FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

On Friday evening, December 23, the Church will sponsor a Christmas program and tree. Santa has sent word that unless Provisionally hindered he will be present with a bag of candy, nuts, and fruit, for each child present. We extend an invitation to any boy or girl not enrolled in Sunday School elsewhere to attend the program. The program will start about 7:30.

Sunday, December 25, will be a challenge to each of us to leave our homes and gifts and attend services. Let everyone find his way to the Lord's House and especially on this Day that we hold as the time of His Birth.

Text for the morning worship hour, "Behold, a Greater Than Solomon Is Here." Matt. 12:42. "Student Night" will be observed at the evening hour. Our College students will have charge of the service.

Littlefield H. D. Club Has Christmas Party At Miller Home

The Littlefield Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Berl Miller Tuesday, December 13, for a short business meeting, and Christmas party. A buffet luncheon was served.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the house. A beautiful lace covered table was centered with Santa on a reflector and white candles surrounded by Mistletoe. Guests were served at foursome tables. Miniature sugar plum trees were plate favors.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Ruth Perry, H. D. Agent, was pleasantly surprised with a handkerchief shower by the club members.

A closing feature was the presentation of a gift to each member of the club by the president, Mrs. J. L. Massengill.

Those present were Mesdames Ruth Evans, Perry, Massengill, Don Bruce, Jee Dow, T. M. Dorman, Berl Johnson, Dewey Hulse, M. J. Wilson, W. K. Bagwell, B. D. Birklebach, Ellis Bradley, a visitor, Mrs. Geo. Birklebach, and the hostess, Mrs. Miller.

Littlefield To Be Saluted By Texas State Network

Littlefield, Texas, will be saluted by the Texas State Network on Wednesday, December 21, through KPYO, Lubbock, from 11 to 11:10 a. m.

The salute will come in the form of a program titled "Home Town Revue," featuring Olive Wise Floyd, TSN staff organist.

Information about Littlefield was furnished the Texas State Network by the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. O. Littlefield Hotel and their son, Kendall Omas, and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Omas, will spend Christmas on their parental roof.

Wallace Gives Cotton Acreage Forecast Thursday

Secretary Wallace estimated the new year's cotton allotment Thursday at 27,500,000 acres, according to an Associated Press report.

His annual report thus contained a flat rejection to the demand of some cotton belt congressmen that surplus removal be undertaken through drastic reduction of acreage permitted under the 1939 control program.

About Same as 1938
This acreage allotment was approximately the same as that planted to cotton during the 1938 season.

Wallace's report said the current season's cotton marketing would return a smaller total income to growers than in recent

Dismal Outlook For Loyd Chapman In China At Christmas

Wonder if Santa Claus will even visit in China this year!

That is the statement made by Mr. and Mrs. Dee Chapman, whose son, Loyd, is in the United States Marines, and stationed in Shanghai, China.

The approaching Christmas season holds brighter prospects for his parents, than that of Loyd. In a letter received last week by Mrs. Chapman, he was telling her not to send a package to him, as it would probably be lost in the mail. Last year his mother and a sister sent packages that did not reach him. He sent a beautiful Christmas card, with "Though Distance is far between us," and "I'd like to be home for Christmas."

Loyd has been stationed in China almost a year, and he will probably return to the States in February. He has seen the bombardment of part of the city of Shanghai, but has not been in any of the battles with the Japanese, as he is with the marines who are looking after the interests of the United States.

In the letter he wrote, that one dollar of American money would equal $6.20 in Chinese money.

During the invasion of the Japanese army in China last summer, several of the American ships were turned back into foreign waters, before they reached the United States, and Mrs. Chapman waited three long months without hearing from her son. She usually receives a letter about the 20th of each month.

Program Presented By Homemakers Club At Spade

The Spade Future Homemakers Club met December 9th in the Home Economics room. The president called the meeting to order and a program was presented by members of the class.

The program was on "Getting Ready for Christmas." Doris Kendrick demonstrated methods of wrapping gifts in several different ways and the decoration that should go on a package; and also how to make that decoration.

Edith Allen showed the membership illustrations and suggestions of gifts for different ages.

The church elected a program years.

The domestic production of 12,212,000 bales, he said, was not better than the 1937 output but was large enough to hike the total world supply of American cotton to 25,700,000 bales.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting no sleep, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

DOAN'S PILLS

and a decoration committee to plan a program and decorate the Home Economics room for a Christmas program. They are as follows: Program Committee: Gladys Fowler, and Edith Allen; Decoration Committee: Marie Lynch, Doris Kendrick and Alma Allen.

The tree is decorated with blue and silver ornaments. A small red bell hangs on the topmost branch.

Another interesting arrangement in our laboratory is a grouping of two silver and blue candleholders and a spray of silver holy leaves.

The spray of leaves was made of heavy silver wrapping paper. The leaves were fastened together with pliable copper wire. The veins on the leaves were made by pressing the desired outline on the back of the leaf with a blunt pencil. The holy berries were made of red beads.

Blue and silver decorations throughout the room carry out the Christmas theme.

Miss Bowers is the sponsor of the club.

Annual Christmas Party Enjoyed By Eastern Stars Friday Evening

One of the most delightful affairs of the holiday season was the annual Christmas party enjoyed by members of the local unit of the Eastern Star and their guests Friday evening.

The Christmas decorations, and a number of the program featuring the greeting "Merry Christmas" featured by a drill with each member carrying a letter to the manager.

Christmas carols were sung by the group, which was followed by a reading by Miss Linda Beth, violin solo by little Miss Wray Hopping, and special numbers by a quartette of children, including Charles Joplin, Linda Hays, Tommy Jean Matthews, Joan Price.

Following the program, which was in charge of Mrs. J. D. Dodgen, distribution of gifts took place. An old-fashioned Christmas dinner was served by Mrs. R. M. Dubose, Chairman, assisted by Mrs. Price and Mrs. W. J. Aldridge. Refreshments were served with Christmas ribbon served.

Refreshments, following exchange of gifts, and were presented to all present.

Responsible for the refreshments were: Mrs. Pat. Boone, Chairman; and Mesdames F. O. Boles, J. R. Coen, J. O. Connell, S. J. Farquhar, L. R. Crockett, J. D. Dodgen, Pryor Hammons, Morley B. Drake, L. C. Griasom, J. W. Hopping, and E. B. Hewitt.

At the close of the evening's enjoyment a committee, consisting of Mrs. Henry Banks, Mrs. J. D. Dodgen and Mrs. Maude Street, carried the white gifts to the Salvation Army building to be given to the needy.

Present at the Christmas party were: Mrs. W. J. Aldridge and niece, a guest in the Aldridge home; Mrs. Pat Boone, Mrs. Henry Banks and two children, John Cook and Buddy; Mrs. J. R. Coen and two children, Bobbie and Mary Jane; Mrs. M. M. Dubose, Mrs. L. C. Griasom and son, "Sunny"; and Mesdames S. J. Farquhar, Jesse Seale, E. B. Hewitt, J. O. Connell, Pearl Cassel, R. E. McCaskill, W. G. Street, W. D. T. Storey, Miss Lula Hubbard, Mrs. Arbie Joplin and children, Marjorie Claire, Charles and Michael; Mrs. John Price and children; Mrs. L. R. Sewell and little son; Mrs. J. D. Dodgen and son, Jackie; Mrs. J. W. Hopping and children; Mrs. T. L. Matthews and three children, Minnie Jean, Linda and Tommy Jean; Mrs. Maud Street and son, John T.; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stagers, Mrs. J. G. Singer and son, Neal, Linda Beth and Malcolm Stokes, and two guests, Betty Jordan and Janith Hewitt.

Faithful Members Enjoy Christmas Party Thursday

Members of the Faithful Workers Class of the First Baptist Sunday school were guests of Mrs. Clinton Griffin at the Griffin home Thursday, when a covered dish luncheon and Christmas party was enjoyed by the group.

Christmas decorations prevailed throughout the home.

Following a delicious chicken luncheon, gifts were exchanged and distributed from the beautiful Christmas tree to about thirty members and guests.

Junior Study Club Has Christmas Party Friday Night

Yuletide furnished the theme for the annual Christmas party for the members of the Junior Study Club, at the home of Miss Laura Virginia Bills Friday night, when Miss Bills and Miss Doris Schein were co-hostesses.

As the members arrived, they were given bags of chips which they used for money during the evening's entertainment. Groups played rummy, casino, Chinese checkers, and other enjoyable games, before an auction sale was held. David Schein was the auctioneer, and the young ladies purchased toys and trinkets for huge sums of money. Refreshments were purchased this unique way, and sandwiches, hot chocolate, cookies, and salad were served. Gifts were exchanged that had been placed on the Christmas tree.

Those attending this delightful affair were Misses Eloise Hanes, Lois Kirkpatrick, Mildred McKinnon, Johnnie Pace, Ruth Matthews, Velma Cook, Maxine Cash, Mildred Wharton, Thelma Killough, Erna Douglass, Louise Jacobsen, Myrtle Woodfin, and Gladys Jones, and Mrs. Marie Howell and Mrs. Patti Hobbs, and the hostesses, Miss Bills and Schein.

"Bad Taste" Party For Bookkeeping Class At Biles Home

Unique in detail was the "Bad Taste" party given for members of the Bookkeeping Class of the Littlefield high school, Friday night at the home of Miss Roberta Biles.

The students and their instructor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frazier, were admitted at the back door, given soup and cheese and crackers to eat on the floor without spoons. Their wraps were placed in a corner on the floor.

Chinese Checkers and fiddlesticks was the evening's amusement, and a fortune teller predicted the romances and grades those present will make in 1939.

Apples and Christmas candy were enjoyed as the group sat on the floor, and gifts and toys were exchanged.

Those who attended were Louise Whitaker, LoVelle Smith, Iva Dell Barton, Geraldine Ratliff, Ansel Wharton, Damon Strickland, Johnny Lippard, Clayton Beckner, and Leroy Bales. Erse Cawthon, Sunshine Burleson, and Ben Lyman, Jr., were guests.

Mrs. Dennis Jones Hostess At Dinner Party Friday Night

Mrs. Dennis Jones was hostess Friday evening to members of the Dinner Club, at a delightful Christmas party.

The home was beautiful with Yuletide decorations, and the real spirit prevailed.

Following the dinner gifts were exchanged from the Christmas tree, and three tables of bridge were enjoyed.

Miss Freddis Adkins And A. E. Hammonds To Wed Christmas Morning

The marriage of Miss Freddis Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Fred Adkins of Lubbock, and A. E. Hammonds, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hammonds of San Antonio, will take place Christmas morning at the First Methodist Church in Lubbock. Dr. L. N. Lipscomb will read a single ring ceremony. The wedding ring will be the one worn by the bride's mother.

The vows will be exchanged before an arrangement of greenery and baskets of flowers.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruth Mildred Rylander will sing "Always," accompanied by Miss Louise Hodges at the organ, who will also play the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, who will be escorted to the altar by her father, will wear royal blue chiffon velvet with contrasting accessories, and will carry an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds. She will wear a brooch, owned by her grandmother.

Miss Hazel Shore will be the bride's only attendant and she will wear wine crepe with black accessories.

The groom's brother, Elmo Hammonds of San Antonio, will be the groom's only attendant.

After a reception at the Adkins home, the couple will leave for a brief wedding trip, and will make their home, after the first of the year in San Marcos, where Mr. Hammonds is advertising manager for a Cotton Breeder's concern.

Miss Adkins, who has been employed in Littlefield as home supervisor by the Farm Security Administration since August, is a graduate of Texas Technological College in Lubbock. She was instructor in the Home Making Department of the Big Spring high school, prior to the time she came to Littlefield.

A large number of friends and relatives will attend the wedding, including about twenty-five friends from Littlefield.

High in the games.

Those enjoying this social affair were: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Garlington, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Etter, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Brittain, and Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of Lubbock.

Difficult Numbers Played By Band Thursday Night

A very interesting program was rendered by the Littlefield High school band Thursday night at the high school auditorium. Several numbers from Moreno the Magician were given. Proceeds of the program went to the Band Mothers Organization to help pay for the band instruments.

The numbers played by the members of the band were quite difficult, and Morgan Layfield, director, stated that the students rendered an unusually good program, which included:

1. March—Loyalty.
2. Largo—Handel.
3. Humoresque.
4. Selection from "Carmen"—Bizet—Directed by Charles Heathman.
5. Moreno the Magician
6. American Crusade—Brockton.
7. Bercsue from "Jecelyn"—Gardard.
7. Variety numbers.

Junior Dept Of Presbyterian Church Plan Christmas Party

The Junior Department of the Presbyterian Church will stage its annual Christmas Party and tree in the church basement Saturday evening, December 24.

The program will be under the direction of Miss Lula Hubbard, Superintendent of the Junior Department.

Carol Of Yuletide

The child doth quiet lay,
His heart a-beating quick,
For dawn bring Christmas day
With gifts from old St. Nick

VERSE

O little child! O little child!
What dreams are yours to-night?
With heart so full and mien
so mild
'Tis wished to stop Time's flight

The child doth quiet lay,
A fearful little boy,
Lest goblins steal away
His dreams of Christmas joy.

Our Sincerest Greetings. Texas-New Mexico Utilities Co.

The Snooper Writes To Santa Claus

Littlefield, Texas
December 19, 1938
Dearest Santa Claus:

A large number of people in Littlefield, as I trekked up and down Phelps avenue, have asked me to write to you for them, and tell you what they want. They knew I wouldn't be writing for myself this year, as I really haven't been a very good little girl. . . . But Santa, please don't forget to put a new pair of gloves in my stocking as it hangs near the stove at my sister's home in Amarillo. . . . And for Hazel Shore, please bring a small bottle of Yankee Clover perfume. . . . Mrs. Ira Woods wants a new living room suite, but she knows she won't get one, so "Just anything will do."

You haven't disappointed them in years gone by, have you? Mrs. C. E. Cooper says, please Santa, to send her some new curtains for her living room. . . . Mr. Von Lankin wants a new Packard, and Mrs. Von Lankin says that since he wants that, she needn't want anything. . . . J. M. Gordon wants a new suit and an overcoat. . . . and while you're taking down suits to bring to Littlefield, Frank Bartley wants a new one, too. Roy Heard wants a Chevrolet coupe. . . . Mrs. G. W. Falls wants bathroom fixtures in her home, but guess she'll get a bedroom suite. . . . Ralph Gray said he preferred a target rifle with a telescope sight. . . . Dennis Jones would like snow from now until January 1. You've already been to see Mr.

Flynn and Mrs. George Vaughn. Mrs. Flynn has a new Parker fountain pen, and Mrs. Vaughn has a beautiful new bedroom suite. . . . C. R. Rodgers is among those who is looking forward to your bringing a new suit. . . . all Troy Davis would say he wanted was a wagon. (Whether he means a red one or one with an engine, you'd have to decide) Morcas Layfield would like for you to reimburse him for those new tires he gave his car for a Christmas gift. Mrs. Bill Valle, with tears in her eyes, says, "Please Margie, tell Santa to bring me a new dictionary. She works crossword puzzles, you know. . . . Floyd Hemphill told me that he would like a red tie, to offset his red complexion. . . . Ruby Kingery is looking forward to finding a beautiful new bracelet in her stocking Christmas morn. . . . Volos Jones said "Overalls."

CHEER, AND DON'T FORGET THE APPLES, ORANGES AND NUTS. As for this office, a clean towel will be in order, and a new typewriter that can spell correctly will be welcomed. That's all, I guess, Santa— And I Love You, Margie

SUSPENDER FROCK

Pattern 8340 is a practical fashion, for school or business, because several blouses, plus one suspender skirt, provide an easy and inexpensive way to have many workaday changes. The blouse has an appealing little round collar; the skirt has a nice flare to it.
Besides plaid wool, this suspender will be smart in velveteen, flanel or jersey.

Pattern No. 8340 is designed for sizes: 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 2 1-4 yards of 39 inch material for the blouse with long sleeves; 1 7-8 yards for short-sleeved blouse; 1 7-8 yards of 54 inch material for the skirt.

Pattern 8332—If you're slim, and want your figure to look its prettiest, make yourself this charming, youthful princess design.

Cashmere, challis, jersey, velveteen and flat crepe are good fabrie choices.

Pattern No. 8332 is designed for sizes: 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size
14, with long sleeves, requires 3 1-8 yards of 54 inch material; with short sleeves, 2 7-8 yards. 1 yard of ribbon for follar.

WPA Project To Build Caliche Road North Of Sudan

County Commissioner Paul Lewis has Precinct Two WPA's project to build a caliche road through the Sand Hills north of Sudan well underway with all of his machinery and available WPA labor working full time.

Construction started on the north end of the road which connects with State Highway 28. The turns have all been eliminated, the hills flattened out, and the road widened on the north side of the Sand Hills.

Mr. Lewis plans to bring his heavy equipment to the south side and begin work on the grade and drainage on in to Sudan in a few weeks as soon as additional right-of-way can be secured.

When this WPA project is com-

MRS. R. E. FOUST DIES AS RESULT HEART TROUBLE

Funeral Services Saturday Afternoon At Meth- odist Church

Mrs. R. E. Foust, 69, passed away at 1:30 o'clock at a local hospital Thursday afternoon, following a week's illness as a result of a heart attack.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church by Rev. M. B. Norwood, pastor, who was assisted by Rev. T. L. Kimmel, of the Church of Christ, and Rev. Howard Hollowell, Methodist pastor of Ackerley, nephew of Mrs. Foust.

Interment was in the Littlefield Cemetery, with Hammons Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Foust was born September 27, 1869, in Lafayette county, Mississippi. She became a member of the Methodist church in August, 1891, in a revival meeting near Georgetown, held by Dr. H. A. Boaz. As Miss Rosie Lee Hollowell, she was married to Robert E. Foust at Georgetown, Texas, February 15, 1891, and to this union were born nine children, two of whom died in infancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Foust came to Littlefield in the fall of 1921, and have watched the steady growth and been a part of one of the best towns on the South Plains. They have been active in civic affairs, and the many friends of the family extend sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Foust is survived by seven children: Mrs. Vera Erwin, and Eldridge, Ellis, Ralph and Charles Foust, all of Littlefield, Fred Foust, who is in the United States Navy, Mrs. W. H. Collins of Seagraves, and Mrs. P. A. Vest of Blackwell; seventeen grandchildren, one brother, William F. Hollowell of Sweetwater, one half-brother, Julius M. Hollowell of Kermit, and one half sister, Mrs. Letha Isaac of San Gabriel, Texas; and a number of nieces and nephews, all of whom were present for the final rites.

Pall bearers for the final services were Bill Yeary, Pat Boone, W. G. Street, Bill Taylor, Troy Davis, Roy Gilbert, and Perry Alexander.

Honorary Pall bearers were J. W. Arnn, J. M. Blessing, John Kling, W. G. Street, J. C. Hilbun, Jess Elms and E. C. Logan.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. W. T. TEAL 2 P. M. SATURDAY

Passes Away Thursday Night As Result Of Paralytic Stroke

Funeral services for Mrs. W. T. Teal, 76, were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, by Rev. M. B. Norwood, pastor.

Burial was in the Littlefield Cemetery, under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home.

Paralysis Fatal

Mrs. Teal passed away at a local hospital Thursday night at 10:30, after suffering an attack of paralysis on Monday, December 5. She and Mr. Teal were at their home, two miles south of Littlefield, when she fell in her bedroom where Mr. Teal found her a few moments later. She was taken immediately to the Payne-Shotwell hospital and given medical attention, where she was in a coma for several days. A week before her death she revived enough to know her husband and children, but after a short time, she drifted back into a coma, and did not regain consciousness.

Born In Hayes County

As Miss Luella Privett she was born in Hayes County, Texas, January 30, 1862. On July 21, 1880 she was married to William T. Teal, near Stephenville, Erath county. To this union were born eleven children, four of whom preceded their mother in death.

Joins Church In Youth

As a girl, Mrs. Teal was converted and united with the Methodist Church, in which she had been a faithful member through the years. Mr. and Mrs. Teal and their family moved to the Plains in 1921, and have lived in Lamb County for the past five years, where they have many friends who mourn her passing.

In addition to her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, seven children: Mrs. Carl Arnold and Miss Jewell Teal of Littlefield, Luther Teal of Gladewater, Ernest and Albert Teal of Iowa Park, Mrs. A. M. Lovelace of Shreveport, La., and Mrs. Earl Lane of Levelland. Fifteen grandchildren and a host of friends also survive.

Pall bearers for the funeral were: W. G. Street, Pat Boone, Lon Smith, Albert Anderson, D. Bryan and P. O. Smith of Whiteface.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Murphy are planning on spending Christmas Day with Mrs. Murphy's parents. Mrs. Murphy will go Friday, and her husband will join her Saturday.

Snow In Panhandle

Snow is reported in the Panhandle, with sleet and rain generally over the South Plains. The northwest corner of the Texas Panhandle and the Oklahoma Panhandle, known as the "dust bowl," received from four to seven inches of snowfall, and other sections got from a half inch upward. Texline reported a seven-inch fall, Dalhart five inches, while Stratford and Boise City, Okla., received slightly less. Tucuman and Clayton, N. M., each reported about four inches.

An inch of snow fell between Clovis, N. M., and Hereford, Texas, while about a half inch fell from Canyon to Pampa. A similar fall was reported from Amarillo north on the Boise City line of the Santa Fe railway.

Yuletide Spirit—

made of cotton, that looks like snow at night, when the spotlight is thrown on them.

Windows are lighted with trees, and electric candles, and doorways with wreaths and holly have helped spread the spirit of the season all over the city.

Citizens of our town are doing the pleasant things, getting ready for visitors, or planning to go to Mothers' homes. Christmas candy and cookies are filling the pantries, fruit cakes have been made, and turkeys are being ordered. Then there are Christmas parties to attend, and of course no one will forget to send a basket of food and clothing and good cheer to the many needy families of our town. Practically all business houses have been doing interesting, and have taken on the mas spirit as reflected in the decorations. Christmas lights been turned on for several and Littlefield has prepared one of the most impressive days that has been celebrated many years.
