Little Niece of Local President Dies; Was to Have Entered Movies

George Stogner, 3 1/2 year old child of Mr. and Mrs. George Stogner of Oklahoma City, passed suddenly at the Los Angeles Hospital, Los Angeles, Monday, January 10, following an operation for the removal of a tumor.

He was in Los Angeles on a tour of taking instructions in dancing at the Budweiser pool. Three days prior to his death a five year contract had been made for her with Metro-Goldwyn to make pictures.

She complained of sore throat, and thought wise to have removed before her entrance into the movies.

Death lurking nearby, she succumbed to the operating knife. She favored the nurse who had a special number on her tongue removed.

Her father was at her bedside when she died from a heart condition following the operation.

She was a niece of Mrs. W. J. Chesher of this city; and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stogner of Oklahoma City. Her father, George Stogner, has visited in the Chesher home frequently, and has a number of friends here.

Little Mary Nel was a very brilliant child. Mr. Meyer, in signing her up, said that he "had never seen such talent in a child so young before," and that he "considered her the greatest find in his entire movie career."

Funeral services for Mary Nel, who was an only child, was conducted at Brown's Chapel, Chickasha, Oklahoma, their former home, Tuesday, January 14, with interment in the Chickasha Cemetery.

This is reported to be the first death in the Stogner family in the past 26 years.

WTCC Heads Outline Plans In Meeting At Lubbock

Littlefield was well represented at a meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Wednesday afternoon at the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, the purpose of which was to outline plans for an exhibit at the Texas Centennial depicting the development of agriculture of West Texas. Representatives from 20 counties were in attendance.

Clifford B. Jones of Spur, district chairman, presided. Ray Nichols of Vernon, President, D. A. Barden of Stamford, manager, and Dr. Knapp were among those who addressed the gathering.

The plan is to divide West Texas into ten districts, each district to have a specific exhibit representing that part of West Texas.

Following the general meeting, the directors gathered, and appointed a steering committee of seven, to engineer this work.

W. J. Chesher, Littlefield's director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Joe Hale, T. S. Sales and J. S. Hilliard attended from this city.

According to Mr. Chesher, each individual town will be allowed the privilege of a panel exhibit, and at the meeting Tuesday Mr. Chesher made application for Littlefield's exhibit, and appointed Dr. Ira Woods, Joe Hale and Donald Turner to take care of this.

PROJECT FOR IMPROVEMENT OF CAMPUS ASKED

Application Filed With NYA By Supt. A. B. Sanders

An application was placed with the N. Y. A. for a project to employ young people not in school. It seems that there are about twenty such people listed with the Littlefield N. R. S. agency.

This application was for improvement and beautification of the school campus. These people will be allowed to work sufficient hours to earn about $9.65 per month. The work schedule calls for four boys to work at a time in order to get in the required number of hours for each. The work will be common labor, such as moving dirt and planting grass.

In making this application the school board will agree to furnish the tools and materials for the work. The time allotted to this project is two months. In case any project is not completed it may be extended by a new application.

A. B. Sanders represented the school board in making this application through the Lubbock office.

Any young people in the community eligible to register with the N. Y. A. should see that their names are placed with the proper authorities in order to be eligible for employment on this program.

$2,500 Is Stolen In Cotton Swindle Here

This is a very old story. In fact, in the parlance of newspaper men, this story is so old that it has whiskers on it.

But to the G-Men, Santa Fe detectives, private operatives, and others of the law, it is a very young occurrence, for a crime to the officers is a fresh crime until a solution is reached.

And here is how it happens to be an old story in the realm of journalism. It should have been written two weeks ago, but it sometimes happens that newspapers defer the printing of news in order to cooperate with the law to the end that a criminal may be brought to justice.

Cotton Trading Fast Game

Cotton trading is a fast game and the transaction, with the exception of sampling, are mostly on paper. So when the price per pound is agreed upon and the paper appears to be in order--well, it's a deal and the money is paid over in some form or other.

Sitting back and reviewing the situation it appears that some time last year some person or persons came into illegal possession of some cotton tickets. Recently they changed the numbers to correspond with cotton on the Union Compress & Warehouse Co. wharf. That accomplished, illegally printed tagging certificates were brought into use. Well, that achieved some person or persons soon were $2,500 richer.

With the stage all set to swindle some person or persons, a man is reported to have telephoned from Muleshoe to the Pass Cotton Co. and J. A. Tapp, cotton broker, that he had cotton for sale and gave the numbers. The cotton was sampled. The Pass company bought 40 bales and Tapp acquired 20 bales. A mo-

THE CHIEF OF THE SCOUTS

The Boy Scout movement in the United States will be 26 years old on February 8. In that time, it has touched the lives of more than 7,000,000 men and boys. There is today an active personnel of more than 1,000,000 boys and adult leaders. The story is hardly matched by any other in a similar field.

The story of scouting in the United States is also largely the story of devoted service of one man. Dr. James E. West recently completed 25 years of duty as chief executive of the movement. A young lawyer, already known for his concern in the problems of youth, he was invited, in 1910, by the executive committee of the newly incorporated Boy Scouts of America, to take the job of executive officer of the young organization. He has been "on the job" for 25 years; the solidity of the Boy Scout movement today is largely due to him.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

W. T. Jones, Sr., Urges Planting of Pecans in Lagoon Park

Dear Sir:

I noticed in the last issue of the Lamb County Leader you advise planting shade trees around the homes, and I think you should be commended for it, for nothing will aid more to comfort and to the looks of a home than shade trees, especially in a country where trees are scarce.

We all know that trees are harder to grow here than "back east", but with a little care and a little water we can have them. If I just owned a one-room shack, I would plant a few trees.

I find some few have planted pecan trees, and I notice one home here in the north part of town has a row of pecans along the west side of the house that are doing well and one is around 20 feet high and seven or eight inches in diameter.

I also know pecans are doing good at Brownfield and in Lovington, New Mexico, and why not in Littlefield? The main objection to pecans is the slow growth, but to balance that, or rather to offset it, it is such a hardy tree and a very long life tree, and another thing, the nuts are good to eat.

I notice that Lagoon Park has a low place where the water stands awhile when it rains. How much would it cost the city to have rows plowed, say about 10 feet apart, and plant pecans two or three feet apart, I mean the pecans, not trees. The pecans to plant it wouldn't cost over three or four dollars, and the plowing and planting not much. Later on, should they want some of the large paper shells, they can be grafted or budded.

Naturally the pecans will come up too thick, but later on can be transplanted in other locations.

I have no pecans to sell and have no plow to plow with, but I think it's a fine thing to have a place for the kids to play.

W. T. Jones, Sr.

C. W. Smiley Elected Director Production Credit Association

W. C. Smiley, of Littlefield and W. M. Pool, of Muleshoe, were elected to the Board of Directors of the Plainview Production Credit Association at the annual meeting of the association held in Plainview, January 15, 1936. These directors, together with the rest of the Board and the Secretary-Treasurer, will serve the borrower members of the association in the conduct of the PCA business in 1936.

A record breaking attendance at the meeting, which was the second annual meeting since the organization, reflects the interest the farmers and stockmen of Texas are taking in this new cooperative credit system, according to Frank P. Bain, Secretary-Treasurer of the association.

Mr. Bain reports that the Plainview Association made loans to the amount of $250,677.00 to the farmers and stockmen of Lamb, Bailey, Hale, Briscoe, Swisher, Floyd, Parmer and Castro counties. The volume of loans made by all the production credit associations in Texas in 1935 amounted to more than twelve million dollars.

In addition to reports of the manager and directors of the association, Mr. M. L. Jones, Vice-Pres. of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston spoke at the meeting. Mr. Jones, invited the non-members to investigate the many advantages of production credit and urged the members to take an active interest in the affairs of their association.

Senator Bankhead To Introduce New 1936 Farm Program

Senator Bankhead announced Saturday that he would introduce legislation for a new $350,000,000 farm program, explaining that his bill would "Broaden and enlarge 1935 soil conservation act, and accomplish in a large measure the same results that have been secured under the AAA."

The southern senator said an appropriation of $350,000,000 would be sought to finance "drafts to farmers based upon their compliance with plans promulgated by the secretary of agriculture."

In practical application, Bankhead said, these would include "diversification and rotation in crops, crop adjustments and soil building."

Asked if his was administration legislation, Bankhead said it "contains my interpretation of the agreement reached at the White House conference this week, of which I was a member."

He added that after consultation with colleagues and "able lawyers outside congress," he was "fully satisfied that the new bill will stand the test of the courts if it ever reaches the courts."

The senator said his bill, which

"Go ahead, kids . . . that car's got BRAKES!"

NO one needs to be reminded that safe driving in winter, more than at any other season, calls for a car that is safe.

Then why not start this new year with the "safest car on today's highways?" Terraplane—with more new and important safety features than any other low priced automobile ever had!

Bring Safety up to Date!

For safer riding, safer steering, safer stopping, Terraplane brings you Radial Safety Control (patent applied for). Here is a revolutionary principle of front axle and spring design which new owners from coast to coast are hailing as the greatest safety feature in many years.

None but the 'best brakes are good enough. And no other low priced car but Terraplane meets that demand with Duo-Automatic Hydraulic Brakes (patent applied for). Latest and best hydraulics with a separate safety braking system that takes hold automatically if ever needed.

For added safety on the highway—greater steadiness on curves—two more 1936 Improvements: Tru-Line Steering and the Rhythmic Ride.

Safer Bodies! Safer Chassis!

The world's first safety engineered chassis is now combined with America's first bodies all of steel, and seamless roof of solid steel.

There is extra safety, too, in Terraplane's record-breaking performance, to take you out of traffic "tight spots." And in the Electric Hand, an optional extra, for easier gear shifting and safer driving.

Drive safely in 1936—in a car that you know to be safe. Drive a new Terraplane.

he hoped to have attached as an amendment to the first appropriation measure taken up by the senate, would authorize administration of the farm program through the present AAA organization.

Asked how the program would be financed, Bankhead said that would be decided later, adding, "we want to keep this entirely separated."

Earlier Saturday, Secretary Wallace fixed February 15 as the date when the new program should become effective to apply to crops grown in 1936.

In his first press conference since AAA was invalidated, Wallace said preparation of legislation was a "congressional function," but he added:

"The important thing is to expand the definition of the soil conservation act to include specifically soil conservation and preservation of fertility and not merely erosion control."

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true.

Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid dose can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.

An informal dinner was enjoyed. Mr. Mueller is Representative for this company in Littlefield.

OPEN HOUSE AT W. P. A. SEWING ROOM JAN. 15

About Fifty Interested Persons Call During Afternoon

The W. P. A. Sewing Room gave an open house for the city Wednesday afternoon, January 15. Despite the sand storm, nearly fifty persons inspected the exhibit.

The room was in usual operation with workers making ladies dresses. Each seamstress had a garment she had made on display and samples of the things learned in this work among these were whipped, bound and loop button holes, welt pockets, every type of seam finish for all kinds of garments, embroidery stitches and hand made trimmings. Very interesting was a shirt and overall exhibited by a colored worker. Many workers wore dresses they had made for themselves, six of whom had done very little sewing until assigned to this work.

The N. Y. A. girls who only work mornings registered the guests and presented each with a flower. Three hundred garments were prepared for inspection. 297 garments were cut from 814 yards of material. Nineteen women and six N. Y. A. girls are employed. $14,623.45 has been

Guiding Principles Of Curriculum In Texas

By Supt. A. B. Sanders

The third guiding principle that guides the State Curriculum Commission in the revision of the Texas curriculum is "The curriculum should be conceived as a body of dynamic experiences". Too long the curriculum has been thought of as a body of facts to be memorized and stored away by the individual for some future reference. This guiding principle is in opposition to this idea and holds that the curriculum should be body of life like experiences through which the child shall live.

The teaching of subjects as such has left the child in an atmosphere of cold knowledge that is not very stimulating. We are to come to the conclusion that we are to teach children and not subjects. Subject matter will only come as it relates itself to the normal development of the child. The activities through which the child lived during his school career are to life situations that are truly significant.

As one would imply this curriculum will be adjusted to the social needs of the individual. The needs of the individual are not to be neglected but the individual is to be permitted to develop according to his own interest and needs.

Since the social needs are to be considered it will follow that no hard and fast state curriculum can be imposed upon any community. Each community will have to be the judge, to a certain extent, as to what its needs are.

The Man Who Knows

Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism is SAFE is Your Doctor's Ask Him

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unreliable Preparations

BEFORE you take any medicine for the relief of headaches, neuralgia, or rheumatism, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in connection with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, so-called "pain" remedies were used against by physicians as a bad for the stomach, or, worse, the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely solved the medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin in and out without ill effect proved that the medical profession about its safety were correct. Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common aches and pains. It is safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by the name Bayer Aspirin, or by the Bayer cross alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

and how one has to protect from the young!" He looked at his watch. It was five. "Sorry. Seaman must have no time for dalliance now." "But now is always a lovely time." She stretched languorously in the deck chair.

Clare swung along the deck, a tall, slender figure tacking against the wind. She watched day melt into night. She could see Macduff roaming up and down, puffing at his pipe. "If I could make him talk," she mused idly. But he looked so happy that she decided to go alone and go down to the deck.

These days Clare had begun to read the histories of some of her passengers. She knew that the man with silver hair, sitting next to her, was taking her husband to the world for his health. She decided that her face suggested an interesting past, although she was blotting her out for the moment.

At the next table, like a modern-day dowager, sat Mrs. Arundel. Patty had summed up the fellow passengers with the exception of twenty. She thought of old and stuffy. Clare she regarded as a Victorian siren, a silly woman who did not know that love was never mentioned by name between two modern young people. "Sticky!" thought Patty to herself. "Johnny"—Patty raised her voice—"there goes Mrs. Langford." She found that she was not drawing Johnny's attention to Clare—it was already there. He blushed slightly, surprised in his own thoughts. He had just arrived at the conclusion that he had never seen such lovely curves, and what was it that lurked in those yellowish eyes? Johnny was fresh from college; his father was sending him around the world before he settled down to being a broker. Patty was fresh from Vassar, and she didn't fall in love with every youth who danced well or beat her at tennis. Johnny was on probation, but, failing greater excitement, he seemed a godsend on the Marenia.

"Johnny!" This time her voice was imperative. "You're mooning. Give me your attention, all of it, and another dry Martini."

"Forgive me, Patty. My wits are wandering. Here, steward, two dry Martinis."

"I was wondering what you thought about Mrs. Langford, but now I shall not ask you."

"If you really want to know, I think she's a knock-out," said Johnny, with surprising fervour. Patty snuggled deep in her leather chair and looked a little moodily at the figure in gold. What a lovely gown! She wished that she knew what men could see in women who were as transparent as glass to their own sex.

Patty's thoughts were interrupted by the sudden appearance of her aunt, who had walked over to their table to pick her up. She was small and slight, carefully groomed and faintly bored, a woman who knew the worst and the best that were to be had from life.

"I shall want one, two, three, four possibly even five dances tonight," said Johnny, jumping smartly to attention in deference to Patty's aunt.

"Try to get them," retorted Patty, as she slipped through the door.

Johnny lingered over his cocktail, reflecting that it was luck to have found a girl like Patty on a trip like this. Clare walked past his table on her way to the dining-room, leaving a trail of perfume that made Johnny's nostrils contact with excitement. Wonder what she was doing on this trip, and who her husband was. Probably a divorcee. He would soon know, for it seemed that everything was getting about—too much so for his taste. It rather sickened Johnny, the way people talked, the men in the smoking-room, the women on deck. No one would have a scrap of privacy left by the time they had reached India.

Macduff was walking out and the bar was clearing. Johnny decided that it was time to go down to dinner. The orchestra was playing as he entered, and the boat was rolling so much that he staggered on the way to his table. He had drawn agreeable dining companions—a loose-boned Westerner, Bill Laird, with a charming wife whom he teased unmercifully. Bill was getting a reputation already for being the practical joker of the boat. Patty waved blithely across the room.

"Not feeling well?" enquired Bill, solicitously.

"Never felt better," said Johnny. "If you want to try a remedy on some one, you'd better watch out for Patty Arundel. She threatens to be sick whenever the boat rolls."

"Oh, Mrs. Langford!" Bill shouted, half an hour later, seeing that Clare had finished dinner and was passing out at a leisurely gait. "Join us for coffee and liqueurs." She had already had some deck-chair conversation with the Lairds and liked them both. Drawing in his lazy way, Bill introduced Johnny, who jumped to his feet and stood staring down at her in a tongue-tied manner. They all went upstairs to the salon and settled down to fines and cigarettes. Clare chatted idly and Bill baited her, but grew bored when he failed to find resistance in her shallow retorts. She had no repartee, but her voice had a husky note that Johnny found alluring. He talked to Mrs. Laird, but kept his eyes glued on Clare. She ignored him most of the time, but when the dancing began she slid into his arms, and he suddenly knew that she had been thinking of him all the time. She danced divinely. Her hand felt alive in his clasp.

"I think I'm going to enjoy this trip," murmured Clare. "I've been seeing you about the boat. You're very strenuous, aren't you? Tennis, swimming, games."

Clare smiled and her hair brushed his chin. He had never held a woman in his arms who magnetized him like this. It was not like dancing with the girls he knew at home. Johnny began to feel like a man of the world.

At last he gave her up reluctantly, for the music had come to an end. It was hard to wait for his next dance with her to begin. Patty had come into the room with her aunt, but he had forgotten that she existed. She had found other partners and

"POWER ON PARADE," NEW AND DRAMATIC FARM PICTURE, TO BE SHOWN WEDNESDAY AT LON SMITH IMPLEMENT AND HARDWARE

Nuts, bolts, screws, gears, and some of the world's largest and most modern factory machinery — together with one of the largest symphony orchestras ever assembled for this purpose — play the leading parts in the new dramatic farm picture, "Power on Parade," which will be shown at 1, 3 and 5 p. m. Wednesday, January 29, at the Lon H. Smith Implement & Hardware, Littlefield. This picture is free to all farmers and their families.

Crude Ore to Finished Tractors
"Power on Parade" gives you an entirely new idea on how dramatic and interesting a modern factory can be, according to Lon H. Smith, local Minneapolis-Moline dealer.

Power Theme Used Throughout
Power is the idea of the picture, and it starts right in with gigantic shovels digging crude ore out of the world's largest open pit mines in northern Minnesota, less than 200 miles from the Minneapolis-Moline tractor factories.

Then you see the same crude ore go through roaring furnaces, and through a skillful process of manipulation by men and almost human machinery at modern plant, where Twin City tractors are manufactured.

Praised by Movie Critics
To give you something entirely different and entertaining in a factory and farm picture, an entirely new motion picture technique was used in producing this story of modern farming. In the dramatic factory scenes giant cranes, molten metal, roaring blast furnaces, and interesting modern machinery do the acting. This is accomplished by dramatic music, factory scenes, set to modern music has won the praise of critics and expert movie men wherever it is shown.

Portrays Modern Farming
The power idea is carried right on to the modern farm in "Power on Parade," showing the latest ideas on power farming. This is something every farmer should see because it is not only instructive but shows farming and power operations in other part of the country. You see most of the "Parade of New, Modern M-M machinery" in action.

Modern Farming Via Airplane
No, we don't use airplanes for farming now, but in "Power on Parade" we travel from one part of the country to another by airplane to see farming in your own as well as other sections. The newest Lockheed "Electra" air liner is used, the same as you see on the big passenger lines.

Harvester Film Also is Shown
Another big feature is added in "The Harvester," a talking film showing the world's most modern combine in action. This picture won wide acclaim last year wherever farmers saw it. "The Harvester" shows you practically every method used in cutting and threshing from the old hand methods up to the modern "Harvester," the newest and most popular

SCOUT DISTRICT COMMITTEE TO BE SET UP

Series Of Meetings To Be Held For This Purpose

Earl M. McClure, Boy Scout Executive for the South Plains Council, of Lubbock, was in Littlefield Monday and Tuesday in the interest of Boy Scout work.

On an interview with a Leader representative, Mr. McClure said: "We are planning on getting a Boy Scout District Committee set up in Littlefield for the purpose of training leaders and reaching more Boy Scout age, and getting them into the Boy Scout movement."

A meeting was held Monday night at 7:30 at the City Hall, at which all local men interested in the work were invited for the purpose of laying plans for the local leadership training school and reorganization work.

A. B. Sanders, District Commissioner, and F. O. Boles, District Chairman, were in charge of the meeting.

Plans were laid for a series of six meetings for the purpose of training men in scout leadership, the first of which was called for Monday evening, February 10, at which all men interested in Boy Scout work are urged to attend.

The dates for the subsequent meeting are to be arranged at the first gathering in February.

As a preliminary organization Mr. Sanders appointed the following patrol leaders: J. C. Elms, Carl Arnold, Bob Lewis and Eugene Latimer.

A number of men from nearby cities and communities are expected to attend these meetings.

It is also planned to conduct a survey in Littlefield to determine the number of boys interested in cubbing, scouting and senior scouting.

Home Demonstration Notes

By Miss Bernice Westbrook

A row of cherry trees in the back ground and groups of cedars and flowering shrubs in the foreground are to be planted to make a wind break, on the west side of the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reynolds, yard demonstrators for the Olton Home Demonstration Club.

The cherry trees will not be trimmed but will be allowed to make as thick growth as possible, thereby serving a double purpose—that of protecting the lawn and shrubs from the wind and sand and that of furnishing some fruits for the table.

SCREENING THE OUTBUILDINGS

Lilacs and Vitex in the foreground with untrimmed Lombardy Poplars in the background will be used to screen the outbuildings from view at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Feat, yard demonstrators of the Sandhill Home Demonstration Club.

Lilacs will grow from roots or sprouts, Vitex can be grown from cuttings, and Lombardy Poplars from sprouts, so by exchanging a cherry sprout, rose cutting, or what have you with a neighbor or friend you can get these plants for your screen or border planting with no cash outlay.

CURE YOUR CHEESE

"My cheese is sure looking good," remarked Mrs. E. L. Yarbrough, home food supply demonstrator for the Blue Bonnett Home Demonstration club.

Mrs. Yarbrough has made 19 pounds of American Cheese and has it curing. She plans to make 39 more pounds, making 60 pounds for the year's supply! The curing of American Cheese is as important as the making of it. If you want it to have a sharp, rich, cheese flavor, coat it with paraffin and keep in a cool, dry place for at least six weeks, six months is better.

CANNING CHEESE

"I opened a can of my American Cheese and Mr. Irvin and I like it fine," said Mrs. H. K. Irwin, home food supply cooperater of the Sod House club.

Mrs. Irwin made this cheese in November, pressed it in a long tube, cut it in lengths to fit her cans, wrapped it in parchment paper, sealed it in tin cans, and set aside to cure. Being in cans she did not have to worry about turning it or watching it, until it was ready to use.

WASHINGTON SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES

Our tariff system makes a farm program necessary in the interest of the entire nation. Complete and permanent recovery can be had on no other basis.

No one wishes this country to sink back to the depths it had reached in 1932.

The decision of the Court in the A. A. A. case is a far-reaching one.

However, I cannot believe that a national tariff is legal and that a national farm program which merely restores the price balance cannot be made legal.

I cannot believe that the cotton farmers and the producers of other world market crops must purchase their supplies in a higher-priced protective market and that there is no constitutional means by which may be given an even break.

The greatest fundamental in our system of government is equality in the operation of its laws.

I am sure a constitutional method of putting all our citizens on an equal footing can be found. Certainly in the interest of simple justice the effort should be made. To this task the House Committee on Agriculture is devoting its earnest attention.

Personally I favor a domestic allotment plan linked with a soil conservation and rebuilding program and also including the seeking of new and additional outlets and markets, domestic and foreign.

While proper adjustment is desirable, we should of course produce all the market will absorb, both at home and abroad.

The legislation should be broad and flexible so as to permit different plans for different commodities, thus fitting to each commodity the plan best suited to its peculiar production and marketing conditions.

Such a program will be to the advantage of both producer and consumer.

The Congress added the domestic allotment plan, the soil conservation and market expansion features to last year's legislation. However, as other plans were already in operation, these had not yet been brought into full effect. Since the domestic allotment, soil conservation and market expansion plans were not involved in the decision of the Supreme Court, these were probably not affected; but as they were linked with some of the provisions that were held invalid, it would probably be wise to carry them forward in a new act.

The domestic allotment plan is peculiarly suited to cotton and wheat, but other methods will probably be better suited to some of the other crops. No single plan would be suited to all of the different commodities.

These are merely my own views. Legislation will be worked out by the Congress to accomplish the desired end in so far as it is possible to do so within the limits set out in the decision of the Supreme Court.

The drama of the picture arises out of a feud between the families of old Charles Sellon and Charles Richman. ## Bill To Take Place Of A. A. A. Presented Wed.

The administration's two-year half-billion dollar substitute for AAA Wednesday was in bill form ready for introduction on Capitol Hill. The projected $500,000,000 ap- propriation was not included. It will be offered as a separate bill and an effort made in the senate to tack it onto the independent offices sup- ply bill.

The new farm bill amends the soil conservation act of April 27, 1935, and adds to its anti-erosion policies;

Preservation and improvement of soil fertility.

Promotion of the economic use of land.

Diminution of exploitation and unprofitable use of national soil resources.

Provision for and maintenance of a continuous and stable supply of agricultural commodities adequate to meet domestic and foreign con- sumer requirements at prices fair to both producers and consumers.

Reestablishment and maintenance of farm purchasing power.

The secretary of agriculture is au- thorized to "make payments or grant other aid" to agricultural producers based upon:

"1—Their acreage of soil-improv- ing or erosion-preventing crops.

"2—Their acreage of crop land.

"3—Changes in the use of their land."

"4—A percentage of their normal production of any one of more agri- cultural commodities designated by the secretary which equals that per- centage of the normal national pro- duction of such commodities re- quired for domestic consumption."

A definite bar was inserted in the bill against contracts binding upon producers or to acquire land or rights of interests therein." The life of the proposed act would end on December 31, 1937. New Deal officials continued to deplore a ruling last Monday in which the Supreme court ordered $200,000,000 of impounded AAA taxes handed back to processors without delay.

WHICH WILL IT BE?

ONE QUARTER BALE PER ACRE

ONE & ONE QUARTER BALES PER ACRE SURE CROPS-or-DOUBTFUL CROPS

We have all learned, in the past dry season, that weather is a fickle thing and that therefore, sure crops are very "un-sure". Quite a number in the Panhandle country have found that the way to beat old man weather is to irrigate, because irrigation makes it very certain that water can be had when it is needed, rather than when "dame nature" sees fit to give us a rain.

Mr. Travis Tubbs, farming just west of Lubbock, made 13 bales of cotton from 80 acres dry farming. The next year he put in a Peerless irrigation plant and made 115 bales off of the same 80 acres of land.

The Peerless Pump Division of the Food Machinery Corporation is so certain that irrigation is profitable that they are now making it possible for farmers in the Panhandle coun- try to obtain a complete irrigation plant, including well, well casing, pump, and engine. They will comple- tely finance such an irrigation plant over three years, and in all suitable cases will very largely arrange the amount of down payment required to meet the farmer's convenience.

The average cost of a complete plant would run from $1,800.00 to $2,000.00 depending on the equipment that would be best suited to your particular use.

This program is made possible by cooperation with the Federal Housing Administration. This arrange- ment expires on April 1, 1936. Therefore, in order to take advan- tage of these unusually liberal terms the purchase of irrigation plants should be arranged at this time.

Mr. Snyder, who is the Credit Executive of the Peerless Pump Divi- sion will be in the Panhandle for some time in order that prompt ac- tion can be given to all applications for irrigation plants. He and Mr. C. K. Hughes, who is the Peerless Man- ager of the Panhandle district, will be in Plainview at the Knoohuyen Apartments or the Hilton Hotel, Monday and Tuesday each week and at the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, Thurs- day and Friday each week. Your lo- cal representative, Mr. Jim Douglas, at Littlefield, Texas, will explain this further to you.

Arrange to see Mr. Snyder and Mr. Hughes promptly and they will show you how easy it is to insure a certain crop under these astonish- ily easy terms that do not require that you mortgage your family to take advantage of them.

Rich Mrs. Hipeak and her two daughters, Lenore who is still in school, and Anne who is soon to be married. They finally came to Madam Suzanne's shop as a last resort after spending the morning vainly searching for a suitable wardrobe.

The frocks called for are displayed and her clients are thrilled at the tastefulness in design. Each makes her selections with a hint now and then from Madam Suzanne.

METHODIST PASTOR SPEAKS TO ASSEMBLY

Rev. J. W. Hendrix, pastor of the Methodist church, spoke to the assembly Thursday, January 16, on the subject of "Relationship between the Teacher and the Student."

The speaker stated that a teacher can not both teach and learn the student. The teacher may be learning about you but the student must learn for himself. A person cannot learn sitting on the back of his neck, and you cannot fill a sack that is wadded down on the floor.

Some students think if they can "primp up" and look nice, that is all that is necessary but "primping up" does not cover up anything and it may improve your appearance but it takes character and personality to lead to the successful road. Some people ask nothing of the world but "ease" and they just "loll about."

Getting down to brass tacks, such shiftlessness can best be defined in one word, laziness.

The Bulletin Board committee in Miss Montgomery's room have an interesting display of the five famous people whose birthdays came the first two weeks of January; namely, Joan of Arc, Paul Revere, Ethan Allan, Jack London, and Benjamin Franklin, as well as a section for the topics of study in all our subjects.

Our boys playground baseball team defeated the baseball team from the high school last week. The score was 6 to 3. The two teams will meet several more times this year.

Among the new students in L. 6-B are Eugene Stardefer, W. A. Jones, and Homer Smith. W. A. has been in school here before. Homer comes as a transfer from Hart Camp, and Eugene from Bula.

A new giant stride has been located on our grounds. If you don't think we enjoy it, you should see the number of persons who wait in line until it is their turn to "fly."

Beware The Cough

From a common cold
That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Promenade Deck—

was dancing now with Dick, the chief officer.
Dick danced with the swing of the sea, and entertained Patty by telling her about some of the things she would see on the trip. The third time he danced with her he suddenly saw that she was not listening to a word he was saying, but was looking over his shoulder with the expression of a hurt child. With the next turn he could see why—Mrs. Langford was adrift in a sea of self-indoctrination, her wide lips an inch from the cheek of the boy whom Dick had seen pursuing Patty around the decks ever since they had sailed. So that was the way! Well, a good thing it had happened quickly, before she had got fond of him. He swung her hastily down the other side and out for a breath of air. The promenade deck was enclosed with class, and she suggested that they go still higher. "I should love to feel the wind on the top deck," she said. They climbed up the com-panionway. Patty hugging her white fur jacket around her thin frock. The moon was a crescent swung on a chain of diamonds, and the waves dashed foam against the bow. Patty had a dim idea that the woman in gold hovered like a shadow between a carefree yesterday and an ominous tomorrow. It was the look in Johnny's eyes that had appalled her. How did a woman make a mere boy, whom she scarcely knew, look like that?

Dick kept quiet, preserving a sympathetic air. He was thinking; "A lovely child, but she's in for more of it, if she feels that way about the boy. It's just another case of what the sea does to a woman." He felt her clutching at his arm; all of a sudden she had decided to go down to her stateroom. Telling him to let her aunt know that she had gone to bed. Patty went below and tried to read. The type danced before her eyes and she wondered if she were getting a little seasick. When her aunt came in, she found her fast asleep.

"Bertrand Russell's Marriage and Morals," said Mrs. Minton, picking up the book and covering her gently. "The child is growing up." The Marenia lay at anchor at Villefranche, her flags strung like a garland of autumn leaves over the sapphire stretch of the bay. Monte Carlo was snugly tucked in the green curve of Monaco. After eleven days at sea, Macduff blinked at the brilliance of the scene before him. He had his own plans for the day. He would give Monte Carlo a wide berth and stretch his legs in one of his favorite walks. He had a poor opinion of the place and had never tossed a penny on the table. Any time he went to the Casino, it was simply to see what fools human beings could make of themselves over a gambling-wheel.

He strode along, with his arms swinging like windmills. More passengers were getting on at Villefranche. That was a pity. There were altogether too many on board already. Things seemed to be happening on the ship, some of which he did not altogether approve. Soon they would all be bickering, where now they were gushing and flirting. It

HUDSON ANNOUNCES FULL LINE OF TERRAPLANE COMMERCIAL CARS

Custom Panel Delivery body, mounted on 1936 Terraplane Commercial chassis, capacity 1/2 ton, wheelbase 115". The engine is 88 horsepower with 100 horsepower optional.

Side view of new Terraplane 1/2 ton Cab Pick-Up Express just announced by the Hudson Motor Car Company.

With a complete line of Terraplane commercial cars designed to cover every purpose to which a commercial car may be put, Hudson is now in production on several models with shipments starting at once, it was announced today by W. R. Tracy, vice president in charge of sales.

The 1936 Terraplane commercial line includes six models—Custom panel delivery, three-quarter ton cab pick-up express, utility coach, custom station wagon, chassis and chassis with cab. All models are smartly styled after the fashion of the new 1936 passenger line of Terraplans and are mounted on chassis with a wheelbase of 115 inches. Engines of 88 and 100 horsepower provide a maximum of power with a minimum of weight, resulting in marked economy of operation.

The new utility coach may be converted from a passenger car merely by removing the rear seat, which at once makes available a storage space of 110 cubic feet, entered from the rear. The custom panel delivery provides 130 cubic feet with a carrying weight of 1/2 of a ton.

The safety steel cab of the cab pick-up express model has a steel roof and is full three-passenger capacity.

The custom station wagon is stylish in appearance and the seats in the rear compartment may be easily removed whenever it is necessary to use the entire space for transportation of baggage or other articles. The front seat is a three-passenger width, and when the rear seats are in place, five additional passengers are accommodated. Production on this model will be started in the near future.

was bound to turn out that way when people saw too much of one another.

He hoped they wouldn't get another Mrs. Langford on board; one of her kind was enough. She was beginning to get under his skin, spoiling his pleasure on the top deck, always up to her tricks, and now roping in the American boy. Macduff thought that his sex should be protected from such influences. The Foster girl was showing up badly, too. He never went into the bar that he did not find her there. The high jinks of the boat extended even to his own alley, where a diamond merchant across the way was continually entertaining women in his stateroom.

He came down off the brakewater and followed the road to the Italian border, stopping at a restaurant that stood on stilts in the sea.

The short Riviera day was passing, and the chill of three o'clock was creeping in from the sparkling waters. It was short-lived at its best, warm and vivifying, but swift in its decline. He remembered that he had to be on board the Marenia by seven. He might motor back to Monte Carlo and take a turn in the Casino to see what his fellow passengers were doing.

Hot and stuffy inside, as usual, with an annoying buzzing of subdued voices, like a swarm of bees zooming in a distant grove. The merciless lights dug seams in weary faces. He thought he had never seen so many pairs of tired eyes. Wherever he looked, he could spot some one from the Marenia, but very few were throwing counters on the tables. They were a cautious lot and ill at ease. He was surprised to see Miss Mudge—little Miss Muffet, he called her in own mind—tossing two counters on the baize with quite a flourish. He would watch to see what happened. The wheel spun around. The croupier raked up her counters. She looked anxiously at his pasty face, not quite sure which way her luck had gone, but he did not raise his eyes from the table.

A NEAT HOUSEDRESS

Pattern 8641 — There is nothing quite so important to a larger woman, as that her frocks, whether they are for wear at home or abroad, are built on the proper slenderizing lines, well-tailored, smart, but feminine, withal.

The shirtwaist frock sketched has just this smart slender look about it, completely simple but with nice details, and perfect for home wear.

The collar, for instance, is soft and flattering and the shoulder yoke extends into a panel which continues down the entire length of the skirt. Softly bloused is the bodice part and workmanlike are the sleeves, whether you prefer them long or short.

White collar and cuffs set off a gingham or other cotton frock, adding to the clean, fresh look so desired.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE to Patricia Dow, Lamb County Leader Pattern Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

LITTLEFIELD NATIONAL LOAN ASS'N ELECTS OFFICERS AT RECENT MEETING

Annual meeting of the Littlefield National Farm Loan Association was held in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, January 14, 1935, one of the best meetings in the history of the association, over 100 members attending.

Mr. A. C. Williams, President of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, who spoke to the members of the 365 national farm loan associations in Texas who were attending similar meetings in cities and towns all over Texas at the same hour. This was made possible through the cooperation of the major radio broadcasting stations which make up the Texas Quality Network.

Mr. Williams explained the types of credit through the units of the Farm Credit Administration, the basis upon which appraisals are made in connection with applications for land bank loans, and the advantages of these credit institutions. He also commented upon the important part which the cooperative farmer-owned national farm loan associations play in the successful operation of the Federal Farm Loan System, and emphasized the fact that the Farm Credit Administration units offered the many types of credit needed by agriculture.

Following the meeting a buffet lunch was served at Lon's cafe to those attending. The Littlefield National Farm Loan Association has helped more than 1,413 farmers and stockmen of Lamb, Hoekley and Cochran counties refinance their indebtedness on a sound basis. Since the creation of the Farm Credit Administration in May, 1933, this association has made land bank and Commissioner loans in its territory amounting to $2,714,815.00.

The Littlefield Farm Loan association, through its Secretary, Mr. Hilliard, wishes to thank the members of the association for their hearty cooperation during the past year, and good attendance at the meeting Tuesday.

HELPING THE EDITOR EDIT, OR A MEMBER OF THE LEADER CREW BECOMES TREE-MEN- DOUSLY TREE MINDED—

Cecil Elliott, who functions hereabouts in the capacity of a job printer, tells us that we didn't go far enough in a recent editorial relative to the planting of trees. He tells us that this stuff about trees as a beautification program is all right as far as it goes, but that it doesn't go far enough. The said Cecil wants trees planted to keep the wind from blowing away the earth and that which anchors down the earth "such" as cows, chickens, fences, tumble weeds, go-devils, etc. He also wants a whole congregation of fruit trees on every place in town, out of town, and in attractive groupings at every farm home. Everything he wants is OK with us; all we are interested in is having trees planted—millions of them.

NOW HERE'S A STUDY IN THE GREAT DIFFERENCE IN HOW MINDS FUNCTION—

Cecil thinks about planting trees and "Red" Grundy, who operates the typesetting machine, thinks that this would be a brighter, happier, lovelier world if there were more sidewalk-walks. We'll bet that Cecil could do about anything around a farm, and that "Red" thinks that a later is a new kind of gate that lists like a way when you want to go in and lists that way when you want to go out.

HERE'S AN OPPORTUNITY—

The City of Littlefield is seeking a solution of the garbage collection problem. And the mayor and commissioners are open for suggestions. The commission feels that the regular gathering of waste paper and similar matter does not offer any problem, but decayed fruit, peelings, table scraps, etc. calls for different handling.

The suggestion has been made that arrangements could possibly be made whereby the owner of a large number of hogs, or several owners of hogs, would gather the fruit, peelings, etc. in order to get part of the feed for their hogs at no cost outside of the gathering.

Any person, or persons, interested in obtaining feed for their hogs should get in touch with any member of the city commission or City Secretary W. G. Street.

"I know the duties of commissioner and promise to support every possible economy.

"Most of you will remember my campaign of two years ago, when my opponents were your present commissioner, Mr. Foust, and Grady Simpson. At that time I tried to make that race in just as clean and honorable a way as possible, and I certainly intend to make that kind of a campaign and race again this year.

"The fact that I was second high in that race, gives me the confidence and the knowledge that I have a large number of friends, and will appreciate it if they will again support me.

"In view of that fact, I am entering the race again this year, and I do ask your earnest consideration of my candidacy, and also ask your support and your vote.

"If elected to the office, I will cooperate in every way with other county officers in serving my precinct, showing no partiality in any way, and will fulfill the duties of commissioner to the very best of my ability.

"I feel there is much to be accomplished at this time in the furtherance of good roads throughout the county, and if given an opportunity will do everything in my power towards this end.

"It is my intention to personally see as many voters in the precinct as possible before the July election, but in the meantime I shall deeply appreciate the support of my friends, and ask all those who do not know me to give me their kind consideration and to investigate my honesty and ability to fill the office, and if you feel I could fill the office satisfactorily, I solicit your vote and influence at the July primary.

"Sincerely,
"Newt. Cantrell."

STATE TO PLANT TREES ALONG HIGHWAY NO. 7

Part Of State's Program For Centennial Beautification

At the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce luncheon Tuesday, Joe Hale reported the receipt of a letter from the Highway Department stating they were ready to plant the trees along the highway east and west from Littlefield, and asking that the trees be procured for this purpose. This is in connection with the Centennial beautification project being sponsored by the State, which will plant the trees and care for them, but asks that the various places along the highway supply the trees. It is proposed to plant trees six miles east of Littlefield and the same distance west on Highway No. 7.

Mr. Hale stated it would only cost between forty and fifty dollars, and suggested that the other members of the Chamber of Commerce suggest to the County Commissioners that the county get these trees at once in order to have them planted by the state.

Mr. Boone stated that the city cleanup had practically been completed, and that there had been hauls in the neighborhood of 150 loads of rubbish from the city.

Supt. A. B. Sanders reported that an application had been filed for an adult school, to take care of the CCC boys and anyone else interested in taking the work. He stated that the application asked for six teachers to teach academic, vocational, manual and commercial work.

This application was filed by Supt. Sanders as sponsor and the classes will be supervised by him.

Supt. Sanders stated he had several applications from teachers, but said that the restriction to the effect that they must be registered with N. R. S. before they are eligible, which means that they must have been on direct relief, is eliminating most of those available.

Mr. Sanders also stated that the application for the project calls for six teachers, four women and two men; that it was estimated between 150 and 200 would attend such a school; that the skilled pro wage is $44.00 per month.

It was also pointed out that no state certificate is required by teachers in order to give instruction in this proposed adult school, which will be held at the CCC camp, but is open to anyone wishing to take training in the above mentioned subjects.

Supt. Sanders also reported that he had filed an application for a WPA project, the purpose of which would be the employment of youth not in school. This project calls for sixteen young men and one woman as timekeeper, who will be employed in the improvement and beautification of the campus, etc., and including grassing the new athletic field when complete.

Mr. Boone reported that the city water project was coming along nicely; and that they had completed pouring of the concrete into the walls; that the culverts had all been cleaned out and considerable work done on the city parks.

He reported that the sidewalk project was pending, but that he believed it would be finally oked by WPA.

Mr. Hale reported that a Centennial meeting would be held at the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, Wednesday afternoon, to organize and work out plans regarding agricultural exhibits from this section to be placed at the Centennial.

Mr. Hale also stated that since AAA was declared unconstitutional, that Lamb county should endorse some one of the several proposals suggested to take the place of the AAA and go on record as endorsing that plan. He also suggested that the Chamber of Commerce appoint an agricultural committee to look after this matter.

A committee, composed of J. S. Hilliard, W. H. Cunningham and Clyde Hilburn, was appointed by Mr. Boone, president, suggesting that they look into the different propositions and make recommendations at a later meeting.

Dr. Ira Woods reported that the Junior Study Club was sponsoring eye and dental examinations free for all the school children; that he started his work at the school Tuesday and that Drs. Wm. N. Orr and Dr. Max Woods were to begin their dental examinations Wednesday morning.

UCC Offers Low Down Payment Plan To Ford Customers

Eight years ago the Universal Credit Company began its history as an important factor in the commercial, financial, and industrial life of the nation—a specialized financial institution created for the exclusive purpose of providing a stabilizing factor in financing the time sales of Ford cars and trucks. The company has made sound and substantial progress ever since inception.

During this comparatively brief but disturbed period in the economic history of the United States, Universal Credit Company has financed the purchase of new Ford cars and used cars sold by Ford dealers exclusively to the motor-buying public of America in the amount of more than one and a half billion dollars, serving a total of more than 2,600,000 Ford customers. Such, in brief, is the history of one of the nation's greatest financial service corporations.

UCC has been repeatedly responsible for the reduction of finance costs for Ford buyers. The large volume of business developed has made possible constantly improved plans, providing courtesy, safety, and economy for the Ford purchaser desiring to buy out of income.

UCC again follows with the lowest and best plans it has ever offered.

Under the new UCC Plans, after the usual low down payment, the Ford buyer can purchase his Ford car anywhere in the country on instalments of only $25.00 a month.

The cost of this extension of credit is only 1-2 of 1 per cent per month on the original unpaid balance and insurance. Convenient UCC charts show these finance charges which are computed by multiplying the unpaid balance plus insurance by 1-2 per cent per month (6 per cent for 12 months—which is not a simple interest but a multiplier for computation).

Where the $25.00 per month plan is not used, and the Ford buyer wishes to vary the terms of his transaction, the cost is figured by multiplying the unpaid balance plus insurance by a multiplier determined at the rate of 1-2 per cent per month for the total number of months the transaction is to run.

The insurance provided in the New UCC Convenient Payment Plans protects the purchaser's car against Fire and Theft, Collision, Flood, Windstorm, Tornado, Cyclone, Hail, Riot, and other elements of physical damage—complete protection against accidental physical damage to the car itself.

The major factor that makes the $25.00 per month UCC low cost, easy payment plan possible is the great lasting value and public acceptance of the Ford V-8. More than 2,200,000 Ford V-8's have been sold in a period of four years (including two years, 1932-33, which covered the most difficult period of the late depression).

Ford V-8 performance, economy, and beauty in the past is the guarantee of Ford superiority and value in the future. Greater and greater value with each passing year has brought unequaled dollar value in the new Ford V-8 for 1936.

"Ours is more than an exclusive credit institution serving Ford dealers and Ford purchasers," the UCC manager, Mr. Murray recently stated. "We look upon the Universal Credit Company as an active arm of the Ford sales force, charged with the duty of helping the Ford dealer and the Ford purchaser in any matters where credit is involved and which has such an important bearing on

JUNIOR STUDY CLUB SPONSOR EYE AND DENTAL EXAMINATIONS

The Junior Study club is sponsoring eye and dental examinations of all the children of the Littlefield schools.

Dr. Ira Woods, local optometrist, began his work at the school building Tuesday, which service he is rendering free of charge, and which he completed Wednesday evening.

On an interview with Dr. Woods he stated that taking the school children of the United States as a whole it has been found that one out of every five need glasses. "In the Littlefield Schools," added Dr. Woods, "three out of every ten need glasses."

"Defective eye sight is mostly found among the children, whose parents are on the relief rolls."

"If some organization will take it up and sponsor the project, I will be glad to fit glasses for cost of material. The chances are that there are a hundred in this school who should be looked after and glasses supplied them."

Dr. Wm. N. Orr examined the teeth of about 250 pupils of the primary and grammar schools Wednesday morning, and stated that he would devote a part of each morning to this work until completed. He is attending to his office practice in the afternoons.

Dr. Max Woods will assist in the examination of the children's teeth, beginning Monday morning.

The dental examinations are also being made free of charge.

the merchandising of automobiles." Another important sales function of the Universal Credit Company which Mr. Murray brought out in our interview was the very important matter of goodwill.

"The buyer delights in dealing with an organization which gives him prompt and courteous treatment, that deals with him in absolute fairness, ever maintaining the high standard of its service—a service rendered with the thought constantly in mind of making a repeat customer of the buyer. This he becomes as the result of a natural appreciation for the value in the products and the sincerity of the manufacturer and the seller."

A truly helpful credit service with friendly treatment is the business philosophy behind UCC credit operations. The convenient terms and low cost and safety features offer Ford buyers real economy and safety through a company that serves the Ford market exclusively. UCC Plans are available to Ford purchasers at Hall Motor Company, Littlefield, Texas, who is an Authorized Ford Dealer in this city.

When the fraud was discovered G-Men, railway detectives, and private operatives were as thick on the landscape as trees in a forest. And, in addition, Lamb county, and local officers joined in the investigation.

But the man, the $2500, and all trace of both had floated away on the wings of the night.
