Injured In Drilling Irrigation Well

Clint Penn of Littlefield when assisting in the drilling of an irrigation well on the A. C. Chesher ranch Tuesday of last week, south of Bula, suffered severe injury to his left arm and chest.

In explaining to a Leader reporter how he got hurt, Mr. Penn said: "We had moved a rotary, and were setting it back, and started to pull the wash line of pipe out of the well, and the collar hung under the bottom of the casing about 125 feet deep, and it picked me up and mashed me against the rotary. My left arm, right shoulder and head was crushed."

Mr. Penn was brought home by his brother, William Penn, and was a patient in the Amherst Hospital from Tuesday until Saturday, and is now at his home on East Eighth St. His arm is badly swollen and sore, and he cannot use it yet, but no bones are broken, and it is slowly improving.

REA GETS $100,000 FOR POWER LINES

Amount Believed Sufficient To Build 175 Miles

CONSTRUCTION OF FIRST 50 MILES TO START NEXT MONTH

The Lamb County Electric Cooperative received a telegram Thursday from Arthur W. Gerth of the R. E. A., Washington, D. C. office, informing the local organization of the approval for $100,000.00 to use in the construction of R. E. A. lines in Lamb, Hockley, Hale and Castro Counties.

J. H. Carl, Manager of the Lamb County Electric Cooperative informed the Leader that this is just a partial allotment for the K section, which includes 275 miles of line, and that the association feels sure they will receive the additional $175,000 sometime after July 1st.

Mr. Carl added: "We wish that members who are signed up with the REA for service will bear in mind the difficulty we are having in securing materials for construction of which some items are practically impossible to secure at this time."

"With this allotment it gives us enough funds to construct approximately 175 miles of line as soon as the material is secured. We plan to start on the first 50 miles within the next month."

Truman Endorses V. F. W. Poppy Drive

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Commander-in-Chief
Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States
Kansas City 2, Missouri

My dear Commander:

The increasing importance of veterans' affairs particularly commends the VFW sale of Buddy Poppies this year.

In supporting the VFW National Home at Easton Rapids, Michigan, this poppy sale gives the orphaned children of veterans an opportunity in life equal to that enjoyed by the average American child.

These are both splendid purposes which recommend to all the wearing of a Buddy Poppy this year.

Very sincerely yours,
Harry Truman

IF POLIO STRIKES—

What can we do to prevent infantile paralysis?

The answer is: Practically nothing! Very little is known about the disease. We know the cause—a virus—but not the cure. We know that it is communicable, that many persons may harbour the virus without presenting any clinical symptoms of the disease.

Certain precautions, however, are recommended by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

If Polio strikes, the Foundation urges, continue with normal activities. Schools, theatres and other places of congregation can remain open at the discretion of the health authorities, but unnecessary mingling with crowds should be avoided.

Extreme fatigue, sudden and prolonged chilling make the individual an easier victim. Swimming in polluted waters and removal of tonsils during epidemics should be avoided. Flies and other insects should be kept away from food. Sanitation is a "must."

The first symptoms of poliomyelitis may be some minor discomfort: headache, unexplained fever, a cold, even an upset stomach. If any of these appear, a physician should be called immediately. Expert medical care may prevent crippling deformities.

Above all, the Foundation adds, don't worry about expense. Foundation chapters are pledged to see that no victim of infantile paralysis goes without care and treatment for lack of funds, regardless of age, race, creed or color.

When a case appears, be sure that the nearest Foundation chapter is notified.

FLAGGING SAFETY—

In its campaign against traffic casualties, the San Francisco Chronicle hoisted a black flag to the top of a pole on its building to remind the city's auto drivers that someone has been killed in an accident. A white flag waves over the building on the days when the city is free of auto accident deaths.

This is a commendable move in behalf of public safety and an effective use for the black flag. It is a practice that should be followed in every community of the nation. During this year when virtually every region of the nation is reporting a high accident death rate, similar flags should be hoisted in every conspicuous spot in each city or village and along the danger areas on the streets and highways, and if the campaign needs a slogan it could be something like: "Keep The White Flag Flying."

Street, in which Mrs. Otha Key won first place; "Maternity Mixup," won by Mrs. E. A. Bills, Mrs. E. S. Rowe, Sr., Mrs. Ellis Foust, and Mrs. C. O. Stone, and "Baby Fun" contest with two winners, Mrs. Wade Potter and Mrs. Floyd Coffman.

The honoree was the recipient of a lovely array of beautiful gifts.

We read the other day of a lad who advertised his new-born pups for sale as "Republican Puppies." Then, two weeks later he sold them as Democratic Puppies — because they had their eyes open.

When they jerked a fellow out of a wrecked car the other day, he said, that except for his marriage, that was the worst fix he had ever been in.

Every time we get mad we wish we had trained ourselves to be a spectator in an emotional situation instead of a participant.

Joint Task Force One ... Proceed to Rendezvous ...

Within short weeks, units of the Target Fleet of Operation "Crossroads," including the ships pictured below, will be gathering near the scene of the first Atomic bomb tests. Already, ships of the fleet are preparing for the tests which will be held in Bikini Atoll, tiny islet in the Marshall Island group.

The combatant-type ships pictured below are several of the total of 97 vessels in the target unit.

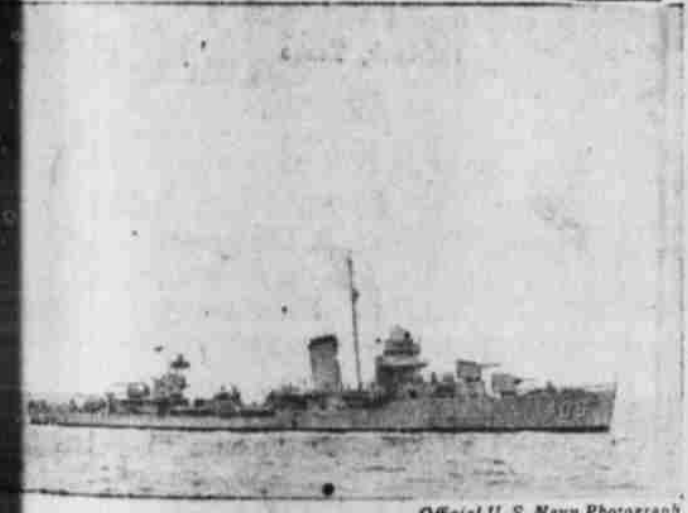

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

Second ex-flagship of the four United States battleships in the target unit, the USS Arkansas, oldest battleship in the Navy, has served for 34 years. She has carried two presidents and one congressional committee as passengers during peacetime, and been in action in both wars. In the second World War, the veteran ship served as a convoy escort, and bombarded the shores of Normandy, Southern France, Iwo Jima, and Okinawa in pre-invasion actions.

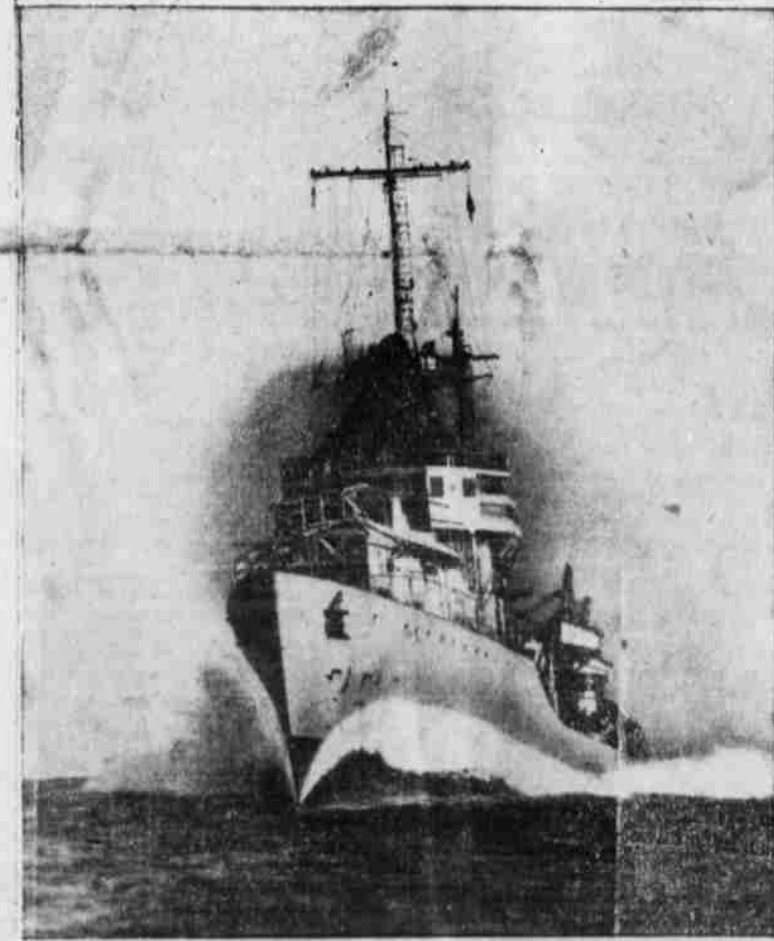

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

At Cavite, P.I., when the Japanese struck Pearl Harbor, the submarine USS Searaven completed 13 war patrols, sank an estimated 66,000 tons of Jap shipping, and damaged an additional 10,000. The veteran submarine also participated in numerous rescues at sea.

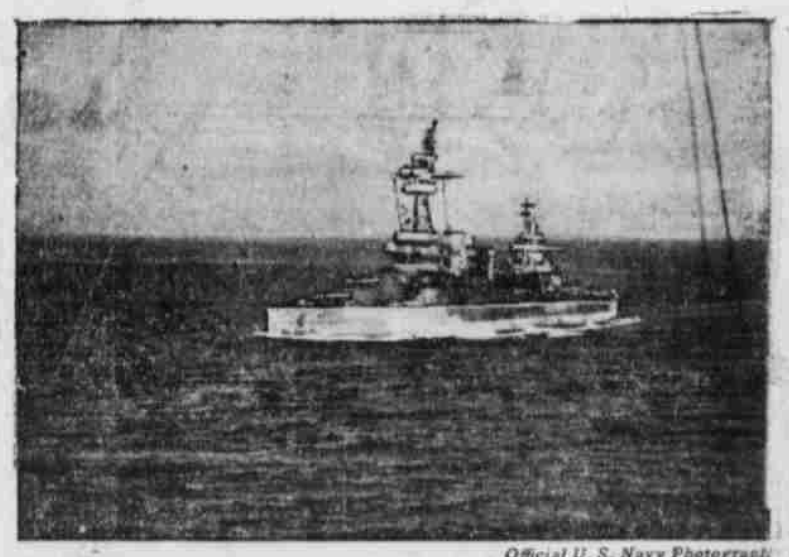

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

Destroyer USS Stack, a destroyer of the McCall class of 1939, fought in the Atlantic and Pacific waters, operating against German and Jap submarines. The vessel participated in the Battle of Vella Gulf, the capture of the Marshalls, and the assaults on New Guinea, Leyte, Iwo Jima, and Okinawa.

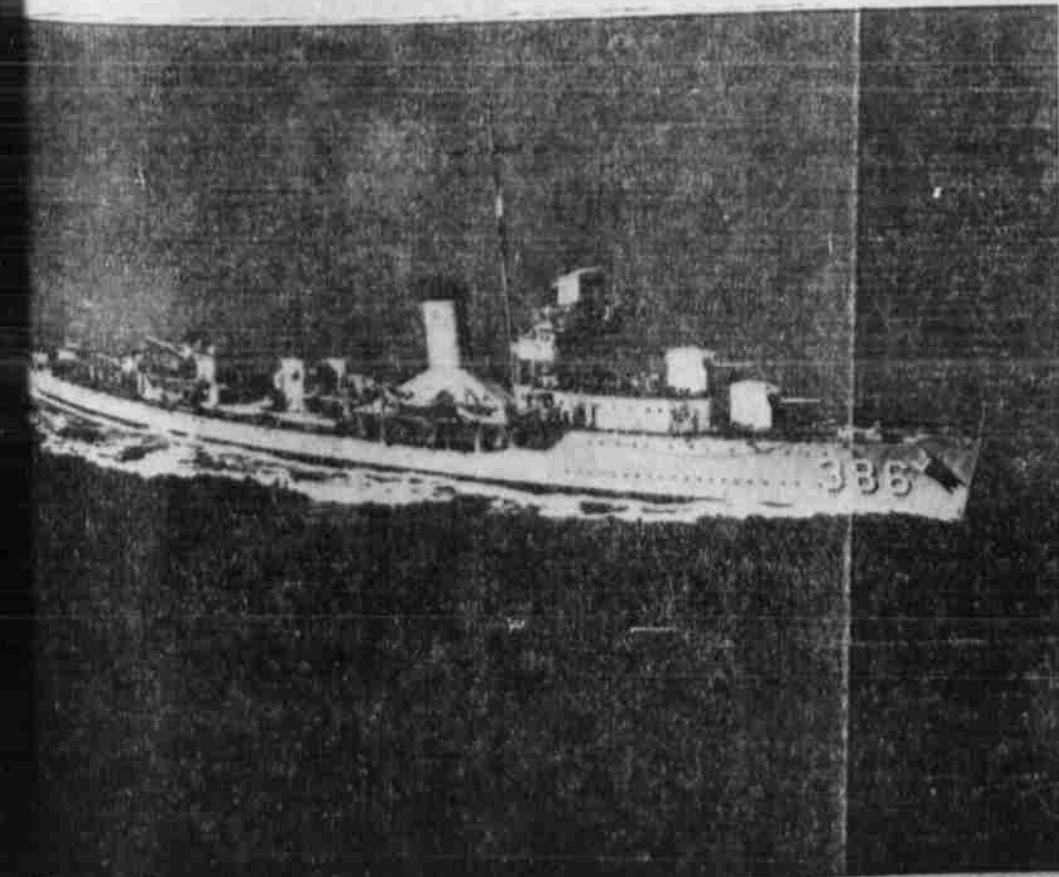

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

Every major battle fought in the Southwest Pacific area found the destroyer USS Flusser there. The Flusser was operating with the Lexington task force out of Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, and after that participated in 11 engagements in the area.

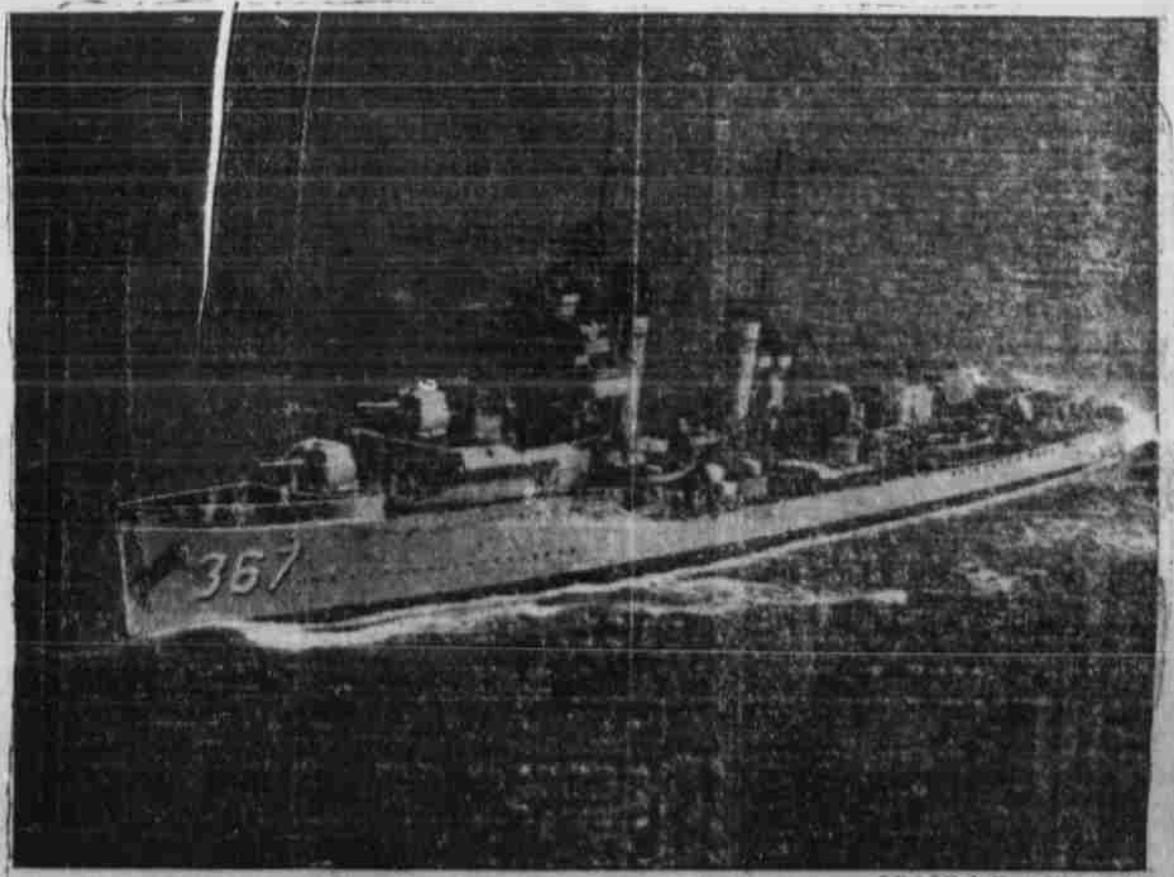

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

The ship that has been host to more royalty than any other, the battleship USS New York, is the fourth of four U.S. battlewagons in the target unit. The New York, which served as flagship of Battle Squadron Six with the British Grand Fleet in the North Sea during World War One, has played host to King George V, the Prince of Wales, and the now-Emperor of Japan. In World War Two, she supported the North African landings, did convoy duty, and took part in the pre-invasion shelling of Iwo Jima and Okinawa in the Pacific.

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

In every important action in the Southwest and Central Pacific, the destroyer USS Bagley fought. At Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, the Bagley shot down five enemy planes, and then went on to win the engagement stars, down six more enemy planes, and rescue 465 survivors of the First Battle of Savo Island. The vessel ended her war career as Rear Admiral M. Matsubara of the Japanese Imperial Navy surrendered at Marcus Island aboard her.

Official U. S. Navy Photograph

The 10-year old destroyer USS Lamson fought through Pearl Harbor to the landings at Ormoc Bay, Leyte, before suffering any crippling damage. When war came, the vessel was with a task force west of Hawaii, and from that time on she operated in the Pacific area. She was first damaged in the Cape Gloucester landings in 1943. In December, 1944, the veteran destroyer was supporting the Ormoc Bay landings when a Kamikaze struck her stack and exploded. Although apparently "done for," the Lamson was saved to participate in the latter part of the Iwo Jima campaign.

Stake and Prune Tomatoes For Big Yield, Small Space

A Heavier Yield for the Ground Space Occupied Is Given by Tomatoes Trained on a Fence, Arbor, or Stakes.

When tomatoes are grown to a single stem, tied to a stake or similar support, the maximum crop can be harvested for the space occupied, though the yield for each plant is less than that of plants allowed to spread naturally on the ground.

Staking and pruning plants to a single stem is therefore a good way to grow tomatoes in a small garden. Single stem plants can be spaced a foot apart, and double stem plants 21 inches apart, while plants that lie on the ground require four feet each way.

This applies to varieties of normal vine growth, which are the only kind that should be staked and pruned. So-called determinate varieties, of which the stems stop growing after they reach a certain length, while the plant devotes all its energies to ripening the fruit which has set, should never be pruned, and get no benefit from staking, but they can be planted as closely as 18 inches apart, and allowed to spread in the ground. They bear a good early crop, but over a shorter season than the older, later varieties.

Keeping tomato plants pruned and tied to stakes or a fence needs constant attention. At the joint where each leaf grows on the main stem, a branch will develop, and this must be cut or pinched off before it is four inches long, otherwise its removal may weaken the plant. If allowed to grow, secondary branches will develop from it, and soon all effort to keep the plant within bounds will have to be abandoned. A few days' neglect of pruning may spoil the plants. To grow a two-stem plant, select one branch coming from the main stem 10 inches above the surface, and allow that to grow. Both main stem and branch will have to be pruned regularly. Single stem plants can be supported by a heavy cord stretched from a suitable tall support, and anchored to the ground near the plant. The stem as it grows can be twisted about the cord.

Two-stem plants may be tied with soft twine, strips of cloth, raffia or special ties made of wire imbedded in paper strips. Use a loose loop around the stem, to avoid constriction, or cutting. Tomatoes require full sun and regular watering. When the soil is allowed to dry out, with fruit set, a black decay spot known as "blossom-end rot" may develop on the fruit. Watering during dry spells will prevent this. When fruit begins to mature, plant food worked into the soil around the plant, using a tablespoonful at a time, will help produce more and larger fruit.

Tomato roots spread out near the surface and should never be disturbed. Never cultivate deep enough to touch them; a heavy mulch of straw or lawn clippings about each plant is better than cultivation, and helps keep the soil moist.

SIDELIGHTS FROM WASHINGTON

By CONG. GEO. MAHON

This is being airmailed from Washington Saturday afternoon, May 18th. An 8c stamp is required for this purpose today, but the odds are very heavy in favor of a 5c airmail rate within a few weeks. The House passed unanimously this week a bill establishing a 5c airmail rate—a program which some of us have favored since V-J Day. The 5c spread between the regular mail and the airmail rate has retarded airmail. There is little doubt but that the Government will make more revenue out of the 5c rate than the higher rate, on account of increased volume. The chances are that airmail will be expanded to the point where practically all first class mail except that which is local in character will go airmail. The more mail that goes by air, the more our aviation industry is supported and the greater the backlog of experienced pilots in this country.

At present we have a large number of airmen who have been discharged from the service and who would like each month to have a way to get in a little flying time in order not to lose their ability to pilot an airplane.

The Army has a lot of surplus planes and there are many available air fields. General Carl Spaatz, who took General Hap Arnold's place as head of the U. S. Army Air Forces, will be before our Military Appropriations Committee Monday to ask us to put through an appropriation of one billion two hundred million dollars for the Air Forces for the coming fiscal year. I am going to ask him to expedite the Army program for reserve pilots so that these discharged veterans under a well-supervised plan may have an opportunity to continue to fly. I would like to see a National Guard Unit in aviation established in West Texas.

The National Guard will have a bigger and better program in the future than it has ever had in the past. The Guard was a great factor in the victory which we won in the war and it will represent a large reserve force for national defense in the future.

The Reserve Officer Training Corps in the schools is due for expansion. Texas Tech is slated for a bigger ROTC program than ever before, which will include, if desired, when appropriate plans are completed an ROTC unit in aviation.

The Military Appropriation Bill is scheduled to pass the House in June. Indications are now that the bill, for the first time in years, will include no money for the purchase of horses and mules. The General Staff of the Army has decided to abandon the Horse Cavalry.

The Army is asking for forage for the 2000 horses and 1347 mules which it still has on hand in Continental U. S. The prize horses of the Army now are the horses that were captured in Germany and brought to the United States last October. These 152 animals are valued at more than one million dollars, and the Army is besieged with offers of purchase.

We approved in the House of Representatives this week a $75,000 fund to be used in the investigation of un-American activities by one of the Committees of the House. This is the committee of the House, supported by many patriotic organizations, which investigates and gives publicity to the un-American activities of individuals and groups within our country. The measure was bitterly contested, but the final vote was 240 for and 81 against.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it stimulates appetite, and digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

SUDAN BOY'S HORSE WINS IN SHOW RING

A most gratifying victory was won recently by 16-year-old Billy Terry of Sudan, when his Tennessee walking horse, "Mickey Finn," trotted off with second place honors in the walking horse event at El Paso Riding and Driving Club Show, in Escobedo Park, El Paso.

Young Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ves Terry of Sudan, won a judge's compliment for his own poise and showmanship during the event, which was his first time in competition. Previously, he has been a rider in children's pleasure classes only.

The sole youngster competing against a field of entries ridden by adults, Billy had to guide his four-year-old bay gelding through a walk running walk and canter to win. Mounts were also judged on conformation, good grooming and performance in the show ring while riders were studied for show ring manners and capacity.

The Terrys bought "Mickey Finn" a registered Tennessee walker, last September, and turned him over to Billy's special care. Since then, the boy has worked hard, training and grooming his charge faithfully, and making use of "horse sense" picked up during his summers on a big horse farm at San Antonio. During two months at this Tennessee Walking Horse stable, Billy was taught to ride this particular type mount, which requires 12 to 15 miles daily riding for proper exercise. Young equestrians who show promise of ability, are willing to work and learn, are excepted for schooling at the farm, where Billy earned his way by helping with the numerous farm chores. Even to rising at 5:30 a. m. to milk cows, and help care for the large stable of horses!

"Mickey Finn," originally an Alabama horse, was registered under his present name when purchased by Terry, who has bought and sold show horses, including American saddle horses, for years.

Now that Billy has achieved success with "Mickey," his father plans to start his young brother, Bobby, on the horse, and prepare him for entry in the Amarillo and Plainview shows the last week in July. Competition will be stiff in these shows they predict.

First place in the El Paso show was taken by "September Morn," flaxey roan mare belonging to John Stinson of Lubbock, and valued at $7,500. Number three was, "Boogie Woogie Man," a big black stallion owned by Mrs. Foster Preasley of Lubbock. Terry's winning horse is 14 and three-fourths hands high, said to be slightly short for a Tennessee walker. Tall Billy will now be graduated to ride a stallion, which should suit him rather well as he reads it for another show ring.

The justly proud parents and Billy arrived home about 1 a. m. Tuesday of last week, having made the trip in company with the Stinsons (first place winners), who are friends of theirs. Stinson has been riding in shows for 17 years, they said.

'Tis said of Reuther, "He went to college, but he also has brains."

Improvements Underway On Welfare Building

Sunnydale Community recently gave the City of Littlefield for public use of welfare organizations—Red Cross preferred—the building located in that community, which had previously been used for all kinds of community gatherings. The building had not been used in several years by Sunnydale, and so they decided to put it to a patriotic use by giving the structure to the city.

This building which is 24x40 feet has been moved to the rear of the Court House and close to the Cannery, and plans are underway by the County for remodeling same throughout. The large structure will be partitioned off into rooms, which will be used by County offices, including the Red Cross, State Department of Public Welfare, Library, etc.

The interior of the building will be remodeled into rooms, and the exterior will be stuccoed. The stucco work will be done by Ross Morgan. E. C. (Buck) Ross, Commissioner of Precinct 3, is in charge of the improvements.

B. D. Garland, Jr. Arrives Home From Overseas

B. D. Garland, Jr., who served as Pharmacist's Mate 2/c in the service nearly three years, with 16 months overseas, arrived home Thursday, after receiving his discharge the Monday previous at Camp Wallace, Galveston.

Garland served with the medical corps, attached to the Marine Corps. He was stationed for sometime on Saipan, and took part in the last "mopping up" operations on Okinawa.

He was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation, Japanese Occupation Medal, World War 2 Victory Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign ribbon with one star, American Campaign Medal, and Battalion Citation for landing operations on Aguni Jima.

Garland has been stationed for the past seven months in Nagasaki and Sasebo.

In an interview with a Leader reporter B. D. said that the major part of the industrial section of Nagasaki was wiped out by the Atom Bomb, and that it was level with the exception of a few steel structures, adding that the residential section was not so badly damaged.

On being questioned about Jap customs, B. D. stated—

"Farm work is all done by hand. There are hoes and other tools used but no machinery. The more wealthy farmers have a one horse wagon, but the ordinary farmer uses a little two wheel cart with the wives doing the pulling. Women work along with their husbands but the men pick the easier jobs. When walking along the sidewalk the men walk a few paces in front of the women. There are very few automobiles."

Before entering the service, B. D. was a pre-med student at the South-

Cotton and Cattle Prices Decline

Prices were down for cotton, cattle and some vegetables last week, but other farm products brought steady to stronger prices at most southwest markets, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Cotton prices declined early last week, then strengthened and declined again. Spot market activity fell off due to scarcity of offerings and expected delay in deliveries to domestic mills because of the coal strike. Demand for most cotton was good.

Southwest egg and poultry markets held steady last week. Egg receipts were falling off and dealers thought the peak of the spring production had been reached. Current receipts were quoted 31 to 32 cents a dozen, Dallas; 31 to 31½ cents, Fort Worth; 31½ to 32 cents, Denver; and 32 to 34 cents, New Orleans. Both heavy hens and fryers were short of demand last week. Heavy hens continued to bring 23 to 25 cents a pound, Dallas; 23 to 24 cents, Fort Worth; 22 to 25 cents, Denver; and 29 to 29½ cents, New Orleans.

Demand and prices for South Texas vegetables improved during the past week. Shortage of boxcars caused lighter movement Friday. Bushel sacks of white corn, six to eight dozen ears per sack, brought mostly $1.35 to $1.50 and Bantam corn $1.25 to $1.50 per half bushel sack of five to six dozen ears. Onion marketing was coming to a close in the Corpus Christi area but the Coastal Bend promised a bumper crop. Latest prices for onions stood around $1.50 to $1.60 per 50-pound sack for fair quality, medium to large size yellow Bermudas. Tomatoes realized $2.75 to $3.25 per lug box, six by six and larger sizes. Louisiana sweet potatoes held steady at ceiling.

Light hog receipts were in broad demand at ceiling prices at most markets last week. Also, sheep and lambs were in broad demand at steady to higher prices. Heavier than usual receipts cleared quickly. Common and medium spring lambs brought $10 to $12 per hundred pounds, San Antonio; and $10.25 to $13, Fort Worth. A few medium and good lambs realized $13.50 at Oklahoma City. Medium and good slaughter lambs sold at $16.50 at Denver. Domestic wools were quiet in the Boston wool market as the lack of off coal began to show effects on the textile industry. Light cattle receipts moved slowly and prices were down 25 to 50 cents a hundred at most southwest markets last week. Houston sold medium steers and yearlings at $13 to $14.50 per hundred pounds and medium cows at $10 to $11.50. San Antonio moved medium and good shorted steers at $15.50 to $16, choice yearlings up to $17, and common and medium cows at $9 to $12. At Fort Worth medium steers and yearlings brought $13.50 to $14.50 and common and medium cows $8.75 to $11. At Oklahoma City medium and good light steers and yearlings realized $13.65 to $15.50 and good cows upward to $13.50. Medium and good slaughter steers and yearlings brought $14 to $16, and common and medium cows $9.50 to $11.50 at Wichita. Denver quoted medium to good stocker and feeder steers $13 to $15.50 and good stock cows $10.50 to $11.

Grain and feedstuff supplies became tighter near the end of last week because of the higher ceiling prices effective May 13. Also, peanuts and rice were in short supply with very little movement reported.

With Ed Hillen of the Ford News Bureau as her coach, Maid of Cotton Gwin Farnwell got her first instructions as a tractor driver during her recent visit to the Ford plant at Dearborn, Mich. Turned loose with the new Ford tractor, Miss Farnwell turned a neat furrow, almost ran down the photographer. POPPY DAY MAY 25TH

Wear A "Buddy Poppy" On Poppy Day

Wounded American Soldiers at Normandy, France, June 8, 1944—Army Signal Corp Picture.

TO HONOR THE DEAD... LET'S HELP THE LIVING

The increasing importance of veterans' affairs particularly commends the V. F. W. sale of Buddy Poppies this year. In supporting the V. F. W. National Home at Eaton Rapids, Michigan, this poppy sale gives the orphaned children of veterans an opportunity in life equal to that enjoyed by the average American child. These are both splendid purposes which recommend to all the wearing of a Buddy Poppy this year.

Harry Truman

Never in history have so many given so much in defense of America—and asked so little in return.

To most Americans, World War II ended on VJ-Day. But for nearly 100,000 men confined to government hospitals—and for countless thousands of other disabled veterans, whose minds and bodies bear the cruel scars of conflict—World War II will never be over. After 27 years of pain-racked experience and suffering, thousands of disabled AEF veterans of 1917-18 know this as the heart-breaking truth.

In the present difficult period of readjustment, the nationwide rehabilitation service of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is doing those things for veterans which the government is unable to do in their behalf—those things they cannot do for themselves.

The men who have given their lives—in times of war—to help make America a good country in which to live—in times of peace—sleep restlessly in their honored graves. Their souls will repose in peace only if we who live remain true to their memory; only if we who were untouched by the brutality of war will never let ourselves forget how much we owe to those who did the fighting.

When you wear a Buddy Poppy on Poppy Day, America's disabled and needy veterans will know that your interest in their welfare is practical and sincere. Why is this true? Because every penny of the proceeds of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies is devoted exclusively to veteran welfare and rehabilitation—and to the care and protection of homeless orphans of veterans.

As America's traditional "flower of remembrance," the Buddy Poppy is a symbol of our loyalty to that vast army of war veterans who must face the future with physical and economic handicaps.

Wear a Buddy Poppy on Poppy Day. Be counted among those who believe that practical and sympathetic assistance for the living—rather than imposing monuments—is the finest way to honor the vivid memory of America's hero dead.

Board of Directors Urge Membership to Sign Pledges Now Second Meeting Of Hospital Group Set For May 30

Does Littlefield need a Co-Operative Hospital? Can Littlefield Support a Co-Operative Hospital? Does Littlefield Want A Co-Operative Hospital?

These questions were all asked and answered at the meeting of interested citizens of Littlefield and community Friday night when they met at the Court House and voted unanimously in favor of building a Co-Operative Hospital near Littlefield.

C. W. (Jack) Smiley, spokesman for the Board of Directors, consisting of himself, Ben Gann, W. F. Martin, Roy Byers, Doss Maner, S. N. Twilley, V. H. Diersing, W. M. McCoy and H. N. Bennett, urged that the enthusiastic crowd proceed with caution in making their decision as many problems yet remain to be ironed out before work can be started on such a project. It was estimated by Mr. Smiley that 1800 members paying $50 each in membership fees would be needed to begin construction, hire doctors and personnel for the hospital. He urged that all people interested in the project submit their membership fees, or some reasonable assurance that they would become members. $15 was set as the minimum fee to be taken on a membership, the remaining to be paid at said subscribers convenience. The paying of fees as soon as possible was urged by the directors so that they might make some definite plans in drawing up specifications for a building, choosing a building site and carrying on further advertising for the campaign.

It was decided at the meeting that at present only voluntary subscriptions by voluntary workers will be taken and at a later date a concentrated drive for membership will be made. The next meeting of the group is scheduled for Thursday night May 30, at which time a total count of subscribers will be taken, if their goal of 500 voluntary subscriptions is reached, then the campaign will take on a more vigorous atmosphere. Mr. Smiley, in answer to the question of membership, stated that no limit will be put on memberships in the Hospital Association. Forty-six memberships were signed up at the Friday night meeting.

The Directors of the Co-Operative Hospital Association have published a complete plan of establishing and operating the hospital, and have made their program plainly understood as a non-profit organization for the benefit of Littlefield citizens and those people served in the Littlefield and surrounding communities.

Amherst School Eighth Grade Exercises Held

Wednesday night was a gala affair in the young lives of the 8th grade class of the Amherst school, when they had their commencement exercises. The class had 32 students with every one graduating.

Before the Exercises began pictures of the class and leaders and workers were taken by Dr. B. O. McDaniels.

The stage was a setting of rare beauty; eight huge baskets of flowers practically covering the stage. Mrs. Moore, the Amherst Florist, had charge of the flower arrangement. The eighth grade teacher and sponsor, Mrs. Claude Coffey, was a very outstanding personality amid the beautiful array of flowers, in a white formal with her sorsage, being a beautiful orchid presented to her by her Eighth Grade students. The students are very devoted to Mrs. Coffey, and feel that she is mostly responsible for their graduation.

This class is a very outstanding class, who has worked hard and faithful throughout the year.

Mr. Lumsden and Mrs. Coffey presented the diplomas after the graduation. The room mothers, Mrs. W. F. Birdsong, Mrs. Marvin Wagner, Mrs. B. O. McDaniels, and Mrs. Lester Henricks entertained the class with a formal party at the home of Dr and Mrs. W. F. Birdsong.

Various games and dancing was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Coffey presided over the tea table, when dainty tea sandwiches, sand tarts and punch were served for refreshments.

Mr. Lumsden, grade School Principal, and Mrs. Lumsden, and Supt. Stevens and Mrs. Stevens were among the other guests.

Hand painted autograph books made by Mrs. Henricks were presented to each as favors.

The fine group of youngsters are going to be missed through the summer, but they will make an outstanding freshman class for next year.

SEVERAL BRICK BUILDINGS BEING BUILT AT ANTON

Three brick business buildings are now under construction in Anton, and it is rumored that another will be started in the near future, as soon as material becomes available.

A 25x50 concrete tile building is under construction just north of the Wright barber shop. A. A. Mitchell is having this building put up, and when it is finished it will be the home of the Anton Dry Goods Store, of which Mr. Mitchell will be owner and manager.

R. J. Parks & Sons are putting up a two-story brick building just east of their brick building which houses the Parks & Sons Auto Parts store.

Arrangements have been reported as to occupancy of the building when it is completed. Work is also being started extending the present brick home of the Parks Auto Parts Store back to the alley.

Work is getting under way on a very large concrete tile building on the site of the old B. E. Baker store, which is being constructed by J. E. Cundiff of the Anton Produce Company. The building will house the Anton Produce Company.

Plants Grow Best as Soil Dries Out After Soaking

Canvas Hose Which Leaks Through Mesh Spreads Water Evenly Over Garden.

Veteran gardeners have long practiced the maxim: Give a plant (or a garden) a drink when it's dry. In other words, do not keep the soil wet, but let it get thirsty between drinks.

In a lecture to florists, Dr. J. Boyd Page of Ohio State university gave a scientific view of the problem of watering, which indorsed this old gardener's maxim.

A good soil holds both water and air at the same time, he said. These are held in spaces between the soil particles, called "pores." When there is an excess of water, air is driven out, and the plants suffer for lack of it. This occurs in gardens when water stands on the surface; and is the reason why quick drainage of excess water is so important.

Lack of water, on the other hand, is also harmful to the plants. A balance between air and water must be maintained. A plant will make the best root growth, said Dr. Page, when it is drying the soil down. When the soil is soaked, and the excess drains away quickly, fresh air enters the soil to take the place of the water. The roots reach out for water as the supply diminishes, and vigorous growth results.

Dr. Page's explanation makes it clear why an alternating cycle of drying out should be followed.

But watering should be thorough enough to wet the soil as deep as the roots go, at least. This cannot be done by sprinkling a brief period every day; that is bad watering practice because it moistens only the top few inches of soil, and encourages root growth near the surface where the soil dries out quickly. The soil must be soaked deeply whenever rainfall is insufficient to provide abundant water. That means, when less than one inch each week falls on the garden in summer time.

Let the hose run without a sprinkler, so that the water falls upon a board which scatters it and prevents washing out a gully; or use a canvas hose which leaks all along its length, and serves as a portable irrigation ditch.

In growing melons and tomatoes, many amateurs find that by sinking a tile into the ground near each hill, before the seed is sown, they can simplify the task of watering. Water poured into the tile is carried immediately down to the deepest roots, and this often results in exceptional growth.

VETERANS SCHOOL FOR HOCKLEY CO.

A Veterans Vocational and Trade school for Hockley Co. will be approved, according to authoritative information from the Educational and Rehabilitation department of the Veterans Administration.

T. O. Petty of Anton was instructed to proceed with the organization of the various classes of the school. Anyone interested, should see County Service Officer Sam Blair in his office in the Legion building in Anton Friday.

Information For Veterans

Q. How as a loan guaranteed by the Veterans Administration made?

A. The veteran selects the property upon which he desires the loan, negotiates the deal with the owner until a fixed price and terms are agreed upon. He then consults a bank or other lending institution that will in turn seek guaranty by the Veterans Administration of the loan.

Q. May a veteran secure a loan guaranty in order to purchase property with a nonveteran?

A. Yes. The guaranty in this case would apply only to the interest of the veteran in the loan, and may not exceed 50 percent of his interest. Under no circumstances could it cover any part of the interest of the nonveteran.

Q. Is a veteran eligible for education or training who was discharged with other than a honorable discharge?

A. The law provides that the veteran shall have been released from active service under any conditions other than dishonorable. Only a dishonorable discharge bars him from such benefits.

Q. If a dependent or relative receives a government check after a veteran's death, should he cash it?

A. No. He will have to refund it, and may be prosecuted. Send it back to the issuing authority with a request for information as to how it may be properly reissued.

Q. May widows or children of deceased veterans secure a guaranty of loan from the Veterans Administration?

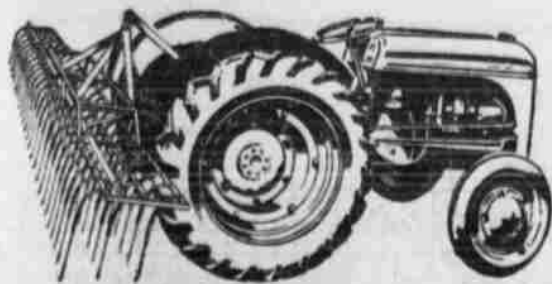

A. No. This privilege is limited to veterans themselves, but a loan guaranteed for a veteran may continue after his death.

Q. May a veteran discharged from the service by reason of the dependency of his mother be entered in a course of education?

A. Yes. If the veteran is otherwise entitled, the fact that he was discharged for this reason would not matter.

Or effective July 1, 1946, men who enlist for three years within three months after receiving their discharges may do so in grade, provided they received a complete honorable discharge from service.

Those men who attained the rank of an officer, or Warrant Officer may re-enlist in grade according to War Department order 110 after their records are verified by their Commanding Officer.

Sgt. Dirieckson said that only one desiring additional information as to their re-enlistment status may contact him at his office in the Court House at Levelland on any week day.

TOM CONNALLY TO HAVE OPPONENT

Announcement that Texas' Senior U. S. senator would have an opponent has stirred state political discussions.

Senator Tom Connally, whose friends had asked that he be given re-election without opposition, will be opposed at the primary polls by Terrell Sledge, 42 year old Kyle farmer-stockman, ex-Rhodes scholar and war veteran.

Sledge pulled his hat into the ring Thursday. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and attended Oxford in England from 1925 to 1928. Overseas during World War II, he was special service director for the Air Transport Command for two years.
