Youth Caravan Begins At Amherst Church Saturday

AMHERST — A Methodist Youth Caravan will be sponsored at the Amherst Methodist church by the MYF Sunday, July 24, through July 30. The group is made up of youth workers and an adult leader from various colleges in the United States for the purpose of building up the local Methodist Youth Fellowships.

The four caravanners who will conduct the Caravan in Amherst are Robert G. Russell, Jr., Greensboro, N. C., who attends High Point college in North Carolina; Dorris Ann Smith of Jackson, Miss., a student at Auburn university; Gay Stevenson, Manila, Iowa, who attends Drake university; Dew Munnis, Iowa; and Jim Holladay of Tuscaloosa, Ala., student at the University of Alabama. Liz Willis is the adult leader.

Jim Tomlinson, ministerial student at McMurry college in Abilene, will deliver the message Sunday morning. Sunday night another McMurry ministerial student, Jewell Thorp, will deliver the sermon.

The Monday through Thursday schedule is: project period, 5:30 p.m.; fellowship, supper and singing, 7 p.m.; discussion and MYF program planning, 8 p.m.; recreation, 9 p.m.; and worship, 9:45 p.m.

The public may attend the Friday activities which begin with fellowship at 6:15 p.m. A covered dish supper, group projects, planning and evaluation will be held at 7 p.m. The evening will be climaxed with a service of dedication.

This Sunday the activities will include Sunday school at 9:45 a.m.; church service at 11 a.m.; a potluck and planning time at 2:30 p.m.; worship at 3:15 p.m.; recreation, 5:30 p.m.; fellowship and singing, 6 p.m.; "Why drive it a car?" at 7:15; supper, 7:45; and worship, 8 p.m.

In these days when newspapers are full of tales of violence . . . When parent tortures child, husband shoots the man who steals his wife, family friend kidnaps and mistreats a minor . . . When men in high office release the trust placed in them, then declare they've done nothing wrong. When our minds are filled with distrust of our fellow man . . .

With fruit more popular than ever as the final course for dinner, you can depend on Florida citrus fruits to furnish you with plenty of variety right now. The Valencia are wonderfully juicy, and sliced or sectioned, or teamed with other fruits, they make delicious and healthful fruit bowls. The grapefruit from Florida is unusually tangy and yet sweet, and broiled or topped with a sprig of mint, grapefruit halves will do nicely to finish off lunch or dinner—and you'll feel better for having eaten so wisely and so well.

This novel orange dessert will make a special hit. Serve it on the fork on which you roll it, and dessert is done in a twinkling!

Florida Cinnamon Oranges
 4 Florida oranges
 1/4 cup granulated, powdered or sifted confectioners' sugar
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 Cut off orange peel in a long strip going around orange and cutting deep enough to remove white membrane. Combine sugar and cinnamon. Spear oranges on fork; roll in sugar mixture.
YIELD: 4 servings.

HOUSTON MORROW, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morrow, recently received his discharge from the U.S. Navy after four years of service part of which was spent in Japan, Korea and Hong Kong. Morrow, who is shown above with one of his paintings, plans to leave Monday for El Paso where he will do art work for the annual Sun Carnival. He also plans to make bull fighting the subject of some of his paintings. Mrs. Morrow, who has remained in California, will join him in El Paso in August. Morrow is a Littlefield high school graduate and attended McMurray college and Texas Tech.

We are reassured by a closer look at the people we really know:

The wealthy widow who puts three nephews through college . . .

The successful doctor who backs a penniless poor boy . . .

The friend who goes out of his way to help another get a better job . . .

The neighbor who brings over a freshly baked cake and cleans up her neighbor's kitchen when unexpected guests arrive . . .

Somehow the hundreds of homey acts performed each day—that never make the headlines—help remind us that Americans are usually good Christian folks. That restores our faith . . .

Then we remember that people in other lands don't know this side of our country: the across-the-fence kindness that really makes up American life. And we wonder what they must think we are like over here—with all our luxuries and our killings and our easy way of life, which we don't seem to appreciate . . .

And it makes us wish we could do a better job of understanding and helping our fellow man.

Woodmen Squeeze Out 8 to 6 Wins Move Into 3-Way Tie For 2nd Place

by Charles Duval Jr.

W. O. W. killed the Lions' hopes of breaking into the win column Monday night as they barely won 8 to 6. This puts WOW in a three-way tie along with Jaycees and V. F. W. for 2nd place.

In the top of the first inning, the Lions got George Nickleson on base with a walk, but the next two batters fanned. Joe Huber got a hit and drove in Nickleson. The following slinger struck out Maurie Roberts got to base through a walk, but the next batter fanned, retiring the side.

Only one run was brought in, making the score 1 to 0.

In the bottom of the first, WOW blasted out three hits, one being a two sacker. Those crossing the plate as a result of these hits were Jerry Koller, Jimmy McGee and Duane North. Then the WOW club dropped into a slump, as the next three batters fanned.

The Lions opened their hitting in the top of the second with Terry Stone getting on with a hit. Roger Graham walked, but did not get to score as the following two batters were called out on strikes and the third flied out to short.

WOW was lively in the second inning, getting Gene Alexander on base with a walk. The next batter fanned, but Bobby Glenn hit a solid single and drove in Alexander. Koller got on base through an error but did not have the opportunity to cross the plate, as the batters following fanned.

In the next inning, the top of the third, the Lions started with Huber's single. Then Austin and Roberts got on with walks, loading the sacks. Then Ulan Kennemer hit a solid drive which got him on first, besides driving in Huber and Austin. That was all the scoring done in the top of the third, as the next three batters went down swinging.

WOW's first batter struck out, but Jerry Drake was walked, and Rex Faust got on when the pitcher's throw hit him; however, these runners did not score as the two following sluggers struck out.

WOW held the threatening Lions to no hits and no runs as they chalked up two strike-outs and one fly-out in the top of the fourth.

The Woodmen promptly started their scoring as Glenn got on through an error. Koller also slugged one and reached first base safely. The next hitter fanned, but North's hit drove in both Glenn and Koller. North also reached third but died there as the side was retired by strike-outs.

The Lions made a valiant effort to win the game and it was fairly close, 7 to 4 in the top of the fifth. Although the first batter fanned, Robert's hit gave the game tense atmosphere. Kennemer and Graham were walked but Graham died at the first sack, as Kennemer, after Roberts had crossed the plate, tried to come even closer to the high-ranking WOW score. He never home, as the catcher tagged him out, retiring the side.

WOW scored only one more run in their time to bat. The lad who came home was Alexander, who was walked. Those on base, but failing to score were Morgan with a solid, two sacker hit, and Glenn, who walked.

The Lion lads brought in two runs to get closer to the final WOW score. Both Randy Ammon who walked, and Gilbert Seager trotted home. Those on base, but failing to score were Roberts, who walked and Austin, who hit a double.

The winning pitcher was Glenn; the loser, Austin.

Morgan led WOW's scoring with a 1 for 1 count, that one being a two-bagger. Next in line was North with his 2 for 3 count. Then Koller's and Glenn's 1 for 2 count wrapped up the hitting, except for McGee's 1 for 4.

The Lion's leading sluggers were Roberts, with a 1 for 1 count, Huber, with 2 for 4, and Kennemer's and Stone's 1 for 3 average.

The umpires were Mike Sesson, behind the plate, Skipper Smith at first, and Cecil Hart at third.

The Littlefield Bells, ladies softball team, defeated the Bovina team 10 to 8 Monday night at Bovina. The local ladies took the lead early in the game and held it despite a good opposition pitcher, Winnie Thompson was the winning pitcher.

This gives the Bells a record of four wins, three losses, placing them third in the League. Their next game will be with Lazbuddie either Friday or Saturday night on the local field.

The Bells defeated the Dimmitt Ladies team at Springlake 36-6 Friday night, with Littlefield only

Littlefield Independents Win Close One From Springlake

Littlefield's independent softball team racked up its sixth victory over eight games Tuesday night under the lights at Springlake. In a thrilling finish Springlake brought in two runs and had the two tying runs on base before winning pitcher Charles Cowan put out the fire and won 10 to 8.

Cowan, who manages the Littlefield club, practically won his own game when he scored three runs and batted in four of the other five. In three times at bat he got a triple and a single.

Losing pitcher was Norman Sulcer. He was relieved in the third by Milburn Hayden, who struck out eleven men in the remaining five innings.

Each team got exactly one less hit than the runs it scored, as errors helped push runners around. Only home run was by Lynn of Springlake, who also got a double to lead his teammates at the plate.

The Littlefield team has been beaten by Hereford and Lubbock and has gotten revenge for both. The local boys have since beaten the Lubbock team three times and Hereford ones. They have accumulated an impressive team batting average of over .500 while getting a win percentage of .750.

The Littlefield and Springlake teams will tangle again at Springlake Monday night. A game with Earth is scheduled to take place there on August 5.

All games must be played away from Littlefield because there is no lighted park available for adult games here since the rodeo grounds diamond was altered for use by the Little League.

The treasurer should, of course, work closely with the Finance Committee.

Little League rules require full equipment including suits and even helmet protectors. The metal Protector is suggested for all players to be worn when batting and running the bases.

At the end of the season, all equipment is turned in to the League officials, except the players' caps which they are allowed to keep.

I need more of your questions for this column if you have any about the Little League recently organized in Littlefield.

Growing by Prayer
Lesson for July 25, 1954

IT IS TRUE that we can grow spiritually through prayer; but it is not true that we can grow by just any prayers. Out in Tibet and other parts of the Orient they have these prayer wheels or prayer flags. A prayer wheel has been inscribed on the wheel of the flag, and every time the flag flaps in the breeze, or every time the wheel turns over, the prayer is supposed to rise. Is a Tibetan who puts out one of those things the most spiritually mature person in any religion? Of course he is not. Jesus told a story about a Pharisee and a tax-collector, both of whom prayed in the same temple to the same God. But the tax-collector grew by his prayer, while the Pharisee certainly did not. When God said to the Israelites, "Though you make many prayers I will not listen," they were surely not growing by the prayers they had made.

Be Still and Wait
The trouble is that so many prayers are just variations on the one theme, "Gimme!" They are not through and through, and selfishness never fails to stink the soul. Then some people in praying do all the talking and never listen to see if God is saying anything to them. They have said on the Lord's prayer, "our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." For the lack of prayer have not changed since then and God has spoken with each other. The prayer by which we grow is not just a fancy thing, a kind of telephone line on which we have only a transmitter and God only a receiver. There is such a thing as being too busy with our desires and demands.

'In Everything...'
There is another side to this. We ought never to feel shy about asking God's help at any time. Paul says to his friends at Philippi, "do not doubt from his own experience, 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.'"

'The Throne of Grace'
In conversation, one of the best simple rules is: "Remember to whom you are speaking." This is just as true when we are talking with God as when we are talking with other people. That great phrase in Hebrews, the "throne of grace," expresses two vital truths. One is that our prayers are going to a Throne. God is the sovereign of this universe; his throne is Power itself. There is nothing too hard for the God of the Throne. It is a throne of judgment too, and God knows very well whether we ought to have our prayers answered or not. We have access through Christ to come before God with boldness; but it is to a Throne we come, and we must not forget that. We can never dictate to the throne. But it is the Throne of Grace. More than mere power sits in control of all things. The true God is a God of love and grace and mercy. "He knoweth our frame, he remembereth that we are dust." God is infinitely more interested in our welfare than we are in our own. God is more eager to help us than we are to be helped. Our prayers do not so much change God's mind and induce him to do something for us, as they release the divine purpose on our behalf. This is why it is so important to grow, as Christians, into the stature of Christ; for only as we grow Christlike can we become aware of what God's gracious will is, and so be able to pray as Christ himself would pray.

Cantaloup Season Is Here Again!

... spring crop is making the versatile cantaloupe unusually abundant this season. Known for centuries, and cultivated in this area since Columbus landed, the luscious melon is a delicacy we enjoy each year about this time.

... cantaloupe starts the day off bright at breakfast, is a wonderful fruit and has hundreds of tasty dessert possibilities. Besides, nutritious food, rich in minerals and vitamins (especially A and C) and low in calories.

... buying ready-to-eat cantaloupe look for those that are springy to touch. Pressure by the thumb at the ends is not a good test, although should be well defined and the scar at the stem end is slightly sunken and calloused.

... a wonderful dessert recipe that will help keep the bulge at bay.

CANTALOUPE CHIFFON CUPS

1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 ripe cantaloupes

... gelatine in cold water. Beat yolks until thick and lemon juice. Add lemon juice, salt and 1/2 cup of the sugar. Cook over water until thickened, stirring constantly. Add gelatine and stir until dissolved. Chill in refrigerator until beginning to set, consistency of unbeaten egg white. While custard is chilling, halve cantaloupes and remove seeds. With spoon scoop out some of pulp, leaving about 1/4-inch rim of pulp in the shell. Notch if desired. Crush pulp with potato masher and measure as pulp. Beat whites until stiff. Gradually beat in remaining sugar. Fold in gelatine mixture, grated rind and cantaloupe pulp. Pile into cantaloupe shells and chill until firm. Garnish top with fresh mint if desired.

... approximately 178 calories per serving. Serves 6.

The process of melting glass in a ceramic container is compared by engineers to obtaining pure water by the application of heat to ice in a container which is composed of sugar.

The direction of wind over water can be determined by observing the shape of the waves and the shadows they cast.

TANGY CHEESEBURGERS

Nothing beats the Cheeseburger as an outdoor food for fireworks—whether you actually plan a Fourth of July celebration on your lawn, or whether the fireworks consist of large numbers of neighbors dropping in unexpectedly. The Cheeseburger is one of the most individual as well as one of the most popular dishes to be made—rare or medium or well done according to the taste of the guest, with or without pickle, mustard and catsup. But we bet everyone will like this Tangy Cheese Topping. And two other things guests will enjoy along with them are fresh crisp flower-sliced radishes and tender young scallions. A third—a long, cool hot-weather drink of iced tea, easily done with instant tea.

Spread cooked hamburger patties with this Tangy Cheese Topping and broil until cheese bubbles and browns slightly. Serve on plain or toasted enriched yeast-raised buns. Cheeseburgers may also be grilled over an outdoor fire by the simple method of browning one side and putting the cheese mixture on that browned side and letting it melt as the second side cooks.

The Tangy Cheese Topping: One-quarter pound of grated Cheddar cheese; two tablespoons mayonnaise; two teaspoons prepared mustard; one teaspoon lemon juice; and one-half teaspoon celery salt. Blend all ingredients thoroughly.

Sudan Girl Wins Bible Contest, Trip To Camp

SUDAN — Miss Beverly Bottoms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bottoms of Sudan, is attending the Miracle Camp in Ringgold, La. Miss Bottoms was awarded the camp trip after winning a Bible memory contest sponsored by the Bible Memory Association of St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Bottoms memorized and recited before an appointed hearer in the community weekly assignments of approximately 25 Bible verses.

Weekly awards from these accomplishments were presented and when the contestant had completed the entire assignment of 250 verses, a Schofield Bible was awarded.

The Rev. Wayne G. Perry, pastor of the Sudan Baptist church, was official bearer and Mrs. Raymond Bowman the substitute bearer.

Highlights And Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—Down to its bitter end moved the campaign for Governor of Texas. The drive was one of the most intensive this year, notable for its violent politics, had ever seen.

Two men dominated the picture: Governor Allan Shivers, candidate for re-election; and his opponent, Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin.

Shivers Picture
Shivers stood foursquare on his record of achievement in office and pledged to continue, if re-elected. "The progressive program" he had worked for during his tenure.

Charged by the Governor were concrete figures showing that during his administration Texas has come far:

From worst to among the best in the state prison system's record.

Many miles of farm-to-market roads have been built and maintained. Generally, the state highway system has been improved.

Pay of teachers and public employees has been increased.

Considerable progress has been made in the state hospitals and special schools.

Title to our tidelands has been regained, and that victory meant $10 million already realized for the state's school children, with billions yet to come.

Yarborough Described
As he recounted the record of his administration, Shivers flung certain charges at his opponent, Yarborough, he said, is the captive of people who don't want to get tough with the Communists, and who want to get the Texas and Communist law repealed.

Shivers further charged: That Yarborough has made no positive statement on the segregation issue.

That Yarborough has promised George Parr to call off the clean-up in Duval County.

That CIO Union bosses had placed a $2 per head levy on members for a defeat-Shivers cash fund.

That Yarborough wanted schools run from Washington, not locally.

Yarborough Talks
Shivers' opponent, twice a candidate for the state's highest office, was making his strongest bid for election.

Whether it was true that he had powerful support from the CIO could not be proven.

But he had money to buy expensive time on the state's radio and television stations, and to produce a campaign newspaper for statewide distribution.

Yarborough also was the first gubernatorial candidate to completely ignore the rural press of the state, in his bid for office. To reach the voters in the non-metropolitan areas, he has depended largely on TV and radio.

Some haven't liked the approach because it has crowded off their TV screens some of their favorite programs. Others have enjoyed politics' first big year on TV in Texas. Results of the approach will show definitely on July 24 when Texans go to the polls to record their choices for that and other offices.

Yarborough Campaign
Yarborough based his campaign principally on charges which Shivers described as "misleading."

Yarborough had these things to say:

That Shivers had made a secret deal with George Parr of Duval County.

That Shivers had caused the resignation of former Chancellor James P. Hart of the University of Texas.

That Shivers had made contradictory remarks about segregation.

That Shivers' Republican friends are trying to cheat Texas out of part of the tidelands.

On the positive side, Yarborough promised higher teacher pay and old age assistance.

Shepherd View
The information that Texas' tidelands fight is not yet over is no new development according to Attorney General John Ben Shepherd in a reply to gubernatorial candidate Ralph W. Yarborough.

Shepherd issued his statement shortly after a remark by Yarborough that the Attorney General had let it "leak out" that the federal government still refused to recognize state tidelands boundaries as more than three miles off shore.

The state claims over 10 miles in the Gulf of Mexico and has issued leases for much of that area. Shepherd said the tidelands dispute involving the boundary location was made public as early as last October in a newspaper article.

Although declining to take issue in the political battle for governor, Shepherd said that "the true facts concerning the matter should be made clear."

Water Solution
Passage of flood control legislation now before Congress offers a major solution to periodic droughts in Texas, District Engineer Colonel H. R. Hallock of the Fort Worth Corps of Engineers stated in Austin.

Legislation includes the proposed Canyon Dam for the Guadalupe River near New Braunfels and six major reservoirs to be created in the Brazos River Basin.

Hallock said that if the dams are built, many millions of acre-feet of water can be stored against drought periods.

Covered By Ice
It is now believed by scientists that in the ice age four million square miles of the North American continent were covered by a layer of ice.

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK

By Ted Gouidy
FEEL EFFECTS
HEAT WAVE

The high temperature that has gripped large portions of the country had an adverse effect on the livestock market and feeder interests, especially in the Corn Belt. The Corn Belt is reported to be standing over 100 days of stockers to the count.

The heat wave was causing even as to the corn crop. Some important areas have definitely deteriorated. Many sections where cattle are shipped every day.

Other kinds of calves sold at Fort Worth Monday morning around $15 to the good kinds but order of sales slow out of the market and shipping orders a week ago with most sections and bulls faced a drop, generally steady some cutter cows selling at a discount than at last week. Fat cows were weak as all packers exhibited a recession to follow. Cattle were generally steady, S. Scott, Castro County, had a load of choice steers at $21.50 and Marvin Moore, Moore County, had two loads of good and choice at $20.50 that averaged 1,200 pounds. Benchmark these buyers weighed 775 prior to shipment and had sold them at a three per cent discount. It would have made pay 53 pounds against the weight at market. John Oklahoma, had two loads at $19.25 and Roseco Ed-Montague County, sold two loads at $20. The steers from Coleman show $20.25 and Leslie had some fat heifers with a few out.

STEADY, WHILE CATTLE LOWER
Fat hogs sold at $24.25 at Monday, steady with a few out. Sows were at $1 lower, selling at $18.50.

Available hogs either from the feeder, or from their finish or undesirable meat sold from $21 to $24. The good hogs sold at $24 averaging 251 pounds. The State College, of Texas. These hogs brought an extreme top despite being heavy.

There is no position to say their stay at Arlington and subsequent exposure to the learning made them attractive to the buyers. At the like most Arlington

HEALTH HORIZONS

Building Up Your Defenses Against Infection

When we were children, most of us ran the gamut of the "children's diseases"—measles, mumps, chickenpox and such. And after we had recovered, we could pride ourselves on our newly discovered immunity; the doctor would explain that one bout of measles, for example, should make us resistant to that disease forevermore.

Unfortunately, not all diseases reward us with long-term resistance. You can get colds, or sore throats, or even more serious infections like pneumonia, over and over again. But there's still a bright side to the picture. You don't have to get each and every disease to build up resistance to it. You can help yourself develop natural resistance to all infections.

Your Own Disease Fighters
Your system has many methods of protecting you from disease invaders. One of the most remarkable of these is called the antibody reaction. When you come into contact with a dangerous germ, your body doesn't by any means "take it lying down." It goes into action, manufacturing invisible but powerful substances called antibodies. These are your personal disease fighters—and usually mighty effective ones.

How Vitamins Help
But if this is an automatic defense mechanism, you may wonder, what can you do about it? The answer is hinted at in a report by Dr. A. E. Axelrod of Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, who for many years has been investigating antibodies in laboratory experiments. Without certain vitamins, he recently found, antibody formation was slow and of poor quality. With an adequate vitamin intake, antibody protection was good. In other words, it seems that your body can't do a good job of manufacturing antibodies unless you provide it with the raw materials. You can build up your defenses with good meals, including plenty of vitamin-rich fruits, vegetables, and salads. And if you've any doubts about your vitamin intake, you can fortify yourself with a good vitamin supplement.

State products, they were first class!
STEADY PRICES PREVAIL
ON SHEEP AND HOGS
The sheep and lambs were considered somewhat less attractive from the standpoint of quality on Monday, and as was the case with all livestock that day, they took on universally liberal amounts of alfalfa and water.

Prices were considered fully steady on all kinds.
Good and choice fat lambs cashed at $17 to $19, and were quotable above that range slightly. Common and medium kinds cashed at $10 to $15 and culls sold around $8 to $10. Medium and good kinds of stocker and feeders drew $12 to $15, a few good to choice feeders to $15.50. Slaughter yearlings earned $9 to $12.50 and slaughter muttons of the aged variety sold from $6 to $9. Slaughter ewes again sold around the $3 to $4 range and old bucks crossed the scales at mostly $3.

ANGUS FEEDER SALE SET FOR SEPT. 3
The Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association will stage a feeder and stocker calf sale at Fort Worth Livestock Market September 3. The offerings will include loads, half-loads and numerous smaller lots. Glen Tole, secretary of the Association, says that there will be many good club calf prospects in the smaller lots.

Three Steps For Carving A Rib Roast

CARVING a standing rib roast is easiest when you ask your butcher to remove short ribs and separate backbone for removal after roasting. Place the roast on its side on a platter so you can carve across grain toward the ribs. Insert fork with guard up. Cut meat from rib as shown in (1). Slice straight across as shown in (2). Lift each slice, as carved to side of platter or to another hot platter until enough has been cut to serve all individual plates.

VFW Win Over WOW Ends Three Way Tie For Second

VFW broke out of a tie for second place Tuesday night by scuttling WOW 17 to 9 in a six inning game. This dropped WOW back down to fourth and the Jay-coe boys in third place.

Slow starts were taken by both teams in the 1st inning as the first three batters for the Woodmen went down in a row, and only Billy Poteet got on base for the Veterans. He failed to score as the next batter fanned.

Gene Alexander attempted to rally for the WOW in the top of the second inning as he hit a single, stole second and third, and scored on a bad throw from pitcher to catcher.

Revival of the ball game came in the bottom of the second. The little Veterans drove across six runs to make the score 6 to 1. Those crossing the plate were Tom Perry, who got on base on an error; Jackie Gray, who slammed out a double; Don Stevens, a single; Jerry Tubbs, a triple; Keith Blair, a double; and Lefty Tomson, who was walked. Ronny McWilliams also got on base with a double into center field, but was tagged out at the plate as he was trying to score.

Jimmy McGee got on base with a walk, but died on base as the batters following him went down swinging.

The score was still 6 to 1 in the top of the third inning.

VFW continued their hitting streak as they brought 6 more runs. The center of slugging was Ronny McWilliams' triple into left field, around which centered Tubbs, Stevens, and Tomson's singles. Billy Paek and Blair were walked and later came home. Errors enabled both Perry and Gray to reach the bags, but both failed to score and died on base.

WOW's rally came in the top of the fourth inning, with both Dee Pierce and Duane North slugging out doubles and scoring. Alexander, Drake, and Alexander were walked and came across the plate to score, but Bobby Glenn, who bunted out a single, and North, who doubled, failed to score as the side was retired.

The Veterans were taken aback by the onslaught of WOW hitting. They went down three in a row to let the score stand 12 to 4.

Woodmen hitting threatened to advance the score in the top of the fifth after Alexander, the first batter walked. Drake also walked, but both boys died on sacks as the batters following rounded out, and struck out to retire the side.

In the bottom of the fifth, the VFW reassembled and slugged out four hits to drive in five runs. Those crossing the plate were Poteet, Paek, McWilliams, Mac Millan and Jackie Gray, who slugged out a double-sucker Blair also got on base through a bobo, but died on base.

It was a desperate attempt to get back in the ball game that the Woodmen made in the first of the sixth. But McWilliams, who was pitching held them to five runs in contrast to three strike outs. McGee, Glenn, Koller, Moran, and Pierce, who hit a terrific triple homer, crossed the plate. But MacWilliams retired the side with his three strike outs.

MacMillan hit a 1 for 1 count to lead the Veterans' scoring. He was followed by McWilliams' 2 for 4 score. Gray's and Stevens' 2 for 4 count was headed by Tubbs' 2 for 3.

Pierce headed the Woodmen's scoring with a 2 for 3 score. Then came Alexander's 1 for 2 count, then Koller's 1 for 3. North tied up the scoring with his 1 for 4 average.

The umpires were Ralph Gage behind the plate, Eldon Trotter at 1st, and Charlie Cowan at 3rd.

This young vacationer wears a cotton pedal pusher suit just like the big girls wear. THE DECISION FOR TEXANS

What Sort of State Do You Want Texas to Be?

YOUR VOTE ON JULY 24 WILL DECIDE

SHALL WE KEEP THIS ...

PEACE as Texans live together and work together, mindful of Texas traditions, to find their own answers to Texas problems without outside dictation or influences.

PROGRESS as Texas — with true Texans as leaders — continues to build a sound, enduring foundation for a growing economy where the door of opportunity is open wide to every individual.

PROSPERITY as Texas holds to the course of sound, orderly development of its natural resources and native businesses, fighting against efforts to impose unneeded Federal controls, assuring continued high levels of employment and productivity.

This is the sort of Texas we have had under Allan Shivers' administration as our Governor. Isn't this worth keeping?

OR RISK THIS ...

DIGNITY as Texas' leadership, faithful to the heritage of our State, stands proudly before the nation and speaks up effectively for the honest convictions of the people of Texas.

COURAGE as Texas leaders firmly oppose outside interference in Texas affairs, refusing to be intimidated or influenced by threats of retaliation or personal smears.

VICTORY for Texas as experienced, sincere leaders reject compromise and fight to the finish to uphold the rights of all Texans to enjoy the benefits of the Texas way of life as we know it and want it.

STRIFE in Texas as our respected traditions are torn away, standards of other regions imposed upon us, "bossism" allowed to dictate the course of State policy?

TURMOIL in Texas as outside groups seek to make our state a scapegoat for punitive measures, as dreamy-eyed one-worlders and cold-eyed opportunists turn Texas into a sociological laboratory for their experimentation.

UNREST in Texas as Texas leadership looks to Detroit, Chicago, and Washington for "orders" and steers the State down an uncharted course of extravagant spending, mounting tax burdens, economic folly.

APOLOGY from Texas leaders for our Texas heritage, our Texas principles in a weak-kneed effort to curry favor in the eyes of bosses from other regions who despise the independence Texans have shown.

SURRENDER by Texas leaders in fights for Texas rights against the encroachment of the central government and efforts to dictate Texas policy from outside the state.

DEFEAT for all Texans on the effort to preserve the rights of Texas to maintain local control over our public schools and on all the efforts of Texas to build a strong, stable economy to support continued prosperity.

The program of those groups — inside and outside Texas — which are fighting Allan Shivers will bring these things to Texas. Do you want to change Texas into this sort of State?

Governor Allan Shivers Stands for a Peaceful Texas Run by Texans

Most Texans like Texas the way it is. Today those who want to change Texas are waging a vindictive, below-the-belt campaign against our Governor, Allan Shivers, in an effort to destroy him — and what he stands for.

TEXAS COMES FIRST
With Allan Shivers, Texas comes first. He believes Texas should be run by Texans, for Texans. With Allan Shivers out of the way, the outside labor bosses of the CIO-PAC and the inside political bosses such as George Parr of Duval County know they stand a better chance of controlling Texas, running Texas their way.

Which way Texas goes depends on how you vote Saturday, July 24, in the Democratic primary. You know — for sure — a vote for Allan Shivers is a vote for Texas.

PRINCIPLES AHEAD OF POPULARITY
During his term as our Governor, Allan Shivers has never allowed a challenge to Texas to go unanswered. When it was a choice between principle and popularity, Allan Shivers has chosen principle. He is one of few men in public office in modern times who ever, knowingly, staked his very political life on the conviction of the rightness of a principle.

ALLAN SHIVERS WON FOR TEXAS
In 1952, Texans gave Allan Shivers a majority of nearly 500,000 votes over the same man who is

THE SHIVERS' RECORD

Under Governor Shivers' administration, Texans have worked together to solve Texas problems in the Texas way.

- ★ State support of public schools has more than doubled; average salaries for teachers have increased more than one-third.
- ★ More miles of farm-to-market roads and new highways have been built than in any comparable period.
- ★ Our State Hospital System has been transformed from an out-of-date, overcrowded, understaffed operation into one of the most progressive of the nation.
- ★ Allan Shivers wrote the first Texas old-age assistance law and today, under his administration, more persons over 65 receive pensions in Texas than in any other State, except one.
- ★ Texas' prison system — the worst in the nation a few years ago — is now one of the best; the cost to the taxpayers of keeping inmates in prison has been reduced 50 percent per day.
- ★ Texas has made remarkable gains without new tax burdens — such as a sales tax or state income tax — on the people. TODAY TEXAS' PER CAPITA TAX RATE IS THE SIXTH LOWEST IN THE NATION.

This outstanding record has been achieved by Texans working together in harmony and peace, without strife and contention. Allan Shivers as Governor has displayed a rare genius for bringing good men together to find solutions to difficult problems — the mark of a true leader.

Allan Shivers will continue to provide Texas with good leadership and good government — to keep Texas the way Texans like it.

"ON ALL SIDES, OUR TEXAS TRADITIONS AND TEXAS IDEALS ARE UNDER ATTACK. THE COURSE WE TAKE WILL BE DETERMINED IN LARGE MEASURE BY THE SORT OF LEADERSHIP TEXAS HAS."—Gov. Allan Shivers.

ALLAN SHIVERS — "A Credit to Our State"

In the short time he has been Governor of Texas, Allan Shivers has won the respect of the nation as a sound, dignified, courageous Governor who practices what he preaches about the rights and responsibilities of the states.

He has served as chairman of the Southern Governors Conference. In 1953, he was chairman of the National Governors Conference — the highest honor his fellow governors could bestow. In polls conducted by national magazines, he has been selected as one of the nation's best Governors.

Allan Shivers is a true Texan, the son of a country lawyer and judge. He helped pay his way through the University of Texas by working in a shoe store. He practiced law in Port Arthur and served 12 years in the State Senate. During World War II, he volunteered and served overseas. In 1946, he was elected Lieutenant Governor, then re-elected by the greatest number of votes ever given an opposed candidate in Texas.

Governor and Mrs. Shivers and their family of four children are known and loved throughout the State as representatives of the highest type of Christian citizenship. Governor Shivers is particularly well known for his leadership as a layman in church activities, finding time to teach the Men's Bible Class each Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church in Austin.

In all things, Allan Shivers, as Governor, has been and will continue to be a credit to Texas.

Candidates Are Made, Not Born

During campaign time it's hard to figure out how the American democracy has lasted as long as it has. Seems that most of the state and national candidates feel that they have to appeal to our greed and prejudices in order to be elected. And they are right, of course. We've all seen what happens to the occasional odd ones who run for office on logical, straight-from-the-shoulder talk. They rarely get anything more than a few token votes. Even the people who agree with them have the idea they will "lose" their votes if they cast them for such an obvious loser.

But fortunately most of the winning candidates are not really as bad as their campaign talk. Most of them do not actually use the powers of government to feed our greed as much as they talk like they will when campaigning. But some of them do, and every time one of them is elected, we lose a little more of our uncherished freedom before we get rid of him. And we rarely ever regain those freedoms. So it always worries me to listen to their campaign promises and threats. Am always afraid that we will select another one who means them.

Many voters get to feeling like, before the campaign ends, that there is no use voting when all the candidates are simply vying with each other as to which one will do the most thorough job of robbing the public treasuries to bribe the dubious blocs of voters. It just gets to looking like that no matter who wins, the people are bound to lose. But happily it isn't usually as bad as it sounds. If we just elect the one who shouts his hate and greed and prejudice a little less loudly than the others, we will usually be pleasantly surprised and find him a pretty good public servant—comparatively speaking.

And we shouldn't criticize the candidates for this sad state of affairs. Most of them don't campaign that way because they like it, you know. They do it because we make them. We write them out of the race completely if they don't make hypocrites of themselves.

It's the Law In Texas

Only in exceptionally important instances must contracts be entered into with any great degree of formality. In the usual case the simple requisites of a binding contract may be completed in the most informal manner.

Probably most of the contracts in force today are merely spoken agreements. Many contracts are created by informal letters written by persons to one another. Many are made over the telephone, as when you call up a store and they agree to deliver some goods your order. Much of the world's grain supply is bought and sold, in the first instance, merely by hand signals in the great Pit in Chicago.

If the contract is of importance, involving substantial sums of money or vital services, it is a good idea to reduce its terms to writing to minimize the possibilities of fraud and misunderstanding. Details of oral understandings are easily forgotten or misinterpreted, but written contracts endure unchanged. And, if a difference of opinion must be settled in court, a written agreement speaks for itself.

Certain kinds of contracts, such as those involving the sale of real estate or the lease of real estate for more than a year, will not be enforced in the courts unless written. In the same category are contracts wherein one person undertakes to stand good for the debt of another and those which are not to be performed within one year from the date on which the agreement is made.

In order to create a valid contract of any sort, each party involved must be legally competent to enter into the agreement. Each must be sane and of legal age. A contract entered into by a male or unmarried female under 21 is voidable at the option of the minor (but not at the option of the other party). A married woman is competent to contract if 18 or over, but she is subject to a number of contractual restrictions because of her marriage.

To be enforceable, a contract must be entered into freely by each party involved. Their consent must be genuine. Compulsion or coercion will make the agreement void. Mistake, misrepresentation or fraud may also serve to invalidate a contract.

Another requirement of a contract is that each party shall perform some part of it. Similarly, there must be some object or benefit to be gained by each party. In return for your work, your employer agrees to pay you certain sums of money. He gains the use of your services, while you are benefited by the wages or salary received.

Also, a contract must be entered into for a lawful purpose. You cannot enter into a binding contract to commit a crime or to evade the law. Thus, since gambling and wagers are prohibited by law, gambling debts cannot be collected by legal process. Nor will the courts enforce an agreement to pay interest in excess of the legal maximum provided by statute.

TALK BURNS HOME

6 States Represented In Musical Ensemble Tonight

Six different states are represented in the Bob Jones University Musical Ensemble, which will be heard at Littlefield Missionary Baptist church on Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Charles Smith, baritone and director of the group, is a native of Alabama; and Allee Christian, pianist and music director, is from New York. Martha Ann Lee, soprano soloist, Al Smith, first tenor, Robert Carlen, bass, and Richard Watson, second tenor, are from Mississippi, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire and New Jersey respectively.

In these six young people, the University presents an unusual ensemble, offering not only arrangements for the entire group but also solos, duets, trios, quartets, and instrumental arrangements as well. Included in the program are both well-known and seldom-heard sacred selections in novel arrangements.

During the summer months, the Musical Ensemble, which is one of four official Bob Jones University musical groups on tour, will be heard in churches and evangelistic meetings throughout the Southern states.

BOAT IS SCHOOL BUS

A boat is a school bus for the six school age children of the Peter Edfors family. They live on Bear Island in the Mississippi River. Each morning they are ferried across about 200 yards of the river.

Mrs. Edfors not only checks to see that the children are wearing their coats or jackets, but also that they are wearing their life preservers. When the river is frozen, they mount the boat on runners and their father or brother pushes it across.

Mrs. Eisenhower Plans First Home of Her Own

By RUTH COWAN
(AP Newsfeature)

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower is going to buy a house in Littlefield, Texas, and collect in the years of married life that she has now in storage. She hopes the plasterers will finish at the farm house in July so she can select colors and the painters can get on with their job in August. Then the crates of furniture and household belongings that she is selecting from the inventories will be sent to the house. They'll be unpacked there, and she'll see where this sofa and that chair should be — and which will need reupholstering and new slip covers.

The Eisenhowers have boxes and boxes of dishes, glassware and linens. They have a number of fine rugs, including an Oriental Eisenhower gave his wife last Christmas, but they'll probably have to buy chests and other pieces of furniture.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist church of Sudan with the pastor, Rev. Wayne O. Perry, officiating. Burial was in the Sudan cemetery under the direction of the Hammons Funeral Home of Littlefield.

Assisting in the rites were the Rev. H. F. Dunn of the Sudan Methodist church and David Desha, minister of the Sudan Church of Christ.

Markham was born in Farmersville in 1873. He moved to Sudan in 1935 after residing south of Lubbock since 1927.

Survivors include his widow; two daughters, Mrs. C. L. Fry of Leonard and Mrs. J. T. Henderson of Sudan; two sons, Reed Markham and O. C. Markham, both of Sudan; 13 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

ing a house into a home. One year during Eisenhower's Army career they moved seven times. Somewhat in self-defense she developed a liking for decorating.

Back in 1949 the Eisenhowers bought a 600-acre farm on the High Plains near Littlefield at Gettysburg, Pa., and now they are moving the old farm house remodeled.

While Congress is still in session they plan to spend as many weeks as possible at Camp David, probably retreat not far away from the Blue Ridge mountains, to enjoy the view and see for what the future is coming long.

Should Congress adjourn about August 15, as expected, the Eisenhowers will likely go to Denver, Colo., to visit the Eisenhower family home, and to Washington. That if Mrs. Eisenhower could have her way she would be back in Washington early in October, because by that time things at the house should be settling.

A PARTY CAN FIT BUDGET

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

PARTY SECRET: this dessert looks like a million and costs only 59 cents! Serves nine, too! How do you pull this magic out of your cook's hat? For one thing, evaporated milk is used and whipped to give a richness of texture. For another, gelatin captures the air beaten into the eggs and gives the dessert a melting, frothy texture.

A PRETTY CHECKERBOARD—Fluffy gelatin with chocolate.

There's a fine combination of flavors here, too. Popular crushed pineapple flavor is accented with fresh lemon juice. The gelatin introduces no flavor of its own, so the fresh fruit taste predominates.

No cooking is needed for this dessert. The unflavored gelatin is softened in the cold pineapple syrup and dissolved over boiling water. When the rest of the dessert ingredients are added, the mixture is chilled until firm.

And please note another new touch! Our molded pineapple squares are served with a topping of chocolate cookie crumbs rather than with whipped cream. Of course, if you needn't watch budget or calories, have a super-topping of chocolate cookies and cream!

PINEAPPLE SQUARES

Ingredients: 1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice (divided), 1 cup icy cold evaporated milk, 1/2 cup chocolate cookie crumbs, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine (melted).

Method: Drain pineapple. Soften gelatin in pineapple syrup. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add sugar and salt; stir until dissolved. Add crushed pineapple, lemon rind and 2 tablespoons of the lemon juice. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Beat evaporated milk and remaining 1 tablespoon lemon juice until stiff; fold in gelatin mixture. Line bottom of an 8 x 8 x 2 inch pan with waxed paper; turn in gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. Combine cookie crumbs and butter; toss lightly. To unmold, loosen dessert from sides of pan with tip of paring knife; invert on plate. Remove waxed paper; mark gelatin into 9 squares. Top alternate squares with crumbs. If desired, serve with additional cookie crumbs. Makes 9 servings.

Delicious Salad For Summer Season

A quick, easy and delicious salad can be made with crisp leaves of romaine with slices of chilled cooked beets and crisp cucumbers arranged on them. Serve with mayonnaise to which you have added a little lemon juice and a pinch of tarragon or basil.

Streiff Says Wet Cycle Is Beginning

Editor's Note: Two years ago Consulting Engineer Abraham Streiff, who has long been a student and authority on weather cycles, predicted in an Associated Press story that Texas would gradually enter into a "wet" cycle in 1954. He holds to that prediction today in the following story. Streiff has helped build dams over most of the world, including the lower Colorado River projects in Central Texas. He is now in New York surrounded, he says, "by the canyons of New York thinking of the people and wide open spaces of Texas I love so well."

By Abraham Streiff, Consulting Engineer

Written for the Associated Press

When Herodotus, visiting Egypt about 450 B. C., told the Egyptian priests that his own country, Greece, was watered only by rains from Heaven, such an existence appeared to be exceedingly precarious to them. "If God shall see fit to withhold the rain and afflict them with a long drought, the Greeks will be swept away," they thought. Life in Texas would have appeared to them just as risky. They did not know that the Nile itself came in the form of rain in the sky.

They believed that every year, at the summer solstice, the Goddess Isis, mourning her departed husband Osiris, shed a tear instantly the Nile swelled and overflowed for one month or days. Sometimes, however, the rise was insufficient, as we know from the seven lean years of Joseph's prediction. In the eleventh century there was such drought and famine in Egypt. The Arab author Maecrisi tells us they lasted 7 years from 1065 to 1071, that people were kidnapped, slaughtered and sold for food on the black market.

The great Lone Star State today is also subject to the vagaries of climate; but the rains have returned after a long period of drought as they always have done in the past. The old maps of the West had "The Great American Desert" written across the plains. The wagon tracks of the forty-niners across Goose Lake in Oregon became submerged by a rising lake level and stayed submerged for seventy years. They reappeared for the first time in 1920. The most prominent characteristic of the Texas climate is the periodic appearance of the dust bowl.

The future appearance of floods and droughts are contained in the cryptograms of the rainfall and stream flow records; with the proper code key they can be read from these records. Great Texas floods of the past are all too soon forgotten; riparian owners, unmindful of the past, encroach more and more on the floodway, and eventually suffer losses.

The great flood of 1869 in the Colorado River is vividly described in the Austin paper of July 10 of that year. At the Congress Avenue crossing the river was three quarters of a mile wide; after the flood Barton creek was visible from the crossing and a wide sand bar glistened in the distance "like a snow field". At other times the river had stopped Flowing, and dust from the Panhandle drew a veil of haze across the sky.

What about the immediate future? The record answers: Texas is assured of abundant moisture for the next twelve months. The range will be greener than it has been in the past ten years. Great floods are to come. We shall see water spilling over dams which not so long ago looked over empty reservoirs. Although the withdrawal of water turns a garden into a Less than two months away is the greatest Texas school football campaign, size considered, in history. And the Texas Intercollegiate League has had football for 35 years.

Eight hundred and ninety-four teams in the six classifications of the Texas Intercollegiate League will swing into practice in late August. This is four more than last year's record-shattering total.

The increase has come in the upper classes. AAAAA, the top class, will have 53 schools this season compared to 49 in 1953.

Class AA has the same number—58. Class AA has 184, a gain of 10. Class A has 213, an increase of 16. Class B is off 25 and Six-Man football has one less team.

Class AAAAA has four new schools—Hillcrest, up from Class AA, Brownsville, Freeport and Galena Park from class AAA, which dropped to Class AA, and Class AAA lost Gladwater, Brownsville, Freeport and Galena Park but picked up Levelland, Mt. Pleasant, Henderson and French (Beaumont) from Class AA.

First games are scheduled as early as Sept. 3, but the bulk of the schools start the campaign Sept. 17, with some waiting until Sept. 17.

There are new rules on starting this year. While previously classes AAAAA and AAA could begin fall practice Sept. 1, they now can start one week prior to the first Friday in September but can't play a game until the second week after beginning practice. Classes

AA, A, P and Six-Man start the second Monday prior to the first Friday in September but can't play a game until the second week after starting training.

Lamar (Houston), the class AA champion; Huntsville, the class AA king, and Ranger, the class A titlist, will find repeating a tough proposition. Port Neches, which won the Class AAA crown in 1953, is back with another title contender. In fact, Port Neches should be even stronger than it was last season. Actually, they hadn't expected 1953 to be the big year but had been looking toward 1954. Port Neches will definitely be the favorite and on the spot. The only team to beat Port Neches inside the district—Freeport—has moved out of the class. The Freeport game was forfeited to Port Neches because of ineligibility.

Class AAAAA should be a great campaign and at this writing Abilene appears to be the team to beat for the title. The Eagles will be favorites in one of the toughest districts in the State—a district accustomed to producing the State champion or runner-up, as was the case last year in Odessa.

North Dallas appears the class of North Texas. Tyler, Waco, Ray of Corpus Christi, Miller (Corpus Christi) and Baytown are other teams considered among the top contenders. Lamar and Reagan should be the powers of Houston but not up to championship standards in state competition.

Breckenridge, of course, will be tough again in class AAA along with Lufkin and Mt. Pleasant, making its debut in the higher classification with 17 lettermen.

In Class AA, Atlanta, Mexia, Stephenville, London and Gladewater are among the stronger teams and in Class A Lewisville, Rockwall, Cooper and ever-present Wink look very good.

Only four of the classes play through to State championships. Class B and Six-Man football decide regional titles only.

Salads for Hot Days

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

COOL SALADS keep cooks comfortable on hot days. They can be prepared in the morning, before the heat of the day gets most intense, and they'll look inviting and taste delectable when you serve them for lunch or supper.

A Cottage Cheese Ring with Fresh Vegetables makes a wonderful luncheon salad. The cheese is molded with unflavored gelatin and other good things. At noon, all you have to do is to turn out the molds on lettuce and add tomatoes, cucumbers and celery. Serve the salad with Melba toast and small slices of buttered salty rye bread if you want good flavor contrast.

Fruit plates look and taste gorgeous when you team orange sections with grapes, cherries, apples, bananas and peaches. But when you top the plates with a divine Cream Dressing—why, that's an even better story! This recipe for Cream Dressing calls for toasted slivered almonds; these wonderful crisp tidbits come in handy little cans nowadays. After you open the can, press the top back tightly, and keep the remaining nuts in the covered can in the refrigerator. They'll stay fresh indefinitely this way.

You'll notice both these recipes call for cottage cheese—that good provider of protein, vitamins and minerals. But there's another point in favor of cottage cheese—it's an economical way of supplying your family with these necessary nutrients.

In planning summer meals, don't forget how good seasoned cottage cheese is when it's used for stuffing tomatoes. Or how

COTTAGE CHEESE RING
Ingredients: 2 cups creamed cottage cheese, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ cup light cream, 2 tablespoons chives, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, ¼ cup cold water, lettuce, tomatoes, cucumber, celery.

Method: Mix cottage cheese, salt, sugar, lemon juice, cream and chives. Sprinkle gelatin over the water and let stand until softened. Place over boiling water until dissolved; stir into cheese mixture. Pour into 6 individual molds that have been rinsed with cold water. Chill until firm. Turn out on lettuce. Arrange tomato wedges, cucumber slices and celery on plate with mold. Makes 6 servings.

FRUIT PLATE WITH CREAM DRESSING
Ingredients: 1 cup creamed cottage cheese, ½ cup dairy sour cream or heavy sweet cream, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon almond extract, ¼ cup slivered toasted blanched almonds, fresh fruit, salad greens.

Method: Beat cheese until creamy. Stir in cream, lemon juice, sugar, salt, and almond extract. Arrange fruit on salad greens. Put dressing in gravy boat and sprinkle with almonds. Makes enough dressing for 6 fruit plates.

It's been many a year since a team was so highly favored to win the championship as is Texas in the coming Southwest conference football campaign. Texas tried, feebly perhaps, to get itself off the spot but gave up early. About all Texas can put over is the point that it certainly should not be rated No. 1 team in the country. Presence of Oklahoma and Notre Dame on its schedule took care of that. Oklahoma undoubtedly will have one of its greatest teams of all time. There is no such thing as rating Notre Dame down. One thing about it, however:

Texas is in the position to make itself national champion. Certainly if it beat Notre Dame and Oklahoma it could claim the whole thing. Extremely doubtful though is the assumption that Texas, even with its excellent material, can beat both of those teams. Playing Notre Dame might even knock the Longhorns out of the Southwest Conference championship. Teams that play the rough tough Irish seldom are the same afterward, win or lose.

But as far as the conference championship is concerned, Texas should be an overwhelming favorite. It has 23 lettermen; an adept quarterback to start the season, something it has been missing too often in the past, and in manpower is head and shoulders above the teams in the league. Despite the fact that there now is one platoon football, the more men you have the better off you are, provided your second team is about as good as the first. That's the way Texas looks.

Last year was one of the few times in the last decade that Texas hadn't been favored. Rice was the general pick and the Owls did quite all right except that they let Frank Eidom get loose on a desperation run in the last minutes and lost to a Southern Methodist team that had no business beating them. The result was that Texas, through Ed Price's finest coaching job, rode with its sophomores to a tie for the title.

This year those sophomores are juniors and Texas will put a team or teams entirely composed of juniors and seniors on the field. The only sophomore rated a chance of breaking into the starting lineup will be Ben Woodson of Brookwood, a big tackle, and his chances aren't too bright.

Daring Charley Brewer at quarterback, clutch running Delano Womack at halfback, a sound Billy Quinn back at halfback or fullback and a massive and mobile line make Texas awesome; these days as you look over the other team's prospects, Rice, with Dicky Moegle, hero of the Cotton, backquarterbacking and line, is the general pick up second, but it doesn't have to be figured strongly in placed observations. The finest freshman conference last fall dozen of those boys of stepping into the without loss of makes no bones. He thinks Doyle Taylor passer-quarterback is going to be quite there are Bobby Sauge and Ed Shivers work with veteran and Allen Jones could be one of the backfields.

"Men of the Fighting Lady" Tells Story Of Navy's Jet Pilots Over Korea

The rescue of a temporarily blinded U. S. Navy jet pilot, who is "talked down" into a perilous but successful carrier-deck landing by an air mate, is unfolded on the Palace screen with tremendous dramatic impact in "Men of the Fighting Lady," an M-G-M picture starring Van Johnson, Walter Pidgeon, Louis Calhern, Dewey Martin, Keenan Wynn and Frank Lovejoy.

Inspired by Navy flier Commander Harry A. Burns' story, "Case of the Blind Pilot," and James A. Michener's widely-read magazine story, "Forgotten Heroes of Korea," the M-G-M Anso Color photoplay combines striking realism, emotional tension and gripping suspense in its psychological study of jet heroes who risked their lives in phenomenal low-level raids over Korea, climaxed by the blinded pilot episode.

Van Johnson enacts Lt. Howard Thayer, the flier who comes to the aid of Ensign Kenneth Schechter (Dewey Martin) when the latter is wounded by a shell fragment on a Christmas Day mission and finds himself unable to see. The manner in which he guides the helpless Schechter, by pleading, cajolery and sometimes an almost hypnotic command, back to the carrier and "talks down" the blinded ensign, makes for a gripping and thrilling an incident as has been seen on the screen in a long time.

But there are other hard-hitting performances, as well. Frank Lovejoy is impressive as Lt. Commander Paul Grayson, the tough, courageous squadron leader whose "follow-me" orders lead to almost suicide low-level attacks on the enemy. Keenan Wynn gives one of his finest portrayals in the role of Ted Dodson, a veteran of World War II, who is embittered at having to serve in the present conflict but who, nevertheless, sacrifices his life in an attempt to locate a missing comrade. Walter Pidgeon plays the sympathetic and understanding flight surgeon, Commander Kent Dowling, and Louis Calhern is excellent as the writer, James A. Michener, who has come aboard a U. S. carrier off Korea to gather material about Navy pilots.

Farmers, Business Men Attend C of C Farm Dinner

Dr. Glenn Burk served as master of ceremonies at the second Farm Dinner sponsored in neighboring communities by the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce. The dinner was served by the Lains Chapel home demonstration club at the Whitharral school Thursday night.

A menu including roast beef and home-made pies and cakes was served to about 50 farmers and business men.

The monthly dinners are sponsored annually during the summer by the Chamber of Commerce to promote good will between local business men and residents of the surrounding communities.

To the Voters of Precinct Three:

I would like to again ask you for your vote on July 24th.

I have lived in Lamb County most of my life, was associated in the mercantile and grocery business for many years with my parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jeffries. Since 1946 I have operated the Jeffries Auto Service.

I am seeking my first public office and I feel that the office of county commissioner is one of the most important offices in the county. I will feel it my duty to carry on the county's work in the most efficient and economical way for the good of the precinct and of the county as a whole.

Would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the encouragement you have given me and for each word spoken in my behalf.

Thank you.

A Man's Touch in the Kitchen

By VIVIAN BROWN

WHEN man stepped over the threshold of the kitchen it was a great day for women. The male is not tolerant of the shortcomings of mechanical appliances. He strives for efficiency. New kitchen gimmicks reflect the ingenuity of modern man. Some have been put to practical use and are on the market, others are on the "futures" list. A toaster that pops out of a stove is still in the "dream stage" but many a woman has muttered "why didn't somebody think of that before." And an insulated cupboard is shown as the refrigerator-freezer of the future.

You'll find revolving shelves in other refrigerators, pastel colored exteriors, some that may be covered in fabric, ice cube makers that replenish automatically, a refrigerator door that opens from either side.

There are duo clothes washers and dryers, one with a knee latch. Ranges include plug-in surface griddle and broilers, rotisseries and corn poppers as new features.

Small kitchen aids include coffee savers, tea makers, potato cutters, garlic pressers, rice flufflers, electric chafing dishes. Kitchen storage cabinets have built-in mixer grinders, slots for trays and a multitude of other handy items.

HEALTH HORIZONS

Getting Your Child To Sleep

What do you do when your youngster raises a fuss about going to bed? If you've "tried everything," and it's still a nightly ordeal, perhaps some suggestions from Dr. Morris Witkin of Edinburgh can help solve your problem.

First of all, it is "rubbish" to discuss your child's "sleep problems" in front of him. "Every child loves the limelight and nothing puts him into prominence more than when he is the chief topic of conversation." Instead, you "must pretend that his disturbing conduct is a matter of no importance." In other words, if you don't make a fuss, your child may quickly reach the conclusion that it's not worth the effort for him to fuss.

Firmness Plus Affection

If the simple "ignoring treatment" doesn't work, you will have to be more positive. "At bedtime the child is given a severe talking-to with strong emphasis that this bullying must cease forthwith. He is told . . . that this is the final warning and all further tomfoolery from him will be ignored and treated with contempt." This talk should not be angry but it must be firm. At the same time, you must make your child feel that "affection for him is in no way disturbed." Children often act "naughty" when they really want reassurance of your love. According to Dr. Witkin, "This serious talk works almost immediately in most cases—even from as early an age as 6 months. Once the child realizes the futility of resistance the battle is won." But you must be convincing, and stick to your word.

Award Building Contract To Willson-Crump

Willson-Crump Lumber company of Littlefield has been given the contract for the elementary school building to be constructed at Cotton Center. The local lumber company's bid of $100,000 was the lowest of eight bidders July 15. Alfred Ebling is chairman of the Cotton Center school building. Herbert Brasher and the firm of Lubbock were architects of the building.

Plans call for a two-story type of building of masonry construction. Construction will begin next week and is expected to be completed in 180 days.
