Checks Taken In Burglary At Coke Plant

Burglars hit the Littlefield Coca-Cola Bottling Plant some-time Saturday night, taking three checks totalling $55.30. Manager John Alford reported the break-in to police after it was discovered Sunday. Police said entry was gained by breaking the glass from a window at the rear of the plant. The intruders crawled through the window, then broke the glass in an office door to unlock the door, officers said. Inside the office, the burglars went through a desk and several boxes. Two checks on the Muleshoe State Bank, for $36 and $18.30, and another on the Whiteface bank, for $1.00, were missing. The intruders also went through trucks which were parked at the south side of the building.

It's 'Breakin' Down' Heavily Laden Peach Tree Keeps Jess Williams Busy

A heavily laden peach tree is keeping Jess Williams, 64-year-old Littlefield carpenter, on the go these days. "The darn thing's got so many peaches on it, it's breakin' down," Williams says. Williams, a white-haired gentleman who's lived here since 1928, has had to use all his skill to make the tree stand up. He's got boards under almost every limb, tracing the limbs against the weight of the peaches. He also has about 100 feet of rope strung through the tree, helping to hold the limbs up. "The limbs may break off, anyway," Williams says, "but I'm doing everything I can to keep it together." Peaches are just one of Williams' hobbies. He's got about a half-acre at 149 Austin Ave. in an orchard and garden. There are 21 different kinds of fruits and vegetables on his place. Williams is a firm believer in the idea that "anything will grow in this country if you put the water to it."

Williams pretty well backs up his words about being able to grow anything in this area. He's got a couple of Sapa plum trees which yielded three bushels. Strung out through his orchard are some good-looking tomato plants. He also has cherries, wild plums, currants, grapes, apricots, beans, peas, okra, blackberries, peaches and an English walnut tree, among other things. One of his plum trees has him stumped.

Ell's Tittle, 57-year-old Littlefield carpenter, was hospitalized Monday morning after a collision at the intersection of Highways 51 and 54. An attendant at Littlefield Hospital said Tittle suffered a neck injury, lacerations and bruises. His condition Tuesday was improved. Officers who investigated the mishap said Tittle was driving west on Highway 54 when his car was in collision with an auto driven by Catarino C. Lozano of Sudan, who was traveling south on 51. Lozano was unhurt.

Vote Canvassed The Democratic Executive Committee, head by Pat Boone Sr., met Tuesday and canvassed returns in Saturday's primary. County Convention Next On Political Scene Here

Moreland, Pass Face Run-Off

Lamb County's political front cooled off this week as officials wrapped up details in the First Democratic Primary and began making preparations for the county Democratic convention and the second primary. Out of balloting which saw about 3,800 voters go to the polls Saturday came only one county run-off election. It's between Mrs. Bill Pass, the incumbent county treasurer, and Mrs. Lucy Moreland, Amherst city secretary.

Absentee Voting Opens Absentee voting in the second primary, which is set for Aug. 23, will start Monday and end Aug. 19. The county convention is scheduled here Saturday at 2 p.m. in the District Courtroom.

Delegates to the convention were elected last Saturday in precinct conventions over the county. Conservative forces are expected to rule the convention, although at least three precincts passed liberal-DOT-sponsored resolutions.

Precincts 5, Sudan; 7, North Sudan and 2, Earth will send delegates favoring the liberal view. Conservative Support The county's largest precinct, number 12 in Littlefield, passed a conservative-sponsored resolution, and apparently will have some support at the convention from Olton, second largest precinct in the county.

Others considered on the conservative side are Springlake and North Littlefield. Many of the smaller precincts passed no resolutions Saturday, and there was no indication as to how they might vote.

The Democratic Executive Committee, head by Pat Boone Sr., met Tuesday and canvassed returns in Saturday's primary. The committee reported only a few minor changes in the way the vote was reported Saturday night. It was also learned that write-in candidate Dave Black had beaten Justice of the Peace C. G. Winner Still Doesn't Know

Write-In Vote Beats JP

Folks in Lamb County may be surprised to learn that a write-in candidate upset incumbent Justice of the Peace C. G. Sturgis in voting at Amherst Saturday.

But the write-in candidate, Dave Black, 75-year-old retired real estate man and farmer, may be more surprised than anyone. Black is vacationing in Colorado and has been for several weeks. Relatives at Amherst say he doesn't know about his write-in victory. Final official returns in Lamb County showed this week that Black received 185 write-in votes. Sturgis, the only man on the ballot, got 24 votes in the precinct 8 election. Returns of the race went unreported Saturday night. County Clerk Charles Jones said he and his staff, snowed under with election returns, forgot to tell any news representatives about it.

Newsmen representing area papers and radio, in turn, didn't ask about such a possibility. Sturgis, the defeated incumbent, didn't know about any opposition himself until some time after the polls had closed. A friend came to him and told him, "You sure got it poured on you, didn't you?" Sturgis, a cafe owner, said Wednesday the defeat was "o.k. with me. It's a matter of complete indifference with me," he said.

The race apparently was a planned campaign against Sturgis, who some residents said had imposed some "pretty heavy fines."

However, Black apparently didn't know a thing about it, since he's been gone most of the summer. County Clerk Jones, who's Black's nephew, said he didn't know whether his uncle would even want the job or not.

Meeting Set Tonight On Vegetable Research

A proposed vegetable research program for the Texas High Plains will be discussed at a meeting of the Texas Hi-Plains Vegetable Growers Council and the Extension Service here tonight. The meeting, designed to gain support for a legislative appropriation for the program, is open to area growers and others connected with the industry.

The session will be held in the district courtroom at the Lamb County court house at 8 p.m. The proposal for a vegetable research program has been made by the Council in a request to the Lubbock Experiment Station and Texas Tech. Extension Service officials have told the Council they will cooperate with the Council, but that they will need a legislative appropriation of $25,000 annually to fill the request.

Tonight's program includes: 1. A report on the objective of the Council by K. E. Probasco, president. 2. The proposed research program. A talk by C. E. Fisher of the Lubbock Experiment Station. 3. A talk by Joe Cole, vegetable specialist of Lubbock, on the past and future role of the Extension Service in the research program.

The Hi-Plains Vegetable Growers Council represents growers in Hale, Floyd, Lamb, Lubbock, Swisher, Bailey, Crosby, Cochran, Castro, Farmer, Deaf Smith, Dawson, Gaines, Lynn, Yoakum, Terry and Hockley counties and adjacent counties in the Rolling Plains.

The Council says the justification for a vegetable research program lies in the fact that vegetable production on the South Plains has expanded from less than 6,000 acres in 1849 to more than 53,000 acres in 1958. Estimated income from the 1958 crop with normal prices and yields will be approximately $36,000,000, the Council says. (Continued on Page Seven)

Public Hearing Aug. 11 On Proposed School Budget

A public hearing on the Littlefield School District's proposed 1958-59 budget has been set for Aug. 11 at 7:30 p.m. Superintendent of Schools Ralph Schilling announced this week. The hearing is scheduled at a regular meeting of the school board in School Secretary Sid Hopping's office. Final approval of the budget is expected at the meeting.

Dr. Schilling reported that the school district will spend about $607,630 for 1957-58. The proposed budget for 1958-59 included expenditures of $534,655.

The higher spending in the 1957-58 was due to the purchase of 15 new school buses at a cost of $80,000, relocation of Wildeat Football Stadium at a cost of about $10,000 and a new roof for the junior high school at a cost of about $3,000, Dr. Schilling said.

Included in the 1958-59 proposed budget is a $83 per year increase for all teachers, Dr. Schilling said. The overall cost of the teacher pay increase is about $4,000. The 1958-59 budget is based upon a $1.40 tax rate—same as this year—and a 90 per cent collection, Dr. Schilling said.

Ten-Year-Old Tractor Driver In Accident

Ten-year-old Mike Stubblefield, who can handle a tractor as well as most grown-ups, wound up in an accident Monday morning. But he and his dad's tractor got out without any damage.

Mike, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stubblefield of Spade, was driving the tractor south on Farm Road 304 about 1/4 of a mile south of Spade. A car driven by Douglas F. Owens of Olton started to pass the tractor, saw a truck coming over a hill, and started back into the right-hand lane. In doing so, Owens pulled back into the rear of the tractor, investigating officers said.

Owens, who also was unhurt, had $125 damage to his car. Says Littlefield's Master Planner...

Udo at this time was attending summer school at Texas Tech where he is a junior in the school of electrical engineering.

Mrs. Jones observed classes in two schools, since the schools in much of Europe do not end until the middle of July. One afternoon she conducted a high school homemaking class in Berchtesgaden and demonstrated to the girls how our students to sew.

The experiment was successful because the German had studied English for the girls were very interested greetings and a letter their handwork back to making students in Littlefield.

The special interest was attending Rotary meetings all along on the attended meetings at gaden, Wurzburg, Berlin, Brussels, and London.

En route home Mr. Jones spent several days at the World's Fair and reported was a marvelous show. Fair and report that of visitors seemed to be it too.

... for the leading number of votes, which I received in the first Primary Election last Saturday for the office of County Treasurer, I want to thank the voters of Lamb County and ask for your continued support in the second Primary, which will be held Saturday, August 23rd.

Due to the fact that there will be only two races on the ballot this time, I realize the possibility of a much lighter vote, but realizing also that it is as important to me as if all the names which appeared on the first ballot were on this one, I earnestly ask my friends to give me a few minutes of your time Saturday, August 23rd, and go to the polls and give me your support.

Again, may I thank you for your help in the first Primary and solicit your continued support in the second.

Sincerely,

Guarding Freedom

Lesson for August 3, 1958

AN OLD prisoner named John came into the warden's office at the penitentiary. "Why don't you ask for a parole?" asked the warden, for this was a model prisoner. John said he was not interested. All his people were dead by that time, and most of his friends. No job could be had on the outside. John had no use for a freedom that meant no more than the privilege of starving to death.

Dr. Foreman

Freedom that is nothing but taking off the chains, opening a gate, freedom that is only never hearing the words "You must,"—without ever feeling "I can," this is freedom nobody wants.

Freedom is Basic
 This should be particularly interesting to Christians; for freedom is at the very center of the Christian life. Christ has set us free for freedom. Paul writes, But Christian freedom does not mean that we can now do whatever we like. Freedom does not mean we are never under orders. It does not mean we should never accept any man's authority. It does not mean that we shall run around, each man working out his own little rebellion. A Christian can take orders from other people, and if he is in a subordinate position (as most of us are to somebody), it is usually his Christian duty to take orders and to carry them out as best he can.

Christian freedom means that whatever other authorities have the right to tell us what to do and what not to do, our topmost authority is God. Christian freedom means that we have no right to consent to, or to obey any brand or sort of tyrant or dictator who sets himself up as final judge and controller of other men. Christian freedom means that when a man, or men, ask us or order us to do what we know is contrary to the will of God, we have to say as Peter and John did to the police court in Jerusalem, we must obey God rather than men.

The Price of Liberty
 "Eternal vigilance," our revolutionary ancestors said, "is the price of liberty." That is to say, freedom always has to be guarded. Let us give a thought to two enemies of Christian freedom, one outside us, one inside.

One is the state or the community around us. This turns out to be an enemy of freedom when a Christian is discouraged or prevented from speaking out in any way which might seem to criticize the community or the state. That was what got Amos into trouble. The chief priest warned him not to preach any more there in Bethel: "It is the temple of the kingdom," he said. In other words, the church belonged to the king and the king could not be criticized, much less condemned. The Lord had commanded him to speak, not the king; and he insisted on being heard. So in our time there are people in politics and out who say that ministers have no business criticizing the government, or the "American way of life." True ministers know their call is from God, not the government, not any other organization whatever. In Atlanta, Georgia, a group of ministers put out a statement condemning segregation as practiced there. If they had thought of the state, or the public in general, as their authority, they never would have dared open their mouths.

Threat From Within
 More subtle than attack from without, is the attack on freedom from within. There are in our country far more persons who are slaves to their own sins than persons who are slaves (in body or mind) to the state. Christian freedom is a precious thing, because freedom is what makes the difference between ourselves and the lower animals. If a man lets himself drift into sin far enough, he reaches a point of no return, like a man in a rowboat floating down toward Niagara Falls. When a man forges his own chains, he may even admire the chains as his own handiwork. But a man who cannot and dare not say NO to himself has failed to guard his freedom against his worst enemy—himself.

GOING UP?

Whether you think you are on the way up in life or fear that you may be on the way down, one thing is certain, you need an inner quality which only God can give. No one but the God who made us for Himself can give us hope and confidence about life which nothing can defeat. It is He who ordains both life and death. Everything which is came from His hand. If we trust in Him no mere earthly defeat can shake our confidence that life is good. He is the God proclaimed by the Church. Go there and meet Him.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
 THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

Is something wrong with your life— an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure. Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

Yields Reported On TRF Tests Of Wheat Varieties

Seven varieties of wheat were tested for yield at the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation at their experimental farm at Hallway during the past season.

varied from 44 to 50 inches. Ten Marq was lowest of the seven in yield with 30 bushels, lodging moderate and the rust was moderate to heavy, the plant heights were 46 to 50 inches.

The yield results released by Douglas Owen, assistant agronomist, showed the following:

- Early Triumph had yield of 35 bushels per acre, with slight lodging and rust, the plant heights ranged from 48 to 52 inches.
- Commanche yielded 30 bushels, also with slight lodging and rust, plant heights were 44 to 48 inches.
- Crockett wheat yield was 38 bushels with slight lodging and rust, plant heights were 44 to 48 inches.
- Early Wichita produced 37 bushels per acre but had moderate lodging and heavy rust. The plant height varied from 40 to 45 inches.
- Concho wheat yield was 33 bushels per acre with heavy lodging and moderate rust. Plant heights registered 44 to 55 inches.
- Westar variety produced 32 bushels per acre with moderate lodging and rust. Plant heights varied from 44 to 50 inches. These wheat tests were planted Dec. 4, 1957 and harvested June 21, 1958. Each variety was planted in plots 9.5 feet wide by 100 ft. long, with each treatment replicated four times. Yields were computed from harvesting a 5.5 foot strip from the center of each plot.

Selective Service System In State Will Be 10 Years Old On Saturday

AUSTIN—The state's 137 draft boards and state Selective Service headquarters will be 10 years old Saturday, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, reminded Texans Friday.

More than two years ago, Selective Service boards were given another big task, administration of standby reserve availability for the armed forces. Since that time, Texas local boards have set up files on nearly 51,000 Standby reservists.

"They defer students, help channel men into fields vital to the nation, and help insure strength of the ready reserve. These boards reflect the complexities of our modern civilization.

The present Selective Service act was signed into law by President Truman on June 24, 1948. But the state Selective Service administration did not come into being until July 26, 1948.

Colonel Schwartz estimates that only 5 to 10 per cent of the time of local boards are spent in actually sending men to the armed forces.

"Selective Service as it now exists is not an experiment. It couldn't exist as long as it has without support of the people. They will continue to support it as long as they have confidence in its fairness.

General K. L. Berry, state adjutant general, took the oath of office as state director of Selective Service. Local boards went into operation at that time.

"They spend a lot more time registering men," he said. "And still more in classifying them. During the 10 years this law has been in effect, Texas local boards have taken about 2,500,000 classification actions.

"They will have confidence only to the extent they themselves operate it. Citizens of every county serve on these boards without pay and make the decisions, subject to appeal."

About Your HEALTH

Many Texans like to spend their vacation time with an extended trip to far away places.

There are several health risks in travel to strange places, but knowledge teamed with common sense can make your trip both safe and pleasant, provided you take the trouble to follow a few simple rules.

Immunization requirements for foreign travel vary from country to country and should be determined in advance so that you have ample time to receive the proper immunizations.

By all means, you should be protected against typhoid, small-pox and polio. Your family doctor, local director of health or the State Department of Health can advise you on these recommendations.

While it is probably safe to drink water in the big tourist hotels and the big cities everywhere, the traveler who gets off the beaten path should, in most areas, be careful!

The only safe water should be filtered and treated in an approved manner and approved by the local health department.

Coffee and tea are not necessarily safe because of boiling, and carbonated or noncarbonated soft drinks from unfamiliar sources should be avoided. And don't forget that ice cubes from polluted water can contaminate any drink.

Unless you are sure that the local milk is absolutely safe, and that the custards, ice cream, etc., are made from safe milk, you had better steer clear of them.

There is no rule that cooked food is safe food, but you should be especially careful of uncooked foods: refrigeration standards may be poor and, especially in sub-tropical climes, food will spoil quickly. Many local farming habits bring sewage into close contact with vegetables, so eat only fresh vegetables and fruits that you are sure of.

Bathing in salt water is usually safe unless the water is grossly contaminated with sewage. Water infested with dangerous fish-sharks, barracuda, piranha—should of course be avoided.

In some places of the world, blood worms or flukes are prevalent and bathing in fresh water pools or rivers may be dangerous, so seek local advice.

Also, walking barefoot in southern climes where hookworm is prevalent should be avoided.

Airmail post cards will be five cents and air mail letters will require a seven-cent stamp. Second class mail is scheduled to have its rate increased in three annual jumps with the first being effective January 1, 1959.

Newspapers, magazines and all other advertising matters will get a boost January 1.

Wood Keeps Its Vital As Home Building Material

In an era when science is constantly coming up with new "miracle materials," why is nature's oldest building product, wood, still vital in home construction?

Here are a few of the most important reasons:
 1. Beauty. The texture, grain, and color of wood can't be duplicated in the laboratory. These qualities help give the home the warmth and richness of appearance it should have.

2. Warm to the touch. In windows of ponderosa pine, for example, the inside of the sash and frame stay warm, even in the coldest weather. This keeps moisture from collecting and running down to damage interior paint and wallpaper.

3. Decoration. Wood can be painted, enameled, stained, or given a clear, natural finish. This is important rating, inside and out. 4. Low labor cost of ponderosa pine in units with fast fitted together. The unit is simple opening, armor. 5. Long life. As long as any other of a structure. V and doors of ponderosa scientifically treat preservatives to strength natural resistance. 6. Variety of windows and packages available in stock material dealers' styles and sizes. 7. Versatility. Ability of wood is able to manufacture doors, and panel doors of ponderosa any architectural

Medicine --- American Style

In the Soviet Union medicine is socialized, as is everything else of any consequence. Recent information indicates that the Russians have been making significant progress in increasing the life span, and in certain other health fields.

However, we would be making a grave mistake if we assumed that the progress is due to socialization. Speaking editorially, the New York Times observes: "The sharp decline in mortality that Russia's current statistics show is in part the result of the relatively youthful composition of the population as compared with earlier periods. Soviet medical care, of course, is not 'free', but simply paid for through tax revenues. Moreover, Soviet sources acknowledge that many of their citizens prefer to consult that doctors privately aware that those doctors will spend more time with and be more thorough in working with a patient who is paying a fee than they can be in the ten minutes allocated each patient visiting a state clinic. The Soviet medical system has improved during the past forty years, but we may doubt that it comes anywhere near the standard to which our people have become accustomed."

The Times' point applies to the other countries in which socialized medicine prevails, England included. In every case, doctors are overworked and are unable to give the proper amount of attention to those in real need. Time and opportunity for experiment in the all-important field of preventive medicine have been sadly reduced. And the cost to the state—which means the taxpayers—is enormous.

"Free medicine", American style, through voluntary health insurance programs, has been of greater service to more people than any authoritarian system ever devised.

HERE'S HOW . . .

MAKE A BATHTUB TRAY

A tray that can slide into convenient position may serve as a surface for bath salts or bath oil or as a bookrest.
Cut all pieces to the lengths shown in the drawing. Insert the 1/4-inch dowels 1/2 inch into the bookrest and allow 1/2 inch to extend to fit into the sides. Glue the dowel into the bookrest. Mark the position of corresponding holes in the two side pieces, and bore the two 1/2-inch deep.
Assemble the sides and the bookrest, as a unit, to the base, using glue and 6-penny finishing nails, or No. 9 flat-head wood screws, 1 1/2 inches long. Then add the back and side supports using nails and glue or screws.

A mirror may be attached to the underside of the bookrest, if desired.
Sand the completed tray, and round all sharp edges. Finish with enamel to harmonize with the bathroom tile.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex.—During much of the last century Texas was called the great land frontier. Word got around. From older regions came the restless, the ambitious, the hopeful who'd heard there was plenty of room in Texas.

Today, the sod huts and free land are gone from Texas. But the frontier is regarded by economists as greater than ever—rich and promising beyond Moses Austin's boldest dreams. A recent survey by a national magazine (U.S. News & World Report) described Texas as destined to become "the new powerhouse of the United States. . . an industrial empire . . . built on a storehouse of priceless natural resources."

Sounds wonderful. But Texas leaders, in both government and industry, have taken the position that favorable circumstances alone will not convert frontier to empire. Other states are angling, too, for energetic men with capital and know-how to start new factories humming.

And most states are not hampered, as Texas is, by a constitutional provision prohibiting use of tax money to advertise the state's advantages.

Despite this hindrance, the last Legislature, at Gov. Price Daniel's request, reactivated the Texas Industrial Commission to start the ball rolling. E. B. Germany of Dallas is Commission chairman.

In operation only four months, with a piggy bank budget of voluntary donations, the Commission is, nevertheless, making itself felt.

Its showpiece is a 68-page, two-color brochure called "A Plan of Action to Win New Industry for Your Community." This do-it-yourself manual was mailed to every Chamber of Commerce, mayor, county judge, industrial foundation and legislator in Texas.

Letters of commendation and requests for extra copies have "poured in," according to Bob Bray, member of the governor's staff assigned to the Commission. Said a letter from the Huntsville and Walker County C of C, "Never have I seen any publication so full of excellent guidance material for communities. . . . With the letter came a contribution to carry on the Commission's work."

Next big goal is passage in November of a constitutional amendment to remove the legal shackles on financing. "Failure of the amendment," said Bray, "will handcuff the Commission. Our big job now is selling Texans on the need to sell Texas, both industry-wise and tourist-wise."

With funds and staff, the Commission will be ready to go ahead on an extensive effort — already mapped out — for research, information, advertisements, films, aid to local organizations, etc.

"Thanks Folks"

. . . for the fine support you gave me at the polls last Saturday.

Thanks for the good words of encouragement.

... AND, I CERTAINLY HOPE YOU CONTINUE TO SUPPORT ME WITH YOUR VOTE IN THE RUN-OFF ELECTION AUG. 23

FOR LAMB COUNTY TREASURER

MRS. LUCY MORELAND

the total—or 66 out of Texas' approximately 1,800 school districts.
NEW ROADS AHEAD—Better driving days are seen ahead as the State Highway Department unveiled its plans for 1959-60 interstate highway building.
A $260,000,000 program has been authorized to add 567 miles of controlled-access highways to Texas' portion of the national network.
Of this, $210,495,300 is earmarked for construction, $16,272,100 for right-of-way buying and an additional $33,222,500 for advance right-of-way buying.
Eventually, Texas is to have 3,033 miles of the interstate system within its borders.

FRESH START—National Bankers Life Ins. Co. of Dallas may continue in business, but without the control of its founder and majority stockholder, Pierce Brooks.
This was the effect of a ruling by State Insurance Commissioner William A. Harrison after a three-day hearing on NABLICO's affairs. State officials conceded the solvency of the company, but objected to certain investments and management practices.

Result: Brooks' controlling interest has been signed over to a trustee. Brooks has said he will sell the stock as soon as the transaction can be arranged.
STILL NEED A JURY—Before going into summer recess until Oct. 1, Texas Supreme Court knocked down a portion of the state's new mental health code.

It declared unconstitutional the part which denies a jury trial to a mental patient seeking to have a court declare he is sane again.
Big court also closed the door to any further consideration as to whether price advertising of eyeglasses is legal. In a ruling last month the court held that a new state law does not bar optometrists from advertising prices as long as the ads are not fraudulent or misleading. It's definite now that optometrists can advertise and quote prices in their ads.

SHORT SNORTS—Any truck operating for hire between two cities even if it never gets outside the cities, needs a permit from the Railroad Commission, according to an Attorney General's ruling. Opinion applied specifically to trucks on the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike, never actually "out of the city." . . . A bit of Texas will go to England in the form of a plaque to be placed on the building in London which served as the Texas legation to the Court of St. James during the years of the Republic (1836-45).

Twenty-five billion postage stamps are used and sold in the United States each year.

Lipstick Logic

Primary elections bring to mind the story of a Chicago woman who fainted dead away when her husband telephoned he had just been elected to the Board of Trustees in their suburb. He heard the thump, dispatched an ambulance to the scene to revive her. It was the excitement that did her in.

The wife of a politico does have her troubles. First off, she begins to make news with every movement. What should have been a quiet little plip that flattered her husband's vanity, for this day's lady became embarrassing public notice that she was mighty ambitious right in her own neighborhood. It's the kind of irony that amuses: "What if he'd been elected governor. He'd be a widower!"

Some women blossom in the limelight of publicity. Like the indolent bear, they're "just right" for marrying politicians. They love name-dropping, name-remembering, and life in a goldfish bowl. But the stay-at-home woman, who makes a first rate wife for business man, lawyer or teacher, may grow silent and bitter in the artificial atmosphere of flash bulbs and vote-getting.

As July election returns come in, many a woman had to bolster a defeated spouse's wounded ego, while secretly giving thanks that their easy-going life wouldn't change for the worse. Many concealed personal regret to appear enthusiastic over a spouse's victory.

We say the politician's wife has it rough either way. If she's good at helping her spouse get ahead, folks say his position has gone to her head. If she's sincerely bored with speaking and handshaking, no amount of good intention can disguise her boredom. A successful wife, like a chameleon, must take on the protective coloration of her husband's job, whether or not it fits her personality. Makes us wonder why there aren't more divorcees, maybe?

To the people of Precinct No. 4 of Bailey County: I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the people of Precinct No. 4 for their support, encouragement and hospitality throughout the campaign of my candidacy for Commissioner. I have no ill feelings against anyone and want to continue to be your friend in the future as I have been in the past. If I can be of any service to you at anytime or any way, please feel free to call on me.

Sincerely,
JOHN HUBBARD

Sandhills Philosopher Philosopher Talks About Situation In Middle East

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson farm has found out about the Middle East situation, without finding out the solution, which puts him abreast of most of us.

Dear editor: Me and a bunch of my neighbors were out here talking about the crops I don't have much to talk about I changed the subject and asked them what they thought of the Middle East situation. A man ought to do what he can to be comfortable.

One of them spoke up and said he didn't know enough about it to say anything. This strikes me as ignorant. If people who know what the facts are in the Middle East talked about the place, there wouldn't be anything said. Couldn't even get in most newspapers.

I don't think the people in Washington, London, Paris, Moscow or the Middle East itself are any better than the rest of us, and I'll talk about the place whenever I get ready. If people waited till they had the facts to talk, 95 per cent of the conversation in this world would be eliminated. However, talking about the Middle East is no sign you have the solution for it, as me and Washington are well aware, and I would like to say quickly that I don't want the world looking to me for an answer. A man who can't solve the problems of his own farm is in no shape to solve any problems in the Middle East, the Far East, the Near East, or any other point on the compass. As a matter of fact, I can't even read a compass.

It's not that I'm ignorant. I know what the facts are in the Middle East, the Far East, the Near East, or any other point on the compass. As a matter of fact, I can't even read a compass.

Tsk, tsk! Too bad he hasn't checked up on car prices lately. He'd find that Ford is the lowest priced* of the best-selling three!

"WHEN THEY INVENT A CAR THAT DOESN'T NEED GAS!"
Gracious! The gentleman obviously hasn't heard about Ford's Mile Maker Six—the modern short-stroke Six that delivered the most miles per gallon in Class A in the last two Mobilgas Economy R

"WHEN THE OLD CAR'S HAD IT!"
But it has . . . and so has his budget. If he could only have back all the money he's been paying out (and is going to pay out) in repair bills . . . he could be the proud owner of a 58 Ford!

"WHEN MY PRESENT CAR IS WORTH MORE!"
Poor man. He's not only missing out on summer driving in a Thunderbird-inspired Ford . . . he's missing out on money! Doesn't he know that his present car will NEVER be worth more in trade than right NOW!

"WHEN FORD DEALERS ARE GIVING THE YEAR'S BEST DEALS DURING FORD'S SUMMER TRADING PICNIC!"
Smart fellow! He's buying NOW while Ford Dealers are holding their Summer Trading Picnic and giving the longest deals and the highest trades ever . . . and while the selection of models and colors is best. What's more, he'll find that Ford is the lowest priced* of the best-selling three! Why not join him at your Ford Dealer!

"50% OF A SPORTSMAN'S WORRIES ARE OVER IF HE HAS A FREEZER TO PRESERVE HIS CATCHES!"

SAYS Mr. Lee Pool, 924 WEST FIRST STREET, MULESHOE, TEXAS

What better "insurance" for a good catch than a home freezer, as Mr. Pool, a partner in an insurance firm, testifies. Says sportsman Pool, "When I get home with fish or game, regardless of the hour, I can immediately put the catch in my freezer and preserve its fine quality. One of my great joys in hunting and fishing is sharing of the fish I catch and the game I shoot, all year, with friends, relatives and neighbors." Whether or not you're a sportsman, you'll like the fine way an electric food freezer preserves the flavor and freshness of foods. Ask anyone who owns an electric home freezer.

Season
Nov. 16,
Sept. 1

Basic hunting regulations have been set by the Texas Game and Fish Commission for the fall season. In general, the season will be very much the same as last season, according to the Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.
The Commission's recommendations were approved last week after they had studied the situation throughout the state, especially in areas where regulatory action has been granted previously.

The fall season will begin on Sept. 14 and 16, and extend to sunset on each day. The bag limit is one in the North zone and two in the South zone.
In the South zone, the season will be Oct. 1 through Oct. 31, in the counties of the Red River valley where it is still open to shoot mourning doves in the two-day open white-winged season. Here the season runs from Nov. 17 inclusive, to Dec. 31, inclusive.

Seasons will be the same as last year, except that in the Texas area three more days have been added. The dates are 5-7 and 8-10 inclusive.
The dates for antelope hunting are Oct. 17-19, cover the areas.
The season will remain open to Jan. 16, except in a few places where the season has been extended by the legislature.
The season has been opened in many places this year.
The season will remain
open as last year.
The Game and Fish Commission is prepared and will be distributing through game wardens, and game stores as soon as

Pancakes Are Fun Fare

On Shrove Tuesday, the day of feasting and fun before Lent starts, pancakes are traditionally served. You'll find these the lightest ever because beer goes into the batter as it did for centuries in England where they really know how to make pancakes! Serve tall glasses of cold beer as friends gather round the griddle to watch you prepare the pancakes and Quick Newburg Sauce.

Old English Pancakes
1 egg
1/2 cup bottled or canned beer or ale
3/4 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt

Pre-heat electric griddle as manufacturer directs. Beat egg; stir in beer, milk and melted butter. Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Gradually stir in beer-egg mixture, stirring only until ingredients are blended. Pour batter from pitcher or drop from large spoon onto heated griddle into 4-inch wide pancakes. Bake. Turn pancakes when edges start to dry. Keep warm and serve with Quick Newburg Sauce. YIELD: 4 servings.

Quick Newburg Sauce
1 cup cooked or canned lobster
2 tablespoons diced pimiento
Toasted almonds

Gradually stir milk into soup in saucepan. Add lobster and pimiento. Heat to serving temperature. To serve, spoon sauce over pancakes; garnish with toasted almonds.

Vets Need Only One Request for All Military Service Medals

Army servicemen may claim their military medals by making one simple request without having to recall specific dates of military service and cannot name the medals they are entitled to. Actually, a veteran does not have to prove his right to a medal. The Army will obtain the proof from the veteran's service record.

Under the simplified "ask and receive" procedure, the Army will send the veteran all of the medals, as they become available, his service warrants simply in response to the ex-serviceman's written request stating "send all medals to which I am entitled," or words to that effect. He may, of course, list the medals to which he believes he is entitled.

It is most important that the ex-serviceman give his full name, service number, current address, and approximate dates of service in order to identify the proper record. Since records are filed according to service, such as World War I, World War II, and post World War II, receipt of this information will expedite action in processing the request.

This project is being handled along with current operations and there might be a considerable delay before receipt of the medals. The Department of Defense urges that, once a request has been made for the medals, no further action be taken by that individual. Follow-up or tracer inquiries will tend to cause further delay by the receipt of medals by the individuals.

Military service medals available to qualified ex-servicemen and women include the following: World War I Victory Medal, Army of Occupation of Germany Medal (post WWI), Women's Auxiliary Corps Service Medal, American Defense Service Medal, American Campaign Medal, European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal, World War II Victory Medal, Army of Occupation Medal (post WWII), Medal for Humane Action (Berlin Airlift), National Defense Service Medal, Korean Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal, United States Service Medal and Philippine Service Ribbons.

A service ribbon is issued with each service medal when available. It is the same color as the suspension ribbon of the service medal it represents. Also issued with service medals when available are Service Stars, for battle participation; Bronze Arrowheads, for participation in combat parachute jump, combat glider landing or amphibious assault landing; battle and service clasps and/or devices; and the Berlin Airlift device, for participation in the Berlin Airlift (June 18 to September 30, 1949).

Servicemen on active duty should apply for service medals for which they are eligible through their commanding officer.

Qualified Army ex-servicemen or women or their next-of-kin may send their applications to Commanding Officer, Army Records Center TAGO, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis 14, Missouri. Applications from Army retired personnel and those with reserve commissions or warrants should be sent to The Adjutant General, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C.

Section 65 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, amended so as hereinafter provided, shall be amended as hereinafter provided.

Thanks Folks!

I was overwhelmed by the wonderful support given to me in Saturdays Primary Election, in which, with your help, I was able to win the Democratic nomination for Justice of the Peace in and for Precinct 4, without a run-off.

I will continue to do my best to run this office to the very best of my ability.

I thank my opponents for conducting their campaigns in a gentlemanly and clean manner.

Please feel free to call on me or my office at any time I can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

O. M. Edwards

The credit department of the Hudson Bay Co received this letter from a Canadian farmer: "I got your letter about what I owe you. Now be pachtant, I ain't forgot you. When I have the money I will pay you. If this was Judgement Day and you was no more prepared to meet your Maker than I am, to meet your account you sure would go to hell. Trusting you will do this."
