MULES WIN-DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP IS IN THE BAG

Activities Scheduled At Schools

Muleshoe's schools have scheduled week long activities in celebration of American Education week. Parents have been asked by the school board, teachers and principals to visit their children's school anytime during the period.

A open house has been scheduled at Muleshoe High School for Tuesday. Visitation in rooms and buildings will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. Beginning at 8 p.m. Dr. L. C. Kay, Lubbock Christian College professor who recently won the Freedom Foundation Award of Americanism, will speak in the high school auditorium.

For those parents wishing to speak to individual teachers, a teacher-parent period will be held from 9 to 9:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Refreshments will be served.

Samples of students work will be on display at all schools during the week.

The junior high school will hold day long visitation periods Monday, Wednesday and Friday. On Thursday the school's students will present a play, "Vacation On The Moon". Parents are invited and there is no admission charge.

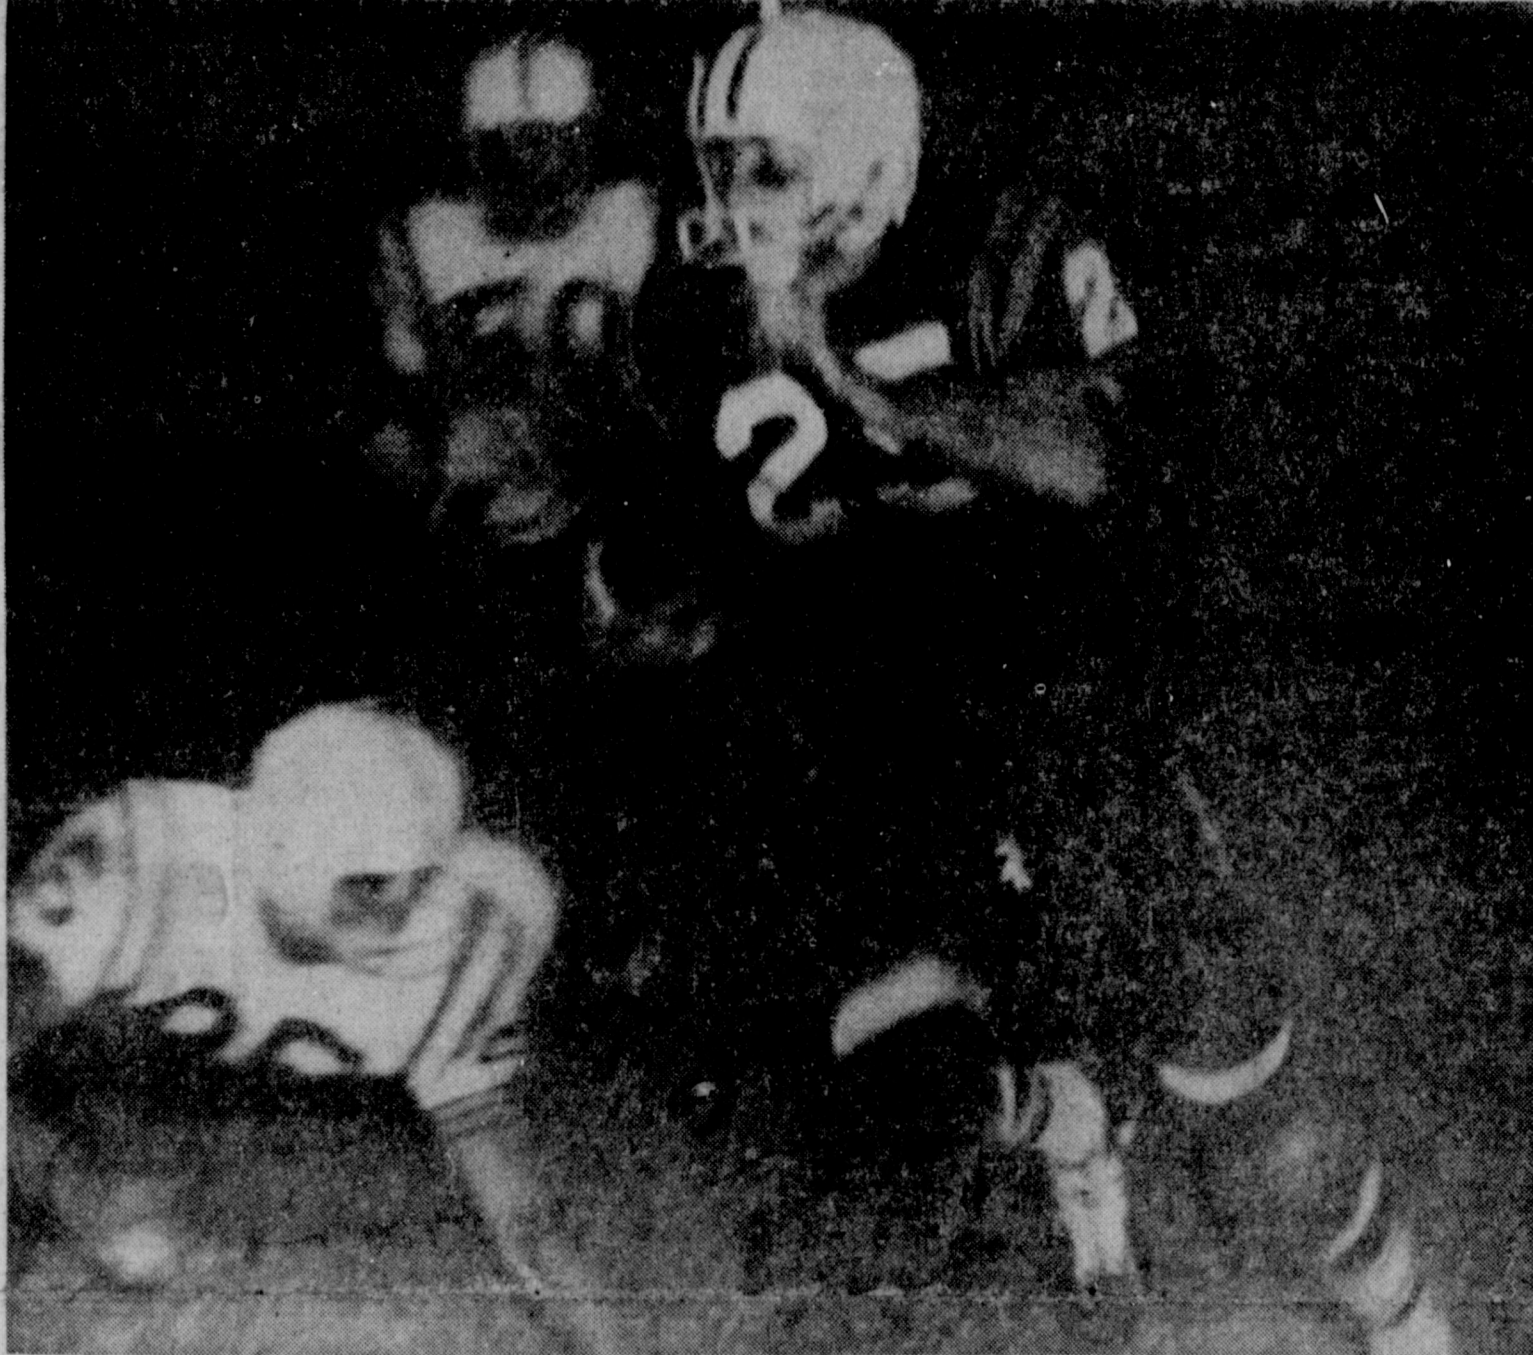

Open house will be held at Richland Hills Monday night from 7 to 9 p.m. At that time a play, "The Greatest Americans", will be presented by Mrs. Costen's fourth grade. Open house in all rooms will follow the play. A P-TA member will be available in each room to answer questions.

Mary De Shazo will hold its open house the same night. Parents will meet in the cafeteria at 7 p.m. for a program. Refreshments will be served before classroom open house scheduled to be held from 8 to 9 p.m. Work by all grades will be displayed during the week long celebration.

Hunting License

Some confusion exists as to whether or not it is necessary to hold a duck hunting stamp while hunting the sandhill crane.

According to Mel Evens, wildlife refuge manager, a duck stamp license is not necessary because the crane is not considered a water fowl, but rather a migratory bird. The duck is considered a migratory water fowl.

Cotton Record

The bale count in Bailey County totaled 10,331 bales Thursday morning, according to a tabulation made by the local Texas Employment Commission office.

The volume of cotton classed increased slightly for the week. More than forty thousand samples were classed for the South Plains by agricultural marketing service classing offices.

Less than one thousand bales of new crop cotton were traded on the Lubbock market this past week. MIDDLING 1" quotation for the Lubbock market is 32.50 as compared to 32.30 a year ago.

City, School Taxes Coming In Rapidly

A check at the Muleshoe School District Tax Office shows school taxes stand at about 50 percent paid this week. Presently city taxes stand at about one-third paid. County tax tabulations are unavailable.

Approximately $221,996.00 has been paid into the school tax fund. Total billing exceeded $393,759.00, a all time high for the area. Last year's tax bill for the district was $372,688.00 — some $21,000 more than last year.

The billing, using actual figures, is broken down to $11,115,386 in real property (land value); $3,245,870, personal property; and $10,248,690 the value of improvements. Improvements, including those on houses, barns, and irrigation wells, jumped up $21,071.88 from 1962's figures.

Murrell Brown, business manager of the school district, said that the increase shown in personal property taxes, $1,027,290 from last year, was due also to concentrated studies in inventory of personal property, such as livestock, cars, truck, and farm equipment assets.

The school tax is based on the rate of $1.60 on an evaluation of $100, based 33 1-3 percent of ac-

Mule Steamroller Crushes Friona 13-0: District 3 Championship Assured

By JAY SPAIN

The Muleshoe Mules clinched the District 3-AA title Friday night as they slapped down the fired-up, unbeaten Friona Chiefs, 13-0.

The Chiefs held the Mules scoreless during the entire first half in a thrilling defensive battle.

Friona received the kick-off and fumbled on the first play from scrimmage and it was recovered by guard Gray

Casey on the Friona 17. The Mules could move only to the 11 before the ball went over on downs.

The Chiefs moved the ball to their 28 before Mules tackle Mike Miller stole the ball on Friona's 31.

The Mules took over but could not move the ball and had to punt and Friona took over on their 20 and toted the ball to their 26 before punting to the Chief 49. Muleshoe moved to the Chief's 37 before fumbling to the Friona 29. The Chiefs moved the ball to the Mule's 47 and punted to the Mule's 20 as the first quarter ended with no score in the ball-game.

Muleshoe pushed to the 25 before punting to the Friona 43. The Chiefs tried a running play and a pass then they quick kicked the ball to the Mule's 20. Muleshoe scooted out to the 50 before fumbling which was recovered by Friona.

The Chiefs pushed to the Mule's 44 before punting to the Muleshoe 5. Quarterback Kenny Heathington chose to run the clock out with two running plays that took the ball out to the 10. The ball was then both teams punted to the dressing rooms with no tally on the scoreboard.

As the second half opened Heathington took the kick on the 10 and ran out to the 23 before he was stopped. With Clifford Gray and Scott Oliver carrying the ball, the Mules moved to the 47 before punting to the Friona 14.

Friona took over and moved to

'The Devil And Daniel Webster'

The dramatization of Stephen Vincent Benet's "The Devil and Daniel Webster", as presented by the Bishop's Company, unique repertory company touring 52 weeks of the year coast to coast, can be seen Nov. 22, 8:00 p.m. at the First Methodist Church, Muleshoe.

This unusual production presents the situation of Daniel Webster, great American statesman and lawyer, who attends the wedding of Mary and Jabez Stone and finds himself defending Jabez against the Devil. When times were hard Jabez had become discouraged and, in a fit of temper, said he would sell his soul to the Devil. Mr. Scratch (the Devil) appeared and Jabez made a deal with him and immediately began to prosper. Ten years later, on Jabez' wedding day, Mr. Scratch comes to collect. Mr. Webster intercedes for Jabez and it is an exciting battle of wits between Mr. Webster and Mr. Scratch when they argue for a man's soul.

The idea that every person is a child of God entitled to exercise free choices of life and action has been a revolutionary concept. The theme of God and country hand-in-hand led to the inclusion of the Benet play in the Bishop's Company repertoire.

The English theatre, as most people know, was born before the altar of the Church. The long separation of church and stage is being brought to an end by The Bishop's Company, first professional-calibre repertory company to reunite the forces of religion and theatre. Its outstanding record includes 800,000 miles of touring in all of the 50 states and Canada. Asking the audience to share in the creation of the play is part of the technique of the Company, which uses no sets or props. Founded by Phyllis Beardsley Bokar in 1952, The Bishop's Company is named in honor of Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of the Methodist Church. The Company is inter-racial and inter-faith.

Tickets may be purchased from Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stovall, Joyce Adams, Sonja Bass and the church. An informal coffee in fellowship hall following the play will give meet and talk with the entire cast of eight players.

Cheerleading Isn't All Fun; Hard Work Has It's Part

By DAVID JONES

Yea-a-a team!! As we watch the graceful and intricate motions of the Muleshoe High School cheerleaders and feel our blood stirred by its rousing cheers during the season's games, few of us realize the work and effort necessary to keep the unit alive.

The varsity cheerleaders dominate the high school scene as the major organizing factor promoting school spirit.

Even though they are supported greatly by Kerry Moore, their sponsor, Ralph Stevenson, Muleshoe High's new principal and the Spirit Club, the cheerleaders work is tremendous. Their schedule for the week, starts with at least one practice and a meeting to organize a pep rally, then cheering on Friday night.

This along with special spirit programs such as the ice cream party for the Football team, followed by the first bonfire, organization of a B-team cheerleading squad, Dad's night, Homecoming, and cheering for the rest of the Muleshoe athletic teams occupies most of a cheerleaders spare time.

All these results are the fruits of labors that began last spring when cheerleaders must run for the office against other candidates in a school wide elections. To be eligible they must have a 75 or

Princesses were Lillian Smith and Ruth Clements. Mrs. Smith had lost as much weight as Mrs. Gustin but was not eligible for the Six Months queen crown due to the fact that weight loss for her goal was less than Mrs. Gustin's. The distinction of being selected by the "Club's Inspiration" was bestowed upon her and a beautiful fall arrangement was

Taxes--

tual value of land and improve-

About $32,000.00, one-third of the city's $99,238.00 tax bill has been paid.

Increase for the city total tax roll is $3,066.65 over last year, with the total tax bill from the city set at $99,238.39, according to Harold Weyer, City Tax Assessor and Collector. Figures on evaluation for the last five years are: 1928, $6,148,430; 1929, $6,761,972; 1930, $7,351,804; 1931, $8,397,090; 1932, $8,742,860; 1933, $9,021,000.

The city tax rate is $1.10 per $100 valuation which has been the rate since 1928 except for low rate of $1.00 per $100 being used in 1931.

In 1929 the Harvey, Gatlin, McCain and Richland Hills additions were annexed to the city limits, adding some $7,000 revenue to the city rolls. Weyer said. He added that the next annexation program of consequence was in 1931 when surrounding acreage was taken in.

"But the improvements of property by building shows up in the increases in 1932 and 1933, rather than more annexation of land. The gradual but steady growth within the city limits of Muleshoe is heightened by new business and residential building, adding to the improvements of the land evaluation this year."

Police Dispatcher Guilty Of Embezzlement Of Funds

Cleta Nell Williams, former Littlefield police department dispatcher, was fined $250 and placed on two-year's probation in U. S. District Court at Lubbock Wednesday after pleading guilty to embezzlement charges.
Judge Joe J. Fisher sentenced Mrs. Williams to six months in a hospital-type institution, then suspended the sentence on a two-year probation period. She had pled guilty Monday on two counts and was fined $250 on the first count.

Mrs. Williams was accused of misappropriation of $434.71 from the Littlefield City-County Federal Credit Union, of which she was a former acting secretary.

The amount includes a $122.18 check to which she allegedly forged the signature of County Atty. Curtis Wilkinson and made payable to herself. Wilkinson is president of the credit union.

Police Chief F. A. Fitzgerald, a director in the union, discovered a discrepancy in the records in July. Mrs. Williams, 31, was relieved of her duties with the police department and credit union July 23, shortly after the FBI was called to investigate the case.

Fitzgerald also announced at that time that full restitution had been made for the loss. The union accepts deposits from public employees and makes credit union loans to them.

Wilkinson emphasized that the union did not sustain a loss since full restitution was made, and that a claim with the bonding company. The case went to Federal court because the union is federally chartered.

FRANKLY

By REV. J. FRANK PEERY

DETAILS OF SOVIET RELIGION

(By request — the second of three articles)

For over forty-five years the Communists have been fighting religion in the Soviet Union, using all sorts of weapons in varying degrees of intensity as circumstances varied. As history recalls in the first decade after the revolution, crude and violent methods were employed against religion. Churches were closed, church valuables seized, clergy were declared outside the law without even the right to food rations and sent to labor camps.

Shrines were desecrated, meetings were broken up by bands of ruffians, and unbridled terror applied against all manifestations of religion.

Knowing that the first Soviet Constitution permitted "freedom of religion to every Soviet citizen," I asked Archbishop Nikodim in Moscow the question, "Is there freedom of religion in the U. S. S. R.?" Following is the answer I received: "Certainly, the 21 before Heathington intercepted a Chief pass on the 45 yard line and ran back to the Friona 31 yard line. Muleshoe then moved to the 14 before going pro and Don Murray tried a field goal from the 30 which was wide.

Friona moved out to the 24 and quick-kicked to the Muleshoe 40. In two plays the Mules moved to the 50 yard line where Heathington broke loose and ran to the seven before being halted down. Three plays later Clifford Gray plowed over for the touchdown from the two yard line with only two minutes and 30 seconds left in the third quarter. Kick for extra point was wide.

Friona received on the five yard line and ran to the 11 before being stopped. With four running plays and one completed pass, the Chiefs had to kick from their 36 yard line. The ball rolled dead on the Muleshoe 24.

The Mules rolled to their 36 and punted a long ball to the Friona eight. Friona with the help of a 15 yard penalty slipped to the 44 but liked about a yard for a first down. The Mule's defensive squad rushed and Friona lost to the Chief's 37 and the ball went over on downs.

Four plays later David Roberts ran around end from the 25 yard line to score the second T. D. of the ball game. Don Murray's kick was between the uprights and the scoreboard read 13-0 with only one minute left in the ball game.

Friona received the ball on their 27 and moved only to their 36 before the ball went over on downs and the Mules chose to run the clock out.

This was the third conference win for the Mules and their fourth win of the season.

freedom of religious worship is guaranteed to every Soviet citizen by the Constitution. Religious services are held in the Orthodox Church, Catholic, and Protestant churches, Moslem mosques, Jewish synagogues, and Buddhist temples. The believer has the same rights as any other Soviet citizen. Persecution on religious grounds is a penal offense. We have our own publications, our own seminaries, and our own funds. However, alongside freedom of religions there is freedom of atheistic propaganda."

In theory at least, all religions are equal. So, the law says. But, in the Soviet Union what the law stipulates and what is done in practice are two different things. For example, the Jews in particular have suffered periodically. Every Soviet citizen passport must carry the bearer's "nationality". Because the Kremlin considers the Jews a nation, every Jew is labeled. He suffers severely in choice of profession, entrance into certain educational institutions, and activity in social life. While it is probably an exaggeration to say that Jews in the U. S. S. R. today are physically persecuted, it is undoubtedly true that they are targets of systematic discrimination.

It is true that many of the churches are crowded for worship. The answer is simple. With only one Protestant church in Moscow, it would by necessity be crowded. In Moscow where 400 religious houses once functioned, now only 40 are active. This is true throughout the U. S. S. R.

Law permits any 20 persons to register as a religious society for the act of worship. The law prohibits any religious activity other than worship. Christian education must be taught at home if taught at all. The ordinary Sunday morning crowd is made up of older people mostly, the majority of them women.

Strangely enough the Church seems to be for the government and against the Communist Party. The government is based on the constitution which guarantees freedom of worship and conscience. The party is committed to the slow strangulation of the church. The Council on Religious Affairs (the government agency) is headed by a party man. His dual function is to protect the church for the government and to destroy the church for the party.

Frankly Speaking — There is today a "new look" in the Soviet Government's attitude toward religion. It all amounts to more of the same minus (at least today) the openly offensive method. The Soviet Church leaders themselves say, "Christians in the Soviet Union are a loyal segment of the 'New Socialist Society.' Christ is there but the Church is dead. (Next week: The Protestant Church in the U. S. S. R.)

Bula Baptist Church Club Holds Program

Girls' Auxiliary of the Bula Baptist Church held a stewardship program, "The Living Heart," in the home of Mrs. H. G. Thompson this week.

The program opened with group singing and prayer read by Margaret Richardson. Donna Crume led the devotional.

For the program, a huge heart made of poster board, entitled "The Giving Heart" was placed on the wall. Each girl was given a key and a scripture verse she placed the key upon the heart.

Each scripture brought out a characteristic of a Christian, such as neighborliness, gladness, obedience, Cooperation, mercy faithfulness, generosity, thankfulness. Program closed by group singing "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation" and Mrs. Robert Claunch leading the closing prayer.

Joyce Thompson served refreshments to the girls and their mothers. Mrs. Robert Claunch, G. A. present were Donna and Diane Crume, Terry Claunch, Margie Richardson, Joyce Sowder, Elaine and Beverley Tiller. Visitors Mrs. John Richardson, Mrs. Parker and Janice Tiller.

TV TIPS

Football fans will be treated to a double-header this afternoon on KLBK-TV, Channel 13. At 1 p.m. the National Football League action will take place at Pitts- burgh where the Steelers play host to Cleveland. Immediately following the pro game, Channel 13 will show a delayed broadcast of yesterday's NCAA game between Baylor and Texas. It's all a part of KLBK-TV's continuing effort to give South Plains viewers a fifty yard line seat to top sports action. Variety keynotes the hour Ed Sullivan puts on a "Really big show" at 7 p.m. tonight. Headliners for "The Ed Sullivan Show" included humorist Shelley Burman, the comedy team of Allen and Rossi, accordionist Dick Contino, as well as a bill of other variety artists.

At 8 p.m. tonight the Garland magic takes over when Judy plays Hostess to the immortal Count Basie, singer Mel Torme and funnyman Jerry Van Dyke. Mixed in with the music will be lots of laughs on "The Judy Garland Show." The movie, "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World" has been highly publicized as a vehicle for some of the most talented laugh-provokers in the world. Channel 13's funnyman, Jerry Lewis puts all the comic talent from the movie to work making "The Jerry Lewis Show" the comedy sensation of the season. Sid Caesar, Jonathan Winters, Ben Blue, Don Knotts and Carl Reiner are only part of the hilarious cast that will appear at 10:30 p.m. tonight on KLBK-TV.

Monday night has its lighter moments on Channel 13, but "The Outer Limits" at 6:30 p.m. is not one of them. On this week's thriller, a psychiatrist's revolutionary method of treating a dangerous psychotic patient backfires when the two men accidentally interchange their minds. Gary Merrill and Harry Guardino star in this suspense-filled science-fiction drama.

One of the nation's best loved Character actors, Hans Conried, makes an appearance under the guise of "Uncle Tomooose" on "The Danny Thomas Show" at 8 p.m. Monday. The plot revolves around the old man's wedding plans, and how Danny and Kathy nip an obvious mismatch in the bud.

One of the brightest stars to emerge in the past decade Carol Burnett, at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, Carol appears as "Calamity Jane" in a ninety minute special of clowning, singing and dancing. It promises to be Carol Burnett at her musical comedy best.

Wednesday is family-viewing night on Channel 13. To start the evening at 6:30 p.m., "The Patty Duke Show" explores the exciting world of high school politics. Some of the hilarious tactics would put professional voters to shame.

Quite often television programs are adapted from movies, but seldom is the reverse true. Friday night's "Late Show" is an exception to the rule. Paddy Chayevsky's TV play "Marty" was acclaimed by critics after its live performance. The movie version of "Marty" is no less a work of art. The title role brought fame and recognition to Ernest Borgnine as aman too old and too ugly for romance, who experiences the sweet torment of love he thought he would never have.
