

Voting Rules Explained For New Texas Residents

Important Date

Interested in the future of the Littlefield area? Mark the date of Sept. 16 on your calendar. That's the day a representative of the United States Department of Agriculture will meet here with those interested in a proposed potato processing plant for the area. Dr. J. E. Simpson of the USDA's Research Foundation service will be here at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the auditorium of the Lamb County Electric Co-Op.

There is good news for new residents of Texas in an announcement made by the Lamb county clerk's office this week. They will be able to vote for President and Vice President under certain stipulated conditions. Voters who have lived in Texas less than a year must apply for a ballot during a 15-day period which began Friday, September 6, if they want to vote for President and Vice President in the coming general election, county clerk Charles Jones, announced. Applicants must appear in person at the county clerk's office.

This will be the first time that persons having less than a year's residence in the state will be able to vote in a presidential election, Jones said. A law passed by the Texas Legislature last year permits a voter who moved to Texas from some other state less than a year before general election day to vote for President and Vice President, but for no other offices, if he will have lived in Texas at least 60 days on election day.

In order to vote, he must possess all the qualifications required of electors under Texas law except the ordinary residence requirements, and it must also be shown that he was either a qualified elector in another state immediately before his removal to Texas or that he would have been eligible to vote in the presidential election in the state where he formerly lived if he had remained there until election day.

Jones said that a person who had been issued a voter registration certificate, voter identification card, or other document showing that he was a registered voter in the state from which he moved should take this document with him when he goes to the county clerk's office to apply for a ballot.

If he does not have written proof of his registration, it will be necessary for the clerk to obtain verification of his voting eligibility from the voter registrar or other appropriate election official at the place of his former residence before he will be accepted for voting.

Applications must be filed with the clerk by 5 o'clock on Friday, September 20. However, the voters will not actually vote until the period of October 21-November 1, when they will return to the clerk's office and cast their ballots.

It is emphasized that this voting procedure applies only to persons who will have lived in Texas less than a year on election day.

County clerk's records show that only one person has made application under this law in Lamb county up to this time.

Preserving Pears Currently In Season

"Sweet, juicy pears ripening in home orchards add flavor and appetite appeal as well as cold contrast to family meals", says Mrs. Lady Clare Phillips, Lamb County Home Demonstration Agent.

"Winter meals will be more interesting, if you make pear preserves or pear honey with the summer fruit now in season," she says.

PEAR PRESERVES To make pear preserves, select pears that hold their shape and have a good flavor. The Keffler pear is a variety commonly used. Allow the fruit to reach the firm ripe stage.

Wash, pare and cut fruit into uniform pieces, such as quarters or eighths, depending on the size of the fruit; then core.

Use the proportion of one pound prepared fruit to 3/4 to one pound sugar. Combine the fruit and sugar in alternate layers and let stand overnight before cooking, or cook at adding 1/4 cup water per pound of fruit.

Cook until the syrup is the desired thickness, stirring occasionally. Fill hot, dry sterilized jars three-fourths full with preserved fruit. If paraffin is used, add enough syrup to fill the jar to 1/4 inch from the top; otherwise, fill to the Seal, label and store in a cool place.

PEAR HONEY To make pear honey, cut and grind ripe late pears into small pieces. To four pounds of pears use three pounds of sugar. Cook until it is the consistency of honey. Pour into sterilized jars. Leave no space. Seal.

For variety, add 1/2 cup lemon juice or one cup cranberry pineapple five minutes before packing.

J. C. Penney Around For 24th Presidential Election

Many people can say they have been around for 24 presidential elections.

to observe his 93rd birthday on Monday, Sept. 16. Penney seems less excited about the observance than most other associates in the Penney Company. Says Penney, "When you've had as many birthdays as I have, they become a matter of course. However, you can be sure that I'll be good and ready for No. 100."

MR. PENNEY, AT 93, EYES ANOTHER ELECTION

When the first Penney store was opened in 1902, Teddy Roosevelt was chief executive.

Coolidge was in the White House in 1924, the year the 500th Penney store was opened.

Truman was president in 1951, Penney's first billion dollar sales year.

Regardless of Penney's feeling about No. 93, associates at the Penney store here are looking forward to the birthday and plan to celebrate with a cake, according to manager Armon Perrin.

A lot of history has taken place during Mr. Penney's lifetime. When he was born in 1875, Ulysses S. Grant, 18th president, was in his second term, having first been elected in 1868.

The Republican slogan for Grant in his first campaign was "Match him!" On the other hand, one of the most wisely appealing slogans of all time was the one used by Grant's forgotten opponent, Horatio Seymour: "Reduce taxation before taxation reduces us."

Theodore Roosevelt was president in 1902, when Penney, then 26 years old, opened his first store in Kemmerer, Wyo. The 500th Penney store was opened in 1924 in Hamilton, Mo., Penney's hometown. It was the same store where Penney had started his retailing career in 1895 when the store was operated as J. M. Hale & Brother. Penney bought out the store when Hale decided to retire. President when the Company opened No. 500 was Calvin Coolidge, who had moved up from the vice presidency when Warren G. Harding died in 1923. Coolidge was elected in his own right in 1924 on the slogan, "Keep cool with Coolidge."

Harry S. Truman was president in 1951, when Penney saw the Company reach a significant milestone -- its first billion dollar sales year.

Will Hubert H. Humphrey or Richard M. Nixon succeed Lyndon B. Johnson and become the 37th president? Penney is following the campaign with the same interest as other Americans.

A Healthy Situation

The 4-3 split decision by the school board on approving the use of school facilities for the Oct. 14 Bill Clayton appreciation dinner is sure to attract a lot of interest.

That's what makes it news. And, actually, it's a very healthy sort of thing, no matter which viewpoint you may hold.

There were four board members in favor of allowing the Democratic Party to use school facilities for the dinner.

There were three against. In the board's August meeting, another split vote took place. That time it was 4-2 with one abstaining, for employment of an assistant band director, even though the whole idea was later reconsidered and tabled until a meeting next April.

Frankly, we've always thought that each man voting his conviction is the best way to handle school business, or any business where representatives are elected by the people. We are especially thankful that we have men on the board who are not afraid to speak their minds, and who aren't afraid to have the people know where they stand.

It makes it easier for a newspaper to "tell it like it is." And that's the only kind of newspaper that is worth its salt.

We don't think the board was split along Demo-GOP lines at all in the Clayton dinner vote.

And it wasn't split up in any "cliques" either. Some of the trustees who were together on this vote were opposed on the other.

One other point. Neither the supporters of Bill Clayton nor his GOP opponent, Frank Ford, should take the board decision as an affront.

The discussion was on principles, not personalities.

The whole thing took place in a serious, but friendly atmosphere.

And there's something to be said in this day and time for people who can disagree agreeably.

THE FARMER'S WIFE

Still Pouting?

BY LIBBY MUDGETT

WHO SHOULD DROP by the other day but the self-styled head of government-in-exile, Eugene McCarthy.

I said hi there Eugene, was he still pouting.

He said he wished people would quit saying he was pouting, he was doing no such thing. Just because he wouldn't appear on the platform of the convention with the Democratic nomination winner, Hubie, didn't mean he was pouting.

I SAID WELL, it sort of looked that way because it was traditional for the purpose of showing party unity for all the losers to give in graciously and back the nominee.

He replied there was nothing traditional about him and he didn't intend to act hypocritically for the sake of tradition.

I said he told the truth there, all right, he had done absolutely nothing in the traditional way, why in the world had he decided to buck the Establishment within the framework of the Democratic Party.

HE ASKED JUST HOW would I suggest he should have gone about it.

I told him that as avid as his followers seemed to be, and as numerous as they appeared, he would probably have come nearer succeeding if he had tried to head a different party altogether.

He bristled that he had succeeded in doing exactly what he had set out to do. I asked what he meant, didn't he really try hard for the Presidential nomination.

HE SAID CERTAINLY, but what he had meant to point up to Americans was the weakness of our political structure and that had certainly been done, Mayor Daley had cooperated beautifully in showing how to manipulate a National Convention with a hard and heavy hand.

I said yeah. And then he pointed with pride to the fact that he had forced the retirement of President Johnson.

I SAID GOSH, did he really give himself credit for that and he said he surely did, without his own candidacy in the primaries, Johnson would never have realized how unpopular he was.

I argued that point a little, reminding him that there had been protest marches long before his name was very well known, and Johnson had already gotten the idea before the primaries.

HE SAID YES, but people thought that only the hippies and malcontents were dissatisfied with the way the war was being run until responsible for bringing about the Paris peace talks.

I REMARKED that he sounded to me like a man pointing with pride to a long string of great accomplishments instead of a defeated presidential nomination candidate.

He said that's exactly what he considered himself, a great success.

I asked him for the honest to goodness truth, was it really so that he and the rioters were in cahoots to tear up the Democratic Convention.

He said what rioters, all he saw were innocent children.

I BLEW A FUSE and reminded him of the fact that no innocent children would have been on the streets and in the parks of Chicago looking for trouble.

He said his backers were not looking for trouble, they just wanted to be heard.

I showed him a picture of himself arm in arm with Dick Gregory and reminded him of how many times Dick had announced that he was going to turn the convention and Chicago upside down.

He said well, he accomplished part of it, didn't he?

PAUL HARVEY

Great While It Lasted

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRACY worked best when ours was a mostly agrarian society. It still works best in Kansas, Nebraska, Utah and Mississippi.

It's in the big cities that our Americanism is in trouble. It's in the population concentrations that the one-man-one-vote concept makes "rulers" of our least enlightened numerical majority.

JEFFERSON imagined that a representative form of government would ensure that we would always be represented by our most educated, most productive, most capable citizens.

The statesmen of his day were, in fact learned landowners representing an uncommonly successful minority.

The politicians of our day, elected by majority vote, are tending more and more to represent the selfish, lazy, less enlightened masses.

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRACY was great while it lasted.

Increasingly, our elected officials are being intimidated by the irresponsible mob.

You and I used to see newsreels or news pictures of young rioters surging through streets throwing themselves and things against armies of police and troops. From a distance we watched such ugly insurrection in Latin American nations, in the Balkans, in the Orient.

What a shame, we thought to ourselves, that they have no orderly way to redress just grievances. How fortunate that in our country we do have laws limiting everybody's authority over anybody--and the means of amending unjust laws.

LAMB COUNTY LEADER

Published every Thursday morning by the Leader-News, 313 West 4th, Littlefield, Texas, 79339. Entered as Second Class matter in the U. S. Post Office, Littlefield, Texas, 79339, Under Act of March 3, 1879. Bill Turner, Publisher. Subscription rates: by mail in Lamb and adjoining counties, $6.00 per year. Elsewhere in Texas, $8.00 per year. In City carrier delivery 70¢ per month.

PERHAPS IT WAS in our well-intentioned efforts to ally and intermingle ourselves with less privileged people in less civilized nations that, instead of teaching our better way of peaceful protest, we imitated their reversion to barbarism.

Addressing a Chicago street rally Aug. 26, during the chaotic political convention in that city, under a black flag of anarchy, a professional troublemaker named Tom Hayden declared an end to peaceful demonstration and said, "Blood will flow from a lot of heads." He told his followers, "Take to the streets; the streets belong to us. Go to your homes and create one, two, three hundred Chicagos!"

BRITAIN'S LORD T. B. Macaulay, a hundred years ago, did not believe Jeffersonian democracy could long endure. He felt that government by majority inevitably entrusted decision-making to the poorest and most ignorant.

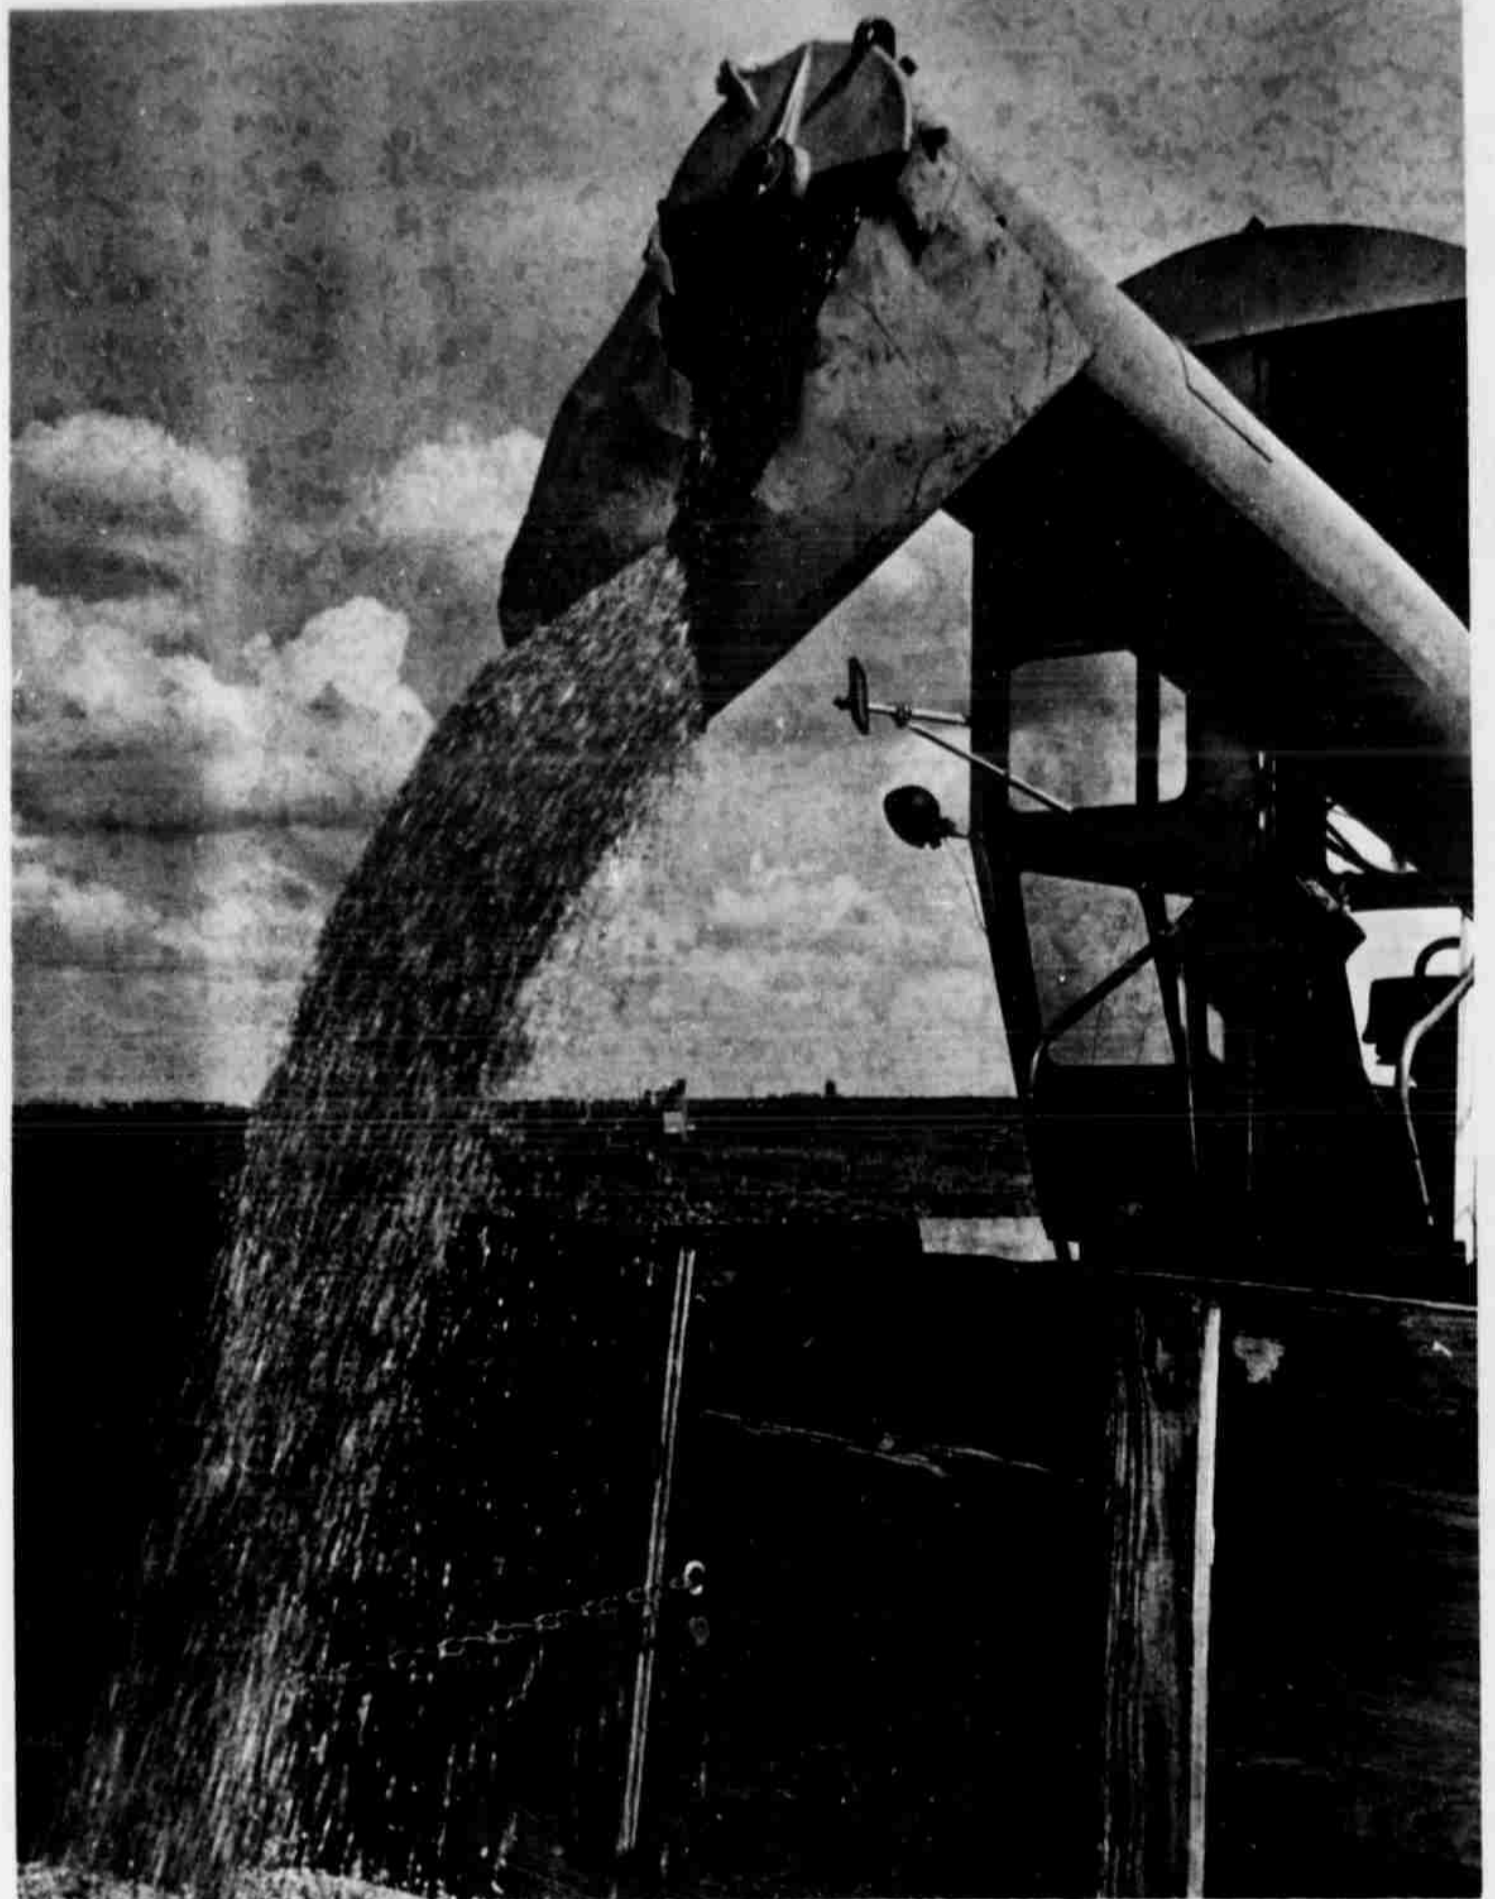

He said men and nations will always have "bad years." If the sufferers are the rulers, they will not be willing patiently to await out social and economic adjustment; they will demand and get "immediate improvement--even if it means devouring seed corn."

Then, said Macaulay, "Either liberty or civilization must perish. Either some Caesar or Napoleon will seize the reins of government with a strong hand, or your republic will be as fearfully plundered and laid waste by the barbarians of the 20th century as was the Roman Empire in the fifth--with this difference; the Huns and Vandals who ravaged the Roman Empire came from without and your Huns and Vandals will have been engendered within your own country....."

THIS OMINOUS PROGNOSIS suggests two possible remedies. Either Americans must deliver themselves into the hands of a man on horseback and pray that he will be a beneficent dictator.

Or else Americans must now reject the concept of one vote for every one man UNLESS HE IS A TAX-PAYING CITIZEN.

We must return the reins of government to responsible hands.

This Is Littlefield

There are more productive agricultural counties in the nation than Lamb County.... but not many. Littlefield sits in the heart of a land blessed with productiveness that could almost feed and clothe a nation, given all its available acres to production and a proper weather year.

This year, for instance, its 180,800 acres of grain sorghum will yield an estimated average of 5,000 pounds per acre, including dryland. And the remaining 120,000 acres of cotton--10,000 were lost to weather--are expected to produce some 122,000 bales of lint, again including dryland.

The two crops, even with out retired acreage under government programs, account for three-fifths of the total acreage under cultivation in the county.

A community sitting in the heart of an amazing food and fiber producing area-- This is Littlefield.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Serene Self-Control

BY BOB WEAR

WE ARE SUFFERING great loss, individually and collectively, from widespread permissiveness. We human beings have the potential for either great good or great evil. Permissiveness releases the vital forces of the human organism for evil, but SERENE SELF-CONTROL directs these vital forces for good.

IT IS STRANGE, very strange, that self-control is looked upon with so much disfavor. One of the greatest falsehoods to receive general acceptance is the view that self-control is harmful, that it makes us dull and insipid.

There is a severe kind of self-control that is not recommended, but serene self-control is not only acceptable; it is absolutely essential to order and effectiveness in the individual and in every group of individuals.

Burton said, "Conquer thyself. Till thou hast done this, thou art but a slave; for it is almost as well to be subjected to another's appetite as to thine own."

MUCH THAT DISQUIETS US TODAY could be eliminated if serene self-control could be supported as one of the most desirable and necessary personal accomplishments. Until and unless we do this, the danger of losing everything we hold dear will increase. We have a choice to make.

One of the tragic developments in recent times is the release of so many forces which stimulate our desires, appetites and drives. With this constant stimulation, from almost every possible source, we move into ever-increasing disorder and confusion.

SERENE SELF-CONTROL, however, is still possible. It is one of the most urgent, present-day needs.

We read and hear so much about freedom, but it seems that there is gross misunderstanding about the relationship between self-control and freedom. Pythagoras said, "No man is free who cannot command himself." Neither individuals nor groups, large or small, are free unless self-controlled.

THE GREATEST and most profitable conquest is the conquest of self. To the extent we are able to control ourselves, to that extent we will experience better living. It will be orderly living.

The forces at work within us and upon us can be very destructive if permitted to work without restraint and wise guidance. Serene self-control can help us to be selective and directive in response to these forces, and this is essential to satisfactory living.

WHEN WE LEARN SELF-CONTROL, we have found the way to successful and victorious endeavor.

We know that fire can be useful or destructive; useful when controlled, but destructive when not controlled. Water is essential to our living, but out of control it can destroy life. We have seen how destructive it is when it leaves its regular channel of flow, and runs wild over the countryside.

FIRE, WATER AND OTHER such forces are useful only when properly controlled. It is the same with us and the forces within us.

The rewards for conquest of self more than compensate for the great efforts required. The most important step to serene self-control is our submission to Divine standards and principles.

The importance of self-control--"He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city."

Dear Turnrow Tunkel:

O. C. McBRIDE

DID YOU KNOW that a new limousine has been built for the President? It is equipped with 3 television sets.

That should be handy this fall, in case Lyndon, Lady Bird and Abe Fortas each want to watch a different football game.

I UNDERSTAND that all privately-owned bars have been closed in Cuba. The owners were put to work in the fields.

Bartenders probably won't make very good field hands. There's a lot of difference between pouring corn, and plowing it.

I READ THAT the complete platform of the Democratic party contains 60 pages. Don't you think that's too long?

Yes, especially since the promises in it amount to about $1 billion per page.

WHAT DID YOU think about Coach Bear Bryant receiving 1 1/2 votes from the Alabama delegation at the Chicago convention?

That's not many votes, but after losing to the Texas Aggies in the Cotton Bowl, Bear couldn't expect a landslide.

I READ THAT a plastic easy-chair which is inflated with air is now on the market.

Is it 2-ply or 4-ply? I might consider buying one, but I've gained a lot of weight lately, and it would be downright embarrassing to have a blowout while watching television.

DID YOU KNOW that many of the foreign countries criticizing our actions in Vietnam are depending on U. S. power to protect them from a Communist invasion?

Yes. This reminds me of Americans who complain about police brutality, but when they think they are in danger from a criminal they start yelling for a cop.

Clayton Named To Liquor Committee

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake has been named to a special committee to study Texas Liquor Laws pertaining to the financial involvement between establishments that serve alcoholic beverages and their suppliers.

Clayton was a member of the State Affairs Committee panel that recommended reforms to the State Liquor Control Act to the special session of the Legislature in June. The measures were approved in the House of Representatives, but failed to pass in the Senate.

YOUR LUCKY DAY is when you buy a gift Friday the 13th at A & B Office Supply. Adv.

Clayton's appointment was announced in Austin by House Speaker Ben Barnes and Representative Dick Cory of Victoria, Chairman of the House State Affairs Committee.

After his appointment to the committee, Clayton said it was his hope that the study would result in recommendations to the 61st Legislature, which meets in January, of liquor control laws that would provide much stronger controls on the consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Particular emphasis will be given to new laws pertaining to sales to minors and to those that would prohibit organized crime from entering the liquor and beer industry in Texas.

A kid's got a right to some privacy too.

If your kid's been hiding out lately when he gets on the phone, take the hint. There are probably some things he'd rather discuss without an audience around. And he's entitled. After all, asking a girl out at his age is hard enough. But when the whole family's listening in, a guy could freeze. Help loosen young Don Juan's tongue. Call your General Telephone business office and get him an extension phone. Then he can have his tête-à-têtes without feeling self-conscious.

When a kid feels you don't want to listen in on all his private conversations, he's more apt to tell you about them. An extension phone gives him that choice.

Area Teams Open Season

LOADED WITH EXPERIENCE this season is Amherst, boasting 10 seniors. The District 5-B powerhouse is led by, front left, Rodney Maxfield, Carty Shipley, Glenn Swart, Pat Duffy, Darrel Moates; back row, Tommy Kelton, Bruce Nicholson, Royce McAdams, Mike Coffey and Ronnie Hedges.

The 1968 football season has its kickoff for all Littlefield area schools at 8 p.m. Friday, but the local Wildcats will have to paw at the turf another week while observing an open date. Four of the seven area schools hit the road for their '68 initiation.

Olton hosts Alamo Heights of Amarillo, Sudan entertains Sundown and Bula has its field ready for Southland.

Traveling are Whitharral to Klondike, Amherst to Bovina, Springlake - Earth to New Deal, and Anton to Wilson.

will be covering the games at Olton, Sudan and Bula, with pens and cameras.

Olton's opponent is a Catholic school formerly and better known as Price College. The club, according to pre-season scrimmage against a Class A school, Kress, is comparatively weak and should pose little or no opposition for a team figured to be one of the AA powerhouses in Texas.

Springlake - Earth's Wolverines didn't meet New Deal, last year. The Lions lost 11 letterman to graduation, but 5-E is in a rebuilding year, making for a close game between two young clubs. The Wolverines are playing under new coach John Varnell.

Even though the Roughnecks of Class B Sundown are rebuilding from a team that lost half its starts in 1967, Sudan's Hornets have all the respect in the world for them. Sudan managed a mere 19-13 win in last season's opener, and that was the year of the Hornets.

Amherst's tall and hungry Bulldogs clash with up-and-coming Bovina, three-year-old member of District 3-A. This year's edition of Mustangs are big, but possibly lack the experience owned by the 'Dogs. Wilson, powerhouse of District 2-B last year, no longer is in the same district with Anton's Kesey and Company. But competition between the two clubs probably will rival that of last season.

The area's two eight-man teams, Whitharral and Bula, are playing for new coaches. Both lost heavily to graduation last spring, but boast of left and outstanding spirit that possibly will take them over their opponents.

Bula, especially, is hungry for a winning season which has escaped that school several years.

OPEN AGAINST BOVINA

Amherst's 'Big Blue' Aiming For Loop Title

One gets the awesome feeling of walking among the giant California redwoods when he stands with the tall, lean Amherst Bulldog football team.

Coach Bert Grimes has 15 players who stand six feet or taller.

The "Big Blue" (they call themselves) has a lot going for it this season, including size, age and experience.

Leading the way in size is Bulldog tackle Pat Duffy, senior tackle who stands 6-3 and is listed at a conservative 190 pounds.

In the age department, 10 are seniors and a couple of the juniors are in their last year of eligibility.

And as for experience, about half are lettermen relying on the leadership of returning All-District players Ronnie Hedges and Royce McAdams. Hedges is a guard converted to fullback and McAdams is starting for the third year, two of which will be at quarterback. Both serve as co-captains.

Coach Grimes is hopeful this club will match the production of his first club at Amherst, back in 1963. That season the Bulldogs amassed a 7-2-3 record and earned the regional championship. His '64 club had a 5-3 record, '65 8-2, '66 and '67 were both 6-4 records.

The winning ways of the proud Bulldogs have encouraged outstanding participation among the Amherst High student body. Of 45 boys enrolled this fall in school, 31 are in uniform and another is manager.

Even with all the seniors and lettermen Grimes has on the club, and with their first game of the season coming up tomorrow night at home against Class A Bovina, Grimes says there are still a lot of positions up for grabs.

Take fullback, for instance. Hedges is the most likely candidate, but he injured a knee early in workouts and hasn't been able to demonstrate his ability except on defense.

One thing is pretty much for sure, however. All-round athlete McAdams has his signaling post assured. He has good speed, considerable knowledge of the game, and passes well enough to throw the big bomb at any time.

The Bulldogs will sorely miss those five starting seniors, three back and two linemen, who graduated last spring. Two were good enough to be given college scholarships. All-state tackle Mike Peel is now at Colorado State University, and center Mike Slate is bumping heads now for Panhandle A & M, Goodwill, Okla.

Probable starters both offensively and defensively tomorrow night against Bovina, as of early this week, will be: ends, Rodney Maxfield, 142, Sr., and Mickey Johnson, 173, Jr.; tackles, Duffy and Glenn Swarts, 160, Sr.; guards, Jimmy Humphreys, 142, Jr., and Darrell Moates, 160, Sr.; fullback Willie Moore, 159, Jr.; halfback Mike Coffey, 149, Sr.; and quarterback McAdams, 179, Sr.

Offensive starters only will be center Carty Shipley, 157, Sr.; and halfback Bobby Clayton, 169, So.

Defensive regulars will include guard Tony Jimenez, 151, Jr.; halfback Tommy Kelton, 140, Sr., and halfback Gary Robinson, 173, Jr.

Grimes, who is assisted for the third season by Larry Barker of Adams State, expects Ropes, Meadow and Sundown to be the toughest in the district. But he admits, "We hope we're among the top finishers."

Two Former Wildcats Starting For McMurry

What it could develop into is a natural. McMurry College's proud defense vs. McMahon's deadly passing arm.

The match is set for Stephenville Saturday night (7:30 p.m.) as the McMurry College Indians, hoping to take up where they left off last season, initiate the 1968 football season against Tarleton State and its talented quarterback, J. D. McMahon.

When the two clubs collided last fall in Abilene, the Indian defense, the best in the Lone Star Conference in 1967, completely smothered McMahon. The Fort Worth product hit on but 9 of 28 passes for 53 yards, and the Indians breezed to a 36-0 victory.

But McMahon stormed back the remainder of the year to pass for 1,536 yards and rank 16th in the final N.A.A.U. statistical ledger.

McMurry sophomore fullback Chuck Anderson, who should see plenty of action Saturday night, said "We aren't taking Tarleton State lightly. In fact, we respect them as much as any team on our schedule."

The Indians' defensive secondary, responsible for 19 interceptions which set a school record last season, is expecting a major test from McMahon. Veteran safeties Stanley Moore (6-0, 190) of Loraine and Ronald Siton (5-10, 180) of Littlefield and second team All-LSC cornerback Chip Puckett (6-1, 190) of Winters are back, while sophomore squadman Van Grady (6-1, 190) of Frenship is the new face.

Wildcat Backers Easy To Spot

Starting Friday of next week, Quarterback Club members would rather be caught without their shoes than without either their Wildcat tie or badge.

The ties, of maroon with white lettering and a picture of a wildcat, are being sold by the high school cheerleaders, and the buttons, sold by the QB Club, cost $2.25 and 50 cents respectively.

Club members decided at their meeting Tuesday that they would wear one or the other each Friday during football season, or "suffer the repercussions" at the following Club meeting.

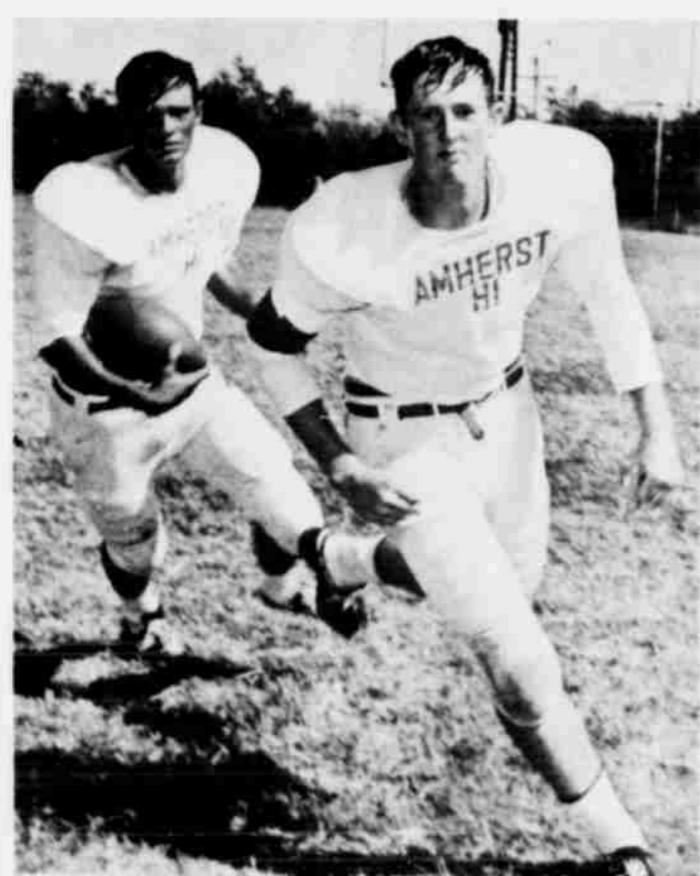

The public is also encouraged to purchase the emblems of support as well.

Tag Team Match Is Attraction

A tag team match between Dory Jr. and Terry Funk against Lord Patrick and Karl Von-Brauner heads Saturday night's Wrestling card at Littlefield Sports Arena.

In the other headliner, Alex Perez meets Mr. "X", and another match yet to be announced is carded.

Arena operator Richard "Little Eagle" Bryant announced this week his rates were being raised 25 cents to $1.75 for ringside and $1.25 general admission. Children's tickets will remain at 50 cents.

BIG MEN in the Amherst lineup this year will probably be quarterback Royce McAdams, left, and tackle Pat Duffy. McAdams is 6-1, 179, and starting for his third year. Duffy, 6-3, 190-plus, is starting for his second season.

Famed Sportsmen To Conduct Crusade

Gerry Craft, famed all-American football player for Oklahoma State University, wrestler, and professional football player with the Cleveland

Browns, will be the featured evangelist for a "New Life Crusade", sponsored by First Baptist Church at Amherst, beginning Sunday, Sept. 15. Services are scheduled to continue through the following Sunday, Sept. 22.

Littlefield's head basketball coach and junior varsity football coach, James Duncan, will be directing the evangelistic singing and special music for the services which will be conducted twice - daily, 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

A giant youth fellowship is scheduled to follow the service Saturday night, Sept. 21.

Craft graduated from Oklahoma State University with a BS Degree and was outstanding in the sports of football and wrestling. He received his Master of Religious Education from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1961 and is president of the Gerry Craft Youth Association International.

Several years ago, he realized that in order for young people of contemporary time to grow up to be useful Christian people, a "circumstance for training" must be created to prepare them for life. While he was serving as director of youth education at Travis Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth, he began using the "personal approach" he uses in his organization today to help guide and direct young people.

"Coach" Duncan serves as music and education director of the Amherst church beside his duties as teacher and coach in Littlefield school system. He received his BS degree from Southern State College in Magnolia, Ark.

Duncan earned all-state honors while playing high school football.

Members of the church, its pastor, Rev. Glenn Wilson, and the evangelistic team, extend an invitation to the general public to attend the crusade.

GERRY CRAFT

ONLY THREE SENIORS grace the Anton Bulldog roster this season. They are, from left, 165-pound Dub Cate, converted from end to quarterback; 210-pound tackle Raymond Kesey, an All-South Plains selection as a junior, and speedy halfback Johnny Hedges, 155, 160-pounder who will be the Bulldogs' opener tomorrow evening at Wilson.

YOUNG AND FAST

Anton Counting On Speed, Kesey, To Win This Season

In years when a football team is short on size, it has to rely on speed and attitude.

Anton's Bulldogs this year are long on the latter and extremely short on the former.

Coach James Christopher has but five players on his 22-man roster who weigh over 155 pounds. And only two of those are 200-pounders with the others falling short by 30-plus pounds.

But the Bulldogs, members of District 5-B along with Amherst, Meadow, Sundown, Whiteface and Ropes, are looking hopefully toward another winning year, like 1967's 7-3 record.

Led by the type of young man every coach wishes for, 6-2, 210-pound tackle Raymond Kesey, the Bulldogs plan to spring their sprinters loose from a multiple Wing T offense.

"We think we have a fast team. We've got quite a bit of speed," says Coach Christopher. "Even though we are young and inexperienced we're going to have a pretty fair season.

"Our pride and joy is a young man named Kesey, who will be college team next season, hope," the head Bulldog manager added.

The 'Dogs have held their own season scrimmages. They beat Lazbuddie 2-1 in scores, were overshadowed by Class Lorenzo 0-2.

Besides being small, Anton's young this year. Other than Kesey, Johnny Hedges and Dub Cate are the only other seniors on the squad. Hedges is a 160-pound end converted to quarterback.

Four juniors are listed on the roster. They are John Cate, 140, back; Randy Hedges, 135, guard; Jesse Cate, 140, guard; and Gary Wooten, 140, tackle.

Sophomores make up the bulk of the Bulldog club. There are nine of them, including: Tommy Gilbert, 130, back; Tom Jones, 125, back; Danny Pickett, 120, back; Johnny Garcia, 140, center; James Synnack, 140, center; Bill Kiser, 140, guard; Norman Martin, 170, tackle; Danny Spradley, 170, tackle; David Rodriguez, 140, end.

Making up the balance of the 'Dog unit are six freshmen: Quinon Williams, 155, back; Bill Walthall, 125, back; James Holmes, 135, end; Jeff Hedges, 130, guard; Jack Eastman, 145, tackle; and James Tabor, 135, end.

Christopher had a staff of two assistants, Billy Theodor who coached the winning Whitharral Panthers last season, and Jimmy Rogers.

The Bulldogs clash with powerful Wilson, at Wilson, tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. to open the regular 10-game season. Anton upset Wilson in a top-of-the-turf battle for district leadership last year 26-21.

KENNETH TWITTY, 140-pound Littlefield Wildcat back, welcomes Friday's open date. He received a hip bruise, and will use the extra time to get well before the 1968 season opener here Sept. 20 against Eastcado of Lubbock. All 10 Littlefield games this season are against District 3-A opponents.
