A total of 89 men and women, candidates for work as public servants for the citizens of Lamb County and the state of Texas, this week entered the final phase of their campaign to convince voters which of them should be chosen to fill the 41 jobs open.

The Democratic Primary Election Saturday, July 22, may determine which 11 candidates will fill 8 county offices, which 22 candidates will be chosen for 16 precinct offices, and the names of 57 men and women who will fill 17 state, national and district offices.

Women Dressed as Man In "Fair" Condition After Leg Amputation

A twenty-year-old woman, identified as Thelma Elizabeth Eaton, of Alvin, whose leg was crushed in a concrete mixer here shortly before 11:00 a. m., Friday, was reported this week to be recovering and in fair condition at Littlefield Hospital.

The woman's foot and ankle had been crushed, and doctors had to amputate her leg above the knee.

Dressed As Man

The woman, who was dressed in the clothing of a man was employed by the Plains Concrete Conduit Company under the impression that she was a man, according to Roy Ferguson, manager of the company. She had given her name as "Joe L. Moneyhand" late Thursday afternoon when she made application for employment with the company as a construction worker doing the work of a man.

A second woman who identified herself as Betty Louise Davis, 21, of Little Rock, Arkansas, and who had said at first she was married to the victim, later explained they had lived together for about two months. She told a reporter Friday afternoon that she had met the Eaton woman at the Prez Cafe in

Jaycee Anti-Polio Campaign To Sponsor Candidate's Rally

The Jaycees' anti-polio campaign pushed ahead this week.

The organization made plans for a house-to-house canvas for funds, placed contribution jars in all cafes, and planned a candidate's rally tomorrow night in downtown Littlefield, where those attending will be able to contribute all their wish for the fight against disease.

The Jaycees are raising funds and the City is furnishing equipment and know-how for the battle against dread polio.

Last year, after the tagging campaign in June, no one case of the disease appeared in Littlefield. Before the drive, three cases had been reported.

Recent rains have filled ponds, ditches and other mosquito-breeding places, and it is imperative that counter-measures be taken immediately, the Jaycees pointed out.

"Skipper" Smith, president of the Jaycees, said last year about $2000 were raised. The organization hopes to raise the same or a greater amount this year so that all fogging, dusting and cleaning plans may be successfully carried out.

The candidate's rally tomorrow night, July 19, which will be held between the First National Bank and the Yellowhouse Building will be broadcast over Station KVOW for an hour or an hour and fifteen minutes, Smith said. The rally is scheduled to begin at 9 p. m. so that those attending Wednesday, (Continued on back page)

BERLIN COMMUNISTS BLOW UP CHURCH... The historic Georgian church, one of Berlin's most famous landmarks on the Alexander Platz, survived the fire and explosion of World War II. The Communists, contrary to reports by engineers, termed it unsafe and destroyed it by dynamite. Protestant leaders protested, but the demolition squad destroyed it as Communist police and Russian soldiers cowed an indignant crowd of Berliners. The church was damaged by World War II bombs.

Huston Hoover Tells Lions Club Members Of Scout Jamboree

A regular noonday luncheon of the Lions Club Wednesday, July 12, heard Huston Hoover, assistant scoutmaster, Troop No. 4, tell the highlights of the trip he took with two scouts and four explorers of Littlefield Post, No. 41 to the International Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

Stating that the Jamboree was an affair "so massive and impressive" that it defied description, Hoover told how almost 50,000 boys gathered together on the winter camping ground of General George Washington's revolutionary army, and re-dedicated themselves to liberty and freedom.

35 Miles of Frankfurters Hoover said that for the scouts the most important aspect of the trip were meeting people, putting on shows, doing and seeing. For the adults the boys, themselves, were the main attraction.

"This great mass of almost 50,000 boys," Hoover said, "gathered on the 4-mile-square Valley Forge camping ground was something I will never forget." He added that there were 5,000 gallons of ice cream on hand one day, 35 miles of frankfurters for two meals, 100,000 pounds of meat, two freight cars full of breakfast cereal, 100,000 gallons of milk. The scouts were organized on a patrol basis in groups of ten and cooked their own meals.

WHERE IS E. C. JACO? Your Lost Dog Is In Ladonia, Texas

The Leader is in receipt of a message from Mrs. Russell Hulseley of Ladonia, Texas, with the following announcement:

Found a small brown Airedale dog. Has collar harness with tag 1950 Littlefield Dog Tag No. 99. Information from Mrs. Russell Hulseley, Ladonia, Texas.

On receipt of this postal, a representative of the Leader contacted the City Secretary's office, and found that this tag was sold to E. C. Jaco; and that the breed of the dog is given as Mexican.

From the above it would seem that Mrs. Hulseley has found the dog, or it has strayed to her home at Ladonia, Texas. It might be that the owner of the dog is in the vicinity of Ladonia picking cotton. In any case, the owner of the dog may recover same by contacting Mrs. Hulseley at Ladonia, Texas.

All local candidates are to be given time to speak briefly in behalf of their candidacy, and District and State candidates will also be given some time, according to plans which were completed Monday night at the regular meeting of the Lions Club.

The Lions have arranged to supply refreshments for the accommodation of those who wish to buy them. But this will be done more to show the candidates and the people a good time than to make money.

The speaking will be in the park. Col. Matthews will set up his P.A. system so there will be no difficulty in hearing the speakers.

Hart Camp News

By CARL TIMMINS

When it showers, it pours, both literally and otherwise out Hart Camp way. And when people do a thing out there they do it up well, for instance you might consider the bridal shower given in honor of Roy Hendricks and his recent bride, the former Miss Toni Sullivan.

The gala event was held in the gymnasium of the Hart Camp School. People started gathering about eight o'clock, and by nine there was a good number present. The men and boys were soon playing dominoes, or watching others play.

Then the bride and groom started opening the huge pile of gifts, which were passed around and observed by all.

The bride very graciously thanked everybody for the shower. The community shower came to an end when plenty of delicious home made ice cream and cookies were served to all.

ODDS 'N ENDS

The W. K. Mahaffy family were visiting in Temple over the week end. Otis Sullivan visited with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sullivan over the week end. J. K. Osthuis, C. M. Osthuis, and C. E. Timmins went to Buffalo Lake on a fishing jaunt over the week end, all news about their catch must be a secret because they didn't talk much.

Farmers were beginning to wonder if they were going to have to put pontoons on their tractors at the last of last week, but at the beginning of this week there were as many tractors in the fields as flees on a dog's back. Crops sure look good around Hart Camp except when one is observing them from the end of a hoe handle. Oh my aching feet. Maybe if some of those communists that have been raising so much dust in Korea were put on a hoe handle for a week or two they might stop some of their meanness.

The Hart Camp Baptist Church will hold their regular fall revival meeting beginning July 28 and running through August 6. Reverend Avery Sullivan, recently pastor at Smyer, will do the preaching. Everyone is cordially invited, the pastor, Reverend Charles Vanlandingham announced.

Nuff said now.

Olton Postal Receipts Reach All Time High For Year Ending July 1

Postal receipts for the Olton Post Office reached an all time high for fiscal year ending July 1, 1950. The previous high was for the preceding year of 1948-1949 when the receipts were $9,109.97, while for the year just ended (1949-1950) the receipts totaled $10,275.81, more than $1,000.00 over the prior figure and which represented the greatest one year growth of the Post Office, being a gain of some 13 per cent over last year's receipts.

A comparison of present and the receipts of ten years ago might be interesting to the residents of this area as ten years ago, 1939-40 the Postal Receipts were $4,736.42, and for 1949-50 (as shown above) the receipts figured $10,275.81, or a gain in the ten year period of 209 per cent.

A new addition has just been completed to the Post Office, providing more floor space, and more post office boxes have been ordered and their arrival is expected any day now, these new boxes will relieve the demand at present.

Just more evidence of the fast growing and healthy condition of Olton and surrounding area.

USAF Reservists May Volunteer

The U. S. Air Force is seeking volunteers from its active reserve components and former Air Force servicemen, and may call reservists into active duty if volunteers do not fill present personnel shortages, according to a recent release of the Department of Defense, Office of Public Information.

Reserve officers and enlisted men in the Littlefield-Lamb Co. area, who now possess critical military occupational specialties, a list of which are attached below, may request recall through the nearest reserve unit, which is Reese Air Force Base, Lubbock, or by application to the headquarters of the nearest numbered Air Force.

Recall will be for one year, the release stated. Reserve Officers will be asked to perform their active duty in the grade held prior to separation. This is necessary, the report said, to avoid disruption to the officer grade structure since the majority of officers now on active duty are reservists.

Voluntary recall of inactive reserve officers in their reserve grades, which in many cases are one grade higher than that held at time of separation, would require in fairness a sweeping readjustment of the grade structure of the active establishment. Such readjustment, the release added, is not desirable at this time.

Qualified airmen now in the active reserve may voluntarily request recall for a minimum period of one year by making application through their reserve units. Recall will be in the grade presently held in the active reserve.

Former airmen who have no reserve status may volunteer for enlistment in the temporary grade held at the time of last honorable discharge from the Air Force, by applying at the nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, which, in Littlefield, is located at 110 West Fifth Street.

Accepted airmen will be sent directly to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, for a 12-week indoctrination period.

The present voluntary recall of reservists is limited to male personnel and is in addition to the normal program for enlistment of men and women in the Regular Air Force.

Specialty serial numbers (SSN) of shortages in military personnel which are needed include:

Enlisted men: 039, 060, 076, 098.

Charley Mason was born in Ellis County 49 years ago. He was saved and baptized into the fellowship of the Baptist church when he was 14 years of age. He passed away on Sunday, July 9th as the result of a car accident on July 7. He worked for the Electroflux Corporation. For the past 14 months he had been making his headquarters in Olton with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mason. State Comptroller of Public Accounts Seeking Election For His First Elective Term

Robert S. Calvert, a native Texan, was born in McLennan County near McGregor, Texas, and at an early age moved with his family to Brownwood, where he attended the public schools and Howard Payne College.

At the age of twenty Bob moved to Sweetwater, where he was employed first by the Santa Fe Railroad as clerk, warehouse foreman and cashier; then by the West Texas Electric Company as chief clerk; and later by the First National Bank as assistant cashier.

In 1917 Bob enlisted in the United States Army. Following basic training at San Antonio and technical training at Cornell University, Ithica, N. Y., he served with the Air Forces in France and in Germany. After the war he returned to Sweetwater and to his bank position.

Among Bob Calvert's many friends in Sweetwater was George H. Sheppard, who became State Comptroller in 1930. Mr. Sheppard appointed Calvert to the position of financial statistician the same year. As head of the central accounting division for 14 years, Calvert gained first-hand knowledge of state financing. In 1944 he was made chief clerk, the position next in line and authority to the Comptroller's.

Following the death of Mr. Sheppard on January 18, 1949, Governor Beauford H. Jester gave recognition to a career worker who had advanced through the ranks by appointing Calvert State Comptroller.

AFTER SERVING A YEAR AND A HALF AS COMPTROLLER, CALVERT NOW SEEKS HIS FIRST ELECTIVE TERM.

Bob Calvert is a member of the Austin Lions Club, the American Legion and the Ben Hur Temple of the Shrine. He is an elder and Chairman of the Board of the Central Christian Church, Austin, Texas.

(A Short Story)

By RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

OUR after Pierre left his bearings. Annoyingly he felt that uneasy and disconcerting sensation of not being sure of his direction. Shielding his eyes, he moved toward a vague bulk of something that loomed beyond the veil of gray, and found it to be a tree, a veritable monarch of the forest and a familiar landmark. Thus reassured he changed his direction.

Some time later he paused to catch his breath and knock loose snow from his web. He judged he had traveled about half the distance and that the hour was close to 1 in the afternoon. It was then that he confessed to his first misgivings. The storm had increased rather than abated. He had been a fool to come for now he knew that only a miracle could bring him to the post alive. His strength was going fast. Elaine had known. Elaine had made him promise. She loved him and she had made him promise not to attempt it.

Darkness had settled when Pierre tripped and plunged forward for the last time. He had been rising and falling for the past two hours. This was the last. He had fought valiantly, mightily; now every ounce of his strength was gone.

He lay there for five minutes, and then, without conscious volition, he roused himself. He lifted himself to his knees in an attitude of listening and alertness. A desperate hope rose in his heart. He brushed a hand before his eyes and told himself over and over again that the pin-point of light that winked at him through the darkness and snow was an illusion, a cruel trick of his brain.

But hope of reality lingered, and the winking point of light lingered. He called out desperately, plaintively . . . and the lantern winked toward him.

Pierre felt a hot liquid between his lips. He drank deeply, and presently opened his eyes. The lantern light flickered across the face of a girl, a girl whose eyes held vast relief, concern and anger. He tried to speak, and couldn't. And Elaine said:

"So! Your promises mean no more than this! Ah, it is so lucky for you I did not believe you! You said you would not come if it stormed. And so when the storm began I worried all day, and at dark I could stand it no longer, and took a lantern and came up the trail, because I knew you would not keep your promise. And I was right. Now let us hope that this will teach you a lesson. And let us thank God that—that I loved you enough to— to know you would come in spite of everything."

thinking of it now, he laughed. Because of this storm she did not expect him. Bon Dieu! surprise at sight of him then she was increased a hundredfold. storm? Hah!

Lions League Plans To Build Camp For Crippled Children At Kerrville

KERRVILLE—Clusters of ranch-style bunk houses, filled with the laughter of physically handicapped youngsters, should dot the neighboring hills by the summer of 1951 if present plans of the Texas Lions League for Crippled Children materialize.

Jack Wiech, president of the League which was organized to raise funds for the construction and operation of the Melvin Jones camp for crippled children, said Wednesday he has hopes that the $500,000 camp will be in full operation by next summer.

Among the committees which he has appointed are the membership development committee, camp improvements, advisory and camp awards.

The membership development committee, under the chairmanship of J. I. Moore of Kerrville is charged with contacting individuals for the purpose of raising funds for the construction, maintenance and support of the building and property at the proposed camp.

Others on that committee are C. N. Hiescher of Bryan; Joe Fisher, Jasper; J. I. Daugherty, Midland and Bryan Sparks of Cooper.

Reagan Smith of Conroe is chairman of the camp improvements committee. The five members of this group have charge of all improvements at the Melvin Jones camp and all equipment and supplies belonging to the camp.

The committee has the authority to employ a camp staff, subject to approval of the Board of Directors.

Serving on the camp improvements committee are G. S. McClellan, San Antonio; Sam Parr, Olney; Pat Jackson, Nacogdoches and Curtis Cryer of Borger.

The camp will be open to crippled boys and girls, from the ages of 7 through 16.

"No fee shall ever be charged or collected for the admission or maintenance of any children at the Melvin Jones camp," Wiech explained.

"Any person or organization interested in the welfare of any particular crippled child or children," he added, "shall have the privilege of making a contribution to the work of the League."

The camp will be constructed on a 504-acre tract of land, three miles from Kerrville, which was donated to the League by the federal government.

Children at the camp would come from various parts of Texas, selected by local Lions clubs.

Occupational therapy will be available for the youngsters, as well as regular school.

Pony carts, horses and burros will be available for treks over the neighboring hills and through the nearby Texas State Park along the Guadalupe river.

Wiech said children will be selected on the basis of their personal need for such rehabilitation, regardless of the financial ability of their parents.

The physical plant will include a large administration building, craft shops, a swimming pool, six bunk houses and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 360.

Estimates of the costs of such improvements of the portions of the streets and avenues in the various districts or units of construction as hereinafter designated and set out, have been prepared and filed by the Engineer and approved by the City. Evidence will be heard on all the matters above mentioned. Following the hearings, if evidence justifies, assessments will be levied against abutting property, each district to be considered separately. The assessments will be levied against the abutting property owners thereof, and when such assessments are levied same shall be liens on the abutting property and personal obligations and liabilities of the owners thereof, and shall constitute a first and prior lien upon the property as provided by law and according to the Act of the First Called Session of the 40th Legislature of the State of Texas, Chapter 106, being title Article 1105b of the Revised Statutes of Texas now in force and any amendment thereof. In conducting hearings, in hearing evidence, and in considering all matters in connection with said improvements and the assessments to be made, each district will be considered separate and independent of any other district as aforesaid and a separate hearing will be held for each district, and the assessments to be made in any one district will not depend upon the assessments to be made in any other district, and assessments will be made in any particular district according to the benefits arising from such improvements in that particular district and independent of the costs and benefits arising from improvements in any other district.

All of said matters and things, all owning or claiming any such property or interest therein, as well as lien holders and others in any manner interested or affected, will take due notice.

DONE BY ORDER of the City Commission of the City of Littlefield, Texas.

Armed Services Pay And Setup For Dependents Is Explained

Pay in all branches of the armed services—Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines—is the same for each grade. The Army will be used as an example here.

The enlisted grades are as follows, with the minimum and maximum pay for each grade, depending upon length of service:

Recruits—$75 a month; recruit, after four months—$80; when he becomes a private, in about six months—$82.50; corporals—$117.50 to $191; sergeant—$139.50 to $227; first class sergeant—$169.05 to $249; master sergeant—$189.45 to $294.

Dependent Rules Explained

Anyone below the rank of corporal is considered to have no dependents, so he gets nothing for dependents. If, for some reason, the government fails to provide him with lodgings, he gets $45 extra for lodgings for himself.

A corporal with less than seven years' experience also is considered to have no dependents and gets only his flat pay, unless the government doesn't provide him with lodgings. Then he gets $45 extra.

For a sergeant, sergeant first class, and master sergeant—no matter how much or little his period of service—and for a corporal with seven or more years' experience, this is what happens:

Extra For Lodgings

If he has no dependents and the government doesn't give him living quarters, he gets $45 extra for his lodgings.

If he has dependents but the government provides him and them with living quarters, he gets only his flat pay. But—

If the government doesn't provide his dependents, such as a wife, with living quarters, he gets $67.50 extra.

That's all he gets for dependents, no matter how many he has. It used to be different. During the war and until Oct. 1, 1949, when Congress changed the law, this is what happened:

Any enlisted man—that is below the rank of commissioned officer, such as second lieutenant—got this deal:

If he had a wife and set aside $22 a month for her out of his pay, the government added $28 to it, thus giving her a total of $50.

If he had children dependent on him, the government also gave the first child $30 a month, and each additional child $20.

There were additional benefits has dependents. As for volunteers close relatives.

All these contributions were wiped out for anyone joining after Oct. 1, 1949.

So any man going into the Army now—whether he volunteers or is drafted—gets none of that wartime dependency allotment.

(As pointed out: Corporals with seven years' experience and the three higher grades of non-commissioned officers get living quarter allowance for dependents.)

The point is: Any one joining up in the lower ranks now gets absolutely nothing for dependents. He's considered to have none.

It is safe to say that under selective service regulations at this time no one will be drafted if he has dependents. As for volunteers in the lower grades: The armed forces don't want them at this time if they have dependents.

But—the government may call the National Guard to duty. Since the guard is made up of civilians, many of whom have dependents, calling some of them to active duty will be a hardship on them.

Action Almost Certain For that reason, if the guard is called up—or if it becomes necessary to expand the draft to take in men with dependents—Congress is pretty certain to restore quickly the wartime benefits for dependents.

Commissioned officers—from the grade of second lieutenant up to and including generals—got no government allowance for dependents during the war and do not get them now.

But commissioned officers, in addition to their pay, get $21 extra a month for food (subsistence) if unmarried and $42 if married. All grades get the same.

To Attend State FFA Convention

Nine Future Farmers of Spring Lake F.F.A. Chapter are to attend the State F.F.A. convention in San Antonio July 19-21 and will be accompanied by Travis L. Scott, teacher of Vocational Agriculture.

The group left Monday, July 17 for a week's trip. In addition to the convention the trip will include points in Mexico and an opportunity to fish and swim at various places on the Gulf of Mexico.

Larry Dean Griffin and Bud McNamara will present musical numbers at the convention and compete for the title of State F.F.A. entertainers.

The trip, which will include camping, fishing, and swimming, will also give the boys an opportunity to view places of historic interest in Texas and the farming methods of other areas of the state.

Boys to make the trip are Douglas Lewis, Shirley Earl McNeil, Dolan Fennell, Dwayne Wheat, Jerry Devenport, Jessie Parish, Larry Dean Griffin and Bud McNamara.

They also get money for living quarters. It ranges from $60 a month for a second lieutenant, if unmarried, and $75 if married to $120 a month for a general's lodgings if he has no dependents to $150 if he has.

Political Rallies Held At Hart And Springlake

A political rally and pie supper was held at Hart Camp Friday night, with the Hart Home Demonstration Women sponsoring the get-together.

A good crowd was present, including all candidates in the County and District contests.

Pies and cakes were auctioned off.

A rally was also held the same night at Springlake, sponsored by Circle Sewing Club.

Candidates were again given an opportunity to make talks, and food was auctioned off.

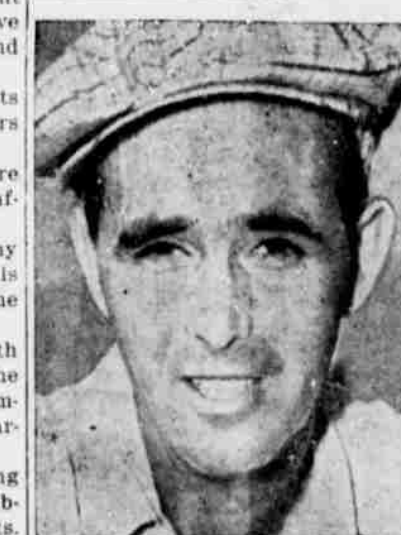

Good crowds attended both rallies.

New GI Home Loan Regulations Go Into Effect For World War II Veterans

New GI home loan regulations went into effect July 12 for the more than 13,000,000 World War II veterans who have not yet used this GI bill benefit to buy or build a home.

Veterans Administration said that probably the most important aspect of the regulations to veterans is that providing for the use of the new 60 per cent guaranteed up to $7,500.

The new guarantee is available only to those veterans who have not used all or part of the old 50 per cent guarantee up to $4,000 for home loans.

For veterans who have not used either the old or the new guarantee the regulations provide that they may take advantage of either, but that this is a matter for the veterans and the lenders to negotiate between them.

Veterans who elect to use $4,000 or more of the new guarantee but not all of the $7,500 maximum have no further entitlement to the remaining amount under the law.

The new regulations also set up mandatory minimum construction requirements for new homes started on or after June 19, 1950, with GI loans. Similar requirements for new construction have been in effect for some time on a voluntary basis, but this is the first authority granted VA to make them mandatory.

The regulations designate eligible unmarried widows as veterans in their own right. This enables them to use the full amount of the new $7,500 guarantee, even though their husbands had used all or part of the old $4,000 guarantee before their deaths.

Unmarried widows may qualify for the guarantee if their husbands died as the result of service in World War II. The husband must have served in the armed forces at some period between September 16, 1940 and July 25, 1947, and his death must have been a result of service while on duty or must have resulted from service connected causes following discharge under conditions other than dishonorable. A further condition is that the widow must not have remarried following the veterans death.

The new regulations further provide that VA, under certain conditions, may restore the Loan Guaranty rights of veterans who already have used their entitlement to purchase property which they later lost through condemnation or by fire or other natural hazards, or for some other compelling cause "devoid of fault on the part of the veteran."

VA is now completing instructions for its field offices to administer this regulation.

In addition VA is drafting regulations to administer the provision of the law which enables VA to make direct loans to eligible veterans in certain areas where 4 per cent financing is not available from other sources. This provision becomes effective July 19, 1950.

VA said that on or about July 19, 1950, its field offices will announce the list of designated areas eligible for direct loans. Application forms for veterans use will be available in the field office at that time.

VA and the Federal Housing Administration already have taken joint action under the law to limit fees and other charges which may be made against builders and veterans in connection with construction and sale of homes financed through GI and FHA loans. This joint action was announced June 28, 1950.

VA further has taken action under the law to terminate combination FHA-VA loans by October 20, 1950. This announcement was issued April 28, 1950.

All of these actions were taken or will be taken under the Housing Act of 1950 signed by the President April 20, 1950, which contained several provisions amending the GI loan law.

throughout the area. Recent showers and rains during the past two weeks, unusually heavy for this period, substantially boosted the growth and left a generally high moisture level in most South Plains counties. While additional moisture will be needed, a majority of the area could go until August 1 without additional rains and still not be seriously hurt.

Lubbock, Hockley and Terry counties were just behind Lamb County in estimated acres planted in grain. They tied with an even quarter of a million acres.

Hockley Gets Good Rain — Grain sorghum acreage this year shows a 260 percent increase over last season's crop of 45,000. The present acreage is estimated by County Agent Artie R. Forehand of Levelland as at least 250,000. He said the crop might include even more land. Cotton is on approximately 175,000 acres. While some fields are weedy the crop is generally in good shape.

Rains in the last two weeks have slowed work. At Levelland, the fall so far this month has been between three and four inches while some parts of the county have received as much as eight inches.

The approximately 2,000 acres of alfalfa are reported in good to excellent condition. Some fleaboppers and lyons bugs have been found in some cotton, but so far have done little damage.

HALE COUNTY—An increase of 100,000 acres in grain sorghum has been achieved this year, making the total acreage near 225,000. County Agent Ollie Limer of Plainview said. Both the grain sorghum and the cotton, covering 85,000 acres, are in good shape.

Moisture level is good throughout the county while insect trouble so far has been light and confined to fleaboppers.

Only corn is suffering any setbacks among the other crops. Bud worms are doing some damage to the grain sorghum. 18,000 acres planted. Alfalfa planted on 10,000 acres to meet with the 400 acres of sugar beets were described by Limer as generally good. The small onion and bulb onion crops are reported as satisfactory.

BAILEY COUNTY Only about 12,000 acres of cotton are in good condition after a prolonged drought. Grain sorghum acreage is expected to be close to 200,000. County Agent J. K. Adams of Muleshoe said. Last year's grain sorghum planting was about 40,000 acres. Recent rains, however, have slowed farm work. Crops in tomatoes, green beans, watermelons and potatoes are reported good.

COCHRAN COUNTY—Approximately 100,000 acres in grain sorghum are expected here. Only 45,000 acres were planted in 1949. Cotton acreage is 43,000 although the alfalfa was 52,000. Last of rain during the planting season forced the setback in cotton.

Price outlook on the crop is not as good. The new government support level has been set to an average of $1.87 per 100 pounds compared to last year's price level of 2.09. Increased production expected elsewhere in Texas and other states might also contribute to a surplus that could lower general prices.

KEYNOTE: SIMPLICITY

(A Short Story)

By RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

NO ONE had better cause for murder than Jewett. For five years he had been making his plans. Tonight he would kill Geoffrey McElroy and no one would suspect him of the crime.

The motive was age-old: A woman's love. She had chosen McElroy. Her decision had been a knife-thrust in Jewett's heart, yet none of the bitterness, the hatred, that he felt was betrayed. This in itself would divert suspicion. He had pretended to be McElroy's friend. The friends of both had thought him such.

He had gone over every minute detail a hundred times. Over and over he had reminded himself that a murderer always made one mistake. Always one clue was left behind. He, Jewett, would make no slips.

"A friend of yours was murdered last night," the bigger of the men said softly.

Jewett sat very still. It was his impulse to blurt: "Murdered? How do you know he was murdered?" But he didn't. That would be a dead give away.

Instead he looked shocked. "A friend of mine? Who?"

"Chap named McElroy. Geoffrey McElroy."

Jewett leaped to his feet. "Geoff McElroy! Murdered! Why—I can't believe it!" A nice bit of acting, if he did say so.

The policeman nodded. "The janitor found him in his office when he came to clean up. He was sprawled across his desk, a bullet hole through his forehead, an automatic clutched in his hand."

Jewett's mind raced. No, there was no need for alarm yet. The thing to do was continue to act.

"It seems incredible! You say there was an automatic clutched in his hand? But—but that sounds like suicide!"

The policeman eyed Jewett closely. Curiously Jewett felt an icy hand clutching at his heart. It required a tremendous effort to keep his eyes on those of the officer.

"It wasn't suicide," the policeman was saying. "Discovering that was the simplest part of it."

"Simple? But it sounds to me—"

"Pshaw! The man who did the shooting was a rookie at murder. The bullet hole was in the center of McElroy's head. That indicated that the killer was standing in front of him. The automatic which shot the bullet ejects its empty cartridges backwards and to the right. He found this one to the left, indicating that McElroy couldn't have shot himself. Also, death was instantaneous and the dead man's hand was grasping the gun in such a manner that he would have had to let go and grab it again after shooting himself, which, of course, was impossible. See?"

Jewett's mind raced. No, there was no need for alarm yet. The thing to do was continue to act.

Deliberately, like acting a part in a drama that he had rehearsed many times, Jewett raised the automatic, pointed it and fired.

McElroy slumped forward on his desk. Jewett hesitated, making sure that the man was dead, then set to work.

Without undue haste, he wiped the automatic free of fingerprints with his handkerchief, placed the weapon in McElroy's limp hand, ry Pass, Elwood Smith, Bob Hoover, Tad Carlsle and Walter Still, left Littlefield June 21, stayed in Lubbock until June 23, spent one day and night in the nation's capital and arrived at Valley Forge June 27. Altogether 30 scouts and adults attended the Jamboree from the vicinity area. A total of 46,834 scouts and adults, 5,000 of which were Texans, attended the affair.

Huston Hoover

Of all the groups the Texans proved to be the best-disciplined when the necessity arose. Hoover said. "Maybe I could be prejudiced," he added.

Traded Everything
From June 27 to June 30 were days spent in a Jamboree Shake-down, in which scouts set up camp and trained. They proved that the citizens of tomorrow will be imbued with the spirit of free enterprise as anyone ever has been. They traded everything from ozen and burros to pocket knives, horned toads and snails. A good, live Texas horned toad would bring $1.50, Hoover said. A troop of Canadians and Nova Scotians traded off everything except one complete uniform which they said they needed before they would be permitted to re-cross the Canadian border.

Two Texas horned rabbits, mounted by Dean Thornton, were displayed and traded by the Littlefield group. Hoover estimated 50,000 people had seen the rabbits.

Truman Speaks
At 10:00 a. m., June 30, President Harry S. Truman formally opened the Jamboree with a speech.

The Valley Forge Story, a portrayal of what happened there almost 175 years ago, was presented Friday night.

Sunday morning, July 2, seventeen groups of all religious faiths gathered together in a square mile radius to worship. The main event, as far as the adults were concerned, came Sunday night at the Scout's Convocation, when they rededicated themselves to liberty and freedom. Approximately 12,000 boys took part in the program.

Hour, 15 Minutes Fireworks
The candle-lighting ceremony was something no adult who saw it would ever forget, Hoover said. When the order, "Light your candles," came over the public address system, forty thousand tiny lights flared. It seemed all one movement, the scoutmaster said.

An hour and fifteen minutes of fireworks and a talk by General Dwight D. Eisenhower on July 4 formed the climax for the scouts. After the jamboree the Littlefield group drove to New York City, Niagara Falls, through Canada and Detroit before coming home July 7.

Falls in Gears
Ferguson said fellow workmen reported they did not suspect the woman was not a man during the four hours before the accident.

While walking over grating covering a set of machine gears, the victim stumbled and her foot fell through, engaging in the gears which chewed upward beyond the ankle. Welders were called in to cut the gears to free her.

She first told officers she was from Danbury in Brazoria County. Late Friday officers contacted a brother who lives in Alvin. No relatives of the Davis woman had Deputy Sheriff Dyer said in-thereby lessen the danger of contamination.

The house-to-house canvass planned earlier by the Jaycees will not be put into operation until the results of other means of collecting contributions are learned. "Skipper" Smith said if enough money is collected through direct voluntary contributions, the the house-to-house canvass plan will be abandoned.

City Engineer Ralph Douglas is now making tests to determine whether fogging with liquid or dusting with powder is the most effective means of killing flies, mosquitoes and other insects. The best method, whichever it is, will be used.

The City has put their dusting machine to work twice already.

Last year Joe Walters of Walters Drug Store furnished free of charge a crop-dusting plane and all other necessary equipment except chemicals for aerial dusting. Smith said he believes Walters would do the same thing this year, if sufficient funds are raised for the purchase of the chemicals.

Houston and that she had accompanied her to several Texas towns.

Pair Has Two Children
No reason for the victim's wearing mannish clothes was given by either of the women.

The victim said she was the mother of an 18-month-old boy. The Davis woman said a 16-month-old girl was her daughter. Shortly before boarding a bus at noon Saturday the Davis woman said she was on her way to Little Rock. She carried her child in her arms.

Does Work of Man
Both children were under the care of the Davis woman at the time of the accident. She said she had been caring for the two children, and that the injured woman had been working on various jobs as a man since the couple began traveling together two months ago. She claimed she was unaware the victim was not a man.

The victim reported for work at 7 a. m. Friday on schedule and proceeded to perform all the duties expected on the job, lifting heavy sacks of cement and pushing wheelbarrows carrying loads of as much as 250 pounds.

Littlefield Trio Injured Seriously In Auto Crash

Three residents of Littlefield were injured, two of them seriously, when their car crashed head-on into a truck 33 miles south of San Angelo on U. S. Highway 87 Saturday night. The driver of the truck, Landrum W. Pavey of Midland, was killed instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moore and daughter-in-law, Barbara Thomas, all of Littlefield, were taken to Shannon Hospital in San Angelo after the accident. Moore, 47, a carpenter of Littlefield, suffered a punctured lung and several broken ribs. He was under an oxygen tent Sunday, and was reported to be in serious condition.

Broken Back
Mrs. Moore, who had vertebrae broken in her back, was placed in a cast, and is reported also to be in serious, if not critical, condition.

Mrs. Thomas' injuries, which included scratches on her face and an injured leg, were not thought to be serious.

G. E. Moore, also of Littlefield and father of L. E. Moore, went with his wife and two more of their children to San Angelo Sunday.

the farm road from

Earth. Jones lost control of the car and it turned over first, then crawled about 125 feet from the farm home of Sterling Jones. Mrs. Reese found him in the orchard.

Jones was rushed to the Plains Cooperative hospital here, where doctors conferred no broken bones or dislocations.
