PAPER REFLECTS TOWN

It is recognized that a town may be rather accurately judged so far as its progressiveness is concerned by the way in which it supports its newspaper. In other words a creditable and prosperous looking newspaper may be safely taken as an indication of a live and enterprising community.

The reason is plain. A live town naturally demands a representative newspaper.

The weekly newspaper is the cornerstone of American journalism. No one has disputed that fact. Modern communities, large and small, grow and prosper in the wake of their newspapers. If their newspapers are prosperous, retail business prospers, and real estate appreciates in value.

BUSINESS CONFIDENCE IS STEADILY MOUNTING

Those who saw signs of the return of confidence in business some weeks ago are now rewarded by the general acceptance of what was at first only a strong wish.

Confidence is trickling down from all business and financial centers and the effects are already beginning to be felt in every community in the country.

Pneumonia Causes Death of Child

Pneumonia which was contracted after a cotton seed had been removed from 14-months-old Martha June Dilton's left lung caused the baby's death at 12:45 a. m. Tuesday at a Lubbock sanitarium. The child is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dilton of Enochs.

The child was brought to the sanitarium Friday, with a cotton seed lodged into the tube leading to her left lung. The seed was removed with bronchoscope and her condition was then regarded as favorable. Pneumonia, however, developed in the left lung. The seed became lodged in her lung last Thursday and until it was removed cut off all air from the lung.

Business Is Good In Littlefield

Littlefield and surrounding territory are in the midst of the cotton season. All gins of the city and district are operating 24 hours a day. Seventeen hundred bales per day are being handled by the Union Compress Co here. Between 25 and 40 carloads of cotton, cotton seed and grain are leaving Littlefield daily for Lubbock, where they are routed to the coast and to other parts of the country. An additional clerk has been added to the staff at the Littlefield depot of the Santa Fe. Littlefield stores are doing a large business, many of the stores reporting a much larger volume of business than in the same season last year. Virtually every concern in Littlefield is reporting a big improvement in the volume of business.

Drive for Red Cross Members Is Underway Here

The annual drive for membership in the American Red Cross was launched throughout the nation on Armistice Day, and will continue through Thanksgiving Day. This is the 50th anniversary of the American Red Cross. A Littlefield committee is at work obtaining members. J. W. Richards of Olton, chairman of the Red Cross in Lamb county, was in Littlefield Tuesday, and made arrangements for the local drive. He addressed a luncheon of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce.

Mexican Dinner Is Much Enjoyed

A Mexican dinner was served at the meeting of Littlefield Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, under the direction of Mrs. L. M. Touchon. The meal was much enjoyed, and the chamber passed a resolution of appreciation to Mrs. Touchon. Mexican plants, pottery and decorations were loaned for the occasion by Mrs. T. S. Sales.

CHARLES A. GUY IS SPEAKER AT ROTARY LUNCHEON HERE

Details of the structure of the Lubbock Loyalty council, together with some of the accomplishments of the organization in the short time that it has been in existence, were given by Charles A. Guy, publisher of the Avalanche-Journal newspapers, in a talk last Thursday before the Littlefield Rotary club. Mr. Guy is secretary of the council. Some consideration has been given to the establishing of a Loyalty council here. One of the leading objects of the council as contained in the pledge card and as outlined by Mr. Guy is "to loyally support, maintain and sustain the educational, financial and commercial institutions" of the city in which it operates. The pledge which is being used by Lubbock and which, no doubt, would be used here in the event that a Loyalty council is organized, reads as follows: (Continued on Last Page)

PRESIDENT HOOVER'S $500,000,000 CREDIT POOL

President Hoover's $500,000,000 credit pool will provide ready cash for banks unable to turn their assets quickly into currency. It will come to the rescue of banks unnecessarily closed, largely because of runs that never should have developed, and it will assist solvent banks which are faced with difficulties. The president's credit pool, subscribed by the banks of the country, is intended to improve the position of the banks by enabling them to rediscount securities ineligible for such action by the federal reserve system. Through the credit pool the banks will be enabled to obtain cash on paper heretofore unobtainable and classed as frozen assets. Does that mean anything to the banks—the life blood of every community? Does that mean anything to the patrons of the banks? Most certainly, yes! Greater strength is being given to the banks. And strong banks are a community's greatest asset. Has it ever occurred to you what President Hoover's credit pool will mean in improving the general economic condition of the country? DEPOSITORS ARE LIFE BLOOD OF BANKS And now we turn to the subject of the service which can be rendered to the banks and the community by the individual. The very life blood of a bank are its depositors. The banks must have money to loan if they are to exist; that is virtually their only source of revenue. True, local banks may be able to go into the money markets and borrow money to loan, but the mar- (Continued on Last Page)

Claud Carpenter Is Burned When Stove Explodes

Automobile Accidents Numerous in Long Series of Mishaps

The residence of R. N. Carpenter, six miles west of Littlefield, was destroyed by fire, and his son, Claud Carpenter, was seriously burned Saturday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, as a result of the explosion of a kerosene cooking stove.

Claud Carpenter was in the act of putting in new wicks, when the accident happened, throwing the fire over his face and body. He was brought to Dr. T. B. Duke's office for treatment. Most of the furniture in the residence was saved.

Littlefield's fire department rushed to the scene of the fire and succeeded in saving the garage and other outbuildings.

Last reports received were to the effect that Mr. Carpenter was getting along nicely.

Injured in Car Accident

When the car in which she was riding with a sister and friends Sunday evening overturned and went into the ditch, about six miles east and one-half miles north of Littlefield on the Olton Highway, Miss Jessis Henderson, who lives three miles northeast of Whitharral, suffered severe cuts and bruises. Norfleet Gillette and Mark Roberts, who happened along at the time of the accident, brought the injured girl and her companions to Littlefield and to Dr. J. T. Coen's office, and later to their respective homes.

Miss Henderson sustained a cut across her forehead. Twelve stitches were required to close the wound. The party had attended church at Cotton Center, and were returning home when the accident happened.

Knocked Down by Car

While walking across Phelps avenue Thursday afternoon, H. O. Carey of the Lum's Chapel community, was knocked down by a car and painfully injured. His head was cut and scratched, and one of his knees badly hurt. He was carried to Dr. Duke's office for treatment, and taken home by friends. According to the doctor he is doing nicely, but is likely to be confined to his bed for two weeks.

Child Injured

J. C. Moody, little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moody, had the misfortune to have the finger next to his small finger on the left hand badly cut while playing "war" with a little companion, Tom Gilbert, at the latter's home.

W. P. McDaniel, city marshal and L. E. Key carried the boy to Dr. Duke's office, where he was given medical attention.

Sustains Injured Finger

H. C. Sparkman, while loading a car of cotton, had the misfortune to get one of his fingers caught in the door, and badly mashed. It was hurt so badly that it was necessary to amputate the finger to the first joint.

Fractures Collar Bone

Bobby McCaskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McCaskill, had the misfortune to fracture his collar bone Sunday while playing football. Medical attention was promptly given the injured boy, and Monday he attended school. However, according to Mrs. McCaskill, his shoulder is very painful, and he has been confined to the house since.

Child Struck by Car

Jackie Dale Doss, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Doss, was knocked down by an automobile on Phelps avenue Tuesday about noon. She was attended by Dr. J. R. Coen, but was found to have not sustained injuries beyond a scratch on one of her legs.

City Commission, Firemen, Police In Campaign To Educate Motorists Against Thoughtlessly Impeding Firemen's Work

SHOULDER TO SHOULDER

(An Editorial)

We urge every reader of the Lamb County Leader to turn to page four of this issue of the Leader and read an advertisement entitled "Armistice," which was inserted by R. E. Riley of the R. E. Riley Tire Supply Co.

This suggestion is not made with the idea in mind of directing attention to the R. E. Riley Tire Supply Co., but is made because of the spirit which is expressed in the advertisement.

We felt better after we read the advertisement—it was a real tonic—a bright spot in our day's work—and we want you to read the advertisement.

Our personal future—the future of our city and nation are what we make them. But read the ad, then take a fresh start, with a new outlook on life and stand shoulder to shoulder like the boys did in France.

In conclusion, we have no hesitation in saying that men of the type of R. E. Riley are a real asset to Littlefield, the kind of men that we all may well be proud.

Efforts are underway in Littlefield to have motorists assist the work of the fire department by pulling to the curb when the firemen are making a run, by not parking automobiles in the center of a street, by not driving close behind the apparatus when a fire alarm is being answered, and by not driving their machines to the immediate vicinity of a fire.

An educational program on such matters is being carried out but the city commission, the police department and the firemen.

One step taken in maintaining a clear right-of-way for the firemen was the marking off of Phelps avenue, in order to designate where automobiles may be parked.

Head-in parking markers were

The Littlefield schools were re-opened Monday morning with an attendance of 800 pupils. The attendance will gradually increase as the harvest work on the farms nears completion.

Painted on the Phelps avenue pavement some time ago, and recently a line was painted on both sides of Phelps avenue, which designates the maximum distance out from either curb in which automobiles may be parked two deep on either side of Phelps avenue, and, at the same time leaves a sufficiently wide lane between the parked cars for two automobiles to pass or for the fire apparatus to pass through.

ADVERTISING MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Advertising by the individual merchants makes a great difference in the prosperity of a whole town and community. The business house which does not advertise, is not only losing a great opportunity to increase business of that particular business but is putting a brake on progress of the town. Newspaper advertising brings people to a town. The more merchants of that town who use this means the more people go to it to trade and do all their buying. A few business concerns cannot shoulder all the burden. In towns where they do, the trade is going to other towns where co-operation is better.

FAIR PROFITS ESSENTIAL

When cartoonists caricature politicians sitting in trees, naively sawing off the limbs that support them, we smile. Yet in hundreds of communities an equally precarious condition prevails among merchants. Their plight, being a matter of invoices and ledgers, is not so obvious as that of the lampooned politicians, yet identical. By selling goods at less than cost, they, too, slowly but certainly are destroying their means of support.

Competition the life blood of business? That is a time-seasoned slogan, but it does not tell the whole truth until it is rephrased to imply that the bone and sinew of business is a fair profit. Without an adequate wage both for labor and for capital, business is shaky, wobbly, and almost certain to go the way of Humpty Dumpty.—From "The Rotarian" Magazine.

RADIO NOW LINKS EUROPE

With trans-Atlantic broadcasts destined to become more popular with American radio fans, international significance is attached to the fact that England, among other European nations, is taking elaborate steps to develop groups of high-power transmitters that will facilitate intercontinental broadcasting.

"Nation shall speak unto nation" is the motto of the British Broadcasting corporation, and that slogan has been adopted in spirit, at least, throughout Europe, says Robert Garner, radio critic for the Manchester (England) Guardian, writing in the November Rotarian Magazine.

Huge transmitters have been or are being installed at strategic points to relay programs. Only eighteen months ago, international hook-ups were begun when Britain, Belgium and Germany were linked up for a concert. Then, in quick succession have come King George's speech at the London Naval conference, the treaty ratification proceedings in Washington, Tokio, and London, and, most recently, the broadcast from Wagner's theatre at Bayreuth, Germany.

Radio, it is pointed out, knows no political boundaries. And, as Mr. Garner puts it, "Friendship and the will to live amicably side by side is the keynote of Europe's international relationships in radio."

BETTER FARM PROSPECTS

The modicum of cheer which the Federal Reserve Bank of the Eleventh District extracts from the farm situation in the Southwest appears entirely justified. The bank says that the large production of all major crops this year, while it contributed to the oversupply which helped to force prices down, nevertheless has strengthened the farmer's position for next year, while the abundance of feed production has tended to multiply food animals and fowls on the farms. The result is certain to be better times on Southwestern farms next year, the bank believes.

The farm prospect in the Southwest lacks a great deal of being bleak. Low prices for the major crops this year have indeed impaired the farmer's ability to pay off debts and purchase additional articles, but this entry on the debit side of the ledger has been balanced, in some degree at least, by the greater economy in harvesting and marketing which was forced by low prices. Farmers this year hired less outside labor in the harvest than ever before, for the simple reason that the price to be had for the crop did not allow for hiring harvest labor. Accordingly, a greater part of the sale price of major crops remained on the farm. The habit of efficiency and self-sufficiency thus established may be expected to continue in measurable degree in succeeding years when prices are better. This is a distinct gain for agriculture.

Not the least of the favorable factors promising for agriculture's position next year is that created directly by the low prices of this year. Thousands of farm housewives, confronted at the beginning of the fruit and vegetable harvest season with the certainty that cotton and wheat prices would be low, turned to canning these products for the farm table. More stuff has been preserved for food on Texas farms this year than in any half-dozen years preceding. Not only fruits and vegetables, but meats of all kinds have been canned in community canneries, many of them established by co-operation of farm agencies, farmers and business men of the agricultural communities. The effect of all this is certain to be not only provision of food this winter for farm families, but a shaving down of the expenditures which farmers must make for support of their families while the next crops are coming to harvest.

What is likely to prove of even more permanent importance in improving the position of the Southwestern farmer is the greatly augmented production of feed crops. Abundance of feed demands livestock and poultry on the farm, and the lack of these long has loomed as one of the chief of things that are wrong with Southwestern agriculture. There will be more dairy cattle, more brood sows, more chickens and turkeys on Texas farms next year because of the large feed crops this year, and this is all to the good.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"A rotary drilling outfit, including boiler and piping, was unloaded in Muleshoe last Saturday for the Magnolia Oil Co., and hauled out to a point near Lazbuddie, where the company will put down an oil well test."

"The test well will be drilled one and a half miles east of Lazbuddie, or about 14 miles northeast of Muleshoe, and it is understood the com-

You needn't tell me — I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!

Never parched, never toasted CAMELS are FRESH in nature's own mild way!

EVERYONE knows now that Camels are the fresh cigarette.

If inquiry went deeper, it would reveal that Camels are the natural moisture cigarette.

That's important, because in handling fine tobaccos, when you process out natural moisture, you sacrifice freshness and flavor too.

Camel smokers needn't worry about that, because Camels are blended of fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that are never subjected to violent processing. They need no parching or toasting to make them smooth, palatable, cool.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack is such a boon to Camel smokers—it preserves the freshness, flavor, natural moisture, fragrance that are in this fine cigarette to start with.

Camels are fresh in nature's own mild way, and if you want to see what that means in unalloyed smoke-enjoyment, switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can!

General Littlefield Women At Texas Federation of Women's Clubs at Lubbock This Week

Littlefield is being well represented at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs which is being held in Lubbock from Monday until Thursday of this week.

Mrs. W. H. Gardner, president of the local Woman's Study club, is attending as a delegate from that club, while Miss Addie Mae Hepphill is representing the Junior Study club. Mrs. Duggan is assisting on the entertainment and hospitality committee during the session. She was accompanied to the convention by her house guest, Mrs. Christine Duford of Austin. Mrs. R. T. Badger and Mrs. F. G. Sadler are also attending the session.

A meeting of the board of directors, a luncheon, a tea and an evening program during which Lubbock extended greetings to the visitors, were Monday events.

All state officers with one exception, Mrs. E. E. Maloney of Commerce, were in attendance.

The tea, which was an outstanding feature, was given as a courtesy to officers and delegates of the convention.

Members of Federated Women's clubs of Lubbock were hostesses for the reception, which was held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul W. Horn on the campus of Texas Technological college. Approximately 400 guests called between four and six o'clock.

Mrs. John C. Cranberry greeted the callers and presented them to Mrs. Horn. Those in the line were Dr. Horn, officers in the Texas Federation of Women's clubs headed by Mrs. R. F. Lindsay, president; Mrs. J. L. Young, first vice-president; Mrs. John Perry, second vice-president; Miss Marion Mullins, treasurer; Mrs. W. B. Price, recording secretary and Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, appointed member of the executive board and Mrs. E. E. Maloney, corresponding secretary.

A proposal to carry out a unified highway beautification program between now and the Texas centennial celebration in 1936 was submitted Monday by Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy of McKinney. Other recommendations to come before the convention will include one to have club women use more cotton goods and one to support co-operative marketing, one to have a committee confer with a state board on tax revision and one to promote education among Texas people. These latter proposals came from Dr. Annie Webb Blanton of Austin.

Welcomes were extended to the delegates in the evening program by Mrs. J. T. Whitmore of Snyder, president of seventh district; J. J. Clements, mayor, and C. E. Maedgen, president of the chamber of commerce; Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Technological college, and by Mrs. William Dingus, chairman of the local entertainment committee. Mrs. Dingus presided.

Mrs. Paul Horton of Greenville and Mrs. Cecil Smith of Sherman made responses. The speaker of the evening, Hon. Marvin Jones of Amarillo, was introduced by Mrs. H. C. Pipkin of that city.

Tuesday a business luncheon was held at noon.

Reports from district presidents and delegates from highest scoring clubs took up most of the day. Past presidents and life members of the board were honored at a picnic dinner at 6 o'clock at the Hotel Lubbock, after which a fine program was given. Addresses were made by F. A. Kleinschmidt of Texas Technological college and Miss Rebecca W. Smith of the English faculty at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth.

Wednesday another business luncheon was held at noon, and in the evening the Lubbock chamber of commerce entertained with an old time chuck wagon feed. Real cowboys were on hand to assist in serving the "western chuck wagon grub." The evening program was under the direction of the American Citizenship department, celebrating the bi-centennial birth of George Washington with a massed chorus of patriotic songs, assembly songs and addresses.

Mrs. J. F. Lindsay of Mt. Pleasant, retiring president, was Wednesday nominated and elected Texas director to the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Only one candidate was named for each of the other offices. Balloting began at 4 p. m. Wednesday, and the balance of the officers will be installed Thursday.

Thursday, the final day, includes another business luncheon, and eliminating the entire convention will be the Texas dinner with "Texas Under Six Flags" featured in song and story in a pageant under the direction of Miss Ruth Pirtle, head of the speech arts department of the Texas Technological college.

A total of 294 artists from different parts of the United States are exhibiting pictures at the convention in competition for award of the $500 cash purchase prize contest conducted by the federation. The winning picture will be hung in the federation home at Austin.

NO CHANGE REPORTED

Luke's throat was cut from side to side and his windpipe severed when an automobile, which he cranked while it was in gear, jammed him against a fence.

South Has Second Largest Production of Cotton in History

The south is picking a cotton crop of 16,903,000 bales, an increase of 619,000 above the yield indicated a month ago.

The crop represents the second largest in history of cotton production. The 1925 harvest—17,977,000 bales alone exceeds the current production estimate.

The department attributed a large share of the increase shown in the November 1 report to the fact that in October allowance was made for greater than average potential loss of open cotton because at that time there was an unusual amount of open and unpicked cotton in the field. Favorable weather conditions, however, made field losses during October considerably less than average.

Up to November 1, there already had been ginned 12,129,546 running bales, counting 401,083 round bales as half bales and including 5,401 bales of American-Egyptian.

FORMAL OPENING OF NEW GROCERY WILL TAKE PLACE FRIDAY, SATURDAY

The formal opening of Littlefield's new grocery—the Piggy Wiggly—will take place this Friday and Saturday.

One feature of the opening of the new store will be the giving away of $100 worth of groceries.

The new Littlefield grocery, which will operate under a Piggy Wiggly franchise, has been established on Phelps avenue, in the building just south of the Stokes-Alexander Drug.

The business has been established by J. O. Garlington, for the past six months a resident of Fort Worth, but previous to that, a resident of Midland.

The new store occupies extensive space and is well stocked with groceries, fruits and vegetables.

Mr. Garlington has purchased the Piggy-Wiggly franchise for Lamb county from Davis and Humphries, Lubbock, but beyond operating under a Piggy-Wiggly franchise, the new store is strictly a local institu-

A nice addition to the business establishments of Littlefield is the gift section, which the Chisholm Studio have this week added to their present photo shop. In order to have sufficient room to carry out this plan, they were obliged to seek larger quarters, and changed their location Tuesday from the suite over Sadler's Drug store to 314 Phelps avenue, formerly occupied by the J. H. Cain Dry Goods company.

According to Mrs. J. E. Chisholm, manager of the studio, they will carry a complete line of gift goods, suitable for gifts for men, women and children, including luncheon sets, handkerchiefs, ties, fancy vases of all kinds, orange sets, cookie jars, and other fancy china and glass ware, handmade powder puffs, cushions, etc.

They have had tables constructed on which to display the merchandise, and expect to open their gift department Friday.

The Chisholm Studio turn out beautiful photographic work, which would be a credit to concerns much larger than the local studio. Miss Louise Chisholm has charge of the developing, and Miss Eva Gertrude takes care of the finishing, retouching, etc., and is an artist in this line.

REPRESENTATIVES OF SEED LOAN OFFICE TO VISIT LITTLEFIELD EACH SATURDAY

George M. Moore, with the department of agriculture, farmers seed loan office, St. Louis, will be in Littlefield to confer with government borrowers Saturday morning of each week. Those wishing to take up matters with Mr. Moore are asked to meet him at the Enochs Land Co. office. He will assist the farmers in any way he can in connection with seed loans.

DALLAS.—A seed loan pool to receive and handle seed loan cotton has been established as a result of arrangements by the farmers seed loan office with cooperatives, R. J. Murray, general manager of the Texas Cotton Cooperation association announced here.

Cotton placed in the pool will receive the government's eight cents a pound collateralization privilege and can be held in press for higher market levels under a plan similar in principle to the cooperatives' regular optional pool.

The regular arrangement supersedes the placing of seed loan cotton by borrowers in any but the special seed loan pool if delivered to the cooperatives. This change is expected to prove a distinct advantage to borrowers, Murray said.

Cooperatives also have been authorized to assist borrowers in determining the collateralization of their seed loan mortgages so that when it is accomplished the borrowers may draw full authorized advances.

Murray said the special seed loan pool had been created in the Texas association and that the organization had placed its full facilities at the disposal of seed loan borrowers in the liquidation of their mortgages and an opportunity to hold for higher cotton prices.

The Texas association's branch offices had been notified of the plan, Murray said.

H. D. Women of Lamb County to Make Rugs For Sanger Brothers

Included in the exhibit of canned goods are sweet pickled pears, carrots, raspberries, sweet cucumber pickles, pickled beets, lima beans, plums, cherries, etc.

According to Miss Mashburn, the home demonstration clubs of the state have a large order for rugs from Sanger Brothers, Dallas, sample of which is on display in the local drug store. The home demonstration women of Lamb county will make a number of rugs towards the Sanger order.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pass of Ralls moved to Littlefield last week, and are planning to stay here several months. They are located in the R. E. McCaskill duplex. They were accompanied here by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pass, who also plan to stay over the cotton season.

Local Unit American Legion Meet Monday

The members of the local unit of the American Legion met in regular session Monday evening in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

LAMB COUNTY 4-H CLUB BOYS WIN TRIPS TO CHICAGO

BRING NOTABLE HONOR TO THEMSELVES AND COUNTY

Lamb county 4-H club work stepped to the front for the past year, when Roy Simmons of the Spring Lake 4-H club, and Elmer Johnston of Sudan, won trips to the National 4-H Club congress during the International Livestock show to be held the latter part of this month, and the first week in December.

These boys won the trips in statewide competition among boys, and the honor is great for these boys to win in their respective places. The Santa Fe railroad gives 19 trips annually to outstanding boys in their territory, dividing them up among grain sorghum demonstrations, poultry, swine, beef cattle, etc. A county can win only one of these trips.

Armour and Company give a trip annually to the outstanding producer of baby beef among the 4-H clubs, and for the second time in three years Lamb county has had the distinction of a 4-H club boy winning this trip.

This is the second time that Lamb county boys have won these trips. They were won in 1929 by August Clark of Littlefield, and Forrest Weimhold of Sudan.

Roy Simmons won his trip by producing 60 bushels of grain sorghum to the acre. He grew hegari. Roy for the three past years has been consistently trying to turn in a good record with grain sorghum, but each year until this, drought, hail or some other pestilence overtook him. So this year, he made this outstanding yield, and besides turned in an interesting story telling how he produced this, and also, and the most important, that the producing of this yield with certified seed will cause 20 farmers in his vicinity to use better grain sorghum seeds. This boy is to be congratulated for being very persistent, and then winning this trip.

Elmer Johnston, of Sudan, won the Armour and Company trip in a field of entries from the entire state, in the production of baby beef. This boy last year fed out 15 calves under the direction of the county agent, and as a result of this, and putting in a mighty good story telling just exactly how he fed these what it meant to him, over the state. This is er trip to win, and this congratulated in a b bringing this coveted pr county.

Rev. Meador Attends N. W. T. Conference at Vernon this Week

Rev. Meador, pastor of the First Methodist church here, accompanied by Mrs. Meador, left Wednesday for Vernon, where he will attend the Northwest Texas Conference of the Southern Methodist church, which convenes Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, with Bishop H. A. Boaz, Houston, presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. Meador were accompanied to the conference by Rev. L. B. Smallwood, pastor of the Methodist church of Amherst, and Rev. A. V. Hendrix, pastor of the Methodist Church of Sudan, who met them here. Driving through Olton they were joined by Rev. J. T. Howell, Methodist pastor of that city.

Rev. Marvin Boyd, Mr. Meador's son-in-law, will also be in attendance.

In addition to Bishop Boaz, president, officers of the conference include: the Rev. C. C. Wright, Snyder, secretary; John W. Price, Petersburg, statistical secretary; John E. Eldridge, Tulla, treasurer; and the conference lay reader, Hugh S. Black, Childress.

To Make Reports

Presidents of the various conference boards who will make reports during conference week are the Revs. D. B. Doak, Plainview, board of missions; W. M. Pierce, Vernon, board of Christian Education; J. C. Mann, Knox City, board of Christian literature; Ben Hardy, Roscoe, board of church extension; W. P. Carvin, Amarillo, commission on budget; M. S. Leveridge, Baird, board of finance; Bishop Boaz, Houston, commission on benevolence; L. B. Smallwood, Amherst, board of temperance and social service; A. O. Hood, Margaret, Bible board; W. H. Terry, Panhandle, hospital board; E. L. Sisk, Tell, orphanage board; and H. L. Black, president board of lay activities.

The Rev. W. M. Pearce, pastor of the Vernon Methodist Church, and the Rev. R. A. Stewart, presiding elder of the Vernon district, are official hosts to the conference.

Bishop to Hold Conference

Prior to the opening Thursday of the conference, Bishop Boaz will confer with members of his cabinet, composed of presiding elders of the nine districts, as follows: the Revs. E. E. White, Abilene; L. N. Lipscomb, Amarillo; W. M. Murrell, Clarendon; C. A. Bickley, Lubbock; Ed R. Wallace, Perryton; M. M. Beavers, Plainview; G. S. Glover, Stamford; O. P. Clark, Sweetwater; and R. A. Stewart, Vernon.

Of this number three are slated for a new appointment, since they have reached the four-year limit prescribed for presiding elders by Methodist law.

Outside of purely conference matters, a question of major importance at the approaching session will be of take a vote upon a proposed judicial council. This is a constitutional measure enacted by the last general conference, which must be ratified by the annual conference before it becomes a law of the church. Its purpose is to create a body to settle controversial questions and matters which now come under the judicial function of the College of Bishops and the Committee of Appeals.

Reading of appointments of preachers to their charges for the ensuing year will be the main feature Sunday, the closing day of the conference.

Twelve Reasons Why Home-Town Folks Should Trade With The Home-Town Merchant

1. If a city is worth living in it's worth trading in. Money spent away from home never returns to make your home town prosperous.

2. Trade at home. Money spent away from home does not pay our home laborer or teachers salaries. Taxes have to be increased to make up this loss.

3. Are you helping your home town? The wealth of its citizens is the capital of a city. Its prosperity depends upon its business. Trading at home is good business.

4. The business men and merchants are counted upon to keep the town in a progressive condition. Help them by trading with them. A town cannot be better or bigger than its business and professional interests.

5. It's the solid worth of home-spent money and good words that will make our city bigger and better in every way.

6. Your children will not live in a "dead" town. Home spent money keeps the town growing and the children frm moving away.

7. It is the money spent in your town that gives your property greater value and protects it.

8. Your town depends upon the money spent in it by its citizens for its growth and prosperity. For a prosperous city—trade at home.

9. Who wants to live in a "dead" town? The merchants and professional men are the life of your city. Trade with them and help keep the town alive.

10. The size of your taxation depends on the wealth of your community. Increase this wealth and reduce taxation by trading at home.

11. You like to live in a prosperous town. Prosperity, like charity, begins at home. Every dollar spent out of town is a check on your town's prosperity. Trade at home.

12. Dollars spent at home return to the spender in the form of better police protection, better fire protection, better schools and better churches.

Up to Wednesday of last week the three gins had ginned 4,850 bales to date, Whiteside Gin 1,570, Terry's Gin 1,500 and Farmers' Gin 1,780. The gins are all running day and night crews.

Whaley Feed Mills received ten cars of cattle to be placed in their feed pens last week.

Many cattle are now in the feed lots, and many more will be placed on feed in this territory. Reports received give the number to be fed out this winter at about 7,000 head.

MULESHOE

Nearly $9,000 in school taxes of the various districts in Bailey county were paid into the office of Collector H. Sterling during the month of October, and turned over to County Superintendent J. E. Adams for disbursement.

Recently the members of the Mulehoe Methodist church shipped a 25-ton car of maize heads to the Methodist Orphanage at Waco, according to Rev. W. B. Hicks, pastor.

Miss Margaret Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Roach, and Wm. Collins were married Saturday evening, October 31, at the Methodist Parsonage at Clovis, N. M., Rev. Campbell officiating.

URGE TEACHERS BE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND STATE TEACHERS' MEETING AT AMARILLO, NOV. 26-28, ON FULL PAY

A resolution has been passed by the County school board of Lamb county, urging a large attendance of teachers from this county at the State Teachers' convention in Amarillo, November 26, 27, and 28.

The resolution recommends and advises that the superintendents and school boards allow those teachers who attend full time pay, and also help arrange for their transportation. The resolution is as follows:

Whereas: the State Teachers association meets in Amarillo, November 26, 27, 28, 1931, and since it is the first time the convention has been held in this section of the state, it would be almost a tragedy if the teachers of this part of the state should not profit by the educational inspiration that would come from attending the meeting. We realize that hundreds of our teachers are suffering from the depression, and yet we know that in many respects the greatest inspirations come to us and the greatest accomplishments are made in periods like this.

Whereas: the teachers of the Panhandle-Plains area are hosts and gin between the interest paid on borrowed money to loan and the interest received by the banks from the individual borrower is so small as to make it impossible for the banks to make sufficient loans to carry on as a modern banking institution, performing great numbers of services for which there is no financial return.

Then, too, you are not helping your neighbor to get an extension of his loan, if he finds such a step necessary, or to borrow money, if you are not supporting your local banks by depositing funds. There is a limit to how much banks can borrow for reloaning purposes—and the money borrowed by the banks must be paid back, just the same as the individual must repay his loan.

Hoarding money in ways that take it completely out of circulation, when it should be working for the owner, for others, and for the community, is the surest way in the world to retard the quick return to normal business conditions—the kind of times that we would all like to see.

Working money brings success and happiness to all; hoarded money is dormant money.

Business confidence is steadily mounting—right here in Littlefield as it is in every part of the nation.

CHARLES A. GUY—

Lubbock Loyalty Council

Believing it is time for constructive forces to take a stand for the maintenance and support of Lubbock and its institutions, to combat destructive forces of fear, doubt and lack of confidence abroad in the land; and that this can only be accomplished by uniting the efforts of the manpower of Lubbock banded together for this common purpose, we hereby outline and subscribe to the following principles in forming the Lubbock

Loyalty Council:

1. Loyally support, maintain and sustain the educational, financial and commercial institutions of Lubbock.

2. To foster an aggressive community interest in the welfare and enterprise of Lubbock's citizens, individually and collectively.

Pledge

To further these ends and believing that the above principles will maintain Lubbock against destructive forces, I hereby pledge by every effort to bring honor, rather than dishonor, upon my city; to uphold, and not tear down its ideals, objects, traditions and institutions; and to try, by every word and deed, to quicken the public sense of civic duty, so that I may help to leave to posterity a better city than I found upon entering.

Mr. Guy said that the Loyalty council was the result of the spontaneous idea of about 50 Lubbock men that there was need for such an organization in the interests of Lubbock and its residents.

The Lubbock Chamber of Commerce appointed 12 men and that group elected a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary. These 12 men constitute the board of directors. The organization has been developed by adding a small number at a time to the personnel until today it is a large, well organized institution composed of men who understand thoroughly its ideals and objects and who are enthusiastic to serve at whatever task may be assigned them.

Mr. Guy said that the Loyalty club is responsible for a greater spirit of optimism existing in Lubbock as to the future of Lubbock institutions of every kind, and particularly the business life of the city.

Mr. Guy, who is a Rotarian and a member of the Lubbock Rotary club, addressed the local club at the invitation of Wm. J. Harris, who had charge of the program for last Thursday's luncheon.
