BRANCH OF TEXAS COTTON CO-OP. ASS'N FOR LITTLEFIELD

C. O. Moser, Vice President of The National Organization Addresses Big Gathering of Interested Farmers Here

That a branch weighing and classification office of the Texas Cotton co-operative association was well assured in Littlefield was the result of a mass meeting held in Littlefield Friday of last week when C. O. Moser, vice president of the American Cotton Co-operative association addressed more than 700 business men and farmers at two meetings held in the Palace theatre that day.

The first meeting was held in the morning and attended principally by business men, while in the afternoon the farmers came in from all sections of the county to learn more of the new Government system in stabilizing prices and assisting the raisers of fleecy staple in obtaining a fair and equitable price for their yearly raised product.

For several weeks past Littlefield and Lamb county have been working toward securing such a branch office at this point, and two weeks ago a delegation of citizens from this city met Mr. Moser in Plainview where assurances were given him that such an office located here would be of great service to the member patrons of the Texas Co-op., and that the citizens of this section were ready to back such a movement with their money and influence.

In order to secure the successful operation of such a branch office where delivered cotton receives correct weight and classification by government experts, it is required that the guaranty of 15,000 bales of cotton be made at the rate of 50 cents per bale charges for such government supervision. The guaranty is posted in the form of a nominal contract for $7,500, such being credited with 50 cents for every bale of cotton delivered for inspection and weighing. This contract was readily signed by citizens of Littlefield and this section of the county.

J. W. Hammock, field representative of the Association, presided at the morning session while M. S. Hudson, of Hale Center presided at the afternoon session when the principal address was made by Vice-president Moser. P. E. Bosen and J. C. Barron of Sudan were present, and there were a number of influential citizens here from Amherst. R. J. Murray and Garnett Reeves, president and publicity manager, respectively, of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce; A. L. Hill, editor of the Avalanche Farm Journal, Lubbock; County Agent Roy B. Davis, of Brownfield, Jim McDuff, Sep Smith and Will Dun, of Crosbyton, were also among those present.

Pink Parrish Is To Support Clint Small In Race for Governor

Senator Pink L. Parrish, of Lubbock, has resigned his candidacy for governor of this state in favor of Senator Clint Small, of Wellington. Senator Parrish's name was placed on the ticket by a number of his friends from Crosby county while the Senator was attending an international meeting of the Shrine being held in Toronto, Canada.

It is an accepted fact that close students of West Texas politics are not surprised at Senator Parrish's action. He had considered making the race several months ago but at the end of his consideration announced flatly that he would not be a candidate. His close personal and political friendship for Senator Small was also taken into consideration and friends of both men felt that Senator Parrish's decision to refrain from running and to support his Wellington colleague was inevitable.

West Texans, who see in Senator Small's candidacy an opportunity to place a West Texan, as well as a new political figure in the executive chair at Austin were expected to cheer Senator Parrish's decision. Fear that he and Small would split West Texas votes were both to make the race was paramount during the indecisive days and that fear doubtless would have been realized.

Logan Rogers, Bailey County Guest Pays His Respects to Sheriff on Taking His Departure

After four hours of patient effort, using contraptions he had ingeniously improvised out of such material as could be found inside the walls of the local county bastille, Logan Rogers, one of the guests of Bailey county, who was awaiting admittance into the State penitentiary on a charge of possession and transportation of liquor, released himself from his involuntary confinement last Sunday evening and left for parts unknown.

He wrote a note stating that "staying in jail was not good for his health, so he had decided to leave, and hoped that no one would feel hurt over his departure."

The material that was used in operating the levers that lock the door of Bailey county's hoosegow, consisted of a broom, a mirror, a piece of half-inch pipe he removed from the steam radiator and a twisted strand of electric wire. The mirror attached to the end of the broom handle served as a periscope with which he could peer into the control box located just outside the door, and the strand of wire doubled and inserted through the iron pipe formed a loop on one end with which he could operate the safety levers. One end of the iron pipe was bent between the bars, enabling him to stand just inside the main door, which placed him almost behind the control box, and insert the business end of the pipe in the box.

Bailey county boasts one of the finest jails in this section, the locking devices being modern in every respect but this failed to baffle the ingenuity of Rogers.

According to another inmate of the county guest rooms, Rogers worked painstakingly for four hours before he finally succeeded in liberating himself. He started work immediately Tuesday's luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the Club cafe with 25 present. The meeting opened with the new president, R. E. McCaskill's address.

He hastily reviewed the work of the past administration and outlined the work and policies for the next year. All unfinished projects will be pushed to completion, and new questions will be taken care of as they arise, but the major work of the Chamber of Commerce will be putting over a real farm program. "Build up the farmer, and the farmer will build up the town," was the slogan given by the president.

J. W. Hammock, of Sudan, was next called on for a report of the Cotton Branch office for Littlefield. He reported the office was assured and the guarantee signed up. Guy Berry, former Lamesa hurler will be found in the line up. Walter Evans who has been seeking a tryout with the Cats will likely be the other mound artist. The Family DOCTOR

BY JOHN JOSEPH GAINES M.D.

"LOWERED RESISTANCE"

Seriously doubt if anybody ever contracts disease when what we call "bodily resistance" is normal. Many of us come in contact with disease germs every day; but because our bodies are functioning normally the infectious germs are unable to find a home.

The human digestive tract is singularly built to withstand infections. It swallows probably millions of germs, perhaps, in water, milk, raw fruits and other carriers of simple bacteria; these are for the most part promptly destroyed by healthy digestive juices. It is so with domestic animals; they drink and eat much that is impure, yet healthy digestive fluids protect them from disease.

The time, however, when diseases producers hop in and make themselves at home is when we are, in general parlance, "run-down" from one cause or another. Overwork is a certain invitation to the entrance of disease germs. This means overloading the stomach for protracted periods, wearing down the muscular system by heavy toil, and tearing down the nervous system by constant grind in these strenuous days. Anything that taxes the system beyond its endurance invites disease, which rarely appears otherwise; so that, when we get sick, we had better cast about for just how we forsook the law of right living.

"Lowered bodily resistance," then, is a factor in almost all diseased conditions. The physician sets in to "clean house" and to restore health by systematic rest for the overworked organs. Unless he can enforce suitable rest, he will have a slow recovery. It never pays to go to work too soon after any illness.

Overwork—overwork! It is foolish. A man may tax his bodily resistance in dissipation—it is overwork just the same, though not in gainful employment. He may habitually lose sleep until his nerves become tired out; disease sets in, and he wonders why. Overdoing may be in pleasurable pursuits entirely. If you are overdoing—quit it before it's too late.

WEST PLAINS ASSOCIATION MEETS IN LITTLEFIELD

One of the largest and most inspirational meetings ever held in the West Plains Association, was that of the meeting held Tuesday at the Tabernacle Baptist church.

A splendid program was rendered from 9:30 in the morning until 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, wherein some good points were brought out in discussions.

Practically every church in the association was represented with large groups of members, estimated at over 200.

At the noon hour, a well appointed dinner, consisting of chicken, dressing, cream potatoes, tomatoes, cream peas, lettuce, and iced tea with ice cream and cake for dessert was served by the ladies of the church.

Preachers present for the occasion were: Rev. J. W. Hembree, Amherst, Rev. J. E. Moore, Circle Back, Rev. Cal McGehee, Sudan; F. Booth, Bailybro; Rev. E. Morris, Lums Chapel; Rev. C. F. Joiner, Muleshoe; Rev. Grant, Fieldton; Rev. Carl Etheridge, and Rev. Roy A. Kemp, Littlefield. Visiting preachers outside the association were: Rev. Matt Harden, Ralls Rev. Dick, pastor of the First Baptist church, at Crosbyton, E. W. Lloyd, Plains, and Rev. T. Wilson, Anton.

Rev. Grant, of Fieldton, who is 75 years of age, was the oldest preacher in attendance at the association.

in the domestic oil market of the Nation!

It was only good strategy for CONOCO to again bring the superiority of Germ-Processed oil to your attention in this sensational way. At a time when motorists in every section of the country have been lending willing ears to the story of the Germ Process . . . learning that this is the first fundamental improvement in oils since 1901 . . . reading the sensational disclosures of motor oil merit following the recent Pike's Peak Tests . . . CONOCO, by this masterful stroke, crystallizes the already widespread conviction, that Germ-Processed Motor Oil is the safest oil for every-day driving in twenty-seven million cars.

For the Germ-Processed oil used in this race was the same stock oil that you can buy at any service station bearing the CONOCO Red Triangle! You never were told that about any other oil, were you? Remember, Germ-Processed is the first stock oil that ever "placed" in this race. Now CONOCO has proven its claims, confirmed its challenge and justified this request of you: "If you value the life of your motor, if you would reduce your operating costs, if you want better lubrication than any other oil can give you, go to the Sign of the Red Triangle and ask for . . ."

The Conoco Board of the A.A.A. took all the necessary steps to make sure that the oil used was the regular Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil.

AS FORD SEES IT

The shortest cut to relief from business depression is an intensive development of agriculture and manufacture, with quantity production from the soil, declares Henry Ford in a recent interview.

"It is the only way to escape stagnation," Mr. Ford says. And residents of Littlefield and vicinity who have been wondering how long it will be before we are back to normal will not find much joy in his additional statement that "it will take just as long to get rid of the depression as it took to accumulate it. He says manufacturers need to keep up the people's spirit, and this cannot be done with talk. It takes action. One expenditure now, based on faith in the future, is worth all the words anyone can say. "Issuing optimistic statements on one hand and lowering wages on the other won't better things" he asserts.

"This is no time to lower wages and those who are doing it are hitting their country while it's down. What we call waste is only surplus point of new uses. Everything that and surplus is always the starting is produced from the soil can be used for some purpose. Industry has need for everything the soil produces that is not used for foodstuffs. Too many people on our farms believe that Santa Claus lives in the city. The thing we need is some way to educate people how to get away from the city. Half the people out of work in Detroit could find work on the farms." Boiled down, Mr. Ford's recipe for making times better is to quit talking hard times, and keep at work regardless of how much you may be making at the present moment. In other words, he argues that good times are not going to stay with the fellow who won't talk anything else but hard times.

It may be because she has used the proper tooth paste that the girl in the ads shows her teeth—but that isn't the reason a dog shows his.

A FOOLISH IDEA

The average Littlefield motorist has long been of the opinion that the woman driver is not as capable, as cool or as careful as the man. But figures are being given out, the result of a recent nation-wide survey made by Auto clubs, to dispute this belief.

The report shows that women drivers are involved in only 6 percent of auto accidents. Since only one in every four drivers is a woman, that means she is entitled to figure in 25 accidents out of every 100. That she figures in but 6 out of every 100 shows that she drives, if not with more skill, then with more care than the average man. But her critics will contend that she causes many accidents that she doesn't get hurt in, but in which someone else is hurt. And right there is where we are going to side-step the argument. We haven't any figures to disprove that statement, and on the face of it there may be a lot of truth in it.

So, since we have trouble enough of our own already, we'll let someone else continue the argument.

Wonder if, when speed fiends get to heaven, they'll keep the repair department busy fixing their broken wings?

NEW KIND OF GAS

With the tendency to crowd an ever-increasing share of tax burdens on the old family flivver, the discovery of a new and more powerful type of gasoline, a kind that will cut down fuel bills, is of interest to car owners.

If gasoline can be made to do more, then obviously its price is cheapened, and if one uses less his taxes come down in proportion.

The new gas is said to have great power. This is brought about, it is stated, by restoring to gasoline two ingredients which have been largely removed by modern methods of producing and refining. One of these is natural gasoline and the other naphtha, which is claimed to be very effective in hot weather. It is claimed the blended product is far superior to the original product in that it may be completely vaporized and that blends can be made to suit climatic conditions in all parts of the country.

But the most important part of the discovery is that it cannot be patented. Any refinery can use the formula for making it. To motorists that will appear a seven more important than the discovery itself.

Henry Ford says a woman's place is in the home and yet when he invented the flivver he did more than any other man has ever done to keep her out of it.

EVERYBODY CAN HELP

Every thirty seconds someone gets hurt in an American home. Uncle Sam has given out the figures, and organizations of club women throughout the country are launching a movement to reduce it.

Usually it is a woman or child that is injured in the home, generally by slipping on the floor or falling down a stairway. Poor lighting is also said to contribute to the dangers. Brooms and mops and ironing boards standing at the top of dark stairways, over which someone can easily trip, are also blamed for many broken bones—and numerous deaths.

Littlefield housekeepers are due to be asked pretty soon to join in this movement to reduce accidents in the home. We feel sure they will respond readily and heartily for, as in everything else that tends to safety they are always anxious to do their part.

LITTLE LEADERS

The Littlefield boy who is looking for a job that requires push and pull might try being a trombone player.

Any Littlefield gardener who can't tell weeds from vegetables can learn by watching his neighbor's chickens.

An old form of farm relief around Littlefield was for a farmer to file a $300 claim when the railroad killed his $50 cow.

We've noticed that most Littlefield women have a sense of humor. The more you humor them the better they like it.

In other years around Littlefield they used to kiss and make up. But now the make-up seems to come ahead of everything else.

The Littlefield man who is anxious to invest in a going concern should first make sure that he knows which way it is going.

Sometimes we can't help wondering whatever became of the old-fashioned Littlefield man who used to use the under-side of his coat lapel for a pin cushion.

Someone has suggested that raising bees will help the Lamb county farmer. He might try. He is accustomed to being stung by most everything else he raises.

THE WAY OF LIFE

By Bruce Barton

NO PROFIT ON THE CORN

Occasionally somebody visits my place in the country who entirely misunderstands its purpose.

"That's a beautiful lake," he says. "You should stack it with fish, and make money."

To which I answer that I don't want to make money.

He is sure he has not heard me correctly, and so he continues,

"Some of your land is pretty well run down, but if you would put on plenty of fertilizer for a couple of years it would produce valuable crops."

"I don't want to produce crops," I say a little louder.

He looks shocked, but tries again. "Why don't you buy some of this wood-land and raise foxes?"

At this I am tempted to set our dog on him. Our dog is symbolic of the place. He is good for nothing. He barks at friendly visitors, and once he slept soundly while the house was being robbed.

Instead of committing any such inhospitality, however, I try patiently to explain that this country place was not bought for profit, is not conducted for profit, can not possibly show a profit, and, if it could, would not be so dear to my heart. It is a beautiful inefficient and wasteful oasis in a rushing, efficient world.

Money is a grand possession, an essential measuring stick. But there are some people who seem to think that there is no other measuring stick that nothing is justified unless it is producing income, or increasing in value.

Such folks should consider the lilies of the field, which sew not neither do they spin (yet by simply being their beautiful selves justify their existence.

They should learn wisdom of Henry Ward Beecher, who once bought two little pigs for two dollars, fed them twelve dollars' worth of corn and sold them for ten dollars.

"Thus I made eight dollars," he exclaimed triumphantly, "on the pigs." And added, "I never expected to make any profit on the corn."

New York is my pigs. I make my profit there. But I never expected to make any profit on my home, my children, or my place in the country. And I never shall.

If we don't have faith in our fellowman, and he hasn't faith in us, how are we ever going to borrow an umbrella when it rains?

The old family driving horse wasn't so much for speed, but you could tie him to a fire-hydrant if you wanted to without getting in trouble.

PAVEMENT PICKUPS

"The kind of wife that shares her husband's joys and sorrows," asserts R. B. Freeman, "isn't the kind who begins by sharing her sweetheart's cigarettes and hip flask."

Jimmy Ware says he always feels sorry for the fellow whose wife thinks it is more important to keep in style than it is to keep out of debt.

"The reason wives don't brag more about their husbands," declares John Cogdill, "is because most women get tired of bragging about nothing."

Jess Weasley says he has never really enjoyed watermelons since got past the age where you can eat one without getting some of your ears.

APPLICATION FOR AN INJUNCTION IS SOUGHT
The Elwood interests have asked for an injunction against the order of the Haskell County court to open a road beginning at the Richardson Filling Station going east and intersect with the present highway to Snyder.
The time for hearing has been set for Saturday, June 21st, before District
Judge Pharr, of Lubbock, Haskell County will be represented by capable legal talent, and it is generally thought that when the court hears all the issues involved that it will refuse to grant the application. Should such be the case the last obstacle in the controversy between Elwood and Hockley County will have been removed, and the county can proceed with her program of seeking State recognition on highways that will pass through Levelland.—Levelland Herald.

American Cities Take Low Grade in Beauty

Evidently it takes more than the liberal expenditure of many millions to make a city beautiful. Anyhow, Chicago, which has rebuilt its water front and done many other things at tremendous cost, has come to that conclusion, for Charles H. Cheney, noted American architect, rates the city as only 8 per cent beautiful. That is a long way from the ranking of Paris, France, which is placed at the top of the list at 90 per cent. There is small comfort to Chicagoans even in the reflection that Paris has been beautifying herself for 800 years as against Chicago's entire 70 years of existence, most of which have not been devoted to the beauty treatment. For in the past ten years Chicago has spent more on the deliberate effort to become beautiful than Paris has spent in 800 years. There must be something wrong with the Chicago procedure.

New York is rising in the scale of physical attractiveness, with a percentage of 15 and a promise of more if certain plans are carried out. Our most beautiful city, appropriately enough, is Washington, for we all have a common interest and a common pride in our capital. We may be disappointed in its rating of only 25 per cent, but we are glad it has the American leadership, for none of the rest of the cities can properly be envious of their queen. And we likewise are pleased that it outranks England's capital, which is scaled at 9 per cent.

Placement of House Is Highly Important

Proper orientation, or placement of the house on the spot best fitted to receive it within the confines of the plot, is a matter for expert opinion, as a great many factors usually unrecognized by the layman enter into the question.
The most accurate method of determining the proper placement of the house utilizes the topographical survey, which clearly shows the various grade elevations of the plot in their relationship to a datum, or established figuring point, which serves as a base for all calculations. By this means the proper drainage is established. Trees, rocks and other things on the house site can be provided for.
Most important, however, is the fact that the topographical survey permits the home builder to use a house design best fitted to the peculiarities of the particular lot in question. By so doing, he may add hundreds of dollars to the value of his house and grounds.
While the ordinary location survey, indicating the boundaries of the plot, is good enough for the requirements and most financing organizations, the topographical survey is of the utmost importance in the matter of adapting the right house to the right site.

Rural Health Conditions

The sickness rate of the country exceeds that of the city, authorities say. Whether this condition is due to factors in the life of country people over which they have no control or whether it is due to their manner of living over which if they were taught how they might have some control is not certain.
The rural population is more susceptible to such disease conditions as malaria, hookworm, constipation, adenoids, infected tonsils and defective teeth than that of the city. It is obvious, Marie B. Ryan writes, in Hygeia Magazine, that if country people cultivated better health habits they could build up greater resistance against the life they have to live and exercise some control over the more outstanding preventable diseases.

Natural Beauty First

Coming to color, the keynote of beautiful architecture, John Ruskin, the great teacher of art, counsels that it be secured through the use of the material tinted by nature rather than through the use of paint, which dies away in the course of time, leaving the work naked and bare.
No art can produce the natural beauty of brickwork. Its colors are warm and mellow—as different from the painted wall as a painted complexion is different from natural coloring.

Visible Numbers Devised

Innovations or adaptations to new uses of existing instruments are with out end in the building industry. An interesting application of luminous material to house numbers is now being made. This is a number deeply embossed in an aluminum plaque, the upper surface being coated with black enamel and baked, the lower surface receiving a scratch-brush finish. Then the center portion is coated with a good quality of radium-luminous material. This is then inclosed in an aluminum frame with clear glass.

Yard Repays Care

While Aurora is known as a pioneer town, with pioneer buildings, it has more beautiful homes than other cities of its population. It is an ideal place to live, and the residents take a pride in beautifying their yards.—Aurora Observer.

'Juneteenth' Celebration In Littlefield Last Week

"The Juneteenth has come and gone, the history of that day has passed on the record of time," comes the report to the Leader office from the committee that was in charge of arrangements for the negro celebration of the 67th anniversary of the emancipation of their race held in Littlefield Thursday and Friday of last week.

A barbecue was held at noon of the first day and a ball game at the local park, marked the outstanding event of the afternoon between the Lubock negro team and the local negro team, which resulted in a score of 5-10 in favor of the visiting team.

The base ball game, played by the same teams, marked the main event of the second day which ended in favor of the visitors with a score of 8-11.

The general committee was composed of Jack James, Anderson Davis, and E. J. Hoffman.

Hoffman stated that the purpose of the picnic was to hold the colored people at home on those days. He further expressed a regret that the program which had been prepared by the committee, was not carried out.

GIVES AWAY 2000 CREAM CONES

A large crowd attended the opening of the Eagle drug store Saturday.

Between three and four thirty p. m., each person visiting the store was treated to either an ice cream cone or a coca cola. A total of 2000 cream cones were given away during that time, according to the manager, Mr. Ament.

FIRST BAPTIST W. M. U. IS THE HOSTESS TO CITY FEDERATION OF CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS

The initial and most enjoyed social event of the week was that of the social given Monday afternoon, beginning at three o'clock, at the First Baptist church when members of the W. M. U. of that church were hostess to the city Federation of women's church organizations.

The visitors were received at the door by Mesdames Joe F. Grizzle and G. G. Shirley.

Mrs. W. H. Gardner, president of the organization, presided and a business session was held wherein four committees were appointed, namely: Social Service, Mesdames G. S. Glenn, Chairman, Heathman, E. A. Bills, R. E. Bigham, J. G. Berryman; Community Chest, Rev. and Mrs. Joe F. Grizzle; Civic, Mesdames L. W. Jordan, chairman, C. O. Stone, W. W. Gillette, T. L. Matthews; Flower committee, Miss Lula Hubbard, chairman, Mesdames R. E. McCaskill, B. L. Cogdill, Claude Clark and W. T. Cox.

Following the business session: an excellent program under the direction of Mesdames R. E. McCaskill and Lena Howard was greatly enjoyed by more than 100 guests, which was a representation of practically every church in Littlefield.

Two interesting Bible contests were held, wherein Mesdames S. L. Adams and Jackson were winners.

A song was participated in by everyone present in order that everyone get acquainted.

Two songs, "Blue Heaven" and "Painting the Clouds with Sunshine," sung by Mrs. Charles Heathman, with Mrs. J. W. Hopping at the piano, were followed by a vocal duet by Mesdames L. W. Jordan and J. W. Hopping with Mrs. J. H. Lucas at the piano.

A piano solo by Frances Barton and Kathryn Jones was an enjoyed feature on the program and Mrs. Ike Griffin pleased the guests with a reading.

Mesdames J. H. Woodmore, J. R. Coen, and H. J. Gibbs were in charge of the refreshments and a plate consisting of sandwiches, pickles cake and iced tea, with varied colored-sweet peas as plate favors, was passed.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Much interest was manifest Sunday at the preaching hour at the Tabernacle Baptist church. Six new additions were added to the church rolls.

Sunday School promptly at 10:00 every Sunday morning. Everyone is cordially invited.

MRS. GEO. DOBBS IS HOSTESS

Mrs. Geo. Dobbs was hostess at a stork shower given in honor of Mrs. J. J. Yates, last Wednesday evening.

The guest of honor was ushered into a room daintily decorated with pale pink and blue crepe paper. After being seated in a big white chair, over which a soft pink and blue light was shining, little Billie Lorene Pruitt and Naomi Hannah came rolling in a little bed laden with lovely gifts, while the Vicerola played "Showers of Blessings." Ice cream and cake was served to the following ladies: Mesdames, Yates, Brewer, Briggs, Etheridge, Burns, Pruitt, Frantz, Kemp, Green, Hannah, Griffith, Grisham, Evins, and the hostess Mrs. Dobbs
