New Electric Line Will Bring Additional Voltage To City

Construction of a new utility line between Levelland and Littlefield is now completed, and the change from a 23,000 volt line to a 66,000 line will be made, H. R. Shelby, manager of the Southwestern Public Service Company, announced today.

Construction of this line, with the thought in mind to render better service to Littlefield and territory, Mr. Shelby stated. With this additional voltage coming into Littlefield, this will be a constant voltage point, and trouble during electrical storms should be eliminated, he said. ## Farmers Urged To Vote At Elections Nov. 13-14

Every farmer in Texas should consider it a patriotic duty to participate in the election of county committee members who administer the AAA program during the coming year, according to Secretary F. Bain, Secretary, Lamb County ACA. Farmers will meet in community meetings Friday, November 13, to elect county committee members and delegates to a county convention. The convention, meeting Saturday, November 14, will elect county committee members for the coming year. The committee members next year, more than ever before, will play a vital role in American agriculture," Bain declared. "More and more important jobs are being handled by committee members—jobs which are of great importance to the nation's wartime living. Those jobs require that the men doing them be capable of doing them properly." Bain urges every farmer to attend the meeting in his community, and cast his vote. Heretofore, the county has been divided into seven communities with three community committees elected from each community. This year the procedure has been changed and... (Continued on Back Page)

Gasoline Rationing Program Explained At Meeting Monday

District Official Gives Instructions To Number Present

Stresses Importance Of Car Owners To List Accurate Serial Numbers

A meeting was held at the office of the Lamb County Rationing Board in the City Hall Monday night, when members of the County Board, service station men, and school superintendents were present, to receive instructions in connection with preparations for gasoline mileage rationing.

E. C. Cundiff, Clerk of County Rationing Board, presided.

Mr. McFall of Lubbock, district supervisor for the gasoline rationing program for this area, attended the meeting, which opened at 7:30 o'clock, and explained all phases of the gasoline rationing program to service station men, county rationing board members and school superintendents from the various cities in the county. About 35 were in attendance.

Mr. McFall explained that everyone had to get rid of excess tires over and above five tires for their passenger car before registering, explaining that car owners should get application blanks from service stations and fill them out before going to register for gasoline rationing card.

Mother Of Earth Flier Given Distinguished Cross

Col. Thomas L. Gilbert, commanding officer of the Lubbock Army Flying school, Tuesday morning pinned the Distinguished Flying Cross on Mrs. Robert P. Hite of Earth for the service of her son, Lieut. Robert Lowell Hite, reported missing after the bombing of Tokyo by U. S. Army Air Force bombers in April of this year.

Col. Gilbert presented the award on behalf of the War Department, at the graduation exercises held at the school for class 42-J of flight lieutenants Tuesday morning.

News of American airmen missing after the raid on Tokyo on April 18, was recently given to the world by the Japanese radio.

Lieut. Hite was one of eight U. S. fliers now unaccounted for, the War Department said.

Considerable speculation has been made by various citizens in the United States, as to the reasons why revelation of details of the Doolittle mission were withheld from the general public, until six months after the historic raid on Japan.

Columnists have recited in prominent newspapers the facts reported by the government that the raid on Tokyo was a complete success, was misleading to the general public, and according to these writers, the truth was kept from mothers and fathers of the participants until "Tokyo solved the mystery" by reporting names of prisoners being held after the raid.

It is true the facts were kept from the public, for the government officials felt that it would endanger national security.

But—the truth was not kept from parents of the flyers who are reported missing... as Mrs. Hite at Earth received notice from the War Department last May that Lieut. Hite was reported missing after the raid just as soon as the government knew the facts. She was also instructed not to tell anyone she had received such notice. Mrs. Hite is a true American! She did not tell her family, nor her closest friends until the public announcement was made.

Hitler Takes Over France

Associated Press reported late Wednesday night that the French fleet had joined the British and American forces somewhere off Corsica, after Adolf Hitler broke his armistice with France.

German troops invaded the former unoccupied zone in France, speeding his grey-clad columns south toward Toulon and Marseille, and launched parachutists and airborne infantry into French Tunisia.

The Mediterranean took its grim place as the great new front of the war.

Reports from Vichy said Marshal Petain, the aged chief of state, declared the armistice no longer in effect (which could return undefended France to a technical state of war with the Axis), and that he would make no move to interfere with whatever resistance the French should put up.

A dispatch from London stated that the Allied occupation of French northwest Africa was near completion late Wednesday, with the French commander at Casablanca for an armistice, but German borne troops and warplanes were reported to have landed in Tunisia, the buffer protectorate between Algeria and Libya.

Volunteers Must Produce Statement Of Classification

This Entitles Them To Be Accepted By Navy, Marines Or Coast Guard

Selective Service registrants desiring to enlist in the Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard must first obtain a statement from their local board certifying that they are "not now classified in class II-A, II-B, or III-B, nor entitled to such classification by reason of being a necessary man engaged in dairy, livestock or poultry farm production," according to a memorandum issued today by the State Director of Selective Service to all local boards.

Lt. Commander J. P. Crowder, Navy Liaison Officer for the Texas Selective Service System, pointed out that heretofore a registrant desiring to enlist in the Navy did not need a release from his local board to do so if he was classified as I-A, or was an officer candidate or aviation cadet.

"He is not now required to obtain a release from his local board, but must furnish the statement of classification which entitles him to be accepted by the Navy up until the time of his actual induction," Commander Crowder stated.

Cotton Referendum Called For Dec. 12

Cotton farmers all over the South go to the polls Saturday, December 12, to vote on cotton marketing quotas.

Cotton marketing quotas have been in effect for the past five years, the growers voting each year to use quotas as a means of insuring each grower his fair share of the available market for cotton, George Slaughter, chairman, Texas AAA committee, pointed out in announcing the referendum date.

Last December 89.4 per cent of the Texas growers voting favored quotas on the 1942 crop, while 93.9 per cent of the growers voting over the nation favored quotas.

Slaughter indicated that because of wartime conditions, the number of ballot boxes for this year's referendum would be considerably larger... (Continued on Back Page)

Local Schools To Resume Monday

Littlefield schools will be resumed Monday after a three weeks' holiday season for the purpose of permitting the students to assist in the gathering of the cotton crop.

"The schools will re-open with a full staff of teachers," stated Supt. F. A. Hemphill.

"Contrary to rumors about town, there have been no faculty resignations to date during the holiday session."

Total Of $82.00 Derived From Poppy Sale Saturday

The Poppy sale as usual in Littlefield went over big. One thousand poppies were ordered, but only 750 arrived, and these soon sold, according to Mrs. Neal Douglas, chairman of the drive, who was assisted by Mrs. Tom Matthews, Mrs. J. R. Coen, Mrs. J. T. Street, Miss Erna Douglas, Mrs. Warren Rutledge, and Misses Ernestine Short and Marjorie Clair Joplin.

A total of $82 was received from the poppy sale drive, a portion of which will go to ex-service men of World War I, who made the poppies at Veteran Hospitals, and the balance will be used to assist families of service men in the present world war, who may be found to be in need.

Registration To Take Place Nov. 19, 20, 21

All Surplus Tires To Be Turned In To The Express Co. By Nov. 22

A telegram received by C. O. Griffin, county chairman of the War Price and Rationing Board, Tuesday afternoon, stating that registration for gasoline rationing would be postponed to November 19, 20 and 21, and "effective date of gasoline rationing will be postponed," was followed Tuesday night by the announcement from Washington by the Office of Price Administration of the postponement of nationwide rationing of gasoline from Nov. 22 to Dec. 1.

The telegram, sent by Mark McGee, State Director of the Office of Price Administration, read as follows:

"Registration for gasoline rationing postponed to November 19, 20 and 21. Effective date of gasoline rationing will be postponed. You will be advised later of actual effective date. All surplus passenger tires, however, must be turned in by Nov. 22."

Reasons for the postponement were "unavoidable delays" in the distribution of coupon books and other necessary forms.

OPA declared the deferment was due principally to war-time congestion of the transportation system, which it said made it impossible to keep delivery schedules in all parts of the country on the more than 330,000,000 printed pieces needed to place the program in effect.

For commercial vehicles, local war price and rationing boards will reduce by 20 per cent the gallonage allowed by the Office of Defense Transportation for the 40 day period from Nov. 22 to Dec. 31, because of the shortening of the time... (Continued on Back Page)

Registration Date Postponed; Called For Nov. 19, 20, 21

Motorists Must Have Serial Numbers Of Tires, Car Registration Card

Registration for gasoline rationing, which was scheduled to take place November 12, 13 and 14, at the various schools of the county, has been postponed until Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 19, 20 and 21.

Motorists are reminded that they must take along their application forms, filled out, listing serial numbers of their tires, and also take their car registration cards.

Registration will take place at the following school houses: Littlefield, Sudan, Olton, Spring Lake, Fieldton, Spade, Amherst and Hart Camp.

The application forms are now available at service stations, garages and other conveniently located places throughout Lamb county, and should be picked up at once by any owner of a passenger car who does not already have one.

MORE LIBERAL GAS RATIONING FOR TEXAS

Thank You, Governor!

Texas will receive more B and C gasoline rationing cards in proportion to population than smaller states, according to an executive of the Office of Price Administration.

This statement was made following a conference with Governor Coke Stevenson.

The government executive said that Texans "were too apprehensive over driving restrictions under the rationing program" and announced that he had "made some representations to federal officials" to secure larger gasoline allotments for Texas motorists.

When nation-wide gasoline rationing was announced, Governor Stevenson took immediate steps to present Texas' situation to the federal authorities. This was followed by the cooperation of a number of groups.

Distances it is required to travel for most all services are greater in Texas than in most of the other states. Large numbers of communities and sections of Texas are not on a railroad and depend entirely on automobiles and trucks. And greater distances are necessary in the transportation of farm products to the markets. All these facts, and many more, were presented to the federal authorities. And the facts having been intelligently presented, the federal government appears to have recognized Texas' need. The position taken by the federal government in recognizing Texas' need for more liberal gasoline rationing will have some effect on the decisions of local rationing boards in passing on applications for B and C cards.

In Governor Stevenson Texas has a chief executive who understands the needs of the state and he doesn't hesitate to express his views and to take whatever action he considers advisable.

Americans Get More Meat

Two and a half pounds a week, permitted each adult under U. S. Government's program of voluntary meat sharing, makes American diet relatively a feast. Compared to our 40 ounces, shares of our friends and foes overseas range from England's 31 downward to Italy's 6 and captive Belgium's maximum of 4.9.

Gap between American meat diet and British is widened further by the fact that unrestricted liver, kidneys, and similar products are plentiful in U. S., scarce in Britain where little meat is slaughtered.

U. S. Will produce record 24 billion pounds of the restricted meats (beef, veal, pork, mutton, and lamb, exclusive of such "delicacy" parts as livers, kidneys, feet, tails) in 1942-43 marketing season. Some 6 1-2 billion pounds must go to Army, Navy, and our allies.

Civilians' expected share of 17 1-2 billion pounds actually is greater than 1931-40 average, short only of the 21 billion pounds civilians would buy now with their increased income. Without control, some would get a great deal, others none. Until formal rationing can be organized, Americans must cooperate.

There will be a half cent more tax on cigarettes and cigars. But if half a cent more were added to some varieties, it would be hard to take.

Pennies Come Out Of Hiding, Pleads U. S.

The United States mint, seeking to conserve vital war metal, has curtailed production of 1-cent pieces by 50 per cent in recent months, according to a report made to Secretary Morgenthau October 13.

However, demand for coins, arising from the high level of business, continues at an unprecedented rate, seriously threatening this conservation program.

Production of pennies in September was 59 million pieces, a moderate rise over August, but only about half the production level of the early summer.

Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross, director of the mint, renewed her plea that all coins, but especially 1-cent pieces, now "hiding" in children's banks and other receptacles be returned to circulation. She pointed out that if each of an estimated 33 million American families should discover and return to use just 10 1-cent pieces, and these should stay in circulation, the Nation's supply would be increased by an amount equal to one-third of the record 1941 production of the coin. More than 1000 tons of copper might be saved thus for manufacturers, she said.

Coffee Rationing

Somebody is always taking the joy out of life.

Here's sad news for those who have stocked up on coffee in anticipation of rationing, which goes into effect at midnight, November 28.

W. M. Clark, president of the Texas Retail Grocers association, is authority for the statement that purchasers who stock up on coffee will be sorry later because ground coffee doesn't keep well and the home coffee grinder has practically disappeared from the market.

"In pioneer days, when our sires went to market sometimes twice a year, they bought their coffee in the green berry," Clark said. "It was roasted in small quantities in the kitchen oven and then ground as needed," he reminisced, "but modern merchandising has scrapped all the machinery for operating under this plan.

"We no longer stock the green berry. Our customers have been educated to watch dates of roasting as they buy and to have their coffee ground, pound by pound, as it comes from the store shelves. And that's the only way we plan to sell it under rationing."

Those of us who have been accustomed to our coffee . . . and plenty of it . . . may feel a little let down . . . a little jittery under short rations of our favorite brew . . . but we'll live through it . . . and it is our opinion that some of that deteriorated coffee that Mr. Clark talks about will taste exceedingly palatable . . . if we have any coffee.

A man registered for the draft in Montana told his board he'd never been kissed and didn't intend to be. Maybe the army wouldn't want a fellow like that, with no experience and no ambition.

Water may be drunk without being boiled, Raton, New Mexico, announces. But you can't be drunk without being stewed.

'Idle' Tires Rolling To Government Warehouse

The big green trucks of the Railway Express Agency are rolling in toward 23,000 reception points with the first of the "idle" tires which the Office of Price Administration hopes to add to the national rubber reserve under the Idle Tire Purchase Plan.

Railway Express has schooled 50,000 employees in the details of collecting the tires but they emphasize that none of them is equipped to answer the most frequently asked question: "What are my tires worth?" There are thousands of sizes, brands, and grades of new casings and the proper value can be determined only by recourse to a voluminous trade register. For used tires, OPA has established the following table of ceiling prices from which the appraisers will work:

Tire Size	TREAD DEPTH MEASURED AT SHALLOWEST POINT
	7-32" or more	Less than 7-32", more than 3-32"	3-32" or less	Smooth tread
7.00 x 15	$10.90	$8.90	$5.95	$4.55
5.50 x 16	7.25	5.90	3.95	3.20
6.00 x 16	8.10	6.65	4.45	3.50
6.25 x 16	9.15	7.45	5.00	4.00
6.50 x 16	9.85	8.05	5.35	4.00
7.00 x 16	11.15	9.15	6.10	4.55
7.50 x 16	14.15	11.60	7.75	5.25
5.25-5.50 x 17	7.45	6.10	4.05	3.20
5.25 x 18	6.80	5.55	3.70	3.20
4.75 x 19	6.10	4.95	3.30	3.20

If tires obviously are not usable, the Government wants them turned over to scrap dealers.

TRUCK, BUS OPERATORS TO OBTAIN CERTIFICATES BEFORE MILEAGE RATIONS

Operators of trucks, buses and taxis must have their certificates of war necessity before applying to the local war price and rationing board for their mileage rations, the County War Price and Rationing Board announced this week.

The certificates of war necessity, issued by the Office of Defense Transportation, form the basis for our issuance of transport rations to these commercial vehicles. When applicants come to the board they must bring with them these certificates, together with properly executed applications for a mileage ration, it was announced.

Each war necessity certificate states the number of miles the vehicles for which the certificate is issued will be allowed to travel during a three-month period. The certificate also states the number of gallons of gasoline needed to cover this mileage.

The rationing board will determine the amount of transport rations to be issued for the vehicle on the basis of the mileage allowed in the certificate. In no case is the board permitted to allow more gasoline than is stipulated in the certificate.

The "T" book will be tailored to the allowable mileage by tearing out coupons.

GREAT CHANGES in automobiles are certain after the war. What will they be?

Will your post-war car be teardrop in shape? ... Will it have sealed plastic windows to preserve air-conditioned interior temperature? ... Have "shiftless" transmission? ... Longer-lasting synthetic rubber tires? ... A smaller engine using higher octane gasoline to deliver greatly increased horsepower per pound of weight?

The answer to the first of these questions is still uncertain. But to the two final queries, synthetic tires and engine power, Phillips Petroleum Company can suggest affirmative replies.

Phillips is prepared for the coming great improvements in personal transportation, because long before Pearl Harbor, Phillips scientists were engaged in never-ending study, research, experiment, exploring the limitless possibilities of petroleum chemistry.

Slowly but surely, there emerged new processes, new products, new benefits. Even before the war, much of this purposeful knowledge was channeled into the national defense effort. Now, all of it has been "enlisted" for the duration.

Phillips vast resources of raw materials and Phillips knowledge have made the company one of the largest suppliers of 100 octane aviation gasoline to the Army Air Corps, the Navy, and the United Nations' air forces; have made the company an important participant in the U. S. synthetic rubber program.

As a user of Phillips 66 Poly Gas and Phillips 66 Motor Oil, you surely share with us the pride that comes of knowing that Phillips is doing its part in the Nation's victory effort.

After more intensive checks in basic training planes, they will move up gradually to the heavier ships that are flown in the advanced stages of their course.

Here they will master the controls of tricky fighting planes, drop practice bombs from swift dive-bombers, follow charted courses in long-range observation scout planes and patrol surrounding waters in massive Catalina flying boats.

After successfully completing the long course designed to fit them for duty with the fleet, the cadets will be awarded their wings and commissions in the U. S. Naval or U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

"Bringing Christ To Soldiers" Is Task Of American Churches

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8. (Special)—Speaking before a packed audience at the Municipal Auditorium in St. Louis Sunday, Doctor Walter A. Maier denounced the levity with which swing bands play "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" before irreverent crowds in American night clubs and asserted that "Bringing Christ to the Soldiers" is the supreme task before the American churches today.

He cited recent word from Washington that "the government needs more than 1200 additional chaplains before the end of the year" and expressed his regret that the American doughboy has been criticized as an addict of cursing and that no reference was made to his religion in a recent sketch of the American soldier drawn by a high army official. The radio speaker pointed out that outstanding military leaders and strategists have often been humble, confessing Christians.

Citing the promise of "no more war" made after the 1918 armistice, Doctor Maier urged American Christians on Armistice Day to pray "for the triumph of our cause, for a righteous peace and for the rededication of our country to Christ."

He urged American homes and churches to help maintain the Christian morale of the fighting men by making Christian broadcasts available to the men in arms.

The Lutheran Hour may be heard every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock over the Amarillo station, KPDA.

Fire Destroys Home Of Mr., Mrs. John Wood

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, four miles southeast of Littlefield, just south of the Lubbock highway, about 6 o'clock Wednesday morning.

It is believed the fire started in the attic, but the cause is unknown. Mexicans, who are gathering Mr. Wood's crop and staying near the home, were called to assist in removing household effects from the house, but only several mattresses, the divan, a few dishes, sewing machine and their best clothing were saved.

The house, known as the "old Hamilton place," was built "story and a half" style, and Mrs. Wood had many cans and jars of fruits and vegetables stored upstairs. They were unable to save any of the canned goods from the fire.

Their daughter, Miss Helen Allsup, who is a teacher in the Maple school, has been at home since school turned out for cotton picking, and much of her clothing and other personal effects were destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood plan to move to the house on their other farm, located several miles southwest of where they have been living.

Members of the Baptist Missionary Union and the local Order of the Eastern Star will stage a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Wood Monday afternoon at the Baptist Church.

Record War Bond Sales Is Goal Of Women At War Week Nov. 22

WASHINGTON, D. C.—America's women in the cities and on the farms—in war factories and in their homes—are determined to make Women At War Week the greatest War Bond selling effort since Pearl Harbor.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt sounded the keynote for the Treasury Department's Women At War Week, Nov. 22 to 28, with an appeal to women to save on "little things" to provide money for War Bonds.

"We women want to work hard, we want to be a part of this strenuous period because unless we are, we will not be able to face the men when they return and claim our share of the future responsibility for building a peaceful world," the First Lady declared.

The overall direction of Women At War Week rests with the Women's Section of the War Savings Staff under the leadership of Miss Harriet Elliott, Associate Field Director, and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Chief of the Special Activities Unit.

From coast to coast women in every community have made plans for torchlight parades, fashion shows, teas, rallies, store window displays, Stamp and Bond booths, pageants, civic sings, balls and mardi gras. In each locality administration of the one week drive rests with the local War Savings Committee which has worked out activities adapted to their areas.

Mrs. Morgenthau, in a special message for Women At War Week, declared that the spirit of America's pioneer women lives today more strongly than ever.

"The average American woman began to rise to new heights on Sunday, Dec. 7, 1941," Mrs. Morgenthau said. "This winter the average American woman will be spending less in order to save more to invest in War Bonds and Stamps. She will not, please God, ever have to fire a gun or fly a bomber. But she will, please God, always do everything she can to help buy anything—and the best of everything—that fires or flies or floats in this terrible war."

During Women At War Week volunteer War Bond sales women will wear an armband similar to the one being attached to the sleeve of Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., by Miss Harriet Elliott.

WOMEN AT WAR—Overalls, wrenches and drills replace fineries as these war workers in an Army Arsenal march to tank repair shops. Note the determination on their faces. These women are typical of hundreds of thousands who are working in war factories and investing part of their earnings in War Bonds.

Mrs. Roosevelt (left) says women help men at front by buying War Bonds. At right is the lapel tag which volunteers will wear during Women At War Week, Nov. 22 to 28.

Patrons Urged To Mail Christmas Packages Early

Largest Volume Of Christmas Mail Is Slated For This Year

The Post Office Department now is starting the most gigantic task in its history, Postmaster W. D. T. Storey announced—the movement of a deluge of Christmas parcels, cards and letters while maintaining the regular flow of millions of pieces of mail daily to and from the armed forces all over the world.

Indications are that the volume of Christmas mail will be the largest on record, Mr. Storey said. Already in September, latest month for which figures are available, retail sales had reached a level, second only to the record month of December, 1941, according to the Department of Commerce, and sales are rising. Such heavy purchase always presage heavy mailings.

"If thousands of our soldiers, sailors, Marines and civilian friends are not to be disappointed at Christmas time, the public must cooperate by mailing earlier than ever before, and by addressing letters and parcels properly," Mr. Storey continued. The best efforts of the Post Office Department alone cannot be enough, in view of wartime difficulties faced by the postal system. The public must assist.

About 25,000 experienced postal workers have already been taken by the war services. Arrangements

Thirty-one Degrees Coldest For Week

The temperatures for the past week, according to West Texas Gas Company reports, were: Thursday, 38 degrees low and 60 high; Friday 38 low and 53 high; Saturday 50 low and 72 high; Sunday 59 low and 73 high; Monday 55 low and 69 high; Tuesday, 31 low and 55 high.

The temperature fell below freeze-are under way to add thousands of temporary personnel to the postal staffs, but this man power is hard to find and is inexperienced. Facilities of railroads and airlines are heavily taxed by movements of huge quantities of war materials and personnel. Extra trucks are almost impossible to obtain. Winter weather, hampering transportation, is beginning.

The free-mailing privilege granted to members of the armed forces has raised their mailings some 30 per cent, it is estimated. Expansion of those forces also is adding rapidly to the postal burden.

The deadline already is past for mailing gifts to army and navy personnel overseas with assurance that the gifts will arrive by Christmas. The New York post office reports that in late October, 350,000 such parcels were handled daily in that office alone.

The Post Office Department is making strenuous efforts to avoid such a terrific jam as it faced in 1918 under similar conditions, during the first World War. It can succeed in those efforts—and avoid many heartaches for its patrons—if the public will cooperate by mailing early.

Club Girls Collect Scrap Rubber For Seven Battleships

Texas 4-H Club girls have collected enough scrap rubber for seven battleships, 72 28-ton tanks, with a tire for a bomber thrown in, Onah Jacks, state girls' club agent of the A. and M. College Extension Service, announced in a radio broadcast which opened National 4-H Achievement Week on November 7.

In addition, 4-H members salvaged enough steel for 738 light tanks and enough waste paper to make more than 391,000 cartons for aircraft shells. "With bonds and stamps you've bought, Uncle Sam can buy more than 700 machine guns with 10 rounds of ammunition each," Miss Jacks said in her radio talk addressed to nearly 38,000 club girls.

W. H. Crosby, Early Pioneer, Returns To Littlefield

W. H. Crosby, one of this section's early pioneers, returned to Littlefield Saturday, and took over his new duties at the Walker Feed & Grain Monday morning.

Mr. Crosby, since 1919, has lived within 140 miles from here. At the time he was employed on the Yellow House Switch, Mr. Crosby said there were from ten to twelve thousand head of cattle fed out, and he had about six cowboys working under him.

He remarked to a Leader reporter that it was seven or eight years since he had been in Littlefield, and that he noticed a great change in this city, that it had built up

"The Talk Of The Town" Comes To Palace With Cary Grant, Jean Arthur, Ronald Coleman

Cary Grant, Jean Arthur and Ronald Coleman are starred in Columbia's exciting new romantic comedy, "The Talk of the Town," which opens at the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, continuing through Sunday and Monday. The film was produced and directed by George Stevens, maker of "Woman of the Year" and "Penny Serenade." Irwin Shaw and Sidney Buchman, author of "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" and other sensationally successful films, penned the screen play for "The Talk of the Town," whose supporting cast includes Edgar Buchanan, Glenda Farrell and Tom Tyler.

With so important a cast and behind-the-camera crew, "The Talk of the Town" naturally became one of Hollywood's favorite topics of conversation from the moment production started. When filmdom finally saw the picture, "The Talk of the Town" immediately became the talk of the town! "Sneak preview" audiences outdid themselves in praising the performances of the stars, in applauding the masterful story and entertainment-wise direction.

"The Talk of the Town," presenting its star trio with roles of equal and valuable merit, is reported to be a motion picture made for laughter, and for excitement. Grant is seen as a likable guy whose zeal for his fellowmen sets the officialdom of his town against him, so that he is unjustly accused of arson and murder. Escaping from jail, he takes refuge in the country cottage rented by Colman, who is cast as a bearded law school dean, dignified and impractical, a man convinced that the theory of the law is of sole importance; its practice is not his concern. Miss Arthur is the town gossip's favorite target, a warm-hearted, lovable young woman who aids Grant in his refuge, and joins with him in attempting to convince Colman that the theory and the practice must go hand in hand. When that idea finally is realized, Colman swings into determined action in his effort to prevent a miscarriage of justice.

And, through it all, there is said to run a thread of solid romance which leaves "The Talk of the Town" wonderfully since then.

Mr. Crosby has two sons living in Lubbock, George and Trent Crosby.

In commenting about the "good old days" back in 1914 and thereabouts, Mr. Crosby said "I wish I knew of another country just like this was then—I would be going there."

Cyclones And Air Raids Not Worrying Spade Couple Now

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hutchins of the Spade community recently completed the construction of a new bedroom at their farm home. The new bedroom is in the cellar, which is 14 feet by 15 feet in size.

The cellar is plastered on the interior, and the walls are painted white, and is completely furnished with two beds, dresser, chest of drawers, small table and a rocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins witnessed a cyclone in that community last year, and property on their farm was damaged. A two-room house was completely blown away, and the barns and all out-houses were heavily damaged. The cyclone seemed to "step over" their home.

Since that time Mrs. Hutchins has sought refuge in the cellar every night . . . and Mr. Hutchins decided a new cellar should be dug, and furnished properly, if

With South Plains Men In The Service

D. W. Holliday, Jr., who was a private in the U. S. Army, stationed at Camp Callan, Calif., recently wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Holliday, the following interesting letter:

"Dear Folks,

"How's everybody tonight? Just received your letter this afternoon. I have some good news, at least it is good news to me. I am leaving the third for Santa Ana to begin my training as an aviation cadet. Hoo-ray at last the time has come. It will take at least two weeks for my classification. That is to see whether I'm to be a pilot, bombardier or navigator, or maybe nothing. I still think I can make it, though. If I study hard."

"A fellow here from Austin and myself went to Santa Ana and Los Angeles last night, and spent most of our time talking to cadets. They all liked it fine, and said it should be easy for us, because of our former service here.

"I really enjoyed my trip up there and boy is that Los Angeles a big place. I could get lost there and never know it. We went out to the Hollywood canteen. I imagine you have read about it. It's run by movie stars and they put on free shows all time for the boys. I'll try to name some of the ones I saw, but it seemed as though they were all there. Bettye Davis is the manager and she was the first one I saw when I went in. Olivia de Havilland was serving the refreshments, and I mean that girl is beautiful, no joking, she is. Mary Astor, Marlene Dietrich, Kay Francis, James Gleason, Robert Armstrong, Leon Errol, Edgar Kennedy, were all there mixing in with the boys, and all seemed to be pretty swell people. Bob Burns was the best of all, though. He was just as natural and homely as anybody could be. I really enjoyed being around him. Kay Kyser and his orchestra were there, so was Ferde Groffa (I think that is the way you spell it). Tell Bettye he played his own composition of "On the Trail" from the "Grand Canyon Suite." You know—the Philip Morris theme song. Also Maril Gras from the Mississippi Suite.

Kay Kyser and his bunch didn't play any, but most of them had something to say. They let about two hundred service men in at once, put on a show, serve refreshments (all soft drinks) then let them out and bring some more in. It was really swell and was the best time I have had since I've been in the Army. After we left the canteen we went to Earl Carroll's restaurant theatre. Boy, was that a swanky place. They treat all service men swell, though, and even though our tickets called for standing room only, they found a table for us. Happy Felton was master of ceremonies and they put on a good clean show. We thought it might be a little dirty but it wasn't. The show there lasted for three hours and was worth every bit of $1.65. It cost civilians $3.35 and all they go for is to see other people, and to be seen themselves. Earl Carroll gave us tickets to attend the broadcast this evening of the "Great Gildersleeve," but we didn't stay over that long. It was four this morning when we got out so we caught the bus and came home. We got here about 9:30 and I have been asleep ever since.

"When we get to Santa Ana, we won't be allowed away from the squadron for 42 days, so we thought we should take one more trip before we jetted down to real business.

"I suppose I have said enough for this time, so I'll close. I don't suppose there is any use of you all writing me anymore here, after about next Friday. I won't be a private anymore after the first of November, and my seventy-five starts then, too.

"Good night and lots of love,
"DUB."

Migratory Workers May Operate Trucks

Migratory farm workers who use trucks in traveling from job to job and who are away from home are requested to contact the District Office of the Office of Defense Transportation on the proper procedure to procure their certificates of War Necessity.

There are many such workers in this district who are planning to leave their jobs and return home in the fear that they would be unable to operate their trucks after November 15.

Everything possible will be done to expedite the handling of these applications so that trucks used by migratory workers will not be forced off the road. It will not be necessary for these workers to leave their jobs and return home in order to obtain a certificate. This would only be a waste of time and rubber and would probably delay rather than expedite the issuance of the certificates.

Any migratory worker who has not received his application should contact either the County Agent in the county in which he is at present domiciled or the District Office at 623 Lubbock National building, Lubbock, for detailed information.

Registration—

to fill out the application, however, is the list of serial numbers on every tire which you own for that vehicle.

The serial numbers are the indented numbers on the tire walls. They are not to be confused with any raised numbers appearing on the tires. In case the serial numbers have been obliterated, only the branch name of the tire need be listed.

The rationing board urges car owners with more than five tires for each vehicle to dispose of these excess tires at once, since the school house registrar cannot issue a mileage ration book to any applicant who lists more than five tires. Excess tires can be sold to the Government through the local office of the Railway Express Agency.

In an interview with Supt. F. A. Hemphill Tuesday, he said that in case the school is in session, and there is every reason to believe it will be, a number of teachers will be assigned to the job of gasoline rationing registration. However, it is possible that the school board will feel it is necessary to dismiss for the time needed to perform the task of registering car owners under the rationing program.

Only basic ration books will be issued by the school house registrars. Motorists with car registration cards and properly filled out application forms will be issued "A" books providing for 240 miles of driving a month.

No supplemental rations will be issued at this registration time. So don't ask the registrar for any. However, anyone who feels he will need more mileage than the basic book provides may ask the registrar for an application form for a supplemental ration.

This form is to be filled out later and presented to a local war price and rationing board. The board will issue a supplemental ration only after a careful examination of the applicant's need for additional mileage and his plans for car sharing.

Applicants for basic rations should go to the school house registration site nearest their homes.

Farmers Urged—

The county has been divided into 14 communities, each community electing three representatives, making a total of 42 community committeemen for 1943. This also means that at the community meetings held November 13, 14 delegates will be elected to attend the County Convention, which will be held at the AAA office, Amherst, November 14, and three county committeemen for 1943 will be elected.

Bain also stated that the county has been divided into three equal parts, and that a county committeeman will be selected for each district, in order to provide fair and equal representation.

Every producer who participates in the agricultural conservation program in eligible to attend his community meeting, and cast his vote. It is very important that farmers attend and take part in these community meetings.

training in radio at Scott Field, Ill., he was transferred to Los Vegas, Nevada, where he was employed as radio operator until he decided he wanted to be a flyer, and signed up for cadet training. He was sent to Nashville, Tenn., to take cadet training, and is now stationed at Santa Ana, Calif., taking his primary training as a cadet.

Lieut. Landrum wrote his mother that he would have his choice of either going to Fort Worth or Del Rio as an instructor in flying, or into actual combat. He hadn't then decided which course he would take.

The Landrum family received a very neat announcement by Moore Field Advanced Flying School of the graduation of class 42-J, the back of which is blue leather, bearing the cut of a bomber plane, and tied with tan leather lacing.

Full information on the present cotton situation and the prospective demand for cotton next year will be provided farmers eligible to vote in the referendum, Slaughter, said.

TAKING MILITARY TRAINING

LUBBOCK.—Three R.O.T.C. units on Texas Technological College campus now have an enrollment of 687 students. Since the outbreak of war a special training unit and signal corps unit have been organized in addition to the engineering unit which has been in existence for a number of years.

Program Explained—

all persons going to register must be sure to list the serial numbers of the tires they are keeping absolutely accurately, because in 60 days time everyone must go to a government inspection station and have their tires inspected to see that they are being taken care of; that wheels are in line, etc., for preservation purposes. The numbers, he said, will be checked, and must correspond with the original application.

Among those present were: members of the Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board, C. O. Griffin, chairman, and J. H. Wells of Littlefield; and Guy Willis of Olton; and members of the Gasoline Mileage Panel, recently elected to assist the county board in administering the gasoline rationing program. Members of this Gasoline Mileage Panel are: Jess Elms, J. O. Garlington, J. M. Stokes and Floyd Coffman of Littlefield; Jack Straw, Olton; E. E. Stagner of Amherst; and Joe Salem of Sudan.

The plant, which was placed in operation in September, is equipped with a 10,000-horsepower giant turbine which adds 30 per cent generating capacity to the already adequate supply of power being generated by other plants located at strategic points over the territory.

The new line from Littlefield to Levelland connects with lines from the plant at Denver City.

The "T," or transport, rations to trucks are to be granted by the local boards to holders of ODT certificates of war necessity as soon as the rationing forms are available.

OPA has asked the regional offices, however, to proceed on schedule with the registration in all areas where the forms and books have been received.

Effect of the rationing postponement on "A" book holders in the presently unrationed area will be to give them a gasoline bonus of slightly more than one coupon's worth. No ration coupons will be removed from the "A" books to allow for the change of dates.
