Internal Revenue Department To Clamp Down On Those Who Are Delinquent With S. S. Tax

Threatened with a $10,000 fine and a healthy jail sentence for not sending in their monthly report and remittance covering their Social Security payments each month, local firms were going into action the past few days with check books and pencils.

Although it was not expected that any local firm would suffer the large fine or jail sentence, the chance that at least a twenty-five per cent fine would be put on was most excellent.

W. C. Montgomery, deputy collector of the Internal Revenue Department was in the city a few days ago and paid an official call on several firms, reminding them they had not sent in the two per cent of their monthly payroll. One per cent is paid by the employer and one per cent is deductible from the employees pay check. He said he would be back here in a short time and make an accurate check of all records.

Montgomery said the government wished to cooperate with everyone to the limit but said the law required the payments to be sent in each month or a five per cent fine would be levied for each month delinquent.

Marjorie Wilson Is Miss "Lamb County"

Hail to "Miss Lamb County" for 1937. It is none other than Miss Marjorie Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Rosalee Wilson of Littlefield.

Miss Wilson, a charming seventeen year old senior of the Littlefield high school was selected by the judges at the Bathing Beauty Contest held at the Palace Theatre Tuesday night.

There were 14 entrants, and the judges had a hard time selecting the winner from the array of Lamb county beauties, who paraded before their eyes. The choice of the judges seemed to please the large crowd who attended the revue. Bill Colvert of the Lamb County Leader acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Majorie Wilson represented the Popular Department Store of Littlefield, and to J. Skuy and N. T. House who selected Miss Wilson to represent them should go a pot of flowers. The boys know how to pick a real winner.

Bill Chesher presented Miss Wilson with $15 in cash and on Saturday of this week she will go to Sweetwater, where she will enter the finals of the contest, where the "Goddess of West Texas" will be chosen from among county winners from all over West Texas. The

"Would Be Great Thing For City Even If It Cost Money," He Says

"One is a straight out-and-out gamble and the other is a sure shot way to help the city of Littlefield," said J. S. Hilliard Tuesday noon when speaking before members of the Chamber of Commerce at their luncheon meeting in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

Hilliard was comparing investments in oil leases with investments in a hotel stock project. The subject of a new hotel for Littlefield has held the attention of the business men of the city for sometime and many wish action in the very near future.

Homer Hall Says Twenty New Homes Needed Here

"I think the construction of 20 homes in this city to cost about $1,500 each would be one of the finest investments that a man could make," said Homer Hall, president of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, this week when discussing the shortage of living quarters and the construction of a hotel.

"Personally I am for a planned and stable building program for our city and am not much for a boom building program. Now take this hotel project. I'd like to see one here, but if local people put money into it they should do so with the thought it would be a donation and get their money back.

"In fact I think the investment in 20 homes, all to be constructed at one time, would be a much better investment than the construction of a hotel, that is speaking in terms of investment safety.

"We do need a hotel here in Littlefield, but we do have the larger cities to contend with. Hotels in larger cities can be run certain ways that they can not be run like in a smaller city like we have here.

"Besides needing about 20 homes right now in Littlefield we also could use two apartment buildings."

Littlefield is over 14 years old we heard a "hot-one that here many years ago, that a certain young man in a home here then the first "roomer" to have lights installed in his room. handy to the "bath-house" some didn't seem to have them so all his country boy friends calling on the fair damsels used his room to undress. city used his room to undress. run over to the bath-house, from head to foot, back to electric lighted room.

climax came one day when "roomer" went to his room and seven girls there using electric light socket to plug curling iron so their hair be nice and curly for the who used the room at night ready for the same girls. it is just no tell in what the folks will do so they will pretty. The light bill for the room and the one bulb, we stand, was $1.50 per month. it seem that is one electric bulb that really got a work- 4 years ago.

"Strike" At Local C. C. C. Camp Put Down Quickly

About forty boys attending the C. C. C. camp near this city spent the month of July holiday confined to camp. Why? Well it is like this-- Of course it may have been caused indirectly by reading too much about strikes in the Eastern and Middle-Western industrial centers, but according to the boys it was on account of an item of food.

No matter what it was the officers in charge, First Lieut. Chas. Cook and Second Lieut. W. A. Sawyer stopped the rucus quickly by shipping three of the boys out of the camp for good, and confining approximately 40 boys to the camp reservation for a few days.

It seems as if the boys objected to some spoiled food that was served them through a mistake. The boys had a just cause it seems to make had the objection, but the method in which about 40 of them did it was what caused the trouble. There are 129 boys in the camp.

The boys threw down the food and did quite a bit of "cutting-up" about the matter instead of just refusing to eat the food and for their "strike pains" they received some U. S. Army discipline, which is known far and wide quite the thing for stopping strikes or what have you.

It was not the fault of the officers the food was served, but strictly an oversight on the part of someone in the camp. No one was hurt over the food, and from all reports the only ones hurt were those who raised too much "sand" about the matter. In other words

Littlefield Team Wins Baseball Tournament Here

Phillips 66 Of Amarillo Play Here Sunday, July 11

THEY WIN OVER SUDAN AND THEN KNOCK OVER AMHERST

"Yes sir, we are going to do our level best to wipe out that defeat of 4 to 3 the Phillips '66' Oilers of Amarillo handed us about a month ago," said Dick Ratliff, Captain of the Littlefield Panthers today when telling about the big game coming up Sunday with the Phillips '66' team from up in the Panhandle.

Littlefield fresh from winning the invitation tournament here over the past week will meet the Oilers here at 3:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon at the Littlefield ball park on Highway 7.

Although their will not be any $125 hung up as first prize for the winning team like the local club won last week end when they copped the tournament, they will be out there to win just as hard as they are always doing for the glory of the fair city of Littlefield.

The Oilers have a strong team and are no "set-up" in any ball park.

The game here Sunday should prove a sell-out. Local citizens will do well to support the Littlefield ball club as they are a fine organization of young men and have brought a lot of people to this city. Bringing people to this city is a feather in anyone's hat as people spend money with local firms and local firms can always find time to handle new funds spent here.

LITTLEFIELD DEFEATED LAST TIME THEY WERE HERE BUT EXPECT TO CLEAN THE SLATE

With over 3,000 people attending four days of baseball here last Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the Littlefield baseball team did itself proud and won the baseball tournament.

The fireworks started Friday afternoon when in the very first game Littlefield knocked off Sudan by the score of 15 to 4. Hall pitched six innings for Littlefield and Glanzer finished the game. Minvard pitched three innings for Sudan, Purtell went the route for two innings and then they called on Lumpkin to finish the pitching assignment for them. He took care of the last 4 innings.

The Littlefield boys just simply had their hitting pants on, and proceeded to knock the ball all over the ball park.

After the first game Friday afternoon the tournament then went into the second game of the day.

Amherst played Muleshoe and Muleshoe took the short end of the game 6 to 5. It was a tight game. Craig pitched for Amherst and Burns did the ball twirling for Muleshoe.

Saturday Afternoon
Saturday afternoon the game was between Sudan and Muleshoe, the two teams that took it on the chin Friday. It was just a case of a couple of losers fighting it out to see who stayed in the tournament. Two losses put a team out of the running.

This game proved interesting to the crowd that thronged the park Saturday afternoon and was close. The score being 5 to 4 in favor of Muleshoe. Sudan was then officially out of the tournament.

Sunday Afternoon
Amherst and Littlefield went to bat Sunday afternoon before a record crowd. Neither team had been defeated during the tournament and the crowd was out to see some one eliminated from the tournament. The crowd was about evenly divided, about half pulling for Amherst and half for the Littlefield Panthers.

It didn't take long for the Littlefield team to stand out as the best club. During the game they managed to get 15 hits and won the game by a score of 12 to 3.

Amherst got 10 hits but made only 3 runs out of it all. Aldridge who pitched for Littlefield roiled the Amherst batters back in good shape and got 11 strike outs to his credit. He also made one hit during the game.

Sam Daily started the pitching for Amherst and lasted 4 innings. Bradley tried his arm at the Panthers and didn't do much better. At last Roberts went in and finished the game for Amherst.

During the game Littlefield was playing so fast and were so "hot" they made three errors while Amherst only made one.

Capt. Ratliff of the Littlefield team decided that he would get in Babe Ruth's old class so he proceeded to knock himself two home runs. They are still looking for the balls he smacked over the pitchers head.

Ballard, Burlison and Hodges also helped the home run department by each chalking up one. These home run hitters all got a big hand from the crowd.

The eighth inning was "big stuff" for Littlefield and bad medicine for Amherst. The Panthers chalked up 5 runs, made six hits and turned two of them into runs before their half of the inning was over.

It is said by those "who know" that a goodly sum of Amherst money was covered by the Littlefield fans and with the game ending 12 to 3 in favor of Littlefield, naturally this money stayed in its new home, Littlefield, Texas. The boys up at Amherst are no doubt a wee-bit short of cash this week, but will be back again ready to take on all comers.

Second Game Sunday
No sooner was the hot scrap over between the Panthers and Amherst than scrap number two started. This was between Muleshoe and Amherst. Each team had lost one game and both knowing that whoever lost this game would be out, they

Beauty Winner Wants To Run Beauty Shop When She Grows Up

Everyone has an ambition and beauty contest winners are no exception.

Marjorie Wilson, that lovely 17 year old, brown hair and blue eyes doll who was selected as "Miss Lamb County" Tuesday confided to the Leader reporter after the contest that she wished some day to be a beauty parlor operator and have her own shop.

She will be senior in the Littlefield high school this fall, weighs 105 pounds and when asked how she was going to Sweetwater Saturday to enter the finals for the "Goddess of West Texas," she replied, "My boy friend is going to take me." She had several other offers but turned them all down. Ain't love grand?

both went to it with hammer and tongs.

When the smoke of the battle had cleared away it was found that Amherst had won 9 to 5. This game eliminated Muleshoe from the tournament so from then on they sat in the bleachers along with the Sudan team and watched the other boys frolic about over the ball diamond.

Monday Final Game
Amherst with a grand club, but destined to be the thorn in the side of the Littlefield team having eliminated Muleshoe was fresh and ready Monday for the final fracas of the tournament.

Fresh or not fresh they put up a hot game but went the "way of all flesh" by being defeated in the final game 14 to 4. According to the score book 20 hits were made during the game, but to the glee of Littlefield fans 20 of the hits came off the bats of the home club and only ten hits were allowed Amherst.

Littlefield was hotter than a little red wagon and six home runs were put in the book. Again Ratliff knocked two, and got himself three hits during the game; Burlison got one and three hits, Hanks got one and two hits, Eddie Miller also hit a home run and to climax things properly Pitcher Hall stepped up to the plate during the game and made a home run. Hall also scored two hits. Ball got three hits and Walker hampered out three hits during the afternoon.

Gregg, pitched three innings for Amherst. Slat Roberts took a try at pitching and lasted only two innings, and Harmon finished for Amherst the last four innings.

Littlefield made six home runs during the game. Besides that they marked themselves up eight one base hits that kept the Amherst boys in hot water all afternoon. Twenty hits is not bad hitting in Lamb county, and in fact its not bad any place. Come to think about it, its perfect in any league, big time, sand lot or what have you.

Great Tournament
About $600 was taken in at the gate during the tournament and everything went off like clock work. Much credit should go to the local committee who handled the affair and especially to the Littlefield club who kept the "bacon" at home. Meaning the $125 and the other money that their playing caused local sport fans to take from the teams Littlefield defeated.

Some of these days Littlefield may take it on the chin just like the other teams did and when they do we will, along with the Littlefield team, say just as nice things about them as we have been saying about the local boys. After all, all the teams can be classed as local teams as they are all close to Littlefield.

Cooling Air Will Now Be Ready For South Plains Fans

Muleshoe will come here Friday night and on the Littlefield Panthers in the first night baseball game ever to be played in the city of Littlefield.

This announcement was made yesterday by Captain Dick Ratliff of the Littlefield team, who said complete arrangements had been made for the lights to be turned on officially and for Muleshoe to appear as the opponent.

It is expected that the city fans along with the boys and girls who live out from town will turn out in droves, bringing the crowd to a new all-time peak in attendance at baseball games in this city.

Although Muleshoe did not fare so well in the recent baseball tournament held here last week-end it is reported they have added new talent to their squad and will present a stronger team than they did on July 4th.

South Plains nights are known for their cooling breezes and the excuse, "it's too hot to see a ball game," will no longer be in tune with the times. Night games should prove quite an attraction here and those who are behind baseball in Littlefield urge those who have not been attending the games to turn out and "try it" at night.

Littlefield has been going like a house afire in their afternoon games, but the lights may make them join the loss column. Local fans hope this will not be the case though.

Friday night's baseball game at 8:45 p. m. will tell the tale if the Littlefield Panthers are as good at night as they are in the day time when the sun is registering 100.

have a warm spot in their hearts for the local club. They have done a good job and will continue to do so. They bring business to the city and business is what makes the wheels go-round. When ever you hear of the local boys playing, go out to their games and support them. They will be glad to have you and you will enjoy the games.

Storey Writes From Washington 'Big Time' He Says

That correspondence writer Storey, boy scout son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. T. from Washington, where he is attending the Jamboree, is of interest to a number of our readers. He writes in a number of interesting articles for a person to see. Railroad plants closed by strikes, and other things. He says that you are all well and fine, I'm alright except that the gas from the engine are terrible. We expect to hit Washington about 4:15 p. m. June 26. This type-writer is so bum I'm going to long-hand my words. (From here on he wrote in long-hand).

"We crossed Oklahoma at night and had very good breakfast in Kansas City, Mo., I bought some Post Cards there with pictures on them. Then we travelled across the Missouri River, left Missouri and cut across Iowa. We got to Chicago at night and stayed there for about one hour. In Illinois we passed Streator, Ill. where the glass works are. We then passed through Indiana and Ohio at night. "This morning we saw several closed-sit down strikes. We just now

"A CAR CAN BE ENTERED GRACEFULLY," SAYS GRACIE BARRIE

"In spite of a lot of evidence to the contrary, it is possible to enter an automobile gracefully," says Gracie Barrie, featured singer of the Broadway production "The Show is On." Miss Barrie dropped into the new Broadway Hudson and Terraplane Showroom recently to inspect the display. It was during her inspection of one of the new Convertible Broughams that she discussed the possibility of entering a car without appearing in the least degree awkward. "I have seen so many people entering a car with labored and ungainly effort, that I made a study of the situation and believe I have discovered a very simple but effective rule," said Miss Barrie. "It is simply this—if you enter on the right side of the car, place your right foot on the running board, and if you enter the left side of the car, step up with your left foot. You then simply have to pivot about and you are in a position to sit down gracefully. I have noticed that all of the awkward efforts some people make in getting into automobiles is simply because they did not step up with the correct foot first." At the conclusion of this, Miss Barrie kindly consented to pose for the correct and incorrect manner of entering a car with the result shown herewith.

left Pittsburg. I saw a train incline. This train was going mighty slow too up a 45 degree angle (picture of the angle was drawn in the letter). I've seen factories galore. The train went through a tunnel about one half mile long and it was sure dark. "Now we are going sixty-five to seventy miles an hour if we are going an inch. I spoke of cinders above. I'm plenty dirty from them, practically everything open is dirty from them. I just saw some red hot ignots from a smelting furnace as we passed the factories which seem to be everywhere and not a bit we know about any of them. "Pittsburg must be a big town. We are still in the manufacturing district. I've seen steamboat after steamboat, the old fashioned kind. Were riding right on the edge of the Ohio River now. We have left Pittsburg and missed Maryland and West Virginia and about to come into Washington, D. C. I'll write later. Love to both you all. David Storey
On June 27th, David mailed a card to his parents as follows: Dear Mother and Daddy: We arrived here about 5 p. m. June 26th. I am having a good time. Have seen many, many places I have heard about. The Washington Monument and the Capitol are more than what they are made up to be. We are pretty close to the Potomac River and the Tidal basin. Love to you all. David Storey

AMENDMENTS TO FARM TENANCY BILL ARE URGED

Ownership For Greater Number Of Tenant Farmers Proposed

Washington, D. C.—Farm home ownership for a greater number of tenant farmers was the argument for amendments proposed by Congressman George Mahon to the Farm Tenancy Bill passed by the House of Representatives last week. His amendments would have made available $50,000,000 for the first year and $100,000,000 for the two years following to be loaned to farm home purchasers by the Farm Credit Administration under liberalized credit regulations. The Bill as passed by the House provides $10,000,000 for the first year, $25,000,000 for the second year, and $50, 000,000 for the third year to be lent to farm purchasers under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture. Mahon pointed out that the House Bill was so limited that only a very small beginning could be made in the great problem of assisting the estimated 2,865,000 farm tenants in financing farm homes but stated that he voted for the Bill after defeat of his amendments because he was anxious that some start be made.

The Senate passed a Farm Tenancy Bill last week providing appropriations similar to those of the House Bill but the Senate Bill provides that the Government shall buy land and sell it to tenants whereas the House Bill provides only for loans to tenants to purchase farm lands, the Government not making an outright purchase of the land. The two bills are now pending with a Conference Committee of the House and Senate.

DON'T LOSE YOUR PANTS SALE

of USED CARS

No Fool'in. We have had these cars on our lot for 30 days and we are tired of looking at them. Maybe we had them priced too high--maybe not. Anyway we are going to sell them at a loss and get rid of them.

We will sell on terms and might sell them lower but we doubt it.

The reason we call this "Don't Lose Your Pants Sale" is because sometimes you get mixed up in deals and lose your pants, shirt and everything! This is one Used Car Sale where you don't lose a thing. If anyone is going to lose "pants" it will be us. That's all right though—we have a barrel!

1 Here is a 1933 Chevrolet, 4-door sedan with new black paint, speedometer says 32,886 miles, but maybe that's 5,000 miles short. Good tires even if we do say so. A little tuning up is all it needs. This Jolopy will get you there and bring you back. Holds five people and a dog-gone good buy at—

$254.37

2 Ford V-8 Pick-Up Truck. The tires are not so hot. It's a 1933 model. Speedometer says 705 miles, but we know it isn't honest. Anyway the motor will "get the job done", so the looks and everything shouldn't matter to you. It's got a few dents in front but we think if some of you boys see it you will think it a heck of a good buy at—

$153.76

3 Another 1933 Chevrolet 4-door, five-passenger Sedan that's a "dilly." Clean inside, four tires with swell, elegant tread. New black paint job—trunk rack on rear end—46,316 miles on speedometer we think's honest. This crate only needs a little work on it and you will have a good car for the money—PRICE

$257.55

4 Here is a gray job with yellow wheels. It's a 1933 Ford V-8, five passenger Sedan with four doors. Nice upholstery—15,022 miles on speedometer that's about 2,568 miles low. It won't take much work on this baby to make it go places quick and easy. We think we have a real price on this when we say—

$249.98

5 Chevrolet Coupe of 1931 vintage, but a sober car. The back end has been made over and now it's a pick-up affair. Three tires are real good, but one is flat. 39,592 miles have seen this car. Good cab on this "ducky-wucky" auto. It's painted black and the glass is good. Runs and everything. Yours for only—

6 You can't lose your pants on this 1936 Ford Coach. Looks and runs like new. It's got a new 1937 V-8 motor and will knock off 80 miles per hour night or day. Speedometer says 22,691 and is honest. Inside exactly like new. Four excellent tires with long life. Here is a "baby" that will go places. Yours for—

never seen him in action like I have, Slim. I tell yuh, he's a holy terror. He ain't got those quiet, cold eyes for nothin'. Besides, yuh an me oughta come in handy ourselves." Dakota yawned and stretched. "Wish they'd get started," he grumbled. "I'm gettin' sleepy and cold."

Silence fell and endured unbroken for a long hour. Dakota's head had sunk upon his chest and he was snoring softly. Slim was having trouble in keeping awake himself. The let-down in nervous tension, after the long day of momentous happenings, found him weary. Several times his head began to nod, his eyelids growing heavy.

And then, like a thunderclap, a single report echoed down the street. Following it came a shrill, yammering, high-pitched yell. A pair of guns began a staccato rumbly, in such cadence that it was easy to tell that one man with a practised pair of hands was wielding them.

Thump-thump! Thump-thump! Thump-thump!

Slim and Dakota were on their feet in a bound, guns drawn, poised in the alley opening. The measured roll of those first reports was now shattered to bits by a ragged roar of other gunfire. Slim was shadowy figures darting about the bank in what appeared to be aimless confusion.

Then a stentorian yell echoed in a voice easily distinguishable as belonging to Sarg Brockwell. "Close in! Close in! There's only two of 'em. Close in, I tell yuh!"

By the answering massing of those shadowy figures, Slim got Stoney Sheard and Roy O'Brien located. They were beyond the bank in the corral of the livery stable. "C'mon," he snapped to Dakota. "They got Stoney an' Roy cornered."

Slim and Dakota went up the street at a run. With half the distance gone, Slim halted and began to shoot. Dakota stepped apart from him and followed suit. Someone in Brockwell's crowd yelled a warning. Immediately Slim and Dakota became the center of a lashing hail of lead. Dakota Blue grunted cursed and went down in a heap.

Behind Slim came a bawl of warning. "Get him inside! Get him inside, Slim. I'll help yuh."

The next moment, fat Spud Dillon, still encased in his white bartender's apron, was bending over Dakota, tugging at his shoulders.

"It's my right laig," snapped Dakota through set teeth. "Get me up, Spud, an' I can hobble inside. Give 'em hell, Slim, an' back up with us."

Quick to grasp the idea, Slim shot with smooth precision, backing up a step at a time. Just as his guns snapped empty, his shoulders struck the wall of a building. Then hands grabbed him, jerked him to one side and through an open doorway. The door jammed shut. He and Dakota were inside the Wild Horse Saloon. Old Joe Rooney was the man who had guided Slim to safety.

As Slim began hurriedly reloading his guns, Spud barked an order. "Get my ole double-barreled Greener, Joe, an' fasten yoreself to that front window. Spray those buzzards by the bank with buckshot. That's keep 'em shuffled up."

It did. With the initial bellow of the shotgun, Brockwell's crowd scattered wildly. Slim, edging in beside Rooney, snapped shot after shot at this one and that. He saw two of them go down. From the livery stable corral came a whoop of triumph and a sputter of words, thick with the brogue of old Ireland.

"Whurroo! Give it to the spalpeens! Away with 'em the robbin' murderin' devils. Smoke 'em out!"

Surprised and confused, the band of crowd were quick to realize that there was nothing to be gained by trying to fight matters out along this line. Any chance of looting the bank was entirely gone now.

In another minute or two, the entire town would be about their ears. The only thing to do was ride

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUL, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated. Cardul, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

LOCAL PUPILS QUALIFY FOR NYA PROJECT

Legion Hospital, County Fair Discussed At Tuesday's Meeting

The monthly luncheon meeting of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce Tuesday noon, presided over by Homer Hall, president, was well attended.

Unfortunately, the new Secretary-Manager of the booster group, Mr. Glenn Burgess, was absent, having been called out of town suddenly on account of illness.

F. O. Boles reported that this district had been tentatively allotted a quota of 16 girls and 22 boys to attend a six week work project course at North Texas Agricultural College at Arlington and at John Tarleton Agricultural college at Stephenville. He stated that of this number two local pupils have qualified, one a boy and other a girl, providing the cost of transportation and meals could be provided. Beginning July 15, the course will end August 31.

Mr. Boles stated that the project is planned for the benefit of youth who are genuinely interested in farming; that it is planned that young people assigned to the project will work a sufficient number of hours to earn a wage that will allow them to reimburse the college for their lodging, board, laundry and hospitalization, and to have about $5 a month for incidental expenses.

The Chamber of Commerce voted to furnish funds for transportation and meals for two pupils from this city, J. C. Thompson and Mary Will Henderson, who will take advantage of this NYA project.

J. S. Hilliard addressed the gathering on the need of a new hotel for Littlefield, and the benefits which the city would derive from such a project. He emphasized the fact that before outside capital would build a hotel it would be necessary that local citizens get behind the project and buy stock in same. Van Clark spoke on the possibility of Littlefield securing the proposed new veterans hospital, stating that this city is close to the geographical center of the area to be served.

Mr. Clark was instructed by the Chamber of Commerce to secure the data as to the necessary requirements of this city before the location of such a hospital would be considered, and to report back to the group.

Clyde Hilburn reported on the County Fair, stating that in order to secure WPA funds to assist in the erection of fair buildings that the county would have to sponsor the fair. Mr. Hilliard suggested that the fair committee secure further information relative to this and take it up with the commissioners at their next meeting.

Ernest Keeney, new bookkeeper and assistant manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber company said today he felt that local people were passing up a real opportunity for "money-making." When asked why he said this, he replied,

"Well I've only been here two weeks, but in that time I've had several people ask me where they could get a room, house or an apartment, and frankly I have had to just tell them I didn't know."

"I know when I arrived here I had quite a time finding a place and it seems to me that anyone who would build now would not have any trouble renting them for a good price. There is a house shortage in Littlefield."

Feathered Guns of Circle L by Perry Westbrook

SEVENTH INSTALMENT
OSIS: Slim Loyale is parson prison after serving 18 for a crime he did not com-returns to his Circle L.
father dead and sinister work, trying to make him his parole so that he can railroaded to prison.
Brockwells and their gang
ing to gain possession of
L ranch and the property
Hall, a neighbor and life-end of Slim Loyale.
discovers that Sheriff Star-joined the plot against him.

With the help of Dakota Blue and his cowboys, Slim Loyale defies the land-grabbers to do their worst.

Even Starbuck himself began to realize the futility of things. He also began to retreat slowly, throwing lead steadily at those mocking, fiery flashes. Dakota, singing him out, closed in. At ten paces, he shouted, "Starbuck, yuh crooked rat, this way. It's Blue who's callin' yuh." Starbuck twisted in his saddle, snarling, and flung two lightning shots. One drew a crimson brand across the side of Dakota's neck. The other socked heavily into one of the bucking rolls of Dakota's saddle.

Dakota let loose one careful shot. Starbuck gasped, his snarling curses cut short abruptly. He guns thudded to the dusty earth. He loaded both hands about the horn of his saddle, his shoulders hunched, his bitten face draining white.

He drove home the spurs, trying to ride past Dakota. But the first frenzied leap of his mount sent him swaying. Quite suddenly, he slithered head foremost from his saddle.

Instantly Dakota also swung to the ground, leaping apart from his bronco, crouching low. He knew that a hail of lead would be searching for him. In that he was right. The animal he had just left collapsed in its tracks, shot through the head. Dakota went flat on the ground, alert and waiting.

Lead whispered over and around him, one slug kicking his eyes full of dust. Still he held his fire, gambling that without Starbuck to lead them the remaining members of the posse would break and run for it.

In this he was also right. Realizing that their leader was down, the posse gave back faster and faster, then finally turned and thundered away into the night. For a time Steve Owens and Charley Quinn warned them on their way with the Winchester. But presently Slim's voice, calling out, stopped all shooting.

Slim came through the darkness warily. "Dakota, yuh all right?" he called.

"Sittin' petty, Slim," was the laconic answer. "They've all sloped. Bring the boys out, I've got Starbuck."

Slim exclaimed in surprise. "Leo Brockwell's back in the corral," he vouchsafed, as he came up. "Tisdale stopped a slug somewhere, but it can't be very bad; he's still cussin'." He raised his voice to a shout. "Hi, gang; come on over. They've pulled out."

Tisdale was the first to reach them. "Got a furrow from my wrist plumb to my elbow," he explained with profane punctuations. "She's bleedin' some, but I've got my neckerchief wound around it. It'll keep for time."

Steve, Charley and Oscar reported, unhurt, except that Oscar had had one boot heel shot off. He walked with a queer hitchy-hop that caused Steve to chuckle. "Ole step-an'-a half Oscar."

As Dakota scratched a match and bent over Starbuck, he was surprised to see that Starbuck's eyes were open. The sheriff groaned. "Lesten close," he whispered. "I'm done for an' I know it. Don't hold it agin yuh, Blue, yo're a pretty good man."

"Time was when I was a square-shooter myself. But the glitter of money an' a lot of slick talk made a sucker outa me. However, I am to get some of the dirt off my shriveled soul. I ain't got long, but I'll do my best."

"Loyale, yuh were railroaded on perjured evidence. Arthur—George Arthur, he's got all the dope. Get holt of him an' make him talk. He's a coward, an' he'll come clean. An' yuh better skin out to town. Sarg Brockwell an' some more of his crowd are aimin' to rob the bank tonight. Arthur's idee—to keep yuh from loanin' money to the Hall girl."

"Arthur an' Brockwell been runnin' this thing. Schemed to make a cleanup on them Big Bend herds. But they made a mess of things, an' got me into it. Leo Brockwell's the man who's been holdin' up the Vasco stage." His voice turned drowsy and plaintive. "I'm cold—cold as hell. Get me a blanket, somebody."

Steve Owens, subdued and a little awed, ran into the bunkhouse. But when he returned with a blanket, there was no need for it.

Slim Loyale made swift decision on the information Starbuck had given before he died. The bank hold-up did not exactly surprise Slim; for that matter, none of the information did. But it rendered his position all the more secure, to know that his conjectures had been right.

He had guessed that an attempt might be made to loot the bank. For that reason he had detailed Roy O'Brien and Stoney Sheard to guard it. But he knew the odds would now be greatly against them. They would need help, ferocious fighters though they were. So Slim turned to Dakota.

"Yuh an' me go to town, as quick as we can get there, Dakota," he snapped tensely. "Tisdale, yuh stay here an' let Oscar fix up that arm of yores. Steve an' Charley, get some lanterns an' clean up things around here. But keep yore guns handy. There's no tellin' but what that crowd, bein' desperate, might make another try. Grab a bronc, Dakota."

Dakota's own horse was dead, but he soon secured another, as there were several riderless ones stamping and snorting around in a fast, ground-eating gallop, he and Slim headed for town.

Slim knew human nature, and he knew that unless this full exoneration was made, there would always be some who would believe his in car certion had been legitimate. The only way to completely wipe out that stain against him was to get that confession from Arthur. Slim's face was grim as he considered it. He'd get what he wanted if he had to resort to Apache tricks to do it.

When Slim and Dakota reached Pinnacle, it was after midnight. The town seemed quiet enough. However, they took no chances, circling well around to one side and leaving their mounts ground-reined some two hundred yards away from the town limits. They went the rest of the way on foot, stealing in through the shadows carefully.

"Roy an' Stoney will be somewhere close to the bank", muttered Slim, "but by this time Brockwell an' his crowd are in town an' on the watch. Best thing we can do is just lay out quiet here in this alley and wait developments. What d'yuh think?"

Dakota grunted assent. So they squatted down, their backs against a friendly wall close to the mouth of the alley. From time to time Slim would stick a careful head around the corner and survey the street. The bank was some fifty yards away, on the opposite side Two doors from it was a Mexican cantina. The windows of the Mexican joint glowed yellow and there were quite a few broncos slouching at the hitching rail in front.

"Brockwell an' his gang are in that greaser joint," observed Slim softly. "I recognize that buckskin boss of Cinder Alton's. Hope Roy an' Stoney don't take any chances with Alton. That crooked little devil is poison with gun."

"I wouldn't do any worryin, about them two," answered Dakota. "They know Alton as well as we do. The first lead they throw will be haided his way. Wonder when they'll pull the job.?"

"Most any time now. The town is pretty dail, I reckon they're figgerin' on doin' it plenty quiet. They won't have an alibi in the world, should they get caught at it. Knowin this, Brockwell will play his cards careful."

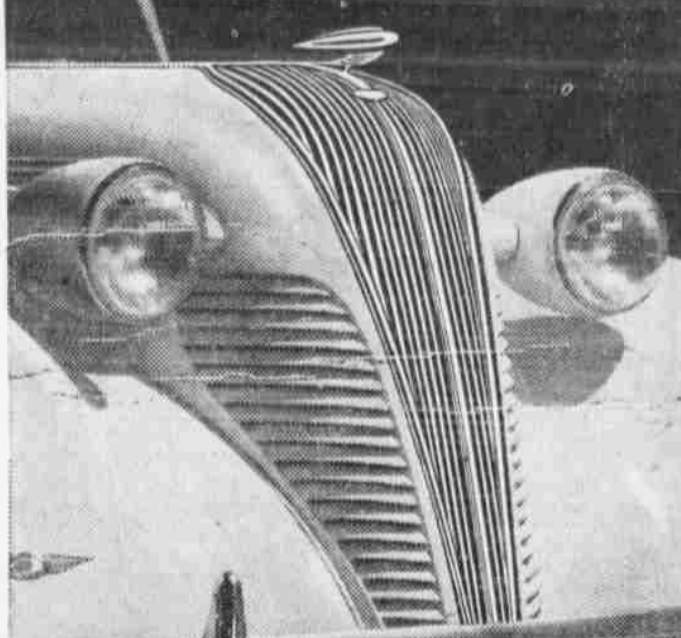

"Won't do him no good," chuckled Dakota. "He's gonna get caught. But somethin' tells me that he won't have no use for an alibi anyhow. Them things don't mean a dearn to a daid man."

"Yuh must expect Roy an' Stoney to sorta spread a lot of destruction," observed Slim.

"Roy's good, but Stoney is forked lightnin'," grunted Dakota. "Yuh've
