Littlefield Building Upswing Continues

Permits Climb Sharply

Building permits passed the $1.1 million mark during November after $50,570 was added to the 1960 total. This brought the year's 11-month record to $1,134,971 and compared with the $83,350 figure set for October.

Only seven permits were issued, but one was for a $30,000 addition to a home on East 12th. Three of the intentions-to-build were filed for new homes.

Biggest single permit was issued to the contracting firm of Dipple & Montgomery for a brick veneer addition to the home of Dr. I. T. Shotwell, Jr., at 217 E. 12th to cost $30,000.

Dewitt Johnson filed a permit for a frame house with asbestos siding at Labor 14, League 664 on Nichols Street to cost $7,045. Contractor is Avinger Lumber Co., E. A. Russell, 909 W. 11th, was (Continued on Page Three)

Cotton Quotas Are Due

Cotton allotments for 1961 should be received within the next few days for "all operators of upland cotton farms in Lamb county," Harvey D. Vann, chairman of ASC committee said Wednesday.

Growers are to vote at local polling places Tuesday December 13, on the upland cotton programs for next year. Vann explained and allotments are being mailed in time to reach all growers before referendum day.

In a change from the programs in effect for 1959 and 1960, each farm operator will receive only one allotment for 1961. This will represent the farm's share of the national upland cotton acreage allotment of 18.5 million acres.

The allotment, Vann pointed out, determines the effect of marketing quotas on the individual farm. If marketing quotas take effect as a result of two-thirds favorable vote in the referendum on cotton produced on "compliance" farms may be marketed (Continued on Page Three)

Cat Cagers Fall To Sudan 63-23

SUDAN—Littlefield's cage Wildcats opened their 1960-61 season here Tuesday night by falling before the onrushing Hornets 63-23.

The victory was the third in a row for the Hornets.

Max Lynch was high point man for the night, sinking 25 points. He outscored the entire Littlefield team.

Leading the Wildcats on the floor was Jerry Koller, who dumped in 15 for the losers. Boots Barker netted 6 for the Cats while Lucky Johnson managed to dunk in two markers.

Defensively, De Pierce stood out for the Littlefield cagers, making some fine movements on the floor.

Leading out the starting quintet for the Cats was Dale Purdy.

Mike Steffy and Weldon Finley also saw action for the visitors.

Littlefield was hampered in its starting performance by having had less than a week's (Continued On Page Two)

Yule-Lighting Contest Plans Ready Soon

Plans will be announced this weekend for the annual Christmas home lighting and decoration contest, Harold Kids, chairman of the committee, said Wednesday. The project is sponsored by the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce with Allen Roberts and Mrs. Velma Smith as other members.

Kids said plans cannot be completed until funds are raised for the project. He said it is hoped a Christmas lighting contest and other features can be included in this year's events. A door-decorating contest is also being studied.

"We definitely will have a Christmas decoration contest," Kids said Wednesday, "but we haven't completed arrangements. Prizes will be in cash, and the amount of money raised for the projects will determine the kinds of contests will be staged."

Higher Court Affirms 3 County Convictions

County Judge Pat Boone, Jr. and County Attorney Curtis R. Wilkinson battled 1,000 per cent in recent bouts before the State Court of Criminal Appeals, Austin.

Penalties asked for three cases tried earlier in the year before Judge Boone with Wilkinson representing the state were upheld by the state court, the officials have been informed.

A one-year sentence in the county jail and a $1,000 fine handed out to Juan Balli, Lubbock, was upheld. He was charged with transporting beer and whiskey.

Cleo Risby, Littlefield, was given a three-month sentence in jail and fined $500 upon conviction of a charge of transporting intoxicants.

C. J. Hudson, Littlefield was handed a $500 fine for possession of whiskey for purpose of sale.

Earlier another case was affirmed by the court. The conviction of Jessie Mae Collins, Sudan, charged with possession of intoxicants for the purpose of sale. She was assessed a one-month jail sentence and a $500 fine by the county court.

Wilkinson says motions for retrial hearings will be filed by Attorney Billy Hall for the defendants in all these cases

April Contract-Letting Seen For Road Project

Contract for the first stage of the U. S. Highway 84 widening project from the Hockley County line west of Anton probably will not be let until next spring, possibly April 14 or 15, County Judge Pat Boone, Jr., said Wednesday.

This means actual construction of the four-lane road, bonds for which were voted July 14, 1959, probably won't get under way until next fall.

This is the status of the road which eventually will make the highway four-lane across the county.

Meantime appraisers would up their work in October on the 18 tracts which are to be covered by the eight-mile first leg of the construction project. The state has approved 12 of these tracts, and the balance are expected to get the highway department's ok within the next two or three weeks.

Bonds for the project are being printed, Judge Boone said, and approval has been tentatively given by the attorney general's office in Austin.

The county commissioners are expected to announce sale of the bonds early this month, possibly at their next session, but after that will come the actual sale of the bonds, transfer of funds to local banks and further details before actual bids on contracts can be called for.

Bonds for the first part of the road were voted in Road District 1-A covering an eight-mile widening and new construction program leading from the present end of the four-lane road to three miles east of Littlefield. The county's part is $239,000.

Much of the first project will (Continued on Page Five)

Possible Sugar Beet Growers Here To Follow Farm Legislative Moves

With acreage controls removed for the 1961 crop, Lamb County farmers are studying with much interest the sugar beet prospects here with an eye to any future sugar beet laws which next year's congress may pass.

Definite action is to be taken tonight at Sudan when potential sugar beet growers meet to form a Sudan Sugar Beet Association. The meeting is to be held at the community center, starting at 8 p. m., and all farmers operating on irrigated land who might be interested in this crop are invited to attend.

In charge of the Sudan session are Kenneth Burgess, Wiley Mudgett and Waymon Bellar.

Dalton Wood, publisher of the Sudan Beacon-News, said the membership cards to be issued actually are acreage statements, showing how many acres each member is willing to devote to sugar beets.

Sugar beets as the third major crop for Lamb county are attracting the attention of farmers and with acreage limits removed, farm experts say this county may become a sugar-beet area soon, possibly in 1961.

The national sugar act expires March 31, 1961. Acreage controls have been in effect for six years. Whether the new congress may enact new laws is a matter of conjecture, but they are not expected to act on any program before

Machines Create Mountains On Flat South Plains -- Done With Cottonseed

By JOHN PETTY Press Feature Writer

It's a rare sight to see a machine that can make a mountain—but Littlefield has just such an oddity.

And the kind of mountains that it makes is more indigenous to this part of the country than the towering slopes of the Rockies or the Alps would be.

The machine makes mountains out of cottonseed.

Actually, stacking cottonseed is nothing new, but up until three weeks ago, the Western Cottonoil Company in Littlefield utilized the blower method of piling the seed.

A long pipe or vent shot the seeds onto a stack by means of air pushing up through it. The method got the job done, but there were several disadvantages to it. Mainly, the blowing caused so much loose lint to be freed into the air that it covered the countryside like snow.

So, engineers at the Poarch Manufacturing Company in Hereford got together and came up with a crane-like machine that piles the cottonseed quickly, quietly and without much maintenance.

At Western Cottonoil, they call it the "seed stacker."

The device works mainly on a system of conveyor belts. A line of belts picks up the cottonseed at the dumping area and it is conveyed across the yard to the base of a steel tower.

conveyers pick up the seed and carries it to the top of the stack.

Protection of the stack against the elements is fairly simple. Wooden pallets are laid in semi-circles under the stack to allow hot air to be blown into the pile in case it is needed.

As the seed is deposited at the top of the stack, two workers with wooden slides smooth it down, making it a "duck's back" to water.

According to Perry Todd, employee at Western Cottonoil, this new method of stacking the cottonseed is far superior to the blower used in the past.

"It's less expensive in that it doesn't tear up the seed as did the blower," Todd said.

"Too, we got rid of all that loose lint in the air."

Todd and Alvis Collins, also employed at the company, both termed the seed stacker as a success.

"This is the first one that has been put into use," Collins said, "and we are very satisfied with it."

Collins said that the machine would move up to 75 tons of cottonseed an hour.

And, to the skeptics who don't believe that the machine can make a mountain, a 12,000-ton stack of seed resting under the ever-moving tongue of the stacker should be proof enough.

Here's Another Rime Winner

Ina Merle Barlow, 943 W. 3rd, is this week's "Ad Rime" winner to receive the $10 weekly prize, it was announced Wednesday.

Ina Merle found the hidden slogan, "Business, taxes and pay-rolls provide many local improvements" and her prize-winning rime was, "payrolls, taxes help us all, if our dollars do not go AWOL."

Her entry will go into the $50 file, and the winning Ad Rime for the 26-week period will receive this prize.

Another Ad Rime appears in this issue of the Leader. This week's ad rime guide lines are: "Ask your dealer for advice."

All entries must be in The Leader office before 5 p. m. Monday, Dec. 5.

It's All Just A Week's Work For Officers

Minor offenses ranging all the way from illegal entrance into the United States to wife-beating, chalked up 12 cases on the sheriff's blotter during Thanksgiving week and the weekend that followed a check of the records revealed Wednesday.

Most of the cases already had been disposed of by Wednesday, only one of the dozen arrested men still being held in jail. One was free on bond.

To begin with there was a drunk who paid a fine of $20.50. And the second and third arrests for the week were for traffic violations which cost the drivers fines of $20.50 and $16.50 respectively.

An arrest for failure to have a (Continued on Page Five)

MOUNTAIN-MAKER—This huge crane-like cottonseed stacker is now in use at the Western Cottonoil Company yard, being used to stack the seed as it comes in from the gins. The stack is an innovation at the company, replacing the blower. The new system has many advantages, the main one being the reduction of lint into the air by the old blower.

fore the 1961 planting season. However, the fly in the ointment comes from the unwillingness of sugar refiners to take on any new growers, and for this reason, possible sugar-beet farmers here are likely to move cautiously. Several area meetings have been held, and the prospect of locating a sugar beet refinery in West Texas has been proposed at all the meetings held in this section.

The sugar beet problem is to be presented to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce when it holds its forum in Fort Worth starting tomorrow when national legislation will be considered. Among the points to be aired will be the problem of sugar beet acreages.

Mrs. Jo Allred Dies; Rites Held Here Wednesday

Services were held Wednesday in the First Baptist Church here for Mrs. Jo Ana Allred, 76, found dead at her home Monday by a neighbor.

The Rev. Robert Longshore, pastor officiated. Burial was in the Littlefield Cemetery under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home.

She had lived alone since the death of her husband, Joseph Allred, May 22.

Survivors include five sons, Dennis, Fort Worth, Homer, Lubbock; W. W., Littlefield; Marshal, Downing, Calif.; and J. W. Sacramento, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Alta Teak, Amarillo, and Miss Doris Allred, San Landro, Calif.; a brother, Milton Mitchell, Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Bessie West, Rhine, Okla., and Mrs. Fanny Neil, Wichita Falls.

The history of the world is the record of a man in search of his daily bread and butter.

Among those present will be Bob Poage, Waco, vice chairman of the House Agriculture Committee. Other Texas senators also will appear before the WTCC meeting.

Another up-coming meeting of interest is the 15th annual session of the National Beet Growers Federation of Yakima, Wash., Dec. 7-9. There proposals for national sugar legislation to come before the Congress will be considered, according to Richard W. Blake, Federation executive secretary.

Some 300 to 400 officers and directors of 18 state and regional sugar beet grower associations in 11 western states are expected to attend one of the most important annual meetings in the Federation's history, Blake declared.

"The entire future of our United States beet sugar industry probably will be determined when Congress revises the Sugar Act in 1961," Blake said.

"Since our difficulties with Cuba have become so severe, there has been a quickening of national reliance upon our domestic sugar producers, especially the sugar beet producers who are now the number one sugar suppliers in this country," Blake said.

"With this increased demand upon our productive abilities have come problems and other considerations requiring careful study," he added, "especially determining a wise rate of growth to meet our new challenges."

Blake said U. S. beet sugar industry is currently completing production of an all-time record sugar crop - some five billion pounds of sugar.

"Next year, we expect to go up ten per cent above that level," he added, "in view of the fact that six-year-old acreage controls have been removed and we are free to increase production to the limit of our existing factory capacities."

He estimated beet sugar production would be up from $2,400,000 pounds this year to at least 2,600,000 pounds in 1961.

Where we go from there will depend almost entirely upon the law written by Congress in 1961." Blake said. "We cannot sensibly expand our industry greatly under a short extension of the federal law which regulates marketing and production in this country. On the other hand, we have the greatest growth potential of any domestic sugar producing area, and we recognize the rapid growing reliance upon us to assure ample supplies of this important commodity, regardless of international problems." In addition to legislation will discuss the sugar - flume research has been instrumental in a climb of production in recent years.

Just like you, everybody reads the ads in the Littlefield News-papers - no matter how small.

driver's license cost the negligent person $20.50 in fines. A man arrested for check law violation was still held in jail.

Charges against one man cost him $36.73, the blotter showed and covered two offenses - check law violations and wife-beating. A "wet back" was arrested and released to the border patrol.

For creating a disturbance, one man paid a fine of $24.30, and a drunk was released after paying a $20.50 fine. Bond of a motorist, charged with driving while intoxicated was set at $1,000.

Final case for the week, the blotter showed, was a disturbance offense which cost the disturber $20.50.

Altogether it gave the sheriff's office and highway patrol a rather active week.

dant of asafetida as a disease repellent. . . People, dogs and pharmaceuticals are like that."

ORDERED YOUR BEARD?

A strange new craze is sweeping Britain. Hundreds of young men in late teens and early twenties are buying fake beards for evening wear. All types of beards, Van Dykes, sideburns, and mustaches are in great demand from theatrical make-up suppliers.

They say a beard makes them feel good, but growing their own is prohibited by their bosses.

THERE'S NOTHING said about how their girl friends like or dislike the beards. . . they do have an amusing pastime . . . testing to see if they are real!

A LOCAL men's clothing buyer reports that back in the depression days the popular man's trouser was a 29 to 31 waist. . . now the best seller runs around 34 to 38 inches. This just proves what I've always said. . . Americans are eating themselves to death.

MAN IS growing larger where he sits down according to many rumors we hear. La Scala in Milan is enlarging its 13 in seats; the Army is making all pamps larger seat - wise; the Chicago Transit Co ordered an extra inch of seat space in new diesel buses.

And a suit of armour worn by a knight in the Middle Ages is too small for a 13 year old boy of today.

ARE WE developing a race of giants. . . or just a bunch of big sitters?

I RECEIVED a long article from some subscriber in Princeton, N. J. this week. The article concerned a recent visit by two British visitors "on the U. S. tourist trail."

The Britishers were from London, the husband had taken a leave of absence from his school teaching job. The husband and wife decided to "rough it" during their tour of the U. S.

They especially noted the convenience of tables and benches ever so often on U. S. highways. . . and they usually camped over night at one of these places.

They reported "One of our most curious experiences was when we went off the main road in the Texas Panhandle, having been attracted by a sign saying, "Sleep in Peace from the noise of traffic."

"The small village had at one time been on the main road, but this had moved.

"We found a row of pleasant-looking, if shabby, cabins, a lovely view, and after unloading and getting settled in the cabin, we wandered around the little town. It turned out to be a ghost town in the making. There were deserted houses, shops, gas stations and a traffic light at a small cross-road going green, red, green, — and not a car, or even a pedestrian.

The Rattlesnake
"After supper my husband went out to the car to fetch something and as he came back into the cabin found a large rattlesnake coiled up inside the door. I objected strongly to having its peace disturbed, and rattled vociferously."

"We managed to get it outside with our umbrella (the only time it was used on the journey) though a rattlesnake on linoleum is a very slippery customer. Then we killed it with a stone."

"We could only conclude that it had been sitting under the bed while we were writing letters. We made a tour around the cabin, stuffing up cracks with old newspapers and had a good night's sleep. There was no noise of traffic."

the little scrapers to the heavier, more experienced fighters.

Teams participating in the matches were from Levelland, Plainview, Petersburg, Lockney, Hereford, Lamesa, Midland and Littlefield.

The second round of bouts will swing into action tonight at the Sports Arena at 7:50 p. m. According to the Jaycee president Bill Little, there will be some 20 to 25 matches tonight with the finals coming up Friday evening.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners in each match and a team trophy will be given the group winning the most bouts. Too, an overall sportsmanship award will be made.

Following this tournament, boxers will go the district tourney in Levelland with the winners there advancing upward to the regional bouts to be held in Amarillo. The Amarillo tourney is a warmup for the state Golden Gloves tournament.

Referees for the matches here are J. C. Oaldley, Plainview and "Spider" Dillon, Lubbock.

Boxers carrying the Littlefield colors into the ring during the tournament here are Carlos Galvez, Jessie Galvez, Johnny Galvez, Joe Galvez, Tommy Montoya, Fred Whinnant, Marcelino Laro, Don Pitts, Lawrence Macha, Gilbert Vasquez, Emilio Solis, and Tony Torres.

Admission to the two remaining night of matches is $1.50 for reserved seats, general admission adults, 31, children, 50 cents.

April Contract--

(Continued from Page One) be along the present site, Judge Boone explained, thus simplifying the process of buying right-of-way. However, new right-of-way must be procured for the road after it leaves the present route east of Littlefield. From that point the road is to curve to the south, bypassing Littlefield on the extreme south edge of town and returning to the present route west of Littlefield.

The commissioners, Judge Boone said, are not planning to name a negotiator for property right-of-way immediately, probably waiting until all the tracts have been approved by the state department.

Judge Boone said the widening project calls for a minimum of 80 additional feet along existing roads, but in areas where an entirely new road must be constructed, 280 feet of right-of-way is required. He also explained that the roads must be at least 400 feet wide at intersections, along channel easements and in areas where dirt must be procured for construction of the road.

our subscriber wrote this note at the top of the article, "It's a pity they missed seeing one of our sandies, then they really would have something to talk about, wish I could see one right now."

WELL MADAM. . . or sir, whichever you are. . . you should have been in Lamb County last Sunday. . . this land was really on the move. We had just put some new Christmas decorations across main street. . . and it looked for a while like we might lose all of them. . . but being brand new and of good material, they're all still hanging.

I'VE ALWAYS said there's nothing like a good West Texas duster to clear our the "3837M" — Yankees ever so often. . . and you could have "enjoyed" that one with us Sunday. . . you surely would have been homesick. . . that I suspicion you'd have been more homesick for New Jersey. . . ## Governor Designates 'Safety Sunday'

Governor Daniel has designated December 11 as "Safety Sunday" in Texas to mark the end of the Christmas holiday traffic campaign throughout the state.

Increasing number of church organizations and leaders, that "all our efforts to halt death and destruction on our streets and highways cannot be successful until every driver in Texas comes to realize that traffic safety is truly a matter of spiritual concern... and useless loss of life and infliction of human injury is a violation of each individual's moral responsibility for driving safely and in accordance with the laws."

Numerous organizations have already announced their support of the Governor's annual campaign to reduce the holiday highway slaughter. The overall planning was conducted through the Texas Traffic Safety Council, the State's official coordination group of the Governor's Highway Safety Commission, the Texas Safety Association, Texas Department of Public Safety, and Texas Highway Department.

Statewide organizations which have already promised their support include the Outdoor Advertising Association of Texas, whose members are providing about 800 giant billboards, as they have for the past two years; the Texas Press Association and the Texas Daily Newspaper Association, whose member - newspapers annually devote hundreds of columns of news, editorial and feature space to the campaign; and the Texas Association of Broadcast-

Governor Proclaims State 'Beef Week' For Dec. 4 - 10

Daniel has proclaimed December 4 - 10 as "Beef Week in Texas" for 1961, marking the 7th consecutive year that state - wide tribute has been paid to the Texas Beef Council. The Governor delivered his official proclamation to Hugh A. Fitzsimons, president of the Council.

"Texas cattlemen, producers

BEF WEEK SET - Governor Price Daniel last week proclaimed December 4 to 10 as "Beef Week in Texas," the 6th traditional state - wide observance of the Texas Beef Council. Governor Daniel is shown handing the proclamation to Hugh A. Fitzsimons, San Antonio, president elect of the council.

drinking, according to the Texas Department of Public Safety.

8. The National Safety Council's report on 1959 Christmas - New Year's traffic tragedies showed that drinking was a factor in 38 per cent of the crashes which cost 374 lives.

9. The National Safety Council reports that "The throttle and the bottle both were part of the prelude to the fatal movement of impact" in many of the traffic collisions which took 374 lives during the 1959 year - end holiday.

10. During the 1959 year - end holiday period, the National Safety Council says "the Yule tipper was involved in more than half the Christmas traffic deaths."

11. So - called "social drinkers" are a greater traffic menace than commonly believed, because their critical judgment is impaired with a fairly low alcohol concentration, and they outnumber the obviously intoxicated drivers.

12. Drinking to any extent reduces the ability of any driver.

13. Small amounts of alcohol reduce judgment, self - control and driving ability.

14. It takes about three hours to eliminate one ounce of pure alcohol (about two cocktails).

15. Two cocktails (about 4-100ths of 1 per cent of alcohol in the blood) may reduce visual acuity as much as wearing dark glasses at night.

16. Coffee or other stimulants will not offset the effects of alcohol. Only time can eliminate alcohol from the bloodstream.

17. Chemical tests provide the police with a scientific means to determine whether or not alcohol has reduced a driver's ability.

18. Alcohol is not a stimulant, and is classified medically as a depressant.

Shirtwaist Wins Fashion Approval

That all - American favorite, the shirtwaist dress, sailed triumphantly into fall in many versions. One of the most effective is the slim - skirted silhouette in lightweight wool tweed, jersey or flannel.

An ambitious home seamstress could make several of these flattering, useful dresses in different fabrics and colors, using the same basic pattern. Local sewing center experts chose a black - and - white wool tweed with collar and belt of black velvet for a first fall dress. It's easy to make if you follow their tips.

They recommend that you reinforce underarm seams where extra strain occurs. This is done most easily by using a fine zigzag stitch on either your automatic or the zigzag attachment for straight - needle machines. This stitch adds flexibility and allows the fabric to "give" without ripping.

The velvet collar of the dress will have a crisper, more tailored look if an interfacing is used. To do this, mark the seam allowance and the fold line of the collar on the interfacing.

To prevent sagging and stretching of the slender skirt, a half skirt lining is advised. This also helps prevent wrinkling.

ers, whose member - radio and TV stations are again arranging for their "Drive Lighted and Live" campaign and other special traffic safety programs and promotions during the holiday season.

Governor Daniel issued his proclamation at the request of J. Lloyd Evans of Dallas, state vice-president for religious activities of the Texas Safety Association, and associate director of the National Conference of Christmas and Jews, Inc. Evans said copies of the Governor's proclamation and other information would go to all TSA district officers, and the Association would make a statewide effort to secure the cooperation of as many local pastors and churches as possible.

Governor Daniel concluded: "For the past three years, our state - wide holiday campaign has been saving lives over the official predictions of the number of deaths expected. Throughout this year, the number of traffic deaths has been smaller, month by month, than last year.

However, since December is one of the deadliest months in the year in Texas traffic, we must continue our efforts to stop the slaughter. Human life should be more precious to us because of the special nature of the holidays just ahead."

Following is a list of facts concerning drinking and driving as compiled by the National Safety Council.

1. Nearly one out of every three fatal traffic crashes in the United States in 1959 involved a drinking driver.

2. One out of every five drivers involved in a fatal traffic crash in the United States in 1959 had been drinking.

3. About 10,000 of the 32,000 fatal traffic crashes in the United States in 1959 involved a drinking driver.

4. One out of every four adult pedestrians killed in a traffic tragedy in the United States in 1959 had been drinking.

5. About 1,500 of the 5,700 adult pedestrians killed in U. S. traffic tragedies in 1959 had been drinking.

6. In Texas in 1959, the Department of Public Safety reported that 45 per cent of all the rural fatal traffic crashes involved a drinking driver.

7. In Texas in 1959, 30 percent of all the drivers involved in rural traffic tragedies had been

Civic Lubbock, Inc. will present the first play on its season schedule on Saturday, December 3 at 8 p. m. "The Pleasure of His Company" which ran for 57 weeks on Broadway, will star Joan Bennett and Donald Cook when it is performed at the Lubbock Auditorium.

One of Broadway's spiciest and wittiest comedies, the play offers a glimpse into the life of a fashionable San Francisco family and offers Miss Bennett and Mr. Cook delightful roles. The play concerns an international playboy and his ex - wife, with their attractive daughter's future happiness at stake, as the man returns on the eve of his daughter's wedding.

This artful "tug of war" was written by Samuel Taylor and Cornelia Otis Skinner, and the play is the sixth stage production in which Miss Bennett and Mr. Cook have joined forces. They have firmly established themselves as repertory veterans.

The box office in the lobby of the Lubbock Auditorium has announced that there are still tickets available in all price ranges. Tickets are $1.50, $3.75, $3, $2.25 and students are admitted for $1.75.

The box office is open from 9 to 5 daily and information on locations can be obtained by calling PO 2-4616.

Baby Sitter Should Know Safety Rules

Baby sitters have become an American institution, and if you are having one in during the coming Christmas holiday period be sure the sitter is competent. The National Board of Fire Underwriters offers these suggestions, designed to keep your Christmas merry:

Know the sitter.

Be sure the sitter is adequately trained, and has a sense of responsibility and likes children.

Be sure the sitter has met the children and any pets, especially the watch dog.

See to it that the sitter understands that in case of fire she should get the children out of the house, call the fire department and notify the parents, in that order.

Show the sitter all exits, and give instruction as to how to get the children out of the house in case of fire.

Instruct the sitter to keep the children out of the kitchen, if possible, and be sure that she knows that matches, electric cords, and appliances are not playthings.

Provide sitter with flashlights

Dried Honey Developed By USDA Researchers

Dried honey, a new product resulting from a drying process devised by U. S. Department of Agriculture researchers, gives bakers and candy makers an opportunity to use this whole-some sweetener to a greater extent than ever before.

When reconstituted with water, dried honey has substantially the flavor of fresh liquid honey, and its free-flowing granular form provides new convenience and economy in handling.

This product is expected to increase the use of honey, especially in baking. The stickiness of liquid honey and its tendency to crystallize have so far limited its use by bakers.

Dried honey may also be used in packaged baking mixes, for extra-sweet appeal and to give homemakers a convenient means of using honey in baking. Honey adds to the flavor, color, texture, and keeping quality of baked goods.

The process used to dry honey is essentially the same as that for preparing full flavor fruit juice powders. It consists of vacuum-dehydrating liquid honey rapidly, in a mechanically agitated thin-film evaporator, to yield a molten mass nearly free of water. This molten material is then fed between two chilled metal rollers, which squeeze it into a thin sheet while cooling it to room temperature.

The sheet is taken from the chilling rolls in the form of brittle flakes, which are ground into a coarse powder suitable for packing in sealed containers. Because the drying process requires only a few seconds, most of the original flavor is retained.

Storage tests show that dried honey will retain its flavor and color for a year at normal room temperature. Caking occurs at higher temperatures, but it can be retarded by mixing sugar with the honey before drying or by keeping moisture low with a desiccant in the package.

Honey "essence", a byproduct is obtained by condensing and collecting the water removed from the honey, then distilling from it a liquid with highly concentrated flavor. In making fruit juice powders, the essence is added to the powders to restore full flavor, but since dried honey has adequate aroma and flavor, the honey essence can be sold separately as a natural flavoring material.

CROP To Send Rice To China; 70,000 Aided

ELKHART — First shipments of rice, contributed in the CROP Rice for Relief campaign, will be sent to Hong Kong in the post-Thanksgiving season for a school lunch program for undernourished Chinese children in the British colony.

The campaign to raise gifts of rice for a year at normal room temperature. Caking occurs at higher temperatures, but it can be retarded by mixing sugar with the honey before drying or by keeping moisture low with a desiccant in the package.

Of almost half a million children in the Hong Kong schools, 150,000 are too weak to do their school work. Some 70,000 are classed as hard core cases and will benefit first from the program which will be jointly undertaken by a number of relief agencies from various countries under the general direction of Hong Kong Church World Service.

Each child in possession of a medical certificate attesting to the fact that he or she is dangerously near starvation will receive one meal of rice, vegetables, and meat daily for one year.

The children are from 5 to 14 years old. Most of them are refugees, who have escaped from Chinese communist tyranny.

Their parents belong to a wide range of social classes, although all are now on the lowest economic level. Many were former landowners, merchants, professional people as doctors, dentists, teachers, writers; many others were industrial and agricultural laborers. They have lost everything and have only the few items they could bring with them when they fled.

Hong Kong Church World Service while reporting the above also states that "most of the parents are trying to exist on less than US $20 a month which is US $40 a year" if they have any income at all.

Fire Underwriters Offer Yule Safety Suggestions

1. When you select your Christmas tree, choose a freshly-cut tree, with firmly-attached needles.
2. Keep the tree outdoors until just before Christmas. It will stay fresher in the cold air, and once you have it up, it will stay green longer. And keep it standing in a pair of water.
3. When putting up the tree, set it in the coolest part of the room, away from radiators, heaters and the fireplace. This will not only reduce the possibility of fire, but will keep the tree from drying out.
4. It is a good plan to use a tree holder which has a little bucket of water in which the trunk can rest during the holidays. A tree usually "drinks" more water than you realize, so keep water container filled at all times.
5. Fireproof Christmas tree decorations are the best. Use decorations made of either glass, metal, or plastic.
6. Set up electric lights away from the tree. A spark from the tree could set the tree on fire.
7. Always use electric lights on the tree — never candles. Light sets should be checked before being placed on the tree, and those with frayed wiring should be discarded. When buying new sets, look for the tag or label showing listing by Underwriters' Laboratories from the tree should be provided for turning the tree lights on and off.
9. On Christmas morning, fold and put away any gift wrappings should be gathered up and thrown away promptly after presents are opened.
9. Christmas tree lights should be turned off when the family is away from home.
10. Inspect the Christmas tree from time to time to see how dry it is. If needles near the lights have started to turn brown, change the position of the lights.
11. When the needles start falling, take the tree down and discard it outdoors.
12. Even if the tree remains fresh, make plans now to dismantle it the day after New Year's, and restore the room to its normal setting.

Scientists Find Wheat Flour Can Strengthen Paper

USDA scientists have discovered a possible new use for wheat. In laboratory tests, acid-modified wheat flour has proved equal to commercializing material for imparting strength to paper.

Some papers sized with modified flour gained 43 per cent in bursting strength, 20 per cent in tensile strength and 93 per cent in folding endurance. Papers treated with modified flour size were comparable to papers treated with widely used commercial sizes in brightness, opacity, freedom from discoloration and other desirable properties.

Successful chemical modification of wheat flour by reacting it with ethylene or propylene oxide was first reported by ARA in June of 1959. It was found that these chemically modified flours mix readily with water to form a free-flowing paste, a quality desirable in industrial paper making. USDA chemists also reported that chemically modified flour could be stored with a moisture content of 5 per cent or less.

On the basis of recent performance tests with laboratory-scale equipment, it is expected that at least one of the acid modified flours will perform satisfactorily in high-speed paper making machines, according to workers at the ARS's Northern Utilization Research and Development Division Peoria, Ill.

Northern Laboratory scientists believe that if modified flours are introduced into the paper-making industry, substantial new markets for wheat could develop. Their interest in wheat flour for this purpose is based on availability of flour as a raw material in large quantities at relatively low cost, and the broad industrial potential of a material that combines starch and gluten, both valuable for adhesive qualities.

other things, that it will not cut down on support of existing state colleges.

New Club Rules Issued

Beginning Jan. 1, private clubs in Texas can operate only if they meet the following requirements set by the Liquor Control Board: (1) Provide food service. (2) Meet basic operating expenses from dues and fees rather than from liquor sales. (3) Be managed by officers elected by the membership. Rules are designed to prevent operation of open saloons under the guise of private clubs.

CUB'S Corner

Pack meeting on Monday night was attended by more than 140 persons. Den Skits were exceptionally good. The December Pack Meeting will be Monday night Dec. 26 at 7 p.m.

Cubs and Den Mothers of Pack 41 had a lot of fun preparing their float and participating in the Christmas Festival parade last Friday.

Cub Scouting Helps Build A Friendly Neighborhood

Chances are that most of the folks in Littlefield would like to get better acquainted. They'd like to have a little more of the old-fashioned neighborliness known in years gone by.

Since Cub Scouting is home and neighborhood centered, it provides the ideal means of bringing this about. The very fact that the den is made up of your boy and his neighborhood friends makes it a neighborhood project. A mother of one of the boys serves as a key leader of this den of Cub Scouts. Naturally she needs the interest and help of all the mothers in order to make Cub Scouting work effectively. That, of course, means working together on behalf of boys, and a group of folks can't join together in such a cause without getting to know each other better.

Often Cub Scouting awakens community interest. Through the experience of organizing and operating a Cub Pack, people become more aware of their obligations to their community. Other community organizations become more active. People begin to realize that if they work together much can be accomplished to improve the many phases of community life. All of this is very healthy and basic to the American way of life.

But most important will be your discovery, through working together in Cub Scouting, that your neighbors are fine folks. You'll enjoy their company. You'll help each other over the rough spots and share each other's pleasures.

This has an effect on your boy. He, too, becomes more interested in Littlefield. Through passing

About Your Health

It may have seemed tough to think of many things to be thankful for last week during these onerous times, but a look at Texas' vital statistics show plenty to be thankful for. For instance:

Over a half-million babies were born during the two-year period between September 1958 and August 1960. That equals almost 700 new babies each day. During the same time period there were 152,000 deaths—a ratio of three births per death, certainly something to be thankful for.

These records were disclosed along with him this traditional spirit of American neighborliness your boy discovers that this is the way things get done in America—through working together—respect for all other fellow's convictions—planning for the greatest good of all.

from figures compiled for the latest biennial report from the Records and Statistics Section of the State Health Department.

As a result of the birth to death ratio, Texas' population increased by 350,000 plus newcomers from outlying states, bringing the current total population to more than 9,500,000.

Filing birth and death certificates makes up the major portion of the Section's workload which totalled 800,000 records and amendments.

This brought the over-all records on file at the State Health Department to a big 12,130,000 items. Since 1936, deaths—during the first year of life—have dropped from 71 per one thousand births to about 30 per thousand today. The maternal death rate has been cut 94 percent since 1936.

The amount of work needed to keep that many records and files accurate and up-to-date continues to grow.

Each certificate received is carefully reviewed, and for each error or omission noted, a query is forwarded to the person responsible for the mistake. During the last two years 25,000 such queries were mailed. Adoptions are reported to the

'Slopes' Waste Water, Halfway Engineer Says

"We are wasting our valuable irrigation water by applying the water to land with 1 per cent to 3 per cent slope, James Valliant, Water Engineer at Halfway, said today.

Valliant is completing the first of several years' testing at the High Plains Research Foundation to determine the value of water applied to grain sorghum on a level bench and on sloping land. Three plots of the same area were planted in grain sorghum.

State Registrar and a new birth certificate is the name after adoption and showing the adopted parents as the natural parents of the child is filed.

The original birth record and the certificate of adoption are placed in a sealed file. Over 19,000 reports of adoption were received from district courts.

Amendments for change of names were attached to more than 1,000 birth certificates based on court orders. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

one on a bench and the other two were planted directly down the slope varying from 1 per cent to 3 per cent.

The level bench received 16.9 inches of irrigation water per acre with no run-off. The grain sorghum yield was 5,800 pounds per acre.

One of the sloping areas received the same 16.9 inches of water but 2.5 inches per acre or 15 per cent of the applied water was lost in run-off. The yield on this plot was 3900 pounds per acre.

The second area on the slope was irrigated both pre-plant and during the growing season so that the soil contained adequate moisture at all times. This irrigation procedure required 24.5 inches of water per acre with 5.9 inches lost by run-off. Grain sorghum yield on this area was 3700 pounds per acre.

The loss in water run-off and top soil erosion alone would be enough to justify benching, M. T. Valliant said. "However, the additional profits from the 2,000 pounds per acre increase on the bench yield makes benching profitable.

Weeds were controlled and the borders on the benches maintained with a custom-made bordering machine and by use of a propane burner.

Texas Ranks 15th In Pork Production

During 1959, Texas ranked 15th in pork production in the United States.

The 400 million pound production figure was far short of the total consumption of pork in the state, says Lloyd Bergsma, extension livestock marketing specialist.

During the period 1945-49, Texas hog growers produced an average annual pig crop of 2,248 thousand head, which accounted for 2.6 percent of the total crop. During the period 1955-59, however, Texas accounted for only 1.8 per cent of the total U. S. pig crop.

The average annual pig crop for this period was 1,715 thousand head. This is a 24 per cent cut-back in the annual state pig crop in a 10-year period, explains Bergsma.

It is somewhat surprising that Texas producers would reduce hog production to this extent when feed supplies are so abundant, the specialist observes. Grain sorghum production in the state during 1959 was more than twice the 1948-57 average. The estimated grain sorghum supply on October 1 of this year was in excess of 9 million tons, or 60 per cent of the grain sorghum stocks in the United States. For the first 8 months of 1960, grain sorghum prices have averaged $2.5 per cent that of corn.

With the huge feed reserve and the large shipments of pork coming into the state, expanded hog production may offer a good potential for expanding incomes of Texas Farmers, Bergsma concludes.

LIPSTICK LOGIC

Men are as old as they feel. Women are as old as others make them feel. Both men and women are proud when they reach ten self-assured at twenty. Both react disconsolately to the birthdays that mark the later decades. Women don't care for thirty, the turning point in natural glamor. What beauty they retain from then on is carefully nurtured. Men, on the other hand, are just coming into their own at that age. At forty, a man reaches the peak of his career. He retains it through fifty. Not until he is sixty does he have to admit that now the road slopes slightly downward toward the shadows.

Forty and 50 are crucial milestones for women. But even more shattering than birthdays are the comments that pierce their serenity, often when least expected.

Remarks such as: "When my mate calls me 'Mother,' whether the kids are around or not, I know I'm slipping." "When I meet new people who say, 'Oh, you're Sally's mother!' I feel age knocking." "When my sixteen-year-old worries if I'm out alone in the car, I realize I'm beginning to creak."

School teachers really get the jolts. Says one: "The first time an English student described a 34-year-old character in a novel as middle-aged, I staggered." "A tall eager boy comes in and says, 'My father said to tell you he went to school to you in 1940.' I feel for the chair and smile bravely," laughs another. "The day one walks into my office with 'I'm Jackie Jones grand-daughter; she said you might not remember her.' I'm retiring!" a fifty-year-old teacher observes grimly.

Considerate spouses can offset these blows by avoiding reference to stoutness, baldness, failing eyesight, graying hair, and mental lapses.

Winter Fires Losses Climb, NBFU Warns

Fire losses during the Winter months are the heaviest of the year, and the National Board of Fire Underwriters urges home owners to help keep down the fire toll by following these suggestions:

Right now, check the basement or furnace room. Remove any paint pails, oily rags, old newspapers, broken furniture or other rubbish that may be near the heating plant.

If you have a coal furnace, be sure ashes are deposited in metal containers, and that the containers are emptied frequently. If your gas or oil heating equipment has been functioning erratically, call your service man now to inspect it and put it in proper running order.

Your flue pipes, vent connectors, gas vents and chimney should have been inspected at the beginning of the heating season. If you have not had such an inspection made, have it done now. Make a check to be sure walls, ceilings and partitions near boilers, stoves, furnaces and heating pipes are protected by noncombustible insulation.

If you are using portable oil or gas heaters, always turn them off when you retire at night. See to it that your fireplace is equipped with a metal fire screen.

IT'S A sad day for thousands of housewives this Christmas season, those who, for years, had their fun keeping up with the trials and tribulations of Ma Perkins, Dr. Jerry Malone, Carolyn Nelson and the second Mrs. Burton, all of whom met their death last week.

Future statisticians will be coming up with the figures on how many pots of beans burned to a crisp during the 20 or more years that these soap operas wailed and moaned via radio each day, an organ adding to the drama with extremely sad music as the script justified.

Altogether the bean-burning situations must have run into the thousands, and there is no telling how many potted ham sandwiches were served in lieu of rib-sticking victuals as a result of Mamma becoming so interested in the sad plight of Young Dr. Malone that she plum forgot to cook dinner.

But now that it's all over it's to what appeared to be a hopeless situation. Of course it would leave her in that delima until the next day and then solve everything in the first two minutes of the next episode, only to get her involved once more.

But my friend listened to Stella for a few minutes and then commented: "The thing that has always amazed me is how any person can have all the trouble Stella Dallas has day after day without getting stomach ulcers!"

BUT THE ONE which I believe I followed more avidly and more constantly day after day was "One Man's Family," a huge and sprawling family who lived in a big and sprawling house in San Francisco, headed by Mother and Father Barber. That one probably set an all-time record and was said to have been listened to by more people than ever heard a radio serial in history. It started when the children — and there were lots of them — were very small and brought the skit on up through the grandchilden stage. Apparently the same characters played Mother and Father Barber throughout the entire series, and when there was no one to sponsor the show, it went on a sustaining basis and ran for months — or maybe years — without a buyer.

Even before that, there was a comedy pair that started almost with the first microphone, ever made and lasted right on through the depression, the warring '40's and even into the prosperous '50's.

My mother was one of their most constant listeners, and that was more than 25 years ago because she passed away in 1937. But regardless of what was cooking, literally, the fire was turned off and mother took her easy chair to follow Amos 'n Andy. She knew much more about them than she did her next-door neighbor.

BUT NOW all this is changing, and the radio serials are beginning to bite the dust. That leaves the networks free to broadcast news and rock and roll "music" 24 hours a day. But Junior's never going to learn what it's like to come home from school to find mama so depressed from her latest radio visit with Young Dr. Malone that she's still weeping.

Or will rock and roll leave her with the same depressed feeling? Come to think of it, the Little Woman has a pretty tough life at that.

It's the Law in TEXAS

Many people see court procedure as a mere tool of delay, of concern chiefly to lawyers and judges; but court rules are real tools of justice.

The law is made up of two parts — the "substantive" and the "procedural" law. The first defines rights, duties and remedies. It enforces contracts and rights wrongs. It describes crimes and sets up punishments. People can see its worth. Procedural law tells what steps to take to put substantive law to work for us.

Some of our most vital rights live in procedural law. A day in court means more than the right to have your say before a judge and jury. It means your right to be well represented before an impartial judge and jury, to have time to prepare for your trial. It means that you get due notice of the action against you; that the complaint or indictment shall state a clear cause of action. Due process of law means that you shall meet your accusers face to face; to cross-examine them. It means that you can present evidence in your own behalf.

The law of procedure tells you how to appeal your case to higher courts when you feel that you have not had a fair trial.

Procedural law comes down to us from years of experience in the courts of many lands. Through the centuries procedure tends to become cumbersome, but it has had great periods of reform. In America, we have had many good changes in our court procedure. In the United States, we tend to give our courts the power to change rules.

Throughout its history, the State Bar has helped to study and improve court rules. The aim is a simple set of rules to do justice with speed, uniformity and fairness.

Armour To Open Plainview Plant

Armour Agricultural Chemical Co. is opening a new fertilizer plant in Plainview, it has announced.

ed by H. G. Wells, manager of Armour's Dallas Division. The new facilities, which will be in operation early in 1961, will enable better service to the growing agricultural Panhandle area of Texas and Eastern New Mexico, Wells said.

R. M. Mote, Plainview, will be in charge of the new plant. A building, located on the corner of Milwee and East 9th streets on the outskirts of Plainview, is being remodeled to contain the new operation.
