"Probable"
is a Gambling
Word

A good many people in the East underwent triple jeopardy this fall when three hurricanes—"Carol," "Edna" and "Hazel"—defied tradition by striking three times in the same spot.

Of course, it's seldom that disasters travel in threes, and certainly the odds are against your being singled out for such misfortune. Also, it should be pointed out, it is no probable that your home will be ruined by fire . . . that you will have a serious automobile accident next year . . . that a delivery man will slip on your walk and sue for six figures.

Trouble is, it doesn't make much difference whether an accident is "probable" or not if you are the one who suffers. "Probable" is a gambling word. "Insured" is a prudent man's pledge that his family and fortune will be protected when trouble comes.

Don't gamble with the future. Have us review all your insurance policies. We will make certain you are covered as completely as possible with the right kind of insurance.

ated in red and green. The centerpiece was a grapefruit base in which red and green cherries were placed on colored toothpicks. Place mats were green with a tan background and green napkins further carried out the color scheme.

Honorees were Valera Harmon, Clay Basmannus, Judy Halberd, Audrey Harmon, Anna Lou Stanger, Allie Durban, and Yvonne Maxfield, all of Amherst, and Monien Myers of Littlefield. Guests were Veta Tadlock, Hope Nix, Fern West, and Mrs. Yantis' mother, Mrs. G. D. Oxford, and her grandmother, Mrs. Stella Lee, all of Amherst.

MR. AND MRS. DALE MOORE of 1315 W. Fifth street are proud to present their "Double Feature" family . . . two sets of twin boys. Johnny and Freddy are 16 months old. Garry Dale and Larry Gale were a month old Wednesday. They were born at the Littlefield hospital and weighed 4 pounds, 5 ounces and 4 pounds, 6 ounces. Twenty-year-old Mrs. Moore says "They're not really much more trouble in double sets of twins. You just take care of the needs of one, then take care of the next one." ## MORE THAN PROTECTION

There's more to a Woodmen membership than its unexcelled life insurance protection.

A patient in Woodmen War Memorial Hospital, San Antonio, where Woodmen who have been members a year or more and are afflicted with tuberculosis, freely receive the best health-rebuilding care, wrote the following on "Why I Am A Woodman":

"I am proud because the Woodmen of the World provides such wonderful protection and contributes so freely to other worthy causes. I have the satisfaction of a contented, peaceful mind knowing that my loved ones are secured by the strongest fraternal insurance society in the world. I am proud to be a Woodman because of the excellent treatment offered our afflicted members."

The treatment at Woodmen War Memorial Hospital is but one of many plus benefits Woodmen receive with safe, sound, level reserve life insurance their Society provides them at cost. Ask one of the representatives listed below to help you select the type of Woodmen certificate that best meets your life insurance needs.

Coronado And Lamb GS Areas May Combine

Representatives from all communities within the Coronado and Lamb county Girl Scout councils where there are active troops met together Tuesday night, Oct. 12, at the Scout hut in Muleshoe to discuss combining these two councils to form a new one.

Both groups felt that by joining forces a stronger, more effective council, able to provide all necessary services to troops, would result, and the decision was made to form a study committee.

Girl Scout national staff members, Miss Mary Ellen Rawley and Miss Virginia Burgess, were present for the meeting. They gave the group a review of the council's structure and clarified questions about it. They also presented the responsibilities of the study committee and explained their work.

Officers for the study committee were elected during the meeting. They are Mrs. R. W. Smith, Clovis, N. M., chairman; Mrs. Tom

PREDICTING THIS WEEK'S GAMES—

By JAMES HINE

Conference play opens for the Littlefield Wildcats tomorrow night at Seminole. They looked good at Muleshoe Friday when they won 40-6. However, a conference game is somewhat more to win, and what a conference District 6-AA is. Madden Kermit seems the most logical team to win the victor, with Littlefield, Andrews, Seminole and Littlefield finishing in that order. Of course any team is capable of pulling an upset and each has done so in years

Gene Mayfield's team trying to break a jinx Seminole has held over the last year they have at Seminole. Littlefield never been able to defeat Indians at Seminole, having lost last year's encounter 20-0 in 1952. 28-25. Littlefield has 11 returning lettermen and Coach Geo. Roberts his boys to be in

Rev. Haupt Is Synod Delegate

Rev. Henry Haupt, minister of the Littlefield First Presbyterian church, has returned from San Antonio where he was a delegate to the Synod of Texas of the Presbyterian church, U.S.A.

Outstanding speakers for the Synod included Dr. Charles Leber, general secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. J. Hoyt Bowles, Synod executive secretary.

One of the featured meetings was a banquet held at Trinity university, which is one of the newest church-related colleges in Texas.

usher in conference play in District 2-AA. Olton should be ready to get back into the winning column after being absent for two weeks. Mustangs 21, Floydada Whirlwinds 7.

The only other District 2-AA conference game finds Muleshoe journeying to Lockney where the Mules should find their second seasonal win by defeating the Longhorns 21-1.

County-wide, Springlake has an open date after defeating Happy 27-6 in a conference game last week at Springlake. The Wolverines' Dwaine Loudder continues looking like an all-district and perhaps Class A player.

The Amherst Bulldogs, coached by Lamar Kelley, entertain the Cowboys from Happy tomorrow night. The Cowboys will be returning to Lamb county with sharp spurs and firing from in the air and on the ground to cop this conference game. The boys weren't pleased with their defeat by Springlake last week and will play a much better game Friday. But with boys like the Nuttall brothers, together with Martin Hardwick in the Amherst backfield—my guess is Amherst 20, Happy 13.

Sudan heads for the border country to meet the hospitable Friona Chiefs, who haven't won a game this year. Sudan has lost two in a row to Amherst and Dimmitt and will be looking for a victory and should find it by stinging the Chiefs, 27-7.

Unpredictable Anton (at least by me) has an open date and will use same advantageously in mapping out plans to stop Amherst next week.

Spade will be vacationing also in preparation for its trip to Snyder next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Webb and Glenn Parker of Cimarron, Kansas, left Tuesday after spending the weekend here visiting friends and relatives. Others visiting here over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Millard Phillips and Lee Bennett of Hot Springs, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bennett of Dallas.

WALTER HILL JR. of Littlefield, decks his Berkshire swine boar in its grand champion colors, won at the county fair last week. The boar took the grand championship and junior championship of 4-H and FFA, and in the open class, it won the senior championship for Berkshire breed.

PAUL POTEET

Poteet Joins Watson-Scott

According to officials of the Watson-Scott Equipment Co., Paul Poteet of Whitharral joined the local Allis-Chalmers dealership this week to assist in the management of the business.

Poteet recently resigned his post as district salesman for the Amarillo division of the Allis-Chalmers company. A graduate of Falls high school, he served two years with the Seabees in World War II.

Prior to purchasing a farm near Whitharral, Poteet served as general service manager for the Cummins Diesel Engine Co., working throughout the United States and several foreign countries.

In addition to assisting with management, Poteet will work in both the sales and parts department, according to the owners of the firm, J. D. Watson and Marvin Scott.

The Poteets have two sons, Jimmy, 15, and Billy, 12. They are active members of the First Baptist church, Whitharral.

Cotton Review

Spot cotton prices declined sharply by this week, according to an Oct. 15 report by the Department of Agriculture. Reported sales decreased slightly in the futures markets. Farmers were discouraged by clear weather prevalent in the far west but in most other sections of the belt scattered rains and wet fields continued to interfere with harvesting operations. The October cotton crop forecast was somewhat above general trade expectations. It began prior to October 1 this season was equivalent to 48 percent of the indicated 1954 production, the largest proportion yet at that date since 1913. Despite the season averaged slightly lower in grade and shorter in staple than a year ago.

Southwestern spot markets were moderately active. Producers offerings varied. Holding was active. Loan entries were increasing. Merchant demand was very active. Inquiries were numerous. Harvesting was slower.

Middling 15-16 cotton in the Dallas market Thursday, Oct. 14 was quoted at 54 cents compared with 54.10 cents a week ago. Galveston-Houston prices were 54.10 cents and Lubbock price was 53.85 cents. Merchant demand eased some in most markets. Buying was on a very selective basis, with some purchases in other areas. The longer staples and lower white and spotted grades were in strongest demand. Producers offered in fair volume, however holding continued. Loan interest was more active and loan entries were increasing in some markets. A fair volume of 1953 loan equities were moving into trade channels.

Domestic mill and export inquiries were numerous. Prices bid in most cases were not attractive to shippers and offerers were moderate. Domestic mill inquiries were a fairly large volume for both prompt and forward delivery, depending up to late season. Purchases this week were moderate in volume, consisting of special or type lots for both prompt and forward delivery. A few purchases were on actual samples and some were of eastern and western growths. Export interest was not as active as in past weeks. Purchases were limited mainly to the better grades and staples.

MAX HOEN, son of Mrs. Louie Hoem of Sudan, looks over the Spade FHA booth at the Lamb County fair which won a first place ribbon. Max helped in its construction. His mother is Spade FHA home organizer.

Shoppers interrupted harvest in scattered localities of the area. In some places fields were too wet early in the week. Clear skies and above normal temperatures allowed drying to be resumed during mid-week. Additional labor could be used in some localities. Some producers were analyzing conditions so mechanical equipment could be put into operation.

The C.C.C. resumed through Oct. 8 that 69,558 bales in Texas and 5,270 bales in Oklahoma had entered the loan.

HAIR STYLES COURSE

Wiggle-Mangle, Baby-Cox and One-Dress parties completed a six-week course in new fall hair styles at Lulu's of Lubbock.

Miss IRIN TAYLOR, Grant returned by plane Monday from Indianapolis, Ind. She had taken on with Mrs. Roy Adkins, the former Miss Mary Grant. Mrs. Adkins is employed there as an occupational therapist, and she is to join her husband in Dallas in about two weeks.

Girl Wrestlers On Sports Arena Bill Saturday Night

A double main event, highlighted by appearance of two of the better known girl wrestlers of the country, should afford Littlefield area fans with good wrestling at the Littlefield Sports arena Saturday night.

The feminine fighters are Ila May Martinez of Mexico City and Mary Jane Mill of Toledo, Ohio. Miss Martinez is recognized as the former champion of Mexico, and a leading contender for the world's title. Raven-haired and pretty, demure and friendly outside the ring and until the gong sounds, she turns slightly tigerish when the battle begins.

Miss Mill, rated among the top ten of United States female wrestlers, has come along fast. She is recognized as one of the better top team wrestlers of her sex, and has been proclaimed as co-holder of the world's tag title with June Ryers of Houston. Mary Jane is a tall blonde whose hair and complexion will contrast sharply with Miss Martinez.

Andre Drapp of Paris, France, making his first sojourn in the Southwest States territory, goes against another "foreigner." All Roy of Ankara, Turkey, in the first part of the twin feature Saturday night. Drapp is regarded as a clever and clean wrestler. Roy is short, shaven-headed Turk with the typical Turkish moustache, is rough from the start.

Another highly regarded Turk, Nash Karahan of Istanbul, goes against a newcomer, Chief Wallick of Detroit, in the one fall or 20-minute opener.

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Walden attended the Homecoming activities at West Texas State college last weekend. Their son, Joe, played in the W. T. vs. New Mexico A&M football game Saturday night, which W. T. won.

"I See By The Leader"

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sutton of Mesquite visited this week with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Green, and their granddaughter, Cynthia Lois Sutton, all of Littlefield. They also visited in Lubbock with their grand children, Patricia Sutton and David Wayne Sutton. They arrived Sunday night and left to return to Mesquite Wednesday.

Bob Orr is back in school after being hospitalized with a head injury received in football scrimmage.

Wayne Davis, Texas Tech student, recently spent the weekend at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davis.

Dr. A. B. Haynes of Ingram, former minister of the Littlefield First Presbyterian church, is recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wattenbarger and son, Duff, spent last weekend fishing at Lake Thomas.

Mrs. G. M. Shaw is up again after being ill a week with laryngitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Glass and family of Odessa visited recently with his mother, Mrs. Chasle Duke.

Andy Houk left Monday to return to his home in Jamestown, Ind., after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Houk and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Houk of Littlefield.

During the Civil War the Confederate states ran into many postal difficulties. Often postmasters used rubber stamps or handwritten signatures to denote hold-up postage.

Don't Run Over My Little Girl'

Perhaps the most published item is one entitled "DON'T RUN OVER MY LITTLE GIRL"—it has been printed and reprinted by daily and weekly newspapers up and down the nation, and its origin, it seems, is an editorial originally written by the Alabama Tribune many years ago. If you haven't read it, here it is:

TODAY, my daughter, who is 7 years old, STARTED TO WALK—SHE WORE A DARK BLUE DRESS WITH A WHITE COLLAR. She had on black shoes.

HER COCKER SPANIEL, WHOSE NAME IS "COOT" STOOD ON THE FRONT PORCH AND WHINED HIS CARELESS BELIEF IN THE FOLLY OF EDUCATION AS SHE SAID "GOOD-BYE" and STARTED OFF TO THE SCHOOL OF LEARNING"

Tonight we talked about SCHOOL! SHE TOLD ME THAT THE GIRL WHO SITS IN FRONT OF HER—THE ONE WITH THE YELLOW CURLS—and THE BOY WHO SITS THE AISLE WHO MAKES FUNNY FACES—

She told me about her TEACHER, WHO HAS EYES IN THE BACK OF HER HEAD!

We talked about a lot of things—TREMENDOUSLY IMPORTANT UNIMPORTANT THINGS—THEN WE STUDIED SPELLING—READING—ARITHMETIC—and THEN TO

SHE'S BACK THERE NOW—SOUND ASLEEP!

But I can't be with her all the time. I have to work to buy her clothes and her education. SO, PLEASE HELP ME LOOK OUT FOR HER!

PLEASE DRIVE SLOWLY PAST THE SCHOOLS AND INTERSECTIONS—and PLEASE REMEMBER THAT CHILDREN RUN FROM BEHIND PARKED CARS!

PLEASE DON'T RUN OVER MY LITTLE GIRL!

From Fieldton

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brestrup and three sons visited Sunday at Fieldton, near Post with their mother, Mrs. Will Barton.

Oris Barnard left Wednesday to return to her home in Florida, Ala., after spending two weeks here with her mother, Mrs. Doner, and her sister, Mrs. Robinson, and other relatives.

Virgil Stanfield and Mrs. Woods and son visited last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ryan of Clovis, N.M., visited Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sullivan, Mrs. Ryan's mother, Mrs. Sullivan, who has been with her for several weeks came with her and remained with the Scivallys. Mrs. Scivally is also a sister of Mrs. Sullivan.

H. C. Pickrell and Mrs. Aldridge went to Plainview Wednesday to visit Mrs. Aldridge's sister, Mrs. J. C. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Jeffrey spent the week in Amherst with her parents.

H. C. Pickrell and Mrs. W. Aldridge visited in Lubbock last week with Mrs. G. M. Vann of Fieldton. Mrs. Vann had undergone operation.

Mirko Pickrell spent Tuesday in Otton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Thelma Cassidy, who is now in Lubbock, spent the week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Cassidy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Lufkin, former of Fieldton, visited here this week.

BETTER THAN A BIRDIE

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—A high school girl picked up a chair the other side of the porch of the New London Country club and sent it flying 200 yards down the fifth fairway on this Connecticut storm landscape. One golfer, returning from the safety of the clubhouse, said that the chair traveled a "slight hook, with plenty of spin."

A Personal Column 'Boss' Crump's Death Passing Of Political Era

By DON PERRY

It hit us as untimely that the story on alleged gambling graft by several Erie, Pa., city officials should break into headlines at about the same time of the death of E. H. (Boss) Crump, rip-snortin' political boss of Memphis, Tenn.

To us it seemed down right sacrilegious to have both stories on the same newspaper page. The charges against the Erie officials are just more representative of what should hit more 20th century party-waisted politicians, and we imagine the "Boss" would have felt hurt to have been mentioned in the same newspaper with such political stupidity.

Whether you liked the "Boss" or not, he added more to the plain old art of "politicking" than even Huey Long or FDR. And they were no novices at the trade.

But where FDR and Long had several years of ironclad rule, the "Boss" kept his steel mitt on Memphis politics for more than half-a-century.

His methods weren't always orthodox, and he probably got more unfavorable publicity than good, but even with so called dictatorial powers he brought better government to Tennessee than it had seen since the Civil War.

Unlike many present day political machines, he tolerated no inner machine diharmony. When the machine went to the polls to work, it was always smooth operating and "Boss" men were elected.

The words "political machine" might hit a sour note on independent philosophers of the democratic way of politics, but every county and city has one. Mostly they are characterized by pettiness and internal dissatisfaction which make them as weak as the guys running them.

Not so with the one run by the "Boss." If there were ever a machine that the word perfect fits, it was his. We don't think it means an ear of political individuality has passed.

About 55 per cent of the traffic accidents in the United States occur at night.

Constitution Amendment

S. J. R. No. 5

Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, if adopted, would amend sections 5, 21, 22 and 23 of Article IV of the constitution, and Section 24 of Article III. It would also add a new Section 61 to Article III. This proposal would authorize the legislature to fix the annual salaries of certain of the state's constitutional officials and it would set the pay of the members of the legislature at $25 for each day of a session up to 120 days.

Numerous amendments dealing with executive salaries have been submitted to the people. Only once has such an amendment been adopted, in 1935, when present salaries were fixed. Four previous proposals would have authorized the legislature to set executive salaries. Proposals to increase pay of state legislators have been presented to Texas voters thirteen times. Only one has been adopted in 1930, when present provisions were approved.

The annual salaries covered by this proposed amendment are now fixed in the constitution as follows: Governor, $12,000; Attorney General $10,000; State Treasurer, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Secretary of State, and Commissioner of the General Land Office $6,000. There is no limit in S. J. R. 5 on the annual salary rates for these officials which the legislature might adopt except that the salary could not be less than the amount now provided in the constitution.

Twenty-six states pay their governors more than does Texas. Twenty-one pay the same or less. These salaries range from $4,500 to $30,000 per annum. Twenty states pay their Attorney Generals more than Texas. Twenty-seven pay the same or less. Thirty-seven states pay their secretaries of state more than Texas does, and thirty-six pay their state treasurers more than Texas. Four other

ing the period for which he shall have been elected." Alexander Hamilton in the federalist argued for this provision to "prevent intimidation or seduction of the executive by the terrors or allurements of the pecuniary arrangements of the legislative body." It is equally true that such pressures might come from sources outside the legislature. Many states have similar restrictions as to changing salaries of state officials during current terms.

S. J. R. 5 would establish compensation of members of the legislature at $25 a day, not to exceed 120 days at any session; and nothing after the 120 days. This limit on the number of days would affect only the biennial regular sessions since special sessions are limited by the constitution to thirty days. The proposal compares with present compensation of $10 per day up to 120 and $5 per day thereafter.

Texas has been fortunate in the very able men and women who, year after year, have been willing to serve in its legislature and devote their time to public affairs, not for the pay involved, but because of a genuine desire to be of service to their state. There are arguments for and against an increase in pay for legislators, based on whether the increase would result in a higher calibre of candidates. These are not the considerations, however, which have prompted a great number of people to favor increased compensation. Rather it has been consideration for the increase in living costs and a belief that $10 a day will not cover a legislator's necessary expense.

In determining whether or not he favors or does not like Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, the voter must take in consideration all parts of the proposal. He cannot split the pay increase for legislators from the authority of the legislature to change pay of certain state officials at any time.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
 BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Proverbs 4: 1-25-7:27

 Devotional Reading: I Corinthians 13: 11

Homes Needed

Lesson for October 24, 1954

THE wonderful thing we know as the "Christian home" is never described directly in the Bible, and certainly not in the Old Testament, for you cannot have a Christian home without Christians, and there were no Christians when the Proverbs were being written. Nevertheless the Christian home has its roots in the Old Testament.

Dr. Foreman

home, and the book of Proverbs has many things to say about homes without ever using the word. (The very word "home" in its full meaning is a Christian discovery.)

Homes Are Needed

The most scientific students of humanity are telling us what Christians knew all the time: that good homes are the foundation of a good community and nation. The chief probation officer of the city of Louisville, Ky., has said that in his experience he has seen delinquent children and youths from every kind of home—rich, poor, educated, illiterate, every kind you can think of, except one. He has never seen juvenile delinquents coming out of homes where the father and mother lived a life of harmony together. Psychiatrists who deal with emotional disorders, those sicknesses of the personality which can be so devastating in middle life, have found that in probing for the causes of disturbance, they always have to inquire into the kind of home in which this person grew up. For security and stability of character and personality, what is most needed are Christian homes. Further, homes are needed for training in that most difficult and "tricky" of all arts, the art of living with other people. We get a successful democracy about as fast as we get citizens who have been learning democracy as they have lived in their homes growing up—not much faster.

What Makes a Home?

The Proverbs give many valuable hints and directions showing what is needed for successful home life. One thing, spelled out in chapters 6 and 7, is fidelity between husband and wife. Christians know that this is not the whole story. We have all seen "homes" where there was no question of infidelity involved, no ground for divorce as the church sees it, and yet where the marriage was unsuccessful and the home no home at all. For all that, fidelity lies at the base of the successful home. The wife can't cheat the husband, nor the husband the wife, without damaging all their relationships together. As the Proverbs point out, the unfaithful one hurts himself even more than he hurts his partner. Another thing needed is peace. A home that is full of quarrels is not a home but a madhouse. For some reason the Proverbs refer often to quarreling wives, seldom to quarreling husbands. Some one has said that "It takes two to make a quarrel" isn't true. One nagging person can make enough quarrels alone and insist on to break up an home. The man who "deserts" his wife, or the other way around, may turn out not to be a deserter but a refugee, as one of them said. A third thing that makes a home, as Prov. 21 shows, is work. Homes do not run themselves. "Goldilocks, Goldilocks, will thou be mine? Thou shalt not wash dishes nor yet feed the swine. But sit upon cushions and sew a fine seam. And feed upon strawberries, sugar and cream." So runs the nursery rhyme. But it is safe to say that Goldilocks and her husband would never make a happy home with that no-work program.

Who Makes a Home?

What the Proverbs say has been tested many thousand times, and is true: the home is made successful by father, mother and children, all of them. One good mother working against a husband who doesn't care and children who never cooperate, can maybe keep the home from the rocks but it will never be what it might have been. We hear so much about "home and mother" that we get the notion that one good mother is all a home needs for success. Many a sad mother could tell you this is not true. Then sometimes sentimental people say that "love" is all that is needed. That is false or true depending on what you mean.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

By Mary Lee Taylor

All-Star Cling Peach Whip

1 cup Per Evaporated Milk No. 2 1/2 can 12 marshmallows, finely cut
 2 Tablespoons finely cut marshmallows
 1/2 cup fresh cut, unseeded nuts

1/2 cup sugar
 No. 2 1/2 can peach slices
 1 teaspoon unflavored gelatin
 1/4 cup orange juice
 2 Tablespoons lemon juice

Chill milk in ice cube tray of refrigerator until ice crystals begin to form around edges. Put into a large bowl the marshmallows, cherries, nuts and sugar. Drain peaches well and save juice. Sort 10 peach slices. Dice rest of peaches into orange juice in a measuring cup. Heat 1/2 cup peach juice to boiling. Remove from heat. Add softened gelatin and stir until gelatin dissolves. Then stir into peach mixture in bowl. Chill. Put ice cold milk into a cold quart bowl with cold rotary beater at high speed or with electric beater at high speed until fluffy. Add lemon juice and whip until stiff. Fold whipped milk into peach mixture. Garnish top with peach slices. Keep chilled. Makes 6 servings.

News From Olton Excellence Award Given Olton P-TA

An award of excellence has been given to the Olton P-TA by the state Congress of Parents and Teachers. This is the highest honor given by the Congress to a P-TA organization.

Plans are being formulated to build more space to the Olton stadium, which is rapidly being outgrown.

Jerry Dennis was honored on his birthday in the home of his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall. The cake was baked in rectangular shape to represent a football field. Approximately 20 guests were present.

Mrs. R. H. Avery has recently returned from Louisiana where she visited her mother, who is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wisenbunt attended funeral services for the brother-in-law of Mrs. Wisenbunt, J. W. Owsby of Quitman, Friday.

NEW SON

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Moss are the parents of a son, Max Morgan, born Oct. 3, at Olton Memorial Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 12 ounces.

The Freshman class won the $10 prize for soliciting the greatest number of P-TA members. Jack Hysinger is president of the class. Miss Louise Boyles and Robert Fisher are class sponsors.

Charles Findley, who was injured in a rodeo accident recently, is back in school this week.

Bill Smith was in Colorado last week deer hunting. He was accompanied by several men from Hala Center.

Rev. Herbert Hatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hatley, was born on leave recently from New Jersey. He returned last weekend to report for overseas duty. Other guests in the Hatley home were Mrs. J. D. Humphries and Chris of Encino, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Hatley and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hatley and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dennis of Olton.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Maux and family spent the weekend in Weatherford with her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edwards are home in Olton after his term of service with the armed forces. Edwards own part interest in the Olton Farm Supply.

NEW MINISTER

The new minister at the Reorganized Church of Christ of the Latter Day Saints is Rev. Clifton Grant of Frisco. He succeeds Raymond Carson, president of West Texas-Eastern New Mexico district.

OLTON FEATURED

Olton was to be featured on the Personality Puzzle program of KDLN-TV Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jerry McKee and Basil served on the panel from Olton.

Mrs. Eugene Ball has been employed at the Olton Memorial hospital. She is serving as Dr. Jim Fife's nurse.

CRAZY HAT LUNCHEON

In an unusual setting in the home of Mrs. H. B. Macey Jr., six prizes were awarded at the "crazy hat" luncheon Thursday.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Macey were Mrs. Dale Walthall and Mrs. Leroy Hackler.

First prize for the prettiest hat went to Mrs. James Fite; second to Mrs. David Macey. First prize for the ticklest hat went to Mrs. W. T. Hall and second prize went to Mrs. Delmer Given. Mrs. Ira Foster received first prize for the craziest hat and Mrs. Albert Walhall took second.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Earl Hysinger, Mrs. Jack Stone, and Mrs. W. B. Dickerson. Prizes for games during the luncheon went to Mrs. Alton Carr and Mrs. A. J. Given.

Prizes for the luncheon in addition to the prize winners and hostesses were Mercedes Elmer McCall, Lowell McGill, Lynn Fite, Owen Norfleet, Mansell Choate, George Redinger, Joe Turner, Everett Lovelace, Bert Stewart, Cecil Callaway, Lousie Hair and Mitchell Haddad.

Texas Farm Income Up 5 Per Cent January-August

AUSTIN, Texas—Texas farmers' cash income for January-August of this year increased five per cent over the first eight months of 1953, despite adverse effects of the drought upon the agricultural picture as a whole.

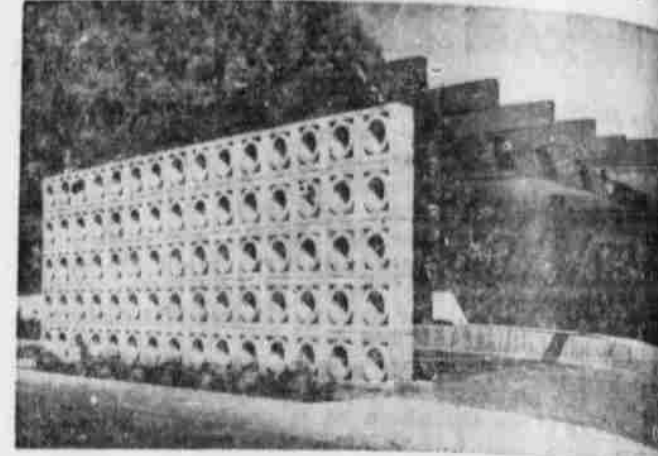

The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research says this increase in farm income is encouraging in view of the damage wrought by the drought in the form of dry streams, low crop harvests and parched pastures and fields. Total 1954 farm cash income through August reached $963.1 million.

Among individual farm commodities, sharpest increases in income were in peanuts, 59 per cent; cotton, 47 per cent; cottonseed, 42 per cent, and corn, 14 per cent. Declines were registered in rice, 53 per cent; milk and milk products, 19 per cent; fruit and vegetables, 18 per cent, and calves nine per cent. Comparing prices received by farmers for the first eight months of this year and the same January-August period in 1953, the most notable difference is seen in the 44 per cent decrease in fruit prices, the bureau said. This was overcome to some extent by a 14 per cent increase in oil-bearing crops and a four per cent rise in cotton prices. Livestock prices rose four per cent, but dairy products dropped nine per cent from the January-August prices of 1953.

Rail car shipments of Texas livestock increased 72 per cent in August from July shipments, indicating stockmen's continuing policy of culling their herds as much as possible in order to conserve feed and water supplies. Livestock shipments increased 42 per cent during the first eight months of the year, compared with the 1953 period.

Flue Blocks Make Wall

For the home-owner who wants something a little different, here's an idea from American Builder, the light construction industry magazine: Use concrete chimney flue blocks to make a striking-looking wall along a patio. The blocks give a good measure of privacy without shutting out the breeze, which passes through the open centers of the blocks. American Builder says this is only one of the many conventional and unconventional—for concrete products.

Mrs. Rosson Enters Vegetable Farming On Family Size Scale

By BILLYE WATSON

Vegetable farming is being practiced more and more in this area even though the headway is still slight. One staunch supporter of vegetable farming on a family-size scale is Mrs. C. W. Rosson of Sod House community.

This year Mrs. Rosson has canned 400 pints of vegetables for her family, 100 pints for others, used fresh vegetables at home and shared—in the literal sense of the word—vegetables with five other families. All from her garden covering one-fifth of an acre on the Rosson farm northwest of Amherst.

Besides sharing the vegetables, Mrs. Rosson had regularly presented vegetables to friends and relatives since she started harvesting squash, okra, tomatoes, melons, beans and other vegetables the first part of June.

She expects to harvest vegetables until frost, usually the first week of November. She emphasized that the important factor in a good garden is planning the amount that can be used. She said the choice time for planting is late June or early August for an easy garden, adding that a spring garden is nice only if it is well-protected. Otherwise the later planting time means that vegetables can be canned and frozen at a better time during weather that's "not too hot."

Mrs. Hazel Hickman, county home demonstration agent, said

"Here garden is cleaner than most gardens we see." One reason for this, according to Mrs. Rosson, is the amount of work put in by the family. Another reason is because there is not an excess amount in the garden. The amount of produce from the garden has been high because

The Basic Idea Behind the All-New 1955 PONTIAC

On Display October 29 and 30

ABOUT 30 years ago General Motors Corporation presented to America a new car called Pontiac. This new car was the direct result of a very specific idea.

The idea was this: to create a car which took its style, its engineering principles and its features from the very best and most expensive in America—and to build these into a car priced just above the very lowest!

Naturally, such an idea produced a wonderful and highly popular car—a car which millions of satisfied owners have driven with outstanding pride and pleasure.

Now, nearly three decades later, an entirely new Pontiac has been created for 1955—a car completely new from the ground up!

One thing, however, about the 1955 Pontiac remains unchanged—its basic idea—to offer the American public the very finest car that can possibly be built to sell at a price within easy reach of any new-car buyer.

When you see the new Pontiac on Friday or Saturday—Oct. 29 or 30—you will be immediately impressed by its remarkable new styling. No other car in the world looks like this new Pontiac!

When you drive it you will be astonished at its performance. For the 1955 Pontiac introduces the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8, an all-new engine that has already been proved in more than 3 million test miles!

When you price the new Pontiac you will come face to face with the basic Pontiac idea—you will be agreeably surprised that so much car, so much sparkling newness, so much luxury, so much downright goodness can be priced so near the very lowest.

We cordially invite you to come in on Friday or Saturday and see for yourself what a superb all-new General Motors masterpiece has been created to carry the wonderful name "Pontiac" for 1955.

This Week's "Player of the Week"

(Five dollars will be given to W. D. Chapman for this week's winning letter)

Sir:

I would like to nominate Wayne Wicker for the player of the week. His number 33 was seen quite often on many tackles in the first half.

All his great running catch that netted 40 yards and another one was good for a touchdown, was greatly admired by many fans.

All the boys played a better brand of football Friday and really looked good.

The Bread Of Life

By TOMMY WILLIAMS, Minister

In Capernaum, Jesus taught men who, the day before, had been among five thousand miraculously fed by Him with five loaves and two small fishes. With this appropriate setting, Jesus portrayed Himself as being to us spiritually what food is to us physically. He said, "I am the bread of life." By saying that His words are "spirit and they are life," He taught that we partake of Him as we receive His word and abide by its teaching. Read the sixth chapter of John.

righteousness, for they shall be filled" (Matthew 5:6).

2. Food maintains life; prevents starvation. "For the bread of God is He Who cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world" (John 6:33).

3. It build up the body. "I commend you to God and to the word of His grace which is able to build you up..." (Acts 20:32).

4. Good diet helps prevent disease. Jesus can prevent disease. Jesus can prevent the condition described in I Corinthians 11:30 of being "weak and sickly."

5. Food gives energy with which to work. "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" (Philippians 4:13).

Let us work for "that meat which endureth unto everlasting life."

Football Knows No Color In West Virginia School

A Newsfeature

INSTITUTE, W. Va. — Many times sport has been the key to the door of tolerance. But at Negro West Virginia State College here the key has been unique.

It recently was discovered that four white students had reported for football drills at State.

The surprise came not so much from the fact that white students were out for football, as from the fact that white students had even enrolled at State. It was not publicized by State's officials.

After the Supreme Court ruled segregation of white and Negro students unconstitutional earlier this year, West Virginia took preliminary steps to end it. At the high schools, demonstrations against Negroes, resulted, at a few Negroes enrolled at the state's white colleges without incident.

It still came as a surprise to most persons that white students, estimated 100 of them, had rolled at State, one of West Virginia's two state-supported colleges. State's 1953-54 enrollment was about 900.

Sports writers accidentally stumbled on the fact that football coach Mark Caldwell, star at late in 1923-14, had white students on his squad.

Caldwell said he expects two of the white students, John Caldwell and Dick Bruner, to see a good deal of action this season against State's all-Negro opponents. Caldwell was first string lineman on a good 1950 squad at nearby Nitro High School, and Bruner starred at center in 1952 at Dunbar High.

Dave Collins, one of the first four white candidates for the football team at West Virginia State, a state-supported Negro school, shakes hands with teammate Harry Levy.

From the other two candidates, Caldwell expects less help, but he describes them as good prospects. They are Gene Brightwell and Dave Collins who led the scoring in the potent Kanawha County Scholastic League while at Nitro during the 1951-1952 seasons.

Among the reasons State is attractive to white students is that it is the only state-supported school in the heavily-populated Kanawha Valley, which includes Charleston, the state capital; its faculty has an exceptionally good reputation, and the tuition is only $25 a semester, considerably less than tuition at available private schools.

The group will meet two more times with final proposals to be submitted to the governor.

VANDALISM

Vandals operating on state highways are costing taxpayers $200,000 annually, highway department officials point out.

Enormous expenses are inflicted by destroying and damaging highway signs, littering roads and roadsides, and tearing up roadside-park facilities, spokesmen said.

Signs are most popular victims, either being destroyed outright, taken home for souvenirs, or taken home for souvenirs, or stuck.

DROUGHT PLAN

A federal drought relief program for Texas stockmen "isn't doing anyone much good," says John C. White, State Commissioner of Agriculture.

White, attending a federal drought committee conference in Washington, said state attempts to get rules simplified only resulted in an offer of "further complications."

Negotiations will continue for a better drought program, he stated, but added that at present he is "bitterly disappointed."

TEXAS CONSTRUCTION

Construction activity over the state fell six per cent in August from a June peak but is still high in comparison with 1953, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Statistician Richard C. Henshaw said the August dip dropped totals for nonresidential building permits to the lowest of the year. However, contracts awarded for construction this year are still

QUICK SWITCH

CORNISH, N. H. — Clifford Peterson, cooking breakfast in his home, saw his 1952 automobile being driven off across the field. Hurrying out to investigate, he found another car, also a 1952 model, had been left in his garage.

Police said the car was out of gas and that apparently was the reason for the switch.

nine per cent over the first eight months of 1953, he reported.

CRIME DROP

A 3.7 per cent drop in Texas crime for the first half of 1954 is reported by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Texans have been called on by Governor Allan Shivers to observe November as Religion in American Life month and Sunday, November 28, as Temperance Sunday.

OPTOMETRY ADVERTISING

Optometrists who believe in advertising have won a fight with the Board of Examiners in Optometry which proposed banning the practice by members.

Rules adopted Sept. 18 to become effective Oct. 4 were repealed by the board after severe criticism from members and outsiders over prohibition of display advertising. The regulations also forbid optometrists from doing business under trade or assumed names.

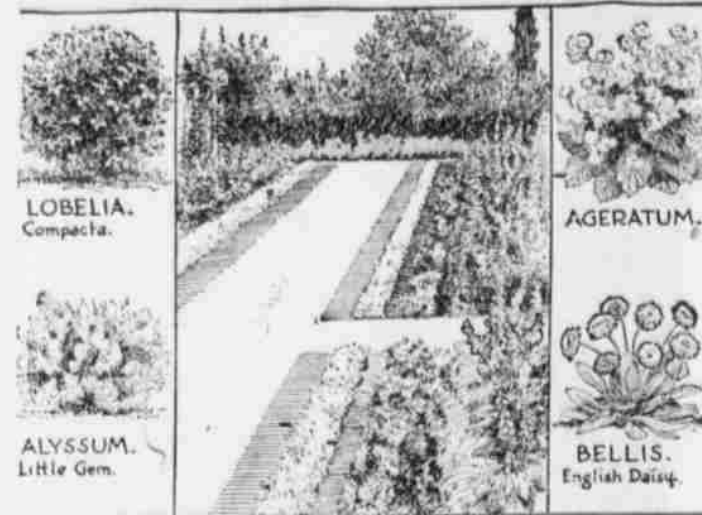

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd was named as the motivating force behind the decision by the Board.

In a written statement the board accused Shepperd of refusing to represent it in a test case of the new regulations.

Shepperd in turn said he had informed them a year ago that the rules were unconstitutional. He refused to represent the board in a test case filed in the Austin 53rd District court.

The regulations had never been enforced because of restraining orders issued in Dallas and Beaumont district courts.

Dwarf Flowers are Best for Front Yard Borders

TYPES OF PLANTS USED FOR BORDERS AND EDGING AND SKETCH SHOWING EXAMPLE OF THEIR USE.

"Edging" or "ribbon" plants are in great demand among home gardeners for planting along the boundary of a flower bed or border, to give it a trim look, and add color to the composition.

Garden paths, can be planted attractively with dwarf plants which "stay put" and can be relied upon not to get in the way.

Sweet alyssum is deservedly popular, for its snowy carpet of fragrant blossoms. The dark purple alyssum Violet queen is equally attractive, and white and violet plants can be alternated, with good effect.

Dwarf ageratum and lobelia make bushy plants covered with blue-lavender flowers which combine with all other colors and enhance their beauty. The English daisies (bellis perennis) are double flowers of white, red and pink borne on bushy 8-inch plants.

The dainty blue, rose and white blooms of the Swan River daisy are material for a beautiful border. The dwarf candytuft are rivals of the alyssum for snowy whiteness as well as giving beautiful shades of lilac and carnation.

A tiny marigold, Tagetes signata pumila, bearing myriads of brilliant orange flowers above fernlike sweet-scented foliage, is a handsome border plant making a solid miniature flowering hedge.

Other good dwarfs are: Antirrhinum (Snapdragon) "Magic Carpet" — Eight inches tall. All snapdragon colors mixed.

California Poppy (Eschscholzia) — Dwarf erect varieties; soft apricot, double rose; deep scarlet; frilled mixed.

Calliopis (Tickseed) — Dwarf mixed in shades of maroon, garnet, yellow.

Petunias — Martha Washington; Admiral, Cream Star.

Portulaca (Moss Rose) — All warm colors.

Verbena — Dwarf varieties — all warm colors.

Viscaria — Tom Thumb or dwarf sorts — Rose; white; blue.

Zinnia linearis — Golden orange.

Highlights And Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VEEN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — Absentee balloting in the November 2 general election stated Oct. 13 but no one expecting the peak of interest, out saw 15,200,000 voters turn out for the Democratic August runoff primary.

However, Governor Allan Shivers said he hoped Texas voters would not by-pass the election. He is supporting all eleven constitutional amendments on the ballot which would be "very helpful" to him, he added.

Besides deciding the official election of political candidates, amendments, votes cast in the election will determine representation at 1956 local political party conventions.

ANTITRUST LAWS

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd has told the Texas Supreme court that it hindered state efforts to enforce antitrust legislation when it ruled it had no jurisdiction in an El Paso case.

The court decided in July to let the National Labor Relations board handle the case of Truck Drivers, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Local No. 941 against Whitefield Transportation Co.

By reversing decisions of two lower state courts against the union and ruling that it did not have jurisdiction, the Supreme court had the effect "of placing labor unions, as well as employers who conspire in restraint of trade," beyond the jurisdiction and enforcement of the state, argued Shepperd.

MINIMUM WAGE

A state minimum wage law has been advocated as part of a legislative program adopted by the executive board of the State Federation of Labor. The board favors setting a minimum wage of 75¢ an hour.

It also called for 200 additional state highway patrolmen and an increase over the present $280 a month pay for a 64-hour week.

ROAD FINANCING

A boost in gasoline taxes and a weight and distance levy on heavy trucks are being considered as ways of providing additional financing for Texas highways.

Pondering the ideas are members of 58 public and private organizations called together by the Texas Highway commission at the suggestion of Governor Alan Shivers.

Texas has reached the point where needed improvement must be made on roads, Shivers told the group. Need was shown at the meeting for $2.2 billion for necessary improvement and construction on Texas 51,000 miles of roads. A one-cent gasoline tax hike would bring in $20,750,000, a discussion of ways to provide financing pointed out.

NILES, Mich. (AP) — James P. Briggs Jr., 23, must have been playing a lot of golf. Police found five bushels of practice golf balls in his basement.

Briggs was charged with stealing them from a practice driving range.

Dave Eaton Quoted In New Farm Publication

A suggestion on how to get part of the big grain crop on the South Plains is in the November issue of the progressive Farmer magazine. The article "Sell Sorghum To Hogs," Mrs. Louise Allen points out that some farmers have found they can increase their profit grain by feeding it to hogs.

HURD, world-famous artist from San Patricio, N. M., surveys part of his 16-panel fresco in the Rotunda of the Museum at Texas Technological college, Lubbock. The mural, of its type in Texas, will be completed early next month. Each panel will feature the work of a man or woman who made a significant contribution to the development of West Texas. Actual work on the mural was begun in February, 1953.

Two Charged With Violation Of Liquor Law

Two persons were arrested over the weekend on charges of violation of the liquor law and nine were charged with being drunk, Lamb county deputies reported.

Sheriff Dick Dyer and Deputy V. L. Smith late Saturday evening arrested Richard Porch in Olton on a liquor violation charge.

The officers confiscated approximately two and one-half gallons of whiskey. Deputy Shorty Randolph, the same day, arrested Joe Herrier of Earth, also on a liquor violation charge. Some 32 half pints were confiscated. Four persons were charged with fighting.

Just Call 'em 'Sack Hounds'

FT. SAM HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Soldiers training to be hospital corpsmen here learn what a hospital bed is like from the patient's viewpoint as well as the medic's.

Sometimes even, the sack hounds have to admit there can be too much of a good thing. In a practice ward, half the men in each training company are put to bed under hospital conditions. The other half acts as corpsmen. Then the positions are reversed.

The "patient" is fed by hand, his back is rubbed, his bed is made while he's in it, and he undergoes treatment for all kinds of ailments.

Brig. Gen. L. Holmes Ginn jr., commander of the Medical Training Center, says: "The psychological insight into how it feels to be a patient is a valuable contribution to the hospital worker's efficiency."

Pvt. Bill Bryant, a trainee, said: "I learned more about actual hospital duties in the one day on the ward than I did during weeks in the classroom. Staying in bed for 24 hours isn't as much fun as it sounds. It got pretty boring there."

Bill Criswell Returning To U. S.

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—William T. Criswell Jr., seaman, USN, of Olton, Texas is scheduled to arrive here Oct. 24th aboard the destroyer USS Stembel which is returning from her third tour of duty in the Western Pacific.

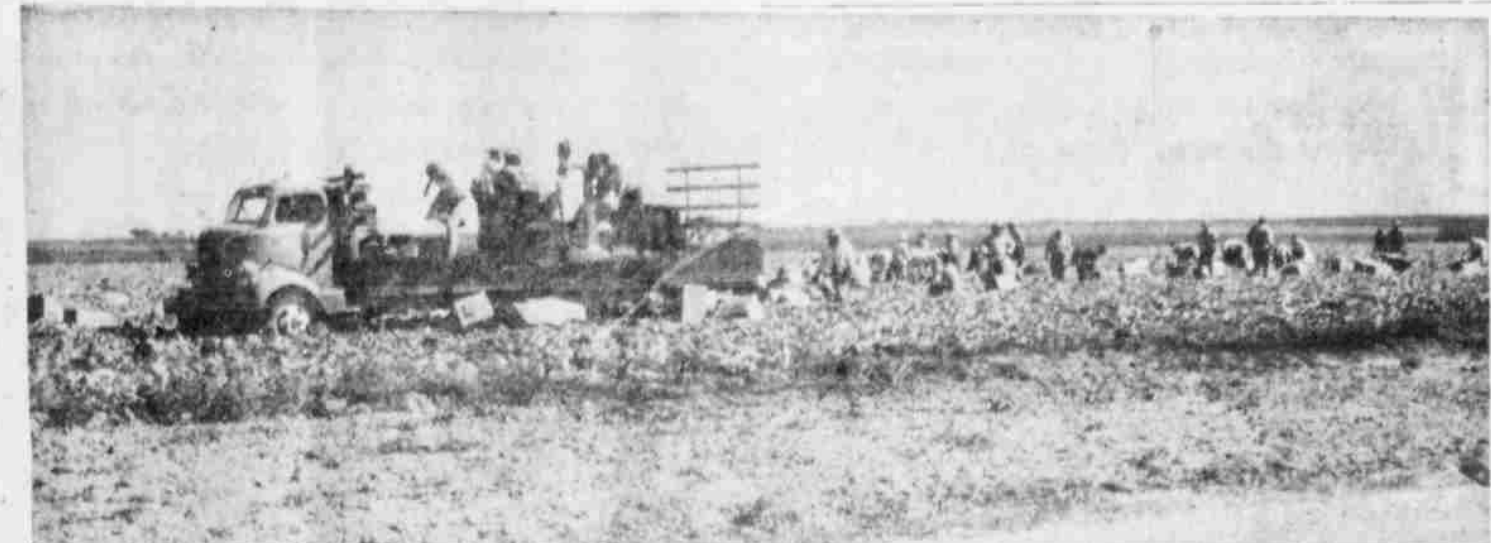

During the cruise, the Stembel took part in fast carrier task force operation and hunter-killer exercises. She visited Guam, Subic Bay, and Manila in the Philippine Islands, Kobe and Yokosuka, Japan.

Learns Bear Facts ...

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. George Caprol drove their son, Bob, to St. Joseph's college, Collegeville, Ind., for the start of freshman football practice. They noticed some huge characters tearing up and down the field, and decided son Bob should try his hand at another sport.

It turned out happily for Bob, though, when his folks were assured the big boys were the professional Chicago Bears making use of the college facilities for early season drills.

HARVEST BEGINS ON 100 acres of lettuce planted in the Springlake-Earth area by Billy Hodge, Sandy Sanderson, Bill Burrows, Earl Parish, Frank Bozeman and Mike Dent. The field, above, owned by Billy Hodge, is expected to make from 250 to 300 crates to the acre. Present market price is $6 per crate and going up. Cost of picking and packing it $2.75 per crate. Cost of raising this crop was about $100 per acre. In addition to frequent watering and cultivation, lettuce must be sprayed for pests every seven to 10 days, which accounts for the high production cost. The lettuce above requires a 69-day growing season after planting. Buyers from Muleshoe and Hereford are competing for the crop in this area since most of the growers did not contract their crop but are growing it on their own and will sell to the highest bidder when the crop is ready to harvest. Football, 1-2 Style ...

OMAHA — In the opening two football games this season for the Boys Town High School football team, the one-two punch for the first touchdown came from a tackle and an end.

In each game Boys Town shot in front when Ed Glenville Hepburn blocked a punt and tackle Ed Render grabbed the ball to carry it into the end zone. The first time Render went 30 yards and the second 35 yards.

When 13 Was Lucky ...

DETROIT (AP) — Coach Buddy Parker of the NFL champion Detroit Lions is a superstitious man. He has a keen disdain for the number 13. He even refuses a hotel room if it's on the 13th floor.

He was worried when his team played the college all-stars on Friday, Aug. 13. But his worrying went for naught. The Lions won 31-6.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "Furry," the excited caller told police headquarters, "There's a man hanging from a window on the 12th floor of the hotel."

Police squad cars reported back "Just a pair of pants drying - cancel the call."

Freeman Francis, a clothes presser at the hotel, had washed the trousers and hung them out the window on a piece of wire to dry. To the excited passerby the shadow of the swaying trousers on the side of the building looked like a man.

We're out to make a Record
— and how can we miss with a hit like this ?

WE'RE shooting for the biggest October in Buick history and we're willing to go all out to make it.

Right now, Buick is outselling every other car in the nation—regardless of price class—except two of the so-called "low-priced three."

So you know that it has the combination of horsepower—room—comfort—performance—and styling too good to miss.

And it isn't hard for you to figure out that Buick dealers must be offering the kind of prices and trade-ins that the public goes for—because you can't make record sales these days unless you have everything it takes to make a winning combination.

Come in and see us, and you'll know what we mean.

- Here's the big 3-Way Bonus we offer in Buick today
- 1. Advanced Styling — the very look of tomorrow, with long, low glamor lines, sports-car snap, and that trend-setting panoramic windshield that most other cars won't have till 1955 or later.
  - 2. Better Buy — a lot more automobile for your money — more room and power and ride comfort and solidity of structure — plus the higher resale value of a car that will still be fresh and new-looking well into the future.
  - 3. Top Allowance — from the tremendous volume that has put Buick into the top 3 of the nation's best sellers. So you get the benefit of our soaring success in the form of a higher trade-in allowance on your present car. Come in and check!

This New Buick Special V8
2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan actually costs less than some models of the "low-price three"
Come in and check the price!

Buick Sales are Soaring

County Soil Conservation District Gives Pointers On Grass Planting

By LAMB COUNTY SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Ranchers and stockmen cooperating with the Lamb County Soil Conservation district are becoming increasingly concerned about the quality and quantity of grasses in their ranges and pastures.

During the recent drought, much of the grassland in the district has been seriously damaged. Rains have failed to restore range and pastures to its once prosperous condition. Much of the better grassland has deteriorated to the point where it will no longer support livestock without supplemental feeding. This is an expensive proposition. Good pasture is about five times cheaper than any other livestock feed.

CASH CROP IS GRASS
The prolonged drought of the past several years has emphasized that the livestock producers' cash crop is grass. Livestock convert grass from an unusable form into usable products such as milk, beef, mutton, etc. Where pastures are in poor condition, livestock spend most of their time and energy looking for something to eat and production declines in proportion to the forage available. Carried to the extreme, overgrazing in time results in no grazing and the rancher is obliged to cut his herd or locate other pastures. Generally speaking, the more high quality grass a rancher is able to raise on his acreage, the lower his cost of production, and the greater his net profit.

In the past most ranchers have been chiefly concerned with the improvement of livestock through selective breeding and other good management practices. This is a very important part of any livestock program but drought conditions have brought home to many that the quality and quantity of grass in pastures is the foundation on which all improvement depends in the long run. High quality livestock deserves high quality forage.

DOES FOUR JOBS
Grass does four very important jobs for the stockman. (1) It prevents erosion of the topsoil; (2) it enables the soil to absorb more water quicker; (3) It improves soil fertility and (4) It provides cheap feed for livestock. Drought damaged, overgrazed ranges can be restored to a state of high production in two different ways. First and easiest is range deferment. This is simply removing all livestock and resting the pasture to allow the grasses to regain vigor and make seed. Second is reseeding the pasture. This method is practical only when the range has been abused to the point where there are no longer any of the high quality grasses left to provide seed.

Reseeding must be followed by deferment otherwise the operator is simply wasting seed. Either method results in temporary loss of income but this is offset by increased yields in succeeding years. Stockmen should always remember that there is no simple, sure fire easy way to reseed a pasture. Results are often disappointing and success depends to a large extent on the operators persistence and management.

USE THESE GRASSES
Some of the higher quality grasses that are native to this area and that can be used for range reseeding are Indian grass, Switch grass, Sand bluestem, Little bluestem, Sideoat grama, and buffalo grass. They are usually planted in mixtures and seed can be obtained at most local feed stores. When reseeding range with the above grasses either alone or in mixtures the rancher should keep in mind the depth of the soil and select his seed mixture accordingly. For soils deeper than 20 inches use a mixture with Indian grass, Sand bluestem, and Switch grass predominating. For soils 10 to 20 inches deep use a mixture with Little bluestem and Sideoat grama predominant and for shallow soils 10 inches or less, use a mixture with Blue grama and Buffalo grass making up most of the mixture. By following this rule more satisfactory stands of grass will be obtained. By their habits of growth and deep root systems, Indian grass, switch grass and sand bluestem will grow but will not do as well on the shallower soils. Proper selection of the right kind of seed is simply working with nature and not against it. Ranchers should remember that there is a direct pocketbook relationship between the amount of good high quality grass that is on a pasture and the amount of beef that can be sold off that pasture. Declining or damaged pastures are soon reflected in the operators net profit.

RANCHERS COOPERATING
Some of the ranchers that are striving to improve their ranges and their methods include Paul Lewis and Ira J. Rice, near Bull Lake, who are using blue panicum grass for supplemental grazing. This enables them to rest their native range grass so they can set seed, and provide a litter into the ground. This eliminates the buying of high priced feed. Frank Daugherty of the Otton community used a native grass mixture of Sand bluestem, Indian grass and Sideoat grama to reseed some sandy cropland. This will add to his grazing acres and thus lessen the load on his other grass land. In the Sudan community on the sandy soils, weeping love grass is giving good results. Francis Smith, Joe West, E. J. Stone, Marvin May and others can attest to the fine results obtained. For additional information on this and other conservation matters please contact the Soil Conservation Service technicians in Amherst.

At this time of year, landlords and tenants alike are thinking about farm rental arrangements for 1954. While many operate from year to year on the basis of verbal agreements regulated largely by local customs, written leases are better and may save disagreement and hard feelings between the parties. Farming is a business and should be conducted in a businesslike manner for best success. Rental contracts involve a full year's work by the tenant and possibly thousands of dollars for both parties. A few dollars spent on a properly drawn agreement is good business economy.

A farm lease is not a simple paper. Printed lease forms often turn out to be traps if not understood, or if not properly executed. A farmer-tenant contract is as intricate and of such importance to both parties concerned that amateur draftsmanship is risky.

Fixing of cash rent or designing the length of term are relatively simple. Yet, even in these matters, ambiguity or incompleteness can cause bitter disputes and expensive lawsuits.

A loosely drawn property description may have consequences entirely unintended by either landlord or tenant. Where rent is to be based on acreage, an accurate description is doubly important.

In addition, there are legal rules to substitute for some omissions in written leases. For example, the tenant who holds over beyond his term may automatically renew the contract if the lease is silent on the subject. It is as important to know the results of omissions as to know the courts' interpretation of the language used.

There are many matters which should be covered by a properly drawn lease for instance, if a tenant is to farm on a share basis, care should be taken to define what expenses are to be paid by the parties as well as what shares are to be taken out. A lease should cover such things as who is to make repairs, what land to be cropped, whether the tenant can cut timber, whether loss of a building by fire or other cause frees the tenant, or whether the landlord must accept a sub-tenant.

One great cause of difficulty with leases is blind faith on the part of the persons involved that all differences of opinion can be worked out. Poor memories as to verbal agreements can cause disputes between persons even though they are both honest and generous.

Many of the possibilities that should be covered by a properly drawn lease will not occur to inexperienced persons. The renting of land deserves a written contract, and it is a contract too important to be entrusted to anyone other than an expert.

Manuel Kesner Aboard Destroyer

NEWPORT, R. I.—Manuel E. Kesner, commissaryman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Kesner, 1218 W. Sixth St., Littlefield, is aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Fechteler, scheduled to arrive here Oct. 27, completing a tour of duty in the far East.

In early May the Fechteler joined units of the Atlantic Fleet and left San Diego, Calif., for the Far East. She saw duty with the UN Korean patrol, and fast carrier task force 77, and took part in anti-submarine warfare training exercises.

There was also time for liberty in such ports as Pearl Harbor, T. H., Yokosuka, Kobe and Sasebo, Japan; Subic Bay and Manila, Philippine Islands.

In early September the Fechteler departed the Far East and began her journey home to Newport, R. I., where she will become part of the Atlantic Fleet.

Lightning caused 8 per cent of the fires occurring in the United States during the past 10 years. The fastest man can travel immersed in water is 2.62 miles per hour.

Flowers, Both Real and Wood Fibre, Net Sudan Woman Funds For Furniture

By Mrs. Evelyn M. Scott

SUDAN—Mrs. Allen Beale, farm housewife and mother, has no dull moments and never lacks for things to do as she fills her days with farm chores, house work, and club, school, church and hobby activities.

Flowers are a "must" in Mrs. Beale's life as she uses any "spare minutes" left over from her other duties to work at her hobbies—raising real flowers and making artificial ones.

In raising flowers Mrs. Beale's favorite is the dahlia of which she has 42 specimens. Her husband, Allen, shares her enthusiasm for growing flowers and prepares her garden ground each year and gives her a helping hand.

Mrs. Beale says her interest in flowers developed after she was married and had a home of her own. When she was a girl she was too interested in sports and being a "tom boy" to be interested in flowers. She laughingly recalls that she would never water her mother's flowers if she could get out of it.

But time changes everything—and Mrs. Beale no longer has to be coaxed to work with flowers. Instead she spends every free minute she has working with them.

She has a special knack for flower arrangement and has numerous awards she has won at Flower Shows to bear out this fact.

"If dry weather keeps me from growing them, then I'll make them," says Mrs. Beale, when speaking of her hobby of making the romantic wood fibre flower.

The many kinds of wood fibre flowers she makes have a life-like feel and are made from fibre taken from trees grown on the western slope of the Island of Formosa. Mrs. Beale's son, Bobby, shares her interest in this hobby and can make carnations as well as she can.

Mrs. Beale first made organza flowers—then ordered supplies for the wood fibre flowers and has been busy since supplying friends with orders for corsages, centerpieces and pot plants. Last year this hobby netted Mrs. Beale with funds to buy furnishings for her living room.

Mrs. Beale is a lover of music too, and is an ardent supporter of the Sudan school band. She serves as president of the Band Parents organization. She feels that all effort should be made to encourage children's interest in music and hand work.

Mrs. Beale has two sons, Bobby, who is a freshman in Sudan high, and Dewayne, who is employed in Lubbock.

Jockey Still Riding . . .

NEW YORK (AP)—Jockey Eric Guerin didn't follow his favorite high money winner-mount, Native Dancer, into retirement. He came right along to ride two Foxcatcher Farm winners in two days at Aqueduct. He rode Chevation to win the $29,550 Discovery Handicap. And the following day he brought in Parlo, a three-year-old filly, to win the $64,100 Beldame handicap.

MAKING WOOD FIBRE FLOWERS IS PROFITABLE HOBBY. Mrs. Beale Enjoys Growing and Arranging Flowers.
