceased passed away at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of his parents in Bronckers Addition, following a heart attack.

Burial was in charge of Hammons Funeral Home, and interment took place in the Littlefield Cemetery.

The Boy Scouts in a body followed the corpse and carried the flowers.

Pallbearers were: David Keithley, Edgar Walters, Emory Glass, Guy Aldridge, Art Mueller and Ferris Vinther.

The youth had been having occasional attacks of heart trouble since childhood. At the age of ten years he suffered from Measles and Scarlet Fever, which affected his heart, leaving him with leakage of this organ, from which he never recovered. His parents had taken him to Hot Springs, N. M., and other health resorts in an effort to regain his health, but of no avail. He had been confined to his bed a week when death came.

Deceased was born in St. Francis, Kansas, June 9, 1916, and moved to Littlefield with his parents in 1914. At the time of his death he was a junior in the local high school. He was a member of the Boy Scouts, and a great lover of golf, tennis, and all other outdoor sports. He won boys' district and county championship in Boys' tennis doubles in the 1933 Interscholastic School Meet.

He was a member of the Church of Christ and took an active part in the Littlefield High School Band.

COUNTY AGENT IS READY TO RECEIVE TAX CERTIFICATES

Mr. Donald Turner, Assistant in Cotton Adjustment, announced Monday that the County Agent's office is now ready to receive tax exemption certificates in the national pool. He urges that all farmers who have surplus certificates on hand come to his office at once and place their surplus certificate in the pool as they received a telegram from Washington Saturday stating that there was an urgent need of tags in the East.

Farmers who wish to transfer certificates to another cotton producer within the county may do so by coming to the County Agent's office and making proper record there. No person can use exemption certificates unless they have been properly transferred or were originally issued to the person holding same.

Anyone buying surplus certificates within the county will be required to pay 4c per pound for them.

START DRILLING SECOND TEST HERE FOR MORE WATER

Drilling of a second test well as a part of the city's water works extension plan, is underway.

This test is located at the northeast corner of the airport property, which is owned by the Amicable Life Insurance Co., of Waco.

This test was started Monday and was down 51 feet last night.

The first test, which was drilled on the south side of the farm of Leslie B. Davis, three quarters of a mile east of the present water plant, has been completed, and indications are that it is a 1000-gallon per minute well. The test was made to a depth of 150 feet, 47 feet of water sand was encountered, and water is standing 100 feet in the hole.

The Constitution of the United States had a birthday recently. The document was signed 147 years ago.

We Do Our Part

TRADE TOURS

West Texas is made up of friendly, co-operative people. If you don't believe that, take a trip into the north and east.

As a friendly people we should visit our neighbors more often.

One form of neighborliness is the Good Will tours to nearby cities and communities, which are sponsored by the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce. These tours are to be resumed in the near future, and hundreds of Littlefield people should participate. We like people to come to Littlefield, and residents in this section like us to visit them.

A committee has been appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to arrange for the trips to nearby cities and communities. Let's co-operate with this committee, and each and every one of us do our part in making the tours a success.

YOU CAN ASSIST

All Texans can play a vital part in celebrating the 100th birthday of their state in 1936 by contributing ideas for songs, slogans, and other features that can be utilized in connection with the Texan Centennial celebrations to be held at San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, Gonzales, Galveston, Dallas and other cities in the State that year. Subject matter for the songs, slogans and ideas covers a large field because of the many historic communities and events related to Texas' progress, all of which are to be commemorated in a suitable manner.

Charged with the duty of arranging a central exposition for the Centennial, Dallas now is busy with its plans for the epochal event. One of the most important committees named in Dallas is that on songs, slogans and ideas, headed by Herman Philipson of Dallas, to whom patriotic citizens desiring to have a part in the successful remembrance of their State's birthday are urged to send in ideas.

8 YEARS AGO

(Excerpts from the Lamb County Leader)

The Boggs Motor Company, a new firm now located in Littlefield, opened the doors of the building formerly occupied by the Crockett-Blair Motor Company, this week, and the Dodge car will be handled exclusively.

Velma Imogene, age 9 months and 20 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones, died at the family home four miles west of Littlefield early Tuesday morning. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Littlefield cemetery where interment was made.

News was recently heralded here that Mrs. Frances Lee Tolbert was winner of first place on the short story contest of the Literary Department of the Tri-State Fair held at Amarillo. Mrs. Tolbert, who recently returned to Littlefield after an absence of seven years, is a member of the local school faculty.

The winners of Littlefield and the farmers of this vicinity meet in a joint meeting Saturday afternoon in the balcony of the Littlefield State Bank. The purpose of this meeting was to try to reduce the price of ginning and cotton picking. As a result the ginners agreed to pay $3.00 per ton more for cotton seed, which is approximately 10 cents on the hundred, more than the present market.

The Littlefield High School football team took the Portales High School team into camp Friday to the tune of 39-0.

Pictures of the Lamb County exhibit taken at the State Exhibition at Austin, where it won second place, have been placed in each of the local bank windows, and other places of business over Littlefield. G. M. Shaw had charge of the exhibit.

Transportation Limits Russian Cotton Growing

There are economic, physical and social factors tending to slow up the steady increase in foreign cotton expansion which has been proceeding for more than 40 years, it is pointed out by experts in the Cotton Section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Some future increases may be expected but no rapid, large expansion seems probable as a result of the cotton adjustment program of the AAA. Cotton prices must go to a high level and remain there for a period of years to stimulate greatly increased production.

India and Egypt are reported to have decreased cotton acreage this year, and both countries seem fairly well restricted in future expansion by need for land for feed, and other factors already described in this series. Russia is much discussed as a threat to the American grower, but that country, too, has its difficulties.

Russia planted 4,843,000 acres to cotton this year or about 5 per cent less than in 1933. Price has little to do with cotton acreage in Russia because the planning is done by the government. The decline in acreage this year may be due to the desire of the Russian Government to lower their production goal in order to come nearer reaching it. It may also be due partly to slowness in getting tractor repairs.

Russian cotton production is seriously hampered because her cotton lands are 1500 to 2500 miles away from Moscow where most of her spindles are located. Her cotton program has forced the government to import foodstuffs from 1000 miles away into the cotton country. Transportation facilities are not good. These factors will tend to limit Russian cotton production in the future.

Cotton is grown in Russia by farmers imported from other sections of the country. They are new to irrigated farming. Weather conditions have been bad this year, farmers have let weeds grow and have been held up by lack of tractor repairs. The estimated crop this year is smaller than last. Average yield per acre in Russia for a period of years has been 217 pounds of lint per acre.

There is some indication that Russia may even become an importer of cotton again. She has announced a plan for providing her people more clothing in the near future. Russian consumption of cotton is 5 pounds per year. The United States uses more than 24 pounds per person per year. It is reported that 3 million new cotton spindles are to be erected by the end of 1934. These could use

GASOLINES ARE different, TOO!

If you want to buy gasoline CHEAP, by all means get Phillips UNIQUE. It is a good gas at a cut price... an excellent value because it more than meets U. S. Government specifications for Motor Grade gasoline. It is equal or superior to other motor fuels sold at a similar cut price.

But if you want the MOST ECONOMICAL gasoline, we frankly do not recommend this cut-price grade. We sincerely say that you will save more money and get more pleasure out of motoring with Phillips 66... the greater gasoline.

It contains Lead Tetraethyl to give it the highest possible anti-knock at its price. Its high test rating (gravity) is always at the highest point possible under our process of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY, which matches Phillips 66 to your location and weather... "100% custom-tailored gasoline."

It starts cold motors with split second speed. Needs less choke and hence delivers more miles per gallon. Reduces vibration and increases power. Cuts down noise and steps up speed. And it simply can't be beat for acceleration by any other gas even at a higher price.

These are the results you actually feel in your car, results that prove there is a difference. Get the money-saving facts for yourself by getting a trial tank at any Orange and Black 66 Shield.

one million or more bales of raw cotton per year. There is also a report that Russia plans to buy 600,000 bales of American cotton this year.

Future increases in Russian cotton production will probably be limited by transportation difficulties. It is possible that increased consumption of cotton in Russia may offset any future increases in production that may develop. American prices are not influencing Russian production at present. The American cotton farmer is not now seriously threatened from that quarter.

Of course, you have to use good lamps. No more of these cheap ones for me; they send your lighting bill sky high and they don't last. I always buy Mazda Lamps. They're the best I can buy and they save me money in the long run.

SYNOPSIS

Two weeks after a cream colored mare had been found wrecked in a ditch at the foot of a cliff, a girl named Anne Cushing appears in the town of Marston. She has a right unseen a ranch located miles away. Barry Duane, her neighbor and his man, Boone secure a reliable woman for the Barry's car, loaded down with supplies, they start across the hills. In Marston her reticence has a suspicion.

Barry went back with a "I'll be with you," he said and was close on Petry's heels. He went back to the corral. In the same corral where Comet had been kept, and from there he whickered a shrill wailing cry. Barry had approached and found that at that instant, as a bugle call.

Barry exchanged a quick glance. There were only a dozen horses in the corral, Captain was there, close to the horses.

glossy hide and dainty hoofs, they missed nothing in their quick search for evidence. "The saddle is all right," said Barry presently. His throat felt parched and dry. "It couldn't have slipped. Of course—she might have been thrown."

Barry was already in the corral. He was saddling Captain, his fingers working with swift precision. "Ling."

Ling came pattering at the peremptory call. Light up every room in the house. The lady at Trail's End is lost.

Barry was already in the corral. He was saddling Captain, his fingers working with swift precision. "Ling."

the world to him was Anne Cushing, and that the thought of harm coming to her was unbearable. He raised his voice in a call "Anne! Anne!"

The echoes flung it back at him mockingly. "Anne! Anne! Anne!"

Hope had slipped from Anne with the vanishing sun. How many miles she had walked and climbed and stumbled since she had faced that blank wall of rock she had no means of knowing.

And then night had come. Her clothing was torn by thorny branches and she fairly reeled with fatigue.

"Martha will know that something is wrong," she remarked to herself. "Perhaps Comet will go home. Of course he will."

She caught her breath sharply as the realization pressed home. There was no telephone at Trail's End. No car. Martha could do nothing unless she could catch and saddle one of the old horses and find her way to Eagle's Perch.

A chill wind set the tree tops whispering. Anne shivered and began looking around her for a sheltered spot in which to spend the night.

On her left, half-way up the slope, there was a dark blotch which looked like a clump of clovergrowing evergreens. She made her way toward them cautiously.

There was a tiny clear space inside, shut in and ringed around by those shaggy branches.

One might even feel around for a comparatively soft spot and lie down curled into a snug ball. Anything for rest.

Little by little, sheer weariness overcame her. The rustling sounds of the night lost their menace, and grew fainter and fainter. Anne slept.

It was not a peaceful sleep. Now and then she stirred restlessly, tossed sighed, and lay still again. A voice drifted down on the wind, calling "Anne! Anne!" but she did not hear it. From somewhere in the distance came a faint crack of sound, and from somewhere nearer by a single shot rang clear.

The sharp sound brought her to her feet, stumbling with sleep and fatigue. Another sound was beating lightly and steadily against her ears. The click of a horse's hoofs on rock. Going away from her! "Anne! Anne! I'm coming Barry!"

She began to run, slipping and sliding down the slope, smooth with fallen pine needles, forgetful of the sheer-dropping ledge at the foot.

That was when Barry saw her. There were, after all, to be more poignant moments in Barry Duane's life, but none that could so shrink time into its racing seconds.

Through the scattered pines he had caught sight of a small running figure, racing a headlong haste down a slippery incline. Going too fast, if she were going to pull up well inside the ledge. . . . God! if she should go over!

His heart seemed to stand still as Captain's long legs pounded over the intervening space. He put Captain to the very edge, thrusting in between. Barry heard her say "Oh!" in a horrified voice, and caught her with one arm as he swung down.

racing back in time, Barry—" "If I hadn't, life wouldn't mean much to me now." She looked up at him with wide dark eyes, heavy with fatigue, and her head moved in a faint negation. He felt her slipping away from him, and he did, not know just why.

It was no time for lover's importunities. Barry said "Steady, boy," to Captain and reached for something.

"I'd better signal Petry that the lost is found."

Two shots cracked and echoed. The answer came from far on the right. One shot and a pause, and then a staccato outburst of rejoicing. Barry laughed.

"Boone is happy. Now we're going back to Trail's End, and I am going to carry you. Here, put this on first. "This" was his own coat.

"Orders!" He bent down and swept her up in front of him, swinging her across so that she lay like a child in his already they had started. Once he arms. She looked up to protest, but looked down and smiled, and after that she did not look up again. Barry loved her, and she couldn't — she couldn't. . . . She lay passively against him for mile after mile, with her cheek pressing his shoulder and a dull ache in her heart.

The next morning was an awakening to strange aches and unsuspected bruises. Martha ordered her to stay in bed.

At noon the autocrat permitted her to get up. Shortly after lunch Barry appeared, riding Captain and leading an unabashed Comet.

"Do you think you can forgive the little devil enough to give him another chance?" "Of course. It was my fault that he started off in the first place. He's an imp, but I do love him.

That might have given him an opening for light-love making at least but Barry let it pass. His manner gave no suggestion that he remembered his checked ardor of the night before. Anne wandered over toward Comet to avoid that new look in his eyes.

The pinto was standing dutifully where he had been left, merely, giving an impatient stamp now and then to remind them that motion was his business and he was all ready to go.

"Look at him! He doesn't know how to be ashamed. Rascal, you just watch when we start out again! I won't get out of the saddle for a second without dropping those reins over your nose."

Barry watched her as she stroked the ingratiating muzzle. "Then the morale is all right?" "Oh, yes, for riding." She looked at him with a very small smile. "I still think that mountain hiking is a much over-rated sport, but that won't last."

"Then how about my coming down for you in a few days, as soon as you're feeling yourself again, for an all-day trip and lunch at the Perch?" "All day? What about work?" "What you need now is play, besides, if you don't come I shall have any excuse to play around myself." He smiled.

Why shouldn't she? One didn't stop seeing a man because of a little fragmentary love-making. "I'd really love to. Thursday?" "Thursday, I'll come down for you right after breakfast. Now I shall to get back. I'll put Comet in the corral forst."

"Barry!" "Yes?" He stopped and looked back his eyes warming. "I haven't even attempted to thank you. You understand, don't you?" He gathered her hands into both of his and held them close together. "I don't want to be thanked. Just seeing you back here ought to be thanks enough for anybody. . . . Good-bye."

He gave her fingers a quick squeeze and let them go. Then he was off with Comet to the corral.

all there is of the town of Duane. Ever heard of it?" "No I haven't." "I'll tell you after we get up to the Perch. There's nothing more to see down there—it's just as dead as it looks.

His voice sounded hard. That was unusual for Barry. They turned their horses and went back through the pass again.

Presently Anne caught a sapphire gleam. "Oh beautiful! Is that Eagle Lake?" "I knew you would like it."

It lay like a jewel at their feet. At the head of it, topping the pine-carpeted slope, was a two-storied house of peeled logs, built on broad generous lines.

"Welcome to Eagle's Perch." Barry swung off quickly and held up both arms for her. "Make yourself at home while I put up the horses. Oh, Ling!" This as a bland yellow face appeared, hovering back of an open door. "See that Miss Cushing gets anything she wants. Miss Anne Cushing, this is Ling Foo, the best all-round cook west of the Atlantic. We'll eat on the veranda, Ling."

"Alli, boss." Ling grinned briefly at the compliment, said "How do" politely. Anne left a bright and speculative eye taking her measure. "I shan't need anything Ling Foo."

"Alli, Missy." The bright eyes were benevolent. Ling ducked his head, and padded softly away, and Anne was free to explore.

She looked around the big living room with a faint sense of surprise. It was spacious and restful, furnished with a man's idea of comfort, but the things in it had never been bought in Marston, nor even in the more up and coming county seat. There were books and magazines scattered around. Some of the books looked technical and dry, other were more promising.

"Like it?" That was Barry's voice behind her. "How could I help liking it? It's perfect." "That's a large order," he laughed. "My uncle was a collector of Indian rugs and things in a small way, and he picked up the Spanish stuff, too."

They went out wandering over scented pine needles, down to the lake and up the slope again, answering the mellow music of a Chinese gong. Barry chuckled. "You've made an impression on Ling. Usually he just sticks his head out of the door and yells 'Aleddy!' Continued Next Week

And that's What YOU would Say, After Making the "Liquid Test" Described Here

If, by making one little change, you could relieve a condition of sluggishness within 24 hours, and feel about 100% better—would you do it?

David Wadsworth did. You can do the same. All that is necessary is to get your bowels in the right condition. But you can't do that by doing them violence.

Doctors and hospitals use liquid laxatives. They've seen the damage sometimes done by highly concentrated drugs in the form of pills or tablets! They know that a properly made liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative) does not do this harm. And they use a liquid laxative to relieve the bowels, because the dose can be easily regulated.

To Relieve Bowels

Constipated or sluggish bowels can never be corrected with violent purges. They can be safely relieved with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin without forming the laxative habit.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative made from fine herbs, pure pepsin, senna and cascara. It is most agreeable to take. The comfortable bowel movement from Syrup Pepsin is a joyful relief.

If you are a victim of "sluggish bowels"; an occasional sufferer from constipation, here's the secret of prompt and safe relief until nature restores your regularity. Use a liquid laxative.

Start tonight with Syrup Pepsin. If necessary to repeat the dose use less each day, until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all.

HEREFORD DOWNS CATS 21-0 IN FIRST NIGHT GAME HERE

In a drive that started early in the first half, the Hereford high school football squad ran up a score of 21 to 0 over the local Wildcats Friday night in the first football game to be played under the lights in Littlefield.

Littlefield's hopes of upsetting the dope and win the bout begin to fade when O. K. Yantis, Wildcat fullback, was drawn from the game during the early part of the first quarter and was unable to return until the last minute of play.

The Hereford team first got in scoring distance early in the first quarter by making three first downs on the left plunges for a total of 35 yards. This led to the first touchdown and an extra point.

Roy Smith, fullback, who had replaced Yantis, fumbled a well kicked ball which Hereford recovered and plunged through the line for the second touchdown of the night. Instead of trying to kick the goal for the extra point pulled a fake and passed to the end who leaped into the air and brought it down safe for the 14th point.

Later in the game Hereford covered another fumbled ball in the Wildcats territory which resulted in the last scoring of the game.

The last half of the battle was really a fight to the finish both lines holding good. (Skinny) Rowe, R. T. was in there and really basted through his opponents getting his share of the tackles.

Curly Hall was on the receiving end of two well thrown passes over center which gained about fifteen yards for all the passage yardage made.

umpires who gave eight scores to the Allstar team and eighteen to the ladies team.

The side line eagerly and excitedly viewed the fast game and was thoroughly convinced that the Littlefield P. T. A. ladies are no "softies."

Allstars Lose To P. T. A. Gals 18-3 In Recent Game

All-stars Wednesday night battled with delicate, highly colored, blue red and white striped broom handles that broke with each hit until broken pieces of the bats of the all-stars shattered the home base. Finally a long plank was adopted as a bat.

The men, not being able to find mittens and gloves large enough in town to fit them, were compelled to play unshod and ungloved as promised.

R. W. Armstrong drew much favor to the Allstars by his striking appearance. Wearing loose trousers suspended by black suspenders was a dashing figure handling the broomstick bat and ball. While making his famous home runs, he always left his black derby deserted between home and first base.

Robert Graham was the star hitter having made a sum of two scores for the allstar team.

The ladies dressed in blue, red striped and checkered sport pajamas and slacks wielded a wicked bat and ball. They made outs against the all stars as each allstar leisurely walked his last stretch from third base to home plate.

Mrs. Jimmie Timman was a high hitter. Her sky-ball baffled the all-stars and gave many good scores to the ladies team.

The star players on the ladies team proved to be Miss Noimi Robnette, scoring three times, Miss Lillian Hopping bringing home 3 scores.

Of this number 4276 head have been accepted and shipped out and 2024 head have been condemned and shot on the farm. Total payments for the cattle purchased to date amount to $67,694.00. There still remains in the county Agent's office at the present time 678 contracts signed up to sell 3678 head of cattle to the Government. Orders were received to purchase 500 live and condemned animals in this county this week. This quota was divided up among the various communities of the county in accordance with the number of cattle remaining in that community by the

Drouth Committee. ## Slavic Ruler Is Murdered In France

King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia and Louis Barthou, foreign minister of France, were assassinated by a Jugo-Slavian gunman, Tuesday afternoon as they motored through the streets of Marseille a few minutes after the Jugo-Slavian monarch had stepped on French soil for a state visit.

The assassin was a native of Zagreb, Petrus Kalemam, 35, who was armed with two pistols of German make and a small bomb. Kalemam fatally wounded three men and shot 11 others, including seven women, before he was himself mortally wounded by police.

He never had a chance to use the bomb.

The King and Barthou were riding together in an automobile with the populace of Marseille cheering when Kalemam jumped to the running board of the car at 4:10 p. m. and poured out his fatal fusillade of bullets.

The King was shot three times — in the liver, his left shoulder and his left lung. He died within an hour.

Poem Conveys Wildcat Spirit

The following poem was handed to one of the staff members by a wild- cat with the statement that it ex- presses the feeling of the football boys.

THINKING
If you think you're beaten, you are
If you think you dare not, you don't
If you'd like to win, you know you can't
It's almost a cinch you won't
If you think you'll lose, you're lost.
For out of the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will.
It's all in the state of mind.
If you think you're outclassed you are
You've got to think high to rise
You've got to be sure of yourself before,
You can ever win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But sooner or later the man who wins
Is the one that thinks he can.

"TREASURE ISLAND" GRANDEST ROMANTIC ADVENTURE FILM OF YEAR COMING TO PALACE THEATRE

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper united again as a screen team!

Such will be the cinematic pleasure when "Treasure Island", famous Robert Louis Stevenson pirate classic opens at the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, and continues through Sunday and Monday.

The powerful heart appeal of this combination of man and boy that stirred millions with "The Champ" and recently "The Bowery", has never been presented with more dramatic intensity than in the pirate story.

As Long John Silver, ferocious sea raider, Beery is chosen as a friend by young Cooper portraying Jim Hawkins, boy adventurer. Their ex- blustering and bullying old Billy Bones, who finally dies of heart failure when given the "blackspot" by the pirates. His makeup is especially interesting and is one of the most startling he has ever attempted.

Lewis Stone as Captain
Captain Smollett, who commands the ship Hispaniola on the treasure cruise, is played with conviction by Lewis Stone, who is himself a cap- tan of a fine sailing yacht in Pacific waters. Otto Kruger's forceful per- sonality adds strength to the charac- ter of Dr. Livesey, who provides med- ical attention for the expedition.

Eight Year Old Boy Works Intricate Mathematics

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 11. (UP)—Martin Grossman Ettlinger is eight years old and goes to school only half the time, but already works intricate mathematical problems and will enter the tenth grade shortly after he celebrates his ninth birthday, October 5 of this year.

He is the son of Dr. H. J. Ettlinger, professor of mathematics at the university of Texas. Dr. Ettlinger little dreamed when he announced to his mathematics class in 1925 that he was father of a newborn son, that the youngster would follow in his footsteps and work difficult calculus problems before he was nine years old. The boy developed so rapidly that he is allowed to attend school only half the time.

'Young Martin will enter the University of Texas as a freshman when he is eleven, even though he still will be restricted in the time spent in school. His father already has arranged for the boy to enter the university when he completes high school work.

The youngster has read all the children's classics and adventure stories and now occasionally turns to heavy literature which might cause trouble to more mature minds. He is almost as well rounded as other children in his other developments. Scholastically he surpasses them easily and has made straight A grades in all subjects.

Martin rapidly learned all mathematics taught in the city schools, and dropped the course. He found the mathematics easy which his father prescribes for freshmen in the university, so has taken up calculus during the summer. He also is interested in chemistry and knows much of the theory of this subject.

His parents fear he might be injured, so refused to let him experiment in the laboratory. He will commence this work under supervision when he enters school this fall. One of Martin's most astounding feats is the rapidity with which he reads. Tests show his average rate is 1900 words a minute. He sometimes reads as fast as 2,200 words. Equally impressive is the fact that he retains most of the knowledge he acquires when reading at such high speed.

When three and one-half years old Martin attended kindergarten. He began first grade work when five, skipped to the third grade when he was six. He was in the ninth grade at seven. Were it not that he has been slowed down to half time, he would be graduated from high school at 10.

Large Attendance At Training School

Twenty-two women attended the training school for wardrobe demonstrators held in the basement of the Methodist Church in Amherst, Monday, October 1. The women received training in cutting and fitting foundation patterns, which are made to fit the individual. If the person being fitted has a 36 bust, a 32 waist the pattern will be altered accordingly and if one shoulder is higher than the other that will also be taken care of. The pattern is not cut for the average, it is cut for the individual. The women attending the school made seven patterns and altered four.

STEER STRANGLES

KERRVILLE, Oct. 11. (UP)—A tragedy of the ranges occurred on a Gillespie County ranch near here when a 2-year-old steer seeking green leaves for food slipped from a ravine bank, caught its neck between a grapevine and oak tree and strangled to death. The owner, Alfred Korzik, discovered the steer after he had missed it for two days. The inch-thick grapevine had wound around the animal's left horn and under its jaw its feet were left dangling down the steep ravine without a foothold and it could not free itself.

FT. WORTH, Oct. 10. (UP) Miss Helen Moody, sophomore from Fort Worth, has been re-elected as "Band Sweetheart" of the Horned Frog Band of Texas Christian University. She is the first girl to be honored by the musicians with a second election to the honor.

New Town in Cochran County Starts to Grow

Oasis, a new town in western Cochran county, about a mile east of the New Mexico state line, has started to grow. That was the report of H. V. Chipley, Lubbock man who said sale of lots was progressing.

Houses are being moved from Morton, county seat to Oasis. H. P. Spraggins, a Wellington, Texas business man, has purchased the Caldwell building at Morton and is moving it to the new town. He began moving Friday. The structure will be occupied by a store and filling station. Another general store building also is being planned. A building will be moved there from Antelope.

Petitions are being prepared for circulation for a postoffice. The nearest office is at Morton. Oasis is on the Campbell ranch, Mr. Chipley said, where a body of land is selling at $13 per acre. Numerous sales have been reported this summer and with some of the purchases of last winter moving in and others expected this fall, a substantial increase in population of that part of the county is expected.

The town is on the proposed State highway west from Morton to the state line, where it will connect with a New Mexico highway leading to the Portales-Roswell highway.

Loans at 4 per cent Interest To Be Made Farmers

Loans at four per cent interest will be made to farmers by production credit associations on the security of stored cotton, according to Tully C. Garner, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. The loans will be made in accordance with the Commodity Credit Corporation plan, under special authorization just received from Washington.

"While full details have not developed," said Mr. Garner, "it is evident that this deviation from our standard interest rate reflects the smaller risk involved in loans against a staple product in storage and the same commodity in process of production. Associations will carry these loans without risk since they are eligible to be transferred to the commodity Credit Corporation.

There are thirty-eight production credit associations in Texas, located in all parts of the State, offering convenient short-term credit for practically all agricultural purposes.

METHODIST CHURCH
John W. Hendrix, Pastor

Church School — 9:45 a. m. It begins at that exact time. If you care to be on time, it is well to remember this item.

Morning worship begins at 11 a. m. and most always ends at 12 noon. This is stated so it may be easy to put this date on your program for the sabbath day.

Also the evening worship begins at 7:45 and ends within an hour. That means one may come to evening worship and be back home, if they care, by 9 o'clock. The time element in that isn't difficult to arrange.

The pastor will speak both morning and evening. The subject of the morning hour will be "FOLLOW THE LEADER". That is the name of a very popular game — popular in certain parts.

For the evening hour, "PILATE BEFORE JESUS." This explains some of the difficulties Pilate faced. At each of these services the Choir will supplement the worship period by the use of favorite and select hymns. The Choir has begun its rehearsals for the winter months. The church naturally expects a large and interesting choir. It has every right to expect it.

The Leagues will meet in regular session in their rooms at 7 p. m. If you are young and unattached these meetings will be of interest. The church bears this invitation and big welcome to you.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Joe F. Grizzle, Pastor

Sunday School starts promptly at nine forty-five with a general assembly and announcement period of fifteen minutes. The departments will assemble in their regular rooms. All reports will go to the general secretary at 10:20.

Morning worship hour, eleven to twelve o'clock, opening with a program of spiritual songs, followed by the morning sermon.

The B. T. S. will meet at seven o'clock. The juniors will remember that their place of meeting has been changed to the ladies class room on the main floor. Miss Hopping and Miss Grizzle will sponsor this group. The evening worship period will be from eight to nine o'clock.

TO DAM RIVER
QUANAH, Texas, Oct. 10 (UP)— Citizens of Northwest Texas, determined to dam Sandy Pease river and create one of the largest bodies of water in the state, will carry their plans to Washington in an effort to get the project listed under the P. W. A.

EARTH METHODIST CHURCH HOST TO MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE MONDAY

The members of the Ministerial alliance of Lamb and Bailey counties met with Rev. Allen of Earth in the First Methodist Church of that town Monday morning at 10 o'clock. It was one of our best meetings and it was held in one of Lamb county's prettiest churches.

The meeting was opened by chairman Hendrix and the Devotions were led by Rev. Jenkins of Muleshoe. He gave a very interesting talk concerning the leadership of God's people. For example he stated that the 121st Psalm is a very good Psalm to read before a person undertakes a journey or even a very short trip.

The minutes were then read by secretary Grizzle and were passed upon by the group. Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting the current problems of the two counties were thoroughly discussed by all present and proper resolutions were made to co-operate in the fullest with our officers in the enforcement of the law on gambling in every form.

The Laws of Texas relative to slot machines were discussed and the ministers' eyes were opened as we found out how plain the Laws were which condemned the operators and the players of slot machines. All individuals who wish to look further into this matter may inspect the Penal Code of the Laws of Texas, articles 619 and 624.

Rev. Vernie Pipes, the new Baptist minister of Earth, was voted into the alliance.

A motion was made and passed that we commend the Anton Ministers for their positive stand against gambling.

The Rev. Mr. Jones of Anton then invited the members of the Alliance to meet with the Olton Ministers on Monday, October 22nd, at 10 o'clock. Before leaving the men ate lunch in the basement of the church which was served by the ladies of Earth.

-TODAY'S- FASHION HINTS VERY LATEST By PATRICIA DOW

Designed in Sizes: 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16 years. Size 14 requires 2 1/4 yards of 39 inch material for jumper, and 1 1/2 yard for blouse.

JUMPER FROCKS

Pattern 8339: Young school girls delight in a jumper frock because of the way they have of being flattering to the wearer and of the chance to wear gay blouses.

This jumper frock combines charm with utility. The jumper part is utterly simple, depending for its chic on the clever cutting and the large buttons trimming the front and the tabs in back. The little plaid blouse is also very simple in construction, but most charming in effect, because of its puffed sleeves and bright material. The blouse can be used as attractive with long sleeves. Woolens and cottons vie with each other in popularity.

—TODAY'S— FASHION HINTS VERY LATEST BY PATRICIA DOW

Designed in Sizes: 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16 years. Size 14 requires 2 1/2 yards of 39 inch material for jumper, and 1 3/4 yard for blouse.

JUMPER FROCKS

Pattern 8339: Young school girls delight in a jumper frock because of the way they have of being flattering to the wearer and of the chance to wear gay blouses.

This jumper frock combines charm with utility. The jumper part is utterly simple, depending for its chic on the clever cuttings and the large buttons trimming the front and the tabs in back. The little plaid blouse is also very simple in construction, but most charming in effect, because of its puffed sleeves and bright material. The blouse can be used as attractive with long sleeves. Woolens and cottons vie with each other in popularity.

We Think—

And it was not long before the Cats began to settle down. They didn't settle so good in the first half at least that's what we thought, but in the last half they did better. You see by this time we had started to find out what all those young men out on the field were supposed to do.

The Salvation army has a saying that "a man may be down, but he is never out." That's what we found out about the Cats. For example, we heard one of the Cats who got knocked out in the general commotion ask the head man, L. T. Barksdale, to let him back in the game. The head man looked him over; decided that the young man was altogether and let him bet back in the fuss, after he had warmed up by running up and down the field several times.

"That's the spirit," we thought. And it is truly the right spirit. It has won wars, built businesses, and conquered the wilderness.

As we have already said and demonstrated, we don't know anything about football. But from the advance dope on the Whitefaces and the way those Herefords boys played, we think that Head Man Barksdale's boys did a good job when they held down the record to 1-0, or something like that. We heard that some of those boys on the Hereford team have been playing together for four years and that they averaged about 18 pounds in outweighing the Cats.

Last Friday night's encounter was the first played with the assistance of Texas Utilities juice, and there was a big attendance of Littlefield and Hereford folks. A big attendance at all games will go a long way in assuring the Cats that we are all behind them 100 per cent. There is not anything in this world that keeps folks fighting the game of life, and football players in there fighting like a few kind words and a cheer up and down the line.

We repeat: we don't know nothing and that goes double as to football, but football is like eating olives; once you acquire the taste — well, we'll be seeing you Friday night.

J. T. BELLOMY QUALIFIES IN A BIG WAY FOR MEMBERSHIP IN

THE GRAND AND EXALTED ORDER OF THE WORLD'S MOST ACCOMPLISHED LIARS — BUT J. T. SAYS THAT HIS STORY IS THE TRUTH, THE WHOLE TRUTH, AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH

Anyway here's his story: The Littlefield resident reports that when in the Devil's River country recently he shot 39 squirrels out of one tree, and that the barrel of his gun got so hot that he had to stop shooting.

THAT'S ALL!

DICK BEISEL QUALIFIES FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE GRAND AND EXALTED ORDER OF THE WORLD'S MOST ACCOMPLISHED LIARS—

Back in 1921 when Dick was hauling cotton seed cake in a Model "T" truck a sandstorm forced him to make camp by a windmill west of Sudan about 4 p. m. There were no fences in those days and the sand was so thick that it was impossible to keep in the trail. Not long after Dick made camp a teamster, who was also hauling cotton seed cake, came along and camped on the other side of the mill. But the sand was so thick that neither man knew that the other had made camp by the mill. They did not discover the existence of each other until the sand had ceased blowing the next morning.

Dick declares that the story is true, and says the sandstorms of today are not anything to be compared to the sandstorms of the days when the country west of Sudan was ranch land.

Football—

There doesn't seem to be the same pep and spirit shown on the practice field this week that was out there last week. The boys are all back in good physical condition and if we can get in proper mental condition we can go places. Conches Barksdale and Hobbs are putting forth every effort to get back in the win column. They realize that with only 1 or 2 veterans the Wildcats must fight to a man in order to win. They are not asking anything but that every boy do his best.

Littlefield Wildcats, your lighted field and the boosters club is evidence enough that your coaches have our confidence. They are doing their best. You must do the same thing. We know you can take it and also dish it out, if you want to. Are you going to disappoint us or not. We know you can and are expecting you to fight every minute, as you did against Hereford. Fans: It's Gonna Be A Ballgame.

STATE DEPARTMENT TO REVISE CURRICULUM OF TEXAS SCHOOLS

For some years the State of Texas has been concerned about the things we are teaching in our schools. This matter is now being worked on with a considerable degree of determination. The state department of Education says we need a new curriculum for the following reasons:

1. Present curriculum has many shortages.
2. Recent economical and industrial changes make it necessary.
3. Changed in social need of people demand it.
4. State should have a more uniform program of education.
5. Texas has never worked out a detailed curriculum especially fitted to its people.

To this end there has been placed in action a considerable organization that has for its purpose the revision of the entire curriculum of Texas schools. This is being attempted first by making a constrained occasion for the teachers and school officials to study the curriculum and see if we can justify the things we are teaching the pupils. Are we teaching him the things that he most needs to know? Are the things taught given their relative importance in the curriculum?
