Nearly News By DOUG POE

If you read our editorial page much you've no doubt come to the conclusion that we're opposed to socialism because we think it reduces the productivity of men and condemns them to virtual slavery. And we think that the way to keep socialism from taking us over is to treat it pretty much like Johnson Grass that is trying to take over a field or dandelions that are trying to take over a lawn. We have to get them at their roots.

And the roots of socialism are in such basic industries as electric power where a strategic battle between socialism and freedom is now being fought. We're trying to make a soldier on the side of free enterprise in that battle, so we often fire away at the forces of socialism engaged on this front.

Last Sunday one of our shots hardly got out of the barrel. We were pointing out that while government owned power facilities are eating up taxes, those owned by citizens are paying more than 20% of their revenue in taxes. Some type lice got into the galley and ate up the zero, leaving it 2% and making it a shot hardly worth the firing.

We have beau coup trouble with those type lice. If they're not eating letters or figures (figures are their favorite food), they're picking up whole lines and moving them down a couple of notches, where they louse up a whole paragraph and prove to the whole world that we've finally burned out our last brain cell.

The proof readers fight a running battle with them but they can't win. The readers either give up and enter a sanitarium or grow old and die, still fighting. Either way the lice go right on with their tricks and shenanigans, ruining the already shady reputations of semi-honest newspaper people.

Now that the sun and wind are with us again and the ground is drying fast, it doesn't seem that all that rain was such a bad idea. If the sun will just stay with us long enough and keep that freeze pushed back, it may turn into a mighty good idea.

J. D. Jordan at the state employment office says he's not expecting as many braceros this year as last because there will probably be less hand pulling done. As far as he can tell now though, there will be about as many domestic pickers here.

Of course, another rain and there might not be any pickers at all. As George Corry puts it, "It might save us a gatherin'."

FIVE GENERATIONS OF HARMON AND HARPER FAMILIES

John Nail Photo

Five Generations Of Two Families Get Together

There's no doubt where the spotlight is centered when generations of the Harmon and Harper families have a get-together. It's the center of attention for 14 month old, Alaine Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Weaver of Amherst, who rounds out the fifth generation for each side of the family.

Among her ancestors, Alaine has West Texas pioneers, with members of her father's family first coming to Amherst in 1923 and members of her mother's family first coming to Sudan in 1926.

With eight grandmothers available, (two not shown), Alaine never lacks for a baby sitter.

Above are the five generations of each family. In the center front is Alaine, with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Weaver.

Wildcats In For Rough Game Friday

By JIMMIE CHAPMAN

The Littlefield Wildcats will be in for another rough game Friday when the Tahoka Bulldogs of District 5-AA roll into town for a non-conference game.

Tahoka will have practically the same team that Littlefield barely edged twice last year. They lost only one guard and tackle off of their starting eleven and these two spots have been filled amply by good reserves.

The Wildcats beat the Bulldogs once last season during the regular schedule 28-14, and then beat the Bulldogs 33-7 in B-District play after both teams had won their respective districts. Both of these games were played in Tahoka and this will be the first time that Tahoka has visited Littlefield since 1951.

Huddleston seems to be the big spark in the Bulldogs offense as he was last year. He has helped lead the Bulldogs this season to three wins and only one loss. Their lone loss was to Crane by the score of 19-14. They have beaten Seminole, which was supposed to be one of the teams to beat in District 6-AA. They have rolled up a total of 83 points and allowed their opponents 37.

Coach Gene Mayfield said that his lineup would be the same that started last week against the Brownfield Cubs. Mike Greer and Max Morris at the halfback positions, James Pressley at quarterback and Co-Captain John Clayton at fullback will be the starting backfield for the locals. Jimmy McShan, Bob Orr and Buddy Jones will also see action. In the line it will be ends Wayne Wicker and Andy Parker. Wicker played at quarterback for a while last week in the final quarter and made a 47 yard TD run for the locals.

Tackles will be Co-Captain Glenn Richards and Joe Hoover. Guards will be Roger Lowe and James Lee. At the center position will be Co-Captain Paul Yarbrough.

Mayfield said that the boys are in fine shape and ready to go but said that the rainy weather has kept the Cats from getting the necessary practice they need. They had to work out in the gym Monday and Tuesday they worked out in the mud on the practice field. Bob Orr, senior quarterback, is coming along fine now from his injury and should see a little more action this Friday than he has in the past if James Pressley, freshman quarterback, weakens. Pressley played his best game last week and is coming along fine for a freshman. Mayfield said that Pressley would again get the starting nod at the man-under spot.

Players also seeing lots of action last Friday night but not listed in the Wildcats lineup because they are not starters include Warner DeSautell, Davis Lee Williams, Ernie Hoppe, Larry Weaver, Jimmy Jamison, Gene Petree, Hoppe and Buddy Jones have been exceptionally outstanding on defense. Arlen Wesley Back In Line For Tech bock. Otherwise, only a tie with Hardin-Simmons the same year mars the Border Conference record compiled by Weaver in 18 games.

With his best team in history ready for Saturday night's fray, Coach Mike Brumbelow is prepared to stage another upset. The Miners, tied by North Texas the week before, unleashed a powerful attack to drub New Mexico University, 34-0, last Saturday.

Texas Western sports a potent combination in a pair of all-conference selections, quarterback Jesse Whittenton of Ysleta and end John Howle of Abilene.

Whittenton earned the "most valuable player" award last season, as did Tech's Jack Kirkpatrick of Post the year before.

Tech, which managed to carve out a 24-6 victory over Oklahoma A&M of the Missouri Valley Conference last week, should approach full strength for the first time since the Raiders' opening victory over University of Texas.

"Only tackle Jerry Walker of Pampa and fullback Jim Sides of Lubbock, both twice all-conference, should be sidelined this Saturday. Back in action will be guard Arlen Wesley of Littlefield, guard Hal Broadfoot of Clyde, and center Don Barber of Floydada. Center Dwayne West of Fort Worth got back in for the Oklahoma A&M contest.

"B" Team Takes 18-6 Win Thursday

By CHARLES DUVAL

The "B" team again defeated the Lubbock Pioneers last Thursday afternoon as they came out on top, 18 to 6.

Littlefield kicked off, but rigid Cat defense held the Pioneers and they were forced to punt out where Bobby Cunningham ran the kick back for 21 yards. After an incomplete pass, Wildcat blockers enabled David Mordecai to streak 63 yards for the opening TD. The conversion was no good. The Pioneers again received the ball and moved it down to the Cat 30 where they were stopped by charging Cat linemen and forced to punt out.

In the second quarter Cunningham and Williams, with a long run by Mordecai, moved the ball across the Pioneer 40. But the ball was lost on a fumble, to Lubbock and Cat defense held the Pioneers so that Littlefield regained control of the ball after Lubbock failed to gain. Cunningham moved the ball into scoring position on the Pioneer 30 and a long pass from Miles Stevens to David Mordecai carried 36 yards for six points. The conversion was no good. After the Pioneers received the ball they were set back by Walker Lee and the rest of the Cat line and forced to punt. Mordecai and Williams moved the ball toward the goal stripe, where Williams went over for the third TD. The conversion point was no good.

During the third quarter neither team scored. The Pioneers kicked off and the Cats pushed down to the Pioneer 34 before the ball changed hands. The Pioneers could get nowhere, as charging Cat linemen broke up every play, and were forced to punt out. The pigskin was moved by the Cats past the Pioneer 30 where the Pioneers intercepted a pass to give them possession of the ball.

Early in the 4th quarter Leslie Bevel intercepted a pass to change the ball to the Cats' side, and carried the interception for 20 yards on a beautiful run. Finally after penalties and setback against the Cat team, the Pioneers succeeded in scoring their lone touchdown on a long pass. The conversion was missed. Littlefield received the kickoff and had possession of the ball at the end of the game. The final score: Cats 18; Pioneers 6.

END OF THE LINE—Leon Willis, chunky little Cub guard, throws a block across hard running John Clayton to stop a 16-yard gain in the Cub-Littlefield clash Friday night. Clayton, 174-pound Wildcat senior fullback, was a consistent gainer in the 45-7 whipping the Cats handed their old rivals. (Brownfield News Staff Photo)

Springlake Plays Dalhart Wolves; Olton Tangles With Spur Bulldogs

Just as Sudan did last week, the Springlake Wolverines will get their toughest test of the year this Friday. They tangle with the Dalhart Wolves at Dalhart and the Wolverines will have to play their best game of the year to remain undefeated.

Springlake may get by the Wolves of Coach Roy Carter (former Littlefield assistant coach) even though their partner in District 2-A fell by the wayside last week in their first tough game.

Ronald and Donald Sandel, the halfback twins and Rex Loftis and Max Goforth will be the starting backfield for Coach Colie Huffman's eleven. The Wolverines have scored a total of 142 points in winning 4 games and their opponents have failed to score against their highly touted line.

We pick Springlake to win by about seven points. They have an open date next week and then they entertain Sudan at home in what could easily decide the District 2-A title.

Olton after pulling a major upset last week by holding the powerful Dumas Demons to a 6-0 score will get a test this week that was as rough as the last week tussle. They journey to Spur to tangle with the Bulldogs of Coach Sam Hawkes and the Bulldogs are undefeated, have scored 120 points in only 3 games and have allowed their opposition only 18. Spur cleaned the Mustangs at Olton last year 14-13 in a thriller.

We will however pick the Mustangs to drop their third game of the season. Coach Hawkes has almost his entire team back from last year and will admit himself that this should be his year. Olton will lose in a thriller, but here's hoping that the Mustangs will pull another surprise. Sudan's close 13-12 loss to Sundown was no disgrace and they will also be on the rebound. They tangle with the week Class AA Slaton Tigers at Slaton who last week was slaughtered by Phillips 75-0.

The Hornets will win this one by about any score they want but we will say by about 30 points.

The rest of the games in the area with our pickings for winners in capital letters is listed below:

Tahoka at LITTLEFIELD
SPRINGLAKE at Dalhart
SUDAN at Slaton
Olton at SPUR
Palo Duro at LEVELLAND
SUNDOWN at Denver City
ABERNATHY at Muleshoe
BOVINA at Amherst
ANTON at Hart
Tulia at CHILDRESS
FARWELL at Whitharral
Lockney at FLOYDADA
Hereford at PHILLIPS

(On our picks last week we missed only one. That was Sudan's loss to Sundown).

Dunbar Tigers Beat Slaton 14-0 Today; Play Lamesa Friday

Dunbar Tigers remained unbeaten in District standings today by defeating the Slaton Leopards Saturday night by the score of 14-0.

George Brooking, Dunbar's star, had both touchdowns and points to lead the locals to victory. At halftime score was 7-0. Brooking had softened the Slaton defense by making the running attack teams bog down. It was continuously the Dunbar offense that scored first on a boot by Brooking that was 42 yards and a touch-down. Brooking also ran over the Slaton defense at the end of the third quarter when they threatened a Dunbar fumble and the Littlefield 15 yard was stopped there by Brooking's line of the defense by Dwayne Lee.

At set up their second quarter when R. C. Chappell ran 75 yards to the five yard line. From Brooking swept around to score standing up. Charles Holmes plunger point over and the score was 14-0.

Completed two of five 40 yards and gained 95 yards on the ground while Brooking had 140 yards in the air.

Brooking kept Dunbar's hopes high with Lamesa for the game. They tangled with the Slaton defense and if the Tigers win they will be tied for first place in the year at Littlefield. If the two teams end the game, a coin will be tossed to decide the winner. Brooking's defensive play was the key in Saturday's win over Slaton, who threw Slaton for losses all night. M. Chaney said that the spark that the Tigers had when the Leopards fell.

You Can Help Your Youngster Learn To Read More Rapidly In School

By ANDY ANDERSON
GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Think you could read 40,000 words a minute?

It's theoretically possible with the assistance of machine to speed up turning pages, says Dr. George D. Spache, head of the Reading Laboratory and Clinic at the University of Florida.

No one who has been helped by the clinic has reached that speed, but several have increased their rate to 10,000 and 12,000 words a minute with excellent comprehension.

There was one student, says Dr. Spache, who was reading 150 words a minute when he came to the clinic. After a course of six to eight weeks he was reading 10,000 words a minute and scored 80 per cent on one comprehension test and 100 per cent on another.

Works by Thought Units
Most of the people who come to the clinic are not trying for such high rates. Many are university students who want to raise their ability to that necessary for graduation.

Most students discover their deficiency from a test given all freshmen English students. If one decides to go to the clinic he will be given more tests to discover exactly what his trouble is. Then a program is laid out for him which he completes at his own convenience.

Students are taught by thought units. In this manner he reads only important phrases. For example, a sentence reading "Assuming that we average eight hours sleep each night, those of us who must work for a living spend one third of our waking hours at our jobs."

The student is taught to recognize words without spelling out each letter by looking at just the tops of letters. Dr. Spache points out that everyone reads this way to a certain extent but has never realized it.

The clinic uses mechanical reading accelerators only where other methods don't work. An accelerator is a device that exposes only one line of type at a time. It forces a person to read at the rate set.

A tachistoscope may be used on those who have formed a very strong habit of reading slowly to show them how fast they can read. This is a projection machine by which an image can be flashed on a screen for as little as 1/100th of a second.

Mechanical devices are not too helpful, Dr. Spache believes, because a few months after they are discontinued the individual returns to his prior rate.

Dr. Spache thinks people read better than they once did. For example, the first grade child now reads 17 times as much as his grandfather did in the first grade, he said. Slow, analytical reading is not stressed as it used to be. Instead the student is taught rapid, fluent reading.

Dr. Spache says fewer words are taught in spelling now because surveys have shown that people don't use many of the words that were formerly taught. The time wasted on learning to spell these words can be better spent learning to read better and faster.

What Children Need
He says parents often become concerned when their children make mistakes such as failing to recognize a word after it has been repeated four or five times in a book.

"Actually children have to see and read a word as many as 40 or 50 times before they can be expected to learn it. Parents can promote their children's reading by choosing material written appropriately for the child's reading ability and concerning their interest.

"Too many books for children are bought because of their beauty and are not what a child wants to read. As a result, the child's interest lags and parents have wasted their money."

A KEY SYSTEM

CLEARWATER, Fla. — The tax assessor communicates with the tax collector in Pinellas county's very modern courthouse by tapping out Morse code with old style telegraph keys.

Assessor H. H. Sterling and Collector Lester Lambert both were railroad telegraphers in their younger days.

In odd moments they worked out a two key system, complete with oldtime wet plate batteries.

Now there is no worry about telephone dialing, busy lines, or walking the length of the Courthouse for a conference or an invitation to a cup of coffee. Just a few raps on the key and all is set.

Aircraft Effect for '56 Dodge

Unique high-sweep rear fender tail fins lend an aircraft-like effect to the new Dodge cars for 1956. They, with the twin-jet taillights immediately establish this car's identity. Framed with a gleaming band of chrome, the taillight area boasts a unity of design seldom achieved in automotive styling. On Custom Royal models, the taillight and back-up light are housed in slotted chrome bezels. At night, light from the taillight shines through the slots, aiding in side visibility. On the deck lid, a new crest serves as identification and is similar to the one used in the front. Reflecting the treatment given the front end, a slim "V" on V-8-equipped models is placed directly below the crest. Dual chrome exhausts, as shown, are standard on all Custom Royal V-8 models.

Through A Glass Darkly

By CARROLL PONCEY

Consider the rain. Rain (has it yet?) is one of the oldest things we know around, and yet the rain is always new to us. Rain is mentioned fairly early in the Bible, and has had something to do with the ark and two by two.

There is good reason to believe that it is raining while Nero fiddled around during the burning of Rome. Otherwise, the world would not be the foreign movie capital of the world, and the home of Gina Lollo-brigida.

Rain played an important part in all the battles of history, and it has become so well known that rain falls on the just and the unjust alike, which always seemed to give the just a pretty poor break.

As we know it today is pretty ordinary stuff, being mostly just drops of plain pure water. But in days past, they used to be some real show stopper rains. Many old rare book tells of how it used to rain frogs, fishes and other odd and assorted things. It seems strange now when we get a little hail along with our common ordinary variety of rain.

Back in the old days, why, after a man could go out in the road and step on, like say, oh a dozen frog legs for breakfast, or a number three washtub full of and crappie if he lived in the fish rainforest.

They say it rained blood in India one time,
 it has rained mud in Texas many times.
 ROYALTY has yet to see it rain fish or anything. Of course this does not take into account the times it is raining cats and dogs and be careful you don't step in a pooodle.
 Well!

Can It Happen Here?

Can the free press of America be destroyed?

It happened in Germany when Hitler burned "forbidden" books and seized the newspapers . . .

It happened in Italy, as Mussolini destroyed newspapers in his climb to power . . .

It happened in Argentina when a great, free press was wiped out because it dared to differ with a dictatorship . . .

It is happening all over the world today as newspapers are attacked from many sides . . .

CHILE: A bomb wrecks an anti-Government newspaper office . . .

CUBA: An opposition newspaper is closed by the Government; two editors arrested . . .

ARGENTINA: Another newspaper shut down by Government decree; the editor thrown in jail . . .

GREECE: A newspaper ordered to stop publishing articles "causing public unrest" . . .

INDIA: Newspaper reporters will be prosecuted for articles attacking Government officials . . .

SOUTH KOREA: A new law forbids newspapers to "disturb people's minds" . . .

BOLIVIA: A newspaperman is jailed for writing "inaccurate news" . . .

AUSTRIA: Soviet authorities confiscate a newspaper because of a critical editorial . . .

COLOMBIA: All newspapers are censored before publication . . .

BRAZIL: Foreign newspapers subjected to new, strict import regulations . . .

TURKEY: A publisher sentenced to prison for an "insulting" article about the Government . . .

PAKISTAN: Opposition newspaper refused

GREAT BRITAIN: American newspapermen asked to "voluntarily" censor dispatches . . .

SPAIN: Twenty issues of an American newspaper banned from Spain by Government Censorship Bureau . . .

RUSSIA: Everything is censored and controlled by the Government . . .

Complete Government censorship of publications and outgoing dispatches exists in all Iron Curtain countries; Albania, Bulgaria, Communist China, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Hungary, Poland and Rumania.

What About the U. S. A.?

The U. S. Constitution guarantees freedom of the press to the people.

The U. S. press is controlled by the people.
 Newspapers are published for the people not for the Government.

Yet attempts are being made to take freedom of the press away from the people.

From many sides come almost daily efforts to restrict, control, censor and water-down
 U. S. newspapers.

WASHINGTON: Defense Department director of publicity policies believes military officials should decide whether information is "useful" or "interesting" before releasing it to the press. After protests from the press, it was said the "yardstick" for passing on information was meant only for "intradepart-mental preparation" of news releases.

WASHINGTON: A reporter's request for obituary material on a deceased general was held up until it had been reviewed and cleared by the Pentagon.

WASHINGTON: A survey showing that sailors get seasick was not made available to the press on the ground that it is not "a constructive contribution" of defense.

WASHINGTON: Many bills are introduced in Congress containing no provisions for making available to the public information about costs of projects, reports to be made, or accountings of funds.

WASHINGTON: The Army issues a special "guide" for evaluation of public information, permitting officers to use discretion as to whether or not news will ever be released.

SHAWNEE, OKLA.: A sheriff beats up a reporter who is seeking legitimate news.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.: City Council bans reporters from hearings affecting the people in the community.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.: News photographers are subjected to physical attacks, cameras are smashed, film destroyed.

WEST POINT, N. Y.: Press barred from attending a conference between the Army and its civilian advisory group. Meeting was held to "find out matters of interest to the public."

 graphs of criminals not only in courtrooms, but in areas such as courthouse corridors and en route to jail.

NEW YORK, N. Y.: All newspapermen are barred from a vice trial. Later, on grounds that since the press and public were not permitted to attend the trial, defendant won a new trial on which the press was admitted.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.: A judge orders jurors not to give interviews in a prejury trial after they had delivered their verdict and were dismissed.

CLEVELAND, OHIO: Reporters ordered to leave a courtroom during testimony in a pandering trial.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.: A judge refuses to permit a newspaper to obtain a copy of part of a trial transcript.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.: The same judge orders a new trial for a youth convicted of murder because a juror read newspaper clippings about the case.

DULUTH, MINN.: Two newsmen forcibly ejected by police from a "closed" meeting of city employees on salary matters involving Taxpayers' money.

DO THE PEOPLE WANT A FREE PRESS?

Does the man on the street want someone in Government to decide what information is "useful" or "interesting" enough for the public to know about?

Would Americans have faith in Government-controlled newspapers grinding out pre-censored, pre-condensed, pre-pulverized
 "news" in easy doses?

Are the people ready to accept cradle-to-grave control by a Super-State without hearing both sides of an argument as presented in a free press?

Are the people ready to give up newspapers that fight for their right to know? The newspapers of America don't believe it.

Newspapers are of the people, by the people and for the people.

Newspapers will continue to fight for the people's right to know.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mr. Poe:

Operation "TALL CORN" (Peruvian Cuzco)

A number of people who planted the Peruvian Cuzco corn have written me advising their corn grew tall but had not set on ears.

I am very anxious to find out if your corn produced ears as we would like very much to have a few kernels to start some crosses with more adapted varieties next year.

It now looks like Dr. A. W. Young, Head of Department of Agronomy, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas, will have a few nubbins that will develop mature kernels. Jack Creel at Lubbock, Texas, also has a few nubbins on his late planted corn which may develop kernels. If your corn produces even one or two mature kernels which look like they will grow, we would like very much to have them.

Many reported their corn grew very tall.
 Mine in Denver reached 16 feet and developed good tassels which flowered but the small shoots that came out did not produce silks, so, of course, will not have corn on it.

I will appreciate a note from you about how your corn did and I would also like pictures of the corn.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Yours truly,

A. K. Hepperly

Editor's Note: If any who picked up seed from our office last spring make any corn, will you please let us have some mature kernels to send Mr. Hepperly?

So excitingly new, we couldn't wait!
 The new long Lincoln for '56 is here—Now!

This handsome sedan introduces Lincoln's Premier series of fine cars—new companions to the famous Lincoln Capris.

LMOA

WE ANNOUNCED the 1956 Lincoln early this year.
 We just couldn't wait.

For this Lincoln sets a new standard for fine car styling and performance—proves conclusively that a car can possess length and luxury and still be as lithe as the most cat-like of sports cars.

This is a truly long Lincoln . . . over a foot longer in the frame. And it's a lean, crisp length.

This is a truly luxurious Lincoln. Incomparably rich in fabric and color and detail.

And this is a Lincoln with unprecedented maneuverability. The 1956 Lincoln's new V-8 engine turns out 285 horsepower with scarcely a whisper. An advanced automatic transmission puts that power to work with a smoothness unequalled in any motor car. And improved suspension makes even country roads seem like superhighways.

We invite you to break with the past. Drive the completely new 1956 Lincoln and prove to yourself that length and luxury can, at last, be as maneuverable, as easy to handle as a sports car.

Push-Button Driving Reality In New Dodge Line To Be Shown Here Friday

The new 1956 line of Dodge passenger cars will be introduced to the public Friday, October 7, in dealer showrooms throughout the country.

Viewers of the new cars were promised the first glimpse of an entirely new era in automotive design—both in exterior and interior appearance and in mechanical advancement, by W. C. Newberg, Dodge president.

Outstanding among many mechanical improvements is the revolutionary new "Magic Touch" push-button drive selector which completely eliminates the necessity for any kind of a gear-shift or drive control lever, and brings the automatic driving dreams of yesterday to today's reality.

In the radically new body design for 1956, Dodge has carried the Forward Look into an even bolder, more dramatic form. Unique high-sweep rear fender tail fins lend an aircraft-like effect and mold the flavor of speed into every line of the car, giving it at the same time a pronounced directional appearance.

Forward-pointing body shapes and moldings, tastefully proportioned hood, body and deck areas gracefully tapering hood and front fenders, and the wide, slightly swept back effect of the divided grille, all combine to give slimmness and tautness of line and a distinct feeling of motion to the new Dodge cars.

New in its basic concepts and exciting in its beauty and appeal is the Four-Door Lancer by Dodge. All of the youth and vigor of true hardtop styling have been skillfully combined with the comfort and convenience of the four-door sedan. Full-width rear doors provide easy access to the rear passenger compartment, while full side vision is assured by a unique design which allows the use of full rear door windows.

Significant of Dodge's traditional consideration of the car buyer's freedom in price selection is the fact that the new Four-Door Lancer hardtop is offered in the priced Coronet, as well as in the Royal and Custom Royal series. Byron J. Nichols, vice president and general sales manager, pointed out.

Four separate series comprise the 1956 line of Dodge cars: Coronet, offering four-door sedan, club coupe, four-door Lancer hardtop, Lancer hardtop and Lancer convertible; Royal V-8, offering four-door sedan, four-door Lancer hardtop and Lancer convertible; Custom Royal V-8 with four-door sedan, four-door Lancer hardtop, Lancer hardtop and Lancer convertible. Finally, a new Station Wagon line offers a wide choice of seven Suburban two-door and Sierra four-door models.

Both the Coronet and Suburban lines allow the customer a choice of Dodge "Get-Away Six" or Dodge V-8 engines in certain body types. Selection between Red Ram V-8 and Super Red Ram V-8 is also available in the Suburban and Sierra lines.

Important engine news of the year is the new Dodge Super Red Ram V-8 engine which has been upped to a total displacement of 315 cubic inches, resulting in vastly increased power and torque. Horsepower is up to 218, while even more significant is the new "breakaway" from standing start performance, resulting from the phenomenally improved torque. Designed with a unique single rocker valve train and polyspheric combustion chamber, this new engine features such other improvements as higher combustion efficiency, greater fuel economy and longer engine life. High compression ratios and the radically re-designed combustion chambers afford increased engine output and higher efficiencies, yet the new Dodge engines allow new car buyers the economy of regular gasoline.

And to top it off, Dodge again offers an optional four-barrel carburetor with matching intake manifold, dual exhausts and a distributor with special spark-advance curve for those desiring even higher Super Red Ram V-8 engine output. Horsepower is 230.

Matching in its Forward Look concept's the "Magic Touch" push-button gear selector, is the new Dodge Highway Hi-Fi, an automatic car record player, operating through the car radio. It gives 45 minutes to a full hour of uninterrupted music on each side of the 7-inch records. A choice of fidelity classical and popular recordings and even recorded readings of selected subjects is available. The addition of Hi-Fi is a significant forward step in the development of the automobile as a home-on-wheels.

The marvel of Hi-Fi is its simplicity. Mounted in a convenient sliding drawer under the glove box, the unit is designed so that the driver can operate it without taking his eyes from the road. By means of a uniquely designed pick-up arm, the car can be driven over the roughest of roads without affecting the record player's operation in any way.

The brilliant Flat-Fashioned design which distinguished Dodge interiors last year has been carried forward in the 1956 models. Once again, luxurious new fabrics have been created as the magic of the Jacquard loom has combined nylon, rayon, cotton and metallic threads into exotic abstract patterns for Custom Royal and Royal models. Coronet interiors feature dramatic block-stripe patterns composed of the same materials.

SILVER DOLLARS with a golden touch!

The cost of doing business puts in circulation silver dollars with a golden touch... some of each dollar rubs off in the form of profits on everybody whom it touches.

During the 1954-55 cotton crop year, Western Cottonoil Co. put almost 20-million of those cost-of-doing-business dollars into circulation on the Plains—$19,266,175.11, to be exact. Here's where they went...

to Plains Farmers —
 We paid this amount for cotton, cottonseed, grain — products of the Plains.
$16,455,840.93

to our Plains Employees —
 Salaries and Wages — direct income to the Paymaster "family" that spends its money at home.
$1,693,206.61

to Suppliers of Goods and Services —
 This bought gas, electricity, water, gasoline, oil, tires, printing, equipment, cars and trucks, farm machinery; it paid interest on local capital.
$984,258.71

in Community Services —
 This paid taxes to our local schools, cities and counties on the Plains; it supported 4H, FFA, and other agricultural education projects and community affairs; it furthered research to strengthen our total farm economy.
$132,868.86

TOTAL PAID — $19,266,175.11

As a citizen of this community, you may recognize some of these dollars as direct income. But directly paid or not, by the inevitable chain reaction of business, these dollars found their way into your pocket.

The farmers and ginners who do business with Western Cottonoil, the hundreds of folks on our payroll, spend most of their money at home. This keeps business brisk — at the bank... the grocery... the service station... the barber's and beauty shop... the drug store. It buys new refrigerators, washers and dryers, cars and TV sets for homes on the Plains.

The business health of a community is contagious, and as your neighbors prosper, so do you.

Thus, our silver dollars have a golden touch. Because, whether you're a farmer, a business or professional man, a school teacher or a housewife... whether you own your own business or work for wages, your business is better, your job more secure, your community more prosperous because our cost-of-doing-business dollars touch everybody on the Plains.

Time To Plant Your Bulbs For Spring Blooms

For beautiful flowers in early spring now is the time to plant your bulbs. Be careful in planting, but be careless in arranging the bulbs. Plant tulips, daffodils, hyacinths, anemones, ranunculus, iris and dutch iris, but don't plant them in rows like marching soldiers.

Group bulbs according to colors of the flowers, and according to the size and type. Drop your bulbs and plant them where they fall that way you get a random look that adds to their beauty.

Plan your bulbs as you would plan to decorate a room. Daffodils look particularly pretty around a tree. Peonies are especially easy to grow in West Texas and thrive on very little water. Follow the directions on the package for if they are planted too deep or too shallow they will not bloom. They love sun. Some peonies have nine and twelve flowers on them, and they come in a variety of colors.

Snapdragon and pansy seed may be planted now for spring plants. If you want them early plant them in a cold frame.

Area florists have received shipments of bulbs that come from Holland. They have narcissus, tulips, daffodils, and hyacinths. Narcissus may be grown indoors in rock dishes as well as outside for spring blooming.

West Virginia University football players this season wear numbers on their jerseys and helmets

Corned beef hash and poached eggs take on new interest when you sprinkle the eggs with grated cheddar cheese.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Adlai Stevenson, 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, kept his political thoughts and hopes mostly to himself during his Texas visit.

He made only a left-handed jab at political foe Gov. Allan Shivers. Shivers has said he will not support Stevenson if he is the 53rd presidential nominee.

In his University of Texas lecture, Stevenson said that, while not a full-time economic expert, he is a "full-time Democrat." He sidestepped a question from the audience on Texas tidelands, issue on which he and Shivers broke in 1952.

Stevenson was joined by Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn in an overnight visit at U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's farm. Plans scheduled allowed the three top-level Democratic leaders very little time to discuss their party's brightened prospects. They all disclaimed any political significance in the get-together.

Johnson and Rayburn said no change in Democratic Congressional tactics is planned as a result of President Eisenhower's heart attack. They said Demo leaders would, nevertheless, try to draft a Congressional program that will put a Democrat in the White House.

Apparently well on the road to recovery from his own heart attack, Johnson sent a telegram inviting President Eisenhower to Texas to hunt with him.

Shivers Criticizes Court
Last year's desegregation ruling by the U. S. Supreme Court was part of a long series of moves toward centralized government Gov. Shivers contends.

U. S. Supreme Court justices "stepped out of their judicial robes" in their desegregation decision he said. "Nine men, sitting 2,000 miles away, are not going to tell Crossroads, Texas, how they are going to run their schools," the Governor emphasized.

Shivers spoke at a meeting of oil well drillers in Houston, at the same time Adlai Stevenson addressed an Austin audience.

Earlier he pointed out the court ruling can be overridden by act of Congress or amendment to the U. S. Constitution. He cited recent tidelands legislation as an example.

Political Speculation
Sen. Price Daniel has indicated he may disclose his political plans during a series of speeches scheduled in Texas during November.

He has kept the door open for a possible race for governor next year. His Senate term still has two years to go.

Meanwhile, Daniel will open hearings of the Senate judiciary subcommittee on narcotics in Austin, Oct. 12, and will hold other hearings in San Antonio, Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth.

Political speculation has swung toward the idea that Gov. Allan Shivers and other top office-holders may choose to seek re-election next year. Shivers for a fourth elective term.

Among the possibilities were Lt. Governor Ben Ramsey, Atty. General John Ben Shepperd, and Agri. Comm. John C. White. The same speculation hinted that possibly U. S. Sen. Daniel might decide against the governor's race for which he has been discussed.

Gov. Shivers decision to run for re-election would greatly thin the ranks of prospective candidates.

Gov. Senterfitt has announced. Ralph Yarborough, twice defeated for the office, is regarded as a certain candidate. White and State Senator Jimmy Phillips of Angleton are probable entrants.

Teachers Due Jury Duty

This fall, for the first time in Texas history, some school teachers will have to interrupt the three R's to answer jury summonses.

Legislators, apparently by an oversight, deprived them of their traditional exempt from jury service laws were rewritten last session after constitutional amendment made women eligible for

Old laws specifically exempt ing "school masters," had been interpreted as meaning all teachers. That new statutes had dropped this classification did not come to light until school and fall court sessions began.

Teachers summoned are expected to seek reprieve on the grounds that their absence would work a hardship on their schools.

Radar Reduces Accidents

Radar, says Public Safety Director, Homer Garrison Jr., has had a pronounced psychological effect, slowing down highway speeders whenever it is used.

Fatalities on major routes were down six per cent for the first eight months of the year, Garrison pointed out.

Total number killed this year is expected to be up two or three per cent because of increase fatalities on farm-to-market and other secondary roads.

The highway department said surveys show that 12 per cent of Texas motorists were exceeding the speed limit in checks this year. Last year the figure was 17 per cent.

Average speed was higher, but there were fewer speed violations. Average speed for all vehicles this year was closed at 54 miles an hour, six-tenths of a mile faster than last year.

Building Planners Hired

A professional planning firm has been employed by the State Building Commission to map out a long-range program for housing the state government.

An orderly building program covering needs for the next 25 to 50 years is the goal, said Gov. Shivers, chairman of the commission.

He said he favors a government center built around the Capitol, rather than an aimless sprinkling of buildings.

Funds already have been appropriated for a new state courts and office building and for partial air conditioning and remodeling of the Capitol.

SHORT SNORTS: Texas' 31 state senators reported they spent $43,756 of state money for expenses this year. Highest was Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton, who reported $4,183. Lowest was Sen. R. A. Weinert of Seguin who spent $402. . . . Ben H. Carpenter of Dallas was named by Gov. Allan Shivers as temporary president of the Trinity River Authority, new state agency. . . . Texas business activity in August was "Always plenty of HOT WATER with my ELECTRIC Water Heater!" says Mrs. Buford Dulin

DENVER CITY, TEXAS

"We have five electric water heaters for our home and motel, and we have found that electric water heating is economical. All you have to do is install an electric water heater and forget it."

"We have the water heaters in closets, right where clothes are stored. Because electric water heating is so safe and clean, the clothes are absolutely safe from fire and soot."

"The rooms in our motel stay much cleaner with the electric water heaters. And, of course, while the water is hot, the electric water heater is cool and doesn't heat up the house or the motel rooms in which they are installed."

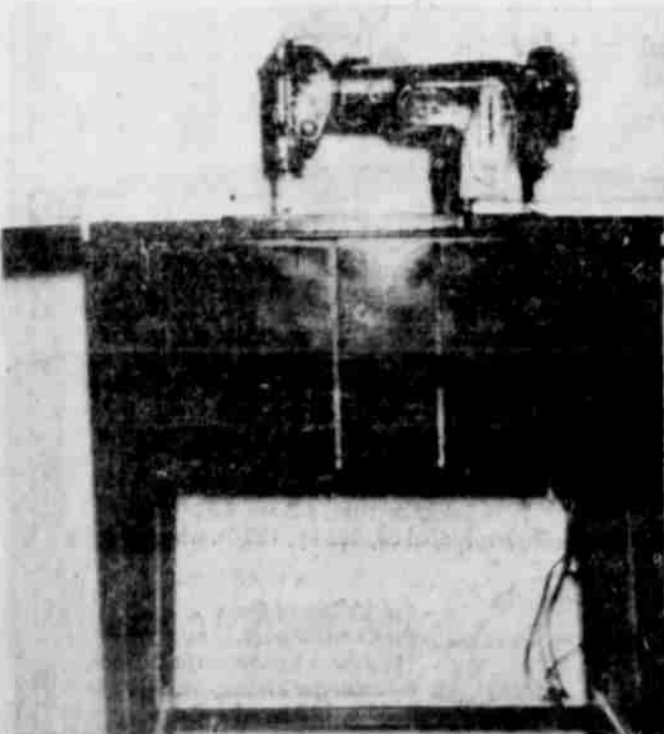

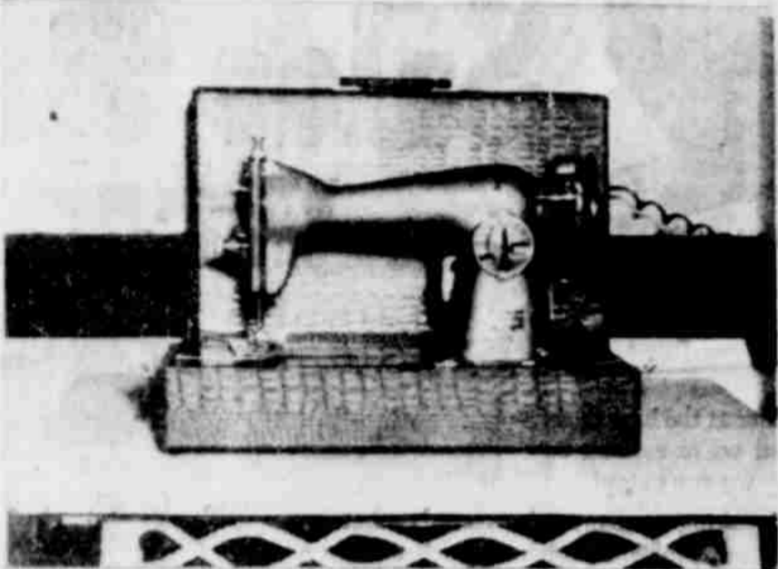

"We have four small boys and we have absolutely no fear of letting them play around the electric water heaters. We know there is no danger of being burned." Want economical, clean, safe water heating? Then you want modern water heating. Of course, it's electric.

Soviet Papers Perk Up Since Stalin Death

WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Foreign News Analyst

Pravda's fourth and last page was a three-inch box bordered in black. The title: "From the Politburo Committee of Soviet Union."

Anti-Racist Committee of Women, read the brief with deep sorrow announcement in an aviation catastrophe of the members of the death of Norwegian women . . . after the names of the 10

Norwegian women tourists were listed. No mention was made of 15 Russians who also perished in the crash. The announcement was signed by three members of the women's committee. That was all. But that was a milestone in the history of the Soviet press. In the Stalin era, a reader of the press would never suspect the Soviet Union had such things as plane crashes, automobile accidents, train wrecks or anything of the sort.

Matters are likely to stay that way, too. The announcement of the Norwegian women's deaths had to be made because it could not be hidden in these days of the Soviet smile offensive. Any attempt to hide it would have been damaging to the new Soviet policy. But the announcement surely must have surprised many a Soviet reader who never before read of any kind of Soviet catastrophe in his paper.

The organs of the Soviet press cannot rightly be called "news papers." Their function is not to disseminate news, but to instruct, lecture, cajole, blame and spread propaganda for internal and external purposes. The function with regard to news is more to hide than to enlighten.

Even the much-advertised slackening of tension has not made an appreciable dent in the Soviet press. True it has been startling to readers off and on—in Moscow, at any rate—by publishing statements of President Eisenhower and other foreign statesmen. That is part of the current peace offensive, but essentially, nothing much new has been added to the Soviet press since the Stalin era.

In the 30 months since Stalin died, the look of the Soviet newspapers has perked up just a little. There are pictures and sometimes cartoons on the front pages no wand then instead of the vast block or incredibly dull reading matter.

The reading matter itself hasn't changed much, though. All Soviet daily papers—there are thousands throughout the country—are four pages, except in special cases when highly important textual matter must be carried. All the daily papers look alike, from the front-page, two-column editorial on the left side to the smattering of small dispatches telling with dreadful monotony of experiences of workers with "socialist competitions," overflowing quotas, finding means of cutting production corners, items about successes in harvesting or planting and so forth.

The newspapers are all six columns wide. The first page carries nothing of interest except the editorial, which is interesting from the standpoint of what enterprise or functionary is being bawled out or what new propaganda is being promulgated.

The second page varies according to the function of the paper. If it's a party paper, like Pravda, it will be largely devoted to Communist Party affairs, all couched in double-talk, much of it lecturing in tone. Sometimes a corner of the second page is used for Foreign Office announcements.

Page 3 is given over largely to news from the other communist countries, all glowing reports. The back pages carry, however, an interesting department once in a long while. It goes under the heading of "Sud," meaning court. It is a dry account of some culprit caught at shenanigans and how he was sentenced—an object lesson rather than a news item.

There are many specialized papers in the Soviet Union which do not follow this exact pattern, and many magazines, some of them exceptionally well turned out from the typographical standpoint. But on the whole, dullness is the keynote and propaganda the purpose. News as such is foreign to the Soviet press.

Next time you prepare a beef and vegetable soup, tie a teaspoon of whole peppers in a piece of cheesecloth and add. Remove the peppercorns before serving.

Want to vary green snap beans? Add the cooked beans to a cream sauce and top with bits of crisply cooked bacon. Use bacon fat in making the cream sauce, if you like a lot of bacon flavor.

The portion of Potter county within the boundary of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District covers approximately 23,000 acres of land. The underground reservoir in the Ogallala formation beneath the area within the Water District contains approximately 334,000 acre-feet of ground water in storage available for pumping.

The map in plate 1 shows the thickness of the water-bearing strata between the water table and the redbeds in 1938 before an appreciable amount of water had been pumped from the reservoir. The map in plate 2 shows the decline of the water table from the spring of 1938 to January 1955.

The volume of water remaining in the underground reservoir was determined by subtracting the volume of material unwatered since 1938 from the total volume of saturated material in 1938 and multiplying the remainder by the coefficient of storage of 15 per cent.

These data show about 376,000 acre-feet of water was in storage available for pumping in 1938, and about 32,000 acre-feet of water has been removed from storage since 1938. In other words approximately 8.5 percent of the volume of the available water has been removed since 1938.

The approximate quantity of underground water in storage, available for pumping, beneath an individual farm may be determined by multiplying the number of acres in the farm by the thickness of the water-bearing strata underlying the farm and then multiplying by the storage coefficient of .15 per cent.

Suppose the farm consists of 160 acres and has 150 feet of water bearing strata underlying it, then 160 acres x 150 feet x 0.15 per cent equals 3,600 acre-feet of water available for pumping. An acre-foot of water is the quantity required to cover one acre to a depth of one foot, and it is also equal to 43,560 cubic feet or 325,000 gallons.

An individual may use this information to determine, within reasonable limits, how long the quantity of underground water in storage beneath his farm will last at any annual rate of withdrawal. This assumes, of course, that his neighbors pump a comparable amount of water per acre on their farms.

These maps and studies of this type are parts of the regular hydrological work in progress by the staff of the Water District. Similar maps and information will be prepared, as rapidly as practicable, for all the counties within the Water District. Maps of Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro and a portion of Potter county are now available.

Mrs. Hickman Gives Receipt For Frozen Juice

Mrs. J. E. Wade, Lams Chapel HD Club member Freezes Tomato Juice

To freeze tomato juice, the Texas Extension Service suggests that firm, vine-ripened tomatoes be selected. Wash, trim and cut tomatoes in quarters or eighths. Simmer for 5 to 10 minutes. Press through a sieve. If desired, 1 teaspoon of salt can be added to each quart of juice. Pour juice into containers. Seal and freeze immediately. Store at zero or lower.

Mrs. Wade says that her family enjoys the frozen tomato juice for drinking and in soups and other dishes using tomato juice. She has frozen juice before and it was enjoyed enough that she is freezing tomato juice again this year. She says she does not have any problem of the juice separating in freezing. The flavor is excellent too.

Mrs. Hazel Hickman, CHDA, suggests that homemakers who have food freezers and a surplus of ripe tomatoes at this time try freezing juice. Just a few containers will give the family opportunity to see how they like the product.

Mrs. Hickman urges all families with home food freezers to plan for a variety of foods in the quality of frozen foods better use of space in freezer. This makes for better freezer.

Sink Or Swin Is The Rule In Shortage Of Classrooms

By BEM PRICE

The nation's classroom problem is reaching the point where teachers no longer say "Please be seated." They ask instead "Do you all fit?"

With 36 million children — a million more than a year ago — being sent to school, the U. S. Office of Education estimates the nation is short 290,000 classrooms.

That really is a guess—an educated guess—for the office has figures for only 33 states and three territories.

Anyhow the net result is expected to be another year of over-worked teachers, over-stuffed classrooms and children shoehorned into church basements, old stores and auditoriums.

25 Is Ideal Class Size

The situation will vary, of course, from community to community. Some lucky areas will have only 25 to 30 children per class—25 is the ideal set up by the National Education Association (NEA)—while others will have classes—ranging up to 40 pupils.

Last year the shortage was such that more than 500,000 pupils went to school only part time. The number probably will be larger this year.

Dr. T. M. Stinnett, executive secretary of NEA's National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards, says one result of the classroom shortage was "restricted service to the child."

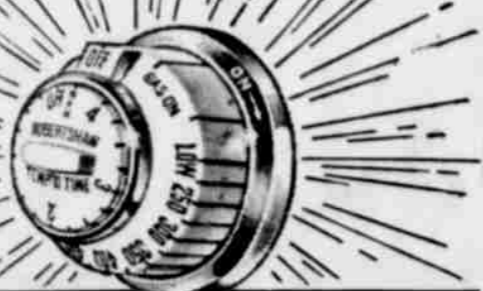

"Music and art appreciation and physical recreation—the services needed in the life we lead today—are seriously curtailed," he says.

Case of Sink or Swim

Stinnett contends, too, that "the wise parent will concern himself with the size of the class and the

Youngsters Need Love, Patience

By SANDRA NEMSER

You can best prepare your child for school by giving him large and constant doses of love, understanding and patience.

This is the verdict of experience and the counsel of psychologists.

That initial day of school—be it a new baby or a child for the first time—is a swift and sometimes terrifying change of environment.

Unless you are prepared for it too you can turn what should eventually be a pleasant event into a frightening experience.

Preparing your child for school is really preparing him for the outside world. Because of this, says Gunnar Dybwad, director of the Child Study Association, both the parent and child must be set on the preparatory road long before school registration time.

Some Steps to Take

Here are some suggestions offered by Dybwad and other child experts to help you help your child.

1. Widen the child's range of experiences in the outside world. Between 2 and 3 a child begins to develop his social patterns and he should generally be ready for a nursery school. Let him have friends of his own age, so he may learn to get along with others.

2. Choose the nursery school carefully. In many areas, there is very little choice between kindergarten and elementary schools because of limited and overcrowded conditions, so this careful examination is not possible. For the nursery, look for proper medical care, well-painted, bright and cheerful rooms, for quiet and lively play, and grounds for outdoor activities.

3. Tell your child all about the nursery or kindergarten. Tell him why he is going there, what he is going to gain from it, what to expect there. Tell him about the teacher. Tell him, also, that mommy won't be able to stay there with him all the time. When he is entering elementary school, explain to him the differences between the play of kindergarten and the more disciplined first grade.

4. After the verbal explanations, take him to visit his teacher-to-be, if that is possible. Show him the rooms, closets, toilets. Familiarity in this case breeds confidence and little Johnnie soon realizes that the door to school opens both ways: he can go in, but he also can come out.

5. During the period before the eventful day, avoid tension at home. Don't make going to school a threat, such as: "You'll have to behave yourself in school." If a new baby is scheduled to arrive soon, your child shouldn't feel you are getting rid of him because you love the baby more.

6. Prepare him realistically. If the pleasant experiences of the outside world are overemphasized, the defeats and unpleasant experiences will be most difficult. As one child specialist phrased it:

© 1955 KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC. WORLD RIGHTS RESERVED.
"Is my bicycle hurt?"

"Readiness is primarily the psychological and physical ability to accept the frustration and fear and pain involved in each step that enlarges the horizons of their world."

7. Prepare yourself with facts. Learn about changes in the physical classroom appearance and how it differs from your school days. Do you know about the new teaching methods? Do you know what to expect from school, and are your expectations too high? Get to know your child's teacher. Find out what she expects of you. Do you expect too much from her? Become interested in the school's parent-teacher group so you can learn of common problems and goals.

8. Give your child a good physical checkup before he starts first grade. Bad vision or hearing may hamper his social and learning progress.

9. Make sure his clothing is appropriate, not too cumbersome and easy for him and the teacher to unbutton.

10. Once he's in school, don't expect too much from him. He may be his age physically, but is he as old emotionally? Can he coordinate his muscles well enough to write legibly?

11. Understand that even the best-prepared child is likely to be apprehensive over the first day of grade school. With each step into the outside world, the child is separated from his mother and familiar environment and must try to handle his feelings of fear and helplessness.

12. Retain and reinforce the child's confidence in his home. Mary Frank and Lawrence K. Frank in their book on helping your child in school sum this up nicely: "What the child does, sees and feels, in his home with his family, have far greater influence on his learning and his future life than drill in mathematics or spelling."

13. Show your interest in the school. It should be a serious topic of conversation. The child in his own way, tries to bring together the two most important parts of his life—his home and his school. Parents can be critical of the school as long as the child knows they are constructive and really behind the school. Just as a child is not crushed if his parents quarrel, as long as he knows they still love each other.

14. Don't expect your child to do all his learning at school. Provide opportunities for him at home to develop his own library, and an interest in music, art, and other things which supplement the school curriculum.

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM COMPANY

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

1. We'd like to show you some of the things that make the Ford one of America's finest cars . . . though it's one of the lowest-priced. Let's start with these long, low lines. Looks like it hates to stand still, doesn't it?

Let's take a walk around the NEW '56 FORD!

It's the fine car at half the fine car price!

4. The new 202-h.p. Thunderbird Y-8 will give you a new lease on driving enjoyment. It's available in Fordomatic Fairlane and Station Wagon models. You can have the "GO"-packed 175-h.p. Y-8 in Fordomatic Mainline and Customline models, or Ford's new 137-h.p. Six is available in any model.

5. Note the deep-center design of this new Lifeguard steering wheel. The wheel rim is over three inches above the post to help cushion the driver in case of an accident. It's a feature of new Lifeguard Design which Ford spent over two years developing . . . to give you added protection in case of an accident.

3. Here's what you ride on. This frame has five cross-members including a special K-bar member up front. It can really take it! By the way, the control arms of Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension are angle-mounted to cushion out the head-on as well as the up-down shock of bumps.

6. This Lifeguard cushioning for instrument panel and sun visors is optional. It gives you extra protection when thrown forward in an accident. You may also have optional seat belts to help keep occupants securely in seats.

2. Here, on your left, is the inspiration for the styling of the '56 Ford—the famous Ford Thunderbird. Look those broad, flat hoods, for example. Here is styling that will stay in style.

7. Here's Ford's new Lifeguard latch. It is another member of Ford's new Lifeguard family. A double-latching engagement reduces the strain of doors springing open under unusual strain of impact. Chances of serious injury in accidents are reduced when passengers remain in their seats.

Well, that covers the important points. But there's more. So we'd like to invite you to come in and see the '56 Ford for yourself. Then you'll see the colorful exteriors and interiors, the quality workmanship that's evident everywhere. Then you'll learn the full story. When you do, you'll know that Ford is the fine car at half the fine car price.

WRONG WASHINGTON

DETROIT (AP)—"The father of our country would be mortified," a traffic judge told George Washington after fining him $50 for reckless driving.

Police had told Washington to move his car after a minor traffic collision. He asked for a push, saying his battery was dead.

"I gave him a push to get him started but he kept on going," said Patrolman Gilbert Truax. "It took me three blocks to catch him."

Don't smooth out a meringue when you are spreading it over a pie filling. Swoops and billows look pretty after the topping is browned.

"Don't be impatient, Deal Maybe next year we can afford another room for the house."

Every checkered flag signals a Chevrolet victory in official 1955 stock car competition—not only against its own field but against many American and foreign high-priced cars, too!

Let's translate these Chevrolet victories into your kind of driving. You've got to have faster acceleration to win on the tracks. And that means safer passing on the highways. You've got to have better springing and suspension. Again, safer and happier motoring for you. You've got to have big brakes that act fast and smooth... and easy, accurate steering. More things that make your driving safer.

But it's more fun to try these things out than just to talk about them. So come in and let's take a ride.

How To Help Youngsters To Better Lunch

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor
The kids won't mind making their own sandwiches for lunchboxes traveling to school if there are cookies on hand to take along for dessert. And while Mom's baking, she might as well make plenty of the cookies so they'll be in the cookie jar for after-school snacks. Here's a recipe for dozens of mincemeat cookies, flavored with orange and brown sugar. Easy to make, easy to eat!

NEW MINCEMEAT COOKIES
Ingredients: 1 package (9 ounces) condensed mincemeat, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 1/2 cup orange juice, 4 cups sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup hydrogenated shortening, 3/4 cup sugar, 3/4 cup firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 2 eggs, nutmeats (if desired).

Method: Break mincemeat into pieces in 1 or 1 1/2 quart saucepan. Add orange rind and orange juice. Place over low heat and break up lumps thoroughly with wooden spoon. Bring to a boil, then simmer until mixture is practically dry, stirring often. Cool. Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt. Cream shortening and sugars; beat in eggs, one at a time thoroughly. Stir in sifted dry ingredients until blended. Stir in cooled mincemeat. Form into 4 to 6 rolls about 2 inches in diameter. Wrap each roll tightly in waxed paper and refrigerate overnight. When ready to bake, slice rolls thin, using a serrated bread knife and a sawing motion. If you have trouble slicing rolls, roll a little of the cookie dough into a ball a little smaller than a walnut; flat-ten balls with the bottom of a glass covered with damp cheesecloth; an elastic band with hold up the cheesecloth. Bake cookies 1 inch apart, on a greased baking sheet in a hot (400 degrees) oven 8 to 10 minutes or until browned around edges. Cool cookies on rack. A blanched almond or a small pecan may be pressed into center of each cookie before baking if desired. Makes 6 to 8 dozen cookies. Rolls of cookie dough may be kept in refrigerator and baked as desired.

MOLASSES COOKIES

Ingredients: 3 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons ginger, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon allspice, 1 cup water, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup dark old-fashioned molasses.

Method: Sift together flour, baking soda, salt, ginger, cloves, nutmeg, and allspice. Cream shortening and sugar. Mix water and molasses. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately to creamed mixture with water-molasses, blending well after each addition. Chill in covered bowl in refrigerator over night. Roll out 1/4-inch thick on floured board or prepared pastry cloth. Cut with a 4-inch cookie cutter. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes. When cookies are cold, names may be written on them by forcing decorative frosting through narrow opening of cake decorator. Makes 1 1/2 dozen.

For best results when painting a wall, use semi-circular strokes until you're within about six inches of a window or door frame. Turn the brush sideways and finish with long steady strokes.
